

If there's anything better than one woman to clean up a mess, it's two women.

The Post Cactus Garden got that double treatment Saturday morning when Mrs. Maxine Marks, "retired", and Mrs. Kay Lamb, Chamber secretary on her day off, pulled and chopped all of those weeds out of that little tourist showplace at the corner of Broadway and Eighth street.

A hot, hard job true, but community good works of the highest order.

If they could recruit all the old Broadway Bunch again and go after the rest of the tall — and getting massive weeds — that are growing up and down Broadway around telephone poles and such, the town would be so much the prettier.

Supt. Bill Shiver has completed a survey "where all those teachers went" which forced him to hire 19 new ones for the fall term.

Bill, being a highly reasonable man, had to have some reasons we are sure after being slightly embarrassed by the big turnover right in the midst of a conversion in teaching methods and instructional evaluation here, which has put Post far out in front of any other small school district.

He reports: five of last year teachers "got pregnant", one retired, nine moved to another town and accepted other teaching positions but three of these because their husbands moved to positions in other towns, two entered other fields of endeavor, and two of the 19 new teachers this year are for new positions, one in kindergarten and one in junior high.

Bill Shiver, we have learned second hand and not from him, has turned down several higher salaried positions, including one recently with the Texas Educational Agency, to stay here in Post and "see through" his new educational program in local schools. As one taxpayer and citizen, we appreciate Bill most of all for his determination to finish the job even at his own personal sacrifice.

Match roping added event

With the O. S. Ranch Benefit Steer Roping and Art Exhibit, Post's biggest promotional effort of the year only a month away, Sept. 29-30, the attractive catalog for the dual event rolled off the press this week and Jim Prather announced a change in the Saturday roping format with a 10 steer match roping to be featured.

The match roping will pit Roy (Tuffy) Thompson, the 1973 money winning leader in professional steer roping, from Happy, Tex., against Olin Young of Peralta, N.M., the 1971 world steer roping champ.

Prather also announced that the Saturday, Sept. 29, calf roping in the ranch roping arena will be an invitational affair for the first time and will be limited to 35 ropers.

He said the match roping between Thompson and Young will replace the team roping of former years.

The match roping will get under way at 1:30 p. m. and the two steer ropers will take "breaks" through the afternoon to let the calf ropers perform.

An open girls barrel race is scheduled for 10 a. m. Sept. 29 in the ranch arena to open the two-day roping show which on Sunday will pit 33 of the Southwest's best steer ropers, including eight world champions, against each other for an estimated $15,000 cash jackpot.

The barrel race is a one go-round event with the 10 top finalists to run again Sunday just before the top 12 ropers get their fourth and final steer to determine how the cash money will be divided.

Entries for the barrel race close Sept. 14. Entries for the $25 event can be made by calling 495-3461.

The O. S. Ranch Steer Roping & Art Exhibit Catalog this year contains a full cover picture of a steer roping, entitled "Sunday Afternoon." It was painted by Tom Ryan of Stamford, well known cowboy artist who is vice-chairman of the O. S. Ranch Steer Roping & Art Exhibit Committee.

"Sunday Afternoon" will be one of the more than 100 works of art to be exhibited Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 29-30, in the restored O. S. Ranch house and offered for sale to art lovers from all over the west on those two days.

Mr. and Mrs. David Newby are co-editors of the catalog which is now on sale here at $3 per copy.

The quality publication contains pictures of the 32 artists participating in the art exhibit and sale together with a picture of one of their works, some of which will be for sale here, along with a word sketch of each by Ben K. Green, western writer.

It also contains a page for Homecoming to be planned at meeting

Homecoming will be planned at a meeting of the Post Ex-Students Association at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, Sept. 4, in the Reddy Room, according to A. J. McAlister, president of the group. All members are urged to attend.

This year's homecoming has been set for Oct. 12, the date of the Post-Slaton football game.

School's new budget $1,193 million

Trustees at their 16th hearing last night approved a budget for the school year of $1,193,263, 11.5% higher than last year.

The school operating fund is budgeted for an expenditure of $987,769.11, interest and sinking fund (debt retirement) for $79,746.81, the school lunchroom is budgeted for $53,047.14 which includes a $5,000 subsidy from the operating fund, an athletic budget of $55,332.20, which includes $39,000 from the operating fund, and $60,932 in federal expenditures.

The operating fund expenditures last year were $971,617.74, interest and sinking fund $79,746.81, lunchroom expenditures $53,047.14, athletic expenditures $55,115.66, and federal expenditures $59,479.90.

Local school district taxes will pay approximately 65 percent of the cost of the new budget, except for athletic contest admissions, lunchroom meal payments, and federal aid to education funds which are kept separated from all other district funds by requirement.

Supt. Bill Shiver points out that the local tax share is so large because of the formula for operation of state aid which requires each school district to pay what is called local fund assignment into the state to qualify for state aid.

The amount of local fund assignment is based upon the economic index of the school district over the previous three years. Shiver pointed out that this school district's economic index is so high that the district this year will pay $200,000 into the state in local fund assignment in return for state aid. In comparison, the Ralls school district pays only $75,000 in local fund assignment.

Antelope Night is set for Sept. 6

The Antelope Boosters are planning a "Antelope Night" for Friday night, Sept. 6, at the Post High School Gymnasium. The event, which will feature a basketball game between the Antelope and Lockney varsity teams, is to be held at 6:30 p. m. at the Post High School Gymnasium. Since the season at Lockney, there will be a pep rally. The newly-elected members of the booster club, including Chairman of the Club, Conoly has been chairman of the Antelope ice cream social, held at "Meet the Antelope" other members of the committee are: Syd B. Wyatt, Jr., heads Boosters.

Trustees receive report on instructional system

Harris presented a report to the Post School Board Thursday after an evaluation of the current development of instructional evaluation in the Post School District.

A written report from the near future, published in one of the educational magazines.

The report will give Post school district a better indication of the field of instructional evaluation. Harris said that the development of instructional evaluation is better than expected.

Joe Craig, who went to Brazil this summer as a Lions Club exchange student, showed slides of the South American country and his visit at Tuesday night's meeting of the Post Lions Club.

The Lions discussed plans for their annual Halloween candy sale.

Enrollment total first day 1,153

Post's "first day" school enrollment Monday was reported at 1,153 students, a decrease of 22 from the 1972 initial enrollment of 1,175.

All of the loss — and a little bit more — came at the high school level with 339 students in the ninth through 12th grades this year as compared to 356 for the four grades a year ago.

The only big gainer this year was in kindergarten, due to the new state law which opened the class to all five-year-olds for the first time. Heretofore only the economic disadvantaged were enrolled in kindergarten.

Kindergarten enrollment this year was 47, as compared to 24 last year.

The enrollment by grades with the 1972 enrollment in parentheses is as follows: first 72 (72); second 81 (93); third 87 (107); fourth 101 (100); fifth 97 (95); sixth 96 (112); seventh 106 (108); eighth 104 (99); ninth 108 (112); tenth 98 (103); eleventh 81 (81); and twelfth 52 (60).

In addition there are nine enrolled in the junior high special education class and 14 in the elementary special education class.

First day schooling reportedly went smoothly.

Supt. Bill Shiver reported his only problem is finding "two more school bus drivers."

With tightening state law on qualifications and a physical examination required, the school administration is having trouble filling all the drivers' seats.

Pleasant Valley, Verbena voting boxes will get 'ax'

Due mainly to fast climbing election costs, the Garza County Commissioners Court Monday eliminated two voting boxes in the county, effective with 1974 elections, and changed the boundary line between two other boxes.

Eliminated were the two smallest boxes, Verbena and Pleasant Valley.

Books close Sept. 5 for little'uns rodeo

Books close at 10 p. m. Wednesday, Sept. 5, for the Garza 4-H sponsored Little Britches Rodeo to be held Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 8-9, at the Post Stampede Arena.

Doc Edwards of Girard will be stock producer for the rodeo, the purpose of which is to raise funds with which to help build the state 4-H center at Lake Brownwood.

Entries should be mailed to 107 Ridge Road, Post, or may be made by telephoning 495-3160 after 6 p. m.

The rodeo will have a pee wee division for boys and girls 11 and under and a junior division for boys and girls 12 through 14. Pee wee events are barrel race, flag race, pole bending, pee wee bareback, calf riding and ribbon roping. Events in the junior division are barrel race, flag race, pole bending, junior bareback, bull riding and ribbon roping. There is a $3 entry fee for each event.

In addition to the regular rodeo events, there will be a wild mare race each night with a cash prize. Buckles will be awarded event winners and ribbons from first through seventh places. An all-around buckle will be presented in each age group. After entering, contestants must call in to find out which date he or she will perform.

Last rites held for Dr. Kitchen

Funeral services for Lewis Woodin Kitchen, 87, Doctor of Veterinary Medicine and a resident of Post since 1911, were held at 3 p. m. Saturday in the Church of Christ with Bob Connel, minister, and Syd B. Wyatt officiating.

Dr. Kitchen, who lived at 809 West 7th St. here, died Thursday in Colonial Nursing Home, Tahoka, where he had been since last December.

A native of Brevard, N.C., he moved to Texas with his parents when he was 21, the family settling in Tarrant County and also living in Jones County before moving to Garza County.

Dr. Kitchen, who had taught school a year at Justiceburg, in early May of 1917 at Snyder. He had attended veterinary schools at Dallas and in Indianapolis, Ind., where he received his DVM degree. He was a member of the Texas Veterinarians' Association and at one time served as Garza County animal and hide inspector. Dr. Kitchen was a member of the Post Church of Christ.

Survivors include his wife, a brother, Oliver of Seminole; three sisters, Mrs. Leila Owens and Mrs. Annie Galloway, both residents of North Carolina, and Mrs. Agilee Welch of Houston, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Burial was in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Hudman Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Dee Hodges, Floyd Hodges, Roy Brown, Howard Freeman, J. D. McCampbell and Darien White. Named as honorary pallbearer: (See Dr. Kitchen, Page 10)

WHO'S BUYING WHOM?—That's the title of the drawing, top of Southland Rancher Jack Myers and horse, as drawn by Gordon Snidow, well known cowboy artist, pictured below. Snidow's drawing of Myers and the horse will be one of the art items for sale at the O. S. Ranch house, Sept. 29-30. The drawing was used in the September issue of The Western Horseman in connection with a publicity story on the O. S. Ranch Benefit Steer Roping and Art Exhibit now only a month away. The drawing also appears in the book, "Gordon Snidow, Chronicler of the Contemporary West."

Library Bookshelf

New non-fiction books on the shelves at the Post Public Library include "The Garage Sale Manual" by Jean Young and "The Thorough World" by Walter Osborn. New mystery novels include "The Curse of the Kings" by Victoria Holt and "Murder in Waiting" by Victor Canning. Juvenile readers will find among the new books, "The Mouse and the Motorcycle" and "Mitch and Amy," both by Beverly Cleary. "Thanks to the Wise family for the nice juvenile books," says Mrs. C. K. Pierce, librarian.

The baling wire shortage

If you've ever drawn a blank when you went out into the backyard or back alley to kick around for a piece of baling wire with which to repair something, you have a faint idea of how the hay farmer feels in the midst of the current baling wire shortage.

Baling wire is one of those farm constants everyone took for granted until federal economic controls and dollar devaluations introduced unpredictability as a farm household word. Now, with farmers hurting for wire, suppliers blame each other, the weather, steel industry conspiracies and even the Japanese.

Hay farmers from Texas to Minnesota are experiencing a serious shortage of baling wire. Some blame the shortage, at least in part, on a shortage of Japanese steel rods used in the wire's manufacture, but others differ.

Some suppliers say the shortage has developed because the Japanese are getting better prices elsewhere since the dollar took a tumble on international money markets.

One wire products manufacturer said that five years ago nine American steel companies made baling wire, but imports from Germany and Japan cut into the market so badly that now only three major companies are

The National Farmers Union has been told by some farmers that they thought international economic warfare was at the root of the shortages—that we stopped exporting soybeans to Japan and they retaliated by stopping baling wire exports to the United States.

An importer out on the West Coast says such talk is nonsense. "They can't blame the Japanese for this one," he said. "Japanese baling wire is tremendous, it's not made as brittle as the stuff made here. And we are still getting our commitments." He goes on to say that manufacturers make the least profit on baling wire, so why shouldn't they use their steel for other things?

The same importer says "We don't have evidence, but the strong feeling we get here is that the steel companies are hoarding wire until the price freeze ends so they can up the price."

And, while the argument goes on over what caused the shortage, the farmers and ranchers are the ones who are really feeling the pinch.—CD

They don't seek donations

One of the big reasons why Garza County residents should support the Little Britches Rodeo here Sept. 8-9 is that it is a 4-H Club fund-raising project and another indication of how the 4-H organization operates when it needs funds for a project.

Instead of calling on the public for contributions, as many groups do when they need money, the 4-H'ers give the public something in return for their money. The donkey ball game held a few weeks ago was a good example, and the upcoming Little Britches Rodeo is another.

The Garza County 4-H members are joining with other 4-H'ers throughout Texas in raising funds with which to build a state 4-H Center at Lake Brownwood. In every instance we have heard of in connection with this project, the 4-H members are giving the public something for its money—they aren't asking for donations.—CD

Congratulations or sympathy?

The Dispatch finds it difficult to decide whether to congratulate or sympathize with the 671,000 young Texans who made the transition from child to adult in the eyes of the law Monday.

Perhaps a bit of both—some congratulations and sympathy—are in order.

At the moment, however, we keep thinking of what George Bernard Shaw wrote about youth being such a wonderful thing that it is a shame it has to be wasted on the young.

Three years don't seem like much time to the 18-year-olds, but to we older people who have left the 18-21 period far behind, three years is a mighty long time. Most of us, if we had it to do over again, wouldn't want to rush adulthood by even three years.

But you 18-year-olds of today have skipped over in one day what it took the rest of us three years to reach—adulthood—when we were 18. Make the most of it, youngsters. If you haven't already, try to "grow up" to fit adulthood, but, at the same time, don't leave your youth behind. Try to be young at heart always.

Will Granberry make it?

Some of you may recall having attended a class reunion to learn with dismay that the boy voted "most likely to succeed" actually "after all these years" was farther away from success than a majority of his fellow graduates.

That often happens. But not in case of Jim Granberry, 41-year-old Lubbock dentist, who when he graduated from Lindale High School in East Texas in 1930 was picked as the graduate most likely to become governor.

Jim hasn't let his classmates down. He's trying to make that high school prediction come true. En route, he has made it to the city council of Lubbock and his greatest claim to fame is having been Lubbock mayor during the 1970 tornado.

Granberry, on June 22, became the second Republican candidate to announce for governor and has been campaigning throughout the state since that time.

So, into next April's election we'll find out what kind of crystal ball it was into which Jim Granberry's Lindale High School classmates were gazing when they voted him as the graduate most likely to become governor.—CD

Love Is An Open Hand

By George L. Miller

The other day I crossed a busy street with my little son. He confidently placed his hand in mine and I held it firmly as we threaded our way through the traffic. I enjoyed the feel of his little fingers trusting mine, and would like to have held them longer, but when we reached the other side he wanted me to let go.

I guess it's easy for a father to hold on to a child's hand. It seems so natural to guide and protect a little one from harm. Especially when there are still frightening things in the world. Crime and drugs and tragic brutal deaths all lie in wait out there and we want to shield our children from the danger.

But they always want us to let go. "Let me do it myself" they impatiently cry. "I'm big enough." We see all kinds of dangers, we know a hundred good reasons why we should still hold on, and yet the harder we grasp their hand, the more they struggle to escape.

I guess God would like to hold our hands sometimes too. His will for us is that we have the best and knowing the dangers that lie ahead he surely must long to protect us from tragedy and sorrow.

Yet if he tried to hold our hand, how we would

THE 101 BAR in the 'Will Rogers Airport at Oklahoma City is a good place to wait when you have a layover between planes. They don't sell anything except draught beer and already-made sandwiches, but they do a land office business in these items, especially the draught beer.

I stopped in at the bar last Friday while walking through the airport while waiting for getting off the plane from Stillwater and heading for the gate through which I would board the plane to Lubbock.

THE BAR WAS full of customers, but it had only one bar maid. In between drawing glasses of beer the bar maid would go back to the center of the long bar and resume reading a paperback book which lay open in front of her. She'd no more than start reading, however, until someone would want another beer or another customer would walk in. Each time, the bar maid would mark the page with a ball-point pen, lay the pen between the open pages of the book and go wait on the customer.

Now there, I thought, is a girl who is improving her mind while she is working. I was sitting near enough to get a look at the book and saw that its title was "The Sign of the Golden Goose," which the bar maid told me was a murder mystery. The funny thing about it, though, was that each time she left the book to wait on a customer she marked the word she had stopped on. I took a closer look and saw that there

Maryland nine wins Babe Ruth World Series

MANCHESTER, N. H. — Prince Georges, Md., is the new champion of the Babe Ruth World Series. The Maryland kids whipped East Anaheim, Calif., 11-6 to sweep through the tournament in four straight games. Prince Georges defeated East Anaheim, 15-5; Puerto Rico, 8-3 in 8 innings and Falls Church, Virginia 9-4 before winning from East Anaheim for the second time in the title game. California won 9-7 from host Manchester in its first start and then had to come through the losers' bracket with wins over Monterrey, Mexico, 7-2; Lexington, Ky., 6-0; Puerto Rico, 2-1 and Falls Church, 2-1. It was the first time ever for both East Anaheim and Prince Georges in the finals. Artie Mory, East Anaheim outfielder, was named the most outstanding player in the series. He batted .381 and had two home runs and a double. Batting champion of the series was Pedro Pratts of Puerto Rico with a .545 average in four games. The week long series played to a record attendance of 80,904.

Boosters to put up 'Post Pride' signs

FINALLY COMES TRUE

Dear Editor: Twenty years ago, as a graduating Senior of Post High School's Class of 1953, my autobiography was published in The Dispatch. At the conclusion of that autobiography, I predicted for my future that I would probably someday be teaching the children of my fellow classmates of 1953. Today that prediction has come true after twenty years. Stormy Lovinggood, the son of Sue Stephens Lovinggood, Class of 1953, has enrolled in my Reading Enrichment course at Crockett Junior High School in Odessa, Texas. Since Sue and I still have family and friends living in Post, I thought your readers might be interested in hearing of this twenty-year old prediction finally coming true. Yours truly, Margaret Welborn McBre 937 R Custer Odessa, Tex

Weed control to be highlight

LUBBOCK — New developments in controlling troublesome weeds on the High Plains will be featured highlight of the 64th Annual Texas Agricultural Experiment Station Field Day to be held September 11th. Site of the event is the 320-acre Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center seven miles north of Lubbock on Highway 87.

Conducting the presentation of the weed research program will be Dr. John Abernathy, weed scientist with the TAES. "The weed research program is just one of the eleven phases of Plains agriculture to be presented during the field day activities," says Abernathy. "Our exhibit will include plots depicting field studies of various new herbicides which will soon be available for use in cotton," he adds. Had company? Been somewhere? Phone your news to 3816

SOUTHLAND — "Meet the Eagles" night was planned by the Southland Booster Club at its first meeting of the year Monday night. The members of the booster club invite everyone to attend the event at 6 o'clock tonight (Thursday) to eat homemade ice cream and meet the players and coaches. "Meet the Eagles" night will be held at the football field. Fifty-three persons attended Monday night's meeting at which new officers were elected and took office. They are Max Courtney, president; Valton Wheeler, vice president, and JoAnn Mock, secretary-treasurer.

Plans were made to buy traveling shirts for the football boys and to film the games. These films will be shown each Monday night following the Friday night football game. All fans are invited. The booster club set family game night, with volleyball and dominoes, for every second Monday. The regular booster club meeting will be held each fourth Monday night.

Scrimmage is set for Eagles

Southland High School's six-man football squad will hold its second pre-season scrimmage at 3 p.m. today at Southland against Patton Springs. The Eagles scrimmaged Miles at Ira last week.

Following today's scrimmage a "Meet the Eagle" program will be held at 8 p.m. at the football field, with homemade ice cream to be served. Fifteen candidates are out for this season's Eagle squad, with Donny Windham returning as coach. A new member of this year's coaching staff at Southland is Terry Kohnhorst, a recent Texas Tech graduate whose home is in Wausau, Wis.

ATTEND FUNERAL

The following were here Saturday to attend the funeral of Dr. L. W. Kitchen: Mrs. Mildred Haney, Mrs. Imagine Myers, Mrs. E. F. Wright, all of Azle, Tex., Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Pope, Hurst; Mrs. Bernie Bingham and Rhonda of Lubbock.

Boys Ranch Rodeo set

AMARILLO — Approximately 10,000 people are expected to celebrate the Labor Day weekend by attending the 29th annual Boys Ranch Rodeo at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch. Two performances of the rodeo are scheduled at 2:30 p.m. at the ranch's rodeo arena where more than 150 boys will be riding calves, steers, bulls and bucking brons. All of the 385 boys who make their home at the ranch will have some part in the rodeo, either as contestants or working in the many behind-the-scenes activities. The older boys will ride professional rodeo stock under R.C.A. rules.

More than 2,500 boys have lived at the ranch since it was founded by Cal Farley in 1939 and many travel long distances with their families for the rodeo. An added attraction will be big barbecue sandwiches that will be prepared and sold by the boys for only $1. Reserve, box-seat tickets for $2.50 are available at the Boys Ranch office, 600 West 11th St. in Amarillo, or can be obtained by writing to Cal Farley's Boys Ranch, P. O. Box 1890, Amarillo, Texas, 79105. General admission is $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children.

The rodeo is also a traditional homecoming for those who have graduated from the ranch and are members of the Boys Ranch Alumni Association.

Card of Thanks

I would like to express my appreciation to everyone for their concern, prayers, phone calls, visits, flowers and gifts during my stay in the hospital. Also for the food and visits since I returned home. May God bless each of you.

Lola Peil

For the floral gifts, food and help in so many ways during the period of years of Dr. Kitchen's illness, we shall ever be thankful and grateful to neighbors, friends, Drs. Harry and Charles Tubbs, Dr. William C. Wilson and Garza Memorial Hospital Administrator Donald Windham for his patience and wonderful cooperation and also to all of his staff.

ely Tips from CHDA
By DANA FEASTER

—THE BIG CLIMB
You have already vacation this year. part of mine next year when the house is paid for, or later, when the kids are through college.

The tragedy is that some people reach the end of life never having lived at all.

Vacations provide a change of pace. For the person whose job requires mental activity, perhaps something physical is needed. If he ordinarily works with people, some solitude is called for. If he works in isolation, he might welcome the stimulation of other people. For the country dweller, some big city living. For the city dweller, the delights of the country or the mountains. And for those who usually live by the clock and calendar, living without them for awhile, is good.

Plan rest, of course, but plan some activity, too.

A vacation's direct effect on the job is usually better work. The vacation-skipper is more likely to make errors, feel put upon and self-righteous.

He may become irritable with co-workers and resentful of those who do take a vacation. He isn't likely to let others forget that while they were off enjoying themselves, he was hard at work. Sometimes he forgets that productivity isn't measured by hours on the job.

Vacations also give others a chance. The good organizer gives priority to vacation plan, then enlists others to help carry them out.

The vacation is a unifier for the family that helps maintain closeness among family members, particularly husband and wife. Some vacation time with the whole family strengthens family unity, but equally important is the opportunity for husband and wife to have some time alone together.

The typical husband and wife can expect to spend 20 years together after the last child leaves home. A "just the two of us" vacation is an ideal time for them to get to know each other again as individuals—in anticipation of that 20-year-long "second honeymoon."

Vacations also help prepare people for the leisure time that comes with retirement. For those whose vacations have been rich in experiences, who know how to live a full life outside the world of work, retirement years will be good years—perhaps the best.

After a short wedding trip the couple will reside in Ft. Riley, Kans., where the bridegroom is stationed with the U. S. Army.

Connel assumes duties as Church of Christ minister

The Bob Connel family has moved from Haskell to Post where Mr. Connel is new minister of the Church of Christ, filling a vacancy created by the resignation a few months ago of Syd B. Wyatt.

The Connel family, which has moved into the minister's home at 1006 Sunset Drive, includes Mrs. Connel, whose first name is Edie, and four children: John Barr, 8, a third grade student; Robert Lloyd, 6, a first grade student; Marian Rene, 3, and Donald Bruce, 2 months.

Mr. Connel was minister of the Church of Christ at Haskell for five years before moving to Post. He has also been minister of a church at Liberal, Kans., and has served as song leader and educational director at other churches. He attended Abilene Christian College.

The new minister's hometown is Clyde, Tex., and Mrs. Connel is from Temple. She is a registered physical therapist and at Haskell served as Area IV president of Young Homemakers Club.

Mr. Connel was president of the Parent-Teacher Association at Haskell and was announcer for Little League baseball games. One of his many interests is teaching singing schools, and he was a coordinator of the Haskell singing school, now in its eighth year.

Housewarming held for Richards Stices
Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stice of 1007 Sunset Drive were given a surprise housewarming Tuesday night.

GUESTS OF RELATIVES
Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Kendrick and Renita of Bryan visited in the home of her mother, Mrs. C. A. Young, and her sister, Mrs. Richard Stice. They also visited relatives in Tahoka, Slaton and Lubbock.

WEEKEND VISITOR
Mike Custer, who is employed at Medford, Okla., with the Federal Crop Insurance Corp., spent the weekend at home.

Diana Blacklock wed on Aug. 23 to Kelly Wright

Miss Diana Blacklock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Blacklock of Lubbock, and Pfc. Kelly Wright, son of Mr. Joe Wright of Houston, exchanged vows in a double ring ceremony Aug. 23 at the Arnett-Benson Baptist Church in Lubbock. Rev. Jimmy McGuire performed the ceremony.

Miss Becky Blacklock attended her sister as maid of honor and serving as best man was Randy Free. Both are from Lubbock.

Trash, treasures co-op is formed

LUBBOCK—A group of women in Lubbock have formed a craft co-operative known as Trash and Treasures, to allow individuals to display and sell their handcraft and art works at prices reasonable enough to stimulate sales.

The co-op's desire is to create a market for anyone who needs an outlet for merchandise they are capable of producing, thereby supplementing personal income. In some cases their income may be meager. Widows, retired people, people unable to work at regular jobs, but able to produce attractive useable items to sell. Other artists and hobbyists may need an outlet for their work with income being of secondary importance.

Original and tried and true creations of various form, style and use to appeal to many people are shown in this shop. Special orders are taken when the exact item desired is not available. Merchandise from other groups, such as New Life Ministries, will also be made available.

Trash and Treasures welcomes inquiries and suppliers. The supplier is any person who is capable of producing art, sewing, needlecraft, woodworking, jewelry, candles, lamps, refinished antiques, any craft items. Whatever your mind thinks of and your hands create, this is the merchandise of Trash and Treasures.

None injured in 9 July crashes

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated nine accidents on rural highways in Garza County during the month of July, according to Sergeant H.E. Pirtle, highway patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in no persons killed and nine persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first six months of 1973 shows a total of 46 accidents resulting in one person killed and 26 persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for 60 counties of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety Region for July, 1973 shows a total of 658 accidents resulting in 21 persons killed and 366 persons injured as compared to July, 1972 with 713 accidents resulting in 34 persons killed and 388 persons injured. This was 55 less accidents, 13 less fatalities, and 22 less injured in 1973 at the same period of time.

The 21 traffic deaths for the month of July, 1973 occurred in the following counties: Lubbock, Sherman, Wilbarger, three each; Palo Pinto, Parmer, two each; Hockley, Jack, Lamb, Parker, Wise, Hutchinson, Potter, and Oldham, one each.

deaths seen for Labor Day

Col. Wilson E. ... Director of the Texas Dept. of Public Safety, today warned that 42 persons may lose their lives in Texas traffic during the long Labor Day weekend.

Day weekend.
The holiday officially begins at 6 p. m. Friday, Aug. 31 and runs through midnight Monday, Sept. 3.
Spir said the DPS is making preparations to cope with increased holiday travel. "Every available Department of Public Safety patrolman will be on duty during this three day weekend, utilizing all resources we can put our hands on to prevent accidents," he added.

The DPS director noted that special attention will be paid to hazardous traffic violations normally associated with a high holiday death toll. Patrolmen will be especially watchful for such offenses as speeding, driving while drinking, improper passing and driving on the wrong side of the road.

CHEAPER COW DIETS
Providing the beef cattle herd with an economical, yet nutritional, diet will be the center of discussions at the Beef Cattle and Forage Short Course at Texas A&M University Aug. 20-21. Emphasis will be placed on using good forage in the feeding program to lower ration costs. The use of protein supplements and minerals will also be discussed as well as different types of forage grasses and different grazing systems. An equipment display will feature new forage cutting and harvesting machinery.

It's no dark secret that seasoned globetrotters travel light. It saves overweight charges and cuts down on tipping and extra-luggage taxi tariffs.

Drip-dry and no-ironing textiles do more than save packing space and pare laundry and dry-cleaning bills. Where it exists at all express dry-cleaning and laundry service is still a novelty outside America.

Self-service laundrettes are a rarity abroad. But that made-in-U.S.A. convenience is being introduced worldwide by Holiday Inns, which has introduced them at many inns throughout its worldwide chain.

Southland schools start with many new features

SOUTHLAND — Teachers, old and new, in the Southland Public Schools were honored recently with an ice cream and cake supper, at which volleyball and other games were played.
The event "kicked off" a new school year at Southland with many new programs introduced in the system this year by Supt. Ray Simmons and the school board.

Accomplishments and programs are many and varied to meet the educational needs of every student — such as teacher aids and materials, teacher and materials for the migrant program; a specialized teacher and materials for special education with classes throughout the day.

Also kindergarten classes set up with a special teacher; vocational opportunities made available through Post High School and Western Texas College at Snyder; work-study program whereby a student may work half a day and attend school half a day.

New equipment and materials include dressing rooms, storage for athletic equipment, lunchroom equipment, classrooms, rest rooms redecorated, classroom and office equipment such as projector, stereo, cassette, typewriters, calculator and a copy machine.

There is also new library equipment and approximately 100 new books, new steel lockers, desks, tables and chairs, new football and basketball equipment and two new school buses.

All courses are taught by qualified teachers, and the curriculum meets specified state standards.

Orlan Criswell hurt in automobile wreck
Orlan Criswell, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Criswell, is in Methodist Hospital with a crushed right foot as a result of an automobile accident two miles south of Post on US-84 at 1:55 a. m. Sunday.
According to investigating highway patrolman, Criswell turned over his 1973 Chevrolet and "totaled it" and came out of the wreck with the crushed foot. The youth was treated at Garza Memorial Hospital and taken to Methodist Hospital in Lubbock.

Renovation of courtroom set
The county commissioners are considering renovating the Garza County district courtroom.
Doyle Drake of Pharr Construction Co. of Lubbock and Duane McQueen of the architectural and engineering firm of Whitaker and Hall met with the court Monday to present their renovation proposal.
Under consideration is a plan to enclose the space under the courtroom balcony into offices for the use of the district judge and lawyers trying cases.
Another problem is to deaden the air conditioning sound, as witness testimony can't be heard above the whir of the air conditioner in the hot weather and the air conditioner has to be turned off.
Commissioners are taking the proposal under study for action at a later date.
In other actions Monday, the court:
Accepted the low bid of Smith Ford, Inc., of $3,498 for a new sheriff's car, upon recommendation of the sheriff, set 9 a. m. Monday, Sept. 10, for the county's annual budget hearing, discussed workmen's compensation insurance and asked County Judge Giles Dalby to obtain further information to be considered in the September meeting; and heard a proposal for emergency ambulance service in the county presented by Robert Keibler of Lubbock, a Texas Tech student.
Keibler was asked to work up a detailed proposal for further consideration at the court's September meeting.
Judge Dalby told The Dispatch yesterday that the city and county have received several proposals to operate such an emergency ambulance service on a subsidy arrangement, but no final action has been taken.

Heat mark for year is tied
The mercury soared to 104 degrees here last Thursday and to 103 Friday for two of the hottest days of the year.
Thursday's 104-degree mark was not the year's high, however, for a 104-degree day was registered in June, according to Glen Barley of Southwest Public Service Company, which keeps the rainfall and temperature records for Post.
Since the Thursday and Friday "scorchers," temperatures have cooled somewhat, with the highs ranging between 91 and 95 degrees.
The dry weather hangs on, with August's rainfall total thus far 1.37 inches. That brings the year's moisture total here to 17.01 inches. "That is about normal for this time of year, but is some four inches behind what we had this time last year," Barley said.

Somebody shows early for lunch
Somebody was mighty early for their school lunch yesterday.
Sheriff J. A. (Jimmy) Holliman reported someone broke the glass out of the school lunchroom door Tuesday night or early Wednesday to gain entrance.
The loot — eaten and drank on the spot — included three half pints of chocolate milk, a bottle of Coke, a bottle of Pepsi, and some barbecue out of a freshly opened can.

FCA director to speak here
Bill Krisher of Dallas, regional director of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, will spend a busy day in Post next Tuesday.
The former All-American footballer from the University of Oklahoma will address a breakfast meeting of the adult chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes at 7 o'clock that morning at Betty's Grub Stake Cafe, to which all interested adults are invited.
He will speak before the Post Rotary Club at their noon luncheon along with one of the local youths who attended a recent Fellowship of Christian Athletes Camp under Rotary sponsorship.
In the afternoon, Krisher will speak to high school athletes at the field house.

Bruton tells of achieving goal
Ed Bruton told Post Rotarians in a classification talk at their Tuesday luncheon that 11 years after graduating from Texas Tech and going to work at the Postex Plant here, he had achieved his original goal by becoming Postex Plant manager.
But he said as the years passed his life goals have changed and now his goals are (1) to be a good Christian, (2) to be a good boss, and (3) to be a good citizen.
Bruton's guest for the occasion was his father, the Rev. S. J. Bruton, pastor of the Assembly of God Church here, whom he credited with teaching him the value of hard work at an early age.

VFW needs info on loaned-out property
The equipment book of the Veterans of Foreign Wars post has become mutilated to the extent where it is difficult to tell who has VFW equipment on loan, according to Weldon Horton, the organization's club room chairman.
Horton asks that anyone who has on loan a VFW hospital bed, wheelchair, crutches, etc., let the organization know so it can bring its equipment book up to date. Dial 2701 daytime or 3110 nights.

Pond damage is alleged in suit
Hoyt Bland and John Bland have filed a $16,500 damage suit in district court here against L. E. Windham of Rankin, Tex., and Emmett Stelzer of Post over an alleged oil spill from an oil well owned by Rankin.
The Blands contend that heavy rains washed the oil from the March, 1971, spill into a stock tank that fell resulting in the loss of $15,000 worth of fish, doing $1,500 damage to the house plumbing from oil coming into the house pumped from the tank, and $5,000 in damage for the inconvenience of hauling water for a considerable period.

MARKETING OF EGGS
Eggs actually are sold by weight, and are one of the most economical sources of protein.
Texas college teachers claim they are below the national average and their raises have been lagging below the average for five years.

Bill McBride and Ronald Simpson are in charge of the program, and Wyatt is in charge of advertising and arranging the pep rally.
Ice cream will be sold at 50 cents per person, with Joe McCowen in charge of the ticket sale. Wyvonne Kennedy and Patsy McCowen will sell Antelope Booster Club memberships at $5 per family.
Other officers elected at Friday night's booster meeting were David Tyler, vice president, and Wyvonne Kennedy, secretary. Head Coach Bobby Davis introduced new coach Jackie Brown and his wife, Judy, to the booster group. Coach Davis also said there is a new room in the junior high school building where the boosters can meet to view the films of the Antelope games.
The club's next meeting will be Tuesday, Sept. 4, at 7 p.m., at which time films of the Petersburg and Spur scrimmages will be shown.
