Cotton harvest here beginning to 'roll'

County's 1972 cotton harvest is beginning to roll. Dispatch's first "gin check" season yesterday afternoon a total of about 5,000 bales of cotton either ginned or yard.

Two gins were working around the clock and others up to 12 and 15 hours a day. There were calls for more "gin hands" and one gin hoped to get going 24 hours if it could grab another gin.

Yields were reported good. New cotton was rated widely from fair to good, most of it on the fair side.

Here are the details, gin by gin: Planters Gin: 390 bales ginned, 191 on the yard, gin "running to midnights", going "round the clock as soon as we can hire another." The only time the gin has been caught up lately was during the last bad spell.

Graham Gin: 808 bales ginned, 125 more on yard, running 24 hours a day for several days, cotton fair, some farmers haven't started yet as their cotton isn't ready.

Close City Gin: 645 bales ginned, caught up, operating about 15 hours a day now, harvest not quite in full swing yet, yields good, cotton fair.

Storie Gin: 450 bales ginned, yard clean and waiting, going "by jerks" with another week of good weather needed to get harvest in full swing, Manager Lonnie Peel reports.

Pleasant Valley Gin: Buddy Hall reports 250 bales ginned, 81 on the yard, trying to run 16 hours a day, not at full harvest yet, just getting started good.

Baxinger Gin: 931 bales ginned, estimated 150 on yard, running 8 to 12 hours daily, too busy to talk.

Hackberry Gin: 1,547 bales ginned of which half is considered to be Garza cotton, 338 bales on yard, operating round the clock, needing gin hands. Harvest in that area was termed "full blast."

For those who think this year's harvest is slow, The Dispatch writer found in checking that only 613 bales had been ginned at this date last year, compared to almost 5,000 this year.

Remember Rosemary Chapman's Potluck column on the "cow pies"? Well, it brought The Dispatch an unusual letter yesterday from Clyde Jarvis of 4245 Biltmore Drive, Corpus Christi, which we want to share with all Dispatch readers.

It's another "cow pies" yarn, which even tops Rosemary's.

"While passing through Post recently, my great uncle and I had the good fortune to spend an entire afternoon in your little town," Jarvis wrote. "It was quite an enjoyable experience and we met with many fine folks. While there we bought a copy of your fine newspaper to take with us."

"The story about the cow pies was especially appreciated since it brought back fond memories to my uncle, who is now in his 87th year. He used to work several of the ranches around Snyder and Post back when he was a young man and wanted to send to you this story."

"He remembers it as taking place either in 1906 or 1907."

It seems that several of "the boys" would come into town to do some business at the Big Spring stock pen and instead of going up to the restaurant to eat, they

BENEFIT COMMITTEE MEMBERS HONORED

Boys Ranch makes awards at 'Garza Appreciation' event

Framed certificates of recognition and award were presented to all members of the committees for the O. S. Ranch Steer Roping and Art Exhibit attending "Garza County Appreciation Day" Sunday at the West Texas Boys Ranch near San Angelo.

Kenneth Spencer of Crane, president of the boys ranch board of directors, made the presentations in a recognition service which followed the Sunday morning worship service in the ranch chapel. Special awards were made to Tom Ryan of Lubbock, who chaired the art exhibit committee, and Jim Prather, who headed the roping committee.

Prather presented the ranch with a check for $25,000 raised in the combined event here Sept. 30-Oct. 1. All told some $20,000 was raised on the two-day benefit weekend for boys ranch, including the barbecue. The ranch already had the barbecue funds.

A colored film of the two benefit events, including aerial shots made from a helicopter, was shown at the conclusion of the recognition service.

Attending from Post were Mr. and Mrs. Prather, Mr. and Mrs. Giles C. McCrary, Mr. and Mrs. David Newby, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Macy, and Jim Cornish. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ryan of Lubbock also accompanied the local group.

After the chapel service and recognition service, the local group were guests of the West Texas Boys Ranch boys for Sunday dinner and then were conducted on

Rites for mother of Post resident

Memorial services for Mrs. Docia P. Wootton, 77, of Slaton, mother of Mrs. Bryan J. Williams of Post, were held at 4:30 p.m. Saturday in the First Baptist Church of Slaton with the Rev. J. L. Cartrite, pastor, officiating.

The memorial service followed graveside services at 4 p.m. Saturday at Englewood Cemetery in Slaton, conducted by the Rev. George L. Miller, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Post.

Mrs. Wootton, widow of Lee Wootton, who was mayor of Slaton for 12 years, died early Friday night in Garza Memorial Hospital here following a long illness.

Born in Gail, Tex., July 21, 1895, Mrs. Wootton had been a resident of Slaton for 52 years where she was a member of the First Baptist Church. She had made her home in Post for the last six weeks.

Survivors include the daughter of Post; three sisters, Mrs. Elbert Hicks of Meadow and Mrs. Jess York and Miss Cora Sealey, both of Albuquerque, N. M.; one grandson and one great-grandson.

Hudman Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Contest, drawing also on schedule

Already "kicked off" with the Festival of Lights Saturday night, Post's Christmas promotion program comes up with the first $50 yule drawing, the first local visit of Santa Claus, and the Smart Shoppers Window Contest with prizes this coming Saturday afternoon.

Santa will be in town with candy treats for all his little friends from 3 to 5 p.m. Saturday on a very busy pre-Christmas visit schedule.

He will headquarter in the former White store building just east of Wacker's and asks all his young friends to "meet him there" and tell him their Christmas desires.

The Yule Drawing, first of three, is scheduled for 5 p.m. in front of Santa's temporary headquarters with the person whose name is drawn required to be present to win the $50 merchandise certificate good for purchases in any of the participating local stores.

Christmas shoppers 16 and over, may sign up without obligation for the drawings to be held on consecutive Saturdays in any of the participating stores with Yule Drawing cards in their windows or on their front doors.

In case the person whose name is drawn is not present Saturday, the $50 certificate will be added for the second drawing Saturday, Dec. 16, and could progress if a winner is not named then to $150 on the final Saturday, Dec. 23, when names will be drawn until a winner is present.

A $100 drawing is guaranteed for the final Saturday.

The Smart Shoppers Window Contest with 16 stores participating begins at 1 p.m. Saturday at which time merchants will put one item the store does not sell in their windows.

Entry blanks for the contest with the names of participating stores are contained in the Post Christmas promotional ad on page 3 in today's Dispatch. Other entry blanks may be obtained from the stores.

Entrants are to list on the blank the "wrong item" displayed in each of the store windows. Entries are to be turned in to the Post Chamber of Commerce office Saturday afternoon. The entry with the most correct answers, with the time of earliest turn-in deciding ties, will win a $25 merchandise certificate. Two other merchandise prizes will be awarded. Winners will be named at the 5 p.m. Yule Drawing.

These promotional events are all sponsored by the Retail Promotions Committee of the Post Chamber of Commerce and participating merchants and are designed to make Christmas shopping in Post more fun.

The Festival of Lights last Saturday night was sponsored by the Women's Division of the Post Chamber of Commerce, and despite failure of the sound track to show up drew some 200 persons to the downtown area.

Singing by a community choir and a quartet on the courthouse lawn preceded the advance down Main Street with carols being sung in each block and the Christmas lights and store windows being turned on block by block.

Bob Stice directed the community choir. Brass instruments played by Post young people and a piano played by Georgie Wilson provided the accompaniment to the singers.

SANTA HAS BEEN HERE BEFORE

Santa Claus, who will be in Post Saturday afternoon on his first pre-season Christmas visit, won't look a day older than he did when this picture was made the last time he was here. Santa, with candy for the youngsters, will be in the vacant building just east of Wacker's from 3 to 5 p.m. Saturday to bend an ear to the youngsters' Christmas gift wishes.

Garza rancher is award recipient

Garza County rancher Giles W. Dalby, who is also county judge, received the Excellence in Grazing Management Award in Lubbock last Friday at the annual meeting of the Texas Section of the Society of Range Management. The meeting was held at the Koko Palace.

Dalby was recognized for doing an outstanding job in the field of range management. He is carrying out a well-rounded program of soil, water and plant conservation on the land he owns and operates. Such a program is the major criteria for recognition by the Society of Range Management.

Eighteen Texas ranchers were recognized at the meeting and received the award.

J. R. Bell, range conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service, attended the meeting with Dalby.

ASC to elect county committeeman Dec. 15

Following the election of community committeemen, the annual county convention for the purpose of electing a Garza County Agricultural and Stabilization Conservation committeeman has been set for 9:30 a.m. Friday, Dec. 15, at the county ASCS office.

The county convention, at which two alternate committeemen will also be elected, is open to the public.

Elected or re-elected as community committeemen in the recent ASCS community elections were the following. The first named is chairman, then vice chairman, member, first alternate member and second alternate member.

"A" Community: Ferrel Wheeler, Jerry Melcher, Edmund Wilke, Ronnie Dunn, Edwin Lewis.

"B" Community: Bobby Cowdrey, Elvas Davis, Mason McClellan, Waggoner Johnson, Delwin Fluit.

"C" Community: Tom Middleton, John Bland, Tommy Young, Tom Henderson, Jimmy Alexander.

"D" Community: David Tyler, Floyd Hodges, Donald McLendon, Arnold Sanderson, W. C. Graves.

"E" Community: John Boren, Clyde Cash, Sam Bevers Jr., Sam Heintz, Jack Kirkpatrick.

Library nearing 10,000 book mark

The Post Public Library expects to top the 10,000 circulation mark for 1972 — a new circulation record — with 9,399 books already checked out in their first 11 months.

Librarian Pee Wee Pierce reports 832 books checked out during November in her monthly library report with 16 new book additions to library shelves to bring book acquisitions for the year to date to 942 volumes, putting the library over the 10,000 mark in its book collection.

A total of 618 adult and 314 juvenile books were checked out in November. Miscellaneous revenue for the month totaled $19.40, $10.80 of it in overdue book fines, to bring such revenue for 11 months to $318.78.

Family planning to be clinic subject here

A family planning clinic is to be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 12, at the Community Action Center, 802 Pine, according to Mrs. Sue Shybles.

Mrs. Pauline Barrett, R. N., of Spur will be in charge of the clinic, at which films relating to the subject are to be shown.

Everyone is invited to attend the clinic. Mrs. Shybles said.

10 PCT. OFF FOR CASH NIGHT FRIDAY

Most downtown Post stores will observe Post's new Christmas shopping tradition Friday night with "10 Per Cent Off for Cash Night."

With only listed limitations, all merchandise will be 10 per cent off if cash is paid for purchases. Stores will reopen at 7 p.m. for evening shopping.

Stores advertising 10 per cent off for cash Friday night in today's Dispatch include Wacker's, Maxine's, Marshall's Department Store, Bottoms Up Shop, Western Auto, Twins Fashions, and White Auto Store.

Big break on insurance rates?

Good news out of Austin is that homeowners in Garza County and most everywhere else in Texas are expected to get a big break on insurance rates next year.

The only exceptions will be those who live in the 27-county Gulf Coast area.

The industry-oriented Texas Insurance Advisory Association recommended the State Board of Insurance reduce by 17.7 per cent extended coverage (hail, windstorm, vandalism, etc.) rates and by 16.2 per cent homeowners' rates in the North-Northwest area. That includes Garza County and most of the rest of the Panhandle and South Plains.

All territories would benefit from an Association proposal to reduce fire insurance rates statewide by 7.7 per cent.

Of course, there's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip, but homeowners are hoping the recommendations are followed. It's time we were getting a "big break" on something. —CD

Enter the decoration contest

Few things add more to the spirit of the Christmas season than outdoor yuletide decorations. For that reason, all householders are invited to enter the Amity Junior Study Club's annual Outdoor Christmas Decoration contest.

Even if those entering the contest do not win one of the cash prizes offered by the club, they will have the satisfaction of having added to the spirit of Christmas with their decorations.

Christmas comes but once a year. Make the most of it this year by decorating your home in the spirit of the season. The contest is easy to enter. Just fill out the application blank appearing in today's and next Thursday's Dispatches and turn it in to the Amity Junior Study Club. —CD

A present we all hope for

What a wonderful Christmas present it would be for the Christian, as well as the non-Christian, world if the war in Vietnam could be ended between now and Dec. 25, as we are being led to hope it will be.

Even at the best, the peace talks in Paris have been discouraging up until recent weeks, but now what has been but a faint glimmer of hope for a cease-fire in Vietnam has taken on a brighter glow.

Peace between now and the end of the year would give the families of the prisoners of war being held in Vietnam an especially happy Christmas, and think what a godsend peace would be to the war-weary civilians of both South and North Vietnam.

Somehow, we feel this nation and the other world powers have learned something from the long years of stalemated conflict in South Vietnam. What they have learned might well serve to prevent another Vietnam. And if a successful and lasting peace is brought about between North and South Vietnam, the lesson learned around the peace table might be one of the biggest steps ever taken toward that ideal brotherhood of man—world peace—now and evermore. —CD

'TIS THE season to be jolly, but going against it is the price of things and the fact that health authorities tell us that licking Christmas stamps may be injurious to our health.

Christmas gift shopping is off to an early start. One fellow walked into a store and said, "I'd like to buy my wife a beautiful fountain pen for Christmas."

"A little surprise, heh?" said the clerk.

"Yes, she's expecting a Ford LTD."

AND DOWN in Dallas, Neiman-Marcus knows how to handle their customers. While shopping for gifts, a woman broke her leg in the store and they had it gift-wrapped.

And since we hear so much about them during the Christmas season, here are some modern definitions of "Humbug".

Humbug . . . is getting caught under the mistletoe by your Aunt Bertha.

Humbug . . . is opening your gifts and finding none of them fit.

Humbug . . . is Christmas gift displays in August.

Humbug . . . is being served eggnog with no nog in it.

Humbug . . . is having your hubcaps stolen by Christmas carolers.

Humbug . . . is trying to have a good old-fashioned Christmas with an aluminum tree, aerosol pine scent, artificial yule log, and plastic mistletoe.

AND THE MAN up the street says there are some people in this world who not only demand something for nothing, but they want it gift-wrapped.

Our daughter-in-law in Maleshoo who knows I'm interested in odd names, tells me there's a man there named Crispin Green. His occupation? He is a lettuce grower.

IN THE CURRENT issue of "Petroleum Today," Greg Rogers has authored a short article, "Well What Would You Say?" which I am sure will be of interest to most of our readers, particularly those who operate service stations. Here it is:

There's no doubt it. The funniest comedians in the country are all in grade school. Having taught elementary school youngsters for 15 years, I'm sure of it. In our unit on letter writing this year, my class voted to write to the operator of a service station close to our school. Here are some excerpts:

"I am practicing letter writing. I want to make mine to you without any mistakes so I am stouping now."

"I have decided you are my ninth favorite person in the universe."

"I am a future inventor. Tell me some of the future inventions you need around service stations so I can start on them now."

Often we grownups can only envy the simplicity of a child's way of expression. Here's a tactful request: "I didn't get a free road map of the United States if you would like to send me one."

Youngsters certainly have their own opinions—and few are hesitant to express them. One obviously confident lad wrote: "One of my idiot-friends (that I will remain nameless) thinks that asphalt comes from oil. Please write back to me about it so I can say 'see there to him.'"

Sometimes they don't know and they know they don't know—but it doesn't keep their letters from being delightful.

"Can you tell me if it costs anything for the air you get to put in tires? I said yes and Donald C said no and I said yes and he said no and I said yes and so on. So can you tell us for sure? Oh well, thanks anyway."

"I am nine and some day hoping to drive a car. How much longer will it take? Remember I already know how to drive a bike."

"According to what I have for my report, our American population is thickening more than a million a year. This means that play like it is 2,000 A.D. we will need even more gasoline and oil to run our cars. Correct my being wrong, but tell me if any of this is true or false?"

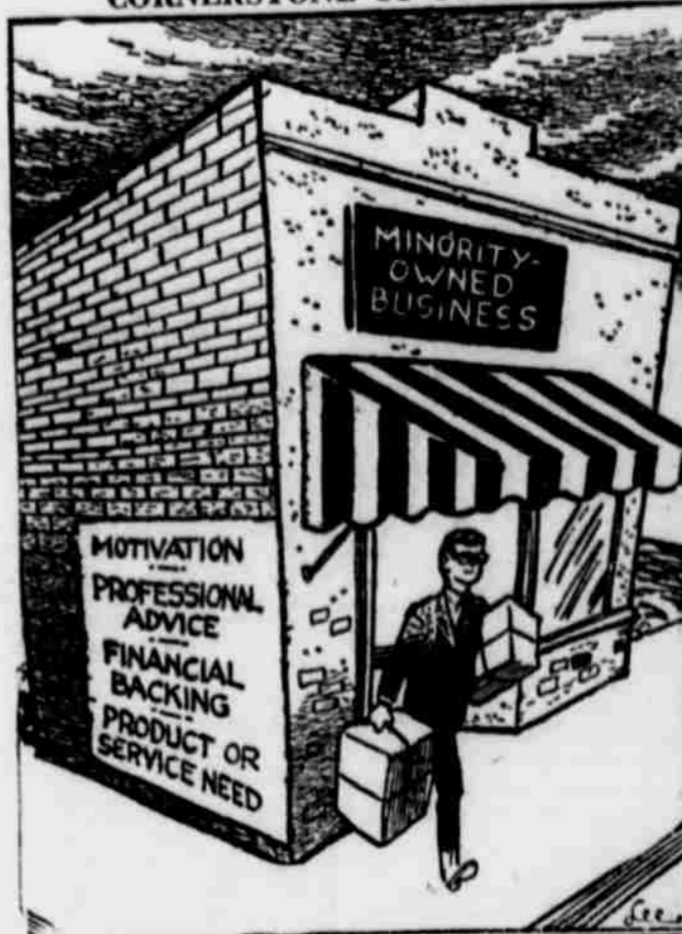

This next boy may not be a clock watcher, but he certainly watches the number of words he has to write. "I am supposed to write you and it must be at least 30 words. I am 9 years old and my teacher is Mr. Rogers and he is a very . . ."

And that's thirty.

FROM TWIN CEDAR . . .
Nursing Home News

By SARA WHITLEY

Hello from Twin Cedar this gloomy day. Looks like snow!

We extend our sympathy to the Bryan J. Williamses on the death of Mrs. Docie Wootton, Mrs. Williams' mother. We all miss her very much.

Joe Thomas and Bera Wilson are still improving, for which we are thankful.

Everyone else is doing fine. Patsy Sanderson and Jewel White visited Joe Thomas, Susie Brown and most of the others.

Edith Clary and Inez Huntley also made their weekly visit. They are a great help, walking the ones who need help.

Ada Queen is feeling better. Evelyne Dunlap of Slaton and Mary Dell Tillman visited Mrs. Dunlap.

Ray and Ethel Brown visited

Susie Brown. Freda Harmon and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Clayton visited Mrs. Clayton.

Several ladies from the Methodist Church brought hot chocolate mix and fruit salad mix to Susie Brown, Clovie Ellis, Mrs. Cravy and Mrs. Harper and to be shared with the others.

Please, everyone who visits sign our registers. We have one in the sun room and on the desk in the front hall. Then I will know who visited, the ones they visited and where they are from. Thank you! Pastors of the churches visited in the home with everyone. We are always so glad when they come. It means so much to most of our people.

Others visiting were Elfreda and Pam Carpenter, Karen, Chester, Cindy and Louise Robinson, Rex Newkirk, Winnie and Eva Rogers, Katherine Johnson, Mrs. Doyle Terry and Mrs. Inez McGrew.

Again, please sign our register so I don't miss anyone.

Certificate goes to Ocie Bell Jr., employe of city

AUSTIN — Ocie Bell, Jr. of 809 Pine St., who works for the City of Post, has received the official State Health Department's Certificate of Competency.

In order to qualify for this certificate, he has completed both a formal and specialized education, accumulated a prescribed amount of actual work experience, and passed the examination given by the State Health Department's Sanitary Engineers.

Besides his knowledge in using utility management principles, he is skilled in performing his job of supervising the production and distribution of water pollution control facilities.

Much of the water specialist's daily work is not seen by the public he serves. The lines distributing the water and collecting the wastewater are hidden underground and the treatment plants are often in remote locations. As long as they function, everyone is satisfied, but the silent service to keep them functioning too often is taken for granted.

The huge and growing investment in water and wastewater facilities requires expert operation and maintenance. In fact, each operator in Texas is entrusted with about $64,000 worth of public facilities as compared to an industrial worker who is entrusted with only $10,000 worth of equipment.

New Sun well in Swenson-Garza field

Sun Oil Co. has completed its No. 7-B S. M. Swenson and Sons as an addition to production in the Swenson-Garza (Ellenburger) field of Garza County, 19 miles northeast of Post.

An open hole section from 7,772-7,785 feet potentialized to pump 137 barrels of 39-gravity oil plus 391 barrels of water in 24 hours.

ATTENDANCE RECORD

ARLINGTON — Six Flags Over Texas has ended its 1972 season with all attendance records broken. Final figures put the season's attendance at 2,062,000. The old record, 2,037,000, was set in 1967.

Why You Should

BANK

1. You receive maximum interest on your deposits permitted by law.
2. You enable us to put YOUR MONEY to work in your home town and home area to build a stronger local economy.
3. Your deposits make your hometown bank just that much stronger—enabling us to do a better financial job for the Post community and area—just like trading at home strengthens Post's merchants and thus the community as a whole.
4. Your hometown bank supports all community activities and through its taxes supports our schools and units of local government—just like local merchants do.

'Faith Followers' to be used in service

The United Methodist Church will have a special service of worship this Sunday at 6 p.m. It will consist of special music; congregational singing and a special service of worship of decorating a tree with Chrismos. A Chrismos is a symbol which depicts the meaning of Christ.

Families, individuals, and Sunday School classes have been making the Chrismos for several months. During the worship service there will be an opportunity for the family or class or person to come put the Chrismos on the tree.

After the worship service there will be an informal time of fellowship in Fellowship Hall with refreshments served. All are welcome who would like to attend this unique service of worship.

A program is being planned to be presented Dec. 17 by the group.

Helpful Tips from CHDA

By DANA FEASTER

SHOPPING - "RIPOFF"
 The holidays season approaches and consumers are being ripped off. Listed below are cases in which consumers themselves have raised prices.
 —Shoplifting which is increasing at a rate of 20 per cent each year—robs every American family of about $30 a year. In dollars, shoplifting totals more than $3.5 billion a year—more than $6 million a day. Retail merchants estimate that prices of goods today are 15 per cent higher than they'd be if no shoplifting problem existed. To make up for theft of a $15 item, $1,000 worth of goods would have to be sold to cover the loss in net profit.
 —Passing bad checks has discouraged retailers from cashing checks or has encouraged them to charge for the service.
 —Hospital patients who falsify addresses in order to avoid bills have increased rates for everyone.
 —One per cent of all credit card transactions result in charge-offs, which means accounts that won't be paid. To blame are people who charge more than they can afford, and lost or stolen credit cards.
 —Long distance telephone frauds totaled $21 million in a recent year; however, company policy is resulting in many convictions, which may lessen the practice.
 —Ten percent of all airplane reservations result in "no-shows." Students, businessmen and even leading politicians are among those to blame.
 —Rough handling of displays and perishables in grocery stores adds about one per cent to the cost of retail food operations.
 Are you guilty of any of these practices? If so, please stop. It's costing you, as well as me.

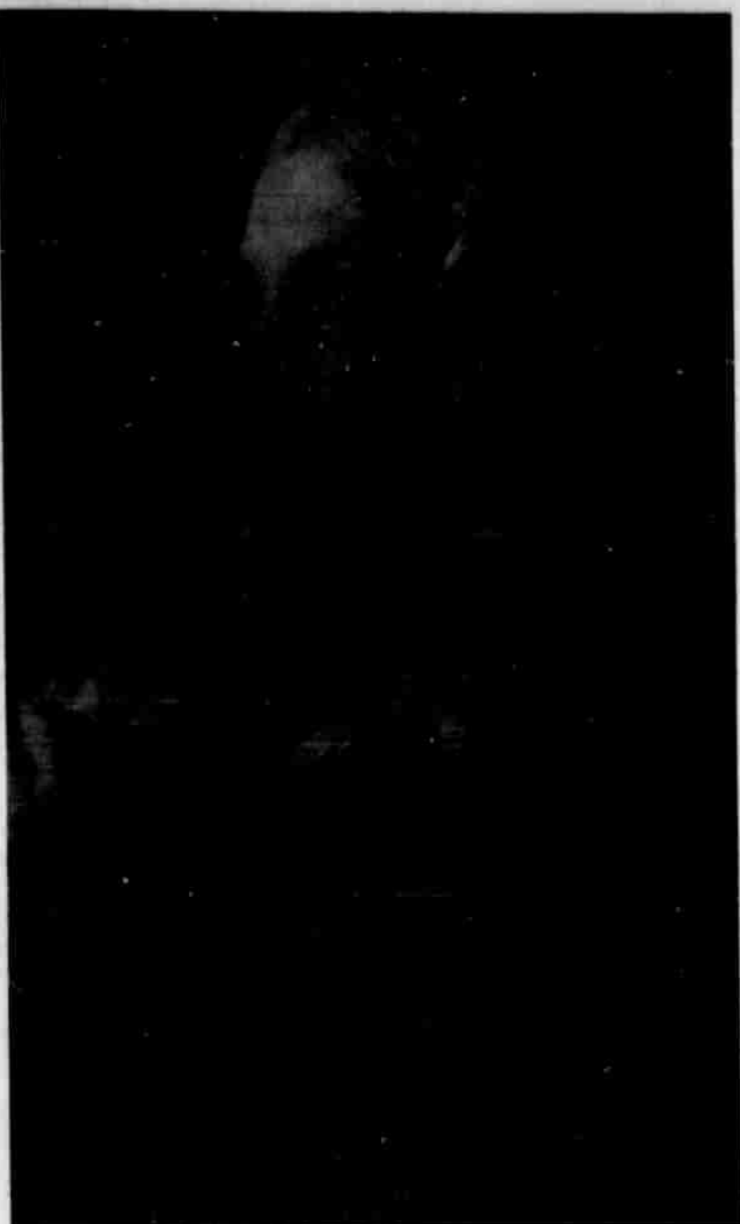

Former resident wed in Lubbock

J. F. Barron announces the recent marriage of his daughter, Dianna Lee, to John Perry Truett of Plainview.
 The Rev. Jess DeBord officiated the ceremony in the home of Mrs. Ernest Riley in Lubbock, at 3:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 17.
 Attending the couple were Mrs. Riley and Jerry Ross.
 The bride is a 1964 graduate of Post High School, and is now employed with the Travelers Insurance Company of Lubbock. The bridegroom is a graduate of Lockney High School and attended Wayland Baptist College.
 The couple will reside in Plainview at 2002 West 6th.

Sullens and Curtis Steel wed

Miss Beth Peel of Lubbock spent the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Peel. The family spent Thanksgiving day in Springtown and Weatherford with relatives.
 Douglas A. Harrell is the daughter of Mr. O. P. Sullens of Santa Fe, and the bridegroom is Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Curtis.
 The bride is a graduate of Okla. High School and Oklahoma State University and worked as a teacher with the school system. The bridegroom is a Post High School graduate, attended South Plains College and Texas Tech. He is self-employed as a contractor in Santa Fe, where the couple will reside.

Informed Consumer

GAS PUMP CHECKS
 Have you ever wondered who checks the accuracy of the gasoline pumps at the many service stations across our state? It might surprise you to know that the Texas Department of Agriculture periodically inspects these pumps for proper gallon delivery and correct price computation. If the pump passes this inspection, a round seal is placed on the face of the pump to let you, the consumer, know the device has been checked by a field representative of this agency.

Checking gasoline pumps is only one of the many ways that the Department of Agriculture aids the consumer. Consumer service inspectors keep a constant watch on packaged food items and prepackaged meats, checking to see if the labels conform to our various laws. They also weigh the contents of these packages to assure that the stated net weight and price computations are correct. The Department of Agriculture also administers the Texas Egg Law which helps assure the consumer that the eggs he buys in the market are fresh and correctly marked as to grade and size.

One of the Department of Agriculture's more important services to the consumer is the testing and regulating of scales in retail stores to insure accuracy. If the scale has been inspected, there will be a round seal giving the last date of inspecting. They also check livestock scales on ranches, large terminal market scales, and other large commercial scales throughout the state to make sure of accurate weights all along the marketing chain. This service assures the consumer that he will in fact get the quantity he has bargained for.

In an effort to improve its services and facilitate communications, the Texas Department of Agriculture has established a Consumer Services Division. This office is located on the 5th floor of the John H. Reagan Building in Austin. It collects and disseminates informative and helpful brochures on how the Department of Agriculture can help the consumer and how the consumer can help himself. Also, there are eight district offices of the Department of Agriculture located in Houston, San Antonio, Pharr, Brenham, Lubbock, Odessa, Stephenville, and Tyler.

Dr. L. J. Morrisons move to San Antonio

Dr. and Mrs. L. J. Morrisons have sold their home here at 516 West 12th St. and moved this week to San Antonio. Dr. Morrison, a chiropractor, suffered a heart attack several months ago, and said he will be inactive for at least the next six months.
 The Morrisons first moved to Post in 1952, then moved away in 1954, living in Morton and San Antonio before returning to Post in 1960.
 Texas has 35.5 per cent of all U. S. oil reserves.

Post Music Club holds party; sings Christmas songs

The Post Music Club, a member of the National Federation of Music Clubs, met in the home of Mrs. R. L. Marks Monday for their annual Christmas party and MacDowell Observance. Mrs. Robert Macy and Mrs. Herb Germer served as co-hostesses.

The group sang the hymn of the month, "The Angels' Song", a French carol, and "Jingle Bells." A program of Christmas music was presented by Mrs. Myers' third grade class, under the direction of Mrs. Bo Jackson. The group sang a medley of carols of Alfred Burt, "We'll Dress This House"; "Some Children See Him," soloists Sheri Anderson and Lisa Holly; "Caroling, Caroling," melody bells featuring; "The Star Carol."

Mrs. Margie Pennell, Mrs. Marita Jackson, Bob Stice and George Miller sang "A Joyous Christmas Song", Frances A. Gevaret; "Rise Up, Shepherds, an' Foller," Negro spiritual; "O Holy Night," soloist, Margie Pennell; "Adoramus Te," Pastrina; "Ring, Christmas Bells," M. Leontovich.

During a short business meeting the club voted to bestow honorary membership to Bob Stice and Herb Germer in appreciation for their work with the Post Music Club.

After the musical gift exchange and donation to the MacDowell Scholarship Fund, refreshments were served to: Mmes. Joel Dobson, H. J. Dietrich, James Dietrich, Bob Ford, Herb Germer, Jackson, Macy, R. L. Marks, George Miller, Pennell, Bill Pool, Jim Prather, Ed Sawyers, Jerry Thuet, L. G. Thuet Jr., Jim Wells, J. J. Windlow, Robert Zivec, Glenn Norman, Boo Olson, Dan Lamb, Johnny Kemp, the guest performers and other guests.

Family Christmas party is planned

A potluck supper was held at the Dec. 1 meeting of the Mystic Sewing Club in the home of Mrs. Nell Windham. A Christmas theme was carried out in the decorations.
 Mrs. Alene Runkles read a poem, "Christmas Dream". Secret pal gifts were exchanged and names were drawn for next year.
 During the business session, officers for the new year were elected. Mrs. Nell Windham was appointed head of the Helping Hand project and Josephine Robinson is to assist her.

Guest speaker is heard by chapter

Ann Bishop, a guest speaker at the social of the Gamma Mu chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority, presented a program on Christmas decorations and gift wrappings. She encouraged members to use odds and ends of threads, ribbons, etc., and to make the wrappings special to the children who receive them. President Jane Mason also showed the group several Christmas stockings and Christmas balls which were made from beads and velvet.

Hostess for the evening was Anita Blanton, who was unable to attend. She had prepared orange sherbet in orange peel fruit cups, cake, hot chocolate and spice tea, which were served by Mrs. Mason.

Final plans for the sorority Christmas party were made. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Norman will be hosts for the supper in their home Saturday evening.
 Those attending were Mmes. Bishop, Johnnie Norman, Laveta Norman, Helen Mason, Judy Bush, Orabeth White, Jan Davidson and Jane Mason.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Mrs. Wesley Stephens and daughter, Mrs. Lucille Windham, attend funeral services in Lubbock Tuesday for Kenneth Richards on 37, who died in Veterans Hospital in Albuquerque, N.M. He was a brother of Mrs. Stephens' son-in-law, Mansel Richardson of Lubbock. Mr. and Mrs. Bowen Stephens of Plains also attended the funeral.

Close City HD Club has Christmas party

Secret pal gifts were exchanged at the Christmas party held by the Close City Home Demonstration Club Dec. 1 in the center.
 For the program each person read a Christmas poem, and the group sang songs.

Those attending were: Mmes. Faye Payton, Virginia Custer, Lola Peel, Hooter Terry, Thelma Thomas, Inez Ritchie, Jewel White and three visitors Mrs. Irene Mitchell, Mrs. Janyce Blankenship and son Mark, all of Lubbock, and the agent Mrs. Dana Feaster.

WELCHES MAKE TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Welch have just returned home after visiting in Bridgeport, Conn., with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Welch. The Welch's made this trip by plane and then took the train to Vineland, N.J., where they visited Mrs. Welch's sister, Mrs. Robert Noble. They also visited in Vermont, and saw a Broadway play in New York, "Sugar."

Resident honored on 80th birthday

A noon luncheon honoring L. H. Mathis on his 80th birthday was held in the home of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Mathis, on Sunday, Dec. 3. Assisting with hospitalities were Mrs. Anne Leake, Preston and Nelda.

A medley of songs and piano selections were played throughout the afternoon by Mrs. Donna Harmon and Miss Nelda Leake.

Those attending were the honoree and Mrs. Mathis, Mr. and Mrs. Gjen Mathis, Bishop Mathis, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Mathis, Mary and Stacy of Lockney, Lance and Marla Mathis of San Angelo, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harmon of Lubbock.

All of his sons and their families attended with the exception of one granddaughter, Mrs. David Boyd, and her family of Houston.

Invitation Extended

Miss Sara Holder 'Teacher of Week'

By GLENDA NEWDIGER
Miss Sara Holder was elected as our "Teacher of the Week" for this week. This is Miss Holder's first year here at Post High School. She teaches history and typing.

Miss Holder graduated from Lubbock Christian College. This is her first year over to teach. She uses her spare time sewing and reading.

Miss Holder enjoys teaching because she likes to work with students. When asked what she thought about being chosen "Teacher of the Week," she said, "It is, of course, a great honor. I appreciate the encouragement."

Phillys' Phrases . . .

By PHILLYS ECKOLS

"Sorry that there wasn't a school page last week—but we were out of school the biggest part of the week, and I'm certainly not sorry about that. Now that the Thanksgiving holidays are behind us, I'm counting the days until Christmas. The thing I enjoy most about Christmas is not only do you have just as good food as at Thanksgiving, you have lots of presents! (not to mention a LONG vacation from school).

Congratulations to Miss Sara Holder the Teacher of the Week this week. This is Miss Holder's first year to teach, and we're glad that she chose our school to begin her career.

I suppose everyone is glad to be back at the old grindstone after the Thanksgiving holidays (which went much too quickly). Isn't it a shame that we can't eat like that all of the time? Speaking of eating—there's been a lot of good food around lately, and it hasn't all been turkey and dressing. Monday night, the FHA had their "All Around the World Dinner." Each member brought a dish from a foreign country. After all of the special occasion food that I've been partaking in—you can imagine what my scales say. Would you believe they're saying, "One at a time, please!" (That certainly doesn't do too much for one's ego!)

The Carol of Lights which lit Post up for the holidays was a new touch for the Christmas season, here. It began at the courtyard, where the community chorus sang to us and ended with a march through the middle of town—at which time the Christmas lights which decorated Main Street were turned on as the whole crowd sang carols. I'm glad to see so many new things like this developing in our fair city. But it is odd to me that so many people complain about Post not having anything of this sort—and then when we do, those same complainers don't take advantage of it. I admit it was awfully cold, but if you stayed at home because of the cold you really did miss a good show.

Saturday, I traveled up to Texas Tech to take my SAT (college entrance) exam, and I came back with a fair warning—Seniors, if PHS Novel News . . .

By MIKE SMITH

Hermann Hesse, a German writer, became famous for his novels that expressed man's inner struggles between happiness and sorrow, the good and bad in him, and his wish to flee from human society and find peace in nature.

His novels are becoming increasingly popular. Both young and old, underground and establishment enjoy his timeless ideas and his 20th Century anti-heroes searching for meaning in a meaningless world.

Hesse's "Demian" is the story of the dilemma of the outcast who tries to make meaning in a world he has created for himself. Hesse gives an impressive description of Demian's face: "—it was not a boy's face but a man's; I also felt or saw that it was not entirely the face of a man either, but had something feminine about it, too. Yet the face struck me at that moment as neither masculine nor child-like, but somehow a thousand years old, somehow timeless, bearing the scars of an entirely different history than we know; animals could look like that, or trees, or planets—none of this did I know consciously, I did not feel precisely what I say about it now as an adult, only something of the kind. Perhaps he was handsome, perhaps I liked him, perhaps I also found him repulsive, I could not be sure of that either. All I saw was that he was different from us, he was like an animal or like a spirit or like a picture, he was different, unimaginably different from the rest of us."

Hesse's last and perhaps greatest achievement, concerning the conflict between the body and the mind, was "Magister Ludi" (formerly published as "The Glass Bead Games.")

Hermann Hesse was brought up in a missionary home where it was assumed that he would study to become a priest. Hesse's religious dilemma, which is reflected in his novels, led to his abandoning the Maulbronn school in 1891. He went to a well known faith healer and theologian but this visit proved useless. He also attempted suicide. He was expelled from high school, and then started work in bookshops, an occupation associated with talented German authors. He worked in these for several years.

Hesse's first novel, "Peter Camenzind," written in 1904, is about a boy who leaves his village in Switzerland to become a poet. Hesse followed this novel up with "Unterm Rad" (1906), which concerned a schoolboy completely out of contact with people, who flees from town to town after deserting school.

When World War I came, Hesse engaged in pacifist activities, including writing antiwar tracts and novels and editing newspapers for German P. O. W.'s. Hesse's first marriage ended at this time. This was expressed in "Knulp and Rosshalde," another of his novels. He studied Freud's works, and underwent analysis under Jung, and was a patient in a sanitarium for a while.

Hesse wrote "Demian" after moving permanently to Switzerland. This novel shows his interest in the subconscious and in psychoanalysis. The book was highly acclaimed, and won Hesse a name throughout Europe.

He wrote "Siddharta," a novel about Buddha, in 1922. The East inspired him after he had visited it several times before the war.

His next novel, "Steppenwolf" (1927) was about Harry Haller's search for values and identity in a corrupt world.

Crackdown set on highway litter

AUSTIN — An intensified effort to prevent littering on the highways of Texas has been announced by Col. Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Speir said DPS patrolmen in all uniformed services have been ordered to watch closely for motorists or other persons throwing litter on the highways or rights-of-way, and to take appropriate enforcement action.

State law prohibits the dumping or depositing of refuse, garbage, rubbish or junk on public streets, roads or highways. It is also unlawful to dump any sort of waste on rights-of-way, beaches, parking areas, or in inland streams or coastal waters.

The law makes drivers responsible for any refuse or garbage falling from their vehicles. Fines for littering offenses may be as high as $200, and minimum fines of $25 are provided in some instances.

Speir said the DPS made 841 littering arrests in 1971 as compared with 225 in 1960. Total pollution oriented arrests by the Department of Public Safety last year totaled almost 7,000 including such offenses as loose material, material spillage and faulty mufflers and exhaust emission systems.

Post woman's son is assigned new base

SAN ANTONIO — Airman Charles E. Blair, son of Bill Grice of 504 Liveoak St., Hubbard, Tex., has been assigned to Lowry AFB, Colo., after completing Air Force basic training.

During his six weeks at the Air Training Command's Lackland AFB, he studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special instruction in human relations.

The airman has been assigned to the Technical Training Center at Lowry for specialized training in the munitions and weapons maintenance field.

Airman Blair is a 1972 graduate of Hubbard High School. His mother, Mrs. Hazel W. Grice, resides in Post, Tex.

There are 6,984,269 motor vehicles registered in Texas; 5,335,492 automobiles, 23,919 busses, and 1,624,858 trucks.

The Texas gasoline tax at 5 cents per gallon yielded $334 million in 1971.

"Narzias and Goldmund," thought by some to be Hesse's greatest novel, dealt with two medieval priests; one happy with his religion, the other still in search of peace and salvation.

"Journey to the East" (1932) was the last major work of Hesse until 1943 when he came out with "Magister Ludi," winner of the Nobel prize. This was his last and perhaps greatest novel.

I highly recommend Hesse's works for they speak out with a fresh, new language that catches the reader's attention. Never has any German writer spoken out so with such conviction.

Be sure and be here next week when the first part of a three-part story, "Scenes From Christmas 1910" will temporarily replace "Novel News". I hope you enjoy it—it was written with all your readers in mind!

2 freshman students elected top citizens

By ANITA CRIADO
Kim Mitchell and Bryan Davis, both freshmen at Post High School were elected Citizens of the Week by the paper staff.

Kim is involved in several organizations in school. She participates in band, drama club, freshman and JV cheerleader, and basketball. When asked what she likes most about school, Kim said, "I like the willingness of the upper-classmen to help us freshmen become a part of Post High School. She thinks that the best quality a person can have is honesty. If a person is really honest, he will be admired, respected, and trusted by fellow students," she said.

Kim's future plans are to finish high school and go on to college and receive her college degree. But she really doesn't know yet what she wants to major in. The most worthwhile contribution Kim feels she can make to Post High School is to "be a part of high school, by this I mean to be willing to do what is asked of me and to help in whatever way I can to improve our high school."

The famous person Kim admires the most is "Abraham Lincoln because he always had the attitude of one for all and all for one. I feel that this attitude is very important especially in the world we live in today. It more or less

"... And I'm Weary Holding It In"

By Bernard S. Ramsey

(Excerpts from Thanksgiving Sunday Sermon, First Christian Church)

Since I entered the Christian ministry—almost 22 years ago now—I've had this almost strange, compulsive obsession to make a certain statement . . . in some pulpit . . . somewhere . . . sometime. Up until the past week, I had considered the statement much too subjective. Perhaps I was a bit cowardly "holding it in" thinking someone might assume I was asking for "something," for which I've never really had to ask any church.

In my devotional reading this week, I ran across a verse written by one of my "preacher forebears" by the name of Jeremiah and which shamed me somewhat and made me know how wrong I had been. I had read it many times before, but it hadn't seemed to register. This time it did . . . and it happens to be a verse with which most preachers are quite familiar. He, too, had been "holding something back" and in the 9th verse of the 20th chapter of his book, old Jeremiah shut his mouth: "There is in my heart as it were burning fire shut up in my bones, and I am weary holding it in, and I cannot!" . . . and then he cuts loose with some of the most amazing, shocking, and startling words in the Old Testament.

Not so in my case . . . what I had been holding back was neither amazing, shocking nor startling. I resolved, then and there, not another Lord's Day would pass without my articulating that certain obsessive statement. Long before I had phrased the words of my statement as if they were being spoken by some paradoxically ignorant, but profound hillbilly preacher. (For emphasis, of course). I know some of you will not find them at all amusing. I am equally sure many of you will grasp the gospel truth in them and which are as follows: "There ain't nobody nowhere which ain't never heered no kinda preachin' what sounded good to them . . . which ain't never paid for it! . . . And which grubby, stingy, pinch-penny, skinflints . . . ain't never had no mind to pay no church, nowhere for." . . . So mote 'it be! And, you know, I have yet to meet that person who gives God his rightful share to ever be offended when the preacher takes the dollar into the pulpit. Our Lord had more to say about stewardship of property; of things . . . than other topic.

As I look back at my "terrific" statement in print, I've sneaky notion there's a double negative or two in it. Reminds of the widow and her two mites she dropped into the temple. A lot of folk—multitudes—never bother to give one mite—not to mention two mites for the work of the Lord . . . now that's your double negative!

If our government would stop making pennies it would make it much easier on all church treasurers—who now must rob Gabriel to pay Michael! If it rained dollar bills some would try to get one changed before going to church! What we do, my friends, is to get God off the welfare rolls and pay on the church's payroll. Know what kind of offering God most: It's one, which if taken up in un-galvanized passion wouldn't make a sound!

If you feel our message anti-climactic to Thanksgiving you've missed the "boat". Did it ever occur to you our Thanksgiving comes on the last Thursday in November—very close to time when we do more giving to others than any other time of year; surely, "giving thanks", is an excellent prelude to "gifts". This we'll be doing shortly in celebration of God's "most able gift" to each of us: His Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior.

Don't put God down at the bottom of your list to receive little residue may be left . . . cut loose! Get reckless! Try this once, to give your church treasurer a heart attack (and a mild one) with the size of your Christmas check to your church . . . It pays for a lot more than the 52 or 104 or more sermons hear in a year. You would naturally expect a preacher to be paid—but there isn't enough money in Post to pay for the best gospel sermon, which may turn one soul in the direction of we took a look at the new fiction in the library let's sample the non-fiction.

The most beautiful books along in a great while is "Where Man Was Born" by Mathiesen. This is an excellent book of the month with a $15 price tag. It special is the color photographs by Elliot. This book is the joint effort of a photographer and a novelist—their goal is the soul of East Africa, the results are stunning. The waterfall and towering mountains and flamingo, tranquil forests and burned grass — all are in the pages of this book.

And how do you like this title? "How to Go to Work When Your Husband Is Against It, Your Children Aren't Old Enough, and There's Nothing You Can Do Anyway. There's a book you have to buy, whether it's any good or not! There's a sampling of some of the new books in the library. We've got lots more. Plus some new titles that are old classics. I'll mention some of those next week. Happy reading!

life of foreigners there is bound to be colorful. Ms. Trautman describes it all with light humor. It's fun reading.

Dr. Alvarez has given us a disturbing and thoughtful book called "The Savage God." The subject is suicide, which a surprising number of people have tried. I'd recommend trying the book instead.

Malcolm Muggeridge has given us "Paul, Envoy Extraordinary." I don't like Malcolm, so I don't imagine I'll like his book either. However, this sort of book is most popular. It's an attempt to give the reader a You-Are-There impression of the Apostle Paul. The tentmaker from Tarsus is a good choice of subject. Saul, the Jew among Jews turned ambassador for Christ, is probably the most colorful man in the history of the Christian Church. I hope Mr. Muggeridge does justice by him.

Dec. 31 deadline for applying for permits for signs along highways

AUSTIN — Owners of advertising signs along Interstate, U. S. and major State-numbered highways have until Dec. 31 to apply for permits required under the Texas Highway Beautification Act.

The act controls all outdoor advertising signs from the largest signboard to the smallest sign hanging from a fence along the right of way line.

The Texas Highway Commission established the deadline under the legislation which became effective on June 29. The act requires that no person may erect or maintain a sign within 660 feet of an interstate or federal-aid primary highway in Texas without a license to engage in outdoor advertising.

In addition to the license, the sign owner must have a permit for each sign he has now or which he plans to erect.

On-premise signs — those advertising activities conducted on the premises and those offering the property for sale — are exempt.

The act will be implemented in stages. The first stage requires the owner of the sign to obtain a State license and post a bond. The license fee is $25 and the license is valid for an indefinite period.

The license application must be accompanied by a bond in the amount of $2,500 for each county in which signs are located, or a maximum bond of $10,000 for owners with signs in more than three counties.

Both license and bond form applications may be obtained by writing the Right of Way Division, Texas Highway Department, P. O. Box 5075, Austin, Texas 78763.

After obtaining a license, the owner is required to obtain a separate permit for each existing and new off-premise sign on the affected highways. Sign permit application forms can be obtained from the Right of Way Sections of the Highway Department district offices.

For each sign permit required, the owner should submit an application accompanied by a check or money order for $5 to the Highway Department district office for the county in which the sign is located. If the permit application is for an existing sign, the Highway Department will check to see if the sign conforms with the Beautification Act.

Permits now will be issued for signs in place prior to June 29 even if they do not conform to the law. They will be permitted to stay in place until programmed for acquisition or removal.

Permits for new signs will not be issued unless they conform to the law.

Anyone planning to put up a new sign on the controlled highways should check with the Highway Department district office in his area before doing anything, to determine if the proposed sign location conforms to the law.

The Highway Department also has begun removal of abandoned and illegal signs on controlled highways. An abandoned sign is one in which the owner no longer claims any interest. An illegal sign is one which is located on private property without permission of the property owner. Property owners on the affected highways with such illegal signs should contact the Highway Department district office.

TURNIP IS HANDFULL

Mrs. Lawrence Epley, 902 West Main, holds an over-three-pound turnip her husband grew in his turnip garden behind their home. The turnip measures 17 1/2 inches in circumference.

PLANS APPOINTMENTS

AUSTIN — Gov. Preston Smith plans to make about 50 appointments to offices before his term expires.

One-fourth of the gasoline tax is used for public education, the balance for roads.

New assignment for Airman Wayland Hood

SAN ANTONIO — Airman Wayland L. Hood, nephew of Jimmy H. and Linda I. Dickerson of 111 East 13th St., Post, Tex., has been assigned to Dyess AFB, Tex., after completing Air Force basic training.

During his six weeks at the Air Training Command's Lackland Air Force Base, Tex., he studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special instruction in human relations.

The airman has been assigned to a unit of the Strategic Air Command for further training and duty in the communications field.

Airman Hood is a 1972 graduate of Post High School.

Well, something went wrong and he didn't get it. Later on, at the hotel, they found out it had, by mistake, gone to a visiting fellow from back East, who was quite upset when he opened it up.

"That fellow turned out to be C. W. Post, who later set up a railroad there and moved north to establish Post City.

"I thought you might be interested in it. Again, thanks for the wonderful hospitality and I hope to meet you the next time we are in Post. Yours truly, Clyde Jarvis."

Well, can anybody top that one for a "cow pie" story?

And mentioning Rosemary, reminds us that she had to "pass" her Potluck column this week because of a "toothpick injury" which is another unusual yarn in itself.

Basically the way we heard it from the Bob Macys, Rosemary somehow got a toothpick imbedded in the back (not bottom) of one of her heels while walking around in her home Friday while preparing for a flying trip to Dallas in which the Chapmans and the Macys attended an art show.

She still doesn't know how it happened but the toothpick stuck far into the heel through her shoe, or boot, whatever. She pulled it out, but apparently didn't get all of it extracted. Anyway, an infection set in Friday night in Dallas and by Saturday morning the foot was so badly swollen that the Chapmans flew home instead of on to San Angelo for "Garza County Appreciation Day" at West Texas Boys Ranch Sunday. Rosemary is now in bed and probably will stay right there for another week under doctor's orders.

Now, can any reader top that one for a "toothpick story?"

Special Farm User permit renewals to be Dec. 14-15

A representative of Robert S. Calvert, Comptroller of Public Accounts, will be at the Garza County courthouse Thursday and Friday, Dec. 14-15, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. for the purpose of renewing Special Farm User permits, and issuing 1973 decals for LPG operated licensed vehicles. The current decals expire Dec. 31, 1972. Renewal notices have been mailed to those who currently hold a 1972 decal, and these notices should be taken to the meeting place, and as before, it will be placed on the vehicle by the representative.

All farmers and ranchers that have vehicles that are LPG operated should purchase their 1973 decals as soon as possible, preferably on one of the dates listed above, in order to avoid the penalties as prescribed by law. Anyone unable to meet the above schedule may purchase a 1973 LPG decal from the Lubbock District Office, located at 2424-34th St., Lubbock, Tex.

Postex Plant is planning party

Santa Claus and the "Top Twenty" singing group will be featured at Postex Plant's 18th annual Christmas party at 2 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 17, in the shipping warehouse.

At 1 p.m., preceding the party, an open house and a tour of the plant will be held for employees, their families, other relatives and friends. There will be "treat bags" and toys for the smaller children and door prizes for adults. The Rev. George L. Miller, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will give the invocation, and plant manager Vic Slater the welcome address.

59 DEGREE DROP

The bottom fell out of the thermometer here Tuesday with temperatures plunging from 69 degrees at mid-day to an overnight low of 10 degrees as the coldest cold front of the season punched through.

Post Scouter among leaders who receive awards at district event

Over 80 Scouters and wives were on hand Dec. 2, in Ralls to hear Col. Frank McKenzie of Reese Air Force Base challenge them to "rekindle the spirit of patriotism in the hearts of youth."

The dinner was to honor outstanding adult Scouters of the six and one half county area of the Comanche Trail District. 50 year Anniversary Awards for recruiting new boys into Scouting were presented by Council Commissioner Jack Baker of Lubbock to these leaders, Ronald Hilliard, Crosbyton; Joe Westbury,

'Woman's Day' at Christian Church

Woman's Day will be observed at the First Christian Church at the 11 a.m. worship hour this Sunday morning, according to Bernard S. Ramsey, minister.

The entire worship will be conducted by the members of the Christian Women's Fellowship and the deaconesses of the church, including the regular Sunday morning observance of the Lord's Supper.

Mrs. John W. (Lynda) Crane, president of the CWF, will preside over the morning worship.

Mrs. Willard (Ruby) Kirkpatrick will bring the morning sermon, with her subject, "Let the World Know."

Neighbors and guests are especially invited to share with the church family this unique and meaningful worship, the minister said.

ATTENDING FUTURITY

A local group is in Fort Worth this week attending the National Cutting Horse Association Futurity which will end Saturday night. Attendees are County Judge and Mrs. Giles Dalby, Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Gannon of Lubbock, Gary Workman, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Johnson.

BOY HAS SURGERY

Roger Garcia, 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Garcia, Jr., of Post, underwent surgery in Methodist Hospital in Lubbock Monday morning for correction of a hearing problem. He was brought home Tuesday afternoon.

City council—

The council also voted to renew for another year the contract of Pritchard & Abbott, tax evaluation engineers. Under the contract, the city pays the engineers 4 cents per $100 taxable valuation. Last year, the council granted the firm's request for a raise in the fee from 3½ to 4 cents, but no increase was asked for this time by the two Pritchard & Abbott representatives present at the meeting.

The Rev. Bob Ford, pastor of the First United Methodist Church, and Councilman Jim Wells were appointed by the council to replace the Rev. George L. Miller and Councilman E. R. "Buster" Moreland as representatives of the City of Post on the Community Action Committee. Rev. Miller had reported to the council that his and Moreland's terms on the committee were expiring and suggested Rev. Ford and Wells as replacements.

The council also voted to reappoint J. B. Potts and Shelley Camp to the board of the White River Municipal Water District. Their terms will expire Dec. 31. Julius Stelzer is the city's other representative on the board.

Sue Shyrtles and Grant Lott were reappointed to one-year terms on the Post Housing Authority board.

City patrolman Jerry Jolly was present at the meeting for a discussion of police department problems with the council, and told them he was happy to report that they weren't having "many problems."

He said the cooperation between the city and county law enforcement arms is generally good, and the council agreed with him that the cooperation is indeed "the best it has been in a long time."

The problem of safety in the school zones, particularly at the hours when the schools dismiss for the noon hour and for the day, was discussed by Jolly and the council, and it was agreed that a meeting should be called of city and county law enforcement officers and the school authorities to discuss the problem.

The policeman told the council that glue and paint sniffing is more prevalent here than the general public is aware, but that city police are reluctant to make arrests because they are not sure of the procedures, since so many juveniles are involved.

Mayor McCrary said he had requested the city attorney a month ago to find out "how the law reads" on glue and paint sniffing and to make a report to the council so that the police department could be directed in its efforts to bring the problem under control.

OUT OF HOSPITAL

Pete Maddox, public works superintendent for the City of Post, was dismissed Wednesday morning from Garza Memorial Hospital where he had been since injuring his leg while climbing on a loader Monday evening.

Boys, girls teams in separate tourneys this weekend

Lopes at Colorado City, Does in Roosevelt meet

Freshman and 7th grade girls win; 8th grade loses

The Post Antelopes and Does are to hit the tournament trail again this weekend for the second week in a row, the boys going to Colorado City and the girls to Roosevelt.

Following this weekend's tournaments, the two high school teams will go to Lorenzo Tuesday night, Dec. 12, before swinging into District 5AA action at Cooper on Friday, Dec. 15.

The Lopes will get an early test against a District 5AA opponent in the Colorado City tournament, since they are to play the Denver City Mustangs at 12 o'clock noon Friday. If the Lopes beat Denver City, they play again at 8 p.m. Friday against the winner of the Pecos-Colorado City game. If Post loses to Denver City, they play the loser of the above game at 8:30 p.m. Friday.

Other teams in the Colorado City tournament are Seminole, Fort Stockton and Coleman.

The Post Does are to play Idalou at 4 p.m. today in a first round game of the Roosevelt tournament. If they get by Idalou, they play next at 4 p.m. Friday against the Ralls-McAdoo winner. If the Does lose to Idalou, they play the Ralls-McAdoo loser at 6:30 p.m. Friday.

Other girls' teams in the Roosevelt meet are the host Eaglettes, Crosbyton, Tahoka and Floydada.

Unbeaten Abernathy rips Post, 75 to 58

Abernathy won the "battle of the Antelopes" here Tuesday night, beating Post, 75 to 58, on torrid outside shooting and winning their seventh game of the season without a loss.

The Post Does, flashing their best offense of the season thus far, helped the feelings of the hometown fans by winning their game, 70 to 58, but the Antelope JV's lost the evening's opener to Abernathy, 50-35—which gave the visiting Antelopes two victories out of three games.

The loss to the hot-shooting Abernathy quintet left Coach John Alexander's team with a 3-3 mark through their first six games.

Abernathy came here fresh from the Plainview tournament, where they won the small division championship by beating three "powerhouse" teams—Dimmitt, Phillips and Talla.

Post stayed fairly close to Abernathy through the first quarter, which ended with the visitors ahead 16-13, but started falling behind in the second period and left the court at the halftime intermission trailing Abernathy 41-28.

The locals gained four points in the third quarter, which ended 53-44, and came within five points of catching up at one point midway of the final period, but fell back when Abernathy's Kent Snodgrass started hitting from outside.

"TOO MANY INJURIES"

Second bowl game at Slaton is cancelled

Post and Slaton "exes" battled to an 8-8 tie here Saturday night in a Booster Bowl game that was marred by serious injuries to three of the Slaton players that have resulted in the "return" game scheduled for this Saturday night being cancelled, according to Ronald Simpson, president of the Antelope Booster Club.

Ralph Smith, 220-pound Slaton tackle, suffered a broken leg and was transferred to Lubbock after being treated at Garza Memorial Hospital. Gary Brush, a defensive halfback, was treated and released at the local hospital, and another player, whose name was not learned, was taken directly from the stadium to Slaton with a leg injury.

Simpson told The Dispatch Wednesday that Saturday night's return match at Slaton is being cancelled "because the games are just not worth getting a working man hurt."

Simpson said that after expenses, approximately $120 will go into the booster club fund from the game here. He said this amount probably will be "split" with the Slaton team, since the game scheduled there has been cancelled. "We'll make a definite decision on it at our next meeting," the booster club president said.

The cold weather kept the attendance down from what the sponsors had hoped it would be.

The game's outstanding offensive and defensive awards went to Bobby Brake, Slaton quarterback, and Bobby Dean, Post defensive lineman, who blocked a punt out of the end zone for a safety. The award presentations were made by Mrs. Joan Odum.

It was Post's game in the first half and Slaton's in the second half. Post scored six points in the first quarter and the two-point safety in the second quarter, while Slaton's touchdown and two extra points came in the fourth period.

A 17-yard pass from quarterback Duke Altman to end Jerry Crenshaw scored Post's first quarter touchdown after recovery of a Slaton fumble on their 38. A 15-yard end sweep by tailback Ronnie Caddell set up the touchdown pass.

Late in the first quarter, Ronald Simpson returned an intercepted pass 13 yards to the Slaton 39, but the ex-Tigers held to take over on downs. A third down fumble set them back 14 yards to their 11, and Post's Bobby Dean blocked a punt, with the ball bouncing out of the end zone to give Post an 8-0 lead.

Slaton dominated play in the second half, finally driving 63 yards from their 37 for the six points that got them on the scoreboard. With 2:52 of the game remaining, Slaton got to the Post four-yard line from where a halfback pass from Steve McCleary to Jimmy Williams scored the touchdown. Brake faked a pitchout, then turned and rammed through center for the two extra points that tied the game.

After the Slaton touchdown, Ray Altman intercepted a Tiger pass on the Slaton 44. Post got down to the 25, with time running out, and Robert Bullock failed with a field goal attempt on the final play.

Slaton registered only two first downs in the first half, but got seven in the second half to lead 9 to 6 in that department. They netted 88 yards rushing to Post's 63, but trailed in the passing department with 66 yards to Post's 137. One of the Post completions was a 50-yard gainer from Duke Altman to Dennis Altman.

Cubs' Troy Jenkins makes all-district

Troy Jenkins of the Brownfield Cubs was one of three players to make the All-District 3AAA team both ways — on both offense and defense.

Troy is the son of Raymond and Virgie Jenkins, former Post residents. He made the offensive team at tackle and the defensive team at linebacker.

SLATON CAGE TOURNAMENT

Post wins third and consolation in meet

The Post Does defeated Abernathy, 43 to 35, Saturday to win third place in the Slaton High School Invitational Basketball tournament, while the Antelopes downed Blendoe, 64 to 39, to win the consolation championship in the same tournament.

Post forward Melanie King was selected on the girls' all-tournament team, while Steve Hays and Reggie Moore were both named to the boys' all-tournament team. Moore, seeing his first action of the season in the tournament, hauled down 61 rebounds in the Antelopes' three games.

Coach John Alexander's 'Lopes were eliminated from championship contention by Muleshoe, 42 to 40, in overtime Thursday afternoon in their first game. They came back Friday to coast to a 64-32 win over Slaton's junior varsity to advance to the consolation finals.

Coach Jay Wilson's Does were easy winners, 59-25, over Ralls in their first game, but lost to Crosbyton, 64-60, Friday afternoon to lose their shot at the championship trophy.

A cold second quarter in which the Mules outscored Post 14 to 5 contributed to the Antelopes' loss in their opening game. They led Muleshoe 10-8 at the end of the first quarter and outscored them by nine points in the second half.

The regulation playing time ended with the teams tied at 35-35. Reggie Moore put Post ahead with a field goal in the three-minute overtime, but the Mules came back with two fielders to win the contest. The deciding bucket was made by the Mules' George Mitchell just at the buzzer.

Coach Raymond Schroeder of Muleshoe had called time out with eight seconds of the overtime period remaining and his team controlled the ball for a final shot. Mitchell made the bucket from just outside the key.

Hays and Moore, each with 12 points, were Post's top scorers. Johnny Jefferson, with 10, wasn't far behind, with Roger Pace hitting for four points and Danny Lee for two. Others seeing action were Ricky Shepherd and Rusty Conner.

Mitchell's 12 points led the Muleshoe scoring.

All the 'Lopes reserves saw action in Post's 64-32 win Friday over the Slaton JV, in which the locals built up a 24-11 first quarter lead and coasted on in.

Hays led the Post scoring parade with 19. Others scoring were: Moore, 14; Jefferson, eight; Randy Compton and Bill Hudman, six each; Shepherd, four; Lee and Robert Mindieta, two each; and Pace, one. Randy Kennedy and Conner also saw action.

After leading 12-4 at the end of the first quarter and 30-15 at the half, Post allowed Blendoe to pull up to within nine points, 40-31, by the end of the third quarter, but outscored their opponents 24-8 in the final period to win 64-39.

Moore's 16 points was Post's best scoring effort, with Hays and Jefferson hitting 12 apiece. Conner scored six; Lee, Shepherd and Mindieta, four each, and Compton and Hudman, two apiece, with Kennedy also seeing action.

In beating Abernathy for the third place trophy, the Post girls led 13-8 at the end of the first quarter, 25-16 at halftime, but by only three points, 33-30, at the end of the third period. The Does doubled the score on their opponents, 10-5, in the final period, however.

Jenda Gilmore scored 15 points for the winners; Melanie King, 14; Jodi Norman, eight, and Becky Dalby, six.

Coach Wilson's Post team outscored Crosbyton by seven points in the second half of their semifinals game Friday, but a big first quarter by Crosbyton, in which they outscored Post 21-14, proved the difference. The halftime score was 37-27, Crosbyton, and they were out in front 53-40 at the end of the third quarter.

Post tied the score at 58-58 on Jenda Gilmore's field goal late in the game, then got the ball back, but committed a foul, and Crosbyton scored six quick points to ice the game.

Melanie King led all scorers with 28 points on 11 field goals and six free throws. Mary Faye Smith's 25 points led Crosbyton, while Post's other scorers were Jenda Gilmore with 20 and Becky Dalby with 12.

King also was the high scorer in the Ralls game with 32 points, Gilmore hitting 17, Dalby, six, and Jodi Norman, four.

Coach Wilson gave his guards — Pam Feagin, Jan Hall, Ann Mitchell, Lea Merrie Cross, Phyllis Kennedy and Sylvia Smith — much of the credit for the Does' third place win in the tournament. He said Ann Mitchell, in her first year on the varsity team, played exceptionally well in all games.

Post JV teams in Spur tourney

The junior varsity Post Antelopes and Does are to play opening round games today in Spur High School's junior varsity basketball tournament.

The Doe JV's take the court first, playing Crosbyton at 5:15, with the Antelope JV's following at 6:30 against Crosbyton.

If the Post girls win, their next game will be at 5:15 p.m. Friday against the winner of the Lorenzo JV-Spur freshman game, and if the Antelope JV's win, they play the Lorenzo-Spur freshman winner at 6:30 Friday. Should the Post teams lose their first round games with Crosbyton, the girls play again at 12:15 p.m. Friday and the boys at 1:30.

DEGREE CANDIDATE
AUSTIN—Fifty-six students, including Jimmie Tom Johnston of Post, are candidates for Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy degrees from the University of Texas.

Cooper loses, Floydada wins in grid playoffs

The Cooper Pirates, District SAA champions, reached the end of the Class AA schoolboy trail last Friday night, losing to Alpine, 47 to 6, at Midland, but the Floydada Whirlwinds, District 4AA champs, kept rolling by upsetting the top-rated Childress Bobcats, 13-10, at Plainview.

The quarterfinals are scheduled for this weekend, with Floydada going against Alpine at 7:30 p.m. Friday in Midland Memorial Stadium.

Other Class AA quarterfinal games will be as follows:
Rockwall vs. Jackboro, 7:30 p.m. Friday, Wichita Falls.

Round Rock vs. Friendswood, 8 p.m. Friday, College Station.
Boiling vs. Mathis, 8 p.m., Friday.

In Class A, the Plains Cowboys and Clarendon Bronchos are to meet at 3 p.m. Saturday at Plainview. Plains advanced to the quarterfinals by overpowering Baird, 44-6, at Snyder, while Clarendon is having a tougher time of it in winning over Hart, 21-6, at Pando.

The other Class A quarterfinals games will be as follows:
Mason vs. Aledo, 8 p.m. Friday, Brownwood.

New Diana vs. Franklin, to be announced.
Schulenberg vs. Falls City, to be announced.

The Class B semifinals will pit Groom against Windthorst at 7:30 p.m. Friday at Vernon, and New Waverly against Chilton, to be announced. This the first year for Class B teams to play to a state championship.

The Class 4A quarterfinals line-up is as follows:

Dallas Skyline vs. Plano; Baytown Sterling vs. Galveston Bell, Brazoswood vs. San Antonio Lee, and Odessa Permian vs. Lubbock Monterey at 7:30 p.m. Friday in Jones Stadium, Lubbock.

Class 3A semifinals games will pit Lewisville against Burk Burnett at a time and place that had not been announced late Monday, and Brenham against Uvalde, also yet to be announced.

Jr. High boys win 2 of 3 from Frenship teams

Post boys' basketball teams won two of three junior high district games from Frenship here Monday night, the freshmen winning, 35-14 and the 8th grade 26-12, but the 7th grade dropping a 32-22 decision.

The results brought each Post team's record to 1-1 on the season. Coach Lane Tannehill's freshman team experienced no trouble in their 35-14 victory, with Bryan Davis' 10 points leading the way. All 14 boys on the freshman squad saw action.

Other scorers for Post were Mike Hair, eight; Mike Shepherd, seven; Duke Bell, six, and Edward Price and Ray Martinez, two each. Martinez was the leading rebounder with eight, although playing but one quarter.

Jimmy Dorland, with nine points, was Post's top scorer in Coach Don Black's 8th grade team's win. Kyle Duren scored five points; Buddy Britton and Mike Waldrip, four each; Randell Wyatt, three, and Randy Bell, one. All 15 boys suited out got to play.

Coach Bobby Davis' 7th graders played a good game, although losing their first game of the season, 32-22. The Frenship 7th grade team had one boy who was about 6-1 and another who was 5-10, and between them they scored 30 of their team's 32 points.

Evans Heaton led the Post scoring with 10 points. Brad Davis tossed in four, and Brad Shepherd, Jim Hays, Rodney Gray and Steve Reed, two each.

Lunchroom Menus

By MRS. GLENN DAVIS

A number of young people and some not so young from this community visited in the Louis Sinclair home last Friday evening in Lubbock. They all enjoyed singing.

Mrs. B. C. Childs recently visited one morning with Mrs. Carl Fluitt. Mrs. Quannah Maxey visited in Spur last Saturday with Mrs. Nellie Davis and Mrs. Robert Green.

Mrs. Willie Mason spent Sunday night with the Lewis Mason family and attended services at the Church of Christ with them.

Stephanie Davis of Texas Tech spent the weekend at home with her parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Elvus Davis and Patricia.

Mrs. Ada Oden visited Friday afternoon with Mrs. Viva Davis. Delmer Cowdrey has been ill with flu but is feeling better.

Mrs. Brenda King hasn't improved much since last week. Mrs. Bob Lusk and Mrs. Lucille McBride attended a pink and blue shower for Mrs. Larry Wallace last Saturday morning in the home of Mrs. Alex Kittrell and Mrs. Mary Lee Wristen near Lorenzo.

Mrs. Ray McClellan visited last Monday in Post with Mrs. Willie Mason and Mrs. Jennie Mason.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Edwards spent last weekend down at Possum Kingdom Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Quannah Maxey visited last Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Ray McClellan.

Mrs. L. W. Gandy returned home last Friday after almost a two weeks visit with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fluitt.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Williams and David were ill with a virus.

Mrs. Clark Cowdrey and sons of Nacona visited over the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon McGehee in the Gordon community. They were to visit with the Delmer Cowdreys but he had the flu. Mrs. Cowdrey visited them a short while Saturday evening.

Mrs. Carl Fluitt and Mrs. L. W. Gandy visited a Sunday afternoon in Post with Mrs. Morris McClellan.

Mrs. Harlan Morris visited recently with Mrs. Carl Fluitt. Mrs. Bill McMahon visited last Thursday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Peel visited Monday evening in Post with Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Livingston.

The price marked on the can is not just for the beans.

➤ About $\frac{1}{3}$ of it is for the support and betterment of the community in which the beans are bought...the community where you live and work...or somebody else's.

When you trade at home, it's your own neighborhood that is supported and prospered by that one-third of the money you spend which pays for schools and churches, streets and roads, police and fire protection...and for the creation of more jobs, more profitable opportunities and higher property values...and keeps more goods and services conveniently available when you need them. Why donate this one-third of your money to make somebody else's home area more prosperous...and to de-prosper your own?

It Pays to Trade Where You Live
