War Necessity Certificates May Be Revoked

Oct. 5.—The office of Defense Transportation today announced the policies and procedures to be used in the suspension or revocation of gasoline allotments for commercial motor vehicles.

Under the new policies, ODT Certificates of War Necessity may be suspended, recalled, or revoked for "good cause." This includes:

1. Willful or negligent failure to comply with applicable ODT orders and Regulations.
2. Fraud or willful misrepresentation in obtaining a certificate.
3. Willful falsification of records or reports required by the ODT.
4. Abandonment of the operations for which the certificate was issued.
5. Prohibition by the ODT of the operations certified.
6. Erroneous issuance of a certificate.

It is to provide a uniform basis for the suspension, recall, cancellation or revocation of a certificate of war necessity, that the ODT has now formalized both its policies and procedure in orders covering the subject, the ODT said.

No general recalling of certificates is expected, however, for each certificate must be handled separately and its recall must be based on individually documented "good cause."

Under this procedure, the truck, bus or taxicab operator whose certificate is under consideration for suspension or recall must be notified of this fact by registered mail. This notification must be accompanied by the reason for the proposed action set forth in detail.

Such action will in all cases be initiated by the ODT Motor Transport District Office which has jurisdiction over the certificate.

When an operator is notified to show cause why his certificate should not be suspended, recalled, cancelled, or revoked he has the right to present evidence in his behalf and may obtain an oral hearing. In the event of an adverse decision by a district manager, an appeal may be taken to the regional director of the ODT. If the operator is not satisfied with the regional director's decision, a final appeal may be made to the director of the Office of Defense Transportation.

When an appeal is made or oral hearings are requested the order of recall, suspension, revocation or cancellation of the operator's certificate will be stayed pending the outcome of the appeal or hearing.

Whenever possible, hearing will be held at places convenient to the Certificate holder and the witnesses. Every opportunity will be given the certificate holder to present his case, and he will have the right to appear in person or be represented by counsel, present evidence, cross-examine witnesses and to obtain a transcript of the testimony, the ODT said.

The policies and procedure announced by the ODT were contained in two orders, Amendment 9 to General Order 21 and Administrative Order ODT 5.

At the same time, the ODT issued Administrative Order 8, which formalizes present procedures covering review of motor fuel and mileage allotments for commercial motor vehicles.

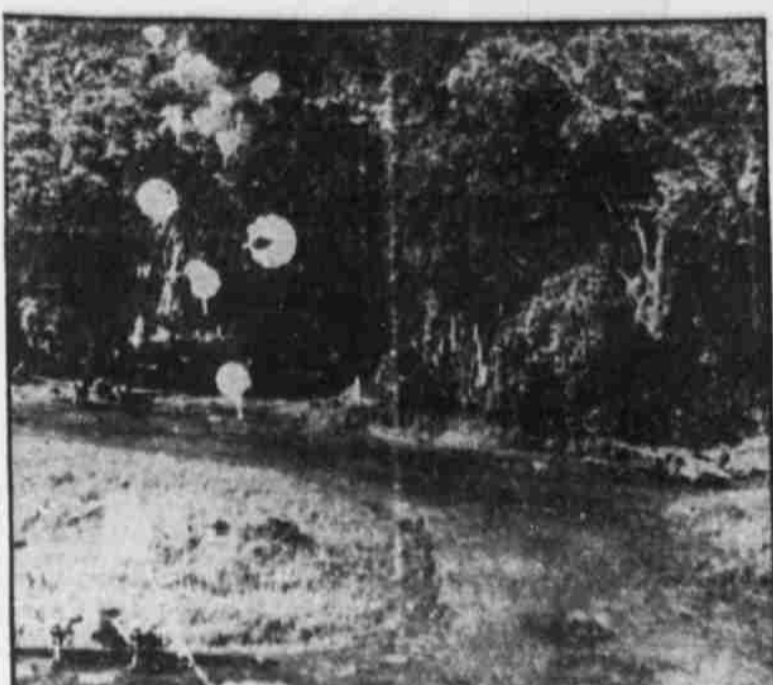

The three orders become effective October 1.

Texts of the orders may be obtained from the Office of Information, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington, D. C.

Ceiling Prices Set On Ammunition

Ammunition for civilian use will be sold under prices prevailing in March, 1942, according to OPA ceilings which become effective October 7. Retail ceilings on boxes of 75 shotgun shells are $1.38 for 12 gauge and $1.32 for 16 and 20 gauge. Retail ceilings on boxes of 50 rim fire cartridges are 34 cents for .22 long rifle and 21 cents for .22 short, regular. Retail ceiling prices on boxes of 20 center fire cartridges range from $1.41 to $2.10 according to brand and type. Ammunition stores are required to post ceiling prices but may sell at lower prices.

PARACHUTE BOMBS ON GAGUA DROME

U. S. ARMY AIR FORCES PHOTO.—The Japanese air base at Wewak, New Guinea, and the nearby dispersal fields at Boram, But and Gagua have been heavily reinforced by the Japs. So U. S. Army Air Force bombers have been dropping heavy bomb loads in recent weeks with one week's high being 206 tons of explosives set down on the Jap supply center of Madang—the entire area was wrecked. Photo shows parachute bombs dropping on the Gagua drome among Japanese twin-engined ships. Note dispersal of the ships on field.

Geo. Mahon Is Seeking Help For Dairymen

Rep. George Mahon submitted to the office of Price Administration a petition from West Texas Dairymen urging that price ceilings be increased from $3.55 to $4.50 per hundred weight on amount they received for milk or by 1 1/2 cents to 2 cents a quart when sold direct to the consumer.

The petition was signed by James Dietrich owner of the Cap Rock Dairy and producers in the Lubbock, Amarillo, Pampa, Borger and Dalhart areas. These dairymen, that are caught in the crisis of ceiling prices and labor, asked that their section be reclassified from Area 1 to IA to enable them to receive the same price as producers in the Fort Worth and Dallas areas. Rep. Mahon said that would be approximately 50 cents more per hundred weight. Lloyd Croslin is representing the dairymen of this section. "He is doing everything he can to be of help to the dairymen," Dietrich said.

There Is Priority On News Too; Get News In Early

All club reporters are asked to turn in reports immediately following the meetings instead of waiting until the Tuesday afternoon deadline. In this way your club will have a better space coverage in the paper each week. It has been necessary for the Dispatch to use this method since the size of the paper has been cut and the news gathering facilities have been limited due to many circumstances beyond our control.

There is a mistaken impression that The Dispatch does not welcome church news. This is an erroneous impression. Now, more than ever, church news is wanted for the publishers believe active churches are essential in this time of stress and war. Details on occasions may have to be omitted if the news is not turned in early, but church news is thrice welcome. Church reporters are urged to turn in announcements not later than Tuesday afternoon at six o'clock. All ladies' groups are invited and urged to send in reports but are asked to do so on Tuesday morning. The earlier the report reaches the editorial desk the better coverage it can receive.

All reporters are invited to send in news but it must be in on time. If your club has a party on Thursday turn the affair in on Friday. Friday parties on Saturday and no on Wednesday parties will have to be held over and will not be published until the following week except on very rare occasions. This digression from the old policy—that of accepting news as late as Wednesday, 8 p. m., is made necessary as the office is running short-handed and all mechanical work has to be completed after the type or setting matter is set up.

The publishers welcome news of local interest, but remember the priority on club reports.

Record Set By Post Merchants On War Bond Ads

As the Third War Loan Drive closed the publishers wondered just how much advertising the Post merchants had done to promote the drive. In every drive the merchants have taken a big part in using educational ads but we decided to check up on the number of inches used by Post businessmen during the drive just completed.

A total of 697 inches in advertising, not including news stories, were used.

For a town the size of Post we claim this is a record of which the merchants as well as the readers of The Dispatch may well be proud. The merchants are short of merchandise and help and many things are not the same but they are certainly not short on patriotism and a sense of right and justice.

Our hats are off to the group of men who are striving to do "business as usual" in a world that is full of restrictions and regulations that make it difficult to operate. Post is an example of other towns all over the nation. It is alive and teeming with good men who are rendering a valuable service to their towns and their government. They create stability and sanity by doing "business as usual" in spite of the hardships of a world at war.

LUBBOCK TO HAVE RODEO OCT. 7-8-9 AT FAIR GROUNDS

A big horseback parade will be held in downtown Lubbock at 11 o'clock the morning of October 7, to open the West Texas championship rodeo to be held at the Panhandle South Plains Fair grounds, under the auspices of the American Business Club, for the benefit of the Boys Club fund.

There will be a show each night, October 7, 8 and 9, and an afternoon show on Saturday at 2:30 o'clock. Beutler Brothers famous string of bucking stock from Elk City, Oklahoma, has been contracted, and $1,200, plus entrance fee, is up for amateur and professional cowboys in the bronco riding, calf roping, steer wrestling and wild brahma riding contests. John Lindsey, the nation's leading rodeo clown, will be there, as well as several other stars of the rodeo world.

GERMANY FAR FROM "COLLAPSE"

The German Army has nearly three times as many combat divisions in the field today as there were when the attack on Poland began four years ago. Major General George V. Strong, Assistant Chief of Staff G-3 (Military Intelligence) declared recently. Discounting any likelihood of an early collapse of either Germany or Japan, General Strong disclosed that the 20 divisions lost at Stalingrad last winter, and that the German Luftwaffe was larger now than in 1939. He said also that the weapons the Germans are making are in some cases better than any which the United Nations have.

Dates For War Ration Book No. 4 Set For Oct. 21-23

Registration in Garza County for War Ration Book IV will be held from Thursday noon, October 21 through October 23. Vera Gollehon, chief clerk of the Garza War Price and Rationing Board, announced today. She said that registration for the books will be held at the usual school sites. School teachers will again handle the applications and the registration places will be open on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, hours of which will be announced later.

War Ration Book IV, which will last approximately two years, will be issued to more than 120,000 persons in the nation through school house distribution, Miss Gollehon said. She estimates that there will be 5,600 persons registering in Garza county for Book IV. Applicants must bring their Book III with them when applying for Book IV, she said. She pointed out that consumers will not be asked to declare any supplies at home and books will not be tailored.

War Ration Book IV is expected to become usable sometime in November, the clerk said. It will contain eight pages with a total of 384 stamps of blue, green and black colors with the work "spare" appearing on 72 of them. The book designed before coffee rationing was lifted will have 12 coffee stamps which may be used as "spares."

Rev. Jim Wright Is Evangelist For Revival

Rev. Jim Wright, pastor of the First Christian church of Cisco will begin a meeting at the church here next Tuesday, October 12. The visiting pastor is one of the outstanding preachers of the Christian church and will bring fine and inspirational messages each night. He will be accompanied by his wife who is a talented vocalist and pianist.

People of Post are given a most cordial invitation to worship with the Christians during the ten-day meeting.

The services will begin at 8:00 o'clock each night.

FATHER OF MRS. BOB WARREN BURIED IN SNYDER LAST FRIDAY

W. A. Merrill, father of Mrs. Bob Warren, and one of the section's old timers, was buried in Snyder last Friday afternoon. Funeral services were held from the Methodist church at 2:30 o'clock.

Behind the name of W. A. Merrill is a vivid background of early day history in Scurry county. Mr. Merrill served as sheriff of the county for 10 years and was before his retirement several years ago identified with all phases of progress in the section. He lived in Snyder for 50 years and had been a member of the church for 45 years. He owned a sheep ranch and later a cattle ranch before moving into Snyder where he and Mrs. Merrill, who preceded him in death, established a home.

The 82 year-old man had been in ill health for several years and in a critical condition for several weeks. His daughters were at his bedside during his extreme illness and at the time of his death.

He is survived by Mrs. Warren, Mrs. Neil Gross of Sweetwater, and a son, Dink Merrill of El Paso; three grandchildren, one of whom is Mrs. Tom Gates of Post; and one great grandchild, Ann Gates, also of Post.

GRAHAM CHURCH OF CHRIST

Bro. S. D. Lofton will preach Sunday, Oct. 18, at the Graham Church of Christ. The public is invited to hear his sermon at the morning worship hour.

Funeral services for Thomas W. Childress will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the family residence, Mason & Company, which will have charge of arrangements. Mr. Childress died on Wednesday morning as a result of injuries received Sunday in an auto accident.

The Post grocer was injured in an accident near Southland early Sunday morning while enroute to Tulla to visit a son. He was accompanied by his wife and son Houston. It is understood that the Childress car, driven by Houston, swerved to miss a truck that had been in the barrow pit and that cut back into the highway just in front of the Childress car. In trying to miss the truck, Houston turned into the ditch on the opposite side of the road and the quick movement of the car caused it to turn over. Mr. Childress suffered a broken pelvic bone, cuts and bruises, Mrs. Childress was cut about the face and hands and also was bruised considerably and Houston suffered many bruises. They were taken to the Slaton Mercy hospital and given emergency treatment. Mr. Childress was there when he died early Wednesday morning. Mrs. Childress and son were released and came back to Post Tuesday. It was believed that Mr. Childress was doing as well as could be expected.

He had been in the grocery business for 18 years and had lived in this county since 1915. He moved into Post in 1920. He was a member of the Church of Christ and was one of its most active members. He was born on June 1, 1874.

Survivors are his widow and two sons, George of Tulla and Houston of Post; one brother, J. M. Childress of Denver and four sisters of Tennessee.

Moving U. S. Troops Is Big Job Of The Pullman Company

Taking all of Garza County's 5,600 people around the world in sleeping cars more than 120 times would be a tremendous undertaking, yet that is actually about the size of the troop movement job reported today by the Pullman Company.

Since Pearl Harbor, Pullman has carried about 14,000,000 troops a distance of more than 15 billion passenger miles in its sleeping cars, the company reports. These figures are said to cover mass military movements alone, and do not include the heavy travel of furloughed men and others.

Many of the boys from Garza County, like servicemen from all parts of the country, are getting their first Pullman rides, according to George A. Kelly, vice president of the company. Now most of them are making six or seven trips by Pullman, as the intense training program of the armed services necessitates that many moves or more prior to embarkation for points abroad, he said.

In addition, the Army and Navy believe in all comfort possible for the members of the armed forces. He declared, and about two thirds of all military movements by rail are by Pullman sleeper.

Pullman is now carrying more than 800,000 troops every month in mass movements, it is revealed by Mr. Kelly, who pointed out that in addition to this heavy and steadily increasing military passenger burden, civilian travel itself is also at record-breaking level. He believes that Pullman's passenger-mile volume for 1943 may exceed the 1942 all-time high of 19 billion by 20 or more per cent.

"The military and civilian passenger burden of Pullman and the railroads today is so heavy," Kelly said, "that there is unfortunately little margin left for some of the conveniences travelers enjoyed in peacetime. Service today is wartime service, and by their understanding and tolerance of this fact, travelers can help to greatly in the performance of our vital job."

Garza Goes Over Top In Third War Loan Drive

Garza county went over the top in the Third War Loan Drive with a grand total of $385,798.00, according to figures compiled late Wednesday afternoon by John Herd, chairman of the Garza drive. The quota set for this county was $362,300.00.

A number of companies who have representatives and branch offices here invested in bonds and gave the county a substantial boost. The largest investor was the Leslie, Evans and Company, new mill owners. Their investment amounted to $25,000.00. Other contributors to the drive were Southwestern Life Insurance Company with $10,000.00; Santa Fe Railroad Company with $10,000.00; Higginbotham-Bartlett Company with $5,000.00; West Texas Gas Company with $4,000.00; Southwestern Associated Telephone Company with $2,000.00; Southwestern Public Service with $1,000.00. Other $1,000.00 investors were Thomas Emery and Sons (Swenson Landowners); Bryant-Link Co.; Sweetwater Cotton Oil Co. (Planters Gin); and Swenson Land and Cattle Company.

Many non-resident individuals who own considerable land in this county also invested in bonds and gave the county credit for their purchases.

The Close City community, it is understood, invested heavier than any other community in the county.

Series E, F and G bonds can still be bought until October 16 and be counted on the grand total, it was announced by Mr. Herd Wednesday.

PAUL SIMPSON TO REPORT TO FORT SILL, OKLAHOMA

William Paul Simpson was accepted at the induction station in Lubbock and will report to Fort Sill, Oklahoma in about three weeks, it was announced from the Selective Service Board Monday. Jason Thurston Burcham was also accepted. He was transferred from this board to another board. He will also report to Fort Sill.

Notice To Dispatch Subscribers

After Monday, October 11, the subscription price of the Post Dispatch will be $2.00 a year in Garza County and $2.50 outside the county except to men in service. Regular rates will be maintained for men in service. In clubbing The Dispatch with the daily papers The Dispatch will remain at $1.50.

The Dispatch, contrary to the policy of some publishers, is giving a few days grace, during which our subscribers may still get the home paper at the old price without feeling that we took advantage without giving advance warning.

The Dispatch had hoped to keep its price down to $1.50 but rising costs of all printing supplies and labor has continued to rise month by month so the publishers of the paper deemed it advisable to join other weeklies all over the land who have already raised their subscription prices.

We now have a large subscription list and would like to keep each subscriber in our reading family. Many daily papers have had to freeze their subscription list. This could happen to the weeklies. The publishers hope readers of The Dispatch will take advantage of the few days of grace to renew their subscriptions before we raise the price of the paper from the $1.50 rate to the $2.00 rate.

We hope that our subscribers understand the situation. We appreciate your patronage and would like for all members of The Dispatch reading family to remain on our subscription list.

National Newspaper Week

Editorial for National Newspaper Week is present in the Post Branding Iron. Mr. Alfred Stallings, Mr. Alvin Karpis and efficient of the Santa Fe Railroad. He has a keen smell of the Press and its problems. The publishers present his editorial as a feature of National Newspaper Week.)

The modern custom to use certain days and weeks to stress the values of commodities such as fruits, vegetables, etc. and with especial stress the importance of service rendered by various industries.

The industry principally upon for the success of these programs is the newspaper. It is entirely proper that a week be designated Newspaper Week, and at the same time every citizen thoughtfully consider the service rendered by the newspaper, whether it be a daily weekly or metropolitan paper, a service too often taken for granted without thought of its value to the community.

The newspaper sympathetically shares your sorrows, joyfully shares your good fortunes, socializes in church programs, variety shows, and in all the progress and approval of the territory covered by its service, and brings new and new businesses into the community.

In any other business of your community your help must be able to pay its way. It does through sale of advertising space, made profitable through a circulation by well edited news columns, space in the local and national businessman's effective method of competition the mail order houses, and has the opportunity of his message daily or greatest service rendered newspapers is leading people. It matters not how old or radical, or whether agree or disagree with the views, if his opinion sets thinking, a service has been rendered to your community and we are firm in the belief that people are doing and that free speech, free and free people will endure. This week's deliberations and co-operation thereby expanding the news-field of service.

Feels As If He Has Been In Army All His Life

Corporal Mason Justice writes from North Africa to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Justice of Justiceburg, that he feels like he has been in the army all his life. "I'm anxious to get back home but don't want to come home until this mess is all over. I'd rather stay and finish it up this time so it won't be to do over in another 25 years," he wrote. In commenting on the fruit cake his mother sent recently he said, "It was almost as good as beer." The letter was written on September 14. Mason is with the Headquarters office and has been in Africa since April.

Southland Boy In Service

F. M. Allen sent his wife, the former El Nora Sokoll, a telegram, then arrived here at noon Thursday—before she received the message. He lost no time in introducing himself to his four-months old son.

Leon (Pete) King writes that he recently met Bruce Payton, who had just been cleaning ship and was as black as could be.

Last week Mrs. J. B. Jones received three letters from her husband who is stationed on Attu. He wrote that on the 4th of July, he attended memorial services there. Last week Mrs. Charles Sokoll, Sr. received her first letter in almost nine weeks from her son. Probably Charles, Jr. was waiting to have news to write home—he has recently been promoted to Master Sergeant and is now stationed in Arizona.

Pfc. Wm. E. Parker tried to get a three-day leave while his sister was visiting her parents but they all missed seeing each other—she left Friday morning for Ft. Worth and he came from Liberal, Kansas, that night.

Harvey Smallwood, who is somewhere in the South Pacific, writes his parents, the G. N. Smallwoods that he appreciates their sending him the Post Dispatch, as it is like getting letters from all his friends.

Post Man Is Selected To Take Aviation Training

Jacksonville, Fla.— Storekeeper 2nd class Hansel D. Hallman, Jr. of Post has been selected by a board of naval officers at this station to train for an Aviation Pilot's rating in the Navy.

The 22 year-old petty officer requested this transfer some time ago and was recently notified of his appointment and was informed to be ready for his new assignment at the end of September. He enlisted in the Navy in January 1942, and after completing recruit training at Norfolk, Va., he was sent to this station where he later won advancement, through his work in the disbursing office, to a second class rating.

Hansel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hansel D. Hallman of Post. He is a graduate of Southland High school and attended the Bakersfield Junior College before entering the Navy.

On September 30, Hallman reported to the Cadet Selection Board, Dallas, Texas, for further assignment to a Naval Flight preparatory station; there to undergo a three months course in basic aviation studies for further flight instruction.

Jimmie Hundley Is Now Second Lieutenant

Jimmie Hundley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hundley, notified his parents that he had received a second lieutenant's commission in the U. S. Army Air Corps. Jimmie has been with the Pan American Ferrying Command and served at various points over the world and is now in Tennessee where he has been on ferry duty with the Fourth Ferry Command.

On a recent mission a Ferry Command flyer in his group met his death. Jimmie was serving as flight leader of a group of four ships. The planes were just taking off after having spent the night at Springfield, Ill., airport, and had not resumed regular flight order. Hundley was leading and the other planes were endeavoring to gain formation. He told Lt. Col. R. E. McKinnin, in charge of the Third district internal security office, that his plane was 1000 yards ahead of the others and he did not see the plane go into the fatal spin nor crash as witnesses reported. First knowledge he had of the trouble was when he looked back and saw the other ships circling over the spot where the plane had crashed. He turned his ship and went low over the scene expecting to land and give aid but upon seeing the fiercely burning ship and no sign of life he went directly to the airport to report the accident and returned to the scene immediately by auto with a number of officials. The pilot, it was said, was undoubtedly killed instantly.

Cpl. Stanley Mathis Now Overseas

Cpl. Stanley Mathis is now somewhere overseas. He was home on a furlough the last of July. Mathis is a cook in the Engineering Avn. He went into the army January 19, 1943. He has been stationed in Fort Hill, Oklahoma, Kester Field, Miss. Camp Lee, Va., and at Dow Field, Bangor, Maine. Mrs. Mathis, formerly Pauline Thompson, will make her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Thompson, in Post.

F. M. Cookman of Stephenville Visited for Several Days in the Home of his Son Dan. He Left Wednesday to Visit Other Children in Seminoles.

Landings Are Getting Tough

In a letter to a friend, describing the American landings of Italy at Salerno, William Forsythe, Chief Photographer, said: "These amphibious landings are getting more and more a ghastly sort of way. They're getting tougher as we go along. I don't let anybody kid you. The United States isn't paying for such places as Sicily and Salerno. Of course the radio and newspaper headlines are very encouraging to the folks home, but there's a lot of American boys getting killed, but I don't think that's the price of war."

Mrs. Elizabeth Fisher, Correspondent

Tuesday of each week is war bond and stamp day in our school. Sales for September amounted to $75.00.

We are happy to report a very spiritual service in our Sunday school last Sunday. We are having a special Sunday school rally next Sunday, October 10. "Come to Sunday School," is our motto.

Mrs. Jim Graves has been ill the past week, but we are glad to report her condition as convalescent.

Miss Mabel James was the house guest of Mrs. Fisher for the weekend.

Mrs. O. A. McDougle who spent the past week in Post with her daughter, Mrs. Earl Anderson, and new grandson, has returned to her home.

The benefit supper on last Friday evening was successful even beyond our expectations. The receipts amounted to $33.00. We thank each one who contributed to its success.

SENIOR PERSONALITY

The personality this week in the Secretary-Treasurer of the Senior class, Mary Margaret Duckworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Lee Duckworth. "Ducky," as she is called by her many friends, was born on June 9, 1927. She plays the piano well, makes good grades and has many friends. The Senior class is lucky to have her as one of their class officers.

GUESS WHO?

He has a birthday between the 5th and 15th of January and is a member of the Junior class. He is very smart. He goes in for sports in a big way and plays center on the Boy's basketball team. He has personality plus and is popular. Who is he?

Last week's personality was Mary Margaret Graham.

The Senior class had a class meeting Friday to select a play for the annual performance. Nothing was definitely decided so three different play books were ordered.

Sophomore Class

The theme of the entire entertainment was the negro and his customs.

Nora Jo Blacklock gave a monologue concerning the colored lady collecting her insurance before the death of her husband, Ross Blasingame, a colored preacher, brought his message to an audience of twenty colored people. Hugh Ingram gave the invocation in typical negro style.

The group composed of members of the class sang several negro spirituals. They were accompanied by Juanita Bingham. A string trio played and sang "There's A Star Spangled Banner Waving Somewhere," and a group of cowboy ballads. Mack Hend, G. W. Martin and David Buster made up the trio.

Dinner Belles Elect Officers and Plan Activities

One of the largest and most active clubs in school was organized Thursday of last week. Miss Margaret Weaver, instructor, called the meeting to order and girls who were members of the club last year presided.

Plans were discussed for the initiation ceremony to be held tonight at the High school. Old members of the club will make arrangements for the initiation ceremonies.

The club follows a constructive program of some nature along with its social events. Last year one of the main projects was the aid the club gave to the Red Cross Sewing room. Plans as to the activities this year will be announced soon.

Overweight Motor Oil Costs You Dear

Be sure of changing to your Lightest possible grade
—by having your engine Winter OIL-PLATED

Sure as you live... sure as your car must live... you'll want a change to the lightest motor oil that your engine can use this Winter of War.

Waiting for a "real cold day" before draining overweight oil that drags when it chills, is like waiting for your battery's doom. This drag of overweight oil wastes gasoline, too. And even worse is the big chance of internal damage because overweight oil won't squirt and spray into friction zones of your engine quickly. For the sake of your battery, your gasoline coupons, and your engine, change to your lightest practical grade of oil.

You can quit wondering whether "one grade heavier might be on the safe side." You can be as safe as possible with your engine OIL-PLATED by even your lightest suitable grade of Conoco Nth motor oil. Its load-carrying capacity is doubled by synthetic means. And this also creates "magnet-like" action to keep lubricant closely fastened to inner engine surfaces, in the form of OIL-PLATING. Even the lightest grade of Conoco Nth oil will give your engine the high protection of OIL-PLATING. Ask Your Mileage Merchant today to recommend the grade suitable for your car. Continental Oil Company

Dread Engine Acid is Fought by OIL-PLATING

Normal combustion always leaves acids in your engine when it stops. Usually it seldom stood idle long. Mileage and speed heated your engine enough to eat acids. Always rationing may force long idles, while corrosive acids grow. To combat corrosion, metals are plated. Combat acid corrosion with your OIL-PLATED.

FDR says:
Curtailed spending. Put your savings into war bonds every payday.

"In the case of air commerce, the economies of which are interstate and international, there can be no justification for differing local requirements. And the special value of aviation, speed, and mobility would be impaired, if not destroyed, were varying state regulations ever to arise." —The New York Times.

CLEAN OWN HOUSE FIRST

The most popular political pastime today is planning a new postwar world. But before the United States can take any great part in such a world, it will have to set its own house in order.

Large, continuing production is the only basis for financing our government and maintaining adequate living standards and a feeling of personal security. In the United States, under a private enterprise system, living standards reached a world peak and provided real independence and security for a greater population than in other countries.

So, while planning the postwar world, our planners might as well get down to earth and consider practical plans for encouraging expansion of private enterprise at home.

Only a policy of moderate taxation after the war will encourage individual initiative. Exorbitant taxes add to the price of goods, depress employment and deter investment and risk taking.

"Moderate business taxes," says Harley L. Lutz, professor of public finance, Princeton University, in The Tax Review, "that would release the full driving power of production of adequate wages and profits, mean that as soon as the war is over the excess profits tax and the surtax should be repealed, the normal rate should be reduced to some point within the range applied from 1918 to 1932. In no case should the rate exceed 20 percent."

Whenever the worries of life get you down walk into a cemetery and look at the tombstones. Underneath them are human beings who once had worries.

The people of Germany, Italy and Japan were willing and anxious to share the loot of war, promised them by their leaders; they must expect to share the burden of defeat.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

No More Brass

On land or at sea our fighting men do their many chores by the sound of a bugle. All sorts of uncomplimentary epithets are used to designate the bugler, but nobody has yet been able to provide a satisfactory substitute for a bugle although recordings are used at some permanent bases.

Aboard ship the men fall in at the order of "Pipe muster." On land the bugler sounds "Assembly!" But no matter where the bugle is used thousands must be bought out of the money we are investing in War Bonds. Back the attack with an extra $100 Bond in the 3rd War Loan.

U. S. Treasury Department

DOWN TO THE GUNWALS

Farmers and the food sellers find themselves in a boat which is being so overloaded with price restrictions and regulations that it is close to foundering.

Commenting on this situation, Albert S. Goss, President of the National Grange, in addressing the National Association of Food Chains, said:

"Food is rapidly becoming the world's number one problem. We are waking up to the fact that the United States has not been feeding itself for the past ten years; that we have imported more food than we have exported. Because of some very unwise OPA policies, we are prevented from raising the maximum amount of needed food. The average farm prices are high enough. Some commodities may be too high, while others are definitely too low.

"The OPA is supplanting the laws of nature with the laws of the swivel chair. The mistake is made of violating all laws of economics by trying to force all prices into a common mold. When we set ceilings, based on average costs, we strangle the production of those commodities with costs above ceilings, and create shortages. A trout may take 90 per cent of the Georgia peach crop, and if we try to hold Georgia peach growers to the same price level as in an area with a bumper crop, the Georgia peach growers will grow broke. These unworkable directives create impossible conditions which will eventually blow up."

The Nazis will be "retreating according to plan" when the war ends.

Views of Neighboring Editors:

Slaton Slatonite: It is time to dust off the last year's Christmas bell, chase the moths out of your overcoat, buy a bottle of vitamins, have your goshaws vulcanized, drag out the gas heater, straighten out the can opener, put up the lawn mower and start thinking up dirty cracks to make about the gas company.

The Texas Spur: The glamour girls are gone from the covers of magazines this month. Had you noticed, in their places are girls in overalls with bandannas tight about their heads, or girls in well-worn uniforms or in every-day work clothes doing undramatic jobs that release men for active military duty.

All these publications didn't just happen to have this kind of cover this month and to carry articles urging women to go to work. A request went out from Washington months ago of which this is the result. A request mind you, not an order, as would have been the case in a totalitarian country, and all women's publications that have such a profound influence of feminine thinking rallied to the cause.

Exchange—The people of the United States have become so used to enjoying railroad transportation that is practically free of accidents to passengers, that they were shocked when a train wreck does occur.

It is true that the number of passenger fatalities this year will exceed those of any year for the past twenty years, although the fatalities per 100,000,000 passenger-miles are very little more than they were in 1940, 1926, and 1925, and less than they were in 1922 and some of the earlier years.

Figures show that the chances of the average passenger being killed in a train wreck are on a ratio of but one chance in four million. This means, even at the death rate this year, the average passenger can look forward to traveling in safety 370,000,000 miles—a journey which would require constant travel for about 1200 years.

If one could be as safe from accidental death at home or in recreation as on the train, untold grief and suffering would be averted.

The New York Times points out editorially that just to keep a sense of proportion, it is well to remember that seven bad railroad crashes since 1940 have cost 175 lives; whereas in the single year of 1941 automobile accidents killed 40,000 people in the United States.

It is miraculous that with the tremendous traffic that American railroads are handling, such an infinitesimal proportion of persons have been injured or killed.

NO SHORTAGE HERE!

Yes, newspapers are short of editors, ad men, operators, printers, pressmen, and most everything else, but they are not short of the determination to keep a Free Press in America. Editors are turning into operators, carriers into pressmen, society editors into press feeders, ad men and what have you.

Transformations are taking place every day in every news shop in the nation; but the same is happening in every business firm. These transformations are being met with a grim determination by the American people everywhere who are forming a line of defense on the home front.

In keeping with the theme of Newspaper Week "A Free Press and A Free People," we, the publishers of The Dispatch, salute the American people everywhere who are meeting the challenge and are declaring by their very acts and deeds that there is . . .

No Shortage Here!

The American Press is an institution that was constructed for a defense against slavery and despotism and is for the people, of the people and by the people.

Helen Jo Hundley Elected To Offices At McMurry College

Miss Helen Jo Hundley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hundley, was elected president of the Junior class of McMurry college at a recent meeting. The popular McMurry student was also elected president of the McMurry Maidens, Girls Ensemble group, and associate member of the Wah Wah-tay-sees, Drum and Bugle Corps.

Miss Hundley who is head cheer leader was honored in a traditional ceremony when the Wah Wah-tay-sees held inauguration ceremonies. The Fire-Fly, sign of new membership to the organization was pinned on Helen Jo by the president.

At the first meeting of the McMurry Maidens, Miss Hundley was a member of the houseparty and poured tea from a beautifully appointed table, when the group met to pledge new members and elect officers.

The group has participated in various campus activities and furnished entertainment for the U. S. O., army camps and other activities in Abilene. Miss Hundley plays the oboe.

The McMurry War Whoop, college paper, gave nice recognition to Miss Hundley.

Mrs. Mollie Morris Is Hostess To Club Last Thursday

The Graham Homemakers club met on Thursday afternoon Sept. 30 with Mrs. Mollie Morris. There was eighteen members and one visitor present. The afternoon was spent in visiting and a few of the ladies had their chochet work. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Mae Gossett on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 14th.

Delicious refreshments were served to the following visitors and members: Mmes. Imogene Morris, Nettie Seay, Pearl Wallace, Ada Mae Tucker, Myrtle Hoover, Bernice Propst, D. Redman, Viva Davis, Iris McMahon, Mae Norman, Naomi Norman, Lucille Bush, Alma McBride, Claude Fluitt, Rene Fluitt, Dorothy Cowdrey, Letha Porterfield, Minnie Wright, Lola Peel, and the hostess.

Mrs. Wilbur Love To Be Hostess Tuesday To Jr. Culture Club

Mrs. Wilbur Love will be hostess to the Junior Culture club next Tuesday night, October 12, at 7:30 o'clock.

A book review will be presented as the main feature of the program. Barbara Jo Cox will serve as leader.

Merry Makers Meet In Home of Mrs. E. Duncan Tuesday

On Tuesday, Sept. 28, twenty-five members of the Merry Makers club met in the home of Mrs. Emmet Duncan with Mrs. Erwin Chandler as co-hostess. The afternoon was spent in visiting and fancy work. It was gift day and many useful and beautiful gifts were exchanged. Quite a few heard from their club pals. It was decided to quilt two quilts for the Red Cross.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Ray McNabb with Mrs. Sims as co-hostess and at that time one quilt will be put up. Everyone is urged to come early in the afternoon and bring your needle and thimble so that the quilt can be finished.

Delicious refreshments consisting of cake and hot cocoa were served.

The club adjourned to meet on Tuesday, Oct. 12th.

Miss Wilma Presson of Dallas spent the first of the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Presson.

Miss Catherine Royalty of Lubbock was a visitor in the home of Mrs. Ed Warren last week end.

Anniversary Is Observed Sunday By Mr. and Mrs. A. Stone

Mr. and Mrs. A. Stone celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at their home on the Plains Sunday afternoon, Oct. 3, with an informal tea from 3 to 6 o'clock. The guests upon arriving were served from a table that was decorated with a white cake bearing the word fifty in gold letters. Two gold candle holders with white candles added to the decorations. Napkins used were white with the inscription "Eva-Gus, 1893 - 1943" in gold.

After a lovely array of gifts had been inspected, the guests were asked to register in the book which was made of white with anniversary written in gold lettering with two golden bells on the front cover. The book was designed and made by Miss Mattie Evelyn Stone, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stone. A very appropriate program of the afternoon was given by expression pupils of Mrs. Roy Mullins. Highlights of the program was a little "mock" wedding using the names of the couple "Gus Stone and Eva Baker." In the bridal party were La Rue Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stevens as the bride, Wayne Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tol Thomas as the groom, Miss Iris Steen McMahon as maid of honor, Darrel Stone, grandson of the honorees as best man, and James Barnes served as the father giving the bride away. Little Misses Joy McMahon and Janie Gossett were flower girls. They carried little gold colored baskets. Little Barbara Sue Stone, a granddaughter, was ring bearer. She carried the little ring on a satin pillow. N. W. Stone, another grandson, was the preacher. Little Miss Ann Mullins dressed in a beautiful blue dress and hat, sang "I Love You Truly" in her gracious little manner. Then Jena Joyce Barnes paid a loving tribute to the honored couple with a fitting poem, "We Have Lived and Loved Together."

Mrs. Stone was dressed for the occasion in a black dress with a shoulder corsage of white carnations, presented her by her granddaughter, Miss Margaret Stone. Mr. Stone wore a gray suit with a white boutonniere.

The five boys, Noah, Virgil, James, Dale and Albert were present, their wives and 13 grandchildren were present also.

The Stones almost feel like old timers, having lived in Garza county 28 years on the same farm.

About 175 guests called during the afternoon. Out-of-town guests were Miss Margie Stone, a granddaughter, who is present making her home in Lubbock; also a niece and family of Mr. Stone from Floydada.

The guests departed wishing for the couple many more anniversaries. It was indeed a very happy occasion. —Contributed

The Woman's Culture club met in regular session Wednesday afternoon September 29 in the home of Mrs. J. N. Power with Mrs. Lee Davis as co-hostess. It was the second meeting of the club year.

Business was taken care of at the beginning of the meeting when a number of plans were made for the year by various committee chairmen and the amount of bonds bought by club women since the close of the club year last spring were reported. At the close of business the club collect was read.

Dr. D. C. Williams was guest speaker and chose as his subject a very timely topic, infantile paralysis. He enlightened the club members as to symptoms that are usually prevalent during the first few days. He also discussed medical findings and treatment since the beginning of the dread disease in medieval times. The discussion was indeed interesting and enjoyed by everyone present.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses to eleven members. The club adjourned to meet Oct. 13.

The program for next Wednesday will be based on Time Magazine and taken from the 29th and 31st issues. Mrs. J. E. Parker will be leader and others on the program will be Mrs. B. J. Edwards and Mrs. J. P. Manly. Mrs. W. L. Davis and Mrs. E. W. Williams will serve as co-hostesses.

New Sub-Debs Are Put "On the Spot" For Initiation

One of the gayest parties of the year was held by the Sub-Deb club last Friday night when the group held initiation ceremonies for six new members of the club. The informal party was held at the home of Miss Iris Joy Parker.

Very amusing and embarrassing things were planned to put each new member "on the spot" but each girl proved her ability "to take it" by doing exactly as she was told no matter how impossible the task seemed at the time.

After the initiation was over the delicious refreshments of punch, sandwiches, potato chips and muffins were served by Mrs. Parker and her daughter from a beautifully arranged table. A floral arrangement of flowers in a large silver bowl centered the lace covered table.

In commenting on the Sub-Deb activities Hazel Cash one of the new members said, "It brought to an end a week of fun, which included dressing like everything from a tramp to a night club singer. It was a week of fun although everybody that saw us thought we were crazy."

After a few minutes of talking at the home of Iris Parker the night of the Initiation each rushee was blindfolded and escorted to the lovely front porch of the Parker home where a conglomeration of food was fed each one. One of the dishes was raw-egg whites and boiled okra. It was "delicious." Then each rushee was given a mission to perform and could not return to the party until it was accomplished. One girl called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Jones and sat Gandhi fashion on the floor not uttering a word. Another visited the R. C. Tension home and asked for a recipe for eggnog. Another approached a soldier on the highway and asked him all sorts of questions. Members of the club were listening so she had to ask the questions she had been given beforehand. All these and many other embarrassing moments were experienced before we returned to the Parker home. Life's darkest moment it turned into something nice when we all were given the seal of approval by the club.

New Officers Are Elected Thursday For Sub-Deb Club

Miss Iris Joy Parker was named sweetheart of the Sub-Deb club at a business meeting held Thursday night at the home of Marian Hodge. Miss Hodge was elected president to succeed Miss Mary Carpenter who has served as president for a year.

Other officers elected were Wanda Thomas, vice president; Miggie Graham, secretary-treasurer; Betty Williams, reporter; Marion Edwards, activities chairman.

Plans for the formal dance to honor the new members was discussed as well as other matters of business.

Whose yardstick is this?

IT BELONGS to us . . . and it belongs to you. We both have a grip on it and we won't let go.

For just as you are measuring the worth of the things you buy, so we are measuring the worth of the merchandise we feature on our counters.

Just as you can't afford to take chances on buying products that may not serve you well and long, neither can we.

That's why today you'll find so many famous names here . . . names that through the years have proven their worth, their dependability, their high standards of quality . . . names like Printzess that for 50 years has stood for fine tailoring in coats and suits.

Those are names which contribute to our good name . . . names which help you to good buying.

Notes From County Agent's Office

By Wallace Kimbrough County Agent of Texas A.M. Extension Service

FARM LABOR - COTTON PULLERS

With the crops about thirty days early in this section of the State it is making it rather hard to get migratory labor here at this time. The U. S. Employment Service placed a labor roustler in Garza county Saturday of last week. He is Andrew R. Alvarez of Corpus Christi, Texas. It is this man's job to contact the Mexicans and get the farmer and the crew together, it is then up to the farmer to make the deal with the Mexicans. If a farmer is in need of cotton pullers he should get in touch with Alvarez or the County Agent and give them the following information:

Number of acres in cotton, housing facilities, location of the farm, distance to gin, and the price he plans to pay. Alvarez can be located usually on the lot across the railroad tracks used by Mexicans for camping. He will send the available labor to those who apply for it in the order in which he receives the orders.

The customary price at this time is $1.25 per 100 pounds and 25c for weighing and hauling. If a few farmers start bidding up the price there is no telling how high the cost of gathering this crop may go. Let's not start bidding for the labor, there should be sufficient labor in here in a few days to gather the crops without letting the price get out of hand. The County Agent of Scurry county called and said he heard the farmers here were paying $1.50 for pulling and if we were trying to do so there. I assured him we were trying to keep the price where it was. It can be done if we will stick together, there is no sense in paying out the crop just to get it harvested.

Statement of the Ownership, Management, Circulation, Etc., Required By The Acts of Congress Of March 24, 1912, and March 3, 1933

State of Texas County of Garza ss.

Before me, a Notary Public in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared Mrs. Eva Warren Bailey, who having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that she is the Editor-Publisher of the Post Dispatch and that the following is, to the best of her knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management of the aforesaid publication for the date shown on the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, as amended by the Act of March 3, 1933, embodied in section 337, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to wit:

- 1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business managers are: Publisher E. A. Warren, Post, Texas; Editor, E. A. Warren, Post, Texas; Business Manager Mrs. Eva Warren Bailey, Post, Texas. 2. That the owner is: E. A. Warren, Post, Texas; Mrs. Eva Warren Bailey, Post, Texas. 3. That the known bondholders, mortgages, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: None. 4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner, and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association, or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.

Mrs. Eva Warren Bailey Sworn to and subscribed before me this 5th day of October 1943. (Seal) Marvin Hudman (My commission expires June 1, 1945).

Sour Milk

Stuck with some sour milk? Don't waste it—home economists point out that the food value of sour milk is the same as that of sweet milk and it is easier to digest. Use it in some of your baked foods, adding a dash of soda to neutralize the sourness. Go easy on the soda—not more than one-half teaspoon to one cup of sour milk—or it will leave an unpleasant aftertaste.
