This year a student will not be able to study music with him during school hours, unless he happens to have a study hall during the last two periods, as it is too late in the year to revise schedules, Day explained.

Organization of a school band will be started immediately and the band will rehearse in the vocational agriculture room of the gymnasium building. Jenkins also will teach public school music and it is possible he will begin teaching elementary grade school music.

JUVENILE DELINQUENCY BLAMED ON PARENTS IN "MOM AND DAD" MOVIE

"Mom and Dad," said to be one of the most human, true to life stories ever put before the camera in Hollywood, will be shown at the Garza Theatre three times tomorrow.

Because of the hygienic nature of the film, it will be shown to women at 2 and at 7 p.m., and to men at 9 p.m.

Although it is not an ordinary sex picture, "Mom and Dad" is designed to awaken people to actual conditions as it stamps out ignorance and "silly secrets" about sex. It smacks at delinquency and points out boldly that the basic faults lie with the parents of today.

Elliott Forbes, well-known commentator, will appear on the stage in person at each showing tomorrow.

Steps to improve the electricity service here—to the point of eliminating the low voltage condition of last summer—were begun this week with the installation of larger transformers in each alley serving the business district and putting in an additional large transformer in each of the business district alleys.

In the residential districts, what is left of the old two-wire system will be replaced with a three-wire system and more and larger transformers will be installed before summer. Ted Hibbs, local manager of the Southwestern Public Service Company, said this week.

Since last summer, much of the load on the one high line coming into Post has been removed, and an automatic voltage regulator has been installed at Slaton. The regulator gives a 10 per cent plus or minus regulation.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Farm Safety

Farming is among the most dangerous occupations. Careful farming is conservation farming. Nearly every week we hear of farmers being hurt or fire causing loss of property or loss of life. In our own neighborhood Bruce Montgomery south of Clairmont was seriously injured and his mother fatally burned when their home burned down. J. A. Mangum's home north of Post burned not long ago.

Remember kerosene, gasoline, and butane gives off fumes that are invisible yet when they come in contact with a spark or flame it will explode. Keep these fuels stored in the open and refill containers in the open. In this manner the fumes will be carried away by the wind.

Think, and be safer on the farm.

More Terracing Needed

Terracing is part of the foundation of a coordinated soil conservation farm program. M. K. Bingham cooperater of the Duck Creek Soil Conservation District said at first he was skeptical of farming with terraces. He said he tried terraces first on a small field. That year this particular field made feed and beside it, in an unterraced field, a feed crop failed. The next year it turned out the same and now I wouldn't have a farm not terraced or a tenant who wouldn't farm with them.

There isn't enough soil conservation going on. Not enough terraces being built this winter to stop soil erosion.

District cooperators who are building terraces or have recently completed their terracing included: Mrs. L. A. Barrow, who has some diversions also, S. F. Everett, J. B. Robinson, L. R. Mason, J. R. Durrett, Jim L. Williams, Lydia, Vick and Irene Elkins.

Every two hours for the last thirty years one acre of land in the Duck Creek Soil Conservation District has become too poor to profitably cultivate.

The soil conservation job belongs to you, and you, and you. If you have land that's washing and blowing away take time to talk to Mr. Bingham and he will tell you why to terrace now.

CARTER WHITE

Scholarship Of $200 Given To Garnolia Youth

Carter White, 4-H Club boy of the Garnolia Community, was named one of the seven winners of the statewide Anderson-Clayton Company Scholarship Award contest, J. W. Potts of College Station, state boys' 4-H Club leader of Texas A. & M. College and former Garza County agricultural agent announces.

As a winner, Carter will receive a $200 scholarship that can be used for courses in agriculture at one of the six agricultural colleges in Texas.

Carter has quite an outstanding record in his seven years of 4-H Club work. As far as offices are concerned, he has held nearly all of them; he has been president, vice-president and secretary of both his local and the county 4-H Clubs, and was also treasurer of his local club, and reporter for the county club.

The Garza county club boy has had projects in dairying, beef animals, horses, cotton, grain sorghum, swine, poultry and sudan grass during his years in 4-H work. He won a trip to the National 4-H Conference in Chicago last year. In livestock shows and crops contests, Carter has taken numerous ribbons.

To win one of these scholarship awards, Carter submitted the most outstanding report in 4-H cotton demonstrations in his area; he was also judged on the basis of his participation in local 4-H club and community activities, high school scholarship, leadership ability, especially in the field of cotton, and a short theme on the story of his contributions to the 4-H cotton program, said Potts. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. White.

You Can Clean a Gas Range Like a Dish

Good Housekeepers Keep Gas Ranges Spotless For Efficient Use and Sparkling Appearance

ACCIDENTAL spillovers on today's automatic gas ranges are nothing to get excited about, for their modern finish is as easy to clean as a dish or glass. Aside from spillovers, some grease is bound to splatter over on to the working surface and burners from open pots or frying pans. Don't worry about it because you can keep that gleaming, clean look for years with just a little simple care.

Since the greater part of the range top is porcelain enamel—a glass-like material fused on metal, it merely requires washing with a cloth slightly dampened with warm, soapy water. Rinse and dry. The most important point to remember, however, is that this should never be done when the range is hot. Waiting until it cools off. The easiest cleaning habit is to wipe off the top and around the burners after every dish-washing — by which time the range has cooled off.

Milk, fruit juices, vinegar and other acid foods will eventually dull porcelain-finished tops even though they are acid resistant. A dry cloth or fold of paper towel will take care of these emergency wipe-ups.

Cleaning Top Burners

Automatic gas ranges are equipped with burner grids of cast iron which can be washed in warm, soapy water. You can lift out the burner heads and wash them the same way, rinsing and turning upside down for quick drying so that burner ports (where gas flame comes through) will not be clogged with dampness. Aluminum burner heads can be cleaned with steel wool or mild cleanser but on chrome heads use a soft abrasive, not steel wool. If chrome or aluminum burner heads lose their gleam, clean them with a metal polish as you would an aluminum kitchen utensil. The holes or "ports" where flame comes through can be cleaned with a stiff brush and warm water. Old-type burners may sometimes clog with spillovers. If this happens push a wire into the hole or port, twist and remove the dirt.

Removable drip trays underneath burners found on some models can be cleaned with warm, soapy water, always remembering to wipe dry the bottom of the tray, as well as the top, before replacing.

Cleaning the Oven and Broiler

Since broiler and oven linings are made of porcelain enamel they are as easy to clean as a porcelain pot. As soon as food is cooked, take out the broiler pan and grill and, if very badly spattered, soak in hot water while you are doing the dishes. Then wash with warm water and soap using very fine steel wool or a stiff brush for the dirtier spots.

Occasionally, the inside of the broiler compartment itself, including top, sides and bottom, can be washed with warm, soapy water.

The same method of cleaning applies to the oven. Oven racks can be lifted out and washed. Don't forget the top of the oven while you're at it. Grime collected here comes from food vapors which rise from the baking dishes.

If, as occasionally happens, your baking dish has overflowed because it was filled too full, allow the oven to cool, then remove the oven bottom and clean as usual. The bottom of the oven can be completely immersed in soapy water if it's not insulated. Otherwise, just clean the top section.

These simple, time-saving habits will guarantee that your gas range will look spanking new as long as it stands in your kitchen.

Formal Opening Of Josey's New Store Will Be Held On Saturday

The public is invited to attend the formal opening of the new home of the Josey Cash Grocery and Market on North Broadway Saturday. Refreshments will be served and souvenirs will be given away.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Josey, who own and operate the store, moved here from Meridian and opened their original store a year ago February 21, just north of the new building. Open every day, including Sunday, and every night, the store has enjoyed a steady growth and popularity. As soon as it was evident that the store had outgrown its quarters, Josey made plans to erect the new building.

The new store, constructed of cement blocks and plate glass, has an enlarged meat department, more room for display counters, shelves and bread racks and is illuminated attractively with neon lights.

Representatives of several wholesale firms have indicated they will attend the opening.

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH RECEIVES CERTIFICATE

The Calvary Baptist church received a certificate of recognition from the National Sunday School office of Nashville, Tenn., this week. The certificate was sent to Jim Hays, superintendent, and recognizes the organization for having reached the qualifications of a Standard Sunday School.

Mr. Hays and all the members of the school are indeed proud of the certificate. This is the first time since the school was organized that it has been able to meet all the requirements.

Certificate will be framed and will be hung in a prominent place in the Sunday school rooms, Mr. Hays said.

LARGE REFRIGERATOR BOUGHT FOR SCHOOLS

The Parent-Teacher Association, meeting last Thursday in the high school auditorium, voted to buy a large, double-door refrigerator for the school lunch room.

The new equipment was installed Saturday, making possible cold milk and frozen desserts for the student and faculty lunches.

It is now practical for pupils to bring their lunches from home and buy milk at the school.

Mrs. B. D. Robinson of the Pleasant Valley Community had the misfortune of losing her chow dog Tuesday. He died shortly after being run over by an automobile.

Oil Operations Forging Ahead In South Area

The General American Oil Company, using two Charles E. Hipp Company Rigs, is drilling ahead on two wells near the Justiceburg Highway, about 8 mile and a half southeast of Post. One of the projects is the deepening of an earlier attempt.

The Comanche Oil Company started pumping the Montgomery-Davies A-25, south of Post, Monday and, was expecting to make the potential test today. This well was drilled to 3,037 feet and acidized last week with 7,000 gallons.

The company's Montgomery-Davies A-16, 1,700 feet west of the A-25, has been drilled to 2,905 feet and the operator is awaiting cable tools. The rig was moved to the Montgomery-Davies A-32, one mile south of Post. Cementing of surface pipe on the A-32 was accomplished Tuesday.

Union Oil Company of California and Cities Service Oil company No. 1-B Davies, in northeast a total depth of 8,855 feet in the Garza County, seven miles northeast of Post, has been plugged at Ellenburger.

That formation was entered at 8,441 feet. Slight shows of oil and gas were found in the zone.

The Ohio Oil Company No. 1 Swenson Land & Cattle company, another northeast Garza County exploration, had reached 7,591 feet in dry Pennsylvanian lime and was making more hold by last weekend. It has not found any possibilities of production.

Humble Oil & Refining company No. 1-G Humble fee, slated 8,500-foot wildcat in southeast Garza County, four miles east of Justiceburg, last weekend, was making hole below 7,566 feet, in dry time and dolomite. It is to go to the Ellenburger.

To Elect Officers

All members of the Junior Girls Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church are urged to attend the next meeting, Monday, at 4 p.m. at the church, as officers will be elected.

Hoyt Hill spent the weekend in Paducah visiting his grandmother, Mrs. P. A. Hill. The latter is spending a few days this week with her son, E. C. Hill, and family.

MR. AND MRS. POWER ATTENDING DINNER IN FORT WORTH TONIGHT

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Power left this morning for Fort Worth to attend a dinner given at the Texas Hotel tonight by the Ford Dealers Advertising Fund, Inc., in honor of A. E. Klemmedson, Dallas district manager for the Ford Motor Company. They were accompanied to Dallas by Harry Wood, who will assist Mr. and Mrs. Power in driving back two new Ford units.

The group will go to Dallas to go through the Ford Assembly plant, then return home Friday night.

Power attended a meeting of West Texas Ford dealers in Abilene on Wednesday of last week to learn the qualifications required for becoming a Four-Letter Ford Dealer. The ratings are based on finances, management, spirit and facilities.

Baptist G. A. Meets

The Intermediate Girls Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church met at the church Monday. Stories were read by Geraldine Dunlap, Annie May Pierce, Katherine Bailey and the councilor, Mrs. Dunlap.

SPORTS

FROM A STRICTLY LOCAL ANGLE

Post And Southland Have Tough Luck In Hermleigh Tournament

By GANELL BABB
Peacock School, Stonewall County winner, was the lucky one in the final game of the District 17 girls' basketball tournament held last week in Hermleigh. The team won over Girard, 31-24. The Post girls got as far as the semi-finals when they lost out to Girard by 1 point in the last five seconds of the game.

The Post-Girard game was one of the best of the tournament. In the first quarter it looked hopeless for the local six to go on with the game, as the score was 14-1 in favor of Girard. At the half the Post sharpshooters had settled down and were playing along to the tune of 17-19. In the last quarter things began to look good for the Postites and, 2 minutes before the game was over, the score was tied. A time out was called and with 20 seconds to go, a foul was called on a Girard girl and Post made a free shot slipping ahead by one point. Girard flipped in a field goal just before the whistle blew to win the game by 1 point. Losing this game eliminated the locals from the tournament.

In the first game on Wednesday afternoon, Post won over Lakeview, 33-12. The locals went back to the tournament Friday afternoon to compete with Highland. The local six sacked-up the game by a 3-point margin.

In spite of losing out in the tournament, the local girls received special recognition in the closing speech of the tournament.

It's been ducking and dodging for mom and pop the past week as some sixty Post school boys have been shadow boxing their way about the house, to and from school and in the gymnasium, whipping into shape for the two-night fight card which has been arranged for next Wednesday and Thursday nights at the High School gymnasium. The bouts, under sponsorship of Coach Bing Bingham, will represent most all the weight classes under Golden Gloves regulations.

The program will bring Post's best school boy scrappers together in evenly matched bouts. Most of the smaller boys chose their opponents, and if their selections were not "all-even" Bingham paired them with others in their weight class. One particular bout, in which the coach had to intervene was that of Nolan Williams, a scrappy little 75-pounder, whom Bingham paired with Roy Holly, who weighs 92 pounds, after Williams chose a youngster in his own weight class. "Williams would have been too much for his opponent," said Bingham, "and he will put up a better scrap with the heavier boy I selected for him."

Then there are several boys who went down in last year's scraps, who just had to have another "crack" at their victors. Jerry Odom, who lost last year's match to Lonnie Wall, wanted another chance to even things—so he is paired with Wall.

Getting top billing on the cards will be the bouts between Nolan Williams and Roy Holly; Don Dale vs. Dub Morris; Ronald Lawrence vs. John Schmidt; Dee Ingram vs. Wiley Jones; Ronald Joe Babb vs. L. W. Evans; Lonnie Walls vs. Jerry Odom; Charles King vs. Harold Rene, and Jack Smith vs. Don Brown.

Pairings were announced Tuesday by Coach Bingham, but the card in the order it will be presented during the two nights had not been arranged by press time. About fifteen fights will be staged each night, and in the event the program draws good attendance the fights may be carried over to decide champions in the various weight classes.

Matches were announced as follows:

Danny Redman, 91, vs. Donald Moore, 90.
J. D. Butler, 80, vs. James Womack, 81.
J. D. Sullivan, 114, vs. Roy

Dobbs, 116.
Noland Williams, 75, vs. Roy Holly, 92.
Don Ford, 104, vs. C. T. Scoggins, 105.
Don Dale, 66, vs. Dub Morris, 64.
Junior Smith, 34, vs. Marvin Power, 34.
Ronald Lawrence, 87, vs. John Schmidt, 87.
Dee Ingram, 108, vs. Wiley Jones, 106.
Don Wheeler, 72, vs. Bob Smith, 72.
Jack Lott, 82, vs. Jack Shepherd, 82.
Ropper Bilberry, 108, vs. Carrol Light, 102.
Edison Daniels, 112, vs. Ken Pierce, 118.
Ronald Joe Babb, 114 vs. L. W. Evans, 116.

Proceeds from the entertainment will go to the Antelope athletic association. The general admission will be $1.00 and ring-side seats will be offered at $1.50.

ROGER W. BABSON WRITES THIS WEEK:

GETTING OUT

On The LIMB

By

EDDIE the EDITOR

Nobody ever feels as foolish as a newspaper editor does that first hour after all the newspapers have been taken to the postoffice and he discovers an unparadiseable—and often libelous—blunder.

I had such a feeling last week when I saw a transposition of the headlines for the stories of a Mexican being in jail for stealing and Marvin Hudman attending a Philco school in Amarillo. The way we had it, the Mexican "attended the Philco school" and Marvin was "in jail."

It could have been worse, though. It could have happened to somebody less good natured and understanding than Marvin.

Johnny Hopkins, the Garza Theatre manager, is all hepped up over the prospects of getting a new theatre built here by Theatre Enterprises, Inc., within the not too distant future.

I don't know what he is basing his hopes on—unless he has a hunch that the building restrictions on amusement houses will be removed in the near future. They were removed on several other types of building recently and they are supposed to be removed this month on theaters and other types of amusement buildings.

I suspect, however, that Johnny has some inside information that he isn't ready to pass along to the public. At any rate, I certainly hope that his hopes are well-founded because if there is anything Post needs badly, it's a new, modern movie house—movies being the only form of public entertainment in these parts.

Incidentally, local movie fans will be pleased to know that Post is one of 30 cities in the state to show the extra special technicolor film, "Panhandle," four days after the world premiere in Amarillo.

The picture will be shown at the Garza March 7. The cast includes two new stars, Rod Cameron who plays the part of John Sands, and Cathy Downs. John Sands, as those familiar with the history of the Panhandle will remember, is rated as the only man to make Billy the Kid back down.

"Panhandle" hasn't been widely publicized as yet, but it will be in due time, as it is rated one of the top pictures of the year.

Another good technicolor film coming soon to the local theatre is "Albuquerque," which had a successful world premiere last month in Albuquerque. This picture stars one of my favorites, Randolph Scott.

Mayor John Herd and his city commissioners are putting the final touches on the plans to own and enlarge the city sewage system. Better be sharpening your pencils, because you will have a chance to vote in favor of this important project before long.

The remodeled City Hall, incidentally, is a credit to Post. Very soon its nice clean banquet room, brand new kitchen, etc., will be available to civic organizations for dinners and other entertainments of a civic nature. It's a meeting place that we have sorely needed for a long, long time.

Wish the County Dads would follow in the City Dads' footsteps and head-off the state of decomposition threatening the courthouse. This building should be repaired and redecorated before it deteriorates any further.

While I'm suggesting needed improvements, I'd better put in my two-bits again about the rodeo grounds.

THE POST DISPATCH

ESTABLISHED IN JUNE, 1926

Published Every Thursday at the Dispatch Publishing Company Building in Post, Garza County, Texas

E. A. WARREN, Publisher-Editor

Entered at the Post Office at Post, Texas, for transmission through the mails as second class matter, according to an Act of Congress, March 3, 1879.

Any erroneous reflection upon the character of any person or firm appearing in these columns will be gladly and promptly corrected upon being brought to the attention of the management.

Return of Gold Dollars Suggested As Inflation Cure

Babson Park, Fla. — Since my recent column stating that high prices are largely a matter of "supply and demand," I have received many letters of protest. These letters claim that the "amount of money in circulation" is the main cause.

There is about three times as much money in circulation today as there was 10 years ago. This doubtless is a factor in the situation, but it makes no difference how much money is in circulation or the rate of circulation if people do not buy goods.

Ten men may be sitting around a table where each one owes the other a hundred dollars, or a total of $1,000. By presenting one of these men a hundred dollar bill he can pass it to the next man, and the next man to the next man, and so on; then this one hundred dollar bill can "pay up" the entire debt of $1,000! But this does not effect prices one penny.

Russia's Cure

What Russia has recently done in reducing the amount of money in circulation was done at the suggestion of her economists who, through advance notice, had their savings in land, commodities, and other real things which were not deflated. This program of Russia, however, does not increase the amount of food, clothing and shelter available to the Russian people which are the things in which they are really interested.

President Truman could accomplish the same thing in a gradual way by paying off government debt, increasing bank reserves, raising interest rates, and forbidding installment sales, but for political or other reasons the Administration shies away from sound recommendations.

Robbing Us Of Gold

Readers will remember that during the early part of the Roosevelt Administration when we held more gold than any other nation, President Roosevelt made us turn in all of our gold coins. At that time gold was worth $20.67 per ounce compared with $35 per ounce today. Mr. Roosevelt did this on the advice of the same economists who are now razzing me for saying that "inflation" is 90 per cent a question of supply and demand.

President Roosevelt then robbed the American people of billions of dollars which they had honestly earned. It was as bad as what

Russia is doing today. The gold which the citizens of the United States then held was not used for circulation. It was in the bureau drawers of our wives and children; it was carried in our pockets for luck and emergency; and much of it was in safe deposit boxes throughout the country. When, however, President Roosevelt forced us to turn in all of this gold and exchange it for paper currency, this paper money was spent, and hence, greatly inflated the amount of currency outstanding. As the swapping of gold dollars for paper money then increased the amount in circulation, why wouldn't the reverse be true today? If Washington is really serious in reducing the amount of money in circulation, why not offer the people their gold dollars back again in place of the paper dollars which they would turn in? The U. S. Treasury certainly has gold enough buried in the ground.

Coale's New Book

I have just finished reading a new book by Ansley J. Coale entitled, "Vulnerability to Atomic Bombs," prepared under the direction of the Social Research Council. It is published by the Princeton University Press and should be read by everyone. This book plainly shows that if World War III should come, it would destroy some of our large cities. After reading this book, I made up my mind to put some good bank notes in a safe deposit vault and, in fact, hide away some silver dollars or half-dollars.

If every reader would follow the above program this would result in reducing the money in circulation. Economists say it is necessary at the same time, give some ready money in the form of bank notes. The Government cannot object to us having good bank notes and also claiming that the amount of circulation is responsible for prices.

Only 1 per cent of the money in the United States is in circulation and only one-fifth of that are considered good bank notes, according to a survey.

One drink will move a driver's eye movements 10 per cent.

Garza and the World

Editor's Note—Opinions expressed here are those of the author, and they do not necessarily reflect the opinions or policies of the Post Dispatch. The column is carried in the interest of applying world news to the situation here at home.

By EVELYN BOYD

If there are any local readers who have never been away from Texas on March 2, Texas Independence Day, they would never believe the reverence which this "holiday" commands everywhere else in the world.

Wherever there are Texans—in Lapland, Tel Aviv or the Belgian Congo, Bismark, South Dakota or Oklahoma City—they meet and break bread on March 2.

I've even heard that they stopped the fighting on Guadalcanal or some such Pacific Island during the war one March 2 so that the officers from A. and M. College could celebrate Texas independence Day. A Texan who "wasn't there" told me this.

My brother, who is president of the Texas Society of Los Angeles, Calif., last year sent me newspaper pictures and stories describing the gigantic "bread breaking" attended by 25,000 Texans on March 2.

I've spent a total of eight Texas Independence Days outside of Texas. Three were in Lawrence, Kansas, 1927-30; two were the next two years in Chicago; one was in Louisville, Kentucky in 1944; one was in Rome, Italy, in 1945 and the eighth was the following year in Athens, Greece. Each time I joined with all the other Texans in celebrating at a banquet. Each time we Texans were the envy of everyone else whose home states had no such world-renowned holidays.

These eight Texas Independence Days spent outside the state have contributed immeasurably to my pride at being a native Texan.

Two significant developments in recent weeks will effect the state and national elections unless something is

We've already settled the fact that we need a dance pavilion out there, in a previous column.

Now, let's dream some more and get a livestock shelter put up, so that the 4-H boys can hold their annual show there and make use of the nice arena and seating capacity, etc., on occasions such as the Fat Stock Show which they held on some vacant lots here Saturday.

The shelter should also include a place for the club-women to hold their bake sales and exhibit their handiwork, etc., during the rodeos or the Fat Stock Shows.

All this would be a boost to the community.

THE WOMEN—God love 'em; they're sweet and I love 'em, but they can't cook. This is curiously illustrated by the enormous sale of cook books. Men cooks never read cook books any more than writers of genius read books on style.

done to offset them between now and election time.

One is Governor Beauford Jester's stand against a bonus for Texas veterans.

Although I am just as provoked as any other West Texan over Jester's having discriminated against us in last year's college ruckus, I agree with him that the bonus affair is a federal rather than a state problem.

It was the United States, not Texas, which sent our boys to war. The veterans should have a bonus, yes, but this money should come out of all these income taxes I am paying rather than state taxes I would have to pay if the state took the responsibility of the bonus.

I'm with Jester on this issue, but I'm afraid my sympathy won't help him much. He has ripped his britches with most of the veterans of the state.

The other development is Truman's Civil Rights talk.

On this issue, I stand completely alone. I am not with the Northerners who talk "equal rights" but refuse to act "equal rights." It's all talk and propaganda above the Mason and Dixon line. All the natives up there claim they are for "equal rights" among the races, yet they discriminate against negroes and jews as much as their respective state laws will allow.

Below the Mason-Dixon line, we openly refuse equal rights to the negroes. This, of course is in violation of all the principals of democracy. But are we doing any worse than the people up north who create trouble by talking "equal rights" and discriminating on the side?

I personally think Truman is one of the weakest presidents we have ever had and furthermore, I seriously doubt that legislation can put a stop to racial discrimination any more than it can to boot-legging.

But, on the other hand, I haven't read a thing in the southern newspapers that adequately justifies all the fuss the southerners are raising, and all the threatening they are doing. The Southern people—the very back bone of the Democratic party—are madder'n hops, but the argument they are putting up isn't at all convincing. Just the same, Truman has ripped his britches in the South.

What Our Contemporaries Are Saying:

GIVING WITHOUT GRIPING—This is the season for giving.

For some unexplainable reason, the drives for Boy Scouts, Red Cross, crippled children, heart diseases, trade associations, churches and other worthy causes usually come during the first three months of each year.

Unfortunately for the worthwhile drives, these are also the major tax-paying months.

Most merchants and professional men, who compose the bulk of the large givers, become irritable when one campaign for funds follows another. And this is bad!

Giving should be of the heart if it is really giving, philosophers of all ages and creeds have agreed. Surely, then, a man should not give at all if he must punctuate his gift with surly remarks that fall on the patient ears of unpaid collectors.

The approach of spring and the Easter season might be a good time for a new crop of resolutions, one of which could run something like this:

"Since I give so little of my earthly means to the causes that help my fellow man to live better and more healthfully, and that helps make America a finer place in which to rear my family, I hereby resolve to give from the heart, willingly and liberally—and to hold my unruly tongue in its place."—Liberty Vindicator.

NEW INDUSTRY HINTED—

Two very businesslike gentlemen visited Seminole last week. They had a proposition to offer the general vicinity and wanted to gain some reactions in this city before they went any further with their plans. Their visit stirred local businessmen and agricultural boosters to the point that they have called a mass meeting in order that all interested persons—and especially farmers and potential truck growers—might hear the proposition that has been dropped in our laps.

These two men, J. O. Frizzell and J. W. Stone, represent a firm of experienced vegetable handlers who have operated successfully in the Rio Grande Valley for many years. This organization believes that the South Plains area is ripe and ready to go into the vegetable growing business—on a big, commercial scale; and personnel here to inaugurate the venture, in the belief that Gaines and surrounding counties can successfully raise and ship all types of vegetables at the right time to catch the market at its peak demand, and consequently, peak price.

Frizzell and Stone talked with Seminole civic leaders. They didn't speak of fantastic crop acreages and fabulous profits. They laid down their program on the line and the Seminole men liked it. It doesn't take much imagination to envisage what a sizable truck market could do for Seminole, for Gaines county, and for the whole South Plains.—Seminole Sentinel.

NO TB DISCOVERED—To date not a single active case of tuberculosis has been found among the school children of Crosby county. Miss Lena Bryles, newly appointed county health nurse, said Tuesday. Miss Bryles is now conducting patch tests in all the schools of the county.

"We have discovered a few who have shown positive reactions to the patch test," she said, "but in all cases except one X-rays have been taken. There have been no positive X-rays.

Tests have been conducted so far at Ralls, Cone, Caprock, Farmer, Robertson, Fairview and Big Four.

Miss Bryles has been kept busy since starting her work in the county, in weighing, measuring, testing eyes and teeth, and working up health charts on each school child in the county. When this work is completed, she will be able to turn to her files and give a complete medical history of any child. Parents may have access to this information, and in cases where medical examination may be needed, cards will be sent to the parents.

THE SAME HERE—What I want to know is "what are you going to eat for supper?" That is one of the major problems at our house and my wife never asks me at noon what I want to eat that night. She waits until I get home from work and bowls me over with the question. Then after I have put my full mental powers on the problem and come up with the suggestion that I would like to have a melted cheese sandwich, some lettuce salad and a hard boiled egg she tells me that we have no cheese, the lettuce is all wilted and there is just one egg in the house and she wants it for her breakfast, then I suggest a can of vienna sausage, some olives and a can of baked beans and we discover that we have some canned soup, a bouquet of celery and an onion that is about to sprout so I have soup, onion and celery for supper and the stomach ache the next morning at breakfast.—Slaton Slatonite.

W. Morris, Thelbert McBride and Delmer Cowdrey, Graham Club; Mesdames J. C. Fumagalli and C. F. Taylor, Verbena; Mrs. R. A. McLaurin, Justiceburg, and Mrs. J. J. Wells, Cross Roads.

The business meeting was preceded by a cutting bed demonstration by Mrs. Jewell H. Strasser, county home demonstration agent, who emphasized the types of shrubs that grow best from cuttings and gave a few tips on pruning.

Mrs. McBride presided for business in the absence of the council chairman, Mrs. George Evans of Justiceburg.

To Meet With Commissioners
After Mrs. Peel gave the report of the education and expansion committee, the council voted to have this committee meet with the county commissioners every four months, beginning March 8.

Among the committee's recommendations, which were adopted, was the requirement that every home demonstration club member write an essay on a subject pertaining to Texas Home Demonstration Association work. These will be judged and the best will enter district competition.

After Mrs. Wilburn Morris gave the report of the marketing committee, the council decided to have the clubs again buy foods and materials through pooled orders and to have consumer education programs on the stiffs of food labels the remainder of this month.

Mrs. Kiker and Mrs. J. R. Durrett were named members of the yearbook committee of which Mrs. Fumagalli is chairman. Mrs. Fumagalli urged the clubwomen to send her suggestions for next year's book.

The finance chairman, Mrs. W. C. W. Morris urged each club to sell their greeting cards as soon as possible and turn the money in to the council. The council voted to sponsor three bake sales during the year.

Budget Is Determined
It was agreed that the council budget for 1948 will be $250.

The recreation chairman, Mrs. R. A. McLaurin, reported that four types of recreation will be featured this year, spiritual, mental, physical and educational. Each member will be asked to add an equipment game such as croquet, tennis or shuffleboard, to her home.

Each club will give two community parties during the year and assist 4-H club girls and boys with their recreational program.

The 4-H sponsors committee, made up of Mesdames Wilburn Morris, Ritchie and McLaurin, recommended that each club invite the 4-H club of its community to present a program for the adults during the year.

The council decided to buy 4-H pins for girls who complete eight goals and write a story of their work in 1948. The council also will provide for 4-H girls to go to the state Round-Up at A. and M. College and the Texas State Fair. All girls who enter the Gold Star Contest will be recognized by the council.

To Hold Bread Show
Mrs. Barton read the report of the exhibits committee in the absence of Mrs. Will Teaff of Close City, chairman. It was decided that the clubs will hold a yeast bread show, which will be open to the public, in the Fall. A family rally will be held that night. The clubs will also have a part in the fall harvest show or fair.

Mrs. Fumagalli, Garza County T.H.D.A. chairman, urged each club to pay its educational fee by March 1, if possible, and to elect a candidate for the election, on March 20, to name three delegates to the District T.H.D.A. meeting in Plainview April 28.

Garza Theatre To Help With 'Texas' Drive

The Garza Theatre will join 1,200 other motion picture houses of Texas in "the battle to bring home the Battleship Texas," the manager, John Hopkins, said yesterday.

The leading theatres of Texas and the Junior Chamber of Commerce of the state have been given the task of raising the $225,000 to pay the cost of the berth.

The famous battleship was launched in 1912 and is a scarred veteran of both World Wars. It was retired from service at Norfolk this month. If the permanent berthing slip, near the San Jacinto battleground, is acquired, the historical ship will be returned to Texas to become the largest historical structure in the state, a shrine dedicated to Texans who have served on the seas and a symbol of Texas courage.

As there is no Junior Chamber of Commerce here, the local theatre management has invited the Boy Scouts to assist with the local promotion. Beginning Sunday the theatre will accept contributions to the cause through March 13.

The campaign will be explained to local moviegoers Sunday and Monday in a special movie trailer, featuring Linda Darnell and Dana Andrews, Hopkins said.

Five Rules For Left Turns Are Vehicle Savers

"You have to keep left to be right," according to George Clarke, managing director of the Texas Safety Association.

"But let me tell you what I mean, before you think I sound mixed up," he said. "A left turn in heavy traffic is one of the most difficult maneuvers in an automobile, and it causes traffic tie-ups and accidents when bungled."

Clarke said that the Texas Safety Association is cooperating in a nationwide "Know and Obey Traffic Laws" program during February, and he cited National Safety Council statistics to show the need for such a program.

At least 3 1/2 per cent of all fatal pedestrian and non-pedestrian accidents involve a turning vehicle and improper turning was reported in from 4 to 5 per cent of some accidents.

Pointing out that about twice as many turning accidents involve left turns as right turns, Clarke listed five rules to remember in making a left turn.

1. Keep next to the centerline or center of the roadway, so that no car will approach from behind on your left as you turn.

2. Turn around two points, one where the center of the street or road you are on meets the crosswalk or property line, and the other where the center of the street or road you are turning into leaves the crosswalk or property line.

3. Start to get in the proper lane for turning far enough back, at least a block before the turn.

4. Use hand signals before making the turn and be sure to make a full turn. Don't cut corners!

5. Always respect the right of way of other drivers who are at the intersection or approaching so close as to be a hazard.

GLENN FLOYD WRITES GOOD DESCRIPTION OF VACATION IN MEXICO

Glenn Floyd of Pampa has written his mother, Mrs. Lula Floyd, such interesting letters about his recent 3,885-mile vacation trip in Mexico, she feels almost like she made the trip. Here are some excerpts from one of his letters:

"All kinds of vegetables and tropical fruits are in season now—fresh corn, watermelons, pineapples, oranges and more bananas than Carter had oats. They grow all along the highway and all over the hillsides. They sell at 15 cents a stalk, or seven dollars a ton."

"Hotels and eats are cheap. . . . Nearly all the farming is done by the Indians. They work oxen most. Some work burros and small mules. They all live in bamboo or straw huts. The roofs are made of pales covered about five inches thick with palm leaves like the old palm leaf fans we used to see. They sleep on the ground and make their own cloth and hats. Most wear shirts and pants made out of what looks like our cotton sack duck. All go barefoot and the bottoms of their feet look like the bottom of a dog's foot."

"I saw some bull fights and a chatters (rodeo). Sure got some good pictures. Touring the seven square miles of small islands and canals is like going to a carnival. All kinds of peddlers in little boats are selling flowers, fruits, drinks, blankets, silverware and souvenirs. Lots of other groups are playing guitars and zylaphones."

Floyd made movies of the trip. He wrote his mother that he would show them to the family and friends here on his next visit to Post.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Where Does Your Money Go?

Read the other day where country folks and farmers spend more money, proportionately, on their homes than city dwellers do.

Doesn't seem hard to believe when you think it over. Take the folks in our town, for instance: They're home-loving people—who'd rather spend an evening by the fire with a mellow glass of beer than go out in search of entertainment or diversion.

So it's only natural they put more into what means most to them and to their children: their homes. They may not have too much to spend—but it goes for those permanent, abiding comforts that make home a nicer place to be.

And from where I sit, that budget calls for some of the niceties of home life too—like cider and popcorn for the kids from time to time, and a friendly glass of beer for Mom and Dad... things that belong with what we mean when we say "Home."
