Fast start in a new program

A dynamic five-year program of historical Recordation, Appreciation, Marking, Preservation and Surveys was put into action by the Texas State Historical Survey Committee in its summer quarterly meeting.

"RAMPS," as the plan is called, is designed to bring about an awareness of the unique history of Texas by visitors and by Texans themselves through state and local efforts.

The new program is of special significance here because of the fact that Garza County already is in the forefront of counties responding to the new Historical Preservation Laws passed by the last Legislature and Gov. John Connally's plans to make tourism one of the great industries of Texas.

We have the Garza County Historical Survey Committee to thank for our fast start in the RAMPS program.

In addition to at least four Historical Building Medallions, our county committee has been receiving for the erection of two Official Texas Historical Markers. One of these is the Llano Estacado marker southeast of Post on U. S. Highway 84 and the other is the Llano Ranch marker near the Boy Scout camp.

There'll be even more of the medallions and markers since a major goal of the RAMPS program is the erection of 5,000 markers and medallions within the next five years—in addition to the some 1,200 historical markers previously erected by the state and the 1,500 markers erected in the past two years.

These new markers, 1,000 each year, will be erected in a joint state, county-city and privately-financed program. Seventy-five per cent will be located for tourist consumption with 25 per cent marking actual sites.

These markers will cover Texas history from the archeological finds, old Spanish and French explorer routes and Indian culture, through the days of the Texas Ranger, the cattle drives and the railroad movement to the history of industries, educational institutions and famous Texans.

Included are markers giving the name, founding and history of each town and stream in the state with special emphasis on those with unusual names. "Ghost" or oddly-named and promotional towns that never materialized will be marked.

"The RAMPS program is designed to benefit the counties as well as the state, with information and resources flowing up and down, to accomplish the ultimate goal of preserving and displaying the unique history of Texas," said John Ben Shepherd, State Committee president.—CD

National Farm Safety Week

One special week The Dispatch has made it a habit not to overlook in the dozens of special weeks that are set aside every year is National Farm Safety Week. In our opinion, it is one of the few worthwhile week-long observances that come along during the year.

"Safer American Farm Families Everywhere" is the theme for this year's National Farm Safety Week. President Lyndon B. Johnson, who himself is no stranger to farm work and its attendant dangers, in a special proclamation has designated the week of July 19-25 as the period when all persons, especially those working in agriculture, should unite in a strong and purposeful effort to reduce rural accidents.

"Notwithstanding the facts," said the President, "that hundreds of thousands of volunteer leaders and members of rural organizations actively participate in community, state and national safety programs which have proved effective in reducing the number and rate of accidents among farm residents, accidents still cause thousands of deaths and nearly a million disabling injuries to farm people each year. This loss of human and economic resources causes a significant adverse impact upon the economy of the nation and must be viewed as a matter of national concern.

"I feel that the many public-spirited persons responsible for past and present farm safety efforts should be commended for their notable achievements and that these efforts should be given renewed public recognition and support. In addition, I urge that vigorous new efforts be made to eradicate, insofar as feasible, all of the reasonably foreseeable causes of farm and rural accidents."

In other, and much shorter, words, play it safe during National Farm Safety Week and every other week.—CD

Smooth sailing for some, not all

Not all water districts have had as smooth sailing as the White River Municipal Water District, which is something in the latter's favor, even though we haven't been able to get any water from out there yet.

It is pretty well known over the state by now that few towns ever banded together on as big a project as the White River dam and got along as well with each other as have Post, Spur, Crosbyton and Ralls. As we said earlier, not all water districts have had as smooth sailing.

Take, for instance, the North Central Texas Municipal Water Authority, which was created by the Texas Legislature to build a dam on Miller's Creek and impound a water supply for the towns of Haskell, Goree, Rule and Munday. Haskell city officials filed protest to the project later and the city council declared Haskell participation "null and void."

Haskell's water troubles, now in their sixth year, stem from disputes on construction of the Miller's Creek Dam. We are not familiar with the conditions that brought on the disputes, and, in a manner of speaking, they are none of our business. We've just brought it up as typical of cases that sometimes arise when everyone concerned doesn't get along as well on projects as have the four member cities of the White River Municipal Water District.

Right now, Haskell is trying to contract for use of Lake Stamford water, and there more than likely isn't a town or city in Texas that isn't sympathetic of Haskell's plight. Many towns are in worse shape as far as water is concerned. Currently, Post is in bad enough shape and no doubt will continue to be until water is available from the White River Lake. Water—or, more correctly, a plentiful supply of it—is by no means a purely local problem anywhere in Texas.—CD

And now, back to redistricting

The average Texas newspaper reader almost lost sight of the congressional redistricting issue in the final hectic days of the civil rights legislation and the feverish maneuvering of the Republican party just prior to its national convention, which began Monday.

But the redistricting problem is creeping back into the headlines, bigger than ever, and most observers seem resigned to the inevitable, to the realignment of congressional and legislative districts to reflect "population only" in the composition of both houses of the Legislature.

A federal court already has ordered the realignment of congressional districts in Texas to produce 23 districts of substantially equal population. The court set a deadline of Aug. 1, 1965, for compliance with its order.

Gov. John Connally is one of those apparently resigned to the inevitable. In addressing the Texas Bar Association's 82nd annual convention in Houston, the Governor said congressional and legislative redistricting will "cast a long shadow" over the proceedings of the next Legislature. Redistricting, he added, will "most certainly bring great change."

Great changes indeed will take place as a result of the revolutionary alteration of representation in the Texas Legislature. Yet it is impossible now to predict the nature of that change in the absence of the redistricting plan itself.

For many legislators, it will be a heart-rending experience. Senators and representatives who come from sparsely settled districts face the prospects of legislating themselves out of office. All senators will face re-election in 1966 (and half of them again in 1968), although half of them will be elected to four-year terms this year.

There is good reason to believe that the new Legislature will be much more responsive to the needs of the great population centers than previous ones. But what will be the attitude of members of the new Legislature toward such issues as water supply? Would the new Legislature be more sympathetic to a state income tax, a city income tax, or a city sales tax than its predecessors?

Great political and economic questions are in the balance that will affect us here in Garza County and the people in all 253 of the state's other counties. But it is, alas, premature to predict the outcome.—CD

What our contemporaries are saying

If recently-married Eitel Merman and Ernest Borgnine live together for as long as six months, any other couple should be able to live together for ten years or more.—Olin Miller in The Seguin Gazette.

Any time a newspaper editor sticks his neck out and voices an opinion for the betterment of his community he usually gets into some sort of trouble. I have often said something ought to be done about so and so and before I can turn around I'm appointed on a committee to go to work and correct the situation. . . . (notice what you preach attitudes).—Wendell Tooley in The Floyd County Hesperian.

One of the benefits of inflation is that kids can no longer get sick on a nickel's worth of

I FEEL SO hypocritical sometimes about "knocking" television in this column and then going home and watching it at night, that I feel the time has come for me to say something good about it. So, I want to say that the development of television is responsible for converting the national conventions of both major political parties into nation-wide rallies.

Results of the national conventions may be pretty well cut and dried in advance, but they still provide an opportunity for each group to make its biggest sales pitch to the voters in this year's presidential campaign. Never again before election day can they hope to command so large an audience.

ONLY A RELATIVE handful of people actually are in San Francisco this week for the Republican National Convention, and will be in Atlantic City for the Democratic National Convention, which begins Aug. 24, but because of the electronic marvel known as television, practically every American citizen will be a spectator at all, or most, that happens.

Besides that, the electronic marvel known as television brought us a movie the other night, "The Love Parade," starring Maurice Chevalier and Jeanette MacDonald. The movie was released in 1929, which makes it one of the first "talkies." What a collector's item that must have been for TV's "late show" addicts!

THE MAN UP the Street says he's thinking of becoming a bigamist. Says there's too much grass in his yard for one wife to cut.

One of our contemporaries quoted a letter he had received as illustrative of the hazards of an editor's life. Said the letter: "Dear Editor: Every time I send you a write-up about our Missionary Society meeting you get it all balled up and it don't make sense. Time and again I've sent in corrections, but you get them mixed up, too. So I give up. In the future when I send you our Missionary Society write-up, please don't print it!"

Student: "I hear the board of trustees is trying to stop necking." Co-ed: "Is that so? First thing you know, they'll be trying to make the students, too."

FUN WITH WORDS: Why is psychiatrist spelled with a "p"? It certainly does seem silly.

Thanks to Mike Custer, who got it somewhere else. I've got a short piece here that has been making the rounds, but which some of our readers might not have seen. It's certainly thought-provoking:

Both President Lincoln and President Kennedy were concerned with civil rights.

Lincoln was elected in 1860. Kennedy was elected in 1960.

Both were slain on Friday and in the presence of their wives.

Their successors were both named Johnson, were Southerners, Democrats, and had served in the U. S. Military.

Andrew Johnson, Lincoln's successor, was born in 1808. Lyndon B. Johnson, Kennedy's successor, was born in 1908.

John Wilkes Booth, the assassin of Lincoln, was born in 1839. Lee Harvey Oswald, the assassin of Kennedy, was born in 1939.

Both Booth and Oswald were Southerners favoring unpopular causes.

Both slayers of Booth and Oswald (Boston Corbooth and Jack Ruby) murdered the two assassins before their trials.

Both Presidents' wives lost children through death while living in the White House.

Both Lincoln and Kennedy were shot in the head.

Kennedy's secretary was named Lincoln. Lincoln's secretary was named Kennedy.

I HAVE A friend who lost his job, but he gives his former boss credit for being one of the most tactful men he has ever known. As my friend told it: "When he fired me he called me in and said: 'George, I don't know how we're going to get along without you, but starting Monday we're going to try.'"

Congressman Abele of Ohio has looked into some of the more unusual federal appropriations of our tax money. As recounted by the Associated Taxpayers of Idaho, here are a few:

Q. Is education or training available to peacetime veterans?
A. Only if they have service incurred disabilities. A definite vocational handicap must also exist if the service-connected disability is rated less than 30 per cent.
Q. If a veteran dies while receiving pension under the old pension law, may the widow and minor children be paid under the old law?
A. If the veteran died on or after July 1, 1960, any pension payable to the widow and minor children must be paid under the new pension law.
Q. I am receiving dividends on my present National Service Life Insurance term policy. Will I continue to receive dividends if I convert to one of the permanent plans?
A. Yes, dividends are paid on permanent GI insurance policies as well.

FAIR FACTS

Nearly 19,700,000 people flocked to St. Louis in 1904 for the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. The New York World's Fair expects more than 70 million visitors. The St. Louis Fair, which ran for 7 months, cost $42½ million. New York's Fair, which will be in full swing for a total of 12 months, will cost about $1 billion.

A heat wave hit St. Louis at the height of the Exposition. Young Englishman Richard Blechynden took advantage of it. Dismayed because the crowds hurried past his steaming cups of tea to buy cold drinks nearby, he filled tall glasses with ice and poured tea into them. Iced tea was "born" and was an immediate success.

Today, thirsty Americans down over 12 billion glasses of iced tea each summer. The long, refreshing drink has established itself as a firm favorite since it was discovered by chance 60 years ago. This cooling discovery from the 1904 Exposition is still reviving hot, weary fair-goers of our newest, biggest World's Fair.

OUR READERS Write

ON DIGGING SPUDS

Dear Helen:
I was reading in the paper about your potato plants. My neighbor grows potatoes commercially, and has helped me with mine this year. He says when your spuds bloom, that's a sign your potatoes are maturing under the ground. If you like small potatoes for green beans or peas, you can dig around the edge of your plant, and get those small ones. Here we will be able to dig small potatoes the last of this month but will wait until we have a killing frost to dig the regular crop. Maybe this will help you on when to dig yours.

After they are dug, lay them somewhere to dry, before you sack them for use.

Hope you are all well. We have been enjoying visits from several families from Lubbock.
Some friends of J. E. Birdwell are here now for the month. Also some friends of Bryan J's. All are having a wonderful vacation, and catching lots of trout.

Must hurry, I have to run help Spencer load a mare and her colt to be taken to the mountains. (The Peace Corps want to use the mare to train some men.)

Sincerely,
Erlene Kuykendall,
McAllister, Mont.
P. S. We enjoy reading the paper very much. Do come.

WHEAT ALLOTMENT
U. S. Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman has proclaimed a national wheat allotment of 49.5 million acres for the 1965-crop. It is the same as the 1964 allotment. Allotments to the states were also announced by USDA. The 1965 Texas allotment is only slightly larger than for the year before.

SPRING PIG CROP DOWN
The 1964 Texas spring pig crop totalled 332,000 head, a drop of 16 per cent from the 1963 total, reports the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. An estimated 280 sows farrowed an average of 11 pigs per litter compared with 14.8 pigs per litter farrowed in 1963. Nationally, the 1964 spring pig crop was down 8 per cent from 1963. The cutbacks in pig numbers are expected to strengthen the hog market later in the year.

Grass fires take only small amount of water

Post's good luck on fires continue to keep pace with its water shortage.
During the past week, firemen have been called out to only two grass fires and both were extinguished with a bare minimum of water.
The firemen put out burning grass at 11 a. m. Wednesday on West 8th Street between the Washateria and the old Forrest Lumbe Company yard.
At 8:30 p. m. Sunday, the firemen extinguished a grass fire on the railroad right-of-way some 23 miles southeast of Post.

Card of Thanks

I want to take this moment to thank all my friends for your visits, the beautiful cards, TV set, and gifts of each one. Also thank you for the nice food you brought to my house. We gratefully appreciated everything that was done while I was in the hospital. It made my stay so much more pleasant. Also thank Dr. Casey and the nice nurses for the kindness they showed me. May God bless each one of you abundantly.
Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hullock

Thanks to everyone who visited me while I was in the hospital. I appreciate every kindness shown me and would especially like to thank Dr. Casey, the nurses and the entire staff in the hospital.

FIELD DAY SET
Put Tuesday, Sept. 15, on your calendar. That's the day for the annual Field Day at the South Plains Research and Extension Center, Lubbock. You'll see broadcast cotton, sub-irrigation, grain sorghum test plots, bench leveled land (where researchers are measuring water runoff) and many projects.
Tours will start at 1 p. m.—and will continue until at least 4 p. m. Come out and see what is being done to make agriculture more efficient and profitable.

IRRIGATION SCHEDULE FOR COTTON

Don't start irrigating cotton too soon! Cotton that received a good pre-plant irrigation or has benefited from rains should have enough moisture in the ground to last until the first white blooms appear. Cotton at this stage of growth should be about 60 days of age.
Watering cotton prior to this time can lead to troubles.
1. If watered too early (before white blooms appear) cotton tends to keep growing in a vegetative manner and doesn't start fruiting early.
2. Early irrigation can lower soil temperatures in the root zone of cotton plants. This encourages blights, wilts and seedling diseases. Above all, irrigation shouldn't be practiced when fields of young cotton are disease-ridden, as this tends to compound the problem.
3. Watering too early can also keep roots from penetrating deep in the soil. If roots haven't penetrated deep in the soil, the normally hot, dry weather of August will cause plants to become moisture-stressed. An inadequate root system means farmers won't be able to irrigate their cotton fields often enough at this time to keep plants adequately supplied with water.
If irrigation water is short, it might be necessary to start watering before the first white blooms appear. However, that irrigation should be timed as closely as possible to appearance of the first white blooms.
Highest water requirement of cotton plants occurs at peak bloom stage. At this stage, cotton will use one-fourth to four-tenths inches per day. This compares to less than one-tenth inch per day for cotton plants from emergence to squaring stages. From white bloom to peak blooming stage, cotton plants will utilize one-tenth to one-fourth acre-inches water daily.
Several years research at South Plains Research and Extension Center, Lubbock, has shown a six-inch preplant irrigation plus two four-inch postplants gives maximum yields with top net returns in normal growing seasons. A good rain at the proper time can eliminate one of the post-plant irrigations.
Observance of a water cut-off date is very important. In areas from Lubbock north, water should be cut-off by Aug. 20. From Lubbock south, Aug. 20 to 25 are considered optimum cut-off dates. Following this practice will mean better grades of cotton going to the gin, with less "bollies" and more money in the bank.

Rotarians given some wiring tips

Danny O'Neal and Charlie Brown, two local high school FFA boys who returned last week from Amarillo where they attended the annual FFA Electric Workshop, sponsored by Southwestern Public Service Co., spoke before Post Rotarians at City Auditorium Tuesday noon about information learned at the workshop.

Each boy took a different electrical course. Five were offered. Several kinds of electric lamps were displayed and explained and Rotarians were given a lot of free trips on electric wiring.

Ted Hibbs, local Southwestern Public Service manager, introduced the two young speakers.

Redistricting —

The recent U. S. Supreme Court decision has declared that voter districts must be approximately equal solely upon the basis of population. This will bring on congressional redistricting in Texas as well as legislative redistricting too with in the coming year.
Under the present county commissioner district boundaries almost the entire population of Post has been divided between Precincts 1 and 2 with almost three-fourths of the populated area in Precinct 1 and one-fourth in Precinct 2. Precinct 3 contains only that small residential portion of Post east of F Street. Precinct 4 now contains none of the city's population.

THE PROPOSED redistricting plan, as far as city population is concerned, would:
Precinct 1 — Reduce its in-city boundaries to voters living north of the present boundary line which runs west along the alley between West Main Street and West 10th Street, and west of the proposed new east boundary line which would run up the center of North Avenue M from the courthouse.
Precinct 2 — Leave it virtually unchanged within the city limits, adding only the half block on which the bank and post office are located.

Precinct 3 — New boundaries would include the center of Avenue M on the west, instead of Avenue F, and the center of Main Street on the south. This would add some 37 city blocks to Precinct 3. The new Main Street boundary on the south would take away from Precinct 3 and give to Precinct 4 that portion of the city east of Avenue F and south of Main Street—some five residential half blocks and Mill Village.
Precinct 4 — Its new in-city boundaries would be the middle of Avenue K on the west and the center of Main Street on the north. It would thus pick up some 24 blocks of the city from Precinct 1 and five residential half-blocks and Mill Village from Precinct 3. Actually, the geographical changes to the boundary lines are small and effect very few of the county's rural voters. The proposed changes would give Precinct 4 a sort of panhandle appendage in its northwest corner extending into the city. Changes outside the city limits basically are only to provide this narrow corridor access into the city for Precinct 4.

The proposed new boundaries were prepared by the Lubbock Engineering Co., Judge Parker told The Dispatch.
He said anybody wishing to look at the proposed new boundaries is welcome to come look at the city and county maps of the new county commissioner precincts in his office.

THE PROPOSED changes however, will move one Democratic precinct chairman outside his precinct.
Charlie Didway, Dispatch editor and Precinct 1 Demo chairman, lives at 314 West 13th — on the corner of the Avenue M intersection. The new Precinct 1 eastern boundary runs up the center of Avenue M. Didway is just about as close as one could live to his Precinct 1 without being in it — a matter of 15 feet or so to the center of Avenue M—according to the redistricting plan.

It's My Turn

— By MRS. C.

Mr. C. asked me at dinner to-night (Monday) what I was going to write my column about. Politics and potatoes, I said. And I'm off.

I keep thinking how pleased Ed Sawyer will be when he learns that I have been watching television this week. We turned TV on at noon and also as soon as we came home from work to see how things have been working out at the convention—that one where they are going to nominate that man that I don't like.

I'm an NBC watcher when it comes to this type of thing. I like Sandor Vanocur and Fran McGee. Not to mention Chet Huntley and David Brinkley. However, I always feel a little guilty shutting Walter Cronkite out on the other channel because he is one of my favorites also.

One thing I've learned from watching this convention and others in the past is that women politicians ought to do everything else that politicians do at conventions except make speeches. Somehow or other most of them sound like screeching fishwives.

I wonder how Huntley and Brinkley will stand up through this "togetherness" for a week? Do you suppose they make each other nervous?

Enough of politics and on to potatoes. And I'm not switching the subject completely because the two do have something in common occasionally.

Those of you who have read the "Letters to the Editor" will know that I've had some help as to potato harvests from Mrs. Spencer (Erlene) Kuykendall of McAllister, Mont. Thought most of you would enjoy her other comments, so decided to share it with you. Thanks Erlene.

I'm glad the Kuykendalls sound so happy in their new home because I've always thought it took a lot of courage to pull us stakes here and move exactly where they wanted to and do exactly what they wanted to. So few people do that kind of thing.

In case some of you don't know it, Syd Conner, our county agent is also on the ball. He sent the C's a gardening magazine that tells ALL. All that is, except what happens to the potatoes when the plant dies from lack of that precious ething in Post known as water.

Mr. C. and I couldn't help but die under a small plant that was dying to see what was going on. So you might say we harvested a bit. The harvest consisted of seven potatoes ranging from two inches to five inches in circumference. We aren't going to get fat!

But let me tell you about our corn. We had six of the most delicious ears of garden corn Sunday that we have ever eaten. Evidently the worms nibbled it, too, because there were mighty few bites left on these ears at the grocery store Saturday—cost about two ears for a quarter as our crop has not been a waste financially. All 'he seed costs 29 cents.

When I discovered our corn had

LESSONS IN ARRANGING

(Third in Series)

Outdoor or Patio Party

This arrangement is based on a 2' styrofoam with a 9 by 5 paper mache container embedded in the base beneath the coffee pot and skillet. This has been filled with oasis to accommodate red carnations which are placed in the base among the bark and wood that forms your theme of a campfire. A coffee pot is arranged with bronze mums to form the line. To further accent the theme the skillet has been filled with yellow pom poms to simulate scrambled eggs. To further accent the arrangement, take miniature cattails, light them and place in lower portion of arrangement to create the smoke for the campfire. This smoke will last for many minutes and will add unlimited conversation to your party piece.

This arrangement is now on display at the Flower Nook. Please come inspect it and ask any further questions you may have concerning the arrangement. We are here to help you.

“Sleepy Time Is Garza Time”

John is thinking about “what he wants to be.” No, he doesn’t want to be a jet pilot, nor a nuclear physicist, nor a lawyer, nor an actor, nor a doctor, nor yet a banker, baker, or chemist. John has decided. He wants to be a MINISTER.

I wondered if his father or his uncle or anyone else in the family is a minister? Strangely enough, no! He won’t make a lot of money, and knowing John, he certainly won’t particularly like the idea of getting up to “preach” to people. Definitely he won’t have a big shiny car to make his calls. I wondered why John had decided to devote a lifetime to service in the Church.

I asked John for a frank answer and he told me many small accumulative experiences which boiled down to this: A strong Christian influence from family, friends, and church kindled a spirit of awareness and devotion which seems to be latent in every human heart. Of course, we can’t all be like John. Few of us have received the stimulus to devote our entire life to the Church. But some of John’s spirit does dwell in all of us. Too often we are unaware that we possess this miraculous gift from God. Rekindle your spirit by going to church this Sunday.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children’s sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Pat Walker addresses RMA on check problems

Pat Walker, local attorney, addressing the largest turnout of merchants at the Retail Merchants Association luncheon at Levi's Restaurant last Thursday noon declared that "only" about half of one percent of worthless check losses are paid by the nation over a period of 10 years.

Walker estimated that "hot check artists" don't take $200 a year of Post.

Walker contends, however, that some of the most serious losses are made by the merchant who takes advantage of the law.

Walker pointed out the law forbids a merchant from serving as a "collection agency" for worthless checks.

Walker added, the law provides a sensible remedy to the merchant if you follow through.

Walker says, Walker pointed out you should write the merchant a worthless check and let him take the check to the bank. The letter should be sent by registered mail, or other type of mail in which you receive a receipt.

Walker said the merchant should inform the individual who has been returned the check has been returned to him straighten it out.

Walker said merchants should make a carbon copy of the letter, after ten days, the person giving the worthless check has not come into the store to make it right, the next step is for the merchant to take the copy of the letter to the county attorney and file a charge.

Walker said the law forbids you to stop process on such a charge just because the check is later paid, Walker

School age marriages may continue to increase, says A&M specialist

COLLEGE STATION — School age marriages may not be wise, yet after one becomes a fact, adults working with the couple have a responsibility to help them succeed. Indications are that they will continue to increase in numbers.

So says Patsy Reynolds, Extension specialist in family life education at Texas A&M University.

Marriage is always a time of adjustment, she explains, regardless of the age of the couple. "Add to the normal problems of this period the disapproval and often bitter incriminations of parents and the load becomes almost impossible for the young couple to carry."

According to a study made by Dr. B. J. Fallon, executive secretary of the West Texas School Study Council, school-age marriages have a divorce rate two to four times greater than for those who marry at age 20 or older. Dr. Fallon directed the survey in 238 Texas schools in 1962.

Conclusions of the research indicate that schools should educate for a "balanced social perspective" if these school-age marriages are to be reduced or those which occur are to succeed, the specialist says.

The parents and community can give the young couple practical education for dealing with problems such as budgets, house cleaning and care and use of household

Tax Man Sam Sez:

Retired taxpayers over 65 years of age get several breaks under the law. They have an extra $600 exemption provided for age. Retirement Income Credit is also a very important benefit. The Internal Revenue folks report that some taxpayers who appear to be eligible for Retirement Income Credit don't claim the credit. They also point out that the Texas Community Property Law gives Retirement Income Credit to both the husband and the wife in many cases. This can be worth as much as $304.80 a year. If you feel that you are entitled to extra Retirement Income Credit contact your IRS office.

REASON FOR ACCIDENTS

About one out of four farm machinery accident victims are under 19 years of age. With National Farm Safety Week coming up July 19-25, wouldn't it be a good time, asks the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, for every farm family to do some checking on their machinery accident record? There was a reason for each accident. Don't make the same mistake twice, warns the Council.

Palo Duro Canyon State Park

Etched deeply in the high plains of the Panhandle, just south of Amarillo, lies a spectacular gorge, widely renowned for its scenic beauty. This is Palo Duro Canyon, a great 15,000 acre state park of Texas. You enter it on a road which winds for miles along the bottom of the vast gorge. You see many remarkable formations such as the "Lighthouse" and "Balanced Rock" which have been formed by centuries of erosion which created the Canyon. As you drive slowly along the Canyon's beauty is enhanced by constant changes in delicate coloring. Coronado explored the Canyon in 1541, and in 1876 Col. Goodnight drove the first wagon train down a huge rock slide into its great gulf. Palo Duro Canyon is easily reached on major highways through many of our towns, and is a high spot in places to go and things to see in General Telephone Country.

During 1964-65 term

9,584 free lunches are served at school here

The Post Public Schools cafeteria served a total of 9,584 free meals during the 1963-64 school year at a cost to the school district of $3,394.40 in revenue, Supt. Barry B. Thompson told the board of trustees Monday night at their regular July session.

An average of 54.4 students were served free meals each day during the 176 school days, the superintendent's report to the board disclosed.

"This was the only hot meal many of the students received during the year and contributed directly to their continued school attendance," the superintendent said.

"Obviously," he continued, "the free lunch program is expensive. However, it is designed to help the children of indigent families stay in school." Free meals served by months during the school term were: September, 763; October, 1,101; November, 819; December, 695; January, 1,145; February, 1,164; March, 1,218; April, 1,527; May, 1,152.

Supt. Thompson's report also disclosed that a total of 82,081 meals were served at the cafeteria during the school year—78,184 to students and 3,917 to adults.

The superintendent commended Mrs. Bailey Matsler, cafeteria supervisor, for her diligence and accuracy in keeping records at the cafeteria and in compiling the figures for the report made to the school board.

Miss Leverett, who will teach 7th grade English, is a graduate of North Texas State University and has been teaching in the Lubbock Public Schools. She and Howard Davis, the new vocational agriculture teacher, will be married in August.

Mrs. Donelson, employed as an elementary teacher, is a graduate of McMurry College and has taught for a number of years at both the elementary and secondary level. She will come to Post from Eldorado, Tex.

Harold Williams, junior high science teacher, has been a teacher of sciences in Matthews Junior High School in Lubbock. He is a native of Crosbyton and holds a BS degree from West Texas State University and a Master of Education degree from Texas Tech.

MISS FAULK, employed to teach 6th grade English, is a graduate of Kermit High School and the University of Texas with a BA degree in English.

Hutchins, 9th grade science teacher, has bachelor's and master's degrees from Texas Tech and has been teaching six and a half years at Cooper, near Lubbock, and at Westbrook, near Sweetwater.

Miss Walter, elected as a junior high and girls P. E. instructor, is a native of Slaton and a graduate of Texas Lutheran College with a BS degree in biology. She is employed this summer at a girls' church camp.

Skiles, who resigned after his recent election as a high school science teacher, informed the board he has accepted a position in Amarillo so he can complete a graduate degree at West Texas State.

Frederick, who taught junior high science here last year, has accepted a position in Canyon, also to complete a graduate degree at WTSU.

MRS. ALLSUP HAD informed the board that she was resigning as a junior high English teacher in order to accept a position in Dimmitt to be near her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley, who have taught at Close City for the last few years, informed the board they were resigning so he can teach in East Texas near his farm.

Following the election of the new teachers and acceptance of the resignations, Supt. Thompson told the trustees that with one or two exceptions "the faculty is fairly well set" for the coming school year.

In accepting Mrs. Jones' donation of the $1,000 scholarships, the board agreed that a letter of appreciation to Mrs. Jones on behalf of the school district is in order.

U.S. Army helicopters aiding government forces in the Viet Nam jungle conflict are now armed with new side-mounted machine guns for defense against Communist ground fire. Mounted in pairs on each side of the Iroquois chopper shown above is the new M-60 machine gun, with a firing rate of 600 rounds per minute. Produced by the Saco-Lowell division of Maresmont Corp., the gun was originally developed for ground forces. On the chopper, the four M-60 guns are fed 6000 rounds from a cargo compartment, and are remotely controlled by the co-pilot.

Vietnamese govt. troops carry food and supplies from helicopter during field operations 160 miles northeast of Saigon. The air supply was the only means of supply.

DE course is to be started here

Approximately 20 students have enrolled in the Distributive Education program to be instituted at Post High School this fall, Supt. Barry B. Thompson told the school board Monday night.

Dale Schmidt will be the teacher and coordinator of the new course, which is open to junior and senior students.

The course provides for local merchants to employ the students in on-the-job training during the school year.

Schmidt, who will be in his second year as a member of the faculty here, is attending a National Science Foundation Institute at Tulsa University and has made arrangements with the NSF to attend a DE workshop beginning July 30 in Austin, the superintendent said.

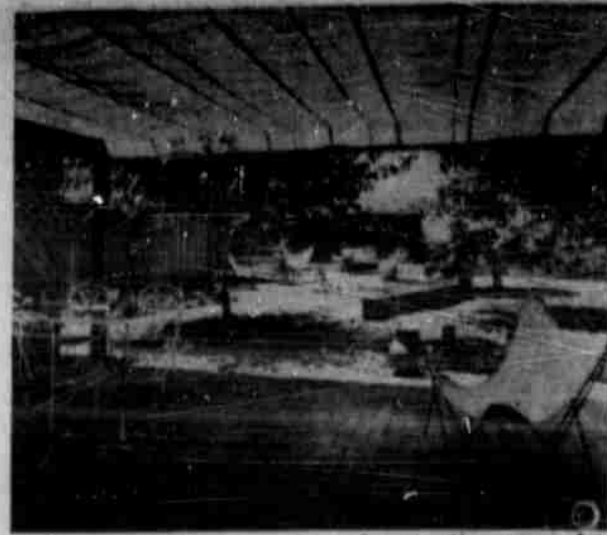

New assistant in mill office here

Carl Aycock, formerly of Dallas, is new assistant office manager at Post Mills here.

Aycock, his wife, Christine, and their three children are residing here at 305 South Ave. F, but plan to build after they sell their home in Dallas.

The Aycock children are Wayne, 10; Lee Ann, 8, and Charles, 2.

In Dallas Aycock was in the accounting department of General Portland Cement. He has been active for many years in Boy Scouting. Mrs. Aycock was active in various women's groups at Dallas and was president of her garden club.

Fire protection adjustment asked

The city asked the county Monday for an adjustment on the rate for which the county is paying the city for fire protection.

Mayor Harold Lucas and City Supt. Eddie Warren told the Garza County Commissioners Court that Post's volunteer fire department has this last year answered 65 rural fires, which cost $4,480 in salaries alone to firemen on the basis of $2 a call and $2 for each additional hour after the first hour.

The county has been paying the city $3,000 annually for such fire department service.

The two city officials pointed out that the city thus paid $1,480 in salaries for the county's fire protection plus all cost of equipment, tires, gasoline, etc.

The city asked the county to consider either a specified amount per call or a boost in the annual county payment to the city.

The cities of Slaton and Snyder both charge $100 a fire for rural calls and both have billed Garza County for such calls when made within this county's boundaries.

BENEFIT BALL GAME

Mothers of Post Little Leaguers will play a benefit baseball game at 8 o'clock Saturday night at the Little League Park here. Proceeds from the small admission charge will be used to help pay the Little League All-Star's expenses to the area tournament next week. The public is invited to attend Saturday night's game.

One-day shutdown not due to water

The Postex Cotton Mills shut down their sewing room Friday for an extra long weekend — it wasn't because of any water emergency.

Louie Burkes, head of the mill, explained that some new finishing machinery had been installed during the recent vacation period. When they couldn't get it operating properly, sewing room production had to be stopped for a day Friday while an expert was flown to make proper adjustments.

Mill operations were resumed Monday morning.

The mill machinery, which is most of the water at the mill, wasn't shut down by the adjustment problem, Burkes pointed out.

McLaughlin sells his Garza wells announced in Snyder Saturday the sale of working interests in 149 producing oil wells in Garza, Nolan and Fisher counties to the Newmont Oil Co. and A.M. Corporation.

Newmont is the Houston-based oil operating affiliate of Newmont Mining Corp. of New York. A.M. Corp. is headquartered at College Station and was formed by Texas A&M alumni to acquire rearing production payments for the benefit of that university.

Consideration in the transaction were cash and a production payment "valued well in excess of $1,000,000."

Most of the wells and production are in the Diamond M field Scurry County.

Seal coating—

Precinct 2 Commissioner A. P. (Chuck) Gurley said his precinct didn't have available funds for such a project.

There was an indication from the county, however, that it might cooperate in such a project in the future if county precinct funds were available.

But the action didn't come to a vote of the commissioners court. City Supt. Eddie Warren told The Dispatch that although West Main Street badly needs seal coating, the city didn't feel it could afford to do so in the current project because it would necessitate eliminating 18 other blocks of seal coating.

Main Street is so wide that each block requires approximately three times the amount of seal coating as would other, normal-sized city streets.

The city will spend $25,000 out of this year's budget and next year's for the big seal coating project. This includes engineering fees and seal coating for approximately 128 blocks.

The Lubbock firm that will do the seal coating is already moving in materials and equipment for the job. Warren said the Monday start would be made in the northwest portion of the city.

This will be the first seal coating of local streets since 1961.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Owings is survived by her mother, Mrs. Letha Thompson of Post; four sons, M. L. Masters Jr. of Baytown, Hubert Clay Masters of Austin, Dr. Melton Jesse Welch of San Antonio and Darrel C. Owings of Aurora, Colo., three sisters, Mrs. Charlie Williams of Post, Mrs. Curtis Petty of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mrs. Stanley Mathis of Post, one brother, G. S. Kennedy Jr. of San Angelo, and nine grandchildren.

The Rev. Joe Vernon, First Baptist pastor, and the Rev. A. T. Nixon officiated at the funeral services for Mrs. Owings. Interment was in Terrace Cemetery here under the direction of Mason Funeral Home.

Nephews of Mrs. Owings served as pallbearers. They were Bill Love, L. W. Evans, Marshall Petty, Charles Williams, Kenneth Williams and Marvin Williams.

Mrs. Owings was a member of the Second Baptist Church of Baytown.

judge and district attorney have no quarters from which to work and that there is no room for attorneys to consult with clients.

Parker pointed out if the Hyde building was purchased and remodeled it would always be a good real-estate property by the county should in the future the county decide to remodel or enlarge the courthouse.

If the county attorney's office is moved into the courthouse this would save $75 a month rent the county is now paying for its county attorney's office, Parker added.

At their July session this week, the court also rejected by a 3-2 vote with Judge Parker casting the tie-breaking ballot, a proposal that county liquor store fees — now a maximum of $62.50 a year — be halved.

Mike Mitchell presented the request for the reduction in the liquor store license fees, pointing out that local liquor stores are not getting anywhere near the business they did when the fee originally was established before a Lubbock county precinct went "wet".

The city recently also voted down a similar request that the license fee be halved.

Parker said he voted against the reduction in fee because he felt if the county made a concession here it would be called upon for other concessions from others and that "our income is not going up, instead its going down."

of water conservation. It brings to an abrupt end one of the most pleasant times of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hudman flew home Monday via one of those silent jets at about 500 miles an hour from Nassau, the capital island of the Bahamas, after an enjoyable, expensive - paid four-day visit to that quaint tourist mecca. Victor is still trying to figure out how the capital city of the Bahamas, population 85,000, supported 17 robust banks with only a single industry—tourists. The island is seven miles wide and 21 miles long and most of everything used or eaten is shipped in by boat. Of course, Victor admits, those tourist prices were pretty steep. A cup of coffee for example cost 30 cents. Your imagination can take it from there. The Hudmans won the trip for the furniture store's successful Zenith sales.

The Dispatch's July Business Page appear on page 15 of today's issue and features a story on Bob Collier Druggist and the many changes since World War II in the retail drug business. You'll find it interesting, as are all stories about local businesses.

Expenses were down last month, but so was income. The administrator pointed out there is a direct relationship. He predicted July will be worse financially because of the small amount of insurance which probably will be collected this month, although "we have had a busy opening week."

Trustees reviewed the hospital's personnel policies adopted in 1958 and authorized the administrator to rewrite them and present proposed revisions for board action at the August session.

Firemen to school

Three members of the Post Volunteer Fire Department will leave Sunday for College Station to attend the annual state firemen's and fire marshals' school. Attending the one-week course from here will be Fire Chief Loyd Mock, Jimmy Holleman and Richard Dudley.

Rodeo remodeling nearing finish

The remodeling of the Post Stampede rodeo grounds, in advance of the upcoming Aug. 5-8 rodeo, is expected to be completed by the middle of next week with only "touching up" then remaining.

Joy Mason and Robbie King are doing the welding work on the major rodeo overhead with Walter Josey in charge of the entire project.

Plans for the rodeo are now virtually complete, according to Fred Myers, rodeo manager.

The Junior Rodeo director's met last night to work out additional details.

There's still a need for rodeo queen contestants, Mrs. H. W. Schmidt, contest chairman, said yesterday. Up to that time, Elaine Blend was the only one entered, Mrs. Schmidt said.

Hospital—

A new cast iron boiler will cost approximately $3,600 installed while a new steel boiler will cost approximately $1,000 more.

The steel boiler is recommended as having much longer life than the cast iron if a new one is purchased. Trustees want the new boiler installed or the one out of commission repaired for service before winter heating problems arise.

June was a "healthy month for citizens but not for hospital finances," Rickels told trustees in presenting the monthly financial report.

FIGURED ON A cash income basis, the hospital operated at a $1,399.20 loss last month with an accumulated loss of $15,717.85 for the first six months of the year.

Hospital occupancy dropped to 27 per cent in June, as compared to 41.1 per cent for the first six months of the year.

Thirty-four patients were admitted for the month with total patient days standing at 201, which meant a daily patient census of 5.6 persons. There was one birth and two deaths at the hospital in June.

Collections are harder this year, Rickels reported. A total of $11,457.15 is now owed on hospital accounts with $6,171.45 of this total being insurance which requires usually about 60 days from date of billing to come in.

This means that in the first six months, hospital receivables, less insurance money due, is nearing the total of the $6,611.39 uncollected for the entire year of 1963 and $6,321.75 still outstanding for 1962.

Expenses were down last month, but so was income. The administrator pointed out there is a direct relationship. He predicted July will be worse financially because of the small amount of insurance which probably will be collected this month, although "we have had a busy opening week."

Trustees reviewed the hospital's personnel policies adopted in 1958 and authorized the administrator to rewrite them and present proposed revisions for board action at the August session.

Nita Wilson to play Saturday in all-star cage game

Annual event set for 8:15 in gym at Waco

Wilson and her high school coach, Miss Mary Lee, will play Saturday night in the North-South All-Star Game at the annual summer clinic of the High School Girls' Basketball Coaches Association.

Wilson, who broke all scoring records during the four years she played at the Post-Dispatch, is listed at a forward position on the North roster.

The all-star game will be played at 8:15 in the Midway High School gymnasium at Waco.

Other forwards on the North roster are: Paula Corn of Baird, Gayle Nicholas of Olton, Beth Ashley of Slidell, Manor Cliett of Mineral Wells, Lois Finley of Claude, Charlotte Nettles of Friona and Mary Joyce Kemp of Brewer High School (Fort Worth).

North team guards are: LaDawn Kemp of Dimmitt, Gayle Jones of Lueders, Dorothy Berry of Granbury, Jayne Powers of Duncannon, Gwyn Hendrix of Abertamy, Martha Toles of Happy, Jo Franks of Talco and Betty McAninch of Trent.

Forwards on the South team roster are: Peggy Schulze of Cotulla, Emily Nester of D'Hanis, Judy Luce of Rocksprings, Kay Stephens of Angleton, Robble Harper of Clear Creek, Barbara Trammell of Slocum, Kahy Haas of Moulton and Brenda Elliott of West Sabine.

Listed at guard on the South roster are: Karen Urban of Dilley, Mary Bowlin of Tenaha, Gaylynne Robinson of Clear Creek, Martha Lee of Little Cypress, Claudine Crass of Salado, Betty Fishbeck of Moulton, Dorothy Huff of Cypress-Fairbanks and Anne Matocha of Jourdanton.

Coaching the North team are B. E. Duggins of Friona, forwards, and Ralph Newton of Trent, guards. The South coaches are Ben Comalander of Dilley, forwards, and Tommy Hoyer of Moulton, guards.

The North-South All-Star game has been played since 1957, with the North having won six games to the South's one.

The summer clinic at Waco started Thursday and will be concluded with Saturday night's all-star game. An attractive three-day program has been arranged for the girls, their coaches and others at the clinic.

THE FUNNIEST GAME

This is typical of the action that will be seen at Monday night's donkey ball game at Little League Park between the VFW and Post Jaycees.

Donkey ball game set here Monday

Donkey baseball, "America's funniest game," comes to Little League Park here Monday night, July 20, when teams from Veterans of Foreign Wars Post and the Junior Chamber of Commerce clash in a benefit game at 7:30 o'clock.

There will be admission charges of $1 for adults and 50 cents for children, with all proceeds above expenses going into the project funds of the VFW post and the Jaycee organization.

The 12 trained Texas donkeys on which the rival teams will play the game are being furnished by Ralph E. Godfrey of Crescent, Okla.

Both teams are predicting victory in Monday night's game, and besides spills, laughs and thrills, the crowd is promised the tops in petition between these two local organizations.

Donkey ball rules provide that all except the pitcher and catcher ride donkeys in the game. The pitcher and the catcher remain on the ground in specially marked boxes. The pitcher and catcher cannot field a batted ball, but must wait until a player with a donkey has handled the ball first.

There are no strikeouts or walks in the game, and when the batter hits fair he must mount donkey and ride around bases in proper order. The base-running donkey must step inside or on white circle with one foot while player is on donkey's back, to be safe.

The base-playing donkey also must have foot inside or on base and player must be on donkey and have the ball in his hand before the runner arrives at the base in order to make the putout. The player and not the donkey must be tagged. Force outs and tag outs are the same as usual.

Advance tickets to the game are on sale and may be purchased from VFW members or Jaycees.

LL All-Stars to play first tourney game on July 24

Post's Little League All-Stars have drawn a first-round bye in the Area IV Tournament opening at Lamesa next week and will play their first game at 7:30 p. m. Friday, July 24.

The All-Stars, managed by Pat N. Walker, will play the winner of the first-round game between Tahoka and Crosbyton, which is to be played at 7:30 p. m. Thursday, July 23.

All tournament games will be played at Lamesa's Little League Park.

Other teams in the tournament are Lamesa, O'Donnell and Slaton.

The Post All-Star roster has been selected by the manager from among the 27 boys originally named to the all-star squad. The 15-player roster is as follows:

Butch Heaton, Jay Bird, James Stone, Terry Cross, Dennis Dodson, Jimmy Poer, Larry Mills, Randy Levens, Robert Pace, Karl Hall, Larry Scrivner, Tommy Greenwood, Randy Hudman and Jerry Batcher.

Alternates are Robert Saldivar, Jimmy McKamie and Jimmy Ammont.

GUESTS IN HOME HERE

Visiting this week with Mrs. Lauris Wheeler are Mr. and Mrs. Temple Lee of Graham and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tower of Lubbock.

OUT OF HOSPITAL

Mrs. Bill Laurence was dismissed Wednesday of last week from Methodist Hospital in Lubbock and is reported to be doing fine.

CHAMPIONSHIP TROPHIES AWARDED

Ronnie Pierce (right) received the Babe Ruth League batting championship trophy at awards night recently. At the left is J. M. Hutchins, Babe Ruth League president, who picked up the sportsmanship award for his son, Bo Hutchins, who was not present. In the center is Bill Edwards, sponsor of the champion White Sox, of which team Pierce is a member.

GRID DUCATS TO BE ON SALE HERE SOON

Season tickets to one of the most attractive home schedules ever offered Post Antelope football fans will go on sale the last week of July or the first week of August, Supt. Barry B. Thompson said today.

Holder of 1963 season tickets will have first option on the same tickets they had last year, the superintendent said.

The five home game tickets will sell for $6.25.

The home schedule includes games with Ballinger, Crane, Denver City, Plains and Slaton.

HOLIDAY VISITORS

Visiting Mrs. Lauris Wheeler through the July 4 holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wheeler, Simon, Chloce Ann, and Denise of Pueblo, Colo., a granddaughter, Mrs. Eddie Harrell and Jay and Jamie of Amarillo, a grandson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Wheeler, Becky and Devon. Mr. Wheeler is stationed with the Army in Alabama. Also visiting was a brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Cathy of San Bernardino, Calif.

Santa Fe carloadings

Carloadings moved over Santa Fe System Lines for week ending July 11 were 20,538 compared with 19 for the same week a year ago. On-line loadings were 20,611 compared with 22,026 for the corresponding week last year. Cars loaded from connections totaled 9,350 compared with 9,350 for the week a year ago. Santa Fe had a total of 32,867 carloadings preceding week of this year.

MANAGER GETS TROPHY

Completion near on grid lighting

Work is nearing completion on the new $11,000 lighting system at Antelope Stadium. Supt. Barry B. Thompson reported to the school board at its July meeting Monday night.

"The job will be completed before the Aug. 15 deadline with ease," the superintendent told the trustees.

The new lighting system will increase the light intensity five times over the old system and will give fans an unobstructed view of the playing field. Underground conduit is being used to eliminate hazards to spectators, the superintendent said.

Southern Electric Company of Snyder is the contractor on the new lighting project.

OFF TO CALIFORNIA

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hudman left yesterday for a two week vacation trip to California, via Las Vegas. They planned to visit Mrs. Hudman's brother, Ed Payne, and wife in Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. Lois Crump, former Post residents, in Oxnard, Calif.

RETURNS FROM VISIT

Mrs. Mell Pearce returned home from Canyon after spending two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Tom Garner, who underwent major surgery recently.

School library is planned for staff

A professional library for staff members will be established in the Post schools for the 1964-65 school year. Supt. Barry B. Thompson told the school board Monday night at its July session.

An initial sum of 160 has been budgeted for the library, which the superintendent said will enable staff members to keep abreast of research in all subject matter fields.

Research and professional journals to be included in the library are: Chemistry, Journal of Educational Research, Physical Science, School Review, and many others. These periodicals will be in the office of Asst. Supt. William F. Shivers.

PLAINS VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Stephens went to Plains over the weekend where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bowen Stephens and family. Saturday night they attended a roping.

News from your . . .

County H. D. Agent

By Juanette Williams

(This is the third in a series of articles on the Basic Four Food in our daily diets.)

Planning and preparing meals is a continual job for homemakers. Whether you plan a week in advance or a meal in advance, it is important that you include the Basic Four Food Groups in adequate amounts daily.

It seems natural for homemakers to plan the main dish first. That is usually a food from the meat group and provides our bodies with protein. Since our bodies tissues and cells, we must get at least two good servings of a protein rich food daily.

To accompany our main dish we serve fruits and vegetables, high in vitamin A and vitamin C, plus others. Our menu isn't complete with servings from only two food groups; neither have our bodies received all the nutrients they need.

Our daily diets should include four or more servings of bread or cereal products, and just observe all the foods in this group. Enriched white, whole wheat, rye, brown and serve, frozen, canned, cornbread, and many other breads. And how many different kinds of cereals—a whole grocery counter full! Also macaroni, rice, spaghetti, grits and cakes made with grain products are included. Thus, it is easy to include four servings daily and also have variety in menus.

It is important to read labels when buying products. Not all foods in this group have good supplies of nutrients. The words "whole grain" or "enriched" are the keys to good nutrition. Refining grains for white flour removes most of its nutritional value; these nutrients can be replaced through "enrichment."

The foods in this group furnish protein, iron, several B vitamins and food energy. Actually, they "round out" the diet. Thiamine is the B vitamin that they supply in particular, and is not found in large quantities in other foods.

Cereal products also furnish riboflavin, which is also found in good supply in meat and milk food. Thiamine is essential to growth, good appetite and healthy menus. It is vitally concerned in the body processes which the energy value of food makes available to us. A deficiency may actually lead to malnutrition, since without thiamine your appetite is poor. A lack of this vitamin in your diet may also cause tender muscles.

Sermon topics told

The Rev. Kendall S. White of the Church of the Nazarene announced his topic for the Sunday morning service as "Looking for a Sign." He has chosen the subject: "What I Believe About the Second Coming of Christ" for the 7 o'clock evening service. Both the choir and the junior choir will sing hymns at the evening service.

FIFTY YEARS AGO - ON AUGUST 15, 1914, THE FIRST SHIP PASSED THROUGH THE FAMOUS 'BIG DITCH,' THE PANAMA CANAL. ITS BUSY LOCKS HAVE SEEN THE FLAGS OF ALL NATIONS. THE LOCKS MAKE IT POSSIBLE FOR A SHIP TO RISE 85 FEET ABOVE SEA LEVEL, THEN DROP DOWN AGAIN TO THE OPEN SEA.

THE CANAL HAS THREE LARGE LOCKS - THE GATUN, MIRAFLORES AND PEDRO MIGUEL - EACH ABOUT 1,000 FEET LONG, 110 FEET WIDE AND 40 FEET DEEP. IF ALL LOCKS WERE FILLED 3/4 TIMES OVER, THIS AMOUNT WOULD EQUAL THE COFFEE CONSUMED (ABOUT 450 MILLION CUPS) DAILY IN THE U.S.

Cool Sunday is welcome respite from hot summer

By MRS. O. H. HOOVER
Wasn't Sunday a lovely day? It was so cool we didn't even have to turn on the air-conditioner. But it got hot again today so I guess summer is still with us - also reunion time.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Yeats enjoyed a reunion of all their children Sunday and Monday except the oldest daughter who lives in Santa Rosa, N. M. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Yeats, Timmy and Bobby of Hanford, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Yeats and Becky of Post, Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Henson and family and Mrs. Mary Kitchen and daughter of Levelland and Mrs. W. E. Gray and daughter of Morton.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Walker spent the weekend at Lake Thomas just west of Lubbock.

Howell Burk of Levelland and Dave Burk of Jacksonville, Fla., and Mrs. Lucian Walker visited in the C. A. Walker home Friday night.

Mrs. C. C. Jones visited Mrs. C. M. Greer and Mrs. C. B. King Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McLaran, Joan and Michael, visited from Tuesday until Thursday with Mrs. E. A. Thomas en route to Portland, Ore., where they will make their home. Wednesday afternoon they had a get-together party of kind-folks at the Thomas home. Attending were Mrs. Era Aten, Mrs. Eva Childs, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Thomas, Mrs. James Aten, Terri and Mike. They spent the evening eating homemade ice cream and cake.

Visitors of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Greer Sunday morning were the E. W. Bible family of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McCleskey had a pleasant surprise last week. Their granddaughters, Sandra and Carrie McDonald, of Selah, Wash., came to spend the rest of the summer with them.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gribble were Sunday luncheon guests of the McCleskeys. They went to a singing at Slaton in the afternoon.

The Rev. Walker, former pastor of the Central Baptist Church, and family attended services at the Church of the Nazarene Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert McDonald and family are visiting with his brother, Roy McDonald, and family in Borger.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gribble and Mr. and Mrs. C. O. McCleskey visited Jurd Young Sunday in Garza Memorial Hospital. Mr. Young underwent surgery last week and is improving in some ways.

Bobby Dean attended a pigeon show in Duncan, Okla., over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Tanner and children of Lubbock visited in the Ralph Dean home Sunday afternoon.

Nancy Norman attended a GA Baptist camp for junior girls at Fluvada last week.

Mrs. Amos Gerner entered the hospital at Tahoka Monday morning after suffering a heart attack. She seemed to be resting Monday afternoon. We wish for her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Melton and their daughter, Janet McCleskey and children have returned from a visit in East Texas with friends and relatives.

Segard Smith of Stamford spent the weekend in the Amos Gerner home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Porterfield and son, Jim Bob, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sherrill spent the weekend at the Salt Tank community near Rising Star. The occasion was a homecoming of old settlers. Gus and Mrs. Sherrill grew up in the community. They went by Abilene and picked up their son, Dr. D. G. Porterfield, and family and had lunch with them.

Garza County's Rural traffic toll rises during June

The Highway Patrol investigated seven rural traffic accidents in Garza County during the month of June, according to Sgt. A. E. Roberts, patrol supervisor of this area. These wrecks accounted for seven persons injured and an estimated property damage of $4,800.

The rural traffic accident summary in Garza County for the first six months of 1964 shows a total of 31 crashes resulting in ten persons killed, 29 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $21,515.

"As of July 3, there had been a total of 1,069 fatal crashes in Texas taking the lives of 1,288 persons," the sergeant stated. This is 174 more traffic deaths than for the same period of 1963. If traffic deaths continue at the present rate, 1964 will become the most deadly year in Texas history for traffic fatalities, not only exceeding the 1963 all time high of 2,729 deaths but going over the 3,000 fatality mark.

The veteran patrol supervisor stated, "This is not just a probability, but a possible reality, unless the motoring public become more thoughtful in regard to complying with traffic laws which would break the rising trend."

Church of the Nazarene organizes Junior Choir

The Church of the Nazarene has formed a new Junior Choir to sing at the evening services.

Mrs. Lester Keeton and Mrs. Kendall S. White will sponsor the choir and meet with it each Wednesday evening at 7. The choir will be under the direction of Mrs. Keeton.

The practice sessions, which are 30 minutes in length, will be held before the Wednesday evening services. All juniors are urged to be present 15 minutes before the service.

But you didn't know that: Bats are not attracted to lights because of the illumination. They zoom in only to catch the insects which are drawn to the light.

The "song" of the tiny cricket, an insect which is less than an inch long, sometimes can be heard a mile away. Mister Cricket is the only vocalist. Mrs. Cricket is mute.

The bald eagle is an exceedingly loyal and affectionate parent. It will not desert its young even if the tree on which it nests is in flames.

Bats are not "blind as bats." As far as naturalists can tell, they have fair daytime vision.

Rattlesnakes, contrary to belief do not seek to avenge the death of a mate. They probably are attracted to the death scene by scent.

When the Pacific horned lizard is frightened, it squirts blood out of its eyes.

The skeleton of the ant is on the outside of its body.

The so-called silver eel is just a common green eel with a date. When they are six to eight years old, eels stop feeding and change to a silvery color for their journey into the ocean to spawn and die.

The kangaroo rat is neither a kangaroo nor a rat. He is a near relative of the pocket mouse which shares his desert haunts.

Three common myths are that hats smel themselves in women's hair, falling cats always land on their feet, and elephants are afraid of mice. All are untrue!

Surprisingly enough, the small Ruddy duck lays the largest of all wild ducks.

Regardless of his name, the main diet of the sparrow hawk is grasshoppers.

Frogs are able to sing under water because they normally sing with their mouths and nostrils closed.

Except for vultures and parrots, wild peese live longer than any other birds. Authentic records give them as much as 70 years.

The bald eagle was adopted as our national emblem by Congress on June 20, 1782.

The weird, mournful cry of the loon has given rise to the phrase "crazy as a loon." But the bird is far from crazy.

Deer, elk and moose have no gall bladders.

The carp, a native of Asia, was introduced in the United States in 1872.

Birds have the highest body temperature of all creatures—104 to 110 degrees Fahrenheit.

A snake's teeth are pointed backward to prevent escape of animals captured for food.

It is quite doubtful that a snake, as many suppose, can go without water for a week without great discomfort or physical danger. Two or three days is believed to be the limit.

The wild goose has about 12,000 muscles—10,000 of which control the action of its feathers.

The ant has two stomachs. One he uses for himself. In the other, he stores food which is to be shared with other ants in his nest.

Snakes and fish have ears but these ears have no outside openings. They "hear" mostly through vibrations in the ground or water.

People, Places... Population

Population Count at N. Y. World's Fair—A 24-hour-a-day counter with illuminated figures six feet tall clicks off U.S. population at the Equitable Life Pavilion. At current pace the population will exceed 193 million by the year's end.

Michelangelo's world famous "Pieta" is one of the most outstanding features currently exhibited at the Vatican Pavilion.

A night view of the United Nations emblem, the official symbol of the Fair.

Fairgoers have been streaming into the Fair at an average of 175,000 persons per day, with approximately 10,000,000 visitors to date and total of 40,000,000 expected this year.

157 export acres are requested by county

Thirty-eight farmers in Garza County have requested 157 acres on which to grow cotton for export in 1964, according to figures from Lewis David, state executive director of the ASC at College Station.

Under new cotton legislation approved last April, each farmer was given the opportunity to sign up for and plant a maximum of five per cent above his total allotment, provided the cotton produced on the additional acres was sold for export at the "world price."

In order that the additional acreage be approved by the ASC, farmers were required to furnish bond by July 1 guaranteeing export of the cotton without benefit of government price support.

The acreage totals here, however, represent only the acres for which farmers "signed up," and are not necessarily the same as the total acres finally approved by ASC. By the same token, they do not represent the number of export acres planted because even farmers who signed and became bonded for export acreage were not required to plant all or any part of the acreage required. Acreage actually planted for export will not be known until after ASC offices get the measured cotton acreage on all of the farms requesting export acres. Some of the farms will probably drop out entirely, while others will not plant the entire maximum for which they were approved. Final figures will probably not be available until about Oct. 15.

In the 23 High Plains counties, farmers have requested 39,064 acres on which to grow cotton for export in 1964—almost 45 per cent of the estimated 88,000 such acres asked for in the nation and 95 per cent of the 41,402 export acres requested in Texas.

VISIT PARENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Polk and twins, Gary and Debbie, arrived Saturday night to spend two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Polk. They live in Indianapolis, Ind., where he works for the New York Central Railroad. Mr. and Mrs. Travis Polk, Randy and Shelley of Lubbock also visited over the weekend.

Mental health is subject of study

AUSTIN — County Judge C. L. Abernathy of Plainview heads a statewide committee which is taking a long, hard look at what Texans are doing about mental health problems.

The 112-member citizens committee expects to have its report ready by August. But comments at meetings have indicated strongly that the committee will tell Texans that mental health work should begin in the local community.

Judge Abernathy said the old concept of isolating mental patients far from home is far less effective than treatment in their home towns.

Rites for designer of Post church

Henry Steinbomer, 61, San Antonio architect, who designed the First Presbyterian Church building here, died Friday following an illness of several months.

Mr. Steinbomer had devoted the past 20 years to ecclesiastical architecture, during which time he designed some 500 church buildings, 160 of them in Texas. Many of these buildings, including the First Presbyterian Church here, were recognized for distinguished design. Other church buildings he designed in this area included those of the First Presbyterian Churches in Lubbock and Lamesa.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in St. Luke's Episcopal Church in San Antonio, a building which Mr. Steinbomer designed.

Survivors include his wife, a daughter, two sons and two grandsons.

THE POST DISPATCH

Changes are swift in drug business since WWII

Collier Druggist, said this week. When Bob's father, Robert H. (Doc) Collier Sr., who is now 84, opened the store in 1909, two years after the town's founding by C. W. Post, the methods of retailing drugs were vastly different from what they are today.

MOST OF THE early day prescriptions were compounded. Pills were hand-rolled. Charts or powders were made and put up in papers in individual portions.

"We haven't filled one of the powder prescriptions in ten years," Bob commented.

Only about 10 per cent of all prescriptions filled today are compounded, Collier said. These are mostly prescribed by skin specialists or are cough syrups, he added.

Drug research during World War II triggered vast changes in America's drug industry.

World War II produced penicillin and the new age of "wonder drugs" was born.

Aureomycin followed right after World War II and was the forerunner of what Collier termed the "broad spectrum drugs" which produce greater wider action against more forms of bacteria than penicillin.

Collier recalls that he put the first bottle of aureomycin on his shelf about 1949. It sold for $25 a bottle containing 16 capsules.

THE LOCAL DRUGGIST recalls right after aureomycin came out he filled a prescription for $96 for enough aureomycin to cure a patient of undulant fever. Collier pointed out that the cost of new drugs drop steadily after introduction and acceptance. The same bottle of 16 capsules of aureomycin which sold for $25 in 1949 today costs only $5.60 across his counter.

The druggist said his drug department today handles over an estimated 10,000 different drug items of which approximately 90 per cent were developed since he joined the firm in 1948.

COLLIER SAID pharmaceutical companies were introducing new drugs at the rate of between 500 to 1,000 a year up to 18 months ago when greater restrictions and enforcement was imposed by the federal drug administration.

This provides greater safety to the public, Collier points out, but has reduced introduction of new drugs now to only about 100 a year.

Just "keeping up" with the fast changing drug business requires a lot of time in itself.

Collier purchases drugs from about 50 different pharmaceutical companies. Each of these companies have what are called "detail men" to call on both pharmacies and physicians to keep them abreast of their products.

Another "time taker" in the drug store business, which a large percentage of the public is not aware of, is that approximately half of the prescription refills require contact with physicians authorizing the refills before the refills can be made for the customers.

Most antibiotics need physician's authorization for refill for example, Collier pointed out. All types of drugs requiring the authorization require medical supervision, he explained.

IT USED TO BE that a druggist had time only to fill between 15 or 20 prescriptions a day as they required so much individual preparation. Collier estimates his store has filled approximately 350,000 prescriptions in the last 15 years. This averages out almost 2,000 per month.

The local druggist feels major pharmaceutical companies should be given a lot of credit for all the research they do to develop all the new wonder drugs for which the government or "some society" usually receives all the public credit for developing.

WITH ALL THE changes that have come into the retail drug business since World War II what additional changes lie ahead in Collier's estimation?

"What we're coming to is more professionalism in the retail drug business and less full-line drug stores with soda fountains," Collier said.

"I hate to see it come," Collier declared, "but economics already are forcing many druggists to take this route of prescription pharmacies."

Collier pointed out that figuring in the fair amount of overhead in a full-line drug store, "we have $1.50 to $1.60 cost in each prescription before we even pick the drug bottle up to begin filling it."

Bob Collier —

nine regular employees besides himself. An estimated 45 per cent of his total store volume comes across the prescription counter which he handles entirely himself.

Collier credited "the success of the store" for the past year to "the hard work of my good employees and the loyalty of our customers."

The soda fountain is a strictly "break even proposition" at best. Any druggist feels lucky to break even on his soda fountain operation today. He regards it as a service to the community and as an opportunity to get people into the store regularly.

WHEN HIS FATHER opened Post's first drug store in 1909 it was located in half of what is now the Haws building just east of Wacker's. In the early 1930's it was moved to where Lavelle's is today in the same block. The westward movement continued in 1948 when the store was moved to its present location.

That is when Bob entered the family business after coming out of the University of Texas in February of 1948. The present store opened in its present location in March of that year.

It was completely remodeled and modernized in 1958 with refrigerated air conditioning, etc.

His father retired from the business in 1950.

COLLIER POINTS OUT that he has expanded his cosmetic line each year for the last 10 years, adding three new lines this year alone.

"I think we have the best cosmetics stock of any small drug store in West Texas today," Collier adds.

Collier offers 24 hours or round the clock prescription service.

He gets called out on an average of two or three times a week to fill prescriptions after hours and says he enjoys doing it. "I really feel that I'm needed then," he explains.

The store handles a complete line of veterinarian supplies and approximately five per cent of the total drug sales are in the veterinarian line of drugs.

COLLIER SERVED as president of the West Texas Pharmaceutical Association in 1959 and is currently the second vice president of the Texas Pharmaceutical Association. He is slated to rise to first vice president of the state organization this month at its annual convention and then assume the presidency of the organization in mid-1965.

Bob's older brother, Wynne Collier, has operated a drug store in Tahoka, under the name Wynne Collier Druggist, since 1936 when he purchased the business from an uncle.

"We have many customers between here and Tahoka who trade

TO LEAVE FOR CAMP

Giles McCrary, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. McCrary, Neff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat N. Walker, and Ginny Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Edwards, will leave for Durango, Colo., next Wednesday. They will fly to Albuquerque, N. M., from Lubbock where they will be picked up by the camp bus. Giles and Neff will attend Camp Silver Spruce and Ginny will attend Camp Silver Saddle. They will be gone for a month.

WEST COAST VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Pierce left Monday for an extended visit to the West Coast. They will go to Oregon and come back through Los Angeles, Calif.

in both towns and have their prescriptions refilled in either store," Collier said. "To facilitate this we put the prescription number of each store on each bottle."

Collier also reports that the Minola, Tex., drug store in which he is in partnership with Jess Rogers and Jim Rogers, is doing well. The three purchased the store in October of last year with Jim Rogers, who formerly was the second pharmacist at Bob Collier Druggist, the operator.

Prison system is asking budget of $41 million

HUNTSVILLE — The Texas Department of Corrections has requested a biennial budget of $41,319,335 for the fiscal period beginning Sept. 1, 1965.

The request provides for $20,891,995 for the year beginning Sept. 1, 1965, and $20,418,376 for the year beginning Sept. 1, 1966.

The record-high budget has been planned with emphasis being placed on needs for additional personnel and increased pay, said Dr. George A. Beto, director of the Texas Department of Corrections.

The largest single item on the new budget request is $3,503,696 in pay increases with 2,500,000 of the figure for custodial officers (guards) in the system, Dr. Beto said.

"It is immoral for the State of Texas to expect a man to work for $305 a month," Dr. Beto told the group at the preliminary hearing on the proposed budget. The $305 figure is the minimum salary for a prison guard.

The prison system is at least 76 guards short. The Texas system has one guard for every nine inmates while the national average is one guard to every five prisoners.

FEDERAL FOOD DONATIONS

Food donated by the United States government to various groups within this nation during the period of July 1963-March 1964 totaled 1.5 billion pounds. Schools received 464 million pounds, 6 per cent above the same period a year earlier. This is above the supplementary foods purchased for use in the school lunch program. Institutions serving needy persons received 128.5 million pounds, up 7.5 per cent from a year earlier. Slightly more than 853 million pounds of food went to needy people in family units, a drop of 11 per cent from a year earlier.

TWO TYPES OF FINISHES

Two basic types of finishes are used on velvet fabrics: A crush-resistant finish on rayon and cotton types—usually urea or melamine-formaldehyde, which are not used on acetate, nylon or silk; and spot resistant finishes, which are usually achieved with durable type, water-repellent compounds. The new-type oil and water-repellent finishes are also used in some cases.

CLEAN CLOTHING TIP

Keeping clothing immaculately clean actually extends its life. Extension Service clothing specialists emphasize. They remind that the National Institute of Dyeing and Finishing says it is unwise to specify "press only" for clothing which has been soiled with body oils. Pressing just sets these damaging oils into the fabric so they are harder to remove.
