

Low Level Nuclear Waste Site on Ranch in NE Garza County

Base Bookbinding
544 W. 7th St.
Amarillo, Tx. 79101

After being informed by Texas Low-level Radiation Authority director Tom Blackburn yesterday that Garza County is a possible site for the low-level radioactive waste site, county commissioners met in a called meeting Tuesday afternoon to strongly oppose any and all plans for such a site here.

Blackburn informed County Judge Giles Dalby at noon Tuesday, in person, that the low-level waste authority had entered into an option to buy a quarter section of land two miles south of Kalgary for the site.

The site contains 175.70 acres of land and belongs to the Betty B. Bills estate, with Charles Bills of Waco the executor.

Legal description of the property is the southwest half of section 66, H&NG Survey, Block Two.

Blackburn also notified the judge that all public officials would be advised Tuesday of the option, including Governor Mark White and Lt. Governor Bill Hobby, State Senator John Montford and State Representtative Steve Carriker.

A public announcement would also be made Wednesday.

The Texas Low-Level Waste Authority, with Blackburn, Lawrence Jacobi and Robert

Avant, first met with the county commissioners March 26 to advise them that Garza County was one of 16 counties being considered.

Shortly after that meeting,

Blackburn entered into negotiations with an absentee land owner, telling him that Garza County commissioners were in

Church Fellowship

Are you bored with nothing to do on Thursday nights?

Starting June 7, the youth ministry of First Baptist Church will be sponsoring a Thursday night Fellowship time called Thursday Nights Live.

Everyone from Junior High through High School is invited to attend. The first meeting will be held at the public swimming pool, Thursday, June 7 at 7 p. m.

There will be a time of swimming, refreshments, as well as a Bible study time. For more information, call 495-2814.

For What It's Worth

By Dabney Post

Thank you citizens who took heed and signed up for the Western Texas College Extension here this summer.

Only the Government class survived with 15 signing up for the course. Class will last nine weeks on Wednesday nights from 6 to 10:10 p. m. Last week was the first week of classes.

I am sorry to hear of the resignation of Becky King. I personally think she has done a splendid job in her endeavors here and I hate to see her go. I do wish her the very best in her new adventures.

And then Dee Justice brought to my attention an article which appeared in some paper concerning Western Texas College' president, Don Newbury.

It seems as though Mr. Newbury was stopped for speeding between Snyder and Post. He noticed on the citation that the arresting officer's name was Cardinal and the JP's name was Justice.

Two things made Newbury feel better about that speeding ticket, which, was his first in 25 years. Two weeks later David Rockefeller presented a $10,000 Rockefeller Foundation award to Snyder High School for its fine arts program.

City manager to Enter Law School

City manager Rebecca King submitted her resignation to the Post city council at the regular meeting Monday night.

Mrs. King has been accepted to attend Texas Tech School of Law and her resignation is effective July 1.

Mayor Giles McCrary and council members expressed their appreciation to Mrs. King for her dedication and efficient service to the city for the past two years, and accepted the resignation with regrets.

After a lengthy discussion about appointing an interim city manager, the council authorized advertising to be placed in local newspapers for a replacement.

Mayor Giles McCrary suggested appointing city code enforcement officer Delbert Rudd to serve as temporary interim city manager, but faced stiff opposition from council member Weaver McKamie.

"I was elected by the people to make sure Delbert Rudd does not become city manager," Mrs. McKamie insisted.

Mayor McCrary explained that someone needed to be in charge at the city after July 1, no matter who it was.

"The continuity of what Becky has been doing with these grants and other major projects must be continued," McCrary explained, and the alternative is to leave the city without consistent direction until a replacement for Becky is found, which might take several months."

McKamie and councilman Jack Ault both insisted that no interim city manager appointment is necessary and that advertising for a city manager appointment is necessary and that advertising for a city manager should start locally.

The discussion ended with an agreement to meet next Monday evening to review prospective applicants.

The four and one-half hour council meeting included 23 agenda items.

Among the more important items was Burlington Industries' deed for the wastewater ponds to the city, which includes 185 acres near the Postex plant.

Commonwealth Theaters Inc. of Kansas City, Mo. offered to contribute the two old theater buildings to the city at no cost.

The council authorized a letter expressing appreciation and tentative approval, pending an engineering study on the cost of repairing the Tower Theater building.

A permit to operate a cement plant was also approved by the council, subject to the owners' meeting state air pollution standards. The plant is being constructed on Hwy 380 east, owned by Buddy Hutto and Tom Gibson.

The council also discussed the Texas Aeronautical Commission's 1983 inspection letter and request for an answer.

Councilman Bill Poole reminded the council of the importance of answering the letter, although in the past the council was told that the county commissioners planned to answer TAC.

After a detailed discussion of the city and county maintenance responsibilities, Mayor Giles McCrary was asked to speak to County Judge Giles Dalby about the issue, with the council also directing the city manager to draft a letter of response to the TAC on what the city has done to correct the inspection items.

Three airport board members' terms expired in November 1983, with those positions to be appointed by the county commissioners on a rotating annual basis with the city.

Pippin Re-Elected, Commissioners ???

Jim Pippin was re-elected to another four year term as Sheriff Saturday when he received 855 votes of the 1,522 total votes cast.

His opponent, Donney Walker received a total of 647.

Absentee voting was at an all time high with 133 votes cast before the election Saturday.

The other two local elections were close throughout with Tommy Young receiving 213 votes for the County Commission, Precinct 3 race, while incumbent, Mike Cisneros received 207.

Two board member terms are due to expire in November 1984, to be appointed by the city.

The County Commissioner, Precinct 1 was even closer with incumbent, T. D. "Buck" Craft receiving 235 while his opponent, Darrell Jones received 231. At press time Tuesday, both, Jones and Cisneros had asked for a recount.

Oilfield Theft Stopped

Jim Bob Weatherford, 51, a parolee of Huntsville, was arrested in Garza County Thursday night, May 31 and charged with felony theft and remains in Garza County Jail on a $50,000 bond.

Weatherford, a resident of the Eagle Wing Half Way House in Lubbock, is allegedly responsible for the theft of over $10,000 worth of oil field equipment including at least $8,000 worth of copper wire which he sold in Lubbock.

The arrest came about after Weatherford was followed in Lubbock Thursday by two Lubbock deputies, a Texas Ranger and Sheriff Jim Pippin and then made his way back to Post.

After stopping at a local tavern until nightfall, the subject then made his way back to Highway 84, turning in to the Conoco-Huntley Lease Yard.

He reportedly broke the lock off the gate and started loading his vehicle with rolls of copper wire.

he was under observance during this time with Sheriff Pippin and other officers within 25 yards of the suspect.

The suspect allegedly took four wheels and tires off a pickup along with three other tires out of the warehouse at the Dorward Field, 7½ miles from Justiceburg along with wrenches, the jack used to remove the tires with and copper wire and other various oil field equipment.

He also reportedly took copper wire from the Rocker A Field yard worth approximately $8,000 and after burning the insulation covering it, sold it in Lubbock.

Valves, wrenches, gauges and wire were found in a gravel pit near Lubbock along with other oil field equipment, with everything stolen in Garza County being recovered with the exception of the wire sold and some wheels.

Weatherford was paroled (Continued on P.7)

Post Named as Sesquicentennial City

The city of Post has been designated a Texas Sesquicentennial City and a special ceremony will mark the event on Friday, June 29.

The announcement was made by Maxine Earl at a Sesquicentennial committee meeting last week.

Attending the planning session were Dr. Stephen Chun, Sue Chun, Jack Alexander, Candace McConnell, Patty Kirkpatrick, Jack King, Arthur Kelly, Mike Barber, David Newby, Ruby Kirkpatrick, Dick Tanner, Colleen England, Boo Olson, Lewis Earl, Pee Wee Pierce and Wes Burnett.

Mrs. Earl pointed out the importance of planning community-wide events throughout the year of 1986 to commemorate the 150th anniversary of Texas Independence.

Jack King briefed the group on plans for the 75th anniversary celebration at the First National Bank, which includes a Pioneer Day and other activities during the week of June 26.

The bank's anniversary celebration culminates in a country and western musical concert at the courthouse (Continued on P.7)

The Way I See It.....

Last week I received a call from a friend, who asked me about the "big shoot-out" in my office between the two candidates for sheriff.

It seems this friend had heard from another friend that candidate Walker had "lost his cool" and a shouting match ensued between Sheriff Pippin and Walker.

At The Post Dispatch. In front of me and others in the office.

Folks, it just didn't happen.

My friend, and his friend, were simply misinformed.

What's worse, in my opinion, is that this sort of contrived gossip is not unusual.

And, for some reason beyond my imagination, people seem to enjoy making up stories and making them sound plausible enough to be true.

The story about the sheriff's candidates is an example of this sort of rotten behavior.

I know the circumstances on this encounter, I was here...the two candidates were in my office at the same time for no more than 30 seconds...one came in, the other left...there were no words...

The story told to me by my friend sounded like two mad-men at each other's throats...simply an outrageous manufacturing and bold-faced untruth!

What really irks me is that almost every day during the election I heard one story or another about each of the sheriff's candidates...each sounding so very true.

One group of supporters repeated damaging stories about the opposing candidate.

I reached the point of saturation last week and turned the whole thing off in my mind.

The behavior of a limited number of our citizens with this gossip is embarrassing at the very least.

I'm not sure how decent folks go about correcting this gossip and rumor problem... perhaps it is best done by my friend, who called me to find out the truth of the story he had heard.

Maybe more of "checking the facts" would help cut through some of the garbage that spreads around town about this person or that.

One thing we all have to keep in mind, if the gossip can attack anyone...it can also attack us personally.

Don't be surprised if your name comes up in one of these "wild stories" which appear now and then.

And if you participate in the spreading of the gossip probably count on being the victim of a gossip yourself at some point.

For me, I simply ask you to keep your gossip to yourself...juicy or not, I'd just as soon not have to sort through the "garbage" to find the truth.

Surely, we all have better things to do with our time and talents than to go around spreading stories about our neighbors.

I urge you to rise above this sort of behavior to a higher level of love and concern of your fellow human beings.

City Loses Dedicated Servant

By wes Burnett

The dream of a life-time takes a dedicated civil servant away from Post next month as city manager Rebecca King enters law school at Texas Tech.

From an English school teacher, to a respected county judge to the hot-seat as city manager in Post, Mrs. King now returns to college to do what she has wanted to do since first graduating from college.

When she came to Post two years ago as city manager, she filled a desperate void of leadership and direction and has guided Post through two of the most tumultuous years in its history.

Just a few of the projects under her leadership that have been accomplished for the citizens of Post:

1. Reworked, maintained and replaced several thousand feet of water and sewer lines.

2. Instigated and received a grant to complete a $94,000 water-sewer project for the entire Northeastern section of Post.

3. Completed new lines to areas not before included in the city sewer system.

4. Outlined and clarified the city's water system, returning maintenance of private lines to owner responsibility.

5. Approximately 70 blocks of city streets have received seal coat treatment and 18 blocks of new paving with curb and gutter is presently being completed.

6. Replacement of eight utility poles, fitted with quartz lights, 25 other quartz light fixtures, and electrical wiring replaced in a secured building at the baseball park.

7. Applying for and receiving a $109,823 grant for the city-county parks.

8. Improvements at the EMS facilities for training and ambulance garage.

9. Rewiring with safety and convenience features for the library building and interior maintenance.

10. Repaired roof work on all city-owned buildings.

11. Application and receipt of a $202,000 state grant to repair the airport runway.

Mrs. King also spent uncounted hours of personal time during the closing of the Postex plant, coordinating employment opportunities and unemployment benefits, as well as long hours working to find a replacement industry.

Obituary

Darlean White

Funeral services for Wesley Darlean White, 70, were held Saturday, June 1 at 3 p. m. in the Post Church of Christ, with Paul Jones, pastor, officiating and Silas Short, assisting.

Born December 13, 1913 in Parker County, he died Friday morning in Lubbock's Methodist Hospital following a lengthy illness.

White came to Garza County at the age of 13 with his parents to farm in the Close City Community area. He married Jewell Roberts, September 28, 1943 in Tahoka. They farmed in Garza County since their marriage and he retired from farming in 1978.

He had been a member of the Church of Christ for 26 years and was a veteran of World War II serving in the Air Force.

Survivors include his wife, Jewell; one daughter, Janice Blankenship of Lubbock; one grandson, Mark Blankenship of Lubbock; two brothers, L. C. White of Post and D. L. White of House, New Mexico; three sisters, Dorothy Stone of Abernathy, Ima Poff of Lubbock and Dixie Baxley of Slaton.

Pallbearers included Elmo Bush, Thurman Francis, James Mitchell, Mike Custer, John Gist and J. F. Brandon.

Burial was in the Grassland Cemetery under the direction of Justice-Mason Funeral Home.

Council member Weaver McKemie summed up the attitude of many folks as she expressed her appreciation to Mrs. King during Monday night's city council meeting:

"I didn't know Becky when I wrote my first letter to the editor...and now I know her and she is just one Rockefeller's plane landed in Lubbock and he drove over from there. He got a speeding ticket, too.

The other happy note for Newbury, was that he avoided having to pay for his ticket by taking an eight hour defensive driving course which he had no trouble passing. He took it at Western Texas College.

So that only goes to show, you never know who's driving through Post and our law enforcement people are very impartial!!

And then there's the story about the Post folk who ventured out to White really fine person..."

Mrs. King has taken a lot of flack during the past two years for trying to move Post into the 1980s through aggressive management and attention to detail.

I believe Post is a much better place to live today as a result of her personal dedication.

River Lake for an outing, taking their motorcycles along. Unexpectedly, a rain came. Some took cover, others did not. Betty Posey enjoyed the rain so much, she stood out in the rain and hail with her motorcycle helmet on.

And then there's the letter to the editor which appeared in last weeks Dispatch from Philip K. Jordan. It seems as though the letter wasn't meant for publication, but as a private letter for Mr. Burnett.

Which only goes to show, you don't leave NOTHING laying around in this office or it gets in.

Petroleum Folks Get Special Thanks Saturday

A family-style barbecue supper with musical entertainment and a host of door prizes is on tap Saturday, June 9 during the Post Chamber of Commerce sponsored Petroleum Industry Appreciation Day.

Activities will open with a washer pitching contest at the Jr. Livestock grounds and a fashion show and other activities are scheduled for the ladies at the First National Bank-Community Room from 1:30 until 3 p. m.

Ted Williams and Monk Palmer are coordinating the washer pitch.

Colleen England, Garza County Home Economics agent, is coordinating the events for the ladies which include a demonstration of making crocheted vests beginning at 1:30. The demonstration will be given by Shelia Forrest and Jean Lamberson of Slaton. The demonstration will be followed by a 2:30 p. m. fashion show with local models showing fashions from La Posta, Twins Fashions and Jaes.

Ladies activities will end with a come and go reception at 3 p. m.

There is no charge for the ladies' events.

Washer pitch teams, limited to residents of Garza County, will post a $25 entry fee, which will be used for prize money.

The barbecue supper begins at 5 p. m., with tickets for the event being distributed by Chamber of Commerce members to their petroleum industry customers.

"We want to emphasize that this special day is a family event," Chamber of Commerce director and project Chairman, Charles Wallace comments, "and we'll all be in real casual wear... so we want everyone in the oil field to come on out and have a good time."

Anti-Browning Agents for Food Preservation
Special treatments can be given to the cut surface of certain fruits and vegetables to prevent discoloration when they are canned, frozen or dried.

To stop browning in fruits, several choices are available. Ascorbic acid, or vitamin C, is an effective anti-oxidant. You can buy vitamin C tablets or crystals at a drug store or supermarket and then crush or dissolve them. Ascorbic acid is used most often with apples, apricots, nectarines, peaches and pears.

Citric acid comes in a powder that you can get at a drug store. It's about a third as effective as ascorbic acid for controlling darkening. So to get the same result you could wind up masking the delicate flavors of some fruits.

Lemon juice contains both ascorbic and citric acids. Fresh and bottled lemon juice has about five percent acid strength, so it's about one sixth as effective as ascorbic acid for preventing darkening. Even more of a flavor-masker than citric acid, it also adds a distinctive lemony taste to the food.

Commercial color-preservers are widely available in supermarkets by the home canning supplies. Some brands have a sugar base with ascorbic acid and an anti-caking agent. Another brand contains sugar and citric acid, plus several other ingredients, but no ascorbic acid. Commercial products can be expensive to use because of the relatively small proportion of ascorbic acid in the mixture. So read the label, both to find out how much to use for canning or freezing and to learn what you're paying for.

At least one color-preserver for cut potatoes contains sodium bisulfite. Now that sodium bisulfite has come under fire as a health hazard to allergy prone consumers, some people are wondering what would be a suitable substitute. Citric acid can be substituted in the following proportions: use 1 teaspoon citric acid per cup of water as a soaking solution for fresh fruits and vegetables. If the product tastes too tart, add 1 teaspoon of sugar or more to the solution.

For more information on home food preservation, call Colleen at 495-2050.

If you need to have your pressure cooker tested bring the lid to one of these Pressure Cooker Testing Clinics.

June 15 - 2:00 p.m. til 4:30 p.m. at the Graham Community Center,

June 19 - 2:00 p.m. til 4:30 p.m. at the Reddy Room,

June 21 - 2:00 p.m. til 4:30 p.m. at the Hackberry Gin.

Commercial Pectins
Commercial pectin is a by-product of the frozen and canned citrus and apple industries. It's available in either liquid or powder form. Powdered pectin has a long shelf-life, but the liquid must be used promptly after opening. Both types of pectin have good gelling ability, although there is some variation among brands. Commercial pectins also have no pronounced flavor to mar the fruit flavors with which they are combined.

The pectin you can buy in the supermarket is a high-sugar product requiring about 50 - 65 percent sugar to form a gel. A low-sugar, or low-methoxyl, pectin is used commercially to make dessert mixes, canned salads and sugarless jellies. But these low-sugar pectins cannot currently be purchased on the retail market.

Scout troop enjoys overnight camp

Girl Scout Troop 235, 5th grade through High School, returned last Friday evening from their troop overnight camping trip. The girls left Thursday morning and traveled to the site for their camp out on the ranch owned by Mr. & Mrs. Edwin Kyle near Clairemont. After setting up camp and eating lunch, the girls were treated to riding horses belonging to the Kyle's.

Later that evening, the girls prepared their supper and enjoyed an evening of fun around the campfire before turning in for the night.

Breakfast the next morning was also prepared by the girls over the campfire as was lunch later in the day. After breakfast, the troop hiked several miles down through the creekbed and canyon near their campsite, returning up through the hills behind the Kyle's home.

That afternoon, after a thoroughly enjoyable trip, the girls picked up camp and returned to Post.

This overnight camping trip with the horseback riding finished off requirements for the "Horse Lover" badge for the Junior Scouts and the "Horse Sense" interest project patch for the Cadette Scouts. The girls have visited several area ranches and businesses working on these awards including Bob West Saddlery, Caprock Veterinary Hospital, Jack Kirkpatrick Ranch, Double U Ranch, and the Bob Macy Ranch. The troop also visited with Glenna Rieter and learned some about her horses.

Also applying toward the awards which will be given out this week, was the troop's trip to Buffalo Springs Lake Stables on May 21st. Rex Prather and his family rode with and instructed the girls while they enjoyed riding horses around the lake.

Members of the troop include Juniors - Rosalind Curtis, Leslie Martinez, Rhonda Worley, Lana Scott, Shana Scott, Brenda Abraham, Jana Hudman, Tina Poe, Joyce Poe, and Angela Tobias.

Affiliated with the nationally televised Miss National Teen-Ager Pageant, the Miss National Pre-Teen Pageant is the only pageant for girls 8-12 in which 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands are represented. The Miss National Pre-Teen Pageant is now in its fourth year.

More than $100,000 in cash prizes was awarded to the state contestants in 1983. In 1984 Miss National Pre-Teen, as a winner of the national pageant, will receive a 7-day cruise for herself and her parents with all meals, entertainment, accommodations and round trip airfare to the port of embarkation included. In addition, she will receive a cash award, a color portrait and many other gifts.

The Miss National Pre-Teen Pageant is a member of the United States Chamber of Commerce and the Fort Myers Chamber of Commerce.

lawn, Saturday afternoon June 29.

"We are inviting past employees and officers of the bank to come to Post Saturday for a special reception and we hope other organizations in town could be doing the same thing," King explained.

After the bank holds its reception for former employees and officers, the group plans to join other "Pioneer Days" groups at the Community Center for a community-wide fellowship.

"If our community organizations could invite former members to visit Post during this special time, we could really join hands in a big celebration," King added.

The musical entertainment that day will feature the popular Hoyle Nix and his western band.

A wide variety of ideas for the 1986 celebration were discussed.

favor of the negotiations, according to information provided by the land owner to the commissioners.

After learning of this conversation, commissioners passed a resolution stating that the entire commissioners court opposed the waste site dump in this county, and all commissioners and the judge signed the resolution.

This resolution squelched the negotiations, with the letter being sent to Blackburn.

Blackburn advised Judge Dalby Tuesday that subject to coring and evaluation of the property, a settlement could be made with the land owner.

The property lies in the northeastern corner of Garza County, within a half-mile of Crosby County and six miles from the Kent County line.

Two public hearings will be held, following the announcement of an agreement with the land owners.

Post City Directory

Census takers working for Johnson Publishing Company are contacting local residents to obtain current information to update the new Post City Directory.

The survey workers are all local residents and will be contacting people by telephone or by sending Direct Mail questionnaires. Residents will be asked to provide both the husband and wife's first names and occupations, whether or not they own their home, address, telephone number, and names and birthdates of minor children. Persons 18 or older will be given a separate listing.

Business firms will be asked to provide the correct business name, address, telephone number, names of owners and officers, number of local employees, and business description. There is no charge to be listed in the directory.

Residents contacted by the survey workers will not be asked to buy anything. Information gathered in the survey is to be published in the next Post City Directory, a community reference book used by local businesses, emergency services, and governmental agencies to improve products and services to area residents.

from Huntsville on a burglary charge.

Sheriff's officers also investigated a motorcycle accident which occurred Saturday, June 2 at 5:44 p.m.

The motorcycle, driven by Alvin Taylor was traveling East on 14th Street, when a car, driven by Harold Johnston, also traveling East on 14th ahead of Taylor, attempted to turn into a private drive. The motorcycle struck the car on the left side with Taylor sustaining injuries to his back, shoulder, pelvis and foot. He was taken to Lubbock by the Post EMTs. Johnston received a cut to the head.

Officers also arrested two subjects for DWI during the week with both released on $750 bond; arrested a female subject for assault and released on a $188.50 fine and court costs and arrested a male subject on a Lubbock County warrant.

Unleavened

By Pastor Steve Traw
First Christian Church
Each spring the nation Israel celebrated the Feast of Unleavened Bread. This seven day ceremony began on the evening of the Passover celebration. The commemoration of the death angel passing over Jewish homes had just ended. The chosen lamb had been slain. Its blood sprinkled upon the door gave safety to those within living in Egyptian bondage. Now that the paschal lamb had been sacrificed, the assembly of the people marked the new festivity. It began with a complete purging of leaven from every household. Leaven was that small portion of fermented dough left from the preceding baking of bread. It was strictly forbidden in the priestly ritual. Leaven's ability to cause disintegration and corruption by permeating the whole mass of dough made it a descriptive symbol of evil and the energy of sin.

As a people celebrated their exodus from the land of bondage, no leaven was to be used nor eaten.

The apostle writes the first century at Corinth. He assumes their knowledge for this custom given in Exodus 12. The brief but clear advice is still most fitting for the people of this century.

Christ our Passover has also been sacrificed. His redeeming work upon the cross, it is finished, the blood applied to His own by their trusting in Him.

Paul tells his Christian audience they are in fact unleavened. Clean out the old leaven. Do you know that a little leaven affects the whole? This is his message of I Corinthians chapter five.

As he encourages us to celebrate the feast, it is not beginning anew the custom of a past era. Rather it is giving the vivid picture of the purging of malice and wickedness in lives within the church.

The Christian life is a purging of the old for a celebration of the newness of sincerity and truth even as the Feast of the Unleavened Bread followed immediately upon the Passover.

Pleasant Home Church News

By Annie Gilbert

First on the Agenda Pleasant Home Baptist Church 25th year Revival was a great success. Spiritual food for the Soul Reverend Sister L.E. Moore of Dallas Texas brought Spiritual Messages each night. The close-out was a great boom. At the Musical the spiritual soul seekers and Spiritual wonders of Lubbock came with a spiritual treat on Saturday night June 2nd and sung praises to the glory of God from their hearts and souls. All in attendance had a rocking, glorious hallelujah time. God was truly in the Midst we thank God for such lovely worship services. Thank you Jesus. Services were great with Sunday school lesson subject-God's People Demand a King I Samuel 12:14-25 Golden Text: Fear the Lord, and serve him in truth with all your heart: for Consider how great things he hath done for you - I Samuel 12:24 a good lesson. Everyone was at their post of duty. Devotion Deacon Osby, Sister's Fisher Wynn, Thelma Moore, Callie Harper and Sister Wynn read the entire number 41 Psalms.

Alter Call very spiritually prayed. Rev. James read Luke 21:1-18 Choir in their presentation sung beautiful praises. God is not through with us yet let's pray for one another always amen & Amen. Rev. Kelly at his post of duty delivered a beautiful message from Book of Number 139 Psalms 7-12. His subject-(God is.) God truly is here at this Holy Temple.

These are beautiful days the Lord has made for us to see and enjoy as his children. Their were one who let Christ be a light in his life the Angeles in heaven rejoiced God Bless You. Thought: If God gave up on People as quickly as we do, what would our own chances be? Let's continue in prayer for Brother Alvin Taylor and all others not mentioned also for our Community please.

Watch tower Society

The Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York has revealed completion of plans for a series of 119 district conventions of Jehovah's Witnesses during the summer of 1984.

Stanley Weigel, official spokesman, said 65 separate sites will be utilized for the annual meetings. A total of more than 1,150,000 persons are expected to attend the conventions in the United States.

People from this area will be attending at Midland where the Chaparral Center will host delegates June 21-24. The theme for the 1984 conventions is "Kingdom Increase" and much of the program content will center on the growth of the religious movement in recent years.

"Jehovah's Witnesses are marking a centennial this year," one delegate said. "The movement started one hundred years ago with a handful of Bible students and today is conducting ministerial and preaching activity in 205 lands with 2,600,000 now associated worldwide."

"This is indicative of the tremendous growth in recent years," he concluded.

THANK YOU
I want to start out by saying thank you to my wife Phyliss and the rest of my family for their support.
I want to thank all of those friends who put a lot of hard work into my campaign and for all their moral support.
I want to say a special thank you for all the prayers that were a great comfort. I also would like to say thanks to the people who voiced their opinions by going to the polls to vote.

'Older' Americans Increasing with Time

Every May we salute older Americans—their achievements, wisdom, courage and strength—but what really makes a person "old" in this era of increasing longevity? Time magazine quotes comedian George Burns, now 88, as saying, "A lot of people practice getting old. They start practicing when they're 70, and when they're 75, they're a hit. They've made it. They are now old." Burns then added, "Who wants that?" More than 1,000 Texans aged 55 and over who work for the Texas Farmers Union Green Thumb program certainly don't want that. One of the myths accompanying the "65 is old" myth is that older persons are simply not productive. Yet these Green Thumbers, who work with non-profit organizations in 111 counties, prove daily that their dependability is very good relative to other age groups, and that their capacity to be productive is high.

"Green Thumb workers have decided not to practice being old," said Green Thumb State Director Diane Parrish. "They've decided to practice staying active instead. Medical and social advances have given us longer lives; why waste those extra years when there are so many contributions to be made?" According to Robert Butler of the National Institute of Aging, there's been a 26 year gain in life expectancy in just the last 80 years, which has given the nation a population of 26 million people over the age of 65. In previous centuries, a person in his 30s could look old and be old because of disease. Now, people are living longer and looking younger. Experts feel that we have not really extended the inherent life span, which is probably genetically determined—we have simply improved our chances of survival to enjoy the full extent of that life span. Today, 83 percent of new born babies will live into their 60's compared with one-third just 150 years ago. What's more, the over-65 age group is increasingly vigorous and healthy. Older people are working longer and taking better care of themselves than ever before.

Todd Wilson Earns First Division Rating

Todd Wilson received a first place division medal for his tenor performance of "Vitteria Nio Core," when he and other students of Post High School participated in the Texas State Solo and Ensemble Contest.

The students left Post early Friday and participated in the state contests on Saturday. Other students entered in the contests were Kerry Thuett, Keith Craig and Randall Carpenter who received a third division for their trumpet trio playing "Buglars Holiday."

In the vocal solos division, Barbara Sturdivant received a four; Reneal Melton, Mark Stark and Belinda Reece each received a three.

In the instrument solo division, Keith Craig and Kerry Thuett each received a three and Todd Wilson, a four.

Sponsors for the group in Austin included Principal Joe Giddens, Candace McConnell, Sue Traw, Rhonda Alford and Nancy Thuett. The group returned to Post on Sunday.

Dinner guests in medieval England were expected to bring their own knives to table - hosts did not provide them.

Hi, here we are again. We are all enjoying the rain it is so nice.

We are all getting ready for our covered dish night. We are going to have more fun and eat all of the good food. We would like to invite everyone to come down, bring a covered dish and join in on the fun, on Tuesday the 19th at 6:30. See you then.

Jo Ella Sparlin and Melissa Johnston with the Ladies V.F.W. came Tuesday and gave all of our residents for the month a birthday party. We had a real good time and the refreshments were delicious. We would like to thank the ladies V.F.W. for coming and giving us such a nice birthday party.

We had fun playing dominoes this week our winner was Evelyn Roach. Bingo was also fun this week our winners were Irene Wheeler, Artie Young and Pauline Kilpatrick.

We all looked at the eclipse of the sun and moon on Thursday through a special lense brought to us by Jr. Ayala. Everyone thought that it was so exciting and was glad we had a chance to look at it.

The Seniorettes are always a big event for us on Wednesday nights. We look forward to every Wednesday and the seniorettes coming and singing for us. We would like to thank them for always coming and bringing us such a good time.

I would like to apologize for the visitors list this week, but it got misplaced and I couldn't find it.

Until next week this is our thought for the week written by Freda Harmon. It's not doing what one likes but liking what one has to do.
