

Lincoln Addition Park largely due to Earl Chapman

The Lincoln addition in northeast part of town at last has a neighborhood park and playground for youngsters and oldsters alike to use — thanks to the leadership and energies of Earl Chapman.

Not that the general manager of the Rocker A Well Service did it all by himself. He rounded up all kinds of help. But he spearheaded the work and did more of it than anybody else.

Today, the half block park at the end of May street has been cleared of junk, mesquite, and weeds; leveled, planted to grass and watered.

It is bordered by a low fence made of old oil field pipe.

At the west end is the playground which contains a swing set, a slide, see-saws, sand box, a jungle gym and a merry-go-round — all brightly and freshly painted.

There are three permanent barbecue tables on the north edge with two barbecue pits.

At the east end of the park will be a nursery where 200 young trees — already ordered by Chapman (100 mulberries and 100 cottonwoods) will be planted and nurtured to the point where neighborhood folks can transplant them into their yards.

Rotary to honor teachers Oct. 7

The Post Rotary Club will hold its annual teachers appreciation luncheon Tuesday, Oct. 7, at 7 p. m. in City Hall for all teachers, administrators, and their husbands.

Announcement of the date was made at the Tuesday luncheon of the club.

It was also announced that the club would not hold its Tuesday luncheon next week to permit members to attend the annual county meeting hosted by the Lubbock Rotary clubs in the municipal coliseum next Tuesday night.

Plans were also made for the luncheon to host a hot dog supper and domino tournament for all participating in the annual county fair Monday, Sept. 29. The event will be held at the 4-H building with Rotarians asked to bring hot dogs and buns for the function.

ASCS office manager talks on agriculture

Mrs. Emmarhe I. Hartel, county office manager of ASCS, told Post Rotarians Tuesday at their luncheon in City Hall that "for the first time in 100 years other than times of all-out war, there is no U. S. surplus in one or more of our commodities: cotton, feed grain, corn and wheat."

She added that for the first time the American farmer is producing sufficient soybeans to meet our commitments.

Mrs. Hartel credited the 1965 farm act for getting rid of ruinous surplus supplies which were costing taxpayers heavily to buy and store.

She said in 1963, the U. S. had 16 million bales of federal owned cotton in its warehouses whereas total annual cotton requirements were only 13 million bales, including export.

Mrs. Hartel said the 1965 Farm Act limited the domestic cotton allotment to 65 per cent of the national allotment with the provision the farmer would be paid a cash price support payment of approximately 11 cents per pound on cotton grown and that his sales price would be reduced to compete on the world market. A diversion payment also was provided on land diverted from crops in surplus supply.

The ASCS office manager said the cotton situation today shows "we have only the required reserve of cotton in our nation's warehouses that the September estimate for this year's crop is 12.8 million bales — which is 200,000 bales less than the nation's annual commitments."

Mrs. Hartel said "approximately four cents of each tax dollar you paid last year was used by the Department of Agriculture for these and other of its programs."

She said that of this tax money a total of $1,626,840 has been paid back this year into Garza County's economy in various program payments to Garza farmers.

These include $7,300 for cropland adjustment payments, $1,400,000 for cotton price support payments, $3,900 for wheat certificate payments, $10,640 for feed grain payments, $10,737 for wool subsidy payments, $39,000 for regular ACP payments, and $24,000 for extended disaster ACP practices.

'Antelope Day' is set for Sunday

An "Antelope Day" service, honoring the high school athletic teams and other high school groups, will be held at 7 p. m. Sunday, Sept. 21, at the First Baptist Church, the Rev. Joe Vernon, pastor, has announced.

For several years, an Antelope Day service was held on Sunday evening at the First Christian Church under the leadership of Bernard Ramsey, the minister, but he was unable to conduct the service last year.

"This year, at his suggestion, the service will be held in the First Baptist Church," the Rev. Mr. Vernon said.

TACKLING DUMMY CUT BY VANDALS

Coaches and boosters are feeling a little sick this week after somebody Monday night put a "two-inch slit" into the new tackling dummy Antelope Boosters had built with donated pipe and labor.

Coach Hahn told the boosters Monday night it was "one of the finest pieces of football equipment ever given the club and would be invaluable to the team, not only this year but for many years to come."

Apparently, it won't last long, local vandals being what they are.

Cotton meeting to be Sept. 24

Garza County cotton producers and cotton-related businessmen will elect a businessman director to Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., for the coming two-year period on Wednesday, Sept. 24, at 8 p. m. in the Community Room of the First National Bank.

Announcement of the election meeting came from Garza County's current PCG producer director, Wayne Carpenter.

Garza County's businessman director, Louie Burkes who was former manager of the Postex Plant here, resigned earlier this year when he moved from the area.

Carpenter said the meeting would feature a discussion, led by PCG staff members, of the current legislative situation as it relates to cotton, PCG's part in that legislation, and other PCG activities on behalf of High Plains cotton people.

Carpenter urges all interested persons to attend the meeting and to take part in the election of a businessman director from Garza County.

The annual convention of the Garza County Farmers Union will be held at 8 p. m. Thursday, Sept. 25, in the Community Room at the First National Bank, president Arnold Sanderson announced today.

OEO funds to be sought for neighborhood center

Would also help Day Care Center

The Garza County Community Action Committee is asking for federal Office of Economic Opportunity funds to establish a neighborhood center here as well as to take over a large part of the cost of operation of the local Child Day Care Center.

Howard Maddera of Levelland, executive director of the nine-county Lubbock - South Plains Regional Area Development Council, told directors of the Garza County committee at its September open meeting Tuesday night in the Community Room that action on such a budget request would be taken by the regional council Sept. 30, and, if approved, federal funds would be available Oct. 1.

A neighborhood center would be operated in the other half of the Public Housing Authority duplex in which the day care center is now located at 802 East Pine St.

Maddera told the committee's directors to continue to seek United Fund money for the Child Day Care Center and use federal funds, if approved, to supplement it.

Two committees were appointed by the Rev. George L. Miller, president of the Garza County community action group, one to prepare Garza's budget request for federal funds and the other to start making plans to open the neighborhood center.

The budget committee is composed of Earl Chapman, Pat Walker, Jack Lott, Mrs. Maxine Marks, Mrs. Madie Johnson and A. C. Douglas. The neighborhood center committee consists of Douglas, chairman, William Scott and Mrs. Louise Valdez.

Maddera told the community action directors that federal funds are available at the regional level and only approval of the nine-county council is needed to secure them.

The community action directors endorsed Mrs. Marks, County Judge J. E. Parker, and Mrs. Johnson as its three representatives on the board of the regional council. The three will present the Garza budget at the council board's meeting in Lubbock Sept. 30.

George Tiner of Lubbock, administrative secretary of the area planning commission for community action who is in charge of the survey of Negro and Latin American families in Garza County, reported that although recent rains have slowed the survey work over 100 families already have been interviewed.

When another 100 to 150 family interviews are received, the results will be tabulated to show needs for the Garza County target area.

The planning committee of the action group reported that suggestions it has for future projects include an employment bureau, sewers for target area, clean-up of target area youth, adult education including reading, driver training, and home economic courses.

The planning committee is composed of Benny Valdez, chairman, Chapman, Mrs. Ruth Ann Newby, Mrs. Helen Cornish, Douglas and Scott.

Windham is selected hospital administrator

Donald Windham was selected as the new administrator for Garza Memorial Hospital last Wednesday afternoon at a special meeting of the Garza County Hospital District trustees.

Ed Sawyer, chairman of the trustees, said the meeting replaced the regular meeting which was scheduled for Tuesday night and postponed because of "Get Acquainted With Our Antelopes" barbecue.

Only three of the five hospital trustees attended the meeting — Bill Pool, Sexton Huntley, and Sawyers.

The other two, Russell Wilks Jr., and A. C. Cash, submitted their resignations by letter to Sawyers this week.

Cash said in his brief letter, a copy of which he gave this newspaper: "Since I was not notified of a board meeting to hire an administrator, I feel my presence is no longer needed. Regrettably, I resign as a director of the Garza Memorial Hospital."

Sawyers told The Dispatch that he thought all trustees had been notified of the Wednesday afternoon meeting and he was not aware that anything was amiss until the letters started arriving.

The hospital board chairman said Windham was employed at a salary of $500 monthly for six months to give the local business man who has had no experience in this field the opportunity to learn the operation and see how he fits into the position.

Sawyers explained that the securing of an experienced administrator for a small hospital is a difficult one as such administrators use the hospital as a "stepping stone" to a better paying job which brings a constant turnover at the position.

"When we combine the administrator with a laboratory technician as we have tried in the past, it means every time we lose the front office man we also lose our laboratory operator," Sawyers said.

The chairman said the board had decided to try to train a local business man in the job so that he could be retained for a number of years and thus stabilize hospital operations. This also was tried here once and was successful with the employment of L. E. (Buck) Gossett. Gossett is now a hospital administrator at Chowchilla, Calif.

Trustees last Wednesday also voted to borrow $1,500 on the hospital's accounts receivable to tide them over until the receipt of the first 1970 tax money sometime in October.

The summer months always are the "slow time" for the local hospital and creates a financial problem here each fall.

Sawyers said trustees had discussed this financial problem for Hearing set today on City of Post budget

A public hearing is set for 1 p. m. today (Thursday) on the City of Post's proposed general fund budget of $228,462.77 for the fiscal year which began July 1.

The proposed new budget is some $2,000 less than the 1968-69 general fund budget of $230,264.

The proposed water and sewer department budget for the new fiscal year is $213,493 as compared with last year's budget of $209,657.

The new budget figures set current ad valorem taxes for 1969 - 70 at $95,647.28, a decrease of $1,858.73 from the 1968-69 ad valorem taxes of $97,506.01.

Total general fund receipts for the new fiscal year are figured at $176,708.49 in the new budget, as compared with actual receipts of $202,230.81 in 1968-69. The new budget estimates a cash balance of $51,754.28 on July 1, 1970, as compared with a cash balance of $37,217.48 on July 1, 1969.

The new budget provides for salary raises in all departments. The new police department budget of $28,743.40 is some $1,200 more than actual police department expenditures of $27,553.67 in 1969-70, but the new figure was budgeted before the city council decided on its new economy plans for the police department. This economy move will result in considerable less expenditures than are budgeted, city officials said.

The city court budget for the new fiscal year is $2,811 as compared with expenditures of $1,800 in 1969-70. The increase will pay for clerical help for the city judge.

Set up for the city hall in the new budget is $25,070.96 as compared with actual expenditures of $23,125.85 in 1968-69.

The new figure for the fire department is $13,795, an increase of about $2,000 over what was spent in 1969-70, with the $2,000 increase covering pay raises recently granted volunteer firemen.

The figure for the street department is up more than $23,000 — from $31,221.66 to $54,965.40 — with street repairs costing an estimated $22,500 accounting for most of the increase.

The figure for the sanitation department is $1,000 less than last year's. (See City Budget, page 8)

Adams is chosen president of UF

Charles Adams was elected president of the Garza County United Fund organization last Thursday afternoon and Mrs. Helen Cornish was named chairman of the 1969 United Fund drive.

The annual election came at a meeting of United Fund directors at the Reddy Room.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Ruth Ann Newby, secretary; Lou Marks, treasurer; Fred Myers, chairman of the budget committee; Mrs. Maxine Marks and James Pollard, public relations chairmen, and the Rev. George L. Miller, chairman of the information and brochure committee.

Myers this week announced that all representatives of the various agencies funded by the United Fund are to begin work on their budget requests.

A budget committee hearing is scheduled for next week to listen to budget requests and determine (See United Fund, page 8)

This is a "clear the air" column on the hospital situation in an attempt to give our readers a clearer picture of our hospital problem and how we are moving on solving it.

County voters in the spring voted the hospital's operation out of county control by authorizing creation of a county-wide hospital district with its own taxing power.

Next spring, voters in the district will elect the entire board of trustees. The present board, appointed by the county commissioners' court, is serving until that 1970 spring election. This fall the new hospital district will collect its own taxes for the first time.

Since two of those five trustees resigned this week only three are left which is going to require some appointments — we presume by the remaining members of the board — to fill out the board ranks until spring.

It's our opinion that all five of the appointed trustees have served well with the interest of this community at heart. There have been probably the most difficult job in the community and each serves without pay. That they have disagreements wrestling with problems is understandable. That resignations have come is regrettable.

To us, the outlook for the hospital's future is much brighter that it has ever been over the last five years. A hospital district has been created. The district will benefit from some additional tax support thereby. But more important, the organization's campaign. (See Postings, page 8)

Something for Texans to brag about

Gov. Preston Smith has designated the period of Sept. 21-27 as "Highway Week in Texas" and Texans have 69,000 good reasons for celebrating the observance, for that's how many miles of paved highways the State Highway Department has built and is now maintaining.

Post has a few more good reasons for celebrating Highway Week in Texas. We have a highway warehouse which serves nearly one-fourth of the counties of Texas, a resident highway engineer's office and a highway maintenance unit—all resulting in a sizeable local payroll.

Gov. Smith has set aside the seven-day period and its superb 69,000-mile highway network.

The theme for Highway Week this year is "Highways Bring Better Living."

The observance in Texas is sponsored each year by the Texas Good Roads Association in cooperation with the Texas Highway Department and the highway-building industry.

Tourists from out of state have been discovering what Texans have known for many years. Texas highways are better than highways in other states. This is probably a major reason for the record number of out-of-state visitors to Texas last year.

Because highways play the leading role in our booming tourist industry, Highway Week is a perfect time to take a good look at the industry, it was pointed out by the Texas Good Roads Association.

In 1968, expenditures by a record-breaking number of automobile visitors to Texas topped the $1 billion mark. The records show that 18.6 million visitors toured the State's highways by automobile.

Highway Department figures showed an increase of 9.1 per cent in the number of auto visitors over the previous year, and a gain of 25.8 per cent in the amount of money spent while in Texas.

This increase is even more significant because the 18.2 thousand visitors surveyed by the Highway Department reported more money was spent for entertainment and retail sales than ever before. This money, of course, was spent at motels, hotels, restaurants and other tourist-oriented businesses along Texas' 69,000 miles of highway.

Texas' fine highway system has been built and is being maintained through gasoline taxes, which is a user's tax. It has been reported that sufficient amounts of tax revenue are being raised to finance the system now and in the immediate future. Texans have in the past paid for good roads and the roads have been built. Our highways today are better than they have ever been, and the more they are travelled the more money will be available to continue to improve them.

If you are a Texan that doesn't mind bragging about your state, don't be afraid to express your appreciation for Texas' superb 69,000. We bet even an out-of-stater won't think you're bragging a bit, unless he flew into the state and you're talking to him at an airport.

Chamber drives for new members

The Post Chamber of Commerce is under way with its city-wide membership enlistment program—and you can help.

If you are already a member of the Chamber, you can help by "talking up" the membership enlistment program and doing your part to help bring as many new members as possible into the fold. If you are not a member, the best way you can help is by becoming one.

"The course our city and county will take in the future is dependent in the investment our citizens make today," said Jim Jackson, Chamber president.

Business firms and members not contacted by one of the membership drive workers are urged to call the Chamber office and ask that one or more workers call to explain the program and the role of the member in carrying out the development work of the organization.

Where taxes hit—and how hard

The $348.6 million tax bill laboriously passed by the Texas Legislature is so bulky, unwieldy and complicated that no taxpayer can be expected to look at it in toto and tell just what will be taxed and where the taxes will go.

Therefore, as a public service, The Dispatch herewith publishes a brief outline of the new taxes and where they will hit—and for how much.

—Increase the state sales tax to 3.25 per cent, effective Oct. 1, for an estimated $79,641,663 in new revenue during the next two years.

—Raise cigarette taxes from 11 cents per package to 15.5 cents, estimated $79,546,735.

—Put beer and liquor under the sales tax, $39,600,000.

—Increase the corporate franchise tax rate from $2.75 per $1,000 of capital assets to $3.25 per $1,000 for the next three years, then decreasing it to $3 in 1972-73 for an estimated $42,900,712.

—Increase the natural gas production tax from 7 per cent to a new rate of 7.5 per cent, $10,000,000.

—Levy a tax of 5 cents per serving of alcoholic beverages in private clubs and on airlines for an estimated $13,224,691.

—Add a factor to the corporate franchise tax formula to take into account the Texas business transacted by an out-of-state firm, exempting transactions involving food and prescription medicine, estimated $84,616,880.

—Remove automobile racing from the state admissions tax.

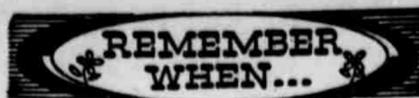

—Clarify the state coin-operated amusement machine tax law and place coin-operated billiard tables under the law, no gain.

What our contemporaries are saying

Rep. H. R. Gross of Iowa, who is a watchdog of the House, reports that 12 enterprising young persons in Montgomery County, Maryland, have figured out a way to beat the system. Each of the dozen, six male and six female, draws $55 a week in unemployment compensation which they pool in a common fund. In a four-week month, their take is a cool $2,600. They rent a six-bedroom house complete with swimming pool and sauna, buy their food and have enough left for other luxuries. They pay no taxes on their benefits and on an individual basis, each probably qualifies for food stamps and medical benefits as well. Whatever else may be said in criticism of young people these days, no one can accuse them of being dumb.—Mora, Minn., Times.

We kind of chuckled to ourselves as we opened an armed forces dispatch here at the office the other day. The contents of the envelope weren't of the kind to bring smiles. But what did ignite a chuckle were these words printed where you and I would normally place a stamp: "Postage and fees paid, Department of the Navy." Wouldn't it be better if it read: "Postage and fees paid for by the taxpayers of the United States."—Goodland, Kans., News.

Lucas puts new 1970 Chevrolets on display

The Monte Carlo — a totally new personal luxury car — headlines Chevrolet's new models for 1970 which went on display this morning here in Post at Harold Lucas Chevrolet - Olds.

The 1970's will be an unparalleled decade of individual customer choice," Lucas said. "Chevrolet will continue to set the industry pace with a variety of cars and options which allow each buyer to tailor his or her personal transportation.

Monte Carlo adds a new market dimension by offering to the sophisticated buyer a sophisticated blend of individual, high fashion styling and intermediate-size styling and performance," Lucas said.

Improvements in these lines are incorporated in Chevrolet's popular Nova which has an all-new appearance," Lucas said. "Improvements in these lines are incorporated in Chevrolet's popular Nova which has an all-new appearance," Lucas said.

Current models of the popular Chevrolet Corvete and Camaro will continue to the end of this year with new models in each line scheduled for introductions later in the model year.

Lucas said that among important changes, the base 1970 engine changes, the base of the big Chevrolet is increased to 350 cubic inches from 327 cubic inches in 1969 to give added power for options such as air-conditioning that continue to grow in customer popularity.

The base six cylinder engine of Chevelle is also increased — 250 cubic inches in 1970 compared with 230 cubic inches in 1969.

"A smooth running new 400 cubic inch V-8 that burns regular fuel is also introduced today as an option on the big Chevrolet and also is available on the Monte Carlo," Lucas said.

Longer life, fiberglass-belted tires are standard on all 1970 Chevrolet models.

New for 1970 among Chevrolet's more than 400 options and accessories are improved electric door locks, replacing vacuum locks.

A new headlight delay option reminds the driver with a warning buzzer if he opens his door without turning off his headlights.

Radio antennas contained within the windshield glass will be factory installed when radios are ordered on all 1970 Chevrolets. They replace outside most antennas used previously and are not subject to being broken or bent.

Chevrolet offers 15 colors, most of them new, for 1970, Lucas said. There are up to seven two-tone combinations, five vinyl top covers and two convertible top colors.

One of the new 1970 Chevrolets which are on display this morning at Harold Lucas Chevrolet-Olds is this new Monte Carlo Sport Coupe, a new concept in elegance. This newest addition to the Chevrolet line is characterized by smooth flowing lines and sculptured surfaces dramatically emphasized by the longest hood ever produced by Chevrolet.

Library LISTENING POST

By ROSEMARY CHAPMAN

Something new has been added at Post Library. Thanks to George Miller for thinking up the idea and Corky Ammons for executing it, we now have bookmarks with the library hours printed on them. All forgetful-type patrons are urged to pick one up immediately!

George has certainly been busy these days. He and Mary Prather teamed up last Saturday and processed 150 "assorted" gift books. They're on the bookcart now.

By jorie Merriweather Post of Washington, D. C., and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Brutsche of Alexandria, Va. (Mrs. Brutsche is Judge and Mrs. J. E. Parker's niece.)

All in all, much good reading, so enjoy yourselves!

Book circulation has been picking up again. Thank goodness for that. With school starting, and bridge clubs and other organizations cranking up for the Fall season, the first two weeks of September at the big L. always spell slow-death-by-boredom. We're glad that everyone has established their new patterns, and are settling down and providing our volunteers with some company now.

Pvt. Villafranco helps fight big blaze in Alaska

FT. RICHARDSON, Alaska—More than 800 soldiers of the 172nd Infantry Brigade (Mechanized) from Ft. Richardson, recently helped fight and bring under control an 80,000-acre forest fire in the Kenai Peninsula, about 60 miles south of Anchorage.

Pvt. Santos L. Villafranco, 21, son of Mrs. Irene Reyes, Route 3, Post, Tex., was one of the men who fought the fire, regarded as the worst in Alaska in 22 years. He is assigned to Company C, 1st Battalion of the brigade's 60th Infantry.

Starting on Aug. 3, the blaze was increased by strong winds to serious dimensions, destroying wildlife and recreation areas, and driving hundreds from their homes. In the general area are several sites of petroleum drilling and production.

The Army's fire-fighting support elements are utilizing more than 150 vehicles, including bulldozers, trucks, jeeps and water and fuel tankers.

Amity Study Club launches new club year with brunch Saturday

Amity Study Club opened its new club year with a "Federation Brunch" last Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church with the Methodist women serving. Course of study for the new 1969-70 club year will be "This Fabulous Century". Mrs. Bob Collier, yearbook committee member, presented a program entitled "An Earnest Organization: Federation Clubs", which was followed by a skit by Mrs. Bill Pool and Mrs. Malcolm Bull, also on the yearbook committee.

Mrs. Jack Burress gave the invocation before brunch was served and Mrs. Bill Carlisle gave the president's welcome to club members and new member, Mrs. Hershel Bevers.

The serving tables were decorated with fall flowers and leaves and carried out the theme of "Transportation For Federated Clubwomen Over the Past 100 Years" — from the Stanley Steamer to the modern jet.

64th wedding anniversary is observed by M. C. Richeys

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Richey, who are better known to their friends as Uncle Mac and Aunt Nora, celebrated their 64th wedding anniversary quietly at their farm home one mile west of Grassland Sunday.

The Richeys, who came to this area in 1917 and have lived on the same farm since that time, were married in Voss, Tex., Coleman County, Sept. 14, 1905.

Four children were born to this union. Two are deceased and a son, Elmer Richey, lives in North Highlands, Calif., and a daughter, Mrs. Ora Braswell, lives in Turlock, Calif. They have 13 grandchildren, 29 great-grandchildren and five great-great-grandchildren.

Mr. Richey helped organize the Grassland Church of the Nazarene and he and his wife have been members ever since. He is remembered throughout the area for his revival singing, as well as singing at other events.

With a twinkle in his eyes, Mr. Richey explained to a reporter that his wife's real name is Nora but he has always called her Sue. He said he knew someone named Nora once that he didn't like so "just changed his wife's name while he was courting her."

He also commented that "I have all my hair and all my teeth so that proves that I've lived with a good woman all these years."

Mrs. Richey pointed out that they have two nieces, Mrs. Bernice Gribble and Mrs. Laverne McCleskey, who live nearby and "look after them."

Gifts are shown at club meeting

Mrs. Pearl Polk showed several articles she has made for Christmas gifts and for her home at a recent meeting of the Mystic Sewing Club in the home of Mrs. Edna McLendon.

Among articles shown were a hanging lamp made from egg cartons, plaques and desk accessories. Mrs. Estelle Moreland was welcomed back into the club after a leave of absence.

Mrs. McLendon served tuna sandwiches, open-faced crackers spread with cheese, pie, potato chips, coffee and tea to:

Mmes. Maudie Hankins, Catherine Rankin, Jimmie Hudman, Mae Shipley, Polk, Opal Williams and Nell Windham and Miss Henrietta Nichols.

Mrs. Estelle Nichols will be hostess of the next meeting.

Bride-elect is shower honoree

Miss Teresa Maddox, bride-elect of Glen Williams, was honored with a bridal shower in the Community Room Monday night.

Guests were received by Miss Maddox, her mother, Mrs. Thurman Maddox, and the mother of the prospective bridegroom, Mrs. Racy Robinson.

Approximately 50 guests were registered by Miss Donna Maddox, sister of the honoree.

Refreshments of punch, bride's cookies, mints and nuts were served by Miss Sue Harrison and Mrs. Dennis Odom from a table covered with lace over gold and centered with a bouquet of yellow mums. White streamers encribed with "Glen" and "Teresa" in avocado extended from the arrangement. Crystal appointments were used.

Hostesses were: Billie Cross, Sandra Claborn, Billie Windham, Mary Nelson, Juanita Parrish, Mabel Dunlap, Zula Horton, Marge Lee, Bonnie Tyler, Billie Redman, Jewel White, Opal Rudd, Cordie Johnson, Flora Fry, Louise Gordon, Cleo Sappington, Lois Childs, Mozelle Rogers, Claudine Tipton, Patsy Craig, Oreta Bevers, Cherry Eckols, Gracie Hodges, Eva Britton, Loree Thaxton and June Kiker and Miss Gloria Cisneros.

My favorite time of the year — fall and football — got off to a glorious start last Friday night.

Love those Antelopes! They played that game with Hale Center just right and I came back to Post to claim the office "pot" by hitting the score right on the button—21-7.

The office "pot" is not to be confused with the kind of "pot" which is smoked.

Five football games in one weekend is a bit much even for one who loves the sport so the only one I really watch is the Post Antelope-Hale Center Owl game.

I did occasionally join Mr. C for snatches of all the ones which were on TV throughout the weekend. I've been reading all the "cute" articles written by various ones telling how a wife who is married to a TV football watcher (and I'll put Mr. C up against anyone in that category) can make intelligent remarks during the game and enter into the spirit of the thing. I've got news for those writers. If every man gets as engrossed as Mr. C remarks, intelligent or otherwise, are just wasted. He forgets that I'm even around as he mutters and frets from one game to the next.

Even if the Dallas Cowboys did get beat, I don't know when I've enjoyed watching a pro game more. That Roger Staubach is my kind of football player. You can take all that smooth professionalism and do with it what thou wilt but there is nothing more enjoyable to watch than a razzle-dazzle runner and no one can deny that Roger is that.

I'm sure he'll finally succumb to being a pro payer like all the rest but in the meantime I'm planning to enjoy, enjoy.

We got a sneak preview of the new pep squad uniforms at the Hale Center game and they are darling. I was so sick of those black pleated skirts I wasn't sure I could stand another season. My congratulations to whoever instigated the change!

Barring death in the immediate family Mr. C and I will be in Lubbock town Saturday night to watch J. T.'s "people" make their football debut.

As those "people" are playing the University of Kansas in their opening game, I'll find out how much of a Texan I've become in about 12 and one-half years. If I don't get carried away by Kansas by leaping to my feet and screaming "Rock, Chalk, Jayhawk" I'll know that a little bit of Texas has rubbed off on me.

Back to Roger a minute. I've even been reading the sports pages since HE played Sunday and have been most amused about all the griping of the defensive players on the Baltimore Colt team for all the energy they had to expend in trying to keep up with my boy.

I like to see people earn their money — especially when they make that kind of money!

POST ANTELOPES

VS.

Lockney Longhorns

One game does not a season make, but—the big Post fan contingent who saw the victory at Hale Center drove home convinced that Coach Billy Hahn's Post High Antelopes will be district contenders again.

The district square off comes later and the business at hand this week is the home opener against Lockney's Longhorns, a much better club than the Hale Center Owls from the same district. Lockney demolished a rebuilding Crosbyton club, 34-6, in its opener.

If the Lopes can stay healthy and continue to improve, they are sure to be mighty interesting in the "watching department."

Friday night's shoot-out in Antelope Stadium should be something to see. It shapes up as a rugged, evenly matched crowd-pleaser.

Speaking of crowds, be sure YOU are there. The Lopes this season deserve to have all of YOU there supporting them.

New student is from 'far north'; dislikes hippies

By Billy Williams

One of our new students this year is Gaylynn Jay Smith from Pierre, S. D. Gaylynn said he finds the school different because there are no study halls and the dress code is different.

Gaylynn gave some of his favorites, likes and dislikes to me. His favorite group is the C. C. Revival and his favorite song is "We Gotta to All Get Together." He does have varied likes such as: hunting, bareback bronc riding, stock cars, drag races, outdoors, cycling, cooking, swimming, boxing, football, blue eyes, and soul music. By the way, he plays the guitar and drums and he sings.

Gaylynn doesn't like white socks, large cities, hippies, Ramblers, or winter. He's very definite about not liking white socks. Wonder why? Gaylynn's future plans are something else. He wants to go to college and participate in ROTC. When he gets out he wants to be an officer in the Air Force. You know why? So when he asks a girl out he can say, "Come Fly With Me." Honest! All in all, he sounds like a well-rounded person doesn't he?

Next week there will be another new student interviewed. Everyone exhibit that "Texas Hospitality" and become acquainted with the new students.

Student says dress for comfort, learn better

By BILLYE WILLIAMS

I had the opportunity to question one of our most interesting students, Timmons Bull, this past week.

When asked why he wears long hair, Timmons said, "I like it because I'm a musician and it's good for business."

I asked him what he thought about the policy on hair and skirts. He said, "I don't think it's any of anybody's business as long as it doesn't conflict with the primary purpose of school. You should be able to dress in the way you feel most comfortable, thus you can learn better."

Recently, Timmons attended a music festival at Lewisville and I asked his opinion of the people. He replied, "These people are the most honest, most open-minded people I know. You don't have to prove anything, they accept you as you are. It was really an experience. Beautiful is the only word for these people. They could make the most out of any situation, they shared everything, and they knew how to get along together and live together. The movement is breaking away from social customs. These people are really true individuals and they are really honest with themselves."

When I asked him if people should conform he said, "Yes, but only to a certain point. Conformity is when a person gives to the social pressures. The point at which conformity should stop is when the changes the person makes begin to affect his own personal desires and happiness."

Timmons' future plans are further participation in music, college and eventual marriage. Timmons is our first student of the week. Expect more opinions from other interesting people.

Much spirit is generated at big pep rally

Friday, Sept. 12, spirit in Post High School was higher than it has been in many years. The halls were draped in black and gold streamers, and long signs supporting the 'Lopes were hung throughout.

The cheerleaders, Kay Altman, Pam Petty, Sherry Bird, S. y. n Thomas, Nancy Cook and Pat Johnson, sold tags reading, "Pluck the Owls."

At 3:15 everyone gathered in the gym for the pep rally. The stands were packed and everybody led their spirit come through. The cheerleaders had worked up a great program to start the season with. It consisted of a skit, yells, chants, and the band.

Afterwards, everyone was invited to join the snake dance, which weaved in and out among cars downtown and stopped under the red light to boost the boys out of town to Hale Center.

Everyone is invited to come to

After seriously considering building an ark to take me from home to school, the rain has finally stopped.

The Senior class had their pictures made Monday through Thursday. There was some controversy over what the girls would wear but the problem was solved and the pictures were made.

Last Friday afternoon the Junior high and high school student body had a pep rally. The gym was full of spirit as the band played and the students did yells for the Antelopes. Following the pep rally there was a snake dance. The pep rally must have really spirited the Antelopes as they won their first game.

The bonfire is tonight at about 8-8:30 on FM-1313 on a lot just outside of town. The public is invited.

Don't forget about the dance tomorrow night featuring the "Apple-Glass Cyndom," after the game, from 9 till 12:30.

Robert Torres got his hip dislocated Wednesday at football practice. He is supposed to be in the hospital for about three weeks. We want to wish him a speedy recovery.

My question: What sophomore boy wound up with his dinner in his lap Wednesday? Well, until next week, so long.

Action slows on paving proposal

The proposed city street paving program bogged down at a city council meeting last Thursday night when the council and Ronnie Purteit, fiscal agent representing the paving contractor, failed to reach an agreement on the procedure for filing paving liens.

The fiscal agent asked the council to pass a "closing" ordinance that would provide for a "blanket" lien to be filed against all property involved in the paving project.

The council, on the other hand, wanted the fiscal agent to contact the property owners involved before any liens are filed.

Both sides agreed to postpone action on the closing ordinance until Purteit's attorneys and Pat N. Walker, the city's attorney, confer on the matter.

United Fund—

The Garza County United Fund campaign this year will be conducted at the same time as other county fund drives on the South Plains in late October and early November.

Directors attending last Thursday's organizational meeting included Lonnie Peel, Mrs. Lorrye McAlister, Kent Magness, Bailey Mayo, retiring president of the organization, Miller, Pollard, and Mr. and Mrs. Marks.

State Missions topic of meeting program

"Behold! My Neighbor" was the topic for a program on State Missions enjoyed by Mrs. Wayne Strunk, Mrs. Eula B. Smith, Mrs. Clarence Gunn and Mrs. B. A. Jones Tuesday afternoon at the Friendship Baptist Church.

Every year at this time the Women's Missionary Union promotes a "Week of Prayer" for state missions. A covered dish luncheon was served at noon.

Hospital board—

(Continued From Front Page) several meetings and the step was not unexpected as far as he was concerned, but the only way to keep the hospital open.

Heretofore, the county has had to provide such funds but with the election this spring approving the Garza County Hospital District the hospital trustees are now "on their own" financially.

It is The Dispatch's understanding that the selection of Windham to be the hospital administrator was not the issue which brought the resignations, but the lack of notification of the meeting and the timing of the hiring of a new administrator at a time when the hospital district needed bank money to tide them over for a period of weeks.

Jaycees—

(Continued From Front Page) of Mrs. O'Hair, who started a letter campaign to NASA asking that the Apollo 11 astronauts be censured for reading from the Bible while in space and that such religious activities be banned in future space flights.

"We did nothing as an organization to stop her from removing prayer from our public schools, and she was successful," said Eddie Dyer, state Jaycee president.

"If we do believe," Dyer continued, "that 'faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life,' then we must do something to preserve the rights of all Americans to freedom of religious choice and expression."

Individuals wishing to write NASA may obtain already-printed letters at various local stores, sign them, and leave them for pick-up by Post Jaycees.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY

The Dispatch erred last week in identifying Pat Johnson, freshman cheerleader, as Trena Jackson in the front page picture of the cheerleaders. Both Pat and Trena are freshmen this year, but Pat is the cheerleader. We are sorry for the error and apologize to both girls.

Hurricane relief funds fall short

Officials of the Garza County chapter of the American Red Cross said today that only $33, all from private citizens, had been contributed here to the Hurricane Camille relief fund.

The appeal for funds was made by the county chapter a few weeks ago after the national Red Cross had assigned Garza County a quota. The local chapter sent in what funds it had, but this amount did not meet the quota, resulting in the appeal for contributions.

There is still time to contribute to the fund, officials said. Contributions should be made to Dean A. Robinson or Jim Sexton.

Chapman's park—

Joe Bailey, a Jaycee leader here until he moved to Perryton recently, helped Chapman build the pipe fence. Chapman hired a man to plow the lots and level them.

Rocker A employees dropped by to volunteer some of the welding work necessary to build much of the playground equipment. The pipe to water the park was borrowed from the Little League and the city installed a water tap.

Chapman says "numerous people" helped one way or another to push the project along.

City Manager Bobby Pierce donated the slide; the swings, jungle gym and see-saws were welded together by Chapman and others. The merry-go-round was donated by Dennis Guichard and moved to the park from the abandoned Lincoln school yard.

Chapman and his wife, Rosemary, hosted a hot dog and soda pop party for some 50 area youngsters who had helped paint the equipment, pull weeds, and pick up glass from the area. It was held Sunday evening, Sept. 7 — at the park of course.

There's only one remaining step to be taken as far as the park and

City budget—

(Continued From Front Page) department is about the same, $30,601.50 in the new budget, as compared with 1969-70 expenditures of $30,294.32.

Set up for the cemetery is $7,995, with an increase in caretakers' salaries accounting for the gain over actual expenditures of $7,778.11 last year.

Budgeted for the park is $4,015, an increase of nearly $600, with a caretaker's salary increase accounting for most of the gain.

THE LIBRARY figure of $1,500 is the same as actual expenditures in 1969 - 70, but $1,075 of the total is budgeted for books and magazines, as compared with $750 spent last year. The 1969 - 70 library expenditures included a $750 remodeling project.

Figures for the water and sewer department budget are as follows, new budget figure first and actual 1969-70 expenditures second: General and Administrative: $20,554.25; $18,493.84.

Distribution: $18,914; $13,148.45. Equipment: $3,100; $4,676.12.

Sewage: $62,650; $2,429.62. The $60,000 increase here is for disposal plant enlargement scheduled for the coming year.

Water and sewer fund receipts for the new fiscal year are set at $213,493.55 in the new budget, as compared with actual receipts of $199,629.99 in 1968-69.

SONS VISIT HERE

Spending the weekend in the home of Mrs. Docie Woods and her daughter, Mrs. Joe Barner, were Mrs. Woods' sons and families of Dallas. They are Mr. and Mrs. James Talley Williams and Darlene and Louis Williams Jr.

The group helped Ardell Williams celebrate his birthday with a surprise party Sunday. This was the first time the family had been together all at the same time in three years.

That is for the city to step in and buy the lots on which the park and playground is located. The already impressed city council has been asked to look into the matter and take action on it.

4-H Play Day is set for Oct. 11

Oct. 11 has been set as the date of a 4-H Club Play Day to be held at the Post Stampede Rodeo arena beginning at 9 a. m., with the Graham 4-H Horse Club as sponsor.

Melvina Stewart, vice president; Sue Cowdrey, secretary - treasurer; Jimmy Norman, reporter, and Gary Bilbo and Jan Bilbo, council delegates.

Sponsors are the Wagoner Johnsons, J. L. Hedricks and Noel White.

Postings—

(Continued From Front Page) ant, the community now has three physicians in practice here and that should mean added patients for the hospital. This is the big gain which can in the end mean the community will win its long fight to keep its hospital.

Selection of a local business man to serve as hospital administrator in our view is a logical step. The turnover in experienced, trained hospital administrators in a hospital with only 26 beds is high (as our record shows) because there is a tremendous shortage of all types of professional help in the hospital field and they simply go on to better jobs at bigger salaries. That hurts trustee's efforts to stabilize hospital operations here.

Small town business men long ago have discovered that the best way to obtain good employees and prevent high turnover is to hire workers with roots in the community and train them on the job. Certainly, there is no reason to believe that the same method won't work for securing an efficient hospital administrator. The city has hired local men to be city managers the last two times around and have come off very well in both transactions.

Our hospital trustees have a tough job. We hope folks will "stay off their back" and instead of criticizing will encourage them.

Yes sir, we're convinced we're making real gains in solving our hospital problem.

Lockney to be Antelope foe in Friday's home opener

Both teams winners in first games last week

The Post Antelopes and Lockney Longhorns, winners of their season opener last Friday night, will clash here this Friday in the Antelopes' first home game of the campaign, with the kickoff set for 5 p. m.

The Longhorns trounced Crosbyton, 34 to 6, last Friday night, while the 'Lopes were sweeping past Hale Center, 21 to 7.

Lockney, long on both speed and experience, has a better ball club than Hale Center, Coach Billy Hahn said. "They're a senior ball club and have more speed and poise than the Owls," the coach commented.

Post scouts report that the Longhorns looked good against Crosbyton, but that they weren't up against much opposition, since the Crosbyton team is rebuilding following heavy losses by graduation.

THE LONGHORNS' speed merchant, Robert Duckworth, a 125-pound, senior two-year letterman, brought the opening kickoff back 80 yards for Lockney's first touchdown against Crosbyton. Other touchdowns were scored by quarterback Lanny Glasscock on a 25-yard run, Tracy Dickson on a 59-yard punt return, and Charlie Mathis, Doug Hodel and Gregg Freeman on short runs.

Lockney turns its offense from a regular T-formation, similar to that of Hale Center. The 'Horns are reported to have shown strength in the passing department in preseason scrimmages, but stuck to the ground against Crosbyton Friday night.

The tough Lockney defense is led by linebacker Tim Jeffress, a 175-pound, senior three-year letterman who plays at an end position on offense.

Lanny Glasscock, 162 pounds, and Hershel Smith, 153 pounds, both seniors, ran at quarterback in the Longhorns' opening game. Other backfield dependables include Gary Mangold, 155-pound senior; Tracy Dickson, 145-pound senior; Doug Hodel, 173-pound senior, and Charlie Mathis, 163-pound sophomore.

THE 'LOPES came through the Hale Center game minus serious injuries. Tackle Steve Newby received a cut between the eyes that required six stitches to close, but he hasn't missed a workout, Coach Hahn said.

Junior quarterback Robert Pace who hasn't seen action because of a knee injury received in practice hasn't rejoined the squad yet, but is expected to "before long," Hahn said. Junior running back Larry Bilberry is still slowed with a leg injury, but saw brief service in the opening game. Bilberry's trouble is an infected leg bruise, or blood clot, according to the coach.

Coach Hahn said he and other members of the coaching staff were well pleased with the team's fine showing against Hale Center. "The boys had a few letdowns after each score, but all in all they did a fine job," he stated.

The hustling Post team, in Friday night's game, will be out to avenge a 30-0 defeat pinned on them by Lockney a year ago.

Boosters elect Hall president

Bill Hall was elected president of the Antelope Booster Club at its organizational meeting in the fieldhouse Monday night which followed a showing of the Hale Center game film and a scouting report on Lockney made by Coach Kenny Poole.

Fred Myers was named vice president by the 35 boosters who turned out for the first Monday night session of the season.

Elwood Wright, retiring president, thanked all those who helped with the "Welcome Our Antelopes" barbecue and reported that the club's financial position is good. He said Pat Walker has volunteered to have his office continue to keep the club's books and handle the finances, so a secretary-treasurer was not elected.

Wright said the club proposes to publish a full financial report in next week's Dispatch so fans will know the disposition of booster club funds.

Coach Billy Hahn reports the football program as "looking good" for the long haul with a total of 73 high school boys now suited out for football. He said several more have been asking for suits and the big football interest has created the kind of problems we like — dressing space in the fieldhouse locker room.

In the game film, Hahn stopped several times and ran it in slow motion to show some of the many blocking or tackling plays.

On Neff Walker's 62-yard run, the Antelopes put every Hale Center lineman on the ground and had an opening four yards wide for the halfback to cavort through.

On quarterback Ray Altman's cutback run for the first touchdown, the films showed split end Jay Bird leveling the only secondary man with a shot at Altman with a tremendous open field block.

Tackle David Perez on one of the Lopes' line plays not only flattened one Owl at the line but drove another five yards off the ball carrier without going down. These were but a few of the plays the boosters enjoyed that the fans seldom see because the action is so fast and most follow the ball.

Coach Poole told the boosters in the scouting report that Lockney "looked real tough" in their 34-6 win over Crosbyton. "They're not big, but have a lot of speed and are real quick," Poole said. Poole said they didn't show much on offense due to the lack of opposition by Crosbyton. "They played their second or third teams a lot, ran some sweeps and didn't have to pass," Poole said.

Head Coach Hahn told the boosters club that Lockney will be "quite a bit tougher than Hale Center."

Impressive in 21-7 victory

'Lopes open campaign with win over Owls

Flashing their best form in more than two years, the Post Antelopes drubbed the Hale Center Owls, 21 to 7, at Hale Center last Friday night for their first opening game victory since 1966.

Several hundred Post fans made the trip to Hale Center to watch the 'Lopes get off on the right foot under new head coach Billy Hahn. After mulling several scoring opportunities in the first quarter and the first few minutes of the second period, the Antelopes lit up the scoreboard with 5:50 of the first half remaining on a nifty 19-yard run by quarterback Ray Altman, with Randy Hudman booting the extra point — his first of three for the night.

Post scored its second touchdown with only 39 seconds of the first half remaining when Neff Walker broke three tackles to score from nine yards out after having set up the TD on a sparkling 62-yard run.

THE OWLS, who made only two first downs and 47 yards rushing against the stout Post defense in the first half, came to life in the second half and made it close on the first play of the fourth quarter when halfback Wilmer Briggs zigzagged 44 yards for a touchdown and fullback Johnny Davis booted the extra point.

It was some seven uneasy minutes for the 'Lopes before they notched their third touchdown on a beautifully executed four-yard pass from Altman to Walker.

Post's first threat came early in the game after Jay Bird returned quarterback Tommy Dyer's punt 32 yards from the Antelope 33 to the Owl 35.

Walker carried twice for 10 yards, but George Torres fumbled after an 11-yard blast through the line, and the Owls recovered on their 14.

THEY STILL couldn't move, however, and Post came back on another drive from the Hale Center 42, only to lose the ball on downs on the 33 after a five-yard penalty had wiped out a first down run by Karl Hall.

The Owls made it up to their 46 before running out of downs and punted to Terry Moreau on the Post 25, where the 'Lope safety bobbled the ball, but recovered on the 28.

With Walker and Torres ripping off good gains behind sharp blocking in the line, the Antelopes drove to the Owl 16, where Hudman's field goal attempt fell short.

The Antelopes cranked up their first touchdown drive early in the second period after the Owls punted out of bounds on the Post 25.

Hall picked up six yards, then Walker and Torres alternated in grinding down to the Hale Center 20, where it appeared the drive might falter after an apparent signal mix-up resulted in Walker getting only a yard at the line. With the ball on the 19, Altman kept, cut to the right, shook off a pair of tacklers and raced across for the first 'Lope TD of the new season.

THE OWLS returned the kickoff to their 33, but gambled on a fourth down and one situation, with lineman David Stelzer nabbing Dyer for a four-yard loss on the Hale Center 38. The 'Lopes couldn't go, however, and Altman punted to the 15, with Briggs returning 11 yards to the 26. The Owls came up to their 44 for a first down, but bogged down there and punted to the Post 25.

After a halfback pass, Torres to Hall, gained three yards, Walker broke loose on his spine-tingling 62-yard run to the Owl 10. Torres got a yard at center, with 39 seconds to go in the half, and on second down, Walker went nine yards for the score.

After being backed up to the five-yard line on the second half kickoff, the Antelopes came back to the Owl 36 before Briggs intercepted an Altman pass to halt the thrust.

The Owls got a power sweep around the left side of the Post line going following the interception, but lineman Steve Newboy pounced on a Hale Center fumble at the Owl 47 to halt the proceedings.

TORRES carried for four after a five-yard penalty had set the 'Lopes back, and Altman passed to Walker for 16 yards and a first down on the Owl 28. Hale Center covered a Post fumble on the 26 to stop the 'Lopes.

The Owls came back up to the Post 46, where once again they failed on a fourth down gamble. A few plays later, it was Post losing the ball on downs, with the Owls gaining possession on their 33.

Hale Center started its touchdown drive from that point, with a pass interference ruling giving them a first down on their 49. Helped along by a five-yard penalty, the Owls fought to the Post 44, from where Briggs slanted off his left end, cut back and outran the Post secondary for the touchdown.

The Owls kept their momentum going after Post was unable to move, with Briggs returning Altman's punt 24 yards to the 'Lope 39. Davis picked up two at the line, but Dyer was held for no gain on a keeper, and Robert Bullock batted down a pass near the goal line. On fourth down, Newby stopped Dyer for a one-yard loss, and it was Post's ball on their 38.

WALKER AND Torres alternated in ground-eating gains to take the ball to the Hale Center 28, from where Altman kept for 10 yards and a first down on the 18. Torres gained six at the line, then cut back at end for three, and Hall rained for five and a first down on the four. Altman, on the option, found Walker free in the right corner and passed to him for the touchdown, with 4:49 left in the game.

Following the Post kickoff, the Owls drove to the Post 23, but fine defensive work, including bone-jarring tackles by Jimmy McKamie and linebacker Ralph Menchaca, halted Hale Center there, with Hall breaking up a fourth down pass at the goal line to give Post the ball on the 23 with 2:06 remaining.

With Bullock at quarterback and a number of other Post reserves in the line-up, the 'Lopes had made it back up to their 42 at the final whistle.

Out on a Limb

Lockney at POST. The Year of the Lopes.

MORTON at FRIONA. Too many Indians, not enough Chiefs.

TAHOKA at CROSBYTON. Looks easy from here.

FRENSHIP at LORENZO. Look who they're picking on!

LOVINGTON at DENVER CITY. Big Red bounces back—we think.

IDALOU at PETERSBURG. Might be close.

OLTON at CANYON. Not the Year of the Mustangs.

MULSHOE at ABERNATHY. To keep down family trouble, we shouldn't do this.

TULIA at FLOYDADA. In a close one.

HALE CENTER at SPRINGLAKE. Wolverines tougher this year.

KANSAS at TEXAS TECH. Jayhawks rated No. 2 in Big Eight Conference.

Two Post teams go to Floydada

The Post freshman and junior varsity teams will open their football season today (Thursday) at Floydada, with the freshman game scheduled for 5:30 p. m.

Both teams have seen action in scrimmages, Coach Kenneth Poole's junior varsity against Petersburg, and the freshmen of Coaches Bud Davis and Bert Leaverton against Spur.

The freshman team was dealt a severe blow last week when running back Robert Torres, who also played defensive halfback, suffered a dislocated hip that will sideline him for the season. "He was a real fine boy; we hate to lose him," Coach Davis said.

Coach Poole named as his probable starters on offense against Floydada: Larry Hair and Scotty Hoyle, ends; James McAfee and Mike Feagin, tackles; Don Eilenberger and Tommy Zachary, guard; Danny Rose, center; Kelly Duren, quarterback; David Hart and Kyle Josey, running backs, and Bobby Norman, wingback.

Other members of the junior varsity squad, all expected to see action today, are: Ronald Tyler, Pat Ayala, Tony Rosas, Ricky Hair, Sonny Bevers, Ted Curtis, David Saldivar, Robert Saldivar, Earl Harper, David Woods, Jimmy Branson, Gary Shepherd and Glen Branson.

STYLE

By Bernard S. Ramsey

A certain flair or style is significant in nearly everything we do, and nowhere is it more important than in politics.

The dull politician may be a good man, but he bores us. Mayor LaGuardia of New York said one time: "I could run on a laundry ticket and beat those political bums anytime." What he had that those "bums" did not have was an exciting style that lifted up the hopes of the people. You remember the time he read the comics over the air to the children because there was a newspaper strike.

The Christian ought to have style, and when he loses it, the Church gets dull.

Today we are looking for something new and radical to revive interest in Christianity. I think we look in the wrong place and seek the wrong methods. Once the wonder of the Gospel and the excitement of the Good News hit a man, he becomes an exciting person. The dull preacher and the dull layman have lost the sense of what God has done through Christ and who they are.

But don't give up on the Church—try it again this Sunday. Who knows the preacher might really preach the Gospel and maybe work up a sweat and really get excited about it.

'Sneak thieves' active in Southland vicinity

By TOMMIE WILKE
Well, it is fall and once again, in every year, the "sneak thieves" are hard at work. Several in the community have been unaccounted for and a lot of things have been taken. Better be on guard against this, keeping your doors and windows locked and giving your dog explicit orders what to do in case a stranger comes while you are away. It is indeed a sad thing that there are "these kind of people" who go out and steal other than put in an hour of honest labor for an honest dollar.

cotton can start opening. Sure would be nice to have a little money jingling in our pockets once again.
Our sympathies to Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Stolle whose aunt passed away and was buried last week. May God comfort this family in their sorrow.
We extend our deepest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cummings whose brother, Cecil Cummings, died on Saturday in a Llano hospital after a long illness. Cecil was a retired barber and had lived in Post many years. May God comfort this family in their sorrow.
The Rev. J. H. Sharp, pastor of the Southland Methodist Church, reported Monday morning that he had better attendance last Sunday than any other Sunday since he has been here. That is wonderful news!

Academic honor pins for 1968-69 were handed out last Friday before the weekly pep rally to the following students: Breonne Winterrowd, Joan Gindorf, Douglas Smallwood, David Mock, Sherri and Darrell Wilke and Cathy Long. These students made at least an "A" average in all subjects during the school terms, and they are to be commended. Congratulations to each of you!

Surprised that Pontiac's setting the style for the umpteenth straight year? Of course not. But you may be a bit dazzled to find out that Pontiac finally outdid Pontiac. Take Bonneville. From the strong, new bumper grille to the standard 455 under the hood, it's a rouser. Inside: instant limousine. So luxurious some of the traditional big boys are already screaming. One of the nicest things we could have done for Grand Prix's luxury was to leave it alone. We did. But we popped in a 455 V-8 for you to order. (It's an old Pontiac proverb that luxury

We'll show you that one if you check the right box on the order form. By now, you've spotted our '70 GTO. But maybe you haven't heard it.
