

City to survey TV cable service here

In an effort to determine widespread complaints of poor cable TV service in Post, the city council Monday night decided to print a cable TV service questionnaire in The Dispatch.

Residents who have cable service are asked to fill out the questionnaire, which appears on page 12 of today's edition and return them to either city hall or the First National Bank, whichever is more convenient.

The results of the questionnaire will be used by the council in its dealings with the cable company.

The city has received more complaints recently after asking its attorney, Harvey Morton, to write High Plains Cablevision of Idalou and call attention to the poor service reported here.

Stanley Whitefield, manager of the cablevision system replied to the city's letter Dec. 17 in which Whitefield said "the service in Post has improved a great deal over the past few months as opposed to what it was previously."

Whitefield said "we have cut our cost down from about 40 calls a day to about 12. There is a service technician living in Post now."

"We plan to rebuild the Post system completely in the very near future," Whitefield wrote.

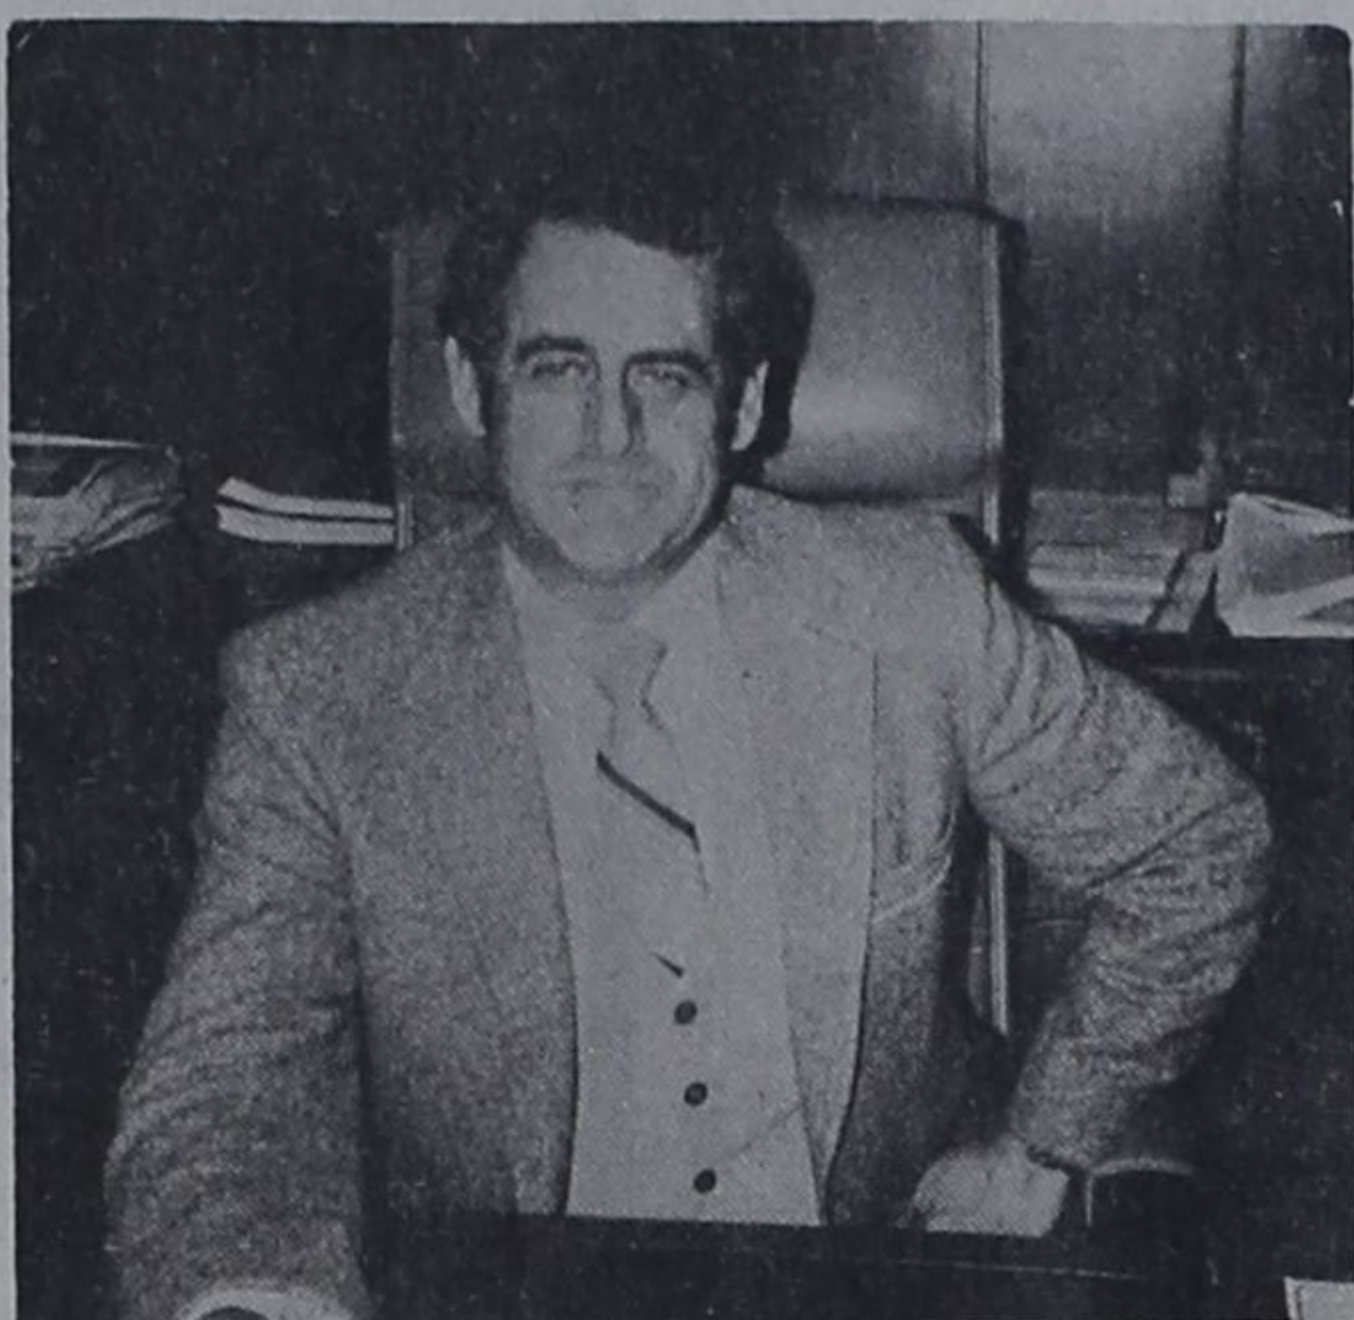

Whitefield explained how his firm tried to correct all problems as soon as reported and closed his letter by saying, "If you can bear with us a little longer, all efforts will be made to make Post a quality cable service."

The city council wants to determine by its questionnaire how widespread cable service complaints are. It asks cable users to fill out the questionnaire and return it so the size of the problem can be determined.

The council controls the franchise through which the cable company operates here and also must approve any price increases granted to the cable company.

Mayor Giles McCrary pointed out in the discussion that "Post isn't the only town having trouble with the cable company."

While the firm does have a technician here he has no local telephone and complaint calls have to be made (See Cable survey, Page 12)

Jack King new bank president

Jack King began his new duties as president of the First National Bank Monday succeeding Larry Willard who resigned the position last May to enter the oil business in Wichita Falls.

King comes to Post from Dalhart where he was the executive vice president of the First National Bank of Dalhart for 10 years.

Prior to entering banking 10 years ago, King was a school teacher for 11 years, beginning at Comanche, Tx., and moving to Dalhart to teach for four years before becoming a bank officer.

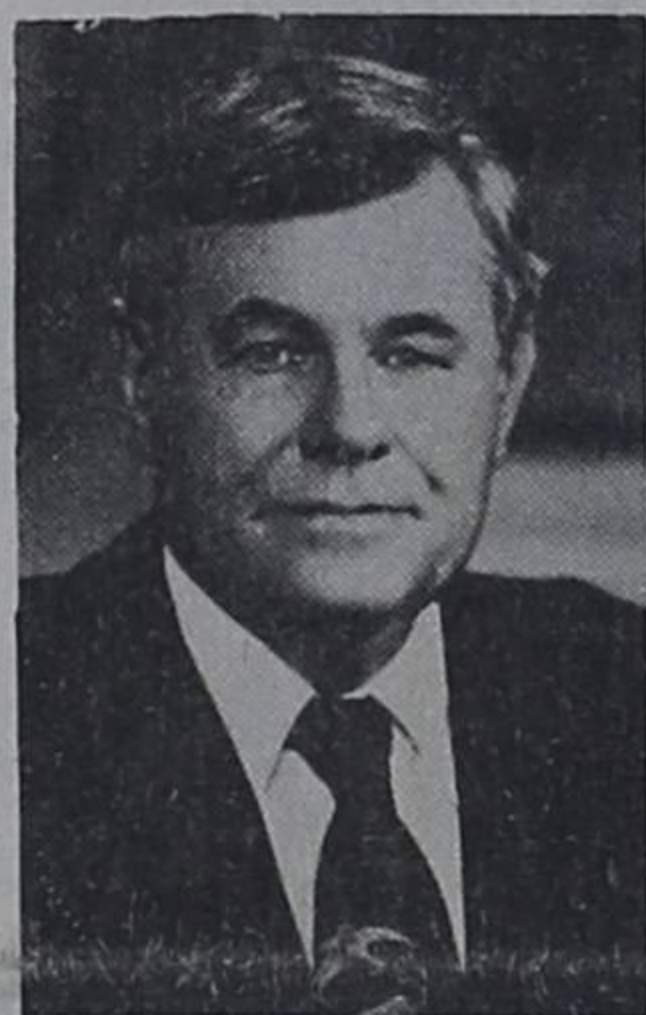

King's wife, Rebecca, is the county judge of Dallam County of which Dalhart in the Texas Panhandle is the county seat.

She wants to complete several projects in that office before moving to Post.

King told The Dispatch he is looking for a suitable home here and at present has rented an apartment.

The Kings have two sons. Jeff, who is 22, was graduated from Texas Christian University in December and is now employed by the First National Bank of Fort Worth. Jon, 20, is a junior at Southern Methodist University.

"I look forward to a long and happy relationship with Post and Garza people and with the bank here," King told The Dispatch the first day on the job.

SENATOR E.L. SHORT Seeking reelection

Short seeks reelection

State Senator E. L. Short of Tahoka announced this week he will seek a second term to represent the 28th senatorial district in the upper branch of the Texas Legislature.

In his announcement for reelection, Short said a state senator no longer can serve the public on a part-time basis and he would continue to work full time.

"My priorities in state government are the education of our children and providing better incentives to our professional educators," Short said, "both in higher salaries and in benefits."

"A water plan and necessary funding is of major importance," he said. "As chairman of the sub-committee on water, I will schedule statewide hearings early this year."

"I would like to see one cent of the state sales tax returned to the school districts in the form of tax relief, so our homes, businesses and farms would not have to have such high taxes," Short said.

He termed himself a conservative "in accord with the people who elected (See Short, Page 12)

County against waste disposal

The Garza County Commissioners Court recently adopted a resolution opposing test drilling for possible underground disposal of atomic waste in the West Texas area.

No such drilling is planned in this county, but there is a government study under way for an area near Tulia for atomic waste disposal.

The court discussed taxation of vehicles as personal property with County Appraiser Jean Westfall and asked Mrs. Westfall to obtain the collection rate for a decision at the court's Jan. 11 meeting.

The court also unanimously approved the consortium agreement with the South Plains Association of Governments.

The resolution honoring Carl Webb was approved for entering into the court's minutes.

No first baby winner yet

Some $400 worth of prizes are still awaiting the winner of The Dispatch's First Baby of 1982 contest.

Up to presstime late Wednesday morning, the report from Garza Memorial Hospital was simply: "No first baby yet."

The winner will be given free from and board at the hospital for her or him and her or his mother with 12 local merchants contributing a dozen more worthwhile prizes.

'Car problem' may be solved

A recommendation to maintain a sheriff department fleet of four good vehicles at all times was unanimously accepted by the Post City Council and the Garza County Commissioners Court in a joint meeting Monday night in the Post Public Library.

This was one of eight recommendations presented to the joint session by the reorganized law enforcement committee through its chairman, Jack Alexander.

The committee is composed of Alexander and Jim Wells of the council, County Commissioners Ted Aten and Herb Walls and Sheriff Jim Pippin.

The recommendation to solve the sheriff department's long standing "car problem" called for "a planned method of car purchasing for the sheriff's department and that at least one new vehicle be purchased each year to maintain a fleet of four good vehicles at all times. Recommend that these purchases be coordinated by the law enforcement committee and the sheriff."

Other major recommendations from the committee called for monthly reports by both city and county by the sheriff's department, keeping maintenance records on sheriff's cars, and that the committee and the sheriff working together prepare a budget each year to be submitted to both city and county.

The committee also said it will "work to keep the lines of communication open at all times between the two governing bodies at the sheriff's department."

Two other recommendations were that: "All concerned be more objective and not allow personality conflicts to detract from the effectiveness of the operation of law enforcement."

"All concerned be more aware of the fact that they have pledged to provide the most effective and just system of law enforcement that is possible. Personal feelings should not be allowed to detract from this aim."

A part of the budget recommendation was that "The law enforcement committee and the sheriff work together to keep expenses down."

Council and court members agreed to work entirely through the committee in the future.

The law enforcement committee worked out its recommendations at a Dec. 17 meeting after Aten, who had served as chairman for a number of years, resigned and nominated Alexander to become the new chairman. Aten was then named vice-chairman.

Other years which were wetter than 1981 were 31.24 in 1957, 35.79 in 1926, 30.38 in 1923, 30.44 in 1920, and 33.16 in 1914.

The plentiful rainfall didn't do a maximum amount of "crop good" however because 9.82 inches left the ground soaked in October, too late to help the growing cotton crop.

The next biggest month was August with 4.38 inches. December was the driest month of 1981 with only .31 of an inch recorded.

28.30 inches recorded here— For Post '81 was 8th wettest year

The 1981 year was a wet one for Post. Officially the rainfall for the last 12 months produced 28.30 inches of moisture.

This is the eighth best moisture year on record for Post — and the record goes back 73 years to 1908.

The 28.30 inches has been the wettest in the last nine years — since 1972 when 32.59 inches were recorded here.

The wettest year on record for Post was in 1941 when 43.20 inches were recorded.

The future of our city-county airport appears bleak unless the city council and county commissioners court pick up the ball on the needed $300,000 runway project and run with it.

There's no federal or state aid in sight for the foreseeable future and we've waited far too long now to delay further.

While both governing bodies are hesitant to call for a vote on even such a small bond issue — or issues, there have been discussions on possible short-term financing.

These should be pursued without lost motion.

When you put a pencil to it, any time warrants or such would be of very short duration and spread over the city and county's taxable valuations would not be very expensive taxwise to anyone.

Bank deposits top $37 million

The First National Bank of Post has set a new record for deposits here with $37,700,704.85 in deposits as of Dec. 31, 1981.

This is a gain of nearly $5,500,000 in deposits for the year over the $32,208,778.68 the bank reported as of Dec. 31, 1980.

Bank assets were up over $8,000,000 for the year to $41,804,001.14 with loans totaling $14,478,316.46 as compared to $12,637,403.99 a year earlier.

The bank's statement of condition appears on page 2.

It was a little early Tuesday for the first "duster" of the year, but a little brown blanket is to be preferred over what most of the rest of the country was getting — blizzards and floods.

Post Rotarians could have a real problem of survival on their hands. The civic club's head cook, Mrs. Ida Walls, became seriously ill last week. Jackson's Cafeteria stepped into the gap Tuesday by catering hamburgers and french fries or baked potatoes. The club, now over 50 years old, has a solid West Texas reputation (See Postings, Page 12)

Three arrested for welfare fraud— Home church burglarized

Theft of six guns from Post home and the burglary and vandalism of the Justiceburg Baptist Church highlight a busy week for the sheriff's department.

The guns were stolen from the home of James F. Keel, Sr., 613 South G Place, while he was out of the city for a holiday visit during Postex Plant's Christmas shutdown.

Taken were two Mossberg .410 bolt action shotguns, one Marlin 22 automatic rifle, one Harrison and Richardson 20 gauge single shot shotgun and two Sheridan pump action pellet guns.

Entrance was gained to the residence by kicking in the back door.

The church burglary at Justiceburg occurred sometime Saturday night or early Sunday morning. Two communion trays and a crystal plate were stolen, two stain glass windows broken out of the south side of the church and a clock knocked off the wall.

The clock was stopped at 10:10, indicating either an early evening burglary or an early morning one.

The sheriff's department has both cases under investigation and request intensive with any information concerning either burglary to come forward.

Several persons have been arrested here for welfare fraud. Espinoza and Geneve, were his on such charges booked and each released Monday, a $1,000 appearance bond (See Burglary, Page 12)

Only 2 file in first week

The 1982 campaign year got off to a slow start this week in Garza County.

Only the two Garza justices of the peace, Zora Robinson in precinct 1 and Pat Kitchens in precinct 4 have filed for Democratic nominations to seek reelection with Garza Demo Chairman Dick Tanner.

State Senator E. L. Short of Tahoka also has announced his intentions to seek reelection and issued a formal announcement statement.

Other county offices to be filled this year are those of county judge, county clerk, county treasurer, and county commissioners of precincts 2 and 4.

All these incumbents are expected to seek reelection.

February meeting. The new truck, which could be used for small fires as well as hauling the "jaws", will cost approximately $25,000.

The council believes it has available funds in its current budget for the purchase as $90,000 had been earmarked to purchase the big new fire truck already ordered. That truck cost only about $70,000.

The council turned down City Health Officer Harry Hubbs' request for a salary increase to $100 a month, saying it was "locked in" by the budget for $50 monthly for the remainder of the fiscal year.

The council approved a letter agreement with Park Hills, Smith and Cooper for 1982 engineering services and agreed to a special meeting at 6:30 p.m. Monday to open bids on the new playground unit for city-county park to be build under a state sharing grant. (See Water lines, Page 12)

On our band and parade

Watching the Rose Bowl parade Friday morning, we were struck by two thoughts as those fine bands strutted and played.

One was about our own high school band. The other related to Post's 75th anniversary celebration which should be coming up this fall.

We'll take these two one at a time.

A good band is like a good football team. It is a common rallying point for communities big or small. That means everybody takes an interest in the band.

Just like a good football team requires a solid football program to keep turning out good teams, so does a good band require a good band program.

Here in Post, Steve Ladd, our new band director is busy reestablishing a band program aimed at producing a good band which students can take pride in and build upon.

He got off to a fine start last fall when the band program was at its lowest ebb in the 24 years we've been in Post. That's a tough assignment, but Steve has made a lot of progress. Students can now see that if they work hard, they will have a good band. They know they have good professional leadership.

Nobody can build a band in a single school year. The young musicians have to be taught and developed. But the size of the band is growing. Interest has been reawakened.

Post has had a Division I band in many years past. It can be Division I again.

Steve has the support of school authorities and of the parents. He is building it among the kids.

Just as Post is going to have a good football team next season, it also will have a bigger and better band. Post at last appears on the way toward a solid band program.

We congratulate Steve on the fine start he has made.

Our other parade thought was an unanswered question. Will Post have a real 75th birthday parade?

Our concern is that if a parade is planned, enough effort be put into the planning and execution to make it a darn good one.

Two prime parade ingredients are bands and floats. Post hasn't had a truly good parade in the 25 years since the Golden Jubilee in the fall of 1957.

Bands aren't easy to get into a parade lineup. The Rose Bowl parade is something different. It's an award for great performance. It's a great trip for the kids and a real boost to community pride. But it involves a lot of individuals and a large amount of expense money to get there, stay a little while, and then get back home again.

Just to attract bands in this area is a tough assignment. For starters, the parade has to be held when bands are active. The fall is the best time because they are geared up for football halftime shows.

Then there has to be a solid attraction for a neighboring band to act neighborly and show up. A lot of kids — and parents — are involved. That means an entertainment plus feed or money as an inducement.

The second parade ingredient are floats. They cost a lot of money to build and take a lot of hard work as well. Post hasn't been too successful in attracting floats to its rodeo parade even though cash prizes are pretty good for the winning organizations.

Getting a suitable list of float entries is going to take a lot of advance work and thought.

To the bands and floats can be added any number of other parade ingredients which will attract spectator interest.

Our reason for bringing up a 75th anniversary parade this early is to emphasize the main point. If we're going to have a 75th anniversary parade it must be a good one. To organize it will take a lot of work and a considerable budget of money.

If we're not willing to go that far, with funding and advance preparations, let's not have a parade. It wouldn't be fitting.

There aren't many good parades anymore. The Rose Bowl parade is undoubtedly the best one in the country and that requires year-round work and huge amounts of money.

So if we can't agree right off to have a good anniversary parade let's scratch it — and concentrate upon something else.

At this place in time, we are just assuming Post will have a 75th anniversary celebration. There hasn't been much movement by anybody that we've seen to really get after it yet.

How to make your million

The American dream is now within every youngster's reach — retiring with a million bucks in the bank.

Of course real sacrifices are demanded and you have to wait 40 years or so to get there, but if you are a disciplined saver any young fellow age 25 can make it.

All this sounds unbelievable but with the expanded IRA retirement savings plan which went into effect New Year's Day, it is possible.

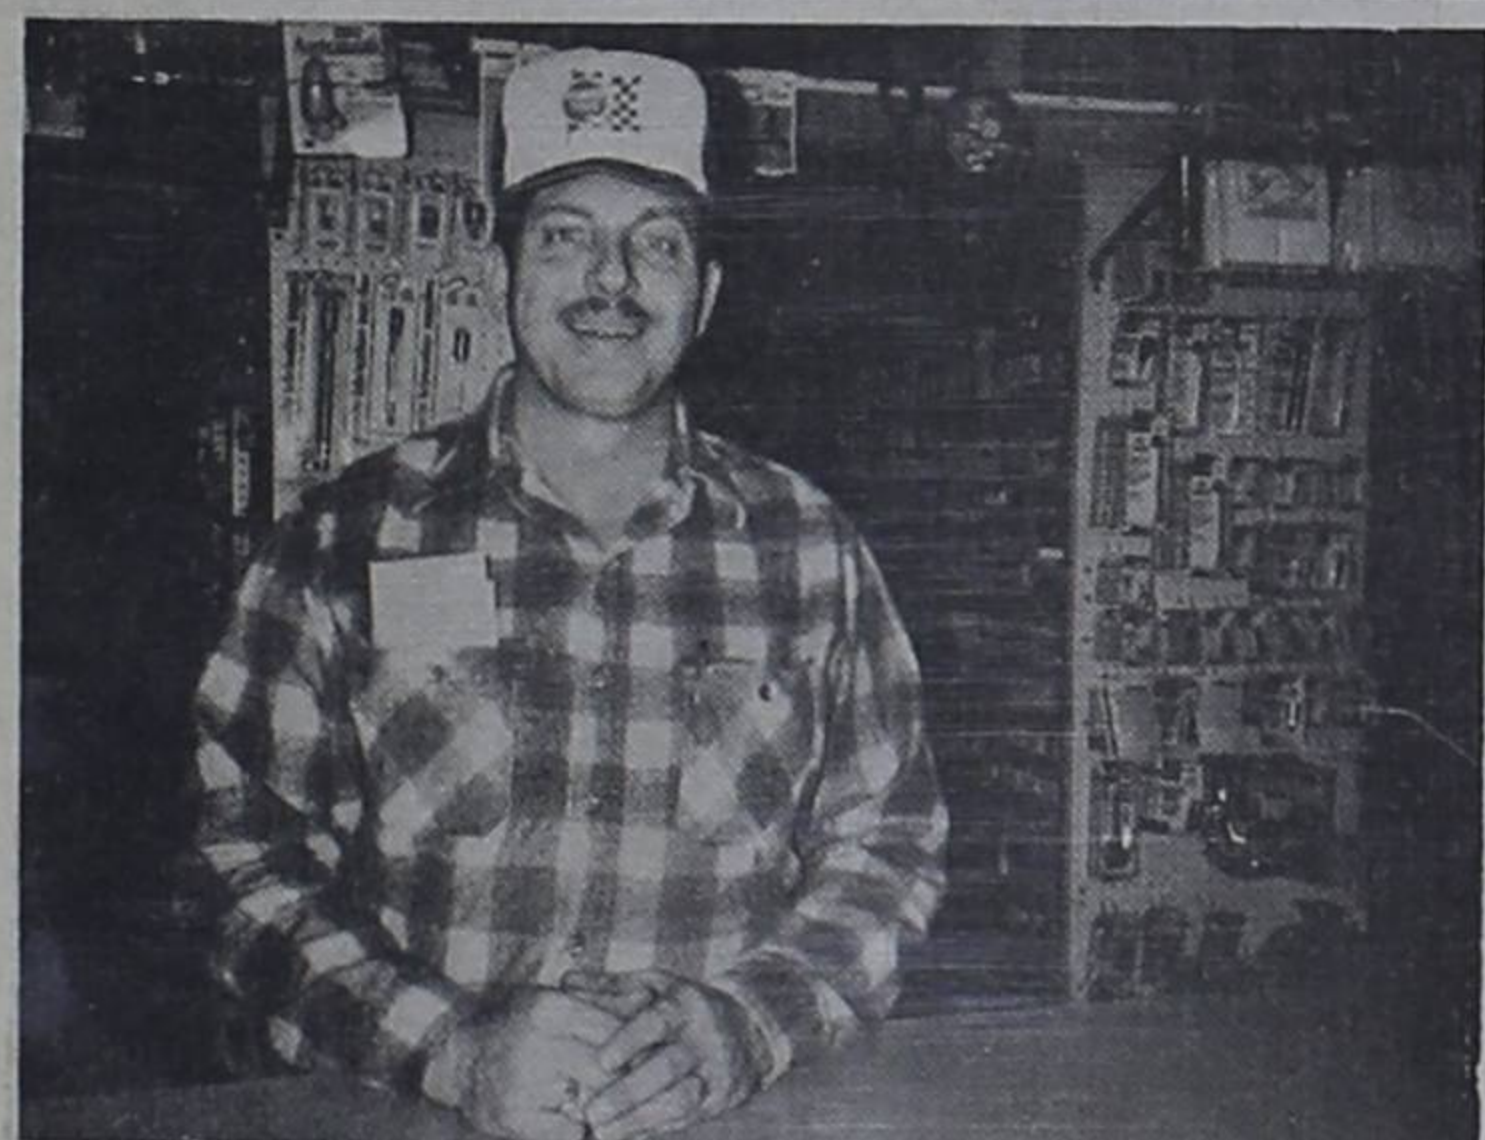

A young married couple is allowed to send $2,000 a year into a retirement savings plan without paying taxes on it. If you put back $2,000 a year for 40 years you wind up not with just $80,000 but up to $2,130,059.46 if the average interest rates holds at 12 percent. If it slips to 10 percent you still have better than your million — $1,125,981.46 to be exact.

Maybe you can't put back $2,000 a year but if you put back a thousand a year — less than $100 a month — from age 25 on you'll never have to worry about a thing in your old age. Plus you'll have something of real value to hand on to your kids. If we'd all get this going for a couple of generations everybody would be in the bucks.

Somebody has pointed out a million dollars may not be worth much in 40 years if the fires of inflation continue, but at least you'll keep abreast of inflation, or probably at least a little ahead of it, with your retirement savings.

Sure, most young folks are scrapping hard just to stay even, but putting some back now in a tax-free IRA is a bargain worth sacrificing quite a bit to attain.

Vows are said in Austin church

Wedding vows uniting Karisa Ann Bowman and Jerry L. Johnson, were read recently in St. John's United Methodist Church in Austin. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowman of Austin and Mr. and Mrs. Wagoner Johnson of Post.

The double ring vows were read before an altar decorated with an arrangement of pine, white carnations, stephanotis and gladiolus. Brass baskets filled with pine and white satin bows and brass candleabras with white candles also decorated the altar area. The communion rails were decorated with pine, pine cones, and twenty white candles on each rail. Hurricane lamps decorated with English Ivy were placed in each stained glass window along the side of the sanctuary.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of sheer York of English net with Chantilly lace encircling the neck and also covering the fitted bodice which was also highlighted by seed pearls. The yoke was encircled with sheer organza ruffle with the sheer lace sleeves forming a deep cuff at the wrist with lace extending on to the hand. The bouffant skirt flowed from a natural waistline, featuring cascading ruffles at the bottom of the skirt flowing into the chapel train. Her veil was walking lengthy and encircled by chantilly lace held in place by a Juliet cap, decorated with seed pearls.

The bride carried a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis, baby's breath encircling two white orchids laced with white satin ribbon and pine.

Nancy Holmes of Austin, cousin of the bride, served as maid of honor with Connie Kennedy of Post, Jo Ann Burk of Austin, and Laura Zausmer of Austin serving as bridesmaids. They were attired identically in burgundy silesta gowns featuring a draped bodice with long shiered sleeves. They carried arrangements of small and large silk roses surrounded by white stephanotis and white satin ribbon.

Melissa Gosdin of Burleson, Texas served as flower girl. The flower girl's mother was the flower girl in the bride's mother's wedding.

John Johnson of Bloomington, Ill. served his brother as best man with Jay Kennedy of Post, Dennis Carpenter of Alpine, and Spikes Kangerga of Austin serving as groomsmen.

Wedding music was presented by the Starthrowers, a ladies singing group of Austin as they sang, "A Wedding Prayer" before the ceremony and "Sunrise, Sunset" after the father had given the bride away.

A reception was held in the Fellowship Hall immediately following the ceremony. The room was decorated with green fern and white bows. The bride and groom, along with their parents, greeted their guests in front of a white trellis with green plants surrounding it. Round tables were used for the wedding cake and the groom's cake and refreshments. They were decorated with white round tablecloths covered by white net and bordered with burgundy ribbon. Silver candlesticks were placed on each table.

Following a trip to New Orleans, the couple will reside at 2103B Conestoga Trail in Austin.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thomas of Hereford, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Carpenter of San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Carpenter of San Antonio, Mrs. Darlene

Christmas is over for another year and we are looking forward to the beginning of 1982. The resident Christmas party was a big success. Many family members and friends came to share this special time with their loved ones. The singing group, Sisters in Song, did several Christmas songs. Joe Stansell, Outreach director at the First Baptist, talked about the meaning of Christmas, read the Christmas story from Luke, chapter 1 and said a brief prayer.

Rylant, sang Christmas songs, accompanied on the piano by their mother, Darlene Rylant, director of nurses at the home. The three also led in group carols, such as "Silent Night." Bobbie Edler, administrator, expressed to the family members and friends, how much we as the staff, appreciated their support and their presence. She shared that they were responsible for making the party and out home, a success. The Rylant children sang, "Here Comes Santa Claus" and out came Rudolph, Santa and Santa's Elf. Mickey Hass, as Santa, Jeremy Stansell as Rudolph, and Brian Stansell as Santa's Elf, were definitely the "hit" of the evening. Santa, with the help of his elf and Rudolph, passed out all the Christmas gifts to the residents. They had a wonderful time opening their gifts. Christmas cookies and candies, which were donated by ladies from the Church of Christ of Post and United Methodist Church of Post were served punch and coffee. Judy Lee also donated a cake.

We are looking forward with anticipation to beginning a new year. We want to serve the community well and be a nursing home facility that Post can be proud of. We appreciate all that the volunteers have done, in the past year, to serve our residents. We wish to take this opportunity to wish them and all of Post a very prosperous and Happy New Year!

Billy C. Gunter, South Plains District director for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, will discuss Extension's role with the groups. Dr. James Supak, Extension cotton agronomist, will serve as moderator. The program, being conducted by Extension, will include a question and answer period.

Leaders of four major cotton organizations will meet in Crosbyton, Jan. 12 with cotton growers, ginners, financial and agribusiness representatives from six counties to discuss unified efforts to promote cotton use.

Participating in the program which begins at 6:30 p.m. in the Pioneer Memorial Museum auditorium on the square, will be the Cotton Board, Cotton Incorporated, National Cotton Council and Plains Cotton Growers. Counties taking part will be Crosby, Floyd, Lubbock, Garza, Dickens and Motley.

Sid Conner, Garza County Extension agent for agriculture, said the meeting will give farmers an opportunity to discuss their situation with top leaders of the four organizations and to learn what each group is doing to promote cotton.

Representing the Cotton Board will be its executive director, Phil Burnett, of Memphis. He will show a film and discuss how the board uses producer check-off money to promote cotton.

CRIME STOPPERS

Drug trafficking in Texas is bad and getting worse every day. The drug pushers reap more than $5 billion every year in illegal profits — at the expense of men, women, and children in our state. The drug dealers are a destructive element in Texas and they must be stopped. It's time to blow the whistle on them, and the people of Texas now have a way to do just that.

Recognizing that citizen involvement constitutes a vital part of the law enforcement effort in Texas, Governor William P. Clements, Jr. and the Texas Legislature created a new statewide anti-crime hotline under the Crime Stoppers Advisory Council. The unanimous support of this program stems from the success of 44 local Crime Stoppers programs across Texas.

For the month of January, 1982, the Crime Stoppers Advisory Council is focusing its statewide "Crime of the Month" program on drug trafficking. Any citizen having information about major drug trafficking should call the Texas Crime Stoppers Council at 1-800-252-TIPS. Cash rewards are available for information leading to the arrest and indictment of drug traffickers. Citizens do not have to reveal their name, just their information, and they will be given a unique code number for identification purposes.

The Crime Stoppers Advisory Council, created within the Criminal Justice Division of the Governor's Office, is charged with four responsibilities: (1) advising and assisting in the creation of local Crime Stoppers programs, (2) encouraging citizens with knowledge of a crime to come forward — without revealing their identity — with their information, (3) promoting the program through Texas' news media, and (4) assisting in channeling information about crime to the appropriate Texas law enforcement agency for follow-up investigation.

The 1981 Texas Legislature provided the state's criminal justice system with important new tools to find the top drug traffickers in Texas and stiff laws with which to prosecute them. Through the new statewide Crime Stoppers program, the Legislature also provided a mechanism for the citizens of Texas to help stop this menace in our state.

RESOLUTIONS ARE GOOD ONLY IF YOU FOLLOW THEM

A brand new year has just begun, With firm resolves by everyone. If you remember with dismay The fact that you did not obey That mighty list on which appear The things you vowed to do last year, Including chores that one by one You swore that somehow you'd get done But didn't find the time at all To clean that closet in the hall, And didn't manage to resist All those temptations on your list; Then just resolve to work and pray, And worship God each Sabbath day. These resolutions are the best, For they take care of all the rest.

SPS works with other electric utilities to guarantee that its customers will have adequate power even in emergency situations. SPS is a member of the Southwest Power Pool, which is made up of electric utilities in parts of Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Arkansas and Missouri. These utilities work together in planning and operations to keep down operating costs, conserve fuel and increase the reliability of their systems.

Preheat your oven for no longer than 10 minutes for most efficient use. To conserve energy while cooking, cook the entire meal or several foods at the same time and temperature setting. And don't keep peeking to see if your foods are cooked, since the temperature inside an oven drops 25 to 50 degrees every time the oven door is opened.

Vivian Liner, Home Service Advisor, Lubbock.

Southwestern's efficiency is 99.978 percent. This means that our customers can be sure of all the electricity they need. SPS has nine active power plants, interconnected by more than 5,000 miles of power lines to guarantee that customers in our 45,000-square-mile service area will always have access to the electricity they need for their homes and businesses.

4-game set here Friday night

Floydada in 3-game sweep

Both the Post Antelopes and the Lady Lopes have two more non-district games coming up before they open district cage play at Roosevelt next Friday, Jan. 15.

The Lopes who have won only four of their 14 starts to date will play Seminole in a return game here Friday night while the Lady Lopes will entertain Lockney. Both JV clubs also will participate in a quadruple-header getting under way at 4 p.m.

Then the two varsity clubs and the boys JVs will journey to Idalou Tuesday night for a three-game set starting at 5 p.m.

In their first starts since the Christmas break, both clubs bowed at Floydada Tuesday night.

Coach Dwayne Osborne's Lopes have been improving steadily as their 56 to 51 loss Floydada Tuesday night shows. Floydada had thumped the Lopes by a 31 points margin in an earlier December game.

Floydada led by a 15 point margin in this one with only 4:47 to play, before rallying to close within two points of the host club before being forced to foul at the end trying to get ball possession.

Melvin Wynne sparked the comeback with two steals which he converted into points.

Post had three players in double figures with Irvin Price leading with 18, followed by Bill Black with 11 and James Lee with 10. Will Kirkpatrick added six, Milton Williams four and Wynne two.

Coach Osborne praised the Lopes tough defense which held Floydada 24 points under their 80 point total scored in the two teams' first meeting.

The Lopes converted 13 of 16 free throw efforts for an 81 percent conversion rate.

Coach Sonja Curry's Lady Lopes came up with a bad third period at Floydada to lose 43 to 34 after holding the host club even at 16 all at halftime intermission.

The Post girls trailed 8 to 3 after the first quarter, then rallied in the second to outshoot Floydada 13 to 8 to tie the game in the second.

Floydada came back on the floor in the third to outscore Post 20 to 8 and take a commanding lead the Lady Lopes couldn't overcome in the fourth.

Doris Pringler led the Post attack with 11 points.

In the preliminary, the Post JV girls bowed to Floydada, 52 to 30.

Split 4 tourney games—

Lady Lopes finish 12th

Coach Sonja Curry's Lady Lopes finished 12th in the 16-team field of the West Texas Girls Invitational at Slaton during the Christmas holidays.

The locals defeated Clyde 47 to 35 in their final game after being defeated by Levelland 52 to 18 Dec. 30 in their third tourney start.

The Lady Lopes won two and lost two in the tourney. Doris Pringler came on strong in the second half to lead Post shooters with 18 points after being held to only a single basket in the first half against Clyde.

Clyde led 20 to 16 at the half before Pringler found the range.

Jean Price had nine, Rhonda Storie seven, Trushell Marts six, and Darla Jackson two to complete the scoring.

It was virtually no contest in the game with Levelland.

Post was held to eight field goals and a pair of frees for the entire game with Pringler leading the way with seven.

Frosh girls edge Tahoka

The Post freshman girls rallied back after a "cold" first period to edge Tahoka 39 to 37 in a district game at Tahoka Monday night.

It was their third win in four starts.

Post managed only three free throws in the first period of play and trailed their hosts 10-3 going into the second quarter.

The locals outscored Tahoka 12 to 9 in the second to trail only 19 to 15 at the intermission as five different players got the six baskets.

Post took the lead in the third with another 12 point quarter and fought off Tahoka in the fourth.

Marta Holly led Post shooters with 11 points. Patricia Price and Mindy Tatum had seven each.

The frosh next start is at Roosevelt Monday night.

Girls split two at Tahoka

Coach Lu Allen's 7th and 8th grade girls' basketball teams split a pair of games at Tahoka Monday night in district play.

The eighth graders won handily 29 to 9, but the seventh graders couldn't stop the effective shooting of L. Hood for Tahoka and went down to a 29 to 16 defeat.

Hood poured in 21 points for Tahoka in that one.

The eighth graders came up with a 10-point third quarter for their win with Calli McSweeney and Golden Capps scoring six points each and Krisha Mason and Traci Craft four each.

Angie Holleman led the seventh graders' offense with six points.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Luis Macias are the proud parents of a baby girl, Maria Ruiz, born December 25, at 10:15 a.m. in Garza Memorial Hospital. She weighed 8 lbs. ½ oz.

Student council to district meet

The Post Middle School Student Council attended the 1981-82 District Convention at the Texan Dome on the South Plains College in Levelland on Wednesday, Jan. 6.

Speaker for the convention was Jayne Lybrand. Miss Lybrand is a communication consultant who has spent 10 years studying non-verbal communication or body language. Miss Lybrand travels the country speaking to groups as diverse as law students, corporate executives, entertainers, white house personnel, and administrators while she is working on her doctorate degree.

Entertainment was provided by the FFA Bands of Plains and Abernathy High Schools. The theme of the convention was "Greatest American Council."

Those attending were Kerry Thuett, Sam Binford, Keith Craig, Judy Dudley, Tracy Guthrie, Callie McSweeney, Kerry Hart, Pam Baker, Angela Holleman, Alicia Pettyjohn, Nancy Wilson, Mike Bartlett, Tammi Braddock, Eric Reece, Jill Richardson and Keitha White.

Dedra Adams is sponsor of the student council.

8th boys bow to Tahoka

The Tahoka eighth grade boys edged past the Post team 23 to 21 Monday night here in Post in a district contest.

A bad pass with five seconds left on the clock cost the Post team a chance for a final shot to tie the game.

Greg Storie led Post with 9 points and Tracy Price had eight.

Coach Postell's club has a 7-3 record for the year and is 3-1 so far in district play.

What's Happening in Home Economics

By MRS. CHERYL WALKER
County Extension Agent — Home Economics

I have seen a lot of ads for kerosene heaters in some of the mass media. Due to the increases in home heating costs, kerosene and other small portable heaters are providing spot heating.

Along with the use of portable heaters comes safety hints. Some of the hazards associated with kerosene heaters are:

1. The lowering of available oxygen and a possible increase in carbon monoxide.
2. The threat of burns from direct contact with the unit.
3. An increase in the risk of fires.

These hazards will vary according to the heater design and the use of good judgement regarding its operation.

Use kerosene heaters only during waking hours and always have a window open about one inch or keep a door ajar during operation. Only clear white kerosene should be used in kerosene heaters. Other fuels including regular yellow kerosene should not be used as these fuels will smoke and interfere with operations.

A further caution that heaters should always be placed away from curtains and other combustibles and the use of smoke detectors in areas where heaters are used is recommended.

Consumers wanting more information about the hazards of kerosene heaters and recommended safe Cities, counties and justice precincts that approve bingo can also levy a 2 percent gross receipts tax on the games. The Comptroller's office will handle licensing of the games, collect the tax and return it to the communities where the games are held.

Where voters approve bingo, non-profit groups must get licenses from the Comptroller's Bingo Regulation Division and can't legally operate games until 10 days after the local option election, according to Division Director George Garland.

"We are urging non-profit groups in these counties and cities to apply in advance for their licenses by contacting us right away," Garland said.

Hearings to be held as ---

Changes in beef grading proposed

WASHINGTON — The U.S. Department of Agriculture today announced a proposal to revise the official U.S. standards for grades of carcass beef and for slaughter cattle and scheduled five public hearings on the proposal. John Ford, deputy assistant secretary of agriculture for marketing and inspection services, said the proposed changes should allow leaner beef to qualify for Prime and Choice grades but not significantly lower the palatability of either grade. Beef in the Good grade would be leaner with lowered palatability.

The public hearings will be held during February in Utah, Georgia, Washington, D.C., Iowa and Texas.

The Texas hearing is scheduled for Feb. 25 in Dallas at the Dunfey Dallas Hotel, 3800 West Northwest Highway.

The proposal is a result of latest research findings and of petitions for change that USDA has received in recent months, Ford said.

Ford said USDA officials have reviewed all available research data and information to evaluate the effectiveness of the present beef standards and to explore possible alternatives. The review, he said, indicated that some modifications of the beef grade standards may be needed.

USDA's proposal provides:

That the minimum marbling requirements for the Prime, Choice and Good grades in "A maturity" — cattle up to approximately 30 months of age — would be reduced to "minimum moderate," "typical slight" and "minimum traces," respectively;

That all young beef not meeting minimum requirements for the Good grade would be graded Utility;

That the Standard grade would be eliminated;

That the rate of increase in marbling requirements in "B maturity" — cattle about 30 to 42 months of age — would be doubled; that the marbling to maturity relationship be increased from 1:1 to 2:1;

That quality grade requirements for bullock beef also would be changed so they would still be the same as those for steer, heifer and cow beef in "A maturity." Bullock beef would still be identified for class.

That the related standards for grades of slaughter cattle would be changed to reflect changes made for grades of carcass beef;

That no changes would be made in yield grade standards.

Marbling is the amount of fat dispersed through a piece of meat and is one of the factors considered to contribute to the tenderness, juiciness and flavor of beef, Ford said.

USDA invites either oral or written comments on the proposal and data to support the comments, Ford said. Persons who want to testify at the hearings should notify the administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, USDA, Washington, D.C., 20250 before

Feb. 1. Written comments should be submitted by March 31 to the Livestock, Meat, Grain, and Seed Division, AMS 2M-Annex, USDA, Washington, D.C., 20250.

Seventy books were borrowed on interlibrary loan from other libraries in the state for local patrons in 1981.

A total of 41 reference questions were answered in december to bring the total questions answered in 1981 to 498.

The library's new mini-computer, installed at the first of Decmber, was used 66 times by library patrons during the first month.

Fines, book sales, and other miscellaneous income for the year totaled $492.71.

Forty-three story hours were held during the year for 153 pre-school age children.

Kenley rites held Monday

Services for Martin Luther Kenley, 75, of O'Donnell and a graduate of Post High School were held Monday in the First Baptist Church in O'Donnell with the Rev. Don Blackman, pastor, officiating.

Kenley died Monday morning at his home of natural causes. A native of Coleman County, he moved to Lynn County in 1914. He graduated from Post High School and attended Wayland Baptist College.

Survivors include his wife; one son, Lyndell of Levelland, three sisters, Marvel Lee of Post, Helen Ryan of Bowie and Joyce McBeth of Dallas; three brothers, Lewis of Seminole, Eugene of Lubbock and W. H. "Dub" of Tahoka; four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Car problems—

The runway problem for the city-county airport also was given major attention at the joint meeting.

Post and Garza County will lose its runway unless some $300,000 is spent in the near future to renovate it and resurface it. Neither state nor federal funds appear available in 1982, or very probably for a much longer period.

The court and council discussed possible financing of the entire $300,000 project themselves rather than see a million-dollar airport facility go down the drain.

Kinds of intermediate financing were discussed with each local government putting up $150,000.

A bond issue was not deemed feasible because of the belief taxpayers would vote it down.

The city is going to ask its own engineers for recommendations on what possibly could be undertaken with limited funds to help save the runway.

The third topic by the council and court at their quarterly joint meeting was the possibility of the county participating in the expense of operating the city dump, as considerable use of the dump is made by county residents living outside the city.

The county was asked to consider how much it could put into the dump operations. A 50-50 split in expenses was not asked.

Attending the joint session for the county were County Judge Giles Dalby and Commissioners Walls and Mike Cisneros. All the council were on hand as the joint session preceded the regular monthly meeting of the council.

Burglary—

bond. Carol Ann Lawson of Post also was arrested the same day on a similar charge and also released on a $2,000 appearance bond.

Larry Wayne Harper was arrested Monday for possession of marijuana and having no valid inspection sticker on his truck and trailer. He pleaded guilty to the possession charge in county court, was fined $100, ordered to pay $68 in court costs, and given a year's probation. He paid a $67 fine and court costs in JP court on the no sticker charge.

Robert Abbott was released on a $206 cash bond after being arrested Dec. 30 for disorderly conduct.

William Duebler was returned to Post from Lubbock Dec. 31 after jumping bond here on charges of arson and unauthorized use of a vehicle.

Felix Castro pleaded guilty in county court to a charge of unlawfully carrying a weapon, a .25 automatic. He was fined $25 and ordered to pay $70 court costs.

Margarito Cruz Acosta was returned here from Tahoka Monday to face two forgery charges.

Elton Schaffer reported to the sheriff's department last Thursday that the back glass of his pickup had been broken out while it was parked at the Loper Trailer Park.

Water lines—

Mayor Giles McCrary read the council a letter asking McCrary to serve on a Texas Municipal League "task force" to write a new Texas water plan for the next legislature "which the voters will approve."

The council urged McCrary to accept the task force appointment.

Inklebarger rites held

Funeral services for Cora Edith Inklebarger, 93, of Grassland were held recently in the Grassland Nazarene Church with the Rev. Tom Moore, pastor, and Lewis Hooper of Welch Church of Christ officiating.

Burial was in the Grassland Cemetery under the direction of White Funeral Home of Tahoka.

Mrs. Inklebarger died at Twin Cedars Nursing Home in Post.

She was a homemaker and came to Lynn County in 1916 from Grand Field, Okla. She married Jael Inklebarger, Oct. 12, 1910 in Grand Field. He died Dec. 3, 1942. She attended school in Cedar Point, Iowa. She was a Methodist.

Survivors include three daughters, Lucille Walker of Post, Virginia Lou Terry of Lamesa and Inez McGrews of Welch; a son, J. W. of Tahoka; seven grandchildren; 18 great-grandchildren, and a great-great-grandchild.

Pallbearers were Ronald McGrew, Gary McGrew, Doyle Raines, Terry Raines, Marvin Grimes, Jael Inklebarger, C. O. McCleskey, and Delbert McCleakey.

HOLIDAY GUESTS

Visiting in the home of Vera Gossett over the holidays were her children, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Morris and children of Clovis, N.M., Janie Staniford, and Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Gossett and children of Post. Jim Staniford, a grandson, had to return to his job in Alaska and was unable to be with the family.

VISIT FAMILY

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Byrd and family of Jayton, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Huntley of Lubbock spent the Christmas holidays with their parents Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Peel of Post.

98% of cotton is now off stalk

LUBBOCK — The 1981 High Plains cotton harvest would down as the New Year approached. An estimated 98 percent of the crop is off the stalk, according to Mack Bennett, Area Director for USDA's Marketing Services Office at Lubbock.

Modules of field stored seed cotton remain in all High Plains counties waiting to be ginned. Estimates indicate that 70 to 75 percent of the crop has been ginned. About two-thirds of the crop has been received by the Lubbock office, Bennett said.

Cotton prices moved higher during the week ended December 30. Growers sold mixed lots of mostly grades 42 and 52, staples 31 and 32, mike 35-49 at about 44.75 cents per pound, up 175 points compared with one week earlier.

About 50,000 bales had entered Commodity Credit's cotton loan from High Plains counties by the Christmas weekend. Around 10,000 modules of seed cotton had entered as well.

Cable survey—

Whitefield called The Dispatch Tuesday afternoon too late to insert an ad announcement in today's edition concerning High Plains Cablevision's plans to rebuild the cable system here.

He said a starting date for the rebuilding of the system was set for March in a recent meeting of company officials. Whitefield said he would run the announcement in next week's paper with more details and that the decision hadn't been made when he wrote the reply to Morton.

Postings—

vices Office classed 132,000 samples during the week ended December 30 for a season's total of 1,191,000. This compares with 1,174,000 classed by the same date last year.

About 24 percent was grade 42, 51 percent grade 52 and 12 percent 53. About 78 percent was reduced one grade because of bark.

Staples were 10 percent staple 30, 39 percent staple 31, 36 percent staple 32 and 11 percent staple 33 for an average of 31.6 thirty-seconds of an inch. Micronaire was 29 percent 35-49, 16 percent 33-34, 31 percent 30-32, 18 percent 27-29 and six percent 26 or below for an average of 33 during the week.

Breaking strength averaged 23 grams per tex.

Gins paid growers $70 to $100 per ton for cottonseed, mostly $70 to $80 per ton.
