

The Way I See It . .

The Post City Council is sitting at a crossroads with an important decision to make which will set the course of city administration for the next few years.

One fork in the road leads to a return to yesteryears...

The other fork strikes out into the future, full of unknowns and other scary creatures.

Travelling each of the roads will be uncertain, but the one from yesteryears has hazards that are already staked out and well known.

That road certainly is a lot easier to travel...much more comfortable and has no hidden problems.

It also leads to nowhere. That road will take this city and its people down a comfortable path with little or no rewards.

No risk...true...but with little hope of brighter days for Post, either.

That's what happens in cities which choose to operate without a professionally trained and qualified city manager.

I travel and have travelled this state a lot...and I can tell you that there is no city in Texas that is showing signs of growth which operates without a professional city manager.

If we are to grow, we must have the best quality leadership at city hall.

The Post city council last week insisted that qualified person should be at the helm, and the majority of council members turned down the mayor's recommendation of an interim city manager, because of their feeling that the man was not qualified.

The council needs to exercise prudent management and seek applicants who meet the tough requirements of the job.

I urge the council to advertise for applicants on the broadest possible scale, set guidelines for reviewing applications and qualifications and take care in selecting a permanent city manager.

We do not need to rush madly into naming a replacement...an interim manager can be designated from existing city personnel.

This approach is the same one any of the council

Fire damages Jackson's Cafeteria

What started out as a grease fire in the pit at Jackson's Cafeteria last Wednesday, had local firemen fighting the fire until around 3 p. m.

The alarm was sounded at 1:30 after the kitchen help had the fire under control two different times and after exhausting fire extinguishers had to call the fire department.

Heavy smoke damage was sustained to the dining area of the cafeteria with no total damage figures yet released by owner Don Glidewell.

Patrons in the cafeteria at the time of the fire were not in danger and left the cafeteria without incident, but fireman, David Murphy was hospitalized overnight with heat exhaustion.

Glidewell said he was to meet with contractors this week to work out a solution for the cafeteria with it either being rebuilt or remodeled.

Glidewell also asked that any caterings that were on the calendar for Jackson's to be sure and call him as the calendar with such appointments was burned during the fire and he needs to confirm the dates with patrons.

Regular customers and friends of the Glidewells donned their blue jeans and old boots and jumped into the clean-up process Wednesday afternoon and Jim Jackson at Chaparral has offered his full support with his kitchen or whatever to help out as has Jackson

Airport Board Members Appointed

Harold Lucas and Tom Drake were reappointed as Airport Board members by the County Commissioners in their regular monthly meeting Monday. The two had already been appointed but were reaffirmed as county board members during the meeting.

Commissioner Ted Aten, made a motion to buy a car for the county to be put in the patrol service of the Sheriff's office, but motion died for lack of a second. A meeting of the law enforcement committee between the city and county was scheduled to be held later in the week.

A representative of a voter registration company met with commissioners along with tax assessor-collector Ruth Reno to discuss changeover to his company at a cheaper rate. Commissioners advised Mrs. Reno to bring her recommendations back to the court at a later date before taking action.

It was also discussed to publish bids for an outside county auditor with bids to be opened at the June 25 meeting.

Before adjourning, commissioners approved the monthly invoices and paying of the bills.

City to Publish Names

The Post city secretary is mailing letters to delinquent tax payers, informing them that their names will appear in an advertised listing in The Post Dispatch on June 25.

City Interviews Applicant

A special meeting of the Post City Council met Monday night at the Library to interview one applicant for the position of Post City Manager, but taking no action on the matter.

A change order was approved on the Main Street Water line extension and appointments to the City Housing Board were made. Housing board members, Arthur Kelly, Earl Chapman and Pru Basquez terms were expired but were reappointed by the council as was Sue Chun who replaced Lois Cook who resigned. Kelly, Chapman and Basquez will serve from April 1984 through April 1986 while Mrs. Chun will serve until April 1985.

In other action, the council authorized City Manager Becky King to write a letter expressing the council's concern for a total lack of information provided to the council and citizens of Post concerning the Low-Level Waste Site and until information is available, the council can not support the location of the site near Post and therefore opposes this location to any close proximity to Post. The letter was to be sent to property owners of the land site and Tom Blackburn with the Low Level Waste Authority.

Council members also set a special meeting for Thursday, June 7 at 2 p. m. in the library concerning the airport renovation and requested the mayor to set up a meeting prior to Thursday with the county commissioners and airport board members to have ready answers which will be asked at the Thursday meeting by the Texas Aeronautics Commission who is funding the grand and engineers and contractors who will be working on the project.

Before adjourning, council members heard a request from the Planning and Zoning Commission requesting an ordinance for no free-standing signs to be erected over 20 feet height in C-2 zone (which includes West 380 - from Broadway to West City Limits; and East 380 - from East side of Avenue F to East City Limits; and Broadway from North City Limits to South City Limits.)

The Ordinance states that no more free-standing signs of any kind in C-1 zone, (which is Main Street from Courthouse East to Avenue F) to be erected. Council passed the Ordinance on first reading with the second reading to take place at the regular July meeting.

members would use in their businesses...you know from experience not to hire the first person who comes along and surely you wouldn't select someone to run a $2 million operation under pressure of a time deadline.

This is a serious matter and it demands serious attention.

The council is divided on this issue...some want to hire a local person, qualified or not. Other council members want to search for an experienced or trained city manager, probably from outside of Post.

It is my belief that the best possible course is to find a trained person to come here with the idea of building a reputation and to grow with Post.

It's not unlike the hiring of a commissioned sales person in a business...produce or don't get paid.

The alternative, hiring a local person, is to subject that person to all the pressures of local politics and gossip, history of problems and end up with little or no active city administration, constantly trying to satisfy all the various interest groups.

The real benefits that Becky King brought to the job as city manager was her aggressive approach to solving problems...unencumbered with the history of internal conflicts in the city.

This freshness to the job...and questioning "the way it's always been done" is vital if Post is to continue its climb from the depressed economics of the past few months.

Major improvements begun by the council in the past two years must continue...and even more work needs to be done.

This is not a time to slide back down the comfortable road of the past...

The other road is unknown...it has all kinds of unanswered questions facing the pioneers who dare to leave the baggage of yesterday behind.

It's not unlike the trips our ancestors made when they left the comforts of the mountains and streams of Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Missouri and other eastern states to strike out across the unmarked vastness of the west.

Were it not for their quest for something better, this country would still be empty miles of buffalo and nomads.

So, if you want to return to the "good ole days," my question to you is...how far back do you want to go?

There is no going back. The only answer is to hitch up the wagon and take out across the prairie to the unknown future.

The faith we leave with, includes the faith that God directs us in this trek, and through that faith our confidence in ourselves and our fellow man makes it all possible.

The alternative is to turn our backs on the future for fear of failure...and sit comfortably back and let nature take its course.

I know what happens when people give up and let nature take over...it doesn't require too much imagination to see what Post would look like with this as a prevalent attitude.

I call on our city council to bite the bullet and find the absolute best qualified city manager available...and take this wagon train to the green pastures of the future.

Teenagers Drop Two

The Post 16-18 year old Babe Ruth team dropped two games last week to Andrews and Seminole.

On Saturday, June 2, Andrews slipped by the Post team 3-1. The Post team had two hits, a home run by Curtis Clinesmith in the second inning and a single by Felix Bustoz in the fifth.

Danny Storie pitched the entire seven innings and struck out four, walked four, and allowed only three hits in the loss.

Andrews struck out 14 Post batters and gave up seven walks. The Post team left 6 batters stranded and had one error.

Saturday night, June 9, at Seminole, the Post team gave up seven runs in the second inning in what proved to be the winning runs for the Seminole team. Seminole won the game 9-5. Todd Angerer started the game as pitcher and allowed one hit, three walks and struck-out two before being relieved by Danny Storie in the 2nd inning. Storie allowed two walks, struck out three and gave up four hits the remaining five innings.

The Post team made a come-back attempt in the fifth inning, scoring three runs and three hits, all singles by Danny Storie, Sammy Hardin and L. D. Harper. The Post team could get only two more runs the rest of the way. Danny Valdez and Sammy Basquez each had a single. Curtis Clinesmith rapped a double down the left field line in the fourth inning. He attempted a steal of 3rd and suffered a face injury and was carried to the local hospital.

Seminole struck out 14 Post batters, and allowed six walks in their win.

The Post team will next play at Brownfield on Tuesday, June 12, and will be at home against Andrews at 7:30 p.m., June 16. The babe ruth record stands at three losses and have yet to win a game.

Lamb Sale held here

Fifteen consignors from eight states met recently in Post for the Corporation Club Lamb Sale sponsored by Mike Martinson, owner and editor of the "Show Ring Magazine".

The sale, one of two held in the Southwest, was held this year for the first time in Post at the Garza County Junior Livestock Assn. Show Barn.

The 247 show lamb prospects began arriving in Post on Tuesday with the sale held Saturday, May 26, beginning at 5:30 p.m. The top selling lamb brought $1475.00 with an average of $200 each on the 247 lambs sold.

Approximately 250 people attended the sale with consignors from Texas, Nebraska, Indiana, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Iowa, Illinois, and Colorado.

The corporation paid $500 for use of the show barn which will go to the building fund. They also paid $200 to the Post FFA Chapter to clean up the barn and grounds following the sale.

A concession stand was operated on Saturday by wives of GCJLA Directors and 4-Hers. Approximately $400 was made from the concession stand which will be put in the building fund also.

The A. E. Redman family donated a hog which was processed into sausage links and sold by the plate or on a stick. The sausage, beans and cornbread were cooked by the Chaparral Restaurant. Pickles were furnished by Holly's Drive In.

The corporation decided to make this an annual affair in Post due to the fine reception, hospitality and facilities made available to them.

YARD OF THE WEEK WINNERS — Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rankin were named Yard of the Week winners by the Post Chamber of Commerce last week. The award will be presented each week to a deserving yard through August.

Drive Safely

Now that school is out and vacation time is here motorists are heading for the road in droves, thus increasing their chances of having unfamiliar driving conditions.

Major V. J. Cawthon, Department of Public Safety Commander of Region 5 said, "When driving in the rural area, slow down before, not after entering a curve. If you wait until it seems urgent to slow down, it is too late. Your engine should be pulling your vehicle through the curve. This pulling force aids in directional control, when you use a safe speed in a curve."

The Major reminds the Texas motorist to be alert to the fact that many people lose their lives within 25 miles of departure and or destination. This fatal fact of the road is due in great part to abusing the speed laws.

Plan your trip so that you have plenty of time to reach your destination and return in comfort. This means a minimum of night driving, no speeding and no driving when fatigued. Have a happy and safe school's out vacation.

Cotton Today

Leadership Class to get Washington Orientation: Members of the 1983-84 Cotton Leadership Class will be in Washington, D.C., June 10-15 for a session on governmental and public affairs. During the week, the group will participate in discussions on how the legislative process works, current political climate, the role of organizations in government relations, and farm policy.

The class also will witness a White House briefing, tour the Washington Post facilities, visit the House floor, attend key Senate and House committee meetings and sessions with House and Senate leadership. Also on the agenda are meetings with officials of various government agencies.

Meanwhile, The Cotton Foundation has begun receiving applications for the 1984-85 leadership class. Deadline for submitting applications is July 1. The program is funded through The Foundation by a grant from Du Pont's Agricultural Chemicals Department.

Exports Reported: Cotton export shipments amounted to 121,200 running bales during the week ended May 31. This brought the season's accumulated total to 5,657,700 bales, leaving undelivered sales of 1,274,300. Net new sales amounted to 4,400 bales after cancellations of 28,500 bales. Meanwhile, sales for 1984-85 delivery increased by a net of 47,000 bales to a total of 1,288,600. Major buyers were Israel, South Korea, Thailand, and Bangladesh.

Immigration Bill Scheduled: Immigration reform bill, HR-1510, is scheduled to reach the House floor the week of June 11.

The bill would impose civil and possible criminal penalties on employers who repeatedly and "knowingly" hire illegal aliens. The National Cotton Council earlier passed a resolution calling for efforts to "prevent penalties" on grounds that employers cannot feasibly ascertain whether a prospective employee is an alien.

The Council favors the bill's provision that requires the Immigration and Naturalization Service to obtain warrants to search privately held open fields. However, an amendment to strike the search warrant requirement is expected to be offered.

Horse Show in Lynn Co.

Dispatch Change to New Column Width Format

New 6 col. width

State Senator John Montford met with a group of interested citizens Monday afternoon in a "Town Hall" discussion of education proposals expected to be on the agenda of a special session of the state legislature this summer.

Montford explained a few of the more controversial proposals which have been recommended by the state special commission on education, headed by H. Ross Perot.

The senator expressed his commitment to represent the 28th Senatorial District, asking for citizens to let him know how they feel about the issues.

"I find in these Town Hall meetings," Montford commented, "that generally there is overwhelming support for better pay for teachers."

He also responded to local comments about taxes, "I join you in supporting a sales tax and or gasoline tax

Old 8 col. format

Most older parents want to live apart from their adult children, yet see them frequently and feel close to them. Parents and children may have to work out a situation in which the amount of contact is satisfying to both generations.

A sense of obligation and duty to parents is also an important indicator for a quality relationship among generations. This sense of responsibility is usually developed as children grow up. Children observe how their parents treat their grandparents, and use this as a role model for their own future behavior.

Each generation—older parents, adult children, and children—must work at

Double Ring Vows Read Saturday

Double ring wedding vows were read for Lisa Margaret Mohr and Richard Bruce Waldrip Saturday, June 9 at 2:30 p. m. in the Means Memorial United Methodist Church in Andrews.

Dr. Tom Pass, First Presbyterian Church minister of Post read the 2:30 p. m. vows.

The altar was centered with a 15 branch candleabra enhanced by jade and leather leaf fern surrounded by fresh palm trees. The aisle was lined by markers of fresh jade and leather leaf fern centered with burgundy bows.

Parents of the bride are Dr. and Mrs. Henry O. Mohr of Andrews and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Waldrip of Post. Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white lace and chiffon gown designed by Mori Lee. The high neckline was outlined with Chantilly lace with lace trim extending down the yoke. The bodice was covered in Chantilly lace and featured a natural waistline. The Victorian sleeves were made of lace and featured a ruffle at the wrist.

The bouffant skirt fell to floor length and swept to back fullness. The front skirt was accented with Chantilly lace appliques and a pick-up outlined with Chantilly lace. A crystal pleated ruffle extended from the pick-up around the cathedral length train. To complete her ensemble, the bride chose a Juliet capulet veil covered in Chantilly and Venise lace and accented with seed pearls. The chapel length illusion was gathered to the back of the capulet and was edged in narrow Chantilly lace trim.

The bridal bouquet was a flowing cascade of white silk gardenias, stephanotis and white rose buds sprinkled with white pearls and entwined white picot satin ribbon. Carrying out the tradition of something old, the bride carried a handkerchief belonging to her maternal grandmother; something borrowed, pearls; blue, her garter; new, her dress and six pence in her shoe for good luck.

Rebecca Mohr, sister in law of the bride from Rosenberg served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Cheryl Johnson of Sweetwater, Janna Love, Lubbock, and Glynda Scott of Austin, all friends of the bride. They were identically attired in rose chiffon floor length gowns with pleated skirts and chiffon cape bodices. They carried nosegays centered with mauve iris surrounded by burgundy miniature carnations and mauve bell flowers entwined with burgundy picot satin ribbon.

Serving as best man was Mike Waldrip, brother of the groom from Goliad. Groomsmen were Carey Hewett of Lubbock, Rob Gevertz of El Paso and Charles Mohr of Andrews, brother of the bride. The groom wore an ascot gray cutaway tuxedo with white wing tip collar with striped ascot and a boutonniere of white gardenia accented by stephanotis. Groomsmen were attired in charcoal grey cut away tuxes.

Acting as usher was Mark Mohr of Rosenberg, brother of the bride.

Traditional organ music was presented by Diane Chambers and soloist Danny Stottlemire with Becky Cameron at the piano. Wedding selections included "The Wedding Song" and "The Lords Prayer."

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the party room of the National Bank of Andrews. The brides' table was laid with a white lace cloth over white satin centered with a silk arrangement of burgundy and mauve flowers. A towering Queen of Hearts cake was served. The cake had six heart shape satellite cakes beneath arched pillars surrounding a sparkling fountain highlighted with burgundy and mauve decorations.

The grooms table was laid with a linen cloth with hexagon shaped chocolate cake highlighted with grape clusters. The grooms' cake was served by Lisa Waldrip, sister in law of the groom.

A buffet table was also set up with tamales, cheese block, finger sandwiches, sausage balls, melon balls, and a champagne fountain topped by a silk nosegay of carnations and blue flowers.

Members of the house party were Jan Wheeler,

Barbara Hogora, Ginger Carlisle, Margaret Andrews, Linda Waldrip and Wanda Weatherby.

Guests were registered by Leah Gevertz of El Paso.

The bride is a graduate of Andrews High School and a 1984 graduate of Texas Tech University with a bachelor of science degree in Education. The bridegroom is a Post High School graduate and is attending Texas Tech and is employed as a cafeteria manager.

Following a wedding trip to Hawaii, the couple will reside in Lubbock.

A rehearsal dinner was given by the parents of the bridegroom at the Steak Place in Andrews Friday night.

Saving money is important. And I try to save money at every opportunity. One way I've found to save money at the grocery store is to prepare sweetened condensed milk at home. It's easy to do in you blender or food processor. Try this recipe:

- Sweetened Condensed Milk 1 cup dry milk crystals
 - 2-3 cup sugar
 - 1-3 cup boiling water
 - 3 Tablespoons melted oleo
- Blend in blender until smooth. Let set several hours or overnight before using.

God's Medicine

Pastor Steve Traw
First Christian Church
The scriptures are God's medicine for the Christian life. It is the corrective for everyone of His own people. Each situation is touched by its instruction.

As a divine remedy it is unique in all the world. Only here does one find not only the precepts and rules for living but the freedom and grace to fulfill them.

Christ spoke to the church at Ephesus. His message was to remember where they once stood. Repentance and restoration were to follow. God's revealed Word is that standard which must serve as our evaluation. The thought throughout the Bible states we cannot have God without knowing His Word.

Psalm 119:57-64 speaks of the restorative balm of scripture. I considered my ways, the psalmist admits, then turned to God's testimonies. Repentance and returning to that divine refuge is the course of action that restored the prodigal son, and that which Christ addressed the Ephesians in Revelation chapter two.

As ones living in the world, believers find a constant tendency toward deviation from God's righteous ordinances. We endeavor to know the health-bringing qualities that restore us spiritually. The danger comes in knowing but withdrawing from changing wrong. As the blacksmith would advise, strike the iron while it is hot, or it will soon be colder and harder than ever. We must strive to attain the good with the freedom the Lord has given as we resist the bad.

With the psalmist, may we make haste and not stand questioning when we see the medicine of God's divine truth.

Letter to the Editor

I think the clean up campaign is great and people pitching in helping. Living on the corner of S. Ave. N. and the Tahoka highway, I could sure use some of that help. Having lived here twelve years morning, noon and evening, I've went through the same thing. Any thing the school kids throw away, it blows in my yard, and then there is the grown ups that drags main and the highways, when they pass our corner it looks like a good dumping place. One day last week an entire Lubbock paper blew in the front, back and alley. What I wonder is why they use the tax payers, money and the highways labor to install so much fine, if caught littering? Some folks can't see a stop sign and it's bright red. And, editor I know what you mean about main street early in the a.m. having worked twenty three years in the Postex Mill. If I worked from 11 p.m. to 7 a.m. I saw what you see every a.m.

Wet town on the other side of the tracks don't mean a hill of beans, and no respect for any thing that doesn't belong to them.

One more thing, why probation? To get money? Because everyone I know of, they do as they please anyway, no trouble either.

Number of farms decrease

Preliminary reports of the 1982 Census of Agriculture show that the number of farms in the county decreased from 258 to 240 since the 1978 census. All land in farms totaled 570,986 acres in 1982, an average of 2,379 acres per farm. The Census Bureau defines a farm as any place from which $1,000 or more of agricultural products were sold or normally would have been sold.

Land from which crops were harvested decreased to 47,500 acres since 1978.

The county's farmers sold $14.9 million in agricultural products according to preliminary reports from the 1982 Census of Agriculture. The 1982 sales figure represents an average of $62,002 for each of the county's farms.

The census reports that $5.2 million or 35 percent of total sales were for crops, while $9.6 million or 65 percent of the total came from the sale of livestock, poultry, and their products.

Dodgers Lead LL

The Dodgers lead the pack in Little League action with an eight and 0 record following last weeks play.

Rance Sappington led the Dodgers with three hits and scoring three runs as the Dodgers overwhelmed the Tigers 18 to 4 last Monday, June 4. Keith Holly scored three runs while three pitchers, Marlin-Valdez, Darren Brown and Manuel Perez held the Tigers to four runs.

Trey Jones went the distance and allowed only one hit as the Cardinals held on to defeat the Red Sox 11 to 8 in the opener last Monday. The game was tied at 8 all until the bottom of the fifth when the Cardinals scored three runs. Junior Armendariz led the Cardinals with four hits. Matt Holly had the only hit for the Red Sox in their losing effort.

In Tuesday night action, June 5, the A's eked out a nine to eight win over the Tigers with Victor Chapa leading the A's with three hits and scoring two runs. The Tigers scored one run in the top of the sixth but fell one run short. Robby Blair led the Tigers with three hits and Kevin Williams scored three runs.

In the second game of the evening, Junior Armendariz allowed the Giants one run in the top of the first inning and shut them out the rest of the game with the Cardinals on top five to one. Armendariz allowed only two hits in going the distance. The Cardinals scored all their runs in the first two innings as James Griffin pitched a fine game for the Giants. Armendariz also led the Cardinals offense with two hits and scored two runs.

The Dodgers scored six runs in the bottom of the third inning and went on to defeat the Giants 14 to 11 as Dustin Massey led the Dodgers with four hits and scored three runs. Also, Keith Holly scored three runs. Oliver McDougle, Rance Thompson and James Griffin each scored two runs for the Giants in the losing effort.

The Red Sox scored nine runs in each of the first two innings enroute to a one sided win over the A's 28 to 4 Thursday, June 7. Floyd Slay led the Red Sox with three hits and scored four runs while Bobby Curtis, Matt Holly, and Gaylon Martin each scored four runs for the winners. Martin went the distance on the mound for the Sox as the game was called at the end of the fourth inning because of the 15 run rule.

In a real cliff hanger, the Dodgers outlasted the Red Sox 18 to 14 last Friday with the Dodgers scoring four runs in the top of the sixth to pull away. Darren Brown, Keith Holly and Manuel Perez each collected two hits to lead the Dodgers. Holly scored four runs with Rance Sappington, Dustin Massey and Perez adding three each. Floyd Slay and Matt Holly led the Red Sox by scoring three runs each.

The A's scored 10 runs in the fourth inning enroute to a rout of the Giants 25 to 10. Victor Chapa led the A's with three hits, including his second home run of the season. Tamara Jones scored five runs for the A's with Jimmy Holleman, Chapa and Shannon Scott each scoring four runs. Jake Bustos and Rance Thompson each scored two runs to lead the Giants.
