cololades from all

Under the buffalo were... and maybe a bit... when they turned up... main street Saturday... to open Borden County... Bicentennial parade and... celebration.

But mark it down — the Borden County Bicentennial was a smash hit! The parade, the pageant, the wild west show all were gems. The barbecue was great and most of the folks who didn't drive to Post or Snyder got to eat.

Everybody went home Saturday afternoon singing the praises of Borden County, whose population figures out about one to the square mile.

It was too early this week — because all the bills weren't paid — to determine just how much "profit" was left to help build the proposed Borden County Park, but the "total take" from all sources was between $25,000 and $30,000.

Saturday was the "big day" of course, but Sunday was a good one too. It was homecoming — and a time for folks who had moved away to come back.

Three new coaches, ag instructor, two teachers are hired

Three new coaches and a new vocational agricultural teacher were among six employed by Post School trustees at a special meeting Friday afternoon.

The other two were coaches' wives who were employed as teachers for the 1976-77 school year.

In another important action, trustees voted to accept the low bid of $32,680 for summer work here, which basically will comprise the interior painting and carpeting of the primary building.

The resignations of seven from the faculty, four of them coaches, also were accepted by the board.

They included Mrs. Delmarie Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Don Black, Danny Chisum, Carroll McDonald, John Morrow, and Mrs. LaVerne Murphy, high school Spanish teacher who plans to complete work on her librarian's degree.

The new coaches offered contracts were Bill Umberhagen, Jerry Reynolds and Micky Long. Larry Crownover is the new vocational agricultural teacher. Mrs. Umberhagen and Mrs. Reynolds were offered contracts to be a junior high teacher and elementary physical education teacher respectively.

Both Umberhagen and Reynolds have been assistant coaches at Lubbock Cooper High School the last two years.

Reynolds, who was a Spur High School football star was a quarterback for Texas Tech's Red Raiders Umberhagen's hometown was Holland, Tex.

Saturday runoff will decide two county races

The Democratic runoff primary Saturday will decide two Garza County county commissioner races in Precincts 1 and 3.

Also on the ballot — and all that's on the ballot for voters in county commissioner precincts 2 and 4 — are two state races to determine the party nominees for railroad commissioner and for the unexpired term of judge of the state court of criminal appeals.

In precinct 1, T. D. (Buck) Craft, who polled 235 votes in the regular primary, is opposed by Sam Ellis of Southland, who received 160 the first time out in a three-candidate field.

In precinct 3, Arnold Parrish and Mike Cisneros are the two that remain from a tightly bunched five-man field in the first primary. Parrish polled 108 votes in May to 98 for Cisneros with over 50 percent of the total vote going to the other three candidates.

The two state races on the ballot here pit Jerry Sadler, former state land commissioner against Jon Newton, former state legislator who became something of a recognized energy expert among the lawmakers, for railroad commissioner; and Carl Dally vs. W. T. Phillips for judge of the state court of criminal appeals.

The precinct 3 box in county commissioner precinct 3 again will be in the community room of the bank, County Democratic Chairman, N. C. Outlaw announced.

A light vote is expected. Garza results may be obtained by calling The Dispatch before 9 p. m.

Post high grads are challenged by Bobby Davis

Post High's 62 1976 graduates had a damp commencement at Antelope Stadium Friday night as a thunderstorm with some lightning moved in minutes before the professional and delayed things 20 minutes.

The class voted to "stick it out" in the stadium rather than move inside to a hot high school gym and that is where everybody got just a little bit wet before Rev. Tom Pass gave the benediction.

Bobby Davis was the commencement speaker and challenged the graduates to set goals and be competitive so their dreams can be realized.

Woman dies in US-380 crash

The first South Plains victim of the holiday Memorial Day weekend came Sunday evening in a grinding head-on collision 20 miles east of Post on U. S. 380.

Department of Public Safety investigators said Margaret S. Thomason, 34, of Brownfield was killed when a car driven by her husband and occupied by their three children was in collision with a vehicle driven by Gary Don Brashears, 17, of Welch.

Mrs. Thomason was dead on arrival at Lubbock's Methodist Hospital. Her husband, Clynton Joe Thomason, 33, was listed in serious condition at Methodist Hospital late Sunday.

The couple's children, Pattie, 14, Melissa, 7, and Shannon Dale, 9, received minor injuries in the accident.

Herbert Walls, Ted Aten, and Floyd Richardson, besides Mrs. Kirkpatrick.

The pool will be open from 1 to 6 p. m. Tuesdays through Saturdays and from 1:30 to 5:30 p. m. Sundays. It will be closed usually Mondays, although it remained open this week on Monday because of the holiday.

The evening schedule includes Family Nights on Tuesdays from 7 to 9 p. m., Ladies' Night on Thursdays from 7 to 9 p. m. for ladies only; and Public Nights on Fridays from 7 to 10 p. m.

Women's division will buy jackets

The purchase of jackets for the members of the Women's Division Chamber of Commerce was discussed at a recent meeting of the division.

A dime throw booth was also voted on for the July 4th weekend celebration.

Members attending the meeting were Marie Neff, Joy Greer, Lillian Nance, Ruby Kirkpatrick, Maxine Marks, Iva Hudman, Evelyn Neff, and Betty Posey.

Coyote is trained pet

By BETH SHORT

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Kay, who have recently moved into town from the country, have a most uncommon friendship with 'Coty', their almost full coyote pet.

Coty, who was found by Randall on one of his rounds in the oil fields around Post, has proven that although she was wild at the time he found her, that a wild animal can be tamed and become a valuable and trustworthy friend.

Randall is an employee of George R. Brown, and saw Coty one day on his regular route through the oil patch, north of town. He saw she was a coyote, and had her in the sights of his gun to shoot her, when he decided there was something special about this animal and instead began the long period of waiting before he could even get close enough to Coty to see her really well and maybe catch her.

She was staying around an old abandoned house and (See Pet coyote, Page 12)

Museum association will meet Sunday

The Garza County Museum Association will hold a meeting Sunday, June 6, at 3 p. m. in the museum building.

This is a very important meeting stressed the president, Jack Alexander, as final plans will be made to get the museum ready for the July 4 celebration.

Members are urged to be present, as well as those wishing to become members or just interested persons wishing to help with the museum.

Baptists plan tent crusade

Four Baptist churches of the county will sponsor a week-long old fashion tent crusade here June 14-20 with Bill Stafford of Hixson, Tenn., as the evangelist.

The tent will be pitched on the high school track field just north of Post High School and east of Antelope Stadium.

The revival is entitled "Spirit" of America Crusade. The Land Family of Canyon, Tex., will provide the special music.

Dispatch Editorials

On starting 20th year

With this June issue we begin our 20th year operating The Post Dispatch. And we start a new year of local newspapering with the same enthusiasm, the same feeling of challenge, and the same determination to make a community contribution as we have the 19 which have gone before it.

We know there will never be the time, or the money, to do everything we would like to do to make the Dispatch more readable, more newsy, and a better contributor to the quality of life in Post and Garza County.

But we have tried — and we will keep right on trying.

Our goals haven't changed much over the years.

We want to make The Dispatch "the best country weekly anywhere." We want to fill it with lively news and we want to maintain an editorial page which continues to positively strive for better things for this community and area.

We want to give the reader the opportunity to speak his or her mind. We believe in taking stands on controversial issues but giving both sides a chance to have their say.

We do not believe in unfairly abusing folks with the printed word. When we reject either free comment or paid advertising it is simply because we judge it unfair.

In the recent primary we were accused of being "the mouthpiece of the establishment" by one candidate because we rejected his political advertisement. Over the past 19 years we have been accused of a lot of things by a lot of people, but that is just part of the newspaper business. We were even boycotted once by some local merchants for accepting Lubbock advertising. All this points up one fact about The Dispatch which we like. The folks who get mad at us from time to time consider The Dispatch "their newspaper". We like that.

The Dispatch is seldom, if ever, totally free of errors, try as hard as a fine staff does to make it error free. There are some errors made in judgment too — try as we do to come up with all the right answers.

Our readers and advertisers wouldn't notice, or have the opportunity to compare, but The Dispatch is always among the lowest of newspapers its own size in its advertising and subscription rates. Like everybody else we have an economic need to make a reasonable profit, but this newspaper is not operated by the "cash register" method.

The Dispatch appreciates its loyal readers and advertisers — and all those who call or bring us news items. We are blessed with an excellent staff of truly dedicated local newspaper people.

Each week is an exciting new adventure in this business and when one loses his enthusiasm for the next issue he should get into some other line of work.

We are happy to say that year No. 20 finds us eager to get started on this issue and this year. We see a great future for Post and its people.

Oh yes, one other thing we'll promise you. We are going to try this year to put out a better Post Dispatch. We have said that every year — and every year we mean it. As we look back over our bound files, we are happy to say we think we have fulfilled that promise in some other years. We hope we can in this one.

Voting time again

Garza Democrats will go back to the polls Saturday for the runoff primary to select two county commissioner candidates in precincts 1 and 3 and to help make a determination on state candidates for railroad commissioner and judge for state court of criminal appeals.

Probably not nearly the number of voters who turned out in May will go back again Saturday, especially in the voting precincts without a county race to whet interest.

In county commissioner precincts 1 and 3, the contesting candidates can't win with the help of supporters who stay home Saturday.

And that's what makes the outcome Saturday problematical.

With only a four-contest ballot in these two districts, a two-contest ballot elsewhere in the county, and a light vote, the results should be in early.

The Dispatch urges Democrats to vote Saturday in the interests of good government at both county and state level. Back your candidates at the ballot box, the only place where your support actually counts in the results.

Two artists have exhibit

SNYDER — Paintings by Pat Garren of Athlene and sculpture by T. S. Gilbreth of Clyde will be featured in a special exhibit in the Scurry County Museum from June 6-27. A reception honoring the artists is planned from 1-5 p. m. on June 6 in the museum and the public is invited to attend. The museum is located on the campus of Western Texas College.

Mrs. Garren attended Texas Christian University and taught in Midland and San Antonio before moving to a ranch near Van Horn where she lived for 10 years. She began painting in 1972 when she studied with artist James Hall while spending the summer in Ruidoso, N. M., and has been a full-time artist since 1974.

Gilbreth was graduated from McMurry College and taught at Permian High School and Odessa College before deciding to work full-time in his studio. He does all his own casting, and visitors are always welcome at his foundry and studio.

JON NEWTON
Texas Railroad Commission

The Railroad Commission is one of the most powerful regulatory and conservation agencies in America. Two candidates are in the June 5th Democratic runoff election:

JERRY SADLER, 68, who entered politics in the 1930's, was defeated as Land Commissioner in 1970 after an official reprimand from the Texas House for refusal to cooperate in an investigation... bad absentee record in public office... investigated by a grand jury for using a state employee to run his private motel... sued for civil tax fraud by the IRS... in 1969 the Dallas Times Herald declared "Sadler has made Texas government a universal target of ridicule and derision," and in 1976 the San Angelo Standard echoed, "Under Sadler, the Railroad Commission just might become the laughing stock he once made of the General Land Office."

JON NEWTON, 34, three-term House member with solid record of public service... authored the law regulating strip mining... fought for a Public Utility Commission... serves on Interstate Oil-Compact Commission, Mining Council of Texas, Governor's Energy Advisory Council, House Energy Resources Committee (vice chairman)... endorsed by major newspapers throughout Texas... described by the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal as "the resident expert on energy matters in the State Legislature"... in the first Democratic primary his Bee County neighbors gave him an 85% majority over his seven opponents.

Texas' energy and utility rate problems can be solved only by vigorous, responsible leadership and fresh approaches.

HOW QUALIFICATIONS OF SAM ELLIS MATCH DUTIES OF COUNTY COMMISSIONER

KEY DUTIES OF A MEMBER OF A COMMISSIONERS COURT

—Able to perform in cooperation with the other members of the Court, presenting his and his precinct's own ideas while faithfully considering the ideas of others. A team member with individual integrity.

—Properly managing every dollar of the County's funds.

—Maintain the best possible roads while staying within the budget.

—Staying informed, knowledgeable, and in touch with and available to all citizens.

MY QUALIFICATIONS

—35 years of public service. 23 years as a member of the Garza County School Board. 12 years as a member of Garza Soil and Water Conservation Board. 4 years as its Chairman. In these capacities, have worked with widely diverse people from all over the County and State in such a way that the Public Interest and Mission was always served.

—35 years of public service is very important here. Privately, have managed a small ranch, a small dryland farm, and have been in business in one place since 1942 either as an employee, manager, or for the past several years, owner-manager. Good, simple, honest management and loyal customers have kept the business open during the last few years of inflation when many such small businesses have been forced to close their doors. The same good, simple, honest management principles can help in the very important business, money management end of a commissioner's job.

—Live 5 miles from the nearest paved road. Have lived on unpaved roads all my life and plan to so live the remainder of my days. Understand that road conditions can be crucial to harvest, home, health and even life itself. Pledge to continue the excellent maintenance practices of the incumbent Commissioner of Precinct 1.

—Have always tried to be constantly learning and staying in touch with what was going on in the world and my community. Pledge to put in the necessary hours of study and preparation. Will be available to citizens when needed and will visit each community in the precinct at least once quarterly.

Seeking Forgiveness

THOUGHT FOR THIS MONTH: First be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift. Matt 5:24

In Majorie Rawling's Book, "The Yearling" Jody's father made him kill his yearling tawn because the pet was doing too much damage on the farm. Jody told his father that he hated him. Then thinking no one would want him after that, Jody ran away from home. Some days later he came creeping back, tired and heartsick. He found that his disappearance caused utter desolation in the home. "It was unbelievable," said Jody, that he was so loved and wanted, and because of that he could forgive and be forgiven. So if I am loved in spite of my wrongdoing, I can feel secure in that another's forgiveness is sincere. I want to be forgiven by others.

Also, I seek to forgive others. This must be the right kind of forgiveness. It must be healing and uplifting. And I must learn to forgive myself. Many people hold too much against themselves. This can be as harmful as feeling that one is right all the time. We must not torture ourselves with remorse.

Divine forgiveness must be sought also. God does not grant forgiveness as an easy favor. He asks us to receive it by praying for it. When one reaches a state of complete humility and genuine repentance God will lift him up and forgive him completely.

PRAYER: O gracious Father, I join with others in seeking to forgive and to be forgiven, and to receive divine forgiveness through the Christ who forgave even his enemies on the cross. Amen.

Swine don't spread swine flu to humans

COLLEGE STATION — Swine suffer from influenza each fall and winter just as humans do. But the virus that causes influenza in each is not the same, so swine should not be labeled the villains in the current concern over a flu epidemic this fall.

The current influenza danger is a human-to-human problem and does not really involve hogs or pork," emphasized Dr. James Armstrong, a veterinarian for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Since pigs or pork are not the cause of human influenza, they should not be associated with potential flu outbreaks."

Armstrong lists a few facts about human medicine and veterinary science authorities have agreed upon:

- Medical concerns center on human-to-human airborne transmission of the disease, not swine to human.
- There is no known probability of contracting the disease from eating pork.
- Transmission of influenza from swine to humans is regarded as a rarity to the point of being a medical phenomenon.
- There is no scientific certainty that the current so-called swine influenza in humans is the same virus found in swine.

Influenza was first diagnosed in swine in 1918 and took a heavy toll. However, it has recurred each year since then, with losses generally low — ranging from one to three per cent. Armstrong points out that the disease spreads rapidly in swine herds but most animals recover in 3 to 10 days. Stunting and reduced gains are the most important economical factors.

Communities along the eastern edge of the Caprock of the Texas South Plains face possible loss of participation in the joint producer-USDA funded Diapause Boll Weevil Control Program if holdouts in their area continue to thwart efforts to stop the weevil's migration onto the Plains.

In a strongly worded statement released recently in Lubbock by the steering committee of the boll weevil control program, steps were mapped out which would lead to the exclusion of communities where producers having significant amounts and locations of acreages refuse to participate.

Such action could possibly affect several area counties where pockets of holdouts exist.

The statement was compiled by the Technical Advisory Committee of the control program and adopted by the steering committee. The advisory group is made up of representatives of Plains Cotton Growers, based in Lubbock, Plant Protection and Quarantine Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Texas A&M University, Texas Tech University, and several representatives of the cotton and allied communities.

The steering committee is composed of 10 persons from the South Plains area.

The Diapause Boll Weevil Control Program was begun in 1964 along a 15-county area stretching from the upper South Plains southward and southwestward to the New Mexico line, along the Caprock. Its purpose is to use pest management concepts, including spraying and field scouting, to prevent the boll weevil from migrating westward from its overwintering areas along the Caprock.

Officials believe they have successfully prevented the establishment of overwintering infestations above the Caprock on the Texas High Plains and eastern New Mexico by treating infested fields along the Caprock. Cotton producers in this area voluntarily participate in the program which is administered by producers through Plains Cotton Growers and the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Plant Protection and Quarantine.

Producers refusing to participate give a number of reasons for holding out, the statement said. Many of them say they are fearful that treatments may open the door to bollworm infestations.

To overcome the threat of a bollworm problem, officials have adopted recommendations of the advisory committee that treatments for boll weevil control be delayed from Aug. 25 to Sept. 6. This has the effect of delaying the disruption of beneficial insect activity which keeps the bollworm in check.

A second step to counter the objection would be to continue the practice of providing for bollworm counts in the field along with weevil counts. During the fall, field scouts are customarily sent out to survey weevil infestations. This second measure includes survey of bollworm activity as well.

According to the statement, the steering committee aims to "make the best use of public and private funds which have been made available in good faith." The way to do this, the report concludes, is for treatment activities to be restricted to those areas in which there is "a reasonable chance that effectiveness can be maintained."

To accomplish this, the committee outlined in the statement the following procedures for dealing with the holdout problem:

Contact will be made with present holdouts in efforts to persuade them to participate on a continuing basis. If this fails, an appropriate committee will consider and evaluate their cotton acreage and its location within the community. Should this acreage and location render impractical and ineffective the spraying of other cotton in that community, that community will be dropped from the program.

If the community should be dropped, financial and agricultural leaders as well as news media in the area will be notified of this action.

The community (a defined geographical area to be determined by the review committee) will be excluded for the remainder of the season or until such time that the appropriate committee may review a petition from the uncooperative growers requesting readmittance.

Provisions also were outlined in the statement for dealing with potential holdouts. When USDA and PCG personnel are notified by growers that they do not want their fields to be sprayed, efforts will be made to "persuade them to stay in the program. If this fails, the growers will be told that their request will be honored, but that their names can not be held confidential when there are inquiries about holdouts."

USDA and PCG officials say the steering committee adopted the statement with no ill feelings or harassment intended, but simply to make the best use of tax money and private funds which have been made available to the Diapause Boll Weevil Control Program for its specific goals.

The recommendations of the statement take effect with the 1976 treatment program which already is being mapped out.

Officials said information about the statement can be obtained by calling or writing Plains Cotton Growers or USDA-Plant Protection and Quarantine in Lubbock.

The Veterans Administration's National Cemetery System consists of 4,136 acres of cemetery land.

This to be good year for wool
 COLLEGE STATION - It looks like a good year for wool and mohair producers.
 Dr. Ernest Davis, a livestock marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, says wool prices have gone up sharply recently and mohair is as good as gold.
 He attributes these strong market conditions to a decrease in sheep numbers, an increase in mill use of raw wool, and increased buying of wool products by consumers.
 Although wool prices have gone up sharply in recent weeks and are likely to stay above last year's levels, whether or not they do will depend largely on Australia, says the Texas A&M University System specialist.
 "Australia has a vast wool stockpile totaling about 395 million pounds on a clean basis," Davis says. "Whether or not domestic fine wool prices hold their strength will depend on how Australia markets it wool. Should all the Australian wool be dumped on the market at once, U. S. Prices will suffer."
 Davis points out that U. S. shorn wool production was down 10 percent in 1975 from 1974 levels and that this year's production is expected to be down almost 9 percent, all due to declining sheep numbers.
SURGERY PATIENT Thelma Clark, former resident of Post, underwent surgery in Lubbock's Methodist Hospital Tuesday morning. She is Room 686 East.

Bicentennial Schedule of Events

This is the first of a series of schedule of events for Saturday July 3 in City-County Park to appear in The Dispatch from now through July 1.
 Other clubs, organizations, churches and groups are urged to schedule their activities in this space as plans are finalized for them. Use today's listing as your guide in planning, timing and scheduling your sponsorship of additional events. This way we hope that conflicts may be avoided, and we urge you to make definite plans for many more entries into the schedule of events.
 The more the better as we celebrate together America's 200th birthday. Today's list is composed of those groups and activities that have reported to the Chamber of Commerce office.
 Do report what your group wants to do to Joy Greer at the Chamber office.
 The Catholic Women: Bingo games all day.
 Catholic Youth Organization: A balloon throwing contest.
 Women's Club of the Holy Cross Catholic Church: Food booth.
 Gamma Mu: Food booth.
 Amity Study Club: Ice cream booth.
 El Tejas Club: Contest to name Mrs. Bicentennial (entrants over 50 years of age).
 Women's Division, Chamber of Commerce: A dime pitching booth, commorative coins and plates on sale at this booth also.
 Garza Historical Survey Committee: Skits on the History of Garza County, presented by pioneers of our area.
 Weldon Reed's Band Playing Country-Western during the afternoon hours.
 Barbecue starts at 5:30, under direction of Lewis Holly, $1.50 a plate.
 "I Love America", a musical pageant by John Peterson, with the Community Chorus and Post Music Club, about 7 p. m., directed by Dan Ziegler.
 Fireworks Display: About 9 p. m. sponsored by Chamber of Commerce and Garza Historical Survey Committee, directed by Don Pennell.
 Let's fill up the empty time slots and keep things moving from early till late at the park on July 3rd! Make your plans now to attend and be involved.

NEW HOUSE DAMAGED
 The sheriff's office reports vandals did approximately $300 damage to a new home being constructed at 15th street and Avenue O sometime Tuesday night. Copper tubing lines were torn up and siding materials kicked out.

Right Around Home

BIG BEND - IT'S NOT YOUR AVERAGE NATIONAL PARK
 Big Bend is not the kind of park where you wheel into the visitor center, quick step to the restroom, buy a bottle of pop, watch a slide show and head back to the freeway.
 Nor is it a place you casually pass through on the way to somewhere else. It's a destination. And you can't get a good look at it in an hour, or a day. Maybe not even in a week.
 Big Bend National Park is bigger than a lot of countries. In fact, you could set Liechtenstein and Malta and Monaco and Singapore inside the park and still have room for half of Luxembourg.
 Put another way, it's only slightly smaller than the combined size of the 32 other areas in the National Park Service's Southwest Region. And the region includes such behemoths as Carlsbad Caverns, Padre Island, White Sands, Amistad, Lake Meredith, Guadalupe Mountains, and the Buffalo National River.
 More than 1,100 square miles of the Chihuahuan Desert is preserved within the great curve of the Rio Grande. And this stark, rugged, eerie and strangely beautiful land of tarantulas and rattlesnakes and javelinas and deep canyons containing very little water might be slightly forbidding to the visitor from the east.
 But for those of us comfortable with the open space and big sky of the Southwest as the result of having lived here, Big Bend is an ideal place to go for a few days of relaxation - hiking, horsebacking, camping, communing with nature.
 If Big Bend is one of those right around home places that you've been intending to see for years, the Bicentennial year might be a good time to go. Before you do, let me tell you a little about the heart of the big park - Panther Junction and Chisos Basin. (We'll pick up some other parts of Big Bend in a later article - it's simply too big for one story.)
 Panther Junction is park headquarters, an orientation center where you can get information about such things as road conditions and special programs and pick up special use permits.
 Ten miles from headquarters is the Basin - a bowl-shaped depression in the heart of the Chisos Mountains. As you drive into the mountains the shrubby desert plants give way to shady juniper, oak and pine trees. At 5,400 feet elevation, the Basin offers a lofty woodland retreat, much cooler than the surround-

By MAXINE MARKS
 Cattle brands are the trademark for the range land, and ranchmen bestow the same pride of ownership that our modern day manufacturers bestow upon their trade mark.
 Many men became wealthy through the legitimate use of their branding irons, while others have paid with their lives because of their improper use. In the southwest, cattle, horses, sheep, goats and hogs have all been branded by the owners. Pioneer ranchers often branded horses to correct with the year of their birth which was called year branding.
 When the rancher decides upon his brand, the legal procedure was to go to the county clerk in the county where he ranched and register that brand. A man could claim one brand or as many as he could pay to have registered. Since the brands established ownership, the ranchers tried to use one that would be difficult to change. Unbranded animals were called mavericks. One of the most interesting parts of ranch work is to watch a well organized branding crew at work. However, the burning method has been criticized for its "brutality," and more modern methods are used in Garza County today.
 There are several attractive brands that are typical of pioneer days in our county. Among them are the Running and Straight X used by Al Bird the OS used by W. E. Combs the UU of the Double U, Mr. W. Post Estate; the N Drag used by Morris Neff, and the Curry Comb used by W. W. (Cap) Roy in the Justice area, and the U Lazy S of the B. Slaughter Estate; and finally the 76 used by Bryan Williams. There are other well known brands in our county that many proud and happy men cherish.

'SHEER BEAUTY' MAKES FASHION NEWS
Feminine, lightweight, fragile — all describe one of the major fashion moods for spring and summer '76.

Sheer fabrics, from coiles and crinkly gauzes to chiffons, are an important trend-setting look for designer, ready-to-wear and home sewn fashions.

For added versatility, sheers are often combined with a companion fabric in the same or contrasting color and pattern.

Light-to-medium-light wovens, knits or quilted fabrics are ideal for pants, tailored skirts or detail areas, while the companion sheer highlights blouses, jackets, scarves, shawls or full skirts.

Popular sheer designs often also feature smocking for yokes, cuffs or waistline.

Delicate florals, stripes and solids are sheer fabric fashion leaders, especially when colored as neutrals or pastels.

Many sheer fabrics are comfortable, easy-care cottons and cotton blends. Silk and silk-like sheers have returned strongly for evening and dressier looks.

Sewing with this season's stylish sheer fabrics is fun and challenging.

The see-through characteristic of sheers is suitable for numerous creative possibilities. For design interest, practicality or comfort, various parts of a sheer garment can be lined, underlined or constructed of an opaque companion fabric.

Sheers lend themselves especially well to designs with fullness. Any design is softened and airily lightened when made in a sheer fabric. If in doubt about whether or not a design is suitable for a sheer, check the "recommended fabrics" section on the back of the pattern envelope.

When choosing construction techniques to be used, the most important point to remember is that the sheerness of the fabric lets the inside of the garment show through. Neat, narrow seams approximately one-fourth inch wide are ideal, she said.

Other specialized sewing tips for sheer fabrics include:

Use a fine new needle size 9 or 11. Dull or burred needles will snag or ruin the fabric.

To prevent the fabric from being drawn into the bobbin area, place the needle in the far left or right hand position, lower the needle into the fabric and hold both top and bottom threads before beginning to sew.

Sandwiching delicate sheers between strip of tissue paper helps fabric feed smoothly without marring, slipping or jamming.

Select lightweight closures. Synthetic coil zippers with knitted tapes are especially compatible.

Senior honored at banana split party

A "Do It Yourself Banana Split" party honored Miss Jennifer Miller, recent graduate, in the home of Mrs. Nancy Macy recently. Assisting with hostess duties was Zoe Kirkpatrick.

Special guests were Mrs. Mary Miller and Kent Kirkpatrick.

Ten members of her graduating class were present. Hostess gift to Jenny was a Bible.

MRS. JACK B. DUNN (Emily Matthews)

Matthews-Dunn vows are read in Austin

Miss Emily Cochrane Matthews became the bride of Jack Bruce Dunn Saturday, May 15, at 4 p. m. in the Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd in Austin, Tex.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Canon Samuel N. Baxter Jr., rector of the church and the Rev. Carroll McPherson, assistant rector. Mixed spring flowers decorated the altars of the church.

Parents of the bride are Gen. and Mrs. Jay A. Matthews of Austin, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Dunn of Southland.

The bride wore a family wedding gown of candlelight peau de soir and lace and a veil of French illusion. Her bouquet was of white roses, orchids and stephanotis and she carried a small white prayer book handed down by her great-grandmother and carried by many brides in her family.

Attending her sister as maid of honor was Miss Sally McLemore Matthews. Her dress was of deep azalea pink.

Flower girls were Kristi and Sheila Haire, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Haire of Post and Mrs. R. T. Maddux, Bellaire, Tex. They wore long flowered organdy dresses with deep azalea pink sashes and carried white wicker baskets filled with mixed spring flowers.

E. L. Dunn of Dallas attended his brother as best man.

Two graduates are honored

A Saturday morning brunch, May 29, honored Patricia Bilberry and Kim Mitchell in the home of Mrs. Marshall Tipton at 9:30 a. m.

Guests were registered by Jodine Tipton and Karen Williams in address books which were presented to the honorees.

Special guests for the occasion were Mrs. Mike Mitchell, and Mrs. Gene Stevens, mother and grandmother of Kim, and Mrs. Sharyn Birchfield, sister of Patricia, of Farwell.

The Hard Luck Trophy which was awarded to the 440 relay team in San Angelo earlier in the year was a surprise gift to Patricia and Kim was presented with a cookbook.

The 17 guests attending were served from a table carrying out the graduation theme.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick new head of Culture Club

Mrs. Harold Green of Tahoka was special guest and installing officer for the Woman's Culture Club when they held a luncheon in the home of Mrs. Willard Kirkpatrick for their last meeting of the year.

Mrs. D. C. Williams called the meeting to order and introduced Mrs. Green and told of her many accomplishments as district president.

Mrs. Green called the names of the new officers, Mrs. Willard Kirkpatrick, president; Mrs. Tom Bouchier, vice president; Mrs. E. F. Cline-Smith, second vice president; Mrs. Bob Dickson, recording secretary; Mrs. I. L. Duckworth, corresponding secretary and treasurer; Mrs. C. R. Thaxton, literary chairman; and Mrs. M. J. Malouf press reporter.

Mrs. Green informed each officer of their duty and presented them with a bicentennial pin "The Spirit of '76". Mrs. Williams presented the gavel to the new president to conclude the installation.

Mrs. Green reported on the accomplishments at Girls Town during her two years and expressed her thanks and appreciation to the retiring officers for their cooperation during her term of office. She also reminded the members of their invitation to a tea in Tahoka, June 13. Mrs. Kirkpatrick gave a brief acceptance speech of her plans and dreams for the club for the next two years and named her committees.

Those attending the installation were Mrs. Williams, Kirkpatrick, Bouchier, Cline-Smith, Duckworth, Malouf, Dickson, C. R. Thaxton, D. D. Pennell, Ralph Welch, Lee Davis Sr., Jack Burress, J. H. Haire, J. F. Storie and Mrs. Green and Mrs. Channa guests.

Nona Lusk is THDA chairman

Mrs. Elmo Bush was hostess for the Graham Home Demonstration club when it met May 21. Roll call was answered with "An Account of a Recent Happy Event."

Nominees were elected for the state meeting in September, with Loucille Morris and Viva Davis being elected as delegates, and they will be voted on at the next meeting.

Nona Lusk was elected THDA chairman.

Mrs. Walter Boren gave the program on the museum and told of some of the plans for the museum.

Mrs. Jana McCallister was welcomed into the club and two visitors were present, Mrs. Boren and Mrs. L. E. Rylant of Cleburn.

The hostess served refreshments to the guests and nine members.

The next meeting will be held in the center June 4.

Honeydew melons will be more plentiful

COLLEGE STATION — Texas grown honeydew melons reflect increasing supplies and lower prices in grocery stores across the state — along with cantaloupe and watermelons.

A 50 percent supply increase is predicted for the Texas honeydew melon crop this year — with prices on the Texas melons more attractive than on those from the West Coast, Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt reports.

"Consumers can recognize a mature, ripe honeydew by its creamy-white appearance and its pronounced honeydew aroma," she said.

Mrs. Clyatt is a consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Other economical fruit choices include strawberries, bananas, oranges and pineapples, while "first-of-the-season" peaches are on the market with relatively high prices, the specialist added.

Vegetable supplies also show signs of increase as gardens and crops from local truck farms come into production, and if this trend follows the usual, prices will decrease as supplies increase, Mrs. Clyatt explained.

"Vegetables to consider are snap beans, carrots, cabbage and corn — along with cucumbers, yellow squash, dry yellow onions, radishes and green onions."

On the dairy scene, milk production is near its seasonal 'peak', so consumer dollars used for milk and dairy products are "well spent," the specialist said.

"At beef counters, supplies continue 'large', so it's a good time to buy extra family favorite cuts and freeze them for later."

Merrymakers meet with Pearl Crisp

The Merrymakers club met Tuesday, May 25 in the home of Pearl Crisp. The afternoon was spent visiting.

LETTERS To the Editor

Dear Editor:
A great big Thank You to The Dispatch for the fine publicity you gave us for the Clean Up Drive in May. A sparkling clean city wouldn't be possible without your splendid cooperation. Thanks also to Gwen Boren for her idea of having block parties and sharing a noon meal to make the work a fun time too. Mr. Giddens and his "ecology drive" at the school certainly helped in the area around the school campus. The scouts, from young to senior level, assisted in a big way, as did their men and women sponsors. The Green Thumb Crew were invaluable; the downtown alleys certainly look better, thanks to them. The City of Post employees turned in 100 percent effort, and we thank them for giving us a

Saturday of fruitful efforts. The county also furnished extra hands through Sheriff Gandy's office that really paid off in work accomplished. The Great Plains Beer Distributors furnished their wagon for aluminum cans to be collected and sold, and we are indebted to them for that fine service. Much work remains to be done to make the designated highway of the Great Plains Trail look as attractive as it should, but that will take time to develop. The cemetery is very neat and well manicured at present, and we thank those caretakers for their all out efforts in that area. We have much to be proud of and we're thankful to each and every citizen who worked diligently to make Post just a little better. Let's not get lazy during the summer and slack off in our efforts to have travelers remark as they did in the early days, that Post is the cleanest little city they ever saw! Let's move now into the area of beautification of our area. Perhaps plant pecan trees, the Texas State Tree and red, white and blue flowers along the Plains Trail and our highways, and at the triangles where the highways have left an oddly shaped piece of land that collects cans and weeds. These places can be made beautiful with a bit of care, and travelers will welcome the change in scenery! We have big ideas for painting the fire plugs along our highways through the townsite in Bicentennial dress, provided the City and Volunteer Fire Dept. will agree. Let's keep movin' on everybody! Thanks for your cooperation. Maxine Marks Beautification Chairman Women's Division Chamber of Commerce

Sue Cowdrey on honor roll

LUBBOCK — Sue Cowdrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Cowdrey of Post, was one of the 112 students at Lubbock Christian College who have been named to the Dean's Honor Roll for the spring semester which ended May 6.

To receive the honor, students must have a minimum 3.5 average on a 4.0 scale. Miss Cowdrey had a 3.57 average.

She is a member of the Lambda Omega Alpha social club and the Meistersingers chorus and has completed her sophomore year.

LOUISIANA GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Haire of Earth, La., visited in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Hub Haire, Mrs. Winnie Tuffing and Mrs. Jack Burress this past week.

PRESENTED CERTIFICATE — Sheriff Gene Gandy, left, is shown being presented certificate for his recent participation in the fifth Texas Conference on Jail Administration, sponsored by Sam Houston State University in Huntsville. Dr. George G. Killinger, director of the university's Institute of Contemporary Corrections, made the presentation.

Rites held for Mrs. Lowry

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 4 p. m. at Hallard Funeral Home, Roswell, N. M., for Mrs. Lowry, 74. Mrs. Lowry was the sister of Jess Hendrix. Mrs. Lowry was the Ouida Hendrix of South Lubbock. She and her husband had lived in Williamsburg, Mo., for approximately ten years before moving to Roswell. Mrs. Lowry died in Lubbock, Texas, on Saturday, May 30. Survivors include her husband; four brothers, Ajo, Ari, Sam and Travis of Slaton and Post; seven sisters, Hendrix of Lubbock, Havins and Lois Thomas Roswell, Drexel McMeekin Hahnville, Louisiana, Baum of Phoenix, Ariz., Bruster of Carlsbad and mayne DeAngelo of White NY.

Illegal trotlines are confiscated by wardens

LUBBOCK — Dragging operations for illegal fish traps, nets and trotlines in Panhandle and South Plains reservoirs by Texas Parks and Wildlife Department game wardens is dirty work and over 600 devices were checked in recent investigations.

Some lakes are cleared of illegal devices each year but a few lakes had not been checked and illegal trotlines covered with vegetation and containing rusty hooks were found by the dozens.

"Most of the trotlines checked by the P&WD wardens were found to be illegal with no name, address, or date attached," said Ted Wheelis, Lubbock regional director of law enforcement.

All of the confiscated devices were cataloged and destroyed unless the evidence could be used in court for prosecution at a later date.

Complaints from anglers, boaters, skiers and lake personnel have been received periodically by the local P&WD offices as the number of illegal fishing devices increased. Many boating hazards are compounded by a drop in the lake's water level and the exposure of old trotlines and rusty hooks become visible. Many trotlines are set in areas where rod-and-reel fishermen cast their lures or bait and if left unattended, many of the trotlines are cut by the irate anglers.

The nylon lines used by most trotlines will not rot or deteriorate and these lines have been found still intact several years later. A few of the lines have been checked with the remains of large fish still attached.

Fishing by trotlines is very popular in Texas and legal methods are listed in the current Texas hunting and fishing guide for each county.

Trotlines are asked to comply with the state and local regulations concerning this type of fishing. If the trotline is found to be illegal, the game warden will remove it from the lake and possibly issue a citation for a court appearance.

Ambulance service told

Wyvonne Kennedy and Sheriff Gene Gandy told Post Rotarians all about the relatively new city-county ambulance service at the civic club's weekly luncheon Tuesday in the city hall auditorium.

When the program was over, Mayor Giles McCrary arose to say the ambulance service here is recognized as one of the most efficient in this West Texas area.

Mrs. Kennedy, who handles the billing and Medicare processing in the city office, explained that an ambulance call within the city costs $20, within the county but outside the city $30, and within a 50-mile radius (usually a trip to a Lubbock hospital) $50.

She termed Medicare "really a headache" and said the federal agency pays only $20 regardless of where the ambulance goes.

Two new producers for Continental

Continental Oil Co., has two new Garza producers in the East Huntley field, six miles northwest of Post.

They are the No. 44 and No. 45 Huntley East San Andres unit. The No. 44 well produced 48 barrels of oil daily on test along with 144 barrels of water, while No. 45 tested out as a 74-barrel daily producer with 138 barrels of water.

ATTENDS GRADUATION

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Custer attended the graduation ceremonies of their grandson, Kelly Van Norman of San Angelo Central High School last Friday. He was one of 669 graduates, and finished in the top 20 percent of his class. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Noel Don Norman and will continue his studies at San Angelo State.

Gandy stressed the operational side of the service.

Tigers take Little League lead with three triumphs

Tannehill gets season's first shutout for Cards

Manager Junior Foster's Storie Gin Tigers vaulted to the top of the Post Little League standings during the past seven nights with three straight wins. The best of the string came Tuesday night when they scored the winning run with two out in the bottom of the final inning to defeat the George R. Brown Red Sox, 4 to 3.

Rightfielder Billy Martinez led off the final frame with a single and moved around and scored with two down on a grounder by Catcher Kirt Robison. David Foster went the route for the Tiger win, allowing six hits. He also got two singles in three at bats.

Mike Odum and Tim Tannehill combined to pitch the Cardinals to a 4 to 1 win over the winless Postex Yankees in the first game Tuesday night, giving up only two hits and walking one in one of the best game length pitching efforts of the young season.

The First National Bank Dodgers and the Fire Department Cardinals are running second and third behind the Tigers with 2-1 and 3-2 marks respectively.

Shortstop Ronnie Price turned in the best hitting performance of the season to date when he collected five hits in five trips to the plate in an 18 to 10 Taylor Tractor Deere victory over the Dodgers.

Funds sought for Spur star

SPUR — The Spur Track Club is sponsoring a benefit gospel concert at 7 p. m. June 4 in the Spur Primary School auditorium to benefit Olympic track hopeful, Easie Kelly. Proceeds from the program will be used to defray expenses to send Miss Kelly to the AAU track trails in Los Angeles and on to the Olympic trails in Eugene, Ore.

The Spur High School girls star presently holds the state and national high school records in the 440 yard dash with a 55.0.

Johnny Ray Watson of Amherst will be the featured singer at the concert. He plans to make a career of evangelistic singing.

MAGNETIC SIGNS

The hits included a homerun, three doubles and a single. He scored four times and drove in another handful.

The Tigers started their string last Thursday night with a 13 to 4 win over the Cardinals as they scored 11 runs in the second inning, getting eight hits and several walks in the big rally.

Foster also got that win going the route with a six-hitter. Six of the Tiger starters in that one got two hits apiece.

Tim Tannehill of the Cardinals pitched the only shutout of the young season, Friday night when he blanked the Deeres, 15 to 0, on one hit for five innings, the game shortened by the 15-run rule. Larry Jackson singled in the first for the Deeres only hit.

Meanwhile the Cards got five runs in the first and seven more in the third to notch the victory.

The Dodgers edged the Cardinals 5 to 4 Saturday night when the Dodgers pushed across the winning run in the bottom of the sixth to break a 4-4 tie on an error and pair of walks. The Dodgers divided the pitching chores among Dana Scott, Mario Luna and Gilbert Perez in this one.

The Yankees contributed seven infield errors to their 16 to 5 loss to the Tigers Saturday night as the league leaders poured eight runs home in the second to put the game out of reach.

Kevin Craig allowed only five scattered hits and breezed to a 16 to 1 victory as the Cardinals had an easy time of it with the Red Sox Monday night. The winners clubbed out 13 hits with Craig and Tannehill each getting three.

250 officers see shootout

CLAIREMONT — The Caprock Peace Officers held their annual meeting recently in old Clairemont, headquarters for the association. Peace officers from all branches of law enforcement were on hand to witness the shootoff of the top marksmen in each group. When the smoke had cleared, over 100 rattlesnakes had bitten the dust, as some of the best scores were registered since the meet first started.

Bobby Goff, a game warden from Lubbock, was overall winner and won a pair of Justin boots and Allen Ingley from Lubbock won the rattlesnake belt for the visitors.

Near record attendance of approximately 250 members were on hand to witness the bicentennial program and enjoy a barbecue lunch.

Winners in the different groups were as follows: Gerald Saffel, deputy sheriff of Aspermont, Bobby Goff, game warden of Lubbock; Jerry Griffin, highway patrolman of Tahoka, Steve Holmes, city patrolman of Plainview, George Frazier, Texas Ranger of Big Spring, John Mason, DPS of Lubbock.

White Sox whipped, but only one time

It's an old baseball axiom that no team can win them all, and the White Sox found out about that last Thursday night.

The Indians, scoring in every inning but the first, walloped the league leaders, 15 to 8, handing them their first loss of the campaign.

That defeat didn't exactly change the league picture though.

The White Sox bounced back to score 47 runs in their next two starts to win 29 to 1 and 18 to 14 and become the only team over the 500 mark in league play. And they were well over the break even point with six wins in seven starts for an .857 percentage.

The Braves and Indians are tied at three wins and four losses each and the Cu's have two wins and five defeats.

Shortstop Bryan Compton was a big contributor to the Indians win over the White Sox as he hammered out a homerun and two singles in four trips, scored three times himself and drove home about four more.

Leslie Looney got the victory for the Indians, going the route and striking out 13 while giving up 11 hits. The Sox got three-run clusters in the third and seventh but couldn't get much going in the other frames.

Five White Sox errors contributed to the league leaders' downfall as David Hawkins and Mark Holly permitted only five hits. Scott Walker got a homerun and a double in three official trips in the Braves 12 to 6 win over the Indians the same night as well as going the route on the mound for the victory.

In the White Sox 29-run splurge against the Cubs Saturday night they got seven on three hits in the third, seven more on only two hits in fourth, and 14 more in the only six more. That total 28 runs right there on 11 hits.

Kelly Baumann went route for the Sox in that giving up but two hits in five innings played with the scoring as a result of an error in the first.

Baumann came back to relieve Mike Hall in the inning Tuesday night in midst of a five-run Cub rally and went the rest of the way. The White Sox 18 to 14 win over the Cubs. He gave up only hits but his own walks errors by his mates kept him medium trouble throughout game.

Raymie Holly got two trips a double and a single in trips, scored five times, drove in a flock of runs to the winning Sox attack.

Leslie Looney, the Indians top hurler, struck out 13 bats Tuesday night as the Indians breezed to a 10 to 3 win over the Indians. He struck out the in four of the seven innings permitted but three hits — the losers getting single runs in the second, fourth and fifth.

Band banquet held May 21

By DONNA JOSEY

The Antelope Band celebrated the end of the 1975-76 school year at the band banquet which was held May 21 in the basement of the Methodist Church.

Band members and guests were served steak, baked potato, salad, beans and cherry cobbler.

Members of the band boosters prepared the meal which was served by the seventh grade girls. Director Scott Houston then recognized the officers and band members who contributed to the growth and development of the band.

Mr. Mike Berry, assistant band director at McMurry College, entertained band members by playing three selections on his coronet. Mr. Berry also served as guest speaker.

The band wishes to thank the band boosters, Mr. Berry, and Scott and Judy Houston for working so hard to make the banquet a success.

Hope Johnson heads council

High school student council elections were held May 27 with Hope Johnson elected president; David Morrow, vice president; and Dale Redman, secretary-treasurer.

Sponsors for the council are Mrs. Carolyn Black, Linda Linn and Marion Wheatly.

Representatives will be selected at the beginning of the new school year with three representatives from the senior and junior classes, two each from the sophomore and freshman classes and one from each school club.

Karen Williams to head FHA

By NANCY GANDY

First vice president, Tracy McAlister; second vice president, Gloria Martinez; third vice president, Kim Lott; fourth vice president, Kelly Mitchell; fifth vice president, Nancy Gandy; secretary-treasurer, Christie Conner; hostess, Darlene Gunn; parliamentarian, Vickie Gannon; sergeant at arms, Butch Booth.

The FHA organization consists of students taking home-making courses and the sponsors are Mrs. Marian Wheatly and Mrs. Carolyn Sawyers.

VISITS PARENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Perkins of Commerce, Tex., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Perkins and Karen recently.

Poor work, completed, is better than brilliant work promised.

How do you find the children who stay at home all day because their parents don't know that free education is guaranteed to every child by our state laws?

You ask every person in Texas to help. Maybe you know a handicapped child who needs help. Maybe you can help.

Make the call that makes the difference.

TO THE VOTERS OF PRECINCT 3

Once again, I have been trying to contact each of you personally before the June 5 run-off election. If I have missed anyone, the fact that I have left my card at your door, while you weren't home, will substantiate the fact that I did try to contact you personally.

If you elect me as your County Commissioner of Precinct 3, I will represent the commissioners court honestly and fairly on all matters coming before the court. I am not obligate to anyone serving on the commissioners court, and my decisions and votes will be according to my own judgment.

With the above statement, I sincerely solicit your vote Saturday, June 5.

Letters to the Editor

BEN SANCHEZ
COMPLIMENTED

Dear Editor:
I have waited almost four weeks for someone to come forward and offer some defense for Ben Sanchez and for the way he has built and maintained the roads in his precinct. Also for the way he has spent the tax money.

I don't have a vote in that precinct but do have some interest, and I do think Ben has done a real good job on both of the above mentioned and that he should be complimented for being broad-minded enough to ask for advice, not from just his court associates, but from all his constituents.

It takes quite a bit more maintenance for the roads out in that area than for those on the Plains, and Ben had had several years experience taking care of those roads before he was elected and if he continues the way he has, he will be rated right up with the best of them. It's not uncommon to see Ben on one of those machines doing what needs to be done, and I believe Mike will do all the things Ben has been doing, including asking for advice from his colleagues, on how to spend your tax money. I believe all the other commissioners do the same. Mike, too, has had several years experience on these same roads.

I have always thought the commissioner's court worked as a unit, not independent of each other. I didn't think the judge had a vote except in case of a tie.

Judge Daily has experience

AUSTIN — A Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals will be elected on Saturday, June 5, in the Second Democratic Primary (runoff) election. This is an important position on the state's highest court for the appeal of criminal matters.

One of the candidates is Judge Carl Daily, 52. He is now serving as Commissioner on that Court. In September, 1971, the five elected Judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals selected Judge Daily to serve with them as Commissioner where for almost five years he has now gained judicial experience doing essentially the same work as he would do in the elected position he now seeks.

Judge Daily, prior to his appointment as a Commissioner, was a prosecutor, a defense attorney, and a teacher of criminal law and procedure in Houston.

Judge Daily asserts that he has the support of all members of the Texas District and County Attorneys Association and support of almost all members of the Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Association. Judge Daily has received from virtually all of the leading newspapers of the state editorial endorsements which point "as did the Dallas Morning News" that he is "easily the better qualified candidate in the race."

SUNDAY VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Adams of Tahoka visited in the home of her parents, Col. and Mrs. D. C. Roberts for a short time Sunday.

Only 4 rural, April crashes

LUBBOCK — The Texas Highway Patrol investigated four accidents on rural highways in Garza County during the month of April 1976, according to Sergeant H. E. Pirtle, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in no persons killed and one person injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first four months of 1976 shows a total of 15 accidents resulting in two persons killed and 13 persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for the 80 counties of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety Region for April shows a total of 510 accidents resulting in 10 persons killed and 318 persons injured as compared to April, 1975, with 425 accidents resulting in 18 persons killed and 251 persons injured. This was 85 more accidents, 8 less killed, and 67 more injured in 1976.

Newton urges voters to compare qualifications

AUSTIN — Rep. Jon Newton of Beeville says the central issue in his Democratic race for the Texas Railroad Commission this Saturday June 5 is which of the two candidates is better qualified to cope with modern energy and transportation problems.

"If the voters compare my public record with the record of Jerry Sadler I have no doubt that I will win Saturday," declared the 34-year-old attorney, who is a member of the Governor's Energy Advisory Council and the Interstate Oil Compact Commission.

Newton and Sadler, 68, emerged as runoff opponents from an eight-candidate field in the first primary. Sadler has been in retirement since his defeat for State Land Commissioner in 1970.

"My public record is one of accessibility to the press, an open door policy for the public, full disclosure of personal financial information, and policies to strengthen confidence in government," Newton said. "My opponent's record is just the opposite. When he was Land Commissioner in the 1960's he pulled down the shades of the General Land Office and excluded the press and the public. He made a mockery of the people's right to know what goes on in government."

Newton pointed out that Sadler's defeat six years ago followed an official reprimand by the House of Representatives for refusing to cooperate in an investigation of his handling of Spanish treasure discovered off the coast.

Newton said the Sadler had the worst absentee record of any state official. "He was drawing a full-time salary, spending a few hours a week on the job, and apparently spending the rest of his time running his private motor hotel in Palestine," Newton added.

"Sadler was missing in action in the 1960's and he will be missing in action in the 1970's if he goes on the Railroad Commission.

"In the words of the San Angelo Standard-Times, 'under Sadler, the Railroad Commission just might become the laughingstock he once made of the General Land Office.'"

Newton has been endorsed by nearly every major daily newspaper in Texas.

"Newspaper after newspaper are pointing out that Railroad Commission is important an agency to be to the tender mercies of Sadler," Newton said.

During his legislative career Newton was a strong advocate of a Public Utility Commission and sponsored the new regulating strip mining.

Borden Celebration---

Conference football champs. Teaff spoke of the spiritualness of humanity, the importance of faith and stressed loyalties.

Some 666 folks sat down together for Sunday dinner and in the afternoon there was plenty of visiting for the old folks and games for the kids.

C. O. (Condle) Carmack of Tahoka won the beautiful Borden County historical quilt, — and if it hadn't been Grant Teaff who drew his name, some might have whistled because it was his daughter, Marilyn McPhail who designed the quilt and did a lot of work on it.

A history book on the county, rushed into printing only last week, was on sale at the very neat and efficient Borden County Museum behind the courthouse.

"We ran out of change and small bills and in shifting money around from place to place we sort of lost count of the gate at some of the events," one Gail resident explained.

Every resident of the town — all 75 of them, men, women and children had a job Saturday. Then there was time on Sunday to enjoy themselves more.

The parade was a stickout in any league. "The 101 Ranch up in Oklahoma never had anything to match this," Tom Bouchier declared with both enthusiasm and emphasis. Tom, though a Post pioneer has Borden County roots.

Two local contributions to the parade were a 1938 Packard hearse belonging to Mason Funeral Home driven by Dee Justice and bearded Jim Jackson, mounted, and dressed in his wild Mexican garb.

The Scurry County Sheriff Posse won first prize in the parade's posse competition with the Lubbock Saddle Club second and the Scurry County Junior Sheriff's Posse third.

The 40-minute long parade, which featured about a dozen early day floats, wound up with two motorcyclists racing up and down the parade route on only their back wheels, with one of the riders standing in his seat.

Riley Miller who spent four days in a "trail drive" from his Garza ranch to Gail last week with the buffalo, longhorns, wagons and horses, not to mention a lot of veteran cowmen, spent Sunday, Monday and part of Tuesday trucking all his animals and wagons back home again.

Sheriff Norman Sneed told The Dispatch Tuesday one of the nice things about that huge crowd was that not a single person got hurt. There wasn't even a fender bumping reported. Highway patrolmen came in Saturday to help out as did Big Spring policemen and Scurry County deputies.

The funniest CB reports heard since the radios hit the market came Saturday when amazed truckers swooped into Gail trying to make some fast time and got caught in that huge tangled mass of cars and happy people.

cans are granted. I would hate to live under a form of government where there was no chance of voicing your opinion, where there were no elections to political offices, and where there was no chance to pursue the type of job or life that would bring total happiness."

Saluting VFW veterans in the audience at the start of her address Kim declared, "I realize that many of you here today both in body and spirit played a significant part in allowing me the liberties, freedom, and opportunities I enjoy today."

The roll call of all Garza war veterans who have died was read as a part of the service.

Small American flags marked veterans' graves throughout the cemetery for the Memorial Day observance.

Brownd told The Dispatch Monday he has yet to make assignments for his assistants. He is still looking for a head girls basketball and track coach and an assistant girls coach. "I am talking to several right now about the head girls coaching position," Brownd told The Dispatch.

Crownover the new vocational agricultural teacher is a recent graduate of Tarleton State after U. S. Navy service. He grew up in Odell and Chillicothe, Tex., is married and he and his wife have two small children.

In presenting the five bids on the primary building and a few other summer repair jobs in the school system, Duane McQueen of Whitaker and Hall, Lubbock architects, recommended the carpeting of the primary building's classrooms and offices to school trustees instead of new vinyl asbestos tile floor covering.

The reasons he cited for the more expensive carpet was that its yearly maintenance cost was only $52.97 per 1,000 square feet of carpet as compared with the much higher maintenance cost of $180.83 per 1,000 square feet for the tile, plus the fact that both sound control and appearance would be excellent in rooms with carpet and poor in rooms with the tile.

The carpet will cost $1 to $1.15 per square foot as compared to 50 to 52 cents per square foot for the tile. The life expectancy of the carpet is 12 years while it is 18 years for the tile.

In a separate vote, trustees voted for the carpet over the tile before awarding the contract to Wardrup and Associates. The choice of the carpet over the tile added $12,000 to the contract.

McQueen told trustees the primary building will be reroofed by a roofing contractor during the summer. He said the school building's roof was a total loss in the recent hail storm and will cost the school district but $100 to replace via its $100 deductible insurance coverage.

Wardrup asked 75 days to complete the primary school

Pet coyote —

Randall began carrying food to her and leaving it, because she would not approach while he was near the house. He followed this routine for almost two and one-half weeks before she came close enough for him to touch her and then the friendship began.

Coty became a very affectionate pet, and learned all her do's and don'ts with only one or two commands, and once learned, she never forgets her lesson. She is very affectionate toward Bertha, Randall's wife, but her commands from Randall take precedence over any other command given. When put in a sitting position by Randall, Coty will remain in that position until Randall releases her from the command, despite all the coaxing and pleading on Bertha's part to get her to break command.

Coty is a very apt student and has learned many tricks. She has even traveled to Canada with the Kays, and has proven she is a very relaxed and pleasant traveling partner. She recently learned to climb the tallest slide in the South Lake Park and will slide down with ease when the threesome visit the park. She obeys hand signals very quickly and she doesn't make mistakes.

There is always the question in anyone's mind as to that part of Coty that could still be wild, but Randall takes her with him on his rounds in the country, and she roams at will. She is free to go where she pleases, but when Randall returns to his pickup and starts the motor, she appears out of nowhere ready for the ride home. She has never once shown the desire to return to her freedom.

Coty is a very beautiful animal and on the trip to Canada, she was quite a sight for most folks who saw her, because she was so well disciplined. She was carried on a leash all during the trip and when the Kays would enter a shop which she could not enter with them, they merely dropped the leash and she waited patiently for them in the exact place they left her, just as though she were tied, which she was not.

Some of Coty's wild instincts show through in her behavior some times. Like now, Coty will soon have a litter of puppies, and she has dug a den for her litter in the back yard of the Kays home. It is not unusual for domestic dogs to dig a hole for their puppies, but Coty did not stop with a hole, she has almost completed a den for her family to be.

Coty has been with the Kays since December of 1974 and it appears she is well satisfied with her home, as it is evident the Kays are very pleased to have her living with them. By the way, Coty's puppies will be part Chow, so it will be interesting to see what kind of puppy will come of this mixture.

work and trustees asked McQueen to urge him to complete the work in time for the opening of the fall term in late August.

City Council ---

building would have made a fine addition to the fire department.

Dr. Wilson questioned the purchase at the present time pointing out it would have been much better some weeks later and in the new budget year when the city had put money aside for the purchase.

Pool questioned the need for the building and pointed out it would take a good building off the tax rolls. Mayor McCrary said he felt the city had adequate indoor facilities to house the trucks in a warehouse the city had purchased not many years ago though it might not be as desirable as the Horton building and the city had other uses for its money.

The mayor said he had called the meeting because Weldon Horton was wanting the council to decide immediately whether or not to purchase the building because he had other possible buyers if the city wasn't going to take it.

The city plan was to pick up Horton's note of over $21,000 on the building paying only cash for the equity and refinancing the note here.

Jackson told the council after the vote that it had gone the wrong way.

The three voting against the purchase of the building wanted the fire department to store the three rural fire trucks in the city's second storage building, even if some expense was undertaken to put additional truck doors in the building.

want everybody to come get acquainted with these newcomers. We've heard a lot of praise for Post's physician from all sides. Let's make them feel welcome in some true West Texas hospitality in their new hometown.

The College of Geosciences Texas A&M University has begun radioscience operations in the Post-Garza County area this week and will continue through mid-July.

In case you don't know we're writing about, a radioscience operation is the sending of helium filled balloons with instruments to measure atmospheric conditions.

The balloon flying will interfere with local plane flying. Max Chaffin's plane will be used as a base operations.

So — let's don't "cover" the sheriff's department in evenings with a whole bunch of "UFO reports."

VOTE SAM ELLIS

County Commissioner, Precinct 1

The run-off for Garza County Commissioner, Precinct 1, takes place Saturday. Sam Ellis asks for your vote.

One important issue is at stake: equal representation for all the county's citizens. Equal representation is protected by the one-man one-vote rule. This rule assures that your vote is as important as anyone else's and that all geographic areas are fairly represented so that both city and rural citizens have the same fair say in how they are governed.

For the Garza County Commission to fairly represent all parts of the county, vote for Sam Ellis.

Garza County deserves representation from Precinct 1 by someone who has always lived and made a living among the farmers, ranchers, small businesses and laboring people in Precinct 1; by some one who understands the past and the promise of the rural part of our county; by someone who has labored in grain, cotton and cattle production and soil conservation all his life; by someone who has always supported the Democratic Party, its candidates and programs. That someone is Sam Ellis.

We all know that every part of the county must be involved and fairly represented if the county is to progress and if all of its communities are to continue to prosper.

So vote for representation for all of Garza County. Vote for balance on the County Commission.
