Educationally Deprived"

$41,727 program to assist 214 students

Final approval of the Texas Educational Agency was received Monday to launch a $41,727 program, financed entirely by federal aid, to give 214 "educationally deprived" students of Post schools extra instruction during the current spring semester and in a 12-week half-day course this summer.

The "educationally deprived students," ranging from first grade through high school, are defined as students whose attitude and performance is below their potentials.

Supt. Bill Shiver drew up the unique educational program after surveying local schools to determine the extent of students being educationally deprived. Before signing the program, he also canvassed the entire school faculty for teachers' suggestions on the program.

"I SINCERELY hope it will help youngsters," Shiver told The Dispatch. He said he hoped to get a spring semester program underway here within 10 days.

The project, which Shiver entitled "A program designed to remedy the deficiencies of the educationally deprived youth in the school district," was made possible by a bill passed last year by the U. S. Congress as a part of President Johnson's "war on poverty."

The Post schools last spring under the new law were allocated approximately $45,000 in federal funds, providing use for the funds are approved by the Texas Educational Agency as meeting federal requirements.

THE NEW educational program divided into three parts: First, $12,850 of the $41,727.86 will be spent for additional educational equipment and instructional materials for the Post schools. Second, approved, the program calls for $4,450 to be spent on such equipment as record players, tape recorders, movie projectors, and controlled readers. The remaining $24,427.86 will be spent for such instructional materials as teaching supplies, records, film strips, program learning materials, workbooks, text books, and library books. Of the $8,400, $4,654 will go for textbooks and library books, Shiver said.

Second, additional instruction will be provided for the 214 students involved in 30 minute to one hour sessions before and after regular school hours during the current spring semester.

ment of a remedial reading teacher for the first three grades, with the teacher's salary to be paid entirely from federal funds. He will select a member of the current faculty who is familiar with the students and the local situation to serve as remedial teacher and then employ a replacement teacher to take over the former classroom assignment of the new remedial teacher.

The remedial teacher will devote her full time this semester to helping students with remedial reading.

The superintendent then will employ ten additional teachers, all selected from the present school faculty, to work with the "educationally deprived" student before

Funeral services for Mrs. K. Stoker, 78, a resident of Post since 1927, who died early Sunday at her home at 802 West Main, were conducted at 2 p. m. Tuesday at the First Christian Church, of which she was a member.

Mrs. Stoker had been ill for several months.

She was born Lottie McFall on July 9, 1887, in Breckenridge, and was married there to K. Stoker on May 10, 1904.

Last rites for Mrs. K. Stoker conducted here

The couple started ranching in Stephens County in 1906, later moving to Abilene and then to Pomeroy, Calif., where they owned ranching interests at both places. Mr. Stoker purchased a ranch near Post in 1921 and six years later the family moved to the ranch from Pomeroy.

Mr. and Mrs. Stoker moved into Post in 1950 after building their present home here.

Mrs. Stoker was active in the First Christian Church, of which she was a longtime member, as long as her health permitted.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Willard Kirkpatrick of Post; a brother, R. E. McFall of Abilene; two grandsons, Kay W. and Jack Kirkpatrick, both of Post, and eight grandchildren.

Bernard S. Ramsey, minister of the First Christian Church, officiated at the funeral services.

The Post Music Club chorus sang two numbers at the service, "Have Thine Own Way, O Lord" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," accompanied at the organ at Winnie Tuffing.

Interment was in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Hudman Funeral Home. Pallbearers were James Taylor, Giles Dalby, Ronnie Boucher, Mitchell Malouf Jr., Jack Lott, Larry Merriman, Bill Taylor and Lee W. Davis Jr.

National Electric Week talk made to Lions

Members of the Post Lions Club heard a National Electric Week talk by Glen Bartley, local manager of Southwestern Public Service Co. at their meeting Tuesday night.

Bartley gave substantially the same talk he had made the same day at the Rotary Club luncheon.

Lion President Jim Jackson presented the club with two plaques it has won through 100 per cent participation in the Texas Lions Crippled Children's Camp at Kerrville. The Post club was one of four in its district to receive the plaques.

Rites set today for Mr. Stewart

Last rites for Virgil N. Stewart, 77, a resident of Garza County since 1918, were to be conducted at 2 p. m. Thursday in the First Methodist Church.

Mr. Stewart, a retired farmer, died Tuesday morning in a local nursing home after a lengthy illness.

He was born Sept. 16, 1888, in Grayson County and moved here in 1918 from Montague County, farming in the Graham community until 1945, when he moved to Post. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

Survivors include five daughters, Mrs. Helen Ammons of Lawndale, Calif., Mrs. Mae Norman of Tahoka, Mrs. Joy Huffaker of Wilson and Mrs. Audrey Rolan and Mrs. Janet Hall, both of Post; four sons, Woodrow of Brownfield, Edsel of Lawndale, Calif., J. B. of Butte, Mont., and Melvin Stewart of Post.

Also a half-brother, Grady Stewart, who lives in Oklahoma; two half-sisters, Mrs. Charlie Rogers of Post and Mrs. Albert Woods of Farmington, N. M.; 25 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Douglas Gossett, Methodist minister from Hart, officiated at the funeral services.

Burial was in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Mason Funeral Home.

DISPATCH PICTURES LOST IN THE MAIL

Notice anything different about today's front page? Well, it has no pictures on it—the first time that has happened to a Dispatch front page since Heck was a pup.

Our pictures, including two made at Saturday night's Post High School choir banquet, were lost in the mail someplace between here and Snyder, where the Dispatch engraving is made.

We've had pictures delayed before between here and Snyder, but this is the first time we've had any lost.

The choir pictures will appear in next Thursday's Dispatch—if they show up between now and then.

County and city call for votes on project here

City and county voters will go to the polls the same day — Tuesday, March 1 — to decide the airport issue in two separate special elections.

The airport proposal is for construction of an $88,248 city-county airport with the federal and state governments paying $56,124 of the cost.

The two special elections would authorize both the city and county to provide $16,100 each for their respective shares of the project.

The county and city established the March 1 election date in separate court and council action Friday and Monday respectively.

The county proposition would provide for the issuance of $16,100 in bonds for its airport share. County Judge J. E. Parker estimated that such a small bond issue would cost taxpayers only 3 1/2 cents per $100 valuation for five years with the possibility of a payout in four years.

The county commissioners' court action setting the election came at a special meeting at 10 a. m. last Friday at which the court was presented with a petition signed by 192 voters asking that such an election be called.

Presenting the petition were Victor Hudman, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce airport committee, and Tom Gamblin and Dave Sanford, committee members.

The court action to call the election was unanimous, with Commissioner Ben Sanchez absent.

Its notice of the election, setting

Whether Post and Garza County together build a small modern airport as a progressive stride into the future is going to be determined at the polls Tuesday, March 1.

If you're a voting reader, please give it some thought. Because it is going to be your decision.

A cross section of this community — 300 men, women, and students — started the airport project back in April, 1964, at the Chamber of Commerce sponsored Community Workshop.

The federal government will provide half the cost, up to $44,124 in total. The state will give another $12,000. These are grants, not loans. But to take advantage of this $56,124 the town and county must act within some narrow time limits — the first of which is the end of March.

The city council is convinced it can pay its $16,100 share out of oil revenues over the next five years with no increase in anybody's taxes. The county would go the bond issue route — but it would be a mighty small bond issue, $16,100 worth, which could be paid out in five years or possibly less at a cost of only 3 1/2 per $100 valuation.

Last rites held here Monday for B. W. Kennedy

Funeral services for B. W. (Doc) Kennedy, 85, a resident of Post and Garza County since 1901, who died suddenly at his home here about 12:15 p. m. last Friday, were conducted at 2 p. m. Monday at the First Baptist Church.

Mr. Kennedy, who lived at 121 North M Ave., died of an apparent heart attack.

Born Feb. 15, 1879, in Collins County, he came to what is now Garza County in 1901 from Jones County and was employed by the old Spur Ranch before going into farming and ranching for himself.

Mr. Kennedy was married to Miss Lela Luman here in April of 1963, the couple having purchased their marriage license at Gail in Loden County. Their wedding ceremony was one of the earliest performed in what is now Garza County.

Mr. Kennedy was summoned to serve on the first federal grand jury ever impaneled in Lubbock.

He had been retired from farming and ranching for a number of years at the time of his death.

Survivors include his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Willie Cross of Post and Mrs. Bertie Nichols of Anaheim, Calif.; three sons, L. P., Jack and James Kennedy, all of Post; one brother, L. P. Kennedy of Post; one sister, Mrs. Jess Hamilton of Abilene; 12 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Joe Vernon, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and the Rev. Clarence Stephens, pastor of the First Methodist Church, officiated at the funeral services.

Burial was in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Hudman Funeral Home. Grandsons of Mr. Kennedy were pallbearers.

MEXICAN FOOD SALE

As a part of their Boy Scout Week observance, members of Troop 315 will sell Mexican food here Saturday. Orders may be placed by telephoning 2791 or 3059.

The Scouts will sell tamales for $1.25 a dozen; tacos, $1 a dozen, and enchiladas, $1 a dozen.

Saturday, Feb. 19 George Washington Birthday Sale set

Post's third annual George Washington Birthday Sale, sponsored by the Post Chamber of Commerce and local merchants, will be held Saturday, Feb. 19.

Details for the town-wide promotion were worked out yesterday afternoon by the Chamber's new 1966 retail promotions committee in a meeting at Judy's Cafe.

The Chamber will pay for general promotion advertising by both newspaper and radio as a part of its retail promotions budget for the forth the 12 polling places and stating the proposition to appear upon the ballot, appears on page 4 of today's Dispatch.

The city council in an unanimous action at its regular February meeting Monday night called this election also for March 1.

The ordinance calling for the referendum election provides that voters must approve the issuance of time warrants for payment of the city's $16,100 airport share.

However, the wording of the city airport proposition was aimed at meeting legal requirements for the city's participation. Actually, Mayor Harold Lucas pointed out that the council has agreed that the city's $16,100 share of airport construction can be paid out of the city budget over the next five years with no tax increase, through use of a portion of oil tax revenue.

The city's notice of election appears on page 10 of today's Dispatch.

Eligible city voters — who have paid their 1966 poll taxes, own taxable property within the city and have rendered it for taxation — actually will have to vote twice on March 1 in different polling places if they want to participate in both city and county elections.

They will cast their city ballots in city hall and their county ballots in the box of the county side.

The city and county have two deadlines to meet in accepting state and federal funds approved for the airport project. They must accept the state money by the last day of March and the much larger federal grant — half of the total airport costs — by the end of June.

The Post Chamber of Commerce made the airport its No. 1 project for 1965 and it was during this period that both state and federal aid was secured.

Actually, the Chamber has been at work on the airport project since the project moved to the community forefront in a community workshop held here in April of 1964 in which 300 Garza citizens offered suggestions on local needs.

general election fight for U. S. senator.

John Tower, Republican candidate for re-election as U. S. senator, will be opposed in the general election by both an independent and the winner in a two-man Democratic primary race.

The independent is Ronnie Dugger of Austin, editor and general manager of the Texas Observer, a liberal bi-weekly. He gave notice of intent to run as an independent in filing with the secretary of state.

Candidates for the Democratic nomination in the U. S. Senate race are Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr and John R. (Jack) Willoughby of Houston.

Gov. John Connally will face primary opposition from Stanley Woods, 43-year-old Houston oil and gas producer, and Johnnie Mae Hackworth, 61-year-old "prophetess." T. E. Kennerly, Houston attorney, is the Republican candidate.

The big primary race will feature Secretary of State Crawford Martin against two current state senators, Franklin Spears of San Antonio and Galloway Calhoun Jr. (See Political Races, page 8)

Thirty-Ninth Year Post, Garza County, Texas Thursday, February 10, 1966 Number 37

Whether Post and Garza County together build a small modern airport as a progressive stride into the future is going to be determined at the polls Tuesday, March 1.

If you're a voting reader, please give it some thought. Because it is going to be your decision.

To us, it looks like a tremendous bargain. Such an airport would have uses benefitting us all. For industry, it would permit personnel to fly in for visits to our mill and for oil men to fly in from Houston on oil developments. For the farmer, it would permit spray planes to protect him from the boll weevil. For all of us, it would be there to serve in times of sudden emergency when life or death, due to sickness or injury, put your life or mine in the balance of how quickly a person could be flown out to a specialist, or help flown in.

Community leadership has worked hard to make this possible by securing federal and state grants to pay almost 64 per cent of the cost. It's all been done with the thought in mind that for this com-

Rotary Club to sponsor mobile x-ray unit here

The Post Rotary Club will sponsor the Lubbock County mobile chest x-ray unit for a one-day appearance in Post in the near future.

The club voted Tuesday to sponsor the unit which will x-ray all students and adults who so desire.

The club also voted at its weekly luncheon to sponsor a trophy for the Junior Livestock show next month.

First county Republican candidate files

Contests shape up in four political races

Monday's candidate filing deadline in Garza County found contests in two county-wide and two precinct races, with candidates for two other county-wide and one precinct race unopposed in their bids for re-election.

The Monday deadline also saw the filing of the first county candidate on the Republican ticket in Garza County's history. He is Max Chaffin, who filed for county judge with County Republican Chairman Earl Chapman.

Six Democratic candidates are seeking the Democratic nomination for county judge, including the present office-holder, J. E. Parker, who filed Monday afternoon with County Democratic Chairman N. C. Outlaw.

The other candidates for county judge, in the order they filed, are A. C. Cooke, John N. Hopkins, E. E. (Elva) Peel, Ozell Williams and Wesley W. Stephens.

The other county-wide race in which there will be a contest is the one for county treasurer, where Faye Cockerill, the incumbent, is opposed by June Peel and Pauline Coleman.

There are three candidates in each of the two county commissioner precincts in which elections are to be held this year.

In Precinct 2, A. P. (Chuk) Gurley, candidate for re-election, is opposed by Ted L. Aten and G. A. (Buck) Harrison.

Mason Justice, seeking re-election as Precinct 4 commissioner, has opponents in Herbert Walls of Post and Bob Tidwell of Justiceburg.

County candidates who are unopposed for re-election are Dean A. Robinson for county school superintendent; Carl Cederholm for county clerk and D. C. Roberts for justice of the peace, Precinct 1.

The only district candidate with an opponent is Renal B. Rosson of Snyder, who is seeking re-election as state representative, 74th District. Rep. Rosson's opponent is Gene Newton, a 30-year-old Snyder school teacher.

Unopposed for re-election are George Mahon, U. S. Congress, 19th District; David Ratliff, state senate, 24th District, and Truett Smith, district judge, 106th Judicial District.

Pauline Coleman for treasurer

Pauline Coleman today authorized The Post Dispatch to announce her candidacy for the office of county treasurer of Garza County, subject to the Democratic primary election May 7. Mrs. Coleman's statement follows:

"I take this means of announcing my candidacy for the office of county treasurer.

"I enter the race with the full knowledge that I will be in competition with two very worthy opponents.

"I seek this office on the basis of my need and on my sincere desire to be of service to this county and this community, which has been my home for many years. If elected, I will make every effort to carry out the duties of the office to the best of my ability.

"My intentions are to see each of you before the election, but if unable to do so, I will appreciate any support and influence you can give me."

Three terms expiring

April 5 date set for city election

The Post city council voted to call an airport referendum for March 1, and called the annual city election for April 5 in two of the more important items on the agenda at its regular February meeting Monday night.

The council's action in calling the airport referendum is covered in a separate story on page one of today's Dispatch.

The council also heard two protests on the Broadway "no parking" extensions; heard a six-month operating report by City Supt. E. A. Warren; voted to run a water line to the Junior Livestock Association project; voted to lease two wells in the city water field to farmers, and recommended that employees of the city's sanitation and street departments take tetanus shots on a voluntary basis.

Three councilmen are to be elected in the city election called for Tuesday, April 5. Terms expiring are those of Claud Collier Jr., Arnold Parrish and Wesley Scott. Collier moved away from the city about two months ago.

Candidates for the three council positions to be filled are required to file with Wanda Wilkerson, city clerk, not later than 30 days before the election, which places the filing deadline at March 5.

The council appointed T. L. Jones as election judge and also as election judge for the airport referendum March 1.

Mrs. Inez Norris, owner of the Rocket Cafeteria at 214 North Broadway, and Morris Tyler, manager of United Super Market at 122 North Broadway, appeared before the council to protest the recent one-half block extension of the no-parking zones on North Broadway (U. S. Highway 84).

Mrs. Norris said, in effect, that the no-parking ordinance and the number of parking violation tickets being given customers is hurting the cafeteria's business.

The cafeteria owner told the council that there are no-parking signs at each end of the block, but none in front of the cafeteria, which is near the center of the block. She indicated to the council that many of the customers parking in front of the cafeteria are unaware that they are violating the ordinance until they are given a ticket.

Asked by one of the councilmen if she thought a no-parking sign in the middle of the block would help the situation, Mrs. Norris replied that she was sure it would.

The city superintendent said the no-parking signs had been placed but that he felt it would be all right to place one of the signs in front of the cafeteria.

As directed by the State Highway Department...

The super market manager's complaint was that trucks stopping here during the store's business hours were pulling into the store's parking lot after seeing the no-parking signs on the highway.

"I've had to ask them to move on, because if I let them stay it would hurt my business," Tyler said.

Mrs. Norris told the council that the Rocket Motel across the street from the cafeteria also is losing business because of the no-parking ordinance. She said she was speaking for the motel owner, who was unable to appear before the council Monday night as he had planned.

Mayor Harold Lucas and the council explained to Mrs. Norris and Tyler that the ordinances setting up the original no-parking zones on Broadway and the recent extensions had been passed at the request of the highway department.

Councilman Bob Collier said, "We were thinking of you people when we passed the ordinances at the highway department's request."

Collier predicted that in a few years from now the highway will be re-routed to miss the town's business section and that repeal of the no-parking ordinances requested by the highway department could well speed up the action.

Police court fines in January total $415

City corporation court fines collected in January totaled $415, according to Police Chief Leldon P. Miller's monthly report to the city council Monday night.

Traffic fines accounted for $48 of the total, with the rest coming from fines for drunk, disturbing the peace, etc.

Twenty-nine traffic tickets were given in January. Thirteen of these were for parking violations, seven for failure to grant right-of-way, three for running stop signs, two for no driver's license, and one each for failure to leave information, failure to dim lights, reckless driving and loud muffler.

Boy Scout Week; leaders needed

"We have the boys; all we need is more adult leaders," said Dr. B. E. Young, Boy Scout commissioner, this week in discussing Boy Scout Week at the local level.

The Post community goes into Boy Scout Week, Feb. 7-12, with three Boy Scout troops, two Explorer posts and one Cub Scout pack.

Dr. Young said reorganization of at least two of the Scout units is coming up soon and that, as always, adult leaders are needed to serve as scoutmasters and assistant scoutmasters.

The three Boy Scout troops are 315, sponsored by the Holy Cross Catholic Church; 316, sponsored by the Post Rotary Club and 319, sponsored by the First Presbyterian Church. The two explorer posts are sponsored by the Methodist and Catholic churches and the Cub Scout pack by the Methodist Church.

Volunteer adult leaders can be used in practically all phases of Scouting in the Post community, and Dr. Young sees Boy Scout Week as a good time for them to step forward and volunteer their services.

With a Boy Scout installation such as Camp Post at our very doorstep, the Scouting program here should be more active than it is. The biggest reason that it isn't, as pointed out by the local Boy Scout commissioner, is because of a scarcity of adult leaders.

"Breakthrough for Youth" is the theme for the 1966 Boy Scout Week. This year marks the 56th anniversary of Scouting and during that period the program has affected the lives of more than 40 million boys and men. Total active enrollment at this time is over 5 1/2 million.

Scout units are sponsored by religious, school, civic and other community organizations who are chartered to use the Scout program. Basically, the program is divided into three levels, based on age, beginning with the Cub program for young boys, followed by the Boy Scout program and ultimately the Explorer program for older boys.

Primary objectives of the program are to encourage the ability of boys to do things for themselves and others, by training them in Scoutcraft, and by teaching them patriotism, courage, self-reliance and kindred virtues.

The Boy Scouts of America deserve the recognition, support and thanks of all of us during their anniversary week.—CD

'Operation Sparkle'—an invitation

Post is being invited through its Chamber of Commerce to take part in the All-West Texas Cities Contest, "Operation Sparkle in '68," which is being sponsored by the Tourist Development Committee of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Operation Sparkle is a broad two-year program of community improvement, aimed at attracting visitors and influencing them to: 1. Stop and visit; 2. Stay longer.

Why, you may ask, is the West Texas Chamber of Commerce sponsoring this contest? If that is your question, here is the answer:

Texas, in 1968, will have the greatest inflow of visitors in its history. The two principal attractions will be San Antonio's HemisFair and the Olympics in Mexico City. Many meetings of national significance will also be held in 1968. Rotary International will hold its annual meeting in Mexico City, and Lions International is scheduled for Dallas. At least one Texas city is considering a strong bid for both the Democratic and Republican national conventions. Other meetings of national and international significance are sure to be scheduled.

These 1968 attractions will mean tourists in droves driving through Post and other West Texas towns and cities. Many of them will stop, some for just a meal, others over-night. Some might even stay longer, as the West Texas Chamber of Commerce indicates, if they find a town appealing enough.

The contest runs from Jan. 1, 1966, to Dec. 31, 1967—two full years. A town can enter by planning and participation in projects, events, and attractions designed to make their town more attractive and appealing.

Steps suggested by the WTCC in getting started on Operation Sparkle are as follows:

Step 1. Call a town-hall meeting. Invite members from every service, social and fraternal organization and representatives from every local political subdivision. Explain in depth the Operation Sparkle program and the All-West Texas Cities contest.

Step 2. Organize enough committees to cover the broad range of projects that will be proposed for the community improvement program. They can probably be grouped under the general headings of (a) Downtown Committee; (b) Residential Committee; (c) Parks and Recreation Committee; (d) Special Events Committee; (e) Rural Activities Committee; (f) Screening or Projects Committee; (g) Scrapbook Committee.

It sounds like, and is, an ambitious program, and would take a lot of work to succeed. But it would be well worth it to Post or to any other town or city. It has been said that when a visitor drives through a strange city, "The First Impression is the Lasting Impression."—CD

MONDAY IS St. Valentine's Day, and the Post High School choir's Sweetheart Banquet at the City Hall Saturday night helped put a lot of people in the mood for the holiday.

Theme of the banquet, which was the choir's first, was "With a Song in My Heart." Along with a number of other "visitors," I heard part of the banquet program from the top of the stairs while waiting to take a picture of "Mr. and Miss Choir."

THE DECORATIONS were beautiful — If you'll pardon such an expression this far away from the society page — and the person responsible for them, Mrs. Mary Raphael, received the plaudits of the banquet crowd.

Billy Jack Hodges, master of ceremonies, had Mrs. Raphael stand again following the introductions, then gave her credit for "designing and executing" the decorations, and presented her with a gift on behalf of the choir. But that wasn't all. The choir members seated around the tables then sang the song, "Mary." Mrs. Raphael responded with, "This is one of the most exciting moments of my life."

All the basketball fans are looking forward to Friday night's game at Denver City, and despite the distance — nearly 100 miles — there'll more than likely be a large delegation of Post fans attend. I heard one fan say that even if Denver City wins, the race could end in a tie, giving the Antelopes a chance to win the play-off on a neutral court. I don't believe it'll be that complicated. I think the Antelopes will beat Denver City on the Mustangs' own court Friday night to win outright their first district championship since the 1959-60 season.

BECAUSE OF THE complicated method of determining on which day Easter falls each year, some people stay confused from one year to the next. Well, this year, Easter Sunday falls on April 10—I've just learned.

The agriculture teacher, one of my readers tells me, saw an advertisement in a farmers' almanac for a potato-bug kit for "only $1 plus 25 cents postage. Guaranteed to kill potato bugs ruining your crop."

Wanting to keep up with all the latest developments, the teacher sent off for the kit. Soon he received a box in the mail, and upon opening it he found only two small wooden blocks with the following instructions: "Place potato bug on Block A. Pound vigorously with Block B. Guaranteed results or your money back."

ONE OF MY most faithful readers asked Friday if my reference in last Thursday's column to my "dog-eared" set of encyclopedias was meant to let people know that I'd dog-eared the set by over-use. No, ma'am, I don't believe in showing off my erudition any more than I do my ignorance. The encyclopedias are dog-eared because they're of 1913 vintage and were already that way when I purchased them second-hand in 1952.

I asked an old-timer what he thought about the Associated Press feature story on tumbleweeds that appeared in Sunday's newspapers. He said he read the story and agreed with everything in it except where Hugh Taylor Sr. of Snyder said tumbleweeds first appeared in the Snyder area after the 1917-18 drought. "Shucks, I'd seen tumbleweeds around here several years before that drought," the old-timer said. He agreed with the part of the story that gave the Russians credit for introducing the tumbleweed seed to the United States. "They're claiming everything else, so we might as well give them credit for the tumbleweed," he said.

AND NOW THAT the Russians have made the first soft-landing on the moon, the first men to land on the lunar surface might find tumbleweeds tumbling all over the place.

Farmers invited to Feb. 24 session

All farmers interested in Treflan, weed killer for cotton, are invited to a meeting at the 4-H building here next Thursday night, Feb. 24, beginning at 7:30 p. m.

The event is sponsored by Gayland Kinard and Hershel Bevers, who sell Treflan in this area.

Enrollment cards for medical insurance have been sent eligible

LUBBOCK — Everyone 65 or older who gets social security or railroad retirement benefits has received an enrollment card for the medical insurance part of health insurance, popularly known as Medicare, according to John G. Hutton, social security district manager in Lubbock.

Many people have marked the card, signed their names and returned it. Others may have put the card aside, intending to make their decision later. Mr. Hutton suggested that these people get in touch with their social security offices if they would like more information about health insurance.

If the enrollment card has been misplaced or lost, the social security office at Lubbock can provide another. It is very important that you make a decision, Mr. Hutton added. If you were 65 or over Jan. 1, 1966, you will have medical insurance when the program starts only if you sign up by March 31, 1966.

A representative of the Lubbock Social Security office will be in Post on Monday, Feb. 14, and 28th in the district courtroom at 9 a. m.

Could you guess

what's good about a headache?

If you happen to have one right now, probably all you need is an aspirin. But the fact is: a headache sometimes is a signal. It may be telling you something is wrong . . . perhaps something quite remote from the pain. In this event it's a symptom—valuable information for your physician. So if you have a persistent or recurring headache and don't know why, see your doctor. Don't take a chance. Your physician can probably clear up your problem in short order. Of course, he may say all you need is aspirin—but even that's worth knowing.

Of course, if you didn't have the right insignia on your house you were strictly out of luck and "out of house."

There, now. Wasn't that interesting? We lose a lot of charm with progress. I'd love to have a Green Tree fire sign on my house, and watching a fireman run down the street yelling "fire" would be a lot more exciting than fire trucks and sirens.

One Man Looks At The World ...

Another looks at the world and his heart stirs with hope.

The first has seen only the world itself ... full of evil, injustice, ugliness, pain.

The second has seen more than the world. He has seen God ... Who is not content with the world as it is ... Who offers men the spiritual tools with which to change their earthly environment ... Who promises divine help and lasting reward.

For the man who is tired of scowling at life the Church has a message ... and a mission.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

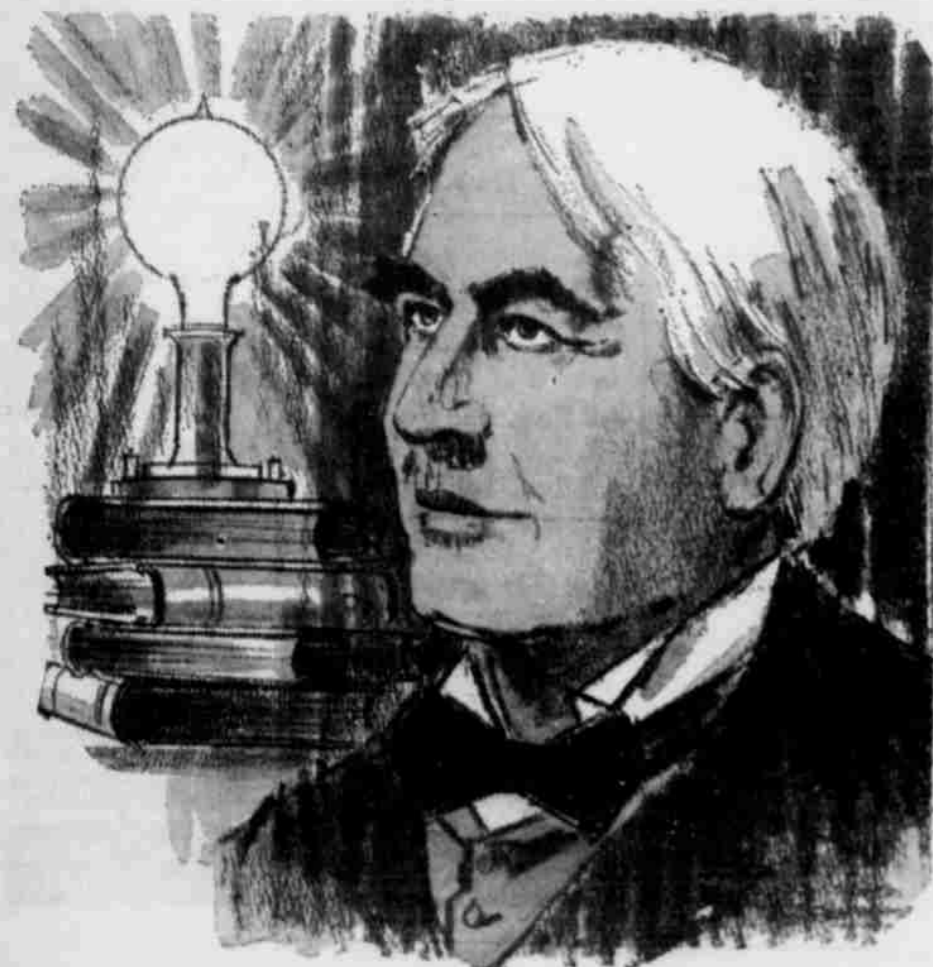

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

★★ SALUTING ★★ THOMAS A. EDISON ★★★ ★★★★★★★★★★★★ -BORN FEBRUARY 11, 1847-

When Thomas Edison, the great American inventor, discovered the electric light almost a century ago, he opened the way for one vital portion of America's 19th century industrial revolution.

Electric power today is not only a vital part of our industrial way of life but our farm way of life as well. As we celebrate National Electric Week this week, Lyntegar Electric Co-op points to its achievements in the ten-county West Texas area it serves.

Today it has over 13,000 connections with 5,000 members in Hockley, Lubbock, Garza, Terry Lynn, Yoakum, Gaines, Dawson, Borden and Martin counties.

Operating about 4,800 miles of lines, Lyntegar constantly is extending additional service into its areas. Some 5,127 irrigation wells are being served at this time, with new ones added throughout the area as the demand is made. Lyntegar currently has a more than $10,000,000 investment in its electrical system.

Herman Dabbs is the director representing an area which includes the Garza County operating area.

Weeks get away fast these days

By MRS. EDMUND WILKE

My goodness, where do the weeks go? Here it is another Monday and for the life of me I can't figure out where last week went! Edmund, Darrell, Sherri, Dayneen and I went to Kingsland and BJ Lake for the weekend and like always, I would have liked to have stayed forever. There is something about that place that draws me like a magnet. We all took our fishing rods along, but I didn't get a chance to get out our hooks in the water. Darrell caught two little ones, and he and the girls explored every inch of the grounds around the place where we stayed. We had planned to stay at the new LBJ Motel, but they were filled up! We visited Bob Pierce, former Southland resident, Saturday night. His wife, Betty Sue (Bastinger) and daughter, Sue Ann, were visiting in Siam and Southland, so we didn't get to see them. They came to attend the open house for Mr. and Mrs. John Leake on their Golden Wedding anniversary.

Robert Mock underwent surgery a week ago Tuesday at West Texas hospital. I haven't heard, but I presume all went well and he is probably home by now.

The Pleasant Valley Gin Company took a group of customers on a fishing trip to Lake Falcon. They left Sunday and will be gone about six days.

A group of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hub Haire have planned a housewarming for them Feb. 13 from 3 until 4:30 p. m. Any of you that would like to visit the Haires and see their new home are welcome. Their address is 905 West 21st St. I haven't seen their home yet, but I have heard that it is just lovely. We are looking forward to seeing it.

WE WOULD like to extend our sympathy to the family of Mrs. Lena Chaffin, who passed away last week and was buried on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Winterrowd of Amarillo visited their son and family, the Paul Winterrowds, Sunday. The H. A. Chilcutts of Lubbock were also guests. Dahlonna Winterrowd was home from South Plains College for the weekend and celebrated her 19th birthday. Her parents celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary Monday. Congratulations, you all!

The Pleasant Valley 4-H girls and their mothers met a week ago Tuesday after school in the home of Mrs. Herbert Dunn. Mrs. James Verman and Mrs. James Shelton have information on changes of the 1966 County Food Show. Mrs. Juanita Gentry, HD agent, assisted with the program. Girls present were Laura and Sue Bevers, Marsha Shelton, Kathy Long, Janis

Belk, Dayneen Dunn, Brenda Kotrola, Tommie Jean Wilson, Irene Martinez and Lupe Cisneros. Mothers and leaders attending were Mmes. Spencer Bevers, Overman, Shelton, Bob Long, Nancy Belk, Jerry Kotrola, Dunn and Gentry.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Myers and Nedra spent Sunday in Lubbock with Mrs. Myers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Hunt.

Stephen J. Myers, son of the Fred Myers, spent several days with the Ned Myers, while his own went to the Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth. Bet you had a lot of fun, didn't you, Stephen?

We would like to extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. John Leake, who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Feb. 6. We were gone and didn't get to attend but heard it was all very nice. When Edmund and I looked at their picture in the paper, we remarked how young they both look. It is hard to realize they have been married 50 years. I think this is one of the most beautiful occasions that two people can celebrate. May they be blessed with many more happy years together.

Southland High School basketball teams will be playing in their district tournament Feb. 10-12 at Shallowater. Both teams lost to Cooper last Friday. Basketball is soon going to be over and I'm just not ready. Seems like we've had a short season. Track and volleyball will start pretty soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hargrove visited in Lockney Sunday with the D. E. and Wilbur Adams. They attended a piano recital of Sonza, daughter of the Wilbur Adams. By the way, Jack and Jean have a telephone now, number 2248. Welcome to the "yak-yak" club, Jean!

Mrs. Bob Dyess entertained a group of ladies in her home last Tuesday with a home appliance party.

After game visitors in our home last Friday night were Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Zieschang, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Gindorf and daughters and Mrs. Libby Schneider. See you next week.

Choir banquet is event of weekend

Saturday, Feb. 5, City Hall was turned into a "sweetheart wonderland" with the theme of the 1966 choir banquet being, "With a Song in My Heart."

The theme was carried out with a red and pink color scheme. At the front of the room was a pink sweetheart tree with red hearts on the limbs. Across from it was a large satin heart to carry out the traditional Valentine symbol. There were pink carnations along the walls with red cupids between them.

The invocation was given by High School Principal T. C. Clark. Billy Jack Hodges, master of ceremonies, introduced members of the Post Music Club, who sang, "Songs of Love," "Fascination," and "If I Love You."

Next, the boys' sextet sang "Wedding Bells Are Breaking up That Old Gang of Mine" and "Barbara Ann." The sextet is composed of Steve White, Davis Heaton, Gregg Jones, Paul Harmon, J. O. Students thank the Edwardses

All the students of Post High School would like to tell Mr. and Mrs. Bill Edwards how much their work is appreciated.

Students of all ages enjoy dancing with the sound of a band. Maxine Edwards has put forth great efforts to have various musical groups, combos or bands to entertain for dances. A problem she is confronted with is chaperones and assistants who take in the money. The people who have chaperoned before are greatly appreciated, too. Maxine has contacted bands all over West Texas. Such as the famous Sparkies from Canyon, the Raiders, the Counts, the Techniques, and Jerry and the Pledges, all of Lubbock. The Imperials and the Avontis, who are from Brownfield. Last but not least, is the Mike Martin Trio plus 1 from Levelland. All these bands are well appreciated and the hard work and effort to get them. Thank you!

ELECTRICITY POWERS PROGRESS!

This is National Electrical Week, marking the 119th anniversary of the birth of Thomas Alva Edison. It was Edison's invention of the first practical incandescent lamp that gave birth to an industry that now employs more than three million men and women, or 1 out of every 20 American workers. Almost every industry owes its progress to the power produced by electricity for, truly, electricity powers progress.

 City Supt. Warren's budget summary report took nearly an hour, but gave the council a comprehensive look at how the city's business is being carried on as it affects the budget.
 The council voted to run a six-inch water line to the junior livestock association project in the northwest part of town. About 2,200 feet of pipe will be required.
 The council was told by Mayor Harold Lucas that a representative of the Farmers Home Administration had told him that the F.H.A. would assist in the cost of the project by paying for what a two-inch line to the site would cost.
 The water line will be laid from South Avenue O and Live Oak Street to the stock association site. Water Supt. Jimmy Holleman told the council that the laying of the new line would make it possible for the city to increase the size of water lines to 11 families in that vicinity from one-inch to two-inch.
 The council voted to lease a city water well on the Wheatley lease to Henry Wheatley and one on the Dalby lease to Red Chandler at $100 a year each. The council also voted to sell two water well houses at $35 each and an old truck chassis in the water field to people who have expressed a desire to buy them.
 The council's recommendation that sanitation and street department employees take tetanus shots was made at the suggestion of Dr. Harry A. Tubbs, city health officer. City Supt. Warren said Dr. Tubbs will give the shots at no cost, with the city furnishing the serum and equipment for giving the shots.
 For the second consecutive month the council took no action on the request of Corporation Court Judge Percy Printz for a $25 a month salary raise. The request was made by Judge Printz through Mayor Lucas.
 City Supt. Warren told the council that Ernest Ameen of Lubbock, owner of the old Ameen Hotel property at the corner of Main and Avenue I, had informed him he would do something about "fixing up" the building as soon as he returns from a business trip to New York. Warren said Ameen told him he would be down in about two weeks to see about it.

BOND ELECTION PLANNED
SLATON — Slaton school trustees have agreed upon preliminary plans for calling a $500,000 bond election for school improvements. The bond issue may be presented to voters late this month or early in March.

Native of England elected in 1907

Job Davies served as Pct. 2 Commissioner

(Editor's Note: In conjunction with the upcoming dedication of the historical marker honoring Garza County's first elected officials. The Dispatch is running a series of articles on the early-day officials. The first one, on Job Davies, first Precinct 2 county commissioner, is written from information compiled by Georgia Nell Wilkes Davies, wife of Garland Davies.)

Job Davies was born Feb. 17, 1850, near Hereford, England, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Davies.
 Job's father, Andrew, was a sea captain, sailing a trade ship between Liverpool, England, and Melbourne, Australia, and was lost at sea. He was away from home most of the time, so his wife enjoyed having someone stay in the home with her. One of these companions of Mrs. Davies was a nurse, Florence Nightingale, a pioneer of the nursing profession.

Three sons, Bob, Will and Job, were born to the Andrew Davies. Bob Davies, who did clerical work, never married and died at an early age. Will Davies came to the United States and worked as a carpenter at Goliad, Tex. He married and reared two sons and one daughter.

Job Davies came to the United States as a young man and worked as a farmer and sheep rancher. After several years, he returned to England and proposed to his English sweetheart, Elizabeth Kettle. She accepted and Job returned to America, later sending for his fiancée. She came to Lampasas, Tex., and waited three days in the old Lampasas Hotel for him to come in from the range. They were married in October 1878.

The couple lived at Paint Rock, Tex., before moving to ranch land he had bought in the vicinity of Southland. Southland at that time was not settled, and Post City was in the early stages of development.

Mr. Davies bought six sections of land near Southland in 1899. His property lines were established through information dug up on top of Duffy's Peak. A bottle with surveying lines had been buried there, this being the only means of establishing land records at that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Job Davies reared nine children—Arthur, Henry, Walter, Ernest, Percy, Elia, Annie, Beata and Nina. Five are still living.

Job Davies served as Garza County's first commissioner for Precinct 2 in 1907.

In the rain battles C. W. Post staged in 1913, the Davies place was used as one of the checking stations for rain gauges.

Job Davies was among those attending when a barbecue honoring Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Post and daughter was held March 16, 1906, on a ranch managed by Jim Clark, 12 miles east of Post.

Job Davies died Jan. 7, 1933, his wife having preceded him in death in April 1908. Both are buried in the Terrace Cemetery here.

When Mr. Davies bought land in this area in 1899, his family was living at Paint Rock, so he and his oldest sons came out and built a house just under the Caprock below the present town of Southland. The location was considered good because of a natural spring of water near the house. The house is not there now, but there is a lake near where the house stood.

Also filing here with the county Democratic chairman prior to the Monday deadline were the following unopposed candidates for the Democratic Executive Committee: County Democratic Chairman: N. C. Outlaw.
 Committeeman, Precinct 1: Charles Didway.
 Committeeman, Precinct 2: E. C. Smallwood.
 Committeeman, Precinct 3: Dale Cravy.

 Committeeman, Precinct 9: Mrs. Billie Cross.
 Committeeman, Precinct 10: W. L. Crider.
 Committeeman, Precinct 11: Minnie Lee Tanner.
 Committeeman, Precinct 12: Vera Browning.

When the house was finished in 1906, Mr. Davies went back to Paint Rock for his family. They moved their personal possessions, a few cows and horses, and started life anew with only $700.

Mr. and Mrs. Davies established the old Bresford Post Office in their home in 1904.
 Grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Job Davies include Curtis and Garland Davies of Post, Elbert Davies of Levelland, Harold Davies of Cisco and Clarence Davies of El Canon, Calif.

to tour your state as a part of our vacation during the summer of 1966."

And now the wide open spaces inquiry:
 "We are particularly interested in primitive camping accessible to a car camper."

Manager B. G. Rogers has some lake fronting spots still as primitive as the glacial age originally dictated; so rocky that helicopters would make a better vehicle of transport. Plus fishing and shade, and rations within walking distance.

They don't have the lake at Palo Duro Canyon State Park in the Panhandle but they have the scenery, as befits Texas' own "Little Grand Canyon." If the guests do need to revert to the wilds, there's some aoudad sheep back land that comes highly recommended. Then, over yonder in the Davis Mountains State Park it's even better recommended.

If those Michiganders want some salt water and sea breezes in their primitive setting, there is Goose Island State Park near Rockport with a scrub brush beach hideaway. Probably more to their back-to-nature craving, there's Boca Chica or Brazos Island State Park at the southern tip of Padre Island offering nothing but unlimited sand and surf, and down Brownsville way.

If those Michigan folks would only ask for something difficult.

ed, cannot be changed, Shiver said. THE SUPERINTENDENT explained that his survey of local students showed that 50 per cent of the 'educationally deprived' students are in the first five grades, 37 per cent in junior high, and only 15 per cent in high school.

For example, in first grade he found 39 of these students on the free school lunch roll, 28 unable to pay fees, and 18 with language problems. In second grade, some 30 students were found retarded in both reading and math. In third grade, 39 students are below at least one grade level in math and reading. In fourth grade, 53 students are one grade below or more in reading and arithmetic reasoning. And so the survey went on up to high school where 36 students had test scores one or more grades behind their grade levels, 28 of these showing a pattern of falling grades.

"WE'VE GOT a tremendous selling job to do to students and parents so the youngsters will be able to take advantage of this special federal program," Shiver declared.

Whether any other schools in this area are embarking on any similar program for the "educationally deprived" isn't known here. This program was designed by Shiver with teacher suggestions. All administrators give of their time in this federal program without compensation.

'Lopes to Denver City Friday for showdown game

Post can clinch title with win

Post Coach Will Bigott's Post Antelopes, leading by one full game in District 4AA basketball race, may play a showdown game with the Denver City Mustangs, coached by L. W. Harkins, on Friday night. The Mustangs have lost only to Post in district play.

The Antelopes can clinch the district championship with a win over the Mustangs, since all the other teams have most more than one game and the Antelopes will have a Feb. 15 game with Fremont, remaining on their schedule.

The Antelopes' chances for a repeat win over the Mustangs were dimmed by a severe blow Monday when they lost to Denver City. The Antelopes' chances for a repeat win over the Mustangs were dimmed by a severe blow Monday when they lost to Denver City.

Denver City brought their conference record to 6-1 Tuesday night with a 68-59 victory over Slaton. Last Friday night, the Mustangs lost a non-conference game to Andrews, a Class AAA team, by four points.

A victory over Denver City Friday night would give the Post their first district championship since Coach Pete Murray's team won the title in 1959-60. This year's Antelope team, with a 20-1 record going into Friday night's game, has the best mark of any team in recent history at Post High School.

The Post and Denver City "B" teams will play a preliminary game starting at 6:30 p. m. Friday.

Freshman boys lose in Snyder tourney

Post's freshman basketball team lost to Lamesa, 77 to 41, Friday, at Goliad Junior High School, 40, Saturday morning in the junior-high school tournament in Snyder. In Friday's game with Lamesa, Mike Scott scored 22 of Post's points. Travis Junior High won the tournament by beating Runnels, 62-55, Saturday night.

Cash in solid with Detroit Tiger nine

Norman Cash, who last September was assumed to be on the Detroit Tigers' trading block, is now more firmly entrenched as the No. 1 first baseman than he was a year ago, according to an article in this week's Sporting News.

The article, written by Watson Spoelstra, says Tiger Manager Charlie Dressen is sold on the theory that Cash's big second-half push last season is no temporary thing.

Just about the time they began to write off Cash in Detroit last July, he began to connect. He soared to a .304 pace following the All-Star break. He smashed 23 home runs and gathered 58 runs batted in the last 11½ weeks of the season.

When Cash started having trouble with left-handed pitchers in his decline from his 1961 summit of .361, Bob Scheffing, then the Detroit manager, originated a platoon plan at first base, holding Cash out against lefthanders.

Near the end of the 1965 campaign, however, Dressen let Cash stay in against nearly all the lefthanders, and Norm responded by belting six home runs off southpaws. Steve Barber and Whitey Ford were among the September victims.

As he prepared to open the Detroit early camp at Lakeland, Fla., Dressen was asked about platoon plans for Cash.

"I won't platoon him unless he makes me," the manager replied. "When he's hitting, Cash can hit lefthanders, too."

Many electrical uses are cited

Glenn Barley, manager of Southwestern Public Service Co., told Post Rotarians Tuesday noon in a National Electric Week talk that electricity "makes a world of difference."

He said a person can now have 166 different electrical appliances in his home and that on the farm there are 400 jobs that are done better electrically.

Barley said today's dollar spent for industrial electric power receives $1.11 cents of its 1939 value. By comparison, today's dollar receives over 25 cents of its 1939 value in labor, 26 cents in construction costs, and 45 cents in raw materials.

Barley reported in some detail on the many improvement Southwestern Public Service has made in its power output and customer service, including an interconnected electric generation and transmission system, which represents an investment of close to $400 million and is manned by 2,000 skilled people.

He concluded by reporting his company is one of nine investor-owned electric companies in the Southwest which is participating in the largest privately financed thermonuclear fusion research project in the world.

Jean-Pierre Filipinetti, driver of a $14,000 Mercedes, test-drove a '66 Ford. His opinion: Ford rides quieter.

Ford's Quiet Man here he discusses a '66 Ford 4-Door LTD with Jean-Pierre Filipinetti at the castle which houses the famed Filipinetti collection of over 80 classic autos.

"It's incredible," said M. Filipinetti, "the Ford is quieter."
"The quiet, it's tremendous," continued M. Filipinetti, "it's incredible that you could build a car so luxurious as this at such a price." Ford's amazing quietness is the result of deep-down quality and engineering excellence.
And Ford for '66 offers more engineering magic: Optional new Stereo-Sonic Tape System that turns your Ford into a concert hall. Exclusive Magic Doorgate for wagons swings out like a door for people and down like a tailgate for cargo. Safety/Convenience Control Panel option—one button locks all doors, lights warn when fuel's low or a door's ajar, and remind you to fasten seat belts. Quiet test a '66 Ford soon.
