Post Stampede, Junior Rodeo opens Wednesday

The stage for the annual Post Stampede and Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo starts here next Wednesday was just about all set this week with the exception of finding a place for rodeo headquarters.

The city hall room that has been used for rodeo headquarters the last few years is now occupied by the Post Public Library.

Meanwhile, everything else is moving along in fine shape for the annual event, which is expected to draw more than 200 senior and junior rodeo contestants.

Parade Chairman Bill Gordon said yesterday that his committee is still trying to get float entries for the opening day parade, but that a number of out-of-town riding groups have already accepted invitations and that there will be more than 200 horsemen in the parade.

The parade is scheduled for 5 p.m. Wednesday over a downtown route, with the rodeo's grand entry to open two hours and 45 minutes later—at 7:45—and the rodeo performances at 8 o'clock.

Helping set the stage for the annual rodeo are four queen candidates. They are Judy Huff, Joan Minor, Karen Pruitt and Judy York.

The winner of the queen contest will be determined on the basis of advanced ticket sales the contestants make. The queen will be introduced at the opening night's grand entry and will reign as rodeo queen throughout the four-night event. The winner will also receive a belt buckle as a prize. Jack Lott is chairman of the queen contest.

In Wednesday's parade, first, second and third place trophies will go to the top three riding groups. The top three float entries will receive cash prizes of $25, $15 and $10.

Next Tuesday night is the deadline for float entries, the parade chairman said.

Contestants in the rodeo's senior division will be competing for cash in six events and those in the junior division for cash in seven events.

Senior events are bareback bronc, saddle and bull riding, calf roping, team roping and barrel race. The junior events are bareback bronc and bull riding, calf roping, ribbon roping, barrel race, pole bending and a flag race for contestants 12 years of age and under. All other junior events are for contestants 19 and under.

This year's rodeo has a new stock producer in Glenn Green of Amarillo. The events will be run off under RCA and GRA rules.

There will be dances on the rodeo arena slab each night to the music of Hoyle Nix and his band.

IN RACE FOR RODEO QUEEN TITLE
 It will be a race to the wire for these four Rodeo Queen candidates with the one selling the most tickets the winner. From left are Karen Pruitt, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. ## "Tighten down," chief orders

Police operations are discussed by council

Mayor Harold Lucas and members of the city council questioned Police Chief Leldon P. Miller about the length of coffee breaks taken by members of the police department, about certain phases of traffic enforcement, and about reported delays in answering calls at Monday night's council meeting.

The police chief told the councilmen asking about the length of coffee breaks that he could not answer his question unless he knew the time of day referred to on the police log.

"Sometimes when the log shows a policeman to be in a restaurant, he is eating a meal—not taking a coffee break," the police chief said.

Chief Miller told Mayor Lucas he could not recall any undue delays in answering calls, after the mayor had mentioned two in particular.

One of the councilmen asked the police chief if he could explain why, with 25 traffic tickets issued in July, fines had been collected on only nine of them. The chief's answer was that in some cases those charged come to the police station to pay their fines and, finding no one there, just lay the tickets on a desk and walk out.

"We cannot operate a police department efficiently under the present set-up," Chief Miller said. "Besides being understaffed, we need someone at the police station all times to answer the telephone."

The police chief said that he would also be able to "get out and make more arrests" if the city would put someone in the police station to do the paper work he is now having to do himself.

Mayor Lucas ended the discussion by saying that the council needed to "go into the matter" thoroughly, and that a special meeting of the council with Chief Miller and City Judge Percy Potts will be called.

The mayor commended the police chief and members of his department for the "excellent job you did handling traffic at the baseball game during the tournaments."

Tuesday morning, following Monday night's council meeting, Chief Miller typed notices "to all members of the police department" that the council had said they were not making enough arrests and not giving enough tickets.

"We're going to tighten down and bring in more arrests to this court," the police chief's memorandum continued.

The police chief also ordered that coffee breaks be limited to 10 minutes, and that the policemen receive all calls in the police car and respond to these calls "as fast as possible."

The memorandum also called the police department's attention to a complaint made at the council meeting of reckless driving up and down West 13th Street.

City Council receives three budget requests

Budgetary requests from the public library board, the airport board and the city health officer were presented to the city council Monday night at its regular August meeting.

The council was also presented a letter of resignation from City Manager Eddie Warren, in which he announced his resignation upon the completion of the current fiscal year audit and as soon as the council can secure a replacement for him.

In other action, the council ruled that the city-owned David Nichols Park can be used for softball this summer, and decided to offer nine water pumps and the water lines on the Winder lease to the present user at a price of $1,750.

The library budget request for $2,500 for the new fiscal year was presented by Jim Cornish, chairman of the library board, and is more fully described in a library board story elsewhere on the front page of today's Dispatch.

Most of the library budget—$1,750—would be for the purchase of new books, Cornish explained to the council.

The board chairman pointed out to the council that the library can't "stay" win book donations and that a continuing program of new book purchases is essential to the operation of an efficient public library.

He also explained that most of the books in the library now are on state loan and that these will be boxed and shipped back to the Texas State Library next year, with new titles being sent the local library by the state.

The $2,500 budget request submitted to the council.

Post member of draft board to get certificate

T. L. Jones of Post was scheduled to receive a Certificate of Appreciation today from President Johnson for his service as a member of the Selective Service System board serving Crosby, Garza, Lubbock and Lynn counties.

Mr. Jones has served five years as a member of the draft board, performing his duties without monetary compensation, as a public service.

Don L. Jones, chairman of Texas Local Board No. 88, will present the certificate that is also signed by Gov. John Connally, Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, director of Selective Service, and Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state director.

The brief presentation ceremony was scheduled for 2 p.m. today at the board office in Lubbock, but Mr. Jones told The Dispatch Tuesday that he would be unable to attend at that time. The presentation will be scheduled for a later date, not yet announced.

Other members of the draft board are Eldon Gattis of Tahoka, Raymond Johnson of Slaton and Bill Mayes of Ralls.

Firemen battle stubborn blaze

Fire destroyed a house and its contents on Pine Street shortly before noon Sunday, with firemen having to make two more calls before all the fire was put out.

The first alarm was at 11 a.m. Sunday, with the firemen making another run at 4:15 p.m., when flames flared up again. Twelve hours and 30 minutes later—4:45 p.m. Monday—they were called back to the house by a fresh outbreak of fire.

The firemen also answered two alarms last Friday, one at 7:45 p.m. to a grass fire on the Kirkpatrick ranch southeast of Post, and the other to a truck fire on U.S. Hwy. 84, five miles this side of Southland.

When the firemen arrived at the scene of the truck fire, they learned the driver had driven the truck into Slaton to have the tire put out.

Cool front brings brief heat relief

What is believed to have been a record heat wave for Post was broken—just barely—Tuesday when a cool front moving in dropped the maximum daily temperature under 90 for the first time in 24 days.

The hottest day of the heat wave was the last one—Monday—when the maximum official temperature here soared to 104 degrees, high for the summer.

Not only was Monday the hottest day, but some farmers up on the plains called Monday night "the hottest night in 50 years."

Minimum temperature for the night here was 84 degrees, hottest of the summer.

R. C. Bullock, who operates the Rocket Motel here, said the temperature on his driveway thermometer at 9 p.m. Monday was a sizzling 91 degrees.

Tuesday's high got just one degree under 90—down to 89—but the overnight temperature Tuesday had dropped on down to a much more comfortable 87.

These are the official Post temperatures.

Crain to be inducted into Order of Arrow

Clayton L. Crain of Lubbock, district engineer of the Texas Highway Department, was named for membership in the Order of the Arrow, national honor camping society of the Boy Scouts of America, last Thursday.

Crain will be inducted in ceremonies Friday at Camp Post here. He has been president of the South Plains Council, Boy Scouts of America, the last three years.

The Order of the Arrow promotes camping among Scouts.

T. L. Jones of Post was scheduled to receive a Certificate of Appreciation today from President Johnson for his service as a member of the Selective Service System board serving Crosby, Garza, Lubbock and Lynn counties.

Mr. Jones has served five years as a member of the draft board, performing his duties without monetary compensation, as a public service.

Don L. Jones, chairman of Texas Local Board No. 88, will present the certificate that is also signed by Gov. John Connally, Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, director of Selective Service, and Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state director.

Mrs. C in her weekly column last week must have really gotten under the hide of one of her readers when she commented on a letter she had received from New York taking her to task for her recent column about her train ride to Houston.

Tuesday afternoon, the phone rang in the office. David King of New York City was on the line asking that his letter be printed in full so that readers would thoroughly understand his point of view. Of course, Mrs. C said she would be happy to oblige and you will find the letter in full on page 8 of today's paper.

Seems as King has just gotten his last week's Dispatch Tuesday and reached for the phone as soon as he had read Mrs. C rebuttal.

David promised to follow with even a longer letter.

Last year when Mrs. C received a letter from King she published it in full and he replied that he was horrified to see it all in print. So this year, she left out the name and printed excerpts. And he still wasn't happy.

Saturday is Post's big rodeo sale and coming on next week will be the annual edition of the combined Post Stampede and Junior Rodeo, which will open a four-night stand on Wednesday night. Everything appears in readiness for both events and you'll have a lot of fun at both of them.

The C's are leaving today for their annual summer vacation—the weekend convention of the West Texas Press Association which will be held at San Angelo. It's always fun when newspaper men get together to hash over their profession.

Budget request of $2,500 approved by library board

The Post Public Library board at its meeting last Thursday night unanimously approved a budget request to the city for the 1966-67 year for $2,500.

This would continue the library's operation upon a volunteer basis.

Principal expenditure during the year—$1,750—would be for new book additions for the library, which the board proposes would be begun only after a thorough study of basic library needs for a balanced small library.

The board heard a budget presentation by Lonnie Duke, chairman of the budget committee of the Friends of a Public Library, Garza County, Texas.

The budget proposal presented by Duke called for a $5,147.50 annual expenditure and provided the services of a paid librarian for a 40-hour week for 35 weeks each year at a $1.40 hourly salary.

The board expressed the opinion it would be better to have a year-around librarian on a 20-hour or more week basis, pointing out that the summer period is one of the librarian's busiest seasons due to special programs for young people not in school.

Duke, in presenting his budget suggestions, pointed out that this was what the Friends organization considered needed for a good, small library operation.

By taking out the paid librarian's salary and cutting in a few other items, the board came up with the $2,500 budget request, which it felt would be the maximum it should request in funds from the city at this time.

It was pointed out if the library (See Budget Request, Page 8)

Library cash gift drive opens here

A cash gift drive aimed to raise the Post Public Library book total to 10,000 volumes was announced this week by J. B. Potts, new chairman of the gifts and endowment committee for Friends of a Public Library, Garza County, Tex.

Potts told The Dispatch he would name the full committee within the next few days.

The bank president said directors of the Friends organization at their Tuesday night meeting had given his committee a goal of $5,000 for their initial effort.

"Whether we reach it this year or the next, $5,000 is our goal," Potts said. He explained basic use of the money will be to buy new books.

The library now has approximately 2,000 books on its shelves.

Directors of the Friends group Tuesday night also heard a report that the library booster organization now has three new life members—J. B. Potts, E. W. Williams, and N. C. Outlaw. This brings to four the number of life members. Life membership is $100. A. C. Cash was the first life member.

Also discussed by the directors was the library budget recommended for the new fiscal year. The directors heard a report on the recent library open house.

County to act on budget Monday

Garza County's proposed new budget will be unveiled Monday morning at a public budget hearing of the Garza County Commissioners Court by County Judge J. E. Parker.

Parker told The Dispatch yesterday he is completing some revisions of the budget before presenting it to the court for its consideration.

He said the county valuation, still not exact, is expected to total slightly under $20,000,000 following the county's recent board of equalization hearings.

Persons interested in attending the budget hearing are invited to be present in the commissioners' room at 10 a.m.

Lions hear talk on Post Rodeo

The Post Stampede and Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo to be held here next week was discussed by Jimmy Moore, Post Stampede president, at Tuesday night's Lions Club meeting.

Moore told the Lions that indications point to a better rodeo this year, as well as to a better rodeo parade.

Following the meeting, members of the club hung more rodeo decorations, a project that was started last week. Business men who have not been contacted and who would like to have decorations put up are asked to contact Lions President Preston Poole.

Some people have difficulty getting their soda pop out of cold drink machines even after following directions and inserting their dime. Others have found easier ways.

The manager of the Phillips Quick Service station at 512 North Broadway reported to police Saturday that someone had lifted the lid of the station's cold drink box after closing hours, pried the caps off five bottles and drank the soda pop through straws.

The empty bottles, which can't be removed from the slots—full or empty—without inserting a dime or two nickels were found by the manager as mute testimony of someone's ingenuity in getting something for nothing.

Rodeo Sale Saturday something new here

Post's first big Rodeo Sale is scheduled here Saturday as a town-wide promotion.

Today's edition of The Dispatch is filled with Rodeo Sale ads of all sizes.

Besides the final clearance of all summer merchandise, one or two merchants have even scheduled drawings in their stores as added attraction getters.

Post's summer sidewalk sale was cancelled this year in the middle of the 30-day heat wave due to the sidewalk heat and the Rodeo Sale has replaced the Sidewalk Sale promotion under Chamber of Commerce retail committee sponsorship.

Big rodeo sale window banners have been distributed by the Chamber to all participating merchants.

All sales personnel have been urged to dress in rodeo clothes for the sales promotion. Ten dollar gift certificates will be given as prizes to the best rodeo dressed male and female employee.

'Calamity Corner' crash injures one

Carolyn Kay Embree, 19, of Tahoka, was injured in a two-car collision at "Calamity Corner"—East Main and Avenue F—about 10:30 a.m. Sunday.

Miss Embree, thrown from her small foreign automobile after it collided at the intersection with one driven by Craig Wilkerson of Brownfield, was admitted to Garza Memorial Hospital, but was dismissed a few hours later after it was determined that she was not seriously injured.

Deputy Sheriff Bill Gordon, who investigated the accident, said Miss Embree's car was struck by Wilkerson's after she drove onto the highway from the south off Avenue F. Wilkerson, accompanied by his wife, was driving east.

Miss Embree's automobile was knocked across the road and against a steel post at the northeast corner of the intersection. Damage to both automobiles totaled over $1,000, Deputy Gordon estimated.

Miss Embree paid a fine and costs of $17.50 in Justice of the Peace Court after pleading guilty to failure to yield right-of-way and running a stop sign.

Your guide to proposed amendments

Texas voters in November's general election are going to have 16 decisions to make on proposed amendments to the state's antiquated constitution.

On pages 10, 14 and 15 of today's Dispatch, readers may read the public notices on each of the constitutional amendments. They will appear in The Dispatch for each weekly issue for the next four weeks, as required by law, to acquaint voters with the amendments.

Of the 16, several are important. Certain to be one of the most "interesting" as far as the pros and cons are concerned is the No. 1 amendment.

It provides that all land owned by natural persons and designated for agricultural use shall be assessed for all tax purposes on the consideration of only those factors relative to such agricultural use.

In other words, it would do away with present state law requirement that all land be valued for taxation purposes upon more or less its fair market value.

Farm land these days across the county sells for far more than it is worth on the basis of what it can earn via crops or livestock. That is because there is a shrinking amount of such land in the United States. Expansion of cities and the development of highways each year cut thousands of more acres from the farm and ranch land total. So it has become a commodity valued on the market at a price of more than it can earn.

Farmers have argued that their tax valuations should be based upon the earning capacity of their land. Actually, tax engineers do take this into consideration along with market value, the only true measure of worth in the eyes of the law.

Farmers are going to vote heavily come November for Amendment No. 1. It will mean lower valuations generally for them if the amendment passes. The unanswered political question is: Will city voters, now in the majority in Texas, vote so strongly against it as to defeat it.

Another amendment of certain interest here—as in all county seats—is Amendment No. 5 which would authorize the legislature to provide for a system of retirement, disability and death benefits for county officials and employees and others.

Veteran employes of hundreds of Texas court-houses fervently hope the voters will like this one. They, like most workers on the national scene, are "security conscious." They want to look forward to an orderly retirement financially when the day does come.

Another one which has some organized support—this time from the "law arm"—is the No. 6 providing for payment of assistance to survivors of law enforcement officers, custodial personnel of the Texas Department of Correction and full-paid firemen. The families of our law officers today have no protection when a criminal shoots down their breadwinner. Certainly this one has merit.

Certainly, amendment No. 14 should win hands down in November. It would allow members of the armed forces to vote in Texas upon satisfying the residence requirements applicable to Texans in general. This has been a wrong which has needed "righting" for a long, long time. It is ridiculous to think that a young Texan of voting age can't vote for the candidate of his choice in Texas simply because he is in Viet Nam risking his life in the service of his country.

We would hazard a guess that Amendment No. 7 on the upcoming November ballot already has been outdated by the U. S. Supreme Court. But maybe it is needed to get Texas "up with the times." It would repeal the constitutional provisions requiring a poll tax as a prerequisite to voting and requiring the legislature to provide for annual registration of all voters.

In the weeks ahead, responsible state groups will circulate to newspapers the pro and con arguments for all of these amendments. They will assist voters in evaluating them and helping them to make up their minds about them.

As space and time permits, The Dispatch will use such stories in its news columns, at least for all the important amendments.

But we would urge our readers to take the opportunity during the next four weeks to stop and read these public notices on the 16 amendments. They are published in every county in Texas at considerable expense for your information. Along with the rights of people to vote goes the obligation of being responsible—and that means being informed.—JC

Rodeo is King here next week

Rodeo, still one of the more popular of spectator sports in this section of the country, will be in the spotlight here next week as the combined Post Stampede and Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo unwind at the Post Stampede arena.

The four nights of thrills and spills are eagerly awaited each year by local rodeo fans, as well as by fans throughout the area. Post's reputation for always putting on a good rodeo has spread far and wide.

Time was, not too many years ago, when Post staged two annual rodeos—one for senior contestants, the other for juniors. A few years ago, the two were combined into one big show when it appeared that one or both might be abandoned unless such a move came about.

Each of the two shows had to sacrifice a little something of its own in combining, but the result has been one big four-night show that has proved a crowd-pleaser by offering something for everybody.

Rodeo Week in Post is just a little different from any other week of the year here. The first three days of the week head into Wednesday's opener, which is kicked off by the rodeo parade. From then until the championship of the final event is decided Saturday, Rodeo is King. Many folks who dress conventionally the rest of the year dig out brightly colored shirts and other Western duds and "dress up" for the rodeo. Many youngsters who do not own horses borrow them to ride in the parade and the rodeo's grand entry.

Rodeo Week probably draws more out-of-town people to Post than any other week of the year, many of them are here for all four days and nights of the show. It is probably our best opportunity of the year to make out-of-towners feel welcome and show them what Post has to offer.

Rodeos anywhere nowadays are pageants of the Old West—an Old West that is fast fading into oblivion before the fast pace of the space age, but which a community is able to recapture briefly with its annual rodeo.—CD

POST PHARMACY

DOUBLE 5¢ GREEN STAMPS WITH EVERY PRESCRIPTION

THAT LITTLE dab of rain late Sunday evening wasn't the "life saver" the First National Bank advertised for in last Thursday's Dispatch, but it beat nothing a-tall. What I liked most about it was that it fell less than five minutes after the weather man had been quoted on the radio as saying, "No rain in sight for the South Plains."

Coming as it did, on the last day of July, the brief shower held the promise of more rain for August—the earlier in the month the better, of course.

SO, WE GO into August hot and dry, with the month's big event here to be the Post Stampede and Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo, starting next Wednesday and continuing through Saturday. The chances are against it being rained out, so make your plans to attend.

August is also the month most of us begin hustling and busting to get the young'uns ready for school again. The month will barely be out of sight before the students and teachers trek back into the classrooms on Thursday, Sept. 1.

THE BARE MENTION of September brings thoughts of another football season, and drills for the Post Antelopes are scheduled to start Aug. 10, with the coaches fresh from the annual coaching school at Houston, where every coach probably did his best to make everyone think he has the smallest and slowest boys in the state.

The man up the street says hard work may not kill anybody, but that it can make you very tired.

TUESDAY a precinct in Cochran County held an election to determine if it wants to legalize the sale of beer, and at Matador, in Montley County, they threw out a petition asking that a wet-dry election be called. All of which reminds me of something that appeared in the Hazelton Independent, a weekly newspaper, shortly after North Dakota had joined the ranks of the wet states:

NO LIQUOR FOR EDITORS
The coming of hard, red "likker" means nothing to the editors of North Dakota's newspapers, for it is written that they can't afford to buy it in the first place, and in the second place it has been found to have a very decided effect upon the clearness of their grey matter—commonly known as brains—for one editor tried it with dire results. Someone sent one of our illustrious and brilliant editors a bottle of liquor. The same day he received for publication a wedding announcement and a notice of an auction sale. The "red likker" and the typewriter failed to function in harmony, with the following results:

"William Smith and Miss Lucy Anderson are to be disposed of at a public auction at my farm one mile east of a beautiful cluster of roses on her breast and two white calves, before a background of farm implements too numerous to mention in the presence of about seventy guests, including two milk cows, six mules and one bobbed. Rev. Jackson tied the nuptial knot with two hundred feet of hay wire on the bridal left on one good John Deere gang plow for an extended trip with terms to the purchaser. They will be at home to their friends with one good baby buggy and a few kitchen utensils after date of sale to responsible parties and some fifty chickens."

I hope nothing similar to the above happens to the reporters who "cover" Luci Johnson's wedding Saturday, but the way things sometime go in Washington, you never can tell.

WE HAD a real nice vacation, thank you. We returned one week older and several dollars poorer, but as those of you who have them already know, a visit with your grandchildren is always worth it.

A waiter picking up the check and payment said to the patron, "Pardon me, sir, but this includes nothing for the waiter." The patron glanced up and said, "Well, I didn't eat one, did I?"

SINCE ONE joke leads to another when I'm trying to fill out this column, here is the other one:

A Pullman passenger on a streamliner had just returned to his berth from the washroom when he discovered that he had left his toothbrush behind. Hurrying back to the washroom, he found another passenger brushing his teeth with it.

"Say, that's my toothbrush you're using!"
"I'm sorry," replied the other. "I thought it belonged to the car."

MOVE TO NEW HOME
Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Redman and family have purchased the home formerly owned by the Gary Reeds at 406 Osage Ave. The Reeds family left Monday for Wellington where Mr. Reed has been transferred by the Soil Conservation Service.

Did You Know?

TEA, next to water, is the most popular beverage in the world. Though tea-drinking habits vary from country to country, it's the drink of hospitality and friendship wherever you go. In many lands, hot tea is served in glasses. Iran is one. Here the host will touch his heart and forehead as he passes the tea. Iranians often put a piece of sugar in the mouth before drinking.

IN IRAQ, too, tea is served in glasses. Here the host will pour a little tea into the saucer to indicate you are welcome in his home. Mid-Europeans also follow the custom of serving tea in glasses and of placing sugar or a spoonful of jam in the mouth before drinking it. In Saudi Arabia, you're apt to find your tea flavored with mint leaves.

IN AMERICA, when tea is served in glasses, it's bound to be iced tea. This summertime favorite was "invented" at the St. Louis World's Fair in 1904. During a heat wave that summer an exhibitor of teas from the Far East poured hot tea over ice to cool his customers, and a new drink was on its way to fame. Today Americans drink more than 18 billion glasses of refreshing, thirst-quenching iced tea every year.

Post director is to attend WTCC Pampa meeting

ABILENE — West Texas Chamber of Commerce leaders from across the entire 132-county WTCC area will converge on the Top 'O Texas Aug. 11 and 12 as the chamber holds its mid-summer meeting in Pampa.

Bryan J. Williams of Post is a director of the West Texas Chamber and will attend.

Highlight of the Pampa meeting will be a dinner on Aug. 11 honoring West Texans who are volunteers on state boards, agencies and commissions. There are more than 250 of these individuals, and this is the first time in history that such a special recognition dinner has been held in Texas.

John Ben Shepperd of Odessa, president of the West Texas Chamber, will focus attention of the entire WTCC leadership on his newly formulated Potentials for Progress at the Pampa meeting. In two months now, hundreds of WTCC leaders, Texas experts and community leaders have begun a series of idea and planning sessions, followed by another series of Directors' Action Forums.

The two-day meeting, scheduled at the Coronado Inn, will include a meeting of all committee special meetings of committee chairmen, a gathering of the Executive Committee and the Board of Directors.

West Texans honored at the Aug. 11 dinner will receive special prepared certificates in recognition of their service, and a special souvenir program is being prepared.

Hot enough to pop corn, says reporter

By MRS. EDMUND WILKE
 It is hot enough today to pop corn. The weather man says that it is 104 degrees in the shade. Wow! I've just received a call today, so guess every one is either gone, too busy, or weather is just too hot!
 Mrs. Donahoe was taken to Mercy Hospital Tuesday night of last week. He is very sick with several complications. His son, Marcie, of Louis, Mo., is here helping to take care of him.
 Mrs. J. W. Basinger was a patient in Mercy Hospital last week. Her son, Tommy Wilson, wife of the Methodist minister, became quite ill and is in a Lubbock hospital.

We certainly hope that these folks will be much better real soon.
 Mr. and Mrs. Otto Klaus and Mr. and Mrs. Werner Klaus went to Vega Sunday to spend the day with their granddaughter and daughter, Miss Audrey Klaus. They attended the Methodist church where the Rev. Ross Dunn, former Southland boy, is pastor. Mrs. Klaus said they enjoyed hearing Ross preach very much. Ross and family have been living in Vega for a month.

Visitors in the Jim Mason home over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Austin and family of Orange. The Austins are also visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Austin, in Slaton. These two families have known each other for 21 years. Mr. Mason was stationed in Orange with the Navy in 1945 and the two families met and have been good friends ever since.

WEEKEND visitors in our home were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lee Lange and four children of Austin, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Stabeno and children of Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Wilke.

We attended an ice cream birthday party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Becker Wednesday of last week honoring Mr. Becker, Mrs. James Riney and Mrs. Kay Kizer. Later we played "88."
 We would like to say congratulations to Miss Martha Blodgett and Larry Wilke who will be united in marriage, Sept. 2, at Grace Lutheran Church at Slaton.

I'm very sorry that this is all the news, but like I said, just two people called. Hope to do much better next week.

The Southland "Distortions" will furnish the music Aug. 9 at the Lyntegar Electric Annual meeting and barbecue, which will be held at the Tahoka football stadium. Ya'll come!

MIGHTY MOMENTS

Dramatic instances are captured upon the screen in Cecil B. DeMille's Technicolor production of "The Ten Commandments," in which Charlton Heston portrays Moses. Opening Sunday, Aug. 7, at the Tower Theatre in a "command performance"—the first since its original all-record-breaking run—the Paramount Picture is considered the greatest film achievement of all time.

Tests show bull meat not tough

COLLEGE STATION — Agricultural scientists are finding young beef is just as "eatable" as that from steers or heifers.
 What's more, say researchers at Texas A&M University, bull meat is leaner and has less fat than both qualities demanded by consumers.
 An article by G. T. King and Z. Carpenter in A&M's Texas Agricultural Progress magazine, estimates on the increasing acceptance of bull beef.
 The article says with beef consumption at an all-time high, cattlemen are looking for more efficient beef production practices to meet the predicted 25 per cent increase needed by 1980.
 Researchers at A&M did mechanical tenderness tests on bull, steer, and heifer beef. The mature steers scored slightly over and heifers in tenderness. All three were average and only satisfactory, the article says.

It's My Turn

— By MRS. C.

Triplets were born to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Basset Wednesday, July 27, at the hours of 10, 11:20 and 11:30 p.m. on the C patio. Weight, unknown. Sex: one male, two females. Mother doing fine.

I'm not wrong on the "Sam". Our Miss Sam was bred to a Mr. Sam who lives in Slaton but will be called Mrs. Sam as long as her puppies are still with us. I'm sure we'll revert to Miss Sam as soon as they leave, and I'm also sure after all the trauma of Wednesday night that this will be her last litter.

As only fitting, we prepared a box that our newsprint comes in and lined it neatly with last week's Dispatch, scrubbed off the patio and were all set to spend the evening at the bedside of Miss Sam.

What we ended doing was rushing with the box all over the side yard so the puppies would be born where we wanted them instead of the grass or much preferably in the dirt behind the rose bushes, where the mother-to-be wanted them.

Miss Sam was not exactly cooperative about the whole deal as you can tell by the way she spaced her puppies. The last two being only ten minutes apart made it possible for Mrs. Sam to have one out on the grass as she wanted, as we weren't expecting such fast

Driver-McDougle vows exchanged

Mrs. Barbara Driver and Garlon McDougle were married July 25 at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon in Justice of the Peace D. C. Roberts' office.

Mrs. McDougle is the daughter of Mrs. Marvin Hogue of Post and R. E. Hensley Sr. of Levelland. Mr. McDougle is the son of Mrs. Myrtle McDougle and the late Mr. McDougle.

The couple is residing at 106 West 4th St. He is employed as an operator for Rocker A Well Service.

Mrs. Weaver McKamie honored on birthday

Mrs. Weaver McKamie was honored with a surprise birthday party Friday afternoon by a group of friends who arrived at the McKamie home bearing gifts and singing "Happy Birthday."

Cake, coffee and punch were served to the honoree and following guests:

Mmes. Frances McAfee, Mattie Ratliff, Azalee Taylor, Grace Johnson, Lora Blacklock, Daisy McKenzie, Henrietta Warren, Ruby Kennedy, Sue Hays, Bettie Pierce, and the honoree's children, Jana and Kenny.

Well, if you think she wasn't cooperative about where she had them, let me tell you she was even less cooperative about taking care of them. Oh, she did her duty as they were born, but as far as nursing them for the first 16 hours of their lives she was anything but dutiful.

The puppies spent the night in their box and Mrs. Sam spent the night under one of Miss C's younger's beds with an occasional trip out to see if "they" were still there.

For some reason "motherhood" came hard to Mrs. Sam and it took a few swats with a folded newspaper (a Post Dispatch, of course) for her to accept the idea that she was to feed and care for them.

Now, she is overdoing the whole role and hardly leaves their side. The pups are getting fat and sassy. Mrs. Sam is getting thin and wan, and the C's are getting some sleep—so all is well.

All is well here at the Dispatch office also. Editor Didway returned to work Monday from his vacation and I could put the dictionary away. Charlie is our star speller and as everyone knows from the time they are six years old until they die, it's easier to ask someone how to spell a word rather than take the time to look it up.

Mr. C and I are what one could call "average" spellers so we really give Charlie a workout, which he good-naturedly puts up with. However, I just yelled at him and asked how to spell "good-naturedly" and he said: "You know how to spell 'good', don't you?"

Mr. C and I really had one mix-up last week while Charlie was gone. I thought Mr. C asked me how to spell "vernacular" which I spelled to him. He said "Are you sure?" I said: "Of course." But I could tell he didn't believe me so I nicked up the dictionary and looked it up. "I'm right," I said. He still looked a bit puzzled but decided to accept Mr. Webster's and my word.

Later, I went to the back and Corkey Ammons said: "What kind of a word is this?" I looked to where he was pointing to the copy on his machine and doubled up with laughter.

Mr. C hadn't been asking me to spell "vernacular" at all but had asked me to spell "binoculars". So in the middle of the big theft story last week he had listed "binoculars" valued at $50.

With this blasted weather hanging on that's the only thing I've gotten a chuckle out of for a long time.

Borden County is to celebrate anniversary

Borden County, Garza County's neighbor to the south, will celebrate the 75th anniversary of its organization in an all-day affair at Gail on Sunday, Aug. 14. The event will begin with registration at 8:30 a. m. at the Borden County High School. A worship service will be held at 11 a. m., conducted by the Rev. Mather Owens, a former teacher in the Gail schools and now a pastor at Gatesville.

A song service will be directed by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. (Rich) Anderson, with a barbecue luncheon scheduled at noon in the school cafeteria.

The newly created Borden County Museum, temporarily housed in the old Dorward Drug Co. building, will be formally opened during the celebration. Doors will be opened for the first time at 2:30 p. m.

Borden County, named for Gail Borden, was designated in 1876 after the state legislature passed a bill allowing areas having 100 or more voters the right to petition for organization of a county.

In 1891, the county was officially organized and Gail was designated as the county seat. At that time, Gail was the only post office between Big Spring and Lubbock, Snyder and Carlsbad, N. M.

The reunion of oldtimers, which is to be a feature of the celebration, is being made possible by the efforts of the recently formed Borden County Historical Society, whose chairman is Mrs. Ralph Miller.

Extra large crop of rattlesnakes found this year in Texas

TYLER — East Texans are finding a pretty fair crop of large rattlesnakes this year.

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department reports most of the big reptiles are canebrake rattlers, but often called by another name.

Most of the counties in East Texas, either have or are subject to playing host to three species of rattlers; the tiny pigmy rattler, the large timber rattler in northeast Texas counties, and the much more common canebrake species.

Newspaper and word-of-mouth accounts of large snakes, where the dead or captured reptile may be examined, or where a picture has been made, bring to light the true canebrake, but often called by the misnomer, timber rattler. The Department reports the two reptiles are closely related.

Robert Downs of Jefferson ran over one with a truck, then finished the job with a gun. It measured 58 inches and had 20 rattles.

Both the timber and canebrake rattler have black tails. Chief difference in the two snakes is the dark stripe behind the eye of the canebrake, lacking in the timber species. Timber rattlers have large dark patches on the back, while the canebrake has crossbands that resemble a lightning flash. Both are extremely toxic.

Slaton awards contract for new grid stadium

SLATON — Slaton school trustees have awarded the contract for a new football stadium to Hunter Construction Co. of Lubbock on a base bid of $54,788.

The new stadium, which will have a seating capacity of 1,200 will be built on the west side of Tiger Field, the present stadium.

The contractor hopes to have the stadium ready for the first Slaton home game on Sept. 23.

WT Boys Ranch roundup half over

SAN ANGELO — The annual Round-up of livestock for West Texas Boys Ranch at Tankersley has reached the half-way point in animal units.

This year's round-up started April 18 with a goal of 200 animal units, according to Round-up chairman, Roddy Peoples of Midland. The total given to the ranch so far is 100 head, Peoples said.

"With the late summer and fall movement of cattle and sheep still ahead and the heart-warming response West Texas ranchers are showing to the Round-up, I'm optimistic that the original goal will be reached," the Round-up chairman stated.

The livestock so far collected for the ranch, plus many cash donations, has boosted the funds to $15,775 this week. According to Peoples, this is a little short of the hoped for amount with this number of livestock, but he pointed out that the livestock prices have weakened since the original goal was set, and therefore the total so far is proportionately reduced.

"West Texas Boys Ranch likes to see a good rain and a strong market just as much as the ranchers out here do," he joked.

Peoples urged ranchers in the sixty-county area served by West Texas Boys Ranch to remember the continuing need for operational funds at the ranch. Money collected during the drive forms a large portion of day-to-day operating needs such as food and clothing. Any farmer or rancher who would like to contribute livestock may do so by contacting his county Wagon Boss who will make arrangements, or merely by designating those livestock to be contributed to the ranch when they are taken to market. Auction market operators in West Texas for many years have actively supported the Round-up by forwarding the proceeds from the sale of livestock so designated direct to the Ranch.

Those wishing to support the ranch with cash contributions may mail a check direct to West Texas Boys Ranch, Box 1624, San Angelo, Peoples said.

Santa Fe orders 60 locomotives

AMARILLO — Santa Fe Railway has placed a $17 million order for sixty 3600 HP diesel locomotives with the Electro-Motive Division of General Motors, according to Ernest S. Marsh, president, Chicago.

The new diesels are scheduled for delivery beginning in October, Marsh said. This order is in addition to 60 locomotives previously announced, and brings to 120 the number of units being added to Santa Fe's fleet in 1966.

This new order raises Santa Fe's capital expenditure program for 1966 to more than $195 million, Marsh reported.

SYMBOL OF SAFETY

You never mistake the meaning of a Church spire.

Even to those who are cold to the ideals for which the Church stands, that finger of faith always points to something that is comforting, reassuring, safe.

The very presence of a Church, whether in a crowded city street or on a quiet country road, is a benediction to all, including those who are not conscious of worship.

Such an influence, with what it means to those who open their hearts to truth, is worthy of a second thought. It merits acceptance as a refuge. It commands confidence as a port in time of storm.

The Church deserves your support — your membership — because it affords real protection for the family whose welfare it is your duty to defend and whose proper upbringing is your solemn obligation.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

New highway construction is to cost one-half billion annually

AUSTIN—Texas will need to invest more than one-half billion dollars a year in new highway construction by 1985 to keep pace with the growth of the state, a new study released today by the Texas Highway Department predicted.

The forecast was contained in a 24-page brochure entitled, "The Great Challenge... Texas Highway Needs." The report is based on projections made by planners in the Department.

By comparison, construction expenditures in Texas in 1965 were $348 million.

A highway system to meet the challenge of the future requires active, alert public support, the brochure said. It also requires sound, adequate financing.

"The public should be alert to any attempts to divert or disperse any current highway revenues," the report warned. It added: "The failure—even by one day—to fulfill the obligation to build better, safer highways will be costly in human life and suffering. The economic loss is irrecoverable."

The report pointed out: "A vibrant economy produces its own problems. Population growth, the rapid urbanization of Texas, the increasing number of motor vehicles and the complexities of modern society compel a constant vigilance."

By 1985, the brochure noted, Texans will drive a total of more than 77 billion vehicle miles each year, compared with 52 billion vehicle miles rolled up in the state in 1965.

Vehicle registration will more than double—from 6.2 million to about 14 million in the next two decades.

To keep pace, the State-maintained highway system is expected to grow to a total of 79 thousand miles. Presently, 663 thousand miles of highways are under State maintenance.

More significant, Highway Department planners said more miles of high-type highways will be needed to carry ever-increasing burdens of traffic. In the next two decades, 17 thousand construction miles of new freeways should be built, including traffic arteries on new locations and conversion of older, conventional roads to freeways.

In general, all existing highways will require one reconstruction and two resurfacings before 1985. All bridges built prior to World War II will require replacement.

The report notes the role of the highway system in the unprecedented growth and development of the state during recent years.

The Texas Highway Commission presented the report to Governor John B. Connally as an aid to consideration of future highway needs of Texas.

One American in four has this disease

Physicians call it obesity, but it's just as unhealthy if we call it pounds—too many pounds. In some places a chief cause of early death is malnutrition but in this country the Grim Reaper's number one helper is overeating. Overweight people subject their heart and blood vessels to undue stresses and strains. Every ounce of excess flesh is a menace to health. Which is why so many of us diet today. And those of us who are wise see a physician first. We, as professional pharmacists, know how effective a doctor's advice can be.

$400 application for student loan approved

Directors of the Community Student Loan Fund approved a $400 college loan for a new applicant at a meeting in the Reddy Room late Monday afternoon and voted to continue $400 support loans for the 1966-67 college year to four other students already accepted in the loan program.

Thus some $2,000 will be loaned to the five students to help with their college expenses when the September term begins.

Requirements for such loans include being a graduate of Post High School and a resident of Garza County. Young people receiving such loans sign notes to repay the loans with four per cent interest after college graduation or termination of college work.

The organization was formed here in 1952 and is supported by private donors.

Almost all the students who have received such loans in the 14 years have repaid their loans in full or are now in the process of repaying them. Only two loans made over this time have not been repaid.

It was pointed out Monday that in its 14 years of operations the organization's total operating expenses in making such loans to students has been only $15.

Virtually every dollar contributed to the loan fund has gone to help some Post youngster secure the benefits of a college education. Attending the Monday meeting were Leo Acker, fund chairman; Mrs. Ruth Young, secretary; Giles McCrary, O. L. Weakley and Jim Cornish.

County Agent Syd Conner said the county has kept temperature highs and lows only since 1962 so he couldn't accurately say how much longer back one would have to go in Post weather history to find a more devastating heat wave than the one cracked Tuesday.

County Agent Conner said that only .17 of an inch of moisture has been recorded in Post since the heat wave started.

The city received two brief sprinkles over the weekend, neither recordable.

City council—

mitted to the City Council had been trimmed down from a proposed budget of $5,147.50 presented by the Friends of a Public Library organization.

Cornish told the council that if a broader base of support in the future can be secured, the budget presented by the Friends organization would receive the board's full support, "as it would be required for the library to operate on a year-in, year-out basis."

Mayor Harold Lucas, who had attended the library board meeting at which the proposed budget was drawn up, commended the work of the board, and said he was happy to report to the council that the public library has received good response in its first few weeks of operation.

The city's half of the airport budget request of $2,242 would be $1,121 with the county budgeting the other half, Mayor Lucas explained.

The airport budget calls for $250 for telephone installation, including lines; $192 for monthly telephone charges; $200 for grounds maintenance; $100 for contingency needs; and $1,500 for administrative expense.

Dr. Harry A. Tubbs, city health officer, told the council it needs to set up a city health budget "to pay your way," pointing out that he cannot continue to carry the full charity load as he is now doing.

Dr. Tubbs suggested a minimum figure of $300 "to take care of such matters for the coming year."

He also asked that the council designate someone to whom he can refer people "for clearance" before treating them in his capacity of city health officer.

The mayor and council assured Dr. Tubbs that they realize the importance of protecting the community from the spread of contagious diseases, and that he should not be expected to continue to bear the full load of the cost of treatment.

The council said it would consider the budget figure suggested by Dr. Tubbs when it draws up the new year's budget, and Mayor Lucas said he would act temporarily as the one for patients to contact for city clearance before being treated as city health office cases.

The city council was to meet this morning to begin work on its new budget for the fiscal year.

OUR READERS Write

(EDITOR'S NOTE: In last Thursday's "It's My Turn" column, Mrs. C commented on a letter she had received from a reader in New York City, using only excerpts from the letter in her comments. Tuesday, she received a telephone call from the New York reader, who, after reading Mrs. C's column, requested that his letter be run in its entirety in order that readers might get a clearer view of his "stand" than that afforded by the column excerpts. The letter follows.)

Dear Lady . . . This is all I got out of your column of July 7: "These were healthy, growing boys quite happy and gay (undismissably, obviously) taking off (for a new life?) — in San Diego? who are you kidding? no—) on their big trip to eternity . . ."

Yes, it is such a glorious, red-white-and-blue patriotic war, and we definitely want to send the 19- and 20-year-olds first (before they have a chance to learn the score), and you can thank your lucky stars you just have two daughters to worry about . . . you and LBJ go on pretty lady, and whip up the war effort . . . people who read your column probably thought you were talking about some train ride you took (the same people that thought the movie "The Hustler" was a b o u t poolsharks) . . . and honey I'm being ever so kind in my ignorance . . . I can just imagine what fun Freud, Jung and your revered teacher Dr. Spock would do with what you said . . . all the psychotic imagery you managed to put in those few paragraphs . . .

I hope nobody does wanna go (have you considered that every college male that takes the draft test is in effect saying "I don't wanna go"?), and pray for the time when all will REFUSE to go . . . when that day comes none of this technicolor M-G-M patriotic glossing over will work and LBJ and all the other warlords of the world will go out of business . . .

Wars are beneficial to a lot of people . . . but not to the ones who have to fight and die and return maimed in them . . . and if the ones who were doing the fighting said "I don't wanna go and I won't go" they could stop it . . .

Do you know that song you were talking about? "When Johnny Comes Marching Home" — "ye haven't an arm and ye haven't a leg, huroo, huroo" . . . don't make it sound nice . . .

Your column is comically insane when you pass on the daily trivia, but when you carelessly comment on the forces and crises of today's world, you expose your lack of thought and research into those areas . . .

Please, give my recommendation to Mr. Didway of an excellent book, "Summerhill" . . . as opposed to Dr. Schumacher's theory of "inner controls in order to be happy and successful" "living in a highly complex, structured and controlled society", "Summerhill" can secure a broader base of support in the future, the budget presented by Duke would receive the board's full support.

At this time, the library is opened to all county residents while at present receiving its entire support from the city.

Duke termed his budget "something to work toward as rapidly as we can."

Mayor Harold Lucas met with the board to discuss the financial outlook for the new budgetary year.

The board in other actions: Set the first Tuesday of each month, beginning at 7:30 p. m., for its monthly meeting, starting with September.

Asked Mrs. Rosa Gamblin, head of the library aides committee of the Friends of a Public Library to have a monthly report ready for each monthly meeting of the board which would include all information about library usage.

Asked that the appropriate Friends organization committee begin a study of library needs in new books so that a systematic plan can be followed in book purchases to develop the library in all the primary areas for a small library.

Urged board members and others in the Friends organization to develop contacts with the Lubbock library and other nearby libraries for useful information on the development of the library project here.

Tom Gamblin, president of the Friends organization who attended the board meeting, reported the "library booster group" has spent between $1,000 and $1,500 of its own funds for library furniture, most of it going into new shelving.

Board members attending were Mrs. Ruth Young, David Newby, Mrs. Gamblin and Jim Cornish.

Post defeats Slaton club to win Teen-Age tourney

Post held off a determined Slaton rally in the final innings Saturday night to win the championship of the Jaycees' first annual Teen-Age Invitational baseball tournament, 6 to 4, before a large crowd at David Nichols Park.

Leading 6-0 through the top half of the sixth inning (Slaton was playing as the home team in the championship game), the Post team saw its lead threatened with a pair of Slaton runs in the bottom of the sixth on Washington's towering homer over the left field fence, and two more in the bottom of the seventh.

Thomas struck out to open the bottom of the seventh, but Strickland and Winchester hit back to back singles and scored on two infield errors to cut Post's lead to 4-4.

With Larry Pickens on second and Burrell on first following the errors, the dangerous Washington popped out to catcher Donnie Windham and Gordon Kitten filed out to right field to get pitcher Doyle Nichols and his Post mates out of the inning — and the game.

Post tallied twice in the first inning on Windham's two-run homer — a line shot over the center field fence — and added single runs in the third, fourth, fifth and sixth innings.

Each team collected seven hits, but the air-tight pitching of Nichols kept the Post team well in command until the Slaton uprising in the final two frames. Slaton had managed only two hits off the Post righthander before Burrell's single and Washington's home run in the bottom of the sixth.

Nichols struck out eight batters and did not issue a base on balls. Slaton used three pitchers, with starter K. Kitten the loser.

In addition to winning the championship trophy, the Post team furnished the tournament's top player in Donnie Windham, who received both the batting championship and most valuable player awards, and Ronnie Pierce, who received the best earned run average award for his pitching performance in the tournament.

The Post team, undefeated in the tournament, had advanced to Saturday night's championship game with an 8-1 victory over Floydada Friday night. Slaton, which had lost to Floydada in an earlier game, turned the tables with a 4-3 win over Floydada Saturday to advance to the championship game.

Ronnie Pierce allowed only one hit, a scratch single by left fielder John DeLeon, in pitching the Post team to its 8-1 victory over Floydada on Friday.

The Floydada run, unearned, came in the first inning on two infield errors, a base on balls and a sacrifice fly. Floydada had base runners in four other innings — four on errors and one on a fielder's choice.

Pierce fanned five and walked one in pitching the one-hitter.

Shortstop Davis Heaton slammed two two-run homers and Windham another to drive in six of the Post runs. The other two runs came in the second inning when Clyde Cash, safe on an error, scored on Paul Walker's double, and Walker scored on Jimmy Bartlett's single.

Tournament Director Frank Blanton said the sponsoring Jaycees were well pleased with the tournament's success and plan to make it an annual affair. Attendance was good at all games.

The box score of the championship game follows:

3 Post players on Petersburg roster

Two pitchers and the regular catcher of the Post Teenage team have joined the district championship Petersburg club for the regional tournament which began last night at Haskell.

The three are Doyle Nichols and Clyde Cash, pitchers, and Catcher Donnie Windham.

Tournament rules provide the district champion can add two pitchers and a catcher from one of the other league teams to bolster the mound staff and catching department for the tournament.

Babe Ruth All-Stars cop Floydada tourney

Post's Babe Ruth League All-Stars, managed by Jimmy Bird, won the championship of the Floydada Invitational Baseball Tournament with a 7 to 3 victory over the Floydada All-Stars Saturday night.

The Post team had opened tournament play with a 9 to 2 win over Lockney and then advanced to the championship game with a 4-3 victory over Floydada Lighthouse Electric on Thursday night.

In winning the championship trophy Saturday night, Post scored their first run in the first inning when George Torres walked, stole second and then came home on Gary Martin's double to left field.

The locals picked up their second run in the third when Jay Bird's double to center field scored Torres, who had drawn a base on balls for the second time. Post scored two more before the inning was over, with Ray Altman reaching base on an error and Steve Colazo laying down a bunt.

Two more tallies came across in the fifth with Altman and Martin banging hits to left field and Colazo and Victor Vargas bunting their way on. Post's final run came in the seventh when Martin doubled to left field, stole third and scored on a long sacrifice fly by Vargas.

Vargas started on the mound for Post in the championship game, but was relieved by Martin in the second after experiencing a little control trouble. Martin went the rest of the way in a fine pitching performance.

In their 4-3 squeaker over the Lighthouse team, Post didn't score until the fifth, when they chased three runs across.

Torres was thrown out trying to steal second after drawing a walk, but Butch Heaton followed with a base on balls and scored on Dennis Dodson's double to left. Altman, the big gun for Post in this game, then homered over the left field fence.

Floydada had scored a run in the fourth on an overthrow at first base, and tied the score in the seventh with two runs on three walks and one hit.

Torres walked to lead off the bottom of the seventh, with one out. He advanced to second on a wild pitch and went to third on Bird's sacrifice bunt. Bird made first base, but was called out for interference — after quite a discussion — which left Torres on third with two outs.

Altman worked the count to three-and-two, then popped a Texas Leaguer to a left field to win the game.

Martin pitched a fine game against the Lighthouse team, but the victory went to Altman, who relieved him in the seventh inning.

In their 9-2 opening round win over Lockney, Post got its first run in the second inning on an error.

The locals scored four in the third, Terry Cross starting it off with a line drive to center. Torres walked, and Bird lined one through the hole to right center. Altman drove one to right field for a hit, and Martin drilled one to left to account for the four tallies.

Post didn't score again until the seventh, when they came up with four more. Bruce Hall walked, and Bird got on with a bunt. Altman walked to load the bases, and Martin parked one over the fence for a grand slam homer.

Both Lockney runs, one in the first and one in the seventh, were the result of Post errors.

Vargas pitched a no-hitter against the Lockney team.

The tournament championship win completed a successful season for the Post All-Stars. In pre-tournament games, they won over Crosbyton, 26-2, and over Slaton twice, 4-0 and 6-2.

In the Babe Ruth tournament at Denver City, Post lost to Lamesa, 8-3, defeated Frontier, 9-1, and lost to Brownfield, 7-5. Errors hurt the Post club in both losses.

"We feel we had the best team in the tournament, next to Lamesa," Manager Bird said. "You have to consider both Brownfield and Lamesa have baseball in their schools."

Aug. 15—First day for fall conditioning in Classes AAA, AA and A; first day for all conditioning in Classes B, Six-Man and Eight-Man (no contact equipment or contact activities permitted).

Aug. 17—First day for issuing shoes and socks in Class AAAA (no conditioning drills or organized instruction permitted).

Aug. 22—First day issuing contact equipment and conducting activities in Classes B, Six-Man and Eight-Man; first day for football conditioning in Class AAAA (no contact equipment or contact activities permitted; first day for interschool scrimmages in Classes AAA, AA, A, B, Six-Man and Eight-Man).

Aug. 26—First day for issuing contact equipment and having contact activities in Class AAAA.

Sept. 9—First day for playing football games in all classes.

This is a nutshell, says Classes AAA, AA and A can start full-fledged football practice Aug. 15 and that Class AAAA must wait 11 days to reach that stature. This is because only Class AAAA has spring training; thus it must start later in the fall to compensate the other divisions.

But Class AAAA will have plenty of time to get into shape—15 days. Besides, these schools were able to spend 21 days in spring training, which puts them ahead on the others over-all.

Texas schoolboy football seems to be on a decided upward swing and this fall should be no exception. The 1965 campaign probably was the best in the league's history. It excited Texas schoolboy football when all-star teams beat Pennsylvania in the Big 33 game at Hershey, Pa., and Texas whipped Oklahoma in the Oil Bowl at Wichita Falls.

The players get better and smarter, the coaching improves and all-in-all, Texas is the garden spot of schoolboy football.

Five streaks will go on the line when the fall campaign opens—Wills Point's 15 straight in winning the Class A championship, Brownwood's 14-0 record in taking the Class AAA title, Class AAAA champion Odessa Permian's 12-game skein and Class AA titlist Plano's 11 in a row.

The fifth streak: Well, it is owned by Madisonville, which lost 39 in succession, starting in 1962. It is the all-time losing record in Texas.

Madisonville, however, has hopes of getting off the spot. It has dropped from Class AA to Class A.

About one-half of annual cotton consumption goes into the production of clothing.

Grid season begins for all classes on Sept. 9

The 47th year of the Texas Interscholastic League football program starts Sept. 9. It is the first time in years for one starting date for all classes.

Previously all except Class AAAA opened the first week in September.

Anyway, 957 schools—the largest in history—will go to the post a few weeks from now. Seems like a short summer, doesn't it?

Practice openings vary. Under a complicated system, this is the schedule:

Aug. 10—First day to issue football shoes and socks in Classes AAA, AA, A, B Six-Man and Eight-Man (no conditioning equipment or organized instruction permitted.)

Aug. 15—First day for fall conditioning in Classes AAA, AA and A; first day for all conditioning in Classes B, Six-Man and Eight-Man (no contact equipment or contact activities permitted).

Aug. 17—First day for issuing shoes and socks in Class AAAA (no conditioning drills or organized instruction permitted).

Aug. 22—First day issuing contact equipment and conducting activities in Classes B, Six-Man and Eight-Man; first day for football conditioning in Class AAAA (no contact equipment or contact activities permitted; first day for interschool scrimmages in Classes AAA, AA, A, B, Six-Man and Eight-Man).

Aug. 26—First day for issuing contact equipment and having contact activities in Class AAAA.

Sept. 9—First day for playing football games in all classes.

This is a nutshell, says Classes AAA, AA and A can start full-fledged football practice Aug. 15 and that Class AAAA must wait 11 days to reach that stature. This is because only Class AAAA has spring training; thus it must start later in the fall to compensate the other divisions.

It excited Texas schoolboy football when all-star teams beat Pennsylvania in the Big 33 game at Hershey, Pa., and Texas whipped Oklahoma in the Oil Bowl at Wichita Falls.

The players get better and smarter, the coaching improves and all-in-all, Texas is the garden spot of schoolboy football.

Five streaks will go on the line when the fall campaign opens—Wills Point's 15 straight in winning the Class A championship, Brownwood's 14-0 record in taking the Class AAA title, Class AAAA champion Odessa Permian's 12-game skein and Class AA titlist Plano's 11 in a row.

The fifth streak: Well, it is owned by Madisonville, which lost 39 in succession, starting in 1962. It is the all-time losing record in Texas.

Madisonville, however, has hopes of getting off the spot. It has dropped from Class AA to Class A.

About one-half of annual cotton consumption goes into the production of clothing.

Installment payments should not exceed 20% of your income

Before you decide to buy something on credit be sure you know just how much credit your family can afford, urges Mrs. Wanda Meyer, Texas A&M University Extension home management specialist.

Installment credit can be very useful, but its overuse can be dangerous, she adds.

When you buy on credit or use a payment plan, remember that sooner or later the total cost must be paid and that using credit usually costs extra. If any or may not be worth the extra cost to you.

"Misuse of credit is causing an alarming number of families in the United States to file bankruptcy proceedings," Mrs. Meyer says. The reason, in most cases, is poor management rather than just a lack of money. These families just use more credit than they can afford, she emphasizes.

Before buying on credit, first make sure you can meet all the necessary payments on your credit purchases — even in case of an emergency that would reduce income or cause increased spending, Mrs. Meyer urges.

According to some financial experts, if the repayment of your installment debts — not including mortgage payments or ordinary monthly bills — will take more than one year and you have $200 or less in ready cash, you're not in a good position to cope with emergencies. If you are using more than 20 per cent of your income to repay installment debts, finance experts consider you a poor risk.

"Unless you know you can meet your financial obligations in an emergency, better wait awhile before buying any more goods on credit," Mrs. Meyer recommends.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER ELEVEN ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 8, 1966.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 19 proposing an Amendment to Section 49-d, Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas, declaring state policy regarding optimum development of water reservoirs; providing for the use of the Texas Water Development Fund under such conditions as the Legislature may prescribe by General Law in the acquisition and development of storage facilities and any system of works properly appurtenant thereto; providing for the sale, lease or transfer of such facilities under General Laws; providing for long-term contracts for water storage facilities; authorizing the issuance of an additional $200,000,000 in bonds by the Texas Water Development Board up to a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the elected members of each house; providing that anticipatory legislation shall not be invalid because of its anticipatory character; providing for the necessary election, form of ballot; and proclamation.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 49-d of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended to read as follows:

"Section 49-d. It is hereby declared to be the policy of the State of Texas to encourage the optimum development of the limited number of feasible sites available for the construction or enlargement of dams and reservoirs for conservation of the public waters of the state, which waters are held in trust for the use and benefit of the public. The proceeds from the sale of the additional bonds authorized hereunder deposited in the Texas Water Development Fund and the proceeds of bonds previously authorized by Article III, Section 49-c of this Constitution, may be used by the Texas Water Development Board, under such provisions as the Legislature may prescribe by General Law, including the requirement of a permit for storage or beneficial use, for the additional purposes of acquiring and developing storage facilities, and any system or works necessary for the filtration, treatment and transportation of water from storage to points of treatment, filtration and/or distribution, including facilities for transporting water therefrom to wholesale purchasers, or for any one or more of such purposes or methods; provided, however, the Texas Water Development Fund or any other state fund provided for water development, transmission, transfer or filtration shall not be used to finance any project which contemplates or results in the removal from the basin of origin of any surface water necessary to supply the reasonably foreseeable future water requirements for the next ensuing fifty-year period within the river basin of origin, except on a temporary, interim basis.

"Under such provisions as the Legislature may prescribe by General Law the Texas Water Development Fund may be used for the conservation and development of water for useful purposes by construction or reconstruction or enlargement of reservoirs constructed or to be constructed or enlarged within the State of Texas or on any stream constituting a boundary of the State of Texas, together with any system or works necessary for the filtration, treatment and/or transportation of water, by any one or more of the following governmental agencies: by the United States of America or any agency, department or instrumentality thereof; by the State of Texas or any agency, department or instrumentality thereof; by political subdivisions or bodies politic and corporate of the state; by interstate compact commissions to which the State of Texas is a party; and by municipal corporations. The Legislature shall provide terms and conditions under which the Texas Water Development Board may sell, transfer or lease, in whole or in part, any reservoir and associated system or works which the Texas Water Development Board has financed in whole or in part.

"Under such provisions as the Legislature may prescribe by General Law, the Texas Water Development Board may also execute long-term contracts with the United States or any of its agencies for the acquisition and development of storage facilities in reservoirs constructed or to be constructed by the Federal Government. Such contracts when executed shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas in the same manner and with the same effect as state bonds issued under the authority of the preceding Section 49-c of this Constitution, and the provisions in said Section 49-c with respect to payment of principal and interest on state bonds issued shall likewise apply with respect to payment of principal and interest required to be paid by such contracts. If storage facilities are acquired for a term of years, such contracts shall contain provisions for renewal that will protect the state's investment.

"The aggregate of the bonds authorized hereunder shall not exceed $200,000,000 and shall be in addition to the aggregate of the bonds previously authorized by said Section 49-c of Article III of this Constitution. The Legislature upon two-thirds (2/3) vote of the elected members of each House, may authorize the Board to issue all or any portion of such $200,000,000 in additional bonds herein authorized.

"The Legislature shall provide terms and conditions for the Texas Water Development Board to sell, transfer or lease, in whole or in part, any acquired storage facilities or the right to use such storage facilities together with any associated system or works necessary for the filtration, treatment or transportation of water at a price not less than the direct cost of the Board in acquiring same; and the Legislature may provide terms and conditions for the Board to sell any unappropriated public waters of the state that might be stored in such facilities. As a prerequisite to the purchase of such storage or water, the applicant therefor shall have secured a valid permit from the Texas Water Commission or its successor authorizing the acquisition of such storage facilities or the water impounded therein. The money received from any sale, transfer or lease of storage facilities or associated system or works shall be used to pay principal and interest on state bonds issued or contractual obligations incurred by the Texas Water Development Board, provided that when moneys are provided to pay the full amount of indebtedness then outstanding and the full amount of interest to accrue thereon, any further sums received from the sale, transfer or lease of such storage facilities or associated system or works may be used for the acquisition of additional storage or works or for providing financial assistance as authorized by said Section 49-c. Money received from the sale of water, which shall include standby services, may be used for the operation and maintenance of acquired facilities, and for the payment of principal and interest on debt incurred thereon.

"Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this Amendment, such Acts shall not be void by reason of their anticipatory character."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1966, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment authorizing the issuance of an additional $200,000,000 in Texas Water Development Bonds and providing for further investment of the Texas Water Development Fund in reservoirs and associated facilities."

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment authorizing the issuance of an additional $200,000,000 in Texas Water Development Bonds and providing for further investment of the Texas Water Development Fund in reservoirs and associated facilities."

Sec. 3. The Governor of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election and this Amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time as required by the Constitution and laws of this state.

Reunion time again for Grassland folks

By MRS. O. H. HOOVER

It's reunion time again for our Grassland families. There are several reports of them in this news. How nice it is to get to see everyone again and visit and, I am afraid, gossip about the one that didn't come. (Or do we do that I wonder?)

Our largest reunion this week was the Porterfield reunion held in O'Donnell Sunday with 106 relatives and friends attending. They came from all over. Included were Gus Porterfield's sisters, Mrs. Lena Pollock, Bell Gardens, Calif.; Mrs. Pearl Pollock, Oklahoma City, Okla.; a brother, J. A. Porterfield, and family of Greeley, Colo.; a nephew and family, the Herman Pollocks of Oklahoma City. There was lots of good food and lots of visiting.

The brother and sisters and other relatives that came from a distance were guests in the Gus Porterfield and J. E. Sherrill homes.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. McCleskey have gone to California to visit his brother, Leonard, and to bring back his parents, the W. G. McCleskeys, who have been visiting there for some time.

The James Murray family and Norma Jean Campbell have gone to Tres Ritos, N. M., on vacation. The Rev. and Mrs. Elmer Stahly are moving this week to Pampa. The Nazarene Church will have a new pastor Aug. 8. He is a Rev. Rawlings of Hobart, Okla.

The Nurse Workman family have moved into one of Mrs. E. M. Walker's houses. Welcome to our community, folks.

Little Brad Huffaker returned home Saturday after an 11-day stay in the hospital and is doing fine.

An aunt and uncle of W. L. Gribble, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Joiner, visited the Gribbles and J. M. Pattersons most of last week. Grandma Gribble came and stayed while they were there.

Weekend visitors of the W. L. Gribbles were Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Luttrell of Lubbock, Ralph Luttrell and family, Ross and family, Mrs. Neasmith and family, the H. C. Gribble family, Mrs. Billie Stanley and children, Mrs. Joyce Bevers, Mrs. Sue Melton and children and the Sonny Pattersons.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Gribble spent part of last weekend in Muleshoe attending a Jackson reunion.

H. D. Gartman's mother passed away the first of last week. We extend sympathy.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Fitts and son and another couple attended the Fitts family reunion in Lamesa Saturday night and part of Sunday.

Mrs. A. Z. Sewell attended funeral services of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Eva Stark, in Estancia, N. M. last week. Mrs. Stark was the sister of the late Alton Sewell.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Luttrell visited his sisters, Mrs. Nordyke and Mrs. McDonald in Tahoka Saturday.

A group of the Draw HD ladies attended the annual club dinner in the home of the president, Mrs. V. L. Row, in Tahoka Thursday. Louise and Laura Gerner spent their vacations at home with their parents, the Amos Gerners.

Jerry Hill, a Navy boy just home from Japan, visited in the Gerner home Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Gerner took Jerry Hill, Jerry Turner and their daughters out to dinner at Ge'nez Steak House in Post Saturday night.

Mrs. O. F. Haley is recuperating in the Gerner home after being in the Slaton hospital for a week. Emma and Linda K. Mueller visited in the Gerner home Saturday afternoon and Ruby Claborn Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Gerner visited the Wes Dohahos in the Slaton hospital Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Walker of Waco visited over the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Lucian Walker, and his brother, C. A. Walker, and Mrs. Walker. Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Walker of Littlefield came for a visit Saturday afternoon.

MRS. C. C. Jones and son, Carl, loaded the wrecked car in Carl's truck and took Mrs. Hardin and car to Coleman last Tuesday. The ladies, Mrs. Hardin and Mrs. Close, are doing fine. Mrs. Jones spent the night in Post with the Carl Joneses Tuesday.

Mrs. LaRue Jones, former resident, returned to her home in Virginia after spending a month here visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Guy Floyd of Post and Edna Vainwater of Snyder visited their sister, Mrs. Carl Greer, Sunday afternoon. Carl is about the same.

Mrs. Doyle Terry visited her sister, Mrs. C. A. Walker last Thursday. She brought Jeanie Inklebar home after Jeanie had been visiting for a week.

I had a wonderful surprise Sunday. I was awakened by the telephone ringing at 6 a. m., and guess what? It was my son, Col. Jack Hoover, of Clark AFB in the Philippine Islands. He called to wish me a happy birthday and was just wonderful to talk to the entire family! I could hear their fine and they are all well. Rejoice with me.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ward of Lufkin arrived Tuesday to visit her mother, Mrs. G. H. Spears, who is not doing so well in this hot weather. We hope she will feel better soon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Walker visited their daughter and family in Seagraves Monday and brought their granddaughter, Cristy Lynn, home with them.

Littlefield were luncheon guests in the home of their mother last Friday.

A list of approximately 161 textbooks offered for adoption in Texas as public schools has been mailed to all county and independent school district superintendents.

New weaving mill with payroll of 60 for Spur

SPUR — The Spur Industrial Foundation has secured a new weaving mill for Spur which will mean a new $200,000 annual payroll for this community.

The new firm, its name not as yet announced, will employ 60 persons in three shifts. Forty per cent will be women and 60 per cent men.

The Foundation through funds raised from Spur business men with the balance borrowed will build a $65,000 building on the foundation's land west of Dickens County Electric.

The building, which will be 100 feet wide by 200 feet long, will be specifically designed for the weaving mill.

The mill will have 120 looms and will weave coarse cloth known as Osanburg — a lightweight canvas material.

A. Frank Kelley of Victoria, former professor of textile engineering at Texas Tech, has been a consultant in the negotiations for the new industry. It is reported he will be the manager of the new plant. He has had 35 years experience in the textile industry.

Ransom Galloway, president of the Spur bank and also head of the industrial foundation, said the foundation will construct the building and lease it, probably for 15 years, to a corporation that will eventually purchase the plant on a lease-purchase arrangement.

The corporation, which has not been officially named but is known unofficially as Spur Textiles, Inc., will purchase the necessary machinery and will provide operating capital.

It is expected to incorporate for $225,000.

The new mill will produce approximately 68,000 pounds of fabric weekly. It is understood that materials for the operation will be purchased from spinning mills in Abernathy and Lubbock.

Only a few technicians will be brought in to staff the new plant with most of the employees coming from the Spur area labor supply.

Galloway termed the announcement of the plant as "probably the biggest thing that's ever happened in Spur."

How you drive will determine your cost for auto insurance

How Garza counties drive their automobiles during the next 12 months will determine what they pay for car insurance a year from now.

Traffic violations, as well as accidents, will appear on your experience record and will count against you.

The new plan designed by the State Board of Insurance will hit where it hurts the most—the purse. Or conversely, if you care to look at it that way, it will lighten the load on those who are penalized by higher rates because of the carelessness of others. And that's the way it really is, since some kind of increase is necessary.

Penalty points are now being assessed motorists for accidents and major violations—including speeding.

One penalty point will mean a 15 per cent hike, two points 35 per cent, three points 60 per cent and four or more points 90 per cent.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. A. W. BOUCHIER

A precious one from us has gone The heart we loved is still A place is vacant in that home That never can be filled.

Words cannot express the sadness That the absence of that dear one gives But I pray that we all may meet her In that home where pleasure lives

Oh, how we all will miss her In her home she loved so well There her rocker its sets empty See the Bible she loved so well.

We will keep them all in memory Of our love one gone before And we hope some day to meet her On that bright and beautiful shore.

She was taken from us through sickness Yet we know it was God's holy will

So our dear one now lies sleeping She is silent, cold and still.

Oh, how we long to see our loved one In that home so bright and fair We can see her sweet face laughing As she climbs the golden stair.

She is awaiting our coming In that home prepared up there Where there is no thought of parting And there is no sorrow there.

And to wear a crown of glory And to sit on that bright throne We will come to our Dear Mother When the Lord has called us home.

Written by Mrs. Dock Kennedy, one of Mrs. Bouchier's Sunday School pupils.

Washability key word in 1966 school clothes for grade set

COLLEGE STATION—Washability is the key word for the 1966 back-to-school clothes for the grade school set.

So says Dr. Graham Hard, Extension clothing specialist at Texas A&M University.

Full cottons, corduroys, washable knit machine, washable wools, stretch nylons, vinyls and a number of other washable fabrics are the answer to a busy mother's prayer. She can select her youngsters' year-round school clothes from an unending variety of styles, colors and sizes in small fry fashions.

Leaders in style this fall are the Mod, Military and Western looks. Girls from kindergarten through grammar school will be seen sporting patriotic red, white and blue dresses with brass buttons and epaulettes; short swinging plaid skirts; "Poor Boy" sweaters; coordinated but restyled knits; bell-bottom slacks; pants suits; and vinyl dresses and novel jumpers.

Cotton dyes more easily, more evenly, and with faster colors than any other fabric.

Other styles for very young scholars are the bright, neon-colored dresses in A-line and tent shapes and smock tops and novel knits that breeze successfully through automatic washers and dryers. Popular also are durable pre-prints and plaids in dresses, shirts, skirts and western motif pants; and "total look" coats with matching dresses, jumpers, slacks and tops.

Selective shopping is important to achieve full value, even if you are adding only one new item to your child's wardrobe. Look for long-lasting, quality fabrics that wash well and iron easily, or those that need no ironing at all. Be sure to match and mix separates and to coordinate new clothes with those on hand. Try adding a fun or fad hat or gloves to complete a winter coat outfit.

Choose wash-fast dyes in the newest favorite colors and add them to your child's existing wardrobe. This year plum, red, reds, golds, neon bright and dusk blues are favored.

$24,000 premiums at state fair

DALLAS — The State Fair of Texas Exposition of Young America in Dallas Oct. 8 through 23 will hit its climax the second week during the annual series of junior livestock shows and auction sales.

Roy W. Wilson, manager of State Fair's livestock department, has announced that 2,000 Future Farmers and 4-H Club exhibitors will share a grand total of $24,000 in premiums offered by beef and dairy beefers, steer, lamb and barrow shows.

"In addition to the premiums, the boys and girls will receive approximately $150,000 from the sale of 2,000 market animals on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 21-22," he said.

The 2-day public auctions will offer the grand champion and all other prize-winning steers the first day, and the champions and all other prize-winning barrows and lambs the second day. Each sale will open at 9:30 a.m. in the livestock area at Fair Park, with Colonel Walter Britten of Bryan, Texas, chanting up the bids.

Cotton is a favorite choice for rainwear.

EISENHOWERS CELEBRATE GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

LEFT: Newly married, Lieutenant and Mrs. Dwight David Eisenhower posed for this formal portrait following their marriage ceremony on July 1, 1916.

The Eisenhowers' July first golden wedding anniversary marks the first time in 119 years that a former President and his lady have reached this milestone. John Quincy Adams and his wife celebrated their 50th anniversary on July 26, 1847. Respecting the wishes of General and Mrs. Eisenhower, a committee headed by Bob Hope, comedian, and Robert E. Anderson, former Treasury Secretary, is urging that in lieu of gifts to the couple, contributions should be sent to Eisenhower College, a new co-educational liberal arts college named after the General. Contributions are tax deductible and may be sent to Eisenhower College, Seneca Falls, New York (or c/o Postmaster) where they will be permanently recorded.
