

Garza County Mental Clinic helping reduce state hospital's population

Thanks mainly to the Garza County Mental Health Clinic at 115 North Ave. N in Post, and seven others like it in this area of West Texas, the patient population of the Big Spring State Hospital is steadily decreasing.

Previously, in order to receive mental health care, a person needed to be either wealthy or in such a condition that he could no longer function in the outside world. The outreach clinics of the Big Spring State Hospital have changed this situation.

The Garza County clinic, which otherwise would have required long-term hospitalization," says Tad Corbet, director of outreach programs for the Big Spring State Hospital.

nom makes mental health care available to all the residents of the county, was opened in 1970 by the Big Spring State Hospital. The local clinic is directed by Mrs. Marianne Hart, a mental health case worker with intensive training in care and treatment techniques.

"Some months we have treated 50 or more patients," she says. Area-wide, the program is growing and expanding at a tremendous rate in response to community needs, according to Corbet. The network of eight active clinics serves a total caseload of almost 1,600 persons. Patient visits one recent month totaled 820 persons.

obtain and readily available to all persons. By taking mental health care from the hospital into the community where it is needed, outreach can provide preventative care. In this way many serious, chronic mental illnesses can be avoided.

"We are now dealing with an increasing number of community people who have previously had no connection with the hospital," Corbet says.

Basketball coaches shouldn't "look ahead" and neither should the players, but weekly newspaper folks have to. That's why next Tuesday night shapes up as "the most important game of the season" for the Post Antelopes.

The "big red" of Denver City will come to town to more or less determine the second half district basketball championship and maybe even the first half as well, for all practical purposes.

But the most unusual basketball news hereabouts is the fact that since last Thursday evening, Post basketball teams have swept to 16 consecutive victories over Tahoka teams without a single loss.

Something like that doesn't happen very often.

It all started when the 7th grade, 8th grade, and freshman boys' and girls' teams won make-up games from Tahoka last Thursday—games that had been postponed because of bad weather.

That's six wins right there. Then on Monday night, six Post teams (See Postings, page 8)

Meeting tonight on hot meal program

If bad weather doesn't interfere for the fourth consecutive time, a meeting on the proposed meals on wheels program will be held in the First United Methodist Church at 7:30 p.m. tonight.

Representatives from the Lubbock Meals on Wheels program will present a film on their operation and answer questions.

The Garza County Community Action Committee is sponsoring the meeting in an effort to determine who are interested in helping with the program and who is qualified to participate in it.

All senior citizens interested in a hot meal a day and those who will volunteer to help deliver the meals are asked to attend the discussion session. Funds are available to set up the program here if enough interest is shown.

JOHN JOHNSON

FFA student here to receive award

Post High School senior John Johnson and vocational agriculture teacher E. A. Howard will be in San Antonio on Friday night, Feb. 9, at which time Johnson will receive one of the Rural Youth Awards given to outstanding young Texans by the San Antonio Livestock Show.

Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wagoner Johnson, will receive his award at a banquet sponsored jointly by the San Antonio Livestock Show and the San Antonio Kiwanis Club in the Gunter Hotel.

The Post youngster has served as president of the Future Farmers of America chapter here and also on district and regional levels of the FFA.

BOOSTS FOR SHERIFF, JP GO BACK TO COURT, AS—

Grievance committee not unanimous on any of seven county pay hikes

The only two things Garza County's new grievance committee unanimously agreed upon yesterday at the conclusion of a near day-long meeting was that County Attorney Preston Poole should get a locked filing cabinet for his office, and that Justice of the Peace Robinson should be given 15 hours of clerical help weekly in his office at $1.60 an hour.

Since it took unanimous decisions to really decide anything, these were the only two items on which the grievance committee "changed things at the courthouse."

None of the many salary increases requested received the committee's unanimous approval.

The committee did by a vote of six or more of the nine voting members recommend that the Garza County Commissioners Court reconsider the salaries of Sheriff J. A. (Jimmy) Holleman and Justice of the Peace Robinson and give them 5 per cent salary increases.

Salary increase for four other elected county officials, County Attorney Poole, County Clerk Carl Cederholm, County Tax Assessor-Collector T. H. Tipton, and County Treasurer Pauline Coleman and for the first deputies in both the clerk's and tax assessor's offices failed to muster the vital sixth vote needed to even get them back before the commissioners court for reconsideration.

In the end, the nine-member committee failed to give a unanimous vote for any salary boost.

The county grievance committee, established according to a rather new state law, is composed of five elected county officials — county attorney, sheriff, county clerk, county treasurer, and tax assessor-collector and four members representing the public.

These are the nine voting members.

The four public members are selected by drawing from the grand jury wheel. They are notified and must accept appointment.

The four selected by drawing and accepting were Mrs. Maxine Marks, Marvin Hudman, Wayne Carpenter and Bandy Cash.

County Judge Giles W. Dalby is the non-voting chairman of the committee.

The state law requires that all (See Grievance, page 8)

Funeral held for A. P. Hedrick, 82

Funeral services for Albert Paul Hedrick, 82, of Route 3, Post, who died last Thursday morning at University Hospital in Lubbock, where he had just been taken from Garza Memorial Hospital, were held at 2:30 p.m. Saturday in the First United Methodist Church here.

Hedrick, a retired farmer, had been ill for the last several weeks. He had been a resident of this area since 1924 and was actively engaged in farming until his retirement in 1962.

Born Nov. 24, 1890, at Sulphur Bluff, Tex., he was married there to Miss Lola Neely on Dec. 24, 1911.

Survivors include his wife, Lola; a son, Paul Hedrick of Lubbock; two daughters, Mrs. Glenn Shelton and Mrs. Everette Windham, both of Post; a brother, Ernest Hedrick, and a sister, Zera Locke, both of Sulphur Bluff; 16 grandchildren and 24 great-grandchildren.

AT CHAMBER BANQUET

Development director of medical school to speak

W. B. (Dub) Harris Jr., director at the Chamber office or from any of development of Texas Tech University's new Medical School, will be the featured speaker at the Post Chamber of Commerce's annual banquet, Thursday night, Feb. 22.

The Rev. George L. Miller, chairman of the banquet committee, announced this week.

Tickets for the banquet already have gone on sale at $3.50 each.

Theme for the 1973 banquet will be "Projection '73."

Jackson's will cater a ham dinner for the occasion.

Harris will explain how the school of medicine at Texas Tech will be developed and how it will serve this area, noting the benefits Post and Garza County can expect from it.

Harris is a member of the board of directors and is a past president of the National Association for Hospital Development. He formerly was vice president for public affairs of Methodist Hospital in Lubbock.

Banquet tickets may be secured

Rotarians hear slide talk on environment

Dr. Bob Kokernot, who has spent seven years in Africa with the Rockefeller Foundation and is now director of student health at Texas Tech University new School of Medicine, gave Post Rotarians an interesting slide lecture at their Tuesday luncheon showing how man adapted to his environment.

The Rev. Robert Griffin, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and Ed Bruton, new Postex Plant manager, were inducted into the Rotary Club as new members by Bob Collier.

FOUR PAID SINCE FRIDAY

Bounties on stray dogs go 'begging'

Considering the number of stray dogs running at large here, something has gone wrong with the City of Post's dog bounty payment plan, which has worked so well in the past.

Effective last Friday, the city resumed its dog bounty payments, which are $2 per dog. But, up to 3 p.m. yesterday, only four bounties — a total of $8 — had been paid out, according to City Secretary Wanda Wilke.

It is debatable, perhaps, whether the "new" has just worn off the dog bounty system or whether the rising cost of living has made $2 a dog not enough inducement.

Those catching stray dogs and wishing to collect the bounty may do so by going to the City Hall after calling the police dispatcher the information as to where the dog is. The animals will be taken to the city pound by a member of the police department.

PROFITABLE JANUARY FOR FARMERS, GINNERS

Crop prospects same despite bad weather

As much has changed in Garza County's 1972 cotton prospects as the most miserable 18 years for cotton farmers-ginners.

shows 19,633 bales of Garza County cotton ginned to date—with ginners predicting there's still 11,850 more bales "out there in the mud."

That would still give the county a record harvest—if the farmers only can get it out.

Adding the bales ginned to the estimated bales "out in the mud" and you come up with 31,488 bales.

What's more ginners tell you that the "price is holding" and the grades aren't dropping much.

January activity — what little there has been — has varied from gin to gin.

Believe it or not, Planters Gin still hasn't caught up and has ginned steadily through the 31-day month of wetness.

Another gin reported ginning "only five bales" since the night of Jan. 1. A third ginned 550 bales during the month and reported a lot of cotton farmers in their area as through.

Predictions on cotton to come range from 650 bales at one gin all the way up to 2,800 or 3,000 at Graham.

Gene Beck, manager of the Hackberry Co-op Gin, said farmers in the Hackberry area have some 1,200 to 1,500 bales of "ricked cotton" out in the field which was harvested clear back in December.

They've only got a bale or two out of the ricked storage to the (See Cotton Harvest, page 8)

Rites conducted for Mrs. Collins

Last rites for Mrs. Anna Collins, 88, of Modesto, Calif., former Post resident, who died Jan. 24 in a Modesto hospital, were held at 3 p.m. Sunday in the First United Methodist Church here.

Mrs. Collins, who moved from Post to California several years ago, was born Anna Bilbo on Dec. 19, 1884, in Crockett, Tex. In 1902, she was married to John Collins, who preceded her in death in 1930 at Dunn, Tex. Mrs. Collins moved to Post in 1933.

Surviving are a son, John H. Collins of Modesto; four daughters, Mrs. Ethel Anderson of Abernathy, Mrs. Weaver Moreman of Post and Mrs. Bessie Yowell and Mrs. Margaret Waddell, both of Modesto; 17 grandchildren; 32 great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren. (See Collins Rites, page 8)

THE REV. AND MRS. LEON SMITH

Calvary Baptist pastor and family move here

Rev. and Mrs. Leon Smith have moved from Houston, where he is the new pastor of the Calvary Baptist church and the three of their children who are at home have moved into the church parsonage at 8th St.

The three children at the Smiths have a son, John, who is to become a minister and who is stationed in the First Baptist Church, Post, Texas.

Mr. Smith has served for 18 years of the Cochran Street Church in Houston for the past 18 years and has also pastored churches in New Mexico and Arizona. Mr. Smith has a degree in Bible, the Rev. has also done extensive work since his graduation from college.

Mr. Smith's home town, in Lamb County, is Post. Mrs. Smith's home town, in that of his wife, Juanita.

January was only one of 'wettest'

Believe it or not, January of 1973 wasn't the wettest January in a long, long time.

Official moisture total for the month was 3.90 inches exactly and one has only to go back five years ago to 1966 to get an identical 3.90 moisture total.

But the three-inch moisture Januarys don't happen very often. You have to go back to 1939 to find the next one—3.96 to be exact. Then since moisture records were kept beginning in 1917 you can go back and find two other Januarys in which moisture totaled three inches or more.

Forty-three years ago in 1930 was the record—4.50 inches of moisture—with January of 1926 producing 5.00 inches.

Post officially received .38 inches of moisture after 8 a.m. last Thursday in that wet snowstorm with an additional 1½ inches of estimated snow falling.

Yesterday's shower didn't count for January as it will be included in today's 8 a.m. reading which will go down in the record book as the first moisture of February.

It was both costly and frustrating

Anyone who isn't glad that peace has come at last in the long war in Vietnam has got to be just a little bit "off his rocker." The question was asked over and over during this country's long involvement in Vietnam, "Just what are we fighting for?" Some folks had the right answer, others had the wrong answer, and still others either had no answer at all or just thought they had the right answer.

We've always considered that we were fighting a war to stop the spread of communism into a country that didn't want communism. . . a country that wanted to decide its own form of government in a free election. Since it all started, however, there have been frequent changes of government in South Vietnam, and the philosophies of some of those governments have caused us to believe they either didn't know what they wanted or didn't care what they got.

We are glad the peace treaty has been signed and hope the cease-fire truce takes effect immediately and stops the senseless killing that is still going on over there.

We are happy for the hundreds of American homes to which prisoners of war will return, and share the nation's sorrow for the homes to which there will be no return from Vietnam.

We are also glad the war is over because of the massive world opinion that was steadily growing against this nation because of the bombing of North Vietnam.

As far as this nation itself is concerned, the real losers in the Vietnam war are the more than 40,000 servicemen who were killed over there and the more than 300,000 who were wounded.

God grant we never have to fight another war as costly or as frustrating as this one has been.—CD

Rabies protection low all over

It was high time the City of Post decided to "go after" stray dogs again by putting the $2 bounty back into effect last Friday, for rarely before have there been as many strays running at large or as many complaints being received from an aroused citizenry.

There is no arguing the fact that it is as hard to enforce a stray dog ordinance as it is any other kind of ordinance—perhaps a little harder than most. But it definitely would be to the community's benefit, to say nothing of its health welfare, if there was some way of enforcing the dog ordinance to the letter—of seeing to it that every dog was vaccinated against rabies.

And dogs aren't the only offenders when one starts talking about the dangers of rabies.

In fact, Texas State Health Department officials say Texas may be a place just waiting for a rabies epidemic to happen — if animals involved in biting incidents are any criteria.

In a nine-month report of animal bites reported to the health department, approximately one-third of the dogs and three per cent of the cats were reported as vaccinated against rabies. Two-thirds of the dogs either had no vaccination or the rabies vaccination status wasn't known.

Approximately three fourths of all animals involved in bite cases were listed as owned.

With rabies endemic in the foxes and skunks of Texas, as well as bats, rabies protection for pets doesn't appear to be sufficient to prevent a rabies epidemic wherever these animals are allowed to run at large.

During the first nine months of 1972, a total of 5,063 people reported animal bites from an average monthly population of approximately 1.76 million people. This represents a bite rate of 287 per 100,000 population covered by reports.

Approximately 86 per cent of bites were inflicted by dogs, 11 per cent by cats and 2 per cent by rodents. There were three fox bites listed, as well as 12 skunk bites and 45 listed as "other."

Well, that's too many. Let's do something about it in the case of animals that can be controlled—such as stray dogs and cats.—CD

Texas lawmen praise new governor

One group that has already heaped praise on the head of Texas' new governor, Dolph Briscoe, is the Texas Police Association.

Members of the police association at their regional conference in Dallas Sunday and Monday were enthusiastic about the new governor's proposed major changes in Texas criminal law, and especially praised his proposal to reinstate the death penalty.

One of the biggest jobs facing the police association in the governor's proposals, however, is pushing the measures through the state legislature.

The legislation would cover everything from legalized wire-tapping to the death penalty for someone convicted of selling heroin, killing an on duty policeman or fireman and other offenses.

There is little hope, of course, of all the governor's proposed changes in Texas criminal law making it through the state legislature, and we are not sure all of them should.

The police officers attending the conference appeared more enthusiastic in their support for the death penalty than anything else.

One of the officers, a U. S. marshal from Houston, was quoted by The Dallas Morning News as saying he not only supported the death penalty, but that "I'll go one step further. If it were proved that a policeman had been killed, I would be in favor of the accused coming to trial within 90 days. That's plenty of time for the defense attorney and the state to get ready."

Many police officials interviewed by the Dallas newspaper believed that court decisions and laws passed in the last 10 years had weakened law enforcement. "It's about time we got a break," said one officer.

Beaumont's Police Chief Bob L. Ogden heaped praise on Briscoe, saying "He has a genuine interest in law enforcement. And this is the first time I know of when the state government solicited our opinions on these critical matters."

We haven't seen enough of the governor's proposals on the criminal code revision to know whether or not they include tighter gun controls. We doubt if they do. There are too many groups working against controls of this kind. But if we had adequate gun controls, especially on hand-guns, there would be less killing of policemen, as well as fewer murders of other law-abiding people. In fact, no one can change our opinion that tighter controls on the sale of guns would cut down on crime in general.

No one will disagree that the gun control laws that have been passed are little more than token measures against their sale to just about anybody who has the price of pay for one.—CD

TODAY, THURSDAY, is the first day of February, and to celebrate the day, County Tax Assessor-Collector T. H. Tipton and his deputies are starting a "big sale" over at the county tax office.

If you own an automobile, truck or other motor vehicle, go over and ask Mr. Tipton and his deputies about their big sale. The sale will last for no telling how long, but the lines are apt to get longer and longer, and if you don't like to line up for something, you need to go early.

ASIDE FROM sales, about the biggest event these first few days of February will be Groundhog Day, which is Friday, Feb. 2. Everybody figures we've had a enough winter, but if the groundhog sees his shadow Friday, he'll go back into his hole and we'll have six more weeks of wintry weather. Let's hope he doesn't see his shadow — we've had enough winter.

February is the shortest month in the year, but there are a number of other special occasions coming up before the month is over, including the Anniversary Celebration of the Boy Scouts of America.

IT'S ALSO National Heart Month, American History Month and National Cherry Month. Feb. 4-10 is National Children's Dental Health Week, as well as National Beauty Salon Week.

Feb. 12 is Lincoln's birthday, and also marks the beginning of National Defense Week, which continues through Feb. 22. Ten days seems a little long for a week, but that's what it says here.

VALENTINE'S DAY (the candy's already out on the display counters) is Feb. 14. National Kraut and Frankfurter Week is Feb. 15-24; National FFA Week, Feb. 17-24, and Heart Sunday is Feb. 18.

Again this year, we have two shots at Washington's birthday. Feb. 19 is the Federal Monday designation, and Feb. 22 is the traditional date.

THE MAN UP the street says he doesn't know the exact age of the human race, but that it's old enough to know better.

Here is something I promised sometime ago to run at the request of one of my favorite secretaries:

WHAT IS A SECRETARY?

Secretaries are a combination of Marie Antoinette, Lillian Russell, Cleopatra, and Scarlett O'Hara!

Secretaries come in assorted sizes, weights and heights, but most secretaries seem to have the same creed—find a husband.

Secretaries aren't found everywhere, but can nearly always be found taking a coffee break, getting ready for a coffee break, or just returning from a coffee break.

Salesmen cultivate their favor; the boss lets them do all his work, and the fashion stores cater to them.

A secretary is charm with ink on her fingers, flirtation with a steno pad in her hand, poised with a telephone on her shoulder and when she starts to change a typewriter ribbon she's as helpless as a fox. She likes single executives, double dating, vacations, the newest fashion trends, Saturdays off, and that really prize catch she'll make soon, or sooner, or even sooner.

Secretaries can cram into one small desk drawer—among other things—a box of paper clips, a letter from home, postage stamps, aspirin for the boss, emery boards, rubber bands, last year's Christmas card list, and a dozen ball-point pens that no longer write. The gleam in her eye is only matched by the perfume behind her ear, and the charm in her voice as she answers the boss's telephone.

But, always remember that while they're the cleverest of breed, most difficult to elude, secretaries are the indispensable line of communications in business. They make the appointments and remind you to keep them, take the dictation that HAS to go out today, keep you out of the dog-house by recalling your wife's birthday, and when you can't be disturbed by friend or phone, she becomes an actress—deserving of an Academy Award.

The weather of the last few weeks hasn't been conducive to camping out at Camp Post. But don't take my word for it; read this from Dalton Wood's column in last week's Stalon Stalonite:

"A group of Slaton Boy Scouts and leader Alex Webb chose a rough night to be camping out last Saturday. The weather had been beautiful for a couple of days before that, but on Saturday night, as Webb and his 29 boys were in their tents at Camp Post, the rains came, the temperatures dived, and finally snow fell. And so did the

Phyllis' Phrases

PHYLIS ECKOLS

Seniors in the Spotlight

By ANN ATEN

This week four Seniors were chosen from their class and asked questions. They were Phyllis Eckols, Jo Beth Gandy, Robert Varela, and Kenneth Price.

Phyllis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Eckols. They are part owners of Hudman Furniture and Mrs. Eckols is a mortician at Hudman Funeral Home where they live. She attends the First United Methodist Church.

Things that Phyllis enjoys doing the most are reading, playing the piano, and swimming. Her major interest is watching people, because each person is so different from all others.

Phyllis has been very active through school. She has been Little Sister FHA president, Pep Squad 1 year, Band 2 years, Choir 2 years, Drama Club reporter 1 year, Spanish Club 1 year, FHA 2 years, Annual Staff 2 years. She is the editor of the Annual this year, and also the editor of the school paper. Phyllis is a member of the National Honor Society. She has participated in UIL extemporaneous persuasive speaking for two years, and she won second in District last year.

Phyllis thinks that under-classes can make Post High School a better place by not taking the easiest way of doing things. Things that are more challenging are also more rewarding.

Future plans for Phyllis consist of attending Texas Tech University and majoring in Pre-law. Eventually she hopes to become a lawyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Gandy are Jo Beth's parents. Mr. Gandy is an electrician, and Mrs. Gandy is a school teacher. Jo Beth has two brothers, David and Stephen, and one sister, Nancy. Jo Beth enjoys bike riding, archery, and reading.

During school Jo Beth has participated in Debate for 3 years, Student Council 4 years, Pep Squad, Choir 4 years, Drama, FTA, class officer and Top Twenty.

The things that she enjoys most about school are the activities, and working with school mates. The one thing Jo Beth regrets most about school is flunking out in algebra.

Jo Beth plans to attend Stephen F. Austin University in Nacogdoches and major in Pharmacy. Then acquire her Pharmacy degree from the University of Texas.

Robert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Pedro T. Varela, Mr. Varela works at the Postex Plant and Mrs. Varela is a housewife. Robert has three brothers and four sisters. He attends the Holy Cross Church.

Robert's interest consist of listening to popular music, watching television, and spending some time alone.

The things that Robert enjoys most about school is spring semester, Christmas holidays, sports, trying to learn and enjoys learning.

Robert suggests that under-classes can make PHS a better place by "supporting your team all the way even if losing, and show and tell them you are behind them."

Robert still isn't sure what his plans for the future are.

Kenneth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Price. Kenneth's father works on a farm, and his mother works at the mill. Kenneth has two brothers, Edward and Michael, and two sisters, Brenda and Fay. He attends the Baptist Church.

Kenneth has not always attended school here in Post. He attended Waelder School for one year, and Gonzales School for four years. While in high school he has played football, and participated in track.

In life, Kenneth hopes to become successful in a chosen profession. His plans for the future are to go to a junior college.

Kenneth was given two great honors this year, being elected Mr. PHS and the Pep Squad Beau.

Retired teachers can get Medicare

Retired teachers who have not been covered by Social Security can now qualify for Medicare hospitalization insurance, according to word received here by School Supt. William F. Shiver from the Texas Education Agency.

According to the state agency, a law passed by the 92nd Congress permits enrollment for persons attaining the age of 65 who are not covered under Social Security or Railroad Retirement systems. Enrollment is voluntary on an individual basis, although the law permits group coverage under agreements with HEW and public or private employees or organizations.

An individual has the responsibility for enrolling himself, but he may designate an agency that has agreed to collect and transmit premiums. Coverage will begin July 1, 1973.

Monthly premiums for hospitalization (Part A) will be $33 during the first year and will be payable starting June 1. In order to PHS Novel News . . .

By MIKE SMITH

Finally getting around to giving my book reports for English class last week, I found that I could do nothing but stutter and stammer all over the place.

There was once a superstition that said that people who had trouble stuttering should drink from a bell to cure themselves of stuttering. This supposedly transferred the clearness of the bell's sound into the drinker's voice.

Some children in the Byzantine era were made to drink from bells to cure their speech impediments. Whether it worked or not no one knows, but it brings up quite an interesting subject.

There is quite an interesting history behind the superstition of bells. In the ancient pagan religions, the outer shell of a bell was thought of as female and the clapper inside the bell was thought of as male. The use of bells in religion probably comes from their early role in magic. In China bells were rung to bring rain. Some people attached bells to their cattle to frighten away evil spirits and the Evil Eye. Even today the hippies wear small bell necklaces, a survival of the tradition that the ringing of bells wards off evil spirits.

Even with the development of modern sophisticated religions, the enroll in Part A, individuals must also enroll in Part B (physicians' services and prescription drugs) at a cost of $5.80 a month.

For those who are 65 or over, the initial enrollment period will extend through Aug. 31, 1973. For those attaining age 65 after May 31, 1973, the enrollment period will be three months after their 65th birthday. In subsequent years, the annual enrollment period will be Jan. 1 through March 1.

Even today some believe that superstition of bells has not been eliminated. In the Old Testament the robes of the high priest were decorated with bells. In Africa, the Christian Copts rang the bells for protection against the Evil One.

In Catholic Europe bells were dedicated to saints. Without the dedication, the people believed that the bell could not sound nor have the power to combat evil spirits. The bishop had to baptize a bell. Holy water, oil, salt, and cream was used. The bell was washed, crossed, anointed and prayed for in the name of the Trinity, and gifts were given to the bishop on its behalf.

In times when a plague attacked the countryside, bells were rung to dissolve the "corrupt" airs. It was believed that a dead person's soul could not rise to heaven unless bells were rung at his funeral. The head of a corpse was often pillowed on a bell in Scotland to protect the soul from the Devil.

It was thought that evil spirits expressed their hatred of Christianity by causing outbursts of thunder and lightning and mighty gales. This could only be overcome by the furious ringing of church bells, some of which bore the inscription "fulgura frango, dissipio ventos," meaning "lightning and thunder, I break asunder."

Tolling church bells were used to overcome witches and sorcerers. Their fragile broomsticks could not withstand the impact of the clamoring of the bells. In the Christian rites of excommunication, popularly known as "bell, book, and candle," the bell was rung as if a sinner had already died.

Even today some believe that

88 students listed on Junior High honor roll

Post Junior High School honor rolls for the second nine-weeks of the 1972-73 school term have been released from the office of Principal Billy Hahn.

Thirty-three students are on the "A" honor roll, 50 on the "A-B" honor roll and five on the Special Subjects honor roll.

Students on the "A" roll are as follows:

Sixth Grade: James Bilberry, Dana Bird, Randy Gordon, Matt Lemon, Debra Pearson, Kerri Pool, Dale Redman, Karen Robinson, Karla Scrivner, Larisa Shiver, Stephanie Slater, Karen Taylor, Cindy Terry.

Eighth Grade: Amy Cowdrey, Kent Craig, Kyle Durn, Hope Johnson, Mark Kirkpatrick, Dan Sawyers, Tiana Shiver, Rodney Teaff, Jodine Tipton.

Making the "A-B" honor roll were the following:

Sixth Grade: Randy Ammons, Kelly Baumann, Ken Bell, Charles Cendalski, Renee Claborn, Lisa Cowdrey, Karla Duren, Belinda Fluit, Tammy Gilbreath, Jay Lott, Jill Mitchell, Jack Moore, Danny Nelson, Jarita Norman, Theresa Orr, Greg Pollard, Debra Redman, Shawn Scott, Charles Sullivan, Ramona Taylor, Debbie Tyler, Jay

those people born on the chime hours of 3, 6, 9 and 12 o'clock, are blessed with second sight and can see ghosts.

Another superstition said that if a bell rung without human aid, this foretells the coming of a death within seven days, especially if it occurs during a church service or at a wedding when it foretells the death of the bride or groom at an early age. An old American legend said that the ringing of bells announced the death of Lincoln.

Bells were said to refuse to ring if they were insulted or sweat blood when it sought revenge for being harmed. In American superstition, it is very bad luck to ring a bell holding it upside down.

There is quite a bit of interesting folklore about bells. For further reading on this subject here are the titles of some very interesting books: "Encyclopedia of Superstitions" by C. Hole, "The Science of Folklore" by A. H. Krappe, and "Bells in England" by T. Ingram.

Williams, Jeff Williams. Seventh Grade: Julie Compton, Christie Conner, Virginia Fuentes, Erik Howard, Peggy Jackson, Karla Kennedy, Bobby Macy, Jessie Martinez, Nancy McCowen, Stephen Myers, Patricia Posey, Brad Shephard, Bruce Waldrip, Debbie Wyatt, Sheri York.

We're Doubly Thankful for Peace in Vietnam!

Not only because this long and strange war has ended at last for America with last Saturday's Cease Fire.

But Because —

POST AND GARZA COUNTY DID NOT LOSE A SINGLE FIGHTING MAN IN ALL THE YEARS OF U.S. INVOLVEMENT.

This town and county did send many men in uniform to fight in Vietnam, and some were wounded. But not one of them was killed — and for this we can be so thankful.

It was a difficult war—and this nation's longest. The peace our nation has at last negotiated may be as strange and difficult as the conflict it is to terminate.

The new peace finds a few of us celebrating, but all of us thankful that it is over. We salute the U.S. negotiators who found a way at that difficult bargaining table to write an acceptable agreement.

Trinity Baptist Church scene of Kruger-Plunk wedding vows

Miss Vickie Lynn Kruger and Ronnie Jean Plunk pledged wedding vows Saturday, Jan. 27, in the Trinity Baptist Church.

The Rev. Rex Newkirk, pastor, officiated the double ring ceremony before a candelabra and a basket of white and purple gladiola and greenery.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon F. Kruger, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Mable Plunk.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a formal length gown of bridal satin with empire bodice of lace and satin covered buttons, high neckline, long fitted sleeves of lace and fitted a-line skirt with seed pearl and lace applique around the bottom. Her chapel length veil of silk illusion fell from a crown of satin flowers and was edged with lace and satin ribbon. She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations atop a white Bible.

Mrs. Wanda Mathews of Clovis, N.M., was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Sue Britton and Miss Carol Compton of Lubbock. They each wore formal length gowns of orchard batiste flower print over purple satin, styled with empire waist and wore white gloves. The headpieces were styled with purple velvet ribbon and white net. They each carried a long stemmed purple carnation with purple streamers.

Flower girl was Miss Carol Lynette Holleman. Her dress was the same as that of the attendants. Todd Odum was ring bearer.

Bill Plunk of Los Angeles, Calif., brother of the bridegroom served as best man. Groomsmen were Mike Kruger, brother of the bride, and D'Wayne Canps. Ushers were Phil Mathews of Clovis, Chuck Lane of Lubbock and Buddy Britton, nephew of the bridegroom. Margie Pennell, sang "A Time for Us" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Georgie Willson. A reception followed the ceremony in the fellowship hall of the church.

The wedding cake was served from a table laid with a white cloth and centered with an arrangement of white and purple carnations and ribbon streamers lettered "Vickie and Ronnie."

Members of the house party were Mrs. Sam Heintz, Mrs. Irvin Cross, Miss Janet Childs and Miss Judy Heintz.

For a trip to Louisiana, the bride chose a purple a-line dress accented with white and white accessories.

The bride is a 1972 graduate of Post High School and is employed by the Burlington Industries in Post. The bridegroom recently returned from 18 months duty in Vietnam. He is employed by the Johnson Mfg. Co. of Lubbock.

The couple will be at home at 105 South Ave. R in Post.

Out-of-town guests were from Abilene, Merkel, Dallas, Los Angeles, Calif., San Angelo, Lubbock and Clovis, N.M.

Rev. Raymond Walker, of Post, officiated the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Anderson, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Frances Conrad, all of Post. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of white lace, designed with an empire waistline and flared finger length sleeves. Her bridal bouquet was an arrangement of white and yellow carnations.

Miss Terri Green, served as maid of honor. She wore a street length dress of yellow.

Donny Windham served as best man. Mrs. Lowell Bryan, of Lubbock, provided wedding music.

NEW AGRICULTURE GOAL
Dr. John E. Hutchison, director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, has announced that preliminary estimates indicate that gross agricultural income in Texas for 1972 will exceed the $3.76 billion goal set in 1968 to be reached by 1978. This announcement was made to news media representatives attending a recent Extension Press Day banquet at Texas A&M University.

"The record agricultural income level forecast for 1972 is a consequence of a number of interacting factors," Hutchison said. One item was the establishment of a specific income goal for Texas agriculture by the Extension Service in cooperation with other agricultural agencies, organizations and individual leaders which permitted independent action designed to achieve the objective by all interested groups. "Another key factor," the director said, "was the development by Extension specialists of comprehensive production and marketing guidelines, embodying all of the best practices from modern research, for each economically important agricultural commodity produced in the state."

These guidelines were then placed into the hands of each of the respective producers of these commodities by local county agents. The widespread application of these practices was a major contributor to the achievement of the statewide goal. Hutchison noted that another major factor was generally favorable weather conditions for most areas of the state, coupled with fairly stable prices. However, the director cautioned that unfavorable harvesting weather in the western cotton producing areas of the state may still reduce income estimates—but these estimates have recognized that considerable cotton and other crops were still in the field. While recognizing the substantial increase in gross agricultural income, Hutchison emphasized that net income in terms of returns on investments in production agriculture still lagged behind comparable returns for non-agricultural industry. "Production agriculture remains one of the most competitive industries in America, and the need to improve net returns on investments in farming and ranching is still critical — especially for the family farmer," he said. On the assumption that 1972 cash receipts from agriculture will exceed the $3.76 billion goal, Hutchison issued a challenge to try for $4.76 billion by the end of crop year 1976. He asked news media representatives for their reaction to the suggested new goal and stated that he planned to meet with state agricultural leaders to determine whether they considered the new objective feasible. "It will take the combined efforts of the total agricultural industry if the objective is to be reached," he emphasized, "and those of you with the agricultural press have a vital role to play in such a massive undertaking."

Focusing other remarks on the future role of the Extension Service, the director pointed out that the 70-year-old of Extension education evolved since Extension began with a boll weevil demonstration in County in 1903 have been quite tested that the put forward with confidence to effective programs. "Extension education come a well-defined discipline (See Farm Topics, p.

Burlington reports record sales quarter; earnings up 38 pct.

BURLINGTON, N. Y. — Burlington Industries Inc. reported for its first quarter a 38% increase in net earnings over the same quarter a year ago. Consolidated net sales for the quarter ended Feb. 28, 1973, were $16,078,000, an increase of 9.3 per cent over sales of $14,710,000 for the same period a year ago. Commenting on the results, Chairman Charles F. Myers Jr. and President Ely Callaway noted that: "Most textile markets show improving demand reflecting growing strength in the broad consumer economy. Our own operations are beginning to benefit from substantial product and production equipment changes during the last two years, and we expect further improvement in our business for the balance of the 1973 fiscal year." The board of directors of Burlington Industries, meeting here today declared a regular quarterly dividend of 35 cents per share, payable March 1, 1973 to shareholders of record at the close of business Feb. 2, 1973. Investment tax credits accounted for approximately 4 cents per share of earnings for the quarter ended Dec. 31, 1972, compared to 5 1/2 cents per share in the comparable quarter of the preceding year. SCHOOL CONTRACT LET ABERNATHY—Durbin Construction Co. has been awarded the contract for construction of a new junior high school and academic center here. PINE TREE SALES SLATON—The Women's Chamber of Commerce here has taken on the project of selling 4,000 Ponderosa pine trees in the Slaton area as a beautification project for the city. Purchased by the Chamber of Commerce, the trees are expected to arrive here in late February. Members of the women's group are taking orders for trees from individuals as well as business and service groups. We see in the future what we dreamed the past might be like.

Fire department gets $100 check

The Post Volunteer Fire Department has received a $100 check from the Borden County commissioners' court for answering a call to a grass fire Jan. 16 at the Borden-Garza County line.

Borden County Judge Glenn Tombs wrote on behalf of the commissioners' court that "the people of Borden County greatly appreciate the response of the Post Fire Department... even though they didn't breathe any smoke, it was a comfort to know we had our standing below the caprock in case the fire wasn't put out before it went over the cap."

"Our commissioners' court," the judge wrote, "is attaching a check for $100 in hopes this will offset some of the expense and show our gratitude to our neighbors to the north."

Uranium is getting back into the news.

Giles McCrary and Earl Chapman were out in Phoenix over the weekend attending a meeting on some uranium holdings and report that the energy crisis is bringing a new surge of uranium activity.

You can hear all kinds of uranium stories around here again, including one that one firm is test drilling pre-picked sites in a whole bunch of Texas counties, including Garza.

Garza has some confirmed uranium holdings of course, but the big question is how to make them commercially profitable. There is not anything big in the wind to date, but it's nice to know uranium didn't roll over and play dead when the federal government took off the controls not so long ago.

THREE-COUPLE TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Macy and Mr. and Mrs. Giles W. Dalby plan to leave Sunday to spend a week of recreation at La Costa, Calif.

Outreach clinic—

The first outreach clinic, established in 1968 in Snyder, was originally set up as an experimental necessity to provide out-patient follow-up services to patients returning to Scurry County. An already tight hospital budget was squeezed again to provide funds to inaugurate the program since no specific legislative appropriations were made at first.

In September of 1971, no doubt due to the success of the initial program, specific appropriations were made by the legislature for the program. The budget for the current fiscal year includes $18,950 for the Garza County clinic.

A traveling staff visits each outreach clinic on a regular basis, developing social services, performing psychometric and psychological services, including play therapy for children and family counseling. The traveling staff includes Corbet, a psychologist, Mrs. Sandy Justiss, a psychiatric case worker, and two other psychologists, Bob Creighton and Miss Sandra Neskorik.

Also part of the team as consulting psychiatrist is Dr. Marvin E. Grice, who visits the Garza County clinic between the hours of 10 and 11:30 a.m. on Mondays.

Several important factors are cited in the success of the Big Spring outreach program. These include:

—Increased maturity of the clinics. Once functioning primarily as case finders for the hospital, they are now able to help many would-be patients at home rather than sending them to Big Spring.

—More sophisticated follow-up care, resulting in fewer hospital re-admissions. "When former patients go to a local clinic, they usually don't come back here," Corbet comments.

—Enthusiasm of the clinic staffs and volunteers. "These workers can see that the program is working, and nothing succeeds like success," Corbet says.

Family Planning Clinic tonight

Another family planning clinic will be held at 7 p.m. tonight in the Community Action Center at 804 Pine Street, Mrs. Sue Shytle has announced.

Pauline Barnett, registered nurse from Spur, will present a program of slides on birth control methods. Mrs. Shytle said everyone is invited.

Finishes work on master's degree

Four from Post are among the total of 986 students in the six colleges and the Graduate School at Texas Tech University who completed work for degrees at the conclusion of the fall semester.

One of the four, Dan Howard Rankin, completed work for his Master of Education degree in Elementary Education. He is assistant elementary school principal here.

Work toward bachelor's degrees were completed at mid-term by Gary D. Hays, entomology; Dennis Royal Altman, accounting, and Norman Allen Tanner, management.

Because no formal graduation exercises are conducted at the conclusion of the fall semester, students who qualified for their degrees are invited to participate in the spring commencement.

Grievance—

nine voting members must approve any item unanimously for it to become law without further consideration by the county commissioners court.

But should six or more of the voting members of the committee—which means that at least one of the four "public members" approve—then such recommendations are returned to the commissioners court for its reconsideration.

This vote on the 5 per cent increase for Sheriff Holleman was 7 to 2 in favor, which meant two of the four public members approved. The vote for a five per cent boost for Justice of the Peace Robinson was 5 to 3 which meant only one of the four public members joined the county officials in voting for the hike.

The votes on all the other county officials requesting pay hikes were on the basis of the five elected officials voting in favor of a boost and all four public members of the committee opposing.

This was the way the voting also went for salary boosts asked for two first office deputies, all the public members opposing.

The committee did vote 8 to 1, with one public member opposing, to give County Attorney Preston Poole secretarial help for typing for four hours weekly at the minimum wage. This action will now be returned to the commissioners court for its reconsideration.

The new grievance committee met for two hours Wednesday morning to hear the presentation of all the various requests, mostly for salary increases.

The four public members of the committee then asked to be permitted to meet alone to discuss the various requests. The four went into session at 2 p.m. after a luncheon break and by 3 p.m. were ready to have the whole grievance committee reconvened for action.

The way it turned out, the taxpayers who were drawn from the jury wheel, were almost as hard to convince that salary increases were needed as had been the Garza County Commissioners Court which had turned down all the boosts in January.

It was after that action that the elected courthouse officials, other than the county judge, asked the court to convene Garza County's first grievance committee to take up their salary requests.

Cotton harvest—gin to date, but Beck reports it contains some moisture. He adds that ricked cotton will dry considerably slower than cotton on the stalk.

Some of the farmers in the Hackberry area tried ricking cotton for the first time this year. A ricker costs about $1,700 and compresses the cotton for field storage.

But the snow piled up on top of the ricked cotton and melted slowly while farmers were unable due to field mud to get in and get the ricked cotton out.

Here are the gin by gin reports in The Dispatch's survey:

Planter's Gin: 2,439 bales ginned to date, 150 bales on yard yesterday morning. Gin manager Bill Lentz reports "We just never caught up in January." He said Planters had received 140 bales of cotton the first of this week. He estimates about 1,300 to 1,600 bales in gin area still in fields.

Close City: 2,290 bales ginned to date with Manager W. H. Childs estimating about 1,500 still to go. The gin has been shut down most of the month because of the weather and had received only 8 to 10 bales this week when Wednesday's shower halted things again.

Graham Gin: 4,472 bales ginned to date with Manager Bill McMahon guessing "we could get 3,000 more bales, all depending on how sorry the turnout gets." Cotton is still grading out fairly good, with better cotton bringing 24 cents a pound, and some 17 cents. Graham got in several loads Tuesday afternoon and one load Sunday from the Justiceburg area.

Pleasant Valley Gin: 1,400 bales ginned. Buddy Hall reports harvest nowhere near half in and estimates 2,200 more bales still in field.

Hackberry Gin: 4,800 bales ginned, half counted as Garza cotton; estimated 2,500 to 3,000 bales to go. Cotton bringing about 22 cents per pound on the average with some now getting 25 cents and some earlier bringing 28. Some farmers in area "haven't pulled a bale" since January began. Only ginning a few bales ever so often.

Storie Gin: 1,675 ginned. Lonnie Peel estimates maybe 1,000 to 1,200 bales still out. Grades and prices holding. "We've ginned just five bales since the night of Jan. 1," he reported.

Basinger Gin: 550 bales ginned in January to bring 1972 total ginned to 2,810. Something less than 1,000 bales still to go with many farmers about finished.

Grassland Coop: 4,402 bales ginned but one third counted as Garza cotton. About a third of the crop still in the field with an estimated 2,200 bales to come. Prices holding well with cotton bringing from 19 to 24 cents a pound.

Post hopes to keep rolling against Frenship Friday

Rigers here for three games; races tighten

Post and Denver City JV boys play a preliminary game here, and the Post and Slaton JV girls a preliminary game at Slaton.

Monday night, Feb. 5, the 7th and 8th grade and freshman teams are to play Roosevelt, the boys here, and the girls there.

Also on tap next week, beginning Thursday, is an 8th grade tournament, postponed from mid-January. And the Post freshman boys' and girls' teams will be playing in a freshman tournament at Cooper.

Three Post boys' teams win over Tahoka quintets

All three Post teams won here Monday night in boys' 7th grade, 8th grade and freshman district basketball games with Tahoka.

In the opening game, the 7th grade boys trailed by one point, 10-9, at the half, but went on to win by a score of 24 to 14.

Brad Shepherd's eight points led the scoring, with Jim Hays hitting seven, and Evans Heaton, Brad Davis and Randy Baker, three apiece.

Post victorious over Tahoka in six games

Post junior high school and freshman girls' basketball teams have won six district games from Tahoka in less than a week.

Three of the victories came here last Thursday night in make-up games and three at Tahoka on Monday night in regularly scheduled contests.

In Monday night's games at Tahoka, the freshman girls won, 56-30, the 8th grade girls, 20-11, and the 7th grade girls, 28 to 11.

Two out of three tilts go overtime

Post junior high and freshman basketball teams won three conference games from here last Thursday night, with a double overtime in one and an overtime in another.

Lane Tannehill's freshman team had to go into double overtime, 42 to 41, to beat an overtime for Coach Kelly's 8th graders to win.

Does beat Tahoka for 20th victory; 'Lopes also win

The Post Antelopes and Does kept pace with Denver City and Slaton, respectively, in the District 5AA second half standings Tuesday night by winning a pair of 1000 games at Tahoka.

Coach John Alexander's Antelopes, who finished in a first half tie with Denver City, polished off Tahoka, 80 to 63, for a 3-0 second half mark, the same as Denver City's, who downed Frenship, 76 to 60.

Coach Jay Wilson's Does, who were runners-up to the Slaton Tigerettes in the first half, defeated the Tahoka girls, 61 to 54, to bring their season record to 20-5, their district record to 7-1, and their second half district mark to 3-0, the same as that of the Slaton girls who won from Cooper, 61-41, Tuesday night.

The 'Lopes rolled up their highest score of the season to date in the 80 points they scored against Tahoka Tuesday night. "And it's a good thing we did," Coach Alexander said, "for Tahoka was hitting from the outside like they owned the basket."

Nearly every field goal Tahoka made was from 20 to 25 feet away, well outside Post's zone defense, according to the coach.

"It took one of our best efforts of the season to win this one," Coach Alexander said of Tuesday night's game.

Post led 20-11 at the end of the first quarter, 35-29 at the halftime intermission, and 59-40 when the buzzer sounded to end the third quarter.

Nursing Home News

By SARA WHITLEY
Hello from Twin Cedar. We are all doing fine here. All of our "ailing" ones are better, for which we are very thankful.

The Rev. George Ascher of Faith Lutheran Church held services Sunday. Mrs. Wilbert Wuensche, Mrs. Dan Gatzki, Mrs. Carl Herzog, Mrs. Sylvia Wren, Mrs. Edna Nolte and Mrs. Velma Behrend, all of Wilson, and Mrs. Annie Lee Nelson of Post helped with the services, which we enjoyed very much, and hope they come back again. And they all signed my registry! Thank you.

Will Brookshire and Preston went to the Dan Brookshires at Brownfield where Mr. Brookshire's children all celebrated his 80th birthday. He brought back a birthday cake to share with everyone here.

Mrs. Patsy Sanderson came and read the Bible to everyone Monday and made a standing date to come every Wednesday, 3:30 to 4. Anyone else who can come will be welcome to come any day, 10 to 10:30 or 3:30 to 4, except Thursday. That is bath day and would be inconvenient for us. We hope some singing groups, clubs or just anyone who wants to will come and entertain for us. Also, if anyone has an old bingo game laying around not in use, we would appreciate it.

The Robinson family and Mr. and Mrs. Waggoner Johnson visited Mrs. Ellis.

Roy and Ethel Brown visited Susie Brown.

James and David Brookshire of Tahoka visited Mr. Brookshire and Preston.

Herman Maddox of Cisco visited Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Caylor and Ada Queen.

Bonnie Tew and Joyce Bailey of Grassland visited Mrs. Inklebarger and everyone in the home.

Opal Wright and Willie Scarborough visited their aunt, Ollie Mickley.

Sam Wilson of Slaton visited Berro Wilson.

We had our regular visit from the pastors and from Mary Goodwin, Edith Clary and Inez Huntly, Gerald and Marie Clayton and W. F. Clayton visited their mother, Mrs. Blanche Clayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Askins and Sybil Cockrum visited their mother, Mrs. Marable.

Mrs. Wilma Hodgkins visited her mother, Mrs. Miller.

Mrs. C. B. Bilberry visited her mother, Mrs. McDougle.

Mr. and Mrs. Erceel Franklin visited his mother, Mrs. Emma Franklin.

Mary Dell Tillman visited her mother, Mrs. Dunlap.

Mrs. Gurley's family have all visited her.

Mrs. G. Newberry and Mack Ledbetter visited G. Newberry.

Weather delays cotton harvest

LUBBOCK — The South Plains cotton harvest was delayed another week to ten days by the rains and snows over the area, according to W. K. Palmer, in charge of the Lubbock Cotton Classing U. S. Department of Agriculture. However, farmers were able to harvest some cotton during the past week. Also, some ginning, sampling and classing continued due to accumulated backlogs of cotton harvested before the unfavorable weather.

Samples from 37,000 bales were tested and classed at the South Plains cotton classing offices at Lubbock, Brownfield, Lamesa and Levelland during the week ending Friday, Jan. 26. This brought the total classed for the season to 1,375,000 bales.

Estimates indicate that 75 to 80 per cent of this season's crop is now out of the fields.

STARTS HERE FEB. 12

Tractor maintenance course is scheduled

A tractor maintenance short course for adult farmers will be held Feb. 12-15 under the sponsorship of the Post High School Vocational Agriculture Department, according to Wm. F. Shiver, superintendent, and E. A. Howard, teacher of vocational agriculture.

The short course is being sponsored by the vocational agriculture department of Post High School. Norman K. Waggoner, tractor maintenance specialist with the Vocational Agriculture Division of the Texas Education Agency, and the Department of Agricultural Engineering at Texas A&M University, will do the instruction. He is headquartered at Texas A&M University.

Arrangements for the adult education short course in tractor maintenance and in other fields are made through Mr. Shiver's office.

The short course at Post is scheduled to begin Feb. 12 at 7 p. m. in the vocational agriculture building. Other meetings in the series of Tractor Maintenance will be held Feb. 13, 14, and 15.

During the dates the short course is in progress, Waggoner will be available to assist farmers with individual tractor problems and to provide "on-the-farm" instruction, according to Howard.

Farmers interested in attending the short course should write or call the superintendent of schools or the teacher of Vocational Agriculture. An entry fee of $3 will be charged. Tractor Maintenance Short Course certificates are to be presented to each individual who attends all the training sessions.

Waggoner states that the key to longer tractor life comes from a full knowledge of the fundamentals of an engine and the application of the proper maintenance skills involving lubrication, fuels, carburetion, air cleaners, cooling systems, valves and ignition. He will cover the proper adjustments and maintenance of the above, with emphasis on the importance of each in obtaining a longer tractor life, and improved performance. Throughout the course, emphasis will be placed on "learning to do by doing" through the use of several demonstration tractors. All enrollees will have the opportunity to perform actual adjustments and maintenance on their own tractors. Safety and operating techniques will also be stressed.

Marsh will continue as a director of both Santa Fe Industries and Santa Fe Railway.

Marsh began his career with Santa Fe Railway in 1918 in the operating department division office, Clovis, N. M.

Federal Land Bank loans in area exceed $1 million mark in 1972

Jay Dee House, manager of the Federal Land Bank Association of Tahoka, announced today that the Federal Land Bank of Houston closed 3,701 loans for more than 164 million dollars during 1972. "This has been a record year for new loan business and represents an increase of more than 60 per cent over 1971 which was the largest year in the bank's 54-year history", House stated. "A number of factors account for this substantial increase in volume of new loans", said House. "Probably the greatest factor was the new lending authorities made possible by the Farm Credit Act of 1971, which was implemented this year", he said. He also reported that the interest in buying farm and ranch land sharply increased during the year. "This interest covered all facets of Texas agriculture, the part-time farm and the farm and ranch units, both large and small", he stated.

The Federal Land Bank Association of Tahoka, which serves Lynn, Garza and a part of Borden counties, closed $1 loans for $1,232,800 during 1972.

The Federal Land Bank of Houston makes farm and ranch real estate loans throughout Texas and on Dec. 31 had more than 675 million dollars in loans outstanding to over 35,000 farmers and ranchers.

Use of animal feed containing DES prohibited

The use of animal feed containing DES (diethylstilbestrol) after Jan. 1, 1973 constitutes a criminal act with the user liable to punishment as viewed by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA), according to Syd Conner, Garza County Extension agent.

Farmers, ranchers, feedlot operators and those involved in the manufacture, sale or distribution of animal feed are cautioned to dispose of feeds containing DES. Either burial or use as a fertilizer are the suggested means of disposal. Use as a fertilizer should involve shallow incorporation into the soil. The Food and Drug Administration will request pre-mix manufacturers to recall all outstanding stocks of their product from the market place for supervised disposal.

The action was required under terms of certain sections of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act. These terms as described contain the so-called Delaney clause and require that there be no detectable residue. Evidence that DES residue was present in the liver of steers, 3, 5 and 7 days after the feeding of a single dose of the chemical was cited as requiring the withdrawal of approval for use even though there is no known public health hazard resulting from its use.

In announcing the ban in the Aug. 4, 1972 issue of the Federal Register the FDA emphasized that the commissioner has no reason to believe that the use of DES in animal feed represents a public health hazard and, further, that no human harm has been demonstrated in over 17 years of use. Under the law, however, the continued use of the drug in feed may no longer be permitted according to FDA.

How to Get to the Point

By BOB FORD

The following is an article that has come to me from several different sources. The point of it, it seems to me, is that this man knew how to get to the point. Many of us tend to be too diplomatic and dishonest to say what needs to be said, not only about money, but other things as well. Sometimes love must be spoken "to the point." Read Matthew 23.

The man was not too well educated. His manner was somewhat rough and crude. He had become a Christian and was "on fire for the Lord." He kept pestering the minister to help him be of some genuine service to the Lord.

In desperation, the preacher gave the convert a list of names with this explanation: "These are all members of our church, but they seldom attend services. Some of them are prominent men in the city. Contact them any way you can and try to get them to be more faithful. Here is some church stationery you may use to write them letters. Get them back to church."

The man accepted the challenge with enthusiasm and rugged determination.

About three weeks later a letter came to the church office from a well-known doctor in the city—name had been on the list. In the envelope was a check for $1,000.00 and this note:

"Dear Preacher, Enclosed is a check to make up for missed contributions. I'm sorry for missing worship so much, but be assured that I will be there next Sunday and every Sunday following. I will not by choice miss worship again. Sincerely yours, M. B. Jones, M.D."

"P. S. Will you please tell your secretary there only one 'i' in 'dirty' and no 'c' in 'skunk'."
