

Happy Rex Prather wins OS steer roping

There's not been another finish in the 10 years of the "OS weekend" quite like the one late Sunday afternoon in the steer roping arena.

When Rex Prather, 35, youngest of the three Prather brothers who works on the OS for brother Jim and lives in Post, roped and tied his fourth and final steer to win the OS Steer Roping and $12,000, the 4,000 and-some spectators raised such a din you could hear it clear over on US-84, quite a few miles away.

In winning, Rex beat the 1980 world champion, Guy Allen of Santa Anna, by just 2.69 seconds.

Allen, who was runnerup and won $9,000 for the afternoon, finished with a total time of 76.63 seconds for his four steers as compared to 73.94 seconds for Rex.

Prather's comment on the steer roping: "It was the best roping we've ever had."

Commented a friend, "Rex was like a little boy on Christmas morning after that fourth steer."

Prather won the first go around ($2,000) by roping, tripping, and tying his steer in 16.88 seconds. He picked up $10,000 in winning the four-round average.

Allen got $7,500 for runnerup in the average and placed third in the second go round for $1,000 and fourth in the fourth for another $500.

Prather not only won $12,000 but also a hand-crafted saddle from Bill Price's Western Shop in Lubbock, a set of spurs from Johnny Weatherby of Big Lake, and the use of a new 1980 Chevrolet pickup for a year from Larry Corbell's Town and Country Chevrolet of Slaton.

Steve Bland of Trent, Tex., ranking 17th on the 1980 prize money list of professional calf ropers, won the OS calf roping title and $4,000 in jackpot money Saturday afternoon, as well as a championship saddle and a set of spurs.

Bland had a total elapsed time of 43.06 on the three go-rounds to beat out Gary Ledford of Comanche, Okla., the runnerup by .35 of a second and the 1980 professional calf roping leader, Roy Cooper of Durant, Okla., who was .93 of a second behind him in third. Cooper has won $53,199 in PRCA sanctioned calf ropings in 1980 so far.

Cooper did have the fastest time of the day on one calf, winning the short go-round in 10.60 seconds.

One professional rodeo leader did come through in first at the OS Saturday. She was Martha Josey of Karnack, Tex., $34,410 winner on the pro circuit to date. She won the GRA barrel race in 35.46 seconds for twice around the barrels.

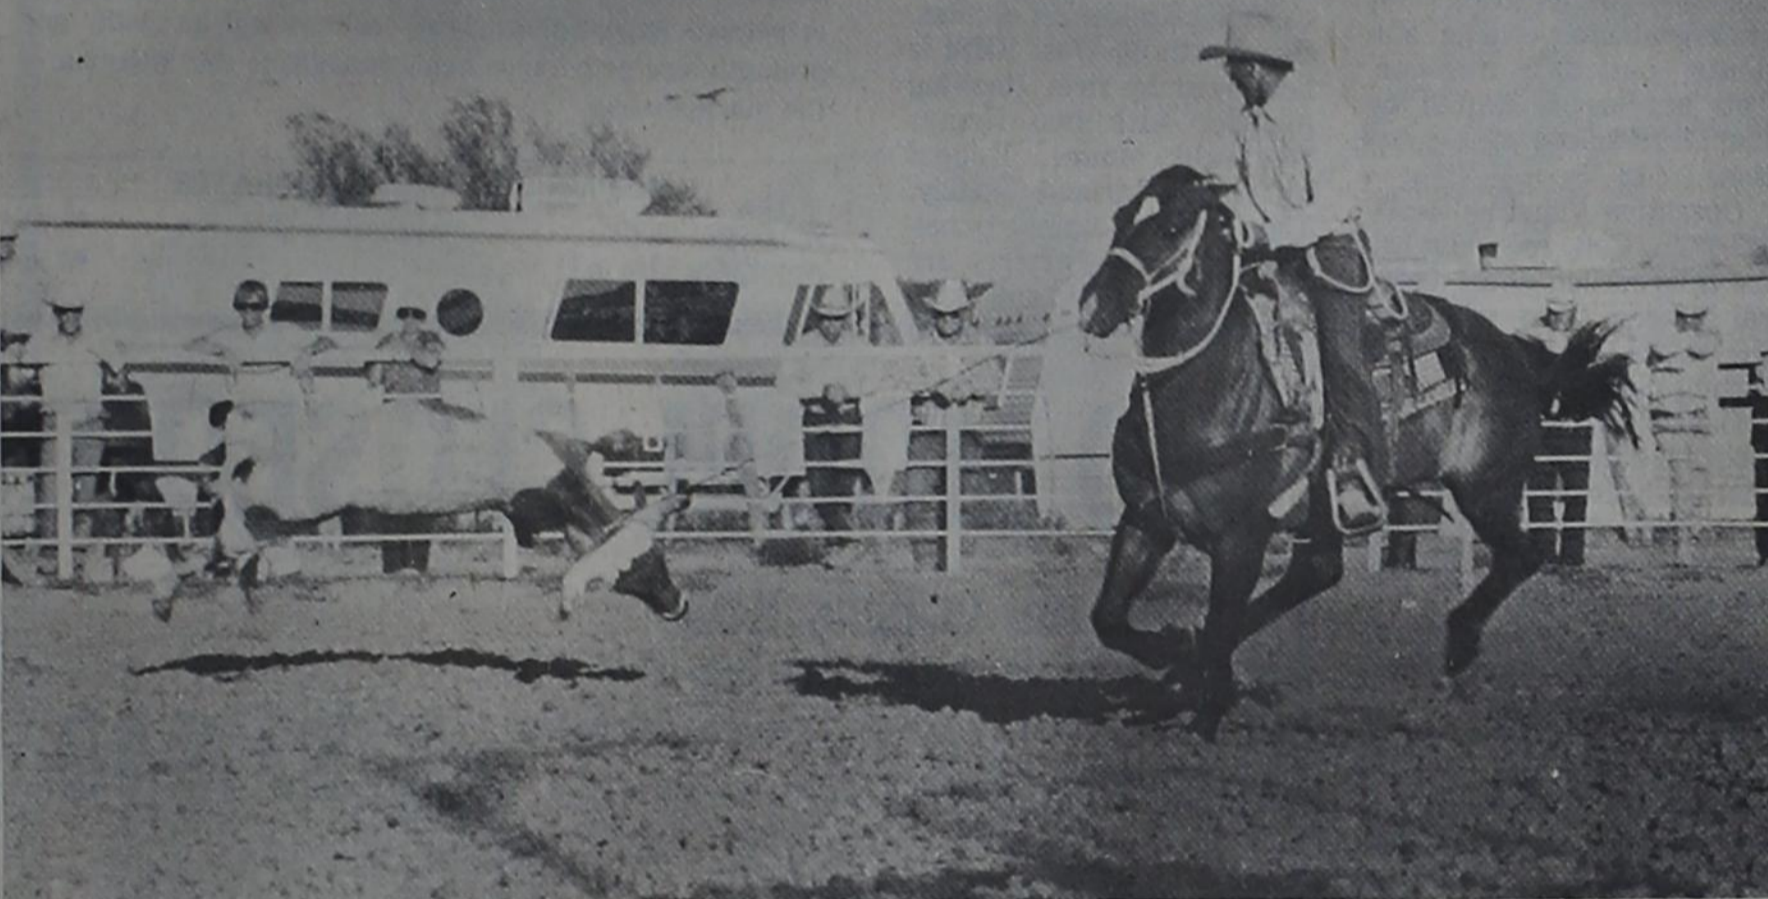

Martha is the wife of Former Garza Countian, R. E. Josey.

Council to take look at 100% federal program

The Post City Council decided Monday night to look into the possibility of filing an application for a small city grant from the federal urban development program.

Barbara Allison of Lubbock, representing the city's engineering firm of Parkhill, Smith and Cooper, appeared before the council to explain the program which has brought large amounts of federal funds to Slaton, Floydada, Spur, and Brownfield.

The program is designed to improve housing and economic development in low income areas. Ms. Allison said, with two types of grants available, either the single purpose grant or the comprehensive program grant which can provide up to a maximum of $2,225,000 for a three-year program.

Ms. Allison pointed out that this is not a matching program. The community making the application must pay the cost of making the application, which could run up to $3,000 for all the necessary surveys involved, but the program is funded 100 percent by the federal agency.

The council decided to (See City Council, Page 14)

School tax rate is cut

The school trustees' public hearing on its tax rate actually drew six citizens in the high school library last Thursday night after the school district published an ad required by the state showing taxes were being increased 26 percent.

It was all a misunderstanding of course.

Board president Jack Lott explained to the six that the state law required the notice even though the actual tax rate for this year was going to be reduced from $1.20 to $1.

He said due to large oil valuation increases the reduced rate would bring in 16

He said due to large oil valuation increases the reduced rate would bring in 26 percent more in total tax dollars. Lott said the state law required such an ad even though it left taxpayers with the belief their taxes are going up.

With this cleared up, trustees then voted 6 to 1 to adopt the $1 tax rate.

Voting no was Trustee Mike Flanigan, who opposes the big operating fund balance the district maintains.

At 'OS weekend'—

Art raises over $48,000

The OS Art Exhibit turned out to be a real money-maker for West Texas Boys Ranch over the weekend with commissions on art sales and two auctions of donated pieces raising $48,618.

Mrs. Frances Camp reported art sales for the weekend totaling $167,590 with approximately $150,000 of this coming during the Friday night pre-venue party attended by an estimated 600 persons who paid $30 at the cattleguard to partici-

At the pre-venue party, an auction was held of a bronze by Jim Hamilton and a Wayne Baize print, donated from the estate of Denver City rancher Sue Stevens, a former director of West Texas Boys Ranch.

Each brought $5,000 with all of this going to boys ranch.

On Saturday night at the dance here in the community center with Red Steagall and his Coleman County Cowboys providing the music, a second auction was held of some smaller pieces donated by the artists.

This second auction raised another $5,100 for the

More than 900 members and guests attended the meetings, largest in the history of the organization.

Judge Dalby had served as first vice president and secretary-treasurer of the organization during the past year and as second vice president the previous year.

He is believed to be the first West Texan to head this state organization of county officials.

Judge Dalby presently is a member of the executive board of the Texas Association of Counties and served as president of the West Texas County Judges and County Commissioners Association in 1977. He also is a member of various committees of the National Association of Counties.

Other officers named to serve with Judge Dalby are Jefferson County Commissioner Norman Troy, first vice president, and Henderson County Judge Winston Reagan, second vice president.

During the three-day meeting, county judges and commissioners from throughout the state heard discussions of legislation, regulations and other matters affecting the operation of county governments.

The keynote address was delivered by Dallas County (See Dalby, Page 14)

Freedom's secret told

The secret of freedom is to limit government, Mrs. Eddie Chiles told 125 persons in a talk here Tuesday night in the community center under sponsorship of the Eagle Forum.

"It is an accident to be born free," she declared, "but it is no accident to die free" because that requires purposeful work to achieve and maintain freedom.

Mrs. Chiles was introduced by Mrs. Jack Gordon, who also introduced officers and directors of the Eagle Forum. The Forum will sponsor other informative programs in the future, Mrs. Gordon said.

Following Mrs. Chiles' talk, the audience participated in a question and answer session.

Harvest sale is Saturday

The weather-delayed harvest farm equipment sale, sponsored by the Garza County Junior Livestock Association, will be held at the livestock barn northwest of Post on US-84 at 11 a.m. Saturday.

The flea market will begin at 9 a.m. and a luncheon of ham, beans, hot rolls, potato salad, tea or coffee will be served at noon at $2.50 a plate.

Money raised will be applied on the building's mortgage by the association.

Appraisals and bingo

The reader is in for some surprises as we discuss State Constitutional Amendments No. 3 and 4 which will come up for ballot decision in November.

Amendment No. 3 proposes to require a single appraisal and a single board of equalization within each county for ad valorem tax purposes.

This is not nearly as important as it sounds. Most of it is already law to take effect in 1982 if not voluntarily a year earlier.

County wide appraisal districts now are being organized all over Texas with a single appraisal for all local taxing units and a single board of equalization within each county.

Here in Garza County, we already have such a board which has hired two appraisal firms to reappraise all property within the county. This work already has begun in Dallas, but the actual on-the-spot appraising is expected to begin in the county about mid-October.

So, you rightly ask, why the amendment? The only reason actually for the amendment is because the Texas Constitution now requires that the county commissioners court in each county sit as the board of equalization for county property valuations and for all other taxing unit valuations using the county's valuation (in our case the state and the Garza Hospital District).

The law enacted by the last Texas Legislature setting up single taxing districts provided that counties could voluntarily join the single taxing district but didn't have to do so unless this constitutional amendment was passed.

Given the voluntary choice, 215 of the state's 254 counties already have joined the single district. So actually the amendment will effect only 39 counties in Texas.

Consequently, the amendment isn't nearly as important as it sounds and should be adopted by an overwhelming margin. So we will skip the usual number of reasons for and against.

New amendment No. 4 may be the real "sleeper" on the November ballot. It would authorize bingo games in Texas for the first time for charitable purposes on a local option election basis.

What this means is that if the amendment is adopted to legalize bingo games, local option elections just like for beer and liquor must then be held to make them effective in any particular county.

Why you ask have church and veterans organizations conducted bingo games in Garza County if it clearly violates the state law?

The answer to that is simply this community has accepted bingo as a fund raiser that there is no organized outcry against bingo as a lottery which it clearly is and thus illegal.

So what's the hangup on authorizing bingo games, you ask.

Let's enumerate a few. The constitutional amendment will require the legislature to pass a law permitting and regulating bingo games conducted by a church, synagogue, religious society, volunteer fire department, nonprofit veterans organization, fraternal organization, or nonprofit organization supporting medical research or treatment programs. That would limit legal bingo to specific organizations all for charity purposes. Presumably a church could not hold a bingo game to pay the preacher, church utility bills, church construction, etc.

The amendment also would require that the legislature include in its enactment that the games are limited to one location on property owned or leased by the organization; the games be conducted, promoted and administered by members of the organization, and (here's a very catchy point) the organization must report quarterly to the comptroller of public accounts (that's Bob Bullock) about the amount of the proceeds collected from the games and the purposes for which the proceeds are spent.

Here again we see no need to take up a large amount of space on the pros and cons of bingo.

We would predict the amendment will carry easily, unless there is a surprisingly backlash from folks who think to legalize bingo requires too much red tape and it is much more simple just to let bingo continue around Texas in the communities which approve it without so much state red tape. It might be voted down for this very reason, but maybe we're just being over cautious.

"We bought a house a few years back, and it had a heat pump in it. I was very satisfied with it and simply decided to have it put in our new home here. The reason I like the heat pump is because it is efficient, simple and clean. You don't have to fuss with any change over from heating and cooling. I was given projected operating costs of the heat pump in both homes by Southwestern Public Service. And, in every month since I've had the heat pump, my actual monthly operating costs have been considerably lower than the estimated projections. So, consequently I've been very pleased. I would definitely recommend the heat pump to my friends or anyone else because in my opinion, it is a good unit and economical."

Little Known Facts

You can keep baby's stuffed toys from getting too grimy if you clean them with dry cornstarch from time to time. Rub it in, wait a few minutes, then brush it off.

MR. AND MRS. ROY STEVENS

Roy and Ollie to celebrate 50th

Mothers-to-be can look fashionable in a pretty heartprint dress from Mothercare, retailing specialists for mothers-to-be, babies and children under seven. It comes in blue with delicate side ties and button front.

Adhesive bandages come off more easily and less painfully if you first soak a piece of cotton in baby oil and rub it over the tape.

A wide selection of fashionable maternity items is available at all branches of Mothercare, Mother-To-Be and Maternity Modes.

The Mississippi River issues from a two-foot-deep stream in Northwestern Minnesota.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stevens will be honored Sunday afternoon, Oct. 12, with a reception on their Golden Wedding anniversary in the community room at the First National Bank from 2 p.m. to 4.

They have two grandchildren, Steve and E'Les Jones of Levelland.

GOOD PSYCHOLOGY

Helping your children make wise decisions about matters that may affect their future requires communication, but when conflicts bar the way to real two-way conversation, you can help resolve them by inviting your family to join you in a conversation game.

One new game can show you a lot about your child's decision-making processes—and a lot more, too. Called the Ungame, it consists mostly of cards with questions players take turns answering. Your child's answers to questions like: "What is something that makes you angry?" or "How would you define love?" may surprise and delight you and could guide you in directing your youngsters toward a happier future.

Fancy Finale With Frosting

Those lazy days of summer are just about over. But the warm weather will linger awhile. What better way to celebrate the end of the summer than with a special homemade dessert like the frozen Lime Cream Dessert below.

The tart, summery taste of lime makes this a fitting finale for summer. And you won't have to change your lazy-day routine. This recipe is quick and easy to put together with the help of Creamy Deluxe® ready-to-spread frosting. Just scrape the frosting from the tub, add gelatin, whipping cream and lime juice, and freeze in the cookie crust.

LIME CREAM DESSERT

- 1 1/2 cups chocolate wafer crumbs
- 1/4 cup margarine or butter, melted
- 1/2 cup boiling water
- 1 package (3 ounces) lime-flavored gelatin
- 1 tub Creamy Deluxe® vanilla ready-to-spread frosting
- 1 1/2 cups chilled whipping cream
- 1 tablespoon lime juice

Heat oven to 350°. Line ungreased square pan, 8x8x2 inches, with aluminum foil. Mix cookie crumbs and margarine; press firmly in bottom of pan. Bake 10 minutes; cool.

Pour boiling water on gelatin in bowl. Stir until gelatin is dissolved; cool. Mix frosting, whipping cream, gelatin and lime juice in large bowl. Beat until smooth and creamy, about 2 minutes. Pour into pan. Freeze until firm, about 8 hours. Just before serving, lift dessert and foil from pan; place on cutting board. Cut into squares. Garnish each serving with lime twists if desired. Freeze any remaining dessert. 9 servings.

Hints For Homeowners

Home Improvement, Safety And Economy

Keynote For Safety: New Locks For Old Homes

When you buy and move into an older home, there are two good reasons why you should install new locks on the doors. The first is, you don't know who, or how many people, have keys to the doors of that "new" old home of yours. The second—old locks are probably not as burglar-proof as newer locks on the market.

Most homeowners get all keyed up when faced with the task of replacing locks. They think special skills are needed to do the job and often put it off or don't do it at all.

The fact is, special skills aren't half as important as the proper tools.

Lock manufacturers usually provide detailed instructions on how to install their locks. Most even include an easy-to-use pattern for accurately positioning the through-door hole.

Using the right tools can make the job a snap. For example, a Nicholson hole-saw from Cooper the Tool-maker is considered perfect for this type of job. The holesaw fits into a standard drill for making a new hole.

A new lock in an old "New" home can save you money by discouraging would-be burglars. The right tools make doing the job yourself easier.

or a half-round Nicholson file can be used to enlarge an existing hole.

Here are two tips that can help make your job easier and more professional:

Position lock hole about three feet from the floor.

Cut hole carefully so it is square to the surface for smooth locking.

Your hardware store can help you select the locks best suited to your purposes, and may have a few more helpful hints on installation.

New locks, properly installed with the right tools, can be worth their weight in burglary insurance.

TEEN SCENE By Norm

A WHOOPING CONGRATULATIONS to Jimmy Ticer and Jack Rylant for being selected to the All Region Choir. They will perform in the Grand Concert Dec. 6 in Lubbock. Also to Rhonda Rogers and Mark Stark for competing. The four tried out in Lubbock Saturday.

The All School Play has been selected and the cast members named. The play, "You're A Good Man Charlie Brown" has been tentatively set for Nov. 21. Cast members are Charlie Brown, Benny Jackson; Lucy, Lillian Cendalski; Patty, Gail Scott; Snoopy, Jimmy Ticer; Linus, Mark Stark; and Schroeder, Jack Rylant. Sounds very entertaining.

The OS Weekend was another smashing success. Lots of cowboys and cowgirls visiting with local folk. Steve White and Shorty Bilberry, students at A & M brought home three guys with them, Phil Hickman, Randy Jones, and Brent Heilman. Kathy Kirkpatrick had four of her schoolmates from Dallas home with her, Rex Cash and beard were here from West Texas. The concluding story to the weekend was that Dana Babb, Deann Ammons and Laurie Belongia in Dana's little car looked rather strange late Saturday night when they had to guide the BIG BUS of Red Steagalls' to the A. C. Cash home where they were having breakfast.

Speedy Recovery is wished for Barry Morris who is in Lubbock's Methodist Hospital for tests. Hope he gets to come home soon.

Another CONGRATULATIONS goes to Rochelle Smith, former PHS student who recently moved to Odessa. She is now a member of the Permian Marching Band, currently fifth out of 28 drummers and also a member of the Candorie Choir. Auditions are held each week to remain in each and Rochelle is trying hard to reach that first place position.

If you watch the news at all, you may have recognized a Post citizen on Channel 28 last week as he was helping to pump out the wet town of Roscoe. Mike Babb, an employee of Halliburton was in full view of the camera. Another celebrity is born.

Post High will host a practice debate meet next Wednesday with Slaton and Roscoe also in the competition. Post debaters are Byron Robinson, Kirt Robinson, Bobby Smith and Jimmy Ticer. Good luck guys.

Drama Club elections were held recently with the following results: President, Tim Tatum, vice president, Lillian Cendalski, secretary, Karron Hays, treasurer, Judy Morris and party chairman, Jack Rylant and Benny Jackson.

The countdown is under way for homecoming. Signs are being made, halls are being decorated and the mums have been ordered. Football queen candidates are Marinette Hays, Holly Giddens and Julie Davis; Band Sweetheart candidates are Jana Terry, Darla Jackson and Karen Davis; Pep Squad Beau candidates are Alonzo Luna, Benny Kennedy and Drew Kirkpatrick. Congratulations to you all for being nominated. The crowning ceremonies for all three will be held at the pep rally Friday beginning at 3 p.m. in the high school gym.

There will be a homecoming dance in the youth center following the game, beginning approximately at 10 p.m. until 1. Admission charges will be $3 per person and $4.50 a couple. See ya there.

If you want to get in the spirit early, attend the Jr. High pep rally Thursday at 12:40 in the Jr. High gym and go out and support the middle schoolers Thursday night. The pep rallies are held each Thursday at this time and anyone is invited to attend. They have a lot of spirit over there and it is catching!!

Huntley Nursing Home News

The residents of Huntleys gave an old fashioned ice cream party for the employees. Tuesday night at 7:30 p.m. All the ladies were very interested in the ice cream being made by Mr. Huntley. They really were not too sure he knew how to make it. They were eager to give him instructions on how to prepare it and also how to crank it. Many took turns cranking while others sat on it. Nell Mathews, social activity director, prepared butterfinger ice cream and Edwina Pettijohn made strawberry ice cream. Mr. Huntley just stuck to plain vanilla.

Kenneth Cook and daughter Carrie, sang for their ice cream and cookies. The residents and employees joined with Kenneth on many of his songs. Vivian Hall asked Nell where the hot dogs were. Since Nell travels to the pleasure of our residents, she set the date for our next employee-resident event. You guessed it — a picnic with hot dogs.

We want to thank Wynelle Smith for the prints she gave us. There were many and so we each had our choice. We are going to frame them for our rooms.

The residents did a real cute job with their invitations to our party. They were made in the shape of ice cream cones. We have been very busy in our craft program. We were happy to participate in the Arts and Craft Show. We think we did real fine at our booth. Helping Nell was Henrietta Nichols and Bonnie McMahon. We displayed pin cushion boots and high top button shoes. Handmade Christmas decorations included crocheted red and green boots and Christmas tree ornaments. Hot pads were available and dolls. We think probably our yarn octopus was the most popular with the children. It was fun to participate and show what we are doing at our home.

Sept. 29th was fun day for all when everyone was a winner at bingo. Ida Stewart was grand prize winner.

Out thanks to Mrs. Wilma Tatum who gave us our Bible Study Oct. 1. Our continued thanks to Patsy Craig for her Bible study lessons with us.

We want to thank the Pleasant Home Church and Brother Arthur Kelly for our Sunday Devotional. We will be looking forward to having them again.

Esker Stone is a big booster of ours and we send thanks to her again for quilt scraps.

Our thanks to the people who donated fresh okra and peppers. The people in our dietary department certainly know how to prepare all these fresh vegetables that you nice people have brought us.

Welcome to our two new residents, Gladys Wood and Cooney Hartel. We are happy to have them at our home.

Gun charge brings fine

Pablo San Miguel, arrested here Oct. 5, was ordered to pay fine and court costs of $136 and given a year's probation in county court Tuesday on a charge of unlawful possession of a weapon.

Jessie Jay Loper of Post was arrested Oct. 1 on a hold order for the U.S. Navy.

Two Western Texas College students, Steven Matthew Nail, 20, and Robert Crosby Hamrick, 19, were released on $2,500 bail bond on a charge of possession of a controlled substance. They were arrested here Oct. 5 and three pills taken from them are now being analyzed by the DPS laboratory in Lubbock.

Crop Bill Signed
Legislation establishing a new and expanded federal crop insurance program has been signed by the President. A provision extending the disaster program for cotton, wheat, feed grains, and rice through 1981 was added as an amendment to the bill. The amendment was urged by the National Cotton Council.

With the signing of the crop insurance bill, the disaster program will now be available for 1981. The extension of the disaster program will provide greatly needed assistance to farmers in recovering from mounting crop losses due to drought.

Respirator Rule Delayed
The Occupational Safety and Health Administration has decided to stay for 75 days the respirator provisions of the cotton dust standard. Agency head Eula Bingham, explaining the stay, said there is "widespread misunderstanding of how an effective respirator program should work." To correct the situation she said a meeting will be set with representatives of cotton textile workers, their unions, and others to develop guidelines for pro-

The First Christian Church held our Sunday afternoon service with Frank Pickett officiating. Beatrice Dodson played the organ for the service. Our residents really enjoyed the okra that was given to them by Jo Ella Sparlin. Irene Wheeler is very happy with the beautiful personalized Bible given to her by Patsy Craig. Patsy also brought little dove pins for everyone that is in her bible class on Wednesdays.

Laura Mae Bartlett had a birthday Sept. 23. Her daughter-in-law, Bill Bartlett presented her with a birthday party. The resident were served cake and punch. Bill also gave Laura Mae, two pretty gowns.

Frances Mathews and Jo Ella Sparlin representing the VFW Auxiliary women, gave their monthly birthday party. They served cake and punch. They had made a swan for Laura Mae Bartlett. Patsy Craig sent a yellow carnation corsage to Laura Mae for the party. Music was also presented by Mrs. Virgil Stone, playing the accordion, and Mildred Stewart singing. Nora Ferguson, Evelyn Roach, Anna Shelnut, and Irene Wheeler joined in with them by playing a rub-board. The big event came when Toni Britnell persuaded Emma Jones and Juanita Vasquez to dance.

Billy and Loyd Jones beat Hetty and Lee Williams in dominoes. Other domino winners were John Majors, Blanche Graham, and Evelyn Roach.

Rains bring 2nd growth

Recent rains halted High Plains cotton harvesting last week according to Mack Bennett, Area Director for USDA's Marketing Services Office at Lubbock. Most of the heavy rains were recorded in western and southern counties with 12 to 14 inch measurements around Dawson County.

Some harvesting was reported as early as last Thursday in sandy areas, Bennett said. Growers should be able to get back into fields having tighter soils by the middle of this week.

Harder-to-kill second growth generated by recent rains has been reported in most counties served by Lubbock's Marketing Services Office.

About 1,000 samples were graded at Lubbock during the week ended Oct. 2. This brought the season's total to 2,000, according to USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service.

Predominant grades during the week were grade 42 at 50 percent, grade 32 accounted for 22 percent and grade 52 made up 12 percent. About 16 percent of the samples were reduced one grade because of bark.

Staple statistics shows staple 31 was predominate at 39 percent during the week. Staple 30 was 28 percent and staple 32 accounted for 13 percent. Average staple was 30.7, up from 30.4 one week earlier.

Micronaire readings in the base range of 35-49 accounted for 85 percent. Seven percent miked in the 50 to 52 range while 53 and above amounted to six percent. Average mike for the week was 45, up from 44 one week ago.

The New permanent office at Lamesa graded 85 samples during the week ended October 2.

Who goes out of this world for you?

We do... General Telephone. This is one of our earth stations. It beams 18,000 phone calls at a clip to a satellite hovering more than 20,000 miles above the equator. It gathers in the same number of calls, and sends them out over our regular telephone network. It's part of the incredibly complex system that's just about the world's most efficient communications system. And it has reliability built in, whether it's an earth station talking to outer space, or a cute little phone built like Mickey Mouse. Because we realize how important it is to keep you in touch with your world. We spend hundreds of millions of dollars every year, making sure that when you pick up your phone... It works.

We keep you talking.

Lopes ready for Coahoma in homecoming

Wyatt returns at fullback

Sporting a 2-2 seasonal record to date, Coach David Thompson's Post Antelopes hope to get back the winning edge before a big homecoming crowd in Antelope Stadium Friday night when they entertain the Coahoma Bulldogs.

The game will be the final non-district game for the Lopes who will open district play next Friday night at Tahoka.

Coach Thompson told The Dispatch Tuesday afternoon: "I think we're ready to play this one."

Fullback Barry Wyatt will be back in the starting lineup after missing the last start because of a strained knee.

Rover back Barry Morris will be missing, however, due to illness. He was undergoing tests in Lubbock earlier this week.

No lineup changes are planned, Coach Thompson said.

The Lopes are coming off an open weekend with all the extra practices devoted to the basic grid fundamentals of blocking and tackling.

Coahoma comes into the game with a 1-3-1 record.

The Bulldogs defeated Wall, but have lost to Stanton, Tahoka and Sonora. Last Friday night they tied Colorado City 13-all.

Coach Thompson describes Coahoma as "a big team who likes to throw and spends most of the night doing just that."

Firing the ball is 6-4 senior quarterback, Phillip Ritchey, a 195-pounder not fast on his feet but rather accurate with his arm.

His top targets are Randy Clanton, a 175-pound senior tight end, No. 81, and flanker back Manuel Martinez, a 120-pound sophomore, No. 35.

7th graders bow to DC by 18 to 0

Post's seventh graders lost their second game in three starts here last Thursday night as they bowed to Denver City, 18 to 0.

The visitors got their first tally in the second period on a one-yard smash. The conversion kick was blocked.

That's the way the score stood until only about a minute was left in the contest. Then Denver City broke a back loose on an 80 yard run for the second touchdown. With nine seconds left on the clock, the visitors intercepted a Post pass and ran it in for their third and final td.

The Post defense played well, but offensively the club couldn't keep their drives going.

Post had 97 yards rushing and eight yards passing with Denver City intercepting two of the three passes thrown.

Individually, Rodney Tidwell had 45 yards on 10 carries, Greg Adams 22 in six, Simon Salinas 26 in five, and Delton Osborn four yards in one.

Defensive standouts for Post were Mike Bland, Osborn, Donny Payne, Tracy Price and Sammy Hardin. Playing best on offense were Salinas, Tidwell, Greg Storie, Keith Hart, James Mock and Bruce Crenshaw.

The 7th graders will open a twin bill with Coahoma in Antelope Stadium tonight in their fourth start. Kickoff time is 5:30 p.m.

Thunderbirds to perform Sunday

REESE AIR FORCE BASE — The world famous United States Air Force Air Demonstration Squadron, The "Thunderbirds", will perform at Reese Air Force Base at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 12. Gates to the base will open at noon.

The Ambassadors in Blue will perform one of their 92 shows at 73 show sites for 1980 when they take to the air for 30 minutes of expert flying. The show has been viewed by more than 141 million people in 45 countries during the past 27 years. The Air Show follows a precision 20 minute ground ceremony prior to take off.

Prior to the start of the Thunderbird show, the "Minute-Man Band" from Texas Tech University will perform. The 45-member group is scheduled to perform from 1:30 to 2:15 on the flight line.

High school seniors are especially invited to attend the show and talk to the Thunderbirds after their performance. Churches, schools and private organizations are encouraged to bring bus loads of spectators to Reese. There will be plenty of parking available for both buses and private autos. Security Policemen will direct visitors to parking areas.

She was survived by her husband, Jack of Rocky; four sons, Bill of Post, Zack of Henderson, Tex., Eddie of Arthur City, Tex., and Johnnie of Weatherford; two sisters, Jewel King of Post, Ellaphine Lamb of Lubbock; one brother, Ray McClellan of Post; eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

SPORTS

8th graders whip Denver City 44-6 for 3rd in row

Post's eighth grade griders remained undefeated after three starts by battering Denver City's eighth graders 44 to 6 in Antelope Stadium last Thursday night.

Post scored seven touchdowns with Tailback Greg Massey the standout with 214 yards rushing in 13 carries and three touchdown runs of 20, 43, and 80 yards.

All told Post rolled up 423 yards rushing and added another 37 yards passing. This is the way the scoring went:

Post scored on its third running play of the game with Massey running outside for 20 yards and the touchdown. Quarterback Terry Kennedy passed to Rod George for the two-point conversion.

The visitors came right back to narrow the gap to 8-6 on a 60-yard pass-run play on a halfback pass, but failed to convert.

Later in the first period, Fullback Kenneth Gill broke a trap play up the middle 28 yards for a touchdown to end a four-play drive. The conversion effort failed.

In the second period, Massey raced 43 yards on a sweep for his second touchdown to boost the score to 20-6. Again the conversion failed.

Later in the quarter, Massey again broke outside and ran 80 yards for his third and final touchdown to make the score 28-6 at the half.

Post went 55 yards after the second half kickoff to score in six plays with Quarterback Danny Storie running a bootleg around left end for six yards and the tally to hike the count to 32-6.

In the fourth period, Post scored on an 11-play drive with the td coming on a 13-yard pass from Storie to Todd Angerer. Fullback Albert Nava got the final touchdown when he broke a trap up the middle for 44 yards.

Storie completed 3 of 4 passes for 34 yards and Kennedy one of two for 3.

Tailback Mike Ollison had 76 yards on 10 carries Gill 41 yards on three, Nava 59 yards on three, Wingback Rodney Hays eight yards on 2, and Wingback Curt Greer 19 yards on five carries.

Coach Darrel Radle called it "a team effort" and "the first time the eighth grade club has really played up to its potential." He attributed much credit for the high scoring to blockers who cleared the way and pointed to a swarming, hard hitting defense which held the visitors to six points.

He named offensive standouts as Rusty Morris, George, Paul Perez, Keith Osborn, Curt Cowdrey, Jim Rainbolt, Chuck Morris, Angerer, and backs Kennedy, Nava, Gill, Ollison, Massey, Hays, Greer and Javier Valdez.

Deensive standouts included Valdez, Audrey Rutledge, Tony Soto, Ray Perez, Paul Perez, C. Morris, Osborn, Cowdrey, Joe Lopez, Victor Robles, Mike Johnson, Donald Crenshaw, R. Morris and David Redman.

The eighth graders will go after win No. 4 in Antelope Stadium at 7 p.m. tonight against Coahoma.

Tahoka edges JVs by 26 to 22

The Post JVs and the Tahoka Junior Varsity put on an offensive show at Tahoka last Thursday night as the Tahoka club pulled out a 26 to 22 triumph by scoring one more touchdown than the locals.

The host club scored its four touchdowns on long sustained drive.

The scoring went like this: In the first quarter, Tahoka drove 60 yards for its first td but failed to get the extras on a running play.

On the next kickoff, Post tailback Dana Scott gathered the kick in on his own 25 and zipped 75 yards to Post's first score tying the count at 6-all. Post's extras' effort failed.

In the second, Tahoka marched another 60 yards for its second touchdown and a 12-6 lead. Post recovered a midfield fumble with 49 seconds to play but time ran out on the clock with Post moving at the Tahoka 30.

In the third period, Post drove 65 yards for the tying touchdown with Marvin Wynne scoring from the one on a fullback dive. Scott got the extras on an outside dive to put Post in front for the one and only time 14-12.

Tahoka cranked up for another 65 yard sustained march to get its third touchdown and passed for the extras to take a 20 to 14 advantage.

With 4:39 left in the game, Wingback Melvin Wynne caught a 35 yard pass from Quarterback Tim Tannehill for Post's third touchdown. Tannehill then passed to Wynne in the flat for the two conversion points and the score was 26 to 22.

The JVs tried an on-side kick on the kickoff but Tahoka covered the ball and marched to the Post one yard stripe where the game ended.

No game statistics are available.

Honor given new speech teacher

Candace McConnell, Post High School speech, drama and art teacher, was honored this past weekend by being invited to present performance, "A Touch of a Poet" by Diane Woskoski, before speech teachers from all over Texas in a workshop on poetry.

The workshop was part of the Texas Speech Communication Association-Convention held in San Antonio, Thursday thru Saturday.

Miss McConnell who is a graduate of McMurray College in Abilene, and first year teacher in Post, was invited to give her presentation to the group by Dr. Vera Simpson, speech professor at Texas Tech in Lubbock.

Frosh whip Denver City 12-0 Williams in 2 td runs

Two more long scoring runs by Tailback Milton Williams gave the Post freshmen a 12 to 0 victory over Denver City's frosh at Denver City last Thursday night.

The first came quick — and was the longest of the year.

Post received the kickoff and a 15-yard penalty on the first scrimmage play which moved the locals back to their 6-yard-line.

Williams then slithered through the line of scrimmage, managed to move to the outside and raced 94 yards for the touchdown.

In the second period, Williams broke away again on a sweep to the left for 64 yards and the final Post score.

Extra point efforts after both touchdowns failed.

The second half was scoreless.

The victory left the freshmen undefeated after four starts with three wins and a tie on their record.

LETTERS to the Editor

Dear Editor:
I see Jimmy and friends are hurling "war-monger" charges at one candidate and invisible ink at the other.

"War-Monger" is an old favorite. I remember way back when we were selling our scrap metal to the Japanese during the depression and General Douglas MacArthur was warning our government that the Japanese were building an arsenal and would be shooting that same metal at our boys in just a matter of time. The "thinkers" and "powers that be" called "war-mongering general" and belittled him. Of course, every person that had a little scrap iron to spare was glad to sell it and put a little cash in his jeans. So, he was glad to hear the folks in Washington say "war-monger", so he could sell with a clear conscience.

As we all know, MacArthur was right. We were brought to our knees in a hurry and many men died because of our short-sightedness. If those at the helm had been more alert, if we'd had any sort of military show of force, Hirohito probably never would have started that effort in the first place. No nation has begun a way they thought they would lose. Also, when Barry Goldwater was campaigning for the Presidency, he was branded as a war-monger, and defeated by LBJ. Afterwards we were more involved in war than ever. So, because a leader desires strength and the will for the nation to use that strength when necessary, does not make him a war-hungry maniac, but a man who puts America first.

America has slid considerably the last few years. We have all but embraced Communism, by allowing them to become a "respected" party. Patriotism is sneered at while radical anti-American roots and the like is up-held by the courts under the First Amendment. The criminal is coddled while his victim is left without recourse and often hauled into court for taking defensive action. The life of a fan-tailed snail is protected while an unborn human is thoughtlessly disposed of. Euthanasia is being proposed for legality, and since one thing leads to another, disposal of the useless, (mentally incompetent, aged, etc.) will probably be close behind.

Oddly, we have punished our friends and rewarded our enemies all across the world, and of all things, done in the name of human rights.

Americanism is an idea that should be nourished and defended. It is neither white, black, brown, red, yellow, Catholic, Jewish or Protestant, but all of these, free to be himself, but with respect for each other. Free to flourish and prosper as long as he does not trample on his neighbor.

To flourish and prosper has been the calling to these shores for many generations, but of late, it seems to almost be sinful to make a profit. Bureaucratic agencies believe all but the barest essentials in profits should go to the government for their dispersal in whatever way they deem fit, usually done in the guise of social welfare in one form or another. There is talk of the government taking over the oil industry and they have already taken what they call the "windfall profits tax", so what will be next? Will they decide to take the same attitude on industry, farming, small business and so forth? Will the next step be to re-distribute the farm land and take it all into a federal agency to be parcelled out to whom-ever they decide is deserving?

Will the union worker soon be working for the "people" rather than General Motors, U.S. Steel, Ford Motor, Braniff Airline or T.I.M.E. Motor Lines?

I notice the news media has labeled "the moral majority" and the conservatives of this nation as becoming "militant". Well, they haven't begun any riots, burned any cities, nor taken any hostages yet, nor will they. They are getting organized and making themselves heard and that scares the daylights out of the liberals.

I myself, am going to cast a vote for the most conservative candidate running that has a chance of winning and I hope you will too, because a conservative vote is a vote for yourself and a vote for the future of America.

employed in Southland school for the 1980-81 school year.

Sherly Neff, girls' coach, cheerleader sponsor, and science teacher, graduated from Abilene Christian University last spring with a B.S. degree in secondary education. Her major was Health and Physical Education. She played varsity basketball at ACU four years, volleyball one year, softball two years, and ran track two years.

She has a twin sister who will graduate from ACU in December. Coach Neff is originally from Lima, Ohio. Her hobbies include all sports, collecting coins, and playing the piano.

When asked what she thought of Southland, Coach Neff commented, "Southland is different from other schools because there do not seem to be the problems that are in larger schools, such as drugs and drinking. I kind of look at it as a big family."

She thinks the girl's basketball team will "have a real good year with all of the starters coming back. The group is willing to work hard and is very dedicated."

The other newly acquired teacher is Kim Gober. Miss Gober teaches sixth grade. She was at Wilson the last three years, teaching seventh, eighth, and ninth grade English and Social Studies. She was also the cheerleading sponsor at Wilson. Her hobbies are snow skiing, playing the piano, and bowling. Miss Gober is originally from Bovina and she attended Texas Tech University.

She stated, "Teaching at Southland has been a very enjoyable new experience for me. The students are very enthusiastic, both academically and athletically. I am looking forward to the rest of the year."

Scanning Social Security

By JIM LATIMER

I was talking with an older friend the other day, and she said that if it were not for social security the country would be full of poor houses. The comment was unsolicited from this lady who had seen poor houses from her youth. For those who are too young to remember poor houses, these were county homes or old folks homes as they were referred to many years ago. These were the places where people too old or too ill to care for themselves went to live when there was not any place to go.

Usually crowded, often poorly staffed, these poor houses rarely had adequate budgets for food, heat and medical care. These were places where people went to simply exist until they died. And even in death there was no dignity.

My friend gave social security most of the credit for the disappearance of these institutions of the 1920s and 1930s. I feel she is very astute because these poor houses disappeared with the advent of the social security programs. Now, more often than not, everyone reaching age 65 has some kind of retirement check coming in each month, from social security, protecting each one from conditions which existed in the 1920s and 1930s. Medicare provides basic hospital and medical insurance for these same persons.

Art sales—

(Continued From Page One) runnerup in popularity with $16,145 in sales, Ted Long was third with $11,900 in sales and Jim Reynolds fourth with an even $10,000.

The "weekend" was a complete success, beginning with the weather.

The first ever OS fiddlers contest drew 300 Saturday morning to the lawn by the ranchhouse with the $600 in prize money divided among Ricky Boen of Odessa, first; Ricky Turpin of Lubbock, second; Weldon Turpin of Lubbock, fourth; Gary McCleakey of Hereford, fifth; Bill King of Shamrock, sixth; and Doug McDonald Jr. of Odessa, seventh.

The crowd really applauded when Johnny Gimble, last year's fiddler of the year winner, gave a demonstration of his skills following the contest.

As for the barbecue, like everything else it was a big winner too. The beef was tender and they didn't run out in feeding 1,750 persons Saturday noon and 2,000 more on Sunday.

A total of $19,000 was raised in the new OS colt sale with 10 percent of the sales going to West Texas Boys Ranch.

The colt sale probably will become an annual fixture and even expanded next year.

Look for Gimble, the fiddler, to be back next year as one of the star attractions. He wasn't given the advance publicity this year but turned out to be the star of the show.

Crowd estimates were 3,000 for Saturday's events and 4,000 for Sunday's. The weather, as usual, was at its sparkling best.

If any record was set it was the number of mobile homes which came in Friday night and Saturday morning to spend the weekend. It was probably the biggest "mobile home rally" ever held in West

Winners over the huge field of OS team ropers were Jake Barnes and Allen Bach of California. Bach is ranked currently No. 10 in the professional rodeo team roping standings with $15,825 in 1980 winnings and Barnes is ranked No. 17 $11,376 in current winnings.

In the steer roping, Jimmy Brazile of Gruver, Tx., ranked No. 3 in the world for 1980 finished in the same position in the OS — third with 81.12 seconds total for four head for $5,000. Fourth was Walter Arnold of Silverton and former Garza Countian who picked up $2,500 with a time of 81.25 seconds.

In the four steer roping go rounds with $2,000 the first, $1,500 for second, $1,000 for third, and $500 for fourth in each.

First, Rex Prather, 16.88; H. L. Todd of Burlington, Colo., 17.17; Jim Davis of Pecos, 17.84; and Nick Andrews of Miami, Okla., 17.8

Second: Arnold, 16.40; Sonny Davis of Kenna, N.M., 16.71; Guy Allen, 10.05; and Roy Thompson of Happy, 18.13.

Third: Buddy Cockrell of Pampa, 14.64; Arnold Felts of Mutual, Okla., 15.65; Sonny Davis, 15.74; and Olin Young of Peralta, N.M., 16.55.

Fourth: Brazile, 17.55; Arnold, 18.43; Rocky Reagan III of Eagle Pass, 19.13; and Guy Allen, 19.36.

In the calf roping, James Owen of Iraan, Tx., finished fourth with a 44.95 second average on three calves.

In the individual go-rounds:

First: Butch Bode of Milano, Tx., first, 10.75; Jim Davis of Pecos, second, 12.58; Sonny Davis of Kienna, M.M., third, 12.76; and Junior Garrison of Marlow, Okla., fourth in 12.83.

Second: Kim Gripp of Hereford, 11.51; Willard Moody of Wynnewood, Okla., 11.96; Dave Brock of Pueblo, Colo., 13.02; and Phil Lyne of Artesia Wells, 13.05.

Short Go-Round; Roy Cooper of Durant, Okla., 10.60; Steve Bland of Trent, 12.95; Gary Ledford of Comanche, Okla., 13.51; and Moody, 13.94.

Texas.

One of the weekend's unusual attractions was a South African cowboy, Jan Theron, who was in Texas to learn some western ways with ropes and cattle.

He made a little speech at the colt sale.

Walt Arnold, former world and OS champion steer roper, was the featured speaker at the Sunday morning brush arbor worship service where black coffee was served and gospel music was featured. Walt is one of the founders of the cowboy chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Sunday got off to a mellow start with the old-timers breakfast.

Capacity crowds attended both OS dances Saturday night with 350 at the community center at $25 each to dance to Red Steagall and his Coleman County Cowboys and another capacity house at the Western Lounge where the Maines brothers presided over the dancing.

It will be probably a month or more before the "books" are closed on the 1980 "OS weekend" and a determination made of the amount raised for West Texas Boys Ranch.

Maybe it won't set a record either, but it will be another big West Texas slice of generosity from a western crowd which keeps returning fall after fall for the biggest "weekend" held anywhere in West Texas.

City Council—

request that Councilwoman Maxine Marks meet with Ms. Allison to work out some Post recommendations for a project application with a called meeting promised for quick action when the recommendations are ready.

A seven-person board would be required to help work up the project applications as to the city's needs, Ms. Allison said.

The council took no action on a high water bill complaint made in person by Travis Gilmore who saw his water bill jump from $5.75 one month to $51.35 the next, and then drop down to $16.98 for the third.

City Manager Pete Maddox told the council that the meter reading was checked and found to be accurate, a procedure on all unusually high water bills. Mrs. Wynn Kennedy explained the procedure on "high bills" and said Post had a large number of them this summer.

The council instructed city employees to always check with householders on high water bills and continue to recheck meters.

The council decided to go ahead and advertise for bids on a computer to do the city's office work, including tax statements, water billings, and regular bookkeeping.

Bids will be sought for two sizes of computers and bids also will be asked on the "software" (programming of the computer). The council will open the bids at their November session.

The council has budgeted to buy a computer after their water billing machine has virtually reached the end of its usual life. Right now it is a race against time to get the computer purchased and programmed for water billing.

Councilman Bill Pool, a member of the airport board, was asked to call a School board meets tonight

Post school trustees will formally adopt their budget for the new fiscal year at their regular October meeting tonight in the high school library, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Also on the agenda for action is approval of the $1 tax rate per $100 assessed valuation at 75 percent of full market value with the total tax roll approved by the tax assessor of $239,006,511.

Approval of the amended budget for the 1979-80 school year completed Aug. 31; and a number of budget change requests.

Principal Joe Giddens will discuss his recommendations with the board and trustees will discuss a landscape contract with Acheson, Cartwright and Associates.

every effort to pick up any possible leads as to Alexander's whereabouts.

If you're wondering where the pictures are on the OS art exhibit portion of the "weekend", this is to note that the whole roll of film on the art portion didn't go through the camera properly and came out blank.

Jimmy Hundley got some unusual family pictures in the mail last weekend. They were made at Delta Downs in Denton, La., Sept. 14, 1980, and showed two race horse winners, Poopsie and Galloping Jim, owned by Travis Reeves.

The relationship which classified the pictures in the family category was that Jimmy's 25-year-old daughter, Deborah Boyd, was the trainer for both horses, and is standing by each winner. According to Jimmy, she loves horse training even with its 4 a.m. getting up time. Jimmy's son-in-law, Robert Boyd, is aboard each of the winners, being the jockey in each race.

There's also a picture of Jimmy's grandson, James Cody Boyd included. The Boys make their home in Denton.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Tax reform is hot in Texas, but there will be days in the next session of the Texas Legislature when the issue will have to take a back seat to public education.

Although Texas ranks low among other states in funding for public education, the state has its fair share of parents and teachers.

Both groups are concerned with quality education, but right now the teachers are more concerned with making what they call a decent wage.

The teacher pay raise issue may well be the fulcrum upon which other legislation may rise or fall.

In the past, the public education bill has been one of the last to be passed in each session. Some critics argue that it is held hostage until the last hour . . . and that's why Texas funding is low. By the time it comes for a vote, the bill is pocked with the sniper shots from every feud in both chambers. Some legislators have asserted publicly that the public education bill, like the women and children on a sinking ship, should be saved first by an early passage in the Legislature. Then the other issues can fight for passage like a seat in a lifeboat.

Still, The Governor

They're assuming that the governor, whoever it is at the time, will rubber stamp the Legislature's early action. If the governor chose to veto part of it, the bill could still find itself locked in debate on the last day of the session.

That's not an unlikely scenario with the present Governor Bill Clements, especially if the bill contained a pay raise for teachers which is higher than he wants.

If fact, last week Clements suggested that teachers ought to be more concerned with increasing effectiveness in the classroom instead of holding their hands out for a raise.

Clements couldn't care less if his remark angered the teachers, a group which supported his 1978 opponent, former Atty. General John Hill.

The Republican governor's opposition to a pay raise for educators has been labeled his personal vendetta on their past support for Hill.

The Other Side

Even if that is true to some extent, Clements definitely has his own point of view about the work ethic.

As a young man he moved his feet and worked to become a millionaire several times over.

He slugged it out financially in the oil and gas fields and built one of the world's largest oil well drilling firms.

He took over administration of the Pentagon at a time when the Vietnam War was, in the minds of most Americans, undeniably a hellhole.

Two years in the Governor's Office probably has not changed him much: he still believes in a day's pay for a hard day's work. He may be telling the teachers he does not think they work hard enough.

Teachers Clout

Around the State Capitol, when someone asks if teachers have much political clout, one ironic reply is: "did John Hill win the Democratic nomination without a runoff?" Because of teacher support Hill won on the first primary ballot over then-incumbent Dolph Briscoe. Teachers may have slacked up a bit, because Hill lost to Clements in the general election.

Whether that's true or not: it brings to mind a political adage recently spoken by a legislator: "if they organize, the teachers can get you defeated, but you can't count on them to get you elected." Clements may have that in mind when he stands up to them, or he may simply be wondering where the funds for the pay raise are going to come from.
