School bells have different message

The 1968-69 school term doesn't officially open here until Wednesday, Aug. 28, but for many administrators, teachers and custodians it has been under way for some time. And with band drills and football practice beginning Monday, Aug. 19, it will be under way for even more teachers and a large number of students.

And for several hundred youngsters in Post and millions of others throughout the nation, the ringing of that first school bell will signal the official closing of summer.

In days past, when a majority of our people lived in rural areas and scattered small towns, that bell often rang in the typical one-room schoolhouse, calling youngsters from the dusty lanes, the fields, and the swimming holes where they worked and played, learned and grew during the days of summer. Answering its call, they came to resume, often with considerable reluctance, the regimentation of school hours and the traditional pursuit of at least a passing proficiency in the three R's. For most people, an education was something you got through "when you were a kid" so that you could get on about the business of making your way in the world.

The school bells of today carry a far different message and challenge to the nation's present generation of young people. The store of man's knowledge is increasing so rapidly that no one can estimate what it may hold 10 or 20 years from now. In such a world, the schoolroom has become, not a place of dull drudgery, but a vital and broadening bridge of man's accomplishments and offering the young people of today the capacity to build a future beyond our present imagination.

Our young people have a new enthusiasm for education, and this is our greatest national asset. But, they must learn of our heritage and the roots of our freedom, as well as the wonders of our technical accomplishment and capacity. As they return to school this fall, they deserve all the encouragement and opportunity which we can give them.

Take time to visit Boy Scout camp

Only a few more weeks remain of the summer camping season at C. W. Post Memorial Boy Scout Camp here, where each week nearly 200 Boy Scouts and their adult leaders have enjoyed a week of camping out.

Those who have not yet attended one of the Friday family night affairs at the camp should avail themselves of the opportunity to do so, if at all possible. The family night event starts with a chicken supper at the mess hall and ends with a court of honor and Indian campfire.

From three to four hundred Scouts, leaders, parents and friends have been attending these courts of honor and Indian campfires, which include awards and other recognitions to the Scouts.

For those who haven't visited the Boy Scout camp within the last two or three years, the many new improvements to be seen there will be well worth the time they take to go out and look around—CD

What our contemporaries are saying

Those who read accounts of last week's first direct commercial airline flights from New York to Moscow and back probably noticed that the trip to Moscow took only 10 1/2 hours while the flight back required 11 1/2 hours. This should be a warning that it's easier to go Communist than it is to come back.—Bob Miller in The Hamilton Herald-News.

Well, life does get simpler in some ways instead of more complicated. With the introduction of light-legged trousers, a man no longer needs to decide whether to take his shoes or his trousers off first. That decision is made. The shoes have to come off first.—Harold Hudson in The Perryton Sunday Herald.

Did you know that in Mexico, 15 year olds are allowed to vote if they are married?

Apparently the Mexicans agree with what our servicemen have been saying all along—if you're old enough to fight, you're old enough to vote.

It was surprising for me to learn from a recent magazine article that less than 3 per cent of wildcat wells drilled result in oil production.

I have made small investments in several wildcat prospects and have yet to hit a dry hole. Of course I have never struck any oil either, but I own enough salt water that if I had a place to put it I could start my own ocean.

According to a social worker, young men becoming a father for the first time need almost as much care as their wives.

I can understand that. After our first child was born I was a nervous wreck, and that was back in the days when a hospital room cost only $10 a day.

I read that a drug chain in Arizona offers customers 30 cents' worth of postage stamps for 25 cents.

There must be a catch to it somewhere. They probably don't give trading stamps.

Regardless of who is elected President, don't you think we will have a more conservative Congress next year?

Probably, but if Lyndon gets a chance to name any more Supreme Court Justices, it won't make any difference. The three he has appointed so far, Thurgood Marshall, Abe Fortas, and Homer Thornberry, are liberal enough to offset 100 conservative Congressmen.

Did you know that begonia seed sell for as much as $30.00 per pound. Can you think of anything else so expensive?

Not offhand, unless it's those ten cent bags of potato chips.

THE STANDARD bearer's surname, NIXON, is a diminutive meaning "son of Nicholas." Nicholas, of which Nicholas is another form, is from the Greek, meaning "victory people," and was a popular first name in England even before surnames came into general use. Nicholas was the patron saint of children, mariners, pawnbrokers, wolves and Russians, and naturally had a great vogue as a given name.

Since I'm on the subject, the reader might be interested in knowing the origin and meaning of the surnames of the two leading candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination — Humphrey and McCarthy. The name Humphrey is a variation of Humfrey, meaning "giant peace." The name is Germanic in origin, but was Normanized before reaching the British Isles, where it became a fairly common surname, particularly in Wales.

THE NAME McCarthy is Irish in origin and means "son of Craddock." Craddock is derived from the Welsh "Caradawg," an early-day warrior of Wales, who was taken in bondage to Rome in A. D. 51.

Since George Wallace is expected equal time in television coverage of the American Party's political convention, I might as well give him equal time in this week's "name game." Wallace is the Scottish form of Wallis, which in the Norman dialect meant "Kelt, Welshman, Briton or foreigner," depending on which part of post-Conquest England the invaders found someone to whom they wanted to give the name.

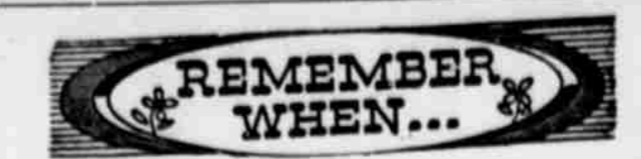

OF THE BUNCH, the names of Nixon and Humphrey go back to the best slogan origins — Nixon's meaning "victory people" and Humphrey's meaning "great peace" both of prime importance in this year's campaigns.

The United Democrats for Humphrey point out, however, that the great playwright William Shakespeare showed remarkable political presence and judgement.

Writing in about 1591, Shakespeare pointed out that "Humphrey is a little man." (Henry VI Part II, Act III, sc. 1, 20).

The Bard also had some good advice for concerned voters: "And listen after Humphrey, how he proceeds." (Henry VI, Part II, Act I, sc. III, 152).

HAVE YOU noticed that the Hillbilly set is in the fried chicken business in a big way? First there was Colonel Sanders of Kentucky, then Minnie Pearl. And now there's

Antelope permits will be issued

SAN ANGELO — The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department tentatively plans to issue 110 permits — 13 of them in Garza County — for the 1968 Permian Basin antelope hunt which runs Sept. 28 through Oct. 6.

Biologist George Litton of the department says a relatively good antelope population exists, and the 110 permits will be for harvesting surplus animals.

By other counties, permits are expected to be issued as follows: Borden County, 30; Howard, 6; Midland, 10; Lubbock, 2; Mitchell, 4; Glasscock, 25; Reagan, 5; Sterling, 4 and Gaines, 2.

Drownings take climb in Texas

AUSTIN — Drownings have accounted for 379 deaths in Texas so far this year, 62 more than the 317 recorded for all of 1967, according to R. G. Mauermann, deputy director for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Many of the more recent drownings occurred while the victims were swimming. "The information we receive on what occurs in these drownings indicates that most occur when the victims tend themselves more than their abilities warrant," said Mauermann.

"Poor swimmers are constantly getting themselves into predicaments from which they are unable to extricate themselves. In some cases, they not only drown themselves, but someone else as well," he said.

"I question anyone's right to endanger a situation which could endanger a would-be rescuer," Mauermann said.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER SEVEN ON THE BALLOT (SJR32)

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article VIII, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended by adding a new Section 1-a to read as follows:

"Section 1-a.

"1. From and after December 31, 1978, no State ad valorem taxes shall be levied upon any property within this State for State purposes except the tax levied by Article VII, Section 17, for certain institutions of higher learning.

"2. The State ad valorem tax authorized by Article VII, Section 3, of this Constitution shall be imposed at the following rates on each One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation for the years 1968 through 1974: On January 1, 1968, Thirty-five Cents (35¢); on January 1, 1969, Thirty Cents (30¢); on January 1, 1970, Twenty-five Cents (25¢); on January 1, 1971, Twenty Cents (20¢); on January 1, 1972, Fifteen Cents (15¢); on January 1, 1973, Ten Cents (10¢); on January 1, 1974, Five Cents (5¢); and thereafter no such tax for school purposes shall be levied and collected. An amount sufficient to provide free text books for the use of children attending the public free schools of this State shall be set aside from any revenues deposited in the Available School Fund, provided, however, that should such funds be insufficient, the deficit may be met by appropriation from the general funds of the State.

"3. The State ad valorem tax of Two Cents (2¢) on the One Hundred Dollars valuation levied by Article VII, Section 17, of this Constitution shall not be levied after December 31, 1976. At any time prior to December 31, 1976, the Legislature may establish a trust fund solely for the benefit of the widows of Confederate veterans and such Texas Rangers and their widows as are eligible for retirement or disability pensions under the provisions of Article XVI, Section 66, of this Constitution, and after such fund is established the ad valorem tax levied by Article VII, Section 17, shall not thereafter be levied.

"4. Unless otherwise provided by the Legislature, after December 31, 1976 all delinquent State ad valorem taxes together with penalties and interest thereon, less lawful costs of collection, shall be used to secure bonds issued for permanent improvements at institutions of higher learning, as authorized by Article VII, Section 17, of this Constitution.

"5. The fees paid by the State for both assessing and collecting State ad valorem taxes shall not exceed two per cent (2%) of the State taxes collected. This subsection shall be self-executing.

Sec. 2. That Article III, Section 51, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended so as hereinafter to read as follows:

"Section 51. The Legislature shall have no power to make any grant or authorize the making of any grant of public moneys to any individual, association of individuals, municipal or other corporations whatsoever; provided, however, the Legislature may grant aid to indigent and disabled Confederate soldiers and sailors under such regulations and limitations as may be deemed by the Legislature as expedient, and to their widows in indigent circumstances under such regulations and limitations as may be deemed by the Legislature; provided that the provisions of this Section shall not be construed so as to prevent the grant of aid in cases of public calamity.

Sec. 3. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November 1968, at which election all ballots shall have printed on them the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment continuously reducing State ad valorem property taxes and abolishing all State ad valorem property taxes after December 31, 1978, except the tax levied by Article VII, Section 17, for certain institutions of higher learning.

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment continuously reducing State ad valorem property taxes and abolishing all State ad valorem property taxes after December 31, 1978, except the tax levied by Article VII, Section 17, for certain institutions of higher learning.

MOTHER SHIPTON'S PROPHECY
 Editor's Note: A Dispatch reader has come across a copy of the "Mother Shipton's Prophecy" which she submits for the benefit of other readers who do not have seen it.)

Mother Shipton was born in Berkshire, England, in 1488 and died about 1559. In books of information she is described as a half-bred English prophetess, baptised Ursula Shipton. According to tradition, she was the child of a miller and the devil. Following extracts from her prophetic prophecies were taken from a scrap book.

"Carriage without horses shall fill the world with disaster. Primrose Hill in London hold a Bishop's seat; the world men's thoughts shall fly, quick as the twin of an eye.

"And waters shall great wonders show strange and yet it shall be true; then upside down the world shall be; and gold found at root of tree; through towering proud men shall ride, nor shall ass move by his side. Beneath the waters men shall ride, shall sleep and shall talk; and in the air shall be in white, in black, as well green; a great man then shall be and go; for prophecy deers it so.

"The water iron then shall float; easy as a wooden boat; gold shall be found in stream and stone; and that is as yet unknown; and fire shall wonders do; England shall admit a Jew. The Jew that once was held in prison; shall of a Christian then be; a house of glass shall come.

Cotton Board asks approval of new program for 1969

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — The Cotton Board has recommended approval of a $10-million research and program for 1969 to be administered by the Cotton Research Institute and carried out by the National Cotton Council.

The announcement was made by George C. Corright, Rolling Fork, chairman of the Board. Textile Board members are Roy Davis, Lubbock; J. B. Cooper, Waco; Jay I. Naman, Waco; R. R. Funk, Harlingen; and George Lee Smith, Prairie View. Textile members are Donald A. Green, Lubbock; J. F. Crews, Waco; John W. Niglarzo, Hearne; Frank Stubbs, Corpus Christi; John C. Williams, Prairie View. He pointed out that the budget for 1969 represents a 25 per cent increase over 1968, and highly commended Texas cotton growers for their support of the $1-million effort which is making this possible.

Contributions across the Belt on 77.3-million-bale crop amount to more than $7 million as of July 31. This is better than 95 per cent, and some funds still are in need and some cotton still in the hands of growers. Collections in Texas totaled more than 97 per cent of ginnings.

RIGHTWAY APPOINTMENT
 DISTRICT — State Highway Engineer J. C. Dingwall has named Edward E. Stotzer of New Braunfels to the job of district highway engineer at Pharr in the Lower Rio Grande Valley, succeeding James F. Snyder, who is retiring.

to pass; in England, but alas, alas! a war will follow with the work, where dwells the pagan and the Turk.

"The states will lock in fierce strife, and seek to take each other's life; when North shall thus divide the South; the eagle builds in lion's mouth; then tax and bloody cruel war shall come to every humble door.

"Three times shall sunny, lively France be led to play a bloody dance; before the people shall be free, three tyrant rulers shall she see; each sprung from different dynasty; then when the fiercest fight is done, England and France shall be as one; the British olive next shall twine in marriage with the German vine; men walk beneath and over streams; fulfilled shall be our strangest dreams.

"All England's sons shall plow the land; shall oft be seen with book in hand; the poor shall now most wisdom know; and a water wind where corn did grow; great houses stand in far-flung dale, all covered o'er with snow and hail.

"And now a word in uncouth rhyme, of what shall be in future time; for in those wondrous far off days, the women shall adopt a craze to dress like men and trousers wear, and cut off their locks of hair.

"They'll ride astride with brazen brow, as witches on a broomstick now; then love shall die and marriage cease, and nations wane as babes decrease; then wives shall fondle cats and dogs, and men live much the same as hogs.

"In nineteen hundred and thirty-six; build houses light of straw and bricks; for then shall mighty wars be planned, and fire and sword shall sweep the land; but those who live the century through, in fear and trembling they shall do.

"Flee to the mountains and the dens, to bog and forests and wolf dens; for storms shall rage and oceans roar; when Gabriel stands on sea and shore; and as he blows his wondrous horn, old worlds shall die and new be born."

"FIT THE CRIME"?
 "To make the punishment fit the crime" may have been enough of a goal, a century ago, for the comic opera team of Gilbert and Sullivan.

But not for modern criminologists. Today's goal, as the United States Supreme Court put it, is to make the punishment "fit the offender and not merely the crime."

Consider two robbers. One is a veteran safe cracker, wise in the ways of the underworld. The other is a teen-age purse snatcher, nervously trying to be tough.

Both offenders are guilty of the same crime: robbery. Yet there are obvious reasons for not treating them alike. They are different not only in the degree of their evil but also in the chance of saving them from a life of crime.

When the time comes to pronounce sentence, the judge naturally wants to take such differences into account. But he may not have any leeway. Very often a single, standard penalty is prescribed in advance by the legislature.

What happened then? There was these possibilities:

- 1) The judge may be forced to impose a sentence that he feels is unwise; or
- 2) He may get around the law—maybe by arbitrarily reducing the charge, maybe even by finding the offender not guilty at all.

In either case, as the unhappy result of a "prefabricated" sentence, justice is not done.

The problem was highlighted recently in a special report on sentencing by an advisory committee of the American Bar Association. The committee's report, part of a massive ABA study of criminal justice, urged a speedy end to too-rigid penalties frozen into law.

True, it is up to the legislature — as spokesman for the public — to set out basic standards for the punishment of wrongdoing.

But when it comes to applying those standards in a particular case, the committee said the judge should have plenty of options. He, after all, has to deal with an individual human being. Who better than the judge can make the punishment fit the man?

'The Bible' at Tower Theatre for two days

Direct from its roadshow engagement, 20th Century - Fox's presentation of Dino De Laurentiis' motion picture, "The Bible," is now showing through Saturday at the Tower Theatre at special popular prices.

Directed by John Huston, with a screenplay by Christopher Fry, Fry were determined from the "The Bible" is the first film to tell in continuous sequence the stories of The Creation, Adam and Eve, Cain and Abel, Noah and the Flood, the Tower of Babel, the Destruction of Sodom and the Saga of Abraham.

The cast of the film includes George C. Scott as Abraham; Ava Gardner as Sarah; Stephen Boyd as Nimrod, King of Babel; Richard Harris as Cain; Peter O'Toole as the Angel of the Lord; John Huston as Noah; Michael Parks as Adam. The film also introduces Ulla Bergryd as Eve.

In bringing the Bible to the screen, De Laurentiis, Huston and Fry were determined from the outset to avoid set patterns of past Biblical films that were conceived only with isolated stories. Their goal was to portray Biblical text and characters with fidelity and in the hope that the story of mankind's beginning would have significance for people of the modern world.

Because of the subject and the tremendous scope of the production, Producer De Laurentiis had his staff of creative artists working for three years on the research and writing before even a camera turned. He surrounded himself with some of the world's foremost artists and technical experts, all of whom made sure that what went on the screen was actually part of the Good Book and not simply a scriptwriter's dream.

VITAMIN FACTS & FANCIES

BEFORE VITAMINS WERE KNOWN THE ANCIENT MEXICANS THOUGHT THAT BY MAKING TINY DOLLS OUT OF A GREED PASTE, WORSHIPPING THEM ALL NIGHT, AND EATING THEM THE NEXT DAY, THEY WOULD BE PROTECTED FROM CERTAIN MALADIES!

PRENATAL VITAMINS ARE IMPORTANT! RECENT MEDICAL REPORTS SHOW THAT A DEFICIENCY IN FOLIC ACID (A VITAMIN PRESENT IN MANY FOODS, PARTICULARLY GREEN VEGETABLES) MAY PREVENT NORMAL PREGNANCY AND MAY LEAD TO RETARDED GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT OF BABIES.

VITAMINS ARE COMPLEX ORGANIC SUBSTANCES REQUIRED IN SMALL AMOUNTS FOR THE MAINTENANCE OF LIFE AND HEALTH. THE BODY CANNOT MAKE THEM, AND THOUGH THEY ARE NOT BURNED FOR ENERGY THEY HELP THE BODY PROCESSES TO FUNCTION NORMALLY!

EXTRA, EXTRA: GET YOUR DAILY VITAMINS! IT'S NO NEWS THAT WE SHOULD EAT A WELL-BALANCED DIET, BUT WE EAT ON THE RUN! THE VITAMINS REQUIRED DAILY EQUAL ONLY 1/237th OF AN OUNCE! IF YOU CAN'T ALWAYS WATCH YOUR DIET, TAKING "SUPPLEMENTAL" VITAMINS CAN INSURE MEETING YOUR NOURISHMENT "DEADLINE!"

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our appreciation to you who were ever so thoughtful and kind during the illness and death of Mrs. Kate E. Poer.
 Jim E. Poer and family

I wish to express my thanks to all those who sent cards, flowers and brought food during our recent bereavement. Thanks also to the nurses and doctors at Mercy Hospital, to those who sang at the funeral and especially to the ladies of the church who served food and the O. E. S.
 The family of F. E. Weaver

The family of Beverly Young Hanks is grateful for all the kind expressions of comfort and assistance in our loss. The food, flowers and wreaths brought to our home, the friends who called and the many prayers offered in Beverly's behalf were both comforting and helpful. In the confusion, it is possible that someone who brought food was not recorded, so if we have failed to thank anyone personally please know that we are very grateful to you. May God bless each of you.

Lin Alyn Cox becomes bride of Wendell Duncan here Saturday

Lin Alyn Cox and Wendell Duncan were united in marriage Saturday, Aug. 10, at 8 o'clock in the evening at the First Methodist Church.

At a setting of greenery and white flowers, the ceremony was performed by Rev. Marvin Carter, associate minister of the First Methodist Church of Lubbock, officiating at the reading of the double vows.

The bride wore a full-length, sleeveless gown of white silk organza with a full-length sheath of peau de soie, finished with bateau neckline and full sleeves edged in a band of embroidered lace. The lace was enhanced by the bodice with low extended down the side of the A-line silhouette.

Her hair was styled in a wave, and she wore a long green chiffon over peau de soie, and carried a mint green basket of pittosporum, cypsophila and English ivy.

As bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Massey of Fort Worth, Ronald Wright Simpson of Amarillo, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Danny Ray Williamson of Lubbock. They wore mint green dresses identical to the matron of honor and carried identical baskets. Susan Hopkins was the canopy.

Ross Hays was best man, groomsmen and ushers were Gary Simpson of Dallas, Day and Robert Hansford of Lubbock.

Miss Mary Ann Crawford of Lubbock and accompanied. Verses were sung at arrangement of 1st Corinthians, 13, and 1st Peter, 3:13-17.

Reception followed at the Community Room. Two serving tables were set with white cloths, centered with bouquets of green carnations and enhanced with silver delphinium holding light green tapers. The tiered wedding cake, and mints were served at one end and punch and coffee from a small round table with a green cloth held a stilted tree with rice bags hanging from it.

Miss Janith Short and Anne Kay Cafferly of Dallas and Miss Kay Cafferly and Mrs. Ronald Thuet of Lubbock served. Thuet also registered the reception of the house party were Preston Mathis, Stanley Hendrix and Mrs. Howard Howell Jr. of Lubbock.

The bride wore a two-piece ensemble of a navy blue sheath with a navy, red and white and navy accessories.

Cornish home scene of bridesmaid's luncheon

Mrs. Jim Cornish entertained with a 1 o'clock bridesmaid's luncheon last Saturday at her home in honor of Miss Lin Alyn Cox, who was married to Wendell Duncan that night.

Guests were seated at quartet tables which were centered with small arrangements of white chrysanthemums.

The guest list included Miss Cox, Mrs. Robert Massey of Fort Worth, Mrs. Ronald Simpson of Denton, Mrs. Danny Ray Williamson of Amarillo, Miss Sammie Kay Cafferly and Mrs. Ronald J. Thuet of Lubbock, Miss Janith Short and Miss Anne Pennington of Dallas, and Mrs. Larry Welch, Mrs. Robert E. Cox and Mrs. Floyd Duncan, all of Post.

Mrs. Marvin Hudman is hostess to class

Members of the Amiga Sunday School class of the First Baptist Church met Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Marvin Hudman with Mrs. Lowell Short and Mrs. Lester Nichols as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Joe Vernon gave an interesting review of the book "Bill Wallace of China." The late Dr. Wallace, who grew up in Tennessee, served many years as a medical missionary in China.

Guests attended from Dallas, Fort Worth, San Angelo, Colorado City, Lubbock, Big Spring, Kermit and Amarillo.

TOTAL FRUSTRATION

I can't think of a more apt title for this political-type column today.

I scanned the Lubbock A-J as we left the office Monday night and the first headline to catch my eye read: "Fence, Troops Fortify Demonstration Site." Upon scanning the story I found that the site looks like a fortified compound and that strikes by the cab drivers and bus drivers threaten during the time of the convention, and that communications are still in a mess due to the phone strike which just ended.

"That's a fine state of affairs for America, the land of the free," I commented to Mr. C. "And, you know, most of them are probably Democrats—the strikers, that is," I continued.

And then we reached home and turned on the TV news. There was THAT slick-haired American Party candidate telling how he was going to bring law and order back in one breath and in the other saying he would call out the "troops" to assure everyone that their children could attend the school of their choice in the nation's capital. "That" is law and order?

HE promises to take us back to the dark ages but surely even HE knows that the president has little power and that it is our Congress and Senate which decide these things. Poor LBJ could explain all that to HIM.

And then Corp. George Mahon came on and weakly said that he thought HEW (Health, Education and Welfare) was being a bit hasty in condemning Lubbock for the law of the land. He might just have lost my vote in upcoming years as did Renal B. Rossen, our state representative when he stood in The Post Dispatch office and told us he was for the poll tax. I've been sorry ever since that the state of Texas went from the negative "for" vote to the positive "for" vote. I'd been enjoying scratching his name for some time. Now I have to be content with just not voting "for" him.

And then I thought that all the area newspaper men should write front page articles about Lubbock's troubles. They are always so eager to get out and give us answers to our problems. That is they skim the surface and make things look quite simple to solve and miss the point completely in most cases.

And then we had comments about Dick Nixon and his running mate, Spiro Agnew. I got so sick of Chet Huntley and David Brinkley during the Republican National Convention. Chet looked bored and David kept making snide remarks. I'm sure they'll both be happier at the Democratic National Convention. At the Republican one they were more objectionable than objectionable.

And then it's our Post Office Department. I must write to our new postmaster general. It's easy to see why the job changes hands so often. I have a subscriber in California who has not received a Dispatch for the five months I have been sending it to her; one in Alaska that has not received one for at least two months; one in Lubbock who has missed the last two issues. Besides that I can't get a postcard delivered in less than three days in Lubbock if mailed on Saturday morning.

My day just ended in total frustration. It began quite happily with news from Miss C. that she might forego HemisFair around the first of September and come home for a couple of weeks before school starts. Yippee!

MRS. JOHN GREG MILLER (Dixie Lee Davis)

Davis-Miller wedding held Saturday in Tahoka church

The First Methodist Church of Tahoka was the setting of the wedding of Miss Dixie Lee Davis and John Greg Miller of Fort Worth Saturday, Aug. 10, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Davis, Route 3, Post, and the bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. Dwayne Miller of Grand Rapids, Mich.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white formal gown of silk organza, Alencon lace trimmed the ring collar neckline, empire waist, bell sleeves and A-line skirt. An organza train was attached at the shoulders. She carried a bouquet of gardenias. A cluster of tulle and lace flowers held her shoulder-length veil of English silk illusion.

Mrs. Kent Gibson of Lubbock was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Joe Book and Mrs. Don Box, both of Fort Worth. They wore floor-length dresses of Nile green bonded crepe fashioned with jewel necklines, lace bodices and trains. Their headpieces were net-covered bows attached to a circular veil. They carried bouquets of white pom-pom chrysanthemums.

Roger Friend of Las Vegas, Nev., was best man. Ushers were Kent Gibson of Lubbock and Scott Ruyie of Fort Worth.

Misses Marjory Gay and Lauri Kay Gibson, twin nieces of the bride, were flower girls.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in Fellowship Hall of the church.

Following a wedding trip to Jamaica the couple will be at home in Fort Worth.

best to run down all my complaints but don't get much cooperation from other postmasters. The paper that is not being delivered in California (God alone knows where it is being waylaid), according to their postmaster because the address I am sending it to is not a "good address." What is a "good address?" We don't know but will try to find out.

I was happy to hear someone else in the post office not long ago complaining about the increase in postal rates and commented to A. J. McAlister that I was glad to know that I was not the only one who gave him trouble. He said, with a smile, "No Helen, you're not the only one who complains but you are the only one who writes a newspaper column."

My day just ended in total frustration. It began quite happily with news from Miss C. that she might forego HemisFair around the first of September and come home for a couple of weeks before school starts. Yippee!

Post woman honor guest at luncheon

Mrs. Tillman Jones of Post was honored as the oldest living past department president of the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Texas, at the Legion and Auxiliary's 50th annual convention in Houston, held Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Jones was honor guest at a past presidents' party luncheon held in the Crystal Ballroom of the Rice Hotel.

Her work in the organization covers a period of 47 years.

In 1921, with Mrs. S. E. Hudson, president of the Texas Legion Auxiliary, and Miss Ada May Maddox of Austin as state secretary, the James C. Cole unit was organized in Post with Mrs. Jones as unit president. Since that time, she has been active in the many phases of Legion Auxiliary work.

After serving as president of the 19th District, Mrs. Jones was president of the state's Fifth Division. She has filled many state chairmanships throughout the years, including Student Loan (now Scholarship Fund), Americanism, and Child Welfare, which was her special project and which still commands her efforts and abilities.

Her work in the organization covers a period of 47 years. In 1921, with Mrs. S. E. Hudson, president of the Texas Legion Auxiliary, and Miss Ada May Maddox of Austin as state secretary, the James C. Cole unit was organized in Post with Mrs. Jones as unit president. Since that time, she has been active in the many phases of Legion Auxiliary work.

In September, 1935, Mrs. Jones was elected State Department president at Dallas and represented the Auxiliary in 1936 at the Texas Centennial. She was elected National Executive Committeewoman in 1936-37, and as National Music Chairman held a vocal music contest in New York City at which Rudy Vallee was master of ceremonies.

Mrs. Jones recalls that Texas did not win that contest, but she was beaten out by Arkansas.

Since that time Mrs. Jones has kept up the work of the Auxiliary in its many different phases, especially in child welfare, and she was told at the luncheon in Houston that the Legion and Auxiliary together had spent $200 million in the last year in their international work for child welfare.

Mrs. Jones was commended as a tribute to and for this honor luncheon to write a history or resume of her work down to the present day, including the main points of district and division history. This is to be reported at the next meeting and is to be filed in the Texas Historical Museum at Post.

The special resume it is also to be filed in the Texas Tech Museum at Lubbock.

Mrs. Jones' intention is to continue her work especially in child welfare, scholarship fund and home, and Americanism.

Recent bride is shower honoree

Mrs. Ricky Little, the former Miss Sherry Gist, was honored with a bridal shower last Thursday night in the rural home of Mrs. Boy Hart.

The couple was married July 30. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Gist and Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Little.

Guests were received by the honoree, Mrs. Little, Mrs. Gist and Mrs. Hart between 7 and 8:30 o'clock in the evening.

Mrs. Ronald Simpson of Denton registered the guests.

Carrying out the recent bride's chosen colors of blue and white, the serving table was laid with a white linen cloth, centered with an arrangement of white roses, blue carnations and bridal wreath, and featured blue candles in crystal holders. White cake squares topped with blue wedding bells, nuts, punch and mints were served by Mrs. Gary Donelson, and Misses Cheryl Pennell and Nina Young.

Hostesses, who presented Mrs. Little with a set of cooking ware and their saddest corsages, were: Mrs. Floyd Duncan, Sterman Young, Hart, Woodrow Bland, R. Landreth, James Dye, Harvelle Mason, Royce Josey, Joe Irons, Walter Didway, D. W. White, C. R. Wilson, George Tillman, James Mitchell, Deamos Altman, Tom Johnson, Victor Gwynndoll, Inez Gapps, J. D. McCampbell, Lester Josey, Ed Blanton, Richard Lewis and Miss Pennell.

Club holds meet at Reddy Room

Members of the Needlecraft Club answered roll call with clippings from the newspaper "The Country Person" at last Friday afternoon's meeting at the Reddy Room.

Mrs. F. A. Gilley was hostess and served cheese and crackers, olives, potato chips, ice cream and angel food cake. The serving table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of garden flowers.

The 12 members and guest, Mrs. G. A. Hagood, spent the afternoon doing needlework.

Attending were: Mrs. Mmes. W. R. Graeber, F. C. Barker, S. C. Storie Sr., Oscar Smith, Montee Adams, Minnie Wright, Lee Bowen, M. J. Malouf, Jack Kennedy, L. G. Thuet Sr., Joe Callas, Hagood and Gilley.

The next meeting will be Aug. 23 with Mrs. H. J. Dietrich as hostess.

Items are donated to hospital by auxiliary

Mrs. Eleanor Cooke, president of the Women's Auxiliary of Gorza Memorial Hospital, announced yesterday that the auxiliary has recently donated several items to the hospital.

Twenty-four individual aluminum coffee pots were placed in the kitchen for patient use. Members have made and presented 18 baby sacs and 12 receiving blankets to be used in the nursery.

Library LISTENING POST

By ROSEMARY CHAPMAN
Camp Topridge
Aug. 1, 1968

Dear Mrs. Chapman,
Thank you very much for your nice note and for all the new clippings you so kindly enclosed. I was delighted to have them and am most appreciative to you for your thoughtfulness.
I was so sorry not to have had the opportunity to visit the Post Library when I was there in June for I think it is such an important and excellent project. Recently, we sent off to the Library again a dozen books which I hope you will find useful, and from time to time there will be more.
Again, my thanks to you. All warm regards and every good wish.

Sincerely yours,
Marjorie Post

THURSDAY REVIEW: "Jesus Christ" by A. J. Langguth, Harper & Row, 1968. Reviewed by George L. Miller.

The predominant theological mood of any generation is bound to influence the literature of the times. Dante's "Divine Comedy" tells more about the coming of the Renaissance to Italy than it does about Heaven and Hell, though it's supposed to be a literal description of the after-life. To claim it as our own. Ours is the generation when Christian theologians have claimed that God is dead. This is the novel that takes seriously that claim.

Told in a series of episodes, some no longer than a short paragraph, some 20 to 40 pages long, we are given glimpses of Jesus as A. J. Langguth's novel "Jesus Christ" is a novel of our time.

though many of us may not care Christ living in an age when God is dead. Gone is the traditional image of the Messiah, the Good Shepherd, the divine God - Man. In his place is a true man, who suffers loneliness, doubt, and temptation. Even in a totally Christian world, he is no more understood than he was 2,000 years ago.

He finds himself in all types of situations. One time he is a newspaper man writing the "Advice to the Lovelorn" column. Another time, he's a soldier on patrol. Still another time he is a witness before a House Resolutions Committee.

There are moments of poignant insight. Here is one episode: "Simon, who was sofotheaded, became indignant each time he recalled that Jesus had been made to bear his own cross to Calvary. To soothe him, Jesus said, "I was spared the fate of most men. I had been a carpenter, after all, and though they forced me to carry my cross, they did not call on me to build it."

Or another: "Wealth made no difference in either his task or his character. The first time he had awakened in a gilded crib, Jesus wondered if he would be changed. But the story was the same except for a slight variation that he first denied, then acknowledged and at last found he could accept without bitterness: All of them - his disciples, the multitudes, even his tormentors - liked him better rich."

And with the insight, often comes humor: At the instant the heavens parted, the Baptist turned up his face and absorbed the words with his whole being. "This is my beloved son - 'The Baptist's eyes

Construction scheduled at five state parks

AUSTIN — The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department has signed agreements with the Texas Highway Department to build approximately three miles of roads and drives and more than 8,900 square yards of parking areas in five State parks.

The work should be completed by Aug. 31 and will cost $67,000.

Largest of the five contracts is for nine-tenths mile of park drives and 3,800 square yards of parking areas at Caddo Lake State Park, 16 miles northeast of Marshall in Northeast Texas. The job will cost $23,000.

shone with pride — 'in whom I am well pleased.' John dropped his head with humility and looked for long moments into the depths of the brown river."

"This will not do," Jesus thought. Apologetically he said, "I believe he meant me."

How can there be a Jesus Christ when God is dead? That is the whole point and problem of this novel. The argument is not that God has ceased to exist. Instead, he has given up his position as God in the heavens to fully share in human life. The Jesus Christ in this novel are no longer interested in pointing people toward the heavens, he tries to show them how to live on earth. As time passes, his ministry becomes more difficult, until it is impossible. He continues his work unaided by the sense of God's presence. And when men at last find the key to life and overcome their dread of death, his ministry is over.

This is a pessimistic book, perhaps even blasphemous. At the same time it is a true description of modern man in his unending efforts to displace God from the universe. If men once crucified Jesus Christ on a cross 2,000 years ago, they still crucify God daily on crosses made of words. So far, God has refused to stay dead, but if Langguth is right, men may yet succeed. If they do, the bread and wine of life will taste stale indeed.

It was certainly nice to have George and Marjorie write my column today! Vada Clary will be our guest columnist next week, and I'll see you again in two. Love, Rm.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER FOUR ON THE BALLOT (SJR37)

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended by adding a new Section 52e to read as follows:

"Section 52e. Bonds to be issued by Dallas County under Section 52 of Article III of this Constitution for the construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, gravelled or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof, may, without the necessity of further or amendatory legislation, be issued upon a vote of a majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon who are qualified electors of said county, and to provide that bonds hereafter or hereafter issued under Subsections (a) and (b) of said Section 52 shall not be included in determining the debt limit prescribed in said Section."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1968, at which election all ballots shall have printed on them the following:

"FOR the amendment of Article III of the Constitution to provide that Dallas County may issue road bonds under Section 52 of Article III upon a vote of a majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon who are qualified electors of said county, and to provide that bonds hereafter or hereafter issued under Subsections (a) and (b) of said Section 52 shall not be included in determining the debt limit prescribed in said Section."

"AGAINST the amendment of Article III of the Constitution to provide that Dallas County may issue road bonds under Section 52 of Article III upon a vote of a majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon who are qualified electors of said county, and to provide that bonds hereafter or hereafter issued under Subsections (a) and (b) of said Section 52 shall not be included in determining the debt limit prescribed in said Section."

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT (SJR11)

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article 51-a of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended, and the same is hereby amended, so as to read as follows:

"Section 51-a. The Legislature shall have the power, by General Laws, to provide, subject to limitations herein contained, and such other limitations, restrictions and regulations as may be deemed expedient, for assistance to and/or medical care for, and for rehabilitation and any other services included in the Federal legislation providing matching funds to help such families and individuals attain or retain capability for independence or self-care, and for the payment of assistance to and/or medical care for, and for rehabilitation and other services for:

(1) Needy aged persons who are citizens of the United States or noncitizens who shall have resided within the boundaries of the United States for at least twenty-five (25) years and are over the age of sixty-five (65) years;

(2) Needy individuals who are citizens of the United States who shall have passed their eighteenth (18th) birthday but have not passed their sixty-fifth (65th) birthday and who are totally and permanently disabled by reason of a mental or physical handicap or a combination of physical and mental handicaps;

(3) Needy blind persons who are citizens of the United States and who are over the age of eighteen (18) years;

(4) Needy children who are citizens of the United States and who are under the age of twenty-one (21) years, and to the caretakers of such children.

"The Legislature may define the residence requirements, if any, for participation in these programs.

"The Legislature shall have authority to enact appropriate legislation which will enable the State of Texas to cooperate with the Government of the United States in providing assistance to and/or medical care on behalf of needy persons, and in providing rehabilitation and any other services included in the Federal legislation providing matching funds to help such families and individuals attain or retain capability for independence or self-care and to accept and expend funds from the Government of the United States for such purposes in accordance with the laws of the United States as they now are or as they may hereafter be amended, and to make appropriations out of state funds for such purposes; provided that the maximum amount paid out of state funds to or on behalf of any individual recipient shall not exceed the amount that is matchable out of Federal funds; provided that the total amount of such assistance payments and/or medical assistance payments out of state funds on behalf of such recipients shall not exceed the amount that is matchable out of Federal funds; provided that if the limitations and restrictions herein contained are found to be in conflict with the provisions of appropriate Federal Statutes as they now are or as they may be amended, to the extent that Federal matching money is not available to the state for these purposes, then and in that event the Legislature is specifically authorized and empowered to prescribe such limitations and restrictions and enact such laws as may be necessary in order that such Federal matching money will be available for assistance and/or medical care for or on behalf of needy persons; and provided further, that the total amount of money to be expended per fiscal year out of state funds for assistance payments only to recipients of Old Age Assistance, Aid to the Permanently and Totally Disabled, Aid to the Blind, and Aid to Families with Dependent Children shall never exceed Seventy-five Million Dollars ($75,000,000).

"Nothing in this Section shall be construed to amend, modify or repeal Section 16 of Article XVI of this Constitution; provided further, however, that such medical care, services or assistance shall also include the employment of objective or subjective means, without the use of drugs, for the purpose of ascertaining and measuring the powers of vision of the human eye, and fitting lenses or prisms to correct or remedy any defect or abnormal condition of vision. Nothing herein shall be construed to permit optometrists to treat the eyes for any defect whatsoever in any manner not to administer nor to prescribe any drug or physical treatment whatsoever, unless such optometrist is a regularly licensed physician or surgeon under the laws of this state."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November 1968, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment raising the limit on the amount that may be expended in any one year out of state funds for Public Assistance payments only to Seventy-five Million Dollars ($75,000,000)."

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment raising the limit on the amount that may be expended in any one year out of state funds for Public Assistance payments only to Seventy-five Million Dollars ($75,000,000)."

The Christian's Workshop

By JOE VERNON

Over the years I have noticed that the farmers who are recognized by their contemporaries as being good farmers have all had a workshop. Now one is judged a good farmer by the crop he produces, and by the way he keeps the weeds down, and the general way he works his land. This is what the world sees, but behind all of this is a workshop where the man can go regularly and sharpen the tools, repair the minor damages, and keep all of the equipment in good running condition. If the crop is to look good to the world, then it must be properly worked, and it cannot be properly worked with broken implements.

So it is with the child of God. He is commissioned to take his belief out into the world, and the world is to "See his good works and glorify his Heavenly Father." The church is the workshop of the Christian, and it is there that the Christian prepares himself for the work out in the world. Too many Christians do not go through the workshop often enough. Let us ask the question, "How long has it been since you were in the workshop?" Let us be encouraged to attend the house of God regularly and consistently so that our world can see the good life we have molded in the workshop.

Hunting licenses placed on sale

Hunting licenses for the 1968-69 season went on sale in Garza County and elsewhere throughout the state Monday, but will not become effective until Sept. 1.

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department shipped 1.9 million licenses Friday to more than 3,000 license deputies across the state. It was the earliest date in several years that the licenses have been shipped.

The shipment was rushed so hunters planning to participate in the early deer hunts in the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge could buy their license, fill out the free hunt application card and return it by the 5 p. m. deadline, Aug. 27, for the Sept. 3 drawing.

Pheasants freed in two counties

SAN ANGELO — Texas Parks and Wildlife Department biologists recently released 350 Afghan white-winged pheasants in two west Texas counties.

The 300 birds liberated in Tom Green County and fifty in Runnels County were raised in the Texas Game Bird Farm in Tyler and trucked to west Texas. Biologists say the release sites were chosen from the standpoint of food availability and favorable habitat.

Release sites and the liberation of exotic birds follow careful inspection of location and assurance that the newcomers will not compete with or interfere with existing native game bird populations.

The interest is to fill a void brought about by a change in land use patterns which results in loss of native game birds, and to supply the hunter with a new bird to hunt without endangering the native game birds remaining in the area.

Southland school to open Aug. 26

By MRS. EDMUND WILKE
Monday dawns once more and thank God that he has given us a brand new day and a new week has given us the privilege of going to school. Life is such a precious thing. Sometimes we don't realize just how precious until we lose it!

Southland School opens Aug. 26. Has it really been months since it was dismissed for the summer? We will have new teachers this year. Mrs. Lynn McCuiston will be teaching first grade and Mrs. Ferrell Wheeler will be teaching in high school. Mrs. Valton Wheeler has been substituting in our school for several years. These new teachers are taking the places of Mrs. Ward Monk, who has moved to New, and Elmer B. K. who has moved to Whitharral. Good luck to all of you.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smith and their children of Palm Springs, California, visited with her aunt, Mrs. M. Mathis, and other relatives for several days last week. We extend our deepest sympathy to the family of F. E. Weaver who passed away at Mercy Hospi-

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

The Garza County Soil and Water District Board of Supervisors will meet at their regular meeting time at 2 p. m. Monday, Aug. 19. One of the main purposes of this meeting will be to review and set an average cost for conservation practices cost - shared on under the Great Plains Conservation Program. The SCS and ASCS supervisors and committeemen work together in keeping in touch with vendors in setting up fair prices on conservation work.

Ground work continues on completing the necessary paper work involved in obtaining special funds to restore damaged terraces, ponds and silted and eroded land to normal productivity. SCS personnel have contacted approximately 100 individuals about damage to their farms and ranch structures. We will continue to try and reach all individuals who suffered damage during the month of June. As of this date all of the paperwork has not been completed by both agencies involved. The necessary preliminary damage estimates have been completed and the papers are being routed for state approval by state ASCS and SCS officials. Mrs. Hartel will notify owners and operators by newsletter when the sign-up can be held. The SCS will provide technical assistance in restoring the damaged structures and land.

Dead litter is important to attaining successful stands of dryland drilled grass seedings. Thirty years of experience by the SCS on the High and Rolling Plains back up this method as being the one method giving most reliable results. Grass plantings made in a dead litter cover, were 86 per cent successful, as contrasted to a 69 per cent success on clean tilled plantings.

Dead litter provides a favorable micro-climate for the grass seeding. Soil is held in position against erosion. The canopy resists both water and wind erosion. Seeds are not washed or blown away. Moisture is held at the surface of grass plantings on dryland. Incidents with the periods of greatest wind movement, and those of heaviest rainfall. The importance of dead litter readily demonstrated.

The success of a vigorous, actively weed-free effective cover for dead litter is obtained by same good farming techniques used for cotton or grain sorghum. Plant good seed at the correct rates and proper time. Sorghum producing a strong stalk are less moisture normally available for planting, and the higher temperature can become. Do permit the litter crop to seed, do so produces another weed problem for the year in which it is to be seeded. Volunteer seed naturally seeded at a rate of dreds of pounds per acre is a formidable competition for grass seedlings. Choosing sorghums that do not recover fast after mowing or mowing operations reduces problem. Some forage and sorghums are bred for the purpose of quick recovery. Leave a stubble to 10 inch stubble. Sorghums also be considered which do produce viable seeds. Keep a seed firm. Perform no mowing which will loosen the soil prior to seeding.

Grass establishment is an and expensive. Dead litter cover are an essential step under land conditions in this establishment process. They destroy correct treatment. Poor stands contribute to grass seed failure. Documented failure poor performance of dead crops usually resulted from serving proper farming techniques.

Proposed Amendments

(Editor's Note: This is the first in a series of analyses. The Dispatch will run on the 14 proposed constitutional amendments to be voted on in the November general election.)

AMENDMENT NO. 2 - S.J.R. No. 41. Increasing the amount which may be expended in one year from state funds for public assistance payments to needy aged, needy disabled, needy blind, and needy children, to $75,000,000.

This proposed amendment to Section 51-a of Article III raises the ceiling on state funds used for financial assistance to the needy aged, needy blind, needy disabled, and needy children from $50,000,000 to $75,000,000 to assure Texas recipients that they will not be disqualified from receiving the maximum amount permitted under the federal program simply through a deficiency of state funds to meet federal standards.

BACKGROUND: The public welfare provisions of the Texas Constitution originated during depression years. Amendments to them have been proposed and adopted almost as regularly as the Congress has changed the terms whereby the states become eligible for available federal funds.

Prior to 1933, public assistance was held by most public citizens to be the concern of local governmental units rather than the responsibility of the central state government. However, the depression of the 1930's, the shift in Texas from an agrarian to an industrial society and economy, and the influence of federal legislation led to the passage of the first public welfare amendment - Section 51-a of Article III. This first amendment authorized the state to issue 4 1/2 per cent general obligation bonds in the amount of $20,000,000, with the proceeds to be used in "furnishing relief and work relief to needy and distressed people and in relieving the hardships resulting from unemployment."

In 1935 a new Section 51-b was added to Article III, which initiated the policy of providing aid to aged citizens with payments provided partially from federal funds and partially from current revenue of the state. Sections 51-c and 51-d were added in 1937 and authorized grants to the needy blind and needy children. In 1945, Sections 51-b, 51-c and 51-d were consolidated by an amendment designated "Section 51-a," which in effect, repealed the old Section 51-a.

A limit of $35,000,000 a year was established in the 1954 amendment as the amount that could be spent out of state funds for public assistance to needy aged, needy blind and needy children. The limit was increased to $42,000,000 in 1957; to $52,000,000 plus $2,500,000 for the permanently and totally disabled in 1962; and in 1963, to $60,000,000 in money payments for all classes of public assistance - needy aged, needy disabled, needy blind, and needy children - in the present Section 51-a of Article III.

This $60,000,000 ceiling would be raised to $75,000,000 by adoption of the proposed Amendment No. 2.

ARGUMENTS

FOR: The proposed Amendment No. 2 does not make an appropriation but rather allows the legislature greater discretion in meeting the needs of all four classes of welfare recipients in the state by raising the ceiling on the use of state funds for this purpose from $60,000,000 to $75,000,000.

Texas consistently has been in the lowest percentiles of the nation with respect to welfare, ranking 50th in administrative cost per recipient for old age assistance, 44th in per cent receiving old age assistance, 49th in assistance in aid to dependent children, and 45th in assistance in aid to permanently and totally disabled.

Because aid for dependent children allotments are based on a family of four, the higher ceiling provided by the proposed amendment would make it possible for the legislature to have greater discretion in giving budgetary consideration to larger families. Further, the proposed amendment would permit consideration to be given to last year's 4 per cent rise in the cost of living in budgeting for all four classes of recipients.

AGAINST: The large overall expenditure of state funds which this amendment would authorize would increase each recipient's income only a few dollars a month but would require $15,000,000 in new funds at a time when the state is already hard pressed to meet existing financial obligations. Instead of encouraging dependency on public welfare, the state should begin to draw a line in combating growing socialism and the welfare state.

Rites for mother of Post resident

Funeral services for Mrs. Kate Ella Poer, 75, of Tahoka, who died of an apparent heart attack at 9:30 a. m. Friday in a Lubbock rest home, were held at 2 p. m. Sunday at the First Methodist Church in Tahoka.

Mrs. Poer, who was the mother of Jim Ed Poer of Post, had been a resident of Lynn County for 49 years and had lived in Tahoka for the last nine years.

She was married to Roy E. Poer on June 28, 1911, at Hubbard, Tex. Mr. Poer died March 31, 1959. Mrs. Poer was a member of the First Methodist Church of Tahoka, where she was president of the Bessie Brashear Sunday School class. She was a member of the Dixie Home Demonstration Club.

Survivors other than the son of Post are a daughter, Mrs. J. H. (Kathryn) Edwards of Houston; a brother, George Conway of Montecito, Calif.; five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Hugh Daniel, pastor of the Tahoka First Methodist Church, officiated at the funeral services.

Burial was in Tahoka Cemetery under the direction of White's Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Marvin Munn, Hilton Wood, Elmer Owens, J. W. Inklebarger, O. W. Powers and Eldon Gattis.

Those from Post attending the funeral included the Jim Ed Poer family, Mrs. Bud Davis, Mrs. Bernard S. Ramsey, Mrs. Ben Owen and Oman Ticer.

Johnnie Norman new Gamma Mu secretary

Gamma Mu chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha met in the home of Mrs. Patty Bausman recently for its second summer meeting.

Johnnie Norman was appointed secretary, replacing Mary Mayo, who is taking a short leave of absence.

Mrs. Bausman served refreshments to Kay Pace, Margaret Allen, Johnnie Norman and Laveta Norman.

One injured in auto collision

Alfred A. (Jack) Meeks of Route 1 was dismissed from West Texas Hospital in Lubbock Tuesday afternoon after being treated for injuries received in an automobile accident here about 2:30 p. m. Monday.

Meeks was injured when his car was struck by another automobile as he was backing out from in front of the Post Implement Co. at 205 West Main. Maurice L. Bennett of Sweetwater was the driver of the other automobile, which was traveling west on Main Street. Police Chief Bill Gordon, who investigated the accident, charged Meeks with failure to yield right-of-way while backing.

The officer estimated the damage to Meeks' automobile at $1,000 and to Bennett's at $500.

Former employe of Dispatch is visitor

Henry C. Richards of Houston, who worked a few months here more than forty years ago on The Post Dispatch, stopped by briefly Monday while he and Mrs. Richards were en route home from California.

Richards was an employe of The Dispatch soon after it was acquired by E. A. (Eddie) Warren in the late 1920's. Richards now publishes a suburban weekly newspaper in Houston.

Omaha cowboy gains on Mahan in 'rodeo chase'

DENVER, Colo. — Footsteps from the big city are causing Larry Mahan to look back over his shoulder.

Mahan, 24, is the nation's number one cowboy, the Rodeo Cowboys Association said today, and has snared the coveted All Around Cowboy title (winning the most in two or more events) the past two years.

Mahan, from Brooks, Ore., is leading in the race for the 1968 All Around title, and has won $23,938 so far this year. For the past two months he has been pocketing more than $1,000 a week in the rodeo arena.

But Omaha's Jim Houston has also been hitting the winner's trail. He won $2,047 at the same two rodeos in bareback bronc riding and steer wrestling, and has suddenly moved into second place in the All Around with $24,831. Since early August, he has won more than $4,300.

Houston, 27, was a top flight high school athlete in Omaha, but said he always had a yearning to be a rodeo cowboy. With no practical experience, he went to Cody, Wyo., in 1961 where there was a rodeo every night, "and just started getting on."

There were 257 contestants at Colorado Springs, vying for shares of $18,467 in prize money. Houston won All Around honors there, worth $1,046. Burwell had 167 entries, with a large number of cowboys commuting by air from Colorado Springs for shares of $14,905 in prize money.

At Billings, Mont., 89 cowboys competed for $11,535, with All Around honors going to the 1967 Rookie of the Year, Jay Himes of Beulah, Colo., who won $654 in bareback bronc riding and calf roping. Himes recently returned to the arena after suffering crushed vertebrae last January.

At Omak, Wash., $11,077 was up for grabs among 162 entries. The All Around winner was Buz Peth, who won $707 in saddle and bareback bronc riding.

Excitement and desire to win are running high as the nearly 350 boys at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch prepare for their 24th annual Labor Day Rodeo.

Traditionally the biggest Labor Day event of the Texas Panhandle, the Boys Ranch rodeo is expected to attract a record number of visitors, topping the over 9,000 spectators who attended the two performances last year.

Believed to be the only rodeo in the nation in which boys are the only contestants, riding professional rodeo animals under RCA rules, two performances are scheduled at 2:30 p.m. Sept. 1-2.

Bow, Wash., who took $1,596 in calf roping and steer wrestling. The Sikeston, Mo., rodeo, which offered $7,649, attracted 90 entries. The All Around Cowboy was Marvin Holmes, Pickens, Okla., who won $707 in saddle and bareback bronc riding.

Eight-man all star tilt

Beyers to play in Friday game

Bill Beyers of Southland is a member of the West's eight-man football squad that will play the East at Levelland Friday night in one of three all-star games to be played during the annual six and eight-man coaching clinic.

Beyers, a 1968 graduate of Southland High School, starred in a 11 sports for the Eagles and was named to a backfield position on the all-district football team. He was also all-district in basketball and went to the state track and field meet in the Class B pole vault event.

Other West squad football members from this area include Ernest Garcia of Cotton Center, Leroy Bradley of Whitharral, Jay Smith of Gail, Anthony Altman of Smyer and Doug Kemper of Klondike.

The coaching school at Levelland opened Wednesday and continues through Saturday night. The all-star basketball game will be played tonight (Thursday) in South Plains College's Texan Dome, with the eight-man grid game Friday night and the six-man game Saturday night.

Jerry Miller and Bill Brown of Klondike are coaches of the West's eight-man football squad and the East squad is under Jerry Moore of Center Point and John Clark of Leakey.

107 Boy Scouts encamped here for final week

One hundred and seven Boy Scouts and leaders from 10 different troops in the South Plains Council are in summer camp this week at Camp Post, according to Camp Director Warren Green. This is the last week of the summer camping season for Scouts at this site.

The troops in Camp Post this week are: Troop 316 of Post, sponsored by the Rotary Club; Troop 125, Slaton; Troop 259, Lockney; Troop 576, Wolforth; Troop 705; Seminole; Troop 264, Quataque; Troop 251, Plainview, and Troops 413, 414 and 451, Lubbock.

The third week of the summer camping season at Camp Post was closed at a Court of Honor and Indian campfire on Aug. 9, with more than 300 Scouts, leaders, parents and friends participating.

The Scouting awards presented included 24 Second Class ranks, 23 First Class ranks, nine Star Scout ranks, three Life Scout ranks and 86 merit badges, the most popular of which was Conservation, earned by 14 different Scouts.

Other recognitions included 15 National Rifle Association certificates, 16 mile-swim awards and five Scout lifeguard ratings. Thirteen candidates for membership in the Order of the Arrow were tapped out during the week. They will be initiated into the lodge early in September.

Keep It Beautiful

If America hired people for the job, it would take the largest sort of army to keep our country free of litter.

But there's no need to hire anyone. It's a job we can do for ourselves. All of us. Every family that spreads a picnic lunch. Every boatman who cruises the lakes and waterways. Every motorist who uses our roads and highways.

It is the pleasure of the U. S. Brewers Association each year to give its fullest support to the Keep America Beautiful Campaign. Remember: Every Litter Bit Hurts. This is our land. Let's treat it right.

Vietnam View

as reported by Marine Corps Combat Correspondents and edited by Gysgt. Bob Montgomery

Thieu is a rural South Vietnamese farmer. Each morning he rises at six o'clock and makes the trek out to his rice paddies. There he becomes a ritual for Thieu, who has become life centers around his rice paddies. The paddies are irrigated by two wire basins, one on each side of the road. The basins hang over his shoulder, and he moves along the narrow path, his lean water buffalo following him.

With the civic action and the security of the Fifth Marines, Nguyen Thieu is safe from the ever growing hunger of communist forces. As long as there are Marines from "Hotel" CAP units, and the Fifth Marines Thieu will wake each morning, make the long walk down his dusty path, find his small rice paddies are still his, and find freedom still exist.

Three hundred children of the Village of Phu Bai will attend school this fall, thanks to the industry of their elders and the donations of the men of Marine Aircraft Group - 36 (MAG-36). It's been a long vacation for most of them. Classrooms were not available last year, but now three rooms of a new six - room school - house are nearing completion. The project is expected to be finished by the start of the fall term.

More than $3,500 was raised by the Marines of MAG-36 for the new school in the village near their base. The Vietnamese villagers have done the construction with little help from the willing Marines. The local Protestant minister, Mr. Vana, who designed the structure and is supervising construction, was a building contractor before entering the ministry. With the cooperation of Navy Chaplain Lieutenant Commander James W. Robinson, 37, Spring Valley, Calif., and the help of the villagers, he has practically filled a small lake, completed a large, new, concrete block church and is rapidly finishing the concrete block school building.

The villagers did call on the Marines to install a pump and the Leathernecks also painted a large part of the new church. Furniture for the church and a school is being built and an adult training class has been set up to teach carpentry to the area's young men. Another adult education project, starting soon, is the instruction of village women in sewing machine operations. The church - school project was started in November 1967 and the bright new buildings have sprung up during the tour of duty of most of the Marines at Phu Bai. They will see the results of their contribution and work in the fall when the children of Phu Bai start to school.

Highway Week is proclaimed

AUSTIN — Gov. John Connally has proclaimed Sept. 22-28 as National Highway Week in Texas. In his official memorandum, the Governor urged citizens "to devote thoughtful consideration to the contribution of highways to the lives of all Texans, mindful of the continuing need for more and improved highway facilities."

Rain would be nice if left alone. First, the mud can go; it creates such a sticky mess. Second, the thunder can leave because such loud bolts now and then tend to delay the beating of your heart. And thunder can cause disaster, such as when holding an open box of straight pins when BOOM! the thunder roars, and the pins somehow manage to spread themselves upon the floor. What's really fun is to pick them up one by one!

We did have a dance last Saturday night, in spite of all the rain, with "The Opera Cream" playing. Some couples there were Donna Stewart and Dennis Altman, Barb Gilmore and Bill Bevers, Kathy Jones and Joey Lee, Karen Hundley and Jimmie Johnston and Kim Hurdley and Jerry Bourne. Other people I noticed lurking around Teen Town were Sharon Windham, Bo McWhirt, Karen Windham, Sheryl Cooper, Joy Hudman, Jack Roland, Kay Hundley, Roger Blair, Melvina Stewart, Susie Romero, Debbie Cummings, Carol Compton, Clyde Cash, Timmons Bull, Ronnie Petty, Norman Tanner, Kippy Payne, Bo Hutchins, Larry Rosas, Curtis Abshire, Stanley Abshire, Jackie Abshire, Curtis Lancaster, Mike Scott, Anthony Altman and Debbie Dickson.

To Mrs. Cummings goes much appreciation for the dance. There will not be a dance this weekend. However, on Aug. 24, there will be a big back-to-school dance, so save your time and money for that!

Jan Adams visited her sister at Kingsville last weekend, and then traveled to Corpus Christi and part of Mexico. Jimmie Johnston visited his grandfather in Roaring Springs last Sunday.

I thought the rodeo was here last week but apparently Bo McWhirt didn't. Last Saturday night he was dressed more like an Indian hippie than a cowboy. I wonder if he has an identity complex.

Guests of the Didways Sunday were Mrs. Didway's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Bain of Clearwater.

Methodist youth to cultivate own 'patch of peanuts'

Sunday, Aug. 18, the first night of summer seminar will begin the struggle for the Methodist youth to cultivate their own "little patch of peanuts" and to attain the real appreciation of the full meaning of "Good Night!"

Each night a portion of Hobert L. Short's "The Gospel According to Peanuts" will be presented. The book is broken into six parts: "The Church and the Arts," "The Whole Trouble," "Original Sin," "The Wages of Sin is 'Aaugh!', 8," and "Good Grief, the Hound of Heaven."

Speakers will be Mrs. Boo Olson, Mrs. Maxine Marks, Jack Alexander, Paul Walker and Ricky Welch. To supplement the study book various activities will be held throughout the week-long series. Sunday there will be an ice cream supper; Monday, a luau and swimming; Tuesday, a Weiner roast at Silver Falls; Wednesday, junior olympics and dinner; Thursday, a progressive supper on bicycles; Friday, a weekend of fun at White River Lake.

Mrs. Barbara Babb, summer youth director, said everyone is looking forward to the summer seminar as a week of great inspiration for Christian faith and a week that will be full of activities and fun. She urges all youths to come and bring their friends that this might be the successful week that is anticipated.

'Bring 'em Back Alive' program is being backed by automobile dealers

AUSTIN — A "Bring 'em Back Alive" statewide safety program will be sponsored by the Texas Automobile Dealers Association in August in Texas, according to TADA President Boyd Mullen, Pasadena.

Mullen said that the franchised new car dealers of Texas give these tips on how to make the family vacation trip fun, safe and enjoyable:

1. Avoid planning too long a trip. Remember that highway traffic is heavy in a popular tourist state like Texas, so driving more than about 300 miles would tend to lessen the fun of the trip.
2. Don't overload the car with a lot of extra luggage. Be sure the driver has a clear view in all directions and that he has ample elbowroom.
3. The trip will be much safer if the driver is well rested before leaving. Once on the road, stop to rest at least every two or three hours.
4. Keep the passing to a minimum. The best policy is to maintain position in the stream of traffic. Allow a safe distance between you and the car ahead.
5. Don't let other drivers who may cut in front of you disturb you. Remember that the motorist who lane - jumps on a busy highway saves only a few seconds per mile.
6. When you are on two - lane roads, forget the freeway cruising speeds. Most two - lane roads are not designed for speeds of 70 miles per hour. Not only are oncoming vehicles much closer to you, but curves are often sharper and access roads present the hazard of cross traffic.
7. Plan both your outgoing and

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER SIX ON THE BALLOT (SJR24)

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1, Article 8, Constitution of the State of Texas, is amended by adding a Section 2-a to read as follows:

"Section 2-a. (a) The Legislature may, by General Law, exempt from ad valorem taxation by the state and its political subdivisions all or a portion of any equipment, device or improvement installed or constructed on real property, which is designed to eliminate or abate the harmful effect of air emissions or water effluents on the air and water quality in this state, to the extent that the capital investment in such property is made to comply with or to exceed air or water quality standards established by law.

(b) Legislation which may be enacted in anticipation of the adoption of this Section is not void because of its anticipatory nature."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November 1968, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment giving permissive authority to the Texas Legislature to exempt from ad valorem taxation by the State of Texas and its political subdivisions equipment installed on real property to eliminate or abate the harmful effect of air emissions and water effluents, provided that the capital investment in such equipment complies with the air and water quality standards established by the State of Texas."

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment giving permissive authority to the Texas Legislature to exempt from ad valorem taxation by the State of Texas and its political subdivisions equipment installed on real property to eliminate or abate the harmful effect of air emissions and water effluents, provided that the capital investment in such equipment complies with the air and water quality standards established by the State of Texas."
