Thousands expected to attend 'day at lake'

Saturday's event is second annual

The second annual White River Day is expected to attract thousands Saturday to the pretty canyon lake in southern Crosby County for a fun-filled seven-hour program co-sponsored by the Chambers of Commerce of Post, Rails, Spur and Crosbyton.

One of the features of the day begins at 10:30 a. m. — the selection of Miss White River Lake from among eight young beauties representing the four member towns of the water district.

Post's representatives, chosen in a preliminary beauty contest sponsored by Post Jaycees and held Aug. 29, are Pam Petty and Martha Miller.

The contest, scheduled to take but 30 minutes, will be held on the steak house parking lot on the west side of the lake. Judging will be by representatives of the Jean Johnson Success School.

Miss White River Lake will be crowned at 11:09 a. m.

Included on the day-long program, which begins with the first drops by sky divers at 10 a. m., will be Boy Scout canoe races, three classes of speedboat races, a slalom ski contest open to residents of the White River Lake District trade area are: the firemen's water polo contest, the judging of antique cars, an exhibition by the Lubbock Water Ski Club, a fishing contest, a plugging contest, and demonstrations of radio controlled model airplanes.

The ski divers all from Lubbock will make series of jumps during the program, at 10 a. m., 1:45 p. m., 4 p. m. and at 6:30 p. m. when they will drop into the lake itself.

The canoe races are billed at 11:30 a. m., the speed boat races will start at 2 p. m., the water ski contest is at 3 p. m., the firemen's water polo contest is scheduled for 4:02, as are the sail boat races, and the judging of the antique cars at 4:30 p. m.

The Lubbock water ski club will stage its exhibition at 5 p. m. and an hour later the fishing contest will end with a prize going to the largest bass caught during the day from the lake on a hand line.

The plugging contest will start at 6 p. m. and the program will end at 6:45 with the radio controlled model airplanes.

The firemen's water polo contest, which will be held near the pump-house on the west side of the lake, will consist of a single elimination tournament of three-man teams from the volunteer fire departments of Post, Crosbyton, Rails and Spur.

An eight inch aluminum ball, attached to a line stretched 10 feet or more in the air between two poles, is the "primary object" of the water hoses.

With the ball starting in the middle of the line, water from the competing fire hoses are used to push it to one end or the other advancing a round and of course getting thoroughly soaked in so doing. One contest rule is that the hoses can't be aimed in the faces of the opposing team to blind them.

Last rites held for Raymon Key

Funeral services for Raymon Jackson Key, 79, a resident of the Justiceburg community since 1937, were held at 10 a. m. Monday at the Justiceburg Baptist Church.

Mr. Key was found dead in his home Saturday morning, apparently of a heart attack. His wife had gone to the mail box and found him dead when she returned to the house.

He was born in Stonewall County and was married to Mona Ora Wallace on Oct. 19, 1937, at Lewisville. He was a Baptist.

Survivors include his wife; a son, Jerry Key of Farmington, N. M.; two brothers, Henry Key of Justiceburg and Arvil (Doc) Key of Houston; three sisters, Mrs. Ethel Barsley of Coppell, Mrs. Marie (Bargley Key Funeral, page 5)

A Crosbyton team won the competition last year.

The White River Lake program will be broadcast throughout the day by KCLR, the Rails radio station, and those attending the event are urged to bring radios or sue their car radios to keep informed as the program unfolds.

The final planning session of the White River Lake Day committee was held last night at the lake. Fred Myers represents the Post Chamber of Commerce on the committee.

One last-minute schedule change announced last night was cancellation of the jet flyover at 11:10 a. m. because Reese Air Force officials could not work it in. Another change was the scheduling of the sail boat races at 4 p. m.

These changes do not appear in the program published on page 11.

The complete program for the big "lake day" appears in an ad on page 11 of today's Dispatch and those planning to attend are urged to clip the program and take it with them.

Post student returns from visit to Europe

Don Collier, Post High School senior, and a group of more than 140 other high school students and teachers spent part of July and most of August seeing the sights and studying comparative culture and government in four European countries.

Dozens of such study groups visit Europe annually, but Don feels that their visit might have been unique because of the fact that events of historical importance took place in each of the four countries while they were there.

"While we were in Spain," Don related, "the nation's leader, Franco, established a monarchy to take over after he is through. During our visit to Italy, a temporary military government was set up; while in France the franc was devalued, and during the time we spent in England the riots were in full blast in Northern Ireland."

ALL THE others in the group with which the Post student toured Europe are from the Oakland, Calif., area. The teachers included Darrell Stone, formerly of Post, who has taught school in San Jose, Calif., for the last several years.

They left Oakland by jet at 1 a. m. July 20, crossing North America by the Hudson Bay route, and arrived in Madrid, Spain, at 10:30 that night.

High points of their visit to Madrid ranged from attending a bull fight to a reception by the mayor of the city. Some of the students, including Don, tried their own hand at bull fighting when they visited Torre Molinos, a ranch where the fighting bulls are raised.

They visited Toledo and the home of El Greco, the painter, and at Segovia saw La Granja, the summer home of the Spanish kings.

The group's ten days in Rome included a visit to St. Peter's and the Vatican and an audience with Pope Paul VI. They saw the Sistine Chapel and the Catacombs, and a performance of the opera, "Aida," in the ruins of the Caracalla Baths.

DON DESCRIBED as "fascinating" a performance they attended of "Sound and Light," which traces the history of the Roman Empire and is presented in the ruins of the Forum. "There were no people in the production — just sound and light," Don said.

Another highlight of their visit to Italy was a swim at Ostia Antica, where the beach is of black volcanic sand.

They travelled by train — first class — from Italy to France, where they took up residence at Compiegne, about 44 miles from Paris.

Rites conducted for Jeff Yarbro

Funeral services for Jeff Davis Yarbro, 79, of 314 South Ave. H, who died about 10:30 p. m. Monday in Garza Memorial Hospital, were held at 10 a. m. today (Thursday) in the Calvary Baptist Church, of which he was a member.

Mr. Yarbro, a retired farmer, had been a resident of Post and vicinity for 28 years. He died after a short illness, having been admitted to the hospital last Thursday.

Born March 9, 1890, in Robert Lee, he was married to Ida Caraway on Nov. 17, 1909, at Lamesa.

Surviving are his wife; five sons, Hawley B. of Toyah, Dennis C. of Houston, Carl P. of Buckeye, Ariz., and Hubert A. and Willard A. Yarbro, both of Post; five daughters, Mrs. Frances Murphy of Ponca City, Okla., Mrs. Raymond Guinn of Bandera, Mrs. Viola Halama of West Allis, Wisc., Mrs. B. T. Eubanks of Mineral Wells and Mrs. Eunice Pope of Tomball; one brother, Tommy Yarbro of Carlsbad, N. M.; three sisters, Mrs. Nannie Brazel of Yucata, Calif., and Mrs. Laura Grimes and Mrs. Edith Muller, both of Palm Springs, Calif.; 17 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

Optimism for new paving follows Thursday hearing

Although most of the 60 property owners who turned out for the public hearing on the city's proposed paving program last Thursday evening in City Hall registered objections, the representatives of the Municipal Investment Corp., of Lubbock, which will finance the program, went home encouraged.

There was not as much opposition as some had anticipated and there were those who wanted the paving.

Both Ronnie Purcell, the Municipal Investment Corp. representative, and Donald Windham, mayor pro-tem who presided over the hearing, assured the group that the city is not trying to force the paving against taxpayers' wishes.

All city council members but

Mayor Giles McCrary, who was out of town, were on hand for the hearing which had to be rescheduled because the council did not understand the first time that it had to be present.

Purcell opened the meeting by reviewing the city's paving proposition as set forth in the letter mailed all affected property owners.

He said the cost of the paving and curb and guttering was set up in four payments with the 25 percent down payment due within 20 days after the city engineer and the city council accepted the completed paving with the balance due in three equal annual installments at eight per cent simple interest.

SCHOOL MARKER DEDICATED SUNDAY

Stone, Mrs. Lucile McBride, Mrs. Fred Gossett, Mrs. Walter Boren, Mrs. Wilbourn Morris, Quannah Maxey and Elva Peel.

Hundreds gather for Graham homecoming

With the consolidation of schools and other developments, communities are changing, but we couldn't tell it out here today," Mrs. Gwendolyn Boren, acting chairman of the Garza County Historical Survey Committee, told approximately 300 persons attending the homecoming and marker dedication Sunday afternoon at the site of the old Graham Chapel School in the Graham community.

It was, indeed, like old times with hundreds of residents and former residents of the community and their descendants gathered for the homecoming, which began at 6:30 p. m. Saturday with registration at the Community Center, followed by an ice cream supper and musical entertainment by the H. C. Gribble family.

Mrs. Boren's talk accompanied her presentation of the Official Texas Historical Marker at the school site and of historical medallions for the Graham Church of Christ and the Graham Methodist Church.

MRS. BOREN gave a little of the history of the school, which was established in 1904 as the second school in the county.

Quannah Maxey, Community Center chairman, accepted the historical marker on behalf of the community and commended everyone who helped make the marker possible.

Acceptance of the Church of Christ medallion was by E. E. (Elva) Peel, an elder of the church, with the Rev. Carl Oglesby accepting the plaque for the Methodist Church. Both Mr. Peel and the Rev. Mr. Oglesby spoke briefly on the history of their respective churches.

The historical marker dedication began at 4:30 p. m. Sunday, with Mrs. Lucile McBride as mistress of ceremonies. Alvin G. Davis of Levelland gave the invocation, and Mrs. James Stone welcomed ex-students and teachers.

Mrs. Wilbourn Morris, general chairman of activities, recognized the following: Dean A. Robinson, Garza County

Mayor tells Rotarians

Police department cost may be cut by one-half

Mayor Giles C. McCrary in a talk before Post Rotarians Tuesday at their weekly luncheon in City Hall said the city council plans to operate the city police department for the 1969-70 fiscal year at a great savings to the taxpayers.

He said the police department which cost over $35,000 to operate last year and over $29,000 to operate this year has been projected for the fiscal year which began Sept. 1 at an annual cost of only $15,000.

This would include a two-man, one-car department with efforts directed to closer cooperation with county sheriff's department to handle the community with adequate law enforcement.

Although the council is not related to police costs as measuring stick of law enforcement efficiency, Mayor McCrary said if fines continue at approximately the present rate, law enforcement this year will actually cost taxpayers little if any money.

The mayor in a short talk which covered a wide range of city operations called attention to the fine work that Earl Chapman has done to develop a new park from scratch in the Lincoln addition.

McCrary said that Post Jaycees, oil firms, the city and the county have aided Chapman in the development of the park. (The park which is now nearing completion will be featured in a special Dispatch story in the near future.)

The mayor also pointed out the work which was accomplished this summer under the direction of Mrs. Helen Cornish, the city's clean-up chairman, and emphasized how so many citizens had not only cleaned up their own properties but responded to the call to help out evenings in cleaning up vacant lots along the highways.

McCrary said the city has just received its audit for the fiscal year completed June 30 and is now hard at work on its new budget (See Mayor's Talk, page 8)

Ruby Mitchell on day center staff

Malachi Mitchell Jr., has been employed as assistant supervisor of the Post Day Care Center, 1001 E. 12th St., since July 1. Mrs. Ruth Ann Newby, chairman of the day care center board, announced Tuesday.

Mrs. Mitchell is the former Miss Ruby Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Bell, and will reside in Post for a year with their two daughters, Pamela, 6, and Jeanne, 4. Her husband is serving a second year of duty in Vietnam.

Mrs. Mitchell will leave today (Wednesday) by plane for the coast to join her husband in Vietnam. He has been in the service for 10 years. He and Mrs. Mitchell were stationed at Fort Ord, Calif., before coming to Post to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Malachi Mitchell Sr., her parents.

Mrs. Mitchell has worked as a nurse aide in the Reynolds Army Hospital at Fort Sill, and has observed at several child care centers in cities where they have been stationed.

Mrs. Mitchell both attended Post

Chartered bus talked opening game

Local football fans interested in the chartered bus to Hale Center for the Post Antelopes' opening game Sept. 12 are urged to notify the Post Dispatch.

Those who need to know by this time if a bus can be ordered from the Antelope Booster Club.

The First National Bank on page 3 of today's Dispatch takes a page ad to welcome back the teaching staff of the Post schools and the 12 new teachers in the system. The ad includes pictures of all 12 of the new teachers as well as names of the entire school staff with an urging to parents to attend the elementary school open house Monday night.

It's a fine salute to Post's biggest industry — educating its kids.

Then over on page 7, the bank takes another ad to welcome the teaching staff of the Southland schools back to another year of classroom duty in that Garza County community.

Coming up Saturday is White River Lake Day and the best opportunity we know to take off for the day and enjoy yourself. A full day's program of good spectator sports and exhibits are planned. All you have to do is drive out at 10 a. m. and start watching.

The Antelope school page will make its debut for the new school year next Thursday with Miss Patti Peel as the school page editor and columnist. The Dispatch provides the page as a public service at no cost to anyone to keep the youngsters and their parents informed of the "goings-on" at the schools. The coverage is all up to the youngsters and we wish for Patti an A-1 school page for the next nine months.

In case you've wondered when you drive by the courthouse who should get the credit for the neatly kept lawns and flower beds and shrubs, the answer is Gene Solis.

He is the courthouse custodian and has all the courthouse officials talking in words of praise from County Judge Parker right on down, not only for the beautifying job outside but also for the way he keeps everything so immaculately clean inside.

The newest sensation locally over the summer months has been garage sales. All of a sudden local folks have found a "hometown market" for just about everything they want to discard. The Dispatch has been running several "garage sale ads" every week in its "for sale" column and this week even has a display ad for one of the sales. It seems folks thoroughly enjoy driving around looking and the bargains they buy usually total up into a neat sum for the sale sponsors who clear out closets of children's clothes, furniture, and a wide variety of things.

Lions program is on early-day builders

Early-day pictures owned by George "Scotty" Samson, Post pioneer, were shown by Walter Didway at the Post Lions Club's ladies' night meeting Tuesday at Jackson's Cafe & Cafeteria.

Didway also read a brief account of Samson and Jimmy Napier coming from their native Scotland to work as stone masons and of their work in constructing most of the town's first business buildings.

success."

Hundreds pause at Jaycee rest stop

Approximately 1,500 highway travellers, representing some 15 states and three foreign countries, paused for rest and refreshments at the Post Jaycees' rest stop, southeast of town on U. S. Hwy. 84, during the Labor Day weekend.

Paving hearing clears up 'tangles'

The public hearing on the city's proposed new street paving project last Thursday evening in the City Hall should have cleared the air of a lot of apparent misunderstandings.

Paving projects in smaller cities do not come along regularly and it is easy to become confused about the legal processes involved.

This is especially true this time because this is a completely new procedure, because it is a new method of financing in which a private company, not the city, takes the risk for collecting the paving taxes.

Principal point of misunderstanding seemed to be the fear that the city government was trying to force its street paving through whether or not the property owners involved wanted it.

Everybody got the assurance at the hearing from the city council that "we're not trying to force paving on anyone." Those were Mayor Protem Donald Windham's exact words.

Purpose of the public hearing was to get a good idea of what blocks not to pave and which possibly can be paved. This saves hours on end of house-to-house contact work.

The way the paving project stands right now is that the Municipal Investment Corporation of Lubbock, which will do the financing and the City of Post are more optimistic about getting at least a number of blocks paved.

The Lubbock firm is going to rework the proposal, on the basis of information obtained at the public hearing, and resubmit another list of blocks for paving to the city.

This does not mean that the new list will be ordered paved. First, the Lubbock firm must contact property owners in the blocks listed and obtain their agreement to the paving.

One of the most frequent complaints heard at the paving hearing was that the property owners weren't against paving, but they opposed it because they thought it cost too much or because they simply couldn't afford it. Both are understandable reasons these days.

But as Ronnie Purtell, representing the Municipal Investment Corporation, pointed out, "paving is never going to come any cheaper."

That, also, is probably true.—JC

Values and humor—and slander

We have never met Nelson Lewis, whose column, "Pause and Reflect," appears in the Friona Star, but we would like to second the sentiments he expressed in a recent article.

Mr. Lewis was discussing moral values and noted that the item that had moved him to comment was a poster being sold by a New York postal printer. The poster depicted a young lady in the uniform of the Girl Scouts and the model was represented as being pregnant.

We add here Mr. Lewis' comments in part: "When I think of what the Girl Scout organization has meant to the young ladies of Friona, in fact to the entire community, my blood boils to think that a mature business man would stoop to such disgraceful tricks."

"The Girl Scout National Council is suing for a million dollars and is asking that production of the posters be halted and that all existing copies be destroyed."

"There are copies that will be hidden away and thus serve as a source of embarrassment for years to come."

"The question is, what will be the outcome of the law suit?"

"My guess is that it will be carried all the way to the so-called 'Supreme Court' and will then be thrown out, or settled in favor of the printing firm, on the grounds that a man may print or publish anything under the guise of 'freedom of speech'."

As we said at the outset, we agree with most of what Mr. Lewis wrote and we are happy to have him "newspapering" in the same part of the country we are. We are hoping, however, that his comments on the Supreme Court turn out to be wrong. The new Chief Justice may not view this kind of obscenity as being eligible for defense under the first amendment of the Constitution.

We believe, as members of the press, that the right to slander, even if the slanderous activity is conducted while hiding behind the shield of humor, is not a part of freedom of expression, of speech or of the press. The Constitution should not be used as protection for the right to demean either individuals or groups.

Let's go to the lake Saturday

No prize is being offered the White River member city that has the largest turnout at Saturday's annual White River Lake Day, but even so, no city wants to lag behind in citizen representation at the big event.

Last year, Post probably had about as many people out at the lake for the special day as any one of the other three towns, and we hope to have again this year.

Whether our White River beauty contestants win the top prize or not—and we think one of them will—they'll feel better if they know there is a big crowd of Post people in front of the judge's stand.

Let's all go out to the lake Saturday and help make the celebration a big one.—CD

Don't miss the Antelope barbecue

Members of the Antelope Booster Club, along with the coaches and football players, are hopeful of a big turnout at next Tuesday night's "Meet Our Antelopes" barbecue in the City-Country Park.

The barbecue, at which each football player will be introduced by name and number, will come just three days ahead of the Antelopes' season opener at Hale Center on Friday night, Sept. 12.

Fans are feeling much better after the "Lopes surprising showing in the Petersburg scrimmage last Friday night. Let's keep the momentum going by attending Tuesday night's barbecue.

TODAY (MONDAY) is Labor Day. It is a quiet morning in downtown Post, even though some of us are laboring right on through the holiday — part of it, anyway.

The only activity going on up and down Main Street at 9 a. m. Labor Day is the setting out of flags in front of the business places by Scoutmaster Hoyt Thomas and his daughter, Rhonda. Hoyt, Rhonda and a bird dog are riding up and down Main in the back of a pickup driven by Mrs. Thomas. They are going about it quietly, however, and are not disturbing the holiday tranquility.

IT'S A GOOD job Hoyt, Rhonda and Barbara are doing, for flying Old Glory on Labor Day honors those whose hard work and determination has helped to make the United States the most productive nation the world has ever known.

The man up the street says he can remember when if you said your battery was dead you were talking about your car, not your toothbrush.

ONE OF MY favorite story-tellers, commenting on the fact that the new school term had opened, recalled that at one of our hill country school houses, one of the boys asked one morning, "Teacher, why don't we ever have any ice water any more?" She replied, "The boy who knew how to make it quit school."

He also recalled that a few years ago the county in which he lived finally got one of those health nurses, a government-paid one. She began making her calls in a part of the country where all the houses are built on the hillside. She called on this old man one day and noticed about eight or ten hogs running around and under his house. She remarked, "That's not very healthy." The old man said, "Hell, we ain't lost a hog in two years."

THIS STORY-TELLER said that was the same county where someone wrote the county seat newspaper and asked how their girl reporter can write about sex education when she isn't married. The paper let the girl reporter answer the question and she quipped, "The same way I write obituaries even though I haven't died yet."

Gov. Preston Smith was booed when he walked out on the field at halftime in Houston's Astrodome the other night to make some kind of presentation at the Cowboy-Oiler football game. Some newspaper writers said the Governor was a still rankling over the boos a day or two later when he made his speech lambasting the legislators for their failure to pass a tax bill. The Governor shouldn't take such things so seriously. Bigger stars than he have been booed in the Astrodome.

AND I THINK a little more, but not much more, of California Gov. Ronald Reagan for something he said last week when Lady Bird Johnson was honored at the Redwood National Park in California. Governor Reagan is quoted as saying, "When you've seen one redwood, you've seen them all."

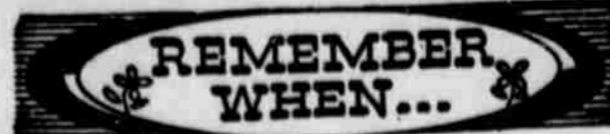

"Pornography Continues To Be Problem To Legislators," says a headline in the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal. Maybe so, but I don't believe pornography is going to be much of a problem to a newspaper whose headline writers can't spell it.

THE PRESS BOX at Antelope Stadium got its first workout of the new football season last Friday night when the Antelopes scrimmaged Petersburg. Dee Justice, one of the football team's student managers, came up and looked around after Supt. Bill Shiver had unlocked the press box. Dee said he was surprised to find the press box so clean. "When we first opened it last year," he recalled, "there were chicken feathers and everything else all over the place."

When the Antelopes scored five times to the visitors' one in the goal line series, Bill McBride, "the voice of the Antelopes," remarked that the offense looked much better than last year when scoring opportunity after scoring opportunity was flubbed by the "Lopes inside their opponents' 10-yard line.

SOMEONE ELSE then recalled that he had read what a psychologist had told a college football coach who wanted to know why his team could move between the 20-yard lines but couldn't score. "The guy says there's a theory that defense of territory is instinctive and the defense gets tougher as the invasion threat increases," the coach explained.

"Meanwhile, the offensive team experiences a form of guilt over its intrusion, leading to fumbles, interceptions and penalties." Only one thing both-red the coach. "How come those other guys didn't have any guilt complex about coming across our goal line?"

Post woman and sisters return

Mrs. W. C. Kiker and her sisters, Mrs. Margie Sinclair and Mrs. Bruce Barber of Wichita Falls, returned home Monday from a three-week trip in the northwest.

They attended the 47th annual Inter-Tribal Indian Ceremonial and the Indian art exhibit in Gallup, N. M. Other points of interest visited were the Hole'n the Rock in Colorado; Arches National Monument in Utah; Mormon Tabernacle in Salt Lake City; Multnomah Falls in Oregon and the Mary Hill Museum of Fine Arts and Stonehenge in Washington.

They were guests of their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Booth, in Chehalis, Wash. They all went to the Paradise Inn in Ranier National Park, to Mt. St. Helen's and to Westport on the Pacific coast which is a deep sea fishing center.

Returning home they traveled through the Yakima Valley, Yellowstone National Park, where they spent two days at the Old Faithful Inn, and toured the park, and visited the Jackson Lake Lodge in the Grand Teton National Park.

Two volunteer librarians needed 2 hours weekly

Two volunteer librarians are needed to operate the desk at the Post Public library for two hours weekly, the Rev. George L. Miller, head librarians, announced this week.

The two periods still open for assignment are from 4 to 6 p. m. on Tuesdays and Fridays.

Mr. Miller asked that persons interested in volunteering for either time period to contact him. Volunteers are instructed in the library operation before taking over the checkout desk.

Wesley Stephens is still a patient in Garza Memorial Hospital after suffering a stroke five weeks ago. Among his recent visitors were his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burch of Newark, Ohio, who were here for ten days.

Nedra Childs and Jackie Huff exchange vows at Close City

Miss Nedra Childs and Jackie Don Huff were united in marriage Saturday, Aug. 30, at 8 o'clock in the evening at the Friendship Baptist Church in the Close City community.

The Rev. Shelby Bishop of Lubbock officiated at the reading of the double ring vows in a setting of baskets of daisies flanking two candelabra. A 15-candle candelabra was centered at the altar.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Childs of Route 2, and Mrs. Cliff Grigsby of Post and Benny Huff of Woodland, Calif.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal-length gown of white imported chiffon featuring a braid and button trimmed wedding ring collar and full sheer long sleeves with wide satin cuffs trimmed in braid and closed with covered buttons. A floating panel of satin adorned with a row of bow attached at the back neckline extended the length of the A-line gown. A brief tiered veil of imported illusion was attached to a headpiece of satin loops enhanced with daisies. She carried a bouquet of daisies holding a wedding band belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. B. C. Childs.

Miss Cindy Childs of San Angelo, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and she wore a formal-length gown of yellow chiffon over lace, featuring a collar of satin with a satin bow in the back. She carried a nosegay of yellow daisies.

Miss Janet Childs and Morris Huff, sister and brother of the couple, lighted the candles.

Homer Stillwell was best man and Freddy Huff, brother of the bridegroom, was groomsmen. Rev. Prather seated the guests.

Mrs. Billy Gass of Canyon was pianist and accompanied Mrs. Norman of San Angelo as she sang "Twelfth of Never" and "The Lord's Prayer." Both are cousins of the bride.

At the reception at the Close City Community Center the serving table was laid with white lace over yellow satin and held an arrangement of daisies. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with wedding bells and daisies.

Serving were Mrs. Clark Almond of Smyer, Mrs. Billy Max Gordon of Mrs. Darrell Jones and Miss Cheryl Goin of Big Lake, Mrs. Ray Prather, sister of the bride, registered the guests. Members of the house party were Mmes. Douglas Tipton, Clarence Gunn, D. J. Bartlett, Thomas Autry, Dale Gossett of Lubbock, Bemie Jones and Lonnie Peel.

The bride donned a red and grey knit dress with red accessories for the wedding trip in New Mexico. They will be at home at the College View Apartments, No. 16, San Angelo, where Mr. Huff will attend Angelo State University. A 1967 graduate of Post High School, he attended West Texas State University at Canyon. Mr. Huff is a 1968 PH.S. graduate and also graduated from Commerce College in Lubbock.

Guests attended from Canyon, Slaton, San Angelo, Smyer, Taha, Andrews, Big Lake, Lubbock, Wilson and Aztec, N. M.

Schmidt-Beebe vows exchanged Saturday at church in Lubbock

The First Christian Church of Lubbock (as the setting for the wedding of Miss Susie Jo Schmidt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Schmidt of Gladewater, and Sammy Denzil Beebe, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Beebe of Lubbock. Dr. Dudley Strain read the double ring vows at 8 o'clock in the evening, Saturday, Aug. 30. The sanctuary was decorated with baskets of gladiolas, carnations, snapdragons, stephanotis, and daisies and tall candelabra. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a designer gown of candlelight silk organza and jeweled re-embroidered Alencon lace on English net. In empress silhouette the gown was designed with a batteau décolletage and long bishop sleeves closed at the wrist by a cuff of lace. The A-line skirt, lavishly appliqued with lace, was worn at slipper length. From a lace yoke the wattleu cascaded to form a train of court length. Held by a band of fresh flowers, the tiers of illusion draped to below the waistline.

Miss Ellen Crain of Coleman was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Jeanne Ratliff of Llano, Mrs. John Schmidt of Amarillo, sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Eleanor Myers of Tampa, Fla. They wore yellow sheer high collared blouses with the sleeves ending in ruffles at the wrist. The green A-line skirts featured large bows in the back. Their large yellow picture hats were enhanced with sheer yellow band bows in the back.

Sandra Beebe and Lisa Schmidt were flower girls. Sam Jackson was ringbearer. Dale Gardner was candlelighter. Jack Schmidt and Stephen Beebe distributed rice to the guests.

Mike Beebe of Lubbock served as his brother's best man. Groomsmen and ushers were Kermit Gardner of Causey, N. M., brother-in-law of the bridegroom, David Tabor and Joel Hayhurst of Lubbock and John Schmidt, brother of the bride.

"Bless This House," "Yours" and "One Hand, One Heart" were sung by Miss Kathy Turner of Coleman. She was accompanied by Georgie M. Willson.

A reception followed in the church parlor which was decorated with arrangements of flowers and candelabra. The table, laid with satin and lace, held the four-tiered cake and silver punchbowl.

Members of the house party were Mrs. Ernest Riley, O. F. Pennell, C. R. Wilson, Mike Beebe, Kermit Gardner, Tommy Boucher, Harold Casey and Jimmy Sharp. Mrs. Bill Jackson of Florida, sister of the bride, served the wedding cake.

For travel the bride wore a pink coat dress with beige accessories. They are at home in College Station where Mr. Beebe will continue his education at Texas A&M University after attending Texas Tech. Mrs. Beebe graduated from Tech in January.

Among the out-of-town wedding guests were the Rev. and Mrs. Frank Beauchamp of Louisiana, Bob Schmidt and family of Dallas, Mrs. Tracy Ehrlich of College Station, Mrs. M. J. Brannon of Houston and Mary and Ellen Teicher of Milwaukee, Wis.

Calling all talent! Calling all talent!

Garza County, being filled with talented people I expect an overwhelming response as the "cry" goes out over the county.

The hunt is on for women who have talents in teaching, singing, art work, cooking, crafts, creative play or just plain old love for children.

Where can you display this talent? Right out in the Post Day Care Center, that's where.

Things are sailing along beautifully at the Post Day Care Center. We have two marvelous paid employees this year—Delores Terranzas and Ruby Mitchell—but they could use your help.

Last year the center operated with only one paid employee and day-long volunteers. This year with two employees the thought is that things can go along well without day-long volunteers but volunteers could be used for a couple hours each morning.

The people of this county might not realize how proud we can be of having such a successful day care center operating in our town. Most small towns our size are struggling to get such an operation started but haven't had the cooperation we have had in private donations and being included in the United Fund.

Naturally, being one of the first, we want to be one of the best. That's where YOU come in. Handling 20 children makes for a busy day, especially when the center opens at 6:45 to cooperate with some of our Postex Plant employees.

Lots of you have special talents you can share and you can reap a lot of satisfaction from sharing them with these young children.

You notice I sneaked in the "talent of cooking" in that third paragraph. If that is your "talent" and you'd like to cook a meal one day a week for a bunch of cuties, here's your chance. One volunteer cooked such a fine meal for the little ones last week that they were sure it MUST be someone's birthday!

If you're a tiny bit bored with life take a fling at the day care center. You'll certainly benefit from it.

All you have to do is call 2329 and ask for Miss Terranzas. Tell her what your specialty is and I'm sure you'll be greeted with open arms. Ruth Ann Newby or Jeri Lett will also accept such calls in case you get the idea at night.

Post has quite a reputation for "volunteer" help so don't let our reputation go to pot.

Tea hosted here by Culture Club

Approximately 50 women of the city were guests at a recent tea hosted by the Woman's Culture Club in the Community Room.

Mrs. M. J. Malouf, club president, introduced Everett Hufford, Texas Tech student, who gave a short lecture and showed slides of the Holy Land, after welcoming the members and guests.

Mrs. Karmey Malouf of Beirut, Lebanon, sister-in-law of Mrs. Malouf, was a special guest.

Cookies and punch were served on a table laid with a linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of purple and white garden flowers.

ATTENDING NIGHT CLASSES
Mrs. Thelma Lee Adams and George Pierce of the Post School Center are taking night courses at Texas Tech this fall.

PRIMITIVE BAPTIST
The Primitive Baptists will have service next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in Twin Cedar Nursing Home. Anyone interested in inviting to attend.

Miss McWhorter and Jimmy Jones wed here Friday

Following a short wedding trip the couple is at home in Lubbock. The bride is a graduate of Post High School and is attending Jessie Lee's Hair Design Institute. Mr. Jones is employed at Postex Plant.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Donnie Johnston of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Junior Gray and Caren of Graham and the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McWhorter of Wolfthorpe.

Miss Connie McWhorter became the bride of Jimmy Jones, Friday, Aug. 29, at 8 o'clock in the evening in the chapel of the First United Methodist Church with the Rev. O. Curtis Lee, pastor, officiating at the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. James McWhorter and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a pink and white suit and pink accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations and she carried out the tradition of something old, new, borrowed and blue.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Darrell Mason of Lubbock and Ronnie Williams was best man.

Jackie Gordon, accompanied by Miss Nancy Norman, sang "The Twelfth of Never."

Planning meeting is held by church group

The Women's Missionary Union of the Calvary Baptist Church met at the church Tuesday afternoon for a planning meeting after not meeting for several weeks due to vacations.

Present for the meeting were the president, Nell Matthews, the new pastor's wife, Opal Capps, and Lucy King, Zorine Winkler, Dessie Duren, Juanelle Hays, Lorene Gordon and Marvel Pearson.

Garza County HD Club News

CLOSE CITY MEETING
The Close City HD Club enjoyed a program by the county agent, Karen Parnell, when she spoke on "Tips on selection of fabrics and the construction of clothes from new fabrics," at the Tuesday afternoon meeting.

Roll call was answered by "What I Enjoyed Most on My Vacation" by Virginia Custer, Mozelle Bartlett, Lola Peel, Thelma Thomas, Cleo Sappington, the agent, and a guest, Mrs. J. H. Wallace of Oklahoma City, aunt of Mrs. Bartlett. Hostesses were Mrs. Custer and Mrs. Bartlett.

Young family reunion held in State Park

The annual Young family reunion was held Sunday at Mackenzie State Park in Lubbock.

Those attending from Post were: Don Tatum and family, Lester Josey and family, Royce Josey and family, Walter Didway and family, Ronnie Graves and family, W. C. Graves and family, Mrs. Forrest Clabron, Mrs. Butch Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Stewart and Melvena, Mrs. Ivy Young, Mr. and Mrs. Jurd Young and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Josey.

Long home is scene of rehearsal dinner

Mrs. Cliff Grigsby and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Long were hosts for a rehearsal dinner for the wedding party of Miss Nedra Childs and Jackie Huff last Friday night at 7:30 o'clock in the Long home.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Childs, Mrs. Roger Hair, Mrs. Gladys Pennell and Cheryl, Mr. and Mrs. Noel Norman, Homer Stillwell and Cindy Childs, all of San Angelo, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Wayne Baxter of Aztec, N. M., and the Grigsby children.

Noah W. Stones to celebrate Golden Wedding date Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Noah W. Stone, who will celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary Sunday, found that getting a wedding picture made 50 years ago was not easy—especially when one had to drive 40 miles to do so.

Miss Eula Pearl Edwards and Mr. Stone were married at the First Baptist Church parsonage, Sept. 7, 1919, with the Rev. J. Pat Horton officiating. Attendants were Miss Mae McMahon and Fred Gossett, who later were married.

Parents of the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. A. Stone. The Edwards family arrived in Garza County in 1915, making the trip from Clay County in a covered wagon. The Stones came in 1916 on the train from Denton County.

In reminiscing about her wedding day, Mrs. Stone told a Dispatch reporter that following the ceremony the four young people attended Sunday School at the Gossett Methodist Church and then went to the Edwards home for a big dinner.

The newlyweds and their attendants spent the afternoon "koding" at Cooper's Canyon.

After spending the night at the Edwards home the young couple left for Lubbock in a Model T Ford for a short honeymoon and to have their picture made.

Not having enough gasoline to make the trip to Lubbock—there being none available in Post—they drove to Close City, which was on the Lubbock highway at that time. No gasoline was available at the only pump there so

Stones tried to make it to Slaton before getting there, recalled Mrs. Stone, "and Noah had to walk about a mile to a farm house where he purchased a gallon of kerosene."

They arrived in Slaton to find there was no gasoline there either. However, some was due the next day so they spent the night. Gasoline arrived in the morning they filled the tank and took off for Lubbock, where they finally had their picture made.

The Stones have always made their home in Post and "there is no other place as fine as live in."

The Stones have two daughters, Mrs. Malcolm Bull and Mrs. F. Collier, and a son, Dr. Noah Stone of Brownfield, and five grandchildren, Timmons Bull, Don and Anna Collier and Amy and Ann Stone.

The daughters and son and their families will host a reception in honor of their parents Sunday from 2 until 4 o'clock in the Community Room.

NEW MEXICO GUESTS
Mr. and Mrs. James King and sons of Roswell, N. M., visited the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Dunlap and with her mother, Mrs. Lucy King.

Couple host Labor Day picnic Monday evening

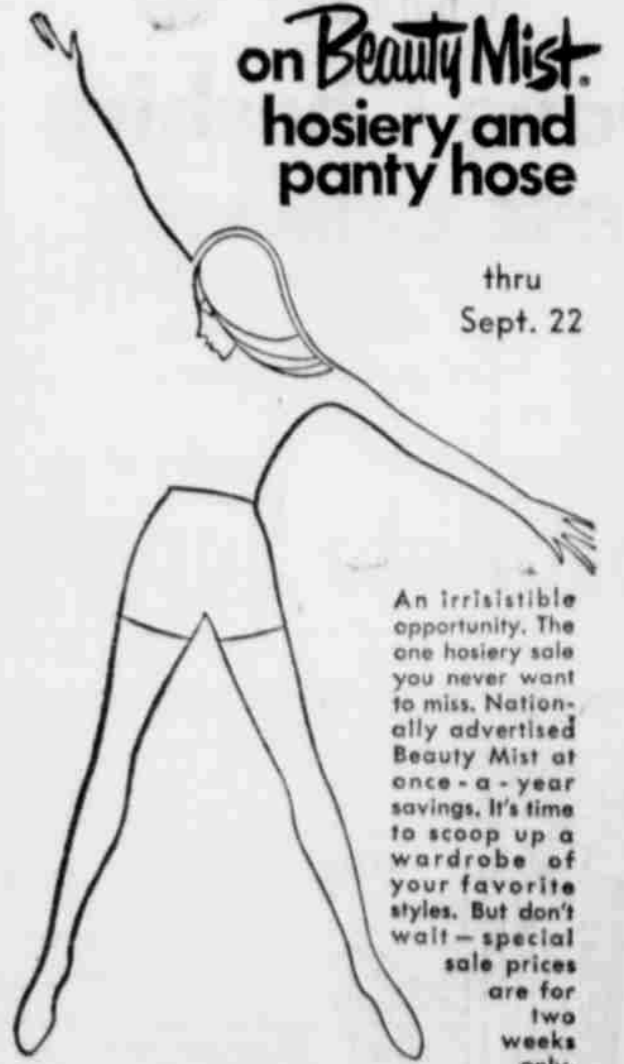

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Didway were hosts at a Labor Day picnic Monday evening in the backyard of their home at 802 West 11th St.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gates, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Greenfield, Mr. and Mrs. John Dennis, Mrs. Bernice Eubank, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Boren, Pauline Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Didway and Chistal Dawn, Sue Eubank, Mike Criswell, Debbie Eubank and Debbie Cummings.

Arkin's latest film scheduled at Tower

Alan Arkin's latest film is a comedy-drama called "Popi," co-starring Rita Moreno and showing in Color by DeLuxe at the Tower Theatre on Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

"Popi" introduces Miguel Alejandro and Ruben Figueroa as Arkin's sons. Written by Tina and Lester Pine, "Popi" is the story of a Puerto Rican widower who schemes to get his children off the seamy city streets.

"Popi" was filmed almost entirely on location in New York's Spanish Harlem and in Miami, Fla. Dominic Frontiere composed the film score.

Nichols serves with Training Squadron

KINGSVILLE, Tex. — Aviation Structural Mechanic Airman David L. Nichols, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin S. Nichols of Post, Tex., is serving with Training Squadron Twenty-Two at U. S. Naval Air Station, Kingsville.

The training squadron provides advance jet flight instruction to Navy and Marine Corps student aviators in the F-9J Cougar fighter-trainer aircraft. To accomplish this mission, the squadron employs approximately 70 aircraft and an average personnel assignment of 70 flight instructors.

Two from Post nurse graduates

Miss Karen Sterling and Mrs. Lorene Shepherd were graduated from the Lubbock School of Vocational Nursing last Friday night at 8 o'clock in the First United Methodist Church of Lubbock.

Miss Sterling is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sterling. Her parents and brother, Wynn, as well as her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harris of Abernathy, attended the commencement exercises.

Mrs. Shepherd was recognized for not missing a single day of classes during the ceremonies.

Dr. James Matthews, formerly of Post, introduced the guest speaker, Dr. C. L. Kay, and also gave the invocation and benediction. Registered nurses, Patsy Golden, Janet Tinsley, Joyce Polster and Barbara Evans, presented the class, diplomas and pins, respectively.

Mrs. Ruth Crenshaw, R. N. played the processional and recessional and Lloyd Thompson presented special music. A reception followed in the church parlor.

IMPACT?

By Bernard S. Ramsey

A few questions and the true answers: Are you concerned about the spiritual welfare of your soul? Do you care about the spiritual nurture of your children? Would you vote to close the doors of all the churches in your community? Would you like for Jesus Christ to represent you in Heaven as you represent him on earth? The following message gives your answer and tells of the Christian impact, influence and witness you exert and of the weekly spiritual nourishment you receive if you do NOT attend regularly and consistently the church of your choice:

Our beautiful circulation has dropped down, down, down, since school started. Looks as though we're back to "Adult Only." (Well, practically!) It certainly gives one those "beginning of term dol-drumms" to check out 15 books instead of 70 on a typical Tuesday night at the library.

We had a number of marvelous volunteers who helped us out during the summer season and we'd

Plastic pipe is proving aid to area's ranchers

Plastic pipe is proving to be an economical and dependable means of watering livestock. Some areas, such as sandy land and rough broken land near the Caprock are not suited for farm ponds due to the soil structure. In these areas, ranchers are using plastic pipeline with success.

Jimmy Bird of the Verbena community is watering livestock in six different pastures from one well by the use of plastic pipe. Giles Dalby of the Cross H Ranch installed two miles of pipe from a well on the river to a large sandy land pasture where the soils were not suitable for a pond site. The Double U Ranch is watering livestock in three pastures from one water source on a sandy land area. John Ward of Justiceburg is using plastic pipe to gravity water one mile from the water source.

The use of pipeline for livestock water is a conservation practice as it helps distribute livestock grazing. By its use livestock will graze areas that would otherwise receive little use and also help prevent livestock from overgrazing other areas closer to water.

like to take this opportunity to say THANKS to: Madge Webb and Jean Gandy who helped on Mondays; Colleen Gilmore and Nell Bailey, Tuesdays; Lora Blanton, Estelle Davis and Wanda Mitchell, Wednesdays; Billy Criswell, Thursdays; Frankie Robbins and Larry Barton, Fridays.

As you perhaps noticed, we had several teachers and students who helped, and we're certainly going to miss them. Also, three of our volunteers — Nell Bailey, Larry Barton and Frankie Robbins—are leaving town. It's very sad. At least, Madge Webb will still be with us!

Our hours this fall will be:
Monday: 2-6 p. m.
Tuesday: 4-6 p. m., 7-9 p. m.
Wednesday: 2-6 p. m.
Thursday: 4-6 p. m., 7-9 p. m.
Friday: 4-6 p. m.
Saturday: 9-12 a. m.

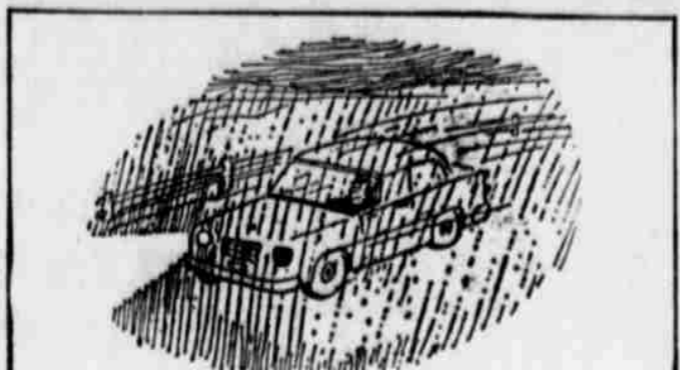

Cut them out and pin them on your bulletin board and then you'll always know! Books may be returned in the book drop at any time, of course.

We received a large shipment of books from Campbell and Hall this week. They're all adult fiction — old favorites and new, mysteries, etc. However, through shrewd planning and clever finesse, we managed to run out of material to process them with the day they came in. Not many librarians could accomplish that so tidily.

Actually about 30 of the books are already in the library and the REST waiting. We'll let you know as soon as they go in.

We also received a beautiful selection of books from Mrs. Merriweather Post. These are all adult books, too, many of which we had on our book buying lists. What fun it is to mark a book off without having to pay for it!

Spotlight on Science

GNAWING AWAY ON GUAM
Coral-eating starfish have killed and eaten 90 per cent of the shoreline coral of the island of Guam in the last 2 1/2 years, says University of Guam biologist Richard H. Chesser in "Science."

The sixteen-armed starfish — called the "crown of thorns" because of its spiny body — is in the throes of a monstrous population explosion in the Pacific Ocean. Previously regarded as more or less a rarity, this coral-eater, averaging 9 1/2 inches in diameter, was discovered in great swarms on Australia's Great Barrier Reef in 1963. Full extent of this infestation is not now known, but reports of starfish invasions range over thousands of miles of the Southwest Pacific.

"Crown of thorns" feeds on the living coral animal first by evert-ing its gastric sac through its mouth, then the soft membrane of the sac spread over the coral and digest the soft tissues leaving only the limestone coral skeletons. Later, algae grow over the dead coral; fish which normally live around coral reefs move away; and the dead reef becomes vulnerable to destructive erosion from wave action.

Destruction of coral reefs is an economic as well as aesthetic disaster, since most inhabitants of Oceania islands derive almost all their protein from the sea, especially from coral reef fish.

Causes of this starfish explosion are unknown — man's dredging and blasting activities may favor survival and growth of starfish larvae; shell collectors may have seriously reduced the numbers of one of the starfishes' enemies, the triton shell; or the starfish may have undergone a basic change in its life history.

Scuba divers are trying to protect some reefs by killing off the starfish with formaldehyde injections, but this is slow, expensive, and is a losing battle in the long run with the prolific seastar.

With a life span of eight years, "crown of thorns" may kill itself off by destroying its own food; without living coral on which to feed, these starfish starve to death in about six months. Unless effective control methods are soon put into effect, the coral reefs and atolls may become biological deserts.

Funeral held for former resident

PLAINVIEW — Funeral services for Harold M. Woods, 63, a former longtime resident of the Post area, were held at 2 p. m. last Thursday in Lemons Memorial Chapel. Mr. Woods, who was a native of Clarendon, died about 5:30 p. m. Tuesday, Aug. 26, of an apparent heart attack while returning home from a grocery store.

He ranched near Post from 1934 until moving to Plainview in 1956.

Survivors include his wife, Ruby; a daughter, Mrs. Bill Banks of Post; a son, Billy of Odessa; a brother, Alfred of Canyon; two sisters, Mrs. Louise Dalton of New Home, Calif., and Mrs. Minnie Kellum of Snyder, and three grandchildren.

Dr. Ivyloy Bishop, pastor of the Parkview Baptist Church, officiated at the funeral services. Burial was in Parklawn Memorial Gardens.

The Pacific Ocean, excluding adjacent seas, is almost twice the size of the Atlantic Ocean.

Bollworms being found in area cotton fields

LUBBOCK — Bollworms are being found in many cotton fields throughout the South Plains, reports Dr. Bill Clymer, Extension entomologist, and producers should pay particular attention to avoid economic damage from this insect. However, he cautions against spraying if not needed as an application of insecticide will kill the beneficial insects and probably necessitate continuation of spraying at approximately 5-day intervals. Bollworm adults or moths tend to be more active in lush growth and after the recent rains cotton will be in better condition and more vulnerable to attack. Also, damage may be greater in the younger June planted cotton.

According to past research, one bollworm can destroy 8 squares and about 2 bolls, says Clymer. This can be quite an expensive pest when heavy populations are present. Research has shown 2,000-2,500 worms per acre are of economic importance. This is about 1.5 to 2 bollworms per 10 feet of row.

Producers are urged to check their fields closely by carefully examining plants in several areas across the field. If an average of 2 bollworms per 10 feet of row is found, control should be considered. Clymer points out, however, that worms over 1/2 inch in length are most difficult to control.

Your local county agricultural agent has available insect control guides which give the latest information on when to spray and what chemicals to use. If you are in doubt on control measures do not hesitate to contact your local agent.

IT IS YOUR MONEY
You have a right to know these facts

You spend a lot of money for auto insurance. You have read wild statements about insurance costs and companies. If you would like some plain talk, here it is.

They say . . . Auto insurance companies are guaranteed a profit.

FACT: Before insurance companies can make a profit they have to first pay to have wrecked cars repaired or replaced, pay hospital and doctor bills for folks injured in auto accidents, pay for stolen or stripped cars, pay for cars damaged by hail, fire, wind or flood waters, pay wages or commissions to 95,400 Texans who give service to policy holders in every county in the state, pay taxes and operate their companies. If there is anything left after all these payments have been made, it is profit.

They say . . . Texas auto insurance rates need to go up 11.4 percent.

FACT: The evidence is very clear. Accidents are up. Medical costs are up. Repair costs are up. Auto thefts and vandalism are both up. All this forces rates upward. Facts and figures prove that a 17 percent increase is needed now.

They say . . . There is nothing you can do to lower your auto insurance costs.

FACT: You can't lower labor and medical costs. You can't lower automobile and parts costs. You can help reduce the number of traffic accidents and crimes against automobiles. The accident that doesn't happen does not boost the cost of auto insurance. The car that isn't stripped or stolen does not increase the cost of your auto insurance.

Let Governor Smith, your Mayor and your County Officials know that you want a stop put to Texas' growing traffic accident and crime tolls . . . that you want the law enforced. Good law enforcement can reduce accidents and crimes against cars.

Lower accidents and crime rates can mean lower auto insurance rates for you. Isn't this worth a little effort on your part?

Association of Texas Fire & Casualty Companies
110 Vaughn Bldg.
Austin, Texas 78701

They say . . . Labor costs are a small part of auto insurance costs.

FACT: Labor costs make up the major part of auto repair bills and in some parts of Texas labor costs for auto repairs have increased in recent time by an amazing 40 percent.

They say . . . Auto insurance companies make too much money.

FACT: Look at this listing of the earnings by major industries in the United States as published by the First National City Bank of New York and as republished in the study developed by the Arthur D. Little Co., an independent research organization then judge for yourself:

Ballots are okayed for referendum on peanuts

AUSTIN — Ballots for the Texas peanut growers check-off referendum have been approved for the Sept. 24 crop assessment vote, Agriculture Commissioner John C.

Graham event—

The first teacher, Mrs. Mabel Farrar of Rising Star, who was unable to attend.

Members of the first class present, who were Mrs. Cordie Wilbourn Stewart of Post and Mrs. Bertha Wilbourn of Lampasas. Names of the other ten pupils were read.

Earliest teacher present, who was Mrs. Gladys Maxey Sinclair Floyd of Post. She taught in 1916 and 1919-22. Her pupils were asked to stand.

THE FOLLOWING teachers and their pupils: Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Howard of Pleasanton, 1917-19; Mrs. Mildred Crowley Collins of Big Spring, 1923-25; Mrs. Juanita Wright Eichelberger of Lubbock, 1930-36; Mrs. Bob Lusk (Nona Wells), who began teaching in 1936. She was unable to attend due to injuries received in an accident; Mrs. Lucile McBride, 1941-46 (served two years as principal); Mrs. Myrtle Ashley, 1943-47 (only teacher who taught at both Graham and Gossott School); Mrs. Mary Lee Wristen, 1948-54. Mrs. McBride and Mrs. Wristen were recognized as teaching two generations of pupils, at Graham and now at Post.

Also recognized were: Members of the last class to begin school at Graham, 1957-58. They were Carolyn Teichert (the only one present), Christine Morris, James McBride, Sharon Bilberry, Little Wilks, Donna Stewart and Rebecca Tackett. All except Rebecca graduated from Post High School last spring.

The only class to graduate as seniors (then the 11th grade) at the Graham School, in 1937, was made up of Albert Stone, Wayne Stewart and Inez Pool Tommerson.

ONE OF THE three generations present who attended the school was Mrs. Pearl Wallace, her daughter, Mrs. Ada Mae Tucker, and her granddaughter, Mrs. Janis Drake.

Ex-students travelling the longest distance to the homecoming were Bobby Tommerson of King City, Calif., and Loyd Lee of Azusa, Calif.

Families with the most members present who attended the school were: J. P. Maxey, 14; W. O. Fluhitt, 12, and R. P. Cowdrey, 11.

Approximately 300 guests were registered for the Saturday evening program, with a green and white flower arrangement carrying out the school colors at the registration table.

Early - day church and school pictures were on display in the building, and also the memorial plaque that was erected for the homecoming.

White announced today.

Peanut farmers will be asked to complete three major sections of the ballot, White said. The first proposition is a vote on the self-assessment provision. Candidates for the Commodity Producers Board which will administer the check-off funds are listed in the second section of the ballot. The third section provides a space for the grower to indicate his last year's production in pounds on the ballot form.

New growers who had no production during the last crop year are still eligible to vote, White pointed out. However, they must certify on the ballot that they are new producers.

The Southwestern Peanut Growers Association at Gorman is the official body conducting the referendum. Information relating to production is available at all County ASCS offices.

Commissioner White pointed out that all peanut growers are eligible to vote on candidates for the Commodity Producers Board regardless of whether they vote yes or no on the referendum proposition. Decisions of the elected board members will affect all peanut growers if the referendum is approved.

"It is essential that growers indicate their last year's production in pounds on the appropriate section of the ballot," White said.

Ballots must be mailed to the polling site before midnight, Sept. 24. Votes will be counted by a committee consisting of a county judge for the area affected, a representative of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, a representative of the Texas Dept. of Agriculture, observers from the Southwestern Peanut Growers Association, and other persons deemed necessary. Election procedures must be approved by the Commissioner of Agriculture.

Books containing the history of the school and the two churches were sold by Mrs. Noel White, Mrs. Bryan Maxey and Miss Karen Hawley.

Throughout the afternoon Sunday, cookies and punch were served from a table laid with a white curwork linen cloth and centered with a little red school house, a large green pencil and a slate. Crystal appointments were used. Serving was by 4-H members Sue Cowdrey, Phyllis Kennedy and Lea Ann Williams.

Those attending the Sunday program from out of town included Mayor M. B. Hood and Mrs. Hood of Plainview. They are former residents of Post and the Graham community, where Mrs. Hood's father was among the early settlers and one of the school and community builders.

Paving hearing—

Purtell said property owners could pay cash for the paving or pay it off at any time they desired.

Each property owner was registered on his arrival at City Hall prior to the meeting and Purtell asked each briefly to express himself or herself on the paving program.

One of the major objections offered over and over again by taxpayers was that the paving costs in their opinion were "too high."

Quite a number said they wanted their streets or avenues paved but they simply "couldn't afford it."

One property owner who had 24 acres facing the "cutoff road" to the Lubbock highway, which was included in the city's paving proposal, said his costs would be over $7,000 and would add about $353 per acre to the value of his "cotton and seed land."

Vic Slater, representing the Postex Plant, explained that Burlington owned 32 lots in the south part of Post from which small houses formerly rented to employees by the company had been cleared. He said the firm at the present time doesn't know what it intends to do with these lots and would like to defer paving in that area for the present.

There were those who were emphatically in favor of the paving program too.

One property owner said he 'had been trying for 40 years to get the street in front of my house paved and I want it paved even if that 40 feet of street is the only paving in the block."

The Mason estate administrator said he "probably would go along with proposed paving on a four or five year payout." Purtell indicated this probably could be arranged.

In closing the meeting, which lasted about 90 minutes, Purtell told the group that "paving is never going to come cheaper."

He pointed out that Lubbock's paving costs for property owners run considerably higher, $4.75 and $6.50 for the paving and the curb and gutter, although the specifications are different.

"You have a good engineer and the paving as planned will give you good service," Purtell said.

The financial firm representative explained that he will take the information obtained at the public hearing on the property owners' desires, confer with the city on the blocks to take out of and leave in the project, and then begin personal contact with all property owners for the blocks the city leaves in the program. Just because the council leaves certain blocks in the program doesn't mean they will be paved unless the property owners consent, Purtell explained.

Windham told the group that the city isn't trying to force paving on anyone, but when the paving need was established the council wanted to consider all paving needs and then start the elimination process.

The group studied at the Lycee Technique in Paris, but found time to visit practically every place of interest in the French capital.

He said the lights on all the fountains, buildings, bridges and other edifices come on at 10:30 every night and that from that hour until 4:30 a. m., Paris' night life takes over. Their Paris visit also included a boat ride on the River Seine.

Mayor's talk—

He pointed out that each of the council members has been assigned particular municipal areas in which to concentrate individual efforts toward a better overall city operation.

Mayor McCrary emphasized that the city has received good cooperation from the Post Chamber of Commerce, the Postex Plant, the county, and the state highway department and is trying to cooperate with all of these and others.

The mayor said the city collected $104,000 worth of the $108,000 worth of taxes it levied during the last fiscal year and said the city's long-term debt totals $363,000 of which the water department's obligations total about $333,000.

McCrary said the city council always welcomes suggestions and City Manager Bobby Pierce passed out paper to all Rotarians present for them to note down any suggestions they had to offer the council for its consideration.

The lack of program time, due to a brief club business session which preceded the program, prevented City Manager Pierce from presenting some comments, but he did rise to apologize to the Rotarians for the bad appearance of the business district streets.

New pastor at Calvary Baptist

The Rev. Warren Capps is the new pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church.

He and his wife, Opal, arrived in Post a week ago Wednesday and regular services were held at the church that night and Sunday. The Capps came here from Westbrook and he recently pastored a church in Denver City.

The Rev. Mr. Capps is a graduate of Southwest Seminary in Fort Worth and he and his wife also attended Howard Payne College in Brownwood. Their only child, a daughter, Gloria, is a student at Howard Payne.

The Capps are living in the Calvary Baptist Church parsonage.

The high for the seven-day period (last Wednesday through Tuesday of this week) didn't climb above 86 during the day and the overnight lows ranged in the 60s for all seven nights.

The temperature high and low by days were Wednesday, 82 and 69, Thursday, 83 and 67, Friday, 86 and 67, Saturday 70 and 63, Sunday, 84 and 67, Monday 85 and 68, and Tuesday, 80 and 62.

Antelopes go to Spur Friday for second scrimmage

Petersburg outplayed in Friday night's meeting

With fans still buzzing over their surprising showing against Petersburg in a controlled scrimmage here last Friday night, the Post Antelopes were buckling down to work this week in preparation for a scrimmage Friday night against another District 3A team, the Spur Bulldogs.

Friday night's scrimmage, which will also include a freshman session, will be at Spur. The frosh scrimmage is set for 6:30, with the varsity scrimmage to start about 7:30.

The Antelopes' outstanding effort against the highly rated Petersburg team last Friday night was dimmed somewhat when tackle George Morales suffered a broken arm in the action.

In the regular scrimmage session, Petersburg scored twice on long pass plays, but was unable to muster a sustained drive on the ground against an alert 'Lope defense. Post's only score came on a 58-yard run by senior back Neff Walker, who showed surprising speed and deception after slanting off tackle and shaking off two Buffalo defenders.

In the goal line series which concluded the scrimmage, Post crossed the Buffaloes' goal five times, while the Buffs were able to score only once. Four of the Post scores came on runs and the other on a pass from quarterback Ray Altman to end Randy Hudman.

Coach Billy Hahn, who called the Post showing "a great team effort," said he and the other members of the coaching staff were well pleased with the Antelopes' performance both offensively and defensively.

"We're going to be able to move the ball better this year," the coach predicted, "and if we can just keep picking up first downs, and the defense comes through as expected, we're going to be tough in every game."

PETERSBURG, which is the preseason pick in tough District

3A, had no luck whatever in denting the Post defense on the ground Friday night. They were more successful in the air, scoring on two long passes, but defensive halfback Terry Moreau came through with a timely interception to halt a third aerial threat.

In the goal line series, Petersburg was able to score from the 10 only after nine or ten tries, whereas Post scored on its second try, with Walker going over. Four more times before they ran out of plays, the 'Lopes crossed over.

The Post coaches got a good look at all the players Friday night, with Robert Bullock quarterbacking one unit after veteran Ray Altman had gone most of the way.

Fans who saw the scrimmage were surprised at bursts of speed on the part of Antelope backs, especially since speed has not been one of the team's long suits for the last several years. Sharing much of the ball carrying with Walker were backs George Torres and Karl Hall, whose only ball carrying last season was on kickoff returns.

THE HEFTY defense came through as expected, with some of the younger boys turning in outstanding jobs, along with the veterans. Sophomores Kim Owen and Tommy Shumard and Junior Ral ph Menchaca all looked good.

Petersburg finished with a slight edge over Post in the junior varsity scrimmage, but there were numerous bright spots in the performance of the Antelope reserves. Running back Kyle Josey broke loose for two long runs, and the Post team worked a double reverse effectively a couple of times.

Coach Hahn said Tuesday that the Antelope squad is in good physical condition following the Petersburg scrimmage, with the exception, of course, of Morales. Junior back Larry Bilberry has an ankle bruise and Kim Owen a knee bruise, but both are expected to be ready for the Spur scrimmage.

Funeral services held at Tahoka for Z. R. Ingle

By MARY LEE LAWS

Z. R. Ingle passed away at Medical Arts Hospital in Lamesa at 11:45 p. m. where he had been a patient for the past three weeks. Funeral services were held at the Sweet Street Baptist Church Monday at 3 p. m. Burial was in Tahoka Cemetery under the direction of White Funeral Home. We want to extend our sincere sympathy to the Ingle families. May God be with them in their time of sorrow.

Not much news this week. Most everyone seemed to be visiting or enjoying the Labor Day holiday when I called.

The Youngs' reunion was held at Mackenzie State Park Sunday. One hundred and thirteen attendees from Matador, Abilene, Irving, Arlington, Big Spring, Post, Lamesa and Hereford.

Sherry Craig and Penny Norman spent the weekend with Sherry's grandmother, Mrs. R. L. Craig, while her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Craig, and Randy and the John Ed Redwine family went to Santa Fe, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Jurd Young spent Wednesday in Midland with their son and family. Their granddaughter, Tammy, came home with them for a few days visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Kinkade of Hobbs, N. M., visited in the Dean Laws home Sunday.

Robert Craig came by Friday and Saturday nights and took his mother, Mrs. R. L. Craig, Sherry Craig and Penny Norman to the Close City revival meetings.

Berry Flat Church will hold a weekend revival starting Sept. 5. The Rev. Pat Fees of Lamesa will be the evangelist. Everyone is invited to attend.

WEEKEND TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Young and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Feagin and Pam Feagin visited over the weekend with Mrs. Young's sister, Mrs. J. H. Sanderson, in Grand Prairie and also went to Six Flags. They visited in San Angelo with the Youngs' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Childs.

Mosquitoes 'out,' snakes 'in' as weather changes

By MRS. BARNIE JONES

Seems like the middle of summer everyone says, and school has already started. Since Sunday you can see that fall is "just around the corner" — even football is too. The "Texas-size" mosquitoes are taking advantage of the nice, cool, wet weather and the rattlesnakes are already looking for winter homes.

Lots of reunions and visiting took place over the holiday weekend but I think Graham's homecoming was the best of all. All our reports from it are so good. We are happy for them. It's always good to see old friends and teachers of the days gone by.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Peel over the weekend were his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Thommarson of King City, Calif. They also brought Mr. Thommarson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thommarson, of Lubbock down for the Graham homecoming.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Gene Peel and children and Mr. and Mrs. Delmo Gossett and John of Lubbock visited Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Peel. They celebrated Delmo's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Bartlett had as weekend guests their children and families. They are Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dale Wheatley of Carrolton, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Bartlett and Mr. and Mrs. Felton Gatlin.

Guests in the Will Teaff home over the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Newton and children of Abilene, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Maddox of Houston, Garland Teaff and daughter, Loneita, of Tye, the Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Teaff of Orange and Mrs. J. W. Pettigrew and daughter of Slaton.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morris of Halfway visited in the Dillard Morris home over the weekend and both families attended the homecoming at Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Terry and children visited friends in Dalhart over the weekend.

Mrs? Eula B. Smith and Sylvia and Bunny Smith spent Labor Day in Knox City with the Harry Smith family.

We are glad to report that Mrs. J. D. Tipton, mother of Douglas Tipton, is out of the hospital and is doing pretty good.

THE THOMAS Autry family of Wilson visited the Clarence Gunn family Saturday night and attended the Childs-Huff wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Terry left last Friday to attend a family reunion at Garner State Park.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wallace of Oklahoma City are visiting here niece, Mrs. Durwood Bartlett, and Mr. Bartlett.

'Lopes barbecue set for Tuesday

The sale last week of Antelope Booster Club membership tickets indicates a large turnout Tuesday evening, Sept. 9, at the "Meet Our Antelopes" barbecue in the City-County Park.

Purchase of one of the $5 membership tickets entitles the holder and his family to attend the barbecue, which is to be held at 7 p. m.

"We expect the barbecue to be one of the highlights of the football season," said Elwood Wright, booster club president.

All football players, from the junior high through the varsity level, will attend the barbecue. Each player will be introduced by name and number, with the introductions being made by the coaches.

The meat and "trimmings" for the barbecue will be prepared under the supervision of Rusty Dean and Neal Clary.

Season tickets still on sale

Season tickets for the Post Antelopes' five home football games are on sale at $6.25 each at the office of Pat N. Walker, 227 West Main.

The tickets will remain on sale there until noon Thursday, Sept. 18, which is the day before the Post team's home opener with Lockney.

Those who purchased season tickets last year may purchase them again this year for the same seats, but only until noon Thursday, Sept. 11, Walker said.

The Antelopes' home games are with Lockney, Floydada, Stanton, Tahoka and Denver City.

Coach Billy Hahn said Morales' arm was broken between the wrist and elbow, with a clean break of the large bone and a grain fracture of a smaller bone.

Morales, a junior letterman, suffered the injury while making a tackle.

The coach said the doctor who set Morales' broken arm said there was a possibility he might be able to rejoin the squad in five or six weeks. He is in school this week with his arm in a cast.

and Mrs. Wayne Sistrunk were his parents from Halfway.

Friendship Baptist Church closed its revival meeting Sunday night. There were 40 persons at the Sunday services and about 35 stayed for the covered dish luncheon at the community center afterwards.

There will be baptismal services at the Calvary Baptist Church at 3 p. m. Sunday.

Lunchroom Menus

Meals served in the Post School lunchroom next week will be as follows:

Monday: Barbecue beef on bun, buttered rice, English peas, tossed vegetable salad with spinach, apple pie, milk.

Tuesday: Hot dogs with chili sauce, cheese slices, cabbage slaw, with green apples, buttered corn, mixed fruit, wholewheat bread and peanut butter cookies, orange juice, milk.

Wednesday: Macaroni and cheese and eggs, cabbage slaw, with green apples, buttered corn, mixed fruit, wholewheat bread and peanut butter, chocolate cake, milk.

Thursday: Hamburger on buttered bun, lettuce, tomatoes, pickles, onions, buttered spinach, apricot pie, milk.

Friday: Fish sticks, tarter sauce, creamed potatoes, beet pickles, spring salad, hot rolls, butter, banana pudding, milk.

WEEKEND GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Herbie Hays of Grand Prairie spent the weekend in the home of his mother, Mrs. Mattie Hays. A nephew of Mrs. Hays', R. D. Lee, and family of Arlington, were Sunday guests.

Except to fill out this Payroll Savings Card where you work.

After that, just sit back and be lazy. Each payday part of your pay will be automatically set aside for U.S. Savings Bonds.

And that can mean big money for you in the years to come. For a new home, for education, or for retirement.

It means big money for your country, too. The kind it takes to put men on the moon, build highways, and keep the nation strong.

And the government believes in safeguarding your investment in it. Bonds are guaranteed. And the U.S. Treasury will replace them —free—if they are lost, stolen, or destroyed.

There's a bonus, too. Each Bond you buy entitles you to buy a Freedom Share of the same denomination. Freedom Shares pay a higher rate of interest than Bonds, and mature in just four and one-half years.

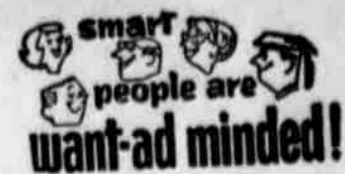

Now doesn't that sound like easy handi-work?

'Higher Education' is goal of area students

Texas colleges and universities continue to remain popular with students as approximately 60 have, or are leaving, to attend schools in Lubbock, Dallas, Levelland, Plainview, College Station, Fort Worth, Houston, Galveston, Alpine, Canyon, Austin, Abilene, Waco and San Angelo. Two young men have ventured to the bordering state of New Mexico to attend the New Mexico Military Institute. They are Paul Walker and James Pollard.

Texas Tech has more than its share of students again this year. Those planning on that campus are Sherry Woods, Duke Altman, Dennis Altman, Zelika Freeman, Mickie Taylor, Ronald Thuett, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hays, Mrs. Jim Wells, Jimmy Bartlett, Felton Gatlin, Betty Sue Hutchins, Mickie Sterling, Sonny Hart and Ronnie Perry.

Emily Potts and Mary Ann Strawn won't be far away on the Lubbock Christian College campus and Sandra Guichard will continue her studies at the Methodist School of Nursing.

Attending West Texas State University will be Doyle Nichols, Mary Ann Stelzer, Brenda Stelzer, Clyde Cash, Debbie Eubank and Jan Bullock.

University of Houston students include Bo Hutchins and Lewis Herron.

Marcia Newby and Ronnie Pierce are continuing their educations at Texas Christian University. Ronnie's wife, Loretta, is working at the university.

The University of Texas boasts another young married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Johnston. Others on campus are Carol Camp, Donny Windham and Bob Wilkins.

Johnny Tom Bilberry, Fernando Raymond and Jacquie Dennis of Gail are back at Sul Ross University at Alpine.

Waco has two track stars at Baylor University. They are Pete Morales and Steve Collazo. James McBride and Danny Bostick will be in Waco, too, at Connally Tech.

Sharyn Bilberry, Mike Criswell, Jerry Crenshaw, Voda Beth Voss, Chris Stelzer, and Dewayne Gannon are all enrolled at South Plains College in Levelland.

Abilene will gain a few students for McMurry College. Joey Lee and Mike Petty will join Joe Hudman, Tony Hutto and Ricky Welch.

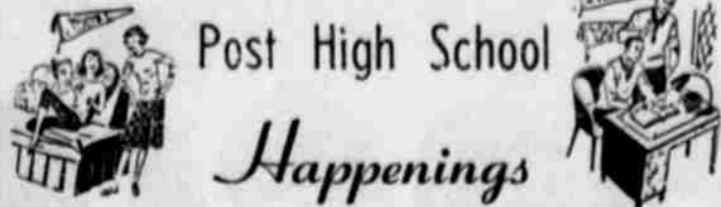

Those at Wayland Baptist College are Lee Norman, Christine Morris and Marsha Tipton.

Angelo State University has Natha Jo Mears, Jackie Huff and Homer Stillwell on campus.

Post can anticipate three new doctors in the future. Elisabeth Tubbs is a med-student at the Galveston Branch of the University of Texas and Ted Scott is a med-student at Southwest Medical School in Dallas. Elisabeth is a graduate of the University of Texas and Ted of Texas Tech. Charles Tubbs is in his senior year at the Galveston Branch.

Ben Miller and Dick Kennedy are off to Aggieland. Ben will be a freshman at Texas A&M and Dick is a transfer student from Tarleton State College.

Oregon's state university at Eugene was opened in 1876.

'Lopes look good in scrimmage with Petersburg

The Post Antelopes, under new coaching reins this year, made an outstanding showing against Petersburg in a controlled scrimmage Friday. Shining mostly on defense, the 'Lopes ground game went well also, while little passing as done.

The Antelopes first team held the Buffaloes to very little yardage while scoring once themselves. Neff Walker broke for 60 yards and a touchdown for the first score of the night.

Petersburg scored twice on two passes, but with difficulty, as Terry Moreau had earlier picked off a Petersburg aerial.

After the two teams had run their basic plays, they moved to goal line defense. Petersburg scored once, and Post scored five times, making the final tally six touchdowns for Post, and three for the Buffs.

With a good showing by the whole Antelope squad it looks as though we can expect a good year from the Post team.

It's the Law . . .

WIFE VERSUS PARENTS

If a bridegroom is lucky, his bride and his parents will work out their new relationship in sweet peace and harmony. But what if they don't — and he is "in the middle"? Where do his duties lie?

By and large, the law says his wife comes first. Take this case:

A man was haled into court by his wife for non-support. In his defense, he explained:

"I give every nickel I make to my elderly parents. I just feel they need the money more than we do."

But the court decided this was no excuse, and ordered him to start taking care of his wife. The judge said she had first claim on his earnings.

A similar principle applies to the family domicile. A man accused his wife of desertion, after she walked out on him. But in court, she pointed out that she had good reason for leaving: her husband allowed his mother not only to live with them but also to run the household with an iron hand.

Ruling in the wife's favor, the court said:

"When a man marries and founds a new family, he assumes new duties. When these conflict with his former ties, they must be held paramount. The very existence of the family depends on this principle. Whatever his filial obligations may be, a man may not bring his mother to reside in his new home. That place belongs to the wife."

Nevertheless, the law does not insist on total estrangement of a husband from his parents.

In another case, a man brought his ailing, elderly mother into his home — partly for the sake of sentiment, partly for the sake of economy. However, it was his wife, not his mother, who had full charge of managing the household.

Was this husband falling down on his marital obligations? This time, a court said no. The judge said that, although a wife does rank as Number One, she still must make fair and reasonable adjustments to reality — to make the marriage work.
