Nutrition Class Opened Tuesday By Red Cross

"With coffee, sugar, canned goods, and other foods rationed, the task of planning a well-balanced meal requires more and more ingenuity," says Mrs. Frances Lee Camp instructor of the Red Cross Nutrition course which had its initial meeting in the High school homemaking department on Tuesday night.

The smartest way to shop, in her estimation, is to go to the store in person and plan your meal after you get there, not before. In that way you can consider rationing point values of various foods as well as prices.

"Knowing what types of foods make up a balanced meal, you can choose wisely from what is plentiful on that day," she advises. "You may even find some things you didn't expect."

Mrs. Camp believes that nutrition should be as much a part of the average person's education as the three R's, and that children's meals, especially, deserve special study.

"We are not just feeding for today, but for the future—for the period of reconstruction," she pointed out.

Rationing, she remarked, actually may be a good thing in many ways. As an example she cited the fact that in England the nutritional status of the people has been improved because more attention is being given to proper nutrition for the masses.

To acquaint members of the Nutrition class with fundamentals of proper nutrition, the Red Cross will conduct nutrition courses every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday for five weeks at the High school. Classes will begin at 4:30 and continue until six o'clock.

Those who signed up to take part in the Nutrition course are: Mmes. T. L. Jones, N. C. Outlaw, Nola Brister, Rex Everett, L. W. Kitchen, J. N. Power, Jessie Voss, Z. D. Kemp, A. C. Surman, Tol Thomas, Curtis Davier, W. L. Davis and Misses Laurine Richards, Oleta Klatt, Neoma Jean Duff.

Shoppers Advised On Buying With Ration Stamps

On March 1, the grocers began collecting stamp coupons from War Ration Book No. 2. All blue stamps marked A, B and C are valid during the first ration period, which is the month of March, and add up to 48 points. Shoppers should consider the point value of merchandise as well as the money price and the amount of food represented, advised Mrs. D. C. Williams, point ration chairman for this county who was recently appointed to help keep people informed on the ration program. Point value does not correspond to money value. Mrs. Williams pointed out, "Add your points and tear out your biggest stamps first. For instance a shopper might pay 39 cents for a No. 2 can of asparagus which has a point value of 11, while she might pay only 15 cents for a No. 2 can of tomatoes with a point value of 16," she said.

Quality has nothing to do with points. All peas are 16 points per No. 2 can regardless of whether the can costs 12 cents or 25 cents. She advises shoppers to read the label to find out about quantity, quality ingredients and use. Choose the size can most economical for your own use.

March has three days in addition to four seven-day weeks—so budget the use of the 48 points per person to cover the 31-day period the chairman said.

The owner of every store has appointed one of his clerks as an "explainer," who will be very glad to help you to buy to the best advantage with your points. If you need help, ask for the following clerks in stores of Post: Mrs. B. M. Robinson, Power's Food Store; Oscar Bowen, O. K. Food Store; Mrs. Roy Baker, Southside Grocery and Market; W. R. Graeber, Corner Grocery; Ashley Lawson, Piggy Wiggy; Mrs. Clyde Hundley, Hundley's Red & White; T. W. Childress, Childress Grocery Store.

INSURE CROPS IS ADVICE TO U. S. FARMERS

Cotton Insurance Offered To Provide Financial Help In Time Of Need

Cotton can promise more and make less and promise less and make more than any other crop, John L. Wallace, chairman, Garza county AAA committee said this week in urging farmers to protect this year's crop.

Designed to give farmers a cash income when crops are destroyed by unavoidable hazards, cotton crop insurance was offered for the first time in the nation last year.

Applications on the 1943 crop already are being taken in the county AAA office to assure adequate time before closing date, April 15, 1943.

According to the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation, farmers must sign applications before the cotton is planted or before the closing date, whichever is earlier.

"Fire insurance doesn't mean a fire and neither does cotton insurance mean a crop failure, but it will certainly keep farmers hitting bottom when losses occur," Wallace said.

He explained that premiums on farms which show high losses during the past years would be higher than on farms showing small losses.

Under the insurance program, premiums may be paid by one of four methods. They may be paid by signing a commodity note which calls for payment either in cotton, or the cash equivalent, in deductions from loss payments, if any, or from the first Federal Farm payment made.

Protection is assured cotton farmers against loss from all unavoidable hazards, such as drought, boll weevil and other insects, frost, flood, plant disease, storm, wind and hail.

D. G. Cook Dies Of Heart Attack In Grassland

Following an attack of heart trouble, D. G. Cook of the Grassland community, one of the prominent citizens of Lynn county for the past 25 years, died at about 5:00 o'clock last Tuesday morning. Mr. Cook was also well known in Post and Garza county.

Funeral services were conducted in the Grassland Methodist church at 3:00 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Jesse Young, the pastor, officiating, and the body was laid to rest in the Grassland cemetery.

Pall bearers were A. Z. Sewell, J. E. Sherrill, W. T. Luttrell, W. P. Thomas, Roy Leonard, and Roy Appleby.

Mr. Cook had been engaged in business both at Draw and at Grassland at different periods of his residence in the county but re-entered the farming business a few years ago, building him a nice home on the Taboka-Post highway a short distance from Central Baptist church.

He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Gus Porterfield and Mrs. Lewis Kinley of Grassland.

Interment was made in Grassland cemetery.

Club Boys Of County Planning Big Year For Production

Garza county 4-H club boys are planning an intensive production program for the spring and summer months. Victory gardens, poultry and egg production and livestock production top the list of the major projects. Last year the actual amount received for the beef calves, swine, sheep, goats, wool, mohair, poultry and eggs marketed by the club boys in Texas was $1,099,514.13. Of this amount Garza boys had a high percentage in proportion to the membership. This year they expect to exceed their 1942 yield to a large degree.

County Agent Wallace Kimbrough announced that a full-time program of production for 4-H club boys was underway. Approximately 100 boys are participating in club work.

Mrs. Dora Redman left last week for several weeks visit among her children in Amarillo.

OUR QUOTA IS NOT ENOUGH

The Garza County quota for the American Red Cross War Fund has been announced as $2,700.00. We will raise this quota here in this county. In fact, we are so certain it will be raised that we have not the slightest hesitancy in putting the above heading on this editorial.

This war in which our great nation and her allies are now engaged is being fought by men who love freedom; men who are willing to lay down their lives to preserve all those things which we sum up as "the American way of life."

"The American Red Cross uses the talents of many individuals in bringing recreation, comfort, messages, and counsel to our fighting forces the world over, and to the families of these men on the home front. Comparatively few have the privilege or the special experience necessary for rendering such services in person to the men of our armed forces. But that does not mean each of us cannot make a direct contribution in this great and necessary work.

Not one of us can escape the personal responsibilities of an "all out" war. Every man, woman and child can and must make some real contribution to the ultimate victory that will be ours.

The American Red Cross actually is an auxiliary of the military forces of the United States. It is a humanitarian and morale-building arm upon which our fighting men lean heavily.

The multiple services rendered by the Red Cross to our Army and Navy, both at home and abroad must continue to be expanded. The same is true of the many services made available to the people who remain at home—services that no other organization is equipped or trained to give.

All of us know this. That is why we say our quota in the Red Cross War Fund campaign is not enough.

That is why we are confident the people of Garza County will prove the heading on this editorial wholly correct.

We will meet our quota—and then some.

Farmers Plan For Maximum Production In '43

Texas farmers began signing their names to production plan sheets this week in nearly all counties.

Delayed several days ago because county goals on grain sorghums, soybeans and Irish potatoes were revised to meet new and larger figures they were telling community leaders the amount of food and feed they could be depended on to help beat the Axis.

Commenting on the sign-up campaign, the state USDA War Board appealed to Texas farmers to plan for maximum production despite shortages which already exist and others which might hinder production later in the year.

"If farmers will plan and plant for maximum production, I firmly believe that steps will be taken to get the crops harvested," B. F. Vance, chairman of the board said in encouraging full speed ahead for Texas farmers.

He added that food is too important to the war program for any of it to be wasted and for that reason "we can be reasonably sure it will be harvested, regardless of the difficulties."

More than 8,000 leaders, representing every farming community in the state will cooperate during the sign-up campaign to obtain pertinent production information from Texas' 418,000 producers of Food For Freedom.

According to current trends, production pledges will be completed in less than a month's time.

After individual plan sheets are made and sent to the state AAA office for tabulation, they will indicate whether all goals have been pledged or exceeded.

Under this year's war production program, Texas farmers and ranchers are being asked to produce more pork, beef, eggs, milk, poultry, soybeans, peanuts and grain sorghums than they produced during 1942.

DEDICATION SERVICE TO BE OBSERVED

Every Methodist Church In America To Take Part In Worship Service

A dedication service will be held at the Methodist church Sunday in observance of the National Week of Dedication. Every Methodist church in America will be open for worship on March 7.

This is something unique in the history of Methodism as more than 43,000 Methodist congregations will be assembled simultaneously, said O. B. Herring, local Methodist pastor.

In churches on circuits where the pastor cannot be present, a layman will be in charge of the services. On that day there should be such an outpouring of Methodists as this country has never before witnessed, the pastor asserted as he discussed the nation wide observance further.

In keeping with the spirit of the Week of Dedication, Methodist people will be given an opportunity to make a free-will, sacrificial offering. The offering will be used to help the church in ministry to our boys at home and abroad and in existing chaplains and providing religious literature in its ministry to millions without food or shelter in its program of overseas relief; in its ministry in new defense and industrial areas; in the ministry of its missionaries, who face new and enlarged responsibilities in Latin America, and in the evacuation and relocation of missionaries from occupied countries.

Cameron Justice Hurt In Auto Accident Tuesday

An accident which involved Cameron Justice, prominent Garza county rancher, occurred Tuesday morning about 10:00 o'clock at Justiceburg. Justice and his son-in-law, Buster McNabb, were leaving Mrs. Pirtle's store, it was understood, when the accident occurred. The Justice car and an oil truck collided, leaving Justice with a slight concussion and other injuries and McNabb with cuts and bruises. It was not learned how the driver of the oil truck was injured. The two Garza counts were brought into Post to the office of Drs. Surman and Williams where medical attention was given immediately. Justice was later taken to the West Texas hospital in Lubbock by a Mason and Company ambulance. At this time he is resting as well as could be expected.

Homer McCrary returned Friday from Fort Worth and Dallas where he attended a Frigidaire Service school in the former city the first of the week. He spent a part of the time in Dallas where he bought merchandise for the Greenfield Hardware store.

Funeral Rites For F. P. "Doc" Knox Held Friday

Funeral services for Franklin Pierce Knox, 86, better known as "Uncle Doc" were held at the home of a daughter, Mrs. George Duckworth, of Justiceburg last Friday afternoon. "Uncle Doc" died on February 23, 1943 at 12:25 a. m. after a short illness. Rev. C. F. Sanders officiated at the service for the fine old pioneer who had lived here long before the town of Post was organized.

He was born on November 24, 1856, in Mississippi but lived most of his boyhood in the state of Georgia with his grandfather as he lost his mother when he was a small child. He immigrated to Texas in 1874 in a covered wagon and it took six weeks to make the trip. "The hardships then were anything but easy and we had to buy water on the road. I made the trip on $5.00," he told associates in discussing his early day adventures many times. He settled in Johnson county and helped build the T-P railroad. He came to Colorado City with Billy Kemp in the spring of 1881 where he went to work with Bill Holloway. After working there for three years he worked for A. J. Long on the O S ranch where he was working when he married Miss Florence Walkin on March 16, 1887, in a log cabin on the Yellowhouse river in Kent County.

He built his herd while working on the old Scroggins and Brown place, known then as the Pipp pasture. He settled on the Llano ranch long before there was a town of Post and has included in his interesting tales of the West many a story with the Llano ranch as the locale. Those were the days of general roundup and cattle were caught and branded in the open as there were no fences. The first fence the Llano ranch put up was cut down for nine miles. No one knew who cut the fence, he related in one of his stories. Ranches in those days were 25 or 30 miles apart and visiting among the ranchmen was something to look forward to. The last raid of the Indians in these parts was made in 1891 on the Llano ranch and the account of the affair was always one of Uncle Doc's most colorful stories.

He settled on a place near Justiceburg in 1900 and raised his family there. He has always been identified with the progress of the county and until recent years was still active in ranch activities.

Survivors are Mrs. George Duckworth of Justiceburg, Mrs. H. S. Hemmerson of Amarillo, Pauline Knox of Justiceburg, Pete Knox of Galveston, Texas, five grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Pall bearers were: Cecil Smith, Cameron Justice, Joe Callis, Walter Duckworth, Giles Connell, and Tom Bouchier.

Honorary pall bearers were: O. B. Kelly, John Boren, Walter Roy, Lee Byrd, Jeff Justice, Morris Neff, Harrison Brown, Wilson Connell, Ed Scott, Jim Power, Dee Boren all of this county and Pete Brady, W. B. Stanfield, Joe Strayhorn, and Will Williams of Snyder.

Flower attendants were: Mmes. L. P. Kennedy, Cameron Justice, Wilson Connell and Morris Neff.

Interment was made in Snyder cemetery in the family lot.

Burial was in charge of Mason and Company. Interment was made in Terrace cemetery.

1943 WAR FUND DRIVE OPENS HERE MONDAY

Volunteer Workers Hope To Complete War Fund Drive By March 15

Enthusiastic volunteer workers for Post and Garza county began work toward raising the 1943 Red Cross quota for this county Monday morning. Plans for the drive were made last week when the executive board of the Red Cross and volunteer workers met for the purpose of completing final plans for the drive. "It was the most successful meeting of its kind we have had here in many years," Dean A. Robinson, roll call chairman declared. Pep talks were made by representatives from various communities and from club organizations and each one decided to try and complete the drive by March 15.

An all-time high in relief activities was reached by the organization during the last year, T. L. Jones, county chairman asserted. Relief by and through the Red Cross valued at more than $63,000,000 has been distributed to millions of men, women and children. Of this sum, supplies valued at more than $31,000,000 were from Government appropriations. Red Cross foreign war relief has closely followed the path of global war through Poland, France, Belgium, Holland, Luxembourg, Norway, Yugoslavia, Greece, Russia, China and Britain in addition to supplies and help rendered on the home front.

It is the aim of the Red Cross to give each and every American an opportunity to contribute to the cause of mercy and humanity during this nation-wide drive. The quota for Garza county has been set for $2,700.00. It was the opinion of those who attended the meeting Thursday night that the quota was not too high for this county.

Greenfield Hardware store has been designated as Red Cross headquarters. Displayed in one window are hundreds of pictures of service men from this county who will be helped in some way by the organization before the war ends. To stimulate interest in the drive and to emphasize the purpose of the Red Cross, a Red Cross window will be featured opposite the one carrying pictures of the service men. Homer McCrary has charge of the decorations. Other stores in Post are also displaying window cards to emphasize the drive. Miss Bonnie McFisher and a group from the grade school will decorate windows in the sewing room, it is understood. Junior Red Cross members will probably have a part in this project and garments made by Red Cross volunteer workers will probably be displayed. These garments were made for relief among civilian refugees of a war-torn world, for disaster victims in our own country and for the armed forces.

WAACS Hope To Reach Quotas During This Month

Mrs. Edwards informs the public that West Texas can place 584 additional fighting men on the battlefield for this quarter. To date the district is far behind its quota.

Those who are interested in the corps have been investigating all phases of the organization. Lieut. E. S. Smith of the Lubbock office spoke before the Junior Club last week and conducted an interesting question box following her talk.

Women engaged in agricultural occupations will not be solicited. They will be accepted for enrollment in the WAACS, it was announced early this morning.

Jimmie's letters are delineated from "somewhere in Africa," "somewhere in South America," "The Bahamas," and other places seen frequently in the daily news. His letters are full of generalities as news of what, why, where are not told these days. "The weather two weeks ago was plenty hot and we were sleeping under mosquito nets; food is plentiful and good and the morale is high," he continued, and the Cass Blanca conference disrupted our schedule." Victory Garden Hints Given By County Agent

By Wallace Kimbrough, County Agent of Texas A. & M. College Extension Service

Within the near future, point rationing will be here. Everyone should make plans now to have a garden. Vegetables will be rationed. Producing all the fresh vegetables you can in a garden this spring and summer will help you and others a great deal.

Under the AAA a home garden will earn $1.50 providing it is at least one-half an acre in size, and has as many as ten different kinds of vegetables not including potatoes and watermelons.

Some vegetables which are frost hardy are: English peas; unless there is some means of irrigation, don't plant English peas. Varieties best adapted here are Little Marvel, Thomas, Laxton or Bliss Everbearing. Cabbage—select plants from store, Wakefield or Copenhagen Market Variety. Beets—thinning to about three inches apart when about two to three inches high. Fill in skips with thinned plants. Use Detroit Dark Red or Crosby's Egyptian Varieties. Carrots—use Chantenay or Denver's Had Long Variety. If the first planting is not a good stand, replant only the skips lettuce—to make head lettuce, use New York or Los Angeles heading varieties. Thin plants to six inches apart when about two inches high. Plant Black Seeded Simpson leaf lettuce in April for summer use. Mustard—plant several times, not too much at one time; it is tenderest and best three to four weeks after planting. Use Tendergreen or Southern Curled Variety. Spinach—Bloomsdale Savoy is a good variety. Onions—set plants four inches apart. Bermuda and Grano are sweet varieties. Sweet Spanish is a good keeper, but hotter than Bermuda.

Plant when danger of frost is over. Irish Potatoes—Don't plant until danger of heavy frost is over. Bliss triumph is the best for early potatoes. Katahdin is the best baking potato and the best for early "new" potatoes. Cut potatoes into seed pieces half as large as a hen egg. Plant fourteen inches apart in three to four feet rows. Green Beans—plant twice. First planting when all danger of frost is over and second planting three or four weeks later. Stringless Green Pod and Refugee are good varieties. Lima Beans—should not be planted until the soil is thoroughly warm. Florida Speckled (pole) is a good variety to plant near a fence to climb on. Plants should be four inches apart in the row. Henderson's Bush Lima is a good bush variety to use Okra—plant after soil gets warm. Thin plants to two inches apart in row. White Velvet is a good variety. Tomatoes, Peppers, Eggplants—Set two to three feet apart. Good tomato varieties are Marglobe and June Pink. Sweet Corn—Ibana, a yellow deep grained variety is outstanding in quality and hardiness. Honey June, a white variety is also good. Use one-fourth pound of seed for 100 feet or row. Thin plants to 16 inches apart in row. Squash—Yellow crookneck is preferable to the white variety. Plant seed two feet apart.

Size Of Armed Forces

President Roosevelt said the goal of 7,500,000 men in the U. S. Army by the end of 1943 was decided on last August, has never been changed, and will not be changed. The goal for 1944, he said, will probably be decided this fall. This year's Army goal also calls for 700,000 officers, which would make a total of 8,200,000 men in the Army. Adding the goals set for the other armed services, the grand total of all our armed forces by the end of 1943 would be almost 11,000,000.

Changes In Tire Quotas

The quota of Grade 1 passenger car tires for March has been practically doubled. The increase will take care of accumulated applications, but will not be continued in succeeding months. The quota of truck tires for March was reduced as compared with February but the truck tire recapping quota was increased.

Santa Fe Reports

on its first year of war operation

During 1942, Santa Fe moved 79 percent more passenger-miles... and 122 percent more freight ton-miles... than in 1918, during World War I.

And all this was done with 26 percent fewer locomotives than we had in 1918.

These figures indicate the greatest volume of business we have ever handled.

They also indicate why you may have experienced some difficulties and inconveniences in traveling or shipping by train during the past year.

Crowded Trains Our passenger traffic volume was up 102 per cent last year as compared with 1941. Gasoline rationing, in our territory, will increase that volume even more this year.

The Santa Fe must handle this additional load with its present passenger cars, as no more cars will be built during the war.

Late Trains In these days of unprecedented passenger volume it is not always possible to maintain schedules with on-time regularity... and since military trains have the right-of-way over everything else, they often cause our regular passenger trains to be delayed.

At many stations along the line, mail and express are heavier than in normal times—and take longer to load. This is another reason why trains are delayed.

Car Shortage Special troop trains are becoming almost routine on the Santa Fe. In just one case, we moved an entire division from one camp—and it took 55 complete trains to handle the men and equipment.

We must also keep our passenger cars in constant service to handle the increased traffic all over the line. For this reason, we cannot always concentrate extra cars at any one point.

Freight Cars Due to the submarine menace and the diversion of freighters to other services, almost all of the intercoastal freight tonnage formerly handled by ships through the Panama Canal was hauled by the railroads in 1942.

This brought about an unusually heavy demand for Santa Fe freight cars... increased considerably the average length of haul... and occasionally caused delays in delivering empty cars at some loading points. It also indicates Santa Fe has many busy months ahead.

Keep 'Em Rollin'! Please remember there's only one thing we want to do more than keep trains on time and supply cars as promised—and that's keep troops and war freight on their wartime schedule. And we know that's the way you want it!

RED CROSS HITS ECONOMY
NOTE WITH NEW BADGE SAYS LEE BOWEN, CITY CHAIRMAN
In distributing material to workers for the Red Cross drive, Lee Bowen, city chairman, explained that the Red Cross is practicing economy this year in much of the roll call and war fund material. Heretofore, every contributor has been given a metal pin telling the world the wearer has gone to the assistance of distressed and needy peoples everywhere. But with metals one of the vital necessities of the war, the badge of honor has been changed. Now it is a lapel tab composed of pasteboard, with a Red Cross on the white background.

HORSE LAUGH OUT OF ORDER

Euphonious titles for tax measures will not make it easier for the taxpayer to pay the tax bills he owes. The only permanent relief he can ever expect will come from the elimination of political waste in government and from drastic pruning of the bureaucratic fungus that threatens to smother earnings and savings.

In the meantime, the taxpayer can be helped by a new tax bill that will allow the easiest possible installment tax payments from current income for current taxes. Treasury officials should not give the horse laugh to ideas to aid the taxpayer. The bureaucrats don't pay the taxes. They should hump themselves to keep the taxpayer alive.

Political planning of the lives of all the people in a nation can be carried too far, just as can parental planning of the lives of children—we face that danger in our country. The planners and spenders are beginning to outnumber the workers and the savers.

The little boy who saves old magazines probably will grow up to be a dentist.

Texas' first state park was the Mother Neff Park, 8 miles southwest of McGregor.

LESSONS BEING LEARNED

History shows that military defeat is usually preceded by a collapse on the home front. Such a collapse inevitably follows a breakdown in the supply of civilian necessities.

Nothing is more essential to the successful conclusion of a war than an efficient distribution system to meet civilian needs. This country has such a system. Hundreds or thousands of retail merchants scattered throughout every county in the United States, are working day and night to have, food, clothes, and all commodities, always available for the civilian population. Through their various trade organizations, they are cooperating with the government in all phases of the price stabilization and rationing problems. They are spending millions of advertising dollars explaining to consumers the need for regulatory measures and how to comply with them. Where gaps in the rules exist, the merchants often ask voluntary cooperation of customers to prevent hardship. Who has not seen the makeshift placards requesting consumers to limit their purchases of certain items? Government rulings cannot possibly cover every emergency, any more than they can materially soften the grim realities for the merchant. Consumers seldom see evidence of these realities. They don't stop to think that back of the cheerful exterior of the modern store are sleepless nights for managements that must cope with nightmares of complicated rules, restrictions, price squeezes, labor shortages, staggering taxes and other problems without precedent.

All Over The World

Views of Neighboring Editors

Lynn County News— There were no draft laws nor selective service provisions in operation in Washington's day. His army was made up of soldiers who had volunteered their services, and they could quit and go home at will. As President Roosevelt reminded us, Washington never knew one week whether his army was going to be with him the next week or not. Imagine our trying to conquer the Germans or the Japs on any such basis.

Liberty Vindicator— A coat has been designed with four inside pockets, encased in isinglass to hold the social security, draft, gas, ration and other cards which now have to be toted around. There are so many cards that it might be easier to make them into a coat and put in a couple of pockets for the pants.

National Whirligig— "What will people be wearing one hundred years from now?" asks an editor who takes his worries much further into the future than we do. We are worrying about what they may be wearing, if anything, two years from now.

Exchange— Someone suggested "Marinettes" for the marine corps girls auxiliary. It didn't take. Even a she-devil dog won't be a puppet.

Texas Spur— It is said there are the merchant.

Consumers seldom see evidence of these realities. They don't stop to think that back of the cheerful exterior of the modern store are sleepless nights for managements that must cope with nightmares of complicated rules, restrictions, price squeezes, labor shortages, staggering taxes and other problems without precedent.

too many "stuffed shirts" around that are not so big inside as they appear to be. Sometimes a fellow has to stuff out his shirt a little to make the world pay any attention to him.

Colorado Record— The most rational rationing pep talk came as a parting quip of Walter Winchell's. This was his challenging climax: "We who now are allowed three pairs of shoes a year by our governments are citizens of a country won by men who fought barefoot in the snow."

That should be enough for us.

INDIVIDUALISM—SYMBOL OF VICTORY

By an ironic twist of circumstances, modern war proves beyond argument that individual initiative is the key to victory and progress.

Captain Eddie Rickenbacker says: "Once you put a boy in a foxhole, he is on his own. Once you drop a parachute trooper behind the enemy's lines, he is on his own. The youth in the cockpit of a fighter, in a tank, on a commando raid, is always on his own. The 'rugged individualist', as a political symbol, may have few friends, but God help us if we can't recreate him on the battlefield and the factory floor." The nation that does not have rugged individualism on its side will lose the war.

This stark truth must come as a shock to the political sharpshooters who have been busy right here in our own country kicking the props from under a system that was founded on the supremacy of the individual. Captain Rickenbacker is a product of that system. He fought as a soldier, willing to give his life that the system might live. He helped pioneer the automobile and aviation industries. He has time and again taken chances, as a soldier and as a businessman, because he could envisage a bright future, not just for himself, but for his family and all other families of America.

The future he has pictured through the years has not taken its lustre merely from the prospect of comfort and security. Eddie Rickenbacker is a typical rugged individualist. For him there is no future unless his right to take risks, to think up new ideas, to do things on his own hook and reap a fair reward, is safeguarded and encouraged.

The United States was built by men like Rickenbacker. They came across the plains in ox-drawn wagons, fought Indians, dug in the earth for gold, developed farms. They discovered, invented and produced their way to the highest standard of living in the world. At the present moment, they are the men and women who won, operate and work the coal and metal mines, oil wells, power plants, railroads and factories that are turning out the weapons for other "rugged individualists" on the battlefield, who will win this war.

Above all else, this war is being fought to keep the future bright for the descendants of these millions who believe in themselves as individuals. Those who think and act otherwise are running contrary to the character and tradition of this country.

Hackberry Women Roll Bandages For Red Cross This Week

The Hackberry women are certainly living up to their community's reputation of really doing things. When they learned that too few of them could go to the Tahoka workroom twice a month, to accomplish much, they made plans to convert their Home Demonstration Club House into a Red Cross room. In an all-day meeting last Wednesday, they cleaned the walls, ceiling and floor, piped water back in the room, made one large table and repaired two more large ones and four small ones.

The following day, 28 women were back for an all-day rolling of bandages. Almost one-third of the new assignment of 1800 bandages were ready for shipment, when the women went home that afternoon.

Mrs. Heywood Basinger is Red Cross chairman, Mrs. John Fleming and Mrs. H. D. Hallman tie the bandages. The present inspectors are Mmes. J. B. Jones, Herman Dabbs, Claude Cooper, Clyde Haire.

The Hackberry room will be open for work each Monday afternoon, and all day each Thursday. They extend an invitation to women of near-by communities to come and help them in their Red Cross unit. We hear that a car of women from the Southland Lutheran church are planning to work there Thursday.

Junior Club Hears Interesting Talk By Lt. Rose Smothers

Rose Smothers of the Lubbock Recruiting office was a guest of the Junior Culture club last Wednesday night. The club met at the home of Mrs. Jack Martin.

Following the lieutenants talk a round table of questions was held and the young women of the club who were interested in joining the corps were given a keen insight into the schedule and working details of the organization. The speaker was introduced by Miss Mary Ruth Haggard, president of the club.

In the business meeting, four new members were voted into the club and the name of Mrs. Glenn Kahler was moved from the associate membership roll to that of active members. New members appointed were Misses Fannie Faye Porter, Billie and June Bowen and Mrs. Ren Cross. Plans were completed for the play that will be given at an early date.

HOW TO MAKE YOUR MEAT GO FURTHER

Meat Cut	First Meal	Second Meal	Third Meal
 Beef Brisket	 Beef Brisket with Beans	 Boiled Toastwiches	 Stuffed Green Peppers
 Blade End of Pork Loon	 Roast Pork with Dressing	 Barbecued Pork Slices	 Pork Shortcake
 Lamb Shoulder	 Cushion Shoulder with Corn Stuffing	 Pasties	 Scotch Pancakes

Nutrition authorities say that Mrs. American Housewife's job of feeding her family is one of the most important in the war effort. For nourishing food is going a long way toward building strength and morale on the home front.

At the same time, women are being called upon to conserve food as a wartime necessity. This means they must use every ingenuity to eliminate waste and get the most out of the food they buy.

How to make their meat go further seems to be a subject of especial interest, since building meals around this food is an American tradition. So home economics experts have come to the rescue with all sorts of ideas and recipes designed to extend the meat purchase as far as possible.

BEEF BRISKET

First meal. Brisket cooked with beans is a delicious dish for the first serving. The beans are soaked over night and brown sugar, onion and seasonings added, then placed in a covered kettle with brisket on top. Brisket and beans should be covered with water and cooked in a moderate oven for about three hours.

Second meal. Boiled toastwiches suggested for the second meal, are prepared by slicing left-over brisket and making into sandwiches. The sandwiches are dipped in beaten egg and milk and broiled until brown.

Third meal. The left-over meat from the brisket may be ground and combined with boiled rice and seasonings to make a stuffing for green peppers. These are baked in a hot oven until done—about 45 minutes.

BLADE END OF PORK LOIN

First meal. Blade end of the pork loin is excellent for a roast. The end cut is lower in price than the center cut. Roasting is easy when a few simple rules are followed. The roast should not be covered and no water added. A low temperature saves both meat and fuel. A broad dressing, shaped in balls and placed around the roast half an hour before it is done, will extend the servings. This roast requires 30 minutes per pound.

Second meal. The cold slices of roast pork are delicious heated in barbecue sauce.

Third meal. The trimmings from the roast make a surprise supper dish when combined with cream sauce and served between layers and over the top of biscuits as Pork Short Cake.

LAMB SHOULDER

First meal. A stuffed lamb shoulder is a thrifty roast. The bones may be used to season vegetables or to make soup stock. A tasty stuffing is made for it by combining whole kernel corn, cracker crumbs, seasonings and minced green pepper. The roast is placed on a rack in an open pan and about 40 minutes per pound allowed in a slow oven.

Second meal. For the next night's main dish, combine cubes of cold roast with left-over vegetables and enough gravy to hold together. Place mounds of the mixture on squares of pastry and fold over to make a triangle. Pinch the edges together. Brown in a hot oven. These are called Pasties.

Third meal. The remaining lamb "bits" may be ground and mixed with cooked oatmeal, an egg and seasonings to make Scotch Pancakes for supper or for breakfast.

LUCKY ME!
 I'M AN AMERICAN

Buying War Bonds today for an electric kitchen tomorrow!

Can't often that I can spend my money twice...but War Bonds let me do exactly that!

They're wonderful, anyway. Every time I buy one, I feel inside I do when a band plays the Star Spangled Banner! I sort of feel I'm doing something for my country and the boys in the service.

When I get down to earth again, I realize that I'm doing it for MYSELF as well. I'm really saving money when I buy War Bonds. I get to dreaming about what I'll do when the war is over, and about the things I want to buy. Things like the electric equipment for that electric kitchen I have my heart set on. I can't get for the duration.

That's why, when I buy War Bonds 'til it hurts, it doesn't really hurt!

"Arabian Nights" At Garza Theatre Sunday - Monday

Tapped more often than any other work of literature, "The Arabian Nights" has once again been made the basis of a motion picture, this time by Producer Walter Wanger.

From the earliest era in screen annals down to the present the movie makers have been drawing upon this apparently inexhaustible storehouse of entertainment. Until now, the pictures made from one or more of the magical thousand-and-one tales have appeared strictly as fantasies or comedies, with obvious disregard for authenticity, and under various and thinly-disguised titles.

The Wanger version, showing Saturday night 11:30, Sunday and Monday at the Garza theatre, is an elaborate Technicolor production co-starring Jon Hall, Maria Montez and Sabu. It is first to use the original title, "Arabian Nights," and first to go all out for realism in background and characterization.

Probably the outstanding of "Arabian Nights" films of the silent era was Douglas Fairbanks' "Thief of Bagdad," released in 1924. This was re-made in 1940, with Sabu in the starring role.

Another notable comedy in this category was Howard Hughes' initial production in 1927, "Two Arabian Knights," featuring William Boyd, Mary Astor and the late Louis Wolheim.

Wanger's present production is based on an original screen play by Michael Hogan, who describes his story as "a fast-action and imaginative composite of tales from 'Arabian Nights.'" It calls for authentic backgrounds, and use of several choice and immortal characters from the book.

Donations Being Accepted By Mexicans For Building

Friends of the Mexican church are advised that money being collected now will be used strictly for the building fund and will be deposited in the First National bank. The fund now amounts to $210.00. Donations will be accepted by any friends who want to help the Mexican Baptists in acquiring enough money for them to build a new church building.

Conservation Of Dairy Cattle Is New Program

To help halt the slaughter of good milk cows and potential dairy producing animals, the Farm Security Administration announces the inauguration of a new program in Texas, designed to maintain essential dairy production levels in the state.

Details of the plan, called the Dairy Animal Conservation Program, were received here by Wyman J. Welch, county supervisor for the FSA, from Jesse B. Gilmer, regional director at Amarillo, Texas.

The plan provides that Mr. Welch, has authority to purchase milk cows, heifers and heifer calves from farmers who contemplate liquidating their herds or surplus parts of their herds. These animals will be resold to farmers who have the facilities to keep them in essential production.

"This new war-time function," said Mr. Welch, "provides for the government purchase of dairy animals from farmers, who because of inadequate supplies of feed, labor or other facilities, have been sending their animals to slaughter. The government is not competing with commercial buyers but is trying to keep dairy animals on local farms by reselling them to farmers in the vicinity who do have the facilities to care for them."

The supervisor explained that in the event local dairymen or farmers cannot take on additional animals, they will be sold to individuals in other parts of the state. He said only healthy animals or potential producing animals will be saved from slaughter.

Dairymen or farmers in this area who may be compelled to market surplus animals or those individuals who wish to purchase surplus animals are asked to contact the FSA supervisor at his office in the court house at Post. Office days are Tuesdays and Fridays.

Friends can deposit their donations in the bank or give it to Rev. S. Lara, evangelist, who moved here recently, to B. Sepeda, Raymond Martinez, Felix Rameriz, or the pastor, F. G. Olvera. All the above mentioned persons have been authorized to accept donations. Evangelist Lara stated

She recently returned to hospital for a check-up and x-rays and doctors declare that she would be able to walk and would be able to return to her job here in the First National bank very soon. Shoe Frills Are Reduced Because they will be allowed a base allotment of only 3 pairs of shoes a year under the new rationing, American women are expected to turn to more serviceable shoes during the coming year than in the past. In line with the move to conserve leather supplies, other materials and manpower, the WPB has issued an order eliminating non-essential frills on women's shoes. Heel heights are limited to 2 5-8 inches, and colors are restricted to black, white, army russet and town brown. The ladies will no longer have formal evening slippers manufactured for them. Also eliminated are both men's and women's spiked golf shoes.

Play shoes and some other types of shoes not ordinarily worn on the street have been temporarily exempted from rationing by OPA, and infant's shoes have been redefined too put in the nonrationed classification all baby shoes up to sizes 4.

Sizes above 4 will now be subject to rationing regardless of the type of sole—hard or soft. The new order excludes from rationing current stocks of ski shoes, rubber-

Help Attendants Follow Rationing Rules On Gasoline

The gasoline attendant is not forsaking courtesy when he asks to see a motorist's ration book and checks the windshield sticker and license plate, Lubbock District officials of the Office of Price Administration reminded.

The attendant merely is fulfilling provisions of rationing regulations to safeguard mileage rationing from misuse, they said.

We are required to ask for mileage ration books before delivering gasoline and to be sure the correct ration sticker is properly displayed on the vehicle, said one of the filling station owners in Post today. We are not allowed to deliver gasoline if ration book expiration date has passed and we have to be sure the vehicle is the same as described on the ration book cover. These and other regulations such as detach coupons from book and accept no loose coupons are a part of the rationing system now in effect. Most of our customers realize that we are just following the rules, he continued.

Posters captioned "Official Notice to Gasoline Consumers" that inform the motoring public the station attendant is required to fulfill those requirements are being distributed to gasoline retailers through oil company channels, according to information received from Washington.

"Failure by you or the attendant to observe these rules will constitute a violation of the mileage rationing regulations," the posters state.

Alma Outlaw, Johnnie Ruth Cato, Allene Gerner, Pete Gerner and Erwart Edwards visited Miss Kitty Faires Sunday in Lamesa.

soled shoes with fabric uppers, locker sandals, bathing slippers and other play shoes with uppers made of fabric or types of leather not on the critical list. The exemption is limited to stocks of shoes now in the hands of retailers, wholesalers or manufacturers which are manufactured before April 16. Any shoes manufactured after that date will be on the ration list.

V-Mail Safest

More than fifty thousand individual V-mail letters from American soldiers in England to relatives and friends in the U. S. were destroyed when a Canada bound RAF plane crashed in Newfoundland. The original letters were reproduced at the Army Postal Service's V-Mail station in England and dispatched by a later plane for the U. S. This incident shows the value of V-Mail over ordinary letters.

One of the best but hardest things to remember is to forget your troubles.
