

Phone strike begins

More than 8,000 General Telephone workers in Post and 990 other cities in four states, including Texas, went on strike at midnight Friday because no agreement has been reached on a new three-year contract.

Company supervisory personnel has taken over vacated working positions to keep the phone operation continuing.

Some 69,000 telephones in this West Texas district with Brownfield as the district office are affected.

It is the first strike against General Telephone in many years.

Company officials reported 46 clear cut cases of vandalism since the strike began, but none of these have been in the South Plains area.

The utility's last offer was a $38.3 million wage and benefit package which company officials said was the largest ever offered by General Telephone.

Total wage and benefits offered amounted of an increase of approximately 36.5 percent over the life of the contract.

The Communication Workers of America local immediately rejected the offer.

The union is seeking wage increases to bring General Telephone workers on a salary par with those of Southwestern Bell Telephone.

General Telephone said it can't offer such wages and stay within current 9 1/2 percent wage guidelines.

The union says a Southwestern Bell cable splicer now earns $403.50 weekly at top while a General Telephone cable splicer is paid only $341.20 weekly, a difference of $62.30.

The union says the company could offer more than it has without exceeding wage guidelines.

No quick solution is expected by either side. Wage negotiations have not resumed since the strike began Friday.

Meanwhile in Austin the Texas Public Utilities Commission postponed until next Wednesday a General Telephone petition for a rate increase of $58,300,000, or 37 percent.

Before tabling the plea, the commission threatened to penalize GTE some $4 million for "poor service" which would reduce the rate to $54,300,000.

GTE officials said nine percent of striking workers already have returned to work by late Tuesday under a verbal agreement for a seven percent wage increase now and another two percent in the fall.

Vacation slows probe

Further investigation of the armed robbery last week of the White Front Package store, 15 miles north of Post, will have to await the return from Colorado of Mrs. Deloris Lindsey, the principal witness, Sheriff Jim Pippin said Wednesday.

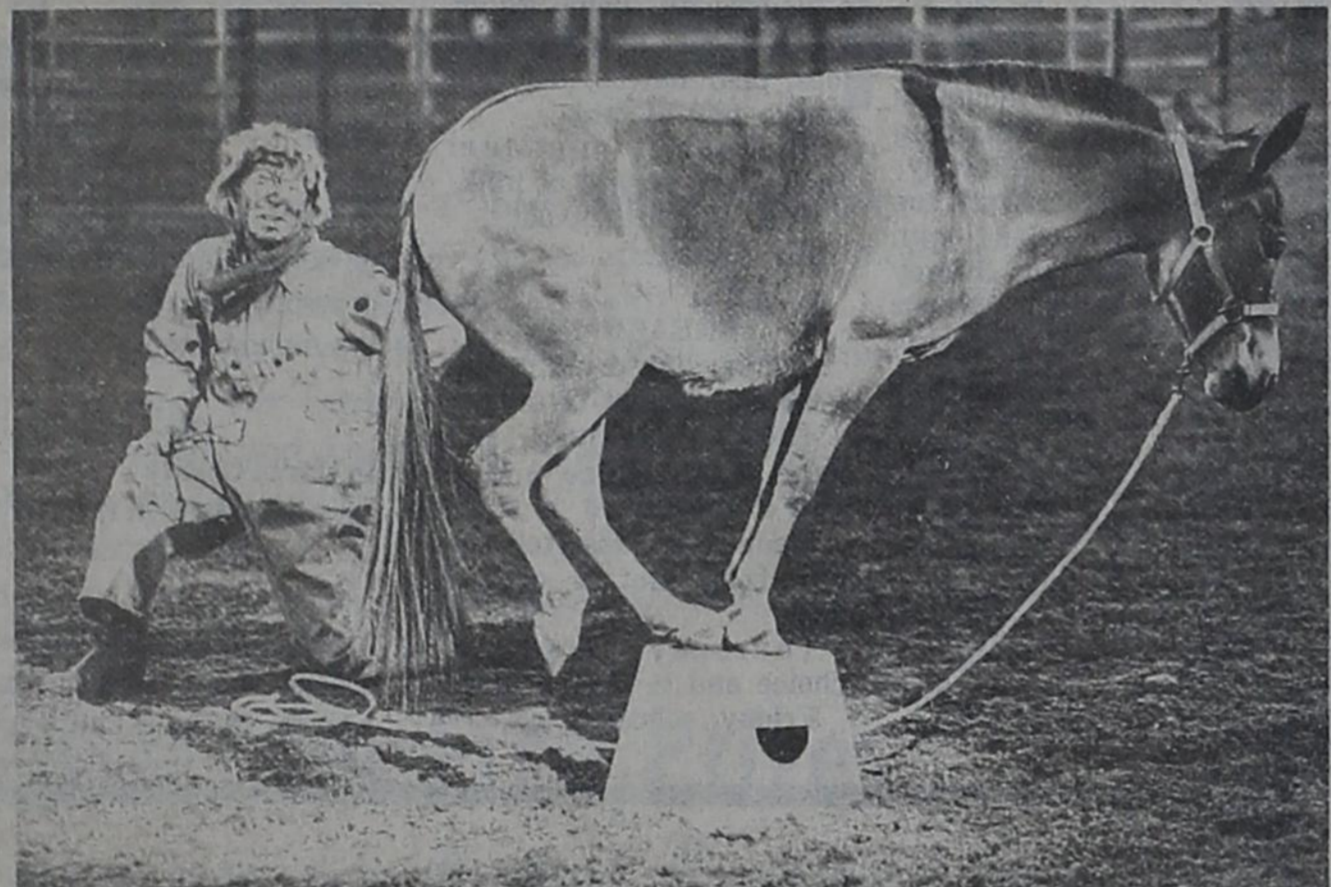

The sheriff's department found a car in Slaton answering the description of the car the black trio used in the robbery last Wednesday evening.

One occupant jumped out and successfully got away from officers. Another one who was nervous refused to have his picture made. A third permitted his picture to be made.

Sheriff Pippin said officers couldn't arrest the Slaton blacks without some identification as the basis. The sheriff said the three holdup men all wore gloves so no fingerprints could be taken.

Mrs. Lindsey isn't expected back from Colorado for another week and whether the suspects will still be available then remains the unanswered question.

Two couples own the liquor store and alternately run the store for two weeks. The Lindseys left the day after the holdup for two weeks in Colorado.

TWO SPECIALTY ACTS — J. W. Stoker of Weatherford, champion trick rider and roper, in upper picture and Louie Thurman of Burleson, animal trainer, with his miniature mule, Babe, lower picture will be just two of the headline acts on "The Miller Bros. and Lone Star Wild West and American Heritage Show" on the Miller Ranch at Justiceburg Saturday and Sunday afternoons. The Dispatch uses a little trick of its own inside Stoker's rope to advertise the upcoming show. Both Stoker and Thurman have appeared in rodeos and western shows all over the United States and abroad.

500 questionnaires going out— May 31 set for cleanup Community goals sought for '80s

Five hundred citizen questionnaires are being distributed by the First National Bank and the Post schools in an effort to write a "road map" of community goals for Post for the 1980s.

Maxine Marks, who heads a citizens committee to spearhead the project, also announced this week a community meeting has been scheduled for 7 p.m. Tuesday, June 3, in the bank community room for additional input on community needs and desires so priorities can be established and goals set for the new decade.

Absentee voting begins May 28

Absentee voting for the Democratic runoff primary will begin next Wednesday, May 28 and end June 3.

That will give voters who plan to be out of town on election day Saturday, June 7, only five days in which to do their absentee voting in the county clerk's office in the courthouse.

SPAG will work with the committee on the program. The questionnaires are going out with bank statements to businesses and via school pupils to take home to parents.

Mrs. Marks urged everyone receiving them to fill them out and return them for the committee's consideration.

The questionnaires asks opinions on whether the Post school system is doing an adequate job, what new services should be provided by the city, how citizens rate present municipal services, whether or not vocational training for adults is needed, whether health care facilities are adequate and if not what more is needed, whether citizens have any problems with gas, telephone or electric service, the community's housing needs if any, and how much retail purchasing is done outside Post by local residents and why.

Other members of the committee spearheading the (See '80s Goals, Page 14)

A spring cleanup of Post's downtown area and highway routes through the city is scheduled for all-day Saturday, May 31, Dwayne Binford, chairman of the Post Lions Club's cleanup committee, announced this week.

Volunteers are asked to assemble in the bank parking lot at 9 a.m. for assignments.

Binford said he is hopeful several organizations will volunteer to accept assignment for the cleanup of various parts of the city.

Last year, the cleanup had to be postponed into mid-week because of weather and only six volunteers undertook the annual "straightening up" effort.

'Planting rain' soaks county—

Drought is broken

Garza County received a real "cotton planting rain" last Thursday with moisture amounts generally ranging from two or over three inches.

Farmers are expected to start planting just as soon as their fields dry out sufficient to get tractors into them.

Post officially received slightly over two inches with the welcome moisture accompanied by high winds of the 50 miles an hour variety.

Very little damage was reported however.

The rainfall came mostly in two thunderstorms, one about 3 a.m. and the other at 7 a.m.

After the second a steady soaking rain continued through most of the morning.

Post received .63 of an inch more of moisture Tuesday evening about 5 p.m. in another shower.

West of Post on FM-1313, high winds blew a heavy wooden patio cover over the Dicky Wallace residence and dumped it upside down in the highway in front. A bulldozer was necessary to drag the patio cover off the roadway.

Mrs. Wallace who had just arrived home said the dirt was so thick she thought it was hail. Some slight damage also was reported on the side of the (See Good Rain, Page 14)

If wet weather doesn't intervene—

Big crowds expected

The only question neither Riley Miller nor Bob Estes, the co-producers of "The Miller Bros. and Lone Star Wild West and American Heritage Show" this weekend at Justiceburg, can answer is how big a crowd is expected.

"It probably will depend on the weather," Mrs. Miller told The Dispatch Monday night. Neither Riley nor Bob were expected in from preparations before 10 p.m. that night.

With good spring weather, the crowds should be overflowing for the two two-hour performances Saturday and Sunday afternoons beginning at 2 p.m. each day.

The show will be staged in the roping arena on the Riley Miller ranch just west of Justiceburg where both buffalo and longhorn steers graze in the pastures. "It's a circular arena," Mrs. Miller explained, "so anybody can sit anywhere and have a good seat."

She said four sections of bleachers had been moved to the arena and erected and about 200 folding chairs have been trucked in. To be sure, you can bring your own seat.

Estes, who dropped in to The Dispatch office Monday morning, opined that "there won't be any show in the country this year anywhere close to this one." Included is just about everything a youngster learns about the old west — a buffalo stampede, an Indian war dance, bronc and bull riding, a stage coach holdup, trick riding and trick roping, besides trained animal acts, and a country singer — Johnny Seay of Cleburne who sold a million records to get a free gold one for his "Day for Decision."

Some of the best riders in the country will be on hand, including Garza's own Jesse Knight who got his start in saddle bronc (See Wild West, Page 14)

Tuesday final deadline—

No spraying decision yet

USDA officials at Crosbyton Tuesday refused to commit the federal government to the aerial grasshopper spraying of ranching areas in Garza, Dickens and Crosby county with a final decision coming up possibly next Tuesday.

County Agent Syd Conner told The Dispatch that 206,000 Garza acres already are signed up for the spraying and a possible 70,000 to 75,000 more acres are pending.

The USDA has been reluctant from the start to spray the breaks area along the Caprock's rim because officials fear the spray cannot get down to the ground for a good hopper kill, Conner said.

Conner said the Garza committee, which met Monday night and is headed by Jack Lott, still needs to fill in blocks for the spraying or scattered acreage will be left out.

He said any cattle raisers who want to get into the spraying face a final deadline of next Tuesday.

The county agent said if they want in they should visit either his or Lott's office at 228 East Main, block out their acreage, (See Deadline, Page 14)

Oscar Gray rites Monday

Funeral services for Oscar Samuel Gray, 76, of Post were held at 2:30 p.m. Monday in the First Baptist Church with the Rev. Morgan Ashworth, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, officiating, and the Rev. Glenn Reece, pastor of the First Baptist Church assisting.

Burial was in Cottonwood Flat Cemetery in Scurry County under the direction of Hudman Funeral Home.

Gray died at 12:55 a.m. Sunday in Central Plains Regional Hospital in Plainview after a short illness.

The rancher had lived in Post since 1952. He was married to Anna Bell Gray on Sept. 20, 1941 in Sweetwater. She died on Sept. 23, 1979.

Survivors include two brothers, James A. of Frederick, Okla., and Elmer of Amarillo; and a sister, Ollie Skippis of Rotan.

Pallbearers were Everette Windham, Jiggs King, Bobby Terry, Dayle Nelson, Jerry Hart, and Bernie Jones.

Honorary pallbearers were J. D. Hart, Harold Cass, Ira Farmer, Pete Maddox, and Floy Richardson.

Sign ordered for oil well

Post Chamber of Commerce directors at their May meeting Monday night in the bank lobby voted to order the sign for the courthouse lawn oil well — a project which has been months "in the process."

Danny Shaw predicted the new sign will arrive and be erected within 30 days.

Curtis Hudman, who heads the Chamber's Fourth of July celebration committee, said work on the big holiday event will be getting under way soon with completion of all necessary committees.

Attending the directors session besides Shaw were directors Charles Adams, Hudman, Charles Hardin, Rick Loving, Jim Pollard, Colley Gatlin, and Linda Waldrip, and Chamber Secretary Carol Ann Brazier.

The swimming pool situation currently is fluid — no pun intended.

Workers had the pool all ready for the new summer season by carefully patching up leaks, but a new leak popped up over the weekend to put the whole operation in jeopardy.

Workers Tuesday hadn't reached the source of the leak in the pool's concrete shell to determine if it can be fixed. Best guess at this writing is it can and the pool should open the weekend school is out.

But the 30-year-old pool needs a new set of pipes and that means some expensive new plumbing is going to have to be installed before the summer of 1981. The estimate on cost, as yet undetermined, probably will be included in the city and county budgets for the next fiscal year.

Tom Power proved to be a good "downtown neighbor" last Friday. Windows on the Marshall store building were painted up by the PHS junior class just before homecoming last year and have been a mess and a real eye sore ever since. Well, Tom finally filled his bucket, took his window brush and walked across the street and washed those windows Friday afternoon.

Now we're trying to (See Postings, Page 14)

Garza's newest business to hold grand opening

Garza's newest business will have its grand opening Saturday some six miles west of town.

It's Frank and Ruby Bostick's OMC Pump and Agriculture Equipment firm which is conveniently located behind their beautiful farm home on route 3, six miles west of Post on US-380 and a half mile north on the Close City road.

The Bosticks converted a storage building into an office and parts department, graveled off a big area for equipment display, and have further development plans which includes building a new 40 by 60 foot service center and expanding their 19 by 20 foot office to 40 by 50 feet.

Saturday's grand opening is scheduled from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. with nine door prizes, including new car batteries, socket sets, a hot air corn popper and three mixers, to be drawn (See Opening, Page 14)

Chance of a lifetime

Justiceburg folks will tell you — without exception — that this weekend's wild west show on Riley Miller's ranch is going to be something special. They go on to explain in very simple terms that when Riley Miller does something, he does it right.

We agree with them wholeheartedly. It's going to be something special all right. Bob Estes of Baird, who is co-promoting the show with Riley, was in The Dispatch office Monday morning with some pictures he thought we might be able to use.

They were of Louie Thurman of Burleson who has an all-star trained animal act which will be a part of the weekend show.

A former rodeo contestant and bull fighter, Thurman turned to specialty acts in 1962 when he decided it was time to leave the rough stuff to younger men.

Thurman has a paint mare named Calico Miss and a balky miniature mule called Babe which really delights western audiences.

Estes who brought in the picture is something of a rodeo man himself. He has suffered a broken leg nine times from bad spills while rodeoing and said he couldn't wait each time to get back to the arena.

"This one," says Bob, referring to the upcoming Wild West show, "doesn't have anything like it in the country today. It's going to be unique."

If you remember back to 1976, Riley Miller converted the Gail Centennial celebration into a tremendous show with his trail ride over from his ranch and the big afternoon show which was a forerunner of this weekend's Wild West Show.

The Saturday and Sunday afternoon performances coming up will be a grand mix of the old west for a very good cause — to help pay for a cancer operation of eight-year-old Amy Pratt, a former Post girl who now lives in Benjamin.

Remember kids under 12 get in free. And even for us "older kids" the admission isn't so much.

As Bob West points out in a quarter page ad promotion of the show in this week's Dispatch: "Don't Miss It. It's the chance of a lifetime."

"Now, there's what I call a strike."

New wildcat test slated

Six more drilling locations in Garza County have been announced this week, four of them Willbanks-Walker locations in the Post field and another a deep wildcat three miles south of Justiceburg.

The wildcat is Will-McCorp.'s No. 1 Mrs. Ray Smith which will be drilled to 8,200 feet.

The Willbanks-Walker locations include:

No. 1, 2, 3, and 4 I.N. McCrary, all 11 miles east of Post, and each of which will be drilled to 2,900 feet.

The sixth location is Threshold Development Co.'s No. 1 Ed K. Sims, 11 miles southeast of Post, which is slated for a depth of 8,200 feet in the Trabow field.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bouchier attended the graduation of their grandson, Blair, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Bouchier of Houston. Blair graduated from the New Mexico Military Institute in Roswell, N.M. Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Bouchier are former residents of Post.

Williams promoted to firm president

ASHLAND, KY. — David C. Williams has been named president of Ashland Development, Inc., according to Orin E. Atkins, board chairman and chief executive officer of Ashland Oil, Inc.

Ashland Development, Inc. is a subsidiary of Ashland Oil, Inc. engaged primarily in new ventures and acquisitions apart from Ashland's traditional businesses, with particular emphasis on new technology.

A native of Post, Texas, and a mechanical engineering graduate of Texas Tech University, Williams joined United Carbon Company — subsequently acquired by Ashland Oil — in 1947 and rose to become general manager of its engineering operations.

After joining Ashland, he became general manager of engineering for Ashland Chemical Company, and in 1972 was elected a vice president of Ashland Oil, Inc. Prior to his promotion he was executive vice president of Ashland Development.

Williams will remain in the Ashland area in his new position.

Ashland Chemical is a division of Ashland Oil, Inc.

HE APPRECIATES POST

Dear Editor:

I came down from Lubbock to work on a cemetery lot at your cemetery at 6 a.m. one recent Saturday morning. Upon finding the cemetery gate still locked for the night, I called the sheriff's office and a deputy was quickly dispatched to allow my entry to work on the lot.

Since there was no water hose available out there, I borrowed one for use from Harold Lucas Motor Co.

I wish I were back living in a town where the people are nice and friendly as they are in Post where I once taught. I am the son-in-law of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stallings.

Remember and renew

Memorial Day Monday means a whole lot more to America than just the world's best known auto race.

It's the day each year this nation pauses to remember our war dead of all America's wars. Little American flags will dot the cemeteries of this nation marking the graves of veterans of all wars who helped keep America free.

In remembering the price which was paid for freedom, we must look forward, as well as into the past, and pledge for ourselves that whatever the price we shall see this country remains free.

Freedom does not come easily to any nation, and freedom can easily be lost to those both outside and inside who thirst for power.

With freedom comes the responsibility to protect it. That is our American birthright.

As we visit the cemeteries Monday to pay respect to the memories of those who have gone on ahead, let us pause to reflect what a tremendous heritage we bear, and how proudly it has been carried for the past 200 years.

We are far from a perfect nation, but this country still remains the best hope of this world and the recognized cradle of liberty.

Monday, let us remember — and renew.

Cracks are showing

After 24 years of tracking America's presidential elections and writing very interesting and analytical books about them, Theodore White is recognized generally as our No. 1 presidential election expert.

Recently, he wrote an article for Life about the 1980 race for the presidency in which he raises the question as to whether today's primaries are a "worse or better way of choosing presidents than the old way?"

He points out a bloodless revolution in the past 25 years has torn down the old power structure of American politics, substituting in its place an unplanned, unfinished new structure.

By this year, the primary method of selecting party presidential choices have grown into a set of 37 ambushes in 35 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico. It has turned the selection into a gruelling six months' elimination contest that may very probably bore, confuse or disgust large blocks of voters before this year's long race is run.

The primaries climax June 3 on what is called Sweepstakes Day because nine states vote that day. By June 4 three-fourths of all the delegates to the two party conventions will have been elected.

White we think misses the biggest point of all. That is that the American two party system has been so weakened by all the changes in American politics that it well may be ready for the ash can itself before another 25 has been run.

That's what really worries us.

it's your MOVE
HINTS FOR HOMEOWNERS

To turn bare into beautiful, start with walls and windows. Paint and wallpaper offer an inexpensive and endlessly flexible way to create an effect. Or, for drama, panel a wall or cover it with fabric.

Shutters, shades, curtains and drapes infuse windows—and the whole room—with life. Unusual plywood lambrequins painted to match curtains or covered with fabric will provide an eye-arresting focus.

How can you make your home yours? "It's Your Move," a book of decorating ideas that's one of United Van Lines' many consumer services, advises you to decorate with all the things that have meaning to you. Let your personality show!

Those present were Pete and Martha Pennell, Danny and Nancy Shaw, Hal and Mary Ann Swinford, Ray Morales, Donna Nelson, Inez Norris, and Faye Maddox.

Post Culture Club installs officers

The Woman's Culture Club met at the Women's Club House for a salad luncheon Wednesday, May 14.

The group decided to study art and culture of the southwest for the coming club year.

An impressive installation service was conducted by Mrs. Ida Mae Wilks as the following officers were installed:

President, Maxine Marks; first vice president, Maxine Smith; second vice president, Nita Burress; recording secretary, Peggy Ellis; corresponding secretary and treasurer, Ruth Duckworth; music chairman, Lillian Potts; civic chairman, Lois Williams; press representative, Linda Malouf; literary chairman, Beulah Pickett.

The new president, Maxine Marks, appointed her standing committees.

An amusing song "This Ole Gal" was led by Maxine Marks, accompanied by Sylvia Evans at the piano.

The following members and guests were present: Buena Bouchier, Ruby Kirkpatrick, Estelle Davis, Opal Pennell, Maxine Marks, Lois Williams, Nita Burress, Linda Malouf, Pearl Storie, Ruth Young, Lillian Potts, Ruth Duckworth, Doll Haire, Maxine Smith, Peggy Ellis, Beulah Pickett and guests, Mrs. Sylvia Evans and Ida Mae Wilks.

PLAN JUNE 28 WEDDING — Mr. and Mrs. Joe D. Philpott of Cisco are proud to announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Amy Jo, to Rodney James Teaff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Teaff of Post. The couple is planning a June 28th wedding at 8 p.m. in the First Baptist Church in Cisco. All friends are invited to attend.

Graham holds its senior supper

The annual Graham Community Senior Supper was held recently at the community center. Six seniors who either live in, attend church in or gin in the community were honored. The five boys and one girl included Brent Mason, Lea Ann Babb, Kirk Stephens, Rynn Norman, Mike Macy and Jeff Lott.

A large crowd attended the pot luck supper with the honorees and their families as special guests.

Decorations included gold table cloths with black driftwood centerpieces featuring gold candles.

Each of the 1980 graduates had a special gift table marked by a graduate silhouette lettered with their name.

W. W. Johnson, president of the community center board, welcomed the guests and congratulated the seniors. Noel White led the invocation.

The seniors introduced themselves and told of their future plans.

TONI KAY BISHOP
Engagement announced

Mr. and Mrs. David Bishop of Knippa, Texas, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Toni Kay, to George Randal Hames, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hames, also of Knippa.

Toni is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Wallace and the great-granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hester and Mrs. Pearl Wallace, all of Post.

Wedding vows will be exchanged on Saturday, May 31, at 7:30 p.m. at the Church of Christ in Sabin.

$340,000 in scholarships ready for 4-H Roundup

COLLEGE STATION — June in Texas fosters thoughts of many scenes. Baseball games, swimming, fishing and cookouts, to name a few. But for Texas 4-H members, June means only one thing — ROUNDUP.

June 3-4 marks the 34th Annual Texas 4-H Roundup on the campus of Texas A&M University. More than 2,000 4-H members, volunteer leaders and coaches will descend upon the College Station campus for 40 action-packed hours of competition and fun.

Roundup is the culmination of competitive events which began at the local community level months earlier, points out Preston Sides, 4-H and youth specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. Having won at the county 4-H's then competed and won the right to represent their club, county and region in one of the 14 District 4-H Roundups held across the state a few weeks ago.

4-H members 14 to 19 years of age will present method demonstrations and illustrated talks in 25 contest areas ranging from electricity to sheep. They will also use their skills in eight judging and evaluation events from meats identification to soils judging. And 4-H'ers will demonstrate their skills in marksmanship in the rifle contest, in speaking before groups in the public speaking contest, and in entertainment techniques in the share-the-fun contest.

Other events which are part of Roundup include the State 4-H Food Show and

AFB officer is promoted

KNOB NOSTER, Mo — Johnnie G. Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond D. Wood of 116 S. Ave. S., Post, has been promoted in the U.S. Air Force to the rank of first lieutenant.

Lieutenant Wood is a security police staff officer at Whiteman Air Force Base here.

A 1965 graduate of Gravette High School, Gravette, Ark., the lieutenant earned a bachelor's degree in 1977 from Chapman College, Orange, Calif. He was commissioned in 1978 through Officer Training school, Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

New Arrivals

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Hillhouse announce the birth of a baby girl, Stephanie Lynn, born May 13, 1980 at 7:31 a.m. weighing 8 lbs. 9 ozs. and was 22 inches long. Her parents live in Gail, Texas.

LUBBOCK — Micronaire discounts applicable to the 1980 Commodity Credit Corporation loan schedule show the largest year-to-year increase since "mike" first became a part of the schedule in 1964, according to Donald Johnson, Executive President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock.

The most severe jump came in cotton miking 2.6 and below. The discount for that category in the 1979 loan schedule was 605 points. In 1980 low mike loan discounts announced from Washington May 15, with 1979 comparisons in parentheses, are 580 (400) for 2.7 to 2.9, 345 (225) for 3.0 to 3.2, and 125 (65) for 3.3 to 3.4.

Adjustments in micronaire discounts that apply to the loan schedule are based each year, as are grade and staple premiums and discounts, on the average price differences quoted in spot markets during the nine month period August through April of the preceding marketing year.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture however has authority to make other changes if in the Secretary's opinion it is necessary to discourage production of qualities in surplus supply or encourage the growth of qualities in short supply.

Production of low mike cotton on the High Plains was exceptionally high in 1979, and the August 1979, to March 1980 average spot market discount on cotton miking 2.6 and below soared 429 points, about 50 percent, to 1,283 points from the 854-point average for the same period in 1978-79. PCG has not yet received average spot market quotes for April.

The previous 80-point record increase in the 2.6

and below discount in 1976 followed not one but two low mike years on the Plains. This area's crop in 1974 averaged only 3.1 micronaire and the 1979 crop dropped to 3.0.

Premiums and discounts on all qualities above and below the Strict Low Middling one and one-sixteenth inch base were not available to PCG as this was written, but it has been reported that the 1980 discount on strict Low Middling Light Spot thirty-one thirtseconds, climbed 50 points, from 580 to 630.

In addition to the increased discounts assigned to qualities common to High Plains production in the loan schedule, the base loan in 1980, barring the success of efforts by PCG and others to prevent it, drops over two cents, from 1979's 50.23 cents to 48 cents per pound.

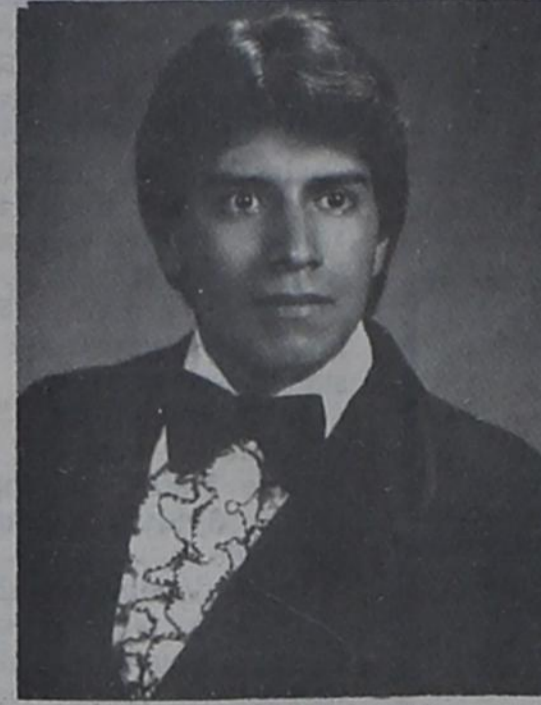

As soon as received from USDA, PCG will review the calculations used to arrive at the 1980 schedule of premiums and discounts to determine if there is a reasonable basis for protesting the sharp increases in 1980 discounts.

PHS class of '30 in 50th reunion

The 1930 graduating class of Post High School held its 50th class reunion Saturday, May 17 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McCampbell.

Registration was held at 1 p.m. with those attending visiting throughout the afternoon. Refreshments were served from a table laid with a white cloth and featured a centerpiece of red silk roses with a statue of a graduate and streamers of black and gold with Post and "1930".

Following the afternoon of visiting the group went to Damon's Restaurant for supper and following the meal were presented with tiny diplomas tied with a red ribbon. The class flower for this class was the red rose and their colors were red and white.

Attending the reunion were Ruby Crawford McKenzie, Claudette Welch, and Carmen Crawford McNeil, all of Odessa; Nina Hoover Chapman, James and Jerry White, all of Plainview; Ruth Harrison Knowles of Corpus Christi; Jimmie Flowers of Ralls; Tom and Lela Curb Miller of Carlsbad, Colleen Hord and son, Tom Hord of Brownfield, Roy and Mildred Edwards LaMond of Grassland, and Floyd and Ruby Harbison Stanley, Allen and Vera Allen Tyler, Enid Gossett, Harold Voss, Lester Nichols, and J. D. and Vada McCampbell, all of Post.

Extension service names districts

COLLEGE STATION — With the premise that there's more in a name than a number, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A & M University System, is "naming" each of its 14 districts.

So Extension districts will now be known by their name in addition to their number. The "new" look will be as follows:

Panhandle — District 1.
South Plains — District 2.
Rolling Plains — District 3.
North Central — District 4.
Northeast — District 5.
Far West — District 6.
West Central — District 7.

Cooperation is sought to complete 1980 census

Census takers in this area are completing the first follow-up operation of the 1980 Census, which involved contacting households that had not returned their census questionnaires by mail to the census office.

According to Mitzi Jordan, district census office manager, census enumerators in each county have been gathering the necessary information from households where the Census Bureau did not receive a mail response. This includes those which did not return their census questionnaires by the April 11 mail deadline as well as some households that did not receive a census form in the mail.

Census manager Mitzi Jordan, explained that in many rural areas and smaller communities, census questionnaires were not delivered by mail on March 28 to some persons holding post office boxes or with a General Delivery address. Because the Census Bureau uses the "enumeration district" or physical area in which a household is located as its basis for counting, all questionnaires must have a code number showing this location. Where it was not possible to pinpoint a residence's location using only the post office box, forms could not be coded or mailed.

In those cases where census forms were not delivered by mail, a census taker should have called on the household during this first follow-up operation. Any persons who have not yet been contacted by a census taker, and who did not fill out the 1980 census questionnaire, are urged to call the district census office in Lubbock at (806) 762-7511, giving their name, address and phone number. A census taker will then call to assure that every individual is counted in the census.

A second follow-up phase of the 1980 census begins at the end of May and involves contacting households that returned incomplete questionnaires, additional checks on residences that had earlier been reported as "vacant" and further attempts to reach households not already counted.

Post sales tax rebate jumps

Post's sales tax rebate in May shot up over 400 percent over the same period last year leading to the conclusion that processing changes in the state comptroller's office is causing the wild fluctuations, not the economy.

Comptroller Bob Bullock reported a check for $13,557.86 for the month ending May 1 for the city of Post as compared to only $3,049.93 for the same period in 1979.

This brings sales tax payments for 1980 to date for the city to $49,059.58, a hefty 37 percent increase over the $35,700.73 for the same period in 1979.

Absentee Voting

Voters will have only five days to vote absentee for the June 7 runoff primary. Absentee voting will begin next Wednesday, May 28 and will end Tuesday, June 3 in the county clerk's office.

If you're going to be out of town June 7, vote before you go. I appreciate your vote for me for precinct 3 county commissioner either way.

Texas ag output sets record in 1979

COLLEGE STATION — Cash receipts from Texas crops helped boost total agricultural sales receipts to a new high in 1979.

Although final figures are not yet in, Texas Agricultural Extension Service estimates place cash receipts from crops at more than $3.9 billion, up from $2.9 billion in 1978. Last year's crop receipts should have an agribusness impact of about $16 billion on the Texas economy.

The big jump in cash receipts was due in part to a bumper cotton crop, says Dr. Carl Anderson, Extension economist in marketing. Intensified efforts in using short-season production systems boosted projected receipts on the 1979 crop to $1.5 billion. An estimated 6.8 million acres were harvested, producing 5.5 million bales.

The South Plains area of Texas brought in the bulk of cotton receipts with an estimated $100 million. The Rolling Plains region had the second highest cotton receipts at $24 million.

Grain sorghum came in second in estimated sales in 1979 with around $432 million. The actual acreage of sorghum harvested declined by 150,000 acres from 1978, yet receipts increased more than $153 million because of higher prices.

The Panhandle region boasted the highest cash value from grain sorghum this year at almost $190 million. The Coastal Bend region came in second with sorghum valued at $110 million.

The wheat crop made a sharp gain in 1979, notes Anderson. Texas wheat farmers harvested 4.6 million acres for total estimated cash receipts of more than $415 million, up 167 percent from 1978 when the crop totaled only $155 million. Yields averaging 30 bushels per acre set a record in Texas.

The Panhandle led the state in wheat receipts with $169 million. The Rolling Plains region was second with a wheat crop of more than $77 million.

Corn ranked fourth on the list of estimated cash receipts from crops for 1979. While harvested corn acreage was down to 1.3 million acres, receipts totaled $333 million as improved prices pushed sales up 40 percent from 1978.

The South Plains again led in cash receipts, with sales totaling $195 million. The Panhandle was second highest with estimated receipts of $81 million from corn.

Rice ranked fifth in estimated cash receipts from crops at $231 million. Texas rice farmers planted 560,000 acres in 1979. The Upper Coast boasted rice receipts estimated at $217 million for their crop and the Coastal Bend area pulled in an estimated $13 million.

Vegetable sales totaled $223 million. Sales in South Texas are estimated at $116 million while Southwest Texas farmers registered sales of $27 million.

A surprising $160 million was estimated in cash receipts by the Texas nursery industry in 1979, points out Anderson.

The Upper Coast showed an estimated $42 million for nursery crops while Northeast Texas posted nursery crop sales of more than $40 million in 1979.

Cash receipts from soybeans placed eighth on the Texas crops list. Soybeans, harvested on more than 800,000 acres, brought in an estimated $143 million.

Upper Coast farmers got an estimated $81 million for their soybean crop while South Plains farmers sold their crop for $49 million.

A record peanut crop of 516 million pounds brought in receipts of almost $97 million. Central Texas growers led the pack with a $37 million crop while Southwest Texas farmers received an estimated $22 million for their peanuts.

Hay was the tenth best seller in the state, bringing in an estimated $65 million in actual sales. Most hay is produced and fed to livestock on the farm. Therefore cash sales of hay account for only a small part of the total value of hay produced, notes Anderson.

North Central Texas

farmers cut an estimated $75 million worth of hay followed by Northeast Texas with more than $66 million worth of hay harvested.

Estimated cash receipts in 1979 from other major crops in Texas included pecans, $48.5 million; melons, $48 million; grapefruit, $27 million; sugar cane, $18 million; and oranges, $14 million.

While cash receipts from crops were up last year in Texas, net farm income made only slight gains due to increased production costs, points out Anderson.

And in the wake of high interest rates and high levels of inflation, the squeeze between costs and sales receipts will be even more severe in 1980. Thus producers will likely hold off on purchasing certain inputs, such as machinery.

Farmers will also need to consider forward contracting and hedging alternatives to reduce financial risk and to avoid prolonged storage costs.

Summer classes at WTC start May 29

SNYDER — Registration for summer classes at Western Texas College will be held May 28, with classes beginning on May 29.

Both day and evening classes will be offered for summer students, with all classes meeting for a nine-week period.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Raenell Rogers had her 13th birthday Sunday May 13. Cake and punch were served to Raenell, Cathy Davis, and Vicki Green. Rhonda and Rosemary Rogers and Edith Crispin were also present.

We would like to express our appreciation to everyone who helped with our surprise ice cream party and gift. It was a total surprise. Everyone has been so generous with their congratulations. We don't feel we deserve anything because we are the ones who have benefited from our work and association with the 4-H'ers. But we do appreciate each of you and your kindness.

A special thanks to each of you who gave to our travel gift. It was fantastic.

Thanks also to a super bunch of kids, the Graham 4-H Club for their gift.

Love, Noel and Orabeth

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — As expected, Republican Ronald Reagan and Democrat Jimmy Carter captured the majority of delegates to their parties' state conventions this summer following a weekend of county and senatorial district caucusing . . . and Texas Gov. Bill Clements is still considered a possibility for vice president on the GOP slate.

ward Kennedy of Massachusetts, but Kennedy supporters have vowed to wage a hard convention fight.

The presidential contender with the hardest row to hoe in Texas is Illinois Sen. John Anderson who must gather over 40,000 signatures from registered voters here to gain an Independent slot on the ballot.

He is now awaiting a legal opinion from Attorney General Mark White to determine if he can accept the nomination.

Carter took an easy two-to-one delegate lead over his primary opponent, Sen. Ed-they plan to go ahead with Strake's interpretation.

Speaker's Race

The middle fell out of the race for Texas Speaker of the House last week, leaving the two ends stronger than ever but with no clearcut winner.

The three top moderate candidates pledged to either conservative Gib Lewis, D-Fort Worth, or liberal John Bryant, D-Dallas.

The rapid action was apparently kicked off by Rep. Wayne Peveto of Orange, who joined with Lewis.

Representative Bill Caraway, D-Houston, reading the cards, promptly pledged the other way to Bryant. He was followed three days later by Rep. Lynn Nabors of Brown-

Both Bryant and Lewis claimed to have over 80 votes (76 votes needed to win), but a media poll revealed Lewis ahead of Bryant by only 48 to 38, including representatives-elect. Meanwhile, present Speaker Bill Clayton, sitting under a political cloud of Brilab troubles, told reporters he still has 117 votes assured, if he can clear himself.

Off Again, On Again

The U.S. Justice Department is still considering State Rep. Matt Garcia, D-San Antonio, for commissioner of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, despite earlier word to the contrary.

The department issued a press release to that effect to head off discontent among Texas' Mexican-American leaders, who had heard Garcia was no longer in the running for the post.

Texas Supreme Court

The state's high court ruled last Wednesday that a seller may exceed the 10 percent interest limit on real estate buys based on sales contracts . . . if finance charges are called a "time price differential."

In sales contract transactions, buyers do not acquire ownership until they pay their final installment, unlike a normal mortgage where a buyer builds equity with payments.

AG Opinions

In legal opinions issued last week Mark White ruled: — a voter who signs a nominating petition for a candidate of one political party is no longer expressly prohibited from participating in the primary or precinct convention of another political party.

6 locations for county

Five more drilling locations have been announced for Garza's oil fields plus a wildcat try by Threshold Development Co. 16 miles northeast of Post.

The wildcat is the No. 1 Blanche Evans which will be drilled to 4,900 feet.

Other planned starts are: Two by WTG Exploration Inc. in the WTG field 10 miles north of Post. They are the No. 2-A T.C. Head and No. 3-A T.C. Head, each of which will be drilled to 3,400 feet.

Two more are Texana Resources Corp. starts in the Dorward field, three miles southeast of Justiceburg. They are the No. 1 and No. 2 Tot, each of which will be drilled to 3,500 feet. The sixth location is a re-entry in the Post field by Plamer Oil Properties into the No. 6 I.N. McCrary, 12 miles east of Post.

Poultry, eggs to be 'top buys'

COLLEGE STATION — "Best bets" for the next two weeks' best buys at Texas grocery markets include poultry, eggs, lemons, apples, pineapples, mushrooms, rutabagas and sweet potatoes.

That word from Dr. Carol Akkerman, a consumer information specialist on the home economics staff of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"Upcoming best buys" for the first weeks of June will be oranges, peas, beans, carrots, corn, eggplant, lettuce, dry and green onions, potatoes, tomatoes and turnips, as they will become more plentiful then.

Short-supply items — with higher prices — are avocados, limes and broccoli, and latest reports show melons and strawberries in short supplies, so expect higher prices.

Meats — Like inflation, beef and pork prices will continue to rise — and the greatest increase will happen this summer.

Wise shoppers can use that news — along with careful comparison shopping and buy extra cuts before price advances take effect, Dr. Akkerman advises.

Poultry — Egg prices are stable.

Moderate your use of eggs to avoid too much cholesterol — however, remember that the U.S. Department of Agriculture points out the "near-perfection protein" of eggs. Scientists even use egg protein as a standard to measure the value of protein in other foods, in fact, the specialists says.

Eggs also provide significant amounts of vitamin A, iron and riboflavin.

Eat two eggs, and you have one of your meat-group servings for the day.

Canned Goods — Prices will keep climbing: on fruit cocktail, peaches, tuna, canned hams, peas and dehydrated peppers.

COTTON TODAY

A NATIONAL COTTON COUNCIL SERVICE

Selling Job Praised
National Cotton Council President Herman Propst, Anson, Tex., cotton farmer, has praised cotton merchants for the "super sales" job they're doing with the 1979-80 crop. He noted that merchants had taken on the biggest crop in 15 years. Propst also complimented coordinated efforts by all industry segments — especially shippers and warehousemen — in moving the huge crop. "It wasn't too long ago that we thought it was physically impossible to export more than 6½ or 7 million bales," he said, "but now we've proved it can be done."

USDA Hikes Estimate
USDA has raised its estimate of 1979-80 cotton exports to 9 million 480-lb.

bales, up 500,000 from last month's projection. The domestic consumption estimate of 6.5 million bales was unchanged.

Panel Works on Dust Research

A joint industry-government task force has refined a proposed cotton dust-byssinosis research program, with emphasis on special two-year crash effort. During a meeting at the National Cotton Council's Washington office, group reaffirmed the highest priorities of program as: (1) identification and elimination or deactivation of causative, and (2) development of means for distinguishing byssinosis from emphysema and other respiratory diseases.

Exports Remain Strong
Exports of 232,400 running bales of upland cotton during the week ended May 4 brought the season's total to 6,799,900, compared with 4,520,300 a year ago. New sales for the current marketing year delivery were 24,500 bales. Korea purchased 18,100 bales and Indonesia, 8,200. Sales for 1980-81 delivery were 56,900.

And Cotton Yesterday
Cottonseed sold for $5 a ton in 1860.

The heart of an energy efficient home.

Some of the new homes built today will save more energy than others. Energy efficient homes (EEH) are built with tested and proven energy saving products and modern construction techniques.

Look for the Energy Efficient Home sign.

Energy Efficient Homes are different because each has extra insulation added throughout the walls, floor, and attic. They are built as structurally tight as possible to minimize air infiltration and leakage while maximizing energy savings.

Consider installing the energy saving heat pump for heating and cooling the home. The heat pump operates efficiently by delivering more heat in winter than energy used to produce it.

People who live in Energy Efficient Homes save a lot to be happy about. It's good to know there are some things you can depend on.

Not guilty plea entered

Robert Leon Reiter pleaded not guilty in county court Monday to charges of illegal possession of firearms and DWI. He was released on a $500 bond on each charge.

Sheriff officers say two truck drivers from Ohio, Aaron Heller and Harold Caldwell, reported Sunday evening about 8:15 they were parked in their truck in the middle of the 200 block on East Main when Reiter drove his car repeatedly around their truck.

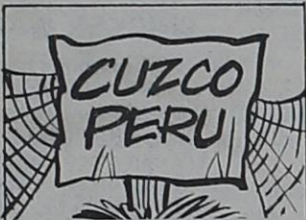

They got out and asked Reiter what his problem was. The truck drivers told officers Reiter pulled a gun on them and told them he didn't have a problem and drove off.

Officers a few minutes later stopped Reiter and found two loaded revolvers in his car. Reiter denied pulling a gun on the truck drivers. Officers said the truck drivers accurately described one of the pistols found in Reiter's car.

In another case, Melvin Gamble pleaded guilty in county court to two charges of defrauding by worthless check. He was ordered to pay $75 in fine and court costs and make restitution on the two checks.

TEEN SCENE By Norm

I guess the sophomores had the most fun this past week when they had their class party last Friday night at the creek and roasted hot dogs. Coach Easterling looked like the MAN FROM MUDVILLE on their return to Post. He even had a mud beard to go along with his mustache. They all had a great time throwing each other in and all came home looking as though they had rolled in the mud. And I heard they did. Even the sponsors joined in the FUN????

If you seniors don't quit trying to peek through the covered glasses at the community center, the banquet won't be a surprise and the Juniors are working hard this week to make it one of the best ever.

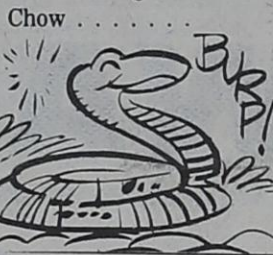

Theresa Davis returned to San Angelo this past weekend where she is enrolled for the summer session.

Jeff Stotts has a new friend that drives an 18 wheeler. Tell us about Texas Rose Jeff?

The shirts are in that the cheerleaders ordered recently. If you ordered one, be sure and pick it up this week.

The eighth graders had their annual banquet last Saturday night in the community center and they all looked so nice in their formals and suits.

Just six more school days and counting down . . .

The reticulated python of southeastern Asia has been known to grow to 28 feet.

Don't Miss It!!!

Jess Knight winning $6,000 and first place in saddle bronc riding at the record 1980 Houston rodeo in the Astrodome aboard Ripcord.

Dear Folks:

You'll miss the chance of a lifetime if you don't see the Miller Bros. and Lone Star Wild West and American Heritage Show Saturday or Sunday afternoon on Riley Miller's Ranch at Justiceburg.

If you missed Gail's Centennial Celebration in 1976 you'll never get a better chance than this weekend to see the Old West as it really was — with a buffalo stampede, genuine Indian wardances, bronc riders including Garza's own Jess Knight, longhorn cattle drive, stage coach holdup, trick riding and roping, a gold record country singer and a Mexican Mariachi Band. It's got it all — and for a great cause. See you there!

VACCINATION DAY
SPUR — It was Dog Vaccination Day here last Thursday with pets being vaccinated from 5 to 7 p.m. at the Spur Police Department office.

SLATON COACH RESIGNS
SLATON — Girls Coach and Athletic Director Sam Nichols has resigned here "for family health reasons" and has accepted a similar position in White Oak, an AA school in east Texas.

Nichols coached the Tigerettes to a state cage title this season and told the school board "it was a difficult decision to make but his children were having allergy troubles in the West Texas climate."

HISPANIC IN MAJORITY
CROSBYTON — Hispanics outnumber anglos in the three school systems in Crosby county. The racial composition for the county school enrollment is 52.76 percent hispanics, 39.46 percent anglo and 7.96 percent black.

In the Crosbyton schools, the percentages are 48 percent hispanic, 43 percent anglo and 9 percent black, although in high school anglo percentages are the biggest in three out of the four classes.

In Ralls, 59.1 percent of the students are hispanic, 36.9 percent anglo and 3.6 percent black; in Lorenzo, the breakdown is 51.2 percent hispanic, 38.5 percent anglo and 11.3 percent black.

CRIME LINE FAVORED
FLOYDADA — Following a series of vandalisms and petty thefts in recent months, the city council last week endorsed preliminary steps toward installing a Crime Line operation in Floydada similar to the one in Lubbock.

KEEPS POLICE FORCE
COLORADO CITY — The city council here last week voted to keep its own police department instead of going "metro" and contract with the county to provide law enforcement. City Manager Ray Mason said he had checked both with Post and Henrietta, which now have metro forces, and reported such an operation "causes a number of problems including lack of control by the city and a lack of enforcement of city ordinances and traffic laws." Colorado City now is without a police chief and also short two members of the force.

CECIL FOX HONORED
CLAIRMONT — Cecil Fox, who was instrumental in forming the Caprock Peace Officers Association 32 years ago, was honored at the organization's annual meeting here recently.

A retired area game warden, Fox was presented a traveling trophy which lists all winners of the Rattlesnake Rodeo since 1966.

Gene Posey, highway patrolman at Post, won third place in the rattlesnake shoot and Bobby Dickson of Post received a trophy for winning the visitors' competition.

The new bank is located on a 25-acre plot on the west edge of town on FM-211 where an apartment complex and construction of 40 new residences are planned for the future.

The bank will celebrate its 60th anniversary in October.

DOG VIRUS EPIDEMIC
COLORADO CITY — A high contagious virus that has been killing dogs from Tulsa to Dallas has reached near epidemic proportions here. There is an effective vaccine to prevent the virus, but dog owners have to have their pets vaccinated before they contact the disease, according to Dr. Larry Helms, veterinarian.
