

$599,504 is authorized for school construction

Mostly for Junior High

Post school trustees at a special meeting Tuesday night voted to award $599,504 in two construction contracts, mostly for the modernization and expansion of junior high school facilities.

Also included were remodeling of the "teen town" building on 10th street into the new home for the Post Satellite School, some repairs to the junior high gym, and others to the old Justiceburg school which will be readied for probable school use.

Action came without a dissenting vote although Don Payne, who was attending his first meeting as a newly appointed trustee, abstained from voting because he was not completely familiar with the long-planned project to upgrade the Post physical school plant.

The major contract went to Lloyd Price Construction of Lubbock, low bidder Oct. 4 for the junior high project, for $558,154.

The action came after trustees removed $56,796 worth of alternates from the project. The Price base bid had been $604,163.

The other contract was awarded to Pharr & Pharr Enterprises of Lubbock for $17,550 for remodeling "teen town" for a satellite school use after $1,000 in work had been removed from this contract.

Also included in the voted expenditures were $21,000 to carpet the expanded junior high building and $2,800 to carpet the satellite school.

The carpeting was not included in the two construction contracts and will be authorized at a later date.

Trustees voted to remove $4,650 for painting of walls and seating in the old junior high gym from the $14,412 cost estimate for repairs which were added after the base contract was bid.

The board left the painting work, if needed for a later date.

Trustees made nine revisions on the base junior high bid taking out $57,796 worth of work and adding but $1,000.

Major items removed included $22,947 for refitting all windows in the building with double panes of glass for energy saving, $13,611 for a brick fence in front of the building, and $13,312 for curbing, walks and paving for a recessed parking area on the west side of the building.

Some $1,025 in work was added for room 161 in the junior high building, but $3,800 was taken out for the reflooring of the room.

The $1,000 added to the base bid were for revisions necessitated in the decision not to reglaze all windows in the building.

Yancy Jones who represented the architectural firm of Whitaker and Hall at the Tuesday night session, said contracts will be drawn for the two contractors just as soon as all the changes voted by the board are incorporated.

He said construction should begin on both projects within a few weeks.

Construction on the junior high remodeling and expansion will take slightly over a (See School board, Page 14)

Tech president asks for area support

Need your support at Tech University," Dr. Mackey, president of the university, told Post readers and their guests Tuesday afternoon at the Post

Community Center. "There are a great many tangible and intangible ways you can help," he said in closing his talk in which he defined the role of the university for this West Texas region.

He was accompanied to the luncheon by Dr. Clyde Kelsey, vice president of development at the university; Ken Thompson, vice president in charge of university finances; Mrs. Mackey and Mrs. Kelsey.

The group was introduced by Mayor Giles McCrary. "Texas Tech probably has as much influence on West Texas life as any institution," Dr. Mackey declared in beginning his talk.

Continued enrollment growth for Tech is projected at a modest rate of two or three percent during the next eight to ten years when many university's are beginning to face a decline in enrollment, Dr. Mackey said.

He called it "a good sign" and said expansion makes "new program growth possible."

A hundred million dollars has been spent in construction on Tech's campus in the last eight to ten years with $50 million alone going into the capital outlay of Tech's new medical school.

"I would expect $15 to $20 million more in construction in the next eight to ten years," he said, but he pointed out the shift will come soon from new construction to emphasis on reconstruction and renovation of older buildings.

Dr. Mackey predicted the new medical school will be "a dominate factor in Tech's future," he said class size already has been increased to admitting a class of 120 medical students each year.

He pointed out the medical school has "a unique emphasis in all the United States" in that it is committed to the development of family practice doctors who will enter the (See Rotarians, Page 14)

Bat roost is found in old sanitarium

Bill Black, who is in charge of the remodeling of the Old Sanitarium for the Lubbock Co., about "went Tuesday.

Workers were taking the ceiling of the lower part of the historic building and the floor of the porch for the reason when they found Black described "at least a hundred bats" in the crawl space between the two porches. "The bats are next to skunks and a bad, the work was immediately shut down and Game Warden Bud Howell contacted to see if they could be gassed.

Howell told The Dispatch Wednesday that gassing wasn't necessary.

He said the bats weren't moving around in the daylight and clung to the ceiling and flooring as it was ripped out and fell with the lumber. Workmen then simply stepped on the bats. "We've had bats all over town for a long time," Howell said, "but we never could find their roost."

"I guess the old sanitarium building was it."

Test is staked on courthouse square

George R. Brown oil interests are still going to be that well on the courthouse square.

Recent action by the County Commission last Monday indicates the court accepted into its agreement with Brown interests for drilling. No drilling date has been given the court but the Dispatch understands the site has been staked between the law enforcement building and the street on the west side.

The well was first announced in 1977.

The court has revamped its financial aid procedures for the Meals on Wheels program. Instead of paying the total county commitment in a lump sum, the court decided to pay $400 (See Oil test, Page 14)

Rotary pancake supper Saturday night

Post Rotary Club will have its fourth annual Pancake Supper Saturday night in the Post Community Center.

Moore, chairman of the supper committee and Cook, said serving will start at 5:30 p. m. and last for three hours to 8:30 p. m.

Proceeds for the benefit will be $2 for adults and $1 for students, including children sold at the door.

Shaw, who heads the club's entertainment committee for the affair, said the Dispatch Wednesday probably three groups will participate for three hours of live entertainment for all those who want to listen after they've eaten supper.

Proceeds from the Rotary community projects, one of them being the painting of house numbers on curbs all over town, so addresses can be found quickly in emergencies.

Shaw, who heads this project committee, has been out of town on an autumn vacation or the project probably would already be under way.

Rotarians will be assisted at the pancake supper Saturday by scouts of their sponsored troop, No. 316.

Mills rites here Saturday

Funeral services for Bill Mills, 72, were held Saturday, Oct. 21 in the First Christian Church with Dr. Frank Pickett, pastor, officiating, assisted by Jack Alexander.

Mills was dead on arrival at Methodist Hospital late last Wednesday afternoon where he was being taken by ambulance for treatment of a heart condition.

Born Dec. 5, 1906 in Oklahoma, he moved to Post in 1956 and married Lillie Beauchamp Feb. 15, 1962 in Lovington, N. M.

He was a retired Postex Plant worker and a 32nd degree Mason and was an elder of the First Christian Church.

Survivors include his wife, two daughters, Bernice Hays of Post and Leta June Burgdorf of Tulsa, Ok.; three sons, Earl Beauchamp of Post, Alfred Beauchamp of Jacksonville, Fla., and Wayne Beauchamp of Amarillo; one sister, Mrs. Leon Watson of Pasadena and 15 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Bill Hays, Gary Hays, Jimmy Fikes, Danny Richardson, Ben Owen and George Pierce.

Burial was in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Hudman Funeral Home.

Everything is stolen

Mrs. Manuela Ortiz returned to Post this week after living a year out of state to find her home at 105 East 6th ransacked and just about everything of value stolen.

That included a 1958 Chevrolet pickup which had been left in the back yard.

She reported her loss to the sheriff's department Monday afternoon but is still compiling a list of her losses for investigating officers.

"We don't know even what month the place was burglarized," Sheriff Pippin told The Dispatch. "The back door was standing open when she returned."

Car owner will pay damages

Robert Cox reported to the sheriff's department Monday that "somebody in a blue Buick" had run into his storage building on the alley side at the Cox Lumber yard Sunday afternoon and caused $358 in damages to the building.

Sheriff Jim Pippin said that the owner of a dented "blue Buick" has agreed with Cox to pay for the damages on a monthly basis although he wouldn't admit being involved in the accident.

No charges have been filed, Pippin said.

Sheriff will file charges in shooting

Sheriff Jim Pippin can't get anybody else to file charges, so he plans to do it himself.

This is the unusual story. The sheriff's department received a call Saturday night, Oct. 14, that there had been a shooting incident at the Corner Cafe in the Lincoln addition.

Officers on arrival found

How times have changed here

The school trustees voting to spend $599,504 Tuesday night basically to remodel and expand the junior high school building, prompted us to check back to Post's last big school bond issue of $710,000 voted in 1959.

We got out Dispatch bound files yesterday morning and discovered that the prime reason for that bond issue was to build our present high school and vocational ag building.

Architects estimated the cost at $450,000. Remainder of the bond issue was to convert the old assembly hall in the old high school into six classrooms and other school repairs. (That old high school is the one they're planning to spend $568,000 on this year.)

Well, when they let the new high school building for contract in the fall of 1959 the low bid was $336,207 — over $100,000 under the architect's estimate. So Post got a new gymnasium, bid for $113,870 a few months later, as a bonus.

What we want to point out (See Postings, Page 14)

Stenholm in Post tonight

Everyone is invited to a "get acquainted" reception for Charles Stenholm of Stamford, Democratic nominee for congress, at 7:30 p.m. tonight (Thursday) in the bank community room.

The Garza County Democratic Committee, comprised of the nine precinct chairmen and the county chairman, will host the affair.

Market will open Nov. 1

Rick Loving announces in today's Dispatch with a page ad on page 13 that Rick's Venture Foods, Post's new independently owned super market, will open next Wednesday, Oct. 1, with a week-long Grand Opening.

Store hours will be from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. six days a week with the store closed Sundays.

Work has continued at a steady pace this week in restocking the store with a full line of Shurfine foods.

Walk-a-thon raises $600

Teri Taylor, was the first to cross the finish line in the 10 mile March of Dimes Walkathon Saturday morning, which had 21 elementary, middle school and high school youth and one teacher participating.

All 21 entered in the Walkathon finished the entire distance, despite a brisk and cold wind and the never ending uphill climb up the Tahoka cap. Even the youngest entry, nine-year-old Angela Fiveash finished the course.

The group began their trek at 8:45 a.m. with Teri winding up the course in two hours flat, 10:45 a.m., and the rest not far behind.

Approximately $600 was raised by the participating youth which will be turned over to the March of Dimes to help fight birth defects.

CB club members were stationed at one-mile intervals to give assistance, stamp cards and provide refreshments.

Participating in the Walkathon were Roxanne and Patti McClellan, Sandra Abraham, Kayla Peel, Angela Fiveash, Lisa Kocurek, Misty West, Rhonda Rogers, Jerri Baumann, Christi Workman, Teri Taylor, Donna Simecek, Mary Ellen Paig, Sheryl Anderson, Cathy Davis, Jana Middleton, Steve Kitchens, Ronnie Bilbo, Kevin Craig, Kathy Gandy and Pat Thompson.

CB club members participating were Robert Bartlett, John Guthrie, Dane Cromer, Edna and Leslie Seals, Larry Ford and A.D. and Carolyn Halford.

Carnival at Justiceburg

A Halloween carnival will be held at the old Justiceburg school house, Saturday night beginning at 7 p.m.

A spookhouse, bingo and cake walk will be included in the fun along with a dance beginning at 9:30 with music by the "Twin River Gang."

Proceeds will be used towards the new water system for the Justiceburg community.

35 youngsters raise $390 in read-a-thon

A total of $390.93 was raised during the last four weeks by 35 primary and elementary students participating in their first Multiple Sclerosis Read-a-thon.

Students were responsible for getting someone to sponsor them who would pay a designated amount for each book read. The money goes to help fight Multiple Sclerosis, a crippling disease.

Prizes were awarded to the students in each grade who read the most books. They were John Bilberry, second grade; Mark Tyler, third grade; Pamela Baker, Julie Brown, Kim Smith and Debbie Ethridge, tied in the fourth grade; and Krishna Mason, fifth grade.

Two prizes were awarded to Kerri and Keith Hart, who collected the most money.

Two random drawings for prizes were awarded in each grade to: Tandi Rogers and Janell Jones, second grade; Eloise Martinez and Mark Linn, third grade; Donna Botes and Hallie Lowe, fourth grade; Gregory Adams and Gina Green, fifth grade.

Jack Alexander, elementary principal, encouraged even more students to participate in the Read-a-thon next year.

Two unusual campaigns

It isn't often that Texas has close races for the two top political jobs in the state at the November election. That sort of thing almost always is decided during the Democratic primary ruckus in May.

But not this year.

Republican Bill Clements is making the first all-out GOP bid to win the governor's mansion since reconstruction, and young articulate Bob Kruger is giving John Tower, the Republican senator, the toughest race of his 17-years in Washington.

Latest Texas polls show Democrat John Hill still ahead of Clements with the senate race now a tossup.

Clements is making a hard, spirited race. For the first time in history for a Republican, he has a campaign manager in every Texas County. But he has two opponents — John Hill and name identification. Many voters don't really know him and most of them haven't bothered to try and get acquainted.

Clements has put a lot of his own money into this race and he has a couple of points on his side.

If Texans are as concerned about taxes as are Americans in the other 49 states, Clements is their man. His first platform plank is to give voters the tax initiative like Californians have — and Texans don't have.

The other point is that Clements isn't openly tied up with any pressure group like Hill is with Texas teachers. The teachers in endorsing Hill have formally endorsed a candidate for the very first time ever.

Very obviously, Hill as the party of the first part has made a formal commitment, too. Since Hill's campaign is tied in with the teachers, The Dispatch has an article in its news columns this week outlining Clements' views on education and those same teachers. Clements views aren't so well known, so a comparison is in order for the knowledgeable voter.

As for Hill, he has been busy for ten years building a political base for this bid for the governorship — and there is nothing wrong with that. While he is middle of the road in his views, he is not the liberal he is painted by Clements.

What it boils down to in this race — all the last minute baloney aside — are Texans generally satisfied with the way things are going down in Austin or do they want a real change. If they want to change things, Clements is the best man in a long time to do so.

At this time, it is not a question of conservative Texas Democrats going against the Washington tide. It's a question of are they satisfied with the way the Austin tide is flowing.

The senate race is another barrel of apples.

John Tower is out in front in all the polls for months, but Kruger is catching him, or has already caught him.

But we're not sure he can hold him until Nov. 7.

First, Bob Kruger has been no ball of fire as a political campaigner in his efforts to unseat Senator Tower. He may be a fine Rhodes scholar, a great guy, and from a very fine family. But we don't think he comes across to the voters.

Second, Tower is always referred to as an "odd piece of political furniture for Texas" because he is the only Republican to win and keep a major Texas office from the Democrats.

But it's not so odd really.

Tower is a true conservative — and that's basically what most Texas voters are although the big Democratic party in Texas has a growing liberal wing which may take over some day.

John has been living in Washington these many years simply because most Texans are completely out of political tune with every national Democratic administration of recent times.

That hasn't changed.

If Kruger wins Nov. 7 he is going to have to "cuttail" it — and hold on with both hands. All of which he was doing last week when he made a helicopter swing with Hill.

There aren't any real issues in the senatorial campaign. It's a basic choice of one's political philosophy. Kruger is trying to act as conservative as possible, but he can't "out-conserve" Tower.

What's more we're thinking Tower has found new political strength in Texas farmers.

During the Washington "tractorcade" last spring and early summer, it was Tower who went to bat for farmers in support of full parity. From what we've heard, the farmers haven't forgotten. The farm organization hasn't endorsed anybody, but those farmers have good memories.

All of which adds up to a very close senate race. That's because Kruger is the Democratic nominee and we would estimate there are thousands of Texas voter who don't know who is even running, but will mark it for the Democratic nominee Nov. 7. That is a political fact of life that Tower simply has to live with.

Tower never wins big. He will be satisfied to win another squeaker.

Karen Tubbs photo winner

Karen Tubbs, seven-year-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Tubbs of Garland recently won two second place prizes in the junior photography division in this year's State Fair of Texas Arts and Crafts competition.

Karen's entries were a night photograph of a Ferris Wheel and a day picture of bluebonnet in the floral division.

The most interesting thing about Karen's awards was that she was competing against children between the ages of 12 and 18.

Photography is a family hobby of the Tubbs' and Karen first began taking pictures with simple pocket cameras when she was five, but in the last year, she started using the single reflex camera.

Karen is the granddaughter of Dr. Harry Tubbs.

Adams-Mason vows exchanged Friday

Wedding vows were exchanged between Melinda
Adams and Joe Mason,
Friday, Oct. 20 in the home of the bridegroom's parents.

Rev. Glenn Reece, pastor of the First Baptist Church performed the double ring ceremony at 6 p.m., before a fireplace setting, with the mantle featuring a candle-abra and an arrangement of yellow mums and gladiolas.
Other decorations were English ivy with yellow bells and votive cups.

Parents of the bride are
Mr. and Mrs. Keith Adams and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jody Mason.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of Peau-de-sou satin with dainty alencon lace. The gown featured a beaded Victorian neckline, full flounced skirt flowing to a lace chapel length train. The bridal bouquet was of white feather glads with a touch of yellow. Carrying out the tradition of something old, she wore a tear-drop necklace belonging to the her mother; the something new, her dress; borrowed,

her grandmother's handkerchief and a blue garter made by Mrs. Sue Maxey and wore a penny in her shoe.

Dalynn Tomlin of Midland
sister of the bride, and Jody Mason, father of the bridegroom, served as honor attendants.

Wedding music was provided by Penny Sheed who sang "There is Love."

Wedding guests were registered by Karen Clary.

A reception followed the ceremony with a three-tiered wedding cake, a gift from Mrs. Jimmy Williams, cousin of the bride, served with milk glass appointments.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr.
and Mrs. David Tomlin, David and Bryan of Midland, Jim Blocker of Midland, Mrs. Mildred Gardner and grandsons, Doug and Joel Williams of Lubbock,
Mrs. Jack Coulter and sons, Charles and Forrest of Burleson and G.T. Mason,
Jr. and children of Lubbock.

Following a short wedding trip, the couple are residing in Post where the groom is employed by Kerr-McGee and the bride is a senior at Post High School.

MR. AND MRS. JOE MASON

Poultry called best for budget eating

COLLEGE STATION —
Poultry still provides budget eating when compared to red meats, advises Gwendolyn Clyatt.

Also, according to predictions, cattle and hog prices will remain higher than a year earlier — through the first half of 1979, she says.

That forecast is based on smaller supplies of red meat, less hog production than expected and continued strong consumer demand, she adds.

Mrs. Clyatt is a consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System.

At Texas grocery markets
this week, budget buys include whole fryer chickens, large turkeys on special in some markets and potatoes — along with dairy, canned and frozen food features, she says.

Dairy
Features include milk,
sour cream, whipping
cream, yogurt and cheeses.

Grocery Market Aisles
Specials appear on canned fruits and vegetables, pork and beans, tuna fish and macaroni.

Frozen Foods
Budget buys are fruit pies and French fries.

Fresh Fruits
Apple quality is excellent and prices a bit lower.
Check prices on red grapes and pears, which are in good supply, along with bananas.

Also, notice more cranberries with good quality.
Expect lower grapefruit prices and sweeter oranges
— soon, as the citrus season arrives.

Fresh Vegetables
Along with potatoes, budget buys are possible with dry onions, hard shell squash and pumpkin. Good values include carrots,
broccoli, cooking greens,
sweet potatoes and rutabagas.

Beef
Highlight items are chuck roasts and steaks, round steaks, ground beef with soy protein, liver and sirloin steak in some markets.

Pork
Values are mostly on Boston butt roasts, quarter loin sliced into chops, rib and loin-end roasts and liver.

Adult foster homes sought

Adult foster homes are needed by the Texas Department of Human Resources in Lubbock and surrounding counties to provide care for aged, blind, or other disabled adults. The aim is to assist persons who cannot live independently, but do not require nursing home placement.

Families, couples or singles are being sought, who have room in their home for one to three aged or disabled persons and can provide a family-like, loving atmosphere.

The foster family must be willing to help provide social, recreational, and religious activities as appropriate.

The resident placed in the foster home will be able to walk without personal assistance and provide his or her own personal care.

Cost of the care is shared by the resident and the Department of Human Resources. Payment to the foster home is approximately $250.00 per persons per month.

Persons interested in learning more about providing this service should contact their nearest Department of Human Resources office. In Post call

What can I say but GREAT JOB DONE Antelopes!!

For a home game, the crowd was not the best I've seen. Come on folks, you can do better than that. The Lopes are not out of it yet and they need each and everyone of you there to support them. Crowd support means more than you realize. When the boys come out of the dressing room and see that victory line, their ole' adrenalin flows a little harder and they want to win that much more.

Roosevelt is not that far, so see you there!!

Oh yes, before I forget. Dan Sawyers was home this past weekend with FRIEND and journeyed to Dallas to watch the Cowboys play. LUCKY.

For all you sleepy heads who did not get up in time for the Walkathon Saturday morning you don't know what you missed. Congratulations to all of those who did climb out before sun up and make the 10-mile walk.

An interesting thing happened during the walk. Yours truly was there to take a few pictures. When stopped on top of the cap, I heard a cat crying. Yes I said a cat. Well after much searching inside and out, I thought I must have picked up one of mine at the house and that it was probably under the hood and was going to be a horrible mess when the hood was opened. Chicken hearted that I am, I asked the CB club members standing nearby to please open the hood and get the hurt cat out and they graciously agreed.

Well the hood was opened and NO CAT. But the crying was still there, louder than ever. The culprit was finally located in my fender. How it got there is anyone's guess. But with the help of two county employees and the CB club members, the cat did escape from its environment and disappeared into a nearby tree with three dogs after it in hot pursuit. See, I told you that you missed something.

I heard in a round about way that former Postite Scott Walker was awarded a four foot trophy for being "Back of the Week" in San Antonio recently. GREAT GOING SCOTT. We miss

Drama club sees Romeo and Juliet

By JAY YOUNG
 The PHS Drama Club went to see the Texas Tech production of Romeo and Juliet Sunday, Oct. 22.

The group left at 12:30 and arrived about 1:45. Everyone had a sack lunch on the way. Although it was a little cramped on the bus everyone had a good time.

The play was very good and afterwards everyone went to the green room and visited with the cast.

you here at Post.

Several kids participated in the Memphis Enduro this past weekend. Riding were Kim and Rynn Norman, Barry and Phil Tyler, Kirk Stevens, Jimmy Norman, Rodney Gray, and Dennis Mason. Also a pit crew of Cain Abraham, Pat Mitchell and Brad Mason went along to give moral support.

Charlie Cendalski was elected president of the NETA this week and wants the whole world to know about it.

You see folks, the NETA is a myth. It all came about when Mrs. Priscilla Williams speech class studied parliamentary procedure this week and they needed a club to more clearly understand parliamentary rules. Thus, NETA was formed. By the way NETA stands for NATIONAL EGG THROWERS OF AMERICA. You wouldn't believe the rules and regulations even if I put them in. So enough of that.

One Happy Birthday this week goes out to David Morrow and BREAK A LEG David. Isn't that what you're supposed to say, instead of good luck? David makes his appearance this Friday in the opera, La Boheme.

John Hill calls for state tax freeze
"Our state taxes in Texas are among the lowest in the nation, and I want to keep them there. As I've said many times, I'll veto a tax increase before the ink dries on the bill."

As Attorney General, John Hill proved he could increase the efficiency of his office without any unnecessary budget increases. He absorbed a three-fold increase in his office caseload by hiring top legal talent capable of higher productivity. The result: his staff lawyers doubled their average workload, and the increased court judgments and enforcement of civil penalty laws returned $25 for every $1 of state funds spent on his office.

As Governor, John Hill will insist on this same type of increased productivity for all state agencies. He will institute new controls over federal funds, demand that we follow our "pay-as-you-go" budget policy, and use zero-base budgeting to eliminate unneeded programs before any new programs are added. And he'll block any state tax increase — there won't be any new taxes under John Hill.

Clements stands for results in Texas education

(EDITOR'S NOTE — A lot has been written of John Hill's educational proposals and his endorsement by the Texas State Teachers Association, the first such endorsement ever given a Texas gubernatorial candidate. In comparison, what does Republican Bill Clements propose in the educational field. His office released a rather complete statement of his views last weekend and The Dispatch is passing it along to provide its readers with a comparison.)

The key to improving education in Texas lies not in just increasing the amount of money spent, but in demanding definite results from those expenditures, gubernatorial candidate Bill Clements said today.

Declaring education as a top priority of all Texans, Clements addressed the challenges of improving Texas classrooms in a series of major speeches around the state.

"Over the past decade in America, we have tripled the amount of money spent on each student. Yet, we continue to produce high school graduates who cannot read, who cannot write, and who cannot do simple arithmetic," Clements said. "The fundamental mistake we make in the Texas educational system is to measure effectiveness according to what we put in, when we should measure effectiveness by output," he stated.

"We need to measure the effectiveness of our school systems and then take action," Clements stated. "That is a major difference between my opponent and me. I want the education system of Texas to produce results. My opponent is a captive of the 'educational establishment.' He simply proposes to throw money at the problem."

Clements also said, "State and local governments pride themselves on throwing more and more money at educational problems each year. They measure and report such inputs as expenditures per pupil, student-to-teacher ratios, and increased funds spent on textbooks, laboratories, and supplemental education programs."

This approach, Clements said, is not working and he pointed to the results of a major, statewide competency test released last week by the Texas Educational Agency as proof.

"It is a voluminous report, but in short it shows a continuing deterioration in the academic competency of our children. If allowed to continue, this deterioration will lead to disaster. I want to see our schools return to basics: reading, writing and arithmetic, with discipline in the classroom," he said.

Services held for F.M. Reep

Services for F.M. Reep, 45, of Brownwood, were held Thursday, Oct. 19 in the First Baptist Church at 3 p.m. with Rev. Glenn Reece, pastor, officiating, assisted by Rev. Jimmy Kennedy of the Calvary Baptist Church.

Reep died Wednesday, Oct. 18 in St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock, following a lengthy illness.

Born Jan. 22, 1933 in Tulia, he had resided in Post a number of years and attended Post schools.

He was married to Janie Gossett Nov. 4, 1977 in Tahoka.

Survivors include his wife, Janie, his mother, Mrs. Jette Puckett; one daughter, Vickie Pennell of San Angelo; one son, Sandy Laurence of Pecos; and one stepson, Jim Stanford of Snyder; two step brothers, Jimmy Puckett of Ropesville and Tommy Puckett of El Paso; one sister, Christine Howie; and three grandchildren.

Pall bearers were Jimmy Avery Moore, Pat Pennell, Junior Shepherd, Tim Reep and Jimmy Puckett.

Honorary pallbearer was Rodney Reep.

Burial was in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Justice-Mason Funeral Home.

that can use their education in useful, productive careers," Clements proposed. Tightening the curricula at the colleges and universities that educate teachers.

Tightening the certification process for teachers and requiring re-certification every five years.

Increasing the starting salaries for beginning teachers to make salaries competitive with other state agencies and increase the pool of available talent from which we can recruit.

In that regard, he said, "we should grant our teachers annual salary increases to protect against inflation, and we should award merit increases to outstanding teachers. But, immediate, automatic raises for all teachers is not a solution to the problems of quality education."

Establishing faculty senates in order to get the teachers back into the management of the schools. Teachers must be consulted on the design of core curricula, textbook selection, standardized testing, and matters of discipline. Supporting teachers all the way, even to the point of legal counsel, if that becomes necessary because of "due process" challenges to faculty authority.

Getting parents back into the educational system with parents and teachers agreeing on written standards of conduct that will be enforced.

Eliminating social promotions.

In that regard, Clements said, "we must establish performance criteria for students at each step along the way and a minimum level of competency for graduation. We must have standardized tests to assure us of results."

Addressing the problems of school finance promptly, honestly, and imaginatively. The foundation program in economically depressed school districts must be fully funded by the state. School district whose tax base will not otherwise support a quality program must be helped.

PERSPECTIVE Life and keeping a proper perspective brings to mind the story of Columbus and his journey. Before he set sail, it was believed that the world ended somewhere past Gibraltar, and the Spanish gloried in the thought their country fronted the Great Beyond. The royal motto was: Ne Plus Ultra, "There is no more beyond here." However, when Columbus returned, the motto had no meaning, resulting in a crisis in the court of Queen Isabella until someone suggested deleting the word, Ne. Then the motto was, "There is plenty more beyond."

Letters to the Editor

IN PROTEST
 Dear Editor:
 Recently I have become quite concerned about all the publicity and popularity of a certain rock group "KISS". I am especially concerned now as I understand they have a movie to be aired on TV this weekend. I am wondering if they aren't a lot of people, young and old alike, who do not know what this group "KISS" stands for. As I understand it, their very name means "Kings in Satan's Service", and their music backs this statement — just listen closely. Has America gone so far as to follow these avowed followers of Satan just like dumb animals will follow each other over a cliff? WAKE UP, AMERICA!! Protect your faith in God and that of your children! Let's tell "Kiss" that there are still plenty of people who believe in God and will not condone such acts of blasphemy! Stop buying anything with the KISS name — records, t-shirts, etc. Write to KCBT-TV, Channel 11 and tell them you don't want KISS to have their movie shown here. "Kings in Satan's Service are trying to destroy our faith in God. Let's stop them now! Act out your faith in God!!

Organ, piano given church

ATTEND ART SHOW
 Mr. and Mrs. Giles McCrary and Mrs. Frances Camp returned Sunday from Phoenix, Ariz., where they attended the annual awards show of the Cowboy Artists of America Friday and Saturday. In Phoenix they were joined by daughters, Pam McCrary of Lubbock and Carol Camp of Houston.

A new organ and piano for sanctuary use has been donated to the First Christian Church by the K.W. Kirkpatrick and Jack Kirkpatrick families and Mrs. W.M. Kirkpatrick. The organ is an Allen and the piano an Everett that is especially designed for the church sanctuary.

The Allen is a digital computer organ which stores musical waveshapes in digital form and recreates them at a touch of the keys. Pipe organ and carillon bell waveshapes, as well as those of other musical instruments can be successfully recreated.

The instruments will be dedicated at 11 a.m. Sunday at the church. Mrs. K.W. Kirkpatrick will play the dedicatory music and Mrs. Don Pennell, who is the regular Christian Church organist, will act as soloist for this occasion.

The public is cordially invited to attend this service.

Lopes' attack comes alive to bury Cooper 35-0

Five players score touchdowns for Post

The Post Antelopes got their offense rolling consistently for the first time this season against the Cooper Pirates in the second half here Friday night as they broke away for a satisfying 35-0 district win after leading by only seven points at halftime.

In those two quarters, the Lopes rang up 171 yards net rushing, 109 more passing and totaled 14 first downs as well as scoring four touchdowns.

They were so much in control they didn't even have to punt.

It was the second shutout for the Lopes defensive unit in three district starts, although the Pirates didn't have anything like the attack the Lopes shut down at Denver City two weeks before.

The only low marks for the Lopes for the night were nine penalties for 95 yards (something like a Dallas Cowboy effort) with Cooper turning down two or three carries; five fumbles with three of them turnovers; and a very slow start which saw the defense pin the Pirates to their goal line for the first quarter and a half with Post coming away with only seven points.

Other bright spots were three pass interceptions gathered in by the Lopes; the three turnovers grabbed by Defensive Back Mike Macy when he intercepted two passes, one in his own end zone to stop the only Cooper threat of the game, and pounced on one fumble; and the scoring of the five touchdowns by five different players.

Wingback Cliff Kirkpatrick missed his third 100-yard game by only two yards as he rang up 98 yards in 18 rushes. Wingback Bobby Finch came alive in the second half for 36 yards in eight carries.

Clinton Curtis had 45 also in night. Fullback Darrell Reece had 44 yards in six carries up the middle; Tim Morris had 25 in five; and quarterback Rance Adkins also had 25 in four runs, but was sacked twice for 14 yards in losses.

Split End Bryan Compton got the other 10 rushing yards in Post's productive 79 yard night when he slipped on an end-around reverse for a touchdown in the "big third." He also latched onto a 50-yard pass-run again when he gathered in Adkins' first throw of the night on a deep post pattern and carried it to the Cooper 10 in the second period.

Oh yes, Compton had his second touchdown called back on a pass play in the second period on a motion penalty.

Adkins got Post's first touchdown with 22 seconds left in the first quarter when he rolled out left on a keeper and scored from 10-yards out on the third play 40 yard drive which saw Morris get 10 and Kirkpatrick 16 to set it up.

To avoid repetition, Leslie Looney converted five straight point kicks after each of the five Post touchdowns.

Nothing much happened in a rather dull second period except that Post had a touchdown pass to Compton called back on a penalty, Macy picked off a Cooper pass in his own end zone after Post fumbled twice in two minutes to give the Pirates their only scoring threat of the night, and Looney was wide left on a 36-yard field goal try with only seconds left before intermission.

The Lopes apparently lost their sluggishness coming out of the dressing room for the third quarter as they went to work to score three touchdowns in the next 11 minutes of action, and two of them were dazzlers.

First Post drove 95 yards from the second half kickoff for their second touchdown, but the play which got them really rolling was a crowd-screamer of a little screen pass from Adkins to Kirkpatrick in the right flat on a third and 14.

Kirkpatrick gathered in the ball about on the line of scrimmage — Post's 29 — and then slashed down the west sideline behind a blocking screen for 71 yards

OP gets upset hint

The Old Prognosticator just "got the feeling" here last Friday night before the Cooper game when a bright-eyed well scrubbed Seminole scout came to the press box and asked if the press box had a phone in it.

He said he wanted to call Tahoka at halftime to see how Seminole was doing with the Bulldogs.

Sure enough, the next morning the A-J reported and a touchdown.

Only two Pirates had tackle shots at him and he faked both off so badly neither even got a hand on him.

That came with 8:05 left in the third — and the Lopes came really alive for the first time in 1978, that is they began to move the ball consistently from then on.

On the first running play after the kickoff, Macy recovered a Cooper fumble on the Pirate 25, and the Lopes whipped it across for the third tally in five running plays.

The touchdown play was a sweet little "deceiver" as even Tom Landry could call down from heaven. Compton from his split end position on the left side took the ball on a reverse-end around and sprinted 10 yards into the end zone. There was 5:20 left.

Macy got the Lopes going again by intercepting his second Cooper pass on the Post 46. The Lopes rambled 54 yards in seven rushes with Finch getting 30 of them in three carries and scoring around left end from 16 yards out when he just ran away from the Pirate defense down the sidelines.

There was still 1:26 in the quarter then.

Cooper drove to the Post 33 early in the fourth, aided by two Post penalties before the Lopes dug in and took the ball on downs.

There followed an exchange of fumbles with Tackle Jerry Perez grabbing a Cooper fumble in the air after Macy, in as reserve quarterback, had fumbled the ball to the Pirates.

The Lopes then marched 67 yards to their final score with Clinton Curtis scoring standing up on a counter from five yards out with 6:41 left in the game.

On that drive, Reece, Finch and Curtis all got off 15 yard runs and Adkins completed passes of 10 yards to End Dale Redman and 26 yards to End Jackie Stelzer, the last one a deflected ball which put the Lopes on the Pirate five.

that the Indians had upset Tahoka 14-12 in a new game called "Fumbleball" 14 to 12.

Each team fumbled the ball seven times and lost it six times. Between dropping the ball, the Bulldogs ran all over the field, but couldn't kick a conversion point.

The way that young scout acted, the O.P. "knew" that something was up. And that something spoiled a perfect week for the Prog.

With the pressure on from the "front office" for his miserable season, the OP had the other four games picked right. It was a giddy feeling.

There's no Seminole at Tahoka this week to mess things up, but there's a real toughie over in 4AA when Idalou takes on Floydada at Floydada. For that matter what will happen when Tahoka journeys to Denver City where it won't be a question of who is the best, but who can hang on to the football.

Still all aglow, the OP "ventures" these winners: POST at Roosevelt: The Eagles are the meanest in their home nest, but the Lopes after a six-game search may have finally found some offensive consistency. They'll need it 'cause the Eagles can put touchdowns on the board against anybody.

LOCKNEY at Abernathy: This won't be easy and the Longhorns will have to bounce back tough after losing a very rugged one to Floydada last week. Abernathy has surprised the OP before with their spirited play.

IDALOU at Floydada: Those state-ranked Cats have really put it together this year, and this one will be for the 4AA crown, so they'll be up and uppity.

COLORADO CITY at Stamford: Looking back, the OP is a bit uncomfortable to find that he has now picked four straight winners who will be on the road. That's not a good percentage. But the Wolves are like Tahoka. They win if they hold onto the ball, and that's a percentage working in their favor.

TAHOKA at Denver City: We don't know if Bulldog backs have been carrying footballs to class this week, but the OP anticipates they will put both the ball and the game away in that order come Friday night. Now that makes five road winners doesn't it?

SLATON at Cooper: Yes and this makes six. There is no way Cooper can win this one unless the lights go out and even then the Tigers would rate a 4 td edge.

Frenship at SEMINOLE: The Seminoles are coming off a very big win and somebody in this league should win at home Friday night, but still Frenship is 3-0 and leading the district.

Four out of five last week gave the OP 33 right in 52 picks for the season and a lowly .638 percentage, but getting better.

8th grade beats Cooper

The eighth grade team, defeated Cooper's eighth by 40-20 here Thursday night with Mark Odom opening the scoring with a 31 yard run off right end. He also ran the extras, for the only scoring in the first period.

In the second period of play Will Kirkpatrick swept right end for 16 yards for the td and Tim Tannehill scored the extra.

Cooper came back and scored their first td on a long pass to make the score 14-7. With Post in possession of the ball Melvin Wynne, as quarterback, kept the ball for a quarterback sneak and gained 45 yards up the middle. He then

Combined frosh-soph team beats Cooper

Coach Lane Tannehill combined seven sophomores with his Post freshman team last Thursday night to defeat a combination freshman-sophomore Cooper team, 8 to 0, at Cooper.

Cooper does not have a junior varsity team because there aren't enough out for football.

Each side suited out seven sophomores with the rest freshmen. Post sophomores participating were Adolfo Varela, Mike Anthony, Robert Quinonez, Ronnie Bilbo, Lance Dunn, Ruben Storie and Roy Martinez.

Post's touchdown came in the second period when Wingback Dana Scott broke loose on a 45-yard touchdown run. Fullback Ronnie Price swept end for the two conversion points.

Price had a 65-yard end sweep for an apparent touchdown called back due to a use of hands penalty against Post.

Two other times penalties killed Post drives near the

Lopes to Roosevelt, seek third district 5AA win

The Post Antelopes, with two district wins in three starts, will journey to Roosevelt Friday night to play a team which has only one win in six starts, but which as Coach Jackie Brown says "has scored a lot of points against everybody they've played."

Asked to comment on the jumbled district 5AA race which has the Frenship Tigers as the only unbeaten team and four others at two and one, Coach Brown commented:

"Right now we're only looking at Roosevelt."

That's the best way to look at it too, because beyond Roosevelt it will be Seminole, Tahoka, and Frenship, three real toughies.

Coach Brown did later in his weekly interview at The Dispatch that he don't think anybody is out of this one until they get the third loss.

That's just about the best of a race it is.

The Lopes will be in good physical shape for the game with the Eagles, at least everybody in playing condition.

What's new with the Lopes? Not so much.

Coach Brown says simply: "We're trying to be better at what we're doing with the people we've got."

Roosevelt is mostly a running club. New head coach Dean Elliott, a former Eagle assistant, has coached the Houston team for an attack.

Coach Brown says the Eagles have got some talent, good speed, and pass size both offensively and defensively.

Quarterback Roger Lacey, small at 130 pounds, is quick and fast. Scott Dennis Price, a 180-pounder is tailback, and 180-pound Junior Vasquez is fullback. Both can run.

Asked to comment on the game as some of the team was being played.

One thing the Lopes are sure of. From here on in the 1978 schedule, all their opponents are going to be good ball clubs.

Melton Williams runs 278 yards and 6 tds

Melton Williams ran for 278 yards and scored six touchdowns in leading the seventh grade to a 42 to 16 win over the Cooper seventh in Antelope Stadium Thursday night.

Williams started his scoring yardage by returning the opening kickoff 70 yards for the td and also tried the extra for no score.

After holding Cooper to four plays, Post gets the ball and Williams sweeps right end for 32 yards and the td with Felix Bustos scoring the extra point.

Opening the second quarter Williams sprinted up the middle for 25 yards and another td with Steven Fluitt scoring the extra point. The defense did a superb job in holding Cooper to four plays again and the visitors punting to Post on fourth down, Williams returned the punt for 60 yards for his fourth td of the night with the extras no good and took a lead of 28-0 in the field house at the half.

The third period saw Cooper scoring twice to narrow the lead to 28-16 but that was short lived, Cooper punted to Post in the fourth, Williams again raced 65 yards for the td with extras no good. After Post held Cooper on downs Williams scored the final td from 26 yards out with L. D. Harper scoring the extra.

Coach Giddens and Mickey Long were extremely pleased with the performance of all their players and especially the offensive line of Adam Mendoza, Gilbert Perez, David Gonzales, Giles Dalby, Lynn Allen, Michael Valdez and Robbie Williams.

The team's next start will be with Roosevelt here Thursday.

POST ANTELOPES VS. ROOSEVELT EAGLES

At Roosevelt--- 7.30 P.M. Friday, October 27

The Eagles have been losing a lot more than they have been winning, but they still have shown the ability to score — and usually rather often— against any opponent. If the Lopes can exhibit the same attack consistency they displayed in the second half against Cooper. They can climb back into the District 5AA race with a victory. Seminole, Post's homecoming foe, upset Tahoka last Friday night when the Bulldogs fumbled seven times and lost six of them to make it a wide open district race. One thing about Roosevelt — they are doubly tough at home and that is where this one will be played.

Shared housing offered elderly

The Department of Human Resources is offering elderly and handicapped persons in Lubbock and 14 surrounding counties an opportunity to live independently in shared housing arrangements.

The project, called the Alternate Living Plan, is aimed at aiding the elderly and handicapped in avoiding premature entry into nursing homes.

A family-like setting will be established and house-keeping chores, cooking and limited personal care will be performed by a live-in or part-time homemaker.

Shared household costs will make community living more affordable for those on fixed incomes.

Housing may vary from several persons sharing a home to individuals residing in separate units within an apartment complex or boarding house.

Interested elderly and handicapped persons will be considered for participation on the basis of their physical disabilities and ability to get along with others. Persons with severe disorientation or confusion cannot be accommodated in this project.

In order to be financially eligible, the monthly income for an individual must be $573.09 or less.

All persons interested in the project should contact the nearest Department of Human Resources office. In Post call LaVern Howard at 495-2881. Priscilla Byrd, Alternate Living Plan Coordinator, may also be contacted in Lubbock at 762-8923, Ext. 253.

Cotton price boosted $2.50

Prices High Plains cotton growers received were a round $2.50 per bale higher the week ending Oct. 20, according to Paul R. Dickson, Area Director at USDA's Marketing Services Office in Lubbock.

Growers sold mixed lots of mostly grades 42 and better, staples 30-33, mikes 3.5-4.9 around 57.00 cents per pound. New crop lots of mostly grade 43, staple 30, mikes 3.5-4.9 brought about 51.90 cents per pound, Dickson said.

High Plains Marketing Services Offices graded 24,300 samples this week, bringing the season's total to 31,800. This compares with 395,000 graded by October 20 last year, according to USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service.

Gins paid growers $100 to $110 dollars per ton for cottonseed.

A TAXPAYER'S BILL OF RIGHTS IS PAST DUE

Bill Clements believes we still have a chance to preserve our future by establishing constitutional protection against excessive taxation and runaway government spending.

Bill Clements believes the people of Texas should have the power necessary to ratify or reject tax policies made by legislators.

To establish this power (of the people), Bill Clements will introduce an amendment to the Texas Constitution that would give the people of Texas this right.

Bill Clements' "Taxpayers' Bill of Rights" would:

- Give Texans the right of initiative and referendum, a phrase that means we, the people, have a right to vote on the taxes to be levied on us.
- Place a ban on corporate or personal income tax in Texas.
- Require a two-thirds record vote of both houses of the legislature to pass a tax bill.
- Allow local taxpayers to call an election to ratify or reject a tax increase created by a local governmental unit.

Bill Clements believes in Texas and the people of Texas.

Bill Clements thinks that elected officials must work for the people and represent them properly.

As governor of Texas, Bill Clements will work for and with the people of Texas.

It's about time someone recalled that our form of government was conceived to be a servant of the people and provide the means to insure that principle endures.

if we're spending a lot more today to remodel and expand the old high school — not quite twice as much — as it cost us to build the present high school.

Adding to the fun is the fact, that in 1959, a 21-year bond issue was voted. And this time school trustees worked it out to have the money on hand.

If the reader wonders why he find two Oil Progress Week ads in the week-after edition of The Dispatch, this is to explain that both arrived late by mail with checks enclosed.

Since it's a whole year before we run Oil Progress again, we decided to place both ads in this edition with this explanation. Both Bond Operating Co. of Dallas and Joseph I. O'Neill, Jr. of Midland have been regular participants in our oil edition for many years.

There are two new Main Street business changes this week.

Sonny Gossett has purchased the stock of Marshall Ticer's Radio Shack and has had the franchise transferred to his name. Sonny has opened his shop at 105 West Main and is planning a grand opening as soon as he gets settled. Look for his opening ad in today's Dispatch.

The other change is a south to north move by Twins Fashions. They moved across the street into the Mason building over the weekend. We were surprised to find when we called on them in their new location Monday morning that they have such a large stock of women's and children's wear that it completely filled the Mason building. You'll find their "moved" ad on page 5.

Toby Craft made the interception of a long Cooper pass. Kirkpatrick scored the td on a 15 yard run and Giddens the extras.

Tim Tannehill then intercepted another Cooper pass to end the half.

The passing defense was in great form as Irvin Price intercepted another Cooper pass in the third and took it in 28 yards for the td with Marvin Wynne running the extras.

Cooper started a long drive and took it to the five yard line when Scott Lewis intercepted a pass to stop the scoring drive.

Cooper did mount a scoring drive with eight points with a minute and a half left in the game and again with 32 seconds left.

Offensive linemen for the game were Irvin Price, Richard Cisneros, Kim Norman, Larry Jackson, Toby Craft, Henry De la Rosa, and Bill Black.

year to complete with 330 working days being allowed in the contract.

School trustees in April authorized Whitaker and Hall to draw up specific plans for renovation of the old junior high building, which formerly was the Post high school after determining a new building would cost considerably more.

By the May meeting, trustees and junior high teachers and principal got their first look at the plans, which included a 1,760 square foot dressing room area as well as the addition of 5,375 square feet onto the back of the building for a multi-purpose teaching area. The additions would tie both the field house and the old junior high gymnasium with the junior high school into a single building.

witnesses of the incident said the Curtis woman drove up in a car with a small gun and threatened to shoot Bill Henry Reed who was standing outside the cafe.

He was wrestling with her trying to get the gun away from her when it discharged, shooting her in the side, Pippin said witnesses told him.

Since nobody will file any charges, Pippin says he plans to file one himself as soon as Gazzie is well enough to be charged.

What's the charge? The sheriff says he is going to file against both Reed and Curtis for "discharging a firearm within the city limits."

field of rural health care. Dr. Mackey said Tech's No. 1 priority at the next session of the legislature will be funding for a College of Nursing.

He termed the shortage of nurses in West Texas "critical" and added that Tech can't hire enough nurses to staff its new medical teaching hospital so 120 of the 250 beds in it still remain unused.

Pointing out that Tech's College of Agriculture does a lot of research directly applicable to West Texas farming, Dr. Mackey said the outlook is promising for Tech to develop an actual use for mesquite.

In closing the university president said he sees the university's role as (1) to provide a high quality of education for the region and state; (2) to recognize itself as a community of scholars and students seeking new knowledge; and (3) to tie the university to serving the region, its economy, and its people.

New forb released

'Artec' Maximilian sunflower, a native forb relished by livestock and wildlife, has been released by the U.S. Soil Conservation Service. A forb is a herbaceous plant that is not a grass, sedge, or rush.

Dwaine Binford, district conservationist for SCS at Post, said the new variety was selected for use in range seeding.

"A lot of livestock producers in Texas would like to include seed of a native plant used by livestock and wildlife — especially deer and game birds — in range seeding mixtures," Binford said. "But seed for such plants simply are not available."

Since the May session, trustees have conferred every monthly meeting with architect Sanford Whitaker over final details of the modernization and expansion.

The construction is being financed entirely from the school district's new budget, which includes some $488,000 in funds set aside in recent years for maintenance and repair and from past surpluses.

With the big increase in property valuations in the school district this year, most of it oil, school trustees raised the rest simply by not lowering the tax rate.

In two other actions Tuesday night trustees voted to authorize school gasoline credit cards for the vocational ag teachers with the teachers reimbursing the school, and to buy for $5,200 from Harold Lucas Motors a pickup which E. A. Howard has been using under a lease-purchase agreement with Lucas.

Supt. Bill Shiver advised trustees school attorneys said the purchase could be made legally without bids because the school knows the condition of the vehicle and that it fits school needs. He pointed out it would be much more expensive to purchase a pickup by bidding under the state school law. By buying the formerly leased pickup operational savings will be considerable because it uses regular gas.
