

Budget jumps, but council holds tax line

Although the city's budget has been boosted almost $268,000 to $1,275,000 for the new fiscal year, the city council has "held the line" on municipal property taxes.

The council voted unanimously Monday night to seek no more from property taxes than the $230,000 which is expected for the current tax year.

Council members accomplished this by taking $45,000 out of the budget which had been included for a new $90,000 water storage tank, and by taking $25,000 out of the city water fund to finance an additional $25,000 in salary increases voted 10 city employees Monday night. (See separate story.)

The $1,275,000 estimated total for the new budget, which was tentatively adopted shortly after 11 p.m., includes a wide variety of municipal income including $50,000 in oil production taxes, $160,000 in water sales, $28,000 in sewer rentals, $60,000 in sanitation fees (trash collection), $160,000 in utility occupational taxes, $35,000 in interest, $140,000 in city sales tax, $12,000 in fines from city court, and $49,000 in federal revenue sharing among the larger income items. Much of the increased spending will come from dipping in oil reserve funds, federal revenue sharing fund reserve, and water fund reserves.

Besides salary increases, major budget increases go toward a number of so-called "big ticket" equipment purchases. Included among these are $4,000 to share purchase with county of $8,000 "jaws of life"; $55,000 for a new street sweeper which will be funded from the oil reserve fund, $3,000 for a copying machine, $5,500 for additional IBM data entry station for the new computer in the city office, $1,000 for a new typewriter for the judge's office, and $100,000 for a new fire truck. Only $50,000 toward the fire truck is new money as $50,000 had been budgeted for a fire truck reserve fund in recent years.

Some $8,000 is budgeted for more trash can containers and lids. There is $20,000 for airport runway work in the new budget. The council even has "earmarked" $4,600 from (See Budget Jump, Page 14)

Good field ready, parade today--

300 entries in Post Stampede

Over 250 cowboys already have entered the 41st Post Stampede Rodeo by mid-Tuesday afternoon, Secretary Tommy Young told The Dispatch, assuring a great field for the first of three nightly shows tonight.

The rodeo will kick off with the traditional rodeo parade down Main Street here at 5:30 p.m. Thursday.

The grand entry is scheduled for 7:45 p.m. with the rodeo getting under way promptly at 8 p.m. New metal bleachers await the rodeo fans.

The wild cow milking contest will be held at the end of each show, following the bull riding, in one program change.

Another announced yesterday was that the Garza cowboys will hold their own team roping event "after show" Thursday night.

All over "after show" rodeo events will be conducted Friday night.

Everybody will be mounted for the rodeo parade this evening — including the police escort. Sheriff Jim Pippin on horseback will provide the escort.

Young said over 300 entries are expected for the Post Stampede Rodeo program by the time the books closed at noon Wednesday.

"We've got a strong field," Young said.

Over $10,000 in prize money will go to rodeo winners here Saturday.

The Reese Air Force Base color guard will participate in the rodeo parade. The high school cheerleaders have added another float to the parade lineup.

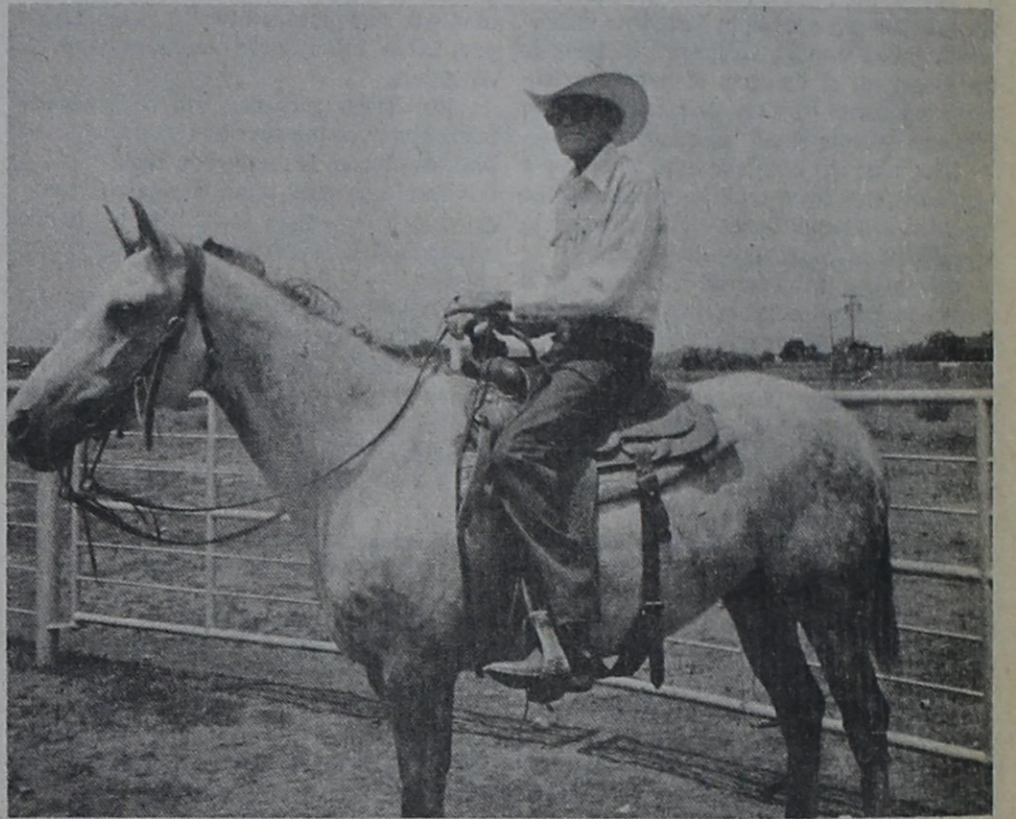

Unless there are some last minute entries, there will be no decorated bike division in the parade, Chamber Secretary Linda Shedd reported.

Terry Walls of Stephenville will be back again as the producer of the rodeo.

A gal trick rider and a trained dog specialty act will be featured on the rodeo program.

Weldon Reed and the Solid Country will play for the three rodeo dances which will follow the evening rodeo performances.

18% gas boost sought here

Mike Sanchez, the city's director of public works, is receiving praise from folks all over town, and undoubtedly it's doubly nice when city councilmen and the mayor pass along the compliments at council sessions they are receiving on his supervision of city services outside city hall since City Manager Pete Maddox resigned.

Mike is getting all kinds of things done, so it was no wonder that the council voted him a salary boost retroactive to July 1 with another on top of that coming with the start of the city's new fiscal year Oct. 1.

You'll notice on page 5 that Jeri Lott and Patty Kirkpatrick are announcing the grand opening of their remodeled Danish Imports at 211 East Main Friday and Saturday. You'll remember they purchased the business some time ago from Clint Herring and then closed for remodeling. It's a pretty fabulous place now and they've got a wide range of gifts from many places overseas. If you haven't thought about it, Post has an excellent group of gift shops for a small town. Don't miss stopping in at Danish Imports for a look at all their nice things this weekend.

Barbecue to be benefit

Tickets went on sale here Wednesday for the benefit barbecue the Veterans of Foreign Wars and their auxiliary will sponsor Sept. 5 to raise funds for the Post EMTs to purchase training aids.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars post and its members already have contributed $450 toward buying the needed training aids, according to VFW commander Tom Marrier.

Tickets are priced at $4 for adults and $2 for a child's plate.

McCrary reports on life in China

Mayor Giles McCrary left Post Rotarians chuckling Tuesday over his report on his recent visit to China. He described comparing U.S. life to that in China something like "comparing apples to onions."

To visit China, unlike other countries in the world, you have to obtain an invitation and only 200,000 service to residential and certain business customers, effective Sept. 4, 1981.

For the average residential customer on the system, the proposed new rate would increase the cost of a thousand cubic feet of gas by 63 cents, from $3.40 to $4.03.

The proposed new rates apply to domestic and commercial type, small industrial, and large air conditioning customers on the West Texas City Plant System of Energas. About 180,000 customers are affected, in an area extending from Pampa to Odessa.

Energas officials said the decision to file for new rates was made after a study by an independent consulting firm revealed that revenues from the West Texas City Plant System in 1980 were $22.4 million less than the cost of service. The new

10 city workers hiked

Approximately $25,000 in wage boosts, effective with the start of the new fiscal year Oct. 1, were voted by the Post City Council at its August meeting Monday night, to 10 city employees.

Two of them, City Secretary Wanda Wilkerson and Director of Public Works Mike Sanchez, also were voted intermediate raises retroactive to July 1 for their temporarily assuming the duties of City Manager Pete Maddox who resigned in late June.

All other city employees will receive 10 percent wage boosts Oct. 1.

The council acted to grant salary hikes above 10 percent to the 10 employees for unusual skills, longevity of employment, and meritorious service in the face of prevailing wage scales in Garza oil fields.

Mrs. Wilkerson was increased from $935 a month to $1,028 retroactive to July 1 and will be boosted to $1,130 Oct. 1. Sanchez was increased from $1,017.50 to $1,118 monthly retroactive to July 1 and will be boosted to $1,230 Oct. 1.

The other specific increases included: Pablo Garcia, bulldozer operator, $5.22 hour to $6.50 hour; Salvador Garcia, sanitation truck operator, $4.40 hour to $6.50 hour; A. D. Kitchens, $4.40 to $6.50 hour; Doss Jackson, cemetery custodian, $4.40 to $6.50 hour; Owen Gilbert, $4.40 to $6.50 hour; Junior Shepherd, $4.40 to $6.50 hour; Yvonne

Kennedy, $4.55 to $5.55 hour; James Wise, maintenance supervisor, $880 month to $1,050.

After receiving presentations from the three local insurance agencies, the council voted to give the Harold Lucas Insurance Agency $950,000 insurance coverage of municipal real properties and contents on a low bid of $4,560 for one year beginning Aug. 4.

The city requested Lucas to put a 30-day binder on the city's radio tower until the city can confer with the county on whether the county wants coverage of (See Pay Hike, Page 14)

Farm appraisals slashed

Jean Westfall, Garza appraiser, announced this week that agreement has been reached with the Garza appraisal board to reduce market values on farm and ranch lands considerably.

She told The Dispatch that almost all farmers and ranchers were using agriculture use valuations for their lands so the main interest they had in market value appraisals are for inheritance tax purposes. Mrs. Westfall gave these new market and ag use values:

No. 1 irrigated land above cap $1,000 acre for market value and $360 for ag use.

No. 2 irrigated land $850 market value, $265 ag use. Level dry cropland above cap, $750 and $265 level dry cropland below cap $400 and $190; sloping dry cropland above cap $600 and $175, below cap $340 and $158; shallow sloping dry cropland, above cap $400, and $150; native pasture, above cap $150 and $30, below cap $100 and $30; minimum use land $75 and $2 above cap and $50 and $2 below cap.

She reported one farmer would pay five times the taxes he would pay on ag use values of his land because he didn't get the land changed this year from market value.

The county appraiser said she and others are working to get these cases into district court where landowners can be given a second chance because some who live out of county were not informed of the reappraisal in time.

Mrs. Westfall said under the new farm and ranch land values printed above land would be valued the same whether in two-acre or 160-acre parcels.

By the changes, some land which had been valued at $1,114 an acre has been reduced to $100 an acre.

School budget on table tonight

Post school trustees will review its 1981-82 school district budget at their August meeting tonight in the high school library and approve a budget hearing date which is expected to be Monday afternoon at 1 p.m.

Trustees also will set a rate hearing date.

The board will have an unusually big agenda for tonight's meeting as the July meeting was postponed combined with tonight's meeting due to surgery undergone this summer by Supt. Bill Shiver.

With both state and local boosts in teachers salaries the new budget is expected to top the $3,000,000 mark for the first time.

Also scheduled for action is approval of a proposed 20 percent increase in salaries of para-professional and auxiliary employees.

Another action item is consideration of increasing teacher substitute pay which is now $25 per day for a certified teacher, $22 for a teacher with some college hours, and $20 per day for those who are high school graduates only.

Other items on the agenda include: (See School Budget Page 14)

Post woman dies in highway crash

Funeral services for Mrs. Paulyne Cheshire, 62, who was killed in a truck-motor home crash Friday night, were conducted at 10:30 a.m. Monday in the First United Methodist Church here.

The fatal crash occurred about 8:30 p.m. Friday on US-84, seven miles northwest of Post.

Investigating officers said Mrs. Cheshire was traveling northwest in a 1964 Ford pickup at an apparent high rate of speed when her vehicle struck the left rear of a 1972 motor home driven by Lawrence Wood of Lewisville, Tx.

The pickup rolled five or six times throwing Mrs. Cheshire from the vehicle. The motor home did not overturn and Wood was not injured in the collision.

Mrs. Cheshire was pronounced dead at the accident scene by Justice of the Peace Pat Kitchens.

Mrs. Cheshire was born in Rockwood. She was married to the late David A. Cheshire on June 23, 1945, in Salinas, Calif. They moved to Post in 1949.

Survivors include two sons, Charles of San Carlos, Calif., and David of Post; three daughters, Mrs. Helyn (See Fatal Crash, Page 14)

Inheritance tax solution

One of the most important provisions of the greatest tax cut bill in American history which sailed through congress last week is the loosening of the grip of federal estate taxes on farm families and families who own and operate small businesses.

The need has been admitted by all for a long time that such families should not be forced to sell small farms and businesses to settle their tax bills with Uncle Sam.

But trying to generate a solution in a money-spending congress has for decades been well nigh impossible.

Then came the Reagan Revolution.

The exclusion from estate taxes was raised from $175,000 to $600,000 and inserted into the Reagan administration's tax bill. It sailed through unchallenged as a relatively minor tax cutting provision.

But it certainly isn't a "minor matter" to the average farmer or small business man who has given a lifetime to building a profitable inheritance for sons and or daughters.

The larger exclusion will be gradually phased in over the next five years until the $600,000 plateau is reached in 1986.

The tax bill also contains other provisions on estate taxes which provide added benefits, especially to surviving spouses.

Probably the best explanation for the ease with which the estate tax provisions sailed through is that lawmakers for the last 10 years have been studying how to ease the estate tax burden on middle income families.

It was too long in coming, but at last it's here.

Guest workers proposed

The Reagan Administration last week proposed a new U.S. immigration policy which would allow 50,000 Mexican guest workers to come to the United States annually and would make it unlawful for employers of more than four persons to knowingly hire illegal aliens.

These are the two principal provisions as they will effect this West Texas area although national emphasis is placed on other positions of the policy.

Governor Bill Clements was instrumental in having the 50,000 guest worker provision included. He has been to Washington many times to discuss the proposition with President Reagan, Attorney General Smith and other federal officials. He gave the plan real impetus when he got a favorable response to the proposal last year when he organized a conference of U.S. and Mexican border state governors and laid out the plan before them.

For many decades West Texas has had a farm labor and gin labor problem which Mexican labor has filled. Thousands of illegal Mexican aliens have come to West Texas and found work. Generally, the pay and living conditions have improved for the aliens.

Each year the border patrol rounds up hundreds of illegals and ships them back to Mexico. Under current law, no charges are filed against employers of illegal aliens although such a course has been recommended by opponents of this Mexican labor movement who charge that U.S. citizens are losing thousands of jobs due to the illegals.

That's a very false charge as far as the west Texas labor market is concerned. Many farmers and gins have had to depend on "illegals" for years.

According to press reports, the guest worker program would be targeted to specific areas and jobs under the direction of the of the Department of Labor, but such details are yet to be worked out.

Workers would be free to change employers and normal wage and working standard laws would apply to them.

But workers would not be allowed to bring in spouses and children. They would not be allowed access to welfare or food stamp assistance or be eligible for unemployment compensation.

The Reagan immigration proposals must be approved by congress before they would take effect and neither the Ford nor Carter administrations were able to get their immigration plans enacted by congress.

The Reagan plan will face intense labor union opposition.

If the plan is adopted, gins would have to turn to Mexican guest workers to fill their crews or become liable for fines of up to $1,000 if they continue to employ illegals. Small cotton farmers would not run such a risk as long as their payrolls are not over four persons.

Whether the Reagan proposals are adopted or not, there is no way to close that U.S.-Mexican border across which thousands of "illegals" pour each year. With the Reagan plan in place, the question would be whether such "illegals" can continue to find work in the American economy from employers who will face fines for hiring them. That might dry up the labor market for illegals, but it might not depending upon how desperate employers become to fill a wide variety of jobs most Americans shun.

The guest worker program would be temporary and an experiment. If it worked it could well be expanded.

A guest labor program is nothing new in today's world. In Europe, many industrialized nations import thousands of workers from poorer countries to fill jobs which go begging otherwise. That's been going on over there for several decades — and quite successfully, just as it has in West Texas.

LETTERS to the Editor

THANKS AND APPRECIATION

Dear Editor:
My heart felt thanks go to the people who so efficiently and graciously assisted me in getting my husband to the Post hospital after he suffered a massive stroke 10 miles west on the Tahoka highway Sunday, July 19, 1981. To the 3 men who placed him in the back seat of my car and the one who drove my car to the Post hospital for me, the Doctor and the nurses, and the ambulance crew who brought us to the Brownfield Hospital. I find it difficult to express my gratitude for your kindness and concern.

During this ordeal I failed to get anyone's name, so I want to thank each of you publically in your home town paper.

My husband, Joe Shelton, still remains seriously ill in the ICU of the Lubbock General Hospital.

I know and pray that if any one of these people or anyone else faces a similar tragedy will find that there are so many wonderful people in this world ready to help one in need.

Mrs. Joe Shelton

EGREGIOUS WASTE

Dear Editor:
I am writing to apprise you of an egregious waste of citizen funds in one of the most affluent areas in the country.

The U.S. Postal Service, which recently increased stamp prices from 15 cents to 18 cents and plans to go to 20 or 23 cents, is about to start building what amounts to a resort training site in my State Legislative District in Potomac, Md. The site is within two miles of Congressional Country Club, Burning Tree Country Club, and Bethesda Country Club in what Federal District Court Judge Harold Greene called "an enclave of exclusivity," where the average income is $45,000. There, the Postal Service spent $6+ million dollars for eighty acres of land in a residential area next to homes selling for $300,000 and $700,000. The first thing the Service did was put in a cocktail lounge. An Olympic size swimming pool and large gymnasium were already on the property. The Service's environmental assessment statement says they plan to build eight tennis courts, a jogging trail, and a 22,000 square foot recreational area. The training resort director Dr. Buttz said a par three golf course is also planned. Selected postal supervisors from around the country will come for six week periods by air and $25 taxi rides. No public transportation will be available to the panoramic vistas of this "Taj Mahal" postal training resort. It is an outrageous example of Government waste.

While the "cash-on-the-barrelhead" price for construction is $28.3 million, the Service will finance it over a period of years, bringing construction costs to well over $50 million, including interest. Our stamp increases will pay the bill. The land and golden-domed building on it already, which puts "Tara" to shame, was purchased by the Service on October 2, 1980, just before the election without any public hearings. To me, this project is the epitome of Government extravagance — and it is within ten miles of the White House!

I was one of a handful of Maryland elected Republicans who supported President Reagan in last year's primaries. I still strongly support him. Nevertheless, this postal training resort violates his pledge to root out government waste. Hopefully, your many readers will write the President and their Congressmen to protest.

Thank you.
Sincerely,
Robin Ficker,
Member
Maryland House of Delegates

The Lone Star Chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation announces the appointment of Nancy Warren as Chairman of its 1981 Breath of Life Campaign in Post.

The campaign will be held to provide the community with information about Cystic Fibrosis and to raise funds to support research, education and care programs for CF patients. The number one genetic killer of children, Cystic Fibrosis is inherited and incurable — claiming three lives each day. An estimated one in 20 Americans is a symptomless carrier of the recessive CF gene. Currently half of all children born with CF will die before reaching their 20th birthday.

CCC to sell corn here

Farmers and other interested persons will be eligible to purchase corn from the Commodity Credit Corporation starting July 27.

Victor L. Ashley, executive director of the Garza County ASCS office, said the CCC will offer corn for unrestricted use sale at market prices, but not less than the formula price which is 115 percent of the county loan rate for corn where stored plus 54 cents per bushel carrying charges.

"The minimum quantity that will be considered for acceptance is 1000 bushels," Ashley said.

According to Ashley, offers will be received and sales will be made on a first come, first served basis.

Interested persons should contact the county ASCS office as soon as possible for further details. The office is located at 208 W. Main. The phone number is 806-495-2801.

Davis-Baumann vows pledged here Saturday

MRS. KELLY BAUMANN
(Theresa Lynne Davis)

Traditional wedding vows were pledged between Theresa Lynne Davis and James Kelly Baumann in a 2 p.m. ceremony at the First Baptist Church, Saturday, Aug. 1.

Performing the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Steve McMeans before a brass archway entwined with greenery and centered with a white bow and silk peach roses. Large white wicker baskets of white gladiolas were on either side of the altar with a unity candle in the center of the archway and candleabra with white tapers on either side of the archway. Greenery and English ivy was used around the piano and organ and white bows marked the pews with votive candles and greenery used on the parents and grandparents pews.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Leon Davis of 309 South Ave. F in Post and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Baumann of 601 West 4th.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of chantilly lace and organza. Seed pearls scattered on French chantilly lace formed the molded empire bodice and long fitted sleeves and the Queen Ann neckline was enhanced by a dainty crystal pleated ruffle. Scallop of chantilly lace and a deep crystal pleated flounce encircled the A-line silk organza skirt and chapel length train, which was edged with a wide border of matching chantilly lace. Theresa's picture hat was trimmed in reemboiered chantilly lace and clusters of silk flowers with an attached waltz length silk illusion veil dotted with lace appliques edged in pearls. The bridal bouquet was a white silk arrangement of roses, lily of the valley, gypsophelia, and baby's breath centered with fresh peach roses atop a white Bible carried by her mother in her own wedding. Carrying out the tradition of something new, her dress, something old, the Bible, something blue, her garter made by Sue Maxey and something borrowed, a string of pearls belonging to her mother and she wore a penny in her shoe minted in the year of her birth.

The bride paused upon entering the church to present her mother with a peach rose.

Mothers of the couple rose to light candles while "I Pledge My Love" was sung by Jackie Gordon.

Julie Tyler, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor and Karen Davis, sister of the bride was bridesmaid. They wore identical formal length gowns of peach satin with sheer capelets. The capelets fell from a rounded neckline and the gowns were gathered at the waist. They wore peach colored picture hats with fabric ribbon falling into wide streamers with three peach silk roses. They carried cascades of blue and peach carnations with spider mums, baby's breath and blue ribbon.

Wedding guests were registered by Leanna Davis.

Serving as best man was Danny Nelson of Abilene and groomsmen was Ronald White.

Acting as ushers were Randall Stotts of Tahoka and Randy Ammons of Post. The groomsmen and ushers were attired in light blue tuxedos with peach carnation boutonnieres and the groom wore an all-white tuxedo with tails.

Wedding music was provided by pianist Nancy Flanigan and organist, Mary Margaret Norman and soloist, Jackie Gordon who sang "I Pledge My Love", "You Needed Me" and the "Wedding Prayer" while the couple lit the unity candle.

The bride presented her mother-in-law with a rose upon leaving the church.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Members of the house party included Mmes. Loveta Josey, Donna Aten, Debbie Mason, Beth Short, Allane Ammons and Joyce Nelson.

The bride's table was laid with a white satin cloth overlaid with a cloth of illusion edged in reemboiered lace. The centerpiece was a peach and blue silk flower arrangement in a crystal vase flanked by white tapers. The wedding cake was a white three-tiered cake with crystal columns featuring peach flowers and French lace with blue centers. Silk flower arrangements and net were used on two layers and it was topped with a Gazebo holding peach and blue flowers with blue ribbon and small white doves were used on the cake. Peach colored punch, nuts and mints with peach colored napkins were also on the table.

Serving at the bride's table were Mrs. Leslie Davis, and Mrs. Freda Howard, aunts of the bride, and Susan Baumann of Midland, cousin of the groom.

The groom's table featured a blue cloth overlaid with lace from which a brass

MRS. DONALD DINGUS, JR.
(Sylvia Jane Smith)

Sylvia Smith wed to Don Dingus Jr.

A double ring wedding ceremony uniting Sylvia Jane Smith and Donald Eugene Dingus, Jr., was held at 10 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 1, at the First Baptist Church in Lamesa. Dr. C. H. Murphy, minister, officiated the ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Arvil M. Smith of Post and Mr. and Mrs. Don Dingus of Lamesa.

Vows were read beneath a starburst background of spring flowers. At either side stood a pedestal holding yellow daisy pot plants. Foliage and flowering plants were massed at the bases of the pedestal. The steps were lined by yellow daisy pot plants.

Given in marriage by her brother, Bunny Smith, the bride wore a formal length gown of white organza fashioned with a high Victorian neckline edged in Venice lace. A sheer yoke of Brussels lace with a deep ruffle encircled the shoulders. The empire bodice had an overlay of lace with scallops at the waistline.

The A-line skirt had rows of Venice lace and a ruffle of Brussels lace at the hemline that cascaded into a chapel length train. Her headpiece was a Juliet cap of matching lace adorned with seed pearls holding two tiers of fingertip lace edged illusion. She carried a traditional colonial style bouquet of red roses, accented with blue, pink lavender, and apricot miniature carnations, yellow and white daisies static, and baby's breath on top of a white Bible trimmed in lace which was made by her mother.

For something old, the bride carried her mother's handkerchief, her dress and veil were new. She borrowed a diamond pinky ring belonging to the groom's mother and her garter made by Margaret Seal was blue.

As the bride entered, she presented her mother with a rose pin, and upon leaving following the ceremony, she presented her mother-in-law with an identical pin.

Kathleen Hooks of Galveston, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaid was Dana Seal. They wore sleeveless gowns of cool white cotton eyelet with blue floral designs. Each featured high waistlines and inverted V-bodices enhancing the gowns. The scoop self-ruffled neckline and deep ruffled hem was edged with eyelet lace. Each carried a small bouquet similar to that of the bride.

The groom wore a light blue tuxedo with a coordinating white ruffled shirt trimmed in navy with a matching bow tie.

Robert Seal served as best man with Kerry Bedwell of Abilene serving as groomsmen.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the church parlor. The four-tiered white cake was accented with blue flowers featuring yellow highlights and topped with a clear brown glass heart encircling bells. The bridal bouquet and attendants' bouquets decorated the table.

The groom's table was decorated with a dried flower arrangement of cotton bolls. Coffee was served with cheese balls, crackers, and sausage balls.

After a short wedding trip the couple will reside in Lamesa.

The bride is a Post High School graduate and also graduated from the University of Houston and attended Hardin Simmons University in Abilene. The groom graduated from Lamesa High School and Texas State Technical Institute in Waco. The bride is employed by Webb Pharmacy in Lamesa and the groom is engaged in farming.

Births

Danny and Vickie Cooper of Lubbock are the parents of a son, Matthew Lee, born July 28th in Lubbock General Hospital. He weighed 8 lbs. 3 oz. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Williams, Dena Morgan and greatgrandfather Mr. Charlie Williams, Sr. all of Post.

Ushers were Curt Cowdrey, also a brother of the bride and Matt Becker of Phoenix, Ariz., brother-in-law of the bridegroom. Wedding music was pro-

Lisa Cowdrey, Carlton Bartley wed on ranch

The Gascon Ranch at Rociada, N.M., was the scene of the double ring wedding ceremony uniting Miss Lisa Lou Cowdrey and Carlton James Bartley Saturday at twelve o'clock noon.

Dick Laird, professor at Lubbock Christian College, performed the ceremony before the rock fireplace on which two antique wrought iron candleabras held tapers. The fireplace was flanked on either side by large baskets of pink gladioli, mountain wildflowers and fern.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Cowdrey, Route 3, Post, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bartley, Gascon Ranch, Rociada, N.M.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride descended the stairway wearing a candlelight wedding dress of sheer French embroidered lace featuring a sundress bodice with tiny straps. The long straight skirt was edged in a tiny pleated flounce ruffle. The long sleeved lace jacket was edged in the sheer pleated ruffling which formed a V-neck collar and peplum. It was fastened with tiny covered buttons. The flowing embroidered French lace train was attached to the dress at the waistline. The dress was designed and made by the bride's mother.

To compliment the dress, the bride wore an ivory picture hat tied with an organza illusion bow and flowing streamers, which was worn by Jarita Greene in her wedding.

The bride carried a cascade of white and pink daisies accented with the mountain wildflowers atop an ivory antique fan which had belonged to Diane Greaves' maternal grandmother.

Also carrying out the wedding traditions, she carried an antique turquoise and silver cross that belonged to the bridegroom's maternal grandmother. Her blue garter was made by Sue Maxey and she wore a 1961 penny in her shoe for good luck.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Gary Luft of Lubbock. She wore a long mauve pink dress with a sheer floral short sleeved jacket. She carried a nosegay of pink daisies and wildflowers tied with pink ribbon streamers.

Miss Ashley Starkey of Lubbock was junior bridesmaid. She wore a long pink dress accented with the mauve pink ribbon. She also carried a nosegay identical to the matron of honor.

Serving as best man was Darrel Brown of Las Cruces, N.M., Clay Cowdrey, brother of the bride was junior groomsmen.

Ushers were Curt Cowdrey, also a brother of the bride and Matt Becker of Phoenix, Ariz., brother-in-law of the bridegroom. Wedding music was provided by Miss Lea Ann Cozier of Lubbock, at the piano. Miss Cozier played and sang "The Rose". Miss Amy Cowdrey, sister of the bride, played the piano and sang "Annie's Song" and then played the guitar and sang "For Baby for Bobby."

Grandparents attending the ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Peel of Post, Mrs. Anna Belle Bartley of Las Vegas, N.M., and Dr. Carl H. Gellenthien of Valmore, N.M.

The reception buffet was held in the studio at the Gascon Ranch at one o'clock.

The approximately 100 guests attending the buffet were greeted by the couple and their parents. The guests were registered by Miss Cozier.

The buffet table was covered with a beige cloth trimmed with lace ruffling and centered with a large basket of wildflowers flanked on either side by the wrought iron candleabra.

Turkey and ham were served with a large assortment of salads, hot rolls, iced tea and coffee.

The bridal table was covered with an ivory lace cloth over brown and centered with brass candlesticks with frosted votive cups entwined with the attendant's nosegays. The tiered wedding cake was adorned with gum paste orchids and lace point tip hearts with the ranch brand. It was topped with a candy portrait of the couple. Brass and crystal appointments were used. The table was centered in front of a rock fireplace with the wedding baskets of pink gladioli on either side of the mantel.

The wedding cake, punch, mints and nuts were served by Carol Laird and Earline

Moore of Lubbock.

Members of the house-party included aunts of the bride, Mrs. Dan Berry of Eunice, N.M. and Mrs. Carlos Alexander of Lovington, N.M., Mrs. Q. R. Maxey, Mrs. Noel White, Mrs. Lewis Mason and Mrs. Ronnie Graves all of Post.

The bride wore a denim skirt and vest trimmed with white eyelet ruffling as they left for their honeymoon to Eagle's Nest, N.M.

They will reside near Las Vegas. The bridegroom operates a sawmill on the family ranch.

The bride is a graduate of Post High School and attended LCC and Texas Tech University. She was employed by "The Cake Place" in Lubbock. The bridegroom attended New Mexico University at Las Cruces, N.M.

Out-of-town guests were from Phoenix, Ariz., Boston, Mass., Canon City, Colo., Santa Fe, N.M., Las Cruces, N.M., Lovington, N.M., Eunice, N.M., Tularosa, N.M., Las Vegas, N.M., Valmore, N.M., Albuquerque, N.M., Fort Worth, Austin, Lubbock and Post.

Nuptials to be Sept. 5

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Morris of Clarendon announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Melinda Kay to Roger Vance Choate.

The couple will be married September 5, at 2 p.m. in the First Baptist Church of Clarendon.

Melinda is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Morris and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hodges, both of Post.

Jimmy Bird uses coastal bermuda for grazing

For years farmers and ranchers have been looking for ways to put unproductive sandy cropland back to grass. "Coastal bermuda grass is a very profitable alternative to the problem," says Dwaine Binford, district conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service in Post.

Thousands of acres of sandy land were plowed into cultivation in the first half of this century without any knowledge of soil capabilities or erosion hazards. Many farmers have learned the hard way that extremely sandy soils are subject to severe blowing and loss of production.

"Bermuda grass is the best thing I've found for this sandy land," said Jimmy Bird who operates 6,200 acres east of Post. "This coastal bermuda is quick to establish, and provides a lot of grazing. I'm grazing five acres per cow on a year round basis and it's not completely established yet", Bird said.

"Most people thought bermuda wouldn't survive out here in West Texas without irrigation. I planted 200 acres within the last two years and even with last summer's drought, it has very few bare spots. The grass I planted two years ago has completely covered the ground and stands from 4 to 10 inches tall already," Bird said.

Bird leases a sprigging machine from Roby, to plant his grass. He usually starts sprigging in March, and hopes for some good moisture immediately after planting. According to Bird, "Fertilizer is definitely a necessity. If you don't fertilize don't expect much grass because some of this land has been worn out by farming. I use 200 pounds of 30-40-0 per acre."

"Grassburrs are another problem when the bermuda is establishing but after the bermuda takes over, the grassburrs are choked out, so they do not present any long term problems, and I don't worry about them too much", Bird said.

If you would like more information about the grasses that are adapted to the soils here in Garza county the Soil Conservation Service in Post will be glad to assist you in every way possible.

Genealogical workshop free

LUBBOCK — A free genealogical workshop and sale of historical publications will be presented by the South Plains Genealogical Society, August 7 and 8 in the Municipal Garden & Arts Center, 4215 University Avenue, Lubbock, Texas. Hours for the two-day event are 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Friday and 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday.

Books, quarterlies, maps and other resource materials will be provided for research by the genealogical organization and its members. No formal program is planned so that researchers may use the opportunity to browse through source books, many of which are not available in local libraries.

Free classes for beginning researchers are scheduled as follows: Friday, 9:30 a.m., 1:30 p.m. and 7 p.m.; Saturday, 9:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

Twin Cedars Nursing Home News

Sunday services were brought to us by the Calvary Baptist Church with Morgan Ashworth officiating. Jim Jackson sang a special for all the residents.

This past week was a very busy week for all the residents. On Tuesday the VFW ladies Auxiliary came and gave Thelma Hodges, Irene Wheeler, and Jessie Roberts a birthday party for all the birthdays in July. We want to thank Ad Sparlin, Curtis Sparlin, Lola Ryan, Jo Ella Sparlin, and Malcey Johnston for all the delicious cake, cookies, brownies, and punch. Mildred Stewart sang for the residents and had the residents playing different instruments and singing. Escar Stone played the accordion. Everyone was singing, laughing and having a wonderful time.

Wednesday we had another party for Jessie Roberts and Irene Wheeler. Chris Goodwin, Mary Goodwin, Jewell White, Thelma Thomas brought cake, ice cream, angel food cake and punch. Everyone enjoyed all the good food.

Everyone was so worn out from the parties that we decided to play dominoes on Thursday.

Bernita Maxey donated bundles of quilt scraps and magazines to the home. Everyone is enjoying the scraps and magazines and want to thank you for the thoughtfulness.

Virginia Grigsby brought squash and canteloup and the residents want to thank her for the vegetables.

Visitors this past week were Greg Benham, Glenn Roberts, Mary Roberts, Lucile and Cleety Walker, Mildred Pevehouse from Snyder, Bill and Lottie Sanders, Fern Strange and Darrell Roberts.

Dee and Billie Caylor celebrated their 49th wedding anniversary Sunday. All the residents want to congratulate you and hope you have many more wonderful anniversaries.

Six on Tech's 1st summer honor roll

Senior Citizen News

Hey, you Senior Citizens out there in the city of Post. We are really having good times at our center on 103 S. Avenue I. If you are not coming down you are really missing something. So call up your neighbor and come on down and join the fun and good meals we are enjoying each day.

Our prayers go out to Joe Williams and Inez Grant-ham and Zora Robinson on the loss of their brothers. Also there may be others we don't know about. Nell and Marion Mathews lost a nephew in a tragic incident. Also Mrs. Pauline Cheshire's family needs our prayers and love through the loss of their mother. Our prayers are with all of our senior citizens who are ill. If we can be of any help to you please call 2998 at the Algerita Center.

Our Senior Citizens Choir had a very enjoyable Sunday at the Church of God of Prophecy helping to start Brother Kenneth Cook's second year here in Post. He and his family have really been a blessing to us as well as the members of his Church. We all sure received a great blessing by being in the Lord's house with them and enjoyed singing songs and hearing other singers too.

We have had two good musicals this past month with visitors from Tahoka and other places. This was enjoyed by all.

Finally got our air conditioner fixed and it is much nicer in the Center. It sure got hot in here. If you have passed by maybe you noticed our new front door. We are really proud of it, also we have gotten our new storage space finished all except painting. Thanks to the Green Thumb men and Mike Custer, also Jerry Osborne and Alfred Oden.

We just like getting our ceiling fans up now and we will be fixed up for a while. Still would like to get you folks down, men and women, both for exercises. They are really good for you.

We finally received some word from Bob and Verna Seaborn who recently moved. They were two of our most faithful Senior Citizens to be here every day. Verna has had a stroke since she left but is much improved now. Our prayers are with them.

Glad to have Verna Roberts back after about 2 months of vacation. Missed her very much. If I have missed anyone who has been sick or lost a loved one please forgive me, because I didn't know.

Thanks to Ben Brewer, Mr. and Mrs. Siewert, Mr. and Mrs. Casey and Mike and Virginia for the garden vegetables they have sent us. We appreciate them very much. Ben Brewer sent us 50 pounds of beautiful and very tasty onions. Mr. Moore and Arlie, Rufus Warren have brought us fresh fruit and we sure made some good cobbblers. Thanks to you all. We love you. Until next week.....

Joe Williams' brother dies

Funeral services for Loye Williams, 74, of Fritch, brother of Joe Williams of Post, were conducted at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at the First Methodist Church of Borger.

Williams, who retired in 1972 after 33 years as an employe of the Phillips Petroleum Co. at its Phillips refinery, died Monday in St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo.

Williams was a member of the Isom Masonic Lodge No. 1242. He was a Scottish Rite 33rd Degree Mason-York Rite-Khiva Temple and was known to many Masonic Lodge members here in Post.

Polar homecoming and singing set

POLAR — The Polar Homecoming and Old Time Singing is scheduled here Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 15-16.

The singing will be held at 7:30 p.m. Aug. 15 and the homecoming Sunday. An electric hookup for campers will be available for those wishing to stay overnight, but no water or plumbing.

Public Notice

NOTICE
Energas Company, a division of Pioneer Corporation, hereby gives notice of its intent to implement new rates for domestic and commercial type, small industrial and large air conditioning-electric generating customer classes in the 63 cities and towns on its West Texas City Plant System, effective September 4, 1981. It is anticipated that the new rates will result in a 16 percent increase in Energas' gross revenues on its West Texas City Plant System, which increase is a "major change" as defined in Section 43 (b) of Article 1446c, V.A.T.C.S.

A Statement of Intent to change said rates was filed with each of the cities and towns (listed below) on or about July 31, 1981, and is available for inspection at the Company's Amarillo office, 301 S. Taylor Street.

Cities and Towns Affected

NOTICE TO BIDDERS
The City of Post will accept bids to lay approximately 400' of line from East 10th Street to Corner of Main and Avenue H. Bids must include 400' of 6" AC pipe.

25 YEAR AWARD — Ignacio Varela of 204 East 14th, Postex Plant spooler fixer, is shown receiving his service certificate and awards for 25 years continuous service from Plant Manager Don Smith. Varela was honored on July 30th in a meeting in Smith's office. Varela has filled positions in the spinning and spooling departments since his employment on, July 31, 1956.

English is their second language and many Chinese in their 20s speak English quite well. He termed the Mao suits worn by both Chinese men and women as "unisex clothes." Giles said Chinese hotel accommodations compare with U.S. hotels of the 1925 to 1930 period.

The Chinese lead an unbelievable regimented life with the government choosing students to attend college and assigning everybody to jobs.

The Chinese have no refrigeration and have to go to the store to buy food before preparing each meal. But he termed them a relatively happy people and always busy.

McCrory said he is now "relying" his trip because boxes containing his purchases in China are just beginning to arrive here.

The comparison that brought the biggest chuckle was when he compared America's "upright commode" to the Chinese "hole in the floor that flushes."

REUNION TO BE HELD
Friends and relatives of the Sameul Isiah and Flora Elizabeth Martin, are invited to attend a family reunion to be held Saturday

Bucks in semi-finals

Manager Boog Holly's Post VFW Bucks tied for first place in the Slaton Semi-pro baseball league Saturday night with an 8-0 triumph over the Slaton Padres.

That left them tied with Eblin Drug of Slaton for first at the end of the schedule, each team with 12-2 records.

The Eblin team had beaten the Bucks here the previous Saturday night 5 to 2 to hand the Bucks their second defeat.

Bryan Compton had a no-hitter going until one out in the bottom of the seventh when he gave up a single for the only Slaton hit of the game.

Post came up with five runs in the bottom of the fourth to break open a scoreless game. Included in the rally was a homerun by Ronnie Bratcher.

Post won the flip with Eblin for the top seeded in the seven-team championship tournament.

The Bucks are scheduled to play at 7 p.m. Wednesday against an opponent to be determined by second round play. Eblin Drug is seeded No. 2 in the upper bracket.

The draw and seed put the Bucks in the semi-final of the single elimination event with the league champion to be determined by the winner of the tourney finals scheduled for 9 p.m. Saturday.

Five more wells listed for Garza

Five new well completions and two announced locations topped Garza oil news this week.

Three of the new wells are in the Garza field and the other two in the Post field. They include:

American Petrofina Co. of Texas No. 318 Southeast Gara Unit in Garza field two miles south of Post testing 20 barrels of oil and 50 of water from an interval of 2,804 to 2,975 feet.

American Petrofina Co. of Texas No. 214 Southeast Garza Unit in Garza field, two miles south of Post producing 17 barrels of oil and 29 of water from a 2,812-2,945 foot interval.

American Petrofina Co. of Texas No. 317 Southeast Garza Unit in Garza field two miles south of Post producing 19 barrels of oil and 29 of water from 2,812 and 2,945 foot interval.

Jimlynn Oil Co.'s No. 3 David B. Tyler in Post field 11 miles east of Post which produced 13 barrels of oil and 48 of water from a 2,690 to 2,827 foot interval.

RJD Management Co. Inc. No. 7-A Henderson in Post field 12 miles east of Post. Production is from 2,705 to 2,860 foot interval.

A wildcat, Texas Oil & Gas Corp.'s No. 1 Stallings, two and one-half miles northwest of Close City which will be drilled to 4,600 feet is one of the new locations.

The other is Llano del Sur Inc. No. 1 Cecil W. Stolle in the Suniland field, two miles southeast of Southland which will be drilled to 4,450 feet.

SPC has medical records course

LUBBOCK — A new program has recently been approved by the Texas Education Agency for South Plains College - Lubbock. This two-year degree program is Medical Record Technology, a course of study which will prepare the students for work in the Medical Record Department of health-care facilities.

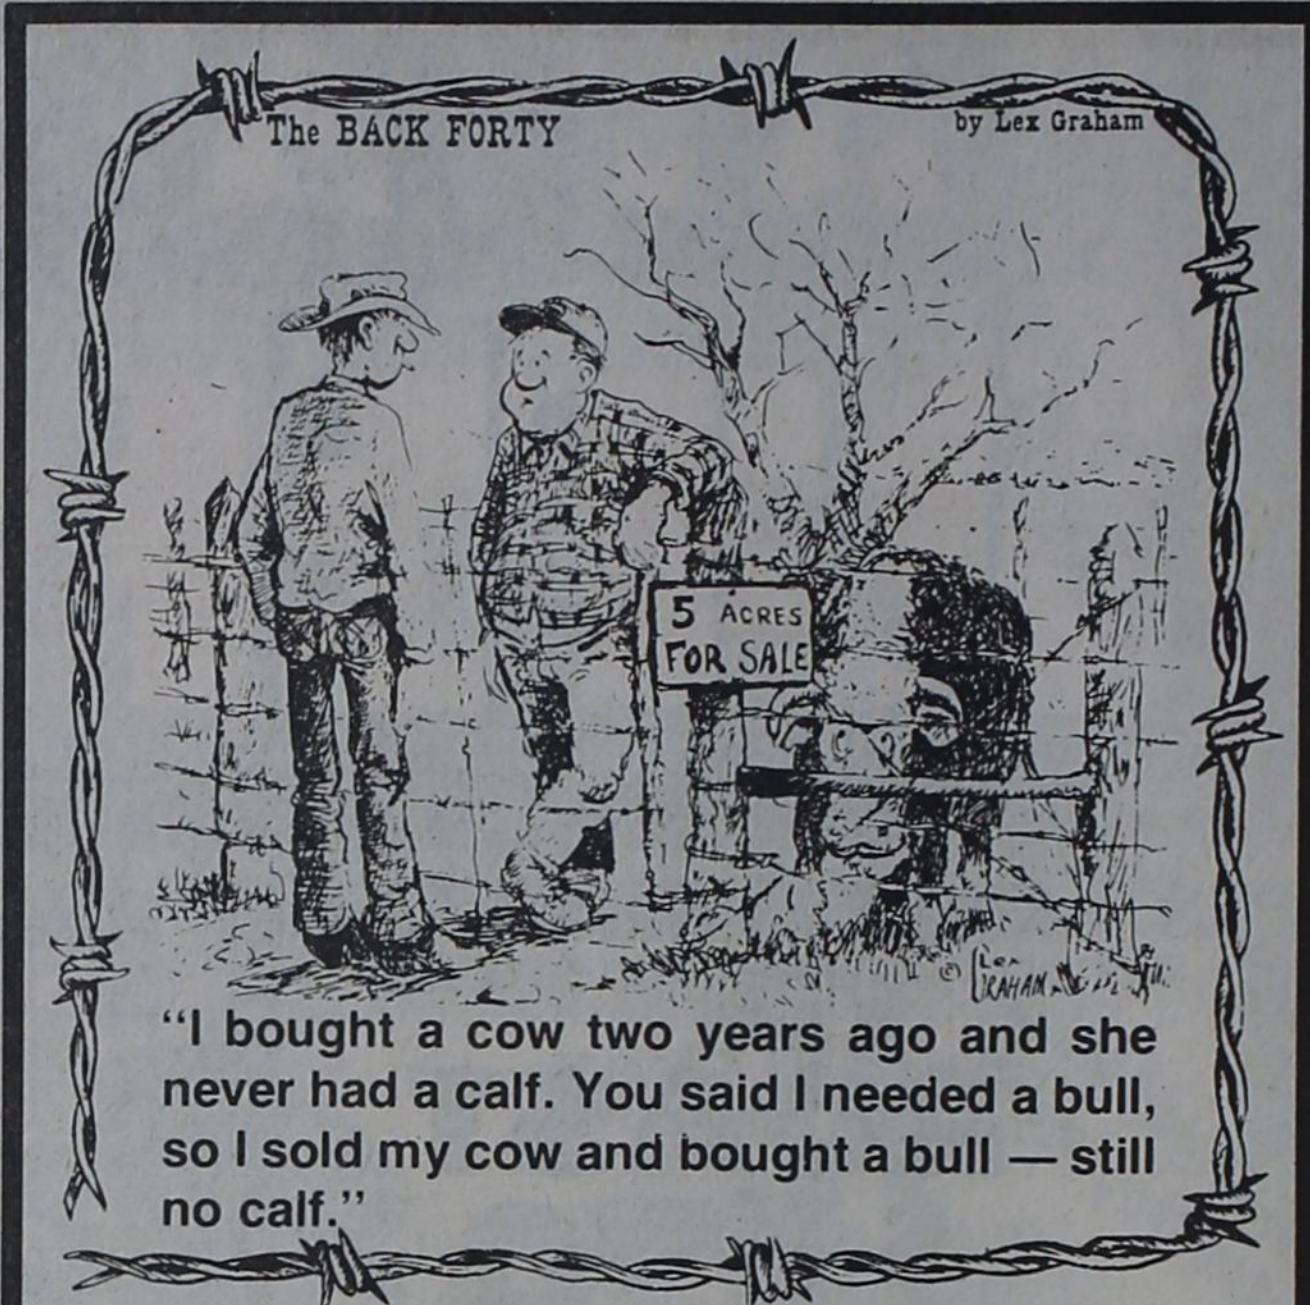

The medical record technician possesses the technical skills necessary to maintain components of health information systems consistent with the medical, administrative, ethical, legal, accreditation, and regulatory requirements of the health-care delivery system. The technician's responsibilities include management and supervisory duties which make the career attractive to both men and women.

The program has been planned in close cooperation with the American Medical Association; therefore, upon final accreditation from this Association and upon successful completion of the program, the student will be eligible to write the national examination for Accredited Record Technician.

A recent survey of the local and area health-care facilities indicated that at least 65 medical record technicians will be needed within the next three years in this area. Prior to approval of this program for South Plains College-Lubbock anyone desiring to prepare for this career had to either leave Lubbock or take the courses by correspondence.

Unusual rancher roundup

DEL RIO — There'll be a big roundup in this Southwest Texas border city next week. However, it won't be the traditional type roundup folks in this region are accustomed to seeing. Instead, hundreds of ranchers will be gathering August 11-13 to hear over 125 of the top ranching experts in the world.

Two dozen ranching enterprises, eight state-Federal agencies, numerous producer concerns, and 12 agricultural universities from as many states will be represented on the giant broad-based program.

It's all part of the International Rancher's Roundup which will be held at the city's Civic Center and high school.

Thus far, about 300 persons have pre-registered to take advantage of a pre-registration fee discount and make the tour deadline. About three or four times that number is expected to participate.

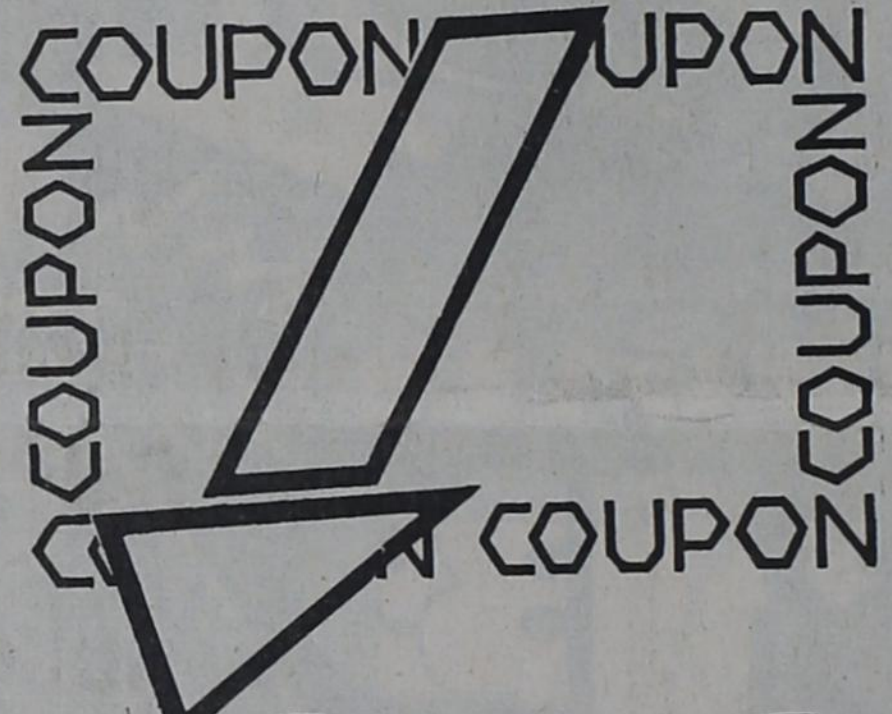

"We have been working over a year planning the type conference ranchers have requested — one that covers the entire ranch operation," stressed Dr. A. L. Hoermann, Texas Agricultural Extension Service livestock specialist and Roundup co-chairman.

"This could very well be the largest number of ranching experts ever assembled anywhere in the country for an educational activity. We certainly want the participants to get their money's worth."

Hoermann added that entertainment activities will occur each evening after meetings have concluded.

A 500-page bound copy of the proceedings containing most of the talks presented during the three day-long sessions will be available.

Fields and Mrs. Janet Hair, both of Post, and Mrs. Mary Mullenix of Littlefield; two brothers; a sister; and seven grandchildren.

The Rev. Don Travis, Methodist pastor, conducted the funeral service, assisted by the Rev. Tom Evans.

Palbearers were Charles Cheshire, Max Chaffin, Ray Warren, W. C. Ryan, Gordon Wilson, C. R. Wilson and Jake Sparlin.

Burial was in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of the Justice-Mason Funeral Home.

18% gas boost—

"It has been three years since the last rate increase was requested in West Texas City Plant System rates," Charles Vaughan, Energas president, said. "During that time, the consumer price index has increased about 40 percent and our costs for material, labor and taxes have increased proportionally. These increases coupled with certain inadequacies in our purchased gas adjustment clause have produced a serious deficiency in earnings from the system."

Vaughan said that, while the new rates cannot change the imbalance between revenues and costs that occurred in recent years, they can restore the balance somewhat for the future.

"To provide the service our customers expect, Energas must be able to make commitments for gas supplies well into the future. To do that, the company obviously must have revenues that approximate its present costs," he said.

To the West Texas system customers affected by the change, the new rates will mean an average increase of about 18.5 percent. For an average residential customer on the system, using 107 thousand cubic feet per year, the typical monthly bill would increase $5.61, from $30.32 to $35.93.

After receiving notification of the rate change, the governing bodies of the 63 cities and towns on the system may take no action at all, in which case the rate change becomes effective September 4, 1981. If the cities decide to act on the request, they are required by law to study the filing made by the Company and set rates accordingly. However, when the 1978 change was proposed, the cities formed a committee to study the request and to recommend what action be taken. Energas officials said it is possible that a similar procedure may be followed on the current rate request.

Energas Company is a division of Pioneer Corporation, a diversified energy resources corporation, headquartered in Amarillo.

Budget jump—

The city budgeted $2,000 each for the Trail Blazers and Meals on Wheels as requested to help with their hot lunch programs for senior citizens.

A number of changes will be made in the budget as a result of salary boosts voted 10 employees which will require refiguring of social security, employees comp, and other employment factors.

Postings—

(Continued from Page One) The Texas Legislature has included that in one of the bills passed at the recent regular session. They also provided that prisoners can be worked on county projects for a $15 day rate.

No taxpayers showed up at either the revenue sharing or general budget hearings which took all of 20 second or so shortly after 11 p.m.

Final adoption of the budget and setting of the tax rate will come at the September meeting.

The tentative city tax rate was listed at 40 cents on reappraisal notices sent recently to taxpayers, but at the current level of city values, unless they are reduced drastically, no more than 20 or 21 cents will be needed for a tax rate.

City pay hikes—

(Continued from Page One) the $8,000 tower for $1,147, the high risk item in the package. The city and county divide law enforcement costs and the city considers this one of them.

The Lucas firm also was voted the liability coverage of $500,000 personal and $100,000 property at a cost of $985 for one year.

In other actions: Voted to take no present action on the gas rate increase requested by Energas pending further study.

Approved a drilling permit for Rocker A Well

Service for the Ammons Unit No. 1 on Block N, Section 2, of town of Post. Kurt Chapman and David Stelzer were present on behalf of the Rocker A request.

Voted to ask for bids on a water line from East 10th street to the corner of Main and Ave. H.

Swore in Ray Bagby as Post's new fire marshal.

Heard Councilman Jim Jackson propose using a five or seven-year payout plan for the purchase of a new $70,000 fire truck at eight percent interest, rather than paying cash as the money could be invested to draw higher interest. Fire Chief Bobby Terry and former chief Neal Clary attended the meeting and said they would check the equipment needed on the new truck which is to be purchased in the upcoming fiscal year.

They also told Jackson they felt sure the fire department would consent to operate "jaws of life" equipment if purchased by city and county and would give city answer on that by September.

Appraisals—

has put in a very hectic two weeks now, said approximately 40 landowners are scheduled to appeal their appraisals to the board of review which is now scheduled for a three-day session next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Aug. 10-11-12.

Mrs. Westfall told The Dispatch that appraisal totals will not be greatly reduced by all the value changes because most of the land was valued via land use rather than market value.
