

Light-to-moderate vote seen in Saturday's amendment election

Voters to decide on six proposals

Voters in Garza and 253 other counties will decide Saturday, Nov. 11, whether they want more amendments to the state's constitution.

The election will open at 8 a. m. and close at 7 p. m., with a light-to-moderate vote predicted.

The election is opening day of the turkey hunting season in Garza County.

NO DISPATCH RETURNS will be made on individual races at the Saturday election. The election will not be open Saturday night to furnish election returns. The six proposed amendments to the constitution are all on the Garza County ballot.

Counties, and this means a lot of hunters will be in the field at the voting booth.

However, election day also is Turkey Day, and backers of the proposed amendment to revive the turkey hunting season are staging a "get-out-the-vote" campaign. So are supporters of two amendments—the one authorizing the state to issue bonds to expand the system of the Texas highway system and that permitting officials and employees to be paid more than one office.

Constitutional amendments are on the ballot in the following order:

No. 1 To authorize counties to place all their tax revenues in a single general fund, rather than separate, special-purpose funds.

No. 2 To let political subdivisions which have hospital districts spend tax money for mental health and mental retardation services.

No. 3 To revive the veterans land program through an additional $200,000,000 bond issue, permitting war veterans including those of the Vietnam conflict, to purchase land on low-interest, 40-year-pay-back loans.

No. 4 To permit counties to pay medical benefits for their law enforcement officers injured in line of duty.

No. 5 To authorize a $75,000,000 state bond issue (supported by an admission fee at selected parks) for park land buying and development.

No. 6 To permit non-elective state officials and employees to serve on state and federal boards and commissions if there is no conflict of duties.

This is the first general election in Texas since the "scratch out" method of voting was eliminated. Now an "X" indicates your choice.

Garza County Tax Assessor-Collector T. H. Tipton again reminds voters that those voting in Saturday's election will use the registration certificates they obtained last year and which are good for elections through Feb. 28, 1968.

He said the registration certificates voters have been obtaining since Oct. 1 are good only for elections held between March 1, 1968, and Feb. 28, 1969.

City hearing Friday on building warrants

The city council will hold a hearing at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon on its notice-of-intention to issue up to $13,000 in time warrants for purchase of the former bowling alley building for use as a community center.

The notice-of-intentions, which was published in the Oct. 26 and Nov. 2 issues of The Post Dispatch, set Nov. 10 as the date of issuance of the time warrants.

Following the hearing, the council will set the date of a referendum, which will give voters the opportunity to approve or disapprove the city auditorium project.

The time warrant issue would bear interest not exceeding 5 percent, with a maximum maturity not to exceed six years.

The law provides for calling an election to approve the time warrants if objections are raised. However, the council has decided to put the city auditorium issue up to the voters in the form of a referendum even if no objections are raised at the hearing.

The council was told by the Post Chamber of Commerce's community center committee that the old bowling alley building could be obtained for a cost of $13,000.

Mayor attends state meeting

Mayor John Hopkins returned Wednesday from Houston, where he attended the 55th annual Texas Municipal League conference.

Approximately 1,600 Texas mayors and other city officials attended the conference.

Tuesday night, the city officials heard an address by Gov. John Connally, who told them that all cities in Texas can expect his full cooperation in quelling civil disturbances.

Connally called on responsible city leaders to speak out to drown the voice of extremists—those who "attempt to foment revolution."

The governor praised city officials for cooperating with the Legislature in gaining the optional one-cent city sales tax, already adopted by 18 cities.

In an afternoon officers' session, El Paso Mayor Judson F. Williams was re-elected as league president.

Couple working on Christmas Seals

Christmas Seal Co-chairmen Mr. and Mrs. Lou Marks have been busy engaged in getting ready for the current Christmas Seal campaign.

Busy engaged, that is, in engaging as many Post residents for volunteers as possible.

In Lubbock recently, the Marks picked up several thousand Christmas mailing pieces at the West Texas Tuberculosis office which were to be stuffed for the current campaign.

They activated the Mu Alpha chapter of Beta Sigma Phi for an

This includes $7,500 for the building, $2,000 for the purchase of an auditorium parking area to the east of the building, and $3,500 for a new roof for the building and, possibly, other minor building repairs.

Councilmen pointed out in authorizing the notice of issuing the time warrants that the city can obtain the building without any increase in taxes.

Vernon Scott, president of the Chamber of Commerce, said the Chamber has secured a 60-day option to purchase the bowling alley building from the United Fidelity Life Company at the $7,500 price.

A city auditorium is the Chamber's No. 1 project for 1967.

Post youths critically injured in truck crash

Two Post brothers, Noah Sweeten, 17, and Tommie Sweeten, 15, were critically injured when their pickup truck hit an embankment at the intersection of FM Roads 1313 and 969, three miles south of Post, Saturday night.

The youths, sons of Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Sweeten of 603 South Ave. F, have undergone surgery since being transferred to Methodist Hospital in Lubbock from Mercy Hospital at Slaton.

The younger boy's condition was reported "still critical" this morning, but the older boy was said to have been taken off the critical list.

Tommie's injuries included a severe head cut and other head injuries, broken right leg and broken left arm and five broken ribs. Noah's left arm and both legs were broken and all the ribs on his left side were crushed.

Sheriff L. E. (Fay) Claborn, who along with state highway patrolmen investigated the accident, said both youths were pinned in the cab of the truck after it went across the intersection and hit the embankment.

The sheriff said the impact whipped the truck to the left and it came to a stop headed south. The truck was being driven from the west on FM Road 1313.

The sheriff said a lug wrench was used to pry the caved-in front away from the older boy, after which the younger one was removed through the door. The officer said the younger boy was unconscious when he was removed from the wreckage.

Hospital board meeting tonight

Garza Memorial Hospital trustees will meet at 7:30 p. m. tonight (Thursday) at the hospital, presumably to discuss setting a re-opening date for the hospital.

Ed Sawyers, present chairman of the trustees, told The Dispatch that trustees would take a look at finances, and the steps necessary to opening the hospital again.

Dr. G. A. Lively, new Post physician, has told trustees he needs the hospital open for his patients.

Need costumes here for clothing, shoes

R. G. "Wilke" Wilkerson asks that anyone having clothing to donate for needy families leave the clothing at Wilke's, 330 East Main, on Thursdays, or at his home, 109 East 15th St., on other days of the week.

He said winter clothing and footwear is desperately needed by many families in the community.

"The response to our used clothing appeals has been good, but the demand has been greater," Wilkerson said.

UNITED FUND DRIVE NEAR $9,200 GOAL

The 1968 Garza United Fund drive is now within sight of its $9,200 goal, Drive Chairman A. C. Cash announced today.

A check yesterday showed a total of $8,181.63 in either cash or pledges already totaled, or 89 percent of the goal.

With rural pledges, mailed out only 10 days ago still coming in and with two or three members of the "big gifts" division still to report, Cash predicted that the goal either would be made or "we're going to get awfully close."

He urged all who have not been contacted and wish to contribute to the United Fund to bring or mail their checks either to him at the Cash Implement Co. or leave them at the First National Bank.

Cash also asked that drive workers with pledges or cash still to be turned in to do so immediately.

Cotton harvest is halted by drizzle

Drizzly weather has brought Garza 1967 cotton harvest to a standstill this week with much of the cotton still awaiting a stalk-killing freeze.

County Agent Syd Conner said only a light freeze—at a low of 39 degrees—was recorded here over the weekend and that there is a wide variation of the effects of the cold nip on the cotton plants in various parts of the county.

Some of the cotton is ready for the strippers in another week or so after damp weather clears, but so from all of it.

The county agent said that after a light freeze, as experienced here, many of the cotton bolls go

Hospital trustees will meet tonight to consider reopening Garza Memorial Hospital and are hopeful they can financially see their way clear to resume hospital operations Dec. 1.

Reopening the hospital actually won't be as difficult as keeping it open. So when trustees consider reopening, they must consider all necessary steps to being able financially to keep it open.

Only some $17,000 is going to be available in tax money in 1968 for hospital operations. This means that the hospital is going to have to have a tighter financial rein with such a limited subsidy.

The trustees will be trying to hold expenses down and may feel it necessary to boost hospital rates in some areas to attract more income.

Actually, December isn't too good a month to start up hospital operations because people try to stay out of the hospital during Christmas season.

But the winter months are usually the months which see biggest hospital usage.

We feel sure the entire community is solidly behind the hospital reopening and will give it full support.

Post is losing another fine young family tomorrow when Lonnie and Gloria Duke and their youngsters pull up stakes here and move to San Antonio. Lonnie will become an attorney for the Bexar County Legal Aid Association. We know their many local friends wish them the best of luck in the future.

Town-wide promotion

Christmas Fiesta is set for Dec. 9 date

Post's third annual Christmas Fiesta has been scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 9, as a town-wide promotion co-sponsored by Post merchants and the Retail Promotions Committee of the Post Chamber of Commerce.

The event will be similar to those of the last two years with several area bands playing throughout the afternoon on a downtown bandstand.

Santa Claus will pay his official visit to Post that day.

A large number of merchandise and valuable certificate prizes good in trade with any Post merchants will be given away throughout the day.

The Chamber's retail promotion committee, meeting last Thursday afternoon at Bob Collier's Drug Store, set the date and finalized plans to contact merchants this week for partial financing and prizes.

Approximately half of the expense of the promotion will be borne by the promotion committee of the Chamber.

Attending the Thursday committee planning session were John Brockman, chairman, Bryce Martin, T. B. Odam, Glen Barley, Bill Searle, Bob Collier, and Jim Cornish.

A second meeting of the committee will be called soon to work out details of the promotion.

Sign up slips for prizes to be given away at the Christmas Fiesta will be available soon in all the stores of participating merchants.

Certificate for service received

Mr. Jones also received a lapel emblem in recognition of his many years of service.

The awards were made following his retirement from the board. He was replaced by Harold Lucas of Post as Garza County representative on the board.

Major achievement

New factbook presented at industrial meeting

Copies of Post's new industrial factbook, a major achievement of the Post Industrial Foundation during its first year of operation, were distributed to members of the foundation last Thursday night during its first annual membership dinner meeting in City Hall.

Tom McKeown, executive director of the foundation, gave a detailed explanation of the industrial factbook, 300 copies of which have been printed at a cost of $3.50 each, as well as reviewing contacts which he already has established with industrial prospects and industrial "allies."

McKeown explained distribution of the factbook will now be begun.

Bryan J. Williams, chairman of the foundation, presided at the business session and announced that by the recently mailed vote by members, Victor Hudman, J. E. Fotts, and Giles Dalby, all had been re-elected to three year terms on the foundation's board of directors.

Williams emphasized that the foundation has a five-year program under way for seeking new industry for this community, that the foundation is now well organized and staffed and with the industrial factbook as an essential "tool" is now prepared to concentrate its full efforts on industrial contacts.

Harold Lucas, treasurer of the foundation, gave a financial report during the session. Williams said that the foundation's pledges for the second year of operation will become due Nov. 15.

Approximately 40 of the foundation's 55 members attended the dinner which was catered by Jackson Cafe and Cafeteria.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1967

New factbook will help industry hunt

The Post Industrial Foundation held its first annual membership dinner meeting last Thursday night at which copies of Post's first-year Industrial Factbook were distributed to members.

It's a professionally-styled book which contains all the pertinent industrial information about Post, complete with multi-color picture pages and maps and includes all necessary information on eight industrial sites here in Post which are available for industrial development.

It's a real accomplishment of Tom McKeown, executive director of the foundation. It now will go into distribution to only prime industrial prospects for this community.

It's a "1967" of industry hunting and one of the prime essentials to do the job. Packed into the book is every conceivable type of information about Post which an industrialist would want to know.

It is attractively and factually presented. The factbook is divided for easy reference into the following divisions: community information, utilities, transportation, taxes, raw materials, labor, recreation, and sites.

The factbook is, of course, only a tool, though not an easy one to come by nor an inexpensive one either. It does not guarantee the "catching" of any industry.

But it is such a prime tool in the business of industry hunting that the foundation decided in July to delay further contacts with industry until the book could be completely assembled and printed.

McKeown, as the membership meeting last week, reported on the many contacts he already has established with good industrial prospects.

Veterans Day—Saturday, Nov. 11

Saturday, Nov. 11, is Veterans Day, and once again Garza County and the nation will observe a day of significance to all Americans, and honor the memory of veterans of all wars.

We should reaffirm our pledge not to forget the dead who have served this great nation. Their contributions can never be forgotten. And may the citizens of America remember the sacrifices and contributions of all living veterans who have conducted themselves with gallantry and courage in wartime to preserve our heritage of freedom, and further that we pay tribute to those valiant soldiers who are still striving to attain the ultimate goal of world peace.

In the last week, 15,000 servicemen and women have become veterans, swelling the number of living veterans we honor today to more than 26 million.

Have you ever counted up to 26 million? Of course not. Undoubtedly, no human being has. Someone has estimated it would take 26 weeks of eight hour counting days, and no coffee breaks or weekends off, just to count to 26 million.

Then how do you honor 26 million veterans? Obviously not individually, much as we might like to salute each veteran personally, from the youngest veteran of Vietnam to the oldest campaigner of the Spanish American War, and give him our share of the nation's gratitude for patriotic services rendered.

We must never allow the figure of 26 million

Your vote counts only when cast

Every citizen who is eligible to vote is urged to go to the polls Saturday and vote for or against each of the six proposed amendments to our State Constitution.

The proposed amendments vary in importance, perhaps, but each of them has some points of interest to every Texan and deserves his careful consideration and vote.

Because our Constitution is the instrument

The meeting closed with the reminder of Bryan J. Williams, chairman of the foundation, that but the first year has been completed on a five-year program of "industry hunting" and that while a solid foundation has been laid, the real work of the foundation is just getting rolling.

The community can well take pride in this first year's effort. The foundation has been properly organized, financed, and staffed. The factbook has been published under McKeown's direction with the direct help of many community-spirited individuals.

Initial contacts have been established and the program of work organized.

Industry hunting, step by step, is not page 1 news because it is so highly competitive.

The men and women who have put up their own money in the effort to see this community grow and prosper are being kept fully informed, by meetings and letters.

The foundation is open to new members who want to stand up and be counted for progress. Directors meet regularly to establish policies and make essential decisions on the choice of directions for our program of industry hunting to take.

What has been established here in Post in the last year is comparable to the industrial seeking program of any large city.

It's a tough, competitive business which deserves the full support of every citizen whether or not he or she is a member of the foundation.

We are now "off and running," as the cliché goes. Offer your help in every way possible and any possible information on any industrial developments will be welcomed by McKeown and carefully checked out.—JC veterans to become commonplace

Since we can never hope to meet and greet that many individuals, individually, let us study other ways of coming closer to them.

Our veterans live in all of the 50 states and the District of Columbia. One hundred and thirty thousand live in outlying areas of the United States: in Puerto Rico, the Canal Zone, Virgin Islands, American Samoa, Guam and in the Philippines. Forty-one thousand veterans live in foreign countries.

Three out of four of our veterans live in cities or suburban areas. One out of five lives in a rural, non-farm area. One out of 20 lives on a farm.

With their families and dependents, veterans make up about half of our national population. If public concern expresses the heart of our democracy, how much more so do our veterans themselves? In all, since our founding days, some 38 million men and women have participated in our national conflicts, through Sept. 30, 1966. A million and two thousand of them made the supreme sacrifice. The 26 million we salute today remain the living symbol of the life pulse of our democracy.

To them, in the name of all who served, we can today stretch out the hand of gratitude.

Our very democracy pulses with the stout hearts of the veterans who fought that it might endure. We owe them far more than this Veterans Day of tribute. We owe them this day, which we ourselves are living, and enjoying!

New Pattern Sizing Changes to be introduced with January shipments

PATTERN SIZING CHANGES Pattern sizing is changing and seamstresses must take notice of the changes before buying a new pattern. The Pattern Fashion Industry is taking an important step to make pattern sizing more closely correspond to standard ready-to-wear sizing. The industry will introduce the new sizing beginning with the January 1968 - dates pattern shipment, arriving in stores early in November 1967. All major pattern companies, Butterick, McCall's, Simplicity and Vogue are adopting the new standard sizing. Even though the new sizing will be effective with the new shipments, not all patterns on the market will have new sizing, and until all of these have been sold, both types will be on the market. Thus, the seamstresses will have to be alert to which type sizing is on the pattern they are selecting. All the patterns with the new standard body measuring will be labeled with a red block with the words, "New Sizing," inside the block. Charts showing the new measurements and sizes will be in the pattern catalogs starting with the January 1968 - dates catalogs. As a general rule, a person will be buying one size smaller with the new sizing but should compare the measurement listed on the charts in the pattern catalog. The waistline in the new sizing is slightly smaller in proportion in the bust and hips than in the former sizing.

THE ENTIRE GAME at Denver City Friday night was built around their 14-0 loss to the Antelopes in 1966. From the way they carried it off over in Elephantland, you'd think Denver City had never lost a game before Post beat them last year. Coach Don Orr helped get his team good and ready by attaching a copy of The Post Dispatch's 1966 Victory Edition to the bulletin board in the Denver City dressing room. Just before the kickoff, three Denver City pep squad members paraded us and down the sidelines with a big sign reading, "Remember Last Year," and throughout most of the game the pep squad was chanting either, "Eat Your Heart Out, Antelope!" or "We Scored More!"

DON'T FORGET to vote Saturday!

One of our readers has brought in a clipping from Whitney Bolton's "Looking Sideways" column, in which Mr. Bolton writes on odd names of persons. He wrote that the name, Fice Mork, which someone had just sent him, topped that day's list.

OTHER ODD NAMES listed in Mr. Bolton's column include Percy Gnaw, Phyllis Wimpy, Ida Seltzer and Fiem Snopes.

I once started collecting odd names, but — as so often happens in my case — I got off onto something else before I assembled much of a collection. One name I particularly remember is Maggie Hollars. She was on our subscription list when I worked for the Brownfield News, and every time Maggie renewed her subscription, it threw the News force into stitches. I also recall a grocery store clerk in Hominy, Okla., whose name was Miles Loner. He made Robert L. Ripley's "Believe It or Not" column.

WHEN I WAS in high school, there was a girl in my class named Helen Summer, and somewhere down in the lower grades there was a Cassie Casebeer.

The way parents are naming children nowadays, there's no telling what odd names will be in the news a few years hence. They'll have to on some, though, to beat Fice Mork, Bascom Slemple, et al.

Atomic energy and its uses to be discussed

Atomic energy and its uses will be demonstrated at Post High School on Nov. 17. The demonstration, "Atomic Energy World," a demonstration designed by the Energy Commission, will present Post students with basic principles of nuclear energy, its uses and role in industry, agriculture and medicine. A 40-minute program conducted by Donald V. Jensen is sponsored by Texas A&M and Oak Ridge Associated Universities. The student terms, Jensen describes structure of atoms, fission, reactors and fusion. Spectrometry will show radiation levels, how nuclear energy is used for electrical power, and life process studies using isotopes. A blackboard talk to Post science classes, he will discuss structure, radioactivity, biology and nuclear energy careers in more detail. Jensen is a Youngstown University graduate, earned a masters degree at A&M and trained in Oak Ridge, Tenn., Institute of Studies.

Students from Lubbock visit sites of interest

Approximately 38 fourth and fifth grade students from St. Christopher's School in Lubbock, accompanied by their teachers and school superintendent, visited Post Mills and other places of interest here Wednesday of last week. They were greeted at the mill by Dick Dickson, personnel manager, who showed them a color film, "Mr. Weaver," a history of the mill. The group was shown a color slide tour of the mill by Julius Tanner, and were introduced to Louie Burkes, manager. The students visited the county courthouse, where County Clerk Carl Cederholm showed them the record vault and explained its purpose. County Judge J. E. Parker showed them the county courtroom and made a talk on court procedure. The group was shown through the county jail by Deputy Sheriff Bob Adkinson. At the Texas Highway Department resident engineer's office, the group viewed an aerial map of Post and were shown highway planning in progress by Mrs. Allen

Maddox and John T. Tatum. During the students' tour of the city, they saw historical markers at the mill, the courthouse and the highway department with Mrs. A. C. Surman, chairman of the Garza County Historical Survey Committee, explaining each of the sites. Before leaving the highway department, each visitor was given a place mat, a copy of the new Post Industrial Foundation brochure and a 1967 Texas Highway Map. The group presented Mrs. Surman and Resident Highway Engineer Julian F. Smith with copies of the book, "Games Christians Play."

7th grade students write on origin and history of the English language

(Seventh grade students have studied a few days on the history of the English language. Following are the viewpoints of two of the students.)
THE ORIGIN OF ENGLISH
By Bill Hudman
English is a language. It is a hard language to understand and use properly. In fact, it is the hardest. This is because of its many rules and the many languages it is made up of. Languages such as French, German, Latin, Anglo-Saxon, etc., make up English. English is fun to study. The languages you study may be more fun than others. When studying languages, you become a linguist. Linguistics is the study of words. Well, that's all I have to say about English. I'm going to end my story and leave you with this thought: Happy linguistics study!
HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE
By Deborah Hundley
Everybody is a linguist, because they study about words and their origins. The reason we have so many different words from other countries is because of those from other countries coming in and us picking up some word they said. Take, for instance, "toru." It's a Japanese word. Probably some Japanese came to America and used the word. Some Americans would have taken it into their vocabulary and used it as a gateway — which is what it means. In the English language there are around 300,000 words. A grown-up will usually have a vocabulary of 100,000. It would take a very long time to tell about all the interesting things of the history of the English language.

THANKS POST CITIZENS

Dear Editor:
We would like to take this method to inform you, and the citizens of Post, of the generosity of some of your citizens the weekend of Oct. 21, 1967. Some Killeen Jaycees and their wives were en route to Amarillo early Saturday morning, Oct. 21, when they had bus trouble and returned to Post, Mr. R. C. Stark, Post Police Department, immediately came to our aid. He told us where the bus stops were, took people for coffee, and offered his assistance for any of our needs. He informed the South bound bus of our circumstances and asked him to inform the North bound driver that he would have a number of passengers for Amarillo. The North bound bus did not stop so Mr. Stark pursued it and had the driver come back to Post and pick up eight of the 12 passengers.

The other four people remained with the bus in hopes the necessary repairs could be made when the Post businesses opened and the bus could proceed to Amarillo. Mr. Stark kept check on this group all night. He gave them names of Post Jaycees and informed Mr. Frank Blanton, upon his return to Post from Amarillo, of the situation of the Killeen Jaycees. Mr. Blanton immediately came to the location, took members for coffee, and offered his home to the Killeen group for the remainder of the night. His offer was declined at that time. He made several checks on the group after the businesses opened to see if he could be of assistance and if the bus could be repaired locally. Shortly after 8 a. m. Wilson's Brothers Garage came and towed the bus to their garage and checked it out to see if they could repair it that day. After it had been determined that the parts were not available and that the group would have to abandon the bus, Mr. Blanton loaded the group, bag and baggage, in his car to see about bus schedules to Amarillo. Upon learning that it was about four and a half hours before the next bus to Amarillo he turned his car and his home over to the four and suggested they accompany him to Amarillo after work that day. Needless to say they accepted. Had it not have been for all of the courtesies extended by Wilson's Brothers Garage, Mr. Stark, Mr. Blanton, as well as other Post citizens, it would have been a very difficult 16 hours for the group. Instead, it was a most enjoyable experience. Again, may I express my appreciation for all the assistance given and all of the courtesies extended. Yours very truly,
Neal Young, President,
Killeen Jaycees

BURGLARS MENACE HOMES
Burglary is one of the fastest growing crimes in Texas, according to the Association of Texas Fire and Casualty Companies, which says that many home burglaries could be avoided if home owners would lock their windows and doors adequately and take other common sense precautions to reduce vulnerability to burglary.

HIGH SCHOOL EDITORIAL

Are You Planning for the Future?

Have you ever sat down and really thought about what you want to do in the future? I'm sure if you are a senior you have contemplated this many times. Many of you enrolled in high school today will attend college within the next few years; but many will not have the opportunity because of cost and crowdedness of the colleges. Today in our quickly changing world, a college education is a must if you want a good job in the future. There are some of you that are saying now, "If I can only make it through graduation from high school, I won't have to go to school anymore." You may think that going to school is all there is to it, but did you know that no matter how old you may become, it will still be necessary for you to increase your knowledge to keep up with the current events. It may be through reading the daily newspaper or the most recently published book; whatever the case may be, you will still need extra knowledge for something! This is why it is so necessary for you to "buckle down and get all you can while the gettin' is good." Nine weeks have now passed in the school year, only 27 weeks left to go! Are you preparing yourself for the future by doing all you can today?—Emily Potts, Editor.

'Man and the Universe' is exposition theme for HemisFair 1968

SAN ANTONIO — Many of the visitors to HemisFair 1968 will have a fascinating and educational introduction to the world around them through the medium of the exposition's theme gallery "Man and the Universe."

The 26,000 square foot exhibit examines the various ways in which man throughout his history has experienced the universe. It will attempt to communicate some ideas about these experiences by creating a series of moods through which the visitor will pass.

Purpose of the exhibit is not so much to teach the visitor about the universe as it is to let him feel about it in the same ways that particular men have felt at particular times — men such as Copernicus, Kepler, Galileo and the Babylonian, Egyptian and Aztec astronomers who discovered many of today's principles of celestial navigation.

The exhibit, divided into the introduction and six subsequent sections, takes visitors from pre-history darkness to the space age. Each major phase in man's development of knowledge of the world around him will be examined and explored.

The final section will deal with man's leap into space and its consequences.

Most sportsmen not litterbugs

AUSTIN — Sportsmen are just what their names imply when it comes to littering, a survey conducted by Keep America Beautiful, Inc., revealed. Outdoor sportsmen were blamed for only 5 per cent of the litter defacing rural areas.

Picnickers were blamed for 25 per cent of the litter and motorists for 70 per cent.

Adults were the most frequent litterbugs with teenagers running second at 42 per cent and children at 8 per cent. The persons interviewed were litter prevention leaders in all states. They characterized the typical litterbug as a "careless, thoughtless, inconsiderate person."

HERE ARE SOME FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW:

If you have well matured cottonseed, you can catch your own seed at the gin, have them delinted, treated with panogen, put in bags and stored until planting time for seven to eight cents per pound or saw delinted for about four to five cents per pound.

This would amount to a 10 CENT PER POUND SAVING or more on your planting seed costs! We also have a good selection of certified seeds.

A Pointed Poem

An inch won't make you very tall
 You've got to keep on growing!

One little ad won't do it all,
 You've got to keep it going.

One step won't take you very far,
 You've got to keep on walking.

One word won't tell folks who you are,
 You've got to keep on talking.

A constant drip of water
 Wears away the hardest stone.

And, the dog that keeps on gnawing
 Masticates the toughest bone.

The constant-cooling laver,
 Carries off the blushing maid,

And the constant advertiser
 Is the one who gets the trade!

It's My Turn

— By MRS. C.

Well, we have Halloween and the Denver City (dra! 'em) game behind us and Texas Tech has Rice behind them.

The only thing we don't have out of the way, apparently, is this gosh-awful weather. I know there are a few "queer" people who like this dreary, droopy weather but obviously they are "sick."

The C's moved to this country because of the sunshine and if it doesn't appear on the scene mighty soon, I might just move right out.

However, one must write a column regardless of the weather and try to be bright and gay and humorous.

The only humorous thing I know concerns a first grade student in the Post schools. Once a year picture-trading time rolls around and seldom do the children have enough pictures to exchange with everyone. This enterprising student couldn't quite make up his mind what to do, with the demand being more than the supply. He solved it quite nicely by selling his photos, figuring if his classmates really wanted one they'd be glad to pay for it. He also had collected a couple which other little boys wanted badly—of girls, naturally—so he made slight monetary deals on these too.

His parents, needless to say, are rather embarrassed about the whole thing! I think he will go far in the world of finance.

I don't want you all to think I'm going to make it a practice to say nice things about certain people in this column but I just have to comment on Tina McAllister, daughter of our Postmaster A. J. and Loryze Lou. Tina brought a report in last week about the Fourth and Fifth Grade 4-H Club meeting. There is nothing remarkable about a child bringing in a report for us to print in the paper but the way she did it was remarkable.

If you'll remember the wind was blowing at full strength, bringing with it a bit of sand, last Tuesday afternoon and everyone on the south side of Main Street was having door-trouble all day. Many adults passed through our door and very few of them had enough sense to pull the door shut behind them. Consequently I spent most of the day picking up things off the floor whenever the door was left standing open.

Tina arrived on the scene after school. I saw her coming and thought to myself, "Get ready to catch everything!" I should have saved the thought because Tina marched in, firmly shut the door behind her, greeted us all brightly, said she had some news for the paper if we'd like to have it, handed it to Mr. Didway, thanked us all kindly for printing it and ducked out of the door fast, again firmly pulling the door shut.

That cute, bright young lady is going to go far, too.

Mrs. C is going to go far too if the sun doesn't pop out soon. Enough is enough and I've had it. UGH!

Miss Virginia Grove of Sevier was the main speaker and chose the topic: "The Builders — Past, Present, and Future."

SYD CONNER
Garza County Agent

PROPER HARVESTING ESSENTIAL FOR QUALITY COTTON

With so much emphasis at present on the production of quality cotton, farmers in Garza County should examine closely their harvesting operations.

The agent lists the following pointers as key factors for a proper harvest:

1. Lint moisture should be down to about eight per cent. This point is reached when the relative humidity in the field is 60 per cent or below. Moisture can also be checked by collecting a few locks of cotton and squeezing them together in the palm of the hand. If the cotton balls up, it is too moist. If it fluffs out, it is dry enough for harvesting.

2. Strippers should be checked carefully to assure that they are properly adjusted and green boll separators should be operating efficiently.

3. Seed cotton should not be stored in bales if the moisture level is above 12 per cent. Seed quality will also be reduced drastically if stored with a high amount of trash.

4. Seed cotton should be grouped or separated when any difference in quality is suspected. Grouping should be based on variety, irrigation or dryland, disease or insect damage, hail damage, lint moisture and planting date.

All these items make for more orderly, efficient ginning as well. Such problems as mix-packs or two-sided bales, over-drying and ginning at improper moisture levels can thus be minimized. Ginners, thus far, have been doing a commendable job with the block ginning program.

All in all, with farmers and ginners working closely together, the outlook for quality cotton production in Garza County looks promising.

CLEAN SPRAYERS, DUSTERS
Sprayers should be given special care prior to storage for the winter months. It can add years to their useful life.

All pesticide materials should be cleaned from the equipment by washing or other means, and moving parts should be lubricated. Some parts may need to be disassembled for proper cleaning.

After the last spraying job in the fall, nozzles and strainers (screens) should be soaked in kerosene. Run a wire through the spray rods and rinse the hoses. Clean hoses should be stored where they will not crack or freeze.

Before putting a clean power sprayer away for the winter, we recommend putting at least a pint of oil in the tank, filling it with water and starting the pump. As the water is discharged, a thin coating of oil covers the inside of the tank, pump, valves and circulating system. The sprayer should be completely drained and then stored in a dry place.

All slip joints should be given a protective coating in the fall before storing for the winter period. Equipment should be completely dry and clean at the time of storage so that it will be ready for use next spring.

And finally, it is a good idea to follow the suggestions in the operator's manual on cleaning and storing equipment.

STORAGE OF CHEMICALS

Left over agricultural chemicals should be properly stored during the winter months for several reasons. They can be used next year and thus reduce crop costs if they are properly stored.

Wettable powders or dusts should be kept in a cool, dry place. Bales should be sealed to keep out moisture. Lids on cans should be closed tightly and, if holes have been punched to make a dust dispenser, tape should be used to seal the holes.

Liquid materials should be stored in the original labeled containers because either the carrier or active ingredient may be corrosive to other metal containers or other lids of glass containers. All bottles or cans containing liquids should be tightly sealed to prevent loss of activity by vaporization.

These products should also be stored in a cool place where the temperature does not make extreme changes. If the label has become faded or torn, it may be a good idea to copy the vital information and attach it to the container along with the old label.

All unlabeled material should be discarded immediately. But, he adds, dispose of the material with safety in mind. Burying at a depth of about 18 inches is a safe method of disposal, advises the county agent.

Whether the materials to be carried over are in small or rather large amounts, they should be stored under lock and key.

Vet's Forum

Q. I am the widow of a World War I veteran. I understand that I may be entitled to a higher pension because I am in need of help to get around the house. Is this true? What must I do to get this increased pension?

A. A provision of the Veterans' Pension and Readjustment Assistance Act of 1967, which went into effect October 1, says that "if any widow is entitled to pension . . . and is in need of regular aid and attendance, the monthly rate of pension payable to her shall be increased by $50." To obtain this pension you should call or write the Veterans Administration office nearest you. It would help if you could send the VA a letter from your doctor explaining why you need regular aid and attendance.

Q. I am a World War II veteran. Does the new G. I. Bill which went into effect on Oct. 1, 1967, extend my eligibility for a G. I. home loan to July 25, 1970?

A. Not necessarily. The Veterans' Pension and Readjustment Assistance Act of 1967 extended the final cutoff date for certain veterans to July 25, 1970 — your deadline for using your G. I. home loan entitlement depends upon your date of discharge from service and the length of time you served in the Armed Forces.

The formula for computing the deadline for your entitlement is 10 years from date of discharge, plus one year for each three months of wartime active duty. If your entitlement expired under this formula before July 26, 1967, it is not extended by the new law.

If you were discharged from the Armed Forces for a service-connected disability, you have until July 25, 1970, to use your G. I. loan benefit.

Widows of World War II servicemen or veterans whose deaths were due to military service received the same extension.

Check with your nearest VA office.

Revenge-bent Ponies swamp Post, 90 to 0

They remembered last year

The Post Antelopes, finding themselves the victims of circumstances — growing out of something that took place Oct. 21, 1966 — were overwhelmed by the Denver City Mustangs, 90 to 0, last Friday night before a chilled homecoming crowd at Denver City.

Coach Don Orr's Mustangs, evidently fed on a daily diet of "revenge pills" for at least a week preceding the game, were geared to the gills, and delighted the Denver City fans with their 90-0 answer to the 14-0 defeat pinned on them here last year by the Antelopes.

Denver City fans for "at least 100 points." He showed mercy by playing the Mustang reserves on offense throughout the second half and by attempting two field goals on first downs late in the fray.

It was only the second time in Denver City football history that the Big Red had racked up as many as 90 points. In 1960, when the Mustangs went on to win the state AA championship, they scored 90 points against Slaton, but Slaton scored six points of their own in that game.

The statistics in Friday night's Post - Denver City game were nearly as one-sided as the score. The Mustangs netted 390 yards rushing and 88 passing for a net yardage total of 478 yards, while the Antelopes netted 91 yards on the ground and none in the air.

'Blue Ribbon City' award announced

Post has a chance to become a "Blue Ribbon City."

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce announced its new "Blue Ribbon City Award" program at the organization's 14th annual Industrial Conference held Wednesday at Big Spring. The announcement was made and the awards program explained by John Ben Sheppard of Odessa, chairman of the Small Town Economic Progress (STEP) team.

Development, Industrial Development, Beautification, Education, Local Government and Parks and Recreation.

To receive an achievement award in any of these categories the participating city must meet the standards established by the criteria committees. A point system to differentiate between cities of varied sizes has been devised in order that all cities have equal chances to qualify.

All incorporated cities in West Texas with population under 12,000 will be eligible to participate in the awards program. Six categories have been set up, with criteria established for achievement goals. These categories are Tourist Development, Industrial Development, Beautification, Education, Local Government and Parks and Recreation.

Appropriate awards will be given upon achievement of the goals in any category and upon the completion of goals in all six of the categories the city will be designated a Blue Ribbon City, a beautiful road sign will be provided to advertise the city as one of excellence, public award ceremonies will be held, and recognition of the city's achievement will be made at WTCC meetings, in news media, etc.

New Mexico man ends visit with brothers

R. A. Crider returned to his home at Socorro, N. M., Monday after a few days' visit here with his brother Walter Crider, and at Midland with another brother, Lewis Crider.

Mr. Crider, who is a retired school administrator, also attended a rock show at Midland.

One of the visitor's sons, Norman Crider, recently won the world's championship twirling trophy in Italy. Mr. Crider said Norman had left Paris, France, Oct. 14 for Boston twirling appearances in Japan. He also said that another son, Maj. Terence Crider, left the U.S. on Oct. 14 for a tour of duty in Germany after having served in Vietnam.

Assistance will be provided to all participating cities in the form of speakers teams and verification teams to check out the total points earned in each category.

"Whatever your occupation, you will benefit from a restored Veterans Land Program," the Slaton men said.

8th grade team defeats Tahoka

The Post 8th grade football team defeated Tahoka, 8-0, last Thursday at Tahoka in a game played in a cold north wind, which blew at from 25 to 30 miles an hour.

Tahoka returned the opening kickoff to their 20, and on a punt exchange, Kyle Josey kicked to the Tahoka five-yard line. Tahoka picked up a first down then, with the aid of the wind, got off a punt to the Post 10.

The Antelopes drove 90 yards for the game's only touchdown, which came with David Hart bootlegging to the right from the 30-yard line after a fake sweep to the left. Danny Vargas scored the extra points on a run around right end.

Vargas kicked to the Tahoka 40, with no runback. At the end of the half, Post was on the Tahoka nine-yard line with a second down and goal.

Post, facing the wind, received to open the second half. They drove to the Tahoka 30 before running out of downs. Neither team threatened seriously during the third quarter.

Post dominated play during most of the fourth quarter and had the ball on the Tahoka five-yard line with a first down and goal when the game ended.

Tahoka's only serious threat was in the first quarter when they got to the Post 35.

Fine defensive play by Zachary, McKemie, Bush, Shumard, Cerda and Eilenberger swamped the Tahoka ball carrier behind the line of scrimmage on practically every play. The defensive secondary of Hart, Vargas, Tyler, Woods and Owen allowed no completed passes the entire game.

All suited - up squad members played. Jimmy Smith was out of the game due to an injured arm received in practice Tuesday.

The 8th grade team, coached by Bud Davis, finished the season with a 4-2-1 record, which was a good season for a group of boys who lost seven straight games as 7th graders.

The 8th grade team won from O'Donnell twice, 18-6 and 23-14, Slaton, 16-15, and Tahoka, 8-0. They tied Lockney, 0-0, lost to Slaton, 6-28, and to Tahoka, 18-22.

The 8th grade squad numbered 36 when the season started and 32 were suited out for the final game last Thursday.

Horned Frogs to host Red Raiders

LUBBOCK — The Texas Tech Red Raiders, striving to keep their heads above water in the tight Southwest Conference race, journey to Fort Worth Saturday to battle the Texas Christian Horned Frogs.

Breaking out of the shell which has plagued the Frogs all year, TCU got its offensive machine working and rang up a total of 537 yards on the Baylor cash register, downing the Bears 29-7 in Waco last week.

Halfback Ross Montgomery bulled in for four touchdowns and shredded the Baylor defense for 213 yards to help TCU snap an eight-day losing streak which began in the Texas game last year. Ironically, TCU's last victory came over the Bears.

Correspondent and family take trip

By FRAN McWHIRT
Well, here it is time again to attempt writing the weekly news. I don't have much news, as your correspondent left Friday afternoon and didn't get home until late Sunday afternoon, just in time to go to church. Robert and Danny and I went by Albany and my parents, the Frank Breedens, accompanied us to Arlington. It was very cold down there Saturday morning with ice all over the windshields. But Sunday was a beautiful day with the sun shining. It was perfect for the Dallas Cowboy game. While there we visited Mr. and Mrs. Douglas McWhirt of Hurst, Mr. and Mrs. Dan McWhirt, Mr. and Mrs. Butch McFee and son and Mr. and Mrs. Jackey Fluit and Bobo McWhirt at Arlington. We also saw our niece and nephew, Johnny and Zelda Frazier, at the gate to Six Flags. They were there with a school group from Waco. In all, we had a lovely weekend.
Mrs. Cameron Justice was a patient from Wednesday until Saturday in Highland Hospital in Lubbock for tests. We are glad you are home, Maudie, and do wish you a very speedy recovery.
Mrs. Lee Reed was in Taboka and Slaton Wednesday.
Mrs. Riley Miller and children attended the Fluvanna Carnival.
Mrs. Winnie Tuffing and Mrs. Jack Burress went to Woodson to a school homecoming Friday and Saturday. Saturday afternoon they drove to Gorman to visit with an aunt, Mrs. Dave Ramsay, and came home that night.
Monday visitors of E. M. Woodard were his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Merrell of Lubbock.
Mrs. Sam Bevers and Glenna and Mrs. Douglas McWhirt and Danny were Wednesday night visitors of Mrs. Dale Dozier and children.
Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Hank Lynn of Petersburg and his parents and sister of Bokchito, Okla., visited Mrs. Bud McLaurin.

Mrs. Henry Key and Mrs. Hern Pettigrew of Slaton were medical visitors in Lubbock Friday.
Mrs. Fernie Reed and sons visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Cornett, in Lamesa Saturday and spent the night.
Saturday visitors in the Billy Blacklock home were Mr. and Bandy Cash, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Pettigrew, Mr. and Mrs. Don Robinson, Henry Key and Milton Woodard.
J. K. Jones of Midland was a Saturday visitor in the Sam Bevers' home.
Pearl Nance was in Slaton Wednesday and was an overnight guest of the Dean Gillilands.
Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Reed Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. Imon Newman and the John Boren family.
WE WOULD like to welcome Donnie and Sandra Cole to our community. They have moved into Eugenia Odom's house. We are very glad to have you live here.
Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Franklin were weekend visitors in Jal, N.M., with their son and family, the Harold Franklins. They attended the district football game there on Friday night.
Sunday visitors of Mrs. Lee Reed were Mr. and Mrs. Bandy Cash and the Weldon and Fernie Reed families. Fernie had just returned from deer hunting in Colorado and reports his hunt was very successful.
Mr. and Mrs. Hern Pettigrew of Slaton and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Pettigrew visited the Henry Keys Sunday.
Tuesday night visitors in the Riley Miller home were the Weldon Reed and John Boren families and Mrs. Douglas McWhirt and Danny.
Our sympathy goes out to our pastor's wife, Patricia Welch, again this week. Her grandmother passed away in California Saturday and a week ago Sunday her grandfather died at Paducah.

Mrs. Fernie Reed was hostess of a bridge party Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Jewell Reed. Luncheon was served to Mrs. Douglas McWhirt, Riley Miller, and Mason Justice.

It's the Law...

TIPS AND TAXES

The cab driver, the tips he receives are just friendly gestures to his grateful passengers. The government tried to impose income tax on this money, but the courts have ruled against it.

Are not income in that they are merely gifts. If passengers don't have to tip if they don't want to. It is voluntary.

The court held that the tips are voluntary, were indeed income. The court pointed out that the tips were paid not as a gift of charity or personal affection, but as an extra reward for service.

Does the government demand money that you receive as a gift, hence non-taxable, or as a tip, hence taxable? The intent with which the money is received is what counts. It will not qualify as a gift if it is really a form of compensation for value received or exchanged.

A company's "wedding" party where an employee was held to a party. Reason: the money was actually a reward for his long and loyal service.

The rule applies not only to tips but also to merchandise. If you had to pay income tax on a gift given to you by a friend for whom he had done a favor—and might be expected to do more in the future, it may still qualify as a gift. If that is the true intent. For example, if you gave checks to a friend for services rendered, it would be "gratuitous"—thus, true gifts. In the case of a pastor, the gift because of ill health, the congregation found out and gave financial difficulties. The pastor tried to send an annual report to his congregation.

The government tried to impose tax on this money. The court declared it a non-taxable gift. The court said it was a gift because of the "gratuitous" nature of the gift, but only because of the "gratuitous" nature.

The Sportsman's Corner

FATHERS AND SONS

In the years between 8 and 14, when so many boys begin drifting away from their fathers, there's no better sport than hunting—an area where Dad is the "old pro"—for bridging the gap between the generations.

Hunting is a part of every boy's natural affinity for the woods. As he learns the ways of wild creatures and emulates his father's love of the out-of-doors, you'll see a look of wonder in his eyes that nothing can equal.

Most communities today have rifle ranges sponsored by groups such as the Boy Scouts, YMCA, PAL or 4-H. You can start your son on the fundamentals of shooting at one of these facilities. With a good single shot 22 caliber rifle, such as Remington's Model 580 bolt action model—specially suited for the beginner—and proper guidance, your son joins you in a sport of lifetime satisfaction.

CRIME OF OPPORTUNITY

Almost two-thirds of those arrested for automobile theft are teenagers, points out the Association of Texas Fire and Casualty Companies. Removing the ignition key and locking car doors greatly reduces the opportunity for a theft, particularly by youngsters.

Burlington Industries reports drop in sales, earnings for fiscal 1967

NEW YORK — Burlington Industries, Inc. today reported consolidated net sales of $1,364,574,000 for its 1967 fiscal year ended Sept. 30. This compares to 1966 fiscal year sales of $1,371,605,000.

Net earnings for the year were $56,243,000, equal to $2.30 per share on 25,312,000 common shares outstanding Sept. 30. For the previous year, net earnings were $77,094,000 or $3.06 per share.

Sales for the Company's final quarter (three months ended Sept. 30) were $346,605,000, compared to sales of $329,650,000 for the period last year. Net earnings for the quarter were $15,090,000 equal to 59 cents per share, compared to earnings of $16,579,000 or 64 cents per share for the period a year ago.

Charles F. Myers Jr., president, noted that the company's current business is showing definite improvement. "Orders for future business are being booked in increasing volume and at better prices," he said, "and we expect the first half earnings of our 1968 fiscal year to show improvement over the same period in 1967."

Results for 1967 are subject to confirmation by the Company's auditors.

A regular quarterly dividend of 30 cents per share, payable Dec. 1 to shareholders of record Nov. 3 was declared by the Burlington Board of Directors, meeting in New York.

Rites held for sister of Southland residents

By MRS. EDMUND WILKE
Hello friends and neighbors, it is so good to be back again this week. It is a mite cold here at Southland, but, I for one, kinda like the cold weather. Of course, I am not out in it very much, so that does make a difference.

We would like to extend our deepest sympathy to two families of this community. Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lancaster, whose sister, Mrs. Alvie Foster, passed away early last Monday morning. Her funeral was held at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday at the Chapel Hill Baptist Church and she was laid to rest in Resthaven Memorial Park at Lubbock. Mrs. Foster was the sister of Mr. Taylor and Mrs. Lancaster. May God be with these families during their time of sorrow.

Howton Haire is very ill in Mercy Hospital. May God be with him and his family during this time and always.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Voight, former residents, are the proud grandparents of a big boy born Oct. 29 to Glen and Nancy Best. The boy, who has been named Michael Glen, weighed in at 7 lbs., 4 ozs. Mr. Best is serving with Uncle Sam's army and has been in Vietnam, but at the present is home on a 30-day leave. Our sincerest congratulations go out to all of you.

Recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Denton were Bill Dial, Lubbock; Mrs. Rene Mae Samples of California; Mrs. Maudie Hallman of the Hackberry community; Mrs. Nava James Snyder; Mrs. J. J. Witt; San Angelo; Ben and Mrs. Eddie Fortson, Duncannon, and Ben and Mrs. Hill and son.

Cleo and Mrs. Ed Denton visited Mrs. Viola Pruitt in Slaton Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rackler Jr. and Jeffery of Waco spent the weekend here visiting relatives. They spent Friday night and Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Pete Rhoads in Slaton, and Saturday night and Sunday with the J. B. Racklers. Mrs. J. F. Rackler and Grandma Rhoads were Sunday dinner guests of the J. B. Racklers and in the afternoon the Rhoads visited in the Rackler's home.

Gray Francolins released in area

TYLER — The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department made its final release of gray francolins for the year when 223 birds were liberated recently in central Howard County, according to Joe Davidson, exotic bird specialist for the Department.

The Department used four different release sites.

Game Warden Royce Tucker of Big Spring said that gray francolins were released in 1966, and a good many of them have been sighted east of Big Spring. Four miles from where they were released.

The birds, native to India and Pakistan, were released in habitat conditions similar to dove feeding areas. Birds being released were hatched at the State Game Bird Farm in Tyler and have been held until most of the dove hunting season is over.

This is an experimental introduction and is intended to supplement one made earlier this year in the same area. Periodic checks are made on the release sites by Davidson to determine survival results.

"It's quite encouraging to find the birds establishing themselves in a new area," Davidson said.

The visitors returned to Waco Sunday night. Great-grandma Rackler said that little Jeffery is growing like a "water weed."

BEVERLY Rackler entertained a group of girls with a slumber (or slumberless) party in her home after the football game Friday. Attending were Glenna Moore, Nan Steen, Brenda Kirby, Marsha Kitten, Linda Meers, Doris Holder, Susan Love and Beverly. Bet that household got very little sleep!

Mrs. Virgie Roper visited Mrs. J. F. Rackler Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Basinger of Mercedes are here on business and visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Alice Martin recently returned from a trip to California where she visited her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Underwood, in Richmond, and friends in Oakley, Chico, Oakland and San Francisco. In San Francisco, Mrs. Martin visited the wax museum and other places of interest. Coming back on the train Mrs. Martin met a lady that grew up in the same place as she and Mrs. Martin knew this lady's father. Isn't it a small world?

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dabbs and Mrs. Alice Martin attended funeral services of Mrs. Alvie Foster in Lubbock Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Alice Martin took Mrs. Thelma Dabbs out to dinner at the Howard Johnson Restaurant in Lubbock Nov. 1 to help celebrate Thelma's birthday. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Billingsly.

Blanton Martin of Hart C a m p visited Mrs. Alice Martin Saturday on his way to Post to attend a funeral.

Five ladies from this community are taking art lessons in Slaton under the direction of Janice Robertson. They are Maggie Hallman, Thelma Dabbs, Mary Lois McNeely, Montie Huddleston and Alice Martin. They are having a lot of fun learning how to draw and paint. Wonderful!

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Becker and children of Brownfield spent Saturday night and Sunday in the Wilie Becker home.

Little David Becker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Junior Becker, has been on the sick list for several days. Hope he gets to feeling much better real soon.

Edmund and Yours Truly attended an area banquet of members of the Lutheran Church, which was held in the Redeemer Lutheran Church in Lubbock Sunday night. The banquet was held in observance of the 450th anniversary of the Reformation. Dr. Carl Heckmann of Austin, president of the Texas District of the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod, was guest speaker. Approximately 250 people attended.

DON ALTMAN son of Mr. and Mrs. Deamos Altman of Post, arrived home last Saturday on leave after serving as an M. P. with Uncle Sam's army overseas for quite sometime. After he reports back to duty he will be stationed in the States until his discharge.

Jackie Dunn of Austin was home for the weekend and attended the Southland Union football game and the Texas Tech homecoming. Three young ladies of this community celebrated their birthdays Saturday with one big party. The three are Janet Belk, Connie Ashire and Laura Bevers. Guests were Douglas Smallwood, Breonne Winterrowd, Joan Gindorf, S. J. Bevers, Joe Bevers, Cathy Long, Maria Shelton, Brenda Belk, Roy Belk, Mark Bevers, Darrell Hill and Wilma Brown. They all enjoyed a weiner roast with all the trimmings and topped off the meal with birthday cake, punch and iced tea.

Bye till next week.

Mexico's champion cowboys will be in action at Lubbock, Nov. 11-12

LUBBOCK — Mexico's champion cowboys, often billed as some of the world's greatest horsemen, will be in action during the National Mexican Rodeo at Municipal Coliseum here Nov. 11-12.

Headed by Mexican film star Toni Aguilar and his screen actress wife, Flor Silvestre, the troupe will present an 11-act program of exciting trick riding and roping, plus such traditional rodeo events as bronc busting and wild bull riding.

Border flavor of the event, Aguilar also will feature his own Mariachi band to provide background music.

Performances are scheduled at 8 p.m. Nov. 11 and 4 p.m. on Nov. 12. Tickets are priced at $3, and children will be admitted for one-half price, according to Hiram Parks, Lubbock producer.

Tickets may be obtained at Brook's Supermarket, Jimmie Lester's Drug Store or at all Pinkie's liquor stores here. Mail order requests may be mailed to the National Mexican Rodeo, Box 825, Lubbock 79401.

Mexican cowboys perform the same riding and roping feats as their American counterparts, but clock. They are scored on skill, grace and endurance.

In bull riding, for example, they are not picked up after an eight-second ride, but stay aboard until they signal to be taken off.

Among featured acts are "the pass of death" and "hangman's roping" events.

Aguilar, who has made 98 movies, and his actress wife, who has appeared in dozens, will be featured at both Lubbock performances.
