Bond assumption election ordered by school board

Oct. 11 set as balloting date

Post Independent School District trustees Monday night called a bond assumption election for the newly consolidated Post-Justiceburg school district for Monday, Oct. 11.

Voters of the combined district will decide in the "voting booths" whether property owners in the former Justiceburg school district will assume their share of the bonded indebtedness of the Post school district.

The Post district owes approximately $650,000 which is scheduled for a complete payout by 1981, although Supt. Bill Shiver points out that through "collection of delinquent taxes and margins of error in estimating percentage of tax collections," the school district already has accumulated an extra year's principal and interest payments.

Actually, the combined district votes on whether taxpayers in both districts are to assume the obligation of helping to pay for the other district's bonded indebtedness.

But since the Justiceburg school district had no bonded indebtedness what it actually amounts to is all the voters in the consolidated district voting to see if those in the former Justiceburg district will start paying next year to help retire the Post district's bonded indebtedness.

If voters do not approve of the bond assumption in the Oct. 11 election, Justiceburg taxpayers in the future will pay school taxes only for school operation.

At the present time 21.6 cents per $100 valuation is being paid for bonds and interest in the former Post school district.

The bond assumption voting place will be in the Post High School.

Supt. Shiver told school trustees at the September meeting that the combined district has received $5,504 from the general fund of the Justiceburg school district and $117.01 which was left in Justice-

MAYOR PROCLAIMS "BOOSTER DAY"

Mayor Giles C. McCrary signs a proclamation designating Friday "Post Antelope Booster Day."

Boost the 'Lopes Day this Friday

Friday has been designated "Antelope Booster Day" by proclamation of Mayor Giles C. McCrary, and Post Antelope Club.

The poster sale got under way at Tuesday night's "Meet the Antelopes" event with the auction of the three original posters drawn by Joe E. Taylor.

The three originals brought a total of $175, and copies of the posters were sold at the gate.

Ronald Simpson, booster club president, said Wednesday afternoon that a total of $694.95 was deposited to the booster club account from the sale of posters, fund-raising tickets, and ice cream at the "Meet the Antelopes" event, and that additional posters were sold Wednesday morning.

"Our goal is a poster in every store window by the end of the week," Simpson said.

The posters are selling at $2.50. One is given free with each annual booster club membership of $7.50. In proclaiming "Post Antelope Booster Day," Mayor McCrary called upon all citizens to "demonstrate their support of our high school and its athletic program through continued interest and assistance whenever and wherever possible."

FROM WATER DISTRICT

Verbena group seeks stock water supply

From the damaging 1971 drought go and a wire to get under before drought aid expires.

Under the federal program, federal money would pay 80 per cent of the pipeline's cost and the farmers and ranchers 20 per cent.

It looked for a while as if there was no White River water to be bought as the Post line was running virtually to capacity to move Post's water supply, plus all the water being purchased for waterflooding several Garza oil fields.

"But Buster Moreland and the George R. Brown oil interests took us off the hook," Wilks said, "when Moreland said he would shut off one of his waterflood in a k k wells to provide us with the stock water we needed."

Last Thursday night, directors of the White River Municipal Water District at their September meeting discussed the proposal for the group to purchase water for the first time and a four-man committee (See Verbena Group, page 8)

Larger store for White Auto here

Grant Lott has purchased the business building at 221 E. Main which has been occupied by Custom Upholstery from Nahum Sullivan and plans to move his White Auto Store into larger quarters sometime in October.

Lott plans some remodeling and repair work on the building before moving in. The new store will give him twice the room he has in his present leased building next door at 225 E. Main.

The local merchant purchased the White Auto Store two years ago last August and moved into Post from New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan, who have closed out the used furniture business, plan to move their upholstery shop to their rural home on top the Cap just east of U. S. Hwy. 84.

Emmett L. Duncan dies Wednesday

Emmett L. Duncan, 79, of 113 Ridge Road, a resident of Garza County since 1932, died about 2 p. m. Wednesday in Garza Memorial Hospital following a brief illness.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p. m. Friday at the Church of Christ with Syd Wyatt, minister, officiating. Burial will be in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Mason Funeral Home.

Born July 17, 1892 in Cannon County, Tennessee, Duncan was married to Miss Willie Haley on Dec. 25, 1910 at Woodbury, Tenn.

After moving to Garza County, the Duncans farmed west of town until his retirement in 1954.

Survivors include his wife; one daughter, Mrs. Mike Custer of Post; a brother, Coy Duncan of Muncie, Ind.; two sisters, Mrs. Flossie Brown and Miss Arah Duncan, both of Woodbury; two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be Chuck Gurley, W. H. Childs, L. A. Sparks, Paul Jones, Wallace Barnett, Punk Peel, Keith Kemp and Wayne Carpenter.

Rotary Club's banquet for teachers Tuesday

The Post Rotary Club will host Post teachers, school administrators and their husbands or wives at the club's annual Teacher Appreciation banquet next Tuesday night at 7 o'clock in City Hall. No speaker will be on the program, President Silas Short told Rotarians Tuesday.

TOP ROPERS ENTERED
Walter Arnold (left) and Olin Young are two of the 30 top ropers who will compete Oct. 2 in the first annual OS Ranch Steer Roping for the benefit of West Texas Boys Ranch. Arnold, a former Post cowboy, was world's champion steer roper in 1969 and is in the lead for the 1971 championship. Young of Peralta, N. M., has won more than $200,000 the last 15 years in steer and calf roping.

Funeral held for Mrs. Reba Mathis

Funeral services for Mrs. Reba R. Mathis, 50, who died about 5:30 p.m. Monday at her home west of Post in Lynn County after a brief illness, were here at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday in the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Mathis, the wife of Bishop Mathis, died of an apparent heart attack after suddenly becoming ill earlier in the day while en route home from a trip to Lubbock.

She was born April 11, 1921, in Howard County and was married to Bishop Mathis on Dec. 18, 1937, in Dawson County. They had resided in eastern Lynn County since 1937.

Survivors include her husband, a daughter, Mrs. David Boyd of Houston; a sister, Mrs. W. G. Mathis of Post; her stepmother, Mrs. Maude Robinson of Lamesa, and a granddaughter.

Mrs. Mathis had been a Baptist since childhood. (See Mathis Rites, page 8)

Memorial trophy will go to roping winner

A 36-inch high silver trophy, to be known as the G. W. Connell Memorial Trophy, will go to the winner of the first annual O. S. Ranch Steer Roping Sunday afternoon, Oct. 3, along with a major portion of the estimated $12,500 in prize money.

But the trophy must be won three times to become the permanent possession of any champion steer roper. Each annual winner will have his name engraved on its tall base.

The trophy was scheduled to arrive here today for display. The Garza County Benefit Association, which is sponsoring the steer roping as a benefit event for West Texas Boys Ranch at San Angelo, met last night to complete plans for the big two-day show now only two weekends away.

Not only will 30 of the top steer ropers of the country gather at the O. S. Ranch that Sunday afternoon for a financial showdown, but there also will be plenty of top flight calf roping Saturday afternoon.

A field of 45 calf ropers is expected for Saturday with the ropers each getting two calves. The (See Steer Roping, page 8)

Plans discussed for hosting boys

Jim Prather, head of the Garza County Benefit Association, discussed plans to host a group of boys from the West Texas Boys Ranch who will attend the O. S. Ranch Steer Roping, at a noon meeting of the Women's Division of the Post Chamber of Commerce Tuesday in the Reddy Room. Mrs. Ruby Kirkpatrick, president, presided.

Prather said he was extremely pleased with the numerous responses the Chamber had received from families wanting to have boys stay in their homes while here.

Mrs. Wynonne Kennedy, Chamber secretary, reported that all the boys from the ranch now have places to stay, and other boys had been asked for. The possibility of having a larger group of boys is being considered.

Mrs. Inez Hartel, club secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting and the members approved them.

Mrs. Kennedy gave the financial report for the club. Others attending the meeting were Ramona Brockman, Edith Ramsey, Marilyn Miller, Sue Shytles, Beanie Strawn, Wills Bidway, Betty Poser and Mrs. Mary and

ALSO PRINT JURY CARDS

Computer is to register voters

Garza County's new voter registration and new jury wheel is going to be strictly up to the minute — computerized.

The Garza County Commissioners Court this week at its September meeting entered into a three-year contract with Steck-Warlick Company to put their voter registration on computer.

County Judge Giles W. Dalby told The Dispatch yesterday the computer will provide 12 copies of the voter registration and even print up the cards for the jury wheel.

All this is going to cost something like 18 cents each for each first registration, 18 cents also for each new registration after that, 10 cents per year to keep them current, and a penny apiece for reading out the jury wheel cards.

Since the state pays the county 40 cents per registration, the new computer system will not cost the county any money. After the first year of getting everything going, it should make the county a little money.

SPAG elects Post mayor to office

Mayor Giles C. McCrary of Post was elected as one of the four vice presidents of the South Plains Association of Governments (SPAG) at the third annual general assembly meeting of the organization held Monday night in Lubbock.

Mayor McCrary was also chosen as a representative-at-large of SPAG's 15-county region.

Morris Turner, Lubbock city councilman, was elected president of SPAG to succeed Mayor Melidon Leslie of Tahoka. Other vice presidents elected were Arch L. Amb, Lubbock County Commissioner; Plainview Mayor Louis Thomas, and W. T. McKinney, Terry County judge.

County governor Post visit

Carroll Canyon, district governor of Rotary, flew into Post Tuesday afternoon with his wife for his official visit to the Post Chamber of Commerce.

Conferring with club officials at an assembly Monday afternoon, he addressed the club at its Tuesday and called on members to "carry the torch" of the Rotary load and responsibility.

Carroll's talk was foreworded by the Post Chamber of Commerce. James R. Bell, chairman of an all operator who moved back to Post.

Let's play them one at a time

Since it takes more than one game to make a season, we doubt that many fans have written the Post Antelopes off as "finished," just because they lost their first football game Friday night at Hale Center. We predict that the stands will be full Friday night for the Antelopes' home opener against Lockney.

A large number of Post fans made the trip to Hale Center last Friday night. Naturally they were disappointed when their team lost. But they couldn't have been as disappointed as the Antelopes themselves or as their coaches, who naturally wanted the team to get off to a good start, since all five coaches are new here.

The Friday night game at Hale Center left the season only one-tenth completed. There are nine games to go. The Antelopes and their coaches are going to play these remaining nine games one at a time. We think the fans should, too. That way, there is no telling how many of them we can win. —CD

Some hunters hurting selves

Another bird hunting season is here, but more and more hunters are finding themselves with less and less opportunity to pursue their favorite sport.

The public hunter is destined to go the same way as the Dodo bird and the dinosaur, and many believe they are digging their own grave with tin cans and plastic forks.

One veteran game officer has declared that more land is posted every year against hunters because of rubbish and debris than for any other reason—even shooting cows.

One can't blame landowners for being irate at having pastures littered with leftover lunches, shell casings and other products designed to comfort the hunter. The most careful man with a shotgun may be the most careless with his sandwich wrapper.

With the squeeze on for land on which to hunt, it becomes the well-heeled hunter who plunks down his cash for a chance to shoot. Leasing the land to those willing to pay doesn't insure the landowner his hunters won't litter, but they may want the hunting rights again next season.

With the plight of the free hunter growing steadily worse, hunting law infractions in some areas are also worsening. Shooting from roadways is the outlet the frustrated hunter without hunting rights may many times take.

Hunting from roadways is at best only dangerous to the hunter. Many innocent people are unknowingly in harm's way when the guns start blazing.

As long as there are men there will be those who hunt, for it is man's nature. It is saddening, however, that if current conditions are not corrected only a very few will be able to afford or able to find a place to ply their sport.

Hippie-youth revolt loses steam

Remember how, just a few years ago, some people here in Post used to get so upset when a band of hippies passed through town, especially if the hippies showed the least inclination to stop and camp in the vicinity.

Well, all that has passed. In fact, the hippie-youth revolt that threatened so many values cherished in our land is running out of steam. From California to New York there are fewer freak-outs, college rumbles, revolting parades, seizures of buildings, burnings and looting.

The recession has had something to do with the diminishing outbreaks. The cold breath of anxiety, resulting from an inability to get the jobs that were once not wanted, and the failure to receive continuing support from parents no longer desirous of financing waywardness and misery, are giving pause to the rebels.

The heavy hand of the law has also played a part. The rough treatment dealt out to the thousands who thought they would just walk in and disrupt the Congress of the United States opened some eyes among the insurgents.

The American withdrawal from Vietnam has also made anti-war demonstrations anachronous, if not obsolete. Of course, if surrender is really the aim of the leaders of these marches they may still have relevancy, but not to the rank and file. The main thing is that there is a pause. Let us hope for no resumption.

Let's observe Highway Week

Highway Week in Texas starts Sunday, Sept. 19, and continues through Sept. 25. The theme for this year's observance is "Roads and Streets—the Backbone of Total Transportation."

Post and Garza County are in a better position to observe Highway Week than most towns and counties their size population-wise. Located here is a State Highway Department warehouse serving a large area of the state.

In addition to a resident engineer's office and maintenance establishment.

All these local highway offices will hold open house for the public on Friday, Sept. 24, in observance of Highway Week in Texas. If you've never visited our impressive complex of state highway offices, take advantage of next Friday's open house to do so. And, if you have visited them, go out again. You're always welcome, they tell us. —CD

MR. and MRS. NAHUM SULLIVAN

AT THE VERY bottom of this column a couple of weeks ago appeared a three-line filler which read, "In a 20-mile race, a man would win over a horse because of his endurance."

Friday, I received a letter from Darrel Fisher of Star Route, Post, which read as follows: "Dear Charlie, My black horse and me would like to challenge you to a footrace from Post to Calgary. Just to see how your endurance holds up. Thank you, Darrel Fisher."

SINCE I HAD nothing to do with the filler appearing at the bottom of my column, I am not going to accept Darrel's challenge to race him and his horse from here to Calgary or from here to anywhere else. Instead, I'll pass the challenge on to the make-up man, Don Ammons, who made up the page and put the filler at the bottom of my column.

From now on, however, I am going to edit those two, three and four-line fillers a little more carefully. If not, I might someday be letting myself in for something more shaking than a challenge to run a footrace with a horse.

IN THE MEANTIME, we here at The Dispatch want it understood that statements made by the newspaper fillers do not necessarily reflect the beliefs or the opinions of any member of The Dispatch staff.

I also wish to acknowledge, somewhat belatedly, a letter received from Wynelle F. Craft of Guthrie, formerly of Post, in which she says she always reads this column and all else in The Post Dispatch.

WYNELLE'S SON, Larry Mills of Guthrie, was captain of the team which won the wild mare race on the final night of the Post Stampede Rodeo. At the Ralls rodeo the following week, Larry's team won the wild mare race two nights out of three.

This month, Larry began his sophomore year at Texas Tech University where he is majoring in pre-vet and where he was on the Dean's Honor List both semesters last year. Larry's mother writes that he visits Post often and always enjoys seeing his many friends here.

SCARCELY A DAY, week or month passes by that is not dedicated to someone or something — from national hotdog week to hire a hobo month. But, as far as we know, there isn't a day, week or month set aside for the retail businessman. If there is, it is sadly neglected and under-publicized.

In case you didn't know, a retail businessman is the chump who pays all kinds of state and federal taxes, levies and fees, and is even forced to do the government's bookkeeping, otherwise referred to as red tape — of which there are miles and miles.

HE MAKES WEEKLY, monthly, quarterly and annual reports on everything in his business — from income to industrial safety to fire extinguishers to commodious conveniences.

A retail businessman is the guy who doesn't have a sufficient quantity of, sizes of, or kinds of anything that the public may want (except at inventory time).

HE OVERCHARGES his customers and underpays his help (a standard allegation) and the fact that his own wages figure out to about 73 cents an hour is never mentioned.

A retail businessman, at one support of a broad spectrum of the community: schools, widows, underprivileged kids, organizations of all kinds, groups, lodges, clubs, hippies and shysters.

A RETAIL businessman is the first one contacted for a donation. He sponsors students, clubs, sports, teams and groups of every kind; he is expected to donate to all causes, worthy and otherwise, and not one charity misses him when the annual campaign rolls around.

His donations help publish books, catalogues and school newsletters.

A RETAIL businessman is expected to look the other way when a civic organization sells something in direct competition with him. He might even be asked to help in the sales campaign, or provide the goods or items at cost.

A retail businessman is the one who sells something at cost to a non-profit volunteer organization so it can help poor and underprivileged families, so the state tax division can descend upon him for not charging sales tax.

After all this, a retail businessman is expected to show a profit so he can be contributing to the welfare of his own family, his mother-in-law, his church and himself.

Texas holiday death toll held in check

Gov. Preston Smith, Department of Public Safety, today in expressing appreciation to everyone concerned in the holiday death toll streets and highways over Labor Day weekend. "I am of course deeply saddened by the tragic loss of 41 lives in the holiday period," they said in a joint statement. "But I am encouraged by the fact that the estimate that there were 52 fatalities fell short of the statistically destined toll of 100 lives this past weekend and well today. It is impossible to attribute this to a specific reason, but we are reasonable to assume that the awareness of the additional volume of holiday traffic is a major contributing factor for the low Labor Day toll must go to every contributor in any way a holiday driving — or 'Drive Safe' program. We especially commend the efforts of the individuals themselves, as well as the media and newspapermen who went above and beyond the call of duty in hammering the vital message of safety to the general public. Credit also is due to the organizations, both public and private, who joined in the concerted public awareness program ever undertaken in our state.

"And we must also express our deep appreciation for the great and dedicated task performed by the men in uniforms of the Department of Public Safety and on municipal and county enforcement agencies, who by their hard work as well as by their very presence on the streets and highways certainly averted countless tragedies."

The thunderous flow of South America's amazing Amazon River, which drains a third of that vast continent, is greater than that of the Mississippi, the Nile and the Yangtze Rivers combined.

The Amazon macaw, an amazing bird, and star performer in a cast of hundreds of thousands of South American tree top performers including monkeys, sloths, parrots, butterflies and dazzling color-drenched birds, is tough as well as amazingly beautiful. Its beak is powerful enough to crack a wild Brazil nut with a single click while in flight!

Although the Amazon River region has been called a "green hell" by explorers who lacked comfortable vehicles, expert guides and air conditioning, there is incredible beauty everywhere. ## Texas second in car registration

AUSTIN — Statistics released by the Texas Automobile Dealers Association show that Texans spend more than a quarter-billion dollars annually on new cars. According to figures released by TADA Executive Vice-President H. C. Pittman, Texas residents bought 283.0 million dollars worth of new automobiles in 1970 from 1,700 franchised new car dealers. The figures are from the 1971 edition of the "Franchised New Car and Truck Dealer Story" published by the National Automobile Dealers Association. Texas recently became the second state in total motor vehicle registration. More than 7.2 million motor vehicles will be registered in Texas in 1971, according to Pittman. Only the state of California exceeds the state in the number of motor vehicle registrations.

United Supermarkets buy first three of ten Amarillo stores

VERNON — Purchase of three McCartt By-Low food stores by United Supermarkets, Inc., as the first transaction in a plan to open up to 10 United Supermarkets in Amarillo in the next five years either through purchase or construction of new stores, has been announced by H. D. (Jack) Snell Jr. of Vernon, president of United Supermarkets. The three McCartt stores, established several years ago by the late Morris McCartt, member of a pioneer Amarillo grocery family, will be operated under the United Supermarket name. Snell also announced plans for a major enlargement of the United Supermarket Store in Plainview and location in the near future of a second store in a Plainview shopping center. United Supermarket has a total of 41 stores in operation, including the three stores just purchased in Amarillo. Eighteen of the stores are in an Oklahoma Division owned and operated by Perry B. Snell and Jim D. Snell. The Texas Division, which operates 23 stores is owned by H. D. Snell Jr. and his son, Robert D. Snell. ALCOHOL and its effects on drivers is the subject under study as a team of professional race car drivers take on enough alcohol to reach .10 percent blood alcohol concentration and then tackle a driving skills course. The test was sponsored by the San Antonio Association of Insurance Agents and conducted at Pan American Speedway by the Southwest Research Institute. Officials say the test is a graphic demonstration of the fact that .10 percent blood alcohol concentration is a level at which even professional drivers are unable to handle a motor vehicle safely.

Words—Use and Misuse

By BOB FORD

The following is an article that I got from a church newsletter of a seminary friend of mine. I think that it has a lot to say to us not only in terms of the word it discusses, but in all of the words we use or misuse.

Usually the dictionary is regarded as the authority for defining a particular word, yet some times public opinion is a more accurate reflection of what people believe. The word "violence" is a case in point. Webster's dictionary defines violence as "the exertion of physical force so as to injure or abuse." However, a study by the University of Michigan indicates that many Americans use the word with a different understanding.

"The study asked a sampling of men whether certain acts were themselves violent—not merely violence provoking. Over half (57%) said that shooting looters was not a violent act and nearly a third regarded the beating of students as non-violent. At the same time, some considered passive demonstrations such as sit-ins (22%) and draft card burning (58%) to be acts of violence. To most of those interviewed, the word "violence" meant acts against property not people.

"The report is distressing for many reasons, but two stand out. First, it suggests that many Americans may regard property as being more important than people. Second, it indicates that people rely less on dictionary definitions of words and more on their own definitions. If we're to resolve our differences in this fractured society, we must be able to communicate—must at least define our words in the same way."

Antelopes looking forward to season

By TOMMY SHUMARD
The Post Antelopes are excited about making their home debut of the 1971 season against Lockney on Sept. 17 at 8 o'clock. The team is looking forward to a real good season and I hope there are a lot of people out to see the opener.

Choir's goal for school year to win sweepstakes

By MARK HAYS
As of last week the choir had developed extremely well in vocal techniques, which it had lost over the seemingly short summer. The choir's main goal this year is to bring home as many sweepstakes as possible, if not all of them. The choir has not yet decided which sweepstakes festival they will attend, but one is due in a few months. It is usual to see the choir back in the Antelopes in every season's games. Every Friday the week is ended by singing the school song! Four parts none the less!

This helps a great deal considering that the choir has eight Lopes included. They are: Kim Owen, Robert Mindeta, Johnny Minor, Larry Hair, Rodney Compton, Roger Pace, Don Eilenberger and Jimmy Bertran.

The Top Twenty had their second meeting Tuesday night in the choir room. We hope the Top Twenty costumes will be arriving soon.

7 Post students enroll at LCC

LUBBOCK — Seven students from Post are enrolled for the fall semester at Lubbock Christian College, a private, senior college offering BA and BS degrees in 16 majors.

The Post students at LCC are: Dwayne Gannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gannon, Don Maxey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Maxey, Emily and Karen Potts, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Potts, James (Bud) Sparlin, Nancy Strawn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Strawn, and Beth Peel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Peel.

VISITING RELATIVES
Nita Burress is visiting relatives this week in Gorman.

Everyone's eager to get the season in full swing, since it will give more excitement than just ordinary practice sessions.

The Antelopes have five home games and these are Sept. 17, Lockney; Sept. 24, Floydada; Oct. 1, Slaton (homecoming), and the final home game is against Idaho Oct. 29. The five away games are Sept. 10 against Hale Center; Oct. 8, Roosevelt, Tahoka, Oct. 22, Denver City, Nov. 5, and the final game of the 1971 season is against Friendship, Nov. 12.

The first three games — Hale Center, Lockney, and Floydada — are non-district games and these start at 8 o'clock. The next seven games are all district games and these start at 7:30. Be sure to turn out to support the Post Antelopes.

Byrd Heard??

By WYNETTE BYRD
Students vs. teachers? In the past week several minor accidents have taken place. It seems that the teachers can't keep their cars away from the students' cars, or maybe vice versa. Let's take it easy, OK?

Did everyone have fun that went to the Levelland dance? I'M A-GINE!
Varsity basketball girls' workouts started Wednesday, Sept. 8. I hope everyone can still move.

Pep squad car wash livened by hay fire

By WYNETTE BYRD
Oh, what a day! On top of our car wash, the pep squad witnessed a hay fire.

The pickup that caught on fire was loaded with hay as was the horse trailer that was connected to the pickup. The man driving, Mr. Hazelwood of Amarillo, stopped at the Conoco station where the pep squad was having their car wash. The fire department was called and the fire was put out without any casualties. They did have two very nervous dogs on their hands though. But some of the girls walked the dogs around while the fire was being put out.

The proceeds from the car wash came to about $40. The girls worked real hard all day and I am very proud of them.

Two new courses in homemaking added

By PATTI ALLISON
Homemaking III has added two new courses. They are Consumer Education and Family Relations. The government is pushing consumer education because of the economic problems of the world. Family Relations deals with how to improve relations at home and in the community.

So far the students have learned about their values and goals. Next management of time, money and credit will be taught. This semester the students are learning to be better consumers, as far as food and housing are concerned. Mrs. Marion Wheatley is the instructor.

Officers elected by Spanish Club

By MARK HAYS
The Spanish Club is a most active club around the Post High School campus this year. Last year was the first time in a long time that the Spanish Club had been so again boomin' to go.

Elections were held for officers Wednesday night, Sept. 7. The officers are: Re-elected president, Liz Torres; vice-president, Anita Criado; secretary, Lucy Valdez; treasurer, Kay Guajardo; historian, Betty Abraham; and reporter, Mark Hays.

Also colors, motto, song and title were selected. They are as follows: Colors, red, green and white, as displayed by the Spanish flag; motto, "To live for today, is a virtue for tomorrow"; song, the school song sung in Spanish. As of yet the title or name of the club is still in discussion.

Time important to pep squad members

By WYNETTE BYRD
Time has become a very important factor with the pep squad lately. The girls have been having meetings all week.

The pep squad usually works on Tuesdays and Thursdays, but this week we worked every night. We had a car wash Saturday to raise money for decorations. I would like to thank everyone for getting their car washed.

The halls this week are really going to look better than they did last week because everything is more organized.

The pep squad is going to raise the spirit sky high this week to lead the Lopes to victory!

Students show spirit at initial pep rally

By CAROL COMPTON

Spirit, that's the name of the game and the students of Post High showed plenty of it at their first pep rally last Friday.

The cheerleaders started the pep rally with the fight song. The first yell, "What You See Is What You Get", was led by Cindy Bird.

The band played a selection next while the twirlers twirled with standard batons.

Coach Davis was then introduced by Nancy Cook to point out the players. The coaches and players were presented a "Victory Cake" by the cheerleaders.

The next yell was led by Melvena Stewart. The yell was "We're the Best". Followed by the band with "What Now My Love" where the twirlers used their new hoop batons.

A skit was presented by Nancy Cook and Melvena Stewart and the theme was "We'll beat the Owl's whether rain, sleet, snow or 'Hall' Center."

The pep rally was ended with the school song and fight song which led the boys out.

There were several parents at the pep rally and we would like to encourage all public citizens to come to the pep rallies every Friday at 3:15 in the Post High gym.

Verbena group—

Named to this committee were J. B. Potts of Post, Jack Robinson of Ralls, Spencer Campbell of Spur and Compton Cornelius of Crosbyton.

White River water district directors were talking in terms of a rate which would take into account the fact that taxpayers in the four member cities paid not only a water rate but have paid 10 years of taxes to support the water district and still have an obligation to pay out bonds for many years to come.

Wilks told The Dispatch yesterday that the farmers and ranchers water line would be connected to the White River's Post line approximately 10 miles northeast of Post on FM 651 and would run about six miles cross country and come out South of the old Verbena church.

He said Bailey Mayo of the SCS office is "helping us" work up our loan application, as are Bobby Crowder of the ASC, and Al O'Brien, the general manager of the water district.

The group of 17 Verbena area farmers and ranchers who are in the "pooling agreement" seeking White River stock water are Arnold Sanderson, Jimmy Bird, Douglas Buchanan, Kay Beach, Tom Middleton, Donald Windham, Jim Prather, Donald McLendon, Edna McLendon, Bud Davis, W. C. Bush, Charlie Bird, Mary Fumagalli, J. P. Ray, Richard Bird, and Wilks.

Farm electrification short course slated

A farm electrification short course for adult farmers will start Monday, Sept. 20, and continue through Sept. 23 under the auspices of the Post High School vocational agriculture department.

Farmers interested in attending the short course should contact E. A. Howard Jr., teacher of vocational agriculture, or School Supt. Bill Shiver.

Steer Roping—

There will also be a team roping event Saturday afternoon with each team putting $66 into the jackpot for a division via three go-rounds and average.

Jim Prather, who heads the benefit association and who "dreamed up" the steer roping as a benefit, will furnish the stock for both the calf roping Saturday and the steer roping Sunday.

Stock for the team roping event will be steers from the Happy Roping Club, Prather said this week.

A $3 donation will get a spectator tickets for both Saturday and Sunday roping events and he can eat barbecue either or both days at the rate of $2 per plate.

The steer roping will be held on the O. S. Ranch, which is six miles off US-84 southeast of Post. Prather said the turnout from the highway will be well marked for roping fans.

A souvenir program is being printed for the steer roping.

There hasn't been a hitch anywhere, except for the pictures of the competing steer ropers which have been lost in the mail somewhere between the Rodeo Cowboys Association headquarters in Denver and Post. They were mailed two weeks ago and haven't surfaced yet.

In the meantime a partial replacement set has been mailed and received here for publicity use.

Apparently Post folks are "ready" for the steer roping.

The Dispatch's appeal last week for homes in which boys from the West Texas Boys Ranch could be put up overnight Saturday, Oct. 2, drew such a big response that unless the women's division of the Post Chamber of Commerce succeeds in getting some more boys it already has enough homes to take care of a delegation of 20 boys who will be coming up from the ranch.

Lunchroom Menus

Post schools lunchroom menus for the coming week are as follows:

Monday: Pizza, sliced tomatoes on lettuce, green beans, orange juice, peanut special K cookies, half pint of milk.

NATURE, USE—ENJOY—CONSERVE

$33,000 August income for lake

The White River Municipal Water district in August totaled $24,748.50 in water revenue and $8,010 in recreational revenue. Al O'Brien reported to water district directors last Thursday night at the September board meeting.

The water district manager said water revenue included $14,183.13 in water contracts from the four member cities, $7,977.93 from Geo. R. Brown and Fina for waterflood purchases, $1,049.50 for purchases by Sun Oil Company, $495.03 from farmers on the district's pipelines, $915.31 from lake lot owners, and $127.60 from the White River Golf Club.

The recreational revenue included $6,400 in recreational permits, $1,200 in boat permits, $150 in barge permits, $200 in camping permits, and $60 in annual permits.

There also was $210 in additional income from lot leasing.

Directors asked O'Brien to check on the number of bass in the lake as bass fishermen have been complaining that the bass "aren't biting."

O'Brien said the last bass sample was okay but that he would confer with state authorities on the matter.

Little business was transacted other than payment of the bills and the discussion of selling water to a group of Verbena farmers and ranchers (see separate Dispatch story).

Attending from Post were Directors J. B. Potts and Julius Stelzer, and Dispatch Publisher Jim Cornish.

Gov. Preston Smith, by official proclamation, has designated Sept. 19-25 as Highway Week in Texas. Theme of the observance is, "Roads and Streets — the Backbone of Total Transportation."

During the open house, Samuel Etter, warehouse superintendent; Julian Smith, resident engineer; Joe Williams, maintenance foreman, and local employees will answer any questions regarding the part the highway department plays in the theme for the observance.

Postings—

But they do hustle. The coaches' enthusiasm and vigor has rubbed off on every one of them. They gave the ball away nine times to Hale Center on fumbles, but were still trying just as hard at the end — even if the last play, like the first one, was a fumble.

The "Meet the Antelopes" affair Tuesday night shows that the town is "caught up" in the new enthusiasm too. There was a big turnout, lots of money raised, and everybody had a good time.

Now Mayor McCrary has even proclaimed Friday to be Post Antelope Booster Day. So the home opener tomorrow night ought to be a humdinger.

Joe Taylor's new Antelope posters are simply great — and we hope everybody buys one.

But getting back to the double-page Antelope football spread you will find on pages 10 and 11. We've pictured every football player on the A squad along with the new coaches in a huge PHS pictorial salute.

We're almost sure the sponsoring advertisers won't mind paying $2 extra for this pictorial salute on the eve of the home opener. After all, as we said at the start of this column we've been "caught up" by the new enthusiasm for Antelope football. Also, we didn't have time to make 60 phone calls just to be sure after we got the idea. That's right — 60 local firms are helping to advertise the five home games this year.

So, Go, Lopes Go! We're all right up there with you!

Applicants for city manager interviewed

Eleven applicants for the position of Post city manager were interviewed by Mayor Giles C. McCrary and city councilmen at a meeting Tuesday night that lasted from a little after 7 o'clock until 1 a.m.

Mayor McCrary said Wednesday the council will decide within the next few days whether to hire a manager from among the applicants interviewed, or to ask for more applications before taking action.

The Garza County Historical Society has met requirements for distinguishing a historic site, announced at the regular meeting Tuesday morning at the bank community room. The meeting was the last of the year for the committee.

Two members of the committee, Mrs. Winnie Tuffing and Mrs. Nance and two members of the museum committee, Mrs. P. Nance and Mrs. Lillian Nance, attended the dedication of the historic site at Crosbyton.

Several members of the committee attended the annual day celebration held Saturday at Crosbyton. Mrs. Walter Boren, chairman of the GCHC, was one of three who judged the site at the celebration.

Antelopes to play Lockney Friday in first home tilt

Heavy Longhorns to bring potent attack

Antelopes, hoping to rebound from their 10-0 loss to Lockney last Friday night, will meet the Longhorns in their first home game.

As described by Coach Davis as "a much better team than they were last Friday night," the Longhorns in their opening game, opened the season with a bang last night by upsetting Class A Lockney, 29-15, on the late score.

Antelopes' tenacious defense resulted in 10 turnovers, fumbles and one pass interception was attributed by Coach Davis to "inexperienced key positions." He said that personnel changes on offense and defense will be made in the Lockney game, but he is too early in the week to say just what those changes will be.

Davis said the coaches "showed good progress" in the opening game, but he said the offense "have yet to go."

He was real proud of the fact that the boys were still hitting

Women going to Kress today for first game

The freshman football team will play its 1971 season at 7:30 p.m. tonight (Thursday) at

Lace Tannehill, who has a man boys out for practice, says he will probably start with line-up on offense: Gamm, left end; Randy Thomas, right tackle; Kelvin Thomas, center; Tim Owen, right guard; Terry, right guard; Bob Blacklock, left halfback; Taylor, right halfback; Joe Moore, fullback.

Tannehill said he will lead the same line-up on defense that Sammy Gutierrez, Jerry Johnson might return from the injury. Johnson lost one of the right knee in a game when he suffered a knee injury in a scrimmage. Johnson has the right knee in a cast and there is a possibility he will undergo knee surgery after the broken leg has healed, Coach Tannehill said.

Library LISTENING POST

GEORGE L. MILLER — I went to the Library for a library service for adults. I received a list of books recommended for me. We went through the list and I was pleased to note how many titles are quality books. In that group were such books as "Johnny" by Esther Forbes, "A Time" by Madeleine L'Engle, and "The Hobbit" by J. R. R. Tolkien.

"Tremain" is an excellent book about an apprentice silversmith in Boston during the American Revolution who is caught up in the adventure and intrigue surrounding Paul Revere and his role.

"A Wrinkle in Time" is part fantasy, part science fiction, about a young girl who finds a way to travel through time to a strange planet, having adventures with a dwarf named Mr. Tullig and his friends. It is a favorite of mine.

"The Paper Dolls" by L. P. Davies is a special kind of mystery about an English school boy who turns out to be far more than a normal 12 year old boy. The search to unravel his mystery leads through terror and sudden death, guaranteed to keep you reading to the last page.

"Mrs. Mike" by Benedict and Nancy Freedman is a special kind of love story about a girl who went to the Yukon Territory for her health and married a Canadian Mountie.

"Animal Farm" by George Orwell is a deceptive little fable that uses animals to describe the follies of the truth that freedom is hard-won but easily lost.

Some adult books have gained a classic reputation. "The Good Earth" by Pearl Buck, the story of a Chinese farmer and his struggles from poverty when it was written long before the Chinese Revolution.

"Lord of the Flies" by William Golding is a terrifying parable of the seeds of evil that live in us all, to wealth, is as absorbing today as when it was written long before the Chinese Revolution.

"Nicholas and Alexandra" by Robert Massie is a biography of the last Tsar of Russia and his family, a story so well written about people so fascinating, you can't put it down.

These are only a handful of the many titles recommended for teenagers, and they are all available in our library. Need I add you don't have to be a teen-ager to enjoy these books? Come on down and try them!

Post fumbles costly in 21-0 loss Friday

Opening game "jitters" hit the Post Antelopes early at Hale Center last Friday night and stayed with them for all four quarters of a game won by the Class A Owls, 21 to 0.

Ten turnovers — nine fumbles and an intercepted pass — ruined whatever chances the Antelopes might have had of getting off on the right foot and making Coach Bobby Davis' debut as head coach of the 'Lopes a successful one.

All except one or two of the fumbles came where they hurt most — deep in Antelope territory, with all three of the Hale Center touchdowns set up by Post miscues. The Owls scored seven points in the first quarter, six in the second and seven in the fourth.

The turnovers completely choked off the Antelope offense and the nearest they came to scoring was on the last play of the first half when quarterback John Johnson passed 16 yards to halfback Kyle Josey on the Hale Center ten-yard line. Passes of 10 and 20 yards from Johnson to end Roger Pace had taken the ball deep into Owl territory, but time — like most everything else — was against the Antelopes.

Late in the game, following the Owls' final touchdown, Post drove to the Hale Center 20 following a 40-yard kickoff return by Tony Rosas, but the Owls pounced on a fumble to stop the threat as the game ended.

Generally, the Post defense gave a good account of itself, twice stopping the Owls inside the 10-yard line, but it couldn't overcome the ten turnovers charged to the offense, with the three Post quarterbacks seeing action committing five of the nine fumbles.

The 'Lopes gave a sign of what was to come when David Woods fumbled away the ball after returning the opening kickoff 27 yards to the Post 37. Things took a sudden turn, however, when Ricky Shepherd intercepted a Hale Center pass on the Owls' first play, but fullback Robert Mindieta committed the second consecutive Post

Garza ranch is movie subject

SNYDER — A movie made on the Slaughter U Lazy S Ranch in Garza County in 1928 was shown in the "Western Theater" at Ranch Day in Snyder Saturday.

The movie, which lasts about 8 minutes, showed men on the ranch working cattle and loading cattle for shipping on railroad cars.

Other features on Ranch Day were a historical presentation sketching the history of this area from the time of the Marcy and Mackenzie explorations to 1900.

A 55-page book with 15 stories about some ranches and ranchers in the area from 1877 to 1900 went on sale at Ranch Day for the first time. There were a Country Store, a chuck wagon concession at a nd, and a variety of historical displays.

Forecaster picks Post Antelopes to upset 'Horns

Ten out of 17 for an average of .589. That is the best The Dispatch football forecaster could do last week — and that isn't good. As usual, the first week of the gridiron season had its upsets.

The Dispatch's pigskin pronosticator missed on the Post-Hale Center game, Kress-Idalou, Denver City-Seminole, Tulia-Olton, Level and Texas Tech-Tulane games.

He tries to boost his average this week with the following picks. His choices in capital letters.

LOCKNEY at POST. Upset in the making.
SLATON at Kermit. Tigers held strong Brownfield close.
FRESHUP at MORTON. Purely on a hunch.
BROWNFIELD at Denver City. This might be the 'Cubs' year to growl.
ROOSEVELT at COOPER. Class A Pirates impressive in first win.
IDALOU at PETERSBURG. Buffaloes bounce back after opening game loss.

KRESS at Ralls. Kangaroos out-jump Jackrabbits.
TAHOCA at Crosbyton. Watch out for those Bulldogs.
SEAGRAVES at ABERNATHY. The Eagles to fall after opening game win.

FARWELL at DIMMITT. Bobcats mad after loss to Muleshoe.
TULIA at FLOYDADA. Whirlwinds to pull it out.
BOVINA at FRIONA. Close one between old rivals.

LEVELLAND at LITTLEFIELD. They looked like the Wildcatters of old against Crosbyton.
OLTON at MULESHOE. Mules coming back.
NEW MEXICO at TEXAS TECH. Don't believe all you hear about New Mexico being tougher than Tulane.

7th, 8th grade teams to open

The Post 7th and 8th grade football teams will open their season here Tuesday evening, Sept. 21, against 7th and 8th grade teams from Shallowater, which is participating in football for the first time this year.

The 7th grade kickoff is scheduled for 5:30 p.m. and the 8th grade kickoff for 7.

Thirty-six boys are coming out for the Post 7th grade team, which is coached by Don Black, assisted by Bobby Davis. The 8th grade team, which has 40 boys out, is coached by Joe Giddens, assisted by Black.

FIDDLERS CONTEST

LUBBOCK — Cash awards totaling $400 is being offered to top participants in the fiddlers' contest being staged in conjunction with the 54th annual Panhandle South Plains Fair. The contest will be held during the weeklong fair, scheduled Sept. 27-Oct. 2. Awards of $200 each will be given in the old timers' and open divisions of the fiddler's contest.

First United States Census was taken in 1790.

1,500 FANS ATTEND

Posters sold at big 'Lope night

An estimated 550 football fans turned out at Antelope Stadium Tuesday night for the "Meet the Antelopes" home-made ice cream social sponsored by the Antelope Booster Club and were given a wide variety of opportunities to make contributions via the booster club to school athletic projects.

After winning the spirited bidding, Hundley immediately donated

Long-time Post High booster Jim Hundley had the winning bid of $105 for the original of the Antelope poster from which a thousand two-color copies have been made for sale by the booster club as a fund-raising project.

After winning the spirited bidding, Hundley immediately donated

Head Coach Bobby Davis made a strong appeal for fan support.

"If ever a team had a chance to quit, it was the Antelopes at Hale Center when they fumbled the ball away nine times," Davis said. "But we were might proud of them because they didn't!"

Davis said Lockney could be a much better team than Hale Center and he added, "The Antelopes will be a lot better team, too, this Friday night."

Taylor, the poster artist, was introduced and explained the poster project prior to the auction of his three original posters.

The band twirlers gave a routine with their new "black and gold" parasols, and the cheerleaders, after being introduced, led the crowd in several closing cheers.

Although a lot of the fans ate ice cream twice — before and after the program — there was still some left over. Ice cream taken home untouched.

But after all, there were an estimated 85 freezers full of ice cream to start with — of all varieties.

Garza 4-H rider scores at Graham

Steve White, a member of the Graham 4-H Horse Club, participated in the Young County Open 4-H Playday Saturday at the Charlie Hipp Arena in Graham.

Approximately 40 contestants were entered in the halter and two age groups of performance, 12 and under and 13 through 19 years.

Archer County won the high point county trophy.

White's placings in the 9-12 age group were:
Fourth in flag race, fifth in barrels, and sixth in pole bending and reining.

Friday Night Sept. 17

8:00 P. M. Kickoff In ANTELOPE STADIUM

Coach Bobby Davis' Post High Antelopes will face a very tough Class AA opponent here Friday night in their home opener when they engage the Lockney Longhorns.

Lockney pulled off one of the first big upsets of the young schoolboy season last weekend when they whacked Levelland, a class AAA power which is rated as a district title contender, 20-15. And they did it in Levelland's home park as well.

The Horns have a veteran backfield which is good at both the pass and the run and are rated as a high scoring combination against almost anybody.

The Lopes, who will be concentrating upon not dropping that football this time out, also are going to have to give a lot of attention to dropping those Lockney backs as well.
