

Buyers pay $10,000 for 36 animals at sale following junior stock show

Approximately $10,000 was paid by some 50 buyers to Garza County 4-H Club and Future Farmers of America members Saturday afternoon for steers, hogs and lambs the youngsters had exhibited Friday and Saturday in the first annual Garza County Junior Livestock Show.

The auction sale, with bidding on a dollar basis following the setting of floor prices in each division, was conducted by T. L. "Mike" Dent, Lubbock auctioneer, before a capacity crowd in the show barn section of the Garza County 4-H building.

Jim Jackson, president of the Garza County Junior Livestock Association, and other show officials were enthusiastic in pinning a "big success" label on this year's show and sale.

"This looks like the start of something really big," one of the buyers remarked as he left the sale ring at the conclusion of the bidding.

Following the sale preliminaries, which included the "auctioning off" of a heifer for the benefit of the livestock show building fund, the sale pattern was set with the auction of the grand and reserve champion steers, which had been shown by Cindy and Lindy Bird, 10-year-old twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Bird.

The champion Hereford steers also were "twins," each animal weighing 1,019 pounds.

Cindy's grand champion steer was purchased by the First National Bank for $500 above the floor price of 29 cents a pound, which had been bid in the heavyweight steer class by the Lubbock Auction Co.

The $300 premium paid by the bank plus the 29 cents floor price brought Cindy a total of $825.21 for her grand champion steer.

Lindy Bird's reserve champion steer brought a $300 premium from five purchasers — Hudman, Farmer and Wright Texaco service stations, S. E. Camp, Texaco Wholesale, and the Post Pharmacy — and brought its owner a total of $625.21.

The floor price for lightweight steers was also set at 29 cents, on the successful bid of W. C. Hart of Snyder.

The floor price for lambs was set at 24 cents, also on the bid of W. C. Hart, and for hogs at 24.40 cents by the Plains Hog Co. of Lubbock.

Overman's reserve champion lamb was purchased by Giles McCrary, whose premium bid above the floor price was $130.

The 225-pound champion hog, shown by Jimmy Overman, was sold to Luther Transfer & Storage for $200, and the reserve champion hog, shown by Sammy Sims to J&B Homco Oil Field Rentals for $110.

In total sales, premium and floor price combined, the steers brought $7,371; hogs, $1,641.42; and lambs, $881.45.

The heifer on which building fund donations were accepted at the start of the sale brought approximately $1,000 into the building fund. Everyone who bid paid the amount of his bid, with the officers ranging from $1 to more than $100.

Livestock other than grand champions placed as follows in the

GRAND CHAMPION STEER

Cindy Bird's 1,019-pound Hereford steer was grand champion honors in Saturday's stock show and sold to the First National Bank, which paid Cindy a $500 premium in addition to the floor price. Floyd Richardson, donor of the beef cattle trophies, awarded Cindy her trophy.

Trustees extend contracts of 58; add two positions

Resignations of 4 are accepted

Post school trustees Monday night added staff positions of elementary supervisor and assistant elementary school principal to the local schools for next year and voted to extend 1966-67 contracts to current teachers and Junior High Principal Jim Pollard.

High School Principal T. C. Clark and Elementary School Principal Herman Raphael already are under contract for next year.

Trustees also accepted the resignations of four teachers to become effective at the end of the spring term and were told by Supt. Bill Shiver that Mrs. Lillie McRee, high school librarian, will retire this spring and that Mrs. Beth Walker, junior high librarian, does not wish to return next year.

years, Nixon will receive a salary of $7,087 as teacher and part-time assistant principal. All of his salary increase will come from state funds. Like other teachers he will draw $400 over state minimum.

Pollard was voted a one year contract as junior high principal at $8,000. This is a salary boost of $300 after his first year of administrative work.

Trustees also approved slight salary hikes for Principals Clark and Raphael for this year and next year after Supt. Shiver explained that he had been in error in his last year recommendations for the two as both had signed contracts for slightly higher amounts. The increase amounted to $137 annually for Clark and $10 for Raphael with state funds covering both increases.

SHIVER TOLD trustees that on the basis of this year's average daily attendance, the Post schools will lose state salaries for five or six teachers next year.

Teacher contracts for the new year will be on the basis of present state minimum plus $400.

Thirteen of the teachers were voted contracts on a conditional basis — the condition that they complete necessary summer school work to continue to be certified by the state as teachers for the 1966-67 school year.

Shiver explained that local faculty members who must take summer work to be certified for next year all were certified by the state for teaching this year but must secure additional credit for future certification.

The school district cannot legally contract with any uncertified teachers, he added, thus he proposed offering such contracts on the conditional basis.

Fourteen of the 57 teachers offered new contracts held master's degrees.

TEACHERS offered contracts, together with the years of teaching experience, are: Mrs. Vynonna Clark, 14; Mrs. Letha Stahly, 6; Mrs. Lucille Nixon, 20; Mrs. Lucile McBride, 18, conditional; Mrs. Ida Jones, 3; Miss Estrella Delgado, 2; Mrs. Jessie Lancaster, 28; Mrs. Mary Hill, 2, conditional; Mrs. Diana Moxley, 1, conditional; Mrs. Anita Myers, 4; Mrs. Shirley McMeans, 2; Mrs. Jean

The third annual installation banquet of the Post Junior Chamber of Commerce will be held at 7:30 p. m. Saturday in the school lunchroom, with State Rep. Jesse T. George of Brownfield as the principal speaker.

Both the Jaycees and Jayceettes will install new officers at the banquet, with Wayne Richardson to be installed as Jaycee president and Mrs. Ed Blanton as president of the Jayceettes.

Dr. Tom Longbotham of Monahans is to install the Jaycee officers, and Anita Elms of Odessa the Jaycee-ette officers.

Dave Sanford will be master of ceremonies and the speaker will be introduced by Frank Blanton, outgoing president of the Jaycees. The program will also include welcome to guests and visitors by Wayne Richardson, the Jaycee creed by Don Ammons, and dinner music by Sharla Pierce.

Tickets to the banquet may be purchased from any Jaycee or at the door Saturday night. The $2.50 price of the ticket includes admission to the dance at the American Legion Hall that will follow the banquet.

634 have chest x-rays made here

A total of 634 Garza county residents had chest x-rays taken here Tuesday evening at the Rotary - sponsored chest x-ray unit of the Lubbock - Hale County Tuberculosis Association's mobile chest x-ray unit.

Probably many more adults would have visited the x-ray unit if it hadn't been for the hard rain which blew throughout the afternoon while the unit was being set up.

Four hundred school-age youngsters had x-rays taken during the morning while the unit was located at the primary school parking lot. Two hundred and 34 adults had x-rays made during the afternoon hours.

A total of $196.50 was received from donations at the x-ray unit toward the total expenses of $325 for the unit's day in Post.

Karwan T. L. Jones made a $50 donation toward the expenses, leaving the cost to the club of $78.50.

Integration of teaching staff is authorized

Post School trustees Monday night authorized Supt. Bill Shiver to look for "qualified teachers regardless of race to satisfy staff integration."

The action came after Shiver reported that last week he attended a meeting of school administrators in Austin at which an attorney for the U. S. Office of Education and officials of the Texas Educational Agency "told us that staff integration is coming, and the time to do it is now."

Shiver pointed out that within two or three years, federal guidelines for qualifying for federal school aid are expected to include staff integration.

The superintendent said that the opportunities to secure qualified Negro teachers will be better in the immediate future than they will when federal requirements include integrated faculties and the demand for Negro teachers will be greatly increased.

When the Post school district integrated four years ago, school trustees voted to pay off the salaries of the two Negro teachers instructing at the Lincoln school.

Flames destroy barn west of Justiceburg

Fire early Sunday morning destroyed a barn and its contents and a haystack on a place owned by Riley Miller, two miles west of Justiceburg.

Post firemen took two trucks to the fire after the alarm was turned in at 2:45 a. m. Sunday, but the barn had already caved in when they arrived.

There was no report as to how the fire started.

Later in the day Sunday, at 1:30 p. m., firemen extinguished a grass fire at South Lake.

City permit issued to build service station

The Becker brothers of Slaton were issued a city building permit Monday for the construction of a $21,000 Mobil service station at the northeast corner of Broadway and 11th street.

The Beckers recently purchased the site from V. H. (Vachel) Anderson.

The site is being cleared this week in preparation for the start of construction of the new station.

Extension under way by City of Post

Sufficient water for cemetery lots

With plenty of water available, members of the Terrace Cemetery Association are being called upon to help beautify the cemetery by keeping the lots clean and attractive.

The City of Post has informed lot owners that additional water lines have been extended to the cemetery and that connecting lines are being laid to all sections of the plot.

For the first time in history ample water can be supplied to beautify the grounds and properly maintain grass and shrubs at the cemetery, members were told by the city.

Water and care services fees at the cemetery are being offered by the city at $20 for a full lot — $2 burial spaces. Members who do not have grass or shrubs on their lot can subscribe to the care service only, which costs $12.50 and includes the necessary mowing and weeding, as well as grave filling in when needed.

Cemetery members wishing to care for their lots themselves can purchase all the water they need for $7.50 a year.

Fees on half-lots — six burial spaces — are $12.50 for water and care; $7.50 for care service, and $5 for water only. Members may subscribe for either or both services.

The City of Post employs two sextons at the cemetery on a full-

Community center discussed again

Post's proposed community center may be taken off the storage shelf by the Chamber of Commerce and made one of its major projects for 1966.

That decision is yet to come, but Chamber directors at their March luncheon meeting at Ge'net Steak House last Thursday discussed the community center and decided to study copies of the final report of the civic improvements committee on the project, made in 1964.

Copies of the report are now being distributed to directors for study.

The civic organization's two major projects for 1965 were the airport and the Garza County Junior Livestock Show and Sale.

The Chamber's annual membership drive is now under way with directors to complete the campaign in the near future. The club's 1966 budget also is under study.

Directors voted to invite the Jaycee president to serve as an ex officio member of the Chamber board of directors until Chamber by-laws can be amended to include him as a board member.

Directors decided to order 500 transparent badge holders for use at local functions. They turned down the proposal to buy a page in the 1966 Parade of Progress.

RESERVE CHAMPION

Lindy Bird, Cindy's twin, showed the reserve champion steer, also a 1,019 pounder. The reserve champion sold to five buyers for a $300 premium above the floor price.

City library move gets new impetus

Impetus for a separate city library was given a boost Monday night when Supt. Bill Shiver told Post school trustees that the city now has some 1,800 books on Post school library shelves and that the space is needed for library books selected for high school students.

He told trustees "it would be helpful to the school situation if the city could see fit to move their books out of the school library and hire Mrs. Lillie McRee, school librarian who is retiring this spring, as its librarian."

Shiver said that several years ago when Mr. Green was superintendent, Green arranged with the city for the school library to serve as a city library also.

He said the "city part" of the library now represents 1,800 books. He said the city has been paying Mrs. McRee $1.25 an hour to work for them and that she works an hour a day after school and during the summer to keep the library open to city patrons.

Shiver reported the city does not pay rent to the school for their part of the library. He said he had been told that people in the community have been allowed to check out high school books throughout the year, but that "I have directed that this practice be discontinued."

He said he has been told by Mrs. McRee that the school now needs the space on the shelves the "city books" are taking.

The reason he brought up the matter at this time, Shiver told trustees, is because with Mrs. McRee retiring, he now must employ a new school librarian and "I do not believe that it is justified to attempt to hire another librarian and have her working for the city as well."

Post Mayor Harold Lucas and Dr. Harry A. Tubbs attended the Governor's Conference on Libraries yesterday in Austin. Governor John Connally gave the keynote address for the one-day event which drew some 2,000 and was the largest such library conference ever held by any state.

City Councilman Bob Collier, who suggested the possibility of a separate city library at a recent council meeting, was planning to attend the governor's library conference but was unable to make the trip.

This column is delighted again — this time to see that there are new library developments afoot in Post.

The city council has arrived at the discussion stage for a separate city library. The mayor this week attended the governor's library conference in Austin as did Dr. Harry Tubbs. The schools are interested in discontinuing the present practice of combining a city library with the high school library.

All of this is to the good.

With Mrs. Lillie McRee due to retire this summer as high school librarian the schools see no useful purpose in trying to hire a new librarian on a dual capacity, especially since the high school needs the staff space occupied by 1,800 city library books for more school library books.

Several years ago, considerable interest was generated by the public for a county library, but the judge and the commissioners' court took no action.

The city library to date has been a library in name only. It has had few books, few facilities for the adult public, and consequently very few adult users.

We will watch with interest the new library developments as will

Jaycee groups start third year

The Post Junior Chamber of Commerce and its auxiliary, the Jaycee-ettes, will begin their third year Saturday night with their annual installation banquet.

This is longer than either of the two previous Jaycee organizations here remained in existence, and these community leaders and their wives are to be congratulated.

They have been much more to the community than "just another organization," and their projected programs carry the assurance that they will continue being more than just another organization.

Indicative of the community good the Jaycees and Jaycee-ettes are doing is the attractive banquet program they have arranged for Saturday night. The speaker, himself a Jaycee, will be State Rep. Jesse T. George of Brownfield, who is one of West Texas' most outstanding young men.

Happy anniversary, Jaycees and Jaycee-ettes! —CD

Cutting down on traffic hazards

The left-turn lanes painted on approaches to four highway intersections here last week by the state highway department should help cut down on traffic accidents, which have been on the upswing here for the last few months, according to city police department records.

The next step in helping facilitate the flow of traffic and at the same time cut down on traffic hazards probably will be no-parking restrictions for two parking spaces in both directions from the Broadway intersection on Main Street. This has been requested by the highway department, and the city council has indicated that it will be acted upon.

Then, we shouldn't give up on getting a flashing light or a warning signal of some description at "Calamity Corner"—the intersection of U. S. Highway 380 and FM Road 122. The stop sign signs on the farm road leading across the highway at this intersection just aren't getting the job done, judging from the number of accidents that have occurred there.—CD

Keep those trash cans covered

Good news often comes along with bad, as was the case last week when Mayor Harold Lucas reported that too many people are leaving their trash cans uncovered, but at the same time announced that another city-wide clean-up drive is planned for the near future.

The good news in this instance is, of course, the announcement of the forthcoming clean-up campaign.

The bad news contained in the mayor's statement—that of the uncovered trash cans—should not, however, be lost sight of. Cleaning up the alleys won't do much good unless people see to it that their trash cans are kept well covered.—CD

Summer jobs for young people

In a national effort to provide maximum summer employment for young people is heartily endorsed by this newspaper.

The plan is a program of special action aimed at assuring jobs for an estimated 1.75 million young people during the summer months. President Johnson has set up a special task force, headed by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, to tackle the job, and to formulate and recommend a program of special action by April 1.

In addition to the nearly two million young people who soon will be joining the nation's labor force on a permanent basis, as school graduates or dropouts, large numbers of teen agers will be seeking temporary work during the summer vacation. In many cases, their return to school in the fall may well depend upon their finding this work.

Idleness among young people unquestionably has been a major contributing factor to the violence, increased crime and other social disorders that have erupted across the country.

This alone justifies the federal government in taking the initiative in a national effort to provide maximum summer employment for young people. But it is not a job that the federal government alone can do. It's everybody's job and everybody's responsibility to join in the national effort by doing what they can. Everybody will benefit.—CD

And that includes most of us

This is the time of year that it's "later than we think." No one has yet figured out—or have they?—why so many deadlines for getting things done come along in April.

The deadline for getting 1966 license plates on automobiles is April 1, and April 15 is the last day to file income tax returns and get automobiles safety checked.

Deadlines are bugaboos only for those people who put off until tomorrow what they should do today—which includes most of us.—CD

What our contemporaries are saying

That feller on Division Street says the trouble with bucket seats is that not everyone has the same size bucket.—Speedy Nieman in The Slaton Slatonite.

Some business men are beginning to wonder if it wouldn't be a wise idea to have a guaranteed annual customer before they start getting too involved with the guaranteed annual wage—

It is a waste of time, according to a friend in high school, to teach anatomy, when it is so much more pleasant to observe it.—Douglas Messler in Matador Tribune.

It often happens that when you think twice about something, you have to think a third time to play off the tie.—Harold Hudson in The Perryton Sunday Herald.

EVERYTHING — the livestock show, sale, fair and barbecue — went off in grand style last Friday and Saturday in near-perfect weather... just enough of a breeze to keep it from being too hot, but no sand. Jess Dickinson, who was here from Spur representing the Dickens County Electric Co-op, said he'd never seen prettier weather for a stock show in these parts.

The success of the two-day event, both the stock show and the fair, showed the results of sound planning on the parts of the Garza County Junior Livestock Association and the Garza County home demonstration club women, and all signs point to next year's show, sale and fair being not only bigger, but even better.

HELPING MAKE the county fair seem more like one of those old time fairs many of us remember was the music from the Sonny Stafford Shows' midway and a flock of political candidates greeting people at the entrance to the fair building. Just before the barbecue Saturday, I shook hands with four of the six county judge candidates and one of the two candidates for state representative at the front door of the fair building.

The man up the street says when the directions say it's so simple that a child can do it, get wise and let a child do it!

I HEARD A housewife say the other day that she'd just read where the American Kennel Club had registered its ten millionth dog. She went on to say that she wondered how many unregistered dogs that leaves in the country, and also wondered if about half of them aren't in the neighborhood in which she lives.

Not long ago, I saw an estimate of how many dogs there are in the United States. I don't recall the figure, but I'm sure there are several times the ten million that are registered with the American Kennel Club, and that a large number of them are here in Post.

THIS HOUSEWIFE I was talking to said she thought it might help solve the dog problem if we'd do like the Russians and send some of the canines up into the stratosphere in space ships, only she said she wouldn't be in favor of bringing them back down and putting them on TV as the Russians have done.

All of which reminds me of a story I heard the other day about one of Post's mail carriers, a woman and a dog.

The postman and the dog stood eyeing each other at the gate when the lady of the house came to the door. "Don't be afraid of the dog," she said. "She's a female, you see, and she likes you."

"Madam," countered the fellow with the sack on his shoulder, "the mere fact that she's a female does not assure me that she has any affection for me. I'm a mail man, not a male dog!"

Our cat, Blackie, puts in a re-appearance this week after getting a sneak preview of the above suggestion that dogs be put into orbit. Blackie is not only in favor of the idea, but shows here how it could be done.

HUMILITY HAS been described as looking ashamed while you're telling people how wonderful you are.

WATCHING THE telecast of Texas Western's victory over Kentucky Saturday night for the NCAA basketball championship was almost like having a sideline seat. I was glad to see the Miners bring a national collegiate basketball championship to Texas, but we were disappointed that Coach Haskins didn't let all his players get into the championship game. Even the final minute — when Texas Western was too far ahead for Kentucky to catch up — would have given those players riding the bench the thrill of having played in the championship game. You could almost read the disappointment on the faces of the players who didn't get to play.

If you take a minute to check our list of winning vehicle identification numbers, you may know how it feels this week.

The contest is in its last week. So hurry. Here's how it works. Look at the first symbols (the prefix) on your vehicle identification slip. Then look at the symbols listed above. If you find yours on the list, you've taken the first step toward being a winner.

Now go see your Buick dealer. He has a list of 72 winners posted in his showroom. If you see your entire vehicle identification number on the poster — the symbols plus the rest of the numbers — $2,332 cash is yours. (If your prefix isn't listed in this ad, don't give up. Your numbers may have been posted during the past six weeks. Every week 72 winners were posted on the showroom wall.

You may have missed your number before. No slogan to invent, no puzzles to solve. In fact, you don't even have to own a Buick to have a winning number.

Contest Rules: Residents of Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska may, if they prefer, send in a postcard to R. L. Fulk and Co., P.O. Box 1347, Detroit, Michigan 48231, and receive this weekly list of winning numbers by mail for comparison with their own vehicle identification numbers. An official entry form will be included. Sweepstakes limited to persons over 21 living in the continental U.S. Not valid in Florida or states where prohibited by law.

Hurry. Buick's $1,000,000 Sweepstakes is in its last week. There's an authorized Buick dealer near you. See his Double-Checked used cars, too.

Post office has application blanks for Medicare benefits

The Post Office announced today that application blanks for supplemental Medicare benefits are available at the post office windows.

The application blanks are being available as the Social Security Administration seeks to cover 11 million senior citizens before a March 31 deadline imposed by the Medicare law.

President Johnson has proclaimed March as "National Medicare Enrollment Month." He urged all federal agencies and all citizens cooperate in enrolling senior citizens in the program.

Initially, some two and one-half million application blanks were distributed to nearly 34,000 main offices throughout the 50 states. Additional forms are available as needed.

Through direct mailings and other means, the Social Security Administration has had contact with over 19.1 million who will be 65 over on July 1. Of the 16 million replied, less than one million of them did not want to sign up for the supplemental program. The supplemental program costs a month and provides doctor and other benefits. Everyone over 65 is eligible for the basic benefits under Medicare. A copy of the application blank is displayed on the lobby bulletin board of the Post office.

Senior citizens who reached 65 before 1966 face a two-year delay if they do not sign up by March 31. The application forms are pre-addressed to the Social Security Administration in Baltimore, Md.

Afghan pheasants are reported 'doing fine'

LUBBOCK — A check of the 180 white-winged Afghan pheasants released at several different locations in coverts are doing fine in at least one release area, according to Game Warden Bill Pratt.

He located a covey of 15 white-wings very near their release site in Lynn County feeding in maize stubble close to heavy cover.

The Afghan white-winged pheasants, procured from the California State Game Farm, hopefully will adapt themselves to farmland and mesquite brush habitat in West Texas.

Rayon, made chiefly from wood, was first manufactured commercially about 60 years ago.

Santa Fe income hits new high

AMARILLO — Santa Fe Railway System's consolidated net income reached an all-time high of $90.9 million in 1965, an increase of $10.2 million or 12.7 per cent above the $80.7 million earned in 1964, according to the company's annual report to its 134,699 stockholders.

The 1965 net was equivalent to $3.45 per common share compared with $3.04 in 1964, according to Ernest S. Marsh, Santa Fe president.

Monsieur Jean Bauchet is an art collector and a connoisseur of fine automobiles. He understands the value of a car means quality. After driving a '66 Ford XL, he said, "They would not have to make Paris streets as smooth if all cars rode like this."

Who says a '66 Ford rides quieter than Jean Bauchet's $12,000 Facel Vega?

Jean Bauchet!

Ford's Quiet Man, who recently toured Europe demonstrating the exceptional quality of the '66 Ford to owners of some of the world's most expensive cars, Paris discusses a '66 Ford XL with Monsieur Bauchet outside of Monsieur Bauchet's Paris home.

"Such smoothness, such silence," says Jean Bauchet. "Your Ford is quieter, M'sieu."

Ford's quiet quality is the result of advanced engineering features like a revolutionary new frame that "tunes out" road vibrations... the strongest body ever on a Ford. But the quiet ride is just one of many reasons why you're ahead in a Ford all the way.

Only Ford in its class offers Stereo-Sonic Tape Player option that brings you over an hour of uninterrupted music of your choice, on each self-threading, snap-in tape cartridge. • Magic Doorgate for wagons (standard equipment) that opens out like a door and down like a tailgate, depending on whether you are loading kids or cargo. • Silent-Flo Ventilation (on 4-door hardtops) that brings in fresh air and gets rid of smoke and stale air with the windows closed. • Even Ford's keys are special—they're double-edged so they fit in locks either side up. Visit your Ford Dealer and test-drive a '66 from Ford. See how many ways Ford can put you ahead in '66.

You're ahead in a FORD all the way!

old routine again after a delightful weekend out of town. Well, I was extra sorry upon our return to find out that an uninvited guest had moved into the residence at 307 Osage. Yes, you're right, a mouse had taken over while we were gone. As I've said before in this column, a mouse reduces me to a quivering mass of humanity so I spent a long sleepless night. I was more than ready to jump out of bed and rush to the office on Monday, so the mouse did serve one good purpose.

I bought traps for Mr. C to set during our noon hour. I have such a big thing about mice that I not only won't set a trap, I go outside while Mr. C is doing it. I managed to prepare lunch while keeping my eyes glued to the floor. Dinner was even worse because I figured the mouse had been sleeping all day and prowling about time was approaching.

Mr. C is most kind about my inordinate fear of mice and stuck close by my side. For the first time I was glad the Misses C's were away from home. They tease me unmercifully by yelling "mouse" at inopportune moments.

Mr. C invited me to go to school board meeting with him. He thought he could introduce me by saying: "Mrs. C is here to sit in on the meeting. You see we have a mouse in our house."

I chose calling on friends. I must be living right, though, because on our return home, we'd won the battle. One small mouse was in one small trap. Anyway I'm taking Mr. C's word for it. I wouldn't look.

really gave our Misses C's a hard time when we showed up in Antonio last Friday to attend the weekend. Knowing they'd definitely be there involved activities for the affair we paid a surprise visit. And it turned out to be a nice surprise—not of the boomerang kind.

... were most amused on returning home Sunday to find letters from both Misses C's and a card from Miss C, the editor's comment: "I'm so glad you won't see for Parent's Weekend. It's a hectic time and we'd never have time to see you."

... was really bursting out along the way. The passengers were full of baby lambs, teddy bears and colts. The horses and rondsides were full of young fruit trees, quince, and this. Strangely enough, the farther south we went the cooler the weather. While you were all sweltering in 80 degree weather at the livestock show we were strolling around the campus in overcast 70 degree weather.

... only thing which marred the trip was a flash of anger at Texas Highway Department. You all know there is a loop and Snyder (and if ever a town had to be "looped" around, here it is, with all their miserable signal lights) which is all fine if one is going toward the. The anger comes when you want to stay on the loop as far as possible before getting off to Colorado City. Now, this little simple in the daytime one can see where one is going in the pitch dark (and Mr. C left at the unreal hour of 11 a. m.) it's a bit hard to get bearings.

... ally the highway department had affixed one small sign that said "Get off here for Colorado City." Money seems to be no object as far as our highways are concerned. Of course, we took the turn and wasted many minutes trying to find a familiar landmark in Snyder in order to get on the right highway. However, I was excited about going to see our Misses C's I refused to let the incident ruin my day.

... all know how hard it is to get back home and start the

'Men to Match My Mountains' is reviewed at club meeting

The Woman's Culture Club met in the sanctuary of the First Presbyterian Church last Wednesday with Mrs. Lee W. Davis Sr. reviewing the book, "Men to Match My Mountains," by Irving Stone.

"Men to Match My Mountains" tells the early history of the West until the 1900's, with emphasis on the states of California, Oregon, Utah and Nevada.

The activities of such pioneer statesmen as John Marsh, Joseph Childs, Sir Izaak Walton and Charles Fremont are described in the book as they formed the background of the West's colorful history.

Especially colorful was the California history, with the lives of William Todd, nephew of Abraham Lincoln, Leland Stanford, founder of Stanford University, and Silas P. Huntington as direct influences.

Mrs. Davis interspersed her review of the book with personal experiences of her visits to the region. She was introduced by Mrs. C. R. Thaxton, club president, who also opened the meeting and welcomed special guests.

Carol Camp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Camp, was introduced by Mrs. R. L. Marks, the club's music chairman, and played three organ selections, "Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring" (Bach), "Meditation from Thais" (Massenet) and "Tiee We Adore," plain song melody mode 5.

Miss Camp's high school accomplishments and also her activities in the fields of religion and music were told by Mrs. Marks.

Mrs. Davis and Miss Camp were presented gifts by the club.

We might imagine this is a squirrel assuming a prayerful pose while satisfying his appetite . . . like a man pretending to be religious in order to gain the respect of others.

We are not often fooled by falsity, nor do we let it blind us to truth. We know our religion is our richest treasure. But we rate it worthless unless sincere.

Today millions are talking about the world's spiritual needs. Is talking enough?

Isn't faith more than a word . . . prayer more than a pose?

Attend church every week with your entire family. Support the Church with willing sacrifice. Offer your time and talents to God in your congregation's busy life. And live each day the truths you cherish.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Cerretha's Chatter

By Rickey Rogers

The senior members of the F.T.A. of which Cerretha is a member, are practicing their skills at the elementary school today, so I am playing substitute for Cerretha.

The band has been working hard this past week in preparation for contest. Section rehearsals have begun and all the members seem real enthusiastic, but the hard part is still to come.

The choir is also preparing for contest. An all-day tour is planned for April 6. This will include concerts in a number of surrounding towns.

The juniors are working hard in anticipation of the Junior-Senior banquet and prom to be held this coming Friday night. Invitations have already been mailed and received. It should prove to be a "real swinger."

Practice for the senior play is underway and it looks like it is off to a good start. Who knows? It might even make Broadway in a few years.

The FHA girls are back after a weekend in Midland at the Aris II convention. I wonder what they really do at those meetings.

Spring has really been in the air this week, making most students anxious for summer and the end of school. This is especially true of the seniors, who are counting the minutes.

Remember, you may be the only Bible some people read, so watch your step!

Governor proclaims 'Year of the Bible'

AUSTIN—Gov. John B. Connally has proclaimed 1966 "The Year of the Bible" in recognition of the 150th Anniversary of the American Bible Society.

He is one of 43 governors who has issued similar proclamations or statements honoring the ABS, the largest nonprofit organization in the United States devoted to translating, publishing and distributing Scriptures here and abroad.

Noting that the missionary activities of the ABS "contributed significantly to the cultural development and strength of our citizenry," the proclamation adds that many "historic Bibles are prized possessions in our State's archives as well as of hundreds of our families." The proclamation also notes the opening this spring of a new Bible House in New York City to meet the world's growing demand for the Scriptures.

Recently accepting a special commemorative Bible representing the 750 millionth copy of Scripture distributed by the ABS during its 150-year history, President Johnson said in part: "We can truly be said to have founded our country on the principles of this Book. No human accountant can calculate the immense good that your Society has done over the years. You have been the main source of supply for the Holy Scriptures for the men and women in our Armed Forces. Thanks to you millions of underprivileged people in countries throughout the world have had the Word of God placed in their hands. More often than not it is the first written word they ever learn to read."

Formed to alleviate the Bible famine caused by the Revolutionary War, the ABS is calling for ten million new Bible readers during 1966 to relieve today's Bible-reading famine. During its first year, the ABS distributed more than 6,000 Bibles. In 1966 alone the annual figure is expected to reach 75 million copies of Scripture.

Some light on a dark subject

Ever wonder why some pills come in clear, transparent bottles, while others hide behind brown or dark-green glass? It's no accident, but by design.

Why...? Simple daylight can reduce the potency of some medications. Consider how sunshine fades a rayon print, for instance. Thus, where needed, we use dark bottles, not to hide anything, but to preserve the medical effectiveness of the drug your physician prescribed for you. This is but one of many precautionary measures that are taken to provide you with the best in pharmaceutical service.

WTCC's service to area is told by Lions speaker

How the West Texas Chamber of Commerce works and what it means to its members was told by Ralph Duncan of Abilene at Tuesday night's meeting of the Post Lions Club.

Duncan, a longtime staff member of the WTCC said the organization has 3,800 members in the district it serves and that 2,000 of these members serve on committees.

Since 1911, Duncan said, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has been the voice of West Texas business. "It is the action team for West Texas," he stated.

Major objectives of the WTCC the speaker said, are to develop economic growth, improve business climate, preserve and promote resources, better inform our business community, and be a more effective voice of West Texas business.

"There is 50 million dollars worth of talent working in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce," Duncan told the Lions.

"The West Texas Chamber of Commerce is the best organization to help protect and enhance your stake in the future of your area," the speaker concluded.

Water district to buy car here

The White River Municipal Water District directors at their March meeting last Thursday night at the filtration plant voted to purchase a 1966 Ford V8 Galaxie from Scott - Pool, Inc., of Post for a difference of $1,019 with a 1965 Chevrolet traded in.

The vehicle is for the use of Al O'Brien, water district manager.

The local auto agency was the low bidder among agencies of the four member cities submitting bids.

In another action, directors voted to change their monthly meetings to the first Thursday night of each month to permit payment of district bills before the 10th of the month and in many cases receive beneficial cash discounts. Directors have been meeting since organization of the district on the third Thursday of each month.

Foreign students roundup guests

Thirty-five international students from Lubbock were guests at the U Lazy S Ranch south of Post Saturday during the ranch's annual spring roundup.

The group included students from Texas Tech and Lubbock Christian College and personnel from Reese Air Force Base. They attended the roundup as guests of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Lott of Lubbock and Jack Lott, manager of the U Lazy S Ranch.

The students and military visitors watched branding, vaccinating and marking of calves by the cowboys, and enjoyed a barbecue luncheon, at which approximately 165 persons were fed.

The roundup visit was a project of the International Hospitality Committee of Lubbock.

Profit sharing reports given

Statements of individual accounts in Burlington Industries' Profit Sharing Retirement Plan for wage employees are being distributed this week to plan members at Postex Cotton Mills, a unit of the diversified textile firm.

Louie Burkes, plant manager, said each member of the plan receives a personal report showing the amount of money credited to his account.

Burlington in 1965 contributed more than $7 million to the plan, bringing company contributions to more than $16.5 million since the plan was established in 1963. Employees do not contribute to the plan. The 1965 contribution from profits of the company represents more than 5 per cent of the members' total annual wages. In addition, plan members share in earnings of the trust fund established in connection with the plan.

In addition to the Profit Sharing Retirement Plan, wage employees of Burlington received approximately $6.3 million in vacation bonus payments during 1965.

Spring freeze may hurt fruit

A winter-lost cold front, which blew in Tuesday night, dropped the official temperature to a low of 29 degrees here yesterday morning and may have caused damage to budding fruit trees.

County Agent Syd Conner said it may take a few days to determine whether the trees were frozen for the year.

He said several thermometers around town registered a low of 26 degrees early Wednesday morning and it was cold enough for some real ice.

The first "spring cold spell" blew in after a broad - ranging sand storm blasted across West Texas and New Mexico Tuesday afternoon and sent sand blowing thousands of feet into the sky.

Clyde Haynes hurt in oil field mishap

Antelopes to perform in Sundown meet Saturday

Foot injury may slow ace half-miler Solis

The Post Antelope track and field team will compete Saturday at the Sundown track meet, where they will have two entries in each event and a school because of the injury of the track.

Each Glynn Gregg said Tuesday that he had completed a 220-yard dash in his entry list, but that he had not been furnished any information from Sundown on the teams competing in the meet.

Post's showing at Sundown depends on whether or not Ruben Solis, who he injured Saturday at Hale Center, heals enough to compete. He underwent surgery of the injured foot at a doctor's office yesterday.

"We've gone ahead and entered him anyway, hoping he'll be able to compete," Coach Gregg said Tuesday.

The Antelopes' entry list for the Sundown meet is as follows:

220-yard dash: Jimmy Bartlett and Clyde Cash.

440-yard dash: Bartlett and Solis.

440-yard dash: Mike Petty and Ronnie Petty.

380-yard run: Solis and Mike Robinson.

Mile run: Peter Moraes and Nick Pantoja.

High hurdles: Norman Tanner and Duke Altman.

Low hurdles: Luis Ayala and Rickey Welch.

440-yard relay: Ayala, Welch, Tanner and Bartlett.

Mile relay: Ayala, Davis Heaton, Welch and Solis.

Shot put: Tanner and Jackie Huff.

Discus throw: Sammy Sims and Birch Lobban.

High jump: Heaton and Roy Sappington.

Broad jump: R. Petty and M. Petty.

Pole vault: Welch and Duke Altman.

Hale Center meet

Moraes smashes mile-run record

With Ruben Solis missing two weeks because of an injured foot, Post Antelopes came up with a fifth place team finish Saturday in the annual Hale Center meet.

The ace half-miler's foot had been bothering him before the Hale Center meet and he reinjured it while winning the 880-yard run in 2:12, which was 1.2 seconds slower than the record 2:02.0 he posted at Hale Center last year.

Before injuring his foot in the mile race, Solis had qualified for the 220-yard dash with a 22.8 second, which was the second best time in the preliminaries. After the foot injury, he was "scratched" from both the 220 and the mile relay.

On the brighter side, sophomore Moraes won the mile run in 4:18, breaking the record of 4:23 set 10 years ago by Masters Cotton Center.

The ever has run the mile, and Coach Glynn Gregg said he would like to see him run it in less than 4:40 if he'd run on a faster track than Hale Center's dirt track.

Post picked up 14 points in the meet events on sophomore Norman Tanner's second place in the pole vault and Davis Heaton's tie for second in the high jump.

Tanner tossed the shot 44 feet 6 inches to place second to Weatherford Friona, who was far out in the air with a 50-1/2. It was Tanner's best throw of the season, Coach Gregg said.

The six points Heaton picked up in the high jump came on his second place tie with two Morton winners. The event was won by Friona, who jumped event in 44.0, and second place Plainview Washington.

Without Solis, the mile relay team, which had won first at Abernathy the week before, failed to place. Lockney won the event, with Morton second and Frenship third.

The Lockney team won the meet with 95 points. Morton scored 53 1/2 for second and Slaton 52 for third. Post scored 46 points for its fifth place finish.

Jimmy Joyce of Morton was the meet's high point individual, totaling 32 points with first place finishes in the 100 and 220-yard dashes, a second place tie in the high jump and a leg on the second place mile relay team.

Brush of Slaton was the only other District 4AA athlete to win a first place, which he took in the pole vault with a vault of 11-7. Curry of Frenship was second.

Other places won by Slaton were a third by Pickens in the 440-yard dash, a third by White in the shot put and a third by Donaldson in the discus throw.

Curry of Frenship also won third place in the high hurdles.

Wentwinds vs. A Go-Gos

Benefit game score lost in the shuffle

Last Friday night's benefit basketball game between the Wentwinds and the Booster Club A Go-Gos girls was not scoreless, but it might as well have been. Nobody—not even the scorekeeper—remembers the score, but the consensus seems to be that it was 16 to 15 in favor of—well, one of the teams.

Supporters of both teams were going around after the game telling their teams, "You're number one," so who knows?

The real winners turned out to be those who won door prizes.

Basketball program operates 'in black'

The basketball program for the Post schools this past winter was a financial success, operating $400 in the black, school trustees were told Monday night.

School Supt. Bill Shiver said that $250 of this will be spent for new cage uniforms for the Post Antelope varsity squad for next year.

With but two months to go in the school year, Post's athletic program to date has operated strictly on gate receipts and other athletic department revenues.

Supt. Shiver asked trustees Monday night to transfer $2,000 from the school operating fund to the athletic fund to help with the purchase of replacement equipment for next year.

Shiver pointed out this equipment is ordered in the spring so that delivery can be made before the opening of the football season.

The school's athletic program has operated within its budget this year, trustees observed, and the budgeted amount for subsidization of the athletic program may not all be required, it appeared Monday night.

Athletic Director Glynn Gregg is credited by Supt. Shiver as doing an excellent job in operating with in budget requirements.

The athletic department as well as the entire school system is operating this year for the first time on a strict bookkeeping system which provides for a financial commitment against school funds whenever a purchase order is placed.

Financially successful football and basketball seasons has much to do with the strong financial showing in the athletic department.

Poor athletic teams usually mean a big drop in gate receipts which causes the necessity for increased subsidization of the athletic program by tax funds.

Caprock, Plainview tourneys

Antelope courtmen line up big 'uns

The Post Antelope basketball team already is entered in two tournaments, both big ones, for the 1966-67 season, Athletic Director Glynn Gregg announced.

The Antelopes will play in the Plainview Invitational Tournament early in December and in the Caprock Holiday Tournament at Lubbock, Dec. 27-30.

In the annual Plainview tournament, all teams — from Class B through AAAA — play in the same division.

The Antelopes will be in the small school division in the Caprock Holiday Tournament, which is sponsored by the Lubbock Junior Chamber of Commerce. Other teams in Post's division will be Denver City, Dimmitt, Crosbyton, Lorenzo, Aspermont, Shallowater and Lubbock Christian College High School.

It will be only the second time Post has participated in the Caprock Holiday Tournament. They played there in December of 1959, defeating the Monterey "B" team and Dimmitt before losing to McAdoo in the finals. McAdoo went on to win the state Class B championship that year and Dimmitt was runner-up in Class AA. Pete Murray was the Post coach then.

With the University Interscholastic League allowing a school only three tournaments a season, the Antelopes will have one more tourney to line up before completing their 1966-67 schedule.

'Spring is sprung,' reporter announces

By MRS. EDMUND WILKE
Well, "spring has sprung." I love this time of year, when new life is budding everywhere. Some of the early bearing fruit trees are in full bloom, the jonquils and other early blooming flowers are brightening up the flower beds, the grass and trees are beginning to turn a little bit green, and even the birds are singing in a different key, glad that spring is here. How very wonderful nature is! This should make us all very humble when we think of this great, big, wonderful universe that God has given us to enjoy!

I was invited to be a guest at the Mystic Sewing Club in the home of Mrs. G. D. Ellis Friday afternoon. I didn't get to stay very long but I had a delightful time. Mrs. Ellis is a charter member of the club.

Mrs. Les Martin was a patient in West Texas Hospital several days last week but is at home now. I hope she is feeling much better.

Webster Crawford has finished his "jump training" at Ft. Benning, Ga., and is awaiting his orders. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Payton Crawford, were expecting him last weekend and as he didn't come they don't know if he has received his orders or not.

Mr. and Mrs. James Crawford and daughters of Lubbock visited his parents Sunday.

Little Dennis and David Becker, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Becker Jr., have the chicken pox. Get well fast, boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Becker visited Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Foeister Sunday. They attended a big birthday party Friday night honoring Mrs. Beno Wilke held in the home of the Curtis Wilkes.

Miss Ora Mining of Slaton, the Tommy Stell family and Nelda Roper of Lubbock, the Claud Ropers and the J. B. Rackler family were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. J. F. Rackler.

J. B. Rackler Jr. spent Sunday in Lubbock at the stock show showing his boys.

Shirley Smith of Slaton was a guest of Beverly Rackler Friday night and Saturday.

Mrs. Claud Roper and Mrs. J. F. Rackler visited Mrs. Tommy Stell Friday afternoon.

Mrs. J. B. Rackler visited Mrs. Betty Smith in Slaton Tuesday and Mrs. J. F. Rackler visited Miss Ora Mining.

Mrs. Susie Bradshaw visited Mrs. J. F. Rackler Monday afternoon. This certainly has been a busy week for Mrs. Rackler, hasn't it?

The Edmund Wilke family spent Sunday at House, N. M. visiting her father, A. B. Duzier.

JOY JONES and Joey Basinger gave a party Friday night for a group of their friends. The party was named "Joy and Joey's Disaster Party." The Distortions furnished some of the music and I got a real "bang" out of watching the kids dance. It seems like everyone is doing something different—dancing, I guess you call it—and it is all just real cute. Adults attending were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Basinger, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mason, Mrs. J. B. Jones, Mrs. Oscar Outlaw and Edmund and me.

Recent change in SS of interest to 72-year-olds

An estimated 200 area persons age 72 or older who can qualify for social security payments under a recent change have not yet applied, according to John G. Hutton, social security district manager in Lubbock.

A little-known amendment allows persons now 72 or older to qualify for a special benefit with less work credit than is required for regular benefits. For example, a man who was at least 76, or a woman who was at least 73, in 1965 has to have only about nine months of covered work credited. Also a widow who was at least 72 in 1965, whose husband either died or became 65 in 1954 or earlier, is eligible if her husband had about nine months of covered work.

This special benefit is a flat $35 a month, Mr. Hutton said. Wife's benefits of $17.50 a month are payable at age 72 to a woman whose husband is entitled under this provision, if she reaches 72 before 1969.

Mr. Hutton advised these persons to get in touch with the Lubbock social security office as soon as possible. They can apply for payments and enroll for Medicare at the same time.

A representative of the Lubbock Social Security Office will be in Post on Monday, March 28 in the district courtroom at 9 a. m.
