Musical show, barbecue to highlight July 4th

Swim meet planned

A free musical show — "Texas, Cradle of Giants" — will highlight Post's annual Fourth of July celebration in city-county park along with the annual beef barbecue.

Serving of the barbecue will begin at 5:30 p. m. Monday, July 4, with the musical show, produced by a youthful cast of South Plains Collegians, scheduled to begin at 8:30 p. m.

The musical show will replace Post's annual fireworks display.

The musical show and the barbecue aren't the only events on the program though.

A holiday swimming meet is planned for city-county pool Monday morning. This will include a diving contest.

Details of the meet are being worked out and will be announced in next week's paper.

Another attraction which may draw a lot of interest will be a skate board contest, which will be held on the concrete besides the swimming pool, providing judges for such a contest can be found.

That too will be announced next week.

A flag raising in the park will start things off at 10 a. m.

A wide variety of booths will operate in the park throughout the afternoon and evening, including a "dunking booth" sponsored by the Antelope Booster Club, a variety of food booths sponsored by different clubs, a game booth by Boy Scout Troop 318, with a slush machine, a snow cone machine, and a cotton candy machine also on hand.

Live entertainment will be provided at the park from 11 a. m. on throughout the remainder of the day.

A charge of $1.50 per plate will be made for the barbecue.

Jimmy Moore and his corps of barbecue cooks again will be in charge of the all-night barbecue.

Enough food is being prepared to serve 2,000 or more.

Beans, potato salad, bread, pickles also are on the big menu along with the beef.

Drinks and dessert can be purchased from the club operated refreshment stands.

"Texas Cradle of Giants" is produced by South Plains College and will come to Post with its own show wagon, lighting, sound, etc.

There is no charge for the show. The group will sell programs for $1 in advance of the program for those who want them, containing pictures of all the young singers and the listings of all the songs on the program and the musicians honored.

Two inches of rain here busts heat wave

Over two inches of rain fell here in thunder showers Monday and Tuesday nights to break the first heat wave of the "summer" which had seen the temperature climb to the 100 degree mark or above on three consecutive days.

The rainfall, which amounted to 1.66 inches here Tuesday evening and Tuesday night, was not as heavy west of Post on top "the cap" and very little fell south of Post, Justiceburg getting nary a drop according to one report.

The Tuesday moisture followed .54 of an inch of moisture which fell in a Monday night thunderstorm which included some of the heaviest lightning of the spring season.

No crop damage was reported.

Lewis Herron, farm representative of the bank, described Garza's cotton crop for the present as in "great shape."

The Monday and Tuesday night storms, with more possibly headed this way Wednesday night, brought Post's official moisture total for 1977 to 5.87 inches to date.

Post had received only 3.02 inches in the first three months. Almost as much has fallen in the first three weeks of June.

The first 100 degree day of the season came last Thursday — five days officially ahead of the start of summer — when the thermometer reached a high of exactly 100.

On Friday it got hotter climbing to 104 degrees by late afternoon. On Saturday, it was another "scorcher" with 103 degrees recorded here.

A bit of a cool wave moved in Sunday with overcast skies during the morning, but by afternoon the temperature was back to 99 though it missed the 100 mark.

It cooled down to 92 degrees for Monday's high and almost a resort comfortable 86 for Tuesday.

14 block paving project planned

The city and county don't have it all completely worked out yet — and agreed upon — but they're moving forward rapidly on a project to jointly pave 14 blocks of city streets.

Included in the project is the paving and curbing and guttering of eight blocks of West 15th street from Broadway clear to Avenue S.

The curbing and guttering will be charged to property owners involved, but the city and county will pick up the whole bill on the paving.

The other six blocks of paving includes four blocks on Third street and two on East Seventh street.

These six blocks will be "strip paved," which means the paving is put down without benefit of curbing and gutter.

The city is advertising for bids in today's Dispatch on the paving.

Actually, the rush is because with Kerr Construction Co. of Lubbock in town on the Broadway widening project this summer, the street paving project can expect a mighty good bid from this firm which already has its men and equipment here and on the job.

The paving of West 15th Street is expected to solve a very serious drainage problem, especially in the Broadway area. Since the highway department is planning to tackle the drainage problem as it effects Broadway, the city and county realize the time is ripe to solve the whole problem by paving and putting in curbing and gutter on west 15th.

The paving is expected to be completed here this summer.

The county has yet to take final action on the paving, but it expected to do so after the cost has been determined by the bidding to be opened by the city at its July council meeting Monday night, July 11.

Softball loop for women?

Efforts will be made to night to organize a women's softball league here.

At least, a meeting has been called to determine the amount of interest in such a project.

All women who would be interested in playing in a women's softball league are asked to meet at 7 p. m. tonight at the girls softball park behind the high school gym.

Plant to shut down 2 weeks

Postex Plant will close at 11 p. m. Friday, July 1 for a two weeks vacation period, Plant Manager Don Smith announced this week.

The plant has been closing Fourth of July week for many years to permit vacations to almost all employees at one time.

This year, as last year, the period of shutdown is being extended to two weeks. The plant will start up again at 11 p. m. July 17.

Postex employees will receive their semi-annual "vacation pay" next week prior to the shutdown.

Arrangements also are being made for plant employees to pick up their regular pay checks at the plant during the first week the plant is closed.

City manager gets new car

The city council last Friday accepted the low bid of $4,950, which included the trade-in of a city police car, for the purchase of a 1977 four-door Chevrolet Impala for City Manager Pete Maddox's use.

The bid by Harold Lucas Motors was the only bid received.

The local auto agency had the car in stock and it was delivered the same day for the city official's use.

Young farmer critically burned in home explosion

Murl Lamb, 24, of the Canyon Valley community who was critically burned in an explosion at his rural home 18 miles northeast of Post last Thursday night, has been transferred to the John Sealey Hospital in Galveston which specializes in treatment of burn victims.

Lamb was rushed to Garza Memorial Hospital here by a neighbor and then taken to Methodist Hospital in Lubbock by ambulance.

He was transferred to the Houston Hospital Monday night, the information officer at Methodist told The Dispatch.

Lamb suffered severe burns over the entire front portion of his body and his hair was burned off by the blast which occurred in one of the two-bedrooms of the home.

According to his wife's sister, Mrs. Beverly Jones of Post, doctors originally believed his eyesight could be saved.

The blast occurred when Lamb was using the pressure off his butane tank to blow lint out of a clothes dryer. It is believed a spark from the lint caused the explosion.

The house burned to its foundation.

Mrs. Lamb and their six-year-old daughter, Lori, had just entered the kitchen to get a drink of water when the blast occurred. It blew Mrs. Lamb out the back door and Lori up against the refrigerator. The child received several small burns.

The Lamb's son, Murl Shane, 3, and a niece, Paula Senor, 13, of Wolforth, were on the front porch at the time of the blast and were blown off into the yard. Neither was injured, nor was Mrs. Lamb when she was blown out the back door.

Lamb had moved to the house in the Canyon Valley community eight or nine months ago. He farms for his father, A. J. Lamb of Ralls.

The Lamb home was located 15 miles out on the Ralls highway from Post and three or four miles off to the right.

foreground. The family pickup parked next to the house, had the glass melted out of the windshield. Lamb was critically burned and is in a Galveston hospital. — (Staff Photo)

The explosion and fire occurred between 10 and 10:30 p. m.

The Post fire department was called upon to extinguish the flames but due to a lack of specific directions, according to Fire Chief Neal Clary who made the run, never did find the house.

The firemen were told the house was located 15 miles out on the Ralls road and then off the highway. Chief Clary said they did not know whether to turn right or left and couldn't spot the fire and finally returned to Post without ever finding it.

Due to the explosive nature of the fire, the firemen would have been too late to have saved any part of the house anyway.

British Scout on staff at Camp Post

Edwin Slominski of England arrived here last week to serve as the fourth international scout on the staff of Boy Scout Camp Post during the June camping season.

The 22-year-old bachelor, who is an assistant scoutmaster at home in Suttton Coldfield, near Birmingham, flew to New York City and then came on to Post by Greyhound bus, arriving last Wednesday.

It's his first trip to America.

The most unusual difference he's found so far is the weather. In England during the summer the temperature rarely tops 75 degrees in the daytime.

So he came in full British scout uniform, which besides heavy long sleeve material, includes a green woolen jacket. He put on his full uniform for the scouts at the camp last week just to let them see what was worn in English Scouting.

Walker files amended motion for new trial

Pat N. Walker filed an amended motion for a new trial Monday in Scurry County District Court to which was attached an affidavit by one of the jurors indicating he was confused by the record of some testimony which the jury asked to see while deliberating the Walker case.

The juror's name was

Kenneth D. Minyard.

The amended motion declared Judge Wayland G. Holt was in error by not declaring a mistrial because all the testimony was not properly recorded to avoid such confusion.

Walker was convicted by a Scurry district jury May 20 on a felony charge of theft by exercising control of scrap iron belonging to Erwin Young, formerly of Post.

He has yet to be sentenced.

Walker's trial had been moved to Snyder by a change of venue.

The Post man was scheduled for sentencing June 7 but on that date Walker was given two additional weeks to file an amended motion for a new trial.

Several reasons were cited in the amended motion as to why a new trial should be granted. These included:

1. Insufficient evidence. (See Walker files, Page 10)

Jess Knight is rodeo winner

Jess Knight of Justiceburg won the saddle bronc riding at the recent Glade-water, Tex., rodeo, which draws the top hands of the Association of Professional Rodeo Cowboys.

Jess won $797 prize money for his victory.

Post tourist edition ready for travelers

Five thousand copies of the 1977 tourist edition of The Post Dispatch rolled off the press last week and were distributed last Thursday to 27 Post business establishments and the Post Chamber of Commerce to give to tourists.

The four-page tabloid features the most detailed story of C. W. Post's $50,000 worth of rain battles ever printed in the tourist edition.

Other front page features are on the upcoming OS Steer Roping and Art Exhibit Oct. 1-2 and Post's world-only sextuple oil well.

Stories also are included on the planned July 4th celebration, park and pool use. Post Stampede rodeo Aug. 11-13, Post Enduro, meeting times for Post Rotary and Lions Cubs, Postex Plant, US-84 highway improvements being made through Post, the Post Cactus Garden, the Mildred Outlaw Memorial Park — the picnic area with a view — and start being made toward restoration of Algeria Hotel by Garza County Heritage Association and the old Post Sanitarium by the Garza County Historical Museum Association.

Firms interested in the tourist business advertise in the annual edition.

The Tourist Edition has received many favorable comments from tourists through the years and has served as Post's best piece of tourist literature.

Stolen car found, not CB radio

Max Allison's 1977 yellow Thunderbird, which was stolen from his rural home east of Post sometime early Monday morning, was recovered Tuesday afternoon in Tahoka.

It was reported to have been parked in the Tahoka swimming pool area since Monday morning.

The only item missing from the car was a Channel CB radio.

ONLY A TRIKE LEFT — About all that was left of Murl Lamb's rural home and family possessions after an explosion and fire last Thursday night was this three-wheeler in the Two real business improvement projects for Post are under way. One of them is pretty obvious to everybody, but the other one isn't.

The obvious one is the big expansion of facilities at La Posta Gifts.

Jimmy Bird has moved in the motel units Harold Lucas sold off to expand his auto agency car wash and complete remodeling.

It's a major undertaking, when it's all done his wife, Ada Lou, is not going to have just a small gift shop any longer but a well-stocked store which can carry a lot of merchandise.

The other improvement which has been started recently "out of sight" so to speak is the conversion of the second floor of the highway building, the old bank building, across from the Dispatch, into air-conditioned office space just above the first floor. To make it attractive for any renter, a new elevator is going to be installed in the back of the building. How about that?

Good office space is available in any community and this should come in handy.

You local Time Magazine readers who didn't get your copy delivered last week will be interested in knowing that something happened to the whole bundle last week. The postoffice doesn't know what happened — a wreck somewhere, or what. There were 30 or more Times delivered here each week but not a one made it last week. But they all came in schedule this week.

The Dispatch is trying to get as newsworthy as possible, but there hasn't been a whole lot going on.

We might note a Dispatch addition. Joann Kocurek has joined us for the first time each week to help with the paper out.

The picture of The Country Five and Company at the bottom of page one is from the best in the world. In fact two or three of the youngsters won't be distinguishable. Colored snapshots can be converted, but we tried, and this is the way which could be done.

We just didn't have time to do it, because we never had a pix of them. Even though it's below print standard, we're using it anyway. It's the way some things get out.

Our Texas jail problem

The most remarkable thing about the new Texas jail standards, finally brought on by generations of public neglect in the treatment of prisoners, is that they have swung so far to the opposite extreme that no detention facilities in the state today can pass inspection.

Take Garza County with its new jail for example. It rates several demerits even though it has only been finished for three years and met every qualification at the time.

What's the problem here?

Well, in a few short years jail standards changed. The Garza jail was built on the assumption that Lubbock county would build and maintain a regional jail for detention of prisoners for extended terms — 30 to 90 days, or six months. That was planned at the time.

The local jail was to serve only for the period of time required to process the prisoner. Consequently, such things as recreational, training and exercise facilities were not included in this small jail project.

If you remember, Garza's law enforcement project was a model one paid in half by federal law enforcement funds to illustrate the effectiveness facilities combined with a central location for all law enforcement offices.

Now that jail standards have again been changed, Garza finds itself in a non-conforming position but in a much better light than most counties which are being forced into action. It is reasonable to believe that with a new jail here state authorities will act understandingly.

Almost all small counties have real problems although some of their jails are clean and reasonably operated.

Right now, Lubbock County is having the most problems with its outdated facilities and commissioner court reluctance to make major jail expenditures until forced to do so.

The basic problem in meeting the new jail standards all across West Texas is the same as government's problem everywhere else — money.

It is going to cost millions and millions of dollars to build Texas a new system of jails. One way or another that cost is going to come from the "good people" who work hard, pay taxes, and never see the inside of a jail cell except on an open house tour.

For the counties with big cities — Lubbock is a good example — the cost will be tremendous.

The small counties have a different problem.

Counties like Garza, Lynn, Crosby, Floyd and you can name dozens of others out here need a jail that will house an average of only three or four inmates a day.

That makes new jail standards very expensive.

It's why jails for the last 100 years have virtually been at the bottom of the list for public funding. Too many other things were needed for the people who paid the taxes.

The Dispatch can foresee some future modification of jail standards before the situation becomes acute, simply because society has refused to spend its money up to now for detention facilities and while it can be forced to provide better facilities, jails are still way down there at the bottom of the public list.

Governor Briscoe recently signed into law a measure which under certain conditions permit several counties to jointly finance jail facilities.

That may or may not be part of the answer. It certainly wouldn't help the energy situation to drive prisoners back and forth long distances.

What's more likely is a softening in time of the state jail commission's position on standards for small jails after the big jails are forced at least much closer to compliance.

AND Sidelights

AUSTIN — Gov. Dolph Briscoe cleared his desk of legislation passed during the regular session and announced he will call lawmakers back to work July 11.

Briscoe settled on the early July date for a special session on the complex issue of public school finance which evaded all earlier efforts at solution.

"I think it should be possible to accomplish the work of the session in a week to 10 days," Briscoe said. "There is enough agreement that we should be able to work out a good school finance bill in a relatively short period of time. . . I am giving everybody an opportunity to plan around the (July 11) date."

House Speaker Bill Clayton and Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby have indicated they favor the legislature's early passage of something similar to the conference committee report which died on final night of the regular session. The bill provided about $900 million in additional school aid.

Briscoe saved some of the most important bills until last. Among the last measures approved were consolidation of three major state water agencies, the "sunset bill" providing for phase-out of outmoded state agencies and the new medical malpractice act.

Crime Unpredictable

Total "index" crime doubled during the last four years, and may do so again 1977-1980.

City areas with 78 per cent of the population reported 78 per cent of the crime, but the violent crime rate is higher in rural areas.

The C.J.D. study also revealed these findings—

—Last year, a quarter billion dollars worth of property was reported stolen in the state.

—The typical murder victim was 20-35 years old and a white male. The typical person arrested in murder cases was the same age and also white male.

—Average take in robberies was $440. About 41 per cent of Texas robberies are solved.

—Nearly 20 per cent of the 187,182 burglaries were committed without need for force, and more than half were committed in daylight —the vast bulk in private residences.

Allowable Set

Texas Railroad Commission set the July oil production allowable — again at 100 per cent.

Commissioner Jim Langdon noted the U.S. is importing 38 per cent of the crude oil it needs, but said the nation could become self-sufficient if "willing to pay the price."

Langdon also proposed storage of synthetic oils, and said he will spell out his plan in writing.

Total nominations of Texas crude oil purchasers for July were 3,915,851 barrels a day, a decrease of 26,543 barrels from this month.

AG Opinions

Bulk of a Meza State School investigative report is not available to legislators or the public since it deals with personal medical records, Atty. Gen. John Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

—A telephone company is authorized to lay buried telephone lines within the right-of-way of a county road without the approval of the commissioners court. However, the company must place its lines in such manner as not to inconvenience the public in use of public roads.

—A county has no present authority to enact land use regulations for flood-prone areas unless it qualified for participation in the National Flood Insurance Program of June 30, 1970.

—Political subdivisions which are self insurers under the Workmen's Compensation laws are liable for the gross premium tax on insurers.

—A soil and water conservation district may deposit its funds in interest-bearing accounts in a state or national bank, but it may not purchase certificates of deposit. Nor may it deposit its funds in a savings and loan association.

Courts Speak

The U.S. Supreme Court ordered an indefinite stay of execution for James Paul Burns, condemned Texas murderer, pending his appeal to the top court. Burns' stay by a state court would have run out June 24.

Short Sports

Texas Water Development Board is monitoring cloud seeding operations in Castro, Swisher, Hale, Hockley, Lamb, Bailey, Farmer, Deaf Smith, Randall and Lubbock counties.

A $200,000 community center and museum honoring the late former Gov. Coke R. Stevenson at Junction is being planned through a private solicitation of funds.

Texas oil and gas wells produced 663,043,946 mcf of gas in March 1977, down 19 per cent from field runs a year earlier.

Average calendar day allowable of Texas oil production as of June 15 totalled 3,607,813 barrels.

The Middle Colorado River Watershed Project covering 4.5 million acres of the Texas Colorado River basin mid-section has been named the nation's top special flood prevent project.

4-H playday set July 9 at Lamesa

LAMESA — Dawson County 4-H has scheduled their Invitational Playday for July 9 beginning at 9 a. m. at the Lamesa Rodeo Arena.

This playday is open to all 4-H members in surrounding counties.

Snyder plans 4-day 'fourth'

SNYDER — Crowds in excess of 20,000 are expected for the Snyder Chamber of Commerce's Annual July 4th Celebration, beginning Friday at Towle Park, general chairman Roy Kidd announced.

Highlighted by the largest fireworks display in West Texas Monday night, the four-day extravaganza will include an arts and crafts show, tennis tournament, youth fishing rodeo, parade, tractor pull, truck rodeo, art show, carnival, food booths, dances and the dedication of the Jaycees new $35,000 Kiddie Park.

The tractor pull, formerly held at the park, has been moved to the rodeo arena to accommodate the large crowd of spectators and competitors, chairman Milton Stephens announced, as well as to utilize arena lighting for the evening pulls. Competition begins at 7:30 p. m. Saturday and 8 p. m. Sunday.

The arts and crafts booths, featuring 40 of the top craftsmen in Texas, will open Saturday (1-10 p. m.), Sunday (1-10 p. m.) and Monday (9 a. m.-9 p. m.). Chairman Ernie Sears says a few spaces are still available for show exhibitors.

The tennis tournament, with upwards to 500 participants expected, kicks off Friday at 4 p. m. for junior-division players and continues Saturday and Sunday for adults. Co-chairman Jack McGlaun and Bill Boles will accept registrations through the week.

Cotton production just released by the Crop and Livestock Service show 1976 production in Garza County was 1,986,500 bales from 35,700 harvested acres. Garza yield per acre was 385 pounds, well above the 365.5 acre average for the 25-county High Plains Counties. Last year Garza had 385.5 pounds per acre. All time high yield for the 25 counties, recorded in 1965, was 513.2 pounds per acre. Both yield and crop quality in 1976 were affected drastically by an untimely freeze early in October.

Sylvia Smith on HSU honor roll

ABILENE — Sylvia Smith of route 3, Post, has been named to the honor roll for outstanding academic work at Hardin-Simmons University during the 1977 semester.

The honor roll includes a full-time student with a 3.7 grade average or better. Miss Smith is the daughter of Mrs. Eula B. Smith.

HOUSTON VISITORS
 Visiting in the home of Mrs. Sue Hayes this past week were her daughters from Houston, Mrs. Sherri Beach, Mrs. Charlotte McDowell and granddaughters, Anna Lynn McDowell. While they were here, they visited Carlsbad Caverns and went to see a production of 'Texas' in Palo Duro Canyon.

Bill Price named WTBR roundup boss

SAN ANGELO — Bill Price, this year's West Texas Boys Ranch Roundup Chairman, has been around boys and ranches all his life.

A Brownfield, Texas, native, Price served in the Navy in the Pacific in World War II and afterwards he went to work for Troy Fort, New Mexico rancher and World's Champion Calf Roper.

During the last 1940's and early 1950's, Price also competed professionally as a calf roper. Though he never lost interest in the sport, he left roping 1956 to devote full time to a western store which he purchased in Lubbock.

After an absence of almost 20 years, Price returned to the arena in 1975, this time as a steer roper. Over the past two years, he has competed at the OS Ranch Steer Roping, the Windy Ryon Memorial Roping and at Cheyenne's Frontier Days, to name a few.

In addition to his business and roping interests, Price has also achieved distinction as a horse trainer. One of his products, Charcoal Cody, was for many years a great roping horse before gaining considerable fame as the mount for Texas Tech's mascot the Red Raider Skip's Counsel, another quarterhorse owned and trained by Price, was the 1976 American Quarter Horse Association World Junior Calf Roping Champion.

Price first became acquainted with West Texas Boys Ranch through Jim Prather and the OS Ranch Steer Roping and Art Exhibit.

He has annually donated a trophy saddle to the winner of the steer roping. During last year's roundup, which raised more than $80,000.00, Price served as a wagon boss for Lubbock County.

This year, Bill Price and some 40 wagon bosses will be working throughout the state in what promises to be an equally successful fund-raising effort.

Last med tour to be Sunday

LUBBOCK - West Texas residents are invited to a tour and reception at Texas Tech University School of Medicine (TTUSM.) An open house on Sunday, June 26, will conclude the month of dedication honoring the citizens of West Texas. Approximately 2,000 guests, students and faculty, reaching across four countries, 17 states and 43 Texas counties already have joined in celebrating the completion of the first phase of construction of the new building. The $40 million medical structure is presently completed on the exterior but only some 40 percent of the interior is finished. Another 10 percent will be completed by August of 1978. The remainder of the building will be completed in pace with the needs of the school. The building encompasses 811,417 gross square feet. Housed in the new building are basic science departments, clinical departments and support services. TTUSM was established by the 61st Texas Legislature in 1969 to serve health care needs of Texas. The enabling legislation stated "with the best interests of the education... the open regional academic health centers in Amarillo, El Paso and the Permian Basin, as well as establish academic quarters in Lubbock. The centers are operating in Amarillo, El Paso, with the latest dedicate its regional ing in early fall. Negotiations to establish Permian Basin center now underway.

Lubbock meet for Witnesses

Jehovah's Witnesses will be convening this summer in 63 cities throughout the United States with 108 total conventions on the agenda. Brian Wolf, spokesman for the group in Post, said nearly 1,000,000 persons are expected at the "Joyful Workers" district assemblies. In fact, 25 delegates from Post will attend a four-day assembly scheduled for the Memorial Civic Center in Lubbock, June 23-26.

Wolf added that 5,500 persons are expected to attend.

"It has been revealed that 2,333,115 persons attended out conventions world wide in 1976," Wolf said. "This included meetings in 56 countries."

"This year an even greater number of assemblies is being arranged. This will make it convenient for more persons to attend," he said.

Wolf said the conventions are designed to discuss the pressures affecting modern society in day-to-day living.

The principal address of the convention will be delivered Sunday, June 26, at 2 p. m. The subject will be "How God's Kingdom Can Benefit You."

Sunday services were brought to us by Rev. Philip Daniels of the Nazarene church. Next week's services will be by the Presbyterian Church. Our residents really look forward to Sunday church services. They enjoy the singing of hymns along with the service. Many of them are unable to leave the premises and attend church. But all of them enjoy and appreciate the minister and their members bringing the church to them each week.

Rev. Elliott came last week and showed film slides to our residents. They enjoyed this a lot.

Irene Wheeler has been attending revival meetings at the Church of Christ this week. She said they have been very nice and rewarding.

Rosemary Stelzer brought bananas to the residents this week. Also Mr. and Mrs. John Gist visited and brought homemade jelly and banana nut bread.

Other visitors were Walter and Myrl Mathis, Mrs. W. B. Roberts, Howard and Betty McCampbell, Randy Littrell, Philip Daniels, Jewel Rogers, Lucille Walker, Ola Keeton, Jena and W. E. 11 thou shalts for safety

COLLEGE STATION — Accident prevention is a serious business, but certain pointers relating to risk control can occasionally be emphasized with a touch of humor.

In this light, Dr. Gary S. Nelson, safety engineer with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, offers some recommended safety practices for all machine operators, whether the machine be a lawnmower, farm tractor, family automobile or whatever. It goes like this:

Thou Shalt present thyself to all machines fit and ready to operate them as prescribed by good practice.

Thou Shalt require thy small sons and daughters and thy neighbor's offspring to keep themselves apart from thy machinery.

Thou Shalt faithfully cause thine eyes to remain open to discern precisely where thee and thy machine are going and, furthermore, to spy hidden obstacles and other hazards.

Thou Shalt diminish thy speed on rough or slippery ground and when approaching obstacles and turning corners, thereby smiting prospects of thee supporting thy machine's weight with thine neck.

Thou Shalt interrupt and halt the flow of power before exploring or poking about in thy machinery, if thou treasurest thy limbs.

Thou Shalt contain thy temper, even though the day goes foul and everything attempted conspireth against thee, as robust anger not only maketh thee look foolish and exclaim unkind sentiments, but also multiplieth thy prospects of coming to grief accidents.

Thou Shalt mind thy manners on the roadway, acting courteously to travelers by advancing only where thou hath established that the way is clear and by always signaling what thou art contriving to do.

Thou Shalt Not require nor permit thy offspring to perform tasks without first ascertaining if they are capable in body and temperament and are sufficiently trained to operate a machine without undo risk.

Thou Shalt always enlist the use of protective guards, seat belts, and other safeguards to shield thee from harm and assist thee in surviving should thy machine come to mishap despite thy good intentions.

Specifically for tractor operators, Thou Shalt hitch drawbar loads low and forsake wrapping chain or cable about the axle, lest thy tractor wrap itself around its own axle and smother thee beneath.

Thou Shalt weight thy tractor's front to balance it if the drawbar be heavily burdened and also place upon the rear sufficient weight to effect balance when thy tractor is encumbered with a front end load. Also, Thou Shalt render thy tractor out of gear and stoutly set the brakes before dismounting.

Finally, for all machine operators, Thou Shalt respect thy machine, keep it well, and not demand more than it can deliver, nor require that it labor under burdens better suited to a huskier steed lest it repay thy maltreatment with low performance, mechanical trouble and accidents.

Peach and lake fish prices are dropping

COLLEGE STATION — Peaches and lake fish promise lower prices, eggs and turkeys are reasonable, and beef offers several "specials", according to one report.

Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, summarizes this week's food buys as follows:

FRESH FRUITS

Peach prices coming down while other good choices are pineapples, winter pears, bananas, grapefruit, oranges and lemons. Prices are more attractive on cantaloupes, watermelon and honeydew melons. High prices expected to lower later on seedless grapes, apricots, plums, cherries and nectarines.

FRESH VEGETABLES

Quality and economy appear on snap beans, corn, cucumbers, broccoli and sweet peppers — along with cabbage, carrots, summer squash, okra and eggplant. Green onions — at moderate prices — can replace more expensive "cooking"

None hurt in Garza crashes

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated two accidents on rural highways in Garza County during the month of May, 1977 according to Sergeant Ken Evans, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in no persons killed and no persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first five months of 1977 shows a total of 20 accidents resulting in one person killed and eight persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for the 60 counties of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety Region for May, 1977 shows a total of 541 accidents resulting in 18 persons killed and 338 persons injured as compared to May, 1976, with 517 accidents resulting in 14 persons killed and 268 persons injured. This was 24 more accidents, four more killed, and 70 more injured in 1977 at the same period of time.

The 18 traffic deaths for the month of May, 1977 occurred in the following counties: Two each in Hartley; one each in Briscoe, Castro, Collingsworth, Cottle, Dallam, Foard, Gray, Potter, Swisher, Wheeler, Wilbarger, Dickens, Hockley, Lamb, Lubbock and Parker.

POULTRY

Egg prices are exceptionally low, turkeys have reasonable prices, and fryer chickens are one of the best protein buys available.

BEEF

Check food ads this week for specials on cube and sirloin steaks, chuck cuts, corned beef, ground beef and liver.

PORK

Canned hams have moderate prices, slab bacon has economy prices — and frankfurters are meat bargains, although prices are a bit higher than last week. Pork liver has low prices.

FISH

More lake fish are available since the northern Canadian lakes are open for fishing. Be on the lookout for lower prices.

DAIRY

June is Dairy Month — look for features on sour cream, cheddar cheese and lowfat milk.

GROCERY MARKET AISLES

Canned vegetables and fruit juices lead the grocery-value "parade", with strawberry preserves, fruit cocktail and vegetable oil following.

CONSUMER WATCHWORD

Hold food budgets down with an "eagle eye" watch for low prices — and the large supplies that usually mean low prices.

Beef prices heading up

COLLEGE STATION — A slow, steady increase in retail beef prices may soon be giving cattle producers a slightly bigger piece of the beef profit pie, notes Dr. Ed Uvacek, a livestock marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Cattlemen have been suffering from an extended period of low prices, but retail beef prices have increased about five percent in recent weeks. The national average composite retail price for beef was $1.41 per pound the third week of May," notes Uvacek.

Choice fed steers in that same week averaged $40.86 per hundredweight, up 11 percent over the March average price.

Consumers have been paying more for their beef mainly due to both the higher cattle prices and an increase in the cost of marketing. This latter cost, of course, does not benefit cattle producers, says the Texas A&M University System specialist.

 June 25 — Cubs vs. Indians, Braves vs. White Sox.

The unbeaten Cubs, who scored two easy victories last week, all but have Post's 1977 Babe Ruth League pennant clinched — but just not quite.

The Cubs would have to lose their final three games and the second place Indians, who have only two wins in five starts, would have to win four in a row to deadlock the issue.

The league's other two clubs already are out of it. The former champion White Sox, who lost their first four starts before finally getting in the victory column Saturday night, were reported to be leading the Cubs Tuesday night in the first game of a twin bill when the rains came and washed it all away.

The Cubs can clinch the crown tonight with a win over the Braves in the nightcap of the league twin bill.

The Cubs defeated the Braves 11 to 2 last Thursday night with Danny Gunn scattering eight hits for the victory.

The Braves took a 1-0 lead in the first on three hits with leadoff hitter Steve Curb scoring, but the Cubs tallied three times in the bottom of the second on walks and only one hit, a double by Mark Greer, to take command.

They added two more in the third and four more in the fourth as Gary Lamb, Danny Gunn and Jackie Stelzer cracked hits with Jackie's for two bases, and then coasted in with single runs in the fifth and sixth. The last run came when Gunn singled and Greer drove him home with his second double.

The White Sox got their first win of the season Saturday night as they scored a 14 to 6 triumph.

SCHEDULE
 June 23 — A's vs. Tigers, Red Sox vs. Cardinals.
 June 24 — Yankees vs. Tigers, Dodgers vs. Cardinals.
 June 25 — Yankees vs. Cardinals, Dodgers vs. A's.

Manager Ronnie Dunn's Post Fire Department Cardinals are in position to clinch Post's 1977 Little League pennant with victories tonight and Saturday night over the Red Sox and the Yankees, their only challengers.

The regular schedule will wind up Saturday night leaving five rained-out games and one called by the 9:30 rule after two innings still to be played next week if they figure in the pennant race, three of which could depend upon what happens between now and Sunday.

The games to be made up include the season openers, May 20, A's vs. Dodgers and Cards vs. Yankees; the May 26 second game between the Tigers and the Dodgers; the June 11 nightcap between the Red Sox and A's which was held to two innings by the 9:30 rule; and the two Tuesday night games this week, Yankees vs. Red Sox and Dodgers vs. Tigers.

The Cardinals picked up three victories during the past week's play, including a vital 11 to 6 defeat of the Brown Brothers Red Sox last Friday night which dropped the second place team 1½ games behind the leaders.

The standings didn't change a whit during the week's play, although the Cards edged a bit further in front, but if the rains hadn't come Tuesday night to wash out the Yankee-Red Sox game, the Postex club might have moved ahead of the Sox into second place and dropped the Sox out of further contention.

The Yanks, by virtue of a seven-run first inning, were leading the Sox 7 to 3 after two innings of play when the rains washed the game away.

The Yankees in the end may be the biggest threat to the Cards' title hopes.

They hold the season's only league victory over the Cardinals, 22 to 14, back on June 3 and with the first game between the two clubs rained out in May still have two more clashes with the Cardinals.

Besides trimming the Red Sox during the past week, the Cards hammered the A's 12 to 5 last Thursday night and thumped the Tigers 16 to 8 on Saturday night.

Leadoff hitter Tim Tannehill of the Cards demonstrated why he is one of the league's best hitters during those three victories. He went to bat 13 times in the three games, collected eight hits and two walks for a .727 batting average over the stretch, and scored nine runs, three in each game. Of his eight hits, one was a homerun, another a triple and three were doubles.

Oh yes, in addition he went the route in pitching the all important win over the Red Sox Friday night.

Best pitched game of the week was Scott Lewis's three-hit shutout of the Tigers as the Yankees won 8 to 0 in a game held to four innings by the 9:30 rule. Robbie Williams got two of the Tigers three singles. The Yanks won it with a seven-run second inning.

The Dodgers started out as if they were going to wallop the Yankees Friday night, grabbing a 10-2 lead in the first two innings, but the Yanks came up with 10 runs before anybody was retired in the third to go ahead and hammered away for a 19 to 15 triumph which saw the two clubs combining for 25 hits. Scott Lewis and Joe Samora of the winners and Gilbert Perez of the losers each picked up three apiece.

Richard Cisneros, the Cards' second sacker and cleanup hitter, hammered a triple and two doubles in four trips in the Cards win over the Red Sox. The next night he was four for four against the Tigers, including a triple and a double. Catcher Chris Belongia got three hits in each of these games for the Cards.

Robbie Williams and Kenny Bullard each had three hits for the Tigers against the Cards.

Irvin Price, A's shortstop and pitcher, in losses to the Red Sox and Dodgers couldn't have hit much better, five for five, two of them doubles.

If you prefer offense, how about the Red Sox 26 to 14 win over the A's. All told the two teams totaled up 40 runs, 31 hits, 18 walks and 5 batters hit by pitches — or something like that.

Danny Martinez and Milton Williams each got four hits for the winners.

180 trotlines confiscated

FRITCH — Panhandle game wardens confiscated over 180 illegal trotlines at Lake Meredith last week and the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department is holding these devices for identification by the owner.

"Over 50 percent of the trotlines checked were in violation of one or more of the department's trotline regulations," said Weldon Fromm, Amarillo district supervisor.

"The most numerous violation was the incomplete or entire lack of an identification tag," Fromm continued.

All freshwater trotlines in regulatory counties must be identified with a legible tag, constructed of a material as durable as the trotline. The tag, whether metal, plastic or other durable material, must bear the name and address of the fisherman and the date it was set out.

All trotlines remaining in public waters shall be redated at the expiration of each 90-day period.

No such lines may be placed or set in the vicinity of any public boat dock, public bathing pier, public bathing beach or any public place commonly used as a swimming or bathing area.

Hearings set on new cotton bill

MEMPHIS, TENN. — A bill updating procedure for determining upland cotton allotments will be introduced in the House of Representatives last week.

The National Cotton Council has been advised by the House Agriculture Committee that the bill, which would be introduced by Rep. David R. Bowen (D-Miss.), chairman of the House Agriculture Subcommittee on Cotton and Tobacco, is being held for a subcommittee hearing on the proposal has been scheduled for 10 a. m., June 23.

The bill incorporates recommendations developed by the National Cotton Council's Producer Steering Committee and authorized by Council delegates in a mail ballot.

The House Agriculture Committee had updated allotment systems for wheat and feed grains when it reported the farm bill in mid-May. However, at Bowen's suggestion, it deferred action on cotton allotments pending completion of the producer study. The Senate-passed farm bill includes an amended Administration proposal for all crop allotments.

The Producer Steering Committee proposal for cotton follows the House and Senate Bill concept for wheat and feed grains by basing "farm allotment" on acreage the farmer decides to plant. Under this concept, government payments would be made to farmers only when the average price they receive during the calendar year is less than the established "target price."

(2) If payments are to be made, the allocation factor (not to exceed 100 percent) would be obtained by dividing the national program acreage by the estimated harvested acreage.

(3) To obtain the acreage on which payment may be made, the allocation factor would be applied to cotton acreage planted on the farm. However, the factor would not be applied to any farm where acreage was voluntarily reduced from the previous year by as much as the recommended percentage. These exemptions would be taken into account by the Secretary of Agriculture in setting the allocation factor.

(4) Program payment yields would be established each year on the basis of a farm's actual yields per harvested acre for the preceding three years. Adjustments would be made for abnormal weather and conditions, with appraisals where yield data are not available.

(5) The Secretary would be empowered to require producers to set aside a prescribed acreage of cropland on their farms (not to exceed 28 percent of the current cotton acreage.) He could also permit planting and other use of set-aside acreage under certain conditions.

(6) Should additional allotment adjustments become necessary, the Secretary would be authorized to limit cotton acreage planted on farms by applying a factor to the highest acreage planted — including prevented planting — on the farm in the preceding five years. Penalty for farms not complying would be ineligibility for loans and payments.

As in the Senate bill, producers would be eligible for payments if plantings are prevented. In the case of low yields due to disasters, payments may be made on the farm's entire planted acreage.

Persons wishing to testify at the June 28 hearing on the proposed Bowen bill should contact the clerk of the House Agriculture Committee.

Phone workers okay contract

SAN ANGELO — Communications Workers of America Local 12171 officials have notified General Telephone of the Southwest of ratification of a $20 million three-year contract. Tentative agreement on the contract was announced May 17.

The new contract includes six general wage adjustments occurring in May and December of each year, the first effective and retroactive to May 18, 1977.

In addition, the contract makes dental insurance available beginning August 1, adds a personal floating holiday beginning in 1978 and forms a task force to study the concept of flextime. Flextime would allow employees the flexibility in choosing their own hours of work either before or after an inflexible daily period known as "core time" when all employees in the work group must be present.

DR. P. N. KURIEN
Dr. Kurien to speak Sunday

Dr. P. N. Kurien, who started the All India Prayer Fellowship in India in 1957 to call God's people to united prayer for revival and to evangelize India, will be the guest speaker of the First Baptist Church at the 11 a. m. Sunday worship service.

Foreign missionaries cannot enter India for evangelistic work.

Dr. Kurien began his fellowship through a vision he said he received from God.

Pastor Glenn Reece invites everyone to hear "this man of God share his burden for the people of India."

"This is the hour of India," Dr. Kurien said in advance of his arrival here. "The Holy Spirit is moving over India mightily. Six hundred million people of India must be given one chance to hear that Jesus died for their sins. If Christians do not share the gospel with the spiritually hungry multitude, communists are uniting with perverse propaganda to win over the people."

Walker files-

2. An error by Special Prosecutor George Thompson of Lubbock in referring to the fact that Walker had been indicted twice by the grand jury after the court had instructed him not to.

3. Jury misconduct in that the jury failed to hold the state to the burden of proof, with Walker claiming he was forced to prove himself innocent instead of the state proving him guilty.

4. An error was claimed in the argument of the state which referred to Walker as a "white collar defendant."

5. The court being in error by not declaring a mistrial because all testimony was not properly recorded with the attached affidavit of a juror's confusion over testimony.

In the original petition for a new trial, Walker claimed an error by the court in permitting Thompson to try the case, declaring that District Attorney Joe Smith and County Attorney Preston Poole "abandoned their duties" by not trying the case themselves.

According to the district court clerk, Judge Holt has not as yet indicated when he may call a hearing on the motion for a new trial.

English scout-

Included was a patch on his left shirt pocket on the Queen's Silver Jubilee.

In England, when a Scout reaches what in this country is called Eagle Scout rank he becomes a Queen Scout. The Queen Scout award, there are not too many each year, are presented during the annual Queen Scout Parade before the Queen herself.

Slominski works with pioneer groups and other groups at Camp Post. In July he will go to the South Plains Council's camp at Tres Ritos for staff work. Then in August, he and all the other international scouts being sponsored in the United States this summer will meet in New York state for a get-together before returning home.

Edwin finds Scouting structured on a much broader base in the United States than in England where he told The Dispatch "we concentrate more on camping and craft work."

Cash Flow.

In 1803, America found herself up the river. The Mississippi, that is, valuable goods were being produced in the Midwest, and the mighty Mississippi was our only link to the sea. But the outlet in New Orleans belonged to France.

So President Jefferson sent agents to Paris to negotiate for the addition of New Orleans. Surprisingly, Napoleon offered to sell the entire Louisiana Territory for only $15,000,000.

And that included what is today Arkansas, Missouri, Iowa, North and South Dakota, Nebraska, Louisiana, Oklahoma, most of Minnesota, and parts of Wisconsin and Colorado.

Thanks to Americans taking stock in their new country by buying over $11,000,000 in government securities, we made the purchase. And doubled our size overnight. Today Americans still take stock in their country by buying U.S. Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan. They know there's no safer way to save for an education, vacation or retirement. And they know that while they're helping themselves, they're helping America, too. So buy U.S. Savings Bonds. And help your cash flow into savings.

Take stock in America.

E Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (4 1/2% the first year). Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.
