Victor Ashley of the local ASCS office gave the Dispatch a report on Garza County's standing in the disaster payments that were recently granted to farmers. The following is his report:

Secretary of Agriculture, determine eligibility before John Block, announced last for 68 counties in Texas affected by a multitude of hail and severe weather problems over a prolonged period. Garza County was included in the disaster area. County ASCS offices will soon be making payments of losses in production below 60 percent of the farm's yield for feed grains and wheat and below 75 percent for cotton. Though it will be one week to ten days before local ASCS offices officially receive the details on administering the program, some provisions have already been announc-

Concerning New Federalism—

Judge Dalby testifying on Hobby's Task Force

Garza County Judge Giles Dalby was invited by Lieutenant Governor William P. Kenneth Cook, who is the pastor of the Church of God of Prophecy of Post, and who has been instrumental in building a fourth Sunday singing held at his church into quite a community gathering, is inviting everyone in the community to their singing to be held Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in the church.

This Sunday singing is special to Brother Cook, because a producer and director of a TV show will be at the singing, and depending on the enthusiasm of the crowd, and the talent presented during the singing, he must might be chosen to have a regular TV show to be aired each Saturday afternoon on Channel 13 in Lubbock.

Kennthe Cook has worked with the Senior Citizens group here in Post for some time, and the interest in singing soon worked into a regular group of senior citizens who have been singing at the church and other gatherings for some time. They have been regulars at his fourth Sunday singings at the church for some time and should he get the TV show, they will be regulars on this show also.

Jubilee figures are in black

Following a meeting of the Post Chamber of Commerce Monday afternoon, a report was given on the Diamond Jubilee celebration and was told that it was a financial success.

Most expenses have been settled and the net result is a figure "in the black". Profits from the celebration have been earmarked for worthwhile community

Chamber officials said that this result would not have been possible without the fine support of this community. The contributions in money, time, people, energy, equipment, and talent along with a considerable saving on the production of the historical pageant were all factors responsible for a financially sound event.

AUSTIN - The U.S. 5th Circuit Court of Appeals has struck down a lower court ruling that Texas schools must provide bilingual education for Spanishspeaking students at all grade levels and, in doing so, has dealt U.S. District Judge William Wayne Justice of Tyler his second defeat in less than a month.

The appeals court ruled that Justice—the controversial jurist who has been involved in more than a few overstepped his authority in holding that Texas had to provide bilingual education from kindergarten through high school.

The court praised the Texas law requiring bilingual education for limited English-speaking students and said that future suits should be directed toward individual school districts failing to comply with that

Telephone Rates

Customers of the state's second largest telephone company will be seeing higher bills because the Public Utility Commission has approved a $46.8 million rate hike for General Telephone - but that increase wasn't as bad as it could have been.

General Telephone, which serves nearly one million customers in dozens of counties across the state, had requested an increase of $110.6 million, but a PUC hearings examiner ruled that the company wasn't entitled to that much.

In fact, the amount approved was more than $2 million less than the figure the hearings examiner had recommended.

General Telephone has been the subject of much criticism in the last few years, having had one rate hike request turned down entirely and having had a $4 million penalty for poor service imposed against it before that.

Even though the rate increase approved was less than half of what the company had requested, General Telephone officials said they were pleased the PUC recognized the need for ad-

FACTS

Poolside Tips

To keep your family healthy and 'in the swim' this summer, set up stand ard pool safety rules.

Statistics show that more than 2,400 young children drown each year. Youngsters should be taught to enjoy the water but with a healthy respect. Some rules you might consider:

· No young child should swim or play in the water without adult supervision.

· Back yard pools attract youngsters. Keep your pool fenced and locked. NEVER leave a ladder or steps near an above-theground pool unless adults are present.

VISIT RUIDOSO Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Johnson and grandson, Randy McKee, spent last week vacationing in Ruido-

Standing water and that familiar pest, the mosquito, add up to a problem which affects the health and well-being of man and his domestic animals. I have had numerous telephone calls about them this past

It's the female mosquito whose painful bite during feeding not only causes discomfort, but also can transmit to man and animals a number of organisms causing serious diseases.

The so-called floodwater mosquito is the predominant species in the area, he noted. Mosquitoes develop over a 10-14 day period and adults live for about 10 days. "Therefore, problems are usually cyclic and of short duration this time of year," but with the excess water this summer they may last longer than usual.

Diseases carried to humans by mosquitoes include encephalitis, yellow fever and malaria. Encephalitis and occasionally malaria still are important diseases in Texas.

Among animals, a major problem in mosquito-borne diseases is heartworm in dogs. This and other diseases transmitted by the pesky insect can cause loss of property values and production efficiency and even prove fatal to animals.

Effective mosquito control is often a complex, expensive task requiring the cooperative efforts of individual homeowners as well as organized groups, communities and local and state government. Mosquito control personnel may be required on an extended basis and communities may wish to establish an areawide approach to the The Texas problem. Department of Health can provide information on establishment of a mosquito control district, he said. But there is much the individual can and should do around the home. The first thing to do is eliminate their breeding sites. Standing water from rain showers provides excellent breeding grounds for mosquitoes.

"Mosquitoes can lay eggs wherever standing water is available for a week or longer." "Old tires, tin cans, birdbaths, roadside ditches, rain gutters, temporary water containers and swampy places all can hold enough water to enable mosquitoes to breed."

Empty out old tires and place them where they cannot collect additional water. Flatten and discard tin cans. Change the water in birdbaths every week. Clean out rain gutters, remove temporary water containers and see that rain barrels and water storage tubs are tightly covered. Drain standing water from ditches and low areas, when possible.

"If there is standing water that serves as a breeding site but cannot be drained or eliminated, treatment with a larvicide will be necessary."

One of the most effective larvicides is No. 2 diesel oil with a biodegradable spreader, applied at a rate of 20 gallons for each surface acre of water, or approximately 6 ounces per 100 square feet of surface.

Abate, malathion or Dursban applied to standing water at rates indicated on their labels also are effective larvicides. But labels should be read carefully to determine the hazards these insecticides pose to persons applying them and to fish and animals that may use the water. Control of adult mosquitoes offers the most immediate relief. Inside the home, aerosol bombs containing pyrethrin offer quick knockdown of adult mosquitoes. The killing effect of pyrethrin is very short-lived, so frequent application will be necessary to control adult mosquitoes inside the house. The "pest strip" offers effective indoor control for long periods. "One pest strip for each average size room is necessary to control mosquitoes.'

"Persons who are active where mosquitoes are a problem should use repel-lents." "These repellents will protect you from biting mosquitoes for from one to three hours, depending upon your type of activity."

Adult mosquitoes around the home can best be controlled by space or residual treatments of insecticides such as malathion, Dibrom, methoxychhave very little residual activity and require repeatdone during the cool hours 4th of July. of the night or early miles an hour.

ed as mists or sprays to the resting sites of adult mosquitoes gives longer-lasting control than space treat-

Light traps are quite popular in some communities for adult mosquito control. Unfortunately, there is no data to support their utility for mosquito control, Extension entomologists report. Quite the contrary, they say, these light traps can actually draw more mosquitoes from surrounding areas and increase the problem, rather than alleviating it.

In other action the Board elected or re-elected six members to the organization's Executive Committee and resolved to continue working toward removal of the existing inequities in plant variety seed protection laws.

However," he added, "it is budget under which we think the organization can continue to play an important role in protecting and promoting producer inter-

The seed law resolution passed by the Board commit PCG to "...oppose any change in the Texas Seed Act which would eliminate cottonseed labeling of 'variety not stated' as recently proposed by the Texas Seed Trade Association, and to send representatives and endorse the concept of meeting with allied industry groups to resolve existing inequities in variety protec-

To all the folks in Garza County, we the Senior Citizens of this county are asking you for some ideas for raising funds for the Senior Citizen Trailblazers Center. We have had a drastic cut in our funding from South Plains Association of Governments who has been helping us since we were organized and are still helping, but their funding has been cut so that makes us take a loss also. We serve about 1200 to 1300 hundred meals a month to the elderly of our county and that does not include about 250 or more home bound senior citizens. If we can't come up with something, we will not have enough to operate on for the next 12 months of our new contract which begins in October. We will not have enough for our utilities to finish this year at all. So come on down and give us your ideas about this. All input would be greatly appreciated. We feed five days a week about 12 noon, and this is enjoyed by all, plus we have games of 88, 42, Skip-bo and Pool each day. Also we have TV, which there is always several enjoying watching old movies or their soap operas. Also there is exercise each morning at 9 a.m. We have a very good service of blood pressure checks offered at no cost, four times a month, each first and fourth Tuesday, and first and third Thursdays. We appreciate this service very much. Also we have Randy Brackeen of Beltone who comes each fourth Thursday. This is also at no charge unless you have to have batteries or other parts for your hearing aids. This is a very good service offered and saves our senior citizens from having to go to Lubbock. Also we have a bus that is available through Garza County and SPAG. This is a very good program, it takes medical patients to Lubbock each Tuesday, and the other four days are spent in Post for them to shop or go to the doctor or other places they need to go. We want to say thanks to Garza County and can call 2998 for any information on this service.

This is offered to all senior citizens of Garza County no matter your color, race or creed. It is available to all. So please call this number if you need transportation any time. We have had a lot to use this

We have lots of sick folks and our prayers are with them and also with those who have lost loved ones.

There was a musical held at the Post Community Center this past Friday night. I was not present due to other things that came up, but I am sure it was great. We have a lot of good talent in Post and we appreciate their willingness to come and entertain for us. We appreciate you all very much. There were serveral visitors present.

Don't forget all who are interested in a Public hearing on the SPAG program to be present at our center the 26th of July at 10 a.m. and this will be your chance to ask questions about the program SPAG will be funding for the year 1983. So please be present. There will be a Fun Night given for the Senior Citizens by the City of Lubbock, the 20th of August. This includes a supper, musical entertainment and also you can dance if you like.

meeting PCG learned by telephone from Washington that the previously requested disaster program was to be approved, making weather-ravaged farmers eligible for a payment of 20.5 cents per pound times 75 percent of the difference between actual per-acre 1982 production and established yield, plus emergency FmHA disaster loans and emergency conservation loans to prevent erosion.

Already in place was a price deficiency program under which producers are to receive the difference between a 71-cent target price and the weighted average price paid to all farmers for all cotton in the 1982 calendar year. USDA is now estimating that payment at 12 cents per pound. Thus producers with zero production should realize 20.5 cents per pound on 75 percent of their established yield and 12 cents on the remaining 25 percent, an

The bride's cathedral length veil of illusion, edged in lace to match the gown, was gathered to a head piece covered with chantilly lace embellished with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white silk orchids, roses, cherry blossoms accented with boston fern and baby's breath. Streamers of white lace tied in love knots completed the bouquet.

Dear Editor: I call the attention of the readership of the Dispatch to the article referring to the recent visit of Congressman Jim Collins to Post, wherein he is quoted as saying that "Texas could balance its budget very easily, with the right management." What the Congressman actually said was, Texas is required to balance its budget and does so, and that the Federal budget could be balanced if it were required to and right management were applied.

The Post Little League All-Stars finished second in the All-Star Tournament held in Tahoka last week with Slaton being crowned the champs in undefeated play.

In Friday's action against Slaton, Post played a close game throughout but came out on the losing side of a hard fought battle 8 to 5.

Slaton opened the scoring with one run in the top of the first with Post unable to mount a scoring drive.

Again in the second, Slaton added another run to their side but Post mounted an attack when Henry Medina hit a two bagger followed by walks by Glen Hardin and Lex Dunn and Michael McClain added another two base hit to bring in the runners. Dale Gonzales took his base on a hit pitch and Greg Benham made it safely with an error followed by another two bagger by Roy Holly to put Post in front 5 to 2.

Slaton added two more in the third with Post turning cold and again in the fourth Slaton added three more. Post had the bases loaded in the bottom of the fifth but was unable to bring anyone home and Slaton added their final run in the sixth.

In their march to the semi-finals Post defeated O'Donnell by a whopping score of 25-5 earlier in the week. O'Donnell scored first with a run in the first but Post went ahead in the second on walks by Amando Chapa and Eric Reece with Henry Medina receiving a

"He doesn't understand the high risks that modern day farming and ranching entail; what happens when bad weather ruins a crop or, for that matter, when good weather produces a bumper crop that sends prices below the cost of production."

"That's the only logical reason for the repeated votes James M. Collins has cast during his 14 years in Washington as a Member of Congress against emergency farm disaster loans and against emergency disaster farm assistance,' Bentsen said.

Bentsen noted that Collins voted July 1, 1973 against the disaster assistance program offered by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service. Again, on February 13, 1980

President Reagan's new Federalism proposals call for structural changes in the way in which state and local aid is administered. Under the latest proposal some 35 programs would be "turned back" to the states to administer as they see fit. Whether Congress approves the structural changes or not, it appears that federal funding for these state and local assistance programs will become smaller in the coming years. Judge Dalby and other officials like him, will hopefully be instrumental in saving some of these programs, or in other ways be able to see that our county does not suffer from the losses that seem sure.

The association is also selling box seats for the rodeo with the cost being $65 for a box with six folding chairs, right down on the grounds. This price includes all three nights of the rodeo, and is quite a bargain. Contact any director of the rodeo association for your box seat.

Jay Hart is president of the Rodeo Association.

Any person or club wishing to enter a float in the rodeo parade should contact the Chamber office. Decorated bicycle entries for the parade should also call the Chamber office.

WASHINGTON, D.C. - A U.S. District Court Judge has overturned a jury verdict which ordered the National Rifle Association to pay $2,038,000 to the family of a man killed by robbers who used a .22 caliber target pistol stolen from the NRA's Washington, D.C. annex. The decision came July 1. The gun, which belonged to a former NRA employee, was stolen by four teen-aged burglars three days before the November 27; 1979 murder of Orlando Gonzalez-Angel.

In his ruling, Judge Oliver Gasch said that "no reasonable juror could reach a verdict" holding NRA negligent in the case. He thereby reversed the damage award which was handed down by six-member jury in February 1982.

Judge Gasch noted that the burglary took place in the NRA annex, not the association's main headquarters. The NRA "exercised a high degree of care as to the firearms stored in its main building," he said. He also said that NRA officials "fully expected employees who used the (basement) range to take their target pistols home with them when they left work at the end of the day." "In sum, based on the evidence presented, no reasonable person could con-
