8 candidates file for 3 school board posts

No races elsewhere

Candidate interest in the spring elections this year appears to be centered on three places on the school trustees—with only hours left before the Wednesday filing deadline when The Dispatch went to press.

Of course last minute filings are expected. Eight have filed for the three school positions, assuring a contest for each of them.

New school candidates filing during the last week include Mrs. Marilyn Williams for Place 1, Ronnie Dunn for Place 6, and Mike Flanigan and Robert Sanchez for Place 7.

That brings these present school contests:

Place 1, for one year unexpired term created by resignation, Jimmy Kennedy, Mrs. Andrea Willard and Mrs. Marilyn Williams.

Place 6, Royce Hart, incumbent, and Ronnie Dunn.

Place 7, John Boren, incumbent, Mike Flanigan and Robert Sanchez.

Only hours away from the deadline there were no contests in the hospital district and city council elections. In fact, the council didn't have enough candidates to fill all the positions coming open around the table.

Gene Moore and Charlie Brown have filed for reelection as hospital district directors. So far they are unopposed.

In the city council race, Councilmen Jim Jackson, Lewis Holly and Dr. William

C. Wilson have all filed for reelection but at presstime today had no opposition for the three positions.

Both Flanigan and Dunn have issued statements to The Dispatch on behalf of their candidacies.

Flanigan, who has filed for Place 7, is on the sales staff at Harold Lucas Motors and also is attending Texas Tech University part-time as a graduate student.

He holds his bachelor's degree from Baylor University, has served as an officer in the United States

Air Force, is married to the former Nancy Norman and is the father of one son.

"As a candidate for Place 7 on the school board," Flanigan said, "I pledge to work for quality education, a fear-free learning and (See 8 candidates, Page 14)

Man with $4,226 is found walking US-84

He was just a little, middle-aged fellow walking down US-84 at night near Southland who wouldn't talk — and had a lot of money in his pockets.

What's more the mystery of "Myron Minkin", remains unsolved.

Requests for information on the law enforcement teletype have brought back no real answers to the Garza sheriff's department.

Here is the way Sheriff Jim Pippin tells the story:

Officers picked up the man walking on the highway near Southland at 9:45 p. m. Friday night. The man refused to provide officers with any information about himself.

"He just didn't have anything to say" is the way Pippin describes it.

So he was brought to the sheriff's office here, questioned some more, and finally searched.

On his person was a Veterans Administration card made out to Myron Minkin.

Also found on his person was $4,226 in cash. And in one pocket was a bank book showing "Myron Minkin" had $10,000 more on deposit in a Kansas City, Mo., bank.

Mrs. Marianne Hart from the welfare service was called by officers to help interrogate the man who would not talk.

Finally, it was decided to send "minkin" to the state hospital at Big Spring as a mental incompetent.

When told of the decision, "Minkin" replied to officers he "would go but would not sign anything or say anything else about myself."

Saturday, two deputies took him on to Big Spring.

"We tried to get some information from Kansas City but we didn't hear anything back," Sheriff Pippin told The Dispatch. "I guess we just didn't have enough information about him to enable them to check it out."

The sheriff said the man was fairly well dressed, not very big, age about 54. He (See Mystery man, Page 14)

Four arrested in $800 Ticer theft

Paul Rivera of Post has been charged with the theft of a rifle stolen from Monk Palmer here Nov. 25, 1977, and with the theft of $800 from the Ticer Drive in grocery store last Dec. 12, Sheriff Jim Pippin announced Tuesday.

Rivera's wife, Margie Perez Rivera, also has been charged with the $800 grocery theft, and two others, Paul's brother, David Rivera and David's wife, Rita Mindieta Rivera, have been arrested in connection with the Ticer theft and also charged with the theft. The charge on all four are for theft over $200 and less than $10,000.

On Feb. 22, five officers led by Sheriff Pippin and Ranger Joe Hunt of Lubbock, and including a Crosby County deputy, found Palmer's stolen rifle and a lot of other items in a farm house on the Price Thomas ranch on FM 207 just across the Garza County line in Crosby county, Pippin told The Dispatch.

Sheriff Pippin said Paul Rivera's brother lived in the house.

Other items which Pippin brought back with him included television sets, hand calculators, speakers, tape decks, and the like. Rightful owners of the items are being sought, according to Pippin.

The party of officers had a search warrant when they went to the rural home.

Sheriff Pippin told The Dispatch he then acted "on information in a signed statement by a private citizen" in arresting Paul Rivera's wife and his (See 4 arrested, Page 14)

Brad Shepherd has realized his goal—being named to the all-district basketball team like his two older brothers before him.

But it didn't come easy.

In the Cooper game, he was injured with a knee to the groin and was told by his physician that a hernia operation would be required to repair the damage.

—O—

He asked if he could play out the schedule which five more games instead of dropping out and losing his chances for all-district. He was told he could and they fixed him up with a brace and he finished out playing with a little pain.

—O—

Last week, after the season was over, he entered the hospital and had his hernia operation. The day he got out Coach Alexander told him of his selection for all-district honors. "That," he told his friends, "made his recovery a lot less painful."

Guilty plea on drugs here

Billy Snow of Post had pleaded guilty in county court here to possession of marijuana over two ounces and was fined $150 and assessed $52.50 in court costs.

He remains out on a $2,500 bond after pleading not guilty to a charge of driving under the influence of drugs.

Snow was arrested here with David Benham last Wednesday night. Benham was charged with drunkenness.

Two US-84 lanes will be closed

The northbound lane of US-84 from 15th street to the top of the cap will be closed Monday for resurfacing in the current US-84 renovating project, Julian Smith, highway department engineer, announced this week.

The lane will be closed for two or three months and then all the traffic moved over to it while the southbound lane off the cap is resurfaced.

Work appears well along on the widening of the railroad overpass at the south approach to the city from two lanes to four lanes.

THIS WAY OUT — A new road has been built around the 4-H building with the exit made on the north side of the building which should help ease the traffic flow to and from the area. A few parking facilities have been made in front of the fair building area to enable the ladies working there to unload more easily. — (Staff Photo)

13th Jr. Livestock show will be 'biggest ever'

The 13th annual Garza County Junior Livestock Show and Sale, scheduled for March 9-10-11 shapes up to be "the biggest ever" according to county Agent Syd Conner.

Conner said 150 or more pigs are expected to be entered, 27 calves, 75 to 80 lambs, and maybe 18 horses.

If those predictions prove true, this will be the most animals ever.

The county agent said the show only has pens for about 100 pigs so pens are going to have to be borrowed from Slaton and hauled in.

"That means too," Conner said, "that the lambs will have to go back home after next Wednesday's weigh-in and not be returned to the show barn until Friday morning after the hog show enables show officials to clear some pens for them."

One big improvement at the show grounds this year is the completion of a "drive-around road" which will certainly help at the Wednesday weigh-in congestion.

This will enable entrants to bring in their animals, unload them, and then drive on around and out without having to fight back down the line of vehicles waiting to unload.

The road was completed

Rites here for crash victim

Funeral services for Aurora (Dora) Melvin, 32 of Lubbock were held Friday, Feb. 24 at 2 p.m. in the Holy Cross Catholic Church with Father Milton Silva officiating.

Born March 14, 1945 in Post, she died Wednesday, Feb. 22 in a Lubbock automobile accident.

Survivors include her father, George Mindieta of Post, her mother, Susie of Snyder; one daughter, Jacqueline of Lubbock; four sisters, Mary Martinez of Sterling City, Angel Diaz of Snyder, Aurelia Basquez and Rita Rivera both of Post; and two brothers, George Jr., and Daniel both of Post.

Pallbearers were Benny Valdez, Paul Perez, Herbert Pantoja, A.G. Guajardo, Hilado Jimenez and Mario Madrigal.

Interment was in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Hudman Funeral Home.

Grand jury panel drawn

A new Garza County district court grand jury will be organized at 10 a. m. Monday by District Judge George Hansard.

The 20 persons drawn for grand jury duty last week — from which 12 will be selected to serve — include Charles Adams, Ann Atman, Ray Bagby, Joe E. Basinger, Iona Smith, Louise Valdez;

Jo Ann Reed, Johnny Collazo, Wayne Carpenter, Madie Johnson, Robert H. Hudman, Hulien Hoyle, Brad Lott, Robert Sanchez, Lorrye Lou Moore, Ocie Bell, Malachi Mitchell, Mike Gonzales, Paula Valdez and Angelina Rodriguez.

Tuesday by Precinct 4 workers under the direction of County Commissioner Herbert Walls.

Here is the show schedule: All entries in the show are scheduled for weigh-in between 4 and 8:30 p.m., Wednesday, March 8.

Thursday night, March 9, swine show, beginning at 7:30 p.m. with Bob Ballard of New Home judge.

Friday, March 10, Horse show beginning at 2 p.m. with Leo White of Littlefield as judge; lamb show, beginning at 7:30 p.m., Joe Wise of Lamesa judge.

Saturday, March 11, steer show, beginning at 9 a.m. with Wise judging. Auction sale, beginning at 1:30 p.m. with Danny Burns and Kevin Hudson of the Herb Henderson Auctioneering Service back again as the auctioneers.

County gets 6 bids for federal funds

The Garza County Commissioners Court Monday received six proposals, totaling $20,610, at its public hearing for use of the county's unassigned 1978 federal revenue sharing funds.

Largest request of the six came from A.C. Cash, president of the Post Independent School District trustees, for the paving of the parking lot behind the band hall and school cafeteria.

Dr. Thomas Alvin, Southland school superintendent, asked for $5,000 to complete that new school's fire protection system. The school received $1,000 in federal funds last year to begin the first fire protection system in recent years.

David Newby, president of the Garza County Heritage Association, sought $3,600 in funding for Phase II in the present restoration of a large portion of the Algerita Hotel for use as a senior citizen center.

Mrs. Maxine Marks presented a request for $910 for equipment for the aging program.

The other two proposals were for $500 for the maintenance and upkeep of the Graham community center, made by County Commissioner Ted Aten, and $600 for a small computer system to be used for the district court's four-county docket, as presented by J.R. Johnson.

The court reviewed an architect's letter on necessary jail standard. Judge Giles Daiby told The Dispatch the changes probably will go into the county's 1979 budget and bids are already being taken on an exhaust system for the jail.

Jerry Davis of Insurance Associates appeared before the court to submit three bids on the county's hospitalization insurance. No action will be taken until the March 13 meeting.

Historical group to meet Tuesday

The Garza County Historical Survey Commission will hold its March meeting at 10 a.m. Tuesday in the bank's community room.

Those attending will hear a report on the Algerita hotel restoration and progress on the senior citizens center, on the art book project undertaken by Mrs. Peewee Pierce, and on the present status of the Garza County Historical Museum.

The public is invited.

Suit against Walker filed

Snyder Weil Services, Inc., of Snyder has filed a suit in Garza district court here against Pat N. Walker and Well Tech., Inc. of Odessa.

The Snyder firm asks judgment of $5,217.85 against Walker for services rendered on wells in this county and $4,000 in attorney fees, and also requests the court for foreclosure of statutory mechanics and materialmen's liens on three leasehold estates.

Further, the suit asks the court to determine the rights, if any, of Well Tech., Inc., who late last year filed lien claims against the same three leasehold estates.

Life long dream to come true Saturday

By NORMA BAUMANN
Glenda Morrow, local artist, will see a lifelong dream fulfilled Saturday when she has the opening of her own art gallery, called glenda's gallery."

A self-taught artist, except for a few lessons from Mrs. Presson and a watercolor workshop she attended last year, Glenda has been interested in art all her life. She won her first award in the second grade for a drawing done in crayola.

She has won the Post Art Show award for the best painting, has won awards in the Tahoka Art Show and blue ribbons in the fair throughout the years.

Married to Charles Morrow and the mother of four children, she also teaches art lessons to first grade students through adults throughout the week. At the present time, she has 25 students and will begin a new adult workshop in March.

Her husband, Charles, in his spare time remodeled the rented space into the attractive gallery which will feature oils, watercolors and acrylics of all types of landscapes, still-life, and various other

Do-it-yourself progress

The "striking farmers" are beginning to make their weight felt in Washington.

It was announced Monday the U.S. Agriculture Department will no longer buy any imported beef for the school lunch program. Score a big one for the farmers.

The logic of the farmers' arguments was there all along. But it takes a good deal of muscle to hammer even a good argument through the federal bureaucracy.

In the mail from Senator Tower's office Monday came an announcement that this conservative Texas Republican has introduced a farm bill which includes most of the striking farmers proposals; including a board made up of the farmers' own representatives to establish marketing quotas—minimum prices for farm products of 100 percent parity.

Significant or not, it is another conservative Republican from the Midwest farm belt who has introduced another farm bill much to the farmers' liking—Senator Robert Dole, the 1976 GOP vice presidential candidate from Kansas.

While it will take a lot Democratic votes to push either through it is obvious that the minority party is aware of the "farmers' problem" and that the Republicans are ready to make a strong bid to recapture the "farm vote."

While all this amazes a good many Texas farmers, who are "born and raised Democrats", if they will step back and look they'll see that they have a conservative staunch much like that of the Republicans.

Oh yes, and did you read of the endorsement of the farmers' goals this week by the council of "big labor."

"I don't know whether that will help us or hurt us," on Garza farmer told us in comment on the endorsement.

Actually while many farmers have opposed labor unions in the past, we are seeing the unions extending an olive branch to the farmers in their time of need.

And it's more than just a vocal announcement of support. The truckers helped out in Washington at the start of the farmers' continuing "paritycade." And we hear they are offering to do further with practical aid.

All these bits and pieces indicate how far the farmers have come in recent weeks.

Soon it will be "decision time" in Washington when lawmakers will have to lay talk aside and either vote or not vote for some help in the farm crisis. And soon it will be planting time across the nation.

This newspaper likes the way the farmers have gone about this long, almost unbelievable struggle to obtain economic help in the nick of time to save the family farm as we know it.

We hope they stick with their "strike offices," keep up those flights into Washington, and become neither pessimistic nor desparate. Making it big through the American political process is neither quick nor easy.

You have come a long, long way, baby—and learned so much in coming down the road your attitude will never be the same again.

Glenn Polk in starring role

SNYDER — "Barefoot in the Park," Neil Simon's rollicking comedy, has been chosen for the annual Western Texas College dinner theatre to be presented on March 9-11 and 16-18.

Junanne Brock and Glenn Polk have been cast in the roles of Corie and Paul Bratter, a pair of newlyweds setting up their first home in a tiny New York City apartment.

Miss Brock, a WTC student, won Best Actress honors at all levels at Interscholastic League competition as a student at Snyder High School. She appeared in a dual role in "Texas" in Palo Duro Canyon last summer and did the lead female role as an understudy.

Polk, formerly of Post and a graduate of Texas Tech University is associated with Radio Station KSNV. He previously appeared in "The Last of the Red Hot Lovers" and "The Odd Couple" at WTC, and has also worked with the Colorado City Playhouse.

Wheat or coal car fuel

Two Texas public officials this past week have been extolling the development of alcohol fuels, as a gasoline substitute, made from farm products or coal.

One of them is Agriculture Commissioner Reagan Brown who urged federal officials to take the initiative in developing facilities to manufacture fuel alcohol from agricultural products. He proposes the name "agrighol."

The other is Senator Lloyd Bentsen, who mails newspapers a weekly column which he very infrequently publishes. His column this week was devoted to "Philippine alcohol, made from sugar cane and pineapple pulp made back in the "depression '30s" as a cheap substitute for gasoline.

Bentsen's column reported Studebaker and International Harvester ads in the islands in those days offered vehicles built to burn the alcohol instead of gasoline at a 45 percent savings.

During World War II, Bentsen said, German General Erwin Rommel's famed Afrika Korps was spearheaded by hundreds of tanks powered by alcohol.

"Alcohol has never caught on as an automobile fuel in this country, with our vast, seemingly endless supplies of oil. Gasoline has always been so much cheaper that alcohol couldn't compete economically. Until now," the column said.

Bentsen then traces the modern day developments of alcohol as a fuel. Briefly, methanol, known as wood alcohol, can be made from coal under existing technology.

He says Dr. T.B. Reed of Massachusetts Institute of Technology has concluded the United States could supply 10 percent of its automotive fuel needs from about 10 percent of present coal production, and that it would cost only 8.5 cents a gallon to convert coal to methanol, compared with a 1973 cost of 11.8 cents to produce a gallon of gasoline.

Brazil already is offering a methanol-gasoline mix to its motorists and a mix of the coal derivative with gasoline in the United States would save 10 billion gallons of gasoline annually.

While Bentsen concludes oil and gas will continue to be our primary source of energy for the 40 to 50 years, he emphasizes, "Our national energy policy must not take into account and encourage development of oil and gas supplies, but it also must look to the future and encourage development of alternative sources of fuel."

Commissioner Brown is more specific. He points out that using farm products as a fuel source would help solve two major problems—U.S. farm surpluses and dependence upon overseas oil sources.

He said "agrighol" could be produced from almost any available substance containing carbon, including rice, potatoes, sugar cane or cactus. He added 2.5 gallons of fuel could be produced from each bushel of wheat. And closed with the thought that even municipal garbage or nonmarketable fruits and vegetables could be used.

Man has the genius to develop what he has into what he wants. Who knows, maybe in the not too distant future every "farm town" will have a little refinery to provide jobs in the community.

Burlington stronger, more flexible

MEXICANSBORO, N.C. — Burlington Industries Chairmen William A. Klopman and shareholders at the company's annual meeting said that "As a result of restructuring over the past years, Burlington has become a stronger, more flexible company."

Discussing the 1977 year Mr. Klopman said that the results were "impressive" when compared to the year before. He noted that there were two unusual events that largely accounted for the difference in earnings: foreign currency translation losses, and extension of LIFO inventory to textile manufacturing costs.

Klopman also commented on first quarter results and noted that while they were "somewhat lower than anticipated" they were "heavily impacted by two unusual events: 'Further strengthening of the dollar, and a 14-week strike at the company's operations in Mexico, which has since been resolved.'"

In discussing the company's restructuring, Mr. Klopman noted that "in 1973 Burlington was a company consisting of many divisions...with a great deal of overlap in product lines and a large amount of old equipment. We set about to correct that situation, withdrawing from those areas that we felt had no future and channeling our resources into those businesses whose prospects we considered bright."

He said that in the past five years, while some plants were closed, the company "spent some $525 million modernizing and upgrading our facilities and adding new production capability in areas of promise. In fact," he noted, "our current sales capacity in constant dollars is 10 percent greater than it was in 1973."

Mr. Klopman then went on to discuss the outlook for various segments of the company's business for fiscal 1978.

He said the "apparel area began on a low note because of a highly competitive atmosphere and lower unit apparel sales at retail and in the denim line a change in the supply-demand picture. As we look forward, we see the climate improving—and we project improved profitability on a quarter-by-quarter basis through the end of our fiscal year."

He noted that "our yarn operation continues to show satisfactory results while our industrial products group presents a mixed picture. Our home furnishings business is the largest in the industry," Mr. Klopman noted, "and is both profitable and growing in three significant areas:

carpets, draperies and furniture." He attributed some of this strong growth to the strength in housing construction which "should continue in 1978."

"The great bulk of the company's foreign investments are performing satisfactorily," he said, although he noted that the German worsted operation is still not profitable.

Mr. Klopman said Burlington will spend $220 million on capital expenditures in 1978, of which 75 percent will be for modernization, 17 percent for expansion and 8 percent for government-mandated programs and energy.

In closing, Mr. Klopman outlined what he termed "clouds on the horizon." "We are concerned and disturbed about the growth of government and onerous regulations, and the lack of a workable, believable energy policy that stresses production as well as conservation." He suggested that while there is a need for a tax bill to stimulate business, the Administration's proposals fall short of satisfying that need.

Mr. Klopman again reiterated the company's belief that "there is a lack of understanding by the Administration regarding problems of imports and their impact on our industry and others." He voiced Burlington's concern over the continuing trade deficit and noted that "we also believe that the United States is courting disaster when it continues to place so much emphasis on non-productive items in the economy and annually piles up debts of a magnitude of $60 billion."

Turning back to Burlington's restructuring, Mr. Klopman noted that "we have been simplifying our business and making it more flexible...modernizing those businesses we believe have a future and expanding in specific, profitable areas. While these programs have costs, we view them as prudent, essential investments in your company's future."

Concert series drive launched

The Lubbock Community Concert Association opened its 1978-79 concert series membership drive this week with Mrs. Ruby Kirkpatrick representing the concert association in the Post area.

The 1978-79 series will consist of four concerts: "The Four Freshmen", vocal quartet with instrumental accompaniment; "Jack Trussell", tenor, a rapidly rising concert singing star; "The Lowenthal, Zukerman, Solow Trio", piano, flute and cello; and as the star attraction of the series, the "Bulgarian National Folk Ensemble" of 70 dancers and musicians.

The concerts will be held in the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center Theatre.

Parents, Students, Teachers and Taxpayers

On Thursday night, Feb. 2 over 400 concerned citizens attended an open public meeting to discuss the subject of drug abuse among the youth of Post. At this meeting a citizen's task force was formed and a committee was nominated and elected. This committee was directed to formulate a set of aims and purposes for the task force. At a second open public meeting Feb. 7, the following aims were approved by the citizens in attendance.

1. To inform the citizens of Post young and old, that narcotics are a problem among the youth of our city.
2. To form a task force to face this problem and follow constructive measures to correct it.
3. To become an effective group which is concerned with the actions and attitudes of all the youth in Post.
4. To encourage parents and educators to instill the principles of authority and discipline in the youth of this city.

The Hill Family would like to thank everyone so very, very much for the many acts of kindness during our recent loss of our Father. Your love and kindness have been appreciated so much. Thank you all.
The Andrew Hill Family
Mrs. Jynell Moreau Family

I want to say thank you to all the people who made my stay in the hospital so pleasant. To those friends and loved ones who sent flowers to brighten my room, to those who sent beautiful cards and letters and to Dr. Wilson and all the sweet nurses who were always there when I needed them and for all those lovely friends who came to see me, I am so thankful always for our nice hospital where we can stay close to home.
Bessie Bowen

We are sincerely grateful to friends and neighbors for their many kind acts of sympathy during our bereavement. Our appreciation cannot be adequately expressed. A special thanks to all who sent flowers and food, Hudman's Funeral Home and to the ladies of Holy Cross Catholic Church. The Family of Aurora Mindieta Melvin

I want to thank the Post employees and all my friends for the wonderful things they did for me while I was in the hospital. Also for the prayers, cards, flowers and especially those who helped take care of our children, so my wife could be with me. Thanks again.

Fipps-Gribble vows are read in Bethany

Wedding vows were exchanged between Brenda Kaye Fipps and Rocky Allen Gribble Saturday, Feb. 25 in Bethany, Oklahoma in the First Church of the Nazarene.

Rev. Ronald L. Jordan, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Fipps of Temple. The parents of the bridegroom are H.C. Gribble of Grassland and Mrs. Dan Martin of Taboka and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gribble of Grassland and Floyd Jackson of O'Donnell.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal A line silk gown. Pearled venise lace trimmed the molded empire bodice with high Victorian neck and Bishop sleeves. The gown swept to back fullness to form a full attached chapel train. A Venice lace caplet held a lace edged English illusion veil. The bride bouquet was a cascade of apricot roses and baby's breath with an heirloom Bibb.

Mrs. Frandne Trygstad, sister of the bride, of Kodiak, Alaska, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Debbie Silley, sister of the bride of Temple and Mrs. Karen Chlapek of Temple. They wore princess styled floorlength dresses of apricot quina and carried long-stemmed roses with baby's breath.

Flower girl was Julie Dimmer of Temple and ring bearer was Kelly Snodgrass, nephew of the bride.

Candles were lighted by Ty Snodgrass of Belton, Tex., nephew of the bride.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Cindy Elliott of Temple and Ron Marchant of Oklahoma City accompanied by Miss Donna Schiller of Temple, organist and Mrs. Dena Scott of Temple, pianist.

Serving as best man was Ron Marchant of Oklahoma City and groomsmen and ushers were Gery Gilley of Temple and Danny Loyd of Jacksonville, Ark.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall with Amy Thomas and Kim Gribble of Grassland, sister of the bridegroom registering the guests.

Following a wedding trip, the couple will reside in Bethany, Okla.

The bride is a graduate of Temple High School and of Bethany Nazarene College with a bachelor of science degree in business. Rocky is a graduate of Post High School and Bethany Nazarene College with a bachelor of arts degree in music.

MRS. ROCKY GRIBBLE (Brenda Kaye Fipps)

A short business meeting was conducted with the club voting to have a covered dish luncheon in the month of August.

A letter from Girls Town was read thanking the club for their donation in memory of Mrs. T. L. Jones.

Refreshments of pie, coffee, nuts and mints were served to members, Innis Thuet, Helen Richards, Linda Malouf, Alma Hutto, Eula Evans, Margie Dietrich, Selma Kennedy, Lucy Callis and Johnnie Rogers.

Close City club meets

The Close City Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday, Feb. 21 in the Close City community center with eight members present.

The roll call was answered with "Our Plans for a New Spring Wardrobe." The minutes of the previous meeting were read by Thelma Thomas, who then presented the treasury report. A demonstration on slow cooking was given by Fannie Wardlow.

The remainder of the meeting was spent quilting on a king size quilt to be raffled off by the club later in the year.

Hostesses Faye Payton and Fannie Wardlow served refreshments to the following members, Virginia Custer, Thelma Thomas, Inez Richie, Oreta Bevers, Hooter Terry, Jewel White and our new member, Joann Mock.

Priscillas meet with Mrs. Epley

Mrs. Laurence Epley was host to the Priscilla Club when it met in her home Friday, Feb. 24.

During a business meeting, Mrs. Virginia Custer was voted into the club as a new member.

Cake, sandwiches, chips, coffee and Cokes were served to members, Mmes. Sybil Cockrum, Wanda Cox, Faye Mathis, Irene Mitchell, Emma Mueller, Odie Kemp, Annie Laura Francis and the hostess.

The club will meet Friday, March 10 with Irene Mitchell.

New Arrivals

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Cooper announce the birth of a son, Quinton Charles, born Saturday, Feb. 18 at 12:56 p.m. in Lubbock's West Texas Hospital, weighing 6 lbs., 3 ozs.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hays announce the birth of a son, Joshua Erik, born Wednesday, Feb. 22 in Lubbock's Health Sciences Hospital, weighing 6 lbs., 11 1/2 ozs. Maternal grandmother is Mrs. Virginia Taylor of Lubbock and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hays. Great-grandmothers are Mrs. Jim Hays and Mrs. Morris McClellan both of Post.

Widowhood workshop set

A workshop on "Widowhood" will be held March 9 beginning at 8:30 a.m. in the Lubbock Christian College Christian Development Center.

The meeting will be in charge of Jim Beyer and Callie Mickie and though it is stated as being for women, all interested men are invited.

A luncheon will be held in the President's Dining Room, but if you prefer to take your own lunch you are welcome to do so.

Culture club looks back to childhood

The Woman's Culture club met Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 22 in the woman's clubhouse.

The theme for the day was "Sharing a Favorite Book". Roll call was answered with "A Favorite Book of my Childhood."

Anaue Clinesmith gave a short talk on childrens literature I love. Estelle Davis gave "Children's Poetry of Time and Endurance." A child's playlet was given by Loree Thaxton and Pearl Storie. Songs of childhood were presented by Beulah Pickett and Consie Thuet with Maxine Smith on the piano. To close out the program, the group recited a child's prayer in unison.

Hostesses used the theme "George Washington's Birthday" in the decor for the refreshment table. The centerpiece was made of a small cherry tree, cane, hat, and gloves depicting George Washington. Cherry tarts, sandwiches, olives, nuts and drinks were served to the members.

Those attending the occasion were Ruby Kirkpatrick, Joy Dickson, Maxine Smith, Anaue Cline-smith, Pearl Storie, Maxine Marks, Loree Thaxton, Buena Bouchier, Beulah Pickett, Estelle Davis, Ruth Duckworth and the hostesses, Consie Thuet and Linda Malouf.

The next meeting will be March 8 in the clubhouse

El Tejas has 3-stop dinner

On Thursday, Feb. 23, the El Tejas Club held a progressive dinner.

The dinner started at Jan Hunter's home at 6:30 with appetizers, then progressed to the home of D'Linda Evans for the main dishes. The desserts were served at the home of Vera Wartes.

A short business meeting was held after the desserts were served. The next meeting will be held in the Reddy Room on March 16 and will deal with the subject of child abuse.

Attending the evening were D'Linda Evans, Jackie Hahn, Sherry Haire, Jan Hunter, Donna Lott, Kathi Rankin, Sharlot Sparlin, Nancy Wallace, Vera Wartes and Nita Burress.

Texas Farm Bureau may back Dole bill

WACO — County Farm Bureau presidents have recommended that the Texas Farm Bureau support legislation which would provide price incentives for cutting acreages of wheat, feed grains and cotton in 1978.

The advisory recommendation to the TFB Board of Directors calls for support of the so called Dole Bill (S. 2481) which has been introduced in Congress.

Some 150 county Farm Bureau leaders attended the two-day session Feb. 14-15 in Waco. The local leaders discussed a wide range of subjects and made recommendations on implementing Farm Bureau policies on those matters. The meeting was not a policy-making session.

TFB President Carrol Chaloupka said the Texas Farm Bureau Board will consider the Dole Bill recommendation when it meets Feb. 22-24.

"We haven't had an opportunity to study the bill," said Chaloupka. "If it falls within policy, we could recommend that the American Farm Bureau Federation support it." The AFBF Board, of which he is a member, meets in March, he said.

The proposal, by Senator Robert Dole, (R. Kansas), provides a formula of variable government-set target prices for set-aside acres. The more a producer sets aside, or fails to plant, based on past acreage history, the higher the target price would be. The government would pay the farmer the difference between the market price and the target price.

For example, a wheat producer reducing acreage 20 percent would be eligible for a target price of $3.00 per bushel. A 50 percent reduction would provide a target price of $5 per bushel.

The target price incentive formula for corn runs from $2.10 per bushel for a 10 percent cut to $3.45 per bushel for a 50 percent set-aside.

The target price formula for grain sorghum would be based on corn prices. Oats and barley could also be designated for payments by the Secretary of Agriculture.

Cotton producers could earn a target price of 94 cents per pound by reducing acreage 20 percent, and a price of 84 cents per pound by cutting acreage in half. The county presidents were divided into small discussion groups on the first day of the conference. Each group's task was to discuss thoroughly the assigned subject and to make recommendations on implementing Farm Bureau policy on the topic. The second day's program involved reports from the various sub-groups to a general session with a general discussion by the full group.

Subjects examined by the county presidents included: Farm Bureau Structure and Programs, the Farm Problem, Relationships with Other Groups, Government Farm Programs, Energy and Water Resources, Federal and State Regulations, International Farm Trade, Agricultural Public Relations, Service-to-Member Programs, and Policy Development.

Hawks least understood

LUBBOCK — Of all predaceous birds, the hawk family is the most persecuted and least understood even though they are protected by law.

Many winter hunters driving country roads shoot these hawks from the electric line poles as the birds are waiting for a rat or mouse to show its face along the roadway or weed patch.

The term "chicken hawk" has been applied to nearly all hawks, but the farmer's opinion of the hawk family is changing as the birds are observed eating rodents and not the barnyard hens for dinner.

Hawks diets consist of field mice, small mammals, fish, crayfish, snakes, frogs and snails throughout the year and some of the hawk species migrate through the Panhandle-South Plains each spring and fall. These sightings by the general public might lead the casual observer to believe that Texas is over-populated with hawks which is not true.

The landowner lucky enough to have hawks frequent his property will notice few rodents and a continued slaughter of hawks will certainly remove one of the most effective natural checks on rodents and insects enjoyed by Texas.

Wild animal circus to Post March 8

The circus is coming to town next Wednesday.

It's the Jungle Wonders Wild Animal circus, and according to its advance man, 2,000 tickets are being given away free to local school-age youngsters.

The circus is being sponsored here by the Post Lions Club. Rain or shine, it will put on two performances at 6 and 8 p.m., at the Post Stampedo Rodeo grounds.

The circus boasts of a large traveling zoo and there is no admission charge to see the elephants, racing ostriches, bears, lions, wild African goats, llamas, and especially Baby Nila, the blood-sweating hippopotamus from the River Nile. The circus performance will include 25 all-new acts, including the high-flying Butterfly man; Yesta Vermillion on the high trapeze; Gonthenia the Great, the world's biggest performing elephant; Little Orphan Annie, the educated chimp; a presentation by Col. Arturo Hollingsworth of his trained horses; dancing dogs; and strictly for laughs, Spoofo and his crazy clown friends.

It's all under canvas with center ring seating for everyone.

It's time to prune roses, here's how

COLLEGE STATION — Pruning roses will improve the size and quality of blooms, and now is the time to get the job done, says a horticulturist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Prune hybrid tea roses in mid-February in Central Texas but delay pruning in North Texas until late February or early March," points out Everett Janne.

Germer's band is honored

The Maroon and Gold Marching Band of Jefferson High School in Beaumont under the direction of Herb Germer has been invited by the Battle of Flowers Committee of the Battle of Flowers Association to be a feature band in the Battle of Flowers Band Festival April 20 in San Antonio.

Invitations were extended to only three out of town bands. The other two feature bands invited are from Lake Charles, La. and Clear Springs, Md.

The association will award a trophy and $300 to each of the feature bands. The Battle of Flowers parade was started in 1891 to commemorate the Battle of San Jacinto and to honor the visit of Benjamin Harrison, the first president of the United States to visit Texas. The total number of participants expected for this year's parade is to exceed 7,500.

Mr. Germer is a former Post High School band director and is married to the former Sammie Caffey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Caffey Jr. They have two children, Jon age six and Erin age four.

Letters to the Editor

TEACHER PRAISED

Dear Editor: At a time when many of us speak up only when we're unhappy with a teacher in our public school system, I'd like to take this opportunity to affirm the talent and dedication of one.

Marita Jackson directed her entire third grade music class in a musical play to celebrate George Washington's birthday on Wednesday in the primary auditorium. She did a fantastic job with the production itself but there were other things that were evident besides the talent which she is helping her students develop.

I could hardly believe the discipline displayed by these students during the half hour of dressing and the hour of performance. She has instilled in these children a pride to do their job well, and has set for them an example of happiness and love for music. What more can we ask?

Let's encourage the good teachers that we have in Post. We have many! We need to keep them. Parents, if you appreciate the work a teacher is doing with your child, tell them so!

Sincerely,
Delores Dunn

JIM BAUM

Jim Baum in another visit

Jim Baum, the Democratic door to door candidate from Big Spring, wrapped up his second day of campaigning here Saturday. Baum, along with his wife and two of his children knocked on doors throughout Post.

"I get to take the family along on Saturdays," Baum said. "The kids always enjoy it and Post was special because they were able to play in the snow," he added.

Baum said the current farm situation remains the number one topic of conversation among voters. And he adds, "Post residents voiced the same concerns." Baum has publicly announced his support for the American Agriculture Movement and its demands for 100 percent of parity. "Actually," Baum said, "I haven't met a great deal of opposition to parity."

Baum, a radio station manager in Big Spring, says his campaign is geared to give a voice to the middle income families. "I want to be their lobbyist," Baum insists.

The West Texas man is currently on a swing through some 73 cities and towns in the 17th Congressional District. "They've got to count the votes one at a time and I have to get 'em that way," Baum concluded.

Garza getting lots of federal funding

J.R. Johnson, Garza County's federal grant director, told Post Rotarians at last Tuesday's luncheon that between $300,000 and $400,000 in federal money is now being poured into this county annually.

He estimated this was probably double that it received in the county when the federal programs were operated through the South Plains Community Action of Levelland. This year Garza has entered into a consortium with the city and county of Lubbock for federal funding.

Johnson said his job is to see that Title I, III and VI funds are properly spent.

Besides these funds, Garza County receives almost $100,000 each year in federal revenue sharing.

The Title I program includes "in school use" with students paid on the basis of 15-hour weeks for 39 weeks, adult work experience program with six jobs, and on job training in private business for five persons.

Title III is the youth career development and college program.

Title VI, he said, are special projects, which for Garza now include a city-county park maintenance man, a soon to be named community center director, a project to obtain statistics for a school reading program, and a new winterization of homes for senior citizens or the poor who can't afford the work.

Charlie Brown was inducted into the Rotary Club as a new member by J. Alexander.

Tickets for the Rotary club's benefit pancake supper March 16 were distributed to members for sale.

Lopes enter Wildcat Relays

Coach Lane Tannehill's Post Antelope track team will open its spring season Saturday in the Wildcat Relays at Idalou.

Post has 36 out for track, 24 runners and 12 in the weights, and they include eight lettermen among the seniors and juniors.

"We're still awfully young," Tannehill told The Dispatch.

The lettermen include Evans Heaton, pole vaulter, high jumper and for 1978 a discus man; Kohen Josey and Brent Terry, sprinters; Steve Davis and Butch Booth, 440 and sprints; Cliff Kirkpatrick, hurdler; and Bryan Compton, long jumper.

Other juniors are Shawn

Scott, 440 and sprints; Clinton Curtis, hurdler; a new candidate, Johnny Williams, a transfer from Lorenzo; David Hawkins; and Mike Dye, Carlos Varela and Dale Redman, who are in what Lane calls his "discus corps."

Weightmen include Shorty Bilberry, Greg Pollard, and Kelly Raumann, all juniors; and Deb Palmer, sophomore.

Among the other sophomores are Eddie Bass, pole vaulter; Rance Adkins, hurdler; Jackie Ayala and Bobby Finch, both 440 runners; Walter Perez, Larry Rodriguez and David Poole, other "discus corps" members; plus Lynn Simpson, another weightman.

Coach Tannehill expects to take 22 or 23 to Idalou Saturday.

It's too early to tell what other district teams will have because most teams lost a lot of seniors. But Tannehill picks Slaton, Frenship and Denver City to be strong and Tahoka certainly to be improved.

Doe track squad is 'year away'

Coach Chili Black's Post Doe track squad probably is a year or two away from contention. That conclusion is based on the fact that 17 of his 31-girl squad are freshmen and many of the others are sophomores.

But don't take anything away from the freshmen group. They've won district as seventh and eighth graders under Coach Black's direction the last two years.

"They need to grow some and gain more experience," Coach Black commented Tuesday night after the squad's first workout. "But they're a real good bunch and should do all right in a couple of years."

The Does don't open until Saturday, March 11, when they will go to San Angelo for the Lake View Relays.

They will compete at Spur Friday, March 17 and then the freshmen on the squad will run here in the annual Postex Relays on Saturday, March 18.

It's going to be a funny season. The Post spring break comes at a different time than most area schools. So they won't be competing the week they're out and the next week everybody else will be out and there will be no meets.

Actually, Black has only one more weekend open then to book a meet before the district meet in mid-April.

To compound the problem the girls cage coaches got together and scheduled a week later this year because the girls' state meet is a week after the boys. This has gotten the track season off to a slow start and actually shortened it by a week.

Coach Black has only one senior girl and three juniors out for track and one of the juniors, Ramona Taylor,

Tennis teams bow in duals

Coach Greg Eubank's Antelope tennis team dropped a dual meet to Lockney here Tuesday afternoon, 5-2, while his girls team was bowing to some local women players who called themselves "the over the hill gang," 4 to 1.

In the boys singles, Raymie Holly dropped the No. 1 match to Howard Moore, 1-6, 1-6. Other singles included Mike Macy defeating Terry Brewer 6-4, 6-1; Jackie Stelzer coming back to win a three-setter 3-6, 6-4, 7-5; and Jimmy Odum losing a one-setter, 7-9.

Lockney swept the three double matches, Mark Vincent and Breck Record defeating Dick Kirkpatrick and Jimmy Pruitt 6-4, 6-2; Boyd Lee and Bill McCarter defeating Mike Holly and Randy Conner 6-3, 4-6, 7-6; and Ellison and Smith downing Pat Mitchell and Barry Tyler 6-1, 7-6.

Debbie Wyatt won the only match for the girls defeating Shirley Storie, 4-3 in a pro set. In the other singles Nancy McCowen lost to Marianne Hart, 4-8.

In the doubles Cindy Kirkpatrick and Nancy Clary bowed to Lu Allen and Eydie Capps 8-7; and Leanna Davis and Kerri Pool lost to Zoe Kirkpatrick and Nancy Macy 0-6 and 5-7.

The Post teams will compete against Floydada and Halls in a triangular meet here Saturday with play starting at 10 a. m. and continuing through the day.

Brad is all district

Brad Shepherd, Post's 5-9 senior guard and leading Lope scorer this season, is a unanimous all-district selection by 5AA coaches.

The all-district team was announced today.

Two other Post players received honorable mention. They were forward Evans Heaton and postman Ronald Bratcher.

Six of the ten players named to the all-district squad (no first or second team designations) were unanimous choices.

Besides Shepherd they were Lloyd Strong of Frenship, Bobby Burkhalter of Denver City, Clifford Bailey and Alton Graves both of Tahoka, and David Patton of Roosevelt.

The other four all-district selections were Jerome Whaley and Milton Smith of Slaton, Ricky Rodriguez and Darron Mann of Roosevelt.

The selection was made at a meeting of coaches last week but announcement was withheld until District

Champion Denver City was eliminated from post-season play.

That came Saturday afternoon at Lubbock when a tired Mustang team went down before top-rated Dimmitt, 57-38 in the regional finals.

The Mustangs had edged Spearman 86 to 85 in a tough late game the night before and didn't get to bed until about 1 a. m., and had to be back on the floor for the tipoff of the finals at noon.

New Version of Old Story

The following version of the well-known fable of The Little Red Hen was written by William P. Drake, Chairman and President of the Penwalt Corporation:

Once upon a time, there was a little red hen who scratched about the barnyard until she uncovered some grains of wheat. She called her neighbors and said, "If we plant this wheat, we shall have bread to eat. Who will help me plant it?"

"Not I," said the cow.
"Not I," said the duck.
"Not I," said the pig.
"Not I," said the goose.

"Then I will," said the little red hen.

And she did. The wheat grew tall and ripened into golden grain. "Who will help me reap my wheat?" asked the little red hen.

"Not I," said the duck.
"Out of my classification," said the pig.
"I'd lose my seniority," said the cow.
"I'd lose my unemployment compensation," said the goose.

"Then I will," said the little red hen.

And she did. At last it came time to bake the bread.

"Who will help me bake the bread?" asked the little red hen.

"That would be overtime for me," said the cow.
"I'd lose my welfare benefits," said the duck.
"I'm a dropout and never learned how," said the pig.
"If I'm to be the only helper, that's discrimination," said the goose.

"Then I will," said the little red hen.

She baked five loaves and held them up for her neighbors to see. They all wanted some and, in fact, demanded a share. But the little red hen said, "No, I can eat the five loaves myself."

"Excess profits!" said the cow.
"Capitalist leech!" screamed the duck.
"I demand equal rights!" yelled the goose.

And the pig just grunted. And they painted "unfair" picket signs and marched around and around the little red hen, shouting obscenities.

When the government agent came, he said to the little red hen, "You must not be greedy."

"But I earned the bread," said the little red hen.

"Exactly," said the agent. "That is the wonderful free enterprise system. Anyone in the barnyard can earn as much as he wants. But under our modern government regulations, the productive workers must divide their product with the idle."

And they lived happily ever after, including the little red hen, who smiled and clucked, "I am grateful. I am grateful."

But the neighbors wondered why she never baked any more bread.

"Little Red Hen" do it?

SIR:

To you "stay neutrals" - "lookers on-ers" - and "non-helpers" sitting on the side-lines while 'active farmers' are making their one big effort for equality.

What price do you plan to take for your cotton? Are you going to say, "Oh well, 42 cents a pound is enough for me, since I didn't help in bringing the price up to the cost-of-production plus?!"

Or will be like the animals in the story of "The Little Red Hen" - After she had grown the wheat and baked the bread, they all wanted in on a share of it then?!!

What Parity Really Means

By Jack Anderson

(Editors Note: This definition of parity was prepared by the National Organization for Raw Materials.)

Parity is the most confusing word in the English language. The term Parity has been deliberately made confusing, dirty, and ridiculous by all those who thrive through the exploitation of producers.

Parity means nothing more than balance. Everything has a parity, including the universe. One of the "astronauts" when asked, "How is everything up there in space?" He replied, "Beautiful, everything is a parity." He added, "All of the 'disparity' is here on earth." What did he mean? He simply meant that all of the problems of man on earth is the direct result of "disparity" and the primary cause of hunger, poverty, wars, and our economic and monetary problems.

We have a standard of weights and measures. Four quarts to the gallon, 100 pennies to the dollar, 2,000 pounds to the ton, 16 ounces to the pound. If you buy a gallon of gasoline and only receive three quarts, you only got seventy-five (75 per cent) of parity. This means you were cheated.

Business and industry has a parity. Balance of Payment and Trade has parity. Parity simply means that one sector of the economy must receive a proper price for its production in relationship to prices it must pay others for their production.

Farmers and ranchers do not establish their production costs. All of these costs are passed on to the producers by the bankers in terms of interest, by governments in the form of real estate taxes. By business, industry and labor in terms of prices they charge farmers and ranchers for all of the goods and services they must purchase from the trades and services.

Parity agriculture simply means that farmers and ranchers receive prices for their production that will enable them to buy the goods and services that are passed on to them, so they can pay for them, without being forced to mortgage their farms and ranches to support the jobs and business of all the others.

Parity simply means the total amount of annual gross income that all rural America must receive from its production to balance payment of trade with urban America. If the flow of annual earned income to Rural America is not in balance with costs it must pay others, then all of Rural America is at a "DISPARITY" situation.

When rural America is at disparity with metropolitan America, then it means we cannot buy the goods of labor. Then labor becomes unemployed in terms of lost buying power. Then we have unemployment, not from overproduction, but from underconsumption resulting from the lack of buying power to employ the labor. Then business and industry loses business and profits in direct relation to the loss of commerce. Next the unemployed become welfare cases. Federal Welfare programs become necessary to care for the unemployed and welfare.

Governments soon discover that they cannot balance budgets as a result of lost national income which means lost taxes. Then taxes must increase to cover increased government budgets, but nothing ever catches up because the disparity of purchasing power always lags. Government deficits and excessive credit increases the money supply - buying power - without the production. This triggers inflation. Business, industry, and others look for tax loopholes. Then the tax burden becomes heavier for the middle class and lower income groups. This destroys their buying power and the disparity worsens.

Parity simply means that the nation as a whole earns the income into circulation through honest production times honest prices. Then and only then can the nation provide markets for its labor and production without the necessity of excessive debt expansion which creates illiquidity of banks, business and industry.

Money, like the rain must recycle. Money either gets into circulation by earning it from production times honest prices; or everyone is forced to go into debt and borrow money into circulation. This is how we have managed to create a 4,000 Billion Gross Public and Private Debt. This is why it now takes over $20 billion in interest costs each year to service debt.

Interest is now the biggest industry in the world and it is going to bring about a collapse such as the world has never known. Interest to service all debt is greater than the profits and savings of our entire Private Enterprise system. In 1976 we added $362 billion to the total gross debt and we couldn't even re-employ our unemployed.

Ski team has big weekend

The Post Presbyterian Ski team returned to Post Sunday evening, Feb. 26, having conquered slopes at Cloudercroft and Sierra Blanca.

The trip, which began Thursday after school, ended Sunday afternoon, with all participants reporting relatively good health.

Staying at the Ruidoso homes of the Dalby, Macy, and Mitchell families, youth who attended included John Coleman Boren, Rance Adkins, Kim Carlisle, Charlie Dalby, Giles Dalby, Mike and Sharla Macy, Pat Mitchell, Daniel and William Morrow, and Charla Williams. Adults included John and Betty Boren, Nelda Dalby, Susan Howard, Bob Macy, Jane Tice, Richard Wheelus, and Ruby Williams.

Sherri Morris busy with 20 youngsters

Sherri Morris, a junior at Post High School, is actively involved in the Home Economics Cooperative Education program.

She helps her mother, Mrs. D.E. Morris, with caring for children in their home. Approximately 20 children stay with them during the day while the mothers are working.

Sherri works from 1:35 to about 4:00 or 5:00. She cares for children of all ages, from infants to eight and nine year olds. She supervises them in their games and activities, and helps her mother keep things running smoothly.

Sherri says that she really enjoys her work because she "loves kids." She enjoys helping them with their problems. She likes the way they all get along together.

She doesn't have any definite plans for the future, but plans to continue with her present work.

Spotlight on SENIORS

The first senior in the spotlight for this week is Rodney Josey. Rodney is the son of Mr. Royce Josey and Mrs. Sherry Dorner.

He has been active in FFA, choir, the Spanish club and the Science and Math club during his years at Post High School. Rodney is also employed part-time at Piggly Wiggly Supermarket.

Some of Rodney's favorite pastimes include snow skiing, hunting, tennis and golf. After graduating from Post High School, he plans to work and possibly attend a technical school. Rodney would like to enter the field of auto mechanics or electronics.

The senior spotlight moves next to Karla Kennedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Kennedy. Karla was born in Post and has lived here all her life.

Karla thoroughly enjoys all domestic activities—cooking, sewing, and keeping house. She also enjoys sports, especially golf.

While attending Post High School, Karla has participated in FHA, choir, basketball, and the Junior class play. Karla has served as sophomore and junior class reporter, president of the booster club, president of HECE and captain of the basketball team. She has qualified for regional in track both in the high jump and the mile relay.

Karla feels that the biggest influence in her school career has been the HECE program because it helped her decide what she wanted to do in the future. She plans to attend West Texas State University and major in elementary education.

The last senior for this week is Bobby Macy. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Macy.

Price captain at Odessa

Edward Price is the captain of Odessa College's track team this spring.

Last spring the former Antelope track star competed in the sprints, long jump and relays and went to the state meet as a member of one of Odessa's relay teams.

motorcycles and horse racing in his spare time. He plans to attend Texas Tech and major in animal science.

Tune in to Morrow

By DAVID MORROW

I traveled to Canyon last Sunday to audition for the musical production "Texas" which is presented every summer in Palo Duro Canyon. I got through the audition all right (although I was never more scared in my life) but I encountered a bit of difficulty on my way home. I reached the city limits of the great metropolis of Ralls, when I noticed that my pickup was running on the fumes from the gas I was out of. Feeling that it would be wise to get some more, I proceeded to tear Ralls apart trying to find a station that was open. I beat on the doors of two Texacos, an Exxon, a Shamrock and a Phillips 66 without obtaining any results. Panic was about to set in because I had no desire to be stranded, so I pulled into a friendly Dairy Queen and nearly frightened the poor waitress to death by fiercely demanding "is there any place where I can get some gas in this town?" She directed me to an Allsup's store, and I left, vowing never to go near Ralls without a full tank.

UIL, one-act play, the class plays — it's a wonder anyone keeps their sanity. And, as Butch told me the other day, "you know it's track season when the sand begins to blow."

Best of luck to the people who will be showing animals in the upcoming stock show. It takes a lot of patience, time and expense to raise an animal for show and sale, and hopefully, the efforts will be rewarded.

NJHS selling extinguishers

By JERRI BAUMANN

The National Junior Honor Society is selling fire extinguishers as a fund-raising project.

The extinguishers will be on sale from March 1 to March 24. They are manufactured by Amway and can be purchased for $10. Each container has a one-pound capacity.

For any information, contact any member of the NJHS. Funds will be used for the NJHS banquet in the spring.

Sales tax up in February

Post has received a sales tax check for February for $141.66 from the state comptroller's office which represents the city's one percent sales tax payments through Jan. 26.

This compares with only $128.87 for the same period last year, a gain of almost 25 percent.

The total for the first two months of 1978 total only $129.28, which is 14 percent below the $7,207.15 for the first two months of 1977.

Actually, the February sales tax check represents the merchants paid in January for December sales, and the January check represents November sales paid by merchants into the state in December.

And if you want your chops thicker or thinner than you see on the counter, just tell one of my boys. They'll cut them especially for you...just the way you like them.

6 pork chops	salt & freshly ground black pepper
1 cup finely diced carrots	1 cup diced celery
1 cup diced onions	1/2 cup beef stock
1/2 cup tomato sauce	2T prepared mustard
2T Worcestershire sauce	chopped parsley

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Lightly grease the bottom of a large skillet with a little fat trimmed from chops. Season chops on both sides with salt and pepper. Brown well on both sides for about 15 minutes altogether. Sprinkle carrots, celery and onion in a shallow two-quart casserole. Arrange browned chops on top. Pour excess fat from skillet. Add stock, tomato sauce, mustard and Worcestershire sauce to the skillet. Blend. Pour mixture over chops, cover. Bake for 50 minutes; remove cover. Bake 15 minutes longer. ### Kim Mills into honor group

SNYDER — Kim Mitchell Mills of Rotan, formerly of Post, has been inducted into the Psi Zeta chapter of Phi Theta Kappa at Western Texas College.

Phi Theta Kappa, a national honor fraternity, was organized in 1918 to recognize and encourage scholarship among students in American junior colleges. Invitation to membership is extended to students who maintain at least a 3.2 grade point average while carrying at least 15 semester hours and who exhibit qualities of leadership.

Mrs. Mills and her husband, Larry D. Mills, make their home at 906 Cleveland Avenue in Rotan. Mrs. Mills commutes to WTC, where she is an accounting major. She was graduated from Post High School, where she was valedictorian of her graduating class and a member of the National Honor Society.

Rotarians told of Paraguay

The Rev. Frank Pickett, First Christian Church pastor, gave Post Rotarians an interesting slide presentation of his 14 years as a missionary in Paraguay at the civic club's weekly luncheon in the Post-Community Center Tuesday.

Tom Power reported Gene Moore had some big pancake grills all ready to hook up for the Rotary Club's annual pancake supper Thursday night, March 16.

The supper will be a fund-raiser to help with the Algerita Hotel restoration project headed by David Newby.

Gov't policies said cause of farm crisis

WASHINGTON — T. A. Cunningham, president of the Independent Cattlemen's Association, told members of the House Committee on Agriculture this week that the farm problem is a national problem brought on by government policies which have not allowed agriculture producers a fair return on their investments.

The committee is holding hearings in Washington, D. C. on the general condition of the agriculture industry. Cunningham criticized this nation's trade policies saying untold millions of dollars have been lost in trade due to the "ridiculously low prices placed on our agricultural products."

He asked the 45-member committee to do everything in its power to change America's and the government's apparent lack of understanding of the farm crisis.

"The people in agriculture are asking that the policies of the government be changed from a cheap food policy to a fair food policy," said Cunningham. "In curbing inflation, government policies have sacrificed the agricultural sector of the nation. Prices received by the farmer have been held down while at the same time the farmers' costs have risen at an alarming rate."

He added that "it is sad that these people (ranchers and farmers) have been passed to the point that they must come here to demand what is rightfully theirs — a fair return on their investment. It is even sadder that the government has let the finest agriculture in the world reach a state of bankruptcy."

Speaking also for the cattlemen he represents, Cunningham requested that the committee members use their "expertise to influence" congressional colleagues to rewrite the 1964 Meat Import Act, allowing less imports into the United States when domestic beef production is high.

"In the past, the agriculture producers have been misled and often manipulated by government forecasts and crop reports. Not too many years ago, the American farmer was told that in order to head off vast world wide food shortages, it would be necessary to plant fence row to fence row. We beef producers were told to increase herd size, to maximize production because it would be impossible to supply the country with the beef necessary in 1980. These forecasts were nothing more than myth."

Cattlemen refer to the 1964 law as the "Bankruptcy Act of the 70's" because it allows an escalation of meat imports as domestic production increases and the set quotas do not include all processed meat and live cattle.

The ICA is supporting legislation by Sen. Henry Bellmon of Oklahoma (S. 2484) and by Rep. Jake Pickle of Texas (H. R. 10894) which would limit beef imports at a time when domestic production is high, Cunningham told the committee.

The association is also backing legislation which would require tougher inspection and labelling of foreign meat products.

"We feel the consumer has a right to know what he or she is purchasing," said Cunningham.

Cunningham gave each member of the committee an American Produced Beef window decal. Association members are distributing the decals nationwide to stores and restaurants which use only domestic beef.

ROUNDUP CHAIRMAN — David Slaughter of Sheffield, above, has been named 1978 Roundup Chairman for West Texas Boys Ranch at San Angelo. He has served the last three years as wagon boss for Pecos County in fund raising for the boys ranch.

RETURNS HOME
Mrs. Joe Taylor of route 3 is now home after having major surgery in Lubbock. She is doing recuperating nicely. Her daughters have been home visiting her during her convalescence.

Sunday services were brought to us by Rev. Don Neumann of the Faith Lutheran Church. Following the services church members served punch and homemade cookies to all our residents. Pat Kitchens played the organ for the services. Next Sunday's services will be by the Presbyterian Church.

Frances White and Julie White came and visited and brought magazines for our residents. They enjoy these acts of kindness.

Irene Wheeler went to visit with Alma Veach Friday afternoon. She enjoyed the outing. We hope more of our residents can be out more now with warm weather coming up.

Visitors this week included Cleety and Lucille Walker, Roberta Herron, Ione Hughes, Inez McGrew, Virginia Terry, Laverne Hays, Sue Allison, Ruby Kirkpatrick, Bill and Lottie Sanders, Gerald and Marie Clayton, Ruby Bostick, Shirley Bland, Nell Windham, Mrs. W.B. Roberts, Rev. Conrad Davis and Mrs. Davis.

Our thought are with the family and friends of Opal Thaxton. Opal was only here for a short time but we enjoyed her stay with us and will miss her.

VISITS HERE
Mrs. James Williams and children, Wade, Amy and Ashley of Wellington visited in Post over the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Sue Shytles and other relatives.

Three arrests are announced

Three arrests were announced last week by Sheriff Jim Pippin.

Floyd Edward Hair was arrested here early Tuesday on a warrant from Austin charging a parole violation. Jimmie Rose, a railroad section worker, was booked Monday and was still in county jail Wednesday morning in lieu of $1,000 bond on the charge of defrauding an inn keeper (Matt's Hotel).

Hobbs, N. M., police arrested Clarence Harold Hawley on a Garza forged check charge filed by the local bank Saturday. Sheriff Pippin returned Hawley here where he was in county jail yesterday morning in lieu of making $5,000 bond set by Justice of the Peace Racy Robinson.

Highway patrol seeks recruits

The Texas Department of Public Safety is actively recruiting applicants to fill the ranks of its uniformed services. Major C. W. Bell, Regional Commander of the DPS announced that the cut off date for applying is April 1 for the training school which will begin May 23. The Major said that the DPS has been increasingly successful in recruiting persons from minority groups, and efforts in this direction will continue. The Department is an equal opportunity employer. It should be pointed out that qualified female applicants are now being accepted.

General qualifications for DPS Officers are these: Applicants must be 20 through 35 years of age; good moral character; excellent physical condition; visual acuity of 20-40 correctable to 20-20; and a minimum of 60 semester hours of college credit.

While training in the Homer Garrison Law Enforcement Memorial Academy in Austin, the student officer will participate in 850 hours in a variety of Law Enforcement subjects. The training program will consist of criminal law, traffic law, human relations, accident investigation, boxing, judo, marksmanship, physical training and defensive driving, and other law related subjects.

The pay during recruit school is $848 per month, and upon completion, the commissioned officer will draw $968 per month. Other benefits are uniforms and firearms furnished, insurance benefits, and per diem allowances while away from an assigned duty station. Social Security benefits are provided aside from the regular trooper retirement plan. Annual paid vacations, sick leave and all holidays provided by the State Legislature are among the many benefits that the troopers enjoy.

For complete information concerning the position of trooper, training and benefits, Major Bell asked those who are interested to contact the nearest trooper or Department of Public Safety office.

SINGING HERE
A singing will be held at the Assembly of God Church Saturday, March 4, beginning at 7:30 p.m. by the Hazel family. The public is invited to attend.

Retail beef and pork prices are rising

COLLEGE STATION — Beef and pork prices are rising, but eggs, citrus and some vegetables offer attractive prices at Texas grocery markets according to Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt.

Mrs. Clyatt is a consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A & M University System.

Fresh Vegetables
Although weather is still slowing supplies, several items offer economical prices. These include cabbage, potatoes, carrots, turnips, rutabagas, dry yellow onions and hard-shell squash.

Moderate prices appear on broccoli, eggplant, sweet potatoes and cauliflower. Lettuce quality has improved and prices are lower. Asparagus is limited and prices high.

Fresh Fruit
Grapefruit and oranges "by-the-bag" are economy

buys if shoppers have adequate storage space although prices are moderate levels. Tangerines (a cross between a tangerine and a grapefruit) boast moderate prices.

Poultry
Eggs have lower than usual prices for this time year, and Grade A, large size eggs are the economical buy. Also, chicken features appear some markets.

Beef
Beef prices are steady slightly higher than last week, and cow beef grinding is scarce, ground beef prices higher. That situation causing higher prices wieners and lunch meats. Best values, however, are chuck roasts, steaks, round steaks liver.

Pork
Prices remain relatively high, due in part to weather.

THE WALLS AND CEILINGS
The outside walls of the ENERGY EFFICIENT HOME meet standards according to three options. The first option uses 2 inch studs with 6 inch batt-type (R-19) insulation. Option two uses 4 inch studs and 3 inch insulation (R-11) with 3/4 inch styrofoam sheathing. The third option uses R-15 minimum insulation with any other method. All options include a vapor barrier of polyethylene or foil-backed sheetrock. Still insulation or caulking between the bottom plate and the floor also is required. The ceiling is insulated with R-30.

THE DOORS AND WINDOWS
Outside doors are weather stripped and caulked. In addition, double pane glass or storm windows and insulated core or storm doors are vital contributors to the dollar-wise built to save ENERGY EFFICIENT HOME. A recommendation is made that maximum glass area comprise 8% or less of floor space.

THE FLOORS
The very foundation of the ENERGY EFFICIENT HOME — the floor — is an important factor in saving energy and money. If floors contain vermiculite in the cavity between joists and up to the top of the floor. An alternate is a layer of rigid urethane or styrofoam (minimum of 3/4 inch thickness) from top of joist along the outside edge of the slab down to the brick masonry. Wood floors (pier and beam) must be insulated with R-13.

When you're planning to buy or build a new home, you start by taking a good look inside. Because the key to comfort and saving is INSIDE... INSIDE walls, in the doors and windows, under the floor and in the ceiling. So peek INSIDE the ENERGY EFFICIENT HOME — really INSIDE. You can see that it's BUILT TO SAVE — Energy and Money.

OUR GENERATION IS FOR YOU!

Seniority advantage claimed by Jim Sharp

Jim Sharp, the youngest of the eight candidates seeking approval to replace Burleson, as the 17th district congressman, brought his campaign to a close Tuesday afternoon.

The 25-year-old Big Spring resident is the only one of the eight who has actually worked "on the hill."

Having served as assistant doorkeeper of the House of Representatives since 1975, he returned to West Texas in November to make his race.

Sharp, who bills himself as a "fiscal conservative," points out that Texans need to plan to gain seniority in the House. In Sharp's opinion, the planning should be by the younger representatives.

"I've got 15 years on the youngest one," Sharp said of his six Democratic and one Republican opponents. "All I'm the only one who already knows all of the House members and most of the Senate," he said, adding that he will "land on his feet" in Washington if elected.

JIM SHARP

Sharp also is the only one of the eight candidates who filed for the race by petition of the voters — 500 of them and more — instead of paying a $1,500 filing fee.

The candidate has "grown up" over much of West Texas as his father is a Methodist pastor who over the more than two decades has been assigned to many West Texas churches.

Sharp has formed some opinions during his work as the house's assistant doorkeeper. He points out that President Lyndon Johnson got his political start in the same position.

He favors complete deregulation of oil and gas and the development of better overseas markets for farmers to give the agricultural section of the economy better prices.

Sharp, from his Washington viewpoint, thinks the taking of the postal service out of patronage was a mistake. Also, he says the congress has tried to make itself "too clean" where a congressman cannot appoint anybody to anything.

What that leaves, he points out, is the ability of many candidates simply "to buy their way" to victory with big campaign spending budgets.

Sharp said he is running on a small budget and is "going to be the poor boy in this campaign." "I can't even afford a campaign headquarters or an answering service."

Summing it up, Sharp says, "My only promise is to heed your voices and strive to the fullest to represent the interests of all."

LUBBOCK — Cotton ginners and allied industry people by the hundreds and guests by the thousands will converge on Lubbock's Memorial Civic Center March 10 and 11 for the 65th Annual Meeting of the Texas Cotton Ginners' Association (TCGA).

This is the convention's first appearance in Lubbock and TCGA Executive Vice President Tony Price of Dallas expects attendance of 4,000 or more, some 800 greater than the previous record.

Ninety-three exhibitors will use over 28,000 square feet of floor space to show machinery, supplies and services related to cotton ginning, production and marketing.

Keynote speaker for the business session at 9:15 a.m. on Friday, March 10, in the Memorial Civic Center Theater will be Democratic Congressman David Bowen of Mississippi, Chairman of the Cotton Subcommittee of the House Committee on Agriculture, Charles Russell, National Cotton Council economist, will also speak at the session, directing his remarks at cotton export prospects and opportunities for 1978.

Presiding at the business session will be TCGA President Morris Jones of San Juan, Texas, and Vice President Gayle Craft of Plains.

A highlight for the ladies at 10:00 a.m. Saturday, March 11, in the Convention Center Banquet Hall will be a "Harvestaire" featuring presentations by five food consultants on microwave and crepe cooking. Two microwave ovens will be given as door prizes.

For entertainment TCGA is bringing in "Grand Ol Opry" stars Jeannie Pruitt, Ronnie Profit and other musical groups to close out the meeting on Saturday night. Tickets to the performance will be free at exhibitor booths throughout both days of the convention.

Another special event is the "Last International Ginners Pinto Bean and Cornbread Cookoff" featuring cooks from all over Texas and a few out-of-state chefs.

Price has issued a special invitation to all members of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock, saying "Every one will have a badge waiting, with only the name to be filled in at registration."

This is the first time in TCGA's 65-year history that its directors have chosen to hold the annual meeting outside Dallas, the headquarters city. The meeting was moved to San Antonio once in the 1930's and to Fort Worth once in the 40's, but both times it was because space was not available in Dallas.

AUSTIN — Gov. Dolph Briscoe by executive order took the first step toward establishing a state-owned deepwater terminal for unloading imported crude oil along the Texas coast.

Briscoe activated the Texas Deepwater Port Authority after entering a finding that private enterprise has not come up with workable plans for a superport.

Major oil companies united to plan Seadock—a nearly $1 billion facility 27 miles off the Texas coast near Freeport. Federal restrictions and a limitation on profits upset the deal.

Hugh L. Scott, president of Seadock Inc., told a House committee the terminal could not be financed privately in view of federal strings. He said he doubts even the state could finance the facility with revenue bond financing approved by a Senate bill passed during a special legislative session last summer.

Briscoe announced last week he will appoint the nine members of the Deepwater Port Authority authorized by the Senate bill.

Scott said Seadock is willing to transfer its pending port license from the federal government to the state.

Seadock spent more than $20 million developing plans for the terminal.

Exxon, Mobil and Gulf pulled out of the consortium which proposed to build Seadock after proceedings to obtain the license. They provided 52 per cent of the project's financial backing.

Program Saved

The State Board of Human Resources rebudgeted $4 million for free medical prescriptions for the poor.

At the same time, board members directed its staff and an advisory panel to figure out how to cut the program's cost without hurting the poor.

Funds will not be available in 1979 for another transfer to the program.

The money was transferred recently from funds appropriated for nursing home care of the mentally retarded. The latter had a lot of unspent money.

Welfare beneficiaries can get up to three prescriptions a month at state-federal expense.

50-year prison sentence given a Houston man who shot and stabbed a narcotics agent.

Aging Grants Approved

The Governor's Committee on Aging has awarded 19 grants totaling $5.6 million in federal funds to support meal programs and other social services for older Texans.

Nine existing nutrition projects received funds and three new group meal programs for the elderly were authorized.

Seven area agencies on aging, which function as focal points for the statewide network of services administered by the Committee on Aging, also received grants.

Grants to new meal programs included: Alamo Area Council of Governments, $192,679 (Atascosa, Banderita, Frio, Gillespie, Karnes, Kendall, Kerr, Medina and Wilson Counties); Killean, $25,000 for a model project for senior citizens; and South Plains Area Agency on Aging, $57,110 (Hale, Hockley and Garza Counties).

Short Snorts

Atty. Gen. John Hill held in an opinion a prison inmate's correspondence list is excepted from disclosure under the Open Records Act as information deemed confidential by constitutional law.

The State Supreme Court appointed Wayne LeCroy, justice of the peace, Precinct 6 of Lubbock County, to the Commission on Judicial Conduct.

The U.S. Supreme Court will review the contention of the State of Texas that federal courts cannot interfere with state welfare programs.

Courts Speak

The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals reversed the death penalty assessed a San Antonio man in a 1974 murder because the condemned man was not permitted to challenge credibility of a state witness who was his roommate.

The Supreme Court reversed a $71,000 award to orphans of a couple killed when their car hit a Missouri Pacific freight train in Falls County nine years ago.

In another case, the high court found doctors who make diagnoses for insurance companies are not necessarily subject to malpractice suits when their verdicts prevent a patient from collecting a claim.

The Court of Criminal Appeals decided a constitutional amendment gives it authority to compel fast trials by writs of mandamus.

Divided 5-4, the Criminal Appeals Court upheld the ## Anniversary dinners free at Dairy Queen

The "hearts and flowers" month of February marks the beginning of registration for a special program honoring married couples at the Dairy Queen at Post.

Whether they will be marking a first anniversary, a 75th, or any year in between or beyond during the next 12 months, couples can register now at Dairy Queen for a free wedding anniversary dinner.

The dinner — to be provided by DQ any day during the anniversary week to couples who have signed up for the program — will begin with a toast.

Dairy Queen will present each participating couple with a bottle of "champagne," actually sparkling apple cider, and two champagne glasses so that they can toast each other and their wedding anniversary.

They will be served at a special table, which will be covered with a white table cloth and special white napkins to create a festive atmosphere for the anniversary dinners.

The anniversary program, believed to be the first of its kind for Dairy Queen, will encompass almost 50 DQs in Central and West Texas that are a part of the Chapman Fast Foods organization.

I. B. (Barney) Chapman II of Fort Worth, the nation's largest operator of privately-owned Dairy Queens, is the creator of the anniversary dinner treats, which will be in effect in all of the Chapman DQ restaurants.

PROPERTY INSURANCE

When making an insurance claim, don't be surprised by inadequate home insurance coverage.

All homeowners policies have 80 percent coinsurance clause that may result in a disappointment to homeowners.

Essentially, the coinsurance clause states that, at the time of an insurable loss, insurance coverage must equal at least 80 percent of the replacement cost of the home in order to receive full payment for the claims.

For example, on a $50,000 home at least $40,000 insurance is required. If the insurance falls short of the 80 percent coverage, an adjuster can pay only a portion of any claim.

Also check for an inflation guard clause. If a policy does not have such a guard, increase insurance coverage each year to keep up with inflation.

It is a good idea to photograph all of your property. A photographic record is a vital supplement to an up-to-date inventory of ahead, and consumer demand should also be up.

"This points to a somewhat better year for cattle producers," says Dr. Ed Uvacek, livestock marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The amount of fed beef will generally be larger than in 1977, at least through the first half of the year, although the amount of "other" beef from cows and non-fed steers and heifers will be down from a year ago.

"Demand should also be boosted in 1978 due to increases in Social Security payments, proposed tax reductions, changes in the Food Stamp Program, a substantial gain in minimum wages, and continued growth in the general economic activity of the country," contends Uvacek.

What should cattlemen expect in the new year?

"Fed cattle prices may weaken a bit during the first calendar quarter but should gather strength by the middle of the second quarter," believes the specialist. "Lowest prices could come by late March and highest prices in June or July. Feeder cattle should follow about this same price pattern. Plenty of rain this spring could cause producers to temporarily over-price feeder types."

(Continued From Page One) scoring with 348 points for the season and a 12.9 points per game average. He hit 129 out of 308 field goal attempts for a 41 percent accuracy and 90 of 122 free throws for 73.8 percent accuracy at the lane—all of them highs for the Lopes.

From this weekend on until the end of May, the calendar in The Dispatch office is simply marked "frenzied period." Things now begin to pop so fast news folks have to keep a list written down to be sure they don't miss covering a whole bunch of events.

It all gets started with the Post Chamber of Commerce banquet this Saturday night which should be a hum-dinger once enough tables and chairs have been found and brought in to seat all the paying guests.

Ticket sales, when they were virtually closed Tuesday, stood at well over 400. So it would be best to get a ticket before showing up at the Post Community Center door Saturday night.

The next weekend it's the junior livestock show and a women's convention. And then will start all the school functions, spring sports, etc.

The senior class had the right formula with its Friday night "gong show". The auditorium was "standing room only" and a very neat profit of around $800 was realized we hear. Give the seniors credit for figuring out a "new angle."

The Garza office of the American Agriculture Movement came up with a big weekend assist to help boost the Chamber banquet ticket sales over the 400 mark. They volunteered to sell 50 tickets and wound up selling 53.

One of the great side effects of the AAM is that farmers have a whole new awareness of community affairs and community cooperation. Their banquet help is really appreciated by Chamber officers and directors who wanted to get the annual event up to the "break even point" of 400. This time the volunteer help of the farmers made the difference.

All we can say about the weather is that with the banquet and livestock show upcoming the next two weekends don't expect blue skies and whispering breezes.

A combination of those two events assures just about everything else happening that weather has in its "nasty bag."
