

Sizzling July 4th celebration is set

Post's annual Fourth of July celebration in the park Friday should be another sizzling success, Chamber of Commerce sponsors said today.

The 13-hour program, which gets under way at 10 a.m., will be climaxed with a beef barbecue to be served at 5:30 p.m. and a free fireworks display over the lake, beginning at about 10 p.m.

There will be all kinds of games on the day-long program plus nine and one-half hours of almost continuous music from the shaded bandstand.

Major events, following the 10 a.m. Boy Scout flag raising ceremony, include the Firecracker 500 bicycle race, sponsored by the First National Bank in Little League park for three age divisions (8-9, 10-11, and 12-13) with trophies and ribbons going to the winners;

A swim meet, starting at 11 a.m., in the park pool with an open division for diving and three race age divisions (4-7, 8-12, and 13-15) with trophies and ribbons to the winners.

Canoe rides on the lake, five minutes for 50 cents, sponsored by the Post Lions Club.

Free water polo from 1 to 4 p.m. under sponsorship of the Post Volunteer Fire Department.

A dunking booth, sponsored by the Antelope Booster Club, from 1 p.m. to late with cheerleaders, coaches, and senior athletes all due to take turns on the dunking board.

All the rules have been changed for the watermelon eating contest scheduled for 3 p.m. There will be no entry fee with those 15 years and older eligible to compete for three prizes, a blender, a five-piece cutlery set, and an airport. The Post Music Club will conduct the contest and sell watermelon throughout the day (10 a.m. to 7 p.m.) by the slice, half, or whole melon, all ice cold of course. Rick's Venture Foods is sponsoring the booth.

The Garza County chapter of the Texas State Teachers

Association will operate a community bingo game from 1 to 4 p.m. with a portion of the proceeds going to the chapter's scholarship fund.

Water consumption here jumps as—

Heat wave is unbroken

Ten or more days of sizzling 100-degree plus heat here has obviously pushed up electric and water bills much faster than inflation, but it hasn't caused any known difficulties.

No local health problems have developed from the heat wave, physicians report, although dozens of deaths have been reported in Texas alone due to the high temperatures.

Farmers are about evenly divided upon what the heat has done to a cotton crop already damaged by sand, high winds and hail.

But if the heat doesn't last too long at its present level many think the cotton won't be badly hurt.

The White River Water District reports it has been pumping water 24 hours a day into Post with daily usage here averaging well above the 2,500,000 gallons a day mark. The high was over 2,800,000 gallons June 27.

Fires in two homes here

Maybe the sizzling weather had nothing to do with it, but Post firemen answered three fire calls during the past week, two of them involving a local home and a local mobile home.

Eydie Capps, wife of Dwayne Capps, was burned on both hands about 11 a.m. Monday when a pan of food caught fire on the kitchen stove at the Capps home, 113 Ridge Road.

She was injured when she attempted to carry the burning pan outside.

Fire chief Neal Clary said damage was confined to the stove top and nearby cabinets with some damage to the rest of the house.

The living room of Lee Pardlow's mobile home, at 15th and Avenue M, was fairly well gutted by a Sunday night blaze about 9:45 o'clock. The rest of the mobile home interior had smoke damage and some windows were blown out.

The third fire was a car fire at Southland.

In June 67,572,000 gallons were used by Post householders and businesses, up considerably from 58,300,000 gallons for May.

As for the water supply itself, the White River office reports: "We're in good shape."

White River Lake picked up three feet of water in May shower runoffs and currently is only 6.4 feet below the "full mark" which is a depth of 60.5 feet at the dam.

Glen Barley, Southwestern Public Service manager, said he couldn't quote local usage figures for June here as the larger cities could.

"But everybodys using a lot of it," he declared.

Third floor jail converted—

Offices moved in courthouse

They played "musical chairs" at the county courthouse this week as offices were moved over three floors of the courthouse following conversion of the old, unused third floor jail into a new county commissioners court meeting room.

County Agent Syd Conner and the HD agent offices were moved from the first floor up to the southeast corner of the second floor which had been occupied by CETA. CETA moved across the second floor hall into the former office of County Treasurer Voda Beth Grading.

The county treasurer's office was moved into the former county commissioners court room on the second floor.

That leaves a large two-room first floor office for the new Garza district tax assessor.

The new county commissioners court meeting room on the third floor is a fine

one. Walls of the large room have been paneled. There is (See Courthouse, Page 14)

Park project progressing

Post's request for federal funding for park improvements didn't have to meet an end-of-June deadline as originally thought so it will be presented to the city council for approval at its August meeting.

Jack Alexander, park board chairman, said to meet requirements electric lines in the park area will have to be buried at an estimated cost of slightly over $9,000.

The Dispatch understands swimming pool repairs cannot be included in the funding project, but the city and county hope to get aid in the purchase of badly needed playground equipment.

One thing for sure. Max Chaffin is going to make about the most auspicious political campaign start in local history Friday when he launches his Republican campaign for sheriff at Post's Fourth of July celebration in the park.

Max is going to have his own campaign booth. What's more we hear he has some volunteers who want to cook him up a batch of giveaway biscuits just like Lee (Pappy) O'Daniel did back in 1938 and 1940 to win the Texas governorship two terms running. In those days, Pappy had the backing of a flour mill which provided all the biscuits for his rallies.

Now we don't know how serious Max is taking himself in this campaign. He just grins and says everybody should keep his cards and buttons for souvenirs because after all (See Postings, Page 14)

Lubbock man is charged

A 30-year-old Lubbock man has been released on $20,000 bond while awaiting grand jury action on a class C felony charge of indecent exposure to juvenile girls.

He was arrested here June 27. Sheriff Jim Pippin said he had been receiving complaints for several days.

The man was immediately identified in a lineup by several witnesses who then gave statements, according to the sheriff.

In other sheriff cases: Steve Allison Hair pleaded guilty in county court June 26 to driving while license suspended. He was fined $150, ordered to pay $61 in court costs and sentenced to 72 hours in the county jail.

Michael Eton Haas was released on bond following his arrest June 28 on a worthless check warrant.

Thomas Robinson Ashley pleaded guilty in city court to charges of public intoxication and disorderly conduct and was ordered to pay $110 in fine and court costs. He was arrested after night deputies answered a disturbance call at one of the local lounges.

Rogers rites here Sunday

Funeral services for Winnie Davis Rogers, 81, a resident of Post for 60 years were held Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. in the Graham Chapel Methodist Church with the Rev. Gary Cotton officiating.

She died June 27 in Garza Memorial Hospital. Burial was in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Hudman Funeral Home of Post.

Born September 27, 1898, in Montague County, she married Charlie Rogers in March of 1923 in Post. He preceded her in death in December of 1967.

Survivors include one daughter, Opal Wood of Post; one son, David of Post; one sister, Vada Wood Green of Littlefield and one brother Grady Stewart of Oklahoma; seven grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Mack Terry, Jim Norman, Delwin Fluitt, Jack Morris, Dillard Morris and John Kocurek.

Winners named in 4-H dress revue

"In The Good Ole Summer Time" was the theme of the 1980 Garza County 4-H Fashion Revue held

Monday night, June 30, in the Post Community Center, with the largest number of participants in several years. Twenty-five young ladies made and modeled garments for the revue.

Janell Jones and Kayla Peel were the first place winners in the two junior divisions with Keitha Beth White and Jana Middleton winning second place. These girls will represent Garza county in the District contest to be held in the near future.

Sheriff's office gets 'new cars'

The county sheriff's office — at last — has its two "new" law enforcement cars.

The "new" vehicles were driven up from Austin yesterday by two deputies who flew down to get them.

The vehicles are former Department of Public Safety cars which were purchased several months ago by the city as an experiment and cleaned up and repainted by the state.

The county has purchased two-way radios, light bars and other necessary equipment. The city and county decided to try the old DPS units as an economy measure after some West Texas towns reported success with using them.

The city council had talked of every officer having "his own car" after the "new" units were received.

But that isn't the way it will work out now.

Sheriff Jim Pippin told The Dispatch Wednesday the department will park its other cars and use them only when necessary and use the former DPS cars for regular work. Pippin pointed out the gas bill would go through the (See 'New' cars, Page 14)

Barley wins frisbee throw

Glen Barley won 10 silver dollars Tuesday noon when he won a surprise frisbee competition at the Post Rotary Club luncheon in the community center.

Jack Alexander had introduced Charles Hardin to speak on "the country's economic situation" and then cut him off in the second paragraph and brought out the frisbees.

Rotarians were asked to spin their frisbees into a small box about 50 feet away. Barley hit it with his first shot as the civic clubbers had the frisbees spinning all over the center.

Phil Alford sang a patriotic vocal solo after leading the club in singing to start the program.

It looked like a "publicity stunt" for the bank sponsored Frisbee Futurity coming up the Fourth of July here.

Kathy Albert dies here

Funeral services for Mrs. Jimmy (Kathy) Albert, 35, of Post are pending at Hudman Funeral Home. She was dead on arrival at Garza Memorial Hospital Wednesday morning. She had been a resident of Post 11 months.

She was born in Gulfport, Mich., Feb. 24, 1945 and married Jimmy Lee Albert August 26, 1965 in Gulfport. She was a member of the Baptist Church.

Survivors include the husband, Jimmy, of Post; one daughter, Fern Marie of the home; three sons, Jimmy Lee Jr., Tracy and Curtis all of the home; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Diel, Jr., of Florida and one brother, Charlie Diel of Florida.

VFW gives George Sneed an 'appreciation day'

The VFW Post will have a George Sneed Appreciation Day Saturday and lay out a free barbecue in his honor at 5 p.m. in the evening. They've even sent out printed invitations.

The Dispatch admittedly had a tough assignment in getting a story about George because he shuns publicity.

You've heard of the phrase, "Let George do it".

That must have been originally said with George Sneed in mind.

George has been "doing it" at the VFW post here for years and years.

Sneed ranches and farms and was a water well driller here for years. He was blown off a tank in the South Pacific in World War II, his buddies say, and George sustained a back injury, which never healed. While it keeps him from the heavy jobs, it doesn't keep him from doing just about anything else that needs to be done at the VFW. No job is too big or too insignificant.

When somebody gets sick, George raises a fund for a gift or flowers and starts it off with a bill from his own billfold.

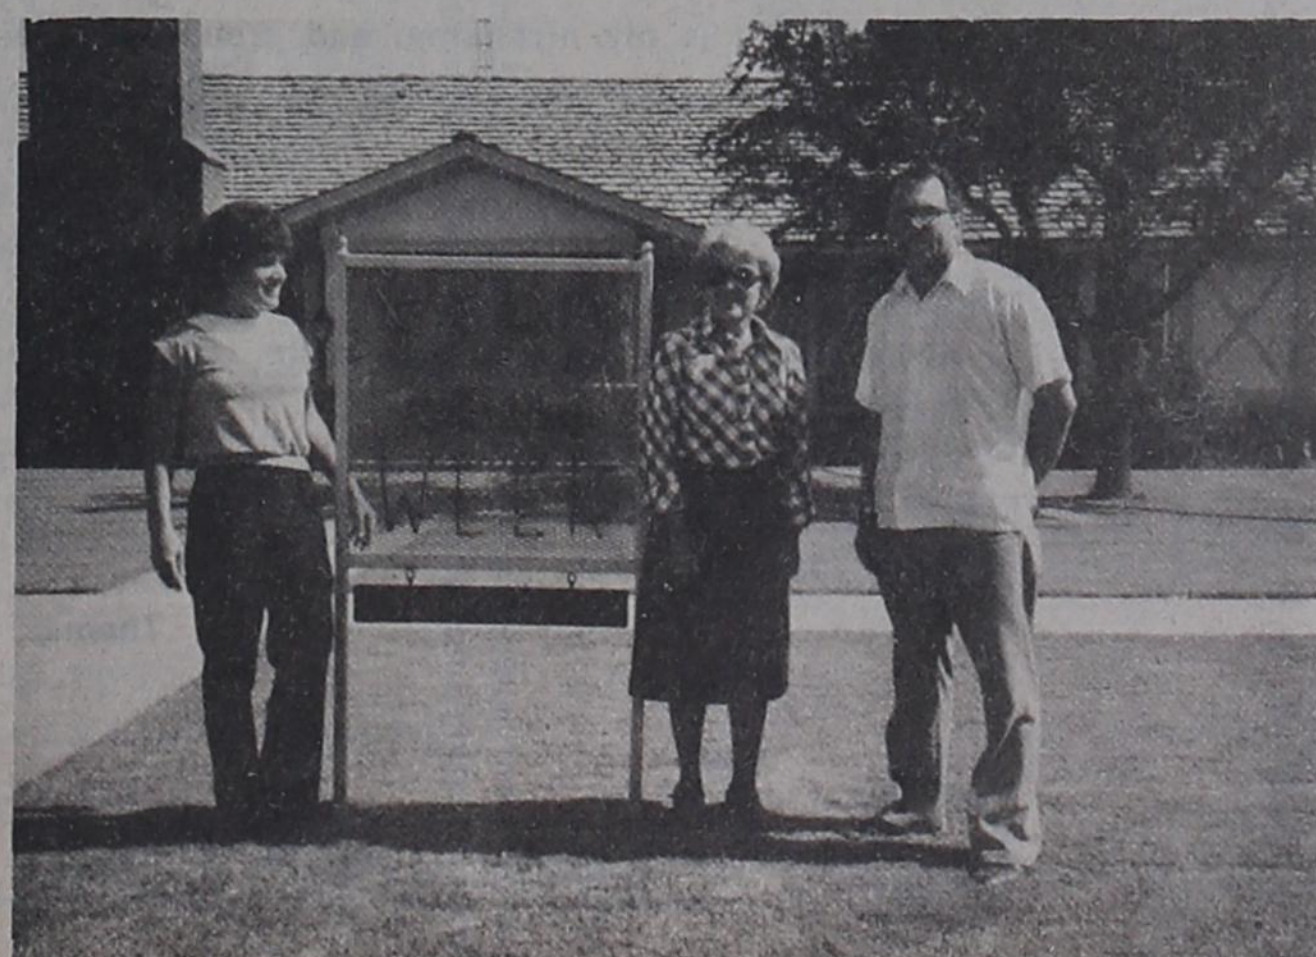

One of the VFW officers calls him "the backbone" of the VFW post here.

Project moving—very slowly

Lubbock would have been better off if it had had a water shortage five years ago. While its smaller West Texas neighbors were forced to find sites and build dams for surface water supplies, Lubbock cruised along with plenty of water.

Now it faces a very insecure water future and with the odds against it.

First off, the best water sites are gone. Second, rising inflationary costs have doubled the costs of major water projects in less than 10 years.

Third, and very important, voters have yet to feel a real water crisis but are soon to be asked to vote millions of dollars for water bonds.

Getting the public in the proper frame of mind to vote yes isn't easy. The Lubbock media have been carefully working on the conversion project for some time now.

Next month, the first water vote in Lubbock will be for $21 million to drill 55 new water wells in the sandhills of Bailey County and to increase water storage facilities for water being piped in from Lake Meredith.

The best Lubbock can expect from its 55 new wells will be 7,000,000 to 8,000,000 gallons daily only during peak use periods of summer. It already is receiving 34 million gallons daily from Lake Meredith, but Meredith may be in trouble due to drought which is beginning to tighten its hold now on West Texas.

Lubbock is no longer assured of 34 million gallons daily from Meredith. It may have to take less. It could bring lawn water rationing before the summer is out.

The second water bond vote has yet to be set. It will of course depend on how the first one goes in August. That will be for enough to build or contract for water from the proposed Post and Justiceburg lakes plus an uphill pipeline supply system. The price tag was put at $109 million for this in 1979. Add at least 10 percent more to that today, and probably as much more next year.

It is easy to see if Lubbock doesn't get busy on the Post-Justiceburg project pretty soon the costs are going to jump right out of sight.

The Post-Justiceburg reservoirs would supply 29 million gallons of water daily according to engineers estimates. Lubbock, if it can get the bonds voted and build, figures to have enough water for the next 30 years and for a population growth to 300,000.

Nothing has changed on Post Lake plans. It won't be built unless Lubbock contracts to buy the water. It will be built by the White River Municipal Water District, thus providing a good measure of local control on recreational rights.

Lubbock acts like it is right on schedule to begin getting water from Justiceburg in 1987. Personally, we think they already are about three years behind. There is no telling how many years it will take to fill any West Texas reservoir. Court fights over land acquisitions can add extra months.

Just sit tight, readers. Nothing has changed. It just takes a very long time to swing a big deal like this. In another year or two will come the day of decision.

"We do."

This week our church services were brought to us by the Rev. Ralph White. We enjoyed it very much.

Everyone here wants to send Mr. Waldrip our best and hope to see him back with us real soon, we really do miss him. He is in Lubbock General Hospital.

We really had an active group in our Sunday school class. There were a lot of good questions asked. This is the kind of class we really enjoy.

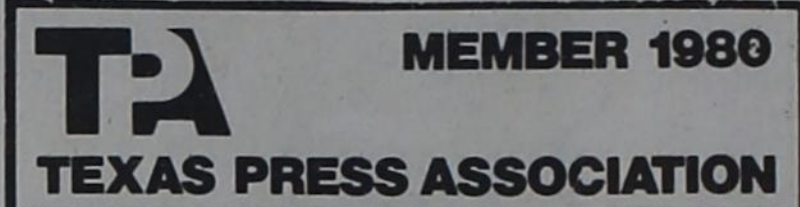

Winners in bingo last week were Mrs. Roach, Mrs. Bartlett, and Irene Wheeler.

Visitors this past week were Norma Doak of Calif.;

Wilburn and Sammie Dunlap, C. A. and Lucile Walker, Virginia Terry of Lamesa, Inez McGrew, Darrell M. Roberts, Glenn Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Nahum Sullivan and Sybil Cockrum.

Until next week. Hope you have a happy and safe 4th of July.

Getting off the ground

A new American industry was born this week — the synthetic fuels industry — with the passage by Congress and the signing by President Carter of a $20 billion dollar measure to get synthetic fuels and solar energy projects rolling.

Touted by backers as "a message to OPEC" and by its detractors as a huge "bureaucratic boondoggle", the synfuels bill will be the boldest undertaking by Uncle Sam since the nation geared up its space program to put a man on the moon.

The measure has a unique history. House-Senate conferees took the $3 billion, 14-page bill the House passed a year ago this month and turned it into "a 412-page legislative Christmas tree."

The measure aims at spurring production of 500,000 barrels of synfuels daily by 1987 and 2,000,000 barrels daily by 1992.

The U.S. currently imports about 7,200,000 barrels of oil daily.

The bill also creates a solar-energy bank, authorizes a $1.45 billion alcohol-fuel production program, and directs President Carter to resume filling the country's planned strategic petroleum reserve Oct. 1.

At the heart of the measure is a new seven-member U.S. Synthetic Fuels Corp., authorized to spend $20 billion in the next fiscal year, and authorized to seek as much as $68 billion more for its work in future years. Among other things, the sweeping legislation creates a solar-energy bank authorized to make as much as $2.75 billion in loans and subsidies for new or rehabilitated buildings that utilize solar equipment or solar-conservation features. The bank, unless renewed, will go out of business Sept. 30, 1987.

The measure also aims at spurring production of as many as 60,000 barrels of alcohol daily by 1982. It orders that federal vehicles burn gasohol — a mixture of 90 percent gaoline and 10 percent alcohol — whenever possible. And it authorizes the energy department to lend as much as 75 percent of the construction costs of alcohol-from-garbage plants.

Finally, the measure authorizes $85 million in loans and loan guarantees for goethermal power plants. It authorizes $25 million for the training of "energy auditors" — state inspectors who would visit both residential and commercial buildings.

Certainly, the measure is America's first, big energy effort to develop alternate sources to replace foreign oil.

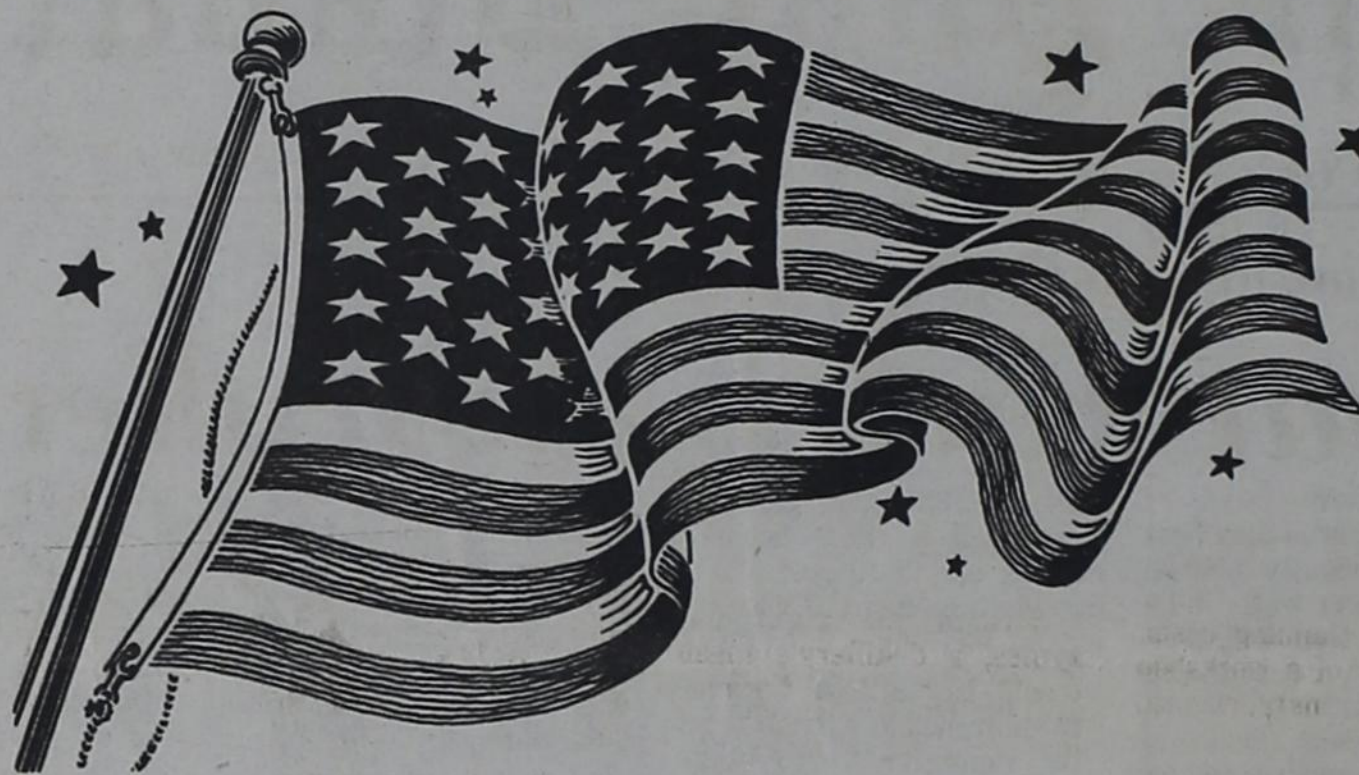

Creating a new energy industry of this size and scope is the kind of a project only Uncle Sam can do in a hurry. There will be plenty of mistakes and plenty of waste we're sure, but gearing up America for a major energy effort is going to be worth the price.

I AM YOUR FLAG

I am your FLAG.
I was born on June 14, 1777.
I am more than just cloth shaped into a design.
I am the refuge of the World's oppressed people.
I am the silent sentinel of Freedom.
I am the emblem of one of the greatest sovereign nations.
I am the inspiration for which American Patriots gave their lives and fortunes.
I have led your sons into battle from Valley Forge to the jungles of Vietnam.
I walk in silence with each of your Honored Dead, to their final resting place beneath the White Crosses, row upon row.
I have flown through Peace and War, Strife and Prosperity, and amidst it all I have been respected.
My Red Stripes . . . symbolize the blood spilled in defense of this glorious nation.
My White Stripes . . . signify the burning tears shed by Americans who lost their sons.
My Blue Field . . . indicates God's heaven under which I fly.
My Stars . . . clustered together, unify fifty States as one, for God and Country.
"Old Glory" is my nickname, and proudly I wave on high.
Honor me, respect me, defend me with your lives and your fortunes.
Never let my enemies tear me down from my lofty position, lest I never return.
Keep alight the fires of patriotism, strive earnestly for the spirit of democracy.
Worship Eternal God and keep His Commandments, and I shall remain the bulwark of peace and freedom for all mankind.
I am your flag.

Cost-price squeeze is now tightening

COLLEGE STATION — Farmers and ranchers are suffering from an old and persistent ailment — the cost-price squeeze.

Net agricultural income in Texas is expected to decline to about $1 billion this year despite higher cash receipts, points out Dr. Carl Anderson, economist in marketing with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A & M University System. That would put it at the 1978 level.

Cotton growers, cow-calf operators, sheepmen and dairy farmers will likely fair somewhat better than wheat, milo, corn, soybean farmers, swine producers and poultrymen, speculates the economists.

Anderson foresees production costs this year jumping up around 12 percent, with fuel, fertilizer and interest expenses leaping much higher. Although this rise trails last year's big jump, cash receipts may increase only 4 to 6 percent. With the cost of pumping water skyrocketing, Texas farmers will be especially hard hit since production from irrigated farms represents about 60 percent of the state's total crop sales.

While money is generally available for farmers to borrow, the greatest concern is the cost of that money and the income that it might generate, says Anderson. With the current cost-price squeeze, farmers and ranchers will be hard-pressed to repay high-cost loans.

All this is putting a growing number of agricultural operators in financial stress, particularly young farmers and those depending heavily on credit capital to run their farming business.

It's also changing the financial potential of operators using a lot of credit compared with more conservative farmers that depend less on credit and more on debt-free capital. When the rate of inflation exceeds the cost of money, it generally pays to borrow money to expand your operation.

Inflation boosts the net worth of assets which helps support weak cash flow statements. But interest rates higher than inflation shifts the financial situation in favor of the operator with a large proportion of equity in his business and little debt.

The cost-price squeeze places a premium on financial management skills of farmers, contends the economist. Some operators will reduce their dependence upon credit capital to minimize financial risk by reducing replacement livestock and machinery purchases. Farm expansion will also slow down and marginal cropland may revert to grassland for grazing livestock.

High cost of money tends to cut down on cash leasing agreements and increases crop-share renting arrangements, adds Anderson. However, prolonged inflation strongly favors landowners relative to tenant operators. Farming systems using the least amount of inputs for maximum returns and minimum tillage practices gain more rapid acceptance.

Pressures from the cost-price squeeze also encourage forward pricing. More producers decide to contract for an agreed price upon delivery. Hedging in the futures market is an alternative for some individuals who understand this forward pricing strategy. It is easier to finance an operation when assured a reasonable price for at least a part of the expected crop or livestock production. High money costs also encourage farmers to sell at harvest time to avoid storage and interest costs.

A possible "plus" from tight and expensive credit is that producers take a stronger interest in marketing, notes the economist. Year-round marketing strategies become essential, and there is an increased tendency to shift some of the financing burden to the marketing agency. Emphasis on a total production marketing system that is cost-effective.

With the overall supply-demand relationship for farm commodities affecting farm prices regardless of production costs, producers will need to look at different enterprises in the years ahead, suggests Anderson. With reasonable efficiency, diversification of enterprises may substantially reduce the possibility of financial disaster resulting from long periods of low prices and income for a given enterprise. The old saying, "Don't put all your eggs in one basket," is still worth of consideration.

Tech plans four alcohol workshops

LUBBOCK — A $10,000 grant from the U.S. Department of Energy has yielded four workshops on alcohol fuel production and economics at Texas Tech University this summer.

The three-day workshops are designed to give hands-on experience to individuals considering building a fuel alcohol still, operating one or investing in one, says Dr. Steven R. Beck, assistant professor of chemical engineering at Texas Tech.

The workshops are scheduled July 14-16, 21-23, 28-30 and Aug. 4-6, sponsored by Texas Tech's Department of Chemical Engineering and Division of Continuing Education.

Theory, practical applications, plant operations, the chemical technology, fermentation feedstocks, economics and legal requirements will be covered by the workshops. DOE funds covered the planning costs, initial salary of a workshop staffer and instructional equipment, Beck said.

A $250 registration fee for participants will cover instructors' salaries, other materials, three lunches and coffee breaks, he said. For information, call (806) 742-2354, or write Alcohol Fuels Workshops, Texas Tech, P. O. Box 4110, Lubbock, Texas 79409.

Beck said goals of the workshops are to enable participants to design, construct and operate an alcohol still, understand the processing steps of fermentation and distillation, evaluate feedstocks, learn the legal steps for building a still and operate a still safely.

Grain alcohol, or ethanol, production is a feasible fuel alternative for farmers and others if they can avoid unreasonable claims by manufacturers of stills, enzymes and other distillation technologies Beck said.

Yields, uses, costs and equipment quality must be understood before someone enters this high-risk business, he said. For example, carbon steel equipment probably will not last long in the distilling process, Beck added.

Without the right enzymes, a distillery's mash would be useless because the starches in a mash must be converted to sugar before the yeast action can produce the alcohol, Beck warned. The technology has been around a long time, but to make it profitable, efficient and safe, still builders and operators need detailed plans and the advice of many experts, he said.

It's a privilege to be part of this great democracy . . . to be living the great American dream our forefathers fought for, so long ago. Let's show our pride on the 4th!

For all you poor souls out there that are having to drive a tractor or hoe or work in the oil fields, or mowing grass, or whatever it is that you do outside, you have my condolences. I for one CANNOT stand this heat and am very glad that I have an inside job.

If you want to cool off and see old friends that you haven't seen since school's been out, there will be a dance at the Youth Center Saturday night from 10 to 1 a.m. with Charlie Brown

Mrs. Gonzales is surprised

Mrs. Eva Gonzales was surprised with a birthday party, Thursday, June 26 in her daughter's home.

Decorations were of white and pink. Refreshments of cake, nuts, mints, cookies, chips, dips and punch were served.

Those attending were Esther Samora, Terry Flores, Olivia Martinez and daughter, Stella Martinez, and daughter, Angel Cimental, Laura Collazo, Fina Pantoja, Carmen and Gloria Abraham, Mrs. Solis and daughter, Mrs. Crenshaw, Stella Moreno, and Rhonda Dudley.

Hostesses for the party were Linda Alaniz, Susan Gonzales, Ann and Julie Troxtell.

Sheri Riedel to head PTA

Sheri Riedel was elected president of the Post PTA at their meeting held recently in the Methodist Church basement. Delbert Wartes was elected vice-president and Carol Tobias was elected secretary.

Business of the meeting was the planning of an Arts and Crafts Fair to be held OS Weekend in the Community Center, Saturday, Oct. 4. Area artists and craftsmen will be invited to set up booths to display their creations. Final plans will be made at a later date.

and Friend from KLBK providing the music. Admission will be $2.50 per person and $4.50 a couple. Sorry about the price increase, but inflation has taken its toll on dances too. 8th grade through college kids may attend.

One of those hard working teens having to slave outdoors is Karron Hays who is visiting her grandparents in Dublin for the summer. She is employed by the Parks and Recreation Dept. in Stephenville. She plants trees, hoes weeds and POISON IVY and takes home lots of CHIGGERS each day. Stay out of the Poison Ivy Karron!

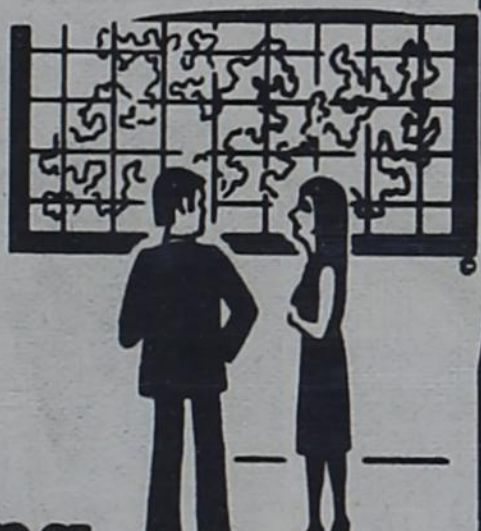

Ran into Chuck and Barry Morris, Karla and Tim, Lana Dunn, Shorty Bilberry and Rex Cash at the lake Sunday afternoon. Barry had a severely blistered nose and Shorty had been a walking accident all day long. Seems as if he was a terror on life jackets and skis Sunday afternoon.

To get you in the mood for the dance Saturday night, there will be a dance at Allison's Reservoir Friday night after the fireworks display to help Mike Babb celebrate this birthday. There will be a charge of $1 per person or $1.50 for couples. Music will be provided by CB&K Company, a new group with the latest in sound. All kinds of music will be provided and everyone is invited.

Hope everyone has a fulfilled and safe July 4th.

PHS class of '44 plans busy reunion

The graduating class of 1944 will hold a class reunion in Post beginning with a visitation for class members Friday night, July 4 at 7:30 p.m. in the bank community room.

Friends, parents and the public is invited to another visitation Saturday afternoon July 5 in the bank room.

A coffee will be held in the home of Mrs. Glen Norman Saturday morning for the 'girls' of the graduating class.

There were 49 members of the class who attended Post High School with 12 of the 49 members starting in the first grade and graduating together. It is hoped that eight of those original 12 will be in attendance for the reunion, and their first grade teacher, Inez Parker of Midland will be here also.

There were only 11 grades in the school when this class graduated and during their high school days, the war was going strong, so following their sophomore year, the class drifted apart with several moving to work in defense plants, so it is hoped that all who attended Post High during this time will stop by to visit.

Other teachers attending the reunion will be the fourth and fifth grade and class members have responded that will attend from California and Tennessee.

The class will conclude its activities with a banquet at Jackson's Cafeteria Saturday night at 7:30 p.m.

Plans for 1955 class reunion

The graduating class of 1955 will hold a class reunion this weekend, July 4-5.

Activities will begin in the park July 4 with visiting all day with class members, friends and acquaintances.

Class members will visit Saturday, July 5 in the Methodist Church Fellowship Hall from 1 to 5 with a banquet in the hall to begin at 7 p.m.

A dance in the community center will conclude the reunion from 9 to 1 with Weldon Reed and the Solid Country providing the music. The public is invited to attend the dance.

Priscilla club has last meeting

The Priscilla Club met for its last meeting of the summer Friday, June 27 in the home of Maudie Smith. Members enjoyed visiting and sewing.

Refreshments were served to one guest, Pearl Polk, and members, Annie Laura Francis, Odee Kemp, Maxine Smith, Faye Mathis, Sybil Cockrum and Pauline Warren.

The first meeting in the fall will be held Friday, September 12 in the home of Gladys Hendrix.

MRS. SONNY LINDSAY
(Ingrid Arhelger)

Arhelger-Lindsay vows in Lubbock

The Westminster Presbyterian Church of Lubbock was the scene of a double ring ceremony on Saturday, June 21, at 7:30 p.m. uniting Ingrid Laura Arhelger and Sonny Lindsay.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Arhelger of Lubbock. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lindsay of Pecos.

Rev. Keith Sackett of Westminster performed the ceremony before an altar decorated with a large arrangement of yellow flowers and baby's breath and two seven place candelabras with greenery.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, wore a white gown with cascading lace that formed a cathedral-length train. The matching headpiece, chapel-length veil and fitted bodice were scattered with seed pearls. She wore a string of pearls given to her by her grandmother. The bride carried a cascade of yellow roses, tiny white mums and baby's breath.

The bride presented her mother with a long stemmed yellow rose before the vows were made. After the vows, she presented the groom's mother with the same.

Mrs. Marsha Hart of Post, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Joni Lindsay of Pecos, sister of the groom, Sheryl McKay, Pauline Musil and Lisa Hensley, all of Lubbock.

The attendants wore yellow floor-length gowns fashioned with three tiered skirts. They carried bouquets of baby's breath and yellow silk flowers and wore baby's breath in their hair.

The flower girl, Shannon Treat of Odessa, niece of the groom, wore a yellow floor-length dress and carried a white basket with yellow streamers. She also wore baby's breath in her hair.

The groom wore a white tuxedo with tails. His groomsmen wore white tuxedos with yellow shirts. Ron Coody of Pecos served as best man and the groomsmen were Jeff Lindsay of Lubbock, brother of the groom, Billy Wayne Stroud of Pecos, Tom Passmore and David Hess of Midland.

Chad Hart of Post, nephew of the bride, carried the rings on a yellow satin and lace heart-shaped pillow. He wore a navy suit.

Ushers were John Lindsay of San Angelo, brother of the groom, Jay Treat of Odessa, David Hart of Post, Jim Lovelace of Lubbock, Jerry Moore of Pecos and Mike Pruitt of Midland.

Traditional wedding music was played on the organ by Don Smith of Lubbock. He accompanied Suzy King of Lubbock who sang "You Needed Me", "This Is The Day The Lord Has Made", and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception was held in the church parlor with Betsy LaRoe of Lubbock registering the guests.

The bride's table was covered with a full-skirted white chiffon and lace cloth. Silver and crystal appointments were used. Centering the table was a three tiered cake over a lighted flowing fountain with flower laden staircases descending into four other cakes. Coffee, punch, mints and nuts were also served.

The groom's table was centered with an arrangement of yellow mums and brass appointments were used. A three tiered chocolate cake decorated with yellow roses was served with coffee.

Serving in the houseparty were Mary Sue Stiles, Lori McClure, Shelley Trice, Kelly Woolam, Malinda Milam, Susan Harriger and Janet Mitchell, all of Lubbock.

After a wedding trip to Dallas, the couple plan to make their home in Lubbock. The bride is a 1979 graduate of Monterey High School in Lubbock and attends Texas Tech. The groom is a 1973 graduate of Pecos High School and attended South Plains Junior College at Levelland. He is presently employed as a driver for Farm Pac in Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lindsay hosted a rehearsal dinner Friday, June 20, at the Gridiron Restaurant in Lubbock. Saturday morning, June 21, a bridesmaid's brunch was held in the home of the bride's parents.

MRS. SCOTT BROOKS &
MRS. MICHAEL VANCE

INVITATION EXTENDED

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Williams of Post invite their friends to the wedding of their son, David McBride, to Diane Klein on Saturday, July 5, at 4 p. m. in St. Matthews Methodist Church in Lubbock. A reception will follow in the church dining room.

Trail Blazers in cool inside picnic

The Garza Trail Blazers, who normally hold a monthly luncheon, decided to "beat the heat" in June and held an evening indoor picnic at the Algerita Senior Citizens Center Friday evening.

Approximately 70 attended the picnic and evening musicale which followed.

Shower for Tammy Reece

A bridal shower honoring Tammy Reece, bride elect of Kelly Mason was held Tuesday, June 24 from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Larry Willard.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Willard, and registered by Melinda Tatum. Also in the receiving line were the honoree, her sister Belinda Reece, her mother, Sue Reece, her grandmother Vesta Reece of Galveston, Kelly's mother, Helan Mason, his grandmothers, Opal Williams and Willie Mason.

The serving table was covered with a candlelight lace table cloth featuring a centerpiece of a basket arrangement of apricot and beige silk flowers. Brass candle holders with candlelight candles accented the table as did a streamer of apricot with gold writing spelling out Kelly and Tammy.

Serving at the table were Meg Reed and Susan Sawyers.

Approximately 75 guests called during the evening.

Hostesses for the event were Mrs. Willard, Patsy Craig, Betty Looney, Virginia Babb, Mozelle Rogers, Loveta Josey, Lometa Epley, Lavita Norman, Lan-

The picnic table was loaded with cured ham sandwiches, plus pimento cheese and other type sandwiches on rye, whole wheat and white bread. There also was a variety of salads, home-made ice cream and cake.

Nancy Flanigan entertained for the first hour with piano selections. Jewel Rogers sang several numbers.

An interesting short film, "How to Pep Up Your Life", aimed at senior citizens was shown following the meal. Prepared in cooperation with the President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports, the film showed "the good life" as traveling, sightseeing, gardening, coaching little league baseball, sewing needlepoint, as well as physical well being.

Following the film a group of musicians entertained with a three-hour musicale with violins, guitars, drums, piano and accordion. The group included Ira Farmer, Aubrey Ritchie, Max Chaffin, Durwood Bartlett, Danny Shaw, Ted Brannon, Dub Ryan, Bea Dodson, Carmen Brannon, Esker Stone, Bill Bartlett, Ruth Head, Mildred Stewart, and Jewel Rogers.

The Rev. F. W. Rogers gave the invocation and Jewel Rogers led the singing.

celle Clary, Hope Robinson, Imogene Stone, Rene Fluitt, Kathy Fluitt, Johnnie Norman, Jennie Cowdrey, Oneita Gunn, Nell Windham, Tina Rogers, Marie Davis, Joy Pool and Kay Lamb. Hostess gift was a vacuum cleaner.

Post girl wed in double ceremony

Connie Marie Halford and Michael Wallace Vance pledge wedding vows Saturday, June 21 in a double wedding ceremony in Kingman, Arizona with Victoria Gail Vance, sister of the groom, and Scott Brooks also repeating vows.

The ceremony was performed by Pastor Brown of the First Baptist Church of Kingman, in the flower garden of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Vance of Kingman.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Halford of Post and Mr. and Mrs.

Wallace Vance of Kingman, are the parents of the groom.

Presented in marriage by her father, Connie wore a gown of white crepe featuring a lace cape and carried a bouquet of blue and white carnations and wore a halo of matching flowers around her head. Carrying out the tradition of something old, new, borrowed and blue, she also had a penny in her shoe for good luck.

A sister and brother-in-law of Michael and Victoria served as attendants for both couples.

A reception followed the ceremony in the flower garden with the tables laid with white cloths with a cake for each couple. Following the reception, a barbecue was held for approximately 100 guests.

Michael and Connie are now residing in Post with the other couple residing in Flagstaff, Ariz.

The Class of '44

Is having a reunion Saturday, July 5, 1 to 5 pm, in the bank community room.

Friends are invited to come by and visit. You won't want to miss this. There will be coffee and possibly pictures of grandchildren.

TAHOKA — The Tahoka school board has approved a 1980-81 budget of $1,501,966 and a tax increase appears assured. The budget total is up nine percent from this year's $1,300,000 figure.

FINDS $10,000
CROSBYTON — Yolanda Guzman, an Allsup employe, found $10,000 in a roll of bills on the store floor recently and ran out onto the parking lot to flag down a customer she didn't know to return his money as he was driving away. She was tipped $20 for her honesty.

RUNNING GUN BATTLE
SEAGRAVES — Shades of the old west! There was a running gun battle here the other day. But instead of riding horses, the participants — two Spanish American families — drove cars. Some six shots were fired, nobody was hit, and four persons wound up in jail on a total bond of $65,000.

POST GOLFER WINS
SPUR — Barbara Hardin of Post teamed up with Sandy Duboise of Spur to win the championship flight

Swim party on birthday

Kenda Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Williams, was honored on her eighth birthday with a swimming party at the city-county pool Saturday, June 28.

Attending were her parents, brother and sister, Greg and Rhonda, grandparents, Gene and Elberta Martin and grandfather, Charley Williams and Charles, Ruby and Channa Williams, Marvin and Ruth Williams, Mary Ann Cooper of Lubbock, Danny, Vicky and Vanesa Williams of Snyder, Pam and Kerri Rios, Angela, Stephen and Pamela Bilbo of Palestine, Delton, Ruthell, Mart and Buffy Robinson of Allen, Barney and Ruth Martin, Onieta and Mike Anthony, Kay, Shane and Penny Haworth, Jan and Jay Rudd, Joe and Theresa Lofton, Lonnie Gene, Kraig, Kayla and Keith Peel, Barbara and Betsy Ethridge, Debbie and Shal Sneed, Lesley Davis, Susie Hubble, Bubba and Chris Ashworth, Keith and Susan Bullard, Billy Martinez, Gary Lamb and Tim Tatum.

Others who came but did not swim were Mary Nell, Marta and Matt Holly and Jack, Paulene, Curtis and Scotty Clinesmith.

of the third annual Spur Ladies Invitational golf tournament. The team shot an even par 72.

JAWS OF LIFE
TAHOKA — The Tahoka fire department has its new "jaws of life" all ready to pry victims from wrecked motor cars. Donations raised $6,550 to purchase the equipment. In emergencies, the firemen will even go into adjacent counties to release crash victims from twisted wreckage.

"DO YOU HAVE A TEN DAD? I NEED A BOOKMARK."

Two from Post receive degrees

Two Post students were among more than 900 West Texas State University students receiving degrees during the recent spring graduation. They are Carla A. Goodrich, an economics major, who received a bachelor of science degree, and Andrea H. Thomas, an elementary education major who received a bachelor of science degree.

Two Garzans win advanced degrees

Two Garza students have received degrees among the 1,151 awarded at North Texas State University at spring commencement.

They were Jerry Jack Roberts, a 1960 Southland high graduate, and Sara Ann Collier, a 1963 PHS grad. Roberts received a doctor of philosophy degree in vocational-technical education and Mrs. Collier was awarded the master of education degree in elementary school supervision.

"When in the Course of Human Events..."

The Declaration of Independence changed the course of a nation and marked the birth of a democracy. As we observe this Independence Day, let's proudly pledge anew to preserve our great heritage . . . and thankfully, celebrate our cherished freedom. Happy 4th, America!

Pork, fryers on 'best buy' list

COLLEGE STATION — Heavy supplies of pork, broiler-fryers, turkey, eggs, milk, other dairy products and limes will be "best buy" items for the next few weeks, according to Dr. Carol Akkerman Sain, a consumer information specialist.

Dr. Sain, on the home economics staff of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A & M University System, says other plentiful items will be peanuts, potatoes, dry beans, raisins and dried prunes.

Turkey may be the star budget item for a week or so due to those heavy supplies, and the "most bird for the money" is the larger size.

New-harvest fruits in abundant supply are sweet cherries, peaches, nectarines and plums. Shop around for fruit that is ripe — with economical prices.

From Mexico, expect to see bananas, pineapple, cantaloupes and watermelons.

Apples and oranges are in good supply, and they make excellent snacks or picnic fare, the specialist adds.

Top-quality economical vegetables include asparagus, broccoli, cabbage, carrots, cauliflower and spinach.

Also, squash, tomatoes, rutabagas, mushrooms and green onions.

Look for features on salad foods soon — celery, cucumbers, iceberg lettuce, radishes.

HONORED ON RETIREMENT — Mrs. Agnes Welch, 301 S. Ave. F, retired June 28 from Postex Plant here after nearly 24 years of service. Mrs. Welch has been a spinner and quality control technician as well as frequency checker in the industrial engineering department, the position she has held for the last eight years. A farewell brunch was held in the plant's conference room and Mrs. Welch was presented with a money corsage by her co-workers. She is pictured above with Jim Brown, plant industrial engineer, left, and Don Smith, plant manager.

47 to die on roads July 4th

The Texas Department of Public Safety will conduct "Operation Motorcade" for the 1980, 4th of July. It will begin 6 p.m. July 3rd and end midnight July 6th, 1980.

The most tragic part of a National Holiday, such as the 4th of July, is the wasteful loss of human life upon U.S. highways. The Department of Public Safety predicts 47 persons will die in fatal traffic accidents during this period in Texas.

The two most dangerous things the driver can do is speed and drink. Each driver should be aware of both the condition of the road and vehicle as well as his personal condition before he gets behind the wheel. Drive as if your life depends on it — because it does!

The Texas Department of Public Safety urges each and every driver to do his part this holiday period by "Driving Friendly" and practicing defensive driving to stay alive.

There is more iron in three large eggs than in three ounces of tuna.

All-Star squad is named by Little League

Sportsmanship awards given

The Dodgers were honored as the 1980 Post Little League champions last Thursday night at the league's awards ceremony, sportsmanship awards were presented, and the league's all-star team which will participate in post-season play was announced.

Sportsmanship award winners, one from each of the league's six teams, were Mark Valdez, Dodgers; Rodney Tidwell, Tigers; Theodore Paiz of the Yankees, Keith Craig of the Cardinals, Dustin Ammons of the Red Sox, and Jesus Martinez of the A's.

The Dodgers and the Yankees, third place finishers, dominated the 14-player all-star squad with four players each. Every team had at least one representative.

The all-star squad includes:

Tracy Price of the A's, Danny Foster of the Tigers, Clifford Redman, Tommy Basquez, and Lupe Perez of the Dodgers, Theodore Paiz of the Yankees, Keith Craig of the Cardinals, Marvin Lee of the Red Sox, Rodney Guthrie of the Dodgers, Gregory Adams of the Yankees, Willie Osby of the A's, Gregory Storie and Sammy Bocanegra of the Yankees, and Keith Tidwell of the Tigers.

The two alternates are Mark Valdez of the Dodgers and Bobby Redman of the Tigers.

John Valdez of the Dodgers will manage the all-stars and Don Eilenberger, who guided the Tigers, will serve as coach.

During the awards ceremonies, certificates were presented to all players on each league team.

In the fund drive, the champion Dodgers were the top team and the runnerup Tigers were the losing team. Top salesman was Eric Reece of the A's with second top salesman being Mark Valdez of the Dodgers.

Little League officers for the year are David Perez, president; Yvonne Hill, vice president; Dedra Adams, secretary-treasurer; and Archie Gill, player agent.

Minor league officers are Roy Sappington, president; Ray Bagby and Rex Prather, vice presidents; and Margie Pennell, secretary.

League scorekeepers, who also were thanked, include Claudette Gill, Yvonne Hill and Cindy Johnson.

There was even a pie throwing contest on the program with Dodger Manager Valdez getting the opportunity to throw a pie at Tiger manager Eilenberger.

The awards presentation followed the final playoff game in which the Yankees defeated the Red Sox. The loss dropped the Sox into a tie for the cellar with the A's at 4 wins and 11 losses each. The Yankees finished third with a nine-six record, two games back of the runnerup Tigers.

The Yankees won the final game of the season 21 to 6 over the Red Sox as they scored in every inning and took command early.

In Post's Minor League—

Colts and Mets are co-champs

The Colts and Mets tied for the Minor League baseball title and each was given a championship trophy.

The whole thing developed into quite a hassle because the Mets were involved in three tie games during the season and no provision had been made in advance on what to do with tie games.

At first it was decided to count the ties as half wins and half losses as they do in professional hockey. That would have given the Colts the title.

Then it was ruled that the games had to be played off. The Mets lost to the Texans 14 to 11 Saturday night in the only game played off. The Rangers' and Dodgers' managers refused to play off the games after the end of the season and forfeited. That pushed the Mets up into a tie with the Colts for the crown with 8 wins and two losses each.

The Astros were awarded the sportsmanship award.

In the league's two final regular season games last Thursday, the Astros defeated the Texans 8 to 6, and the Dodgers and Rangers were tied 7-7 when darkness halted play. That one wasn't played off.

Post team wins 5 track medals

Seven Post youngsters brought home five medals from their participation in the regional AAU track meet at Borger Saturday.

Ben Kirkpatrick was the big winner with three of them.

Competing in the boys' bantam division, Ben won first in the long jump with a leap of 12 feet, 7½ inches. He also placed third in the 100 meters in 14.7 seconds and third in the 50 yard dash in 7.0 seconds.

Derrick Dunn also won a medal by placing third in the long jump in the midget division with a leap of 14 feet. Dunn also competed in the 100 meters and 50 yard dash.

Mike Ollison won the other medal with a third in the 100 meters in boys' junior division competition in 13.2 seconds. Mike also was fourth in the long jump in 14 feet, 4½ inches and fifth in the 200 meters in 27.6.

Tumblers place in nationals

Keith Hart and Jeff Lamb both made very good showings at the National United States Acrogymnastics Federation in Quincy, Ill., June 20, 21 and 22. This was the first group to go to the nationals from Post.

Keith won fifth place in the 11-12 tumbling, Jeff won seventh place in boys 13-14 year tumbling. Danny Grace of Lubbock who also participated with the Post Jumping Jacks and won at the state level, did not place.

Coach Jackie Arnwine and his wife Donna, Marianne Hart and Kay Lamb attended with the boys. They flew Texas International to St. Louis, Mo. and because of bad connections on the airlines, the group went the rest of the way in rent-a-cars. They arrived at 4:30 p.m. and Keith was scheduled to perform about 9:30 that same night. Jeff competed at 8:30 the next morning.

The group enjoyed a tour of the city. It was "Pork Day" in Quincy, and they enjoyed the city's festival. They also took a cruise on the Mississippi.

2 Post clubs bow out early

Post's two entries in the Lubbock Invitational Little League tournament were eliminated Saturday in first round action.

The Reds Northwest No. 2 team of Lubbock defeated the Dodgers, Post Little League champs, 14 to 8, and Lubbock Astros bounced the Post Tigers, runners-up here, 8 to 1.

Catcher Lupe Valdez led the Dodgers with four straight singles and scored twice. Tommy Basquez and Mark Valdez had two hits apiece in the loss.

Third sacker Keith Hart rapped two doubles for the Tigers and drove in the only Tiger run when he socked his second two-bagger to drive home Pitcher George Benton who had walked.

Cage awards to frosh girls

Post High School freshman girls attended basketball camp at Wayland Baptist College recently and came home with several awards.

Rhonda Storie, Carol Holman, Kim Carlisle, Cindee Jackson, Denise Smith, Michelle Hill and Dana Dudley attended the first week and Cindee attended the second week also.

There were approximately 140 girls in each session of the camp, and Cindee Jackson was voted as Most Congenial during the second session, an honor she was very proud to receive.

Awards presented included, first session: Rhonda Storie, "Most Improved Defensive Player"; Denise Smith, "Best Set Shot" and All Star Team; Cindee Jackson, "Most Improved Overall"; "Best Passer", and All Star Team.

Cindee also was presented the "Best Jump Shot", "Best Passer", "Best Playmaker", "Best Set Shot" and was also winner of the talent show held during second session.

BR all-stars split pair

Post's 13-year-old Babe Ruth All-Stars won their opener in the area tournament at Brownfield Monday night, but took their first loss Tuesday night when they were hammered 21 to 5 by Lamesa.

Post scored an 18 to 6 win over Brownfield Monday night as they made the most of their scoring opportunities and their five hits.

The opportunities included 14 walks.

Javier Valdez with two doubles in three trips led the Post offense Monday night. Cleanup hitter Paul Perez also had a triple for the other extra base blow.

Shortstop Curt Greer and Pitcher Greg Massey contributed singles.

Massey limited Brownfield to two hits and coasted in after his mates scored seven times in the first inning.

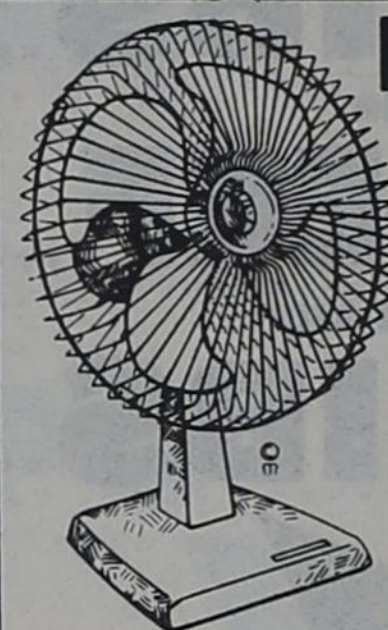

Just about everybody got a chance to pitch Tuesday night as Lamesa poured 14 runs across the plate in the first inning to ice the game early.

Post managed seven hits in this one with Danny Storie, Perez, and Greer getting two hits each, all of them singles. Massey got the seventh, a double, for the only extra base blow of the game for Post.

The Post team with its loss moved into the losers' bracket of the double elimination event.

Two Garza 4-Hers home after week in Washington

Lance Dunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Dunn, and Benny Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jackson, returned home Tuesday, June 24 following a week-experience in citizenship and leadership training at the National 4-H Center in Washington D.C.

Lance and Benny were two of 61 4-H members from Texas and nine other states participating in the "Citizenship-Washington Focus." The program is designed to help young people understand the structure and function of our system of government, the heritage of our country's development and prepare plans for active citizen involvement when they returned home.

Using the nation's capitol as a classroom, the program included a day on Capitol Hill to meet with members of Congress and see government in action. They toured the Capitol building and sat in on the Senate, visited the Library of Congress and had a visit with Congressman Stenholm.

Field trips to historical and cultural sites as well as to federal agencies and community organizations were among the most informative and exciting parts of the week and included visits to the FBI building, Bureau of Engraving and Printing and also the Department of Health and Human Services.

In workshop sessions at the National 4-H Center, young people discussed contemporary issues and concerns, and ways in which skills and knowledge gained during the week could be applied to the 4-H program here. Part of the workshop sessions dealt with speaking in front of large groups of people and sharing their ideals about citizenship among other things. "Citizenship-Washington Focus" is conducted by National 4-H Councils in behalf of the Cooperation Extension Service of the state Land-Grant Universities and the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Seeking 40,000 signatures needed by July 4 to put his name on the Texas presidential ballot, Illinois Congressman John Anderson brought his independent presidential campaign to Austin last week.

Anderson supporters in this state say he is going to make the deadline and is gaining support. Following the gathering of the signatures, Anderson is sure to face a tough fight validating them. Attorney General Mark White and Texas Secretary of State George Strake have issued conflicting rulings regarding who is eligible to sign the petition.

During his speech Thursday, Anderson blasted both opponents, President Jimmy Carter and Ronald Reagan, and outlined his energy solutions—under blue skies and 100 degrees heat.

—He would levy a 50 cent per gallon tax on gasoline, and give half the revenues to cut Social Security taxes.

—He would delay building nuclear power plants until their operation and waste disposal systems are proven safe.

—He would stress conservation and development of alternate energies, especially solar power.

Governors Confer

Governor Bill Clements addressed the opening session of the ten-member Governors Border Conference in El Paso, and told statehouse heads from Mexico and New Mexico, Arizona and California that illegal aliens should be registered and, in effect, legalized.

Emphasizing he is opposed to the harsh bracero program of the 1940s, Clements said he nevertheless supports a program to allow Mexican nationals to enter and work in the U.S.

Clements said he had the backing of the three other U.S. governors involved, but former radical Tom Hayden, representing California's Gov. Jerry Brown, said the others were opposed to Clements' proposals and had been for a year. The Arizona governor was unavailable for comment; the New Mexico governor was uncommittal on Clements plan.

Lewis, Bryant

The race for speaker of the Texas House of Representatives took a few turns around the track during the recent Republican and Democratic party conventions.

Fort Worth Rep. Gib Lewis, a Democrat, visited the Republican convention, apparently seeking pledges, and took some mild raps from movers and shakers in his own party.

Dallas Rep. John Bryant, Lewis' main opponent, failed to rally the Democrats behind his candidacy, but aired a half-hour television advertisement in some parts of the state to take his bid "to the people."

Higher College Tuition?

As January and the next legislative session approach, more and more issues are floated out like weather balloons to see which way the wind is blowing.

Last week a special committee on higher education finance recommended that tuitions be doubled for undergraduate and graduate students, with even larger increases for medical and dental school students.

Galveston State Sen. A. R. Schwartz responded the next day that backers of the tuition hike can count on a stiff fight from him.

Schwartz said the hike reflects the prevailing Texas philosophy: "tax anybody

Historical group is given reports

The Garza County historical Commission met at the bank community room, Tuesday, June 24 to hear reports from Verna Ann Wheeler, Reba Brown and Kelvin Myers, all of Crosbyton, on the plan of work for 1980-81 for the commission.

Meyers also spoke on inventorying the cemetery and Reba Brown showed slides of the 21 cemeteries that they had inventoried in Crosby County.

This meeting takes the place of the regular July meeting for the local commission, with the next meeting to be held Aug. 5.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bouchier, Lottie Shelton, Ruby Kirkpatrick, Gwen Boren, Chief Runkles, Mrs. Dunn of Southland and Maxine Marks.

Maternal grandparents are John and Naomi Matsler of Plainview, and paternal grandmother is Mrs. Charlene Sears of Jacksboro, Tx. and a great grandmother also of Jacksboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Jarge Arrendondo announce the birth of a baby boy, Jarge Luis, Jr. born June 28, at 11:17 a.m. in Garza Memorial Hospital. He weighed 8 lbs. 14 ozs.

Press Shield Law

The House Judiciary Committee last week recommended new protections for press freedom in Texas:

—Adoption of a shield law giving reporters the right to protect the identity of news sources.

—Courtroom access for television cameras and tape recorders in certain proceedings.

—Attorneys fees for persons who successfully enforce open meetings and open records laws.

The Governor

Clements' impatience with the slowness in reducing the number of state employees, one of his key campaign promises two years ago, was manifested last week. Agency heads were notified to increase their efforts to reduce their staffs.

Clements will head up the Texas presidential campaign for Reagan, who plans to spend some $2 million stumping in this state.

Also on the third floor is a work room and coffee bar.

New furniture has been installed in the court's new meeting rooms as well, including new tables and comfortable, new stuffed swivel chairs.

The upgrading of the court's meeting place has been years overdue.

No overall bids were taken on the remodeling, but work was ordered by the court over a period of several weeks.

All that is needed now is an elevator to get to second and third floor offices and meeting rooms. Right now there are no plans for that.

The court is scheduled to hold its first session in its new meeting room Monday. It didn't hold a second meeting in June which gave time for the conversion.

Business looks good for women graduates

COLLEGE STATION — Demand for women business graduates is higher than ever and many companies are actively recruiting females for executive positions, says Texas A&M University's dean of business administration.

One result, says Dr. William Muse, is a dramatic increase in the number of females enrolled in business courses. This new trend presents problems for university administrators trying to keep up with growing enrollments.

Stage decorations featured a folding lattice backdrop and yellow flowers and the slogan draped over the drop. These were furnished compliments of Twin Fashions, Jae's and the Prairie Flower Shop. The grass used was furnished by Hudman's and Mason Funeral homes.

Refreshments were coordinated by Sue Maxey and Orabeth White and furnished by 4-H families, the music was furnished by Sharlot Sparlin and photographs were taken by Arnold Sanderson and Lil Conner. Dolores Dunn was Fashion Revue Chairwoman.

Blue Ribbon winners other than the district representatives were Division I, Trevah Bush, Angela Graves, Michelle McGehee and in Division II, Krishna Mason.

Other participants winning Red ribbons were Tanya Basinger, Lisa Brown, Traci Bush, Debbie Ethridge, Kristi Haire, Sheila Haire, Korri Payton, Susan Sanders, LaDonna Scott, Lisa Shults, Miranda Shults, Teresa Shults, Renee and Roseann Smith. These girls participated in the Junior I division.

Winning red ribbons in the Junior II division were Janis Greathouse and Kim Scott.

Also modeling, but not in competition was LaBeth Jones, sister of one of the winners. She modeled a garment made by her sister, identical to the winning garment she had made.

Adult leaders working with the girls were Shirley Bland and Betty Striblin of the Shamrock 4-H club; Dolores Dunn, Barbara Ethridge, Ruby Jones and Patsy Sanderson, Close City club; Sue Maxey and Orabeth White of the Graham 4-H club.

Two weeks before we'd headed west to visit our other daughter, Susan, son-in-law Paul Shaffer, and to get acquainted with our newest granddaughter, two-month-old Amanda. She is a real cutie. In contrast they live in a valley village up in the mountains where one sleeps under a light blanket at night and doesn't have to worry about air-conditioning and $200 monthly electric bills as they do in Houston.

And as far as the heat goes, it's a lot better now with the temperature over 100 and dry than it was the week before it all started when the temp was in the high 90s and it was so muggy the coolers were just about worthless.

We had a nice little run down to Houston last weekend to see our daughter, Chris, son-in-law Walt Koerselman and our first two granddaughters, Andrea and Lara, and managed to take in a couple of Astro games in the air-conditioned dome with Cincinnati. It's unbelievable really but the Astros, now their leading the NL's western division, have already drawn over a million fans at home.

They'd had only one heat death in Houston up to the time we left in muggy 102 degree weather. Folks down there have to stay air conditioned to stay alive. We did read that a real drought is predicted for that rainy, steamy city and they haven't had much rain to date in 1980.

Starting it off at 12:30 p.m. for an hour will be Raymie and Mike Holly with an unannounced pair of singers. Tommy Reed, Pat Reidel and Steve Shedd will play from 2 to 3 p.m., with Tommy Reed, Mark Short, David Foster, Barry Tyler and Pat Mitchell following from 3:15 to 4:15 p.m.

From 4:30 to 5:30 Danny Shaw, Dr. Rodriguez, Dwight Funk and Charles Kirkland will take over the bandstand. After the barbecue, beginning at 6:30, the musical group will include Bill and Durwood Bartlett, Mildred Stewart, Esker Stone, Aubrie Ritchie, Ted and Carmen Brannon, and Ira Farmer.

Bobby Cowdry, Morris Tyler and Noel White will perform from 7:45 to 8:45 p.m. Winding up the big musical program will be a 9 to 10 p.m. appearance of the Sisters in Song — Marita Jackson, Lee Ann Hodges, Kay Lamb and Sharla Wells.

Topping off the whole celebration will be an hour-long display of aerial fireworks beginning at Distance and accuracy will be measured.

The beef barbecue will be served for 90 minutes, beginning at 5:30 p.m., for $2 per plate. Bob West heads a big volunteer group of barbecue cooks who will prepare the meat over wood fires in the park.

Between 1,000, and 1,200 people are expected to eat together.

Noel White has lined up eight and one-half hours of almost continuous music, from 12:30 p.m. to 10 p.m. with an hour off to eat the evening barbecue.

Seven groups will be featured.

Donors through Tuesday to help finance the big community holiday celebration included Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Surman, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Computer skills are often required for today's careers

COLLEGE STATION — America's Renaissance Man will have to be as knowledgeable in computer language as his predecessors were in Latin and Greek, says Texas A&M business professor Winston Shearon.

Many college students today recognize they need some computer skills just to enter the job market, he said.

Hot days good for reading

Hot weather appears to at least be good for one thing — summer reading.

Post Librarian Pee Wee Pierce reported yesterday that for the first time in 1980, over a thousand books were checked out of the library in a single month during June.

Both adults and youngsters appeared to do quite a bit of reading as 627 adult books and 386 juvenile books were checked out.

The 1,013 books checked out in June brought the 1980 total for the first half year to 4,869 books.

Twenty-nine new books were added to library shelves during the month and five interlibrary loan books received for local patrons, the library report indicated.

The library's film projector was checked out five times and 14 films shown to 107 persons during the month. Seventeen films also were shown in the library to 41 in attendance.

Fines, books sales, etc. for the month totaled $23.41.

Bills must be itemized

Many people in this area wait longer than necessary to receive payment from their Medicare medical insurance because they failed to submit itemized bills with their request for payment form, Jim Latimer, Social Security Representative in Lubbock, said recently.

Medical insurance is the part of Medicare that helps pay for doctor bills, outpatient hospital bills and other items and services not covered by hospital insurance.

To receive payment under medical insurance, a person generally submits a request for payment form and the doctor or other supplier completes part of the form or provides an itemized bill to send with the form.
