

First mini-quake since 1931 rattles Garza Friday

Residents were a "shook" Friday morning after experiencing the known earthquake here years. No damage was reported locally from the quake reported at 6:47 a.m. in a wide West Texas area.

The last earth tremor was reported in this area in 1931, but it had considerably more "swing and sway" than this one.

The National Earthquake Information Service in Golden Colo., place the epicenter of the quake 20 miles north of Snyder with a 4.75 to 5.0 reading on the Richter scale.

No major damage was reported from the tremor which was felt over a triangular area from San Angelo to Abilene to Lubbock.

The only damage that has been reported was the loss of some fluorescent lights which were shaken out of their brackets at Texaco's

Fuller Gasoline plant, 22 miles north of Snyder, which would put the plant near the epicenter of the quake.

C.L. Barnett, the plant superintendent, said several aftershocks had been felt at the plant. "I think there were about three," he said. "The last at 9:27 a.m. None was as bad as the first one."

In Snyder a mirror fell from the wall in the district clerk's office in the courthouse. It was assumed the mirror was shaken loose by the earthquake.

A Justiceburg resident told of a truck driver on US-84 who thought his "engine had blown up" when the quake hit.

Snyder reported there was a rumble (no roar) which accompanied the quake.

School Supt. Bill Shiver was walking to work here at the time of the earth tremor and told The Dispatch he seemed "to be walking unsteadily."

Recracker 500 new July 4 event

The new features of the 10th annual Fourth of July celebration will be a recracker 500 bike race registers 6 through 11. Robinson, chairman of the Chamber-sponsored event, announced this year the Post Lions will sponsor the 10:30 a.m. July 4 race over an 11-mile half mile course around the three diamonds at Nicot.

Entry fees are required for all riders who want to participate. They must furnish their own bikes and be at the park before 10:30 a.m.

The field will be divided into three age divisions with first and second place ribbons for the fourth and fifth in each division furnished by the National Bank.

Age divisions are (1) 10 and 11, (2) 8 and 9, and (3) 6 and 7.

Where were we when Post's earthquake shook things up a little last Friday morning? We were sitting on our patio reading the morning paper and sipping a cup of coffee. We didn't hear, see or feel a thing.

In fact, we didn't know anything about it until we got to work. We figure that our over 30 years of work in newspaper newsrooms has developed our concentration to the point where even an earthquake can't crack it.

One of Republican Bill Fisher's Girl Fridays called yesterday to report the congressional candidate will be campaigning in Post next Wednesday, June 28, from the noon hour until after 4 p.m.

If you remember he's the one who had as his No. 1 platform plank a plan to cut federal income taxes 30 percent with the explanation that this would be such a big stimulus to the private sector and would create so much new business the government would get a lot of those taxes back through other channels.

With Proposition 13 winning big in California, this Abilene attorney may be right on top of the hottest issue in the fall campaign.

The only thing which displeases us about Fisher's campaign plans for Post is that we'd like to "rest up" for the rest of the summer.

Ada Capps rites today

Funeral services for Ada Capps, 86, will be held today (Thursday) at the Calvary Baptist Church at 2 p.m. with Rev. Glenn Reece of the First Baptist Church officiating, assisted by Rev. Jimmy Kennedy.

Mrs. Capps died at 2 p.m. Tuesday, June 20, at West Texas Hospital in Lubbock.

Born January 22, 1892, she had been a resident of Post for several years and a resident of Twin Cedar Nursing Home for the last six months.

Survivors include two brothers, Charles and George McLain both of El Reno, Oklahoma; four grandchildren, Mrs. Gene Hays, Mrs. James Green and Dwayne and James Capps all of Post; 15 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

Palbearers will be Raymond Walker, Jim Jackson, Jimmy Holleman, Raymond Woods, W. C. Caffey Jr., and Cecil Foster.

Burial will be in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Mason Funeral Home.

BEST OF DAY — C. R. Wilson stands with the 40-pound kingfish he caught recently in the Gulf of Mexico outside the port of Houston. It was the biggest catch of the day at Houston and the next day he caught a 35-pound Ling and won the "Biggest edible fish" jackpot at that fishing port. C. R. and Wilson flew home Monday night from Houston with this big fish-packed in ice on the plane with them. (Staff Photo at Jackson Bros. Packers.)

Fifty-First Year Post, Garza County, Texas Thursday, June 22, 1978 Number 4

Jr. high project in big cost jump

Now about $500,000

Post school trustees spent about two hours Monday night going over development plans for the "junior high project" with Lubbock Architect Sanford Whitaker who also passed along the "bad news" that the estimated cost of the project is going to be about $20,000 more than the school district had wanted to spend.

Nor did that count the architect's fees or somewhere in the neighborhood of $40,000 or the very likely possibility that trustees in the end will choose a hot water, boiler heating method which will cost an extra $27,000 over the cost of shorter lasting "roof units."

This would hike the total cost to slightly over $500,000, almost $100,000 more than the school district has readily available.

As for air conditioning, trustees made no decision this week but all appeared to be "leaning" against it because of the high cost of operation.

Jack Lott, president of the trustees, figured out the air conditioning would cost $50 per student for about five or six weeks in the spring and September in the fall figuring only fuel and maintenance.

Actually, air conditioning installation would be only between $9,000 and $10,000 additional.

In the end, trustees asked Whitaker to bring an engineering expert with him to the July meeting to explain heating and cooling choices, each of which has certain advantages and disadvantages.

Trustees told Whitaker not to wait for the junior high project to get onto the re-roofing of several buildings in the school district, and to repair the school tennis courts this summer.

A notice to contractors for bids on the re-roofing of the high school, junior high, old gymnasium and cafeteria buildings appears in today's Dispatch.

Bids will be accepted until 4 p.m. Monday, July 10.

Trustees also instructed Whitaker and Hall to immediately make temporary repairs in the athletic department's "weight room" where a leaking roof has created a buckling floor.

The Whitaker plans call for use of "a passive type" of solar heat in the junior high building, but no water heating from the sun's rays will be attempted.

Trustees spent a major portion of their time discussing (See School board, Page 7)

Dan Rankin is named new PHS principal

Dan Rankin, 36, a teacher in Post schools for the last 13 years with three years experience as an assistant principal, was named the new Post High School principal Monday night.

DAN RANKIN

The selection was made by unanimous vote of the Post school district trustees at their June meeting following an interview of the Garza-born instructor who himself is a 1960 Post High graduate.

Rankin succeeds Billy Hahn who announced his retirement to become effective with the ending of the 1977-78 school year. Rankin went to work at the job Tuesday morning.

School trustees decided informally at their May meeting to "stay within the system" in selecting the new principal. Supt. Bill Shiver gave trustees a list of those educationally qualified for the position with his recommendation of several of them.

The board then asked those interested to apply and come in for interviews Monday night. Rankin was the only applicant. One other said he would take the job if offered, but would not apply.

Rankin was graduated from Texas Tech University in 1965 with a bachelor's degree in education and five years later in 1970 obtained his master's degree in elementary education from (See Dan Rankin, Page 10)

Donnie Dennis sixth deputy

Sheriff Jim Pippin has a full staff of six deputies this week for the first time in months.

Rounding out the staff is Donnie Dennis, 28, a certified officer with five years of experience who comes to Post from Olney.

Dennis is married and the father of one small child. He has been assigned to the night shift.

Sheriff Pippin reported a "jail full of drunks and DWI's" over the weekend, but no crime news.

CARTER WHITE He Wrote a "horse book"

Carter White newest author

Carter White, who had lived his life in the Graham Community until he moved away in 1972, is West Texas' newest author.

He has written a book, "Big Remuda", which includes 92 true-to-life stories about unusual horses he has known in his lifetime.

The book came off the press only last week and The Dispatch hopes to have some for sale to Carter's many friends by next week.

Carter, who has lived the last four years in Hale Center, is a livestock inspector for the Texas Animal Health Commission. He has been assigned to the scab force and handles the dipping chores for scab infested cattle. By necessity he rides horseback much of the time to perform many of his duties.

Not only does White's book have 92 true stories about horses. It also has pictures of horses — a total of 174 of them.

White started writing the horse stories as a past time while still living in Garza County and didn't become serious about completing the book until about 1971.

In fact, at one time his manuscript was recovered from the trash by his daughter, Sherry, and the family encouraged him to finish the book.

"I've known so many ponies and their riders that I wanted to put their stories down on paper," White explained in giving his reason for writing the book. In his introduction to the book, Carter wrote that "heartstrings are tied to most every story" and that "the outside of a horse is good for the inside of a man."

The book contains stories of working cow ponies. (See Carter White, Page 10)

Rev. White has pastored churches in Texas, New Mexico, Colorado and Oklahoma.

He and his wife, Betty, have four children, Ricky who is a freshman at Cook County College in Gainsville; Ronnie will be a senior in Post High School, Jan, a sixth grader and Jerry who will be in the fifth grade. The family resides at 505 West 4th.

Nothing to worry about

Post approaches its 10th annual July Fourth Celebration the week after next as another "fun day at the park."

Despite the fact it's Postex vacation week, the celebration is always the biggest thing locally.

This year with Rob Robinson at the helm, the format contains the regular basics — a big outdoor barbecue and a fireworks display plus a lot of food and game booths.

It's a great way to spend a holiday — and the visiting with friends is one of the best parts of it.

In this day and age, only rarely does a West Texas community ever get together — except on the sidelines of a high school football game.

So this is one of the few opportunities of the year to take it easy, get at some heavy visiting, and a lot of fun.

The Firecracker 500 bike race, sponsored by the Lions Club and bank-rolled by the bank on July 4th morning at David Nicolis park is a new feature.

One of the biggest bingo games in the history of the celebration is billed for a three-hour run that afternoon with the Women's Division of the Chamber already having a grand group of prizes from merchants to offer.

It (the celebration, that is) is still being put together so watch next week's paper for possible additions — like a swimming meet, other games, and something about the scheduled hours of music from the show wagon stage.

So make your family plans to attend. Bring everybody and your folding chairs (if you like) and enjoy an afternoon and evening of Post togetherness.

Our advise to Rob — it's his first one — is to calm down and not worry about the size of the chow line for that 1200, or is it 1600, pounds of barbecued beef.

The first time around it's always a worry, wondering how the celebration will make out financially. The Chamber puts in $500 but that won't even buy the fireworks anymore. Donations are accepted but with a small charge for a meal it's difficult to get donors to help.

Which leaves the chairman of the blow-out wondering each year whether he is going to be financially blown out before the sky rockets.

But a community get-together usually has a way of taking care of itself and when "fun time" comes everybody is usually ready to pitch in — and even take up the slack, if necessary.

Don't worry, Rob. It's going to be fun.

Enforcement is essential

Post's tough new building code will go into effect July 12 which is 30 days after it was enacted by the city council last week.

What makes it so tough for a small town like Post is that it is the updated Uniform Building Code of the International Conference of Building Officials.

Slaton has adopted the same code and whether larger cities use this one, something similar, or something tougher or easier we don't know.

We don't really know whether the members of the city council took the opportunity to read it before enacting it.

It is sure to cause some controversy during the first few weeks it is enforced.

And that brings up a very important point. Post has a whole lot of ordinances which are not really enforced. If the building code is to become another one of these, then it was a waste of time to adopt it.

The city dads need to choose a local part-time building inspector right away and give him the opportunity to become familiar with the new code. Then when the heated words begin, they need to stand behind him and thus upgrade construction in Post for the first time.

The Dispatch believes the building code should be given a fair trial. To do that the council needs to move now to get it set up and ready for operation in mid-July.

The costs of labor, materials and other items necessary to the company's operations continue to skyrocket. Despite the fact that we have adopted programs for cutting expenses and capital expenditures, it becomes increasingly difficult for us to keep up with these rapidly rising costs.

Although we have been operating in a highly inflationary atmosphere for the past several years, there has been no general increase in SPS electric rates since 1974. Now, however, we are forced to seek rate relief if we are to continue to provide the electric service needs of our customers.

Our goal is to provide the best possible service at lowest possible cost, now and in the future. The increase in our rates that we have requested will allow us to realize that goal.

Religious film coming to Post

The film, "The Road to Armageddon" will be shown here at the Assembly of God Church at 7:30 p.m. Saturday night. The film is narrated by David Wilkerson, author of "The Cross and the Switchblade."

In the film the signs of the end of time are strewn along the prophetic pathway leading to the last world war, Armageddon.

Wilkerson envisions five major calamities coming to the United States and the world: "a terrible recession, a major earthquake, a flood of filth on TV, hatred against parents as the No. 1 youth problem, and persecution madness directed toward Christians."

Featuring Wilkerson throughout, the film unveils a never-to-be forgotten experience in Bible prophecy, a glimpse of eternity is unfolded, and unshakable promises of God are brought to light.

Pastor Bert Ryan invites everyone to come and see the film at the Assembly of God Church, Avenue I at 12th street. No admission will be charged.

Bible school opens Monday

The Church of God of Prophecy will have a Vacation Bible School beginning Monday through Friday, June 26-30 from 6:30 to 8:30 each evening.

Kindness
This story from the Rev. Ira Gillett, missionary in Portuguese East Africa, was read in the Upper Room.
A group of natives had made a long journey and walked to a government hospital to come to the mission hospital for treatment. When asked why they had walked the extra distance to reach the mission hospital when the same medicines were available at the government institution, they replied, "The medicines may be the same, but the hands are different."
American psychologist Henry Charles Link observed that "if we were to make the conscious and frequent effort of treating others with consideration, the effects on us and on society as a whole would be amazing."

56 YEARS AGO — This is a picture of Two Draw Lake made by Ray Farrar on the Fourth of July in 1922. Farrar, an early day Post resident who now lives at Upland, California, sent the picture to The Dispatch this week noting he doesn't remember the names of the boys in the row boat. Two Draw Lake was well known all over West Texas and people came from all over to swim and fish there, Farrar said in a note, which explained he found the picture when going through some "oldies" and thought local old-timers would enjoy seeing it.

San Angelo hub of screwworm outbreak

MISSION — Seven Texas counties recorded their first 1978 screwworm cases during the June 8 through 14 period, reports Dr. M.E. (Cotton) Meadows, Jr., the director of the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) Screwworm Eradication Program says the Texas screwworm count climbed from 38 in 17 counties to 57 in 24 counties during the one-week period. First positive 1978 identification of the parasite from samples in Garza, Kent, Scurry, Sterling, Runnels, Concho, and Jeff Davis counties was made in the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) lab during the week. Twenty-four cases have been reported in 14 counties within flying distance of San Angelo since May 15. The Program is preparing to establish a temporary distribution center at San Angelo during the week starting June 18. A sample Werner A. Halfmann of Lowake took from a calf navel a mile south of town became Concho County's first recorded 1978 screwworm case. Kent County joined the list on a sample D. Benningfield and David Foster collected 12 miles west of Clairmont from the navel of a calf owned by M.W. David of Snyder. Gary Gallant of Ballinger, Runnels County, took screwworms from a calf navel 12 miles northeast of town. Scurry County's first positive sample was collected by Ernest Sorrells of Colorado City from a bovine east of town. Fourteen miles east of Sterling City Foster S. Price collected Sterling County's first positive sample from a docking wound in a sheep. Jack A. Kennedy of Post took Garza County's first 1978 screwworm from a castration wound in a bovine a mile east of town. Jeff David County's only 1978 case, so far, was collected by Bill R. Evans for Reynolds Cattle Co. of Kent. It came from a castration wound in a calf in the Rincon House pasture.

8 boll weevils caught Friday

Only five of County Agent Syd Conner's 28 boll weevil traps had boll weevils in them last Friday in his weekly check to determine how many have overwintered in Garza County. Of the seven locations with four traps each, four were completely empty. These were on Harlan Morris No. 38, James Stone No. 45, Billy Blacklock No. 15, and John Boren's place No. 8. At the David Tyler location, No. 86, the fourth trap had one weevil with the other three empty. On the Walton McQueen farm, the first trap had two and the other three were empty. Five of the eight weevils counted were in three traps on the Robert Sanchez farm, No. 48, with one in the first and two each in the second and third with the fourth empty.

Deep wildcat is planned

Miller Exploration Co. has announced plans to drill a deep wildcat oil test 10 miles northeast of Post. It's the No. 1 Brazos, located 660 feet from northline and 1,980 feet from east line of Section 20, block 8, H & GN survey. It will be drilled to an 8,100 foot depth. Two other Garza locations, both reentries, also were announced this week. One is a reentry in the Trabow field by Traverse Corp. at the No. 1-17 J.F. Lott, and others, 11 miles south of Post which is 8,140 feet in depth. The other is Traverse Corp.'s re-entry in the Tuffing field at the No. 1 Tuffing, 14 miles southeast of Post, which is 7,750 feet in depth.

Post teenagers win three out of four at home

Slaton homer ends mound duel in loss

Manager Boog Holly's Post teenage team won two out of three a week ago on the road. This past week they won three out of four at home.

The only thing Manager Holly isn't sure of is where his club stands in the six-team circuit. The locals have six victories in nine starts for a .667 percentage, but Holly doesn't know exactly how well several of the clubs are doing.

Post has six games left to play, including two make-up games as yet unscheduled, three at home and three on the road.

They will entertain Brownfield here at 8 p.m. Friday in the Babe Ruth park and are scheduled to meet Wilson here Saturday, time as yet unannounced because of conflict with the Babe Ruth League play that night.

Then the locals hit the road to play at Levelland at 3 p.m. Sunday and at Slaton Wednesday night, June 28. The make-up games are Brownfield there and Levelland here.

Post hammered a weak Wilson team, 20 to 1 and 20 to 3 last Wednesday and Friday nights, lost a tough extra-inning game to Slaton 4 to 2 here Sunday, and then edged Tahoka, 8 to 7, here Monday night.

In the first 20-run win over Wilson, Post picked up 13 hits while Doug Hall and Barry Tyler combined on the mound for the locals to hold the visitors to a single blow, a leadoff triple in the fifth which produced Wilson's only run.

Post got three runs in the second, eight in the third, four in the fourth and five in the fifth.

The 13 blows included three homers, each by Mike Holly, Larry Harper and Bryan Compton. Holly also had a double and a triple from his leadoff spot.

In the 20 to 3 victory over Wilson the next time out, Post pounded out a dozen hits with Cleanup Hitter Raymie Holly collecting a homerun, two doubles and a single in six trips to the plate, driving in five runs and scoring three himself. Larry Harper got a pair of doubles in two at bats.

The tough one to lose was the 4 to 2 defeat to Slaton Sunday which saw Slaton Shortstop, Tim Bourn smash out a homerun with two aboard in the eighth after the two teams battled to a 1 to 1 standoff in the regulation seven innings.

Post got a rally going in the bottom of the eighth with Harper singling with one away and two walks following to load the bases. But Slaton pitcher Stan White bore down to get the next two batters by strikeouts with only Harper getting home.

Post managed but two hits off White and Harper got both of them, the other being a double in the sixth when Post again loaded them up with one down but managed only to get Harper home with the tying run.

All told White struck out 16 Post batters and walked five in the eight innings.

Slaton didn't do much better. They got only four hits off Leslie Looney and Raymie Holly. Looney was knocked out in the eighth and Holly came on in relief after Bourn's three-run homer.

Looney struck out 15 and Holly got one more to make it 16 Slaton batters going down by the whiff route.

Against Tahoka Monday night, Doug Hall who went the route for Post for the win, served up a homerun ball in the first to Dockery of Tahoka with two aboard on errors to give the visitors a 3-0 lead.

Post bounced back with four of their five hits in the bottom of the first for four runs with Mike Holly, Raymie Holly, Evans Heaton and Danny Gunn getting the blows. All were doubles but Mike's opening single.

Tahoka came back with two in the third to take a 4-3 lead on a walk and a single, but Post rallied for two more in the bottom of the inning to regain it 6-5 on two walks and Hall's single.

Post added their final pair in the sixth on two hit batsmen, a walk and a balk. Those runs were needed too as Tahoka rallied in the top of the seventh for their final pair to draw within one on a double and a walk before Hall got the last two outs on pops.

Unbeaten Mets grab Minor League crown

The unbeaten Mets clinched the Post Minor League title this past week although tied in a 19 all slugfest by the cellar dwelling Colts last Friday night.

With only a game to play, the Mets are three and one-half games ahead of the second place Texans who climbed over the Rangers this week into the runnerup spot.

That will be settled tonight and tomorrow night when the Rangers play the Colts and the Mets close with the Texans.

The 19-19 Mets-Colts tie proved the high point of the new kind of "swinging season" with the Mets cracking seven homers (Deke Willard 2, Lance Alexander 2 and Mike Wells, Dwayne Warren and Brent Jones one each) and the Colts six (Andrew Pearson 2, Elias Martinez 2, and Mike Bartlett and Johnny Jones one each).

All of which was a record now and forever more for kid baseball in Post, Texas.

All told there were 45 hits scored in the four inning game with Jones of the Mets and Jones and Martinez of the Colts each banging out four apiece.

The Mets got 23 more hits and three homers (Warren, Alexander and Warren one each) in an 18 to 1 romp over the Rangers who got only seven hits and nothing going Monday evening.

The Texans handed the Rangers their other loss last Thursday night as they cranked up for 15 hits, five of them homers (Kent Ammons, Rudy Cruz, Roy Holly one each and Roger Martinez two) and an easy 16 to 4 victory.

The Colts came up with their first victory of the season in a 4 to 1 win over the Texans Tuesday night. Johnny Tores got a homerun for the winners in that one as the Colts won it with a three-run burst in the first.

If the league continues to play tie games — the newest rule in "baseball" — they need to decide how to score them. The Colts have played two of them with nothing to show for it in the standings.

Unbeaten Dodgers are new Little League champions

Dirty Doz. into slow pitch lead

Post's Slow Pitch Softball league has a phenomenal 10-team standing this week with the leading Dirty Dozen playing at an 800 clip and four other teams (making half the league) zipping close behind them playing .700 winning softball and up.

TDY and Black Power are only a half game behind, each 7-2, at a .777 clip with Palmer Well Service one behind at an even .700 and the Outsiders half a game behind Palmer with a 5-2 mark for .714.

Bill Lowe announced this week that since so many people will be out of town for the Fourth of July holiday week (Postex vacation period) that games for July 4, 5 and 7 have been rescheduled to Aug. 1, 3 and 4 respectively.

He asked team managers to take note. Lowe also announced the first round playoff games are scheduled for August 8 and 10 with the championship series scheduled for Aug. 15-17 and 18.

season. The new champions scored 46 runs in their three wins, but barely squeezed by the second place Yankees 11 to 10 Monday night when the Yanks rallied for a pair in the top of the sixth and left the bases all full when the last out was made.

In fact, the Yanks outhit the winners 11 to 9 with Jeff Lamb and L. D. Harper each getting three hits for the losers.

Gilbert Perez went the distance for the Dodgers to get that win. The Dodgers battered the Cardinals 20 to 7 Friday night to clinch the crown — if one wishes to be technical — and plastered the A's 15 to 3 Tuesday night.

It was more like football season that sweaty June as the Yanks got four TDs and as many "points after" for a 28 to 9 win over the Cards last Thursday night and the Tigers finally overcame the Cardinals 29 to 19 in a game which saw 48 runs scored. There must have been a new record of some kind made in this one Saturday night.

Each team got 12 blows in that one with the Tigers coming up with a 15-run rally in the top of the fifth to put it away.

Pitcher Robbie Williams got four hits in five trips for the winners and leadoff Todd Wilson got four singles in six for the Cardinals.

That game went on so long that the Red Sox and Yankees got only an incomplete game in the nightcap with the Yanks leading 10 to 8 with one out in the bottom of the third when 9:30 p. m. closing time arrived.

Tim Couch and Danny Valdez divided winning mound duties and Couch also rapped three singles in four trips as the Red Sox after trailing 0 to 1 for three came on with 13 runs in the next three innings for an easy 13 to 3 win over the Tigers Monday night. It was the Tigers only loss of the week in three starts.

The Dodgers got 16 hits, four of them by Javier Valdez and three by Gilbert Perez in their 15 to 3 pasting of the A's Tuesday night. One of Perez's shots was a homerun, something there has been mighty few of this Little League season. Tracy Price, Curtis Clinesmith and Robert Shults each got two hits in the losers' 10-hit attack.

Dodgers scored seven times in the second for a 9-1 lead.

L. D. Harper had two doubles and two singles and walked once to score five runs and drive home another bunch in the Yankees 28 to 9 win over the Cardinals last Thursday night. Jeff Lamb got three hits and scored all five times he went to the plate as he walked and got hit by a pitch in leading off for the winners. Kenneth Gill for two hits and scored three times for the Cards.

Danny Foster got three hits in four trips and won the game on the mound as the Tigers took an 8 to 4 win over the Palmer A's in one of the best played games of the week last Thursday night. The winners got four in the first and three in the fifth as Curtis Clinesmith and Robert Shults got two hits each for the losers.

Clinesmith also got two singles and a double in four and the mound victory Friday night in the A's 12 to 9 win over the Red Sox. Daniel Gonzales got two of the losers' five hits.

Indian streak gives them share of lead

The Indians climbed out of last place with three straight victories this past week, including a 14 to 2 whipping of the former league-leading White Sox cut short by the 10-run rule, to climb into a first place tie with the Braves as the Post Babe Ruth loop heads into its stretch run.

The rampaging redskins scored 49 runs in the three games as their attack overwhelmed the opposition.

Only in last Thursday night's win over the Braves 18 to 15, did the Indians get a real contest. If the Braves could have pulled that one out they would be in a good position to easily grab the flag all by themselves.

As it was the Braves climbed over the White Sox too with two victories and that one loss to share the league in the skin-tight league race.

The White Sox, in failing to an even .500 mark lost a 6-1 game to the Braves Tuesday night after squeezing out the Cubs, 10 to 9 last Thursday night. The Cubs dug a whole in the cellar with three straight losses.

The White Sox got their only victory with a two-run rally in the bottom of the seventh on two walks and an infield error to come from well behind (4-8). Alvin Taylor got three out of four for the winners, scored three times and drove in three more. David Foster and Chris Hall each had two hits for the Sox, while Bill Black, batting last for the Cubs, got three singles in four trips to lead the Cubs' attack.

The Indians came up with four runs in a last inning rally to come from behind against the Braves and get their first victory of the week in the 18 to 15 slugfest with the Braves. Dana Scott, Kim Norman and Bryan Taylor each got two blows for the winners, while Irving Price got three for the losers, two of them doubles, and Adolfo Varela, Roy Gonzales and Steve Curb each had two for the losers.

Alvin Taylor got two of the only three Sox hits in the 14 to 2 loss to the Indians who scored on four, six and four run bursts in the third, fourth and fifth.

The Indians had five starters with two hits each — Dana Scott, Barry Morris, Ben Ayala, Bryan Taylor and Kevin Craig. Scott's pair included a homerun and a triple. Scott also got the victory on the mound with Bryan Taylor going the last two innings.

The Cubs were leading the Braves 8 to 6 until the Braves came to life in the final two innings for eight more runs and their 15 to 8 Saturday night win.

The Braves shortstop booted four ground balls for errors in the third and the first sacker kicked another to let the Cubs have six runs

STEPHENVILLE — Nathan Wheeler, who averaged 9.5 points and 13 rebounds a game last season for Southland High School, will play on the West side July 22 at the Texas Small School all-star basketball game at Tarleton State University.

The game is a part of the annual Texas Small School Coaches Association Clinic, which gets underway July 19 when about 100 coaches from throughout the state will register in TSU's Wisdom Gymnasium.

The players register July 16 and begin workouts the following day. Coaches, who were selected by the Association, are Billy Massingill and Larry Pruitt of Jonesboro (East football); Ben Grill of Benjamin and Chet Forehand of Weinert (West football); Jackie Williams of Megargel (East basketball); and Troy Lemley of Hedley (West basketball).

on only one hit and take lead.

Chris Belongia, Ron Price and Alonzo Luma each had two hits for the winners. Gary Baker had two doubles for the losers.

On Monday night rallying Indians came with five runs in the seventh to knot their game with the Cubs and then exploded eight runs in the ninth to win the longest game of the season, 15 to 7.

The Indians got seven hits in the ninth as Kevin Craig getting two doubles and two singles six trips.

Pitcher Ronnie Hall had two doubles and a single four trips for the losers.

The Braves got only two hits, all by Adolfo Varela and they were all doubles in their 6 to 1 win over White Sox Monday night. Six baserunners who got aboard on walks scored the winners' runs. Larry Dunn got the big win for the Braves, scattering five blows, two by Tim Taylor.

The regular schedule starts Saturday night and if either the Braves or Indians pull out the title one of them has to win their last starts.

The Indians and Braves meet tonight in the opener which will put one of them in first. But the winner may have to win again Saturday night to fight off the challenge of the White Sox who can climb back into title tie with two close victories if the Indians and Braves split their final two.

Come to think of it, they would tie all three teams the lead with only makeup games left.

The June meeting Monday

 almost midnight.

When the final item on the agenda was reached, that of possible action in naming a presented a petition signed by 287 names.

The petition requested the appointment of Mike Flanigan, who drew the next highest number of votes in the spring school board election. Flanagan also attended the meeting with the board.

At that point, at 11:15 p.
 the board agreed to go into executive session to discuss the appointment.

After 30 minutes discussion, the board secretary,
 Linda Mitchell reported, board members agreed only that they were too tired

 Supt. Shiver in a report for action before fall listed all the educational programs the Post school district has adopted by school board decision, including the learning activity packets approved by the board
 March 13, 1972.

He urged trustees to study them and "if you want to eliminate any of these programs" due to political pressure or otherwise to take action before fall when a new school year begins.
 In connection with the programs, he told the board that when the individualized method of instruction was adopted in 1972, trustees approved having a course given the local faculty in individualized instruction by the University of Texas.

 Due to turnover of personnel, only 35 percent of the faculty at the start of the fall term would have the advantages of this course.
 The other 65 percent have come in since the course was given six years ago.
 Shiver also said he would like to invest $6,000 a year into a program for development education from birth through age 2, which has been operating here for the past four or five months on a volunteer basis. The program would be expanded to include all young infants and help parents to teach their very young.

 The board also considered a drop-out comparison of the last two school years and various faculty requests which have been made. The board authorized Shiver to ask for bids to sell two old school buses after obtaining TEA approval.

Post's sales tax take up

Post has received a May sales tax check from the state comptroller of $16,602.47, up almost 56 percent from the $10,662.82 for the same period in 1977.

In the first five months to date, Post has received $48,839.30 for the same period in 1977.

This is a 13 percent increase for 1978 over 1977, and compares to a 17.5 percent increase in Texas cities overall.

Sales tax allocations for the year are up 11 percent in Dallas, 15 percent in Fort Worth, 10 percent in San Antonio, and 17 percent in Austin.

Post's sales tax fluctuates so wildly from month to month that a monthly comparison is generally not accurate, as the big May increase shown after low March and April.

Jehovah's Witness to big convention

Ten Jehovah's Witnesses from Post are expected to attend a convention of Jehovah's Witnesses in the Astrodome in Houston July 12-16 that is expected to attract 55,000 delegates from Arkansas, Colorado, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas.

The theme of the convention is "Victorious Faith."

the same university. He received his principal's certificate from Texas Tech in 1975.

Besides 13 years experience as a teacher in the Post system he has also served three years as assistant elementary principal to Jack Alexander.

His wife, Kathie, is a teacher in Post Middle School. They have one son, Bill, who is six. Dan is a member of the Post Church of Christ.

Rankin has served as drug coordinator for the Post schools for the last five years and attended a four-weeks school on drugs sponsored by the Texas Criminal Justice Council in Midland.

He is a member of the regional advisory council for crime prevention and drug education for 65 West Texas school districts. Last spring he was invited to speak to a regional education conference at Texas Tech University on mathematics.

Rankin has accumulated 27 hours toward his doctor's degree which he says is in his long range plans for his educational future.

In his interview with school trustees Monday night, Rankin said he is "proud of the Post school system and the kids in it."

Answering questions on discipline, Rankin said "to my knowledge high school discipline here is not as great a problem as some people think."

"I believe the board's policy on student discipline is a good one," he said in answer to another question, "and it is one I could live with."

Rankin said he would plan to be visiting teachers, particularly new teachers, on a twice weekly basis if possible to be able to recommend instructional areas where improvements are needed.

He termed evaluation of teachers as his No. 1 priority as principal if selected.

Asked his thoughts on the packet system here, which has been under criticism from an organized group of parents, Rankin said the

The Dispatch received a number of calls from local persons asking information on the quake.

At San Angelo's municipal air terminal, the control tower shook during the tremor.

The Snyder Daily News was deluged with calls from coast to coast by newspapers, wire services, radio and television stations seeking details on the quake.

In its afternoon edition, The News' headline on the story read "Mother Nature Shakes Snyder" with the letters in the various words asked to give a shakey impression.

Earthquake experts say that tremors of the type felt Friday are not uncommon in West Texas, but few of them are as noticeable as that of Friday's.

The last tremor to make the news occurred Aug. 16, 1931 and was felt across Texas at 5:45 a.m. that Sunday morning.

Heaviest damage in that one was at Valentine, Tex., where walls were cracked, roofs crushed in, plaster shaken down and every chimney in town dismantled.

In San Antonio that 1931 earthquake broke dishes, rattled windows and swayed chandeliers. Guests on upper floors of Abilene hotels that same morning reported both light fixtures and pictures showed a swing of several inches.

Post as well as Big Spring, Van Horn, El Paso, Pecos, Pyote, Odessa, Midland, Stamford, Lubbock, Anson, Stamford, Winters, Cole-packet system is just one of the ways to provide individualized instruction.

"I believe," he added, "individualized instruction is the only way we can solve our educational problems."

Rankin was more or less non-committal on whether he might be more able to determine students using marijuana because he had attended a four-week conference on drugs than somebody who had not attended that course.

man, Cisco and Colorado City felt distinct shocks in that one.

Dr. D.H. Shubert, professor of geosciences and director of Texas Tech's Seismological Service at Lubbock, predicts more such earthquakes in the southern South Plains to follow Friday's.

"I cannot predict size," he declared, "but I feel positive there will be more quakes. They've been happening for a year and I don't think they are going to stop."

Lubbock registered the tremor at the same time as the National Earthquake Information Service in Golden, Colo., and a smaller one seven minutes later.

Dr. Shubert said he didn't think it was as powerful as the 4.75 to 5.0 on the Richter Scale reported from Golden. Quakes over 5.0 on the Richter are expected to cause damage.

"We first began seeing earthquakes in this area about a year ago. They've all been small. This was considerably larger than the ones we've seen before."

The U.S. Earthquake Information Center said the West Texas quake stemmed from a shift in a split rock formation or fault far underground.

Ray Kangas of the earthquake center said the tremor "was a shallow one" typical of American quakes and probably ran no deeper than 30 to 33 kilometers.

He said the center sometimes registered several American tremors a week as strong as this one and that "they have these in California on a regular basis."

No damage was reported from West Texas oil or gas fields.

One Garza old-timer inquired at This Dispatch Friday afternoon if all the holes drilled for oil and gas "had anything to do with causing the quake."

The July meeting of the association will be held in the museum and the meeting date will be announced later.

$6,000 grant to museum

Congressman Omar Burleson is pleased to advise that matching grants-in-aid funding has been approved for the historic preservation of the old Post Sanitarium located in Post.

The two-story limestone hospital was constructed in 1913 and was one of the earliest hospitals in the Panhandle and the South Plains region. The funds will be implemented through the Heritage Conservation and Recreation Service.

The federal government will provide $6,000 while the applicant will provide $11,000 for the project. The project objectives are to reroof, paint, repaint masonry and repair exterior wood trim.

Health clinic here July 3

Volunteers will be needed in Post Monday, July 3, to work with the State Health Department's team that will be screening needy Garza County children for health problems, according to Chris Nelson, caseworker with the Texas Department of Human Resources.

The clinic will be conducted from 8:45 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the United Methodist Church, 216 West 10th.

Chris Nelson explained that mothers need to be with the children who are receiving health checkups, and volunteers are needed to supervise small brothers and sisters during this time, as well as to provide transportation to and from the clinic site.

Persons wishing to assist with the project are requested to call the Post DHR office, 806-495-2881.

Carter White-

(Continued From Page One) playday ponies, barrel racers, pole benders, cutting and roping horses. All stories are true along with some tips on handling and training horses based on long experience. Some incidents are comical while others will bring tears to your eyes, one reviewer wrote.

Remuda is a Spanish word for a herd of horses.

Bobby McCall, owner and manager of Professional's Printing in Plainview which printed the book, wrote the preface for the book, concluding: "Carter White has done an exceptional job of putting on paper the common dialogue used in small towns of West Texas. As you read this book, I am sure you will find yourself becoming to love this author."

"His style of writing, his personal feelings, his feelings toward children, his fellow-man, his family, and this country are graphically portrayed in his own words, written West Texas style."

Carter is a native of Garza County. Son of Lowe and Beulah White he was born two miles east of "Ragtown". He attended elementary school at Garnolia and completed high school here in Post. During his high school years, he played Antelope football under Coach Bing Bingham as a tackle, played baseball under Coach Vernon Ray and mix autumn politics with Friday night high school football.

If you haven't looked lately, David Newby is getting well along with the Senior Citizens new clubhouse in the Algerita. The new drop ceilings are all wired and the lights in place. Burlington is giving the carpet.

What the club needs to be doing is ironing out its operating finances because the club will be a reality very soon and the first big electric bill won't be long in coming after that.

It's also budget making time in local government circles if there's going to be an approach made there.

If you want a peek at the bright wall paper now in the front hall of the clubhouse take a look at one of today's front page pictures in which Don Smith, Postex Manager, is handing over a Burlington "carpet check." The wall paper is the background.

We don't know who is planning any official dedication activities but we would remind Mrs. John Hill, who is a dyed-in-the-wool "restorer" toured David's project when she was here campaigning a few months back and promised to return and bring the "next governor of Texas" when the restored Algerita was dedicated. We presume she meant when the clubhouse was done.

July 4th-

(Continued From Page One) sponsoring three hours of bingo in the park on the holiday afternoon (2 to 5 p.m.) have already collected a big group of donated prizes from Post business firms.

Over $600 worth of fireworks have been ordered with Don Pennell again in charge of the shooting.

"It won't last as long as in some of the early years," one on the committee commented. "You wouldn't believe those fireworks prices this year," he explained.

Robinson said additional details on the celebration will be announced next week as some of the events are still in the formative stage.

There will be booths in the park all afternoon and evening with lots of games and music from the show wagon.

In the meantime, youngsters can begin practicing for Post's first Firecracker 500.

TRAIL BLAZERS MEET
The Garza County Trail Blazers will hold its noon luncheon today (Thursday) in the Post Community Center.

His wife, the former Sybil Smith, also is a native Garza Countian and is a graduate of Southland High School.
