Number 20

Earliest harvest has passed 9,000 bales

Grades are very good

Garza's earliest harvest in history is in full swing with nine gins which handle the county's cotton reporting 8,968 bales ginned, as of Tuesday afternoon, with another 772 bales on their yards.

Several gins were running 24 hours a day. The Sunday rain had permitted most of them to "catch up".

The best news on the new harvest is that the grades are very good—a lot of middling cotton this year, something Garza County usually has very little of after "freeze harvests."

The going market price is about 45 cents per pound, down 25 percent or more from a year ago when the entire crop averaged over 60 cents a pound.

"All we need now," commented one ginner, "is a real market for the cotton and a high seed price so everybody could make a little money over expenses." Another ginner said the early harvest, due to farmers turning to defoliation rather than risk weather deterioration in the field, is working out great for the gins.

"We may be all through before the bad weather hits," he said, "unless it arrives early."

Farmers are defoliating as they can handle the harvest from field to field which makes for a much better balanced harvest than in an after-freeze rush.

Here is a gin-by-gin report of The Dispatch's first 1977 "gin check."

Planters Gin, usually the last to start and last to finish due to nature of farming area, 149 bales ginned, good business Monday, but slow Tuesday.

Graham Gin: 1,118 bales ginned, 200 more on yard, ginning 24 hours using two crews. The turnout is good, about 24 percent. The yield is better than expected, averaging about half bale to acre from a third of bale up to one bale on irrigated land.

Storie Gin: 260 bales ginned, been running two weeks, averaging third to half bale to acre, turnout 22 to 26 percent. Some farmers undecided about waiting for frost.

Pleasant Valley Gin: 2,025 bales tagged in, working 12 hour shift, will start night crew Wednesday or Thursday night. Sunday's rain let gin get caught up.

Close City Gin: 1,385 bales ginned, 260 on yard, working 14 hours daily, most all farmers defoliating, turnout "pretty fair."

Southland Gin: 950 bales ginned, day ahead on yard, working 12 hours a day, yield pretty good, grades good, lots of middling cotton.

Hackberry Gin: 3,995 bales ginned, half of which is counted as Garza cotton, 400 more on yard, been running round the clock for last two weeks. Grades nearly all white, mostly middling, one inch in length. Producers Coop: 1,855 bales ginned, one third of which is counted as Garza cotton, dozen more bales on yard, been running 24 hours until Sunday rain, grades real good, turnout "mostly pretty good."

Grassland Coop: 1,858 bales ginned, one fourth of which is counted as Garza cotton, 30 more on yard, running 24 hours, grades "real good", good middling cotton, area pretty well defoliated.

Garza United Fund drive opens Oct. 24

Garza County's 1978 United Fund drive is scheduled to kick off Monday, Oct. 24 with a $10,725 goal for nine participating agencies.

Jim Cornish will head the campaign for the seventh straight year.

United Fund directors met late Tuesday afternoon in the bank community room and approved the recommendations of its budget committee, headed by Jack Alexander, for the distribution of funds to participating agencies.

Requests totaled $12,918. The distribution of the $10,725 goal, with amount requested in parenthesis, is as follows:

Red Cross $300 ($300), summer baseball $2,500 ($2,500), Boy Scouts $3,000 ($4,000), USO $125 ($125), Girl Scouts $3,600 ($4,293.96), Salvation Army $1,000 ($1, 350). Garza County United Fund, for expenses $50 ($50), Texas Rehabilitation Center $100 ($200), Texas United Fund $50 ($100).

Alexander reported the Red Cross reduced its request from $600 funded last year because of availability of unused funds for local use.

The Boy Scouts were boosted from $2,500 to $3,000. (See United Fund, Page 14)

1978 city contract to Pritchard-Abbott

The city council at their regular October meeting last week voted to extend the contract of Pritchard and Abbott, oil evaluation engineers for another year at the present rate of four cents per $100 valuation.

Tom Miller appeared before the council to discuss the contract.

In other actions, the council:

Rotarians hear of school activities

Lane Tannehill gave a talk before Post Rotarians at their Tuesday luncheon in the community center on the various activities offered students in the Post schools, from kindergarten through high school.

He also told how many students were involved in each activity.

Extended the lease of the house and 24.9 acres of city land (formerly in water field) to Allan Hall for $61 monthly for another year and gave the lease on 121 acres of farmland to Wayne Carpenter for one fourth of the cotton and one third of the feed grains as rent.

Approved on first reading Post Antenna's request for a rate increase of $1 monthly to $8 for cable tv service here.

Discussed raising the city's oil tax of two cents per barrel, but took no action.

Passed on final reading the new water charges against delinquent accounts of $5 for meter re-reads for customers with past due payments, $10 reconnect fee if water is turned off for non-payment, and $20 fee to reinstall a water meter if taken out because of non-payment.

Unbelievable!

That's what all those 14 penalties against the Lopes in the first half of the Cooper game were.

We don't think anybody keeps statistics on penalties, but we will guess that is the West Texas record for penalties in 24 minutes of football, and very possibly a Texas and national record.

We noticed in Sunday's paper that the national collegiate record for infractions in a single game is 16 and Baylor missed it Saturday by only one getting 15 and a total of 124 yards in penalties.

What was all the more strange about the work of those officials Friday night was that they returned to the field in the second half with the apparent realization that they were on the way to breaking all records for years to come.

So they kept their yellow flags in their pockets, penalizing Post but once for five yards for delay of game in the second half until they stepped off 15 yards on the next to the last play of the game after they had let the game get out of hand and had called (See Postings, Page 14)

Maxine Marks new chairman

Mrs. Maxine Marks was elected chairman of the Garza County Historical Commission last Wednesday to fill the position left vacant by the resignation of Mrs. Joy Greer.

The Commission accepted "with deepest regret" Mrs. Greer's letter of resignation which cited a lack of time to fill the position.

The group viewed a film on Texas history, "Beyond the Cross Timbers", shown by Dr. Tom Pass.

Attending last Wednesday's meeting were Mrs. Gwen Boren, Ruby Kirkpatrick, Lottie Shelton, Pee Wee Pierce, Mattie Belle Fluitt, and Dr. Pass.

UNIQUE ANNIVERSARY GIFT — To help celebrate his 30 years of service with Shell Oil Co., Mary Gist presented her husband, John, with a plaque. The plaque is an outline of the state of Texas, Post, Texas, the Shell emblem, 1947-1977, and an oil derrick in the center of the state of Texas. What's unique about a plaque like that? Well you see, it's made of rattlesnake rattlers, 162 of them, all killed while John was on his lease during the last 30 years. — (Staff Photo)

Bible course asked in PHS

The Post Ministerial Alliance Monday night requested of school trustees that an elective course in Bible be added to the high school curriculum.

There was no firm agreement among the four church pastors present at the October board session as to how or who should teach the course.

School trustees took the request under advisement. Dr. Frank Pickett, pastor of the First Christian Church, told trustees that he had taught such a course for two years in the Amarillo schools where the Bible program was financed by the ministerial alliance. He said he had students from every church in the community enrolled and that teaching the Bible from the standpoint of content posed no problem.

The Rev. Gene Prevo, pastor of the Trinity Baptist church, said he "had been praying for four years since coming to Post from Fort Worth to get a Bible course established in Post High School." He said such a course was offered in Fort Worth schools under alliance sponsorship.

The Rev. Conrad Ryan, pastor of the First United Methodist Church, said he "leaned toward" having a certified teacher teaching the Bible course here.

Dr. Tom Pass, Presbyterian pastor, declared he "didn't know how you can teach the Bible objectively." He said if such a course comes about in the Post schools "we could not suggest how you teach it."

Dr. Pickett insisted, "I believe you can teach Bible without denominational overtones." The Rev. Ryan commented he was "well aware of the problems it would present, but I do believe it can be worked out."

The Post trustees and administration said a teacher of such a course in the Post schools would have to be a certified teacher. No local pastor has teaching certification.

The alliance is an organization of the pastors of eight local churches.

Information supplied trustees from the division of curriculum development of the Texas Education Agency said Bible has been designed as a state-approved course by the State Commission on School Accreditation and the State Board of Education with credits received for the Bible course accepted to School board. Man sought in shooting here

Two warrants have been issued here for Alfonso Urtago in connection with a Sunday evening shooting at the 77 Lounge here.

Sheriff Jim Pippin said officers were called to the lounge about 7:35 p. m. Sunday and found Arturo Ruiz had been shot in the foot.

According to witnesses, Pippin said, Ruiz and Urtago got into an altercation which resulted in the shooting. Urtago had left the lounge before officers arrived.

Ruiz was taken to Garza Memorial Hospital for treatment and was released Tuesday.

Paul Jones retires again

Paul Jones has retired for the third time. Or something like that.

A Postex Plant employee since April 16, 1969, Jones was honored recently on his retirement from Postex.

Jones served as Piggly Wiggly manager here until the present store was built. He also served as county commissioner for a number of years before stepping out of office at the last election.

Jones began his work at Postex on a part-time basis in 1965 while serving the county as a commissioner. He was an order picker in the warehouse-distribution department.

The warehouse-distribution employees surprised Jones with a party on his last day of work, and was presented with a gift by his co-workers.

Later that day, Postex Plant manager Don Smith and C. V. Smith, Mr. Jones' department manager visited with Paul to wish him well on his retirement.

Paul's wife, Fern, is employed at Postex as personnel secretary.

Short after finance's seat

Veteran Legislator E.L. Short, Tahoka farmer-businessman, Wednesday entered the race for Democratic nomination of the 28th Senatorial district.

Short, who served eight years in the Texas House of Representatives, said he is entering the race because I believe the Senate will provide an area with an effective voice in the Senate.

Short is seeking the seat vacated by Senator E.L. Short who is running for Congress.

There are 13 counties in the 28th Senatorial District which stretches from Lubbock to Odessa and Short represented seven of the thirteen counties.

Short said, "It was an honor to serve this area in the House and I look forward to continuing my assistance to this district in the many problems which will come before the Legislature."

Short served as Vice-Chairman of the Agriculture Committee in the 63rd Legislature and, was elected after, Page 14)

The 51 bulls brought an average of $550.00, the 20 steers $374, and the 59 commercial heifers $451 on the average.

The registered heifers averaged $258 on the average. We are pleased with the response given our cattle and appreciate all buyers, especially our neighbors," the operators said.

Look into future applauded

Probably a lot of school patrons are wondering why school trustees are going to spend $3,000 for a master program development program.

The answer is simple enough. The trustees are looking down the road into the future.

When the Post high school building, gym and ag building were built back in the early 1960's, paying off that debt looked to be "forever."

But "forever" is almost upon us. The school's bonded indebtedness will be paid off in 1980.

This means if Post has some building needs, this is the best time to study them in an orderly manner.

One thing is for real. While oil may continue to flow in relative abundance from under Garza land for the next 15 to 20 years, eventually it will be gone.

And when that day comes — and it will come gradually we suppose — one very important taxpayer is going to "move away" from here. Farms, homes and businesses then will have to pay a much heavier proportion of all local governmental costs.

Naturally, with the school district operation being the biggest one on the local scene it behooves school trustees to keep a sharp eye on the future.

If there are real future building needs, this is the time to take a look at them, plan what to do without rushing and get the job done while the tax load can be spread evenly.

The Slaton school system recently voted over three million dollars in bonds to completely renovate the extremely crowded conditions in its system, and the voters barely bought the very large and long tax bite.

The board's thinking here is to keep the school plant abreast of the educational times and needs rather than being forced into emergency action.

If readers have been following the board's thinking, the focus recently as to future building needs has been concentrated on the junior high building.

It is a stout, old building which served for many years as PHS and then was renovated for junior high use. The talk so far is more renovation versus an entirely new building. As this newspaper understands it, the new building would cost about twice as much as a renovated one.

When the Whitaker and Hall firm got to discussing all this they suggested the master development program plan, which even mentions moving Antelope Stadium to a new location.

Somebody would have to prove the advisability of that to us, but we certainly see the value of a thorough assessment of present facilities and future needs.

The master plan will include a land use analysis, building analysis as to structural integrity, use, efficiency of utilities (up 254 percent here in the last three years), operation and maintenance, analysis of each building as to cost to replace versus retrofit existing structure to equal new building standards, and analysis of probable construction cost.

From the land use and building analysis would come the overall master plan of the school system's campus to meet future educational needs in the most practical manner.

Sanford Whitaker sensing the challenge, is enthusiastic about developing such a plan and says it not only will be of great benefit to the Post school district but will show the way to other school districts in their planning for building and development.

It's a lofty goal, and may fall short of the success Whitaker perceives.

But one thing is certain. Too few local governments take serious and practical looks into the future. A lot of confusion and expense might be saved if they did.

Regardless of whether or not, school trustees come up with a practical solution to the future building needs of the Post schools, a long, hard look at the future is sure to be beneficial.

Family fire drills a must for safety

COLLEGE STATION — Imagine that the time is 2:58 tomorrow morning," says Dr. Gary S. Nelson, safety engineer with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "You and your family have gone to bed as usual and everyone is sound asleep."

A flame flickers in the living room—the beginning of a fire that will seriously damage your house, minutes pass. The fire grows. At 3:13 a.m., you are awakened by the sound of coughing. You feel uncomfortably warm. You smell smoke, and suddenly you are wide awake with the realization that the house is on fire! You shout "Fire!" and arouse your spouse. You open the bedroom door with the intention of waking the rest of the family. The hallway is a sheet of flame and you are barely able to close the bedroom door.

What will you do next? What are the other members of your family doing at this very minute? Your son—your daughter—and your mother—each in a separate room?

At 4:19 the fire is out. A costly accident—$5,000 damage at least. A tragedy with loss of life? "That may have depended," says the engineer, "on whether your family had an emergency escape plan for use in case of fire."

"If your family does not have an emergency escape route—plan one now," emphasizes Nelson, noting that Fire Prevention Week is Oct. 9-15. "Don't put it off until tomorrow; tomorrow may be too late. Fire destroys or damages more than 1,800 homes in this country each day—well over one-half million a year. So, be sure that each member of your family knows the proper action to take in case fire strikes your home. Forewarned is forearmed," cautions the engineer.

In developing your family escape plan, Nelson says to consider these points:—Determine an escape route and an alternate escape route from every room in the house, with emphasis on bedrooms. Remember that hallways and stairways may be blocked off by flames or smoke.

Teach everyone to test a door before opening it, if fire is suspected. If the door panels feel warm, do not open the door. Plug the cracks with blankets or clothing to keep out the smoke; then use the alternate escape route.

Decide on a meeting point outside the house so no one will make the mistake of returning for someone who is already safe.

Practice your family escape plan frequently. Children especially need regular practice since routine fire drills lessen the chance of panic if a real fire should occur.

Nelson emphasizes that family escape plans and fire drills are a necessity for every family. Consequently, you should impress your family with the importance of preparing and rehearsing a family escape plan for use in emergency.

Eighteen hundred homes will burn tomorrow. One could belong to a friend of yours. Or it could belong to you!

Ghastly U.S. fire toll

It is only natural due to the great havoc caused in this nation by fires each year that the United States observes Fire Prevention Week on the week containing Oct. 9.

Fire Prevention Week grew out of Fire Prevention Day, which originally was Oct. 9 because it was on Oct. 9 in 1871 that the Great Chicago Fire occurred.

The toll of that Chicago fire was monumental in terms of the young frontier city and of the economy of those days. Two hundred and fifty lives were lost, 17,430 buildings destroyed, and an estimated $168 million in property lost.

Today fires continue to kill an average of 32 persons in the U. S. each day, adding up to more than 10,000 lives lost each year. About 30 percent of the victims, or 3,500, are youngsters under 16 years of age.

Fires cost the U.S. about $4.4 billion property loss annually. This means the average annual price of fire waste is $20.40 for every man, woman and child in the nation.

Estimates by the National Commission on Fire Prevention and Control place the total cost of fires—including lost wages, sales and production; as well as buildings and contents destroyed—at about $12 billion annually.

The heat pump

"THE ELECTRIC SAVINGS MACHINE"

BUYING, BUILDING, REMODELING?

It's time to consider the heat pump. Southwestern Public Service Company can suggest the system that will give you the most for your energy dollar, and come up with some accurate information on installation and operating costs.

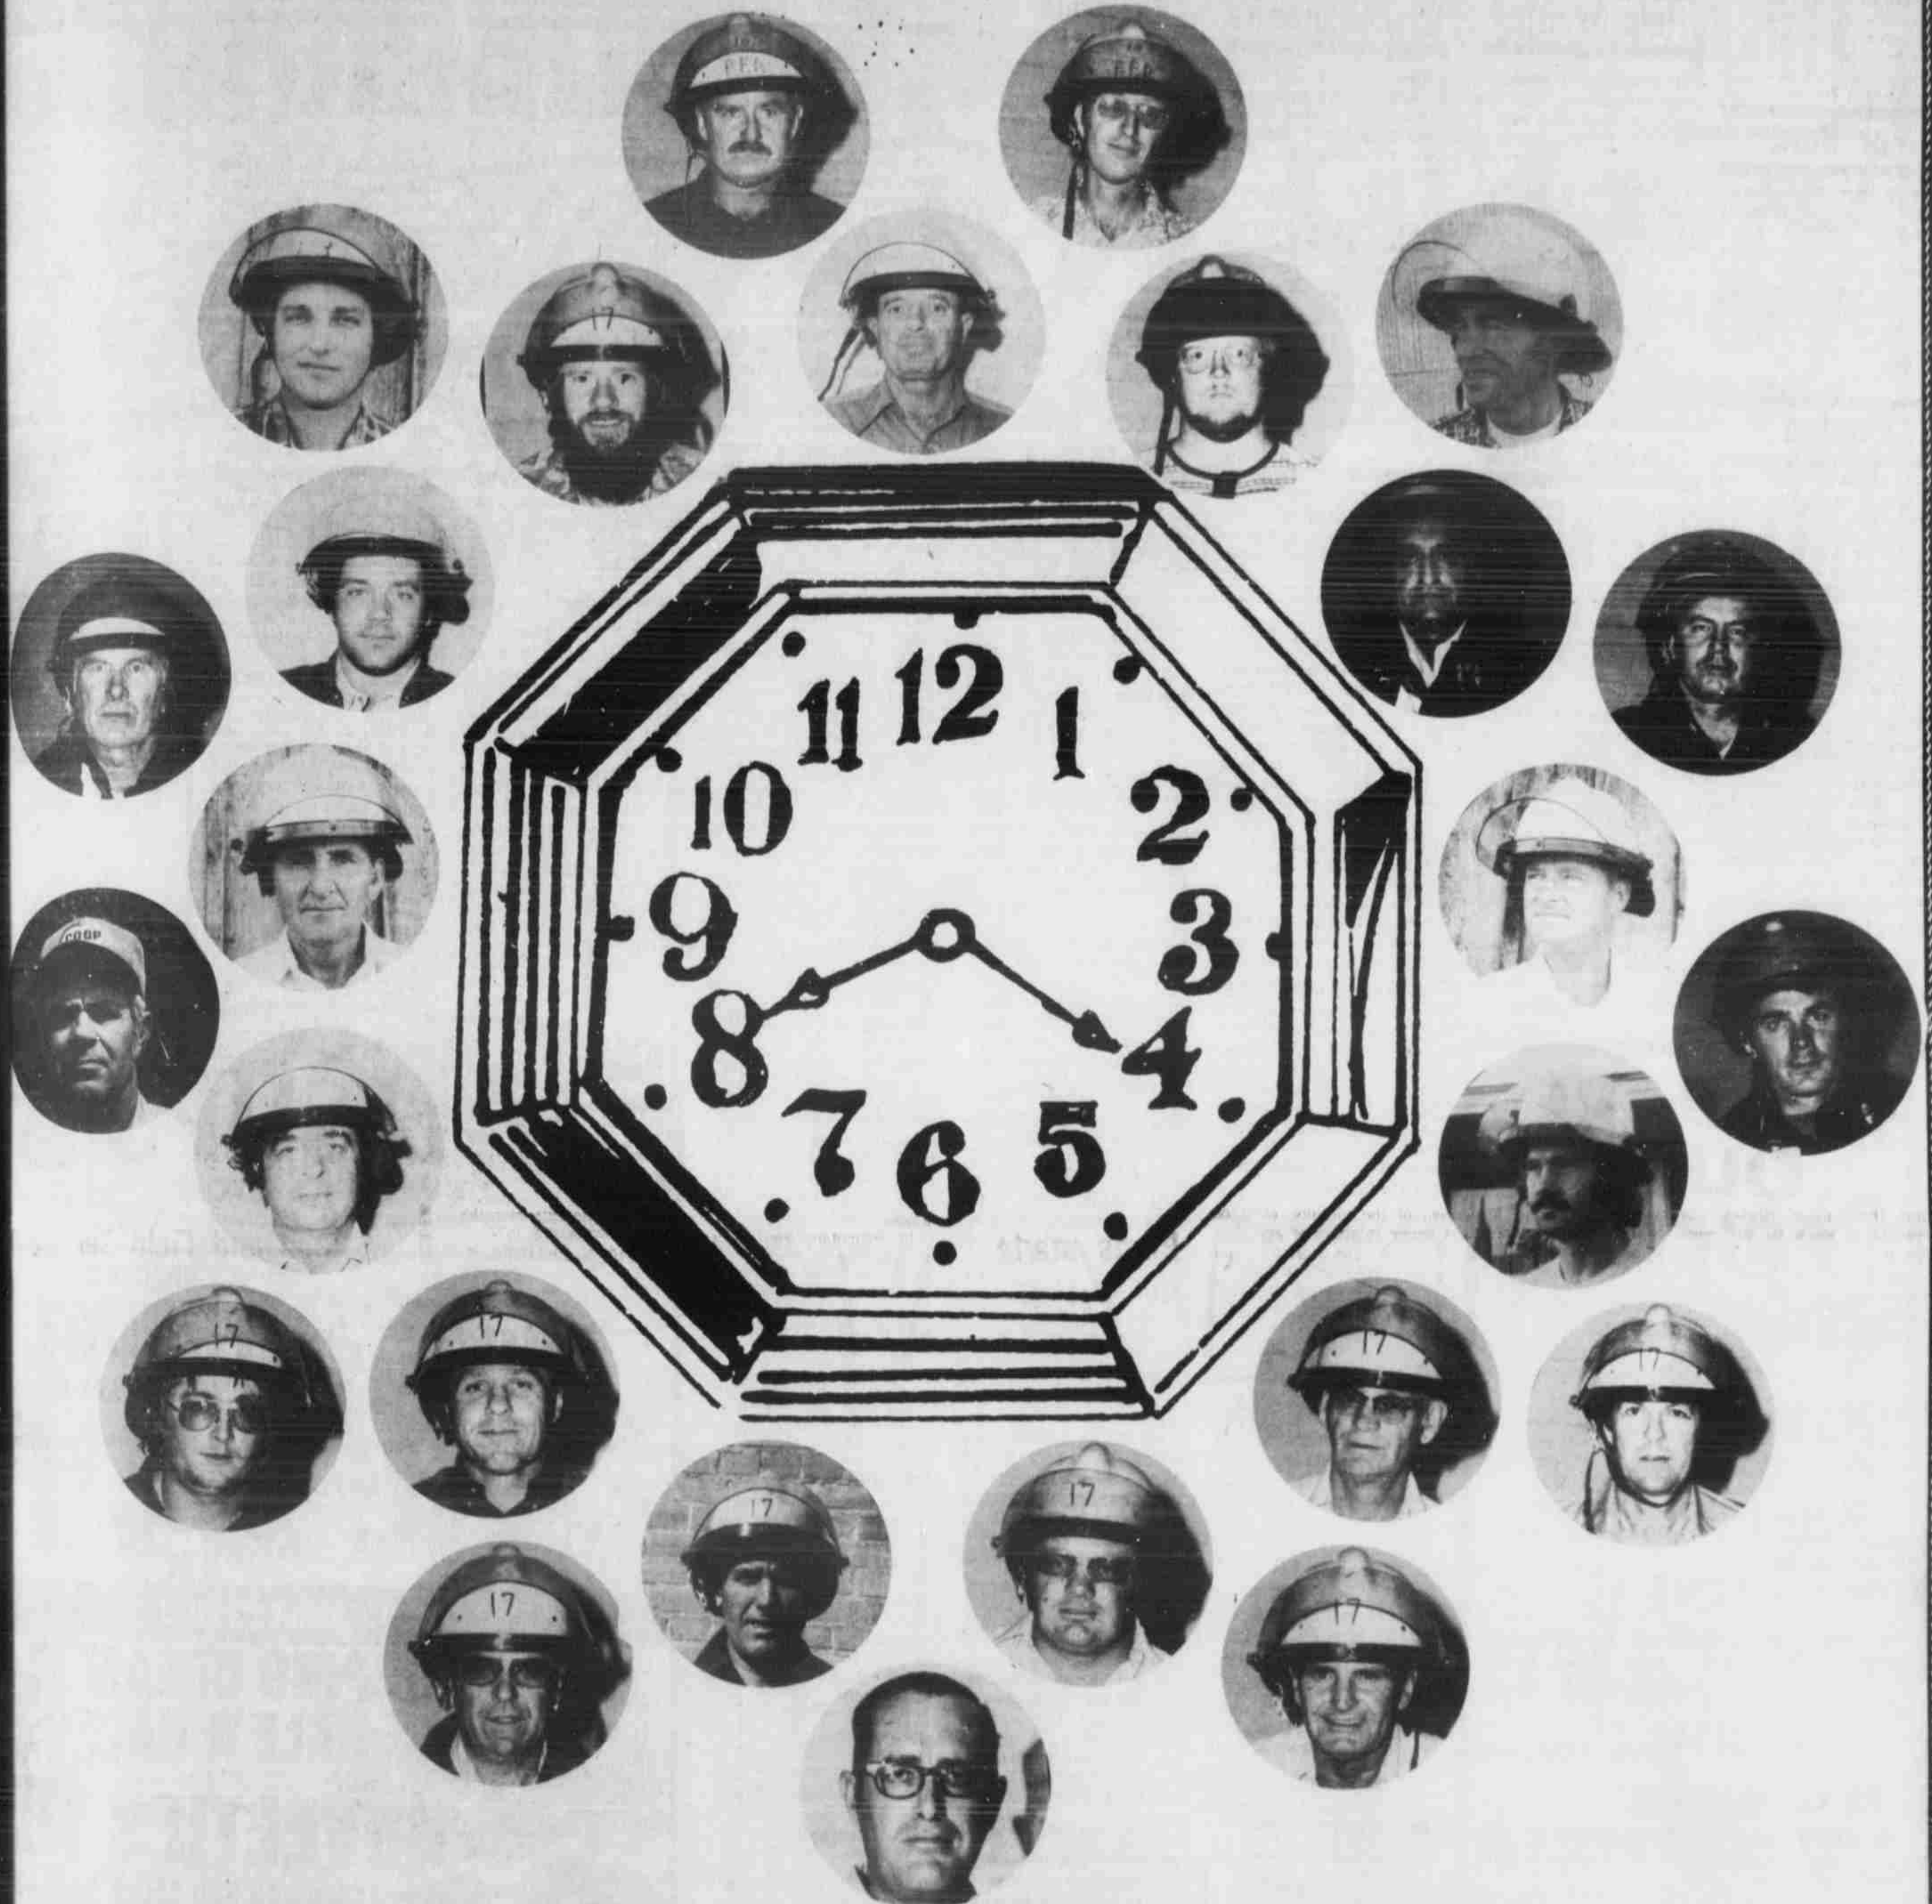

The heat pump is the electric savings machine. And usually a machine of such sensitive operation calls for a lot of space and some pretty technical installation procedures. NOT SO WITH THE HEAT PUMP! "Split systems" — most adaptable to homes — consist of an outdoor and indoor section, easily tucked away in a closet, garage, basement or attic. The single package unit looks very similar to a central air-conditioning unit that's placed outdoors. Both systems can be installed in most every home or office that has central air ducts. If you're buying, building or remodeling, it's time you said...

"Yes, the heat pump!"

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Lyndell Williams

AUSTIN—Texas has another famous name from the past heading its modern-day State Treasury operations which involve billions of dollars in public fund investments with Texas banks.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe appointed Dallas County Treasurer Warren G. Harding, 56, to succeed the late Jesse James as state treasurer following James' death of a heart attack.

Harding, a Democrat, was named for a former Republican president, as James was named for a famous outlaw who became a kind of folk hero.

"I will look into the investment portfolio and assure you all state money will be invested at the best interest," said Harding.

The new treasurer said he is considering appointment of a "money manager" with professional skills in the investment of public funds.

However, he delayed discussion of other possible reforms in the Treasury Department which has been subject to criticism in recent years.

Harding once ran for the office against James—21 years ago—and was defeated 812,603 to 536,746.

He intends to run for the post in 1978—and once more the incumbent, though new on the job, will have the advantage of name identification.

Clayton Offers Tax Advice

House Speaker Bill Clayton advised taxing authorities to abide by a new law permitting open space lands to be taxed on the basis of productivity rather than market value.

The law was passed this year in anticipation that a related constitutional amendment would also be submitted to voters, but the amendment never cleared the legislature.

Clayton claims the law will stand on its own and should be recognized by taxing authorities in valuing farm and ranch land after January 1, in spite of anticipated attacks on its constitutionality. The advice apparently conflicts with that of Atty. Gen. John Hill in a July 6 opinion.

Sale Booms Income

A School Land Board lease sale last week added more than $27 million to the Permanent School Fund, which now totals $1.5 billion and is among the world's three top educational endowments.

A total of 443 high bids were awarded oil and gas companies, according to Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong. Bids were the second highest average per acre ($93.66) in 22 years, and a bid from Mobil Oil Corp. for a 1,440 acre Gulf tract was the third largest in history for a single tract.

Personal Income Soaring

Per capita personal income in Texas has jumped 52 percent in the last five years, according to U.S. Commerce Department figures.

The increase (from $4,102 to $6,243) was the largest recorded among the large industrial states and the third largest in the nation, but the state still ranks 26th in personal income.

Texas Courts Speak

Texas Supreme Court has upheld right of consumers to sue manufacturers where product defects are responsible for economic loss.

The Third Court of Civil Appeals, in a brief opinion, found a state law requiring welfare department licensing of homes for children does not interfere with the religious beliefs of evangelist Lester Roloff who operates several homes.

The State Supreme Court turned down an 80-year-old Wichita Falls lawyer's demand for payment from Mexico for ranches totalling 218,000 acres seized from him in Zacatecas in 1963 and 1967.

The high court ordered a full trial of a Bowie County woman's suit against a washateria operator following a beating by a thug there last year.

Third Court of Civil Appeals heard arguments in a case involving right of children of illegal aliens to attend Texas public schools without paying tuition.

Indictments of juveniles for murder before examining trials are held are illegal, the Court of Criminal Appeals held.

Third Court of Civil Appeals reversed a Travis County district court decision that a sales tax on rental or leasing of motion picture films to theaters was unconstitutional, and the ruling may gain $8 million in revenue for the state.

Attorney General Opinions

The state comptroller is not authorized to conduct audits of state agencies when work would parallel duties of the state auditor, Atty. Gen. John Hill said.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

A State Board of Morticians member vacated his office when he went to work for a "chain" funeral home operation, because law permits only one member to be associated with chain establishments.

A county law library fund cannot be used for construction or renovation of county law library facilities.

An electric hair-removal machine is under jurisdiction of the Texas Cosmetology Commission.

Short Snorts

State tax collections in July totalled $622.8 million, bringing the year's total to $6.55 billion. Expenditures for July were $661.9 million.

R. L. Thornton Jr. of Dallas has stepped down from the Alcoholic Beverage Commission.

Former professional football star Walt Garrison is considering a race for Texas agriculture commissioner.

Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown warned Texas farmers and ranchers they are "going to have to project and produce just like General Motors for their markets" in order to survive.

A Texas Railroad Commission order reduced the amount of money Lone Star Gas Company can collect from customers to cover back costs of producing natural gas. Dallas, Waco, Irving, Richardson, Garland, Killeen, Abilene, Wellington, Fort Worth and Burkburnett protested an 85 percent pass-through and will receive credits.

Reported and estimated unreported production of Texas crude oil totalled 92,865,244 barrels in July—a decline from 97,998,693 barrels in July 1976.

As It Looks from Here

WASHINGTON D.C. — John Randolph of Virginia once remarked in debate when he was a Member of Congress that, "change is not reform."

If that statement was true in Randolph's day, it is more so now. One of the most overly-worked words in Washington today is "reform." Once this word becomes a part of a bill's title, it is assumed that what comes out is going to be for the better.

On March 24th, we made reference to Legislation later introduced with the title, "Labor Reform Act of 1977." The title of the measure is a clear case of deceptive labeling.

This bill was passed in the house of representatives last week by a vote of 257 to 163. It illustrated the all-out lobbying efforts of the labor unions to exert pressure on those Members of Congress they had aided in their elections.

The measure is not reform at all. Contrarily, if it finally becomes law, it threatens the rights of both employees and employers.

Under existing law, hearings are required prior to the holding of labor union elections. These hearings are for the benefit of those who would be affected by the results of such an election. This "reform" bill would eliminate requirements for such hearings. Instead, it reduces from 30 to 15 days the time between the union's request for an election and the actual balloting. Employees would have much less time to consider the issues involved and their free choice would suffer accordingly.

There is much discussion in Washington as to people's "rights." This measure diminishes rights in numerous respects. For instance, under the "reform" package, an employer must allow representatives of the union to come into his place of business and campaign with workers to organize them into a union. The employer must suspend operations to allow the union representative to meet with employees and he must bear the expense for lost time.

On the other hand, there is no provision in the bill that requires a union to grant an employer access to its union hall in order that the employers may similarly talk to employees.

Another provision compels a company to rehire an employee and pay him double wages if the Labor Board "has reasonable cause to believe" a person has been discharged due to an unfair labor practice, despite the fact that the matter has not even been heard. The requirement applies when a union is seeking to organize a firm but no contract has even been agreed to.

Another section of the bill provides that if the Labor Board is of the opinion that an employer is not organizing in good faith, it can compel the employer to increase wages for as long as he failed to bargain in "good faith." The Board, of course, decides what constitutes good faith.

The basic legal right of "due process" is violated all through this measure. An appointed Board bypasses remedies to be found only in a court of law.

This bill, if approved by the Senate and signed by the President, would go a long way to deny freedom of choice to working Americans. It makes both employees and employers subject to unequal protection under law.

Adults who complain about the ways of children should remember that children learn what they know from adults.

Girl Scout leader training set here

A Girl Scout leadership training course is scheduled for the Girl Scout Little House here next Thursday, Oct. 20, according to an announcement by the Caprock Girl Scout Council headquarters in Lubbock.

County buys new leader for Pct. 3

The Garza County Commissioners Court Monday accepted the low bid of Yellowhouse Machinery Co. of Lubbock of $28,000 to purchase a new leader for precinct 3.

Several matters were discussed, but no other actions taken.

Right to read program adopted

The Southland trustees Monday night adopted the right to read program, as offered by Educational Service Co. in Lubbock.

In other action, the Association of School Boards' federal unemployment program, and hired Becky Gast as the K-4 aide.

All these actions came unanimous votes. The only split vote of evening was a 3 to 2 vote favor of paying the bill. Trustees Oscar Thomas and Bob Allbright voting against the motion to pay.

MAKE YOUR OWN GRANOLA

Unfortunately, many of the foods we like are actually good for us. Peanuts, for example, are among the most nutritious foods known. While usually eaten in the handful, a pound of peanuts would supply 1-1/2 times the recommended protein allowance and high calories to fulfill the energy allowance for a grown man. Peanuts are nutritious as they are or used as an ingredient in snacks, cereals, cookies and desserts.

- APRICOT PEANUT GRANOLA
 3 cups old-fashioned oats
 1/2 cup wheat germ
 1 can (3 1/2-ounces) shredded coconut
 1/4 cup Planters Peanut Oil
 1/4 cup honey
 1 cup chopped Planters Cocktail Peanuts
 1/4 cups dried apricots, cut in small pieces
 1/4 cup Planters Sunflower Nuts

Combine oats, wheat germ and coconut in large bowl. Heat peanut oil and honey to just below boiling point. Pour over oat mixture, tossing to coat thoroughly. Spread mixture evenly in a jelly roll pan. Roast at 300° F. for 30 minutes, stirring occasionally until mixture is lightly browned. Remove from oven; mix in cocktail peanuts, apricots and sunflower nuts. Cool. Use as cold cereal or a dry snack. Store in tightly covered containers or plastic bags. Makes 7 cups.

Eddy is in the United States Marines and in town visiting his mother and other friends and relatives.

Fryer chickens are bargain in markets

COLLEGE STATION — Among this week's "best buys" in groceries are a few fruits and vegetables, fryers and eggs, and some pork cuts, says Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A & M University System.

In fruits: Apples continue to be highlighted with Delicious and Jonathan in greatest supply. It's grape harvest time, so a wide selection is available—Thompson seedless, Emperor and Tokay—and prices are slightly lower than in recent weeks. Other economies in fruit are bananas and pears.

In vegetables: More hard-shelled squash is coming to market. Acorn and Butternut are in best supply. Green peppers are still plentiful and moderately priced. (If you buy more green peppers than you can use within three to five days, freeze some to be ready for higher winter prices.)

Other vegetables costing less now at most produce counters are carrots, cabbage, collards, broccoli, and mustard greens. Also potatoes, cucumbers, sweet potatoes and dry yellow onions. Head lettuce is low-priced, quality varies.

Featured canned items are tomatoes and most tomato products. Buying in units of three or four cans can often mean a saving. Other good values are canned peas and corn.

Fryer chickens are a bargain in most markets with whole birds and mixed parts the best values. Large size Grade "A" eggs are the best value.

Pork supplies are increasing and the price is slightly down on some cuts. Boston butt roasts, shoulder steaks, quarter-loin cut into chops as well as loin-end chops and some brands of bacon are feature items.

'Spirit days' are given PHS classes

Each class was responsible for special projects to build spirit all during the week and not just on Friday. Some of the projects were funny and original, and the effort really did a lot for group spirit around the school.

Junior high band wins parade contest

The Post Middle School Band, under the direction of Mr. Jimmy Stringer, won a first place rating in parade marching at the Brownfield Harvest Festival Saturday, Oct. 8. The band received a trophy and a check for $100.

This is the sixth year the Post Middle School band has carried away the honors at this contest. They placed first over Bovina and Sundown. The PMS band marched to the tune of "I Saw the Light."

Led by seventh grade drum major Jennifer Wilson, the band has been practicing every day for the past three weeks. They spent most of their time actually marching in the street to improve their playing and marching skills.

After the competition, band members attended the harvest festival and enjoyed the rides, games and food.

The prize money will go into a fund to provide scholarships for students who plan to attend summer band camp.

Tune in to Morrow

By DAVID MORROW

Mrs. Linn's senior English classes have been studying mythology for the past three weeks. Many of the myths of the ancient Greeks and Romans are beautiful literature, but some of them are downright confusing. For example, it is extremely hard to remember who was the father of whom by what mother... about all a person can get out of a lot of the family trees is that those ancient gods sure got around a lot. Spelling (and pronouncing) the names can prove to be a fearsome hurdle also. Mnemosyne, the goddess of memory, really needs to inspire everyone just to remember how to spell her name! All in all, however, studying mythology can be extremely interesting. It really makes you wonder what has happened to the human imagination, though. Compared to some of the beliefs of the earlier civilizations, our world of television, plastic, and scientific accuracy seems a little dull.

Several people around PHS are the proud possessors of new cars. Nancy Clary can be seen riding around in her new two-tone blue Ford Elite. That brilliant streak of red you may see is Steve Hair's shiny new Camaro. Tommy Reed is proud of his white Datsun pickup with blue racing stripes. In fact, he has been trying to get me to race with him, but since my vehicle goes into convulsions when it goes over 80 I think I had better not.

—O—

One of the necessary evils every college-bound senior must face is the entrance exams — the ACT and the SAT. Several PHS seniors dragged their weary bodies out of bed Saturday morning after the game and rushed to Lubbock to take the ACT. Peggy Jackson, Evans Heaton, Sheri York, Shelby Barley, Stuart Price, and myself were assigned to the law building at Tech and Bryan Elliott took his test at LCC. Unfortunately, those of us at Tech were told to go to the Biology Building. The little man who was directing traffic told me to "just follow the other cars." The other cars, however, rapidly disappeared from sight around a curve and I found myself at the garbage pickup zone at the back of a building. This thoroughly confused two people from Frenship High School who were trying to follow me. After we arrived at our destination, I apologized to them and later learned that Peggy had almost pulled the same maneuver. The ACT test itself was four hours worth of torture that I won't describe in great detail. When it was over, we all enjoyed lunch together at Chelsea's and returned to Post.

Three generations ago a boy was lucky to have a goat to ride; now it's the latest sports automobile.

17 girls out for cage team

There are sixteen seventh grade girls out for basketball this season. The seventh grade girl cagers include: Rhonda Adams, Dodie Beggs, Monique Claborn, Charlie Dalby, Tina Green, Darla Jackson, Terri Kirby, Crystal Mason, Charlotte Murphy, Mary Raymond, Cynthia Reiter, Norma Samora, Verdy Taylor and D'Linda Tyler.

The University Interscholastic League recently issued a new rule stating that girl's basketball teams will switch from six-man, half court play to full court, five-man play similar to the type being played by boys. This change is to be in effect in all girl's basketball teams by 1980.

When asked about the change from six to five man play this year, Coach Lu Allen said that it would really not matter. She has confidence in the girls' stamina and ability to play a fast, hard game. Starting lineup will be picked before the first game which will be played late in November.

Harvest well ahead of 1976

LUBBOCK — Rains halted High Plains cotton harvesting last Thursday, according to Paul R. Dickson, in charge of USDA's Cotton Classing Office in Lubbock.

New crop trading increased the week ending Oct. 7. Growers accepted offers of 350 to 500 points over 1977 loan rates. Small to medium mixed lots of mostly grades 42 and better, staples 30 to 33, mikes 3.0 through 4.9 brought 41.00 to 45.00 cents per pound.

High Plains harvest is well ahead of last year, Dickson said. About 43,300 samples were graded by Lubbock's Classing Office the week ending October 7. Season's total stands at 69,500. This compares with only nine graded by this date a year ago, according to USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service.

Predominant grades for this week's classings were grade 31, at 54 percent, grade 40 at 15 percent and grade 41 accounted for 15 percent, also.

Staple lengths were mostly staple 30 at 17 percent, staple 31 was 36 percent and staple 32 accounted for 27 percent.

Micronaire was mostly in the desirable 3.5-4.9 range and accounted for 83 percent of the total.

13 to try out for all-regional choir

Thirteen members of the Post High School Choir will be trying out for the Region XVII All-Region Choir in November.

The students trying out and the places they will be auditioning for are as follows: Soprano I-Lee Ann Babb, Janice Bradbury, Rachelle Smith and Melodie Willson; Soprano II-Jalena Bilberry and Pam Taylor; Alto I- Donna Nelson; Alto II- Sharon Johnson; Tenor I- David Morrow; Tenor II- Bryan Elliott; Bass I- Steve Shedd and Rodney Josey; Bass II- Mark Williams.

The All-Region Choir is composed of the best high school singers from Lubbock and the surrounding area. As there are only 16 members in each section of the choir, competition can get pretty stiff. Auditions will be held Nov. 5 at Monterey High School in Lubbock. Selections to be performed by the choir include "O Vos Omnes" by Morales, "Ehre Sei dir Christe" by Schutz, "Vamo di Core" by Mozart, "Ave Maria" by Stravinsky, and "Porgy and Bess" by Gershwin.

Lopes survive 'flag blitz' to win 42 to 12

Keep 'cool' despite 195 penalty yards

The Post Antelopes "kept their cool" through a "downpour" of yellow flags in the first half at Woodrow Friday night to smash the Cooper Pirates 42-12 and remain unbeaten in six starts.

Game officials called 14 infractions against the Lopes in the first two periods for a total of 175 yards, six more than the Post attack could generate -169 running and passing-rolling in to a 14-0 halftime lead.

The last half was a normal football game as far as penalties were concerned. When the starters grabbed two quick touchdowns at the start of the third period, Coach Jackie Brown sent in substitutes to finish.

The subs won what remained 14 to 12 standing off Cooper two touchdowns apiece the rest of the way.

Both Cooper scores came in the fourth period, the last one on a seven-yard pass with three seconds to play. In the first half, Lope starters held Cooper without a first down until game officials called a pass interference penalty which gave Cooper a first down seconds before the intermission.

Most of the penalties came in the second period when Post had six 15-yarders stepped off against them, the 20-yard pass interference call, and two five-yarders for a total of 120 yards.

In one offensive series in the second quarter Post drew a clip, a holding, and a motion penalty on successive plays but the Lopes with their dander up got 46 yards on four running plays for a first down with a yard to spare, going for it on the fourth and six from their own 46.

In the first half in which Post was penalized 175 yards, Cooper was whistled for only two infractions for 20.

A winning coin flip to get the strong wind's advantage, two quick touchdowns before the "yellow flag blitz", and a stout defense which shut Cooper down with only 35 yards in the first half had Post in command all the way.

The Lopes kicked off with a strong west wind at their backs to open the game and in 4 minutes and 6 seconds had 14 points on the board.

Nose Guard Brent Terry recovered a wild Cooper pitchout by Quarterback David Martinez on the Cooper 12 yard line on the second play from scrimmage.

The Lopes ran it across in three plays with Wingback Randy Baker taking a pitchout and sweeping right end for the score with 10 minutes still on the clock. Center Leslie Looney converted his first of six straight conversion kicks without a miss.

The next time Post got the ball on its own 30 Quarterback Brad Shepherd faked a handoff into the line and then threw to Split End Evans Heaton wide open downfield in the left flat. Heaton ran the last 50 yards with nobody near him for the tally.

After that came the amazing yellow flag blitz. At the start of the third period it took Post only 3 minutes and 15 seconds to score two more touchdowns.

On the second play after the kickoff to Post, Baker took a pitchout around the left side, broke a tackle at midfield and raced 69 yards down the sideline for his second touchdown. The second half was only 37 seconds old at the time.

After Post's kickoff to Cooper, Kohen Josey recovered another fumbled Pirate pitchout on the Cooper 22. It took the Lopes six plays to get it in with Halfback Cliff Kirkpatrick slamming the final two yards.

Post's fifth touchdown wasn't long in coming although Coach Brown had substitutes in giving them valuable playing time.

Nick Hammond's punt for Cooper against the strong wind sailed high but only eight yards forward to set the Lopes offensive unit up on the Pirates 21.

Tim Morris got 12 yards in two runs for a first down on the Cooper nine. Then Fullback Darrell Reece, promoted up from the junior varsity only this week, went for three and then the final six to tally his first varsity touchdown.

Reece, who has been outstanding for the unbeaten JVs, was called up to start against the Pirates to give regular fullback Butch Booth an extra week in an effort to heal his injured ankle before tough district games with Frenship and Slaton.

Reece set up Post's final score by recovering a Cooper fumble on the Pirates 15 yard line late in the third while playing defense.

Unbeatens clash as Lopes play Tigers at Wolfforth

It's "showdown time" for Coach Jackie Brown's Antelopes who will travel to Wolfforth Friday night to contest the unbeaten Frenship Tigers.

It should be a heart-stopper and a crowd pleaser. Frenship came into this game last year undefeated, only to be knocked from the unbeaten ranks 24-12 in Antelope Stadium. Undoubtedly that loss still rankles.

The Tigers went on to lose to Slaton in the snow in a low score game and finished the campaign 8-2.

This year they have the district championship in mind under new coach John Parchman.

But then, so do the Lopes. And waiting in the wings—and on the Post schedule, for the following Friday night are the favored and also unbeaten Slaton Tigers.

chance to run with the football from tailback for the first time in his varsity career and wound up scoring the final touchdown.

Post drove it across in four plays and Terry accounted for 12 of those last yards in three carries, including the last one for the final yard on the first play of the fourth period.

A recovered fumble on the Post 36 set up the first Cooper tally with Pirate reserves running it in four plays with junior quarterback Dwayne Pounds taking it in from the six on a keeper.

Another Post fumble which Cooper recovered on the Lopes' 30 set up another scoring threat but Defensive back Evans Heaton intercepted a long Pounds aerial in the Post end zone for a touchdown.

Cooper went 52 yards for its last score in the final minutes of the game with the big gainer being a 23-yard run on fourth down from kick formation to the Post 24. Pounds passed seven yards to End Don Strickland in the end zone for the tally with three seconds on the clock.

Shorty Bilberry replaced Steve Hair at one defensive end position for the Lopes as Hair was sidelined with an ankle sprain suffered against Tahoka.

David Hawkins, also promoted to the varsity from the JVs this week, was given the opportunity to handle some of the Post kickoffs.

The Dispatch's "stats sheet" showed Baker to be the game's leading rusher with 128 yards on only 10 carries for a gaudy 12.8 yard average.

Defensive Left End Richard Cisneros had a big night sacking the Cooper quarterback repeatedly.

The two middle school teams will journey to Wolfforth to play Frenship tonight in a twin bill.

Coach Lane Tannehill's Post freshmen footballers, who haven't lost since their opener to a AAA school, rolled to a 44 to 0 victory over Cooper's frosh here last Thursday night.

Post rang up three touchdowns in the first period and everybody saw action before the game was over.

Fullback Gary Baker broke the ice with an 11 yard run off tackle for the first touchdown. Wingback Charles Curtis added the two conversion points on a sweep.

Jessie Taylor then broke 59 yard on an end-around for the second touchdown. Curtis got the third on a dive play for the last 11 yards and Alonza Luna added the extras after that one with a sweep for two.

In the second period, Baker broke off tackle 54 yards for his second touchdown.

The third period was scoreless. In the fourth, Linebacker Steve Curb blocked a Cooper punt and Post recovered on Cooper's six. Johnny Delorosa scored from four yards out for the fifth touchdown with Luna sweeping end for the conversion points.

In the same period, Delorosa got his second touchdown on a six yard run and Quarterback Lance Dunn got the conversion points running a bootleg.

Cooper's only scoring threat of the game came in the first period when they reached the Post 10 yard line before giving up the football.

The Post frosh will play Frenship here tonight at 5:30 p.m.

with a bad ankle sprain against Tahoka and did not see any action against Cooper, remains questionable.

He may, or may not be back in the lineup depending upon how the ankle responds. If he does get in, he won't be at top speed.

The job the Lopes did two weeks ago in holding Tahoka Fullback Clifford Bailey "under 100 yard" for the only time this season was emphasized last Friday night when Bailey gained 280 of Tahoka's 297 yards rushing as the Bulldogs overwhelmed the Denver City Mustangs at Denver City, 20-0.

(Denver City, by the way, never got inside Tahoka's 28 yard line all night with Tahoka intercepting five passes and recovering one fumble.)

The Tigers have rung up victories over four Class A teams and walloped the Roosevelt Eagles, 41-14, in their only district outing.

On defense, Frenship employs "a slanting five" and sometimes goes into a six-man front.

For the Lopes, they figure to keep right on improving.

Fullback Butch Booth, bothered several weeks with an ankle injury, was held out of the Cooper game last week in an effort to get him well for the showdown run against Frenship, Slaton and Denver City.

He should be at full speed against the Tigers.

Defensive End Steve Hair, who was carried off the field

Quarterback Tim Tannehill opened the scoring in the first period by returning a punt 50 yards for a touchdown. He then passed to Will Kirkpatrick for the conversion points.

In the second period, Fullback Mark Odom slashed five yards off tackle for the second td to finish a 60 yard drive. Again Tannehill passed to Kirkpatrick for the conversion points.

After moving the ball on a good drive, mainly on two long pass completions in the third period, Tannehill passed eight yards to End Bill Black in the end zone for the third touchdown.

The final score came in the fourth period when Quarterback Melvin Wynne sneaked the ball across from a yard out to end a 60 yard drive.

Cooper also scored in the fourth.

Defensive Left End Richard Cisneros had a big night sacking the Cooper quarterback repeatedly.

The two middle school teams will journey to Wolfforth to play Frenship tonight in a twin bill.

Lopes picked on defensive edge

Your Old Prognosticator has realized his mistake about the Floydada Whirlwinds. The Lopes are the only ones who beat the Winds. So from now on, the Old Prog will probably pick the Winds to win.

If he hadn't selected Class AAA Levelland to beat the Winds last Friday night, he would have had his second perfect paper of the season.

As it was he got seven out of eight right, including Tahoka's victory over Denver City which he declined to term an "upset of the week" special and raised his seasonal results to date to 37 right out of 50 games involving the Lopes and their seasonal opponents for a 740 percentage.

With all districts now swinging into action there will be fewer games, so a miss now will hurt more in the percentages.

Here are the Old Prog's Friday night picks:

POST over Frenship. Both teams are undefeated so this one should be a dilly. The Tigers have the home field advantage, but the Lopes have played a tougher schedule which should help them in experience. The defense usually is the difference in the close ones and that is Coahoma at COLORADO CITY. Both teams have won their last two, but the Wolves have the greater potential and it's district play now.

Cooper at ROOSEVELT. The Eagles should have the edge in a passing contest, especially under their home lights which are dimmer than most.

Denver City at SLATON. It's going to be a long year for the Big Red and the Tigers, like all other district foes, will like all they can get at the scoring table in this "win feast."

Tahoka is open. Last week's scores were: Post 42, Cooper 12. Floydada 20, Levelland 14.

Tahoka 20, Denver City 0.

Slaton 30, Roosevelt 7. Colorado City 25, Wylie 0. Dimmitt 13, Lockney 10. Frenship 31, Shallowater 7.

Coahoma 28, Crane 27.

JVs romp 32 to 0

Coach Chili Black's Post Junior varsity football team continued unbeaten last Thursday night by whipping Cooper 32 to 0 in Antelope Stadium despite losing their fullback and kicker in promotions to the varsity.

The JVs tallied twice in the first and third periods and once in the second in parading to an easy victory.

Wingback Shawn Scott put the first points on the board when he took a pitchout to run 40 yards for the first touchdown.

A quick pass from Quarterback Rance Adkins to Jackie Stelzer netted the second touchdown and Scott ran over the extras.

In the second quarter, Bobby Finch ran 20 yards for the third TD to make the score 20 to 0 at halftime.

In the third period, Finch broke loose on a 55-yard run for his second touchdown and then Halfback Clinton Curtis capped a 50-yard drive by scoring from 10 yards out on a dive play.

The Post defense held Cooper to a single first down for the entire ball game.

The locals will play Frenship in Antelope Stadium tonight at 7:30 p.m. in their second district start.

Frosh score six TDs in blanking Cooper

Coach Lane Tannehill's Post freshmen footballers, who haven't lost since their opener to a AAA school, rolled to a 44 to 0 victory over Cooper's frosh here last Thursday night.

Post rang up three touchdowns in the first period and everybody saw action before the game was over.

Fullback Gary Baker broke the ice with an 11 yard run off tackle for the first touchdown. Wingback Charles Curtis added the two conversion points on a sweep.

Jessie Taylor then broke 59 yard on an end-around for the second touchdown. Curtis got the third on a dive play for the last 11 yards and Alonza Luna added the extras after that one with a sweep for two.

In the second period, Baker broke off tackle 54 yards for his second touchdown.

The third period was scoreless. In the fourth, Linebacker Steve Curb blocked a Cooper punt and Post recovered on Cooper's six. Johnny Delorosa scored from four yards out for the fifth touchdown with Luna sweeping end for the conversion points.

In the same period, Delorosa got his second touchdown on a six yard run and Quarterback Lance Dunn got the conversion points running a bootleg.

Cooper's only scoring threat of the game came in the first period when they reached the Post 10 yard line before giving up the football.

The Post frosh will play Frenship here tonight at 5:30 p.m.

8th graders in 1st win, 7th unbeaten

Coach Joe Gidden's eighth grade football team won its first football game and his seventh grade squad continued its unbeaten season in sweeping a grid twin bill against Cooper at Woodrow last Thursday night.

The eighth graders capped a 50 yard drive to score on the first play of the fourth period with Gary Lamb going the final yard on a quarterback sneak.

Post drove inside the Cooper 10 in the third period and twice penetrated the Cooper 20 in the first half before losing the ball on downs.

The seventh graders won by 28 to 6.

an ankle sprain suffered against Tahoka.

David Hawkins, also promoted to the varsity from the JVs this week, was given the opportunity to handle some of the Post kickoffs.

The Dispatch's "stats sheet" showed Baker to be the game's leading rusher with 128 yards on only 10 carries for a gaudy 12.8 yard average.

Defensive Left End Richard Cisneros had a big night sacking the Cooper quarterback repeatedly.

Cooper also scored in the fourth.

POST ANTELOPES vs. FRENSHIP TIGERS

FRIDAY, OCT. 14

Coach Jackie Brown's Post Lopes enter the "showdown" stage of their football season when they invade Wolfforth Friday night to play the unbeaten Frenship Tigers. The Tigers, who went 8-2 last season, are contending with Post and Slaton for the 5AA crown and will have the home field advantage. That does not mean necessarily they will have more fan support of course because the Lopes have strong backing wherever they go. It should be a real humdinger.

Hospital directors---

Hospital directors do not expect the total cost of the guarantee package to exceed the cost of what was guaranteed all three foreign physicians during the year they took and awaited results of their Texas medical license exams.

In another action last Thursday night, hospital directors passed a resolution to borrow $87,824 from the First National Bank of Post to pay for the current air conditioning and heating renovation of the hospital by the State Heating and Air Conditioning Co. of Lubbock.

New Hospital Administrator Ed Zintgraff reported he is trying to secure a hospital incinerator through the surplus property administration and is hopeful of getting one within a few weeks.

The hospital report for September made to the board showed the final month of the fiscal year turned out to be the worst one of the 12 from a financial point of view.

Expenses for the month totaled $41,296.63 whereas booked income was only $21,121.39. A total of $31,035.34 was collected on accounts during the month and $14,000 was borrowed.

A total of only 48 patients were admitted during the month for a total of 145 patient days with an average stay of three days, as compared with yearly average of 4.6, and 4.8 patients per day as compared to 7.8 patients per day for the yearly average.

Borrowing for operational expenses is expected to end by Nov. 1 when the first returns from boosted taxes are expected to come in.

The hospital board recently adopted a budget for the new fiscal year beginning Oct. 1 which called for an estimated $541,272 in both income and expenses.

The new budget includes estimated tax revenue of $250,000 and $291,272 from hospital operations based on 92 percent collections.

The new budget's expense side includes $55,000 to pay off bank note, $8,000 for new equipment, and $67,472 for doctor's account, which would include all the anticipated costs of Dr. Rodriguez's contract.

Readers interested in knowing what other hospital anticipated costs are can scan these from the new budget, which is a much better projection for the future than the 1977 budget, which wound up in the red on most items.

Under patient services, the new budget lists nursing salaries at $144,000, routine nursing service at $2,000 and central supply at $20,500.

Expenses for other professional services include laboratory services $28,000, E.K.G. $2,500, radiology $27,200, pharmacy, $16,000, anesthesiology $1,000, inhalation therapy $9,000, dietary $30,000, physical plant and maintenance $11,000, utilities $16,900, housekeeping salaries $12,800, janitorial supplies $2,100, laundry and linen $8,000, administrative salaries $38,400, forms and office supplies $4,000, insurance $9,000, retirement $6,000, employee insurance $13,600 and patient room TV $1,800.

A number of these "other professional services" actually make money for the hospital.

The anticipated hospital revenue of $316,600 includes $140,000 from patient room charges, $4,000 nursery, $1,000 from surgery, $3,500 from delivery and labor room, $25,000 from central supply, $11,000 from emergency room, $2,500 from anesthesiology, $30,000 from pharmacy, $43,600 from laboratory, $31,800 from radiology, $3,700 from electrocardiology, $3,500 from physical therapy, $16,000 from inhalation therapy, and $1,000 from TV rentals.

The year it doesn't make it, participating organizations will have to accept a pro-rata portion of what is raised and the fund balance for emergencies will disappear.

Game officials being only human, we guess they are going to have bad games too. But that one has to be marked down in the "terrible column."

All told, Post wound up with 16 infractions for 195 yards and would have had 30 more except for those two offsetting ones. In contrast, Cooper drew two five-yarders for two much time and one 15-yarder for a total of 25 yards.

The only positive thing about it was that the Lopes showed their poise by not buckling under the yellow flag onslaught in the second period when the wind was against them and so were nine penalties for 115 yards.

We think high school game officials receive too much anonymity. We think their names should be printed in the program and they should wear numbers on their backs just like the players. Then good officials would build good reputations and popularity and bad officials would have no place to hide.

And to end our seasonal column on officials, have you heard the story about Baylor drawing a 15 yard penalty in its game with Houston recently for interfering with the punt receiver. Since nobody in the press box saw a Baylor man close enough to the receiver on the play to bother him they asked Coach Grant Teaff about it after the game. He explained the officials stepped off the penalty for a Baylor player "shouting at the punt receiver."

There are 26 good reasons for Post's "round the clock, round the year" fire protection pictured in Bryan J. Williams' Fire Prevention Week ad on page 3.

How many members of the Post Volunteer Fire Department on this page can you identify by name?

This is the one special week in the year when if you see any of the 26 around that you can tell them "thank you" for a job well done, as Bryan says--"round the clock, around the year."

There was a "moonie" in town early last week seeking cash contributions for the controversial religious movement of Dr. Moon, or is he just Mr. Moon.

Anyway, when one of the principals ran him out of the schools, he explained he was registered at city hall as a solicitor. According to the way we heard the story, he had said he'd paid $50 for the right to solicit.

We checked this one at city hall and learned from City Clerk Wanda Wilkerson that he had indeed come in to register if necessary, but since he identified himself with a religious organization, the city's $50 soliciting fee did not apply.

Anyway, he was seen later in front of the post office, soliciting in the street from people hustling up in cars to run in and get their mail. We don't know how much he got, but he was a hustler.

We'd like to find several like him for the upcoming United Fund campaign.

Remember Jess Knight, the Indian cowboy who was winning a good deal of prize money riding saddle broncs this summer until he suffered a broken leg in the fall.

Short after-

"I have always been very sensitive to the needs of the people and have been very cautious about the fiscal matters of the state," Short said. "Problems in the field of agriculture, energy, public education and many other need a responsible and experienced individual to help solve these problems."

"Some of these are federal problems," Short comments, "but the states can encourage the National Congress to return government to the local level."

"I believe the best government is the one kept close to the people," Short said, adding, "I have always voted for local control." Short said, "The best part of seeking public office is getting the opportunity to meet and talk to the voters and people of West Texas--and I look forward to it."

Runkles now head of Museum group

Jack Alexander recently resigned as president of the Garza County Museum Association and has been succeeded by Frank (Chief) Runkles, a former president of the organization.

ponent" called in yesterday to report that the 22-year-old cowboy is now a student at Howard County Junior College in Big Spring where of course he is a member of their collegiate rodeo team.

The last two weekends he has won first place in his specialty at collegiate rodeos at Portales and Roswell and before that was third in the Sul Ross rodeo at Alpine.

Fans here are still talking about those game officials at Cooper Friday night and some of the weird penalties. Several claim that Quarterback Brad Shepherd actually was flagged 15 yards for clipping when he was carrying the ball, and that the pass interference call came when two Lope defenders collided although the Pirate receiver was untouched.

There were a lot of "crazy calls" last weekend as you saw on the tube if you watched the Cowboy game at St. Louis, and read the sports pages about some of the laments from the coaches.

School board-

The TEA description of such a Bible course says it is designed to provide students an opportunity to study in depth the literary, historical and ethical aspects of the Bible and said "the course shall be presented in a nonsectarian manner."

School trustees, after hearing the Bible delegation, awarded a contract to reroof the high school gymnasium to the Texas Roofing Company of Lubbock on a low bid of $12,245 with the job to be completed in 75 days. Four bids were submitted.

Trustees also approved a proposal by Whitaker and Hall, Lubbock architectural and engineering firm, to provide a master development plan for the Post schools.

The board had discussed the proposal at their September meeting and Sanford Whitaker and Dwayne McQueen appeared before trustees to further discuss the project Monday night.

The plan, costing no more than $3,000, would serve as a guide for the formation and implementation of existing or proposed physical plant facilities for maximum use.

Whitaker and McQueen made a 7:30 p. m. date with school trustees next Tuesday night to receive "input information" from board members.

In other board actions, trustees:

Employed Miss Donna Russell, a certified teacher from the University of Texas, to replace Miss Barbara Looney, who is to be married.

Approved the division of 96.35 percent of the tax funds raised for local maintenance and 3.65 percent for interest and sinking fund.

Approved tax roll adjustments for 1976.

Authorized payment of bills.

Discussed how federal unemployment tax will affect school district operations now that school district has been brought under this tax for non-contractual employees.

Jesus said, "If you just had faith the size of a (tiny) mustard seed." Some are afraid that they have planted their mustard-seed-size faith, and watched it die. The PRESBYTERIANS OF POST will gather at 11:00 Sunday to worship the God who expects His people to have faith at every point in their lives -- and then makes faith the very gift He offers us. We invite you to join us.
