If you don't think the OS Ranch Art Exhibit doesn't attract the best western artists in the nation, you're going to change your mind before you finish this column.

Remember the Western Heritage Sale, that black-tie extravaganza they hold at Houston's famed Shamrock Hilton each year. They held the sixth one in Houston a couple of weekends ago and in so doing set a flock of new records in auctioning off $4,032,400 worth of art, quarterhorses and cattle.

One of the records was the $310,000 paid to Artist Clark Hulings of Santa Fe for his oil painting "Kaleidoscope," a vivid Mexican produce market scene, by Scottsdale, Ariz., gallery owner Jim Fowler. This is the most ever paid for a piece of fine art of the American West by a living artist. Hulings is an "OS art exhibit" regular here in past years, staying with the K. W. Kirkpatricks. Both the David Newbys and Giles McCrarys have purchased fine Huling oils in the OS Art Exhibit.

Huling broke his own old record of $170,000 at last year's Western Heritage Sale with another oil, "The Pink Parasol," which also was bought by Fowler.

Prices on three other oils surpassed $100,000 during the Heritage auction and two of them were painted by other O. S. exhibiting artists, Brownell McGrew of Quemado, New Mexico, long a favorite here, and Melvin Warren of Clifton, Tex.

McGrew's painting was sold to Amarillo rancher, Forrest Warren, for $107,500. It was named "Trading Day." Warren's "La Luna de Roma" brought $105,000 from the Cole Diamond C Ranch of Koon Creek, Texas.

All told, $2,539,400 was spent for art at the auction, including $1,541,100 for 26 specially created works sold (See Postings, Page 8)

SPS president visits Post

Berl Springer of Amarillo, president of Southwestern Public Service Co., visited Post Tuesday afternoon and discussed the company's operations with a group of Post business leaders in the bank community room for an hour.

He pointed out that 70 percent of local electric bills are now for fuel costs. While the cost of fuel has been a major problem, the high cost of money (interest) is now the utility firm's biggest problem, he told the group.

The utility firm is one of the top rated in the nation and plans to continue to expand its power producing capacity, Springer said.

Chapman hurt in collision

Kurt Chapman, employed here by Rocker A Well Service, suffered severe head and facial lacerations shortly after noon Saturday in a pickup truck collision at 13th and Broadway.

Chapman was driving north on Broadway when he was hit broadside by a pickup driven by Gordon Wilson who was going east on 13th, according to the investigating deputy.

The impact of the collision knocked Chapman's pickup into the curb and it rolled over three times pinning Chapman beneath it for several minutes.

Chapman was taken by ambulance to Garza Memorial Hospital and on to Methodist Hospital in Lubbock where he was placed in intensive care for three days before being moved to a regular patient room.

His injuries were confined to lacerations of his face and the back of his head.

Wilson did not require medical treatment.

$516,419 bid accepted on Post school projects

Post school trustees at a special meeting Monday night accepted the $516,419 low bid of Knox, Galley & Meador, Inc., of Lubbock for a wide ranging improvement program which included some type of project for every facility in the school plant.

Supt. Bill Shiver in answer to a question told trustees they had $550,000 available to spend, and with the $32,000 in architectural fees, trustees accepted enough options over the base bid to just about spend all of it.

The two major projects in the program is a complete renovation of the high school gym and major renovation of the primary building.

Don Meador, who represented his construction firm at the session, told trustees all the work will be completed by Aug. 30 except the high school gym which will be ready for basketball use Nov. 1.

The other two bids received, also from Lubbock firms, were for $572,400 and $677,836 respectively.

The base bid of $365,419 includes:

High school gym: new bench bleachers all on west side of gym with new wood playing floor moved to east side of building, painting of exterior metal and entire interior of gym, new floor, new ceiling, new lighting and painting of lobby, relocation of backboards, replacing five unit heaters, new gym lighting, creation of storage area under stands.

Over inch of rain here

Another shower Tuesday night has brought the moisture total for the past week to 1.59 inches.

It was the fourth shower in the seven days and brought an official half inch measurement.

Two Friday showers of .29 and .59 inches respectively brought the May moisture total here to 2.80 inches.

The .19 of an inch received Sunday afternoon got June off to a nice wet start.

The temperature high here for the week was 96 degrees last Thursday on the final day of school.

Two held in weekend theft

Greg and Jose Luis Rodriguez, brothers, were in the Garza County jail Wednesday on a third degree felony charge of burglary of a motor vehicle.

The two were arrested Saturday night and a tool box which had been stolen off a pickup belonging to Truelock Construction here was recovered.

Also recovered in a search of their home here were a chain and large pipe wrenches stolen earlier from a P&W Acid truck, Chief Deputy J. W. Jolly said.

Bond for the brothers has been set at $3,500 each.

High School: Painting of interior and painting of exterior metal.

Primary School: exterior painting of metal trim, patching of roof, reworking exterior expansion joint, reworking hardware, patch and paint interior, new electrical system, and new low ceilings.

Elementary School: work on existing doors, new hollow metal work and some interior painting.

The six alternates added to the base bid include:

(1) provide asphaltic concrete paving and concrete walks around Post Middle School at cost of $33,000. This includes paved parking areas on both east and west (See Bid accepted, Page 8)

Speaker sees new efforts

"Let us dictate a new effort to make America great again for those 308 veterans who rest here and whom we honor today," County Judge Giles Dalby told a crowd of approximately 50 at VFW and VFW Auxiliary sponsored Memorial Day services in Terrace Cemetery Saturday morning.

"That we will stand as they did in the defense of this country; that we will not back away from confrontations with our adversaries; and that we will help the people of the world who want to help themselves, not those who just want a hand-out," he declared.

"I feel a surge of pride when I see our flag flying today," Judge Dalby said.

"And it has been especially meaningful to see and feel the return of patriotism in our country... where we see Old Glory flying high and not sewn on the seat of a pair of jeans as a patch."

The Reese Air Force Base color guard and firing squad participated in the service and were guests at the VFW for lunch following the service.

Prior to the 10 a. m. Memorial Day Service, the VFW post hosted its traditional free breakfast with everyone in the community invited.

The veterans and their auxiliary closed a very busy Memorial Day by staging a fish fry and dance Saturday night.

OS committee in 'meeting'

The OS Ranch Steer Roping and Art Exhibit committees held its "annual meeting" on the ranch house lawn Tuesday night, complete with "half pound barbecued burgers" and all the trimmings.

The steer roping and art exhibit is scheduled for the first weekend in October. Committee assignments will be handed out shortly Jim Prather told the group of 35 to 50. He said artists and ropers already are committed and that the catalog will be going to press in the next week or two.

No major changes are planned this year, according to Prather who said the Old Fiddlers Contest will be held in the grove Sunday noon because the Red Stegall band is committed to a West Coast engagement that Sunday. The band will be here Friday and Saturday.

Directors have been meeting monthly for planning sessions for the 1981 event and everything is well in hand, Prather reported.

County approves summer program

The Garza County Commissioners Court last week unanimously voted $1,355 as requested by Connie Flores for a children's summer educational program, providing the city agrees to pay the other half of the program costs.

The city council is expected to act Monday night at its June meeting.

The program, aimed basically at disadvantaged children ages 6 to 12 but open to all, would begin July 6 and continue through Aug. 7. School facilities would be used.

In another action, the court accepted the bid of Fenner Tubbs Co., of Lubbock of $8,757 for a new 1981 Dodge to serve as a county car later to go to the sheriff's department. It was the only bid received.

The court postponed the opening of bids for a new radio contract agreement until its first June meeting Monday at 10 a. m.

We thank 'em anyway

Two West Texas editors wrote in their front page columns last week that Lubbock apparently has just about "fished out" the White River Lake.

They were Wendell Tooley of the Tulia Herald and his son, Brad Tooley of the Slatonite.

"They say confession is good for the soul," Wendell Tooley wrote in his Tulia "Country Editor" column. "So we confess we should have fished Mackenzie lake instead of White River."

"We fished White River Lake three days and caught an average of a fish a day — two small bass and a walleye. We aren't going to blame the poor fishing on our inability to use the right lures etc. . . . we believe all those Lubbock people have fished out White River Lake."

Wrote son, Brad, in his "Brad's Pad" column in the Slatonite: "After making three trips to White River Lake this spring and coming back with only two 'eating size' fish, we've come up with some pretty strong theories that should hold water. We've tried shysters, hellbenders, jigs, worms (rubber and real), H&H specials, red, purple, yellow, white fish favorites and of course the mighty minnow, with very discouraging results."

"Now as I sat on the bank Saturday, checking lines every so often, I had plenty of time to think the matter over. I've decided that there just are very few fish in White River Lake. It's the only semi-large public lake within 50 or 60 miles of Lubbock and its always super crowded with anglers from all over."

"This is probably one of the 'fewest lakes per capita' areas in the state and White River Lake probably has the most fisherman per cubic foot of water of most lakes in the nation. Anyway that's our theory, and we've had many unexciting fishing hours to formulate it."

"Well now, ain't that something," chuckled White River Lake Manager Al O'Brien when asked to comment by The Dispatch on the two Tooley columns.

"Of course, we aren't guaranteeing any editors a full string of fish, but they ought to go by the marina and see the pictorial evidence of what some other fishermen have caught out here in the last 30 days."

"Fishing at White River Lake is good, darn good," O'Brien added.

"They're catching lots of fish, including pike up to seven pounds. Only last week we had 50,000 small mouth bass put in the lake."

The Dispatch editor has thought over all three observations and now offers one of his own:

What we believed happened is that Wendell and Brad spent so much time at the White River Lake that when they got back to their newspaper office they were completely "empty-headed" of column material.

They decided the only thing they could write about was going fishing and since they didn't catch any fish they had to offer some "explanation" for that. Thus, each concluded White River Lake was "fished out."

Wendell did admit the wild flowers at the lake were beautiful. As for Brad, at least he didn't break his leg again water skiing.

What's more, commenting as one of the "owners" of White River Lake we point out that all those Lubbock folks with their recreation fees sure help to financially support the operation of this Post-Crosbyton-Spur-Ralls water supply project. We're grateful to each and everyone of them, including the Tooleys.

Winds of change

Former Governor Dolph Briscoe has taken the first step to return to the Texas political wars. He has filed an essential form naming himself as his own campaign treasurer.

This is a required step before a politician can start raising campaign funds.

The move is bringing predictions that Briscoe will seek the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in 1982, hoping to face Governor Bill Clements in the general election.

Not only is Briscoe filling out forms, he is starting to make political appearances again after a complete pullback into private life the last couple of years.

There is already considerable jockeying among leading Democrats for positioning in the 1982 campaign when Clements is expected to seek reelection.

It is early yet of course but one of the wildest spending political campaigns in Texas history may be shaping up for the governorship.

The Democrats don't want to see conservative Republicanism make any more gains in the Lone Star State, and you can bet the GOP wants to entrench itself more deeply and start making inroads on the huge Democratic majorities in the legislature.

The political winds are blowing change all across Texas. Before the 1980s are out, Texas could well have a real two-party system.

"NO, MARVIN, ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL'S FIRST WORDS WERE NOT, 'CAN I PUT YOU ON HOLD?'"

Library Corner

Librarian Pee Wee Pierce has already reordered about $250 worth of the children's books which had to be discarded due to water damage recently.

This is going to put a crimp in the library's book budget because the library's insurance claim of damage on $1,700 worth of children's books were turned down by insurance adjusters who ruled it was a maintenance problem of city hall around the roof.

Strange thing about the incident was that the roof of the new library addition, which didn't leak, is going to be repaired by the insurance folks because of storm damage over the years. How's that for a twister?

With books costing three to four times what they used to cost only a few years ago, the library is affording fewer books these days, and this setback will only worsen the situation.

Librarian Pierce reports a few new books added to the shelves this past week — and there are some "goodies" too. The fiction includes "XPL" by Len Deighton and "Free Fall in Crimson" by John D. MacDonald, both now on the best sellers fiction list. Other fiction books are "Original Sins" by Lisa Alther and "Will You Love Me in September?" by Phillips Carr Syda.

Among the new non-fiction is "The Lord God Made Them All" by James Herriot, the Scotland veterinarian who is beloved by millions of readers the world over for his three previous best sellers on his experiences with the animals he treats. If you haven't read Herriot, go back and read his first three books. By that time, we'll be finished with his new book.

Other non-fiction "newies" are "Guide to Midwifery" and "The Barymores: The Royal Family of Hollywood."

A reminder to both parents and their youngsters: the children's summer reading program is now under way at the library and the first free movie is scheduled for 3 p. m. June 19.

Christopher Evans in his book, "The Micro Millennium" makes a "case" for the death of the book. He points out that after all, books and computers are both simply storage devices and that emerging computer technology can offer three advantages over Herr Gutenberg's invention. In the first place we will soon be able to store hundreds of pages of text on a single silicon chip, a

Senator Lloyd Bentsen

Watching Washington

One of the biggest problems troubling our country's economy today is the lack of money for investment. A vital economic segment that is most troubled by this shortage of investment capital is small business.

Small business is the strong right arm of our economic system in the United States and we must take steps to insure that it remains strong.

Small business accounts for 43 percent of this country's Gross National Product—almost half of all the goods and services produced in the United States.

Small business provides 58 percent of all the jobs in private enterprise in this country.

Yet small businesses, all too frequently, are starved for capital funds. Only 27 percent of U.S. corporate assets are controlled by small and medium-sized businesses.

I recently introduced the Bentsen Small Business Investment Act of 1981, which attacks the problem of capital formation and retention for small businesses now struggling to cope with record high inflation and interest rates. This program would reduce taxes small businesses must pay by $6.6 billion in 1982.

My program of tax reforms and investment incentives would make it far easier for our small businesses to achieve the kind of growth of which they are capable.

For example, the Bentsen bill would defer capital gains taxes from the sale of an asset owned by a small business if the gain is reinvested in another small business asset within 18 months.

Also on the investment end, my measure would revise a provision in the tax code which presently discourages employees from investing in their company's firm through stock option plans.

This legislation also would increase the amount of used equipment that a small business operator could apply to his investment tax credit.

Another component of the Bentsen act would ease estate and gift taxes paid by small business operators. This especially would benefit the family farmer struggling to keep his farm intact for future generations.

Since the beginning of this year I have met with individuals representing over 100 national, regional and state small business organizations. My program addresses the tax priorities set by these groups.

At the same time I believe it is relatively inexpensive, realistic and achievable during the 97th Congress.

As a member of the Senate Finance Committee, I'm seeking bipartisan support among my colleagues for this small business legislative package. As one of the most vital parts of our economy, small business must be stable and prosperous if we expect to restore overall economic health to this country. I'm confident that this legislative program is the best way to help bring that about.

Senior Citizens News

Senior Citizens News

Garza County Senior Citizens are really enjoying fellowship and noon meals at the Algerita Center five days a week. We are still having good attendance each day with everyone enjoying games or TV shows and soap operas before and after lunch.

There are several who come for exercises each morning at 9 o'clock and please feel free to come and join us. They are very good for you. Also we have several who just come by for a cup of coffee and visit a while and we enjoy them very much.

Awards given to Brownies

Brownie Troop 235 held its end of year awards during its last regular meeting May 21 with parents in attendance.

Brownie B Patches, cookie sale awards, certificates, posters, patches, and T-shirts were awarded.

The girls finished the year with a hike and cookout east of Post Saturday, May 25. The girls built a fire and cooked hot dogs and s'mores. Sponsors for the hike were Jeannette Bell, Betty Binford, Laverne Jones, and leaders, Julie Hudman and Carol Tobias. Guests included, Mary Binford, Richard and Lori Hudman and Mario Tobias.

Troop members are Tasha Clay, Marla Clay and Crystal Clay, Jana Greathouse, Rosalyn Curtis, Vena Bustoz, Sara Williams, Tyra Hart, Hillary Williams, Tina Poe, Dee Dee Byrd, D'awn Howland, Joanna Binford, Marilyn Bell, Christi Hodges, Kiki Chambliss, Nicole Jones, Jana Hudman and Angela Tobias.

We have bus service each day from 9 until around 2:30 in the afternoon. The bus goes to Lubbock each Tuesday to take those who need to go so if you need this service, please call 2998. Also the bus goes to Lubbock if there are medical patients on Friday.

We are having good turn outs for our singing. I, for one, am real proud of our Senior Citizens who participate in this. We really enjoy doing it.

We had a program on detecting lumps in your breast for the ladies and this was very informative. We will have another health screening in about six months. We just had one and there was a real good turnout. Some had to have further tests run by their family doctor and this was good to get an early start on what our trouble was. We also have our blood pressure check every first and fourth Tuesday and every first and third Thursday and really have a good turnout for this. So please take advantage of these things that are offered for you. They do not cost a thing.

We are to have a defensive driving course the 30th of June and the first of July. Be planning this on your calendar and it will make your insurance 10 percent cheaper. The classes will start at 10 in the morning and end at 12 noon, then resume at 2 p. m. and last until 4 o'clock. We will be starting a new project in the near future fixing a new storage space.

Wish we could get more of our people interested in arts and crafts. Hey you folks out there if there is something you would like to do please let me know and we will try to get it started.

We sang at the Calvary Baptist Church Sunday, May 31. Sure was some good singing there by several groups.

Hearing aid man comes every fourth Thursday and had several people to see him this past Thursday.

Shower for Kim Lott

Miss Kim Lott, bride-elect of Joe Peacock, was honored with a miscellaneous bridal shower recently in the Fellowship Hall of the First United Methodist Church.

Guests were received by the honoree, her mother, Mrs. Jack Lott, and Mrs. Joe Peacock, Sr., mother of the future groom.

Cindy Kirkpatrick registered the guests. Peggy Jackson, Kayla Peel and Jana Middleton presided at the serving table.

Brass appointments were used to serve finger sandwiches, cookies, strawberries, pineapple punch and coffee.

Floral arrangements complemented the bride's chosen colors.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mes. Ada Lou Bird, Maury Shiver, Mattie Collier, Janey Middleton and Janet Peel.

The term "on the nose" originated in radio from a sign made by directors putting a finger alongside the nose to indicate that a program was running precisely on schedule.

It's Healy vs. Shaw as— Garza is placed in new district

The redistricting of Texas house legislative districts will pit State Representative Bill Healy of Paducah against freshman Larry Don Shaw of Big Spring in an expected 1982 reelection campaign.

Representative Healy, who has represented Garza County for a number of years, is dean of the Texas House with 26 years in the legislature.

This is Shaw's first term. Shaw was the West Texas campaign coordinator for President Carter last year.

He made two attempts to avoid a race with Healy during the last days before the redistricting bill was passed.

The newly created District 150 includes Borden, Cottle, Dawson, Dickens, Kent, King, Garza, Howard, Lynn, Knox, Wilbarger, Foard and Stonewall counties.

Shaw tried to get himself paired with Rep. Walter Grubbs of Abilene or to pair Grubbs with Healy in expansion of rural house districts required by the 1980 census results.

All in all, 16 house members have been paired and must campaign against each other if all seek reelection in 1982.

The house debated its redistricting measure until after 4 a. m. Thursday morning before passing it by a big margin.

A's score 32 runs led by slugger Price

5 extra base hits for Steve

The unbeaten Dodgers continued to maintain their two-game lead in Post Little League play this week, but it was the A's led by the slugging of First Baseman Steve Price who raised most of the eyebrows. The A's scored 32 runs in four innings to thump the Cardinals, 32 to 17, on 15 hits and as many walks Monday night.

All Price did was hit three doubles and a pair of triples in six trips to the plate, score four times, and drive in a flock of runs. Lex Dunn had a pair of singles, a double, and scored five times. Everybody in the A's lineup scored at least twice.

Indians whip White Sox

The Indians walloped the White Sox 19 to 8 Tuesday night in Babe Ruth League play in the only game reported for the week to The Dispatch's sports desk. No results were received on Friday and Saturday night games. In the opener last week the defending champion Braves downed Indians 13 to 6.

Leftfielder Scotty Clinesmith of the Indians had three doubles and a single in five trips to the plate and scored four times Tuesday night as the Indian victory was held to five innings by the 10-run rule. Curtis Clinesmith hurled the win for the Indians, giving up but four hits. He walked himself into trouble though, putting 14 runners aboard with wildness.

This week's schedule includes the Braves vs. White Sox tonight, the Indians vs. Braves Saturday night, and the White Sox vs. Braves next Tuesday night.

DO YOU KNOW?

Everyone has heard the expression, "back seat driver." But did you know that on a motorcycle, the passenger can actually steer the cycle? It's true. If a motorcycle passenger leans the opposite way from the rider, the passenger can control the cycle's direction.

break a 5-5 tie, but losing to the Red Sox 4 to 3 Tuesday night.

In that one the Red Sox scored twice in the bottom of the final inning to come from behind for the win the Jay Claborn and David Clark singling and moving around to score. Each team got only three hits in that one with Claborn's double being the other one for the winning Sox.

The Dodgers with Rodney Guthrie and Michael and Lupe Perez each getting three hits rang up an easy 14-2 win over the Tigers Friday night, but had to come from behind with six runs in the fifth inning to edge the Yankees 19 to 17 Tuesday night. In that one Glenn Hardin of the Yankees swatted three triples and a single in four trips to the plate. The Yankees had Hardin thrown out at home plate and loaded the bases in the top of the sixth but couldn't score.

Steve Pena cracked a single, double and triple and scored three times to lead the Yankees to a 17 to 14 win over the Tigers Saturday night.

Twenty-five bases on balls were given up Monday night as the Red Sox thumped the Tigers, 13 to 6. The Sox got eight hits and the Tigers but three. Marvin Lee's two singles in three official trips led the Sox.

"We are deeply grateful to Mrs. Kirkpatrick for making possible this scholarship and the start of TCU's increased emphasis on encouraging Disciples students to attend their church-related University," said Chancellor William E. Tucker.

Forty-five members of Mrs. Kirkpatrick's family have attended TCU, dating to its beginning in Thorp Spring more than 100 years ago. She was here with the Class of 1927 and was honored by her alma mater 50 years later, when the honorary Doctor of Laws degree was conferred on her at August, 1977, commencement.

Well school's out, graduation is over and the tears are stored away for the beginning of the new school year.

The lazy days of summer have descended among us and those that haven't found that job yet are relaxing at home watching the soaps and game shows in front of the air conditioner. What a life!

Good luck to Michelle Hill in her new home as she will be journeying to Colorado next week for the FCA Camp. More details when they return.

Susan Sawyers is in Hillsboro for the next six weeks. I'm not sure doing what.

Our best wishes for a speedy recovery to Kurt Chapman following his accident. Last reports were that he is recovering, slowly.

Chow . . . . .

for her half century of leadership in First Christian Church of Post as well as Disciples activities throughout the Hi-Plains area and for her work with industrial promotion; with the Post Chamber of Commerce; with senior citizens organizations and Post's museum and historical society.

A longtime supporter of TCU and Brite Divinity School, she has also established three scholarships at Brite — The Henry and Sarah Black Ministerial Education Fund, in memory of her great-grandparents; the K. and Lottie M. Stoker Memorial Scholarship, in memory of her parents; and the Willard and Ruby Stoker Kirkpatrick Ministerial Scholarship Fund.

Ann Watkins, first recipient of the new scholarship, lives with her grandparents in Lafayette, where she graduated in May in the top ten percent of her high school class. She is a member of National Honor Society and has held offices in CYF, National Forensic League and the Literary Society.

Ann's father is a computer consultant, and her mother is deceased. Having spent three years in a Presbyterian orphanage, she feels she has learned about people's feelings and has, she writes, "often thought about spending my life giving life back to others."

The Kirkpatrick Scholarship is set up to be awarded initially to a student entering TCU for the first time, with the provision that the student may continue to receive the award throughout the normal undergraduate program so long as he or she is qualified financially and academically.

TCU development officers believe the Kirkpatrick Scholarship will pave the way for other scholarships intended to help Disciples students. The University is particularly interested in being able to offer help to families with several children.

Help eventually will come from a trust in excess of $250,000 established last year by a concerned Christian Church family. Income from the trust goes to them during their lifetime, but after their deaths will fund similar scholarships for Disciples students at TCU.

Prospective students interested in learning more about such scholarships may contact Dr. Gilbert Davis, director of church relations, or TCU's office of financial aid.

Library has 13,645 books

Thirty-four new books were added to Post Public Library shelves in May to bring acquisitions to 152 for the year, Librarian Pee Wee Pierce reports.

This brings to 13,645 the number of books on library shelves.

Patrons checked out 497 books during May to bring circulation for the first five months of 1981 to 3,038.

Seventy-one books were discarded during the month, due mostly to storm damage.

Seventy-two reference questions were answered during the month, 12 books borrowed through interlibrary loan for local readers and 169 youngsters attended film strip showings at the library.

Six school classes containing 162 youngsters toured the library during the month.

Bid accepted—

(2) $17,500 for complete interior and exterior painting of Post Elementary school.

(3) $17,000 to replace existing incandescent lighting in high school building with new fluorescent lighting, a move architect representative Dwayne McQueen told trustees would pay for itself in five years through energy savings.

(4) $12,500 for over 40 ceiling fans in the primary school.

(5) $9,000 for a 24 by 24 foot metal storage building in which to keep mowing and other equipment for Antelope Stadium. This includes a four-inch concrete floor, large overhead door, insulated walls, plus concrete approach ramp.

(6) $62,000 for the complete reconstruction of the schools' four tennis courts to eliminate bad surface cracking. The courts would be surfaced over a six-inch concrete slab over an eight-inch compacted caliche base.

Only decision put off by trustees until their regular June meeting June 11 was on gym seating.

The base bid calls for only bench seating. The architect and contractor were asked to come up with cost estimates to (1) put backs on all the benches, or (2) to include four rows of approximately 100 individual seats with the rest of the bleachers being bench type seating.

Trustee Jack Kirkpatrick proposed the 100 individual seats for a possible season ticket basketball sale similar to the annual football ticket sale here with the 100 seats individually reserved.

The individual seats would cost about $50 each more than the bench seating for an additional $5,000. Only guesses could be made on the cost of putting backs on all the benches.

Trustees earlier had turned down the proposal for complete new individual seating in the new gym both for maintenance reasons and because it would reduce gym seating capacity.

Trustees agreed to go along with a new wooden gym playing floor over a synthetic composite floor.

ATTEND GRADUATION

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Voss have returned home from Roswell, N. M., where they attended graduation exercises for their grandson, Phillip King, son of Mr. and Mrs. James King.

Gary Brewer buried here

Graveside rites and burial for Gary Brewer, 36, of Snyder, were held at 2 p. m. Friday in Terrace Cemetery.

A Department of Public Safety Patrolman for the past 8½ years, he was a resident of Snyder and died Wednesday following a heart attack.

Funeral services were held at 10 a. m. Friday in the Snyder Colonial Hill Baptist Church with the Rev. Miller Robinson, pastor, officiating. Following the services, the body was brought to the Hudman Funeral Home where it lay in repose from 12:30 until 1:30.

He was married to Carol Hodges, July 3, 1964 in Post.

Survivors include his wife, a son, Mark of the home, his mother, Mrs. Edith Brewer of Post, a sister, Inez Yarbrough of Mozele and two brothers, Ben Brewer of Post and James Brewer of Buchanan Dam.

12 scholarships

Drew Kirkpatrick, Future Farmers of America scholarship.

Although the threatened thunderstorm did not develop just before the start of the graduation exercises, the program was moved to the high school gym after high winds blew over the podium on the field at Antelope Stadium about 7:30 p. m.

A near capacity crowd filled the gym for the event.

It was hot and many had considerable difficulty hearing.

Nonetheless, the valedictory address by Kevin Craig, the salutatory address by Donna George, and the graduation address by Dr. Robert Anderson, dean of the Department of Education at Texas Tech University were excellent.

Jack Lott, school board president, handed out the diplomas.

The Post school trustees voted teachers a record salary boost here in early May, but obviously they still will have a hard time keeping up with Denver City, located "in the middle of nowhere" but in the most prolific oil producing county in the nation.

At a special called meeting last week, Denver City school trustees voted to pay teachers $5,000 per year above the rising state scale.

That's not all either. Denver City teachers also receive a $500 Christmas bonus.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Well into the dark hours of last Wednesday night, the Texas House of Representatives finally approved a plan to redistrict House seats.

Some legislators were pleased, some weren't. A dozen lawmakers found themselves paired in new districts, thus forcing them to campaign against one another next year.

And a Mexican-American legislator, Rep. Paul Moreno of El Paso, took the microphone after the bill finally passed to denounce it as a travesty against his ethnic group. Moreno, a former Dirty Thirty member and long-standing House maverick, threatened the bill with a federal court lawsuit, saying Mexican-American groups will sue to have the bill thrown out as unconstitutional.

All in all, most legislators were pleased with the new borderlines, and there was a general consensus that the bill would hold up in court.

The most dramatic vote involved the pairing of the Legislature's top two gasohol advocates, Rep. Dan Kubiak of Rockdale and Rep. Bill Keese of Somerville. Both members found themselves living in the same Central Texas district, with two new districts to either side of it.

Temporary Win
Kubiak and Keese are not the best of friends, but both are excluded from the inner circle of the House leadership and are generally credited for their independence.

The pair offered an amendment to redraw the Central Texas area and avoid the political annihilation of one of them, and the House voted approval initially. However, when Kubiak moved to nail down the victory, the momentum had already turned and he failed by a handful of votes.

Other interesting pairings include Speaker Bill Clayton of Springlake and Pete Laney of Hale Center; Steve Wolens and Lanell Cofer, both of Dallas; Ron Coleman and Paul Moreno, both of El Paso; and freshman Larry Shaw of Big Spring against Dean of the House Bill Healy.

Clayton has said he will not seek re-election and is regarded as an unannounced candidate for Land Commissioner. In the House, no one is closer to Clayton than Laney.

Wolens' district was cut into three pieces, leaving the freshman virtually without a home district, but he argued and won for a pairing with Cofer, a black. Coleman is perhaps the top sidekick in the faction which has generally opposed Clayton during the past eight years. Coleman has said he will probably move to a vacant district to avoid an election clash with Moreno.

Redistricting Tradition
Traditionally, the House and Senate redistrict themselves, and then do not amend the plan for the other chamber. Thus, the House and Senate plans are already assured of making it to the Governor's office for his signature. Should he fail to sign, the task of redistricting will go to a special board, but Clements is expected to sign.

The House and Senate have approved different versions of a congressional redistricting plan, and a compromise plan will be reached in conference committee.

Wiretap Bill
Victory will be sweet for Gov. Bill Clements this week when he signs the newly-approved wiretap bill he fought so hard to achieve.

The bill authorizes the chief judge in each of the state's nine judicial districts to approve wiretaps on suspected drug dealers. Requests for wiretaps must be

Sidwell Oil completes 3

Sidwell Oil and Gas Inc., has completed three new wells in the WTG field 10 miles north of Post.

They are the No. 2 Cross, which produces 27 barrels of oil daily and 18 barrels of water from an interval of 3,084 to 3,168 feet; the No. 2-A Welch, a 24 barrel producer from an interval of 3,104 to 3,178 feet; and the No. 3-A Welch, a 19-barrel producer from 3,106 to 3,211.

A new location is Conoco Inc.'s, No. 59 Huntley, East San Andres Unit, in the Huntley East Field, six miles northeast of Post. It will be drilled to 3,400 feet.

3 Post students on dean's list

SNYDER — Janie Maria Ammons, James Mark Greer and Kurt Craig Wood of Post were among the 97 students named to the Dean's List for the 1981 spring semester at Western Texas College.

The Dean's List is made up of students enrolled for at least 12 hours of work exclusive of physical education and who have a grade point average of 3.5 or more on a 4.0 grade scale.

Katrina Chaffin on Dean's List

CANYON — Katrina M. Chaffin of Garza County was among the 667 students named to the Dean's List for the spring semester at West Texas State University.

made by the head of the Department of Public Safety.

The bill was bitterly opposed by civil libertarians who are fearful of abuses to the privacy rights of law-abiding citizens. For the most of the session, the bill remained stalled in a Senate committee, but it was voted out two weeks ago when a two-year sunset clause was attached.

Finally, the House concurred with the amended bill which will bring the wiretap law up for review in 1985, increase penalties for illegal wiretaps, and require a DPS officer to be present when local police assisted with installing the taps.

Opponents still charge that the bill contains provisions that allow police to break into a suspect's home to place the wiretap.

Clements will surely sign the bill as soon as possible, and it may be his most enjoyable afternoon of this hard-fought session.

High Plains cotton farmers can expect to face the old question of whether or not to replant damaged stands as the new growing season advances. Emergence time of the seedlings is a key consideration when farmers are faced with replanting decisions, says a specialist with the Texas Agriculture Extension Service.

With planting in full swing, optimism is high about the prospects for the area's 1981 crop, said Dr. James R. Supak, area cotton agronomist with the Extension Service. But he noted that hail, wind, sand, seedling disease and Ascochyta blight are among the hazards which can transform a beautiful patch of cotton into a field of sickly, weakened plants that appear to have little or no chance for survival.

"Should this happen on your farm, bear in mind the manner in which this planting came up to a stand," Supak advised. "Did the crop come up in a fairly uniform stand in four to seven days, or was emergence slow and spread out over two weeks or more?"

As indication of how cotton plants in these two situations are apt to perform is revealed in results of a study conducted several years ago by U.S. Department of Agriculture engineers at Lubbock. In this study, Supak said, the engineers used two seed lots varying in quality, one with 65 and the other with 85 percent germination. The seed were planted at two, three, and four-inch depths under nearly optimum conditions of soil moisture and temperature.

Part of their findings, shown in the accompanying table, indicate that emergence time has a dominant influence on yield, the Extension agronomist said. Regardless of planting depth, seedlings that emerged within five days produced the best yields.

"Rapid, uniform emergence indicates that much of the seeds' energy reserves were depleted in the germination and emergency process, he cautioned. The late-emerging seedlings are in a weakened condition and any adversity tends to further reduce stands and lower the yield capability of the surviving plants.

"Should the need arise to decide whether to replant or save the existing stand, keep in mind how the crop came up to a stand," Supak urged. Rapid, uniform emergence with good early growth means the stand is apt to recover from moderate damage by hail, sand or wind, from Ascochyta blight or other hazards and still make a good yield, he said. But a slow-emerging, sickly stand is apt to have higher mortality and sustain permanent damage that limits its yield potential. "Often, it is best to replant in this situation," Supak advised.

TAHOKA — Tracy White, All-South Plains running back for the Tahoka Bulldogs last season, has been charged with aggravated assault on a police officer.

Police Chief Jack Miller, who was called out to investigate a report of fighting, was sent to the Lynn County Hospital for treatment of eye and face injuries after an alleged altercation here with White the night of May 23.
