Open House Is To Be Sunday At New Clinic

The finishing touches were being applied Wednesday to Post's modern new medical clinic, at which open house is to be held from 3 until 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Office equipment of Dr. John R. Rountree has been moved from its temporary location to the new clinic, which is across the street southwest of the Garza County Memorial Hospital.

The new clinic, which is of a modernistic type of architecture, was constructed at an estimated cost of $20,000. Elbert Davies of Post is the building contractor.

The main entrance on the west side opens into a spacious reception room, and to the rear of the one-story structure, offices, examination rooms and a laboratory are on either side of the hallway.

The reception room has been furnished with wrought-iron chairs and lamps, and clinic equipment is of the latest type. Features of the reception room are a built-in flower box and a large glass window on the north side.

4-H Club Members Feeding 15 Calves

Fifteen Garza County 4-H Club members have recently placed calves on feed for next year's show-and-sale, County Agent Lewis Herron said Tuesday.

All except two of the calves will be exhibited and offered for sale at the State Fair at Texas in Dallas next October. One being fed by Ned and Fred Myers of Southland will be exhibited in the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth.

The calves will also be exhibited in the club members' annual spring show here.

The members feeding calves, breed of animal and place where it was acquired are as follows: Don Richardson, Angus, Dillard Ranch; Larry Welch, Angus, Charlie Bird; Dean Huddleston, Angus, Glenn Eubanks; Ned and

SANTA CLAUS ASKS CHILDREN TO MAIL LETTERS EARLY; MAY BE A BIG RUSH

NORTH POLE (Spl.)—Santa Claus, always busy as a beaver at this time of year, today asked Garza County children to hurry and get their letters in the mail to him.

He asks that the letters be addressed to him in care of The Post Dispatch, Box 66, Post, Tex. They will be printed in the Christmas edition of the paper.

Santa says that it will be all right for the children to deliver their letters in person at The Dispatch office. "Just so you get them in early," he reminds.

Twelve shopping days until Christmas!

With no more than the usual fanfare, we put up our twentieth Christmas tree Saturday. This time, for the first time in years and years, the tree is a table model. The reason, perhaps, that we've gone back to the small tree is because the youngest of the three offspring has reached that age where Santa Claus is something to be taken with tongue in cheek.

When we told the wife that we thought we'd do this column on our Christmas trees, she suggested that we mention that along with the first tree, which we tromped into the woods to get, we acquired a sackful of hickory nuts and walnuts. That was in a section of Oklahoma where store-bought trees were unheard of. All you needed to get a full-fledged tree was something to hew it down with and enough energy for a short hike.

The first two of those 20 Christmas trees we enjoyed alone, but the third one was put up before the wide-eyed gaze of an almost-year-old daughter, and ever since we've had plenty of help, not only in putting them up, but also in taking them down.

Some of those 20 trees have been tall, some have been short. In the course of 20 years, all types of lights and decorations have been used—some years a star at the top, other years an angel or a ball. Each of them has been the scene of happy times on Christmas mornings, regardless of what had gone on the year before, the week before or the day before.

Some Christmases the trees haven't been as heavily laden nor their base as thickly surrounded as we would have liked, but they've always held a special meaning—one that only Christmas can convey. The dawning of each new year has seen a tree still standing, as if bearing promise that before the end of the year another tree would be in its place.

Nothing adds to the holiday spirit like a Christmas tree.

To get to the more prosaic side, Fire Chief Homer McCrory reminds that Christmas trees also add to holiday fire hazards. This warning is given by the fire chief along with wishes for "a most safe" Merry Christmas.

"Christmas trees and their decorations are potential fire hazards when brought into your home," Chief McCrory said. "At the end of one week they will be highly inflammable."

"We urge all Post residents who have Christmas trees in their homes to be extremely careful," the chief said, suggesting these precautions: "Check your wiring on the tree and be sure it is in a safe condition. Use only non-combustible materials for decorations. Dispose of the tree before it dries out."

Members of John Miller Post 6797, Veterans of Foreign Wars, would like to have the names of all needy families in order to make their benefit Christmas show on Dec. 21 as beneficial as possible. Admission to the movie, which is to be at the Tower Theatre, will be by non-perishable food items.

The movie is to be held at 9 o'clock in the morning, and those who will be unable to attend the show, but who would like to contribute food, may leave it in the theatre lobby. "There'll be someone there to take it," said Johnny Hopkins, theatre manager.

Roger W. Babson Writes This Week:

Great Discoveries Might Follow Teaming Up Of Practical Social Scientists, Businessmen

BAIBSON PARK, Mass.—I have an idea that has been chasing me around lately and I want to share it with you. I am beginning to wonder what effect our national mental health may have on the business cycle and continued prosperity.

Your Emotions And Mine

Human nature tells us that our emotions influence our behavior in more situations than we would like to admit. Psychologists point out, for example, that after the successful salesman has tried all his appeals to our logic, and failed, he burrows away at our emotions. More often than not we succumb to the emotional appeal. Certainly, if we have ever had the opportunity to attend a town meeting we know that the emotional appeal of some individual will override all the logic. Every national political election has been won by emotional upheaval rather than by common sense. Probably it was Eisenhower's appeal to mothers, sisters, wives, and sweethearts, relative to Korea, which won his election.

If, then, it is true that emotion plays such an important part in our individual lives, and on our political scene, is it not just as possible that how we feel about business conditions may actually affect the conditions themselves? We surely know that confidence is a very important factor in banking, manufacturing, and buying.

Fertile Area For Study

Businessmen are impatient with sociologists, anthropologists, and psychologists because their experiments take so long to complete, and are so costly. If, however, some practical-minded social scientists would team up with a group of open-minded businessmen to study the effect of our national mental health upon the business cycle and prosperity, I forecast great discoveries would follow.

The longer I have worked on the problem of forecasting the more I have wondered if there is not some unknown spiritual and men-

THE STUDENT LOAN FUND

Through the Community Student Loan Fund, Post residents have an opportunity of contributing to a worthwhile program, designed for the purpose of "aiding and encouraging youth to higher learning and a better way of life."

Currently, the Fund is having a difficult time remaining solvent and contributions are needed if it is to be continued. Individuals and organizations wishing to contribute to the Fund, either through cash donations or pledges, are asked to contact the secretary, Mrs. B. E. Young, at the Southwestern Public Service Company office.

Two young men who have graduated from Post High School since the Fund was set up are now attending college under its endowment and both are making good scholastic records, it is reported. To be eligible for assistance through the Fund, a student must be a graduate of the local high school, of high moral character and good scholastic rating and have a sincere desire for higher learning.

Provisions of the Fund are that the loan be repaid after the student graduates from college. They also require that the student have a part-time job for three of the four years that he is in college. All in all, provisions of the Fund itself are such as to help equip deserving young men and women for positions in the world as business or professional leaders.

Officials of the Fund organization explain that pledges from donors will be taken on a four-year basis, since that is the period of time over which the program operates for each student. Prospective donors may obtain additional information by contacting the secretary or other Fund officials.

FARMING IS A BUSINESS

Modern farming is a business, and the farmer must deal with most of the financial problems that are an inescapable part of the operation of any business enterprise.

One of these is depreciation of machinery. Today good mechanical equipment is an absolute "must" if the farmer is to get maximum production at the lowest cost, and is to conserve and enrich his land, not only for his future use, but for the use of coming generations. That equipment is ruggedly built and has a long life. Even so, it wears out eventually. And before it wears out, it may be made obsolete by the appearance of new and substantially improved models.

The U. S. Savings Bonds Division of the Treasury Department has proposed a novel idea. It is called the Farm Machinery Replacement Plan. Under it, the farmer invests an amount equal to his annual machinery depreciation costs in the bonds, and thus methodically builds up a fund to take care of replacement.

The principle back of that idea is a sound one, whether the farmer buys these bonds or decides upon some other method of saving to handle his depreciation needs. A piece of farm equipment represents a substantial outlay—and for farmers as well as for all the rest of us it is a lot easier to prepare for a major purchase over a period of time than to have to dig the money up all at once. Most businesses set aside money for depreciation as a matter of routine. The farmer can profitably do the same thing.

We live and learn. A Post woman tells us that she received a mail order catalog the other day marked "Missent to Post, Ore." "I didn't know there WAS a Post in Oregon," said the woman. Neither did we, lady, but as we say, "Live and learn."

Getting Out On The Limb

SUDDEN THOUGHT: Letting grass grow under your feet just means mower trouble.

"Let's leave out the clothes closet," said the practical man to his architect. "My wife keeps insisting she has nothing to wear."

Then there's the tale going around that the bull may be a dumb animal, but he certainly understood the red flag before most of us did.

SINCE I'M NOT much on culinary nomenclature, I won't attempt to name the cake Mrs. M. J. Malouf was so gracious to present to The Dispatch force Thursday afternoon, but I do know it was a swell cake. As good as the eating, was the knowledge that Mrs. Malouf presented us this cake in appreciation of the publicity we gave the Presbyterian women's Christmas Bazaar held Saturday.

Mrs. Malouf is known for her excellent cakes, but any cake would have tasted good under similar circumstances. So many organizations take gratis publicity so much for granted that members rarely take the trouble even to thank the newspaper, let alone bake it a cake.

My intentions are not to hint for a cake everytime The Dispatch publicizes something, but I do want my readers to know that deeds like Mrs. Malouf's more than offset the ungratefulness of a few others.

A statesman is made out of the right kind of timber when he can lead the people out of the woods.

One out of every six adults in the United States gets money from the Government, and the remaining five get whatever consolation there is in the thought that it is better to give than to receive.

WANT AD: "For sale, black formal, size 12, worn once. Will sell or trade for baby bed."

THERE'LL PROBABLY be a lot of political bombshells dropped between now and next year's elections, but the earliest one was tossed Thursday by Attorney General John Ben Shepperd when he announced that he would not be a candidate for governor because he is too busy fighting Communism in Texas.

Incidentally, Texas' 1954 political calendar is dotted with at least a dozen dates that voters should underline, circle in red and remember.

While 1954 is generally regarded as an "off-year" politically, it promises to be one of the "on-est" in recent history.

Texas elects a governor, one U. S. senator and its congressmen.

Then there are state, district, county and city officials by the thousands to be named.

One of the most important dates comes pretty soon: Feb. 1 deadline for paying the poll tax.

Another important date is May 3, deadline for candidates to have their names put on the ballot for July primary. Applies to both Democrats and Republicans.

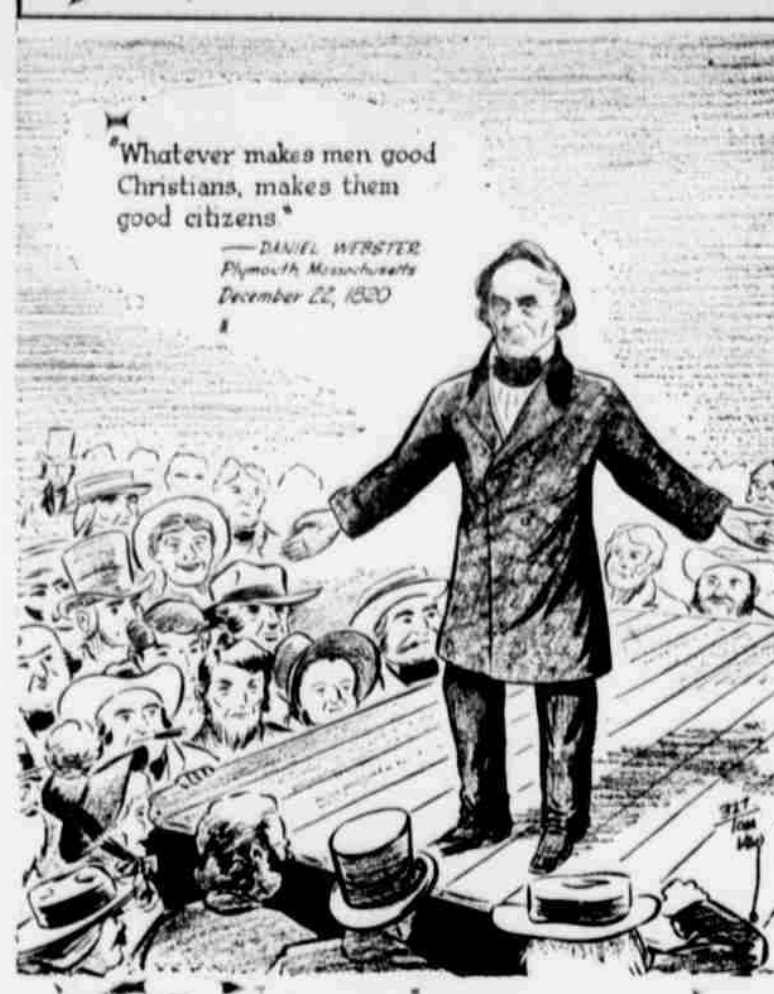

After running into a bit of ear trouble, I got this advice: The only safe thing to put in your ear is your elbow.

A new type of short corn grows no higher than the farmer's or comedian's head.

THE WOMEN, GOD LOVE 'EM: The man who passes a pretty girl on the beach in a bathing suit without turning around is either blind or walking with his wife!

I THINK THE move under way by the American Legion to make one big veteran's holiday out of Nov. 11 is a wise one. Since World War II, a number of other holidays, such as VE and VJ days, just as worthy of celebration, have cropped up. The result has been that interest has been divided to the extent that each of the veteran's holidays has suffered. It would be simple to combine them in one big day, such as Nov. 11, as proposed. Such an arrangement would make for bigger, better and more fitting tributes to the men living and dead who so richly deserve them.

Our Contemporaries Are Saying

Christmas Doings: Everyone seemed to enjoy the visit of Santa Claus and his reindeer Tuesday night. More people were in Crosbyton after the sun went down than we can remember for several years. Cars lined the entire route taken by the reindeer and sleigh, and of course the kids got quite a thrill out of telling Santa what they wanted for Christmas. Christmas lights, turned on for the first time Tuesday night, also added color to the occasion.—The Crosbyton Review.

Who's In Charge?: Who's in charge at a funeral? That may be a delicate subject, but is one that comes up from time to time. Rev. Marshall Rhew told me the other day that the question came up recently at a meeting of the ministerial alliance and after being discussed thoroughly, this conclusion was reached: The pastor of the church at which the funeral is being held is in charge.

Japanese Road Sign: The road signs of today are bold and to the point. A quite different sort of road sign was this one, which was erected in Tokyo in the 1930's: "If a passenger of the foot heave in sight, tootle your horn trumpet—melodiously at first; if he still obstructs your path, tootle with vigor and express by word of mouth the warning, 'Hi! Hi! Hi!'—The Slaton Slatonite"

That Time Again: Here it is December already and time for everyone to start thinking about jolly ol' St. Nick, Uncle Mary and Aunt John, and lots and lots of other pleasant things that are always connected with Christmas.

Local stores are getting up their Christmas decorations and Norton says the street decorations will start going up today. So with just 18 more shopping days until Christmas, visit our local merchants and give them a chance to fill your needs before the last-minute rush. (But don't buy up everything, because yours truly will surely be among those who wait until the last minute.—The Texas Spur.

Swings Hard Blow: Rev. Jack Ellzey swung a hard blow of criticism Thursday against "so-called comic books" on newsstands.

The minister, who is pastor of First Methodist Church and president of Colorado City Ministerial Alliance, charged that theft, forgery, rape and murder are taught by crime comic books.

He urged parents to check in to the comic book situation and do something about it.—Colorado City Record.

Start Early!: Most of the juvenile delinquency problems can be solved at the home, but the work must start early.—The Pittsburg Gazette.

These Changing Times: We have been told that the Production and Marketing Administration, referred to as the PMA, has a new name—the Agricultural Stabilization Service. First it was the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, or the "triple A," then it became the PMA. Now it's the ... wait a minute, the Agricultural Stabilization Service.—The Kaufman Herald.

NEW BODY STYLE—First new body style in automobile industry since the hardtop! The 1954 Mercury Monterey "Sun Valley" sports coupe with transparent plexiglas replacing steel over the front section of the roof. The new 1954 Mercury goes on display Thursday at Storie Motor Company.

New 1954 Mercury On Display Thursday At Storie Motor Co.

The new model with a new 161-horsepower overhead valve V-8 engine and a new type ball joint suspension features the new body styling and transparent plexiglas roof. Other highlights include the new front suspension which will make its appearance today at Storie Motor Company here and 180 other dealerships throughout the nation.

The "Sun Valley" a Mercury Monterey hardtop is the new model addition to the 1954 line. It is characterized by a transparent plexiglas roof, first of its kind in an automobile production car.

Changes new is the overhead valve V-8 engine which powers all 1954 model Mercury cars. Developing 161 horsepower, the engine is a low friction design with a bigger bore and shorter stroke. The bore and stroke are 3.02 inches and 3.10 inches respectively. It has a compression ratio of 7.5 to 1.

A new four-barrel carburetor with exclusive features to provide power for rapid acceleration and economical operation has been developed for the new engine.

Mercury chassis changes for 1954 include a new frame for greater fatigue strength and the same ball-point front suspension introduced in the 1952 Lincoln. Mercury is the first car in its price class to offer this new type suspension, which eliminates the conventional kingpin and improves riding and steering qualities.

Other chassis improvements are new front shock absorbers and springs, and modifications to the standard, overdrive, and Merc-O-Matic transmissions for increased life and to more effectively utilize the power of the engine.

Significant styling changes have been made on the 1954 Mercury to give it a lower, longer and wider appearance. Restyled rear quarter panels, new wrap-around bumpers and a new front grille have been combined with new ornamentation on the side to amplify the forward-motion appearance.

Mercury for 1954 is offered in two series with a total of eight models. The custom series includes a two-door sedan, four-door sedan and sport hardtop coupe. The Monterey special custom series offers a four-door sedan, hardtop convertible, the Sun Valley and four-door station wagon.

Mercury again offers a choice of three transmissions: silent, ease synchronized standard transmissions; Merc-O-Matic, the simpler, more efficient fully hydraulic automatic transmission; and overdrive.

A full complement of power features is offered as optional equipment, including the four-way power seat which adjusts forward, backward, up and down to provide an almost limitless number of positions to suit all drivers.

Power steering takes out the work in steering, yet leaves the driver with complete control regardless of road conditions. Power brakes reduce pedal pressure required for normal stopping by about one-third. Since the brake pedal is closer to the floor and level with the accelerator it is simple to swing the foot from one to the other with little lost motion.

Although the sun is about 93 million miles from the earth, the distance varies during each year because the orbit of the earth is not exactly circular.

Children Gather Up Books For Soldiers

AUSTIN (Spl.) — More than 100,000 books for members of the armed forces, collected mostly by Texas children, are arriving daily in lots of hundreds and thousands at the state Selective Service System warehouse here.

Texas truckers, members of the Texas Motor Transportation Association, are bringing in the books free of charge from more than a score of Texas communities. James E. Taylor, association executive secretary, said.

The truck operators began their work as an observation of Truck Transportation Week in Texas, a state recognition of the fiftieth anniversary of the trucking industry.

Children collected books over a three-month period in cities the size of Houston and Dallas down to towns like Vernon and Denison. Some children brought in hundreds of books each, going up and down streets in little red wagons and other children's play vehicles to haul them.

The History Of Christmas By Lindell O. Harris

The Christmas story centers in the Christ-child of Bethlehem. However, this fascinating story had its beginning in ancient Mesopotamia, the cradle of the race, and the probable site of Eden.

of the two natures was much discussed, Christ was then viewed as being completely divine and completely human, a God-man. Jesus was born of a human mother, yet born divine, a God-infant and a human-infant.

It is a curious fact that the idea of baptismal regeneration, which could be applied to infants, helped to accelerate the interest in the birth of Christ.

As Christ was born divine, so could every infant receive the grace of God in a miraculous manner in baptism. Along with this, Mary, the mother of Jesus, was regarded in a new light. Up until now she had been revered with other great Christians of the Apostolic Church.

Since she was the mother of Jesus, she was regarded as having done something that no other woman had ever done. In addition to this, the idea of motherhood represented something tender and endearing to every heart. Adoration very easily became worship.

Why was December 25 chosen as the day to celebrate the birth of Christ? This date was probably chosen because some of the ancient pagan festivals occurred at this time.

The ancient Zagnuk and Saccara festivals of the Mesopotamians, the Saturnalia in Rome, and the winter solstice celebrations of the Northern European people made their contributions.

All these celebrations came in the last days of the old year and the dawning of the New Year.

December 25 came in the midst of these various celebrations. In the process of time Christendom was able in the Christianizing of the pagan world to direct the thinking behind these celebrations to the worship and celebration of the birth of Christ.

Jesus was finally given a birthday. The Christmas story, after a long voyage of many centuries through many lands, has centered its message in the birth of the Christ-child.

Today, it is a story that has become sacred to untold millions, not because of its ancient pagan background, but because of its meaning to every Christian.

It means that God has revealed himself to man.

It means that God has become man, the divine and human God-man.

It means that the song of the angels was true.

"For unto you is born this day in the city of David, a Savior, which is Christ, the Lord."

4,000 Texans Are Due Draft Tests

New '54 Chevrolets To Be Introduced Here Friday, Dec. 18

Chevrolet introduces its 1954 model passenger cars Friday, Dec. 18. Connell Chevrolet Co. of Post and more than 7,000 other retail dealer nationally will display a variety of body styles in events that range from annual open houses to elaborate entertainment programs.

The showings come near the close of one of the company's most successful years. A statement by W. E. Fish, general sales manager, reported 1953 retail sales will be topped only by the record-breaking volume of 1950, once again outselling all other automotive makes.

Fish described the new models as "greatly improved" and "fit successors to the cars that have led the industry in sales for 18 of the last 19 years."

"This is a record of popularity," he pointed out, "that can be matched by few products of any kind in the last quarter century's highly competitive American market."

The dealer exhibits will be held simultaneously across the country and follow the 1953 model patterns when two days rather than one were designated for "announcement showings."

Introductions will benefit from a broadscale advertising program which the company plans to continue throughout next year.

Winter Driving Will Be Safer If Auto Inspections Are Made Before Christmas

Texas is 106 highway deaths behind the 1952 total for a comparable period. This decreasing rate may be held and even improved upon, although the "deadly" holiday season is fast approaching. With winter and holiday travel only a weather change away, it would be wise for all those who have not had their vehicles inspected to do so now.

The very essentials of winter driving—proper brakes, lights, horn and windshield wiper operation—are the backbone of the new Motor Vehicle Inspection program. We can, therefore, do our winter driving safely and with fewer operational worries, as well as avoid the last-minute spring inspection rush, if we will have our vehicles inspected between now and Christmas.

Cooke said that of all the cars inspected so far, records show that 58 per cent need some adjustment or repair. Seven per cent alone needed brake adjustments while 34 per cent needed headlight corrections. At the same time, total cost of inspection has averaged only $1.77 per car, which includes the price of the inspection. Cooke said that this was probably the most reasonable life insurance being sold in Texas today. He urges each owner to go today to the inspection station of his choice. Tomorrow may be too late.

There are six inspection stations in Garza County—five in Post and one in Southland. They are required by law to be open for business at least eight hours a day. Most of them are open much longer, and each one will be glad to give your car a thorough, courteous and personalized inspection.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

A Case of "Moostaken" Identity

Slim Smith never had a chance to use his moose call until a trip north this year. Visited him yesterday to see what he'd bagged.

"First day out," he told me, "I picked up a trail. I sounded the call and waited. Then I heard a moose call. Sure enough, something came crashing through the brush. But it was another guy with his moose call. Boy, did I get my finger off the trigger in a hurry!

"My last day there I picked up another trail. This time I got me a real moose. But you can bet I took a good look before I did any shooting!"

From where I sit, we could all learn a little from Slim's experience. Most of us are guilty sometime or other of being too quick on the trigger. Like the fellow who would deny me the right to an occasional glass of beer with my dinner, I say that kind of "aim" is way off!

May Change Procedure For Obtaining Smith-Doxey Cotton Re-classification

WACO (Sp.)—The procedure for obtaining a re-classification of cotton under the Smith-Doxey Act will be changed if a new recommendation of the Texas Farm Bureau is adopted by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. President J. Walter Hammond of the state farm organization has forwarded to the USDA a resolution which was adopted at the recent TFB convention in Mineral Wells. He has also discussed the beneficial aspects of the resolution with high Department officials, who now have it under consideration.

The TFB proposes to modify the present re-classification procedure by requiring that compress bonded samplers collect and destroy the original class card before sending another sample to the classing office for re-classification.

There has been considerable criticism of the present procedure. Under provisions of the Smith-Doxey Act, the bonded sampler is now required to collect the original class card from the farmer and forward it along with the new sample. Farmer criticism has stemmed from the fact that the classing office, having access to the original card, might be influenced to give the second sample the same class as the original.

The TFB resolution on Smith-Doxey services also asks that more emphasis be placed on the qualifications and training of cotton classers employed by classing offices, that an attempt be made to attract more young men to the classing service by increasing salaries and lengthening periods of employment, that further research be instituted to develop and improve existing mechanical cotton-classing devices to expedite classing and eliminate the element of human error, and that a minimum condition for cotton be set and standardized throughout the U. S. before it is graded.

Notice Of Hearing Is Re-Published

A hearing on a petition which asks that a $30,000 bond election be ordered in Road District No. 3 has been set for 10 a. m. Monday, Dec. 21, by the Garza County Commissioners Court.

Earlier, the commissioners had published a notice of a Dec. 10 hearing on the petition, but were required to republish the notice because they had specified "Commissioner Precinct 3" instead of "Road District 3."

The $30,000 bond issue, if voted, would be used for the purpose of acquiring right-of-way needed for proposed improvements to U. S. Highway 380 and for construction of a farm-to-market road from northeast of Post to the Crosby County line.

The commissioners set the hearing date after being presented a petition signed by 56 resident property taxpaying voters of the road district.

The election of officers highlighted the annual meeting, held at the Boy Scout office in Lubbock. Scout Executive W. E. Postma reported on the state of business of the Council and a suggested program plan for 1954 was given each of the members of the operating committee.

Other action at the meeting, which was attended by representatives of the institutions which sponsor the Scouting program in the area, included adoption of a new constitution and by laws for the council. The constitution was presented by K. N. Clapp of Lubbock, chairman of the committee that drafted the constitution.

The South Plains Council comprises all counties. Although there are four main human blood groups, it is estimated that blood group factors are capable of 132,710,400 different combinations.

1954 ACP Program Is Explained Here

The 1954 Agricultural Conservation Program in Garza County was explained here Friday afternoon at a meeting in the county courtroom. This week, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service officials are completing plans for the cost-share part of the coming year's program.

Leading the discussion at Friday's meeting were Mike E. Custer, county ASC office manager; Guy Nutt of the Soil Conservation Service, and County Agent Lewis Herron.

Sign-ups for the program are under way this week and are to continue through Dec. 20. This year the applicant must sign up at the office here. In previous years he was mailed sign-up blanks.

Twenty-three practices have been approved for the county's 1954 program.

Seeing that love of a lady, Mrs. L. A. Barrow, en route to Mrs. R. L. Kirkendall's house last Friday for a quilting session with other members of the First Baptist S. S. class of which she is a member, made us realize all over again that this group of women are always doing something for the needy or for friends who are ill. Friday they quilted out two quilts for a woman and her five little girls, none of whom are old enough to help out with the family funds. Seems to me that this is truly the spirit of Christmas at work.

It is a bright spot in any day up and down Main to run into Byla Lott. And speaking of bazaars, members of the business girl's sorority are hopping in and out of the Cardwell building getting things set up for their Toy Bazaar come Saturday. According to Gay Nellie here at the Dispatch, each member has collected from "all-over" toys and games that are not available in Post stores. Proceeds from the sale will go to the club's many projects, one of which is Girls' Town, and we all know how worthy that project is. Go over and select an unusual toy from the boss's secretary, the bank's bookkeeper, the school teachers, housewives or others who are members of the club. . . . People up and down Main are talking about the open house that will be held by Dr. John R. Rountree, M. Referendum—

(Continued From Front Page) referendum for this cotton (mainly American Egyptian-Sea Island and Sea Island), will also be held Dec. 15. The same stipulations as for upland cotton apply. The national marketing quota for extra long staple cotton in 1954 is only 30,000 bales with a national average allotment of only 41.261 acres. The supply of this type cotton for the 1952-54 year is expected to total 258,000 bales, or most twice the normal supply of 130,000 bales.

Custer stressed the importance of every cotton farmer voting in Tuesday's referendum. "Fear of no concern to the ABC how the farmers vote," said Custer. "It's just that there should be a large enough turnout to represent the majority of the nation's farmers in this matter."

Four Home Contests On Post's '54 Gridiron Slate

The Post Antelopes' 1954 football schedule was completed this week by Coach V. F. "Bing" Bingham, and while not altogether attractive from the home field standpoint, was the best that could be done under the circumstances, according to the coach.

Four games are to be played at home and six away from home. After the conference game here with Tahoka on Oct. 22, there won't be another home game.

Bingham explained that Falls, Sundown and Floydada, each of whom the Antelopes played away from home this season, didn't want to play Post in 1954. All three would have been home games if those teams could have been scheduled.

"Consequently," said Bingham, "we just had to do the best we could under the circumstances in order to round out the schedule."

Newcomers to the 1954 grid slate are Roscoe, Morton and Hamlin, who will play on the Antelope gridiron.

The complete schedule follows:

Sept. 5: Roscoe at Post
Sept. 19: Morton at Post
Sept. 17: O'Donnell at O'Donnell
Sept. 24: Hamlin at Post
Oct. 1: Crosbyton at Crosbyton
Oct. 8: Rotan at Rotan
Oct. 15: Open
Oct. 22: Tahoka at Post
Oct. 29: Slaton at Slaton
Nov. 5: Open
Nov. 11: Spur at Spur
Nov. 19: Abernathy at Abernathy

The Tahoka, Slaton, Spur and Abernathy games will be district contests. Floydada will be in a new district for the 1954 season.

The Spur game, Bingham said, will be played at 2 p. m. on Armistice Day, which is Thursday. All other games will be Friday night affairs.

Freshmen Play In Fluvanna Tourney

The Post Antelope freshmen basketball team made the winner of the Southland Southland game at 7 o'clock Friday night in a second-round game of the annual Fluvanna Districtal basketball tournament.

V. F. "Bing" Bingham, who coaches the freshman squad, said probable starters would be Bowen Stephens and Ronnie Kennedy, forwards; Damon Ethridge, center, and Noel White and Andy Schmidt, guards.

Other squadmen who will make the trip to the Fluvanna tournament are: Howard Jones, George Graham, Jerry Hays, Charles Kilpatrick, Harry Smith, Arvy Lee McBride, Troy Cartmill, Kenneth Martin, Donald Ammons and James Williams.

Friday night's tournament game will be the first of the season for the freshmen cagers.

Talent Show Set For Southland Tonight

A number of outstanding amateur performers have entered the talent show to be held at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the Southland school auditorium, sponsors report.

The talent show is being sponsored by the Southland Cemetery Association and proceeds will go to the cemetery fund.

TO ATTEND MEETING
City Supt. R. H. Tate and possibly one or two others from Post will go to Denver City Tuesday night for a regular monthly meeting of the Permian Basin Water Works Association.

Post Girls Teams Win Over Cooper

The Post girls basketball team won two games from Cooper here Friday night, the "A" team winning, 30-23, and the "B" team coming out on top by a 36-9 score.

Coach N. R. King's undefeated sextet had little trouble against the visitors. De Elva Lofton racking up 18 points and Tommie Williams and Joy Martin each getting 16 points. N. Jones, with 11, was high scorer for the Cooper girls.

In the "B" game, Marie Howard scored 14 points for Post, while Frances Craig dumped in 10 points.

Halftime score in the "A" game was 22-11, Post, and in the "B" game, 14-6, Post.

Juniors To Present Class Play Friday

The Post High School junior class will present its annual class play at 8 o'clock Friday night in the grade school auditorium. This year's play, a three-act comedy, is entitled "Ma's New Husband."

The cast is as follows: Hercules Hawser, Lonnie Webster; Mrs. Dinmore, Wynonne Morris; Lucy Dinmore, Glenda Askins; Marion Dinmore, Jeanie Peel; Fred Seymour, Leonard Noert; Simplicity, Delta Rogers; Ned Walker, Don El Dale; Elwood Thornton, Don Gates; Marguerita LaSylph, Arleta Gary; Isabella Chase, Christine Blodgett; Officer, Kevin Williams.

Admission prices will be adults, 50 cents; students, 35 cents; and reserved seats, 75 cents.

Jack Kirkpatrick Named Border Loop's Most Valuable Player In Recent Poll

Jack Kirkpatrick of Post, quarterback on the Texas Tech Red Raider football team, has been named the Border Conference's most valuable player in a poll of coaches conducted by the Arizona Daily Star of Tucson.

Kirkpatrick, former Post High School football and basketball star, has been outstanding this season in Tech's posting of an impressive 9-1 record, resulting in an invitation to play Auburn on New Year's Day in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla.

In announcing Kirkpatrick's selection as a Border Conference MVP, a Lullback Morning Journal sportswriter had the following to say about the former Antelope athlete.

"Kirkpatrick, the wizard in the feats of Oklahoma A & M College, College of Pacific, Missouri State and Arizona, came in to his own this year. Used at a halfback position last year and not grasped extensively as a quarterback until 1953 spring training, Kirkpatrick was a tremendous threat."

"The young sophomore from Post developed into a fine passer, an expert signal caller, a dangerous runner, a fair punter and a magician at ball handling. He shared the quarterback spot with Jerry Johnson, giving the Raiders a great one-two punch at the important position."

$10,000 Premiums Being Offered In Open Steer Show

PORT WORTH, (SpI.) — The open steer show at the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show is, as the term implies, open to the world and the competition each year attracts entries from numerous states.

Almost $10,000 in premiums is offered and the grand champion steer, besides the prize money, brings the owner a rich reward when the animal is sold in the "auction of champions."

The champion in the open show is matched against the champion in the junior show and the victor is adjudged the grand champion of the entire exposition. Last year's grand champion brought $6,000 in the auction.

Should the grand champion steer be a Polled Hereford, the owner may receive a special award of $5,500. This amount is offered by the American Polled Hereford Association and the National Western Polled Hereford Association to the exhibitor of the first Polled Hereford steer to be adjudged grand champion in this or three other designated stock shows.

If the grand champion is a Hereford, there is a special award of $500 from the American Hereford Association; if a Shorthorn, $250 from the American Shorthorn Breeders' Association; if an Angus, $250 from the American Aberdeen-Angus Breeders' Association.

Deadline for livestock entries is Dec. 15. Dates of the exposition are Jan. 29 through Feb. 7. W. A. (Bill) King, assistant manager of the show, is livestock superintendent.

Member Aviation Cadet Selection Team Will Be Here Dec. 16 For Interviews

A member of the 512th Aviation Cadet Selection Team will be at the post office in Post on Wednesday, Dec. 16, for interviews with qualified young men wishing information on the advantages of a well-paying rapid advancement career in the U. S. Air Force.

There's future in the Air Force open now to qualified high school graduates who can meet the requirements for pilot training.

As of Nov. 1 the Air Force, for the first time since World War II, no longer requires two years of college for pilot trainees.

The primary requirements now call for the applicant to be a single male citizen between the ages of 19 and 26½, a high school graduate, pass a test to determine aptitude for flying, and have high moral and personal qualifications, as determined by a board of Air Force officers.

In addition, the applicant must be in good physical condition and meet high requirements for eyes, ears, heart, teeth, height and weight.

The Air Force hasn't abandoned its policy of advising the nation's young men to complete their schooling before applying for pilot training. However, it does recognize the fact that many fully qualified young men, for various reasons, will be unable to go on to college after graduation from high school.

"It's that group of young men that we want to reach," says A. J. E. A. Droskin of the 512th Cadet Selection, currently interviewing prospects in Post.

"The Air Force hasn't lowered the standards on either the
