City-county to buy two used DPS cars

The city council and the county commissioners court agreed Monday night in a joint session in the Post Public Library to provide Sheriff Jim Pippin's nine-member law enforcement staff with a monthly uniform allowance and to purchase from the state and equip two used DPS cars.

That took care of two of Sheriff Pippin's requests but a decision on the third — a sixth deputy — was delayed until budgets could be studied in mid-year to see if enough funds were available.

The city and county also decided to start moving on long-needed runway improvements at the airport, and to offer what assistance both could in men and equipment to the park board in tracing down a swimming pool leak.

Chief Deputy Donnie Walker told the two boards that members of the sheriff's force were not asking for a purchase of their uniforms in requesting the uniform allowance, but only for the $5 a week cleaning costs for two sets of uniforms.

The total cost to the city and county for the five deputies and four radio dispatchers' uniform allowance would be $2,340 or almost $100 a month each.

It was decided to pay the clothing allowance with the pay checks on a $5 a week basis.

The sheriff car problem took a unique turn.

The sheriff's department now has three cars, only one of which includes the powerful police package for hard wear, all have been in service for 55,000 to 60,000 miles and the two vehicles without the police power package are starting to have some problems.

The sheriff explained when any one was "in the shop" or transporting prisoners outside the county, "we can't keep up."

City Councilman Jim Jackson said he would like to see each of the deputies have his own car and be solely responsible for its maintenance. He thought this would cut down on repair bills.

City Manager Pete Maddox told the joint meeting that the state in Austin sells used DPS units for $2,250 or less for two-year old cars and many of them are supervisors' cars which have mainly just been driven in city driving. Floydada police have been very satisfied with such purchases he reported.

After considerable discussion on a wide range of possibilities, the city agreed to purchase two of these cars on a trial basis and the county agreed to equip both with siren, bar light, and radio at an estimated cost of $1,500 each.

If the experiment worked out and the cars didn't give trouble, the city and county in the future could go ahead with Jackson's idea to assign a car to each deputy.

In presenting the need for a third deputy, both the sheriff and his chief deputy emphasized the need for two officers working night duty Monday through Thursday nights instead of the present one. When the city said it would have to study its budget before making a decision, Pippin countered with a request for a part-time officer to work those four night shifts, that being the biggest problem.

Administrator Walsh resigns

Garza Hospital Administrator Roland G. Walsh resigned his hospital position here Wednesday to become executive vice president of the Pratt (Kansas) Regional Medical Center, an 118-bed hospital.

The resignation given hospital board chairman Jack Alexander became effective immediately.

Walsh, who has been hospital administrator here since last Dec. 1, said he did not seek the Kansas opportunity after coming to Post and regrets being here such a short time.

He explained that he was among the 96 applicants for the Kansas position last summer and was ranked No. 2 when the interviewing was over.

The ranking applicant recently resigned to accept a position with a larger hospital and Walsh was immediately offered the job with a large increase in pay and benefits over his Post position.

"The wife and I regret to leave," he told The Dispatch. "We have found this to be a community with so many fine people."

It ended up with the sheriff being told he would get a decision on that in April.

Next on the agenda, the city council voted to pay $2,080.92 of the $4,368.42 city's share of law enforcement.

Hedrick fund opened here

An appreciation fund has been opened at the First National Bank to help pay the hospital expenses of Mrs. Bil Hedrick. Mrs. Hedrick was injured in a car accident on Feb. 19 and has been in the intensive care unit at Methodist Hospital almost all of the time since. She underwent extensive back surgery on Friday and is expected to be hospitalized three more weeks.

The fund is in appreciation of all the work Mrs. Hedrick has done with the youth of Garza County, especially with the 4-H Horse Club.

Anyone wishing to contribute to this fund may do so at the First National Bank or contact Noel or Orabeth White. The fund was kicked off with $370 contributed at a potluck supper Saturday night at the Graham Community Center.

Rites held for crash victim

Requiem mass for Roy Soto, 24, of Post were said at 4 p.m. Tuesday in Holy Cross Catholic Church with the Rev. Malcolm Neyland, pastor, officiating.

Burial was in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Justice-Mason Funeral Home.

Soto was pronounced dead about 12:19 a.m. Saturday at the scene of a one-car rollover at Loop 289 and Southeast Drive in Lubbock, by Justice of the Peace L. J. Blalack. Blalack ruled the death was accidental.

Soto was born at Post and attended Post schools. He married Helen Perez on Nov. 21, 1975 at Post.

Survivors include his wife; a daughter, Christina of the home; his parents, Victor Soto of Huntsville and Tillie Soto of Garden City, Kan.; three brothers, Victor, Jr., of Garden City. (See Rites held, Page 12)

County audit is approved

The Garza County Commissioners Court Monday received a presentation of the county audit for the last fiscal year by Charles Cole and Don Hefner of Kelly, Cole & Company.

The court thereupon adopted the audit and re-employed the same firm for the county's 1980 audit.

In another action, the court adopted a resolution for continuation of federal revenue sharing.

Ruth Reno requested the purchase of a typewriter for the tax office and was instructed to secure prices for such a machine and to bring them back to the court March 24.

School board to take up contracts

Post school trustees at their March meeting tonight will take up 1980-81 contracts for teachers and coaches.

Also on the agenda are the consideration of construction bids received on expanding the school cafeteria, a report on band uniforms, naming of Mrs. Dorothy Perdue to hold the school board election, and the naming of a board of tax equalization.

8 candidates for 3 city council seats

The city council spring election race picked up three more candidates just before last Wednesday's filing deadline, and the school trustees races lost one candidate Tuesday.

Eight are now in the race for the three city council seats in the April election.

Filing after The Dispatch went to press last Wednesday, but before the midnight deadline were Jim Wells, James Dye and Archie Gill.

Absentee voting will begin Monday, March 17.

Voters will find the eight candidates listed in this order on the city ballot, following a drawing for positions:

Jim Wells, Jim Jackson, Jack Alexander, Ronald G. (Ronny) Ammons, Archie Gill, James Dye, Jack Glenn Ault, and Jerry J. Reidel.

The school trustee races for two school board seats, positions 4 and 5, has only one contest now as Rancher Jim Prather withdrew from the race Tuesday leaving Edwin Lewis unopposed for Freedom call to Rotarians

"If young people are to become farmers, America must turn down the road marked economic freedom, David Alders of Nacogdoches, president of the state Future Farmers of America, told Post Rotarians Tuesday.

In a well received talk at the civic club's luncheon in the community center, Alders declared that "the decisions which affect the farmers are made by politicians who know nothing about our problems."

He called for "a new wave of leadership to turn this country around." He told Rotarians they must become "active participants" not just observers.

Alders was the winner of the national FFA public speaking contest and he gave a hard-hitting speech against "big government" which spends 30 percent of the nation's income but still can't live within its means.

Lynn Simpson, president of the Post FFA, introduced Alders. Adolfo Varela, an FFA officer here, also was a special guest of the club.

Ray Hodges' mare foals twin colts

It was a "once in a lifetime" occurrence at Ray Hodges place, 12 miles north of Post on the Ralls road Friday night.

One of Ray's mares foaled twin colts.

Prudencio Basquez and Dr. William Wilson are contesting each other for place 5.

The filing deadline for two positions on the board of directors of Garza Memorial Hospital passed Monday without additional filings.

Colley Gatlin and Wayne Childers are unopposed for the two hospital board seats. Gatlin is now serving on the board by appointment and Childers has already served one term but laid out last year.

Appreciation breakfast to follow

Taba'na Yuan'e set March 22

The Post Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring its annual Taba'na Yuan'e ceremony and its second annual Agricultural Appreciation Breakfast at the Garza County Junior Livestock pavilion Saturday morning, March 22.

Frank (Chief) Runkles again will conduct the Indian dance to determine the 1980 crop forecast by wind direction at sunrise that morning, which is 6:32 a.m.

Danny Shaw, Chamber of Commerce president, will serve as master of ceremonies to explain the crop forecast.

Runkles told The Dispatch this week that the sunrise wind ceremony will be held outside the livestock pavilion, but at its conclusion the remaining of the program will be moved inside where authentic Indian ceremonial dances will be presented by a group of dancers, most of whom are coming in from out of town.

Following this the catered breakfast will be served with Garza farm and ranch families as guests of the Chamber for the meal.

Letters to all such families will be mailed this weekend from the Chamber office asking advance acceptances so the size of the breakfast crowd can be determined.

Any other Post folks who want to attend the breakfast are asked to purchase tickets for $3.25 each from Danny Shaw, Colley Gatlin, Jim Pollard, Rick Loving, Linda Waldrip, Charles (See Taba'na, Page 12)

Hospital reports best month yet

Hospital Administrator Roland G. Walsh reported to Garza Memorial Hospital directors at their March breakfast meeting at the hospital last Thursday that the hospital "came within a thousand dollars of breaking even in February without any tax money."

Jack Alexander, president of the board, termed it "the hospital's best financial month within memory." He added he hoped the hospital, like current presidential candidates, "can keep up its momentum."

The hospital's financial report showed the hospital billed $49,045.08 to patients during the month against total expenses of $50,045.41.

The hospital admitted 75 patients during February for a total of 304 patient days with an average of 10.5 patients in the hospital for each of the month's 29 days. (See Hospital, Page 12)

Flea market and farm sale are set

A major fund raising effort for the new Garza Junior Livestock show facilities is scheduled for Friday and Saturday at that location with a flea market set for both days and a Saturday noon ham luncheon and Saturday farm sale.

Rentals of booth space will go to the building fund but individuals or organizations can keep their "take" during the two-day flea market.

Booths already assured at presstime included a garage sale by Close City Extension Homemakers, a bake sale by Graham Extension Homemakers, a garage sale by Maxine Marks and Paula Cawthon, a garage sale by Mary Stone, light bulb sale by the Shamrock 4-H club.

A concession stand will be open all the time both days and will be operated by the Garza County Extension Homemakers, 4-H clubs and GCJLA directors' wives. (See Flea market, Page 12)

Local folks will get a chance tonight (Thursday — 8 p.m. on channel 6 — to see Jess Knight, Justiceburg's contribution to rodeo, win his first big rodeo in the Houston Astrodome.

Athletic Director David Thompson credits all the local folks who helped for the smooth way the first annual Antelope Relays were run off Saturday. The efficient operation of the relays and the fine new facilities drew plenty of raves from both athletes and coaches.

In case, the High Plains Cablevision offer for a free 17-day trial of Home Box Office wasn't quite clear to you last week, this is to clarify a point. Every cable subscriber will begin Saturday receiving HBO. When April billings go out, each subscriber will have a choice of paying for the service or declining to take it. For those who don't want it, they will be blacked out on channel 3. We asked because we wanted to be sure you didn't have to ask for the free trial. You don't! It's automatic.

The Post Lions Club is sponsoring a benefit dance Saturday night in the community center for the American Heart fund drive and want to get the word around for their big gala. It's one of the major heart fund raisers this year. Mike Flanigan, the heart fund prexy, asked us to point out that you'd have more fun dancing (plus free Cokes) with your heart fund donation than answering a knock on your front door for an appeal for a heart fund contribution. What will happen next?

We're sure Jimmy Carter is trying to shoot down all Democratic contenders in the early primaries so if things turn against him badly in the White House, he will have only the Republicans to battle in November.

The way things are shaping up, just about everything may fall apart soon.

The inflation is flaming through the economy and Carter can't hold it off to November. Most economists agree that wage and price controls — and even gas rationing — will be needed if runaway inflation is to be brought under control.

Carter doesn't want to do any of those things in an election year.

The hostage situation is "back to square one" as the White House said the other day and folks are liable to turn against Carter on this most patriotic of issues if something doesn't begin to happen pretty soon.

Then there's the summer Olympics in Moscow to which almost all the other nations but the United States will attend. America is going to sorely miss having some new Olympic heroes.

Big John Connally is gone from the presidential race. He has withdrawn after spending $10 million to win a single convention delegate in the early going.

Gerald Ford is getting ready to jump in. At least he has saved his money up to now for the "convention run."

If you don't like Carter for president — and we don't — it's getting harder and harder to pick an alternative, especially when we "don't like" Ted Kennedy even more.

Those runway repairs

The Dispatch is pleased to see that the city and county at last appear to be getting down to cases on airport improvements.

The runways have long been in need of resealing and that is getting to be more and more expensive by the day. The longer the wait, the higher the cost.

Mayor Giles McCrary has suggested a three-year plan for something like $50,000 worth of work. The airport actually didn't cost much more than that when it was built more than a decade ago. As we recall, both city and county anted up $15,000 each and the federal government paid the rest.

While flying may not be too "big" here, this is an aviation age and every town is as much in need of an airport today as it was first for a railroad and then for a major highway.

What isn't done now that needs doing at the airport is going to cost two or three times as much later if there continues to be runway deterioration.

Let's get going as soon as possible on the airport repairs.

Raves for new track

Post's new all-weather track couldn't have made a better debut Saturday than it did. A lot of coaches called it "the best track facilities we've seen."

The seven-lane track was an instant hit. It will get a second run this coming Saturday when the Post Junior High Relays are held.

It shouldn't be too long before Post lands the district 5AA track meets for both boys and girls (different years probably).

The only real need at the new track facility now is for spectator seating which means a lot of folks in Post enjoy track as well as football.

Maybe the Antelope boosters can go to work on that.

The new track brings Post into the modern track age for the first time within memory. It is going to mean more interest in the sport among both boys and girls and that totals up to a better and more balanced sports program in the Post schools.

Come out Saturday and see our Middle School kids go for the points in their own relays. From them in not too long will come what can be expected to be some strong PHS track teams.

No cuts on bureaucrats

The Carter administration is now in the process of attempting to balance the budget in a couple of weekends, something it promised when it came to power three years ago but neglected to do until inflation expolded in its face in a presidential election year.

It makes you wonder doesn't it. This means the cuts are coming. The public is going to have to do without a lot of federal services. We won't like that of course. We'll complain, but that is the way budgets are cut — by doing without.

What we could do without better than many services is some of those capital bureaucrats who like some welfare families go on from generation to generation and defy the politicians to do anything about it.

Some day, we hope, the voters will get so sick of the mess in Washington they will do something about it. We just don't understand politics. Jimmy Carter as president up to now — and he's had plenty of time to show his stuff — has done very little if anything right, but he's considered almost a shoo-in for reelection. Why?

Remember When

10 YEARS AGO

Stock Show opens today with sale set Saturday. $70,000 more school taxes needed; first kindergarten class to open here next fall; County soaked by three-inch rains; Garza history publication set; Oklahoma to be staged by choir; landowner turns down 'rockfest' promoters; Clyde Cash's bat booms for WTSU; Texas Tech coach, Richard Bell, is banquet speaker here; Cotton ginnings down in county; Local band scores two division I ratings in contest.

15 YEARS AGO

Rainmakers ask $35,000 to double 1964 rainfall, proposition is pay nothing if project fails; First National Bank agrees to buy school time warrants; Housing Authority tells rent figures; Horse program is planned for 4-Hers; Close City in state contest; Dayneene Dunn is winner here in 4-H show; Diane Maxey and Ronnie Graves wed at 8 p.m. Sunday night; Antelope tracksters go to Stephenville relays; Mrs. Robert Mock to attend Garza 4-H leader forum; Post High mixed choir wins sweepstakes; Ronnie Pierce, Marilyn Jones and Cheryl Martin on all-loop team; Major Leaguer Norm Cash is to bat in third spot.

25 YEARS AGO

Wave of vandalism hits Post with talk of a curfew being enforced; Linda Kuykendoll, 6th grader, is spelling bee champ in county; 300 register at open house of new junior high school building; Bill Humphrey elected head of Jaycees; more than 150 attend open house at the Girl Scout Little House; "The Caine Mutiny" showing at the Tower Theatre; bacon sells for 59 cents a pound; Mason McClellan and Ann Morris feted with birthday party at Graham Community Center; Sherry Custer, Allene Norris, Marcia Dean Holland, Kay Hedrick and Jan Havnic present song and dance number on Lubbock TV station.

"Boy, are we saving gas! I've got the motor turned off!"

Teen Scene By Norm

All those red faces seen around town this week is not from embarrassment, but from too much sun last weekend. Some acquired theirs at the tennis tourney in Brownfield, others got theirs at the track meet Saturday. THE WEATHER WAS GEORGOUS!

And lots of Post kids did a super job at their particular sport.

The seventh grade girls brought home the first place trophy from the Seagraves track meet Friday, the eighth grade girls, the third place trophy.

The Does tied for third place honors in the local meet with Lorenzo with New Deal taking home the first place trophy followed by Idalou.

Mike Macy and Jackie Stelzer won four straight matches in the Brownfield tourney and finished fourth.

Everyone deserves a big CONGRATS and the year is going to be even more exciting, cause they're going to get even better.

Happy Birthday this week goes to Curt Greer, Cain Abraham, Bobby Macy, Deana Bridgeman and Cliff Kirkpatrick.

Spring break is in full swing for most college kids with others to make the trek home next week. Some I haven't seen in so long, I don't recognize them anymore. If you see someone that looks vaguely familiar with a little bitty mustache working in Rick's Venture Foods, that's none other than Shelby Barley. He hasn't been home for a long time.

—O—

There's been quite a list compiled this week also. Brent Howard was released from Garza Memorial last weekend and still not up to par; Kelly Mason is in Highland Hospital in Lubbock following knee surgery last Friday and Jeff Williams is a patient in Lubbock's West Texas Hospital and will be there for a few more days. We wish all of the a SPEEDY RECOVERY and hope to see you around her again real soon.

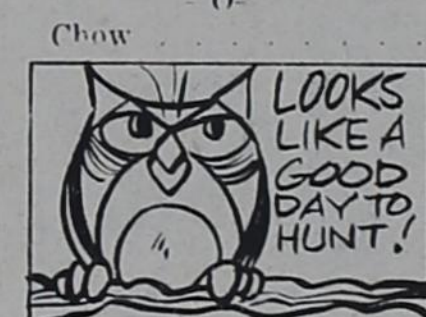

—O—

And then there's Coach Jerry Reynolds still in the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock, but hopefully will get to come home tomorrow. I told you he was ill last week, but he had to have surgery and is improving steadily. There's not anything unusual about him having surgery, but the fact that the Doctor performed a "first" is unusual. You see Coach Reynolds, at some time in his life, had swallowed a TOOTHPICK without his knowledge, and the toothpick had traveled as far as it could, thus the reason for the surgery. Hope you're up and around again soon Coach.

—O—

For those of you that will be in town Saturday night you have an invitation to attend the dance being held in the community center to benefit the Heart Association. The dance will be held from 9 to 1 with music by Weldon Reed with admission set at $3 per person or $5 a couple. I know some of you out there really enjoy country music, so here's your opportunity to have fun and contribute to a worthy cause.

—O—

The short-eared owl hunts on cloudy days instead of at night only, like most owls.

Johnson new head of Graham board

W. W. Johnson was elected president of the Graham Community Center Board in a short business meeting Saturday night at the center.

Out-going president, Noel White presided over the election of new board members, Johnson and Bert McDonald. The other outgoing director was Quanah Maxey. White has served the board as president for the past 10 years and Maxey has been on for a number of years.

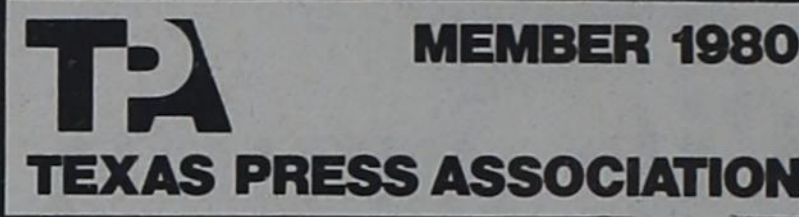

An appreciation fund was begun to help pay hospital expenses for Mrs. Bill Hedrick who was injured in a car accident in the community on Feb. 19. White made a short talk on the work of Mrs. Hedrick with the youth in the Graham Community and Garza County as a horse club leader. $370 was contributed to the fund Saturday night.

A pot-luck supper was served to approximately 75 persons.

Musical entertainment was provided by Noel White, Bobby Cowdrey, Morris Tyler, Jane Mason, Nancy Kemp and Keitha White. A special feature was a visit from Cousin Minnie from Oklahoma. The comedy act was presented by Mildred Stewart. She then sang "How Great Thou Art."

The membership drive for 1980 was begun with Quanah Maxey collecting the $10 per family memberships.

New tax booklet available here

Ruth Reno, Garza County Tax Assessor-Collector, today announced the availability of a new 12-page pamphlet which may help county residents save on their property taxes.

According to Ruth Reno, the pamphlet explains how the property tax system in Texas operates, and highlights possible tax savings available to citizens.

The publication was developed by the State Property Tax Board in accordance with Senate Bill 621, passed by the Texas Legislature in 1979.

Information in the pamphlet is applicable to property taxes collected by all levels of local government, including counties, cities and school districts. Ruth Reno noted that many persons are able to reduce their overall tax bills by applying for available exemptions. All homeowners, for example, may apply for a homestead exemption, but this must be done before the county's tax rendition deadline of April 30.

Additional exemptions are available upon application to disabled veterans, or those age 65 and older.

April 30 is also the last day for owners of agricultural land to apply for taxation of the land at its productive rather than market value.

"More complete information regarding tax rendition and exemptions is available from tax office personnel," Ruth Reno added.

These free booklets are also to be available from city and school tax offices.

Public Notice

Southwestern Public Service Company, pursuant to law and the rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas, hereby gives notice of its intent to apply for a general rate increase affecting all classes of its retail consumers in the county of Garza whose rates are subject to the original jurisdiction of either the municipality of Post or the Public Utility Commission of Texas. A copy of the Company's statement of intent and proposed tariffs has been filed with said municipality and said Commission.

The revised tariffs are proposed to become effective April 4, 1980. Applied to all affected consumers in the 31 counties comprising the Company's Texas service area, they will increase the Company's retail operating revenues by approximately 14.8 percent.

Huntley Nursing Home News

We want to welcome Jesse Camp, Willie Duncan and Lillie Baker. We are happy they are making our home their home.

Our thanks to the First Baptist Church for our Sunday Devotional. We were proud to have these people with us. Come again.

Frances Conrad has given us some enjoyable moments. She made this possible by placing a copy of her mother's book, "A Page of Time," in our home. We have enjoyed reading Vivian Gollehon Bryan's poetry. It really makes us feel back home.

Bingo winners this week were Henrietta Nichols and Ida Stewart. Prizes were address books and combs. If you would like to volunteer for our bingo sessions call Johnnie Wilson our Social Activity Director. We would be glad to have you.

A new thing going at our home is our Garden Club. We have had our first meeting, chosen our plot and set our date for ground breaking. We are in hopes of having a vegetable garden.

Our movie this week was "Nahani". Everyone is excited on movie night. It's almost like when we used to go to the show every Saturday night.

In arts and crafts we are still making waste cans. Our quilting is moving on and we are working on some lap robes.

Happy Birthday to Mary Caywood. She was 79 years young on the 10th of March. Her family brought a beautifully decorated birthday cake for her to share with the residents. It was delicious.

Visiting and good "ole" conversation used to be top on the list for entertainment. It's too bad that television now has top rating in this field. How long has it been since you visited a friend and just talked and reminisced? We have the place and the people where this can be done. There is a lot of knowledge at our home. After all, we represent many years of living. We helped build our country and have contributed much to the history of our country. If you would count our children, our grandchildren and our great-grandchildren, you would see that we have also contributed a lot to the population of our country. Come out and sit and visit a spell as our grandparents used to say.

'Smokey and bandit' chase really wild

The whole episode looked a lot like TV's "Smokey and the Bandit" Sunday afternoon, March 2, on US-82 between Crosbyton and Dickens.

Three "law cars" with sirens and lights blazing were chasing a 1977 Buick at better than 80 miles an hour and bullets were zinging.

Before the chase was over, a DPS vehicle driven by Norman Luker and Crosbyton County Sheriff Fred Owens' car collided with such force that they were both several feet in the air, the pursued ran two road blocks, a lot of shooting was done by "the law" in an effort to hit tires, and finally the pursued's car was rammed by a "law car" on the parking lot of a Crosbyton nursing home with both rear tires shot out.

A total of eight law enforcement vehicles got involved in the "chase" and the road blocks before the episode ended.

Billy Fink, a 24-year-old Crosbyton man, and LeFonda Feemster, a 22-year-old Spur woman, were arrested as the chase ended.

Fink, who is out on bond in Post on an auto theft charge, was denied bond and arraigned the next day before a Dickens County JP on three felony charges, assaulting a police officer in Dickens County and for driving while intoxicated, subsequent offense, and for failure to stop and render aid in Crosby county.

The Feemster woman also was arraigned in Dickens JP court Monday on charges of public lewdness and evading arrest. Bond was set at $2,000 on each count.

To put the wild chase into proper sequence, Dickens County Sheriff Bill Stone received a report that an intoxicated driver with a small child in the rear seat was reported on the highway.

The 60-year-old sheriff spotted the car parked on the road near Dickens and left his patrol car to question its occupants.

He said he found Fink and Feemster nude in the front seat "making love."

When the sheriff told Fink he was under arrest, the sheriff said Fink "came out of the car swinging." Sheriff Stone had his

"slapper" and "hit him two or three good licks but it didn't seem to phase Fink a bit". Fink wrestled the sheriff to the ground and then got up, ran to his car, a 1977 Buick, the girl jumped in and they drove off.

Sheriff Stone said the fight lasted about 10 minutes and Fink tore his jacket, shirt and undershirt trying to choke him.

Stone quickly radioed Spur for assistance.

Spur Police Chief Harold Matteson and off duty highway patrolman Robert Bybee tried to head off Fink on Farm Road 836.

Fink turned off the county road onto US-82 and the chase began with Sheriff Stone right behind him. Crosby County Sheriff Fred Owens and Highway Patrolman Luker joined the chase at the Dickens county line.

Luker turned on his loudspeaker and ordered Fink to pull over, but Fink ignored the order.

The three lawmen decided to try to "box in" the fleeing car by surrounding it but Fink wouldn't let anybody pass.

The patrolman then decided to try to put his front bumper against the rear bumper of Fink's speeding car. This infuriated Fink who "hit the brakes". It was all Luker could do to avoid ramming Fink's car and went into a skid. Sheriff Owen's car also went into a skid and the two vehicles collided in a spectacular wreck with both cars airborne for several feet.

Estimates of the damages were $3,800 on the sheriff's vehicle and $1,700 on the DPS patrol car.

Luker, who suffered a bad bump on his head, was taken by ambulance to a Crosbyton hospital where he was kept overnight for observation.

The sheriff's car jumped a 12-foot ridge and didn't come to rest until 300 feet from the point of impact.

Sheriff Stone and his son, Deputy Stone, in two following police cars fired 14 shots at Fink's back tires trying to shoot them out. They were afraid to fire into the car in fear of hitting a one and one-half year old child, belonging to the woman, in the back seat of Fink's car.

Two roadblocks were set up between Fink and Crosbyton on the highway but Fink took to the bar ditch and slid around both of them as officers fired at his tires.

He continued into Crosbyton where the chase continued on city streets.

The chase finally ended when a deputy rammed the Fink car in the parking lot of a nursing home. By this time about 100 spectators had gathered to watch the ending of the chase.

The above account was a combination of stories appearing last week in the Crosbyton Review and the Texas Spur. One DPS car from Post was among the law enforcement vehicles participating in the chase.

Special report from Washington— Windfall profit tax compromise set

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Texas Congressman Bill Archer, who opposed the "windfall profits tax" on oil all the way, mailed out a special report over the weekend which should interest all those closely involved in the Garza oil industry.)

WASHINGTON — Except for a couple of finishing touches, and the final votes yet to come in the house and senate, all the major decisions have been made in regard to the compromise version of the so-called "windfall profits" tax on energy production.

These are the basic provisions of the bill:

Exemptions from Tax: Only oil owned by state and local governments, certain qualifying charities, Indian tribes, and a portion of Alaskan production (as specified in the bill) is exempt from the tax.

Flowing Oil: Production begun in 1978 or before will be taxed at a 70 percent rate on the amount above a base price of about $13.00 per barrel.

New, Heavy and Tertiary: Oil put into production after 1978, oil produced by qualifying "tertiary" recovery methods, and "heavy" oil will be taxed at a 30 percent rate on the price above a base of $16.55 per barrel.

Stripper Oil: Oil produced from properties having an average of less than 10 barrels a day per well will be taxed at a rate of 60 percent above a base price averaging about $15.30 a barrel.

Reduced Tax for Independents: Independent producers are not exempt from the tax, but they do receive special treatment on up to 1,000 barrels a day of their production. The following tax rates apply to that production: 50 percent on flowing oil, 30 percent on stripper oil. Percentage depletion can be taken on the full price (without regard to any so-called "windfall profit" portion). All other oil produced by independents, and any production in excess of 1,000 barrels a day, is taxed at the full rates paid by integrated oil companies (the tax rates noted above.) Royalty owners do not receive the special treatment given independents.

Severance Tax: State severance taxes up to 15 percent can be deducted prior to figuring the amount of the price subject to the tax.

Beginning and Termination Dates: The tax begins on March 1, 1980 and will be phased out over a 33 month period beginning either in January of 1988 or whenever net revenues reach the $227.3 billion figure, whichever date is later. A 2.5 percent surtax is being added to all of the taxes in the bill for the first 22 months to make up $500 million in revenues "lost" as a result of setting a March 1, rather than January 1 beginning date.

It is important to note that all of the estimated $227.3 billion in revenues to be generated by this bill (a figure which we are told might be off by as much as $100 billion — yes, billion, not million) will go directly into the U.S. Treasury's general revenues. There is no mechanism to guarantee that the funds raised by taxing energy production will be used on energy expenditures. The various tax credits contained in this bill will be financed out of general revenues and have no relationship at all to specific funds generated by this bill.

NEW LEARNING CENTER — Pictured above is Jayton schools' new learning center which will be dedicated Saturday evening with a barbecue, entertainment, open house and tour.

Jayton's new learning center opens Saturday

Official opening of the new Learning Center of the Jayton Public Schools will begin at 6:30 p.m., Saturday, March 22 in the new facility in Jayton.

The program for the open house will include barbecue entertainment, and a tour of the entire school plant.

The new center enlarges and enhances the present library and fine arts areas.

Also included in the facility is a newly furnished board room, a video-tape studio, an open space performing theater as well as an FM radio station for the mass communications department.

The opening of the new Learning Center marks the completion of a three year building program which involved five teacherages, new equipment, a new activity bus and updating of other school facilities. The program is financed by a 10 year bonding program with the district to be free of debt by 1987.

The Jayton Schools are located on a 20-acre site in the western part of town. The plant consists of a main building housing the district administrative offices, classrooms for grades K-12, two gymnasiums, and the auditorium. Separate buildings house a home economics department, an industrial arts department and a vocational agriculture department. A vocational agriculture department. A bus maintenance shop, a football-all weather track facility, tennis courts, greenhouse and a swimming pool round out the school plant.

The economy of the Jayton-Girard Independent School District is one of stability and local tax revenue is such that the district is budget balanced.

Does tied for third in Antelope Relays

Lopes 10th in boys division

Exceptionally fast early season times, almost perfect weather, and Post's new seven-lane resillite track facilities combined to get the Antelope Relays off to an excellent start here Saturday for what is scheduled to become an annual spring sports event.

New Deal edged out Idalou by a single point, 95 to 94, to win the girls division with Friona racking up 94 and one-third points to take the boys division.

Post finished in a tie for third with Lorenzo in the girls division with 67 points, while the Post boys were tenth in a 12-team boys field with 17 points.

The final team standings in the well-run meet, which drew nothing but compliments from visiting coaches and teams, are as follows:

Boys: Friona, 94¹; Idalou 79 and one-third, Frenship 73, New Deal 60 and one-third, Lockney 50, Crosbyton 45, Petersburg 21, Lorenzo and Roosevelt tied with 18 each, Post 17, and Ralls and Cooper tied at 10 each.

Girls: New Deal 95, Idalou 94, Post and Lorenzo tied at 67 each, Ralls 52, Petersburg and Tahoka tied at 49, Frenship 30, and Roosevelt 22.

The new Post track is a metric track and all running events were at metered distances instead of yards. This will be compulsory in Texas high school track by 1984.

The Post Does won three of the 14-event program, placed second in two others, and a fifth in a sixth event. Luann Kennedy won the 800 meter dash in two minutes, 35.4 seconds, placed second in the high jump with a leap of five feet, one inch, and ran on both of Post's placing relay teams — the winning 800 meter relay, and the fifth place 1600 meter relay team.

Marinette Hays won the long jump with a 16 foot, 3 and one-quarter inch leap and also ran on both of Post's placing relay teams. Trushell Marts placed second in the 1,600 meter run in 6 minutes, 4.5 seconds for the Does' other individual points.

Post's first place 800 meter relay team was composed of Amy Thuet and Trushell Marts besides Kennedy and Hays. They turned in a good one minute and 55.5 second clocking.

The Does' 1600 meter relay team, which was fifth in 4:40.1, was comprised of Sheryl Anderson and Dee Dee Redman besides Kennedy and Hays.

The Post Antelopes didn't fare as well, scoring with three fourth, a fifth, and a sixth point.

Mark Holly with a 52.5 second 400 finished fourth in that one trip around the oval. Drew Kirkpatrick was fourth in the 300 meter intermediate hurdles with a 42.3, and Alonzo Luna got a fourth in the long jump with a 20 foot, half inch leap.

Luna also got a sixth in the 200 meter dash in 24.3 seconds. The Post 1600 meter relay team was fifth in 3:33.2. It was composed of Luna, Kirkpatrick, Rance Adkins and Holly.

Post's sprint relay team was eliminated in the morning preliminaries when the baton was dropped by the last handoff.

Results are as follows for the girls division:

400 meter relay: Lorenzo, Idalou, Petersburg, Frenship, Post and Tahoka, 53.9. 400 meter dash: Milner of Petersburg, Phillips of Tahoka, King of Petersburg, Thomas of Lorenzo, Hale of New Deal, and Mann of Roosevelt, 16.5.

If you looked out at just the right time Tuesday you weren't dreaming — that was moisture (very little of course) and those were rain clouds in the sky. Joint session—

Councilman Jack Alexander explained to the county court representatives that the $2,287 spent to build an "exercise yard" for prisoners as required by the state jail commission was an addition to the county's real property which the city could not legally help finance.

The swimming pool problem came up following a meeting of the new park board last week in which Julian Smith said a leaking pipe in the pool concrete has to be fixed. This means tearing up portions of the concrete and putting them back.

If worse came to worse, it might mean the 30-year-old pool could not open this summer.

Using swimming pool plans, Smith thinks he knows about where the leak is. Both city and county fund the park board and both said Monday night they would provide labor to find the leak and make the repairs.

The runway improvements at the airport have been "in the talk stage" at the city council level for well over a year with the airport being written up by state inspectors for the runway's condition.

Filling the low spots and seal coating the runways is estimated now to cost in the $50,000 range. Mayor Giles McCrary proposed a three-year plan if the state would okay it. City Manager Maddox said there is a possibility of state aid. The city has $10,000 in its current budget for airport repair.

Attending the session were Mayor McCrary, Councilmen Jackson, Bill Pool, and Alexander, County Judge Giles Dalby, and County Commissioners Ted Aten and Herb Walls.

Petra ruins—

Included in McCrary's tour were visits to Isreal including Jerusalem, Bethlehem, Jericho, the Dead Sea and the Sea of Galilee; the pyramids in Egypt, the Valley of the Kings in Egypt, and an eight-day boat trip in the Sea of Suez and inland into Egypt.

So many of these were indescribable, according to McCrary.

Flea market—

(Continued From Page One) The ham luncheon served at 12:30 p.m. Saturday will include ham, green beans, potato salad, cobbler and hot rolls for $2.50 a plate. All proceeds from both the lunch and concession stand will go to the new building fund.

The farm sale will get under way at 11 a.m. Saturday with Herb Henderson, auctioneer, and associates of Wolforth handling the sale.

Tractors and equipment that have been consigned include two 4020 diesel JD tractors, one 4020 JD L.P., one super M, one 826 IH, one 4430, and a 1969 pickup. Numerous other listings have been made and are expected.

Hospital—

In the board's abbreviated business session, directors approved the writing off the hospital's books of $8,237.70 in patient accounts as uncollectable. These will be turned over to a collection agency.

In another action, the board approved the expenditure of $13,500 as the hospital district's share of the cost of county-wide new real property valuations. This is the district's share for the remainder of the current fiscal year.
