

Air conditioning, auditorium sought as--

Parents turn out for budget hearing

The largest crowd to attend a school budget hearing in over 20 years turned out Monday afternoon in the high school library to urge school trustees to no avail to put air conditioning and a new school auditorium into their 1981-82 budget.

After an hour's discussion with board president Jack Lott bombarded with questions, the board took 30 seconds to unanimously pass a new $3,324,096 budget which contained neither school air conditioning nor a new auditorium.

The new budget is an increase of some $442,500 over the current budget.

Sixteen to 18 citizens were on hand to seek school air conditioning and a new school auditorium. Usually nobody but the trustees themselves show up at the annual budget session.

The new school budget contained some $250,000 in salary increases for teachers and retained $370,000 in surplus which can be used for school improvements.

Supt. Bill Shiver had told the board at its last meeting that the district either had $500,000 to spend on a continuation of its school improvement program or reduce the "tax take" here by that amount.

The administrator later adjusted those figures down to the $370,000 range after the board had voted to push through some long needed school paving at a special session.

A letter to the editor which was printed in last week's Dispatch plugging for school air conditioning and a new auditorium apparently brought out the crowd to seek costly school improvements.

Lott told the group in response to questions that the board at its budget hearing was in no position to consider air conditioning, but had voted to install ceiling fans in the primary school during its summer renovation to see if the less costly fans would move enough air to make teachers and pupils more comfortable.

There was an unconfirmed report that these ceiling fans have been lost somewhere in shipment and are not now in place for the start of school in 10 days.

Lott said the board wanted to see if the fans would make a real comfort difference. "We don't know whether or not they'll work," he added.

Lott then went on to say that without time to get a realistic figure on cost of a new auditorium, the board has been given a $1,500,000 cost estimate for the auditorium "off the top of the architect's head."

The board president, turning back to air conditioning, said it would increase the tax rate 10 to 15 cents per $100 valuation to install air conditioning, which he said would mean increasing taxes by a third as the new rate was expected to be somewhere between 50 to 55 cents.

Asked why not air condition one building at a time, Lott asked: "Who wants to pick the first building?"

The board president said he wouldn't vote for air conditioning because "I don't believe it's worth the return."

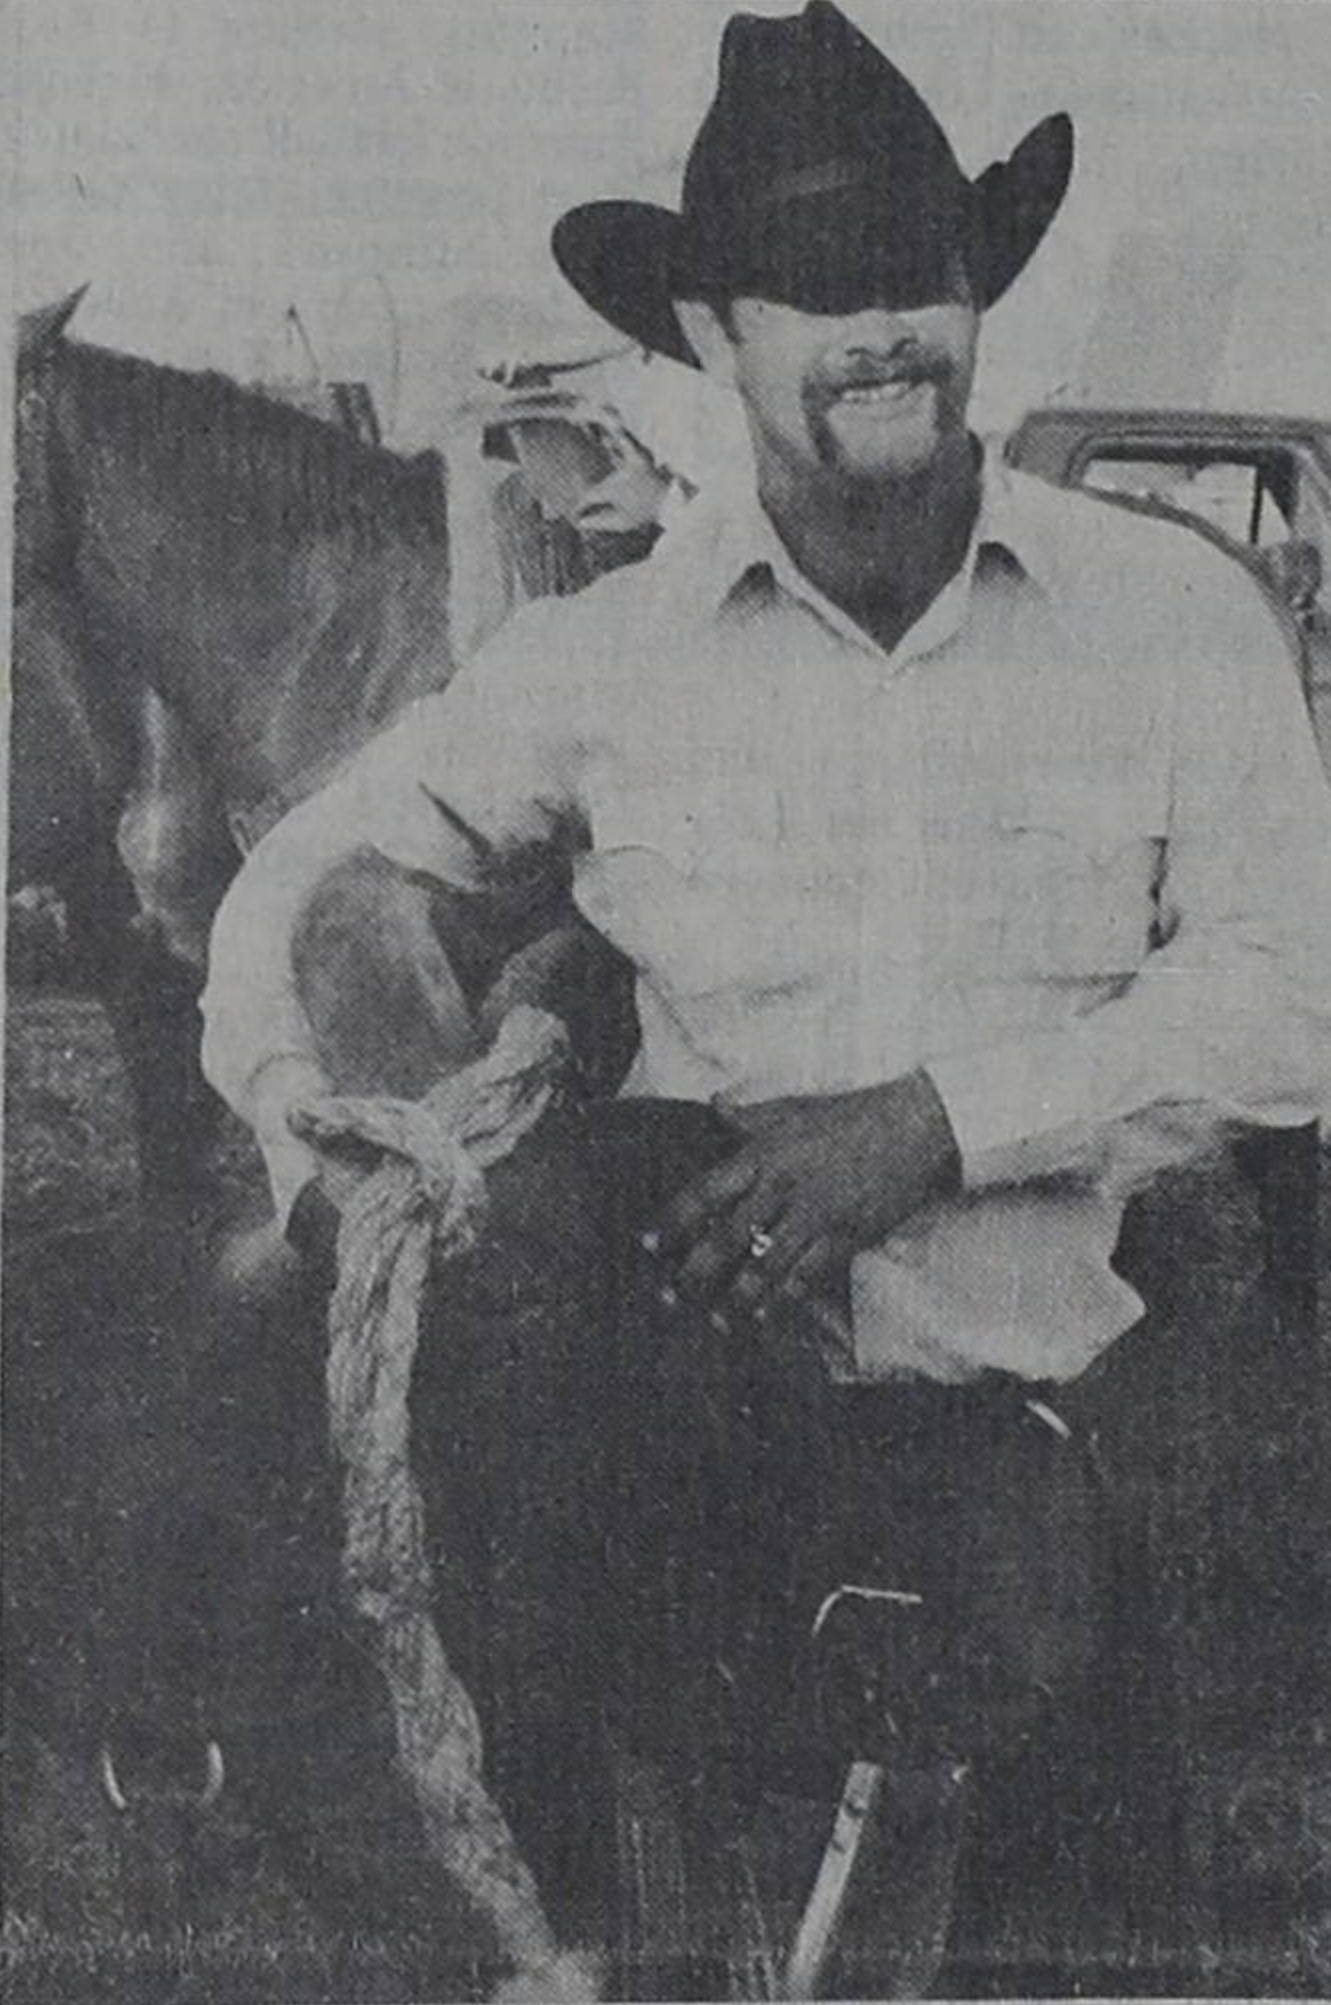

Why, he was asked, are the principals' and superintendents' offices air conditioned when the class rooms are not?

Lott replied that air conditioning is more economical for the offices, especially since they are in operation throughout the summer.

The schools do not have a stated policy as such but teachers are now permitted (See School board, Page 14)

WICHITA FALLS — Cowboys are either brandin' or braggin'. And the braggin' usually leads to a robust debate as old as the Alamo: Which Texas ranch is best?

Twelve of the state's largest ranches settled that question this past weekend at the Budweiser Texas Ranch Roundup in Wichita Falls. Unlike a professional rodeo, this two-day roundup emphasized the ranch skills cowboys use everyday with events like team roping, saddle bronc riding, team penning, team branding, wild cow milking and a wild horse race.

With well-earned pride, the Lewis Ranches cowboys will be able to boast undisputedly that their outfit, headquartered in Clarendon, is Texas' best. With strong wins in the team branding, team penning and wild cow milking events, the Lewis Ranches team beat out 11 other ranch teams before several thousand excited spectators. They took home a bronze western sculpture which will serve as a (See Diggs wins, Page 14)

Last minute instructions given--

Post Schools will open Monday

The 1981-82 school year starts here Monday and local principals had some last minute instructions for both students and parents.

The primary school has announced that first graders and full-day kindergarten students will be dismissed at 1:30 p.m. for the first three weeks of school. Parents are asked to please arrange to pick up their children at that time.

The primary and elementary buildings will be open at 8:15 a.m. with classes starting at 8:30 a.m.

The Post Middle School will begin with an 8:35 a.m. assembly in the junior high gym.

Students are asked to sit in the north bleachers.

Middle School students new to the district are asked to register Thursday and Friday in the Post Middle School office from 8 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m.

Students who owe lunch charges from last year must have these paid by Monday.

The Post High School

school year will begin with an 8:30 a.m. assembly in the primary school auditorium.

Principal Giddens asks that all students enter through the stage door instead of the front of the primary building to lessen the confusion for the smaller primary children. (See School Opens, Page 5)

$100,000 in hospital budget to find new physician

Although the Garza Memorial Hospital directors last Thursday morning adopted a $942,800 budget for the new fiscal year, which is a $74,000 increase over the current budget, they "held the line" as far as district taxpayers are concerned.

The new budget calls for $454,900 in tax revenue, which is approximately the same amount as collected in taxes for the current year.

Depending upon the size of the final taxable property valuation for the hospital district, hospital directors expect the hospital district tax rate will be no more than six or seven cents per $100.

This is about half the 12 cent rate which was indicated as probably when the reappraisal notices went out to taxpayers a few weeks back.

Jack Alexander, president of the board, said directors will hold a special meeting as soon as the taxable property valuation total for the district is announced.

A public budget hearing and the tax rate will be set at that session.

The major increase in the new budget will be an additional $100,000 in the "doctor's account" in an effort to secure another new physician for Post.

Directors' reasoning is that by obtaining another physician hospital usage would be increased reducing the tax income needs of the hospital.

The doctor's account was increased from $18,000 this year to $118,000.

Dr. Ricardo Rodriguez now is under a guaranteed income contract with the hospital which comes up for renewal Oct. 1.

As Alexander pointed out, budgeting the additional $100,000 does not mean that it will be spent, but will enable the hospital board to actively seek a physician (See Hospital, Page 5)

Post man is nominated for Lady Bird award

AUSTIN — Finalists have been selected for the 1981 Lady Bird Johnson awards for beautification of Texas highways.

The awards are made annually to State Department of Highways and Public Transportation maintenance supervisors and foremen who are judged outstanding in their highway beautification endeavors.

An award is also presented to the department's district organization which has excelled in preserving the natural environment.

The former first lady will make the presentations during the 12th annual ceremony at the Lyndon B. Johnson State Park in Stonewall on October 1.

The six maintenance supervisors and foremen who are finalists for 1981 are: James B. Adams Sr. of Junction, in the San Angelo district; J. O. Grimes of Zavalla, the Lufkin district nominee; Dan A. Harrison of Rocksprings, the Del Rio district; David A. Hinshaw (See Post man, Page 14)

Meet Antelope Night Sept. 1

Fans are invited to Antelope Stadium Tuesday evening, beginning at 7 p.m. for Meet the Antelopes Night.

All the homemade ice cream you can eat for 50 cents starts it off.

All the football candidates for school teams from seventh grade through the high school varsity will be introduced as will Post's new coaches.

Jimmy Redman, Antelope Booster president, says the organization will sell booster memberships, Antelope caps, and Antelope windbreakers during the affair and give away Antelope bumper stickers.

Liquor store burglarized

"Whiskey burglars" broke into the B & B Liquor Store about 2:30 a.m. Sunday. They got about $250 in cash and you guessed it — another $250 in beverages all of it whiskey.

Entrance was gained by breaking out the glass in the front door, Sheriff Jim Pippin told The Dispatch. The broken glass was not observable from outside the store because of the weather door.

Sheriff Pippin said the burglary is under investigation.

The Texas Ranch Roundup can be placed in the "really something" category on its very first try according to members of the two Garza Ranch teams who competed in the weekend event at Wichita Falls.

The "bragging rights" competition drew sellout crowds of over 5,000 people who really got excited, so you know how that "hyped up" the cowboys.

Our biggest surprise came with the handling of the publicity by a Dallas public relations firm, Hopkins and Associates. They put out a great pre-event packet with an unusual amount of the detail. But the surprise came with the followup.

They got a package on our desk bright and early Tuesday morning containing the results and three action pictures of the Roundup, including the U Lazy S photo on our front (See Postings, Page 5)

Rites here for Earl Williams

Funeral services for Earl Williams, 84, of Post, were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Assembly of God Church in Post with the Rev. Raymond Junker, pastor of Bethel Assembly Church in Lubbock officiating. He was assisted by the Rev. J. D. Brown, minister of the Post Assembly of God Church.

Williams died early Monday in Methodist Hospital. Burial was held in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Justice Mason Funeral Home.

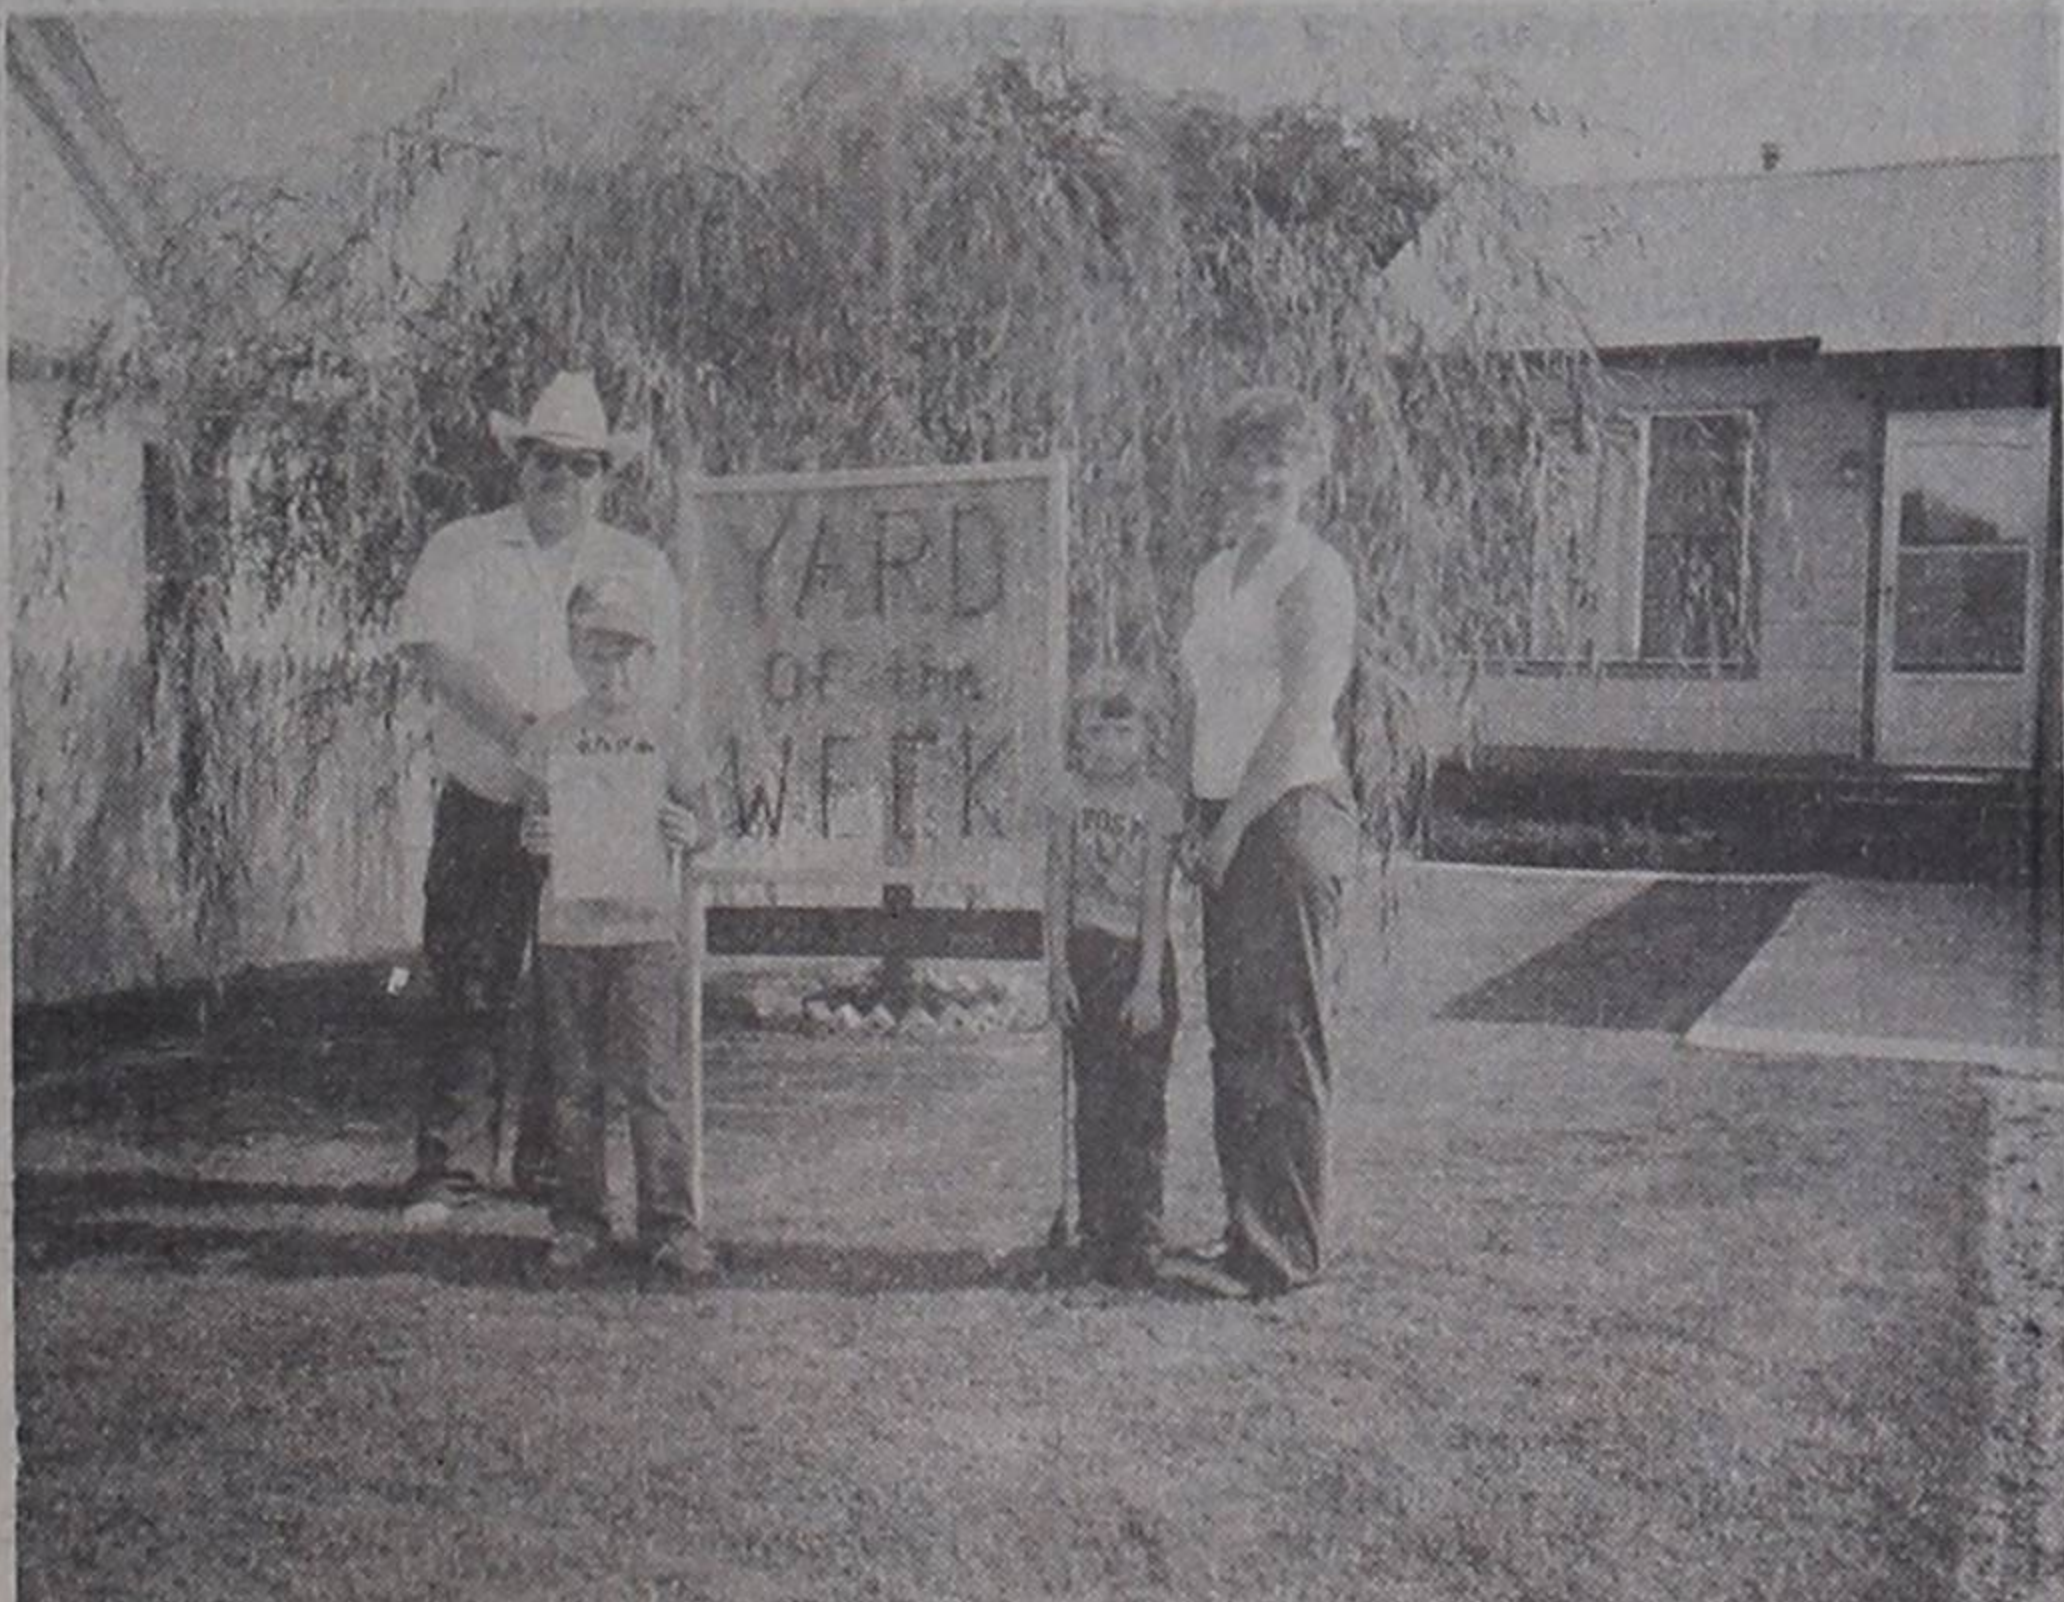

Born in Rockwall County, he moved to Garza County in 1918 with his family to ranch, and later they farmed. He married Ethel Jenkins Sept. 23, 1923 here in Post. She died in 1974. Williams worked for Earl Rogers Ford Tractor and Feed store before retiring in 1964.

He is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Billy Jo Idell and Mrs. Shirley Foster, both of Post, Mrs. Doris Nichols of Lubbock and Mrs. Linda Sue Beas. See Williams rites, Page 14

Dispatch Editorials

A good beginning

Maybe 18 citizens aren't "a room full" at a budget hearing but it was the biggest crowd The Dispatch has seen at one of the school's in 24 years of steady attendance if our memory hasn't failed us.

It was significant too that they came out to urge a pair of school improvements, not for a possible tax cut which also was a choice school trustees could have made.

One of the difficulties was that some of the group were air conditioning advocates and the rest wanted a school auditorium. There probably were more "air conditioning-ers" than "auditorium-ers."

Although school trustees didn't budge on either issue, they did vote to include some $370,000 in the new budget for unselected school improvements. All of which means that there is some money in the budget which can be spent for air conditioning, an auditorium, or something else entirely.

We think the turnout had to impress the trustees as mounting public demand for the two improvements.

It can be truly said that the board has not had sufficient time to consider the school auditorium issue. It didn't come up until recently, though why the board has not been giving some thought to a continuation of the school improvement program in 1981-82 throughout this last school year we don't know.

The most remarkable thing about the budget hearing was that in this year of reappraisal when taxable valuations have doubled or more on many homes that the citizen pitch was for improvements and not cutting taxes.

This indicates trustees have had the support of the voters in bringing the school system up to top grade over the last three years.

It also indicates that there is some strong public support for air conditioning and an auditorium. Those who attended the budget hearing didn't come away with what they wanted, but The Dispatch thinks they started something which over the near term of two or three years will see either one or both of those goals accomplished.

There are some alternatives to Monday's proposals to consider.

Supt. Bill Shiver, for example, has estimated that for an affordable $400,000 the present primary auditorium could be expanded to seat a thousand persons in comfort, with stage needs, better acoustics and even airconditioning also figured in.

As for air conditioning, a middle ground could be hooking a good-sized evaporative cooler into each classroom at less installation cost with no big operational cost to consider. The architects early on advised the board against the "cooler approach" because they would have to be replaced constantly every few years.

That is not to say The Dispatch would endorse these lesser proposals, but they do merit future study. The board has asked for a real cost proposal on both a new auditorium and on expanding the present primary auditorium. They are still awaiting those figures.

To this newspaper, the big turnout for the budget hearing is a solid step in the right direction — toward more school patron interest openly expressed in school affairs.

Nobody got mad Monday afternoon, although there was evident frustration on both sides.

The citizens made some points — and gave trustees something to think seriously about. Parent and grandparent concern was laid right out on the table.

"I just wanted to know if there was any chance First National might be willing to forgive my debts as I forgive my debtors?"

WATCHING OUR KIDS

Dear Editor:

Its time for school again and with it goes several problems, one being, watching out for children while driving. The other one we hope we have the jump on. Last year four Girl Scout troops and the PTA started the Helping Hand Program here. We've barely scratched the surface! We don't want to wait for tragedy to happen first.

There are seven highways leading into and out of Post. If a child were picked up here, whoever did it, would have seven different roads to take. A child was found in Slaton not too long ago just 22 miles away.

Since the Atlanta tragedy, the city has one of the best Helping Hand Programs in the country and other town are following. The only requirement to have a Helping Hand in your window is a willingness to help when a child calls.

Please call 3057 or 3493 for more information. Post People, help watch out for Post children!

Thank you

We still remember the fun of county fairs — the rides, exhibits, sideshows. But along with all the attractions was the excitement of the "pitchmen."

Youngsters would stop and listen in amazement as they sold a "handy dandy" potato peeler that would juice oranges, curl carrots, cut grass or just about any chore the pitchman could think up.

Now many years later — and a little bit wiser — we are amazed at how many companies and agents still sell insurance as in the olden days.

The time has come to recognize that all insurance companies and all agents are not the same — just as all insurance is not the same.

"The Handy Dandy Peeler?" The Pitchman? Do it all insurance agencies.

Re-registering of brands required

FORT WORTH — Texas livestock producers must re-record all brands and marks on their livestock with the county clerk's office in the counties where they raise livestock, beginning Aug. 30, 1981, says Don C. King, secretary-general manager of Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association.

The law provides for a six-month re-registration period. After Feb. 28, 1982, any unrecorded brand becomes available for use on a "first-come" basis.

The Texas brand law, passed in 1971, was the subject of a recent ruling by Texas Attorney General Mark White that says owners of marks and brands must re-register them during the same six-month period every 10 years, without regard to when they originally recorded them. A small fee is charged for each re-recording by the county clerk.

The law also notes that it is illegal to brand livestock without first properly recording the brand with the county clerk in the county in which the livestock are held, King said.

The primary objective of the brand law is to provide the county clerks with an accurate, updated report of marks and brands every 10 years.

Producers operating in several counties must re-record their marks and brands in each county because the county clerk has the responsibility for recording this information in his or her county only.

In the event it cannot be determined from existing records who first recorded the mark and brand in a county, then the person who has been using such means of livestock identification the longest shall have the right to have them recorded in his or her name. There is no limit to the number of marks and or brands a person can record in a county as long as the requirements of the law are met.

Minors may have marks and brands separate from that of the father, mother or guardian, but they must also be re-recorded.

When the marks and brands are re-recorded or recorded for the first time, the location on the animal where the brand is applied must be shown. If the brand is applied to more than one location of the animal, it must be recorded as a separate record of that brand.

The county clerk of each county will publish a notice announcing the re-recording of livestock brands order in some newspaper of general circulation in the county for a period of 30 days.

The county clerk also must make sure that no more than one brand of a kind be recorded on the same location of the animal. This eliminates the chance of two or more people in the county duplicating the same brand and location. Further, the county clerk must make certain that the brand location on the animal be designated. Failure to do so is punishable by a fine of not less than $10 or more than $50.

King encouraged all livestock producers to use marks and brands and to re-register these marks and brands promptly.

"A properly applied, legally recorded brand is proof of ownership. It increases the chances of recovering stray, missing or stolen livestock and serves as a great deterrent to thefts as well," King said. "A good brand eliminates many markets and outlets where a thief may dispose of an animal."

The marks and brand information collected through the Texas county clerks and through brand inspection at livestock auction markets and terminals in the state on a weekly basis has proven invaluable in the recovery of stolen and strayed livestock, King said. In 1980, TSCRA field inspectors, working with the TSCRA computer in Fort Worth and other state and local law enforcement agencies, recovered or accounted for livestock and ranch property with an estimated total market value of $1.13 million.

For more information about branding and the brand re-recording process, livestock producers can contact their county clerk's office or TSCRA at 1301 West Seventh St., Fort Worth, Texas 76102 or 817-332-7064.

Thank You

During our time of bereavement we realize just how many special friends we have. We appreciate all the warm thoughts and prayers that were with us. Words are not enough to express our feelings. A special thanks to all of our friends, Dr. Rodriguez, the kind hospital staff, the EMT's, our pastor and friends who assisted us in the funeral service, Dee and Janet Justice, and also everyone who sent cards, flowers and food. May God bless each one of you, our prayers will be with you. The Wesley D. "Higgie" Higgins Family.
Margie & Denece Dennis, Connie and Rylan

I want to thank each one who in any way made my birthday party a day to remember.

Especially do I thank my family, (Calvin, Virginia and Staci) for their love in hosting my party. I also wish to thank my sisters and their husbands, who came and shared the day with me. To the other sisters and two brothers who could not come, but remembered me with the lovely arrangement of flowers and gifts of love on my day, thank you.

Last but not least do I thank those who came and shared their love and fellowship with me on my birthday. I also thank those who sent me the many lovely birthday cards and gifts. They made my day. It is so nice to be remembered!

The candle on the cake came, when the telephone call from Tanya and Daniel, (My other granddaughter) from Penn. came after the party was over. My Day was now complete. Thanks! Thanks!

New insurance for wheat growers

A new insurance plan authorized by Congress is now available to wheat growers in Garza County, according to Carey Johnson District Director of USDA's Federal Crop Insurance Corporation. A key feature of the insurance program, which is designed to replace the ASCS disaster payments program, is that the government pays up to 30 percent of the premium cost.

Another important feature, Johnson adds, is the opportunity it provides for wheat growers to choose the amount of protection they want to carry. It's possible to purchase a policy that guarantees 50 percent, 65 percent, or 75 percent of the local average yield. Policyholders can also select the price per bushel they want to be paid in the event of a loss. The choices are $2.50, $3.50 and $4.50.

Johnson offers this illustration of how the insurance works: In an area where the average wheat yield has been 14.4 bushels per acre, farmers can elect to carry a policy that guarantees 7.2 bushels, 9.3 bushels or 10.5 bushels per acre and the maximum price per bushel of $4.50, he will be paid an indemnity of $4.50 for each bushel his yield is below 10.5 bushels per acre.
Because of sharply higher production costs and last year's drought losses,

Johnson points out that most policyholders are choosing insurance that protects their entire production investment. Others are carrying enough insurance to guarantee the amount of income needed to meet specific financial obligations, such as the repayment of bank loans or land rental payments.
The deadline to apply for 1982-crop wheat insurance in Garza County is Aug. 31, 1981. Federal All-Risk Crop Insurance policies can be purchased from the local FCIC representative or from private insurance agents and lending institutions. Wherever purchased, the protection and the cost are the same.

Civic women check projects

The Women's Division of the Post Chamber of Commerce met for their regular meeting at the County Court Room on Wednesday, Aug. 19. Voda Gradine, president, presided.

A sign for the Community Center was discussed as was a tour of homes, tentatively set for September.

One other item of business discussed was the possibility of furnishing a school bus to one out-of-town football game during the year for some of the senior citizens, who would like to attend the ballgame. Finalizing of this project will be dependent on the interest shown, and anyone interested should call Voda Beth Gradine at her office, 495-3475 and let her know your feelings.

Members present were Voda Gradine, Betty Posey, Geraldine Butler, Ruby Kirkpatrick, LaGayluah Feagin and Cheryl Walker.

Scanning Social Security

By JIM LATIMER

Active participation by the public has permitted the Social Security Administration to uncover many areas of fraud against the government.

Many citizens who commit, or attempt to commit fraud do not look at the Social Security Administration as having capability for taking persons accused of fraud to Federal Court.

However, in the last six months, January through June of 1981, no fewer than 358 cases have been referred to SSA's fraud investigators in Dallas. Sixty additional cases are pending prospective decisions in U.S. Attorney's offices throughout the Dallas Region.

Since January 1, 1981, forty-six cases have been referred to U.S. Attorneys for prosecution, fifteen others have referred to U.S. Attorneys for prosecution, fifteen others have resulted in Criminal convictions, two in pretrial diversion agreements, and one Civil Judgment obtained.

Recovery of more than one half million dollars has been accomplished by court actions, refund agreements, and administrative withholding.

The government is actively seeking out those who take advantage of program funds to which they are not entitled. Because of the voluntary assistance of citizens in reporting potential fraud to the government, our job of discovering and investigating is much easier.

Hospital —

Another budget increase was in salaries with hospital employees slated to receive an approximate 10 percent across-the-board pay hike with the arrival of the new budget here Oct. 1.

The new budget anticipates receiving $340,000 in the new fiscal year in payment for services to patients, raising $454,900 via taxes, and carrying over $147,900.

The overall budgetary increase for the new year will be approximately 10 percent, which is slightly less than the increase in the doctor's account.

The current 1980-81 fiscal year has not been a good one as far as hospital usage is concerned. Hospital directors are hoping for more usage next year but are budgeting no more for hospital income from patients than the amount being received this year.

The breakdown of the new budget for hospital expenses with the amount in the current budget in parenthesis is as follows:

Administrative $30,000 (26,000), advertising $500 (1,320), ambulance $1,000 (1,000), anesthesiology $2,000 (2,000), bank note $22,000 (22,000), central supply $30,307 ($38,500), dietary $42,420 ($48,400), doctor's account $118,000 ($18,000) dues and subscriptions $3,500 (2,310), E.K.G. $6,000 ($5,000), employee insurance $34,000 (32,600), forms and office supplies $5,300 ($11,000), housekeeping salaries $20,800 (20,800), inhalation therapy $1,400 ($1,200) inservice education $3,100 ($3,100), insurance (liability and workman's comp) $13,404 ($12,000), janitorial supplies $10,000 ($9,900), laboratory $45,000 ($48,800), laundry and linen $13,900 ($13,900), legal and accounting $7,500 ($9,000), library $450 ($450), miscellaneous $2,500 ($2,500), new equipment $42,894 ($30,000), nursery $500 ($500), nursing administrative $25,000 ($25,000), nursing salaries $224,000 ($196,780), pharmacy $40,000 ($42,200); Physical plant and maintenance $30,000 ($30,000), postage and freight $3,500 ($12,000), TV purchase $2,200 ($1,800), utilities $23,544 ($24,500), medical records salary $12,600 ($11,600), clerical services $27,500 ($26,000), travel $2,400 ($2,200), re-evaluation expense (hospital's share of appraisal office operations) $32,400 ($30,000), indigent care $7,000 ($7,000), scholarship fund $6,000 (none).

The current year's budget had a $54,840 item for undistributed reserves which is not in the new budget. The new budget adds the following expenses: miscellaneous administrative supplies $500, medical records consultant fees $300, office machine rental and repair $4,840, and collection fees $1,531.

In other actions at the August breakfast session, hospital directors voted to have six bathtubs in patient care areas reglazed at a cost of $1,161; voted to spend $1,640 for parts only to replace the nurse call system, and wrote off $1,754.86 as bad debts from patients.

The July hospital report given directors showed 40 patients admitted as compared to 42 for the same month in 1980 which brought total admissions for first 10 months of fiscal year to 404 as compared to 512 for same period last year.

Total patient days were 189, a big increase over the 100 patient days for July, 1980, bringing this figure for the year to date to 1,532 as compared to 2,128 for same 1980 period.

The hospital had 6.1 average patients per day compared to only 3.2 for July of 1980. Average patients per day for the year to date is 5.0 as compared to 7.0 for the previous year.

Three babies were born and 272 outpatients treated. Only in outpatients is the hospital running ahead this year over last year, 2,263 to 2,184.

The hospital collected $19,933.76 from patient accounts during July and $3,122.27 in tax money collected for a total of $26,593.24.

Expenses for the month were $65,007.59.

page. We had requested it but didn't figure them to follow through.

Then Kenneth Marts came in with good pictures of the two Garza ranch teams which readers will find on pages 9 and 11, together with an individual of Double U's Mike Diggs who won the saddle bronc riding. It's on the front page too.

From the great reports we received on the Texas Ranch Roundup, we'd guess it's here to stay. And we'll bet the Garza ranches will really set their sights on the competition next year.

Last appraisal notices out

All personal property appraisals were put in the mail Friday, Chief Appraiser Jean Westfall told The Dispatch Tuesday.

The Board of Review Review will meet the morning of Sept. 9 to hear complaints on such appraisals which include cars, cows, farming equipment, recreational vehicles and airplanes.

Mrs. Westfall said a mistake was made on the notices listing a car appraisal value for the Post school district. The school district does not tax cars, but does tax other items of personal property.

Only Garza County and the Southland school district tax cars and pickups.

TV commercials switching from 'me' affiliation

COLLEGE STATION — Television commercials appear to be undergoing a subtle shift of emphasis away from selfish appeals, report marketing researchers at Texas A&M University.

"They're switching from 'me' appeals to ads that promote group affiliation," said Dr. James McNeal. "Fewer ads can be characterized by self-interest or self-satisfaction. Instead, more are appealing to the needs of interpersonal relationships and belonging."

McNeal, Dr. Stephen W. McDaniel and 11 Texas A&M graduate students viewed more than 4,500 hours of television over a three-month period to determine major need appeals within 416 closely evaluated commercials.

"A common automobile ad today, for example, would probably show a person buying a car because it attracts people," McNeal said, "instead of emphasizing the car as a symbol of individual expression."

Appeals to individualism are still found in TV commercials, but not nearly so much as they were in the '70s, he said.

Senior citizens to get new 1981 van

The senior citizens will soon be driving a 1981 Dodge van.

The Garza County Commissioners Court accepted the only bid on the van Monday at $11,366.10 less $800 for a 1975 van trade-in. SPAG will pay 90 percent of the cost of the van and the county the other 10 percent.

In another action, the court passed a resolution setting new fees for the sheriff in serving court papers.

The fee is $10 for small claims court, $15 for justice of the peace courts, and $20 for all other courts for serving of citations, subpoena, summons or other process.

A $27 fee was set for execution or attempting to execute writ of garnishment, injunction writ, distress warrant, and various other writs in all county courts.

A recent law passed by the legislature authorized the county commissioners court to set such fees.

The court authorized County Farm Agent Syd Conner to have printed the long range county programs.

County Judge Giles Dalby advised that the Texas Jail Standards commissions will make its annual inspection of the Garza County Jail Sept. 14.

Research shows no windfall profits for big oil companies

COLLEGE STATION — A study published by a Texas A&M University energy research group has found little evidence that major oil companies have earned windfall profits since the 1974 Arab oil embargo when gasoline prices first began to soar.

The financial risks in the oil industry seem to be increasing instead, spurred by heavier use of debt financing and the search for oil and gas in more remote parts of the world, according to the study's findings.

The study, conducted for Texas A&M's Center for Energy and Mineral Resources, suggests that the rate of return on investment in the oil industry has kept pace with the risks in exploration and development.

The 46-page study points out the petroleum investment climate has become more uncertain since the embargo because of both political and financial risk factors.

Tina Greene and Darla Jackson from Post returned recently from Washington D.C., after attending Citizenship-Washington Focus, a week-long experience in citizenship and leadership training at the National 4-H Center.

The two girls were two of 118 4-H members from Texas and approximately 10 other states participating. The program is designed to help young people understand the structure and function of our system of government, study the heritage of our country's development and prepare plans for active citizen involvement when they return home.

Using the nation's capital as a "classroom", the program included a day on Capitol Hill to meet with members of congress and see government in action. The Post girls visited Congressman Stenholm. He told them about his role in the government and some of his points of view.

Field trips to historical and cultural sites as well as to federal agencies and community organizations such as touring the FBI building and Beltsville Agriculture farm were among many of the informative and exciting parts of the week.

In workshop sessions at the National 4-H Center, young people discussed contemporary issues and concerns, and ways in which skills and knowledge gained during the week could be applied to the 4-H program here in Post. One of the best parts of the experience was being able to share ideas with 4-H members across the country, they reported.

Citizenship-Washington Focus is conducted by National 4-H Council in behalf of the Cooperative Extension Service of the State Land-Grant Universities and the US Department of Agriculture.

Program and staff fellowship support for the summer program was provided by the Auxiliary to the American Optometric Association, the Chicago Board of Trade, Dorothy Emerson Commemorative Fund, Dresser Foundation, Inc. Educational Communications, Inc., Farmland Industries, Inc., Hallmark Cards Incorporated, Illinois State 4-H Foundation, Minnesota State 4-H Foundation, Sterling Drug, Inc., and Sun Company, Inc.

SAVE SCHOOL CHILDREN'S LIVES

Mr. & Mrs. Motorist: POST SCHOOLS WILL OPEN
Monday, Aug. 30

It isn't that children mean to be careless . . . it's just that in their zest and vitality they sometimes forget to stop, look and listen before crossing the street. It isn't that we mean to be careless, yet the very car we drive may be considered a lethal weapon and the consequences of our negligence could be fatal. It is our moral obligation to be extra alert these days when school children crowd the crosswalks!

New program will aid towns, cities

COLLEGE STATION — The Texas Agricultural Extension Service is gearing up to launch a new program designed to help towns and cities become more attractive physically, economically and socially.

It's called the Texas Certified City Program and is patterned after the Texas Community Improvement Program that has been under way for the past 32 years to help rural communities of under 1,000 population.

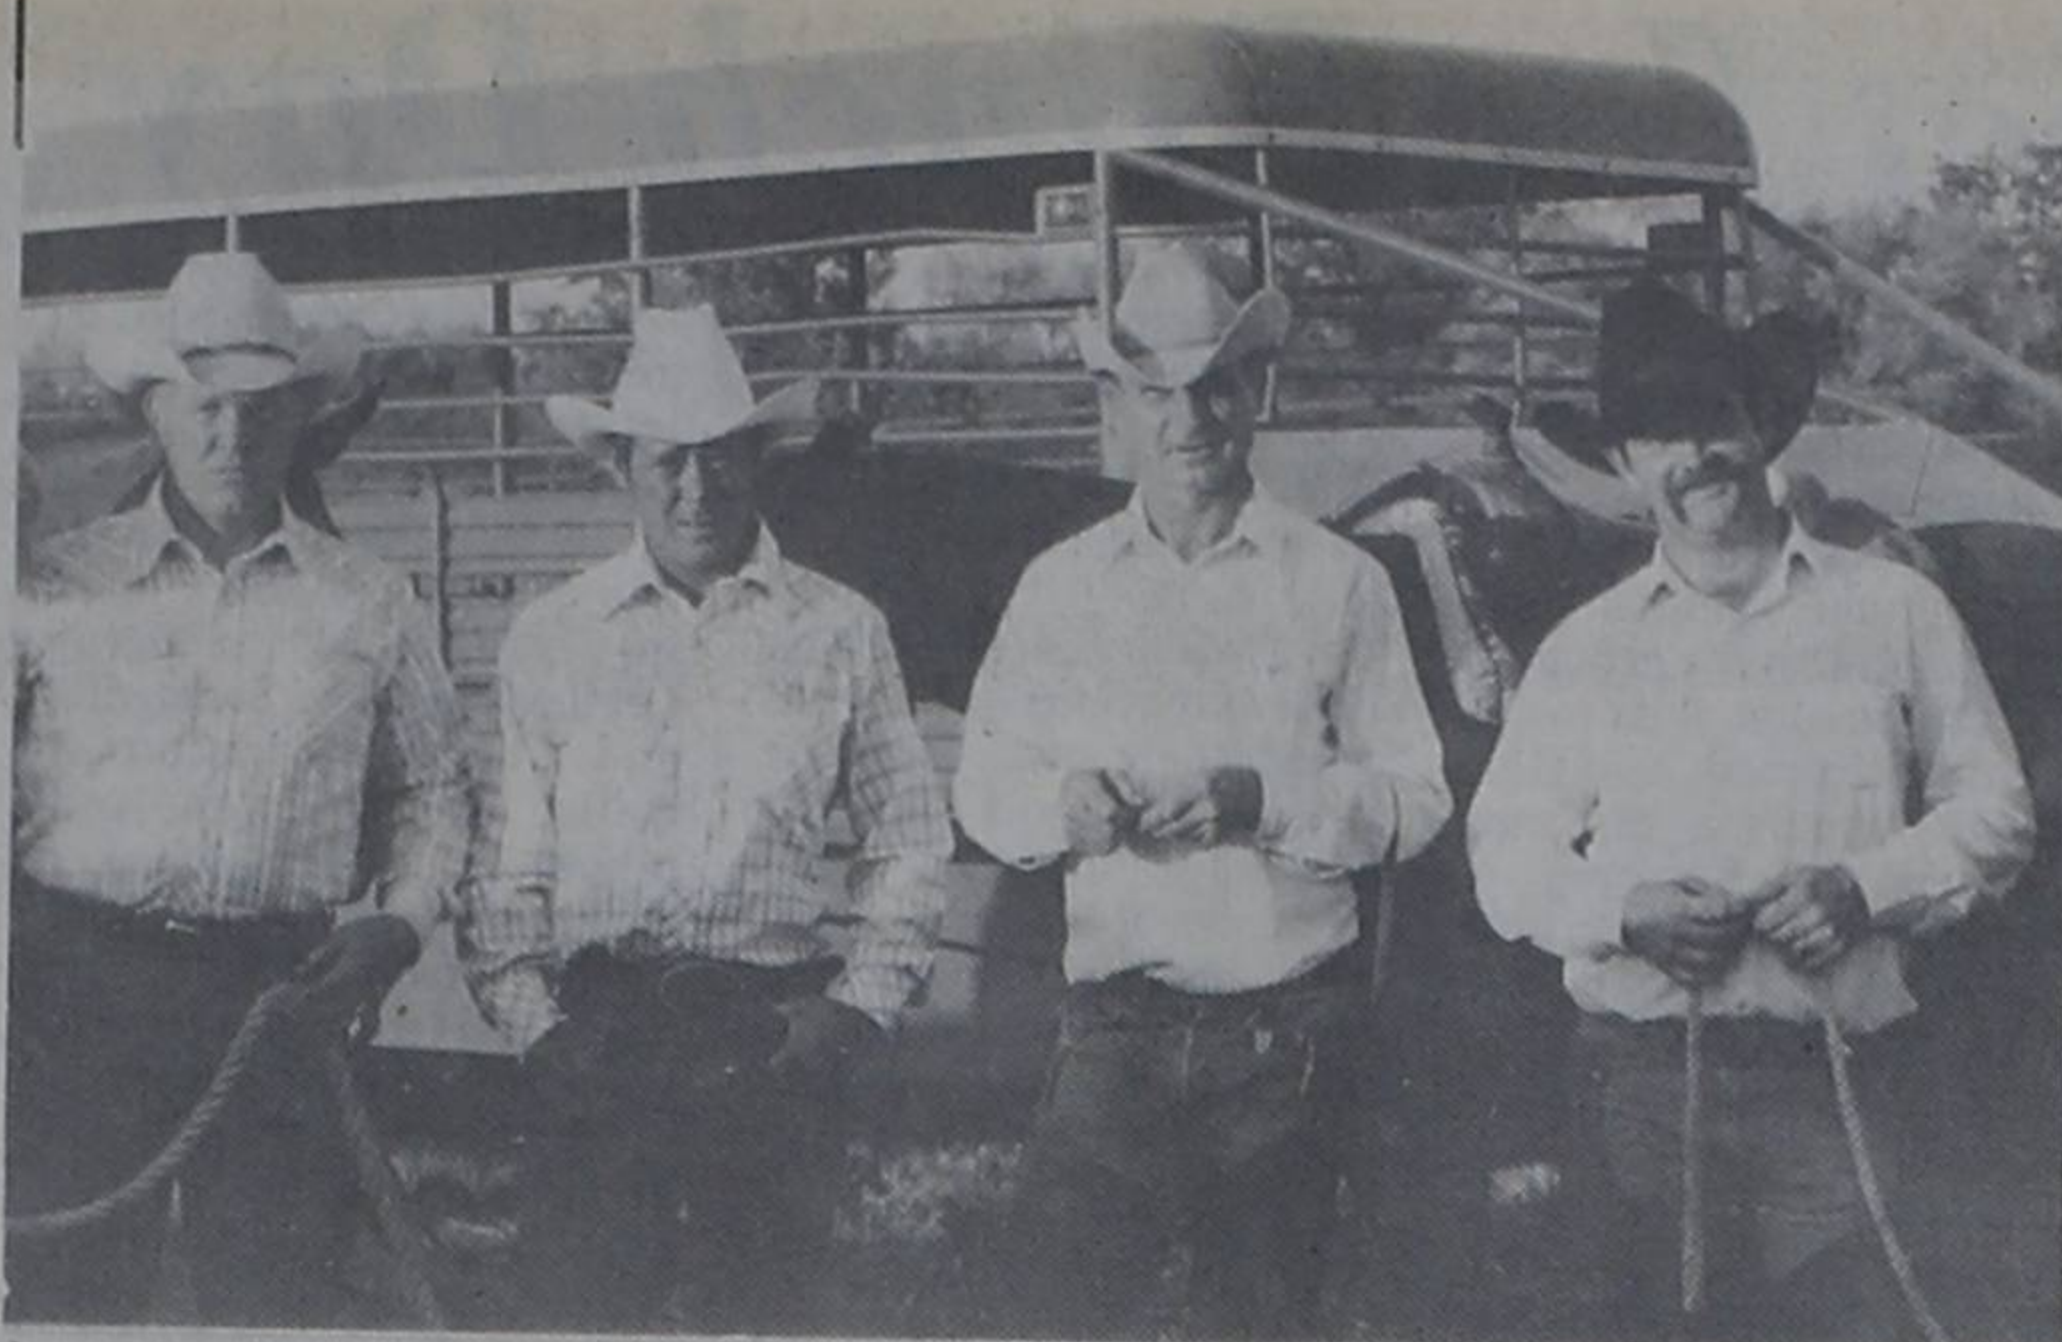

"We are currently field-testing the new program, and it should be available to all Texas cities by next summer," points out Tim Shaunty, community development specialist with the Extension Service.

According to Shaunty, the intent of the Texas Certified City Program is to assist city leaders in identifying shortcomings and then finding resources necessary to correct them. Support provided by the Extension Service will be primarily training in education programs. "The gist of the program is to provide information assistance which will allow city leaders to do a self-analysis and then to follow up with training and workshops as needed," explains Shaunty. "Those electing to participate will maintain written documentation regarding results of their analysis and actions taken to correct shortcomings. This documentation will be included in the form of verification for pre-selected criteria, enabling the city to become 'certified'."

"It is important for all town and city officials interested in the Texas Certified City Program to recognize that its purposes are to identify those areas that are critical for significant improvement and to develop training materials to support those needs," adds the specialist.

Major segments of the certification program include self-evaluation, planning and initiating, human relations and cultural en-

Attending the commencement which was held Saturday, August 15, in College Station were his parents, Mrs. Odell Vardeman paternal grandmother, and his sister Michelle.

Weekend hunters take note-- Stiffer penalties for trespassing

AUSTIN — According to State Senator E. L. Short, (D-Tahoka), "If stronger penalties serve as deterrents, then farmers, ranchers and general property owners won a big battle with the recent passage of legislation in the 67th State Legislative Session."

Short also stated that week-end hunters should also be extremely careful and be aware of the new legislation which carries increased penalties for trespassing on private property.

The legislation, which re-defines criminal trespassing, raises the punishment of trespassing from a Class C Misdemeanor to a Class B Misdemeanor. A Class C Misdemeanor is punishable by a $200 fine, with no jail sentence, while a Class B conviction carries a $1,000.00 with up to 180 day jail sentence, or both.

Short said that under the new legislation, trespassers could be subject to prosecution if they fail to recognize signs posted by property owners on the property or at the entrance. Short stated further, "This could well mean the existence of an electric fence, or any enclosure designed for the containment of livestock."

Short concluded by stating, "If a person carries a gun or any deadly weapon during any illegal entry, his punishment, upon conviction, would be raised from a Class B Misdemeanor to a Class A Misdemeanor. And a Class A Misdemeanor is punishable to a maximum of $2,000.00, or a year in jail, or both."

Cowboy breakfast set for Ranch Day

LUBBOCK — An old-fashioned cowboy breakfast and a "Little Wrangler" program for children will be featured during the 12th Annual Ranch Day Sept. 19, at the Ranching Heritage Center of The Museum of Texas Tech University.

Ranch craft demonstrations, wagon and buckboard rides and special western music are among the family activities planned at the 14-acre outdoor exhibit depicting ranching history. Living history lessons will be provided throughout the day by costumed docents in the major buildings on the site. The Ranching Heritage Center will be open free to the public at 9 a.m. that Saturday.

With the addition of three structures to the ranching center, visitors will be able to see new chapters in the history of the cowboy and the cattleman. The Ropes train depot, the Commissary Building from the Waggoner Ranch and the 6666 Barn are the latest additions to the Ranching Heritage Center. The ground floor rooms of the Barton House also will be open to the public.

Activities such as spinning at the Picket and Sotel House, soap-making at the Box and Strip House and German dancing and puppeteering at the Hedwigs Hill double log cabin will be on display. Longhorn cattle and other livestock will be penned in the corrals of the Reynolds-Gentry Barn. A map of all activities will be available.

A one-hour open house is planned in the Edith McKanna Parlor of the David M. DeVitt and Mallet Ranch Building at 9:30 a.m. Mrs. Edith McKanna, Mrs. Elizabeth Connell and other women of the Ranching Heritage Association will greet visitors and serve refreshments in the parlor, which is furnished with pieces from late 19th and early 20th Century ranch days.

Following a flag-raising ceremony by Boy Scout Troop 521 and Girl Scout Troop 364 of Lubbock, the cowboy breakfast will begin at the chuck wagon at 10:30 a.m. Tickets are $6 and may be purchased from the Ranching Heritage Association or at the door. For information call (806) 742-2498.

Music during the breakfast will be provided by Rick Sudduth and The Cowpokes, Crosbyton musicians ages 17 to 70. Sudduth is the brother of Texas Tech band director James Sudduth.

The Ranching Heritage Association will conduct its annual business meeting following the breakfast.

Special activities for the "Little Wranglers," children, ages 6-12, will begin at noon at the chuck wagon. Parents and visitors may trail along with the group or tour the site on their own. Events planned for the wranglers include climbing a cedar pole to ring a cowbell at the Bairfield Schoolhouse and competing in egg-in-the-spoon races and watermelon seed-spitting contests.

Greeting the wranglers and telling them about ranching history and the Ranching Heritage Center will be Dr. and Mrs. Curry Holden, Dr. and Mrs. Jim Goss and Mrs. Arnold Meaker. Dr. Holden, noted Southwestern historian and Texas Tech professor emeritus of history, was a leader in organizing and planning the Ranching Heritage Center. Dr. Goss is director of the Museum and Meaker is chairman of the Docents Committee of the Women's Council of the West Texas Museum Association.

Children on the special tour will see branding demonstrations and will brand their own souvenir wooden plaques at the blacksmith shop. They will hear tales of Indian lore and folk heroes from a storyteller. They also will be able to purchase brown bag surprises from Cogdell's General Store.

Photographer Tom Chambers of Crosbyton will be stationed in the Matador Office Building to take pictures of the young cattle barons, buffalo hunters or rustlers. Costumes and props, including the Hank Smith buffalo gun, used to shoot the last known wild buffalo on the Plains, will be available. Smith established the Cross-B Ranch in West Texas. Orders will be taken for pictures.

Little wranglers and adults will be able to view a prize-winning demonstration of saddle-blanket making, presented by Betsy Leatherwood of Seagoville and Cheree Boydston of Ralls. The two won first place in saddle-blanket making at the State 4-H Competition in June.

All participants in the wrangler program will receive souvenir pens and will be treated to homemade cake and ice cream at the Harrell House at the close of Ranch Day activities. Ranch Day, sponsored by the Ranching Heritage Association, is a major event during the National Golden Spur Award weekend. Other major events include a Livestock and Money Symposium at 9:30 Sept. 18 at the Ranching Heritage Center and the National Golden Spur Award and Prairie Party at 6:30 p.m. Sept. 18 in Lubbock Memorial Civic Center. During the Prairie Party Watt Reynolds Matthews of Albany, Texas, will receive the National Golden Spur Award for his contribution to the livestock and ranching industries.

The odds against five brothers or sisters of the same family having the same birthday are almost 18 billion to one. That's about four times the entire world's population.

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — The Texas Legislature may not meet in a second special session after all—Gov. Bill Clements announced last week he has reconsidered the call to repeal the ad valorem tax.

Repeal of the tax was the only issue important to Clements which he "lost" during the recent special session, and the Governor is the kind of batter who wants to knock every pitch out of the ballpark.

But the tax is the focus of a lawsuit, and both Clements and the Legislature now seem content to wait for a settlement in the courtroom. The verdict will give the officials the direction they need.

College Construction

The Texas Constitution levys a 10-cent per $100 valuation ad valorem tax which is dedicated to construction at 17 state universities and colleges. In 1979 the Legislature attached a statute which lowered the rate, making the tax so small that no one even bothers to collect it. However, Midwestern State University at Wichita Falls sued to overturn the Legislature's action as unconstitutional. It is scheduled for trial on August 24, but may be postponed 30 days.

Midwestern Regent William M. Thacker, Jr. came under a lot of pressure in the last days of the special

Medfly Lawsuit

Texas agriculture officials last week filed a lawsuit against the California produce industry and the U.S. Agriculture Department, seeking reimbursement for funds spent protecting Texas from the Mediterranean fruit fly.

Now in effect is a $5,000-per-day program to stop produce trucks entering Texas borders and inspect them for the Medfly.

Leading the search is Texas Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown, who has thrown the state's agriculture industry into a tizzy looking for the Medfly. Brown even convinced the Legislature to give him extra funds to combat the fly.

Last week Brown admitted his search program is actively recruiting candidates for the 1982 elections, and is courting several conservative Texas Democrats.

Targeted in Congress are Phil Gramm of Bryan and Kent Hance of Lubbock, two Democrats who voted with Republicans on the tax cut issue. Several legislators are also eyed as possible switch-overs.

In the Legislature, the battle over congressional redistricting has polarized the members, particularly in the House.

GOP Gears Up

The Republican Party of Texas chalked up the points in the recent regular and special legislative sessions, and, of course, scored high with Reagan's tax cut victory in Congress.

Now the GOP reportedly is actively recruiting candidates for the 1982 elections, and is courting several conservative Texas Democrats.

Targeted in Congress are Phil Gramm of Bryan and Kent Hance of Lubbock, two Democrats who voted with Republicans on the tax cut issue. Several legislators are also eyed as possible switch-overs.

In the Legislature, the battle over congressional redistricting has polarized the members, particularly in the House.

Post student honor scholar

WTSU - More than 350 students who will enter West Texas State University in the fall semester as freshmen have received Don and Sybil Harrington Honor Scholarships.

The scholarships of $200 each have been awarded to 369 high school graduates who were members of high school National Honor Society chapters in seven states. The scholarships, awarded through the WTSU Development Office, have been accepted by students in 115 cities and communities in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Kansas, Colorado, Ohio and New York.

Three donations each of $200,000 by the Don and Sybil Harrington Foundation of Amarillo have enabled WTSU to award the hundreds of honor scholarships.

The honor scholars program was established three years ago as the WTSU President's Honor Scholars program to award $100 to members of high school National Honor Society chapters.

A graduate of Post High School who is a WTSU honor scholar is Rhonda Rogers, daughter of Rosemary Rogers.

Old warplanes in air show Aug. 29

World War II planes will fly again Saturday over Brownfield, as Colonels of the Confederate Air Force take to the air in a dazzling and exciting display of various fly-bys and maneuvers. Types of historic combat aircraft included in the display are trainers, bombers and fighter planes.

The Panhandle Squadron of Brownfield is sponsoring this event and invitations have been extended to Colonels throughout the Texas and New Mexico area to participate.

Gates will open at the Terry County Airport five miles east of Brownfield at 10 a.m., and the aircraft will be on display to the public until airshow time at 2 p.m. Admission is $4 per person, with children under 12 admitted free. Concession stands will be available, along with a mobile PX with various WWII memorabilia.

Harley Wilke, Airshow Chairman, anticipates a great deal of interest in this area and estimates a large crowd will enjoy a "close up" look at the historic aircraft as well as the excitement of seeing them in action.

Cotton and grain sorghum, dominant crops of the South Plains, will share the spotlight with grapes during the 72nd annual field day of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Lubbock, Tuesday, Sept. 8.

this year. The annual program alternates between the Lubbock center and its facility at Halfway, he explained.

The center in Lubbock is on FM 1294 just east of I-27 at the Shallowater exit. Tours will begin at 1 p.m. and end at 5 p.m.

Five major displays are planned on the tours of the research plots and facilities of the center. Dr. Tom Archer, research entomologist at the center and field day chairman, said they will show research being conducted on grapes, cotton and grain sorghum; the developing of drought resistant cottons and sorghums; weed control; bollworm research and the ongoing cotton improvement program.

Visitors also can see research on other crops and on soil fertility, irrigation and insect control. In addition, Extension specialists and research scientists will be available to answer questions and discuss specific problems in crop production, irrigation and fertilization.

Another popular feature of the annual public program is a display of the latest farm machinery and irrigation equipment.

The field day is a cooperative presentation of TAES, the High Plains Research Foundation, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the Agricultural Research Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Lopes to scrimmage Littlefield at Anton

Play at Ralls

Coach David Thompson will have a much better idea of how strong his Post Antelope football team really is after Friday night's scrimmage with always potent Littlefield, but against Ralls last Friday evening the Lopes looked good, good, good.

The Lopes scored five times against the Jackrabbits, rolling up 381 yards rushing and 85 passing for a total of 466 yards. They clicked on four of six passes for one touchdown with no interceptions.

Tailback Will Kirkpatrick, Quarterback Tim Tannehill, Tailback Milton Williams, End Bill Black and Safety James Lee scored the touchdowns.

The Lopes drove 70 yards in 10 plays the first time the offense got the ball with Kirkpatrick zipping the last 10 yards on a quick pitch. They came right back to go 70 yards again in the same 20-play series with Tannehill passing 22 yards to Black for the touchdown.

Williams got the third touchdown on a one yard run. Lee got the fourth on a 40 yard run with a Ralls interception, and Tannehill capped it all off with a 25-yard scoring scamper on a run-pass option.

The Lopes defense looked every bit as good as the Post attack unit, maybe even better.

It limited Ralls to 19 yards total offense and two first downs on 55 plays, a net of 11 yards rushing and eight yards passing.

The defense intercepted two passes and recovered three fumbles in completely frustrating the Rabbit attack.

Strong Safety picked off the second interception and returned it 35 yards.

The Lopes looked the sharpest of any Post team in years for an opening scrimmage.

Coach Thompson couldn't hide his pleasure. He will have a much better idea after this Friday night's go against Littlefield which in recent years has pretty well put it to the Lopes.

Since Littlefield doesn't have its football lights on yet, the scrimmage will be on the Anton gridiron, beginning at 7 p.m. which cuts down the length of the trip for both the team and Lope fans by 20 miles each

The two JV squads will take the field first with the varsities following at 8 or 8:15 p.m.

The Lopes suffered no injuries against Ralls. No starting lineup changes are expected for the Littlefield scrimmage.

Also at Ralls, the Post JVs scored the only touchdown in their scrimmage with the Ralls JVs. Fullback Giles Dalby, Jr., got the tally as the Post JVs gained 97 yards in 25 offensive plays to 37 yards for Ralls on the same number of plays.

It was the first time the JVs played together as a team, so they weren't nearly as sharp as the varsity.

Frosh will scrimmage Littlefield here today

Coach Jay Kennedy's freshman footballers will make their first appearance before Post fans at 6 p.m. Thursday in a scrimmage here with the Littlefield freshman on the practice field.

"It should be a good test for us as Littlefield's freshmen have lost only one game in junior high," Coach Kennedy told The Dispatch Tuesday.

Coach Kennedy says his squad's major strengths are depth on the line, excellent attitude, and a lot of hard work put in during the off season. This squad came close to winning the district crown as eighth graders. Major weakness is the fact that right now the squad is just one deep at tailback and fullback.

Curt Greer is the fullback and Greg Massey the tailback. Mike Ollison, who alternated with Massey at tailback, has been living this summer in Levelland and Coach Kennedy is not sure if he is going to return to school here when the fall term opens.

The freshman roster includes:

Quick ends, Rodney George and Dennis Lee; quick tackles, Keith Osborn, David Brown, and Juan Lopez; quick guard, Paul Perez; Terry Steelman and Joe Lopez; center, Curt Cowdrey and Mike Johnson; strong guard, Javier Valdez and Ray Perez; strong tackle, Jim Rainbolt, Tony Soto and Victor Robles; strong end, Chuck Morris and Todd Angerer; Wingback, Rodney Hays, Scotty Clinesmith and Tony Curtis; fullback, Curt Greer; tailback, Greg Massey; and quarterback, Danny Storie, Terry Kennedy.

Albert Nava, who has mono, is expected to come out with the start of school next week.

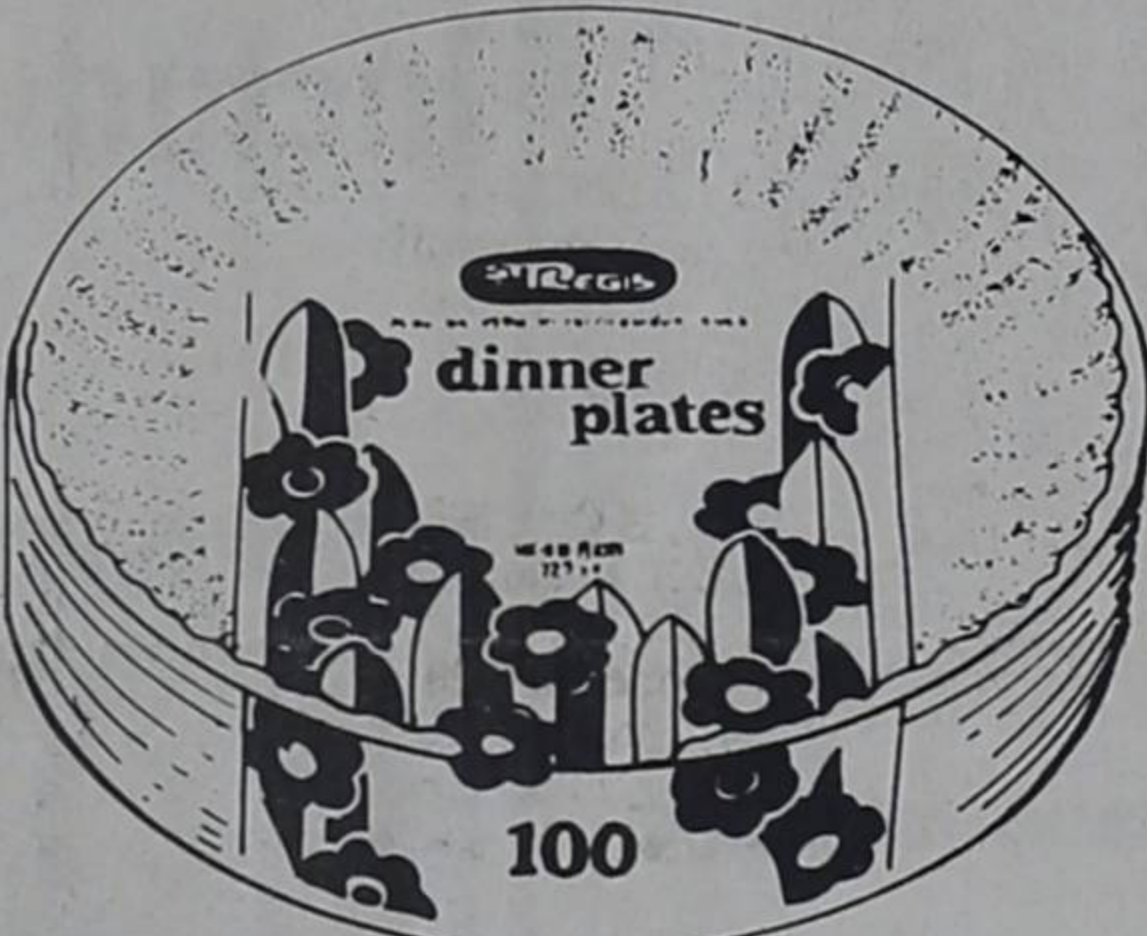

The frosh open their regular schedule at Lockney, Sept. 3 at 5:30 p.m.

to buy their own room air conditioners and the schools pay the electrical bill for their operation.

Lott asked the air conditioning supporters if they were satisfied with that.

The board president said he wouldn't object if the air conditioning of the schools was put up as a bond issue for a community vote, providing he had some assurance air conditioning would be approved due to the cost of calling a bond election.

Lott said it was "wrong to say" and "A very foolish statement to make" that Post is a rich school district and "We can afford it."

School trustee Edwin Lewis commented that "We haven't been able to justify the cost of air conditioning."

Turning back to the subject of a school auditorium, Lott said "something does need to be done about an auditorium but what and at what cost I don't know."

Mrs. Ruby Kirkpatrick then took the floor to declare that "I have come to talk about an auditorium."

She said she first began attending high school commencement exercises here in 1949 — over 30 years ago — to see her sons and grandsons graduate and she has never been able to hear one commencement as held in the football stadium.

"I think it's bad. I'm ashamed of it," she declared. "Now is the time to build an auditorium. If it takes a tax increase I'm willing to pay my share. Those property taxes come off income taxes anyway."

Sheri Riedel and Delbert Wartes led the queries on air conditioning.

Duane McQueen of Lubbock, representing the school's architectural firm, spoke up to say that the ceiling fans won't drop the temperature but would make it more comfortable by moving the air.

he said the air conditioning would cost $370,000 to install but it is the operation of the system, "which will really cost you money." He didn't comment on how much the operations would cost.

Air conditioning would be needed for approximately 12 weeks in late spring and early fall or about 60 school days each year, McQueen said.

Wartes said even Southland has air conditioned schools and what "we're talking about is the students' educations."

McQueen pretty well ended the hour-long discussion by saying that "down the road we don't see where you can generate enough school income to afford air conditioning."

Wartes polled the four school trustees present at the session and all four said they oppose classroom air conditioning.

When the citizens left, the school board passed the budget unanimously with an extra $370,000 in it for unspecified school improvements.

Prior to the start of the air-conditioning and auditorium discussion, Bryan J. Williams took the floor to offer school trustees a new three-year insurance coverage of the schools.

Since insurance was not on the agenda for the session, the board agreed to call another special meeting at 1 p.m. Monday, Aug. 31, to consider his proposal.

After the budget had been adopted, trustees went over the recently approved paving project with architect representatives and amended the plan to include considerable curb and sidewalk work on the parking lot around the west side of the elementary school, and around the band hall and lunchroom.

McQueen told trustees the concrete work was needed to handle a drainage problem and keep street water off the parking lot properly drained.

The changes increased the paving project costs

Unusual case is solved

No charges were filed, but credit the sheriff's department with solving an unusual case.

When some furniture disappeared out of a rural house Loraine Wallace was renting, she complained to the sheriff's department.

Deputies located all the "lost furniture" and had it returned to the home and the renters agreed to pay for damage done to the house.

Billy Wayne Olive arrested Aug. 25 on DWI and littering charged paid $103.50 fine and costs in city court on the littering charge and ordered to pay fine and court costs totaling $161 in county court on the DWI charge. The court also placed him on two-year probation.

Richard Lance Parks and Terry Allend Parks, both of Lubbock, were fined $103.50 each in Justice of the Peace Court No. 1 on disorderly conduct charges.

Band boosters plan get-together

A Band Boosters meeting will be held this Saturday night at 7:30 p.m. in the Band Hall, according to Steve Ladd, new band director.

Ice Cream, cake and cookies will be served during this get-acquainted time for band students, parents and anyone interested in the activities of the band. You do not have to have a student in band to participate in the Band Boosters club.

This will be an opportunity for the new director, students and parents to get together and spend some time visiting and plan some of the year's activities.

from $57,345 to about $67,000.

Jack Kirkpatrick and Pru Basquez were the other two board members attending the budget hearing.

"It was great!" said Lewis Ranches team captain Bob Boston, a 12-year veteran of the ranch. "If this roundup were held next year in Canada, we'd go!"

The Lewis Ranches team included Burl Hollar, Dumont, Ricky Lowe, Lakeview, Johnny Hill, Hedley, Billie Farley, Turkey, Don Hall, Harley Longan, Bob Boston, Jenks Boston and Jackie Longan, all of Clarendon.

The Double U Hereford Ranch placed eighth in the competition with Mike Diggs winning the saddle bronc riding event for 10 points.

The U Lazy S Ranch finished 10th in the 12-ranch field.

The R. A. Brown Ranch at Throckmorton won the team roping, and the Renderbrook-Spade Ranch of Colorado City won the wild horse race Friday night and the W. T. Waggoner Estate Ranch of Vernon the wild horse race Saturday night.

Not only were ranches judged on their quick and sure ranch hands, they were also judged on their cooks' ability to stir up good and spicy chili, their ranch queen contestants' poise in modeling western clothing and their talent contestants' skill, which ranged from music to art. Points earned in the chili cook-off and the ranch queen and talent contests were added to the rodeo scores to determine the winning ranch.
