Wildcats Change Strategy

By WES BURNETT

The Amarillo River Road Wildcats are big...and although they're the same players that the Post Antelopes outscored 35-6 earlier this year, the area championship opponents have improved considerably during the year.

The Wildcats have won nine games and lost two, one to the Antelopes and a 29-0 district loss to Perryton.

Size is a strength for the Wildcats as six of their starting seniors tip the scales at 200 or more pounds.

Tailback Gary Martin (44) is a 200 pound senior and he shares running duties with fullback Clint Stoddard (27), a 205 pound senior.

At the quarterback position is 170 pound senior Jeff Reynolds, and offensive blocking is handled by tackles Ruben Guerrero (77), 210 pound senior; Jeff Johnson (75), 208 pound senior and center Jerry Harvey (55), 212 pound senior.

Reynolds throws the football most to receiver Allen

Sanders (33), a 170 pound senior.

The Wildcats use a Slot I formation, a change from what the Antelopes saw in September. The Wildcats have also adopted the 2-7 defense with four down linemen and three linebackers.

Stoddard handles the middle linebacker spot, Johnson plays at defensive end and Roy Neal (66), 160 pound senior, takes the other defensive end position.

Five Wildcat players serve on defense and offense. "They like to run the football", Antelope coach David Thompson comments, "and they use the option, sweep and some traps."

The Antelopes will be the home team and fans will be seated on the west side of Plainview High School stadium, with a 7:30 p.m. kickoff.

"We're all healthy, everyone will be ready to play," coach Thompson adds.

Workouts this week will concentrate on the basics, according to the coach.

Southland Aims for Bi-District

The Southland Eagles will put their 9-1 record on the line Friday night against the number 1 ranked six-man football team in the state, Highland.

The game will be played in Jayton beginning at 7 p.m.

Coach Keith Gast said the boys are in good shape and are anxious to knock off the top team in the state.

The High Flying Eagles are averaging almost 50 points a game and 360 total yards per game.

They run a balanced attack with a strong defense led by seniors David Farquhar, Andy Wheeler and Ray Vasquez.

Two County Youth Honored in Lubbock

Two outstanding 4-H members from Garza County will be honored at the 25th annual South Plains District 4-H Gold Star Banquet on Monday, November 22 in Lubbock.

Among the top 4-H'ers in the 20 county district to be honored will be Jana Middleton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Middleton, and Tommy Payton, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Payton of Garza County.

State Rep. Jim Rudd of Brownfield will address the banquet in the cafeteria of Coronado High School. Master of ceremonies will be Lubbock Mayor Bill McAlister.

The awards presentation will be narrated by 4-H'ers Lonnie Howard of Hale County and Cleet Griffin of Dawson County. Making the presentations will be Dr. Catherine Crawford and Billy C. Gunter, District Extension Directors.

Invited as special guests for the ceremony are recipients of the Gold Star Award at the 1958 banquet, the first held in the South Plains District. Also attending to salute this year's winners will be parents, government and community leaders and friends of 4-H. The banquet is sponsored by area electric cooperatives.

To qualify for the Gold Star, highest 4-H honor at the county level, a 4-H'er must be at least 13 years old, have completed three years of club work and be active in 4-H. The award is intended to stimulate winners to higher achievement and to encourage other young people to participate in the county 4-H program.

The Way I See It...

By WES BURNETT

It's really fun being associated with a winning football team...in all my years in the newspaper business, this is the first time ever I've had the privilege to share the excitement of a district and bi-district champion football team.

It's been great!! We did have the pleasure of sharing a bi-district win in Dublin with the basketball team...even got to see them in action at the regional tournament...that was fun too!

But there's something about the football season that really gets the adrenaline flowing for me...especially the Friday afternoons and evenings.

Like most other Antelope fans, I get a real kick out of the preparations for the game. And, although I'm supposed to be an objective reporter...you've probably seen me violate those journalistic rules when I join in the excitement of an Antelope touchdown on the sideline.

A champion team inspires us to be more of a champion newspaper...hope it shows.

Want to express our appreciation to our advertisers and our subscribers for the tremendous response and encouragement we've received since we introduced our Sunday edition.

Also want to take this space to say a special thank you to our staff...Norma Baumann, Rachel Braddock, Beth Short and to the new younger faces you don't see on Sunday morning delivering your paper...Tammi Braddock, Terisa Wilborn, Dewayne Warren, Brad Williamson and special assistant Paul Maestas.

I don't believe any newspaper publisher anywhere could have such an outstanding team to work with.

Speaking of the advertisers...isn't it neat to live in a town with merchants who approach new ideas with gusto and positive thinking?

I'm impressed with the "can-do" attitude of our retail merchants and particularly their response to our Sunday edition.

It's refreshing to hear folks say yes to a new idea. That's one more reason why we make such an emphasis of trading at home with our advertisers, not just because they do business with us...but because of their attitude toward us as customers...

There are so many good things happening around here, I kind of dread bringing this up, but I need to get it off my chest.

During the Halloween event...Saturday and Sunday nights...there was a lot of simple-mindedness going on around here.

I've been told the arson and "innocent" fires are a tradition and everyone expects it...The Way I See It, there's nothing innocent about setting fires to people's property or destruction of property, whether owned by taxpayers or individuals.

The Way I See It, we ought to start a new tradition around here that says NO to such immature and destructive activities.

Throwing eggs that damage cars...come on. Setting fire to a farmer's haystack...come on. Shame on those who think this is a harmless way to celebrate Halloween.

Shame on us who allow this sort of thing to continue as "well, that's the way it's always been around here." Hogwash...that doesn't make it right and The Way I See It we should do our best to see that the tradition stops now.

Willard Scott is the weatherman on the Today Show. Because of his television schedule, he commutes to New York from his farm near Washington. He also knows something about "The Joy of Living." Scott is charged with natural zest for savoring the ride, not just fixing on the destination. His autobiography makes a statement of affirmation, about what makes him enjoy and be grateful for the good things that happen, without losing sight of the larger principles that really count.

Rennie, the 22-year-old daughter of a German-Jewish newspaper publisher, has left safe London to return to Berlin to bring her father out of Hitler's Germany. She arrives to find her father hiding in a room above the cabaret of his former mistress, Lillie Froelich. In danger herself now, Rennie turns to Lillie, who makes her cabaret singer, the Silver Rose of Berlin. She slips into deeper danger, falling in love with one SS General while making jealous a Gestapo officer. As Rennie and her lover try to escape, she must take the ultimate risk. The book is "Silver Rose," by David Kaufelt.

Virginia City, 1863. A fear-stricken boom town, until the night that Gallagher rides in. Gallagher: Wagonmaster, itinerant lawman, cowhand, man of courage and integrity, and a man with a past. The citizens of Virginia City ask him to lead a vigilante group against the outlaws threatening the town, outlaws led by the town's sheriff. It's a story of the fate of heroes, frontier justice, and dark adventure in the American West. "Me and Gallagher," by Jack Farris.

Raised by an affectionate, affluent New York Jewish family, Regina has everything - beauty, intelligence, grace, and charm. She falls in love with her first cousin, and discovers too late a tragic secret lurking in the family's past, a secret which condemns their union and sends her into broken exile. Fleeing to Paris, she meets a second love, linked ironically also to childhood memories. Through the decades of the 20's, 30's, and 40's, Regina must come to terms with her family's destiny, so that she can have a future for herself. The novel is "Family Ties," by Syrell Rogovin Leahy.

King Richard III of England is perhaps the most controversial monarch to rule that nation. Richard and his brother Edward both seek to win the affections of Anne Neville. She becomes an innocent pawn in a deadly game of power politics. Only Richard's patient love could heal the wounds that fight inflicted on her. Betrayed in life by his allies, Richard was betrayed by historians for 500 years. The Sunne of Speindor fills almost 1,000 pages with the sights and sounds of aattle, the customs, and lore of daily life, the rigors and risks of Court politics, the passions and infidelities of the high born, and the touching concerns of very real men and women. Perhaps Richard's greatest sin was that he held principles too firm for the times he lives in and loved too deeply to survive love's loss. Sharon Kay Penman resolves the mystery of Richard III and tells an absorbing tale.

Newsweek called Jessica Savitch "NBC's Golden Girl" after the 1980 Presidential conventions. Now America's foremost network anchorwoman, she moved to New York in 1977, after growing up in rural Pennsylvania and New Jersey, where she worked as a high school disc jockey. She began her newscasting career in Houston in the early 70's. You may remember that her doctor husband took his own life in August 1981, after contracting a debilitating liver ailment.

Hunting Caution Offered

"A word of caution when hunting this year", suggests O. D. Hearn, GTE Operations Manager in Brownfield. This is the time of the year we experience an increase in service outages as a result of cables and other outside equipment being damaged by gunshot.

Hearn estimated that hunting accidents account for eight to ten outages a week in his area. Most of the damage is unintentional he added.

Particularly during hunting season, the number of outages increases. "It is possible that an average of ten customers lose service each time a cable is shot. Hearn stated, "Over a one year period, if only one cable is damaged a week, more than 500 customers could be affected."

He added that cables are not always completely severed and that often times the cable is just "nicked" which will eventually result in service problems for customers.

To avoid unnecessary service interruptions, a serious inconvenience to the customer as well as an expense to the Telephone Company, hunters are advised to use caution when hunting near telephone facilities.

"A service interruption can be a serious problem", he said. "Not only is it aggravating for our customers, but it also poses a safety problem when people cannot call for emergency services."

Artists' Displays on Sale

The works of local artists as well as artists throughout Texas and Oklahoma, will be featured at a Starving Artist Sale November 20 and 21. Sponsored by the Lubbock Jayceettes, the exposition will be held at the National Guard Armory, 2901 4th Street in Lubbock. Leigh Sims, chairman for the sale, said "many kinds of art, such as jewelry, oil paintings, ceramics, macrame, and wire sculpture will be featured."

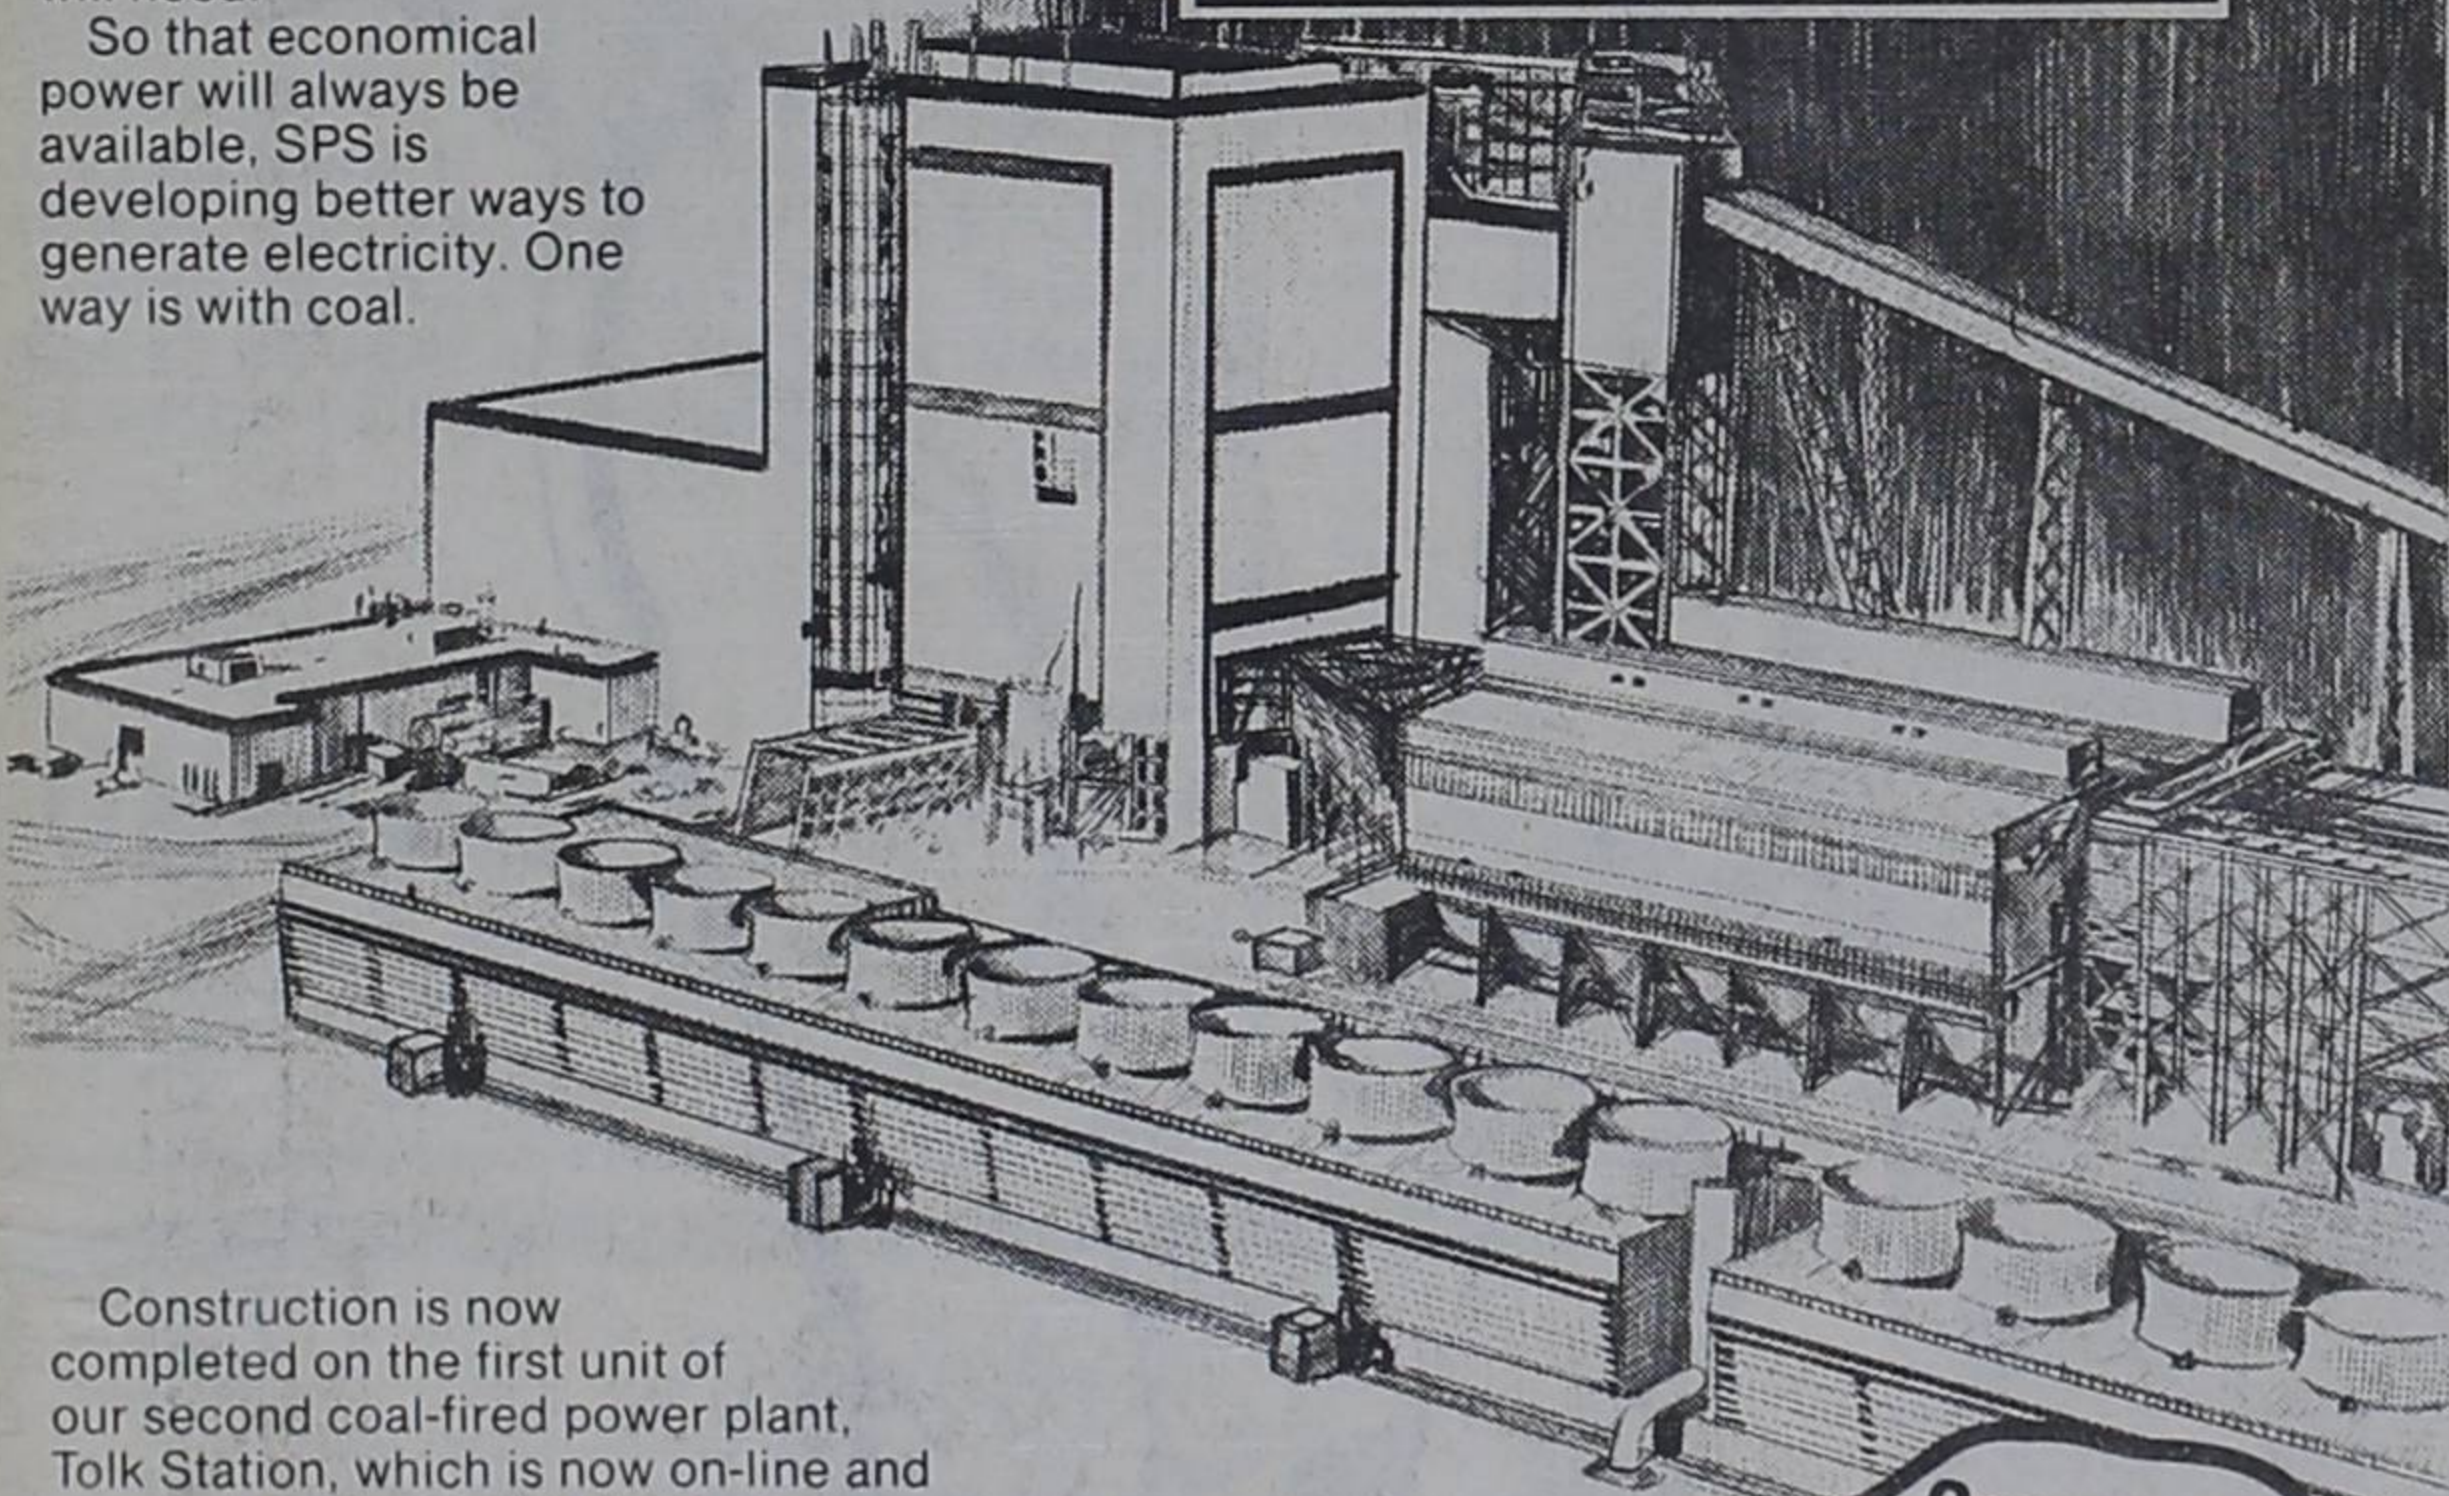

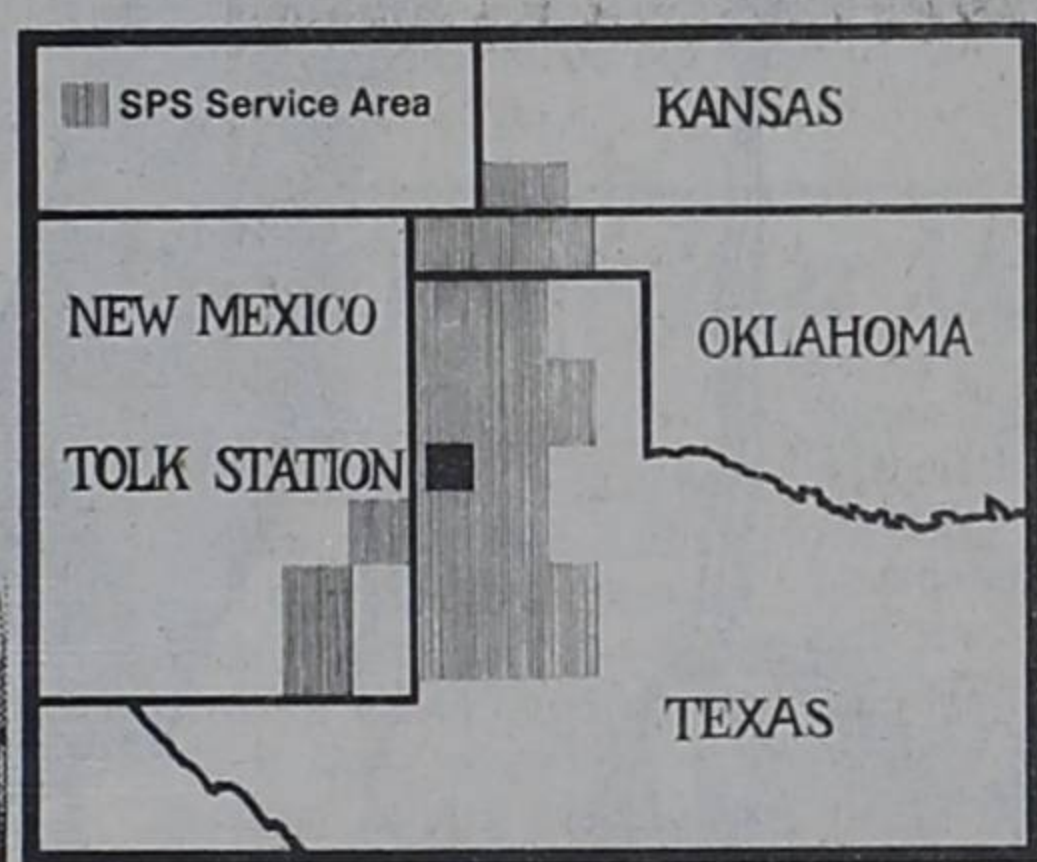

The sale will be open Saturday, Nov. 20 from 9:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Sunday, Nov. 21 from 1 p.m. until 6 p.m.

How better energy decisions make the difference

You and Southwestern Public Service Company are partners, making energy decisions that make the difference.

How you manage electricity in your home helps us make our decisions about generating power to meet the electrical requirements of the Southwest. For when you install a High-Efficiency Add-On Heat Pump, you can manage the electricity used for your home's heating and cooling — which helps SPS determine how much power you, and the Southwest, will need.

So that economical power will always be available, SPS is developing better ways to generate electricity. One way is with coal.

Construction is now completed on the first unit of our second coal-fired power plant, Talk Station, which is now on-line and generating electricity. Harrington Station, SPS's first coal-fired power plant, has been operating since the early 1970s.

As partners we have made energy decisions which have built Talk Station. We're proud of the new power plant as you will be too. # Crises Dealing

POST MINISTERIAL ALLIANCE

By Bro. Glenn Reece
First Baptist Church
In I Samuel 17:12-50 is recorded the story of young David's encounter with the Philistine giant Goliath. Though the facts of the story are familiar to us all, there is a helpful solution found within the story on how to deal with a crisis. Most people I know are either in a time of crises, coming out of a crisis or about to go into one. What-ever your crises, it can be solved when you follow the steps David followed.

1. See the situation for what it really is (Spiritual not physical) (v. 26). David sees the giant as a defier of God not just Isreal.
2. Be willing to contest the crises (v. 32). It was evident the problem would get no better until someone took a stand against that enemy. David was willing to be the one.

3. Have your eyes on the Lord not on the crises (v.37). David said, "The Lord who delivered me from the lion and the bear will also deliver me from the Philistine. He knew God would come through because David's eyes were on Him not the problem.
4. Refuse the world's solution (v.39). The world said, "David, to fight a giant you need all these pieces of armour". David refused it as a worldly solution.
5. Approach the crises in God's Power not yours (v.

45). David said to Goliath, "You come to me with a sword, a spear, and a javelin, but I come to you in the name of the Lord of host —".

6. Be aware of whose battle it is (v. 47). David knew it was not his battle but God's so he said, "I want the whole assembly to know the Lord does not deliver by sword or spear: for the battle is the Lord's and He will give it unto our hands."
7. Accomplish the impossible (v. 49-50). What the great warriors of Isreal had not been able to do, a young teen-age boy did because he knew how to apply God's principles.

Dare to be a David.
Dare to stand alone.
Dare to let your voice be heard.
Dare to make it known.
Do you have some giants that need to be slain?

Five more games to win the state championship...that's what folks around here are talking about.

United Convalescent News

By Nell Mathews
Oh, I made a big mistake in last week's paper. It was Lisa Claborn and not Jessie Claborn that brought our movies. She does this each Thursday.

The Brownies are going to be with us after the movies this Thursday afternoon.

This week is going to be a very busy week for us. We are having an arts and craft show Wednesday (today) at 2 p.m. The movies and Brownies on Thursday, and music with the Country Cousins Thursday night. Also there will be an employee party this week also.

Mrs. Cora Bush and Clovis Hudman are home from the hospital and are doing fine. We are all doing better for a change. Our volunteer of the week is Maysel James. She brings our Bible on tape every week. We have some things for sale, each week. Thank you come by and see what we have. You may see some things you would like to Thursday morning.

Children Express Gratitude Effectively

By Pastor Steve Traw
The eight-year-old was writing to Judge Gringold of St. Paul, MN. "Dear your honor, I thank you so much for letting my mom and dad adopt me. I'll be nine soon...Here's a picture of me. I'm also giving you four cents, because you deserve it."

Our expression of gratitude ought to be just as spontaneous as that sincere eight-year-old. Not the "It's the fourth Thursday in November vacation" routine, but an earnest declaration of praise and thanks to God as Creator and Provider.

Thanksgiving is our native-born holiday that points to our ancestral instinct that recognizes the Sovereign's hand in a harvest gathered in, a storehouse filled, a preparedness for winter. That first Thanksgiving of 1621 was prompted by the colonists when rain ended a crop-killing drought of the previous summer that had left sereed corn and parched ground.

This Thanksgiving as we meet in our places of worship, may our giving of thanks be as heartfelt as the colonists of the Plymouth Plantation, as candid as an eight-year-old, as wholehearted as we can express, to the Lord who remains the source of true thanksgiving.

Senior Citizen News

Garza County Senior Citizens had their yearly election last Wednesday, Nov. 10 for new officers and directors. Elected were Leroy McCrary for president, Henry Wheatley, vice president, James Mitchell secretary, and Zora Robinson, treasurer. New directors are Chester Morris, Exa Faye Gilmore, Lawrence Epley, Zillah Huddleston, and holdover directors are Joe Williams and Jim Jackson.

We will be closed next week on the 25th and 26th for Thanksgiving. We will open again on Nov. 29.

Project council will meet this week at SPAG at 3 p.m. and there will be several from Post attending.

Still have blood pressure check four times a month, and hearing aid check on the fourth Thursday of each month. Our blood pressure checks are on the first and third Tuesdays and first and third Thursdays.

We want to say thanks to John Ward and Henry Wheatley for a job well done for our president and treasurer last year.

We want to remember all our sick and bereaved in our prayers as we go through the holidays. Hazel Gary lost her sister, she was also an aunt to our bookkeeper Mary Jo Tanner.

Also Joy Parker had surgery and J.D. McCampbell entered the hospital to have tests run, and we are praying for each one of you each day.

Mike Custer had surgery a week ago, and is doing fine, as is Bea Dodson who has had surgery.

Our center will be having it's Thanksgiving dinner here at the Algeria Center Thursday, Nov. 18, at 12 noon.

Twin Cedar Nursing Home

This week we have had several activities. Our domino players were tied this week and they were Billie, Lee, Evelyn, and Pauline. Our bingo winner was Mrs. Graham. We also had a good game of bean bag toss and everyone enjoyed it.

This month our birthday girl is Lee Williams. Her birthday is Nov. 20.

We had a good service this week, and our guests were from the Graham Methodist Church. Rev. Donnie and Rev. Kenny Kert came and Rev. Donnie brought his son and shared a message with us.

We would like to thank Lisa Claborn for coming to show us films. Mrs. Patsy Craig for the wonderful Bible Lessons, and we would also like to thank Martha for the lovely cake she brought us. We all enjoyed it.

To close our news, we would like to thank our visitors, Emma Mueller, of Post, Colleen Witt, Kathy, Peggy and Ryan Kirkland of Post, Glenn Roberts of Lubbock, and Lois and C. W. Ramsey of Lubbock. Thanks to everyone who visits us, we hope you all keep coming.

City Receives Tax Check

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Friday sent $96.2 million to 967 Texas cities as their share of the one-percent city sales tax for November.

The 1982 statewide total so far this year is up 9.3 percent over the 1981 total through the same date of last year. This payment reflects taxable sales made in September and reported to the state by the end of October.

The city and MTA sales taxes are collected along with the state sales tax by merchants and rebated monthly to the cities in which they are collected by the Comptroller.

Post received a check in the Amount of $23,896.75 for this period as compared to $30,254.57 for the same period last year. Total received for 1982 is $182,317.81 which is a 14.85 percent rise over 1982 earnings for the same period in 1981.

Legislative Action Proposed

AUSTIN — A major policy making committee of independent producers and royalty owners has recommended support of several legislative and regulatory actions to (1) protect consumers and oil and gas owners in a confused natural gas market, (2) reduce thefts of oil and equipment and (3) secure the interests of 650,000 Texas royalty owners in the event of bankruptcy of oil purchasing companies.

Hans Hansen, Midland, Chairman of the State Petroleum Issues Committee of the 5500-member Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association (TIPRO) said in Austin that, "Producers are angry because ludicrous federal regulations have so severely distorted the natural gas market that consumers nationwide are suffering price and supply problems. The unreasonable regulations have even tied the hands of state regulatory agencies who might otherwise cope with the problem."

"Texas consumers, royalty owners and producers are being especially impacted," Hansen related, and announced that the committee is recommending rule changes to the Texas Railroad Commission which will help insure that available natural gas is taken equitably from pratered wells in the state. "Under the present rules, some wells are virtually shut in, while others are producing at their full capacity," Hansen said, "and the rule changes we are recommending should help every producer and royalty owner to share the market proportionally."

The committee also passed a resolution to work with the RRC and federal agencies to solve the problem of interstate pipelines "dumping" excess gas into the intrastate market. "This practice is damaging Texas producers and royalty owners," Hansen reported, "and is driving up prices to some Texas consumers. It is another flaw in the federal regulations which our state regulators must try to address until corrections can be legislated in Washington."

The committee re-affirmed its support of a new bill proposed by Governor Clements which would allow royalty owners and independent producers to hold a lien against a bankrupt oil or gas purchaser. Under present Texas law, the owners of royalty oil are "unsecured creditors" who have small hope of recovering money owed for oil which has been delivered to buyers that subsequently go into receivership.

The committee said that oil field theft amounts to millions of dollars per year, which eventually raises consumer prices. Harold

E. Wright, Gilmer, president of TIPRO and Chairman of the Petroleum Industry Security Council, commended the committee for taking "dead aim to help develop new legislation to prosecute oil field thieves which will be recommended to the 1983 Texas Legislature."

Stripper Well Production Up

Oil production from stripper wells in the United States increased by a record 25 million bbls in 1981 according to the annual survey of the National Stripper Well Association.

This gain follows increases of seven million bbls in 1980 and three million bbls in 1979.

In the early 1970s, stripper well production was decreasing at a rate of about 15 million bbls per year. Stripper production in 1981 totaled 426.5 million bbls nationwide, compared to 401.1 million bbls the year before.

The 409,539 producing stripper wells at the beginning of 1982 mark a four percent gain over the January 1980 total of 395,176.

Average daily production per well in 1981 was 2.85 bbls, up slightly from the 1980 daily average of 2.77 bbls.

Last years, 7,215 stripper wells were abandoned, up from 6,614 in 1980.

Texas and Oklahoma led the states in stripper production. Texas Stripper production increased 4.1 million bbls to a total of 146 million bbls last year, while Oklahoma stripper production was 83.2 million bbls, up 3.3 million bbls.
