Red Cross Drive Nearing End With $723 Latest Report

Garza County's 1954 fund drive for the American Red Cross was continuing this week, with a total of $723.25 reported to Drive Chairman O. C. (Oscar) Garner through Tuesday.

Garner said today he was confident that the county would reach the $1,200 mark in the drive. While this amount would be $825 short of the $2,025 quota, the chairman said Red Cross officials had told him that, considering the county's economic condition, they would be well pleased with a drive total of $1,200.

A number of communities and workers have not yet reported in the drive, which is to close Saturday, March 20. Garner asks that all reports be made by that time to Mrs. Ira Greenfield at the Post Chamber of Commerce office.

Most communities of the county, Garner said, have cooperated in the campaign with various fund-raising projects. One of these was Wednesday night of last week when Graham and Close City communities got together at Graham for a series of crowd-pleasing basketball games.

Membership is being emphasized this year rather than the fund-raising phase of the drive. Everyone who contributes as much as $1 becomes a member of the Garza County Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Those who have not yet contributed may do so by turning in their money to Garner, Mrs. Greenfield, or any of the other Red Cross drive workers.

The national campaign goal is 30,000,000 members and $85,000,000. The nation-wide drive is headed by a Texan for the first time this year. He is W. W. Overton, Jr., chairman of the board of the Texas Bank & Trust Co., Dallas.

Joe Callaway To Appear In Final Concert

Joe Callaway, who will be presented by the Garza Town Hall and Concert Association Thursday night, March 25, in the Post Grade School auditorium, is a many-sided genius, who brings to the platform a rich background of the stage, the screen and the radio.

The presentation will be the final of four concerts presented in this—the first—season of the Garza Town Hall and Concert Association.

Callaway received his academic training and was a part of the dramatic scene at the University of Oklahoma, Goodman Memorial Theatre of the Art Institute of Chicago, Northwestern University and the University of Southern California.

He began his stage career of over 6,000 performances in both classical and modern productions as a protegee of De Wolf Hopper. He was featured in 16 different Shakesperian plays as a member of the famous Globe Theatre Company, which played to nearly 2,000 people at the Chicago, San Diego, Dallas and New York fairs. In New York he appeared in four plays directed by Margaret Webster, internationally famous for her productions.

His experience as a director is also varied. He directed a production of "The Merchant of Venice" at the Post Chamber of Commerce office.

Name Leader For Cancer Crusade

Ellis M. Mills, Post Grade School principal, has been appointed drive chairman for Garza County's 1954 Cancer Crusade, Mrs. T. L. Jones, county chairman for the American Cancer Society, has announced.

Plans are to begin the drive here within the next few days, Mrs. Jones said.

During the past few years, Garza has gone well above its quota in its cancer crusade campaigns. Last year, the goal was more than doubled.

John W. Miller, Dallas industrial and business leader, has been named chairman of the 1954 Crusade in Texas.

Carpenter will head several thousand volunteer workers who will conduct the educational and fund-raising drive.

Through the crusade, the Society seeks to educate Texans to the facts about cancer, which killed almost 9,000 Texans last year, and to raise funds to advance its research, education and service programs. This year's state goal is $700,000.

"If the present rate continues, cancer will strike one of every two Texas families," said Travis T. Wallace of Dallas, president of the American Cancer Society's Texas Division. "I hope everyone will strike back by learning the facts about cancer and give generously to their local cancer crusades."

MOD Gets $10 Bill From Alaska Airman

Although Garza County's 1954 March of Dimes closed several weeks ago, the campaign was $10 better off this week through a contribution in that amount from A/1c Joe O. Stohl of Elmendorf Air Force Base, Anchorage, Alaska.

Airman Stohl sent the $10 for the March of Dimes to his wife, Viola, who is employed at the Pioneer Gas Co. office here. She turned it over to Walter Crider, county chairman for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The Stohls lived at Abilene when he entered the Air Force more than two years ago. Mrs. Stohl is making her home here with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Andy King, while her husband is in the service.

Airman Stohl arrived in Alaska April 1 after being stationed at Kelly AFB, San Antonio. He will be home on a leave about Sept. 1, Mrs. Stohl said Wednesday.

A panel discussion on Girl Scouting and its activities was presented by members of Girl Scout Troop 1 at Tuesday's luncheon of the Post Rotary Club.

Mrs. James Dietrich, troop leader, led the discussion and Mrs. Phil Trammell, assistant leader, introduced the Girl Scouts, giving a brief character sketch of each.

Guilty Plea Brings $350 Fine, Costs

Earl Hanson of Post was fined $350 and costs in county court last week after pleading guilty to a charge of possession of wine for the purpose of sale.

Hanson was arrested March 7 in the Negro section of town by Deputy Sheriff J. W. (Red) Floyd. The county confiscated 12 quart bottles of wine, which the arresting officer said was found in a car occupied by Hanson.

SCHOOL BOARD ELECTIONS ARE APRIL 3

Wednesday, March 24, is the final day for candidates to file for school trustee elections to be held Saturday, April 3.

In the Post Independent School District, the board of trustees Tuesday night discussed candidates for the coming election. Terms expiring are those of Robert E. Cox, president of the board, and James Minor. It was announced following the board meeting that Cox will be a candidate for re-election, but that Minor has chosen not to file for re-election. The board is considering endorsement of another

School Board Group Elects Officers Here

James Minor of Post was elected president of the newly-organized Garza County unit of the Texas Association of School Boards at a meeting Monday night in the school cafeteria.

Other officers of the county-wide school boards group named at the meeting were A. V. McCowan of Justiceburg, vice president, and Herman Dabbs of Southland, secretary-treasurer.

The Garza County unit was organized recently with the appointment of the following board members: Minor, McCowan, Dabbs; Barney Jones of Close City, Bryan J. Williams, Jr., of Garolia, Ray McClellan of Graham, A. I. Cross of Grassburg, and Sam Ellis of Southland, representing the county board of education.

The new school board association will work with local boards the county board and administrators for the best interest of the schools, including recruiting and holding competent teachers and determination of the basic needs of the schools and communication of those needs to legislative and administrative bodies.

The members of the new association plan to meet regularly to exchange ideas on common problems.

72 Firms To Close For Revival Here

Operators of 72 Post business places have agreed to close their firms from 9:45 a. m. to 11 a. m. Monday through Friday, April 11-15, during a city-wide simultaneous revival meeting, it was announced Wednesday following a canvass by five members of the Post Ministerial Alliance.

Operators of filling stations and cafes did not commit themselves to close their businesses, but pledged their fullest cooperation with the revival efforts and agreed to permit every employee they could spare to attend the morning services.

All of the ministers making the canvass expressed their appreciation for the spirit of cooperation. "The response was beyond our expectations," one of them said.

Directors of the Post Chamber of Commerce had already approved the plan for closing of business firms.

The ministers said there are a few business firms which have not yet been contacted, but that they will be approached on the proposal within the next few days.

Scouts To Plant Trees At Camp

Boy Scouts from over the South Plains will be at Camp Post this weekend to plant trees as part of their National Conservation Week observance.

Last Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Scouts were at the camp to cultivate the ground and make it ready for the tree-planting, which is in charge of Frank Runkles, camp ranger.

Nurserymen of the Nurserymen's Association in Lubbock are providing the trees without charge. They also have surveyed the camp to determine what trees are needed.

Two years ago, Boy Scouts planted approximately 200 trees—Locusts and Chinese Elms. Those were planted where water was available. This year, the boys will plant trees that will thrive without water.

Boys taking part in the tree-planting project will receive conservation patches to place on their Scout uniforms.

Post Girl Elected 4-H Club Princess At Stock Show

Miss Jennie Lou Redman, 15-year-old Post High School student, was chosen Saturday as 4-H princess for the South Plains Junior Fat Stock Show, held in Lubbock Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Chosen as FFA princess was Miss Patsy Mills of Abilene. Judging of the princess candidates—19 in the FFA division and nine in the 4-H group—was held at the Chamber of Commerce building in Lubbock.

The princesses were official hostesses during the three-day show. They were on hand during judging events to present ribbons to winning exhibitors and they also appeared at the annual barbecue to present awards and checks.

Miss Redman, the daughter of Mrs. Ethel Redman, is a junior student in the local high school. She has brown hair and blue eyes. Sponsoring her in the contest was the Post Senior 4-H Club.

The Post FFA chapter's princess candidate, Miss Mary Lou Hedgpath, survived two rounds of judging before being eliminated. The first round trimmed the 19 FFA contestants to Miss Hedgpath and eight others. Following the second round of judging.

Attending the meeting will be Rufus Rush, state director of Lubbock, the state director for Arlington, and a number of Jaycees from Lubbock and Ralls.

Organized in the spring of 1953 and chartered in June, the Jaycee organization's activities have died down from a lack of interest on the part of all but a handful of its members.

The Ralls Jaycees sponsored organization of the unit here. Three Jaycee officers, Jack Lancaster, vice president; Percy Parsons, treasurer, and Malcolm T. Bull, director, met with directors of the Post Chamber of Commerce Tuesday afternoon. At that meeting, the C. of C. directors and Mayor T. L. Jones promised the continued cooperation of the Chamber of Commerce and City of Post with the younger organization in community programs. Jack Rex, Jaycee president, is out of town this week.

Scheduled to be let Wednesday was a contract for completion of Farm-Market Road 651 from seven and one-half miles northeast of Post to the Crosby County line, a distance of more than 11 miles.

New Supervisor At Pool Project

Charlie Brown arrived the first of the week as superintendent of construction on the city swimming pool being built by Padcock Engineering Co. of Dallas.

Brown replaces Bill Timmons, who became suddenly ill March 10, while supervising construction work at the pool. Timmons was taken to Garza Memorial Hospital and transferred the following day to a hospital in Dallas.

The city is to let bids Friday on construction of a bath house and other improvements at the pool.

Approximately $1,500 worth of playground equipment for the park was ordered this week. Shelley Camp, City Park Board member, reports. The equipment is expected to arrive within three weeks.

Another park board member, George (Scotty) Samson, reports that two concrete picnic tables are being built at the park. Each of the tables is to be 20 feet long and 40 inches wide. A barbecue pit was completed at the park last October.

By CHARLES DIDWAY

People are always asking, "How can we improve our town?" The best way to figure it out for ourselves is to use TOWN JOURNAL'S "rate your town" questionnaire. First published in August 1952, it has gained national recognition. In addition to "Town Journal," three other magazines, including "Kiwanis Magazine" and "American City" (a leading journal of civic planners), have reprinted it. Newspapers have made it the basis for local crusades. It sparked a hot political campaign in Canajoharie, N. Y.; got talked about at meetings of Chamber of Commerce secretaries and city managers, and has highlighted meetings of service clubs from Frederick, Okla., to Plymouth, Wis., and Deadwood, S. D.

If our town needs an arouser, perhaps this is it. A cursory examination of the questionnaire indicates that Post has a high rating. Why not work it out for yourself, then clip and mail the questionnaire to your Chamber of Commerce. If enough of them are received at the C. of C. office, it will provide the organization's board of directors with a first-rate index of what the townspeople think of their community.

If you can circle "yes" on 30 or more of the virtues below, chances are you live in a town of which you can be proud.

1. Most high school graduates stay in town. Yes No
2. Getting a loan on a sound business venture is easy. Yes No

4. There's a Chamber of Commerce with a live-wire manager. Yes No
5. Local speeders pay the same fines as out-of-towners. Yes No
6. There's a place to swim within easy reach. Yes No
7. Young couples have little trouble finding a place to live. Yes No
8. The head of your city government is a "get-things-done" man. Yes No
9. Town entrances are free from junk, shacks and billboards. Yes No
10. Teachers' salaries are better than the state average. Yes No
11. There's at least one doctor per 800 people in your county. Yes No
12. There's a library with a good collection of recent books. Yes No
13. Newcomers quickly feel they're part of the town. Yes No
14. Schools have plenty of room for students. Yes No
15. Fire insurance rates are low for your type of town. Yes No
16. Service, veterans' and women's clubs team up on projects. Yes No

Roger W. Babson Writes This Week:

Price-Fixing, Some Say, Necessary To Get The Widest Possible Distribution

BABSON PARK, Fla.—I wonder if you have noticed in the columns of your paper that another tempest is brewing between some manufacturers and the sellers of their merchandise. Cause of the blow: merchandise is being sold below fair-trade prices.

Discount Houses
Before the war, on the Continent and especially in Southeastern Asia, nobody ever paid the asking price unless he had a hole in his head. At that time, in America, very few ever questioned the list price. Today, in increasing numbers, Americans are shopping for discounts. I am convinced that this movement is largely encouraged by returning soldiers from abroad. After their experiences both in foreign countries and in their canteens here at home, it is very difficult to get them to pay list prices anywhere.

On the other hand, courts of the States having "Fair-Trade" laws have upheld the legality of such laws. Recently, the Supreme Court of the United States has favored the "fixed-price" manufacturers. However, the final decision lies with consumers, not with the courts. Remember what happened to all the oleomargarine legislation.

The Manufacturers' Argument
Price-fixing, some manufacturers say, is necessary in order to get the widest possible distribution. The argument here is that if a company's product is being undersold by a price-cutter, the legitimate dealer will give up that line of goods, distribution outlets will shrink, orders drop off, production lag, and workers will be out of a job. For this reason, these companies say the time has come for them to spend money on lawyers, as well as on advertising. They are ready to spend plenty to curb price-cutting of "fair-trade" merchandise. My sympathies go out to them.

There is little question that profit margins in some industries are slim. Let's admit it, though—the profit take in other industries is fabulous, and word has gotten around. How?

IT'S YOUR BUSINESS! . . .

March is "Be a Good Citizen Month," sponsored by the Lawyers of Texas to remind the citizen that he has duties and responsibilities to discharge if he is to keep his freedoms and his luxuries.

"The citizen must be constantly reminded to take an interest in his government, speak up and make himself heard," says the American Citizenship Committee of the State Bar of Texas.

Your local government always holds "open house" and you're invited! Have you ever been to the City Hall or attended a meeting of your City Commission? Have you ever been to a meeting of your County Commissioners, or your School Board?

It's YOUR city . . . YOUR county . . . YOUR state. In short it is YOUR government. Take an interest in it! It's YOUR business.

You may go to a meeting of your City Council or Commissioners or your School Board at any time.

It's "Government Open House." A good citizen knows how his government operates and what it is doing . . . so come on . . . get acquainted with your government.

It's "Open House" and you're invited. Good government is YOUR business. Take an interest in it . . . speak up . . . make yourself heard.

There is one thing better than good government, and that is government in which all the people have a part.—Walter Hines Page.

If our hours were all serene, we might probably take almost as little note of them, as the dial does of those that are clouded.—William Hazlitt.

There is nothing more tragic in life than the utter impossibility of changing what you have done.—John Galsworthy.

Nothing in education is so astonishing as the amount of ignorance it accumulates in the form of inert facts.—Henry Brooks Adams.

"No civilized nation can long endure this tragic and disgraceful waste of manpower and resources from accidents that are avoidable"—Ned H. Dearborn, president, National Safety Council.

Getting Out On The Limb

by EDDIE the editor

THE WOMEN, GOD LOVE 'EM: When your wife is along on a convention trip you have twice the expense and half the fun.

If we had our life to live over we certainly would not make the same mistakes we have made. No sirree! With our experience, we would choose a brand new set.

A sign of old age is when you get tired half as soon as you used to and it takes twice as long to rest up.

WITH SCHOOL TRUSTEE elections nearing, it is a fine time to consider the unselfish service rendered by most school board members.

The trustee, like the teacher, has powerful weapons in his hands. He deals with education, and he deals with the children of the land.

The responsibility that rests with the school board member is well stated in "A School Board Member's Creed," suggested by The American School Board Journal. A condensed version of the creed reads:

"As a member of a board of education, I hold a great public trust. I am responsible for providing the means whereby our American way of life is to be improved and to endure. I am responsible for the education of our people, particularly youth, that each person may become intellectually and spiritually competent, economically and socially successful and happy; that he becomes a responsible citizen, home member, learner and worker. I freely give the necessary time to this great service, but most important, and knowing the responsibility vested in me, I give and use my best judgment in considering and deciding the welfare of the schools.

"As a lay citizen, representing the people, I do not know, nor do I need to know, the complex details of education or administration. I am not expected to do this work but I am responsible for seeing that the work is done. My work as a board member consists of choosing competent personnel to do the work, deciding within the provisions of the law what is to be done competently and economically. I believe in lay control, but in professionally competent teaching and administration.

"My foremost specific responsibility, as a board member, is to choose a competent executive officer and make him generally responsible for the entire school system. I look to him for leadership; I expect him to keep me informed as to the needs and accomplishments of the schools, based upon the facts in the case. I must make my own decisions.

"I abide by majority decisions of the board. I carefully consider petitions, resolutions and complaints, and I dispose of them to the best interests of the schools. I do not seek special privileges for myself, my relatives and friends. I do not criticize school employees publicly. I desire to provide such conditions as will increase and reward competent service to the schools. I desire that the people of the community shall have an education that is as complete and adequate as it is possible to provide.

"With dignity and honor, I serve the people; with humility and to the best of my ability, I discharge my great public trust."

"THERE'S A LOT more new teen-age lingo that you didn't include in your recent column on the subject," writes a reader. "Here's some of it is, if you'd like to enlarge on the subject."

At Washington High School, Sioux Falls, S. D., young people have some interesting favorite expressions, such as:

Who Goated?—Whose mistake?

Snarls, Gruzzes—(Dead beats.) Hogging Cars—(Car hogging.) Hen parties are called "slumber parties" because the boys usually crash.

Miami young people keep their teachers agog with their lingo, including these "cool" expressions:

"Flake out"—Too much study is tiring.

"Browse me on the scene"—Request for information.

"Pull a boo boo"—Make an error.

"Racking up the Brownie points"—Teacher's pet.

"Toe Dancers"—High School sissies.

"Calories"—Plump girls.

"Fluffs"—Fat boys.

Other expressions include: "King size, you steam me"; "Snow again, Daddy, I don't get the drift"; "What kind of corn was that—creamed style?"; "My excuse is fleas, what's yours?"

Detroit, Mich., teen talk is garnished with sprigs of musician's lingo and southern drawl, basted with phrases from radio programs . . .

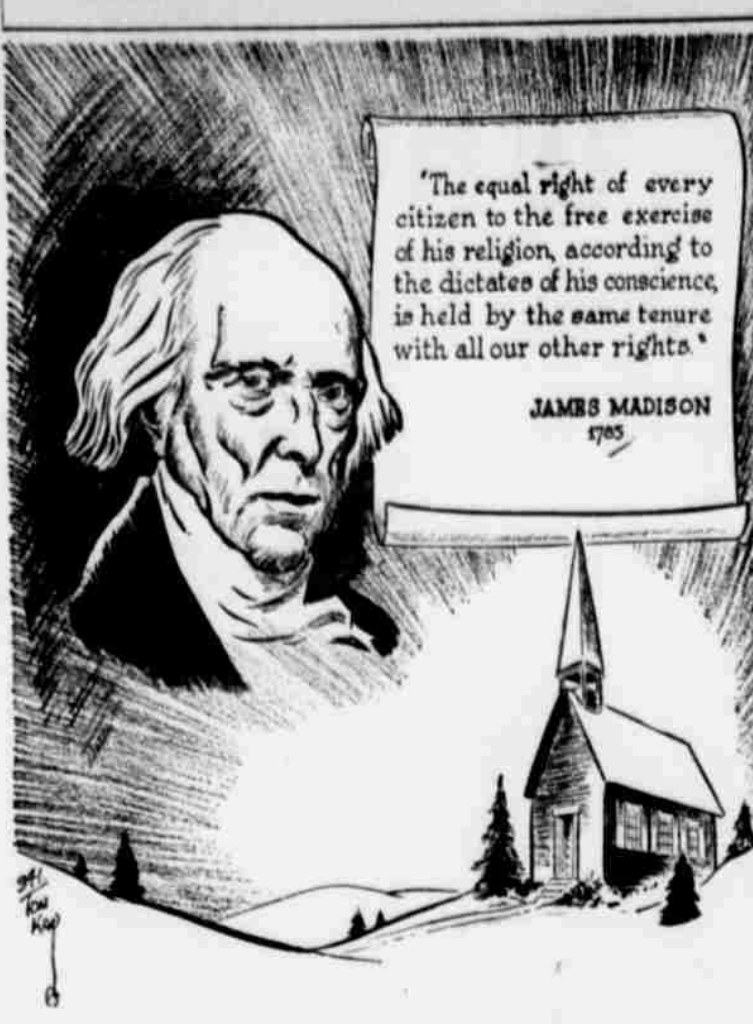

"Strictly lush"—Describes fashions.

"Dollie"—A date.

"Are you dealing tonight?"—Asking for a date.

"What was your first clue?"

Such A Nice Gift!
Every once in a while someone brings the editor something. Bless their hearts! Last week it was Marcus Giller who stepped in and said, "Step outside a minute; I've got something for you out there."

I did as I was ordered and sure enough, he had something out there, in the body of his pickup. It was a five-foot, seven-inch diamond-back rattler.

Such a nice "gift" from Marcus, don't you think?—The Carriazo Springs Javelin.

When a man asks you for your frank opinion the chances are that he won't speak to you next time he meets you if you give it to him.—The Pittsburg Gazette.

The World Stood Still
Ever since childhood the fates have pulled mannikin strings attached to my dreams and laughed at the resulting consternation. One night when the steam calliope screamed at the summer darkness beyond the merry-go-round I bought two extremely important tickets. The girl was chubby, bright-eyed and freckled; love can be and frequently is both insipid and wonderful. The platform began to move as I placed my foot in the stirrup and the music was gay and loud. Our wooden, glass-eyed horses were matched Pegasuses, galloping through the clouds and fields of stars, until the girl laughed and pointed. My horse's tail had been torn out by the roots. The tents, the lights and the people were moving, but my world was standing still. The music ceased and the night closed in, with a mocking laugh still echoing in my heart.—Matador Tribune.

Wouldn't Trade It
One of the most profitable businesses in the United States today is the comic book business. We estimate that since 1945 we have purchased 1,152 funny books for our girls, and we're only one father. Multiply that times many thousands of fathers and you'd have a staggering total. And, take crayolas and coloring books. We roughly figure we have shelled out for 288 boxes of crayolas and 96 coloring books. But why go any further? We could have been a millionaire if we hadn't been a father, but we wouldn't trade it for all the millions in the world.—The Kaufman Herald.

Should Please All
Who says something good can't come out of a beer bottle? Rep. Joe Poole of Dallas wants to raise the tax on beer from a half-cent a bottle to three cents a bottle. This would raise enough money to give teachers a $402 a year pay increase. This idea ought to please everybody. Those who drink beer don't grudge teacher a cut of his drinking dollar. Those who don't drink beer will have the satisfaction of knowing that somebody else is having to pay the teacher's salary, and pleased as punch at knowing the beer guzzler is getting soaked for his sinful ways.—The Ralls Banner.

Both Were Enthused
Having been associated pretty much with ranchers for the past 30 or 40 years, and being very well acquainted with their rough and ready range jargon, I just had to move over in this column and make room for this story:

A wealthy rancher decided by go to church one Sunday. After the services, he approached the preacher with enthusiasm.

"Reverend, that was a damned good sermon you gave, damned good!"

"Well, I'm glad liked it, but why use such terms in expressing yourself?"

"I can't help it, Reverend. I still think it was a damned good sermon. As a matter of fact, I was so impressed, I put a hundred dollar bill in the collection plate."

"The hell you did!"

—The Stanton Reporter.

Barely Made It
Harley Sadler was master of ceremonies at the Luaders Chamber of Commerce banquet, but it looked for awhile as though he wasn't going to make it. The popular Jones County senator was referred to as "Mr. West Texas" by Dr. Tom Taylor, president of Howard Payne College, Brownwood, principal speaker at the banquet. For the last 30 days, Mrs. Sadler has been in a private sanitarium in San Angelo. She went there with an attack of pneumonia and was quite ill for a time. Harley said Thursday night that apparently she now is on the road to full recovery.—Stamford American.

Scout Camporee Is To Be Held Here

The Boy Scouts of Post are now recalling their scouting skills, getting ready to enter the Comanche Trail District Camporee to be held at C. W. Post Memorial Boy Scout Camp here April 2 and 3.

The Camporee is "a demonstration of camping skills of two or more Scout Troops, which set up their own camp for one or more days and nights on the same camp site, for fun and good fellowship, and the opportunity to learn more about camping from each other."

Out of the Camporee come many values—the improvement of equipment for camping greater skills, more enjoyment, strengthening of the patrol system, development of boy leadership, pride in achievement, and character values through the actual living in camp under Scouting conditions and in fellowship with other Scouts. The Camporee helps the scoutmaster bring about in his troop the realization of the fundamental objectives of Scouting—"The development of men of character, trained for participating citizenship."

Camporees were started in Scouting in 1925 to give the boys a stronger desire to learn the Scouting skills. Since then, the Camporee has become one of the outstanding yearly events, since it is based on skills and carried out in competitive events, with recognition given to all troops and boys in those troops.

The two high point troops of the Comanche Trail District will represent the district at the South Plains Council Camporee to be held in Plainview, April 30-May 1.

All camping skills used in the Camporee and Camporee are taken from the Boy Scout Handbook. The events include such Scouting skills as: first aid, signaling, knot-tying, nature study, fire-building (flint and steel), water boiling, tent pitching, axmanship and compass reading.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Warren had as their guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Rob Strayhorn of Rotan and Mrs. H. B. Reed of Sweetwater.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Bouchier and Tommy spent Sunday in Snyder with the Joe Strayhorn family.

Southland Marine Visiting Parents

The former Southland High School student also is visiting another sister, Mrs. Clarence Terry, in Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Greenfield spent Sunday in Tulla with the Dan Altman family.

Post Students In Texas Tech Choir

Three Post students—Gaylord Anderson, Billie Ticer and Claudia Ticer—are members of Texas Tech's 56-voice choir, which will be the guest choir March 28 for the Dallas Symphony Orchestra's subscription concert in Dallas.

Dr. Gene Hemmie, director of the choir and head of the department of music at Tech, said the choir would sing Bach's "Cantata No. 4" in German. Walter Hendl, musical director and conductor of the Symphony, which gave a concert in Lubbock Feb. 15, heard the choir in rehearsal while in Lubbock.

The Dallas concert will start at 3 p. m. in McFarland Auditorium on the Southern Methodist University campus. On the same trip, the choir is scheduled to stop at the Arlington High School for a concert at 3 p. m. March 26, and following the Dallas concert, it will sing at the First Methodist Church in Dallas at its Sunday evening services. After the Dallas trip, a special concert is scheduled in Seagraves April 26.

The choir, one of the outstanding college vocal organizations in the Southwest, is the fourth choir to sing with the Symphony. Choirs from North Texas State College, Texas Christian University, and SMU have performed with the Symphony.

Tech's choir is made up of students of all classifications and represent all six of Tech's acad-

Post Girl Scout Troop Observes Fourth Anniversary With Dinner

This week is the 42nd anniversary of Girl Scouting in the United States and the fourth birthday of Troop One of Post. Members of the local troop met at Levi's Ranch Cafe last Wednesday night for dinner in observance of the occasion.

Each girl at the dinner received a gold star for perfect attendance during the year. Miss Maxine Durrett, president of the Woman's Culture Club which sponsors the troop, was guest of honor. She presented them with a $10 check from the sponsoring club. The meeting was closed with the friendship circle and taps.

The first Girl Scout Troop was organized by Juliet Low in Savannah, Ga. Post's Troop One was organized by Mrs. James Dietrich and Mrs. Vera King Cox in December 1949. Mrs. Phil Trammell replaced Mrs. Cox as assistant leader two years later.

Troop One's eight members are all first class scouts and have earned a total of 144 proficiency badges during the four years. Each girl has attended Camp Los Leonitas summer camp for at least one week.

Many activities, other than badge work, have been completed by the girls. Among them are school bags for schoolmates overseas, Christmas dolls for orphans overseas, adoption of a local family of four to remember at Christmas, and making United Nations flags for the school. Several members of the troop correspond with girls of Waling Waling Troop 1, Butan City, P. I.

The scouts also serve as program aids for Brownie troops and teach them songs, games and ceremonies. This is the last year of intermediate scouting for Troop One but all members are looking forward to four years with the Senior Service Scouts.

Woman's Culture Club, In 41st Year, Contributes To Projects

The Woman's Culture Club of Post was organized in 1913 and its motto, "If We Rest, We Rust" has been the motivation for its continued activity during these 41 years. Members have always been concerned with advancing the interests of the town and county in a civic and cultural way, as well as contributing liberally to the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, of which it became a member in 1914.

In years past, the group financed gravelled walks, fence and entrance to Terrace Cemetery at an estimated cost of $2,000. Its latest gift to the city was six war bonds for the city park, to be used at the discretion of the board.

During World Wars I and II, the women sponsored Red Cross work, sold war bonds and made thousands of garments, which were sent overseas.

Club women always take part in the Cancer Crusade, Heart Fund, March of Dimes and other welfare projects. For several years, CARE packages, money and blankets have been sent to war sufferers in Germany and Korea. In addition to these activities, the club is sponsoring the Girl Scouts of Post. Chairs have been donated to the scout hut and

Merrymakers To Quilt At Mrs. Crisp's Home

The Merrymakers Club will meet March 23 in the home of Mrs. H. N. Crisp. That will be gift day and club pals who have had birthdays or anniversaries will exchange gifts. The afternoon will be spent in quilting for the hostess.

Nine members attended the last meeting held in the home of Mrs. H. F. Wheatley.

picnics and other entertainments have been given for the girls.

During its 41 years, the club has brought many outstanding speakers to Post. Members participated in selling tickets for the Town Hall Concert series, and large groups have represented the club at book reviews and music programs in Lubbock on several occasions. At the present time, preparations are being made for a book review at the Baptist Church, March 26, at 7:30 p. m. At that time Mrs. Sherrill Boyd will review "The Twenty Years Revolution, From Roosevelt to Eisenhower," written by Chesley Manly, son of Mrs. J. P. Manly, long-time club member.

Club membership, though limited to 25, is democratic in nature, representing active civic and church workers from many different occupations.

Woman's Culture Club programs are cultural, informative, interesting and helpful. The current year's topic of study deals with the most recent scientific developments in almost every realm of life. One of the most enjoyable features of the monthly programs is the roll call in which each member responds with a fact of interest in the subject assigned to her such as "Time Savers," "Glamorous Dishes," "Do You Remember," "Garden Hints," "Medical Research," "Wit and Humor," "Poetry," "Travel," "Favorite Scriptures."

Local members have served on District and State Boards of the Federation of Women's Clubs and have been given medals for distinguished service. Last year, Mrs. Joe E. Boyd, now of Lubbock, earned a prize for the best poem of the year in the district and state.

TCU Student Has Wide Variety Of Hobbies; Room Is Small Museum

FORT WORTH (Spl.)—Frank Everett LaRue can spell the name of almost every snake in America, but he has to check his identification card to be certain of his middle name.

The Texas Christian University naturalist gives friends trouble in spelling his hobbies, too. He claims herpetology, anthropology, archeology, model railroad, and acy-deucey in this category.

The 20-year-old Athens junior first attracted attention on the campus when he walked around with snakes imprisoned inside his shirt.

His snake collection—all in Athens and all dead—includes four water moccasins, three blacksnakes, a bullsnake, a coachwhip, two diamond backed water snakes and a copperhead.

Also in captivity in Athens are three alligators, ranging in size from 12 to 41 inches. LaRue's uncle who keeps them claims he "has a lake full of them."

A special pet is "Allie" who, it is guessed, measures 14 feet. No one has cared enough about his accurate size to get close enough to measure him.

"The highest grade I ever got in English was on a research paper entitled 'The Sex Life of Alligators,'" the blond smiles. "And then the teacher wouldn't really believe that the male makes love by swimming up to the female and blowing bubbles on her chin."

LaRue got his start as a naturalist in Athens. He was made curator of a $5,000 museum donation to the high school by Clint Murchison, Dallas oil man. Frank added to the collection from his findings, and when he came to TCU was made a director.

While in high school, Frank brought out "LaRue's Annual"—the largest personal photo collection of anyone in the senior class. "I took more pictures that didn't make the yearbook than anyone else in Athens," he quips.

His room in Barracks Z, or "The Shamrock" as it is known on the campus, is really a small museum. Nailed to the back of the door are the skins of two diamond-backed rattlesnakes, both over five feet long. Against one wall is a plastiglass case containing two documents written in French, dated 1756, transferring ownership of slaves.

Also in the room is "George," an Indian skull picked up by a relative in an oil well "slush pit." The bookends on a shelf are made dinosaur bones.

LaRue likes to take his snakes alive and finds it has advantages. "Every high schooler dreams of a private room and I had one."

His hobby almost met an end when his parents found a snake in the piano—but it was only a small one," he claims.

Reptiles are not his only hobby. He has a model railroad layout in one side of his garage, tries his hand at oil painting, is working toward a private pilot's license and in his spare time, goes hunting and fishing.

do more work per day... more work per dollar!

You save extra trips. That's because of the extra load space you get in the new Advance-Design bodies. New pick-up bodies are deeper, new stake and platform bodies are wider and longer. Also, they're set lower for easier loading.

You save hours on the road. Thanks to new high-compression power, you can maintain faster schedules without driving at higher maximum speeds. Increased acceleration and hill-climbing ability let you save time where it counts.

You save time on deliveries. With new truck Hydra-Matic trans-

You save on operating costs. New power saves you money every mile! The "Thriftmaster 235" engine, the "Loadmaster 235" and the "Jobmaster 261" (optional on 2-ton models at extra cost) deliver increased operating economy.

You save with lower upkeep, too. Extra chassis strength saves you money on maintenance. There are heavier axle shafts in two-ton

Why fight the weather—or wait for it—and then get a poor clothes drying result and a waste of time?

An electric clothes dryer, by actual test, is more sanitary than drying under perfect outdoor conditions. Easier on you, too, for it takes just 30 seconds to shift the clothes from the washer to the dryer, while it takes at least an hour every washday to carry the clothes to and from the line.

Blind Seller Of Brooms, Post Man's Nephew, Also Spreads Inspiration

Blind Edward G. Pope, who has sold brooms to Dallas housewives for the last 35 years and never failed to give them more than their money's worth, is a nephew of L. G. Thuett, Sr., of the Close City community. Pope was the subject of a feature story in a recent issue of The Dallas Morning News.

In addition to quality merchandise, Pope delivers something that money can't buy, according to the story. That something is inspiration.

A long-time customer and friend puts it this way:

"Mr. Pope is simply a wonderful person. He has a world of friends, and that's because he's always cheerful. And because he's a thoughtful person—always considerate of others' feelings. He's grateful for any courtesy or kindness. His pride in his two sons is most admirable. And he has had the ambition it took to go it alone and make a successful and happy life for himself."

The 59-year-old Pope was born near Duncanville, along with a twin sister, now Mrs. Maggie Davis of Stigler, Okla.

He learned to read and write at home, but the year he was ten, he got in a session of formal schooling at Rendon, south of Fort Worth. He learned a lot that year, including a valuable lesson in thoughtfulness.

But tragedy hit twice in the Pope family that year. Ed's dad died, leaving the boy's mother with the twins and four other younger girls to rear.

Mrs. Pope took her brood to her father's farm, south of Fort Worth, and there the kids did chores for Grandfather Gregory Thuett and loved every minute of it.

One hot summer afternoon, young Ed was driving cattle out of a field for Grandpa Thuett, and something flew into his left eye, infecting it. The infection spread to the right eye, and it wasn't long until Ed couldn't see at all.

Blindness called for a big adjustment in the life of an active youngster, but young Pope was equal to it.

So the next year he entered the State School for the Blind at Austin, where he and the other kids learned a lot of useful skills.

Pope got out of school at Austin in 1916 and for a time sold The Dallas News at Main and Akard by night and wove chair bottoms by day. During World War II, he did important aircraft work at North American in Dallas.

During the past few years, Pope has sold brooms, mops, brushes and mats, carrying an assortment sometimes weighing as much as 85 pounds. By ingenious arrangement of his goods, he leaves his right hand free for his white cane, which serves him so well he never has used a seeing-eye dog.

Pope lives with a sister, Mrs. Judy Bollinger, in a home that he bought and paid for out of his own earnings. One of his sons, Sgt. Norman Pope, 28, is stationed at Hensley Field; was a top turret gunner on a B-17 during World War II. The other boy is Navy Lt. Edward Allen Pope, 30, a Pacific Helicopter pilot now stationed at San Diego, Calif.

Pope has visited his uncle here on two or three different occasions.

Although it no longer functions, the first lighthouse authorized by the U. S. Congress in 1789 and built in 1791 still stands at Cape Henry, Va.

Buffalo Barbecue Net Is $149.25

The buffalo barbecue held recently in the school cafeteria netted $149.25 for the underprivileged children's free lunch fund, it was reported Thursday night at a meeting of John Miller Post 6797 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Gross receipts from sale of tickets to the barbecue were $393.50. The buffalo cost the VFW post $100 and groceries for other items on the menu cost $144.25, leaving a net balance of $149.25, which is to be turned over to E. E. Pierce, cafeteria supervisor.

In addition to the money, the cafeteria benefitted in other ways from the barbecue. Originally scheduled for Feb. 19, it was postponed because of the bad sandstorm that day. Beans already cooked for the barbecue were given to the lunchroom. All the meat and other menu items left over Feb. 27, the day the barbecue was held, also were turned over to the cafeteria and were served the following Tuesday.

The VFW post's barbecue committee estimated that it lost approximately $30 by having to postpone the barbecue from the original date set for it.

Cotton Measuring Service Offered

Garza County cotton growers can arrange for official measurement of their 1954 farm cotton acreage allotments prior to planting time, the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee announced this week.

Julius C. Fumagalli, committee chairman, advised that to get the pre-measurement service, which is being provided on a cost basis, a cotton farmer must file a written request with the county ASC office prior to May 15, 1954. The rate to be charged for the service in Garza County has been established at $5 per farm plus $2 per plot for each plot over one, and payment based on this rate must be made at the time the request for measurement is filed. Fumagalli advises that "the pre-measurement is purely optional," and is offered as a service to growers who prefer to have an official measurement to use as a planting guide.

The chairman explains that all cotton acreage in the county will be measured as soon as possible after the cotton "comes up" to determine compliance with the acreage allotment marketing quota program. When compliance is checked, the farm will be considered to be within the farm acreage allotment if the crop is planted within the pre-measured acreage.

New allotment figures were mailed cooperators Tuesday morning, according to Mike E. Custer, ASC office manager.

A total of 153 county farmers received 1,682.6 additional acres based on the 65-40-47 amendment, and the remainder got increases totaling 562.4 acres out of the state acreage reserve.

The county's final acreage allotment for 1954 is 45,637 acres. Prior to the amendment it was 43,392 acres.

Fishermen Learn Of New Laws Too Late Save Confiscation Of Fish, Lines

Eight-man party of Post men learned all of a sudden Friday that the Republic of Mexico has a batch of new laws regarding fishing in that country to the fact that the fishermen didn't learn about the new laws until after they had spent several days at Sugar Lake and enroute home, they lost by location a goodly portion of their catch, as well as their trout and minnow seines. Mexican border officials informed them of the new fishing laws after they had stopped at the town of San Pedro, just across the Rio Grande from Roma-Los Saenz. Under the new laws, the officials said, fishermen are allowed to use only plugs or flies in Sugar Lake, and to carry away no more than 20 pounds of fish per fisherman.

The local fishermen lost heavily when the Mexicans weighed their fish—ice and all—and left each man with only 20 pounds, including the ice.

The officials are reported to have told the fishermen that since the laws had been in effect only "two or three days," they would not "stick" them with the usual fine—ranging

Cub Kite Contest To Be At Ralls

The Comanche Trail District kite flying contest for Cub Scouts is scheduled for 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon in a pasture one mile south of Ralls on the Post Highway.

First, second and third place prizes will be awarded for the highest flying kite and for the farthest flying kite.

First place prizes will go to owners of the smallest, largest, smallest box, largest box and most stable kites.

Cubs are required to make their own kites, although their dads will be allowed to help—to a certain extent. No store-bought kites will be eligible for any of the prizes.

they said, up to $100.

They also told the fishermen they would take their trotlines and seines back to the lake and show them to the guides in order that they (the guides) would be able to warn other fishing parties against the use of such equipment.

This idea set well with the Post fishermen, since two Mexican guides had rented them two trotlines of 400 hooks each.

Members of the local fishing party reported that it was necessary for an interpreter to be called to the scene before the matter at the border could be straightened out. One of the fishermen prevailed upon the Mexicans to give them receipts for the confiscated fish and equipment.

L. A. Presson, one of the members of the party, said he missed the border incident by leaving camp early to visit in Kingsville and San Antonio on the way home.

If the group had been allowed to bring all their fish home, they'd have reached here with a nice catch of channel cat, ranging in size from two to four pounds. They said the weather was good for fishing, and not many other fishermen were at the lake, due to the earliness of the season.

Four of the party, Presson, Marshall Mason, Dr. A. C. Surman and Douglas Livingston, made a side-trip to Monterrey, returning to the camp at the lake by way of Reynosa. Others in the group were Paul Duren, Sr., Bill Woods, C. N. Chandler and Irving Chandler.

Sugar Lake, long a popular spot for fishermen from this area, is about 20 miles inside Mexico. The Post fishermen camped at a site about 35 miles from the border.

Linda Ward spent the weekend in Levelland with the Bruce Shepherd family.

WORKOUTS TO BEGIN SUNDAY

Baseball Meeting Set For Tonight

Plans for the Post Wood Bees' 1954 baseball season will be made tonight at a meeting at O. C. Garner Appliance Co. on the Tahoka Highway. The meeting will start at 7 o'clock.

O. C. (Oscar) Garner, manager, asks all players and others interested in this year's team to attend the meeting. He was in

Wheat Sees Chance To Harvest Wins

The Philadelphia Athletics, who had been wondering what they got for Outfielder Dave Philley in the recent deal with the Cleveland Indians, learned the answer last week. If nothing else, says The Sporting News, they got a lot of beef in the person of Leroy William Wheat, six feet, four inches and 202 pounds, plus William Ray Upton, six feet and 167 pounds.

"It's the first real baseball workout I've had in three years," Wheat explained to a writer for the national baseball weekly after his first appearance in A's livery. "I pitched some down in Texas while in the field artillery—won 15 games in 1952—but the competition wasn't much, and we didn't devote our full time to baseball. Naturally, I worked out some with the Indians when I received my discharge last year, but nothing like this."

The Indians, of course, were already in full swing when Wheat joined them. That was in June, and under the regulations, Leroy could have stayed with them the rest of the season if he desired.

"I wanted to," Wheat related, "and I did stay five weeks. But in the whole time I never had a chance to do more than pitch in batting practice. One day the White Sox beat us by something like 18 to 2, and Al Lopez used every pitcher he had except Ted Wilks and me."

"I was surprised when I heard I'd been traded to the Athletics," Wheat continued. "But I was glad. Maybe I can do more pitching with the Athletics than I could with the Indians."

Bucs Have Another Southpaw Catcher

Fred Waters, one of the three pitchers the Pirates received from Milwaukee in the deal for Danny O'Connell is not going to be a pitcher after all. That is, if Branch Rickey, Buc general manager, clicks with his plan to make a catcher out of the southpaw who won ten games and lost the same number for Lincoln (Western League) last summer.

Rickey believes Waters should make the grade as a lefthanded catcher because he throws the ball naturally overhand and in addition is rated a pretty good hitter. Waters says he caught about ten games in high school and semi-pro ball and is all for the experiment.

Meanwhile, Dale Long, the lefthanded first baseman who was tried as a catcher by Rickey a few years ago and failed, is back in the Pirate camp as a first baseman.

Pat Monahan, veteran scout, reports that on a recent trip to Lubbock Monday to purchase approximately $70 worth of new equipment, including bats, catcher's equipment, and other items.

Baseball workouts will get under way Sunday afternoon at the Post-Tex Mill diamond in the southeast part of town. The Wood Bees' first game will be here April 19 against the Lubbock Hubbers of the West Texas-New Mexico League.

Garner said prospects are good for a better team than last season's, which won 13 games and lost four. All those who played last season are back, plus five or six others who have been discharged from the armed forces during the past few months.

"We are looking forward to a great season," Garner said. "Last year, 15 of the Wood Bees' 17 games were played on the home diamond, and Post baseball fans can expect another attractive home schedule this season."

Homer, who was a member of the 1953 Post Antelope football squad, was catching without a mask when the accident occurred.

ATTENDS CLINIC

V. F. (Bing) Bingham, Post High School football coach, attended the Texas Tech Coaching Clinic last weekend.

Post Thinktads To Lubbock Friday

The Post High School track and field team, with only a few days of practice behind them, will compete Friday in a meet at Lubbock in which at least eight teams are entered.

The bad weather of the past few weeks has slowed track practice, and Coach "Bing" Bingham said Tuesday it was still too early for him to know just who would be entered in what at the Lubbock meet.

Baseball practice is also under way under the supervision of Coach Vernon Ray. The high school athletes were given their choice of choosing between the two spring sports. About 25 candidates are out for track.

The high school did not field a track team last year. Teams besides Post competing at Lubbock Friday will be O'Donnell, Tahoka, Slaton, Floydada, Abernathy, Ralls and Matador.

Grade Cagers Lose To Lorenzo, 35-34

Post's grade school basketball team, coached by Herman F. Raphael, closed its season Monday night with a 35-34 loss to Lorenzo in the Crosbyton tournament.

At one point in the game, the Post cagers held a 25-13 lead. Earlier in the tournament, they had defeated Crosbyton, 21-18. The team has had a very successful season, bringing second place trophies home from the Southland and Graham tournaments and losing only five games during the season.

Members of the squad are: Sidney Hart, Herbie Hays, Billy Williams, Jimmy Short, Marshall Ticer, Scotty Pierce, Curtis Didway, Jerry Windham, Earl Mitchell, Baker Bledsoe, Kenny Poole and Jerry Ray.

Track practice was to get under way at the grade school this week, Raphael said.

Miss Jessie Pearce, Garza County home demonstration agent, attended an agents' training course in Seminole Monday.

Floyd Seaton and Denzil Lawrence spent the weekend at Gorman visiting Floyd's folks, who recently moved there from Post.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Green and boys of Morton and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hendrix and family of Lubbock visited Saturday night and Sunday in the R. E. Cox home.

Post Students Are Honored At Tech

More than 300 students and 12 student organizations at Texas Technological College in Lubbock were honored Wednesday in the eighth annual Recognition Service, held at 10 a. m. in the Gymnasium.

Included in the group were N. Travis Francis of Post, a junior student, and Jack Kirkpatrick of Post, a sophomore.

Francis was one of 102 students receiving scholastic hon-

'Hoppers Seen As Threat To Crops

COLLEGE STATION (Spl.)—Grasshoppers, one of the nation's major agricultural pests, may be more abundant in some areas this year.

Barring weather and other natural conditions that might affect their populations, infestation surveys conducted last fall indicate these insects will need to be controlled over wide areas of the United States to avoid excessive crop and range damage.

On western ranges the survey showed grasshoppers in such numbers to warrant large-scale control efforts on 4,700,000 acres in parts of 13 states. If 'hoppers' develop normally, entomologists expect the greatest need for organized control to be centered in the Texas and Oklahoma Panhandles, in north central New Mexico, south central Colorado and in central Idaho.

Other western states with potentially serious grasshopper infestations are Arizona, California, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, Oregon, Utah and Wyoming.

Kirkpatrick was presented as one of the Red Raider athletic lettermen.

VEGETARIAN CAT

EAU CLAIRE, S. C.—There's a vegetarian cat here with a yen for ripe, red tomatoes and juicy cantaloupes. The tabby is a lean specimen of the alley variety, and won't touch table scraps of ham, chicken and beef. Cooked butter beans, fresh green peppers, and popcorn are other diet favorites for the cat.

April's Plentiful Foods Are Listed

COLLEGE STATION (Spl.)—Potatoes, onion, broilers, fryers and dairy products headline the USDA's April plentiful foods list.

Supplies of these foods are large in this region, says John J. Slaughter of the Agricultural Marketing Service.

Also seasonally plentiful are eggs, beef and cabbage. Other selections include raisins, fresh and processed oranges and grapefruit and canned cranberry sauce.

Completing April's list are peanuts and peanut butter, table fats, salad oils, and vegetable shortening.

Cotton Support Is Set At 31.25c

WASHINGTON—Cotton will be supported at a national average of not less than 31.25 cents a pound this year, the Agriculture Department has announced.

Last year's average was 30.80 cents. Both averages were support prices of 90 per cent of parity, the minimum support level permitted by law.

Parity is the standard for measuring farm prices and is declared by law to be fair to farmers in relation to prices they pay for things they buy.

The minimum rate is higher this year because the parity price is higher now than a year ago.

The base rate applies to middling 7/8-inch cotton. Appropriate differentials will be set up for the various grades and staple lengths, the department said, and will be announced later.

If the parity price is higher at the start of the marketing season Aug. 1, the support rate will HARTFORD, Conn. — Dated milk bottle caps are coming back to Connecticut. Last year, the legislature abolished a law requiring caps to show the date the milk was pasteurized. Officials decided to restore the date on caps, but it will be the delivery rather than the pasteurization date. Housewives say they don't care which it is providing it's a date.

Pumping Discovery Well Is Completed

Operator has taken potential and completed a pumping discovery well from the San Andres in northwestern Garza County.

The Joseph I. O'Neill, Jr., No. 1 Mrs. Gladys Floyd pumped 93-63 barrels of oil plus 25.65 barrels of water on initial 24-hour production test. There was no report of gravity or gas-oil ratio.

The well was drilled to a total depth of 3,454 feet in lime and has seven-inch casing set at that depth. The casing is perforated from 3,406-3,430 and 3,440-3,450 feet. The exposed intervals had been treated with 3,000 gallons of regular acid.

Location is 380 feet from south and 330 feet from east lines of Section 1298, D&WRR and TTRR Surveys, SF-1442 and SF-1442 1/2, four and one-half miles northwest of Post and one and one-half miles northwest of production in the Garza field.

New Service For Buyers, Sellers

A project to bring together buyers and sellers of farm products is under way by the marketing committee of the Garza County Home Demonstration Council, Miss Jessie Pearce, home demonstration agent, said Tuesday.

Those wishing to buy or sell farm products are asked to mail postcards listing the items they wish to buy or sell to Mrs. Lonnie Peel, Route 2, Post, who is chairman of the council's marketing committee.

Mrs. Peel will keep two card files—one for sellers, the other for buyers. When she learns of someone wanting to buy products listed for sale, she will drop them a card, if she has the desired items in the sellers' file.

Both buyers and seller sending in cards are asked to describe the items and to include their name and address. Those using the service are asked to mail a separate card for each
