

Change in queen contest as rodeo dates draw near

The headquarters staff for the annual Post Stampede and Southern Championship Junior Rodeo will begin moving into its new quarters in the old American Cafe building this weekend to set bookkeeping "machinery" in motion for next week's four-night event, which opens Wednesday.

The newest development in late planning for this year's rodeo is the decision made yesterday by the headquarters staff to change the queen contest as the rodeo dates draw near.

that the rodeo queen contest will be different this year. Instead of the amount of ticket sales determining the winner, the contestants will be judged on dress, horsemanship and poise when they ride in the parade at 5 p. m. on opening day.

Girls under 21 are eligible to enter the queen contest. Monday is the last day to enter and prospective contestants are asked to file their entry with Jack Lott, queen contest chairman, or Bob Macy, Post Stampede secretary.

Queen contestants may enter up until 7 p. m. Monday, Lott said. Following the judging of the queen contestants in Wednesday's parade, the winner will be announced at that night's grand entry. She will receive a belt buckle prize and the honor of reigning over the rest of the activities as 1967 rodeo queen.

From 12 to 15 sheriff's posses and other riding clubs and a number of floats and decorated cars are expected to take part in Wednesday afternoon's parade. First, second and third place trophies will be awarded the riding group winners, with cash prizes going to the winning floats.

Oscar Gray, president of the Garza County Sheriff's Posse, said the largest number of riding groups in several years is expected for the parade. Approximately 40 invitations were sent area riding organizations by Bill Bland, secretary of the Garza posse.

This will be the first local rodeo since the mid-1950's at which Post and Garza County have been represented by an organized riding group. The sheriff's posse was organized only last January.

All new grandstands await spectators at this year's four-night show. Each night's grand entry is scheduled to get under way at 7:45 o'clock, with the rodeo events starting about 8.

The six senior rodeo events are bareback bronc riding, calf roping, saddle bronc riding, barrel race, team roping and bull riding. Junior contestants — those 19 years of age and under — will compete in bareback bronc riding, calf roping, barrel race, ribbon roping, bull riding, pole bending and flag race.

Stock for the rodeo will be furnished by Glenn Green of Amarillo. Jimmy Mackey and his band will play for a dance each night at the rodeo arena dance pavilion.

Jimmy Moore is president of Post Stampede, Inc., and Pete Maddox is president of the Junior Rodeo's board of adult directors.

The six-man jury was out about 20 minutes after hearing the case. The only witnesses testifying were Police Chief Bill Gordon, Police Sgt. Otis J. Shepherd Jr., and City Secretary Wanda Wilkerson. City Atty. Carleton P. Webb prosecuted the case.

Members of the jury were Elton Lee, Leon Clary, Gordon Flowers, A. B. Thomas, Hubert Yarbro and F. A. Brownlee.

Restraining order issued on picking up dogs here

Local dogs soon are going to have their "day in court". In the meantime that old saying, "It's a dog's life", doesn't mean all it has here recently — up to 1:45 p. m. yesterday, that is.

That was the time the sheriff's department served Mayor John Hopkins as the head of the city government with a temporary restraining order signed by District Judge Truett Smith restraining the city and its police from entering either the yard or home of any local dog owner in search for his or her dog without first obtaining the property owner or tenant's consent or obtaining a valid search warrant.

Mayor Hopkins told The Dispatch that yesterday afternoon he ordered the police department not to pick up any more dogs until the district court hearing clarifies the "dog situation."

The restraining order is the result of a suit against the City of Post, filed Tuesday in district court here by three local dog owners — Lonnie W. Duke, Delgina Castillo and Howard Kolb — charging that portions of the Post dog ordinance are unconstitutional and asking that police be restrained from search the property of dog owners for their dogs without consent or a valid search warrant.

The suit is a "class action" which means that the restraining order sought and obtained applies to all other residents of Post as well as the trio bringing the suit.

Judge Smith in his restraining order ordered that the plaintiff's petition for a temporary injunction effective until final decree be heard before Judge Smith at 10 a. m. next Thursday, Aug. 10, in the district courtroom here.

It is reported to The Dispatch that if Judge Smith's schedule will not permit him to hear the case on a temporary injunction at that time that he would normally continue his present restraining order until such hearing can be held.

The restraining order means, in effect, that the police can no longer pick up dogs out of the owner's yard or search his home for them without a search warrant or the consent of the dog owner.

The dog situation is virtually certain to be a lively topic of discussion at the August city council session Monday night as Mayor Hopkins in a letter to the editor in last week's Dispatch invited anyone who wished to appear before the council on the dog situation to do so at that time.

It also is expected that the Post Jaycees will present a petition to the council Monday night requesting the council to change the dog ordinance so that it does not violate both the state and federal constitutions as the Jaycee resolution contends it now does.

Such alleged unconstitutionality is the basis for the district court suit against the city which produced Judge Smith's temporary restraining order.

The suit alleges that sections 7, 9, 23, 25, and 26 of the city dog ordinance are unconstitutional and (See Order Issued, page 8)

Gridder Dick Kennedy and queen nominee Linda Altman will represent Post in the annual Greenbelt Bowl all-star football classic in Childress at 8 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 12.

Player, queen nominee going to grid classic

Post will be represented by a football player and a queen nominee at the annual Greenbelt Bowl all-star football classic at Childress on Saturday night, Aug. 12.

Dick Kennedy will be a member of the East squad in the all-star game, and Linda Altman will compete for the honor of 1967 Greenbelt Bowl Queen.

Kennedy, who is 6-1 and weighs 165, is listed as a quarterback on the East squad, which is coached by Buddy Fornes of McMurry College, with Ronnie Giles of McMurry as assistant coach.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kennedy, Dick is a spring graduate of Post High School, where he played quarterback and also at an end position on the bi-district champion Antelope team.

Miss Altman, daughter of Mrs. Ann Altman, is also a spring graduate of PHS where she was head cheerleader and a member of the Post Doe basketball team.

Kennedy, along with 43 other boys from surrounding towns, will arrive in Childress Monday, Aug. 7, to begin workouts for the all-star classic.

A picnic honoring the players, queen nominees and their parents will be held at 6 p. m. Friday, Aug. 11. The queen contest will be held at 8 o'clock that night.

A parade featuring the queen nominees will be held at 4 p. m. Saturday, with the winner to be presented at 7:30 that night, one-half hour before the game kickoff.

Funeral services were conducted at the First Methodist Church in Snyder at 10 a. m. Saturday for Mrs. Joe (Laura) Strayhorn, 91, pioneer resident of Snyder and mother of Mrs. Phil Bouchier of Post.

Mrs. Strayhorn, who lived at 2111 Thirtieth St., died following a lengthy illness.

Born Jan. 29, 1876, in Limestone County, she was married to Joe Strayhorn at Hico in 1892. They moved to Scurry County in 1893 where she had lived for the past 74 years. Her husband preceded her in death in June of 1955.

Mrs. Strayhorn had been a member of the First Methodist Church for 73 years and was a honorary life member in the Women's Society of Christian Service. She also was a charter member in the Twentieth Century Club.

Dr. John A. English, pastor of the church, officiated at the funeral services. Special music included a vocal solo by Vernon Scott of Post.

Burial was in Snyder Cemetery with grandsons of Mrs. Strayhorn serving as pallbearers.

Besides the daughter of Post, she is survived by three other daughters, Mrs. J. W. Templeton of Houston, Mrs. Walter Cork of San Angelo and Miss Neoma Strayhorn of Snyder; two sons, J. Rob Strayhorn of Rotan and J. P. Strayhorn of Snyder; one sister, two brothers, 12 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren and 12 great-great-grandchildren.

Two sons also preceded her in death.

Post Rotarians told of Slaton's new youth center

Bud Englund of Slaton told Post Rotarians at their Tuesday luncheon of the organization and operation of Slaton's new youth center, which he said was operated by the teenagers themselves.

He said the youth center now has 275 young dues paying members who pay $2.50 per semester or $5 a year.

The center was organized in April, 1966, with a variety of fund raising efforts by the youngsters themselves, which brought in $2,500.

Englund said the youngsters have their own teen-age board of directors and are responsible for all events and maintenance of the center. They even sit as a court over infractions.

Eight couples, selected by Slaton's Chamber of Commerce, city officials, and school trustees, form the adult board.

"Kids are no different than you or I, but their problems are different from ours," Englund said.

He said the youth center building contains two pool tables, two ping pong tables, two card tables, a dancing area with record player and loudspeakers.

The building isn't all paid for but we have several benefit events in Slaton, including a rodeo, to take care of the annual payment.

He said the youth organization has several hundred dollars in its bank account.

"We provide a lot of public facilities to train our youngsters," he told the Rotarians, "but we also need a place to teach them the social graces and that is what the youth center is for."

Mrs. L. C. McMinn of 505 West 7th St. is reported improving at the Crosbyton hospital, where she was taken July 24 with injuries received when her automobile overturned just on top of the caprock while she was en route to Crosbyton from Post.

Mrs. McMinn suffered a broken pelvis, and rib and lung injuries. She is expected to be in the hospital for at least another month.

Mr. McMinn was already in Crosbyton visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Crouch, and Mrs. McMinn was driving there to join them when the accident occurred.

Funeral services were conducted in Abilene Saturday for W. H. Doyle, 75, father of Mrs. Louise Herring, who died Thursday after a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Herring's son, Jimmy W. Wells, and his aunt, Mrs. W. O. Smith, attended the funeral from here. Mrs. Herring, a former resident of Post, now lives in San Angelo.

Mr. Doyle is also survived by his wife, another daughter and three sons.

Store estimates loss to thieves at $1,500

Hundley's Men's Store at 119 East Main was robbed of an estimated $1,500 worth of merchandise either late last Wednesday night or early Thursday morning by a thief or thieves who apparently did not have to break in.

Jimmy Hundley, manager of the store, said the thieves either had a key to the store or a door was left unlocked, since the only sign of a break-in was the missing merchandise.

Hundley said the robbery occurred between 10:20 p. m. Wednesday when he left the store and 2:20 a. m. Thursday when he came back.

About 20 men's suits, 30 jackets, 10 dozen shirts and other merchandise was stolen.

"We won't be able to tell for sure just how much is missing until we take an inventory," Hundley said.

The store manager said that after finding both the front and back doors unlocked when he returned to the store, he took an "eye check" of the merchandise.

"There were just big vacant places where some of the stock had been," Hundley said.

He said all the shirts stolen were sizes 15 1/2 and 16 1/2.

The thief evidently was after clothing only, since he did not take $4 or $5 in silver from the cash register drawer, which had been left open. Typewriters, a TV set and a portable radio also were left behind.

Hundley said the lights in the front of the store, which he leaves on when he leaves the store, had been turned off when he returned to discover the robbery.

Both sheriff's officers and city police were called to investigate the theft, Hundley said.

Two Kankakee, Ill., women were injured about 9 o'clock Tuesday night when the rented motorcycle they were riding turned over on U. S. Hwy. 84 just inside the northwest city limits.

Theodore R. Elmore, 24, the driver of the motorcycle, suffered a compound fracture of her right ankle, and Myra D. Suprenant, 17, received an injured wrist.

The women were taken to Garza Memorial Hospital and then transferred to West Texas Hospital at Lubbock.

Police Sgt. Otis G. Shepherd Jr., who investigated the accident, said the women told him the motorcycle turned over when a rear tire blew out. They said they had rented the vehicle in Lubbock and were just out "riding around."

Garza County

Budget shows rise in tax valuations

An estimated $700,000 increase in 1967 taxable property valuations to a $20 million total is contained in the tentative county budget for fiscal year 1968, released today by County Judge J. E. Parker.

The property valuation jump reflects a healthy increase this year in property taxes from oil sources due to recent new drilling in and around the City of Post. Oil valuations have been declining steadily in recent years, helping to create the county's current fiscal deficit.

Judge Parker told The Dispatch that the tentative budget for next year provides that the county can reduce its deficit from $85,000 this year to only $60,000 next year. The deficit is being made up by borrowing from the bank here.

The county has a five-year plan in operation to wipe out the deficit and put the county back on a firm pay-as-you-go basis.

The tentative tax rate this fall, as set in February but subject to amendment after the county public budget hearing set for Aug. 14 calls for a continued 95 cent county rate with 30 cents for road District No. 1 and 25 cents for road District No. 2.

The only reduction here is the reduction of the road District 2 tax rate from 35 cents last year to 25 cents this year.

Judge Parker pointed out that next year, when tax time rolls around again in the fall of 1968, the entire 30 cent tax rate for road District No. 1 will come off the books because enough money will be available by January to retire the road district's right-of-way bonds for which the tax is levied three years ahead of schedule.

The tentative tax rate for this fall provides 1 cent for jury fund (2 cents last year), 10 cents for county road and bridge, unchanged from last year; 15 cents for road and bridge special, also unchanged; 58.5 cents for general fund, as against 63 cents last year, with the difference in the total rate being a new 5.5 cent rate for hospital improvements to start re-

(See 1968 budget, page 8)

All voters must register in '67

For the first time this year, all voters in Garza County must register if they wish to vote in next year's elections.

The annual voter sign-up, as amended this year, requires that all voters must register between October and January.

In the past, those over 60 years of age were not required to register if they lived in cities under 10,000 population.

MARRIAGE LICENSE FEES GOING UP

Marriages are made in heaven, but the licenses are purchased from County Clerk Carl Cederholm.

And beginning Aug. 28, his prices are going up.

Cederholm said Tuesday that the $4.50 fee will be increased to $5 under recent state legislation.

"Texas now has a variety of marriage license costs ranging from $2.50 to $7.50," the clerk said. "This will standardize the charge and take care of everything."

Under the same law, other county and district clerk fees also will be standardized. Now, attorneys pay different fees for each filing in a case and the clerks must handle the complex bookkeeping.

After Aug. 28, each type of case will have one price based on the present norm of similar cases.

Injury sidelines Windham

Pierce scores 7 in North cagers' loss

Post's Ronnie Pierce started for the North team and scored seven points in its 87-71 loss last night to the South in the all-star basketball game at the state high school coaches' school in San Antonio.

Donny Windham, the other half of Post's all-star game representatives will miss tonight's all-star football game because of a back injury.

Windham injured his back while playing baseball here last week for Post's Texas Teen-age League team and then reinjured it the first day of practice with the football all-stars while running a pass pattern.

Pierce's points in the basketball game came on two field goals and three-for-three from the free throw line.

The Post schools' coaching staff, the families of the two all-star representatives and other Post fans are among those in San Antonio for the all-star games.

Telegrams signed by members of the Post teen-age baseball team, Manager Pat Walker and Coach Deamon Altman were sent Pierce (See Pierce scores, page 8)

Riots... opportunity for looting

In the heat of such outrages as last week's Detroit riot, one hears all sorts of opinions as to what is behind it, and nearly all of the opinions are well-founded. There isn't just one thing that causes such riots, but a combination of a number of things.

It takes a "cooling off" process to furnish the proper atmosphere for coming up with the real causes, and to weigh each of them against the others to get the proper perspective.

One of the reasons expounded that always hits the nail on the head as far as we are concerned is that the lawless element of every city that has had a riot welcomed it as an opportunity for looting. We know there are other, and perhaps bigger, reasons for the riots, but we haven't heard or read of one yet in which smashing windows and looting stores didn't furnish police with one of their biggest headaches.

It is bad enough for anyone, black or white, to take the law into his own hands by inciting or taking part in a riot, but it is even worse when he takes advantage of the riot to destroy property and loot stores.

The riots that are plaguing many of the larger cities of the nation again this summer are far from being civil rights demonstrations. They are criminal insurrections, a defiance of law and order, and we can't see any good reason why the people of the United States have to put up with it.

If this wave of rioting, arson, looting and murder—unparalleled in our history—is a master plan with the rioters moving from city to city to carry on their lawlessness, then let's stop playing politics and deal with it as it should be dealt with.—CD

What are your plans for Saturday night?

If you miss Saturday night's Jaycee bean supper and hootenanny at the City-County Park, chances are you'll be missing one of the most enjoyable events of the summer here.

The monthly hootenanny held by the Jaycees for the last several months has been one of the organization's most successful projects, but the special one they're staging Saturday night more than likely will draw a bigger crowd than have all the indoor ones combined.

The Jaycees are making Saturday night's event an area-wide one and expect to have about as many out-of-town people on hand as home-towners.

Proceeds from the sale of tickets to the bean supper—they're going at the bargain rate of half a buck apiece—and from the sale of refreshments throughout the evening will go to Girlstown, USA, at Whiteface, which a number of area Jaycee clubs have "adopted" as a project.

The Jaycees are advertising the bean supper and hootenanny throughout this part of West Texas. They expect to have an overflow crowd on hand, as well as some of the best western and country music bands in these parts.

You'd better come early if you want to get up close to the music.—CD

Recipe for progress anywhere

Inducing one or more payroll-producing, tax-paying industries to locate in our town is the objective of the Post Industrial Foundation and is also the objective of most other towns and cities in Texas, whether they have an organization such as we have or not. Therefore, the remarks of an executive of a company that recently located in Albany, Ga., are of more than passing interest to many localities. They give a measure of what a prosperous, progressive industry means to a community.

The company in Georgia builds business airplanes. It believes that the demands of business flying will become much larger. At ground-breaking ceremonies, the executive discussed his company's growth prospects and emphasized the mutual interests of industry and communities.

He said economists have calculated that 100 new factory jobs mean that 296 people make the community their home; 4 more retail businesses open; 107 more passenger cars are registered;

74 jobs are created in addition to the factory jobs; there is $590,000 more in personal income per year; $270,000 in bank deposits and $360,000 in retail trade. But, beyond that, new industry means more young people will find employment and advancement in their hometowns.

The company spokesman observed that his firm had the obligation to run an efficient operation that paid taxes, met the payroll, upgraded its workers and make a profit. No other kind of a company is worth having around. He asked in return fair treatment—no special treatment.

In conclusion, he observed: "We have to run a successful, competitive enterprise here or we are both in trouble... If the community is hurt in some way, our plant is hurt. If the plant is hurt, the community suffers. That's why we must cooperate with each other... This is a relationship that holds true and makes good sense in every community large and small all across the nation."

What our contemporaries are saying

A woman is at her best when she is man hunting and a man at his best when he is fishing.—Artec (N. Mex.) Independent Review.

The easiest way for a man to get his wife's attention is by looking comfortable.—Cuba City (Wisc.) Tri-City Press.

IT TOOK A while, but this has finally turned into the "long, hot summer."

I returned from my vacation last week to find everyone in the front office here at The Dispatch apologizing in print for mistakes, more commonly called "goofs" that had appeared in the paper the week I was gone.

PLEASE DON'T misunderstand. The mistakes were not made because I wasn't here, and if I had been here to catch the goofs of spelling of Maria Shelton's name and the 10 years that were added to the First National Bank's age, I more than likely would have corrected them, only to make two other mistakes of my own somewhere else in the paper.

No one has a corner on the mistake market. We all make them. Perhaps it is because people expect to see mistakes in their paper and we don't want to disappoint them.

I CUT MY newspaper eyeteeth on goofs. One of the first letters to the editor I ever received read something like this:

"Dear Editor Didway: Every time I send you a write-up about our Missionary Society meeting you get it all balled up so it doesn't make sense. Time and again I've sent in corrections, but you get them mixed up, too. So I give up. In the future when I send you our Missionary Society write-up, please don't print it."

The man up the street defines an expert in economics as a man who knows tomorrow why the things he said yesterday didn't happen today.

SOME OF THE women at Abilene are stewing about a merchant's demand that the city council charge a $25 license fee for garage sales. Since I want to keep both the women and the merchants on my side, I won't express an opinion as to who is right and who is wrong in the matter.

I heard a funny thing the other day, though, about a garage sale—or, more correctly, a backyard sale. This woman had a pile of used clothes she wanted to sell and, not having a garage, draped the clothes over her backyard fence and put a "For Sale" sign on the fence. Her first customer was a man who told her he would buy the fence if she would take "those old clothes off of it."

THIS LITTLE ITEM appeared on the front page of last week's Marble Falls Messenger:

"The bookkeeper for the rodeo association carried the results of the rodeo back to Lampasas with him, hence we are unable to give the best averages and results."

I had the same thing happen once at Brownfield, with the rodeo bookkeeper taking the results back to Amarillo with him.

Not to be outdone, I called the bookkeeper and asked him to wire us the results so we could get them in Thursday's paper.

He wired the complete results—collect—which we didn't mind paying, since so many of our readers were anxiously awaiting the rodeo story.

What happened next, however, wasn't what we'd planned. One of the Brownfield rodeo officers, learning that the town's other newspaper also wanted the results, came to our office when everybody except the printers were out for coffee and talked one of them into giving him the rodeo results. He carried them to the other newspaper, which got a "free ride" at our expense.

The moral of the story is: Don't everybody in the front office go out for coffee at the same time.

HERE IS THE answer to "The Tea Party" puzzle that appeared in last week's column:

Mrs. Murphy—the deaf woman.
Mrs. Slater—the hostess.
Mrs. Nixon—the bromide soul.
Mrs. Neugent—the woman who hates Mrs. Dunn.

Mrs. Jayton—the talkative woman.
Mrs. Dunn—the fat woman.

Now that you have the answer, a copy of the puzzle can be obtained at our desk if you are one of those who'd rather have both the puzzle and the answer at hand before you start working on it.

West Texas TB Association's first annual report mailed to directors

LUBBOCK — Major achievements in the fields of education and case-finding highlight the first annual report of the 23-county West Texas Tuberculosis Association, mailed today to directors, area local council members and other interested persons.

The WTAA sent supplies for the skin-testing of 35,997 school students in 79 area towns. Chest x-rays provided by the WTAA Mobile Unit totaled 34,513 in the first year of area-wide organization.

From the skin tests, positive reactors totaled 889. This did not indicate active tuberculosis—only that more complete examination of these students was necessary because a danger did exist. Total abnormalities disclosed by the Mobile X-ray Unit was 640. Of these 137 were TB suspect, 377 other chest disease, and 126 showed some heart irregularity. The unit served 207 area locations. In addition, the Association answered 1,232 requests for health information. The largest number of these were for information concerning emphysema, a total of 478.

The area's total number of tuberculosis patients at McKnight State Hospital was 57 in 1966 and 58 in 1967. No total was listed for privately hospitalized patients.

The first annual doctor's symposium on tuberculosis and other respiratory diseases was held last year, as well as the area's first nurses' workshop on tuberculosis testing.

Improved education case-finding and follow-up programs were cited as goals for the area in 1967.

Mary Kathleen Clyatt becomes bride of Dan Rankin at Irving

Miss Mary Kathleen Clyatt became the bride of Dan Howard Rankin, and her sister, Miss Nancy Laura Clyatt, was married to George Arthur Peel, in a double wedding ceremony last Saturday at the Irving First Methodist Church at 8:30 o'clock in the evening.

Dr. Thomas F. Sterck, minister emeritus of Matthew Memorial Methodist Church in Fort Worth and a former minister of the Irving church, officiated at the ceremonies. Dr. Sterck had also officiated at the marriage of the brides' parents at the same site.

Parents of the brides are Mr. and Mrs. William C. Clyatt of Irving. Mr. Rankin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Rankin of Post and Mr. Peel is the son of Mrs. Johnnie Peel of Irving.

The altar was banked in palms and baskets of white flowers accented with the brides' shades of blue and green. A matching arrangement was on the communion table. Spiral candelabra provided soft illumination.

Both brides were given in marriage by their father.

Mr. Rankin's bride wore an original gown of candlelight pure silk organza veiled over with silk peau de soie. The empress styled gown featured the entire bodice and elbow-length sleeves of imported Alencon lace. The neckline was slightly rounded and followed the scalloped design of the lace with seed pearls and crystals outlining the floral motif inherent in the lace design featured on the bodice. The A-line skirt featured appliques of lace at the center front and at each side. The chapel-length train fell in a cluster of pleats to form a fan-shaped sweep. A deep border of pearl-embroidered lace in a scalloped design circled the entire train. Her bouffant veil of imported silk illusion was held by a bandeau of lace medallions encrusted with pearls and crystals. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Cynthia Clyatt served her sisters as maid of honor. She wore a pale green and ice blue crepe gown of classic empire design, complemented by a low square back and a flowing train attached to a flat bow in back. Her headpiece of silk illusion was attached to a Dior bow of matching crepe. She carried a bouquet of orchids and carnations tinted to match her gown.

Attendants for Mary Kathleen were Miss Joan Holt of LaMarque, Miss Carol Brown of Irving and Mrs. Hal Kindeade of Little Elm. They wore pale green crepe dresses fashioned like the maid of honor's, as were their headpieces and bouquets. Miss Stephanie Fields was flower girl, wearing an empire dress of green organza and a wreath of flowers in her hair.

Ken Rankin of Post served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Horace A. Smith of Odessa and Billy Jake Wofford of Cleveland, Ohio. Ushers for both wedding parties were Arthur Casey Jr., Phil Lively, Robert Lively, Charles Caffey, all of Irving and Bonnie Hanst of Lockney.

Traditional wedding selections were played by organist, Mrs. Jack Carnell, soloist Mrs. Francis M. Gilbert sang "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee" and "The Wedding Prayer."

At the reception which followed the ceremonies, the table was draped in white taffeta, garlanded with smilax and held a wedding cake at each end. A silver epergne held white roses and was flanked with silver candelabra. Each bride had a round table holding the silver punch bowls.

Mr. and Mrs. Rankin are at home in Post after a wedding trip to New Orleans. La. Mrs. Rankin is a senior student at Texas Tech and he is a graduate student at Texas Tech and teaching in the Post schools.

The parents of the bridegroom hosted the rehearsal dinner at the Dandel Room of Holiday Inn West Friday night.

Patricia Ann Martin to wed Eldon May here on Sept. 15

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Martin are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Patricia Ann, to Eldon May, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. May of Whiteface.

The wedding will be an event of Sept. 15 in the First Christian Church.

Miss Martin, a graduate of Post High School, attended Draughds Business College and is employed as a secretary and bookkeeper at Southwestern Public Service Company, Lubbock. Mr. May graduated from Whiteface High School, attended South Plains College at Levelland and is assistant manager of Household Finance Corporation in Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. C took a little trip down Houston and San Antonio way last weekend and I think I can safely say we don't really know what "hot weather" is out here in West Texas. Oh, I gripe about the heat along with the rest of you, but compared to that muggy country we're living in heaven.

"Highlight" being a typical society page word I can say that the highlight of our trip was having dinner in the home of our son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. K. in San Antonio. Mrs. K put out quite a spread for us with much aplomb. I was impressed.

It was fun going to the grocery store with her early that day to see what she had learned through the years of shopping with Mrs. C. No worries there.

At the apartment she showed me her broom which she had purchased to sweep her kitchen floor, which is quite small. Had they wasted money on a big broom to sweep this small space? They had not. Upon finding that big brooms cost $3 they settled on a small child's broom that cost 29 cents. With a young strong back that's good thinking.

But enough of Mr. and Mrs. K. — other than being a bit envious of thinking of setting up housekeeping with all those new things and the joy of cooking and cleaning when one is first married. It takes while to put it in the "clutter" classification.

On our way home we acted like tourists and stopped at the old Nimtz Hotel in Fredericksburg, which is in the process of being made into a museum honoring the famous Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz.

A very personable young man was doing a bit of dusting prior to being officially open for the day and while Mr. C prowled through and looked at all the "old" things of which museums boast I visited with him.

What the people of Fredericksburg are trying to do is restore the old famous landmark to its original appearance and create a major naval museum with the aid of the United States Navy. They are not thinking small down there as they are trying to raise a minimum of $1 million dollars.

The young man we spoke to thought this was possible and told us how cooperative everyone in the state and out of the state was being to help make this dream come true. He did sound a bit bitter about Gov. John Connally as they had received state flags from 24 states to fly in front of the museum but, so far, were being ignored at Austin. "And", he said, "he is a former Secretary of the Navy."

Most museums bore me to death. I just don't like to look at old objects and musty letters. However, Mr. C loves to prowling and does so avidly. When they restore the old hotel I'll love prowling through but in the meantime I'd rather talk to personable young men.

VISITORS FROM RANGER
Mrs. Leonard Marusak and daughter, Rachel, of Ranger, are here visiting Mrs. Marusak's mother, Mrs. Bernice Eubank, and Mrs. Marusak's sisters, Debbie and Sue.

FAMILY PICNIC POSTPONED
The Graham Home Demonstration Club has postponed their family picnic due to a conflict with the Joyce bean supper and hootenanny at the City-County Park Saturday night.

Five sisters are home from trip in western U. S.

Five sisters, Mrs. W. A. Guinn and Mrs. Billy Sanders of San Angelo, Mrs. J. P. Manly of Post, Mrs. M. E. Morris of Slaton and Mrs. G. E. White of Lubbock, have returned from a trip through some of the western states.

They spent two days in El Paso "seeing the sights", including trips to Juarez, Mexico, where they visited a glass factory at which they saw articles being made, and attended the dog races. They left for Scottsdale, Ariz., making a scenic drive through the mountains by way of Globe, Ariz. At one point they lunched in an out-door dining area. The highway is lined with cashew, date palms and olive trees along this drive. The ladies crossed an Indian reservation and observed it was too hot for any Indians to be out.

The group spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Edwards and family and were joined by another sister, Mrs. W. T. Shepherd, who flew from Houston to continue the sightseeing tour.

They drove on to Las Vegas. The sisters returned to Scottsdale for another visit with the Edwards family with Mrs. Shepherd remaining for a longer visit with her daughter. The others returned to their homes with memories never to be forgotten by "these Texas-reared ladies."

STATE Capital NEWS

By VERN SANFORD

AUSTIN — Newspaper readers throughout Texas soon will be seeing long columns of type about important issues as Secretary of State John Hill begins to advertise constitutional amendments to be voted on Nov. 11.

JOHN HILL

Fourteen additional amendments will be on the 1968 ballot. Eight of the 20 amendments are of interest mainly to special groups (eg: legislators or state employees). Eight others would provide local governments with new powers or duties. Only four of the group directly affect most Texans. Amendments to be voted on this year will appear on the ballot in this order:

No. 1, House Joint Resolution 3, to permit counties to put all tax money in a single general fund rather than dividing income in specified amounts among separate funds for earmarked purposes as is now required.

No. 2, HJR 37, allowing cities and other governmental units within hospital districts to levy taxes for participation in mental health and mental retardation community centers.

No. 3, HJR 17, reviving the veterans land program and authorizing a total of $400,000,000 in bonds to finance continued purchase of farm and ranch land by veterans, including those have served in Southeast Asia during the present hostilities.

No. 4, HJR 6, authorizing counties to pay medical, doctor and hospital bills of county law enforcement officers injured in line of duty.

No. 5, HJR 12, authorizing a $75,000,000 state revenue bond issue for the development of state parks and recreational areas. The bonds are expected to be financed by a small admission fee.

No. 6, HJR 27, permitting state officers and employees to hold non-elective positions under the state or U. S. governments where there is no conflict of interest and where the state might benefit.

That's all for '67.

Top interest in these amendments doubtless will center on the park bond proposal and the veterans land amendment.

Hospital mental health and mental retardation groups will emphasize the importance of Amendment No. 2 to the new community center approach of treating mental patients close to home.

Calling the 1967 election for Veterans Day and a Saturday, undoubtedly, was to assure a large voter turn-out for the land fund amendment. A substantial campaign to urge its passage already is taking form.

Gov. John Connally is the principal backer of the parks bond issue. Last December he unveiled a 10-year plan for acquiring and developing 150,900 acres of recreational lands and historical sites. This would more than triple present state park acreage and open a variety of new facilities for outdoor recreation.

Only opposition to the amendment to date has been based on the $1 a car park - entry fee, initially proposed by Connally to finance the vast program; and scattered complaints that facilities included in the governor's master plan do not adequately serve some areas of the state.

He is expected to spearhead an intensive fall campaign - supported by parks, recreational and outdoor groups - to put over the bond issue.

The veterans land amendment would add another $200,000,000 to state bonds previously authorized and through which 35,300 veterans have purchased farm and ranch properties at low interest rates spread over a 40-year pay period.

This amendment would raise the amount which could be borrowed under the program from $7,500 to $10,000. The program was initiated in 1949. Additional bonds were approved by voters in 1951 and 1956. Amendments to enlarge the bond authorization were rejected at elections in 1963 and 1965. Opposition came mainly from Dallas and Houston.

Proponents emphasize that while thousands of veterans have benefitted from the program, it has cost the state no money and actually has turned a profit of $2,500,000 a year while providing an expanded land market.

Opposition has adopted the argument that it is not the function of the state government to engage in the loan business and that veterans have had plenty of time to participate. Some also contend that "cheap money" invites purchases of land not needed and which will not be put to productive use.

Amendment No. 2 specifies that the legislature, in providing for creation of hospital districts, does not have to require that the districts assume full responsibility for community mental health and retardation centers and services. It would permit cities and counties to levy taxes and issue bonds for such services. Subdivisions within existing districts would be authorized to do so unless statutes creating the districts expressly prohibit.

Corn is called summer favorite

COLLEGE STATION — Corn is one of summer's most delightful treats, reminds Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist.

In selecting ears of corn, examine the husks and kernels. The husks should be green and fresh looking. The kernels should be well filled, bright, plump, milky and firm enough to give slight resistance to pressure. Kernels should also be free from worm or insect damage.

Immaturity is indicated by small, soft, undeveloped kernels which lack flavor when cooked. Overmaturity is indicated by large, excessively firm kernels, which are usually deeper in color than when at normal maturity.

Corn must be properly handled from the time it is picked until it is put into the kettle, if high quality is to be maintained. Buy today only enough corn for tomorrow. Corn handled carefully is of premium quality, since at ordinary summer temperatures about half the sugar content of mature corn is lost within 24 hours. Cooling slows the loss of sugar. Corn should be the last purchase of your shopping tour and should be taken home and refrigerated promptly.

ized to do so unless statutes creating the districts expressly prohibit. An attorney general's opinion held that the constitution does not allow political subdivisions within the boundary of a hospital district to levy taxes for medical and hospital service. Under that ruling, cities and counties located in such districts were restricted from participating in establishment of community health centers. Therefore, only hospital districts could establish such centers, a key part of the mental health program.

Amendments No. 3, No. 4 and No. 5 are self explanatory and apparently non-controversial.

Amendment No. 6 is aimed primarily at permitting educators, who are paid from state funds, to serve on federal advisory boards.

What Is Prompt Payment?

Open or charge accounts are payable within 10 days after receipt of statement.

On installment accounts which are payable over a period of months, each payment should be made on or before the day of the month specified in the contract you signed.

Consequently when you sign a contract which involves monthly terms you should make sure that the due rate coincides with your pay day. Don't skip one payment and then make a double payment the next month. Creditors regard this as not paying according to agreement.

The attitude of a debtor towards the credit is most important. If circumstances prevent you from making a payment on time always let your creditor know the reason why. If you explain the circumstances that cause you to be temporarily slow in payment, that data is entered in your payment record.

When that firm is given as a reference, your attitude is reflected in their rating of your paying habits.

That section 7 of the ordinance, which authorizes the police to enter any unfenced lot or parcel of land for the purpose of seizing and impounding any dog found running at large, is being interpreted by the city as authorizing the same without the necessity of obtaining a valid search warrant or permission to do so by property owner or tenant, even when the property is the home of the dog owner. This petition in the suit alleges violates both the fourth and 14th amendments of the U. S. constitution and article 1, section 9 of the Texas constitution.

That section 9 of the ordinance, which authorizes anyone to seize any dog running at large on any private property also violates the above cited constitutional guarantees.

That section 23, which provides that anyone who shall interfere or attempt to prevent police from catching and impounding any dog which is running at large on private property is guilty of a misdemeanor and can be fined any sum not to exceed $200, is also unconstitutional in that it violates both the state and U. S. constitution.

That section 25 of the ordinance which provides that anyone who permits or allows a dog to run at large on private property is guilty of a misdemeanor uses the term "private property" so vaguely that it fails to appraise one of just exactly what is a violation and thereby violates article 1, Section 10 of the constitution of Texas.

That section 26 of the ordinance, which provides that the police shall have the authority to enter any premises for the purpose of dog inspection and makes it a misdemeanor for anyone to refuse to permit such inspection or obstructs entrance to any premises, not only attempts to make it a crime for a man to resist an unlawful search and seizure whenever the premises comprises a man's home but also attempts to make it a crime for a man to refuse to give evidence against himself and thereby violates state and U. S. constitutional provisions.

The suit asks Judge Smith to determine the constitutionality of these sections of the dog ordinance, that if said sections be found unconstitutional that the city be permanently enjoined from enforcing the same, and that if the sections be found constitutional that the city be ordered to obtain permission from tenant or owner or obtain a valid search warrant before entering and searching plaintiff's homes.

The suit also asks the court for judgement against the city for cost of the legal action.

Lubbock Eastern loses to Big Spring team

Lubbock's Eastern team lost to Big Spring, 13-0, Monday night in the sub-regional Little League playoffs at Big Spring.

The Lubbock team defeated Post's Little League All-Stars, 8-4, last week on its way to the district championship.

By defeating Eastern, the Big Spring team advances to Pecos Thursday and Friday to join six other teams to see who earns the right to participate in the state meet at Fort Worth later this month.

1968 budget—

tiring time warrants issued last year for hospital improvements here.

The proposed budget shows the county will have a total net outstanding bond and time warrant debt as of next Jan. 1 of $151,382.33 and that during 1968, $63,657.67 will be paid on debt principal and $9,083.33 in interest.

The county's proposed 1968 budget calls for a total expenditure of $447,220.45, an increase of $23,957.75, mostly due to the paying off early of the road District No. 1 bonds.

The budget estimates tax collections this fall of $199,250 and in the fall of 1968 of only $180,250, due to the wiping out of the District 1 tax next year. Other receipts of the county for 1968 are estimated at $238,801.59, a drop of almost $20,000 from 1967 estimated receipts of $258,361.49.

As far as the hospital operating fund is concerned, 1968 hospital receipts are estimated at $75,000 with $25,000 additional required from transfer from the general fund to pay for remainder of the hospital's operations, estimated to cost $100,000 for the fiscal year.

Postings—

cards. That is grassroots reader interest.

But that isn't all the evidence to support the case for the library's instant success. In the first 6½ months of this year, the library here checked out 3,379 books—almost 100 per cent average turnover of books on the shelves. Any big library would figure that as just "impossible." By the end of 1967, the book usage may be up around 200 per cent for the full year.

We think Post can have the same kind of success with a community center if it works together and plans together as it has done for its library. The library, remember, has a huge dues paying fan club which in its first year provided as many or more volunteer dollars than tax dollars for its operations.

In every poll taken, the community center has received the same enthusiastic grassroots endorsements as has the library. Now how about getting the project "off the ground." If the community wants it, we can have it. It's time to start making some decisions.

To put it another way, the Post Chamber of Commerce deserves YOUR active support if YOU want a community center.

Little League entry captures third place

Third baseman Roger Pace clouted a two-run homer in the top of the fifth inning to give the Post Little League All-Stars a 3-2 win over Lubbock Midwestern last Friday for third place in the district Little League baseball playoffs at Lubbock.

Manager Jerry Hays' Post team had lost to Lubbock Eastern, 8-4, Thursday evening to bow out of championship competition. Eastern went on to win the district championship.

Pitcher Reggie Moore, who had doubled, came across with Post's first run in the top of the fourth against Midwestern Friday, but Lubbock tied the score in the bottom of the fourth on singles by Kerry Bailey and Billy Sims and an infield error.

Pace's home run in the top of the fifth scored leftfielder John Redman ahead of him.

Midwestern came back with a run in the bottom of the fifth to cut Post's margin to 3-2. Buddy Blacklock opened with a single for Post in the top of the sixth and final inning, but pitcher Mike Bewley fanned Moore, Clifford Laws and Jay Pollard to end the threat.

In the bottom of the sixth, Moore fanned Larry Hart and Bewley forced Sims to fly out to right field to end the game.

A six-run second inning for Eastern proved Post's undoing in last Thursday's game after the locals had jumped off to a 3-0 lead.

Post scored its three runs in the first on two infield errors, a walk to Blacklock and a single by Johnny Minor.

The locals boosted their lead to 4-0 in the top of the second when Jay Stone walked, advanced on a single by Carl Holder and scored on Blacklock's single.

In pitching Post to its third place win, Moore yielded only three hits, fanned 12 and walked none. Post also got only three hits off Midwestern's Bewley, who struck out 12 batters and walked none. The game was a tight pitcher's duel, with Pace's two-run homer deciding the contest.

er walked after Redman had grounded out. Ricky King singled to fill the bases, but Blacklock struck out and Moore popped out to the shortstop to end the game.

Eastern got six hits off Blacklock, who fanned four batters and walked two. Post also got six hits off two Eastern pitchers, who fanned eight batters and walked four.

In pitching Post to its third place win, Moore yielded only three hits, fanned 12 and walked none. Post also got only three hits off Midwestern's Bewley, who struck out 12 batters and walked none. The game was a tight pitcher's duel, with Pace's two-run homer deciding the contest.

SNYDER—The Snyder Clippers, who won the Post Jaycee Tournament Sunday on a 1-0 forfeit from the Post team, will play their first game tonight (Thursday) in the Senior Teen-Age League playoffs at Odessa.

The Snyder team drew a first round bye in the playoffs and will meet the winner of the Odessa-Pecos game. The winner of the three-team tournament will advance to state championship play.

The playoff tournament is a double elimination affair.

The tournament victory at Post boosted the Clippers' season mark to an impressive 18-3 as they enter the playoffs at Odessa.

One of the team's three losses was to the Post Teen-Age League team by a 7-2 score. Snyder came back to edge Post, 6-5, Sunday, then won on a forfeit when the Post manager decided his Monday night playoff game was more important than the tournament.

Ropers in spotlight at Cheyenne's rodeo

DENVER — Calf roping competition produced Cheyenne Frontier Days' biggest money winners, the professional Rodeo Cowboys Association said here today.

The six-day Wyoming rodeo ended Sunday afternoon, distributing a total $71,154 prize money in six arena events.

Glen Franklin, 30, of House, N. M., won almost a fourth of $20,633 up in calf roping. His $5,049 tally was the richest roping grab in the rodeo's long history.

Oddly, Franklin shared the victory with another calf roper, Barry Burk, 25, of Comanche, Okla., who equaled Franklin's time of 43.0 seconds on three calves, but did not place as deeply in go-round playoffs as his New Mexico rival.

Burk, however, collected $3,956, the rodeo's second richest dividend.

Franklin, already leading the race for 1967's national calf roping title, upped his seasonal winnings to $20,020, nearly $6,000 ahead of his closest pursuer. He was 1965's national titlist, winning a record $29,656 for that year.

Riding event winners all came from far back the final afternoon. Mel Hyland, 18, of Port-Kells, B.C., racked up the rodeo's high marking on saddle broncs, posting 86 points aboard Harry Knight's Reckless Red, to top the field and collect $1,150. The young Canadian, in his first full pro season below the border, now is in seventh place for the event's national crown.

In bull riding, R. C. Bales, 37, of Lewisville, Tex., a 20-year veteran, found himself $1,562 richer after the two men ahead of him bucked off their final bull. Only four of 69 entries in the event managed to weather eight seconds on three animals during the six days of arena action.

Jim Mihalek, 27, of Broomfield, Colo., scored 80 points on Red Rebel, to snare victory in bareback bronc riding, worth $1,018 and run his rodeo winnings for July alone to over $6,000. Mihalek, running third for the event's national championship, has won a overall $12,552.

Steer wrestling action went to the event's national pace-maker, Roy Duvall, 24, of Boynton, Okla., with a total time of 31.1 seconds on three head. He collected $2565.

Steer roping resolved in a tie between Jim Bob Altizer, 34, of Del Rio, Tex., and Bill Teague, 35, of Crane, Tex. Each had a total time of 63.9 seconds. They won $1,933 and $1,883 respectively.

The RCA said 33 cowboys of a total 473 entries, won upwards of $1,200 each.

A sign-up meeting for the Post proposed city softball league will be held at 8 p. m. Monday, Aug. 7, at the Reddy Room.

Enough players for four teams will be required to sign up before a league is organized, Jaycees said. Monday night's meeting will be the only sign-up period.

Because of next week's rodeo and other conflicting activities, this summer's softball league — if one is organized — will be of only two weeks' duration, from Aug. 14 through Aug. 26, Jaycees said.

The games will be played on the Babe Ruth League diamond at David Nichols Park.

Snyder takes tourney on forfeit from Post

The Snyder Clippers scored a run in the bottom of the seventh inning to defeat Post's teen-age team, 6-5, Sunday afternoon and, as it turned out, win the championship of the Post Junior Chamber of Commerce's second annual Teen-Age Baseball Tournament.

With a second game necessary to decide the winner of the double elimination tournament, Manager Pat Walker decided to forfeit his "short-handed" team's chance at the championship, since they were scheduled to play Haskell at Lockney Monday night in the opening game of the Texas Teen-Age League district playoffs.

Post went into Sunday afternoon's game against Snyder minus the services of pitcher Ronnie Pierce, catcher Donny Windham and second baseman Duke Altman. Pierce and Windham had left Friday for San Antonio to play in the all-star games at the state coaches' school, and Altman missed the game because of illness.

SNYDER, the "home" team in Sunday's game, broke a 5-5 deadlock when Ramon Valdez, the lead-off batter, singled, went to second on a wild pitch and scored on Dink Force's single to right field.

Clyde Cash, who had come in from left field to pitch for Post in the bottom of the seventh, was the losing pitcher.

Roy Sappington's three-run homer had tied the game for Post in the top of the seventh.

Steve James of Shallowater pitched the first two innings for Post, holding Snyder hitless while he was on the mound, but the Clippers' bats started booming in the third against Sanders, who is from Abertathy. Nichols relieved Sanders, then gave way to Cash in the seventh.

Singles by Sappington and Joe Hudman scored Post's first run in the sixth to make it 5-1. Steve Colazo doubled to open the top of the seventh and scored on James' single. Jimmy Bartlett walked, with Sappington's over-the-fence clout scoring James and Bartlett ahead of him to knot the score.

THE POST teen-agers had pinned the first defeat on Snyder, 7-2, Saturday evening in a game that had been rained out in the top of the fourth Friday night with Post leading 1-0.

Nichols, who pitched the first three innings, was the winning hurler in the win over Snyder Saturday, with Tommy Pointer of Shallowater going the final four frames.

Cash's leadoff home run opened the scoring in the bottom of the second, with Snyder going ahead, 2-1, in the fourth on Mickey Almond's two-run homer. That was all the scoring for Snyder, however, with Post going on to score two in the fourth and four in the sixth.

The Clippers came back in the nightcap to eliminate the Post Pirates, 3-1, in an extra-inning game. Randy Parker's two-run homer in the top of the eighth gave Snyder the victory after the teams had battled to a 1-1 tie through seven frames.

The Pirates, who were the "surprise" team of the tournament, threatened in the bottom of the eighth when Ruben Valdez doubled with one out, Filemon Vargas grounded out and John Valdez walked, but David Perez grounded out, pitcher to first, to end the contest.

ROBERT HOOD was the losing pitcher, going the distance for the Pirates, while Force also went the route to receive credit for the win.

It was the second extra-inning game for the Pirates, who had eliminated Slaton, 3-2, in a ten-inning affair Friday night.

John Valdez' single scored Eddie Valdez from third to give the Pirates the win.

The Pirates had scored two runs in the fifth with Slaton getting one in the fifth on John Petty's home run and another in the sixth on three walks and a sacrifice fly.

Vargas went all the way for the win. Verkamp, who had relieved Mason after eight innings, was the losing pitcher.

LAST THURSDAY night, the Pirates beat Tahoka, 9-2, and Slaton drubbed Shallowater, 14-0.

John Valdez was the winning pitcher in the Tahoka game, with Vargas relieving after five innings. Robinson, the first of three Tahoka pitchers, was tagged with the defeat.

Ruben Valdez hit a two-run homer for the Pirates in the sixth, while Tahoka's two runs came in the fifth on three singles and a fielder's choice.

Richard Washington and Burrell homered for Slaton in their team's 14-0 shutout of Shallowater, in which Verkamp yielded only four hits.

Wednesday night of last week, the Post teen-agers won from Tahoka, 5-1, with Cash pitching a two-hitter, and Duke Altman hitting for the circuit. Snyder edged Slaton, 6-5, in the night's second game.

Southland area news

No complaints as weeds and cotton grow high

By MRS. EDMUND WILKE

Hello everybody. So glad we can talk together again this week. I thought for about a week that the mosquitoes were going to get the best of me, but there are not as many today, thank goodness! The weeds are growing up, up, up — like a house on fire, but everything else is too, so who wants to complain? Not I!

This community was saddened Thursday night when they heard the news that T. L. Weaver had died late that afternoon from a heart attack. He had been involved in a bus-car accident earlier in the afternoon but hadn't sustained any injuries. T. L. lived in and around this community for many years and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Weaver, still live here. His funeral was held in the Evan Methodist Church in Slaton Saturday afternoon and he was buried in the Southland Cemetery. We would like to extend our deepest sympathies to all of his family. May God comfort them in their sorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Monk and children have returned from a vacation trip to Cartwright and Durant, Okla., where they visited relatives for a week. While they were over that way they went to Paris to visit Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Swindle. Now, anyone who had children in our school while Mr. and Mrs. Swindle taught have a very warm spot in their hearts for this fine couple. Mrs. Swindle taught first grade and Mr. Swindle taught in high school. Mrs. Monk said they have a beautiful home in Paris and they also own two farms and three rent houses. Mrs. Swindle is very active in home demonstration work and is forever winning blue ribbons on her flower arrangements. Mr. Swindle was building a barn out at the farm when the Monks arrived. They must have asked about everyone and they said to say a big "hello" to everyone. If you ever go anywhere close to Paris, go by and visit with them. The address is 2524 Lamar Ave., and their home number is 4-2711.

Howard Monk's sister, Mrs. Clea Rudolph of Columbus, Ohio, and his brother, Jimmy O'Conner of Carlsbad, N. M., were recent guests in their home.

WE HAVE A brand new grandmother in the community. Let us say congratulations to Mrs. Dixie Barton who has a grandson. The young man was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roberts of Balmorhea. The Clark Bartons went down for the occasion.

We would like to extend our deepest sympathy to the family of Frank Moore who passed away at Liberal, Kans., last week. He is the brother of Mrs. Payton Crawford. Mr. and Mrs. Crawford and Debra and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hamaker attended the funeral services. Frank had been in ill health for several years. May God be with this family in their sorrow.

Wednesday of last week Mmes. Ruby Ellis, Donetta Alford and two children, Amy Havis, Gloss Davies and Kelly Sparkman went to Palo Duro Canyon to attend the outdoor theatre presentation of "Texas." Ruby said the lighting and scenery is very pretty and that the play was long, but good. On Thursday, Mrs. Ellis and Mrs. Alford and children went to Amarillo to visit Mrs. Thelma Winterrowd and the other ladies returned to Southland.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Ellis and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ellis attended the Fox reunion at the home of Mrs. Mary Raff in Lubbock. The reunion was hosted by nephews and nieces of G. D. Ellis. Mrs. Louise Carson and daughter, Linda, who have spent the past month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Denton, have moved to Austin.

Mrs. Ed Denton, Cleo Johnston and Linda Carson attended the Harmon County, Okla., reunion at the Lubbock Clubhouse Sunday. Mrs. Denton was one of the persons that got this reunion started some years ago.

John Herd of Lubbock visited Ed Denton and Louise Sunday.

Ed Denton, Mrs. Cleo Johnston and Linda Carson spent from Monday until Friday at the Denton's cabin at Rock Creek on Possum Kingdom Lake. They didn't catch many fish but had a fine time.

Mrs. W. P. Lester, Mrs. Louise Carson and Mrs. Ed Denton visited Mr. and Mrs. Bob Russell in Post Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Alice Martin, Mrs. Susie Bradshaw and Mrs. Alpha Taylor were Thursday dinner guests of Mrs. Ed Denton and her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hagler and children have gone to Abilene to be with Richard Hagler who will undergo surgery.

Darrell Wilke will leave Sunday to go to the Quartz Mountains in Oklahoma where he will attend a retreat for several days. The Northwest Conference Luther League officers have been invited to this retreat along with five or six other leagues.

WELL, OUR three cheerleaders, Karen Melcher, Dayneen Dunn and Sherri Wilke, returned from Texas Tech last Friday, tired but happy. Seems like they did real well while they were there because they came home with two blue ribbons and three white ones and placed third in their division. They did a few of the new yells for me and they looked pretty good. Congratulations, girls. We'll be out there watching you come September.

See you again next week, I hope. By the way, I have a birthday Aug. 4 and may talk Edmund into taking me to the mountains. Not sure I'll have any luck.

Before attending the rodeo, Donnie and his parents, the Rayburn Pitts, attend the Pitts reunion in Lamesa. All the family were there except one boy who lives in California. Seventy were present.

The Jim Normans, Travis Gilmore, Troy Gilmore and Maudine Priddy and children, all of Post, Mr. and Mrs. Al Hogue of Abilene and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ray Baker of Pascogula, Miss., enjoyed a picnic lunch at the Post park Sunday.

Wade Gerner visited the Amos Gerners Thursday evening.

Carla Herman is visiting with her grandmother, Mrs. R. L. Craig.

Lt. Col. Jack Hoover and family have returned to the states after serving three and one-half years in the Philippines at Clark Air Force Base. They visited his mother, Mrs. O. H. It's a fact

HISTORICALLY, SEALS HAVE ESTABLISHED IDENTITY AND AUTHENTICITY. MANY ANCIENT EUROPEANS HAD SEALS. INDIVIDUALS HAD ONE, SOVEREIGNS HAD MANY.

SEALS STILL ESTABLISH AUTHENTICITY. THE AIR CONDITIONING & REFRIGERATION INSTITUTE'S 'SEAL OF CERTIFICATION' ON CENTRAL AIR CONDITIONING EQUIPMENT TELLS YOU THAT THE UNIT CONFORMS TO STRICT INDUSTRY STANDARDS-- WAS RIGIDLY TESTED FOR COOLING CAPACITY AND DEPENDABILITY.

SOON AFTER SIGNING THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE, THE CONTINENTAL CONGRESS NAMED BENJAMIN FRANKLIN, JOHN ADAMS, THOMAS JEFFERSON, TO DESIGN A 'SEAL OF THE UNITED STATES' (THEIR DESIGN WAS NOT ADOPTED.)

Water, Inc. directors hold Dimmitt meeting

LUBBOCK — The Board of Directors of Water, Inc., met in Dimmitt recently, appointed two significant committees, authorized the hiring of a public relations director and adopted a resolution which among other things was meant to reassure all concerned that private ownership of underground water would remain undisturbed.

A membership committee, with K. Bert Watson of Amarillo as its chairman, and a committee on interagency relationships, chaired by Homer Garrison of Plainview, were appointed.

J. D. Smith, president of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., and member of the Water, Inc., executive committee, said "The importance of the membership committee of course is obvious, and the interagency relationships committee can be a strong force for uniting and coordinating all efforts behind the single objective of bringing imported water to the West Texas Area."

The text of the complete resolution reads:

"We rededicate ourselves to the purposes of Water, Inc., which generally consist of the following: (1) the importation of supplemental water from Northeast Texas and outside - the - state sources, (2) to create public interest in and develop support for water resource development and conservation projects and (3) to promote, conduct and participate in studies, surveys and research programs for the importation, distribution, reclamation, re-use, utilization and the storage of water and to make such programs available to the public.

"To this end we believe that our area will be further developed for production of agricultural products to meet national and world needs and that in the process private ownership of groundwater will remain undisturbed."

John Kendrick, president, reported to the board that Water, Inc., had acquired 500 members and collected $35,000 in dues. The budget for the new organization's first year of operation was set by the board at $200,000.

Permanent offices of Water, Inc., are located at 1611 Ave. Q, Lubbock.

J. W. Buchanan of the North Plains Underground Water District, Dumas, is serving as temporary organization and information director pending the board's hiring of an executive officer.
