Maybe the best part of the "old west" was outside Riley Miller's roping arena at Justiceburg Saturday and Sunday afternoons instead of inside that arena where cowboys, Indians, buffalo, longhorn steers, bucking broncs, a stage coach, outlaws and a country singer rendering "Red River Valley" vied for applause.

The best part — despite the colorful excellence of the show itself — was the warm-hearted generosity of West Texas folks for their own.

A total of 441 onlookers bought dollar tickets for a western painting of flattop mountain and two longhorn steers donated by Robert Chennault, Lubbock artist, with all the money going to aid eight-year-old Amy Pratt, former Post youngster, now recovering from a lung removal at M.D. Anderson hospital in

Hopper spraying at a standoff

Whether Garza's ranges, and those of a number of other counties scattered along and below the caprock in West Texas will be sprayed from the air in an effort to halt an anticipated invasion of record hordes of millions of grasshoppers still awaits federal decision. USDA experts meeting here Tuesday night with the county committee on the spraying said they haven't been given the authority to accept spraying in Garza, Borden, Crosby, Dickens, Kent, Motley or Briscoe counties because so much range brush on the land probably would make the "kill" far short of the 100 percent goal.

Jack Lott and other committee members planned to call their congressmen and senators today to try to get the federalists to change their mind.

"Right now we're at a standoff on the spraying," County Agent Syd Conner told The Dispatch.

He added that Garza ranchers have paid 60 cents an acre to spray some 240,000 acres of pastureland against the grasshoppers expected to be the worst in this area in history within a

Southland business total loss — Fire destroys Pennell station

The Donald Pennell Garage and Service station, long a US-84 business fixture in Southland, was totally destroyed by fire Friday evening.

Fire Chief Neal Clary said the flames burned through the roof and blew out the windows before Post fire trucks arrived, but the underground storage tank of gasoline for the station did not burn.

Pennell had closed the station and gone to his home nearby when the fire was reported about 8:30 p.m. He had been doing some welding in his shop adjoining the station and told Chief Clary something related to the welding might have started the fire.

Firemen had to return to Southland about 2 p.m. Saturday when coals from the previous night's blaze threatened to touch off adjacent property.

The fire department also had a rash of car fires Thursday evening and

June 14 picnic set for elderly

Garza County's picnic for the elderly is scheduled for Saturday, June 14, it was announced this week after a Friday meeting of volunteers who have gotten together to plan and stage the event.

Already 50 to 60 of the elderly have asked to attend the picnic and others who desire to do so are asked to call 3741 or 2998.

Approximately 40 have volunteered to help stage the picnic. Picnic refreshments will include Jello, salads, sandwiches, Cokes, cookies, tea and chips.

Anyone who would like to donate any of these are asked to call 2998.

The elderly who desire transportation to and from the picnic should call 3741.

The picnic program will consist of old time music provided by a local group.

Number 52

Today's 16-pager is The Dispatch's Graduation Edition. In it the reader will find pictures of 72 of the 73 who will receive diplomas at commencement tonight, the list of the eighth grade class members who "graduate" this afternoon into high school from Post's Middle School, the class will and prophecy of the 1980 PHS graduating class, and a long story on all the high school awards presented at the annual awards assembly Monday afternoon.

Maybe the merchants took a Memorial Day holiday but our three-member staff worked right on through or we wouldn't have gone to press with all this on time.

Just to keep you up to date on David Newby's Algerita Hotel "doings", he has completed his part of the wooden awning. Roofers were due to move in yesterday or today and apply two layers of tar paper and that black stuff before the whole awning is shingled.

David figures in about two weeks the project will be complete and then he will wind it up by installing the Algerita's large metal plaque by the front door which declares the historic hotel is listed on the National Register of Historic Sites.

We can remember not too many years ago when Newby and a group of the county historic survey committee stood almost alone against growing local sentiment to demolish the old building. Newby accepted the presidency of a non profit organization to maintain the building, accepted the deed from the city, and then went to work to restore the exterior, remodel the back half into a senior citizens center, and raise funds to buy the materials. This community owes him a real debt of gratitude for his conversion of the Algerita into a very becoming and

Post cleanup set Saturday

Post's 1980 spring cleanup is scheduled for all day Saturday under direction of Dwayne Binford and the Post Lions Club.

Binford told The Dispatch this week several groups have promised to turn out volunteers for the community effort which will be concentrated on the downtown area and highway routes through the city.

All volunteers are asked to meet at 9 a.m. in the bank parking lot Saturday for assignments.

Very busy week for sheriff officers

William Deubler, 30, of Lubbock, is out on $5,000 bond awaiting grand jury action on an arson charge. He allegedly deliberately set a pickup truck afire last Thursday night northwest of Post while being questioned by Chief Deputy Sheriff

Donnie Walker. His companion, who abandoned a red Mustang which had been stolen from Foster's Used Car lot on the north edge of Post only minutes before, is still being sought. Deubler was arrested by Lynn County officers Friday morning while hitchhiking north of Tahoka after he escaped from Walker after dosing the front seat of the pickup with gasoline and then tossing in a lighted match.

Deubler's arrest came after a virtual all night search by officers failed to find either man who had fled into the darkness on foot.

Sheriff Jim Pippin gave this account of what happened:

Deputy Ross Woodall noticed the two men cruising around town in a 1968 pickup last Thursday night. He stopped the pair and

For recreation program — Registration to be held Saturday

Registration will be held Saturday morning from 9 until noon in the foyer of the high school gym for youngsters who want to sign up for the month-long summer recreation program.

Coach David Thompson, who will head the recreation program this year, said boys and girls from the second grade up are eligible to enroll.

The program is scheduled from 9 to noon four days weekly, Monday through Thursday, beginning June 3. The program will continue on this basis through July 3.

Coach Thompson said youngsters could enroll in the program without charge at any time, but the

Craig will head student council

Kevin Craig will be president of the student council of Post High School next year, it was announced at the high school awards assembly Monday afternoon.

Lance Dunn will be vice president and Will Kirkpatrick, secretary-treasurer.

The new officers were elected by the student body.

73 ready to graduate

Sixty-six high school seniors and seven adults will receive high school diplomas tonight at Post's commencement in Antelope Stadium beginning at 8 o'clock.

In case of bad weather, graduation ceremonies will be moved inside to the high school gym.

Silas Short will give the commencement address on invitation from the senior class. He will be introduced by Brent Mason, class president.

A group of scholarships will be presented by Lane Tannehill, high school counselor, following Short's address.

Leanna Davis, 1980 valedictorian, will give the valedictory address, after which Supt. W. F. Shiver will present the class to John Boren, school board vice president, for the diplomas.

The high school band, directed by Steve Clary, will play the processional to open the commencement program and the recessional to close it.

The Rev. Glenn Reece, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will give the invocation.

Melisa Tatum then will give the salutatory address, to be followed by the reading of the class history by David Poole. The senior choir then will sing the class song.

Following presentation of diplomas, the senior class and audience will sing the school song, directed by Mrs. Debbie Clary.

Father Malcolm Neyland of the Holy Cross Catholic Church will deliver the benediction.

Graduating seniors include:

Cain Abraham, Rance Adkins, Jackie Ayala, Mark Basquez, Jalena Bilberry, Chuck Black, John Boren, Deanna Bridgeman, Robert Davis;

Cristal Didway, Lenny Drake, Lance Dunn, Donald Edwards, Ruben Espitia, Kathy Gandy, Michael Gon-

Garza oil output in gain for '79

Garza's oil production, unlike many other Texas counties, continued to increase in 1979, rather than decline.

Production of crude oil and condensate in 1979 totaled 6,847,327 barrels, almost a 100,000 barrel increase over 1978 production total of 6,752,054 barrels, according to figures released this week by Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association.

This brings Garza's total recorded production since 1926 to 169,473,835 barrels. According to the TMOGA See 1979 Oil, Page 16

Second life beginning

Sixty-six Post young people will be hended their diplomas tonight and will begin their futures.

For parents, relatives and friends of those involved it will be a momentous occasion.

They are going to find themselves in a fast changing world and many of them undoubtedly will be a bit bewildered at the prospects of becoming adults.

Many will go on to college; others will start looking for their first jobs.

For those who have set high goals, their educations won't be over because many more years will be required. But college today is part of our changing world and everybody doesn't need it. For some who want to do things not taught in the classrooms, college would be a waste of time and of their parents' money.

America is a land of vast opportunity.

The important thing for today's high school graduate is not to get locked in for the rest of his or her life without taking the opportunity to take a good look around before settling into a pattern of adult life.

The Dispatch wants to congratulate all 66 graduating seniors for their 12 years of school accomplishments.

But all the big things in life are still ahead for them. It's all just beginning.

Sure they're leaving one life behind, but they are moving into another which will prove as the years roll by a whole lot more satisfying. That is providing they respond to life's opportunities.

Good luck to them as they begin their "second life."

We can complain

Good times or bad, the big news every spring in this part of the country is the weather.

It began to look for a while this spring as if this West Texas farming area would simply dry up and blow away. But two weeks ago as good a cotton-planting rain as farmers in these parts have seen in years and years changed things around.

It's thunderstorm season now — almost what could be called "the rainy season" out here — but about all that has happened since is a lot of black clouds, innumerable weather alerts, some wisps of rain.

Now added to the picture is the federal government's reluctance to aerial spray the rangelands through the caprock area for a coming grasshopper horde because the country is so rough the cost would be too great for the "kill" effected.

Ranchers hereabouts have gotten so stirred up over the hoppers that they have lined up and put their money down for a spraying.

So now while the federals dally they are calling their congressmen and senators trying to get Uncle Sam moving again.

Meanwhile the test counts on the hoppers continue to climb. Garza's tests are bad but many of their ranching neighbor counties appear a great deal worse as far as the multiplying hoppers are concerned.

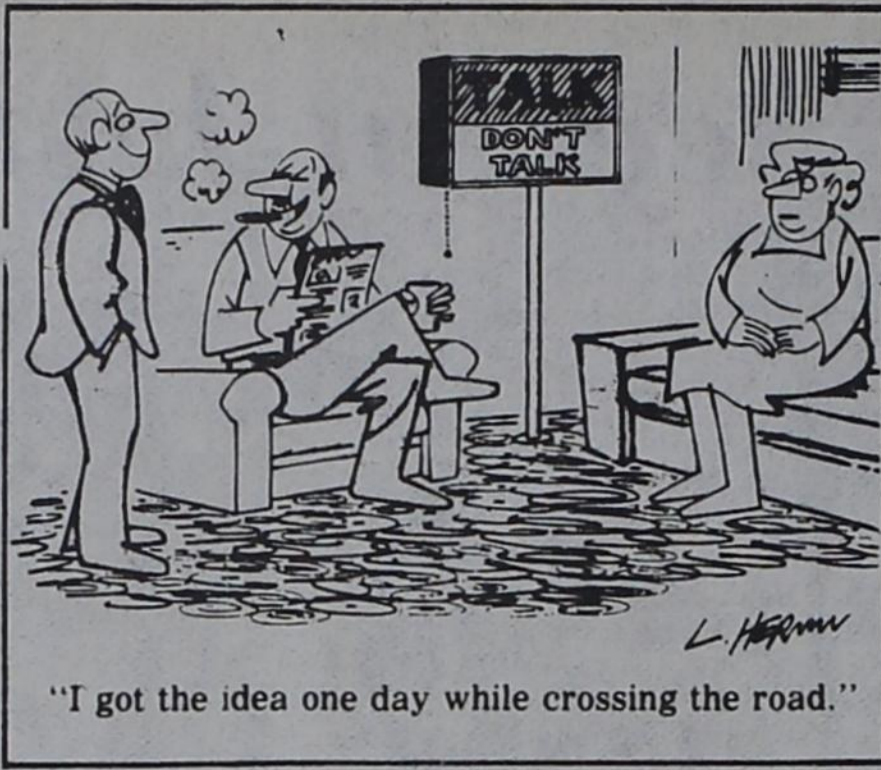

The hopper hatch is now under way and "spraying time" if there is going to be one will be just as soon as it is complete before the new bunch start laying their eggs for another cycle.

Ranchers are making the biggest effort to get the spraying that they've made since the early 1960s when all their beef animals were vaccinated in an effort to head off a dread cattle disease.

When a project like this comes along, exposed for all to see are those many layers of bureaucracy which more or less prevent any crisp decisions.

At least, we have something to be thankful for. In our democracy, the suffering citizens have one recourse — to burn those phone lines into Washington.

Over in Moscow, the Russians don't get that opportunity. They just have to quietly suffer through the bungling. What's more they have to keep their mouths shut too.

New plant for Burlington

CARDOVE, N.C. — Burlington Industries will dedicate its $40 million Richmond Plant here June 10, with North Carolina Governor James Hunt, Burlington Chairman William A. Klopman, and Congressman William G. Hefner as program principals.

The new facility, which manufactures textured woven apparel fabrics for Burlington's Klopman Textured Woven Division, employs some 800 persons and provides payrolls of more than $12 million annually.

Joseph D. Beam, Corporate Group Vice President of Manufacturing said, "the plant is the most modern in the industry. It is equipped with the latest water-jet weaving equipment, yarn texturing, and highly automated materials handling. It is completely climate controlled and features computer-monitored energy systems. Full environmental controls were engineered into its design."

Promotion is announced

AMARILLO — John R. Jacobs, an employee of Pioneer Natural Gas Company for 14 years at several South Plains locations, has been appointed as the company's manager in Seminole.

For the past 15 months, Jacobs has served as the manager of Post.

His selection for the Seminole position was announced by Charles K. Vaughan, vice president of the natural gas utility division of Pioneer Corporation headquartered in Amarillo.

Jacobs joined Pioneer Natural Gas Company in 1966 as a service representative at Floydada. He was transferred to Plainview in 1976 and became chief clerk of the office there in 1977. Jacobs held that position until his appointment as manager in Post in March 1979.

Born in Quanah, Jacobs graduated from Quanah High School and attended Southwestern Oklahoma State University. In Post, he has been active in the Rotary Club and the Christian Businessmen's Club.

Jacobs and his wife, Ginger, have one son.

VISIT IN POST

Dennis, Diane and Jennifer Conrad of Twin Falls, Idaho, visited in Post with his mother and brother, Frances and Eddie Conrad of Post. They also visited with other friends. Dennis is employed at Radio Station KLIX in Twin Falls where he is now a radio engineer.

Huntley Nursing Home News

Out thoughts began this week with thanks to all the men and women who served our country in the past and those who serve today in order to maintain a country where we can live in freedom. Old Glory still waves over us. We thank God for this.

We were proud to wear the Buddy Poppies presented to us by the Ladies Auxiliary of the VFW. We thank Anne Chaffin and Jo Ella Sparlin for delivering them.

We welcome our new Social Activity Director, Nell Mathews. We enjoyed our exercise class with her Monday morning and our bingo session with her Monday afternoon. Grand Prize Winner at bingo was Vivian Hall.

Our message to our new residents is we're glad you're here. Stella Walden, Lillie McRee and Grace Jobe are living at our home and we certainly think they are a nice addition to Huntley's.

In our arts and crafts class we are making animal figures from styrofoam balls and pipe cleaners. We have many new items we will be making in the future. Come by and see our crafts.

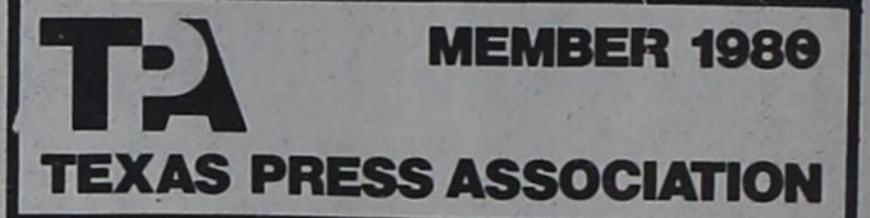

Our thanks to the Trinity Baptist Church for our Sunday Devotional. Rev. Ralph White conducted our service. We're very thankful to have so many churches participate in the Devotional Services for our nursing home.

The residents at our home are so happy to be adopted by so many nice people of Post. Marvel Pearson has adopted Grace Jobe, Estelle Robertson adopted Willie Sullivan, Mabel Martin adopted Iva Sanders, Tami, Bubba and Chris Ashworth, Shane Dewbree, Judy Dudley, Laura and Amber Crenshaw have adopted Pickle Knowles and Lucy Clary. Tressie Walker adopted Bonnie McMahon and Jami and La Gena Green and Kristi Tidwell adopted Clovie Ellis. Lillian Baldree has been adopted by Colley and Bess Gatlin. Being adopted by these young people and adults is a thrill for our residents. This will mean special visits and extra attention which everyone loves. As our list is completed we will print it in our column. Our thanks to these wonderful people.

Class prophecy sees decade into future

BY BRENT MASON

Here it is 1990 and the class of 1980 is gathering to have its 10 year reunion. On the way to the reunion, I meet up with Lenny Drake and Jimmy Pruitt. They are both working with the fire department in Lubbock after winning their court case. We all get together and pass by what was Colliers. Tammy Mason, the former Tammy Reece, and Linda Hernandez have opened a gift shop there. Kelly Mason is in talking to Tammy. They married shortly after graduation and have two kids, who both were born on crutches. Kelly is now the head mortician at Hudman's Funeral Home. Rance Adkins, because of his love for driving other people's cars, has opened a Trans Am dealership where Harold Lucas' used to be. Mark Greer has opened a gas station and actually works when he isn't spit polishing his car. As our group moves toward the Community Center, we run into Donna Baumann, who never became a physical therapist. She decided being a trainer for Angelo state was much too fun to give it up. Next door to the Community Center is the AD & P Health Spa run by Jackie Ayala, Lance Dunn, and Walter Perez. They specialize in training future track stars.

We enter the Community Center to find play rehearsals being directed by Jay Young. Members of his all star cast are Leanna Davis, Donald Edwards, and John Bill Hedrick. The crew members hard at work are Donna Nelson, Penny Morgan and Jalena Bilberry. Keeping things spic and span as usual is the maintenance engineer, Ruben Espitia.

In talking to other members of the class of 1980, I learn many interesting things. Kirk Stevens has opened a chain of cotton gins. Meg Nelson and Susan Strawn have gone in as partners in a clothing store. Jendy Thomas is married and is living in Snyder working as a secretary. Joe Lofton, Jeff Riedel, Charlie Hall and Mike Gonzales have all opened up a chain of grocery stores, and are all still gripping about double stamp day. Cristal runs The Midway Dairy Queen over looking Post Lake. Rynn Norman and Chuck Black have opened a tire shop. They take turns holding up the cars while the other changes the tires. Lynn Simpson is now the new Ag. teacher and his group has just returned from the state meet and weekend campout. The electric car, which David Poole invented, is selling like hotcakes.

After everyone had arrived for the reunion, being the former President of our Senior Class, I decided to call our meeting to order. We discussed our business and future plans and then, I adjourned the meeting so that we could get on with our visiting.

After ten years, it was amazing to learn that Kurt Wood is teaching stunt drivers how to flip cars successfully without getting injured. Jeff Stotts is still in school trying to become a vet and, with luck, should graduate within 5 years. Daniel Morrow is manager of Woolworth's seed department. Lea Ann Babb, Susan Sawyers, Melodie Yarbro, and Sylvia Sanchez are all teaching school. Jackie Stelzer is the leading salesman for the Hubba Bubba Bubble Gum Company. Ricky Mindieta and Joe Reyna have their own mechanic shop. Olga Hernandez is the new supervisor at the mill. Mike Macy is a professional photographer for Playboy Magazine. Bill Short and Millard Grantham have gone in together and are running a new lumber company. Ellen Medina is the new supervisor at the Cal Maine Chicken Farms. Pat Mitchell has gotten himself a motorcycle and is still trying to outrun the city cops. Ray Morales is a district manager of the Wackers stores. Donna Simecek is the most decorated woman officer in the Air Force. Tina Rogers is the editor of Webster Dictionary. Larry Rodriguez is now known as "Crazy Larry," cheerleader for the Dallas Cowboys. Deanna Bridgeman has taken over Palmer Well Service, under her is Deb Palmer and his job is filling the water cans for all the crews. John Boren is the County Commissioner for Precinct 2. Mark Basquez has opened up a welding shop near the edge of town. Randy Teaff is still trying to decide which girl he wants to go out with. Gina Lee and Terri Guthrie work for Stone City Attractions organizing all the concerts. Christie Workman is president of Pizza Hut, Inc. Amy Britnell is a secretary at Kathy Gandy's diesel mechanic shop. Tim Greathouse owns Cable TV and Robert Davis is his maintenance man. Melisa Tatum is a very efficient nurse at Parkland Hospital in Dallas. As for myself, I am an agricultural engineer and have now increased my 20 acre farm to 30 acres. It has gotten very late now. Our reunion has been a very enjoyable and happy one. We all decided it was time to go home, but we will be looking forward to our next ten-year reunion in the year 2000.

3 new wells completed

Exxon Corporation has completed two new, small wells in Garza's Dorward field, nine miles southeast of Justiceburg.

They are the No. 103 and 104 M.A. Fuller, producing 8 and 32 barrels of oil daily and 85 and 92 barrels of water respectively.

Another new Garza well is Marshall K. Young Oil Co.'s No. 1 C. Beggs Trust in the Glorieta field, 17 miles east of Post. It produced 244 barrels of oil daily and eight of water from an interval of 8,192 to 8,206 feet.

One new location announced is the Marshall R. Young Oil Co.'s No. 1 C. Beggs Trust in the Post (Glorieta) field, 17 miles east of Post.

19 will be confirmed

The Most Rev. L. T. Matthesen, Bishop of the Amarillo diocese of the Catholic Church, will conduct a confirmation service for 19 local young people in the Holy Cross Catholic Church at 4 p.m. Sunday, June 1.

Young people to be confirmed are Caroline and Cindy Basquez, Donna and Jerri Baumann, Hope and Mary Alice Castro, Betty Curry, Tommy Gonzalez, Alonzo and Mario Luna, Jacqueline Melvin, Elizabeth and Irene Moreno, Michael Riedel, Julie Rivera, Danny and Elida Sanchez, and Adolfo and Jolene Varela.

A church dinner will follow the service.

VOTERS OF PRECINCT 3

The Democratic runoff primary is Saturday, June 7, which means the decision on the next precinct 3 county commissioner will be made only by those precinct 3 voters who go to the polls.

I ask for your support and vote so I can put a lifetime of business experience to work for the precinct and the county.

My only campaign promise is that I will do the very best I can with every problem the precinct and the county will face in the next four years if you elect me.

Remember, absentee voting began yesterday in the county clerk's office and will continue today, Friday, Monday and Tuesday before it will be over. If you are going to be out of town June 7 please vote now.

Minnie Bible wed to Randy Thomas

Wedding vows between Minnie Kay Bible and Randy R. Thomas were exchanged May 26, at 4 p.m. in the Wayside Community Church, Wayside, Tx.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bible of Wayside and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar R. Thomas of Post.

Preston Beeks of the Pansy Baptist Church officiated the double ring vows before a setting of two brass candleabras holding 15 candles and decorated with greenery. Between the candle holders was a flower arrangement of gladiolas, spider mums, carnations, and daisies. Pew bows of peach color marked the family pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white formal length knit dress with chantilly lace edging the cape type collar. Her veil was Juliet style and she carried a nosegay of white pom poms and carnations.

The maid of honor was Mrs. Terry Scoggins of Wayside, with Tonia Bible, sister of the bride, Carla Schwertner of Big Lake, cousin of the groom, and Kytrena Rogers of Amarillo, cousin of the bride, serving as bridesmaids. They were attired identically in formal length dresses of peach color, carrying nosegays of peach and white carnations with white pom poms and ribbon streamers.

Tinesa Bible, and Melissa Bible, sisters of the bride, served as candlelighters.

Thomas Moerbe of Lubbock served as best man with Ronnie Thomas, brother of the groom of Post, Joey Bible, Jonnie Bible, brothers of the bride of Wayside, serving as groomsmen.

Ushers were Mike Schwertner, cousin of the groom of Big Lake, Johnnie Bible, Teddie Bible, brothers of the bride, and Danny Schwertner, cousin of the groom of Big Lake.

The couple will be at home at 2001 3rd Avenue, Canyon, Tx.

The bride and groom were graduated from West Texas State University in Canyon. The bride is employed with Panhandle Planned Parenthood Association in Amarillo, and the groom is employed with Harmon Toles Elevator in Happy.

WARM HERB LOAF OFFERS GOOD TASTE AND NUTRITION

A hearty bread warm from the oven makes any meal special. You can prepare this loaf in minutes, then enjoy the fragrant aroma as it bakes while you cook the rest of your meal. Since the bread uses refrigerated biscuits and herbs from your kitchen shelf, it can be a spur of the moment addition to the menu.

As a plus, the flaky biscuits are made with enriched flour, which provides nutrients important in your daily diet.

HERB BISCUIT LOAF

- 1/4 cup margarine or butter, softened
- 1/2 teaspoon instant minced onion
- 1/2 teaspoon sweet basil leaves
- 1/2 teaspoon caraway seed
- 1/8 teaspoon garlic powder
- 2 (10-oz.) cans Hungry Jack refrigerated big flaky biscuits

Heat oven to 350° F. In small bowl, combine all ingredients except biscuits. Separate dough into 20 biscuits. Spread both sides of each biscuit with margarine mixture; fold each in half. Place biscuits, fold-side-down, in ungreased 9x5 or 8x4-inch loaf pan forming 4 rows of 5 biscuits each. Spread any remaining margarine mixture over biscuits.

Bake at 350° F. for 32 to 38 minutes or until deep golden brown. Cool 5 minutes; remove from pan. Serve warm. 1 loaf, 10 servings.

TIP: To reheat, wrap in foil; heat at 375° F. for 10 minutes or until warm.

COTTON TALKS

FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

LUBBOCK — A strong letter from Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock, has gone to Washington calling on USDA to rescind its recent announcement of unprecedented increases in low micronaire discounts in the 1980 Commodity Credit Corporation cotton loan schedule.

The abnormally large jump in the discounts, ranging up to 225 points (2.25 cents) per pound, according to Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, "has the potential to cost High Plains cotton producers literally millions of dollars . . ."

The 225-point discount, if not changed will apply to cotton with the lower "mike" readings, 2.6 and below. It is almost triple the next largest year-to-year increase of 80 points for that mike category and will raise the total penalty on such cotton entering the loan from 605 to 830 points.

If the USDA announcement stands cotton miking from 2.7 to 2.9 will be discounted 580 points, up 180 points from last year's 400 recorded in the spot markets of the previous year. In the past USDA has tried to allow loan discounts to follow the trend of spot market discounts without letting single year crop and market aberrations create "growth deformities" in the loan schedule for any given year.

This policy was effected by using a loan and spot market discount average in which the loan discount was given five, ten or more times as much weight as the spot discount.

But in figuring the 1980 loan discounts USDA abandoned that policy and gave the loan discount only twice as much weight as the spot market average.

To demonstrate the drastic nature of this change, Johnson compares the effect of 1974 spot market discounts for 2.6 and below on the 1975 loan with the relationship between 1979 spot market discounts and the announced 1980 loan discounts.

In 1974, the average spot market discount on 2.6 and below cotton jumped from 690 points to 1364 points, a leap of 674 points. But the loan discount in 1975 reflected only a small part of that increase, going up only 50 points from 500 to 550.

The 1979 average spot market discount used to figure the 1980 loan penalty on 2.6 and below cotton was 1283 points, an increase of 430 points over the previous year. Yet this 430-point increase brought on a 225-point increase in the loan discount.

"We do not believe this arbitrary and sudden departure from the historical norm is in the best interest of the industry and is prejudicial against our area," says Johnson, "so

Linen fabrics — care and sewing — fresh, crisp linen and linen-look fabrics will create classic appeal this summer, says a clothing specialist.

A few tips for handling linen fabrics will help home sewers achieve professional results. Linen comes in many weights and textures to suit a wide range of styles. Choose heavier fabrics for tailored suits or a sheer handkerchief-weight linen for soft romantic blouses or dresses. Pure linen requires dry cleaning for color and shape retention and to maintain a crisp finish. Its biggest drawback is its natural tendency to wrinkle while wearing. Hand or machine washed linen will have a softer drape, but it will probably shrink and colors may fade. However, linen, combined with synthetic fibers, such as polyester, becomes wrinkle and shrink resistant and retains shape and color after washing. The fabric still has the natural luster and feel of linen.

If you plan to wash linen after the garment is made, prewashing the fabric is absolutely necessary. Before cutting, make fabric is absolutely necessary. Before cutting, make sure the fabric is made thread perfect and folded on the straight of grain.

This will not only help garments hang correctly, but also they'll look nicer since the course yarns generally make the grain-line obvious. Cut out pattern and fabric carefully with sharp shears. Handle fabric carefully because it probably will ravel freely. When sewing, use a 11 (75) sharp needle for lightweight and up to a size 16 (110) for the heaviest linen.

REVIVAL SCHEDULED

The Church of God of Prophecy will be having a revival beginning May 28 at 7 p.m. and going on through Sunday Evening June 1. The Evangelist will be W.W. Pettyjohn, a former pastor of the Post Church. Everyone is invited to attend.

Congressman Stenholm's poll shows— Voters message clear: cut government spending

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Results of the second District-wide poll conducted by Congressman Charles W. Stenholm have been completed and overall message is a clear one: Cut government spending.

"The thread that ran throughout the responses was a fiscally-conservative viewpoint that I honestly feel my service in Congress has reflected," Stenholm said in reviewing the results.

Respondents strongly favored tighter restrictions for individual eligibility of Food Stamps (61.8), compared to only 2.4 percent favoring a general increase of benefits. A total of 51.1 percent favored the elimination of benefits for individuals on strike; 38.2 percent for an increase in benefits for the elderly and disabled; 22 percent for a general reduction in the availability in benefits and 16.2 percent for the elimination of the Food Stamp Program altogether.

"I was especially pleased to hear the overwhelming support for some of these views which I, personally, have about the Food Stamp Program," Stenholm said.

Some 61.6 percent of those answering the questionnaire felt that a balanced budget and limited government spending would be most beneficial to the private business sector, as opposed to the choices of a limit on Small Business Administration loans (11.3 percent favoring); accelerated depreciation for business capital investments (15.2 percent) More Congressional oversight of regulatory agencies (18.3); and the revision of estate tax laws to ease tax burdens on family-owned businesses (35.2 percent).

When given choices ranging from increasing foreign aid assistance (only 2 percent favored) to no foreign aid at all (8.3 percent favored), the majority favored reducing foreign aid and all other programs to help balance the budget (39.2 percent).

What might be considered a surprising range of attitudes was evidenced in replies to a question regarding registration for a draft, as more respondents favored the drafting of men and women (40.8 percent) than those favoring drafting men only (36 percent). Only 8.6 percent opposed registration and drafting of men or women and 3.7 percent favored for drafting of women for front line duty, compared to 37.4 percent in favor of women for non-combat roles only.

Respondents opposed the imposition of wage-and-price controls, favored the restoration of voluntary prayer in public schools and opposed a National Health Care Program.

"I was extremely pleased with the over 14,000 answers we received and the promptness of the replies," Stenholm said. "The use of a poll such as this is an excellent way that I can obtain a wide range of views district-wide and I have found this information very useful to me in making decisions in Congress."

Top rankings to Sentry Savings

CHICAGO — Sentry Savings performance in 1979 has earned three rankings in national comparisons of savings institutions in the United States.

Sentry's return on average asset was 1.43 for 1979, giving them 51st place among 2,354 S&Ss in the U.S. League. Only 10 other savings institutions in Texas made the "top 20" ranking. Sentry was the only West Texas S & L to earn a place on the list.

Sentry was ranked 7th among the "top 100" S & Ls in Texas by Sheshunoff, a publisher of financial ratings and ratios. Sentry also placed 196th among U.S. S & Ls in National Thrift News ranking of secondary mortgage sellers.

"Return on average assets is an industry — wide standard to measure how effective a S & L manages its resources," said Jack Gaubling, Vice Chairman of the board and CEO. "Sentry works very hard to keep savers' funds at work to earn maximum returns."

Coffee R. Conner, president of Sentry, noted that a healthy return on assets pays dividends to home buyers, too.

"In these times of tight money, Sentry has been able to maintain a steady source of funding for new home construction loans," he said.

"At this time, we are actively seeking new loans for FHA, VA and conventional financed homes in our area. Aggressive activity in the secondary market has kept Sentry open during a tight money market."

Sentry has headquarters in Slaton and branch offices in Post, Tahoka, Lamesa and Lubbock.

Last will and testament is read

BY DONNA BAUMANN

We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and eighty, being of lawful age and of sound and decomposing mind and memory, and under no restraint, do publish and declare this to be our last Will and Testament.

Linda Hernandez wills Cindy Martinez the ability to finish school and still be a good wife and mother.

Christy Workman wills Patricia Sepeda the presidency to the Antelope Spirit Squad next year. It's the next best thing to being cheerleader, Patricia.

Donald Edwards wills Benny Jackson a hockey suit, complete with a face mask to wear when he plays golf or when he is around Ken Young.

Jackie Ayala wills Alonzo Luna a years supply of bananas to catch his chita.

Tammy Reece wills Cindy Polk her own private desk in the library and a little helper pin.

Lynn Simpson wills Benny Kennedy the ability to talk across the line and get himself in trouble without the help of his guards.

Deb Palmer wills Barry Morris a bushel of nickles.

Jendy Thomas wills Carolina Basquez the ability to achieve 60 words a minute in Shorthand and to do her homework every night.

Rance Adkins wills Mary Holly a new Greyhound bus to drive around and then tear up.

Gina Lee wills Lisa Claborn the ability to come to school without breaking out in a rash.

Mark Basquez wills Eddie Sanchez a free lifetime ticket to the Weight Watchers Association and a roll of long-lasting Copenhagen.

Lenny Drake wills Russell Fluitt a "get out of jail free" card for the next time he rides motorcycles.

Terri Guthrie wills Traci Rowland the ability to light a cigarette on the right end.

Leanna Davis and Melisa Tatum will Julie Davis and Sharla Macy the ability to do as well as they did in their final tennis match of their high school career.

Joe Reyna wills Dee Basquez a motorcycle for his long walks.

Charlie Halls wills William (Pike) Morrow a scholarship to the college of his choice so he can become something in life besides a bushy-headed punk.

Penny Morgan wills Tammy Mize another course through Driver's Education.

Daniel Morow wills Leslie Willard all the money in his Swiss bank accounts.

Jalena Kitchens wills Elizabeth Moreno the ability to make it through one more year like she did. Believe me, Elizabeth, it's not as easy as it looks.

Kelly Mason wills Barry Wyatt a pair of loose pants and a year's supply of Red Man Chewing Tobacco.

Lance Dunn wills Kevin Craig one of his failing grades and also the ability to be sneaky so that he can sneak up to the water fountain and get a drink.

Donna Baumann wills Holly Giddens her ability to hog the basketball next year so that Marinette won't shoot as much as she did this year. I also will you my nervous tension before any kind of meet or contest.

Jackie Stelzer wills Lance Dunn his old parking spot and a new suntan.

Pat Mitchell wills Raymond Raymundo a bottle of turpentine to take off his pants every night since it looks like he has to paint them on every morning.

Linda Hernandez wills Josie Samora the ability to dodge patients at the nursing home when they're having a bad day.

David Poole wills Mike Anthony a shirt that tells how much he lifts instead of how much he weighs.

Olga Hernandez wills Angie Martinez two boxes of chocolate candy and the ability to eat them all by herself.

Brent Mason wills Donna George lots and lots of homework to bring her grades up, and to keep herself busy so next year will not be so boring without him.

Mike Gonzales wills Jackie Melvin the strength to admit that she dyes her hair.

Deanna Bridgeman wills Tina Dunlap the ability to check in to school and get along with the teachers from the first day.

Joe Lofton wills Steve Curb a new rebuilt appendix - guaranteed for six months or 6,000 miles, whichever comes first.

Christie Workman wills Marinette Hays a nice cold, silver spoon.

Chuck Black wills Drew Kirkpatrick a Peter Perfect Grooming Manual.

Lee Ann Babb wills Lillian Cendalski the ability to stay calm, cool, and collected even after receiving a surprise paint job.

Walter Perez wills Moses Abraham the ability to tell the truth everytime he speaks.

Jendy Thomas wills Dayna Stotts her patience to put up with Barry Wyatt's smart mouth in typing class.

Kirk Stevens wills Kenny Rieter a pair of sheep shears to keep his hair short and a starting position on the football team.

Cristal Didwad wills Julie Troxtell the ability to be nice to Mrs. Wheatley and not to talk back next year in her class. Also, Julie, you must help Laurie Belongia to keep her gum out of her mouth.

Larry Rodriguez wills Robert Quinonez at least two feet in height so that he can get a drink from the water fountain without any help.

Donna Nelson wills Luann Kennedy the ability to study in the hall without Kurt Thomas bothering her.

Tina Rogers wills Judy Morris a good year with Mrs. Wheatley and a year's worth of anticid.

Jay Young wills Karron Hays a year's supply of film and all of his dark room knowledge.

Mark Greer wills Ronnie Hall a new brother to replace the stupid one he has now.

Melodie Yarbrow wills Rhoda Rogers a new baton and a crash helmet for the football season of 1980.

Susan Strawn wills Tricia Craig her iron skillet to keep her future husband in line.

Kurt Wood wills Albert Gonzales his great volleyball playing ability.

Susan Sawyers wills Laura Mason a box of kleenex for her next bloody nose she gets by getting hit in the middle of the night.

Ray Morales wills Ricky Pequeno the ability to come to school at least three days a week.

Kathy Gandy wills Mary Alice Castro a step ladder to climb down off of her high horse.

Rubet Espitia wills Lucy Abraham the ability to keep PHS halls and rooms clean for a change.

Sylvia Sanchez wills Jolene Torres a free trip to Munchkin Land.

Robert Davis wills Steve

Kitchens the High Plains Cable Co. of Post, and the ability to do some work.

I, Donna Baumann, will Dee Dee Redman as many dates as I had my Senior year. Good luck.

Jeff Stotts wills Tommy Binford his glorious name "Sleprock".

Donna Simecek wills Burton Yarbrow the ability to study hard and stay out of trouble while she is away.

Jeff Riedel wills Gary Baker a new leg so he won't limp everywhere.

Bill Short wills Adolfo Varela a years supply of Tarzan books.

Jay Young wills Rachelle Smith a trip to the National Demolition Derby.

Meg Nelson wills Amy Thuett a step by step instruction book on how to fix a flat tire.

Ricky Mindieta wills Mario Reyna his handsome face.

John Bill Hedrick wills Tim Tatum his perfect acting talent, because Tim, yours just isn't perfect yet.

Mike Macy wills Ronnie Bilbo a new Drivers Education Handbook written in Braille.

Millard Grantham wills Ruben Storie a ride in one of his classic cars complete with a free gas mask in case smoke starts coming out of the windows again.

OUR HEARTFELT THANKS

We want to thank everyone who helped to make our Miller Bros. and Lone Star Wild West and American Heritage Show such a success at Justiceburg last weekend, and to all of you who donated or contributed to the Amy Pratt fund to help finance her fight against cancer.

A very special thank you to all of these for their help and donations:

Robert Chennault of Lubbock, for his painting.
 Radio Station KPOS and Jim Boles and KSNY of Snyder and Glen Polk;
 The Post Dispatch ; and Gerry Burton of the AJ. Bob West;

All the bronc riders for donating their time and talents, and also to John Seay.

It is impossible to name all the wonderful volunteers who worked so hard during the show.

The Pratt family really appreciates your generosity.

LEANNA DAVIS
On January 31, 1962 at approximately 9:40 p.m., Dr. James R. Matthews told my parents, Bud and Jane Davis, that they were blessed with another daughter. When my mom announced that they were going to name me Leanna, the nurse told her they couldn't name me that because there was a Lea Ann already in the nursery. (Lea Ann Babb) My parents stuck to their guns though, and a few days later I was taken to the "old homestead" in the country. The household to which I was born contained two sisters, Carol and Christy. They both were very excited about having a new sister. In me, they found someone to play tricks on. I was gullible enough to believe them. I shall never forget the time they made me a cheese sandwich, when I bit into the sandwich, I found out that it was not cheese, but yellow soap.

In 1966, we moved to town. We were all very excited because we would have rooms to ourselves. One year later, our family was again blessed with the birth of a baby girl, Cathy. Things could not have been better for me: I had a new sister and room to myself, then it happened. . . . One night my mother told me, I had to go to school the next day. I had finally grown up; I was starting school. The only thing that I remember about my first grade teacher was her paddle. My second grade teacher, Mrs. Lancaster, was very patient with me, especially when we got to the word 'garage'. Mrs. Nixon was a very tolerant third grade teacher considering she had to put up with Susan Jackson Strawn and me. In the fourth grade, everything was keen. My teacher, Mrs. Cornell opened up a whole new world to me. She made learning fun. In the fifth grade, Mr. Rankin liked to play "sock it to me". If you talked when you weren't supposed to, he socked it to you. I only played the game once, thank goodness.

Junior High was a very exciting time for me. I was involved in Band, UIL Oral Reading, Junior Historians and basketball. In the eighth grade I was chosen Select Citizen and was inducted into the National Junior Honor Society.

My high school years have been my happiest years in school. During the last four years, I have been active in drama club, National Honor Society, FHA, HECE, One act, all school and class plays. I have participated in UIL ready writing and I won third place in UIL prose at the district contest. I have always been interested in music and I gave a senior piano recital this year.

I thank my family, my grandparents, and my teachers for always being there to help me. They have been a great influence on my life and I greatly appreciate them. Next fall I plan to attend West Texas State University and I intend to major in speech and hearing therapy. In doing this, I hope to help children with speech problems and difficulties.

MELISA TATUM
I, Melisa Tatum, was brought into this wild and crazy world on August 22, 1962, with the assistance of my parents, Don and Joyce, and Dr. Jim Matthews. I was born in Garza Memorial Hospital and was the second child to my parents. I had a one and a half year older sister, Melinda, and five years later a younger sister, Mendy.

After barely turning six, I attended first grade and later second grade at the Post Elementary Schools where I was taught by Mrs. Lloyd Mock. My family and I then moved to Fort Stockton and later on to Hereford before returning to Post just prior to my junior year in high school.

In high school, I participated in basketball, tennis, and track as well as being student council president and a member of the National Honor Society. I was also involved with the Spirit Squad and represented the Future Farmers of America as their sweetheart. I was basketball sweetheart, football queen, and Miss PHS.

I plan to attend Lubbock Christian College next year; however, I am still undecided on my major.

DAVID POOLE
On March 13, 1962 in Herman Hospital in Houston Texas, my parents Preston and Shari Poole were greeted with the sight of their first child, me. We remained in Houston until I was just over a year old when we moved to Post, where we have lived since. I also have a younger sister Cynthia, a high school freshman.

I've really enjoyed living and attending school in Post and feel it has given me opportunities I might have otherwise missed. Every teacher I've had since beginning my education has been an influence on my life and always a good one.

Junior high school always starts a person in many new activities and I've enjoyed participating in many of them on through high school. Athletics has been a fun part of my life especially varsity football. I've also enjoyed several different UIL events. I think competition is an important part of a high school education.

Next year I plan to enroll in Texas Tech University and major in pre-law.

BRENT MASON
On the early morning of Jan. 18, 1962, I was born to Lewis and Jane Mason in the Garza Memorial Hospital. A few days later they took me to my home in the Graham Community.

Things were pretty peaceful around there until the day they brought Brad home from the hospital. Now I thought one little brother was "enough", but they decided to get another one when I was about seven.

I started to school at Post in the first grade. Mrs. Peters was my teacher.

I really don't remember many things from the lower grades because I was too shy to do anything and was usually off to myself.

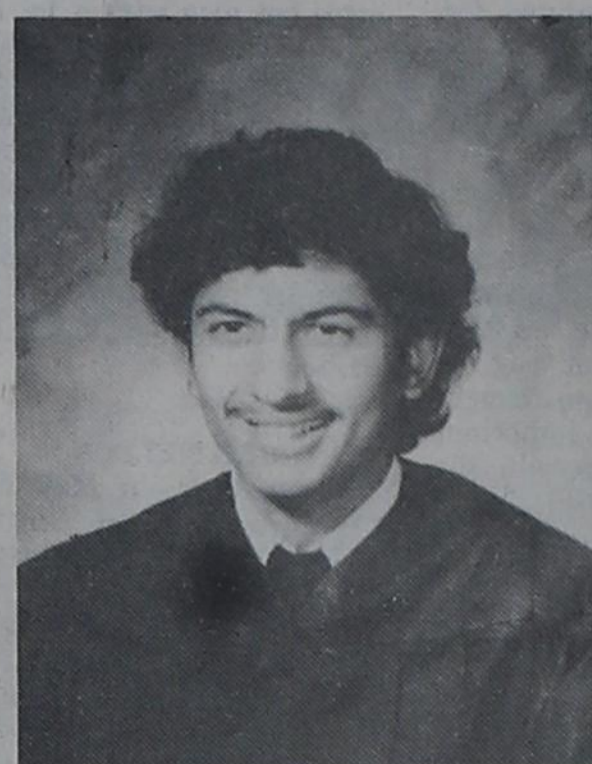

During Junior High, my shyness was breaking. I started doing a lot more and began having more fun.

In high school, I have had the time of my life!

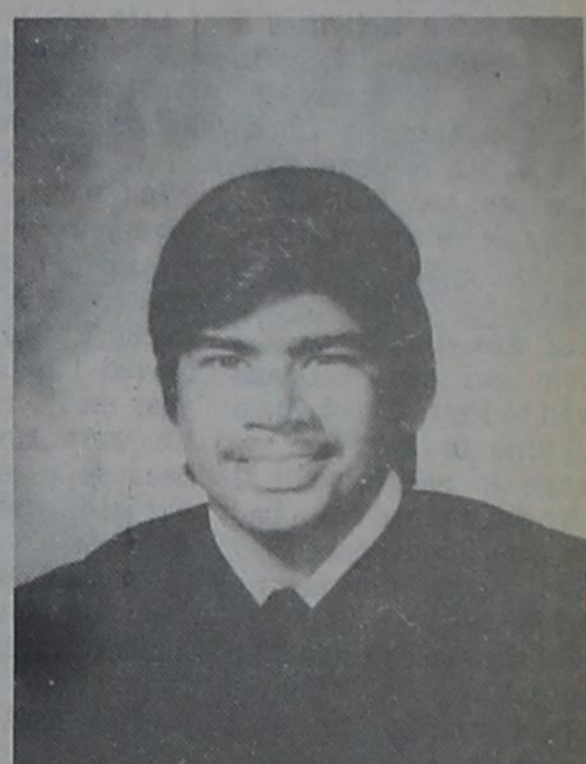

During the summer after my Freshman year, I went to the 4-H State Roundup at A & M with several members from the Graham 4-H Club. We put on a play in front of a very large group of people. If you have ever been in the auditorium at A & M, you will know what I'm talking about! From that time on, I began (See "Honor Grads, P. 10)

Honor grads 'tell it all'

Eddie Britnell. During this school year I have been working at Wilson Medical and Surgical Clinic. While working there I have learned a lot and met many people. Recently I was inducted into the National Honor Society. This was a goal I had long been working for. I have enjoyed all of my years in Post schools and in a way, hate to see them end.

DONNA SIMECEK

My name is Donna Sharon Simecek. I was born March 9, 1962 to Bobby and Nellie Simecek in Whitney, Texas, and I spent my first six years in West, Texas. Between the first grade and the sixth grade we moved around a lot, I attended school at West, Post, Slaton, Coolidge, Denison, and Littlefield.

I attended seventh and eighth grades in Mexia, Texas where I met my best friend Jan Dolen. She influenced my life very much. Her advice to me was "always do my best; be myself and not try to be like everyone else." This advice helped me through a lot of struggles I've faced in high school. I attended all four years of high school in Post. My biggest achievement in high school has been being in the National Honor Society. These last four years haven't been easy, but they have helped me to grow up.

I have made many good friends and we've had some really good times. I think all my teachers have helped me in many ways, but I would like to express my gratitude to the two that influenced me most, Miss Christy Morris and Mrs. Linda Linn.

Miss Morris made learning fun and made me want to learn. Mrs. Linn taught me self-discipline and self-expression.

I would also like to express gratitude to the members of the First Christian Church and to my parents, who have always encouraged me to do well in school. All these people have influenced my life very much, as well as my friends and my boyfriend, Burton Yarbro, who stood by me and believed in me even when things were going bad.

In the future I plan to go into the Air Force and to specialize in electronics. I also plan to be married in the next few years.

If you need a graduation gift,

We can help you. Gifts from $1.50 to $150. We have most of the senior sizes. Free gift wrapping. Visa or Master Charge Welcome.

Run happy Dodgers lead Little League

Tally 73 runs in four starts

There may not be an undefeated team in the Post Little League well into the second week of play, but the Dodgers with 73 runs scored in four starts have proven they have an offense which can get the runs across.

Oh yes, the Dodgers are leading the league with a 3-1 record, half a game ahead of the Tigers and the Red Sox who are tied for second with 2-1 slates.

The Dodgers dropped their first start of the season last week to the Tigers, 10 to 9, but even walloped the ball long and hard in that one with triples and homeruns.

They had their biggest night Monday when they swamped the Red Sox 33 to 2, and those are the Red Sox who are tied for second.

The most unusual victory, however, came when they defeated the Yankees 9 to 3.

In that one Saturday night, the Yankees opened up like they really meant business when they got four hits in the first inning to score the first three batters who came to the plate.

What's more the Dodgers got only one hit all night. They were down 3 - 0 after four innings of play with Greg Adams allowing only one Dodger batter to reach first in that time on a single while striking out seven.

But four walks in the fifth and a sacrifice with one away brought four runs home for the Dodgers and gave them a 4-3 lead.

June 3 - A's vs. Yankees, Tigers vs. Cardinals.

Then in the sixth, the Dodgers got five more runs without a hit on five more walks in a row.

After the big first inning, the Yankees were held hitless the rest of the way and got only two runners aboard by walks. Clifford Redman and Sammy Basquez, who divided mound

5 Post gymnasts to national meet

Five members of the Post Jumping Jacks gymnastics and tumbling class have qualified for the U.S. Acro-Gymnastics Federation National Championships to be held in Illinois, June 21 and 22. Those representing the club are Jeff Lamb, Amy Thuett, Risa Willard, Keith Hart all of Post and Danny Grace of Lubbock who is assistant coach.

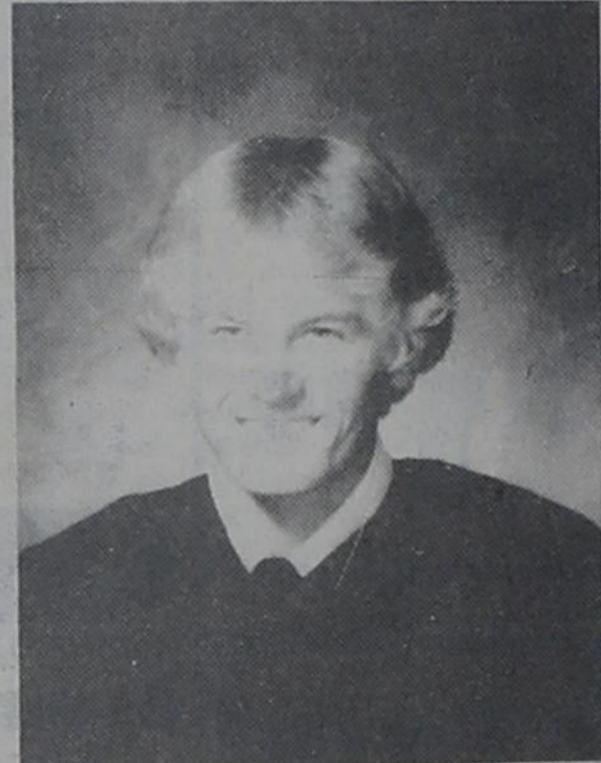

Coach of the Post tumblers is Jackie Arnwine of Levelland. Also, the West Texas Tumbling Association at the Brownfield meet held recently. Several members of families will accompany the gymnasts to the meet in Illinois.

If fewer people are buying homes these days, it's not because of a lack of interest, but because of too much interest.

TEEN SCENE By Norm

Yeah, the day has finally arrived. School is out, at least for the seniors. They had their last day Tuesday.

Congratulations to the Junior Class for the super banquet Saturday night. It was a smashing success and the decorations were beautiful and the servers were stunning in their clown costumes.

For those of you that weren't fortunate enough to attend, the theme for the banquet was "This One's duties for the Dodgers, struck out 13.

In the Dodgers 33 to 2 walloping of the Red Sox, they mixed five homeruns with 15 walks, other hits and a bunch of Red Sox errors to score eight in the first, nine in the second, three in the third, and 13 in the fourth.

Leadoff Rodney Guthrie and Tommy Basquez each got two round-trippers and Mark Valdez, the other.

The best pitching performance to date was turned in by Tracy Price of the A's. He pitched a no hitter as he went the route Tuesday night for a 7 to 3 win over the Cardinals, but giving up 10 walks when he couldn't get his stuff over the plate.

For You". Decorations were rainbows, raindrops with clouds and a lighted rainbow over a yellow bridge with a pot of gold at the end of the bridge. Those attending entered through a huge rainbow of various colors.

While the Sisters in Song provided the entertainment, seniors were shown on the movie screen in various forms of dress. Rynn Norman was Santa Claus with a thinning beard; Jay Young, Superman; Donna was Wonderwoman; Leanna Davis, Betsy Ross; Deb Palmer shown sitting on a horse backwards; Bill Short eating the biggest bowl of cereal I've ever seen; Kelly Mason signing the Declaration of Independence complete with white wig; and the list goes on and on. Whoever deserves the credit for thinking of this, deserves a prize. They were all priceless!!!!

Both classes had a swimming party following the dance and movie, the Juniors at the Jess Cornells and the Seniors at the A.C. Cash's and a big thank you goes out to these families for having us in your homes at that EARLY HOUR!!!!

Not everyone was brave enough to take that early morning swim, as the early morning air was a mite CHILLY!!

The only thing I haven't found out yet is why Brent Mason still had his tuxedo on at church Sunday morning!!!

Happy Birthday goes out this week to Meg Nelson and Donna as they both celebrate their 18th. HB girls. You may recognize one of them on the society page. I think that is one of their first grade pictures!

Great News! Plans are being made to open the Youth Center with volunteer parents the first two weeks in June. Final plans have yet to be made, but when they are, signs will be posted around town to let you know when and what time.

I've been trying to avoid the subject, but guess I can't any longer.

Mommies, that little girl or boy has grown up whether we like it or not. Remember their first day of school, all dressed up in their Sunday best and looking a little scared at all the unfamiliar surroundings? That hurt, having to leave them there, and going away thinking, my baby is all grown up. Well here it is twelve years later and they are ALL GROWN UP! Time for graduation and about to embark on a new way of life. Gosh it hurts. But it's a good hurt, I think. You want them to be all grown up and you are so very proud of all their accomplishments, but only if we could have them starting back in the first grade again, if only they were little again, if only...

But, here they are, young men and women.

We salute you seniors of 1980 and WE LOVE YOU!

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Former Texas Attorney General John Hill, who lost the 1978 gubernatorial race to Republican Bill Clements, was back in the headlines last week after winning a multi-million dollar damages lawsuit against the nation of Iran.

A Dallas federal court ruled Electronic Data Systems Corporation (EDS) was entitled to collect $19.2 million in damages from the government of Iran for a breach of a computer services contract.

Ironically, EDS is owned by H. Ross Perot, who heads up Gov. Clements' task force against narcotics trafficking. Perot, by the way, is the hero-organizer of last year's commando raid into Iran to free Americans (his employees) held in Tehran prisons.

Hill apparently has been building more than his private law practice since his '78 political defeat. A recent Texas Monthly magazine poll showed that 52 percent of Texans now prefer him over Clements (48 percent) in a governor's race.

In the Iranian lawsuit, Hill lead a team of four lawyers who first secured an attachment on Iranian funds in New York banks.

He told one reporter last week he believes the Mexican government is liable for damages to Texas beaches from the Ixtoc I oil spill under provisions in the Sovereign Immunities Act.

Clements Blasts Carter

Clements predicted President Jimmy Carter will lose Texas votes because of a U.S. Justice Department decision to seek integration of city and suburban school districts in Houston.

The motion to seek inter-district integration "will be a catastrophe" in Clements' opinion, and will work against Carter and for his projected Republican opponent, Ronald Reagan, at the polls in November.

Goldberg Blasts Clements

The Governor himself drew political fire last week from Texas Democratic Party Chairman Billy Goldberg of Houston, who said Clements was trying to hand-pick the new Speaker of the House.

Goldberg said Clements "has been using every amount of force available to his high office" to support speaker candidate Rep. Gib Lewis of Fort Worth.

Clements retorted Goldberg was "babbling utter nonsense," but a lobbyist told reporters Clements had boosted Lewis at a lunch for legislators.

New Speaker Candidate

A new candidate for the 1981 House Speaker race emerged last week: Rep. Craig Washington, D-Houston, who claims he can become the first black ever elected to that chair if Bill Clayton steps down because of Brilab woes.

According to Washington, if the speaker election were held today, front-runners Lewis and Rep. John Bryant, D-Dallas, would only receive about 50 votes each (short of the necessary 76 votes majority) . . . and Washington would win on the second ballot.

Twin Cedars Nursing Home News

Sunday services were brought to us by the Assemblies of God Church with Rev. Mearl Martin officiating. Next week the services will be brought to us by the Methodist Church with Rev. Don Travis officiating. On May 18 our church service was brought to us by the Graham Methodist Church with Rev. Donny Crowson officiating. The attendance of the service was tremendous, with those guests attending the services, Sharlot Sparlin, Joe and Alma Williams, Bertie Beard, Opal Nowell, Esther Crider, Gladys Wood, Roxanne McClellan, Rene Fluitt, Willie Mason, Rena Ferguson, Sybil Cockrum, Ruby Kirkpatrick, Bea Dodson and Juanita Peel.

One of the events from Mother's Day was Jo Ella Sparlin from the VFW Ladies Auxiliary made sachet pillows for all the ladies and brought them to us. Everyone would like to thank Jo Ella for the gifts.

Guests during the past two weeks were Virginia Terry and Inez McGrew, both from Lamesa, X.L. and Erma Sherrill, Housell Sherrill, Wilburn and Tommie Dunlap from Roswell, N.M., Gerald and Marie Clayton, Eddie Aten, Grace Cummings, Lottie Sanders, Roberta Herron, Ruby Carpenter, Fern Strange, Darrell Roberts, Bill Sanders, Ione Hughes, Jet Puckett, Tricia and Scott Metsgar, Glenn and Mary Roberts, Jewell Greenfield, Rose Askins, Carla and Gary Bilbo, Jessie Bowen from Tyler, Inez Grantham, and Zora Robinson, Roberta Herron, Nina B. Chapman from Plainview, C. A. and Lucille Walker, Stella Mae (Year) Moyer from Weatherford, Wanda Cox, Bessie Chilton, from Lubbock, W. B. Sanders, Paul, J.E. and Bea Sherrill, Charles and Dessie Hoskins from Lamesa.

Jo Ella Sparlin and Ann Chaffin from the VFW Ladies Auxiliary brought little red poppies and pinned them on each resident for Memorial day. The VFW Auxiliary does so much for the residents it is hard to express our gratitude to them.

Rose Mary Stelzer brought candy and Kleenex to us for prizes during our bingo games. We appreciate your thoughtfulness toward our residents.

Dental Oral Hygiene was the subject of the meeting held on May 23 at the Bank Community Room brought to us by Dr. Delane Ford DDS and Pat Rector RN from the Texas Health Department. Approximately 40 guests attended including administrators, nurses and nurses aides from Post, Spur, Slaton and Tahoka.

The Calvary Baptist Church is planning a picnic for our residents and also each member of the church is going to adopt one resident and be their buddy. Our residents are just thrilled about our volunteers and are looking forward to the picnic.

This will be my last week as activity director at Twin Cedars. I have enjoyed working here and being with everyone. Claudette Gill will be taking my place and I'm sure she will be a good activity director and enjoy working with all the residents.

Washington said he entered the race because of the lack of a moderate candidate, but other theories are floating about the Capitol halls. One guess is that Washington is holding the black legislative bloc until it can throw the race decisively to Lewis or Bryant (receiving a few committee chairmanships in return). A second scenario paints Washington as a spoiler, stalling both Bryant and Lewis candidacies until Clayton can clear himself of Brilab and solidify his chair.

Clayton Unruffled

If Clayton is indicted this month on allegations he accepted a bribe, his political hopes depend on whether he can obtain an early trial and quickly run the course to a "not guilty" verdict before fall. The magnitude of the trial itself may prevent its early end, and Clayton has said he will step down before the general election if he isn't cleared by then.

Thus, the speaker's race gets hotter every week, but Clayton is the only major character who remains consistently cool. Last week, rumors leaked out to the Capitol press corps that Clayton was meeting with a host of lobbyists in his office behind the House Chamber, and reporters gathered outside his door to check out the anonymous news tip.

When Clayton came out to talk to his secretary, he saw the journalists and invited them inside his office to see for themselves. Only a few state representatives were present in the second-floor office.

Task force meets on drunkenness

AUSTIN — The implications of treating public intoxicants instead of jailing them was the topic when a statewide task force met yesterday to discuss proposed draft legislation for an Alcohol Services Act for Texas.

The group met from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., May 21 at the Joe C. Thompson Center at The University of Texas at Austin.

"Right now, being drunk in public is a crime in Texas," Ross Newby, executive director of the Texas Commission on Alcoholism, stated. "I think the real crime may be the way we treat public inebriates."

He notes that estimates for the cost of arresting and booking public inebriates vary from $58.06 to $294 each, while they could be treated at a cost of $11-$15 per day.

One reporter asked if they could "look out on the ledge," and Clayton quietly smiled. "Be my guest."

Postex given writeup, 9 pix in Burlington Look

The Postex Plant got a two-page spread and a front page color pix of one of its oil wells in the May issue of The Burlington Look, Burlington's publication for employees.

"The Burlington Look visits Postex — Burlington's westernmost plant" is the headline over the double page spread which contains a short history of the plant and eight pictures.

Those pictured include Corky Bullard, a 30-year Postex employee and the oldest Postex wage employe as determined by years of service; spooler-tender Angelita Sanchez, Linda Collazo, Flora Davila, Joe Vasquez, Lupe Perez, Raymon Raymundo, plus a group pix of five pilots all employes of Postex, including Tom Drake, Willard Yarbro, John Dudley, Corky Bullard, and Pat Pennell standing in front of Bullard's Piper TriPacer.

The write-up of the plant tells how Postex Plant and Post both were started by C. W. Post.

The article notes the original boiler of C. W. Post's 1912-built cotton mill is still in operating condition and is used as a back-up boiler 68 years later.

The article also notes: There are four oil wells on the plant's property that produce a total of 60 barrels of good quality oil daily. "Postex is the only plant west of the Mississippi where a raw bale of cotton is processed in a finished product — in this case, sheets and pillowcases.

"With 419 employes working a five-day week, Postex weaves 190,000 yards a week and finishes about 650,000 yards of cloth. There's also a hemming operation that produces nearly a quarter of a million pillow cases and sheets a week.

"In addition Postex serves as a warehousing and distribution center for its products. The four drivers at Postex have a total of 1,642,719 safe miles driven without an accident."

Yield Problem Explored
The problem of cotton yields was discussed recently by research and Extension representatives and National Cotton Council staff members. The group agreed studies are needed to determine efforts such as weather changes, soil erosion, soil compaction, insect pressures, etc., have on cotton yields in specific production areas. The group feels a Beltwide survey of farmers who consistently make high yields would provide useful clues to solution of the problem.

FLCRA Legislation Proposed
A bill amending the Farm Labor Contractor Registration Act (FLCRA) is being proposed by Sens. Williams (D-N.J.) and Javits (R.N.Y.).

The proposal is virtually the same as an earlier version offered as a "compromise" following negotiations between labor and agricultural interests, but rejected by National Cotton Council representatives.

Bill would: (1) exempt any farmer, grower, or processor who engages in any hiring activity in behalf of an operation owned and operated only by members of the immediate family; and (2) exempt an employee of a family operation if it employs no more than 10 people. Non-family operations, or those with more than 10 employees would be exempt from registration and fingerprinting, but would be subject to all other requirements. Definition of "migrant worker" which the Labor Department has held means anyone employed in agriculture would be unchanged.

Great Growth Seen for Cotton
National Cotton Council President Herman Propst, Anson, Texas, farmer, sees tremendous growth for cotton during the 1980's. Pointing to the expansion in cotton's markets this season, he told the National Cottonseed Products Association annual meeting he believes it's "only the beginning" of a brighter outlook for cotton as a fiber and food product. Speaking later to the Universal Cotton Standards Conference, Propst said promotional activities mounted since 1967 by the International Institute for Cotton in Western Europe and Japan have been a major factor in cotton's comeback. He said the size of cotton's future role will be determined by the degree to which cotton-producing and consuming nations of the world join together and work actively to promote cotton through IIC.

And Cotton Yesterday
The first Congress in 1789 imposed a 3-cent per pound duty on raw cotton imports from Brazil and the West Indies.

Windfall profits exemptions sought

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Congressman Charles W. Stenholm announced today that a major effort is now underway in the Congress to exempt small royalty owners from the recently enacted windfall profits tax.

Stenholm recently introduced legislation which would exempt the royalty owner of up to 10-barrels-per-day of royalty interest under the windfall tax. The bill, H.R. 7211, is similar to one Congressman Keith Sebelius, R-Kansas, introduced about the same time.

Stenholm said that he and Representative Sebelius have decided to join forces in an effort to improve the chances of getting the legislation through Congress. While he expects passage to be an uphill battle, Stenholm said he believed many representatives in the Congress are beginning to realize the need to deal with some of the "injustices" of the windfall profits tax.

lenges this basic principle of America."

The Congressman went on to point out that many small royalty owners, faced with today's high inflation, are dependent upon their royalty checks to help offset economic difficulties. This is especially true of retired persons, whose royalty checks help supplement their social security payments he said.

The Stenholm-Sebelius effort now has about 50 co-sponsors and Stenholm said that he expected more to join in the initiative. "We are determined to obtain this exemption and have every intention of fighting this thing through the Congress," Stenholm ended.

"I don't believe that the American landowner should be penalized simply because his land contains natural resources, whether it be oil, natural gas, or coal," Stenholm said. "This country was founded on the strong belief in the free enterprise system and the right to private ownership of property. The windfall profits tax seriously chal-

Test results to be given board

Results of the first Texas Assessment of Basic Skills tests taken by some 185 fifth and ninth grade students here last spring will be presented at the June 12 meeting of the Post Independent School District board of trustees.

The 7:30 p.m. session will be held at the High School Library, 200 West 6th Street.

W. F. Shiver, school superintendent, will present the results and a detailed analysis of what they may mean for future planning and programs. He will be assisted by key members of the district's administrative staff.

While aggregate scores will be reported to the public, individual students results will be released only to the student, parents or guardian, and school personnel involved, Shiver points out.

Some 500,000 Texas fifth and ninth grade students participated in this first statewide assessment now required under Senate Bill 350 passed by the Legislature during its 1979 session. Detailed analysis of the test results will include scores compiled by ethnic background, sex, and whether or not the student is enrolled in migrant or other education programs for the disadvantaged.

Particular emphasis will be given to plans already underway to work on improved programs for both individuals schools and individual students during the next year, Supt. Shiver explains.

"Our purpose is to develop more effective ways of serving children," Supt. Shiver says. "With this objective in mind, we believe the Texas Assessment of Basic Skills results will give us the specific data we need to better meet student needs."

Supt. Shiver said much of the planning and advanced work to be completed this summer will point toward specific remedies and other changes expected to be implemented next September.

Materials to be presented at the June 12, board meeting will include summary reports and other information designed to better inform school patrons concerning the district's needs for improvement, Supt. Shiver added.
