

School Board Approves Bonus

Following a motion by School Board President, Jack Lott, the Post Independent School District employees were voted a $25 "Christmas bonus" at the board of trustees meeting held Tuesday night in the high school library.

The bonus, was voted on following a discussion about the enthusiasm of the school system as a whole during recent months.

It was first discussed that an item in the paper would be appropriate to commend administrators, teachers, coaches and above all students for their attitude and enthusiasm, but Lott thought the "bonus" to the employees would be commendation at this time of year.

The bonus, though dubbed Christmas bonus, will be received in January, due to the Service Center having already closed the December books for the Post schools and are working on W-2 forms.

In other action Tuesday, the board heard architect, Duane McQueen give a report on the construction project and reported that the project is now 17 percent complete with the weather hampering about three days work. Appointments to the 1983 textbook committee were made and include Mrs. Rowena Pierce and Miss Connie Flores, Mrs. Marita Jackson, Mrs. Dianna Ladd, Mrs. Ruby Boyles and Mrs. Wanda Stegemoeller, Mrs. Dedra Adams, David Joyner, James Easterling, Mrs. Carolyn Black, Kenneth Plumlee and Mr. Bill Shiver as chairman.

were given and noted that a large amount of taxes were still out.

A lengthy discussion was held by the board concerning "personal business day" but no action was taken.

In other business, the board noted that the end of the first semester will be January 13, at which time an evaluation of lunchroom figures will be given and a decision made on lunchroom prices at that time.

Before adjourning, the board voted to pay the bills.

Garza Memorial Hospital Celebrates Anniversary

Garza Memorial Hospital is observing its 30th anniversary this past week and will be highlighted with a reception held today (Sunday) in the Post Community Center from 2:30 until 4 p.m.

The hospital, a $400,000 structure, dedicated to the health of the county by its residents, opened on a limited basis August 4, 1952.

Garza Memorial was the talk of the area and was said to have the finest equipment to be found in the nation's very best hospitals, with equipment valued at $38,000.

Employees reported to work in the new facility August 1, 1952 under the guidance of hospital administrator, Jack Rex.

For the first few days of operation, the hospital was only handling obstetrical and medical cases with surgery scheduled for the following week.

Active staff for the opening included three Post doctors, including Harry Tubbs, chief of staff; A. C. Surman, and D. C. Williams. Visiting staff members were Doctors Glenn Payne, Walter Patton, S. H. Jaynes, Thomas Talbert and M. T. McSween all of Slaton.

Mrs. Laverne Gibbons was business manager of the hospital, Jewell Parsons served as receptionist, Helen Ryle, surgical nurse, Mary Standifer was director of nurses with nine nurses employed at the time, including two Post girls, Pauline Mathis and Dorothy Perdue and Miriam Hughes was in charge of the kitchen.

Members of the hospital board included

Lowell Short, president; Dowe H. Mayfield, L. G. Thuett, Sr., Bandy Cash, Russell Wilks Jr., and L. R. Mason.

Mrs. H. T. Morrow had the distinction of being the first patient to be admitted to the hospital with Bertha Varela, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pedro Varela, the first baby born in the new facility. Bertha is now employed by Garza Memorial as an LVN.

Several hundred persons were on hand October 2, 1952 to attend open house ceremonies with the John Miller Post 6797 VFW in charge of dedication ceremonies and James Minor master of ceremonies.

County commissioners at the time included Ernest Henderson, L.E. Gossett, Ozell Williams and Sid Cross with county judge H. M. Snowden.

The hospital spent many years of service to the community and surrounding areas, before financial troubles began to present problems, and the hospital was closed for a few months in 1967. In June of 1967, the Senate approved the Hospital District, and then voters in the county voted on the issue and passed the bill in April of 1969. The effective date was April 28, 1969.

Under the present administration, including administrator Maritta Reed, and the board of directors, Jack Alexander, president, Danny Shaw, David Tyler, David Nichols and Ignacio Varela, many new services have been added.

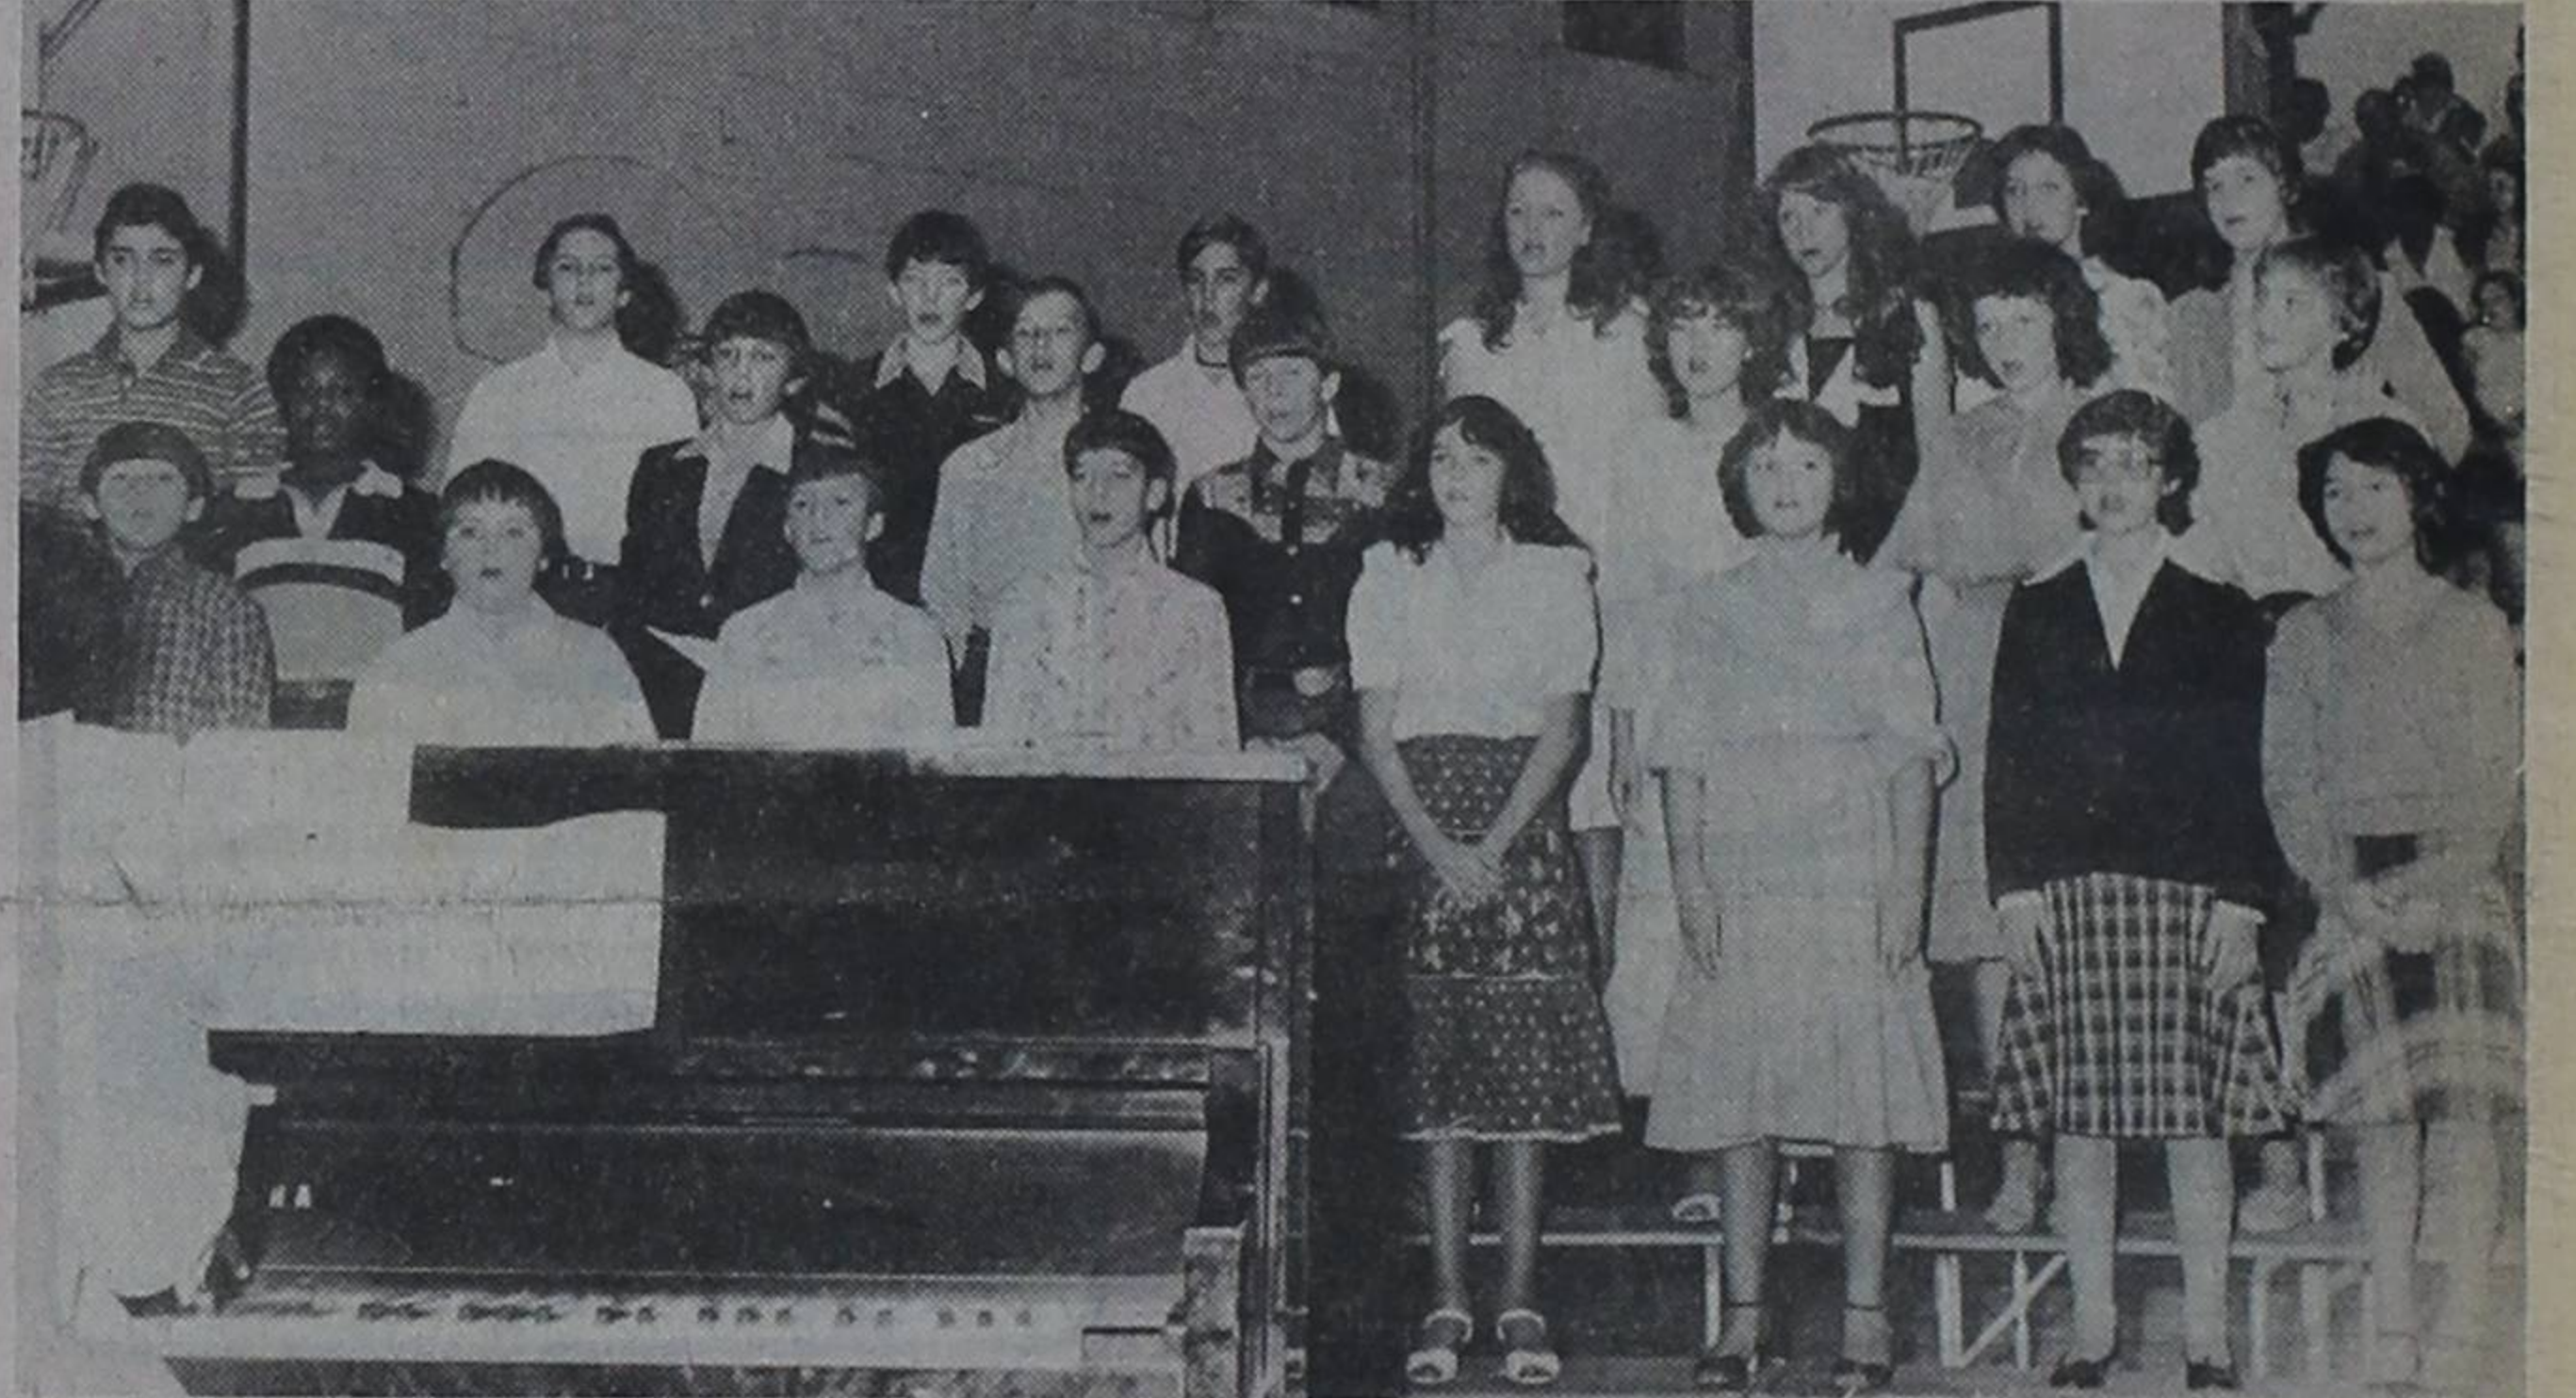

The hospital now offers general hospital care, outpatient laboratory and X-ray services, nuclear medicine, inhalation therapy, and cardiac monitors.

One new service that will be added very soon, is surgery. Dr. Chun is a surgeon and will be able to perform surgery here in Post.

New heating and air-conditioning systems have been added to the facility, as have new carpeting, upgraded medical records department, and lab equipment, and the Hospital District established a scholarship fund for trained nursing staff with the advantages being that these trained people come back to the hospital here in Post to work.

The Jr. High choir filled the gym with sounds of Christmas during last week's concert. The choir is under the direction of Dianna Ladd.

Members of the Sixth Grade choir entertained friends and family during the annual Christmas concert last week. The choir is under the direction of Dianna Ladd.

The Sixth Grade band showed the audience what practice does as they performed a series of special Christmas selections during the concert last week. The band is under the direction of Steve Ladd.

Hospital Board Looks at Rearranging Office

A discussion was held by members of the hospital board on rearranging the location of Hospital Administrator's Maritta Reed's office, medical records, lab and emergency room No. 2 and establishing a waiting room for families of obstetrics, surgery and emergency room patients, during a meeting held Thursday morning at the hospital. The matter was tabled until the following meeting when a price quote could be put on the project.

The board approved the 1981-82 audit with a report found elsewhere in today's Dispatch.

Action was approved on a Danham-Bush 5 hp. pump and motor for the hospital's heating system in the amount of $881.

Some bids have been received by the hospital on a cardiac monitoring system, but this item too, was tabled pending further study.

Hospital Administrator, Maritta Reed, told the board that she had received the signed lease and $1 from the city and county permitting them to build the new ambulance building on hospital property. The lease is in effect for 99 years. The hospital had approved this at a previous board meeting.

Board members were reminded of the open house to be held at the community center in observance of 30 years of operation of Garza Memorial Hospital. The reception is to be held from 2:30 until 4 in the Post Community Center today with the public cordially invited to attend.

Before adjourning, the trustees voted to approve the monthly invoices.

Steve Ladd directs the Jr High band during its Christmas concert last week.

In the Senior Division, Diana Basquez won a Red Ribbon in Breads and Cereals.

Keep Holiday Plants Healthy

Here's hoping you're among the happy group whose Christmas decor is graced by a beautiful flowering plant. Let's take a look at several of the more popular Christmas flowers and how you'll want to care for them to prolong their beauty.

Poinsettias outrank all other Christmas plants combined in popularity. They are well adapted to indoor temperatures so long as they're out of hot or cold drafts. Put them near a bright window and aim at keeping the soil evenly moist, not wet or dry.

Poinsettias used to be pretty sensitive to changes from a greenhouse environment to that of a home, with leaf and flower drop being a common problem. But now, with newer varieties, you can just about plan on poinsettias on Valentine's Day if you care to keep them around that long.

You can cut the plant back after flowering and set it outside for the summer, but you'll have a real chore bringing it into flower again next Christmas. That's simply a job better left to the professionals.

Kalanchoes should be kept in a sunny window. This plant flowers when the days are short, consequently they are difficult to reflower in the home if carried over from another year. Lights used in the home provide long days and the plants fail to set flower buds. They do make excellent foliage plants once the flowers are faded, however. Just remove the flower stalk and use as a foliage plant.

1983 COTTON BASE

Farms that participated in the 1982 cotton program or certified to "zero" cotton planted will have the same base in 1983 as it did in 1982. Farms that did not participate in the cotton program will have their base recomputed by using the average of the 1981 and 1982 planted acres. Cotton base notices were mailed on November 19th. Cotton base appeals may be filed until March 31, 1983.

A grain of musk will scent millions of cubic feet of air. Musk is the most penetrating and persistent scent.

Advertising Deadline Set

The deadline for advertising and news for the annual Christmas edition of The Post Dispatch is Monday at 5 p.m.

The special Christmas edition will be published Wednesday, Dec. 22 and will include the popular "Letters to Santa" from the first through third grade Post Elementary school students.

Merry Christmas greetings are also a popular part of the special edition and may be purchased by telephone or in person at the Dispatch office until Monday at 5 p.m.

There will be no Sunday Dispatch on Dec. 26 in observance of Christmas.

Christmas Cactus isn't a typical cactus. It requires as much water as any other houseplant, though it should not be overwatered. This is one plant that can be kept over to bloom again next Christmas. Keep it in a sunny window until danger of frost is past, then place it in a shady spot out of doors during the summer. Bring indoors before frost can damage it. Place in a cool room at night. Night temperatures must be below 75 degrees, or it will not bloom.

Plants brighten any holiday decorations. With a little care, they can last long after the toys are broken and the bills are paid.

Garza Senior Citizens News

Garza County Senior Citizens are still enjoying their center and every senior citizen should take advantage of this lovely place. I'm sure there are people in Garza County that has never been inside of it.

This is one of the best things that Post has had for their enjoyment in a very long time. If there is anyone that would like to make a donation to our center to help us keep it going we would appreciate it very much. We have been cut drastically by the government and we have quite a lot of bills to pay.

Our meal donations are paying all the salaries which are four workers. My salary and three hours of one other worker are the only two we don't have to pay. As you know there are only five workers.

We cook, clean and do all there is to do down here for from 60 to 65 people each day. Some days there are lots more participants here to feed, plus our home delivered meals.

We have lunch each day at 12 noon. Blood pressure check for your convenience at no cost to you at all. Also, hearing aid assistance once a month.

Each first and fourth Tuesday and first and third Thursday, hearing aid is each fourth Thursday. Due to complications, the hearing aid man, Randy Brackeen will not be here this month but if you need anything call 2998 and we will contact him for you.

We take calls for the senior citizen bus at 495-2998 and if you need this assistance call this number. The bus goes to Lubbock each Tuesday for the senior citizens to take them to doctors and other errands they may need to do. This is another great thing for Garza County senior citizens.

Lottie Shelton

Funeral services for Mrs. James (Lottie) Shelton, 54, a resident of Garza County, were held at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Slaton Church of Christ with Jim Hitt, minister, officiating.

Burial was in Resthaven Cemetery in Southland, with arrangements under the direction of Englund's of Slaton.

Mrs. Shelton, a native of Brownfield, was pronounced dead at 9 a.m. Thursday at her home, south of Southland, by Justice of the Peace Zora Robinson of Post.

She was secretary of the Garza County Historical Commission, a founder of the Junior Garza County Historical Commission, a member of the Garza County Museum, and was active in the Garza County 4-H club and Home Demonstration and Extension Club of Garza County.

She married James Shelton, in January 1949, and had lived in the area for 48 years. She was a member of the Church of Christ.

Survivors include her husband; two daughters, Donna Kay of Lubbock, and Marla of Morton; four brothers, Joe Bob Burnett of New Orleans, and Al, George, and Arthur Burnett, all of Lubbock; and a sister, Velmoyce Tucker of Ruidoso, N.M.

Library Corner

I bring you the list of new books of the Post Public Library with a distinct notion of expectancy. Consider for example, a new book by Jack Heinowitz called "Pregnant Fathers: How Fathers Can Enjoy and Share the Experiences of Pregnancy and Childbirth." How "expectant" can you get? The beauty of this book is that it raises not only the positive expectations like sharing, security, togetherness, anticipation, and suggestions for making the "waiting game" a two person time, but is also speaks frankly to problems of new adjustments, discovering "who's first in Mom's life," relatives and visitors, the perfect-parent trap, and coping with the new stresses of parenthood. The text only runs 114 pages, but it should have been written years ago.

A different view of the same "territory" deals with the 20 percent of all pregnancies which do not come to term. The loss of a baby is almost always a shock — most women (and men!) are emotionally unprepared for a miscarriage, stillbirth, or multiple loss. "Surviving Pregnancy Loss" offers a guide to psychological and physical consequences of pregnancy loss, first-hand accounts by women who have suffered those painful losses, and explores options for the future.

Pardon the pun, and the change of pace. But "Fruits of our Labor" by Kathy Kahn, contains a collection of workers' life stories both in the United States and the Soviet Union. In 27-in-depth interviews, she discovers different and shares job attitudes of Soviet and American working people. In her book she "points up the fundamental values of ordinary people who share the same will to find meaning in their work, the same hopes and fears for their future and their children's futures."

"Handbook of Everyday Law" covers the aspects of law that touch on consumer protection, taxes, marriage and divorce, contracts, wills, real estate, Social Security, insurance, and a hundred other critical areas of life. You may not need to refer to this book very often, but you should remember that it is available.

"The Things They Say Behind Your Back" puts in black and white the things people say about the various ethnic groups: Jews, Italians, Blacks, Japanese, Chinese, Irish, Poles, Wasps, and Hispanics. Dr. Helmerich (of German descent?) opens closets bursting with skeletons, tells us which stereotypes are false, which are true, how they originated, and why some ethnic groups promote warped perceptions about themselves.

Imagine. For $17.95, you can purchase the "Medicare Answer Book," and hopefully learn about Medicare benefits, winning arguments with Medicare, how to save $10,000 in medical bills, how to increase your benefits, how to file claims, and how to understand recent changes in the Medicare law. On second thought, save your $17.95, and look in the "Medicare Answer Book" at the library. It may be the best $17.95 you don't spend.

James A. Fisher has written a basic, contemporary guide for reading, enjoying, and understanding the Bible. He calls it "How to Read the Bible." I expected him to say, "Step One. Pick it up. Open it. Begin to read." But that isn't what he says. Read it for yourself.

I suspect that Oswald C. J. Hoffmann's new book, "The Lord's Prayer" may well be one of the Spiritual classics of our time. It is a book filled with wisdom, witty anecdotes, and lively illustrations. He spends eight pages, for example, bringing light to the word "Amen." He closes each of ten chapters with a fresh amplification of the phrases in the Prayer. The book would be worth reading for those concluding paragraphs.

Rabbits are rarely found deep in forests. They prefer places where bushes or clumps of tall grass are available for hiding.

Ladies Auxiliary Holds Meeting

The Ladies Auxiliary of the VFW held their first meeting of the month Dec. 7 with nine members present.

They were Lola Ryan, Dena Morgan, Joella Sparlin, Mary Sneed, Francis Matthews, Rose Mary Stelzer, Maleecy Johnston, Margaret Sharp and Madge Hendrick.

Plans were made for the children's Christmas tree and Santa, food basket for the needy family and toys for their children.

The next Auxiliary meeting will be Dec. 20 with the Christmas dinner of smoked turkey, ham and salads.

Some members plan to bake a cake for the United Convalescent Center home bake sale, Dec. 10.

The children's Christmas party will be Dec. 18 from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m., come out and bring your children to see Santa and get a bag of fruit, candy and nuts.

The Auxiliary ladies will help United Convalescent Center with the Christmas party the night of Dec. 21.

The ladies will collect groceries for the needy family and anyone wishing to donate can take them to the VFW or call 495-2675 and they will be picked up.

Our fish fry was Sat. night Dec. 4 and Santa, food basket for the needy family and anyone wishing to donate can take them to the VFW or call 495-2675 and they will be picked up.

Some of the ladies are making bibs for the nursing homes.

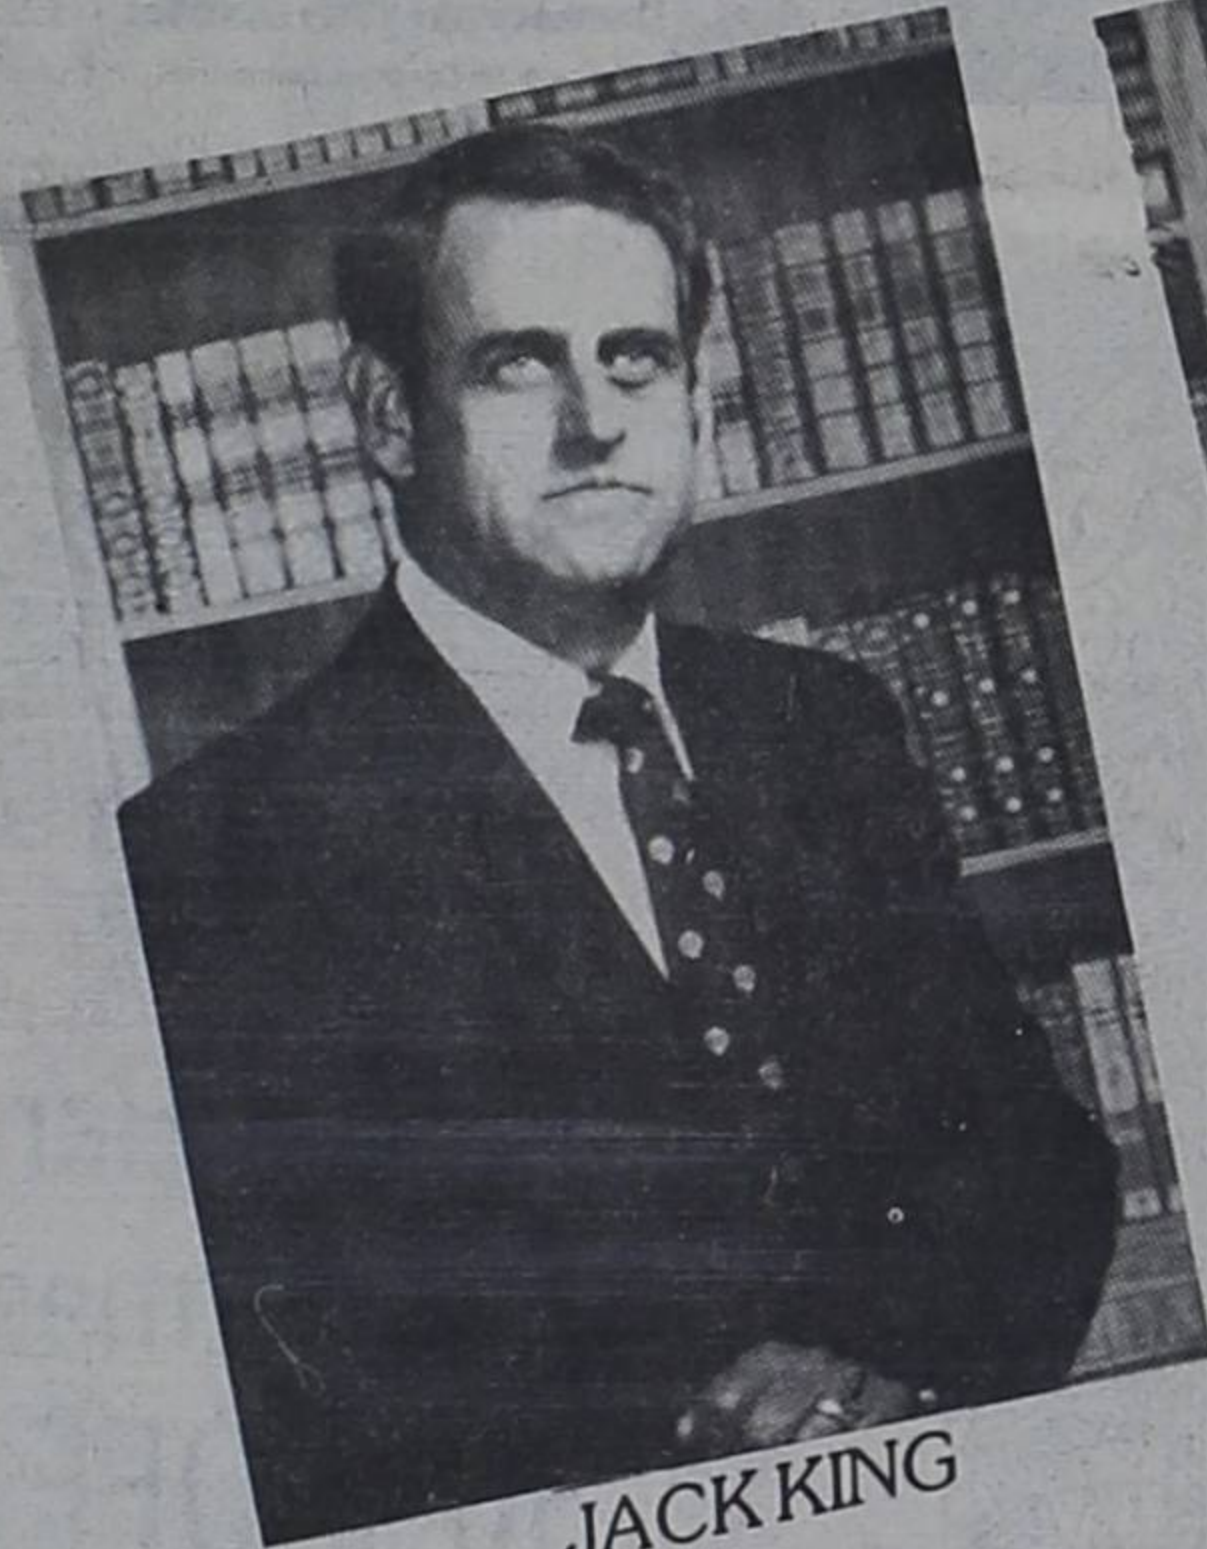

Some of the ladies helped with the fund raising Dec. 5 for Haley and Shirley Turbafill with food, serving food and anything that needed to be done.

We had a large crowd and enjoyed the work in helping this couple in time of need.

Theta Eta Chapter Meets in Lubbock

Theta Eta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma Society International met December 11 at Jeremiah's Restaurant in Lubbock for a brunch and business meeting. President Adene Dixon of Brownfield presided over the meeting.

An Achievement Award is presented annually to a member who has merited recognition for her distinguished record and contributions. Laverne Lewis of New Home was selected for this award and presented with a gold key chain.

Each year the Chapter gives a Grant-in-Aid to a deserving college student who is majoring in education and this year Mitzi McAllister, who is a student at South Plains College, is the recipient. Mitzi is the daughter of Laverne McAllister of New Home.

Billie Miller of Brownfield told the story, "Mrs. Ainsworth's Christmas Present", from the book "All Things Wise and Wonderful" by James Herriott. Ruth Hall of Post gave the Inspirational Thought.

Southland members were hostesses. Each table was decorated with a miniature Christmas tree and with "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer", Christmas tree ornaments as favors.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Attending funeral services in Slaton recently for Minnie and Holt, sister of Helen Livingston were Mr. and Mrs. Doug Livingston, Lorie Gene Moore of Level-land, Linda and Wayne Runkles of Midland and Tracy McAllister of Lubbock.

You can have children make their own Christmas cards by tracing the outline of their hands on red or green construction paper. Cut the hands out and decorate with seasonal greetings.

Texas Groundwater Supplies Deminishing

Continuing expected declines in Texas groundwater are being experienced in discussions at Texas A & M University recently by Tommy R. Knowles of the Texas Department of Water Resources.

For the first time since the devastating drought of the 1950s, pumping of water in the 1980s is exceeding the recharge ability of the state's aquifers, Knowles said.

Current groundwater use is about 10.8 million acre feet a year, while the recharge capability is approximately 5.1 million acre feet. At this rate, the wells will be dry someday in the not-too-distant future, or the water will be unfit for use since some salt is creeping into the water supply at present, he warned.

Knowles added that water usage in the future should be geared to the rate of recharge, and the quality of the water should be monitored.

He listed as largest sources of underground water the seven major aquifers of Texas, which produce large quantities in large areas. These are supplemented, he said, by 17 minor aquifers, which produce large water quantities in small areas.

The major aquifers, he added, include the Ogallala Formation which serves the High Plains, extends into other states, and has an extremely limited recharge; the Trinity Sands Group; Edwards Limestone and Trinity; Edwards-Balcones Fault Zone; Carrizo-Wilcox Sands; Gulf Coast Sands and Alluvial and Bolson Deposits.

Many areas have been experiencing declines in groundwater, Knowles said, calling attention to the need for more comprehensive surface water management. Projections indicate that by the year 2030, groundwater availability will be about 7.6 million acre feet, with more surface water being needed to assure a sufficient amount of water for population and industry growth in Texas, and for agriculture.

Groundwater declines are being experienced in the El Paso area; the Winter Garden area; Southeast Texas, especially in Harris County where subsidence is also a major concern; Angelina, Trinity, Erath and Kleberg Counties; the High Plains; and the area around Dallas-Fort Worth, as well as other areas, Knowles reported.

Knowles was lead-off speaker for a program segment on "Managing Groundwater Resources" at the 1982 Water for Texas Conference. The conference was sponsored by the Texas Water Resources Institute, a special unit of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

Dr. Neville P. Clarke, director of the Experiment Station, said more than 250 people registered for the conference. Included were 50 representatives of river authorities; 30 legislators; 40 business leaders; 20 officials of city government; 25 media representatives, League of Women Voters officials, State Soil and Water Conservation District Boards, Texas Department of Water Resources personnel, along with federal water authorities.

Dr. Jack R. Runkles is director of the Texas Water Resources Institute.

Stephens, Van Dyke Wedding in Plains

Miss Kim Stephens of Plains, and Brent Van Dyke of Hobbs, N.M., exchanged wedding vows Saturday, Dec. 18, 1982 in the First United Methodist Church in Plains. Rev. Glenn Harlin officiated the double ceremony beneath a brass, greenery covered arch.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Bowen Stephens of Plains, Mr. Albert Van Dyke of Springer, N.M., and Mrs. Arita Van Dyke of Las Cruces, N.M.

Grandparents are Mrs. Darris Stephens of Post, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. (Pete) Smith of Tahoka, and Mrs. Pat Winston of Las Cruces, N.M.

Jeffery Barron, pianist of Plains, played musical selection before the ceremony. At 7 p.m. Jeffery formally began ceremonies as he sang "Forever Will Always Be," written by a friend, Darrell Dodd of Dallas. "The Rose" was then sung by Melissa Bacon as pink tapers on brass candelabras were being lit by Kyle Stephens, brother of the bride, and Chad Wall, of Plains. The young men were attired in identical silver tuxedos, accented with ruffled shirts and boutonnières of burgundy satin carnations.

The windows were decorated with pink and burgundy tapers in brass candle sticks and matching bows accented each, with greenery surrounding them.

Kay Mires, sister of the bride, and Jeffery sang "Endless Love" while the grandparents were seated by ushers, Tim Smith, cousin of the bride, and Phil Smith, of Hobbs, N.M.

Sister of the bride, Kristi Stephens, joined Kyle in singing the musical selection "You and I", while the parents were being seated. Jeffery followed with the song "Love Don't Get No Better Than This" during which the bridesmaids entered. They then joined in harmony with Jeffery to complete the song.

Tiffany Van Dyke, niece of the groom, from Albuquerque, N.M., served as flower girl. She carried a woven basket accented with pink, burgundy, and silver ribbon containing rose petals. She wore a long light pink taffeta dress accented with three tiers of ruffles made by her mother.

Stuart Van Dyke, nephew of the groom, from Las Cruces, N.M., served as ring bearer and the flower girl's escort. He wore a silver tuxedo ruffled shirt, and a burgundy satin boutonnière.

Given in marriage by her parents, and escorted by her father, the bride was presented in a gown of sheer, white organza over a flowing, A-line skirt, falling softly from the waist. The moulded bodice was highlighted by a sheer yoke reaching up to a tall, mandarin collar. The yoke and collar revealed tiny satin flower designs, inlaid with seed pearls. The empire waistline boasted a Wattu train on the backside. The double train came down to form a chapel length dress.

To complete her ensemble, the bride wore a derby decorated with lace daisies, seed pearls, and a band of tulle net, designed by her mother.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of white and burgundy satin roses, carnations, and stephanotis, accented with white and burgundy ribbon. It was designed and created by Latrice Allison of Brownfield, and served as something borrowed.

Something blue was the garter worn by the bride's aunt, mother, and sister. Something old was the diamond lavalier which was given to her grandmother Stephens by her grandfather as an engagement gift. Something new were pearl earrings given to the bride by the groom.

Kristi Stephens served as maid of honor, and Kay Mires served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Melissa Bacon, and Marla Norman, both of Plains. Each attendant wore identical burgundy dresses sprinkled with tiny pink flowers. The young ladies each carried a long-stemmed pink satin rose decorated with burgundy ribbons.

The bride and her father were met at the altar by the bridegroom and his groomsmen. Kim Van Dyke of Las Cruces served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Travis Mires, brother-in-law of the bride, Mark Rudolph of Albuquerque, N.M., and Gary Salazar of Springer, N.M., both cousins of the groom. The bridegroom wore silver stroller tuxedos with ruffled shirts and silver bow ties. All wore burgundy boutonnières.

Prior to the exchange of vows, Marla Norman of Plains, sang the selection "Truly" as Jeffery accompanied her on the keyboard.

Cindy Dorminey of Plains assisted guests at the registration table being decorated with a carved candle prairie girl encircled with a dried arrangement designed and given to the couple by Melba Fitzgerald.

The mothers of the couple both wore day length dresses of bridal colors and corages of burgundy and pink poinsettias with babies breath. The couple's fathers were attired in light colored suits and wore burgundy boutonnières.

The reception was held in the Tsa Mo Ga Clubhouse immediately following the ceremony. Jeffery Barron provided musical selections.

The bride's table was covered with ecru lace over pink, and upon it was placed pale pink napkins with the couple's initials engraved in burgundy script, the bridal bouquet surrounded by pink and burgundy tapers, and the bridal cake.

The three-tiered cake, made by the groom's mother, was decorated with white glazed frosting and the bottom layer was separated by four pillars and featured a water fountain in the center. Roses of pink and silver accented the cake which was topped by the tiny bride and groom that was used on the bride's parents wedding cake.

The bridegroom's table featured a german chocolate cake in the shape of a western boot made by the bride's great aunt, Ruth Shoemaker of Plains. Also served were nuts, mints, and coffee.

Following a wedding trip the couple will reside in Hobbs, N.M., where the bride is a college student and the bridegroom is Vocational Agriculture instructor at Hobbs High School.

Rehearsal dinner was hosted by the bride's parents, Bo and Sheila Stephens, in their home. Mexican food was served in blue granite dishes on tables covered with red and white checked cloth to thirty five guests.

Varsity Boys Overwhelm Union

The varsity Antelopes continued their winning streak with a big win over Union here Tuesday night 85 to 29.

Leading 26 to five at the end of the first, they led 45 to 13 at the end of the half.

The Antelopes were able to score at will and added 17 more to their side of the board at the end of three and hit for 23 more in the final.

The game was no contest from start to finish with four Lopes in double figures with Will Kirkpatrick and Tim Tannehill both tying for high point honors with 12 followed by Irvin Price and Bill Black each with 10. Other scoring was done by James Lee with nine, Jeff Taylor and R. J. Greathouse each had eight and Milton Williams, Curtis Clinesmith and Marvin Wynne each had five, and Alphonso Reyna had two. Lee led the team in charity tosses with five.

Coach Plumlee's Antelopes faced a district opponent, Floydada in the New Deal tournament last weekend with results of the tournament to be in Wednesdays edition.

Denise Smith takes a two-pointer during the varsity girls' 61-11 smashing of Union last week. Doris Pringler (35) joins in the action.

Varsity Girls Demolish Union

The varsity Lady Lopes had an easy time of it here Tuesday night when they soundly defeated Union 61 to 11.

With three girls in double figures, the Lady Lopes jumped into a 21 to four lead at the end of the first period, adding 18 more in the second to only one for Union and led at halftime 39 to 5.

The second half was just as easy for the girls as they hit for 10 more in the third period and popped the net for 12 more in the final period.

Doris Pringler led all scoring with 26 points and had 12 rebounds. Marta Holly and Denise Smith each had 15 points, with Holly having eight rebounds and 10 steals and Smith, five steals and six rebounds.

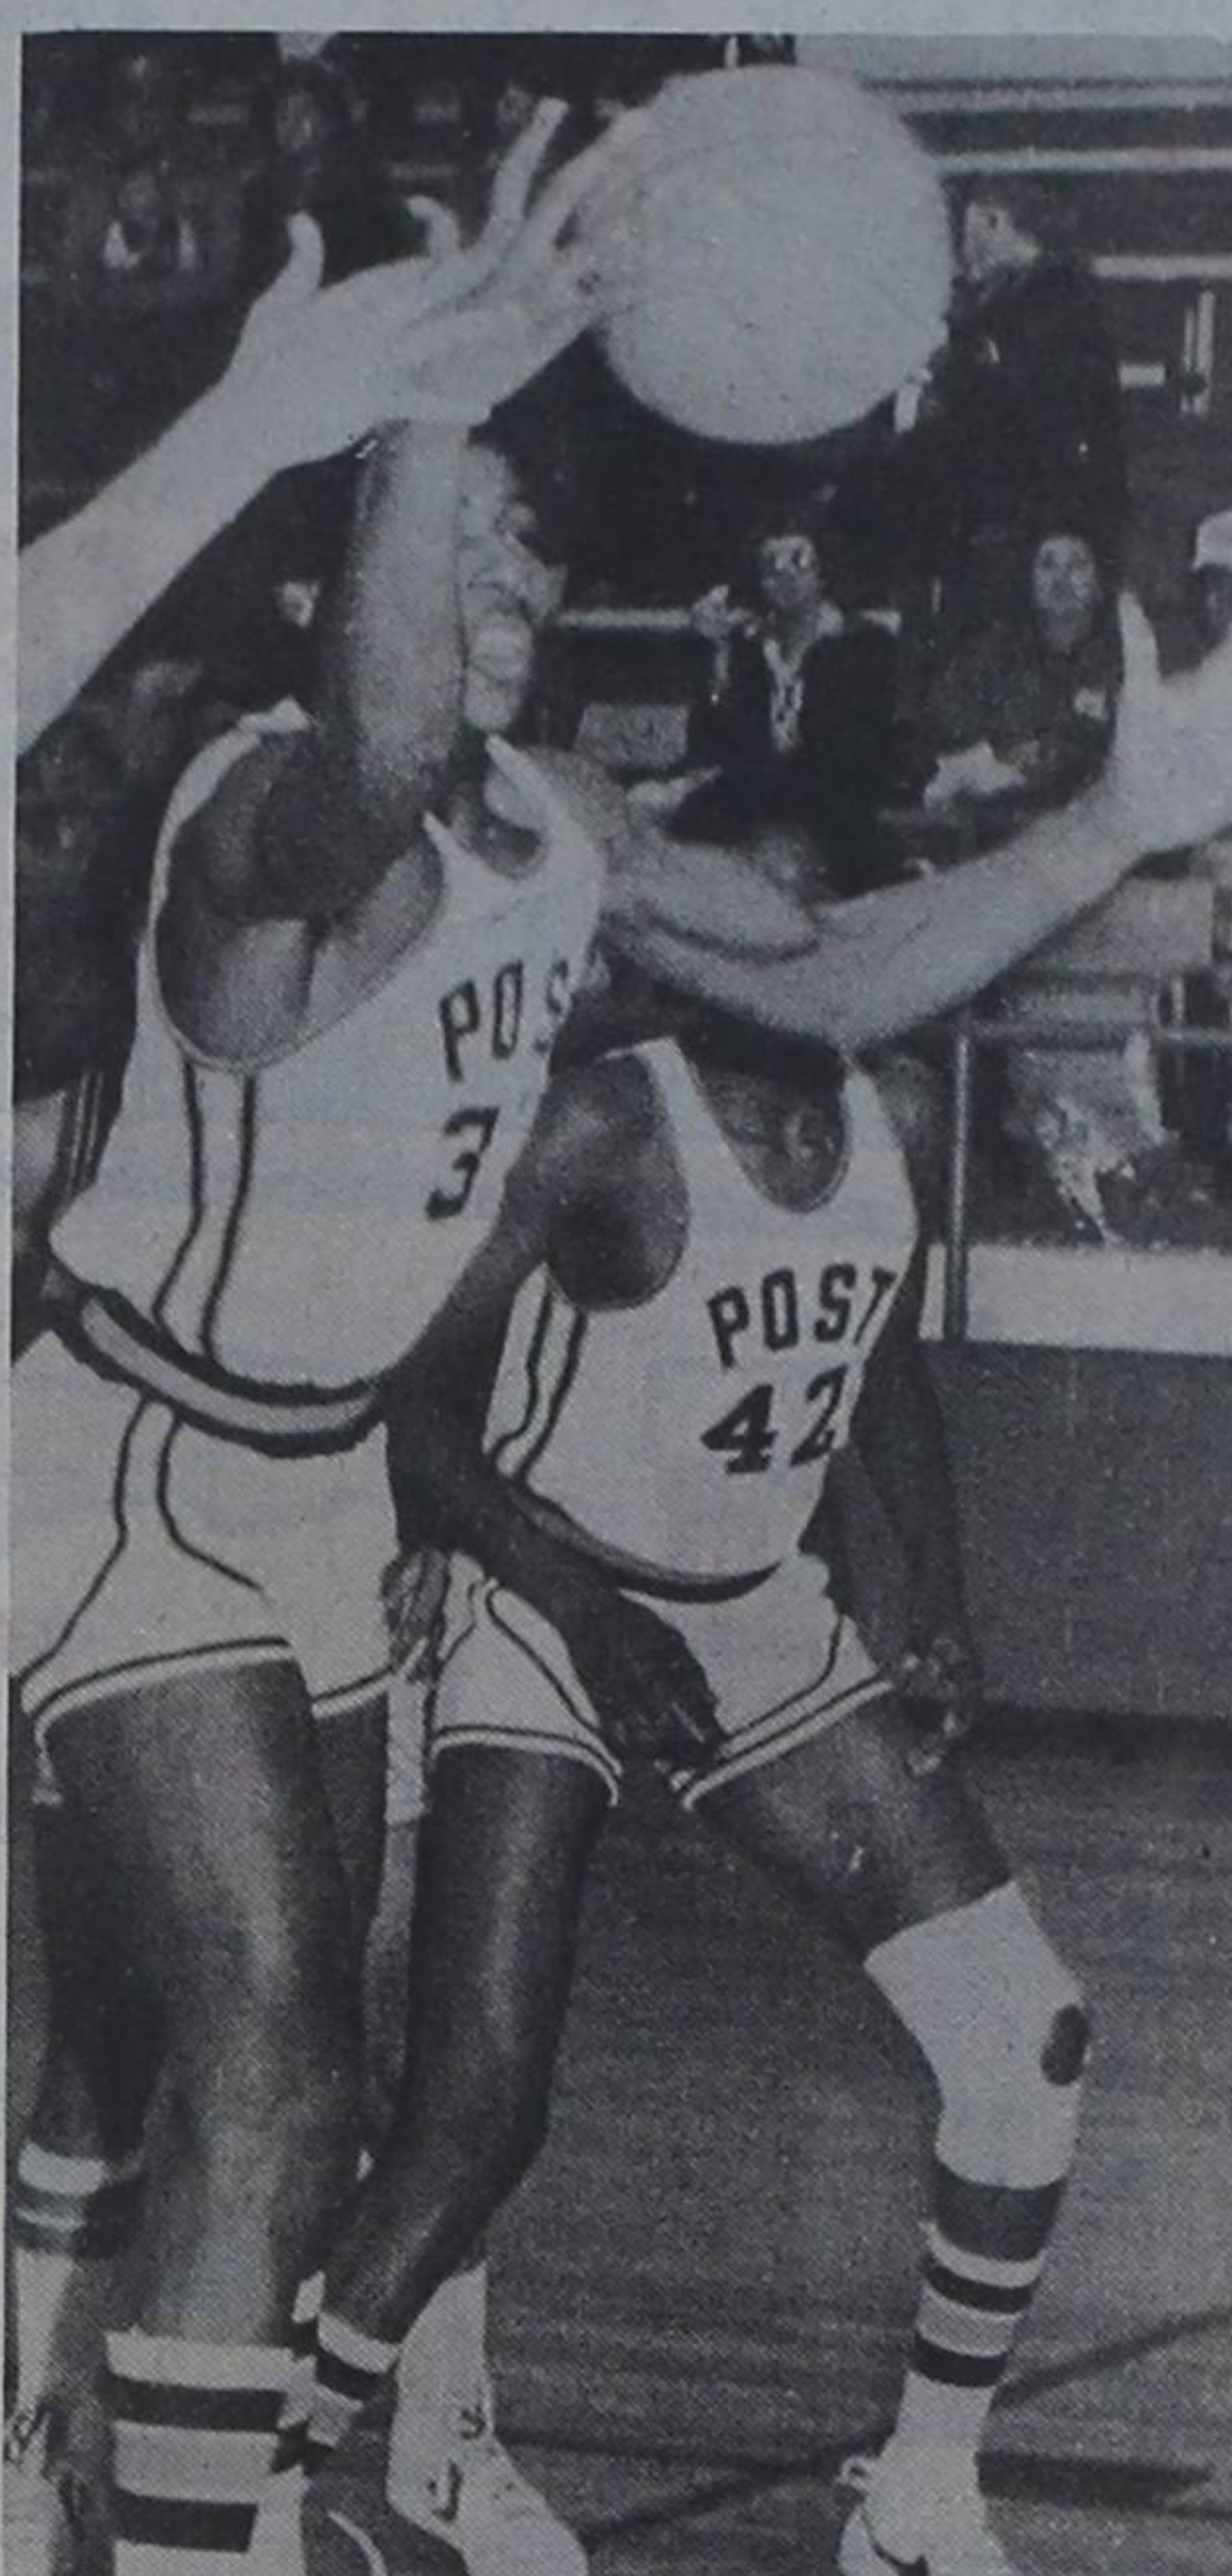

Other scoring was done by Channa Williams with three and Regina Williams with two.

Overall the Lady Lopes had 34 steals and 35 rebounds.

Their next outing was with Frenship here Friday night with results in next Wednesdays Dispatch.

Bill Black puts in two points on a lay-up for the Antelopes with Jeff Taylor helping out on the play.

R.J. Greathouse demonstrates the jump shot during the 85-29 win over Union last week.

Lopes Win Ralls Tourney

The first place trophy was presented to the Post Antelope cage team following their win over Cooper 61 to 46 in the Ralls tournament played last Saturday night.

The 'Lopes jumped to an early lead in the opening period of play and were never threatened throughout the game.

Leading 19 to six at the end of one, the 'Lopes added 11 more in the second, 16 in the third and 15 in the fourth.

Irvin Price took scoring honors with 17 points, eight field goals and one free toss, followed by Will Kirkpatrick with eight field goals and 16 points. Other 'Lopes scoring were Milton Williams with six, Bill Black, Tim Tannehill, James Lee each had four, Jeff Taylor and Marvin Wynne each had two and R. J. Greathouse had one.

The 'Lopes advanced to the finals of the tourney with their win over the host Ralls Jackrabbits Friday night 55 to 50.

Outscored in the final two periods of play, it was not enough on Ralls part to overcome the 'Lopes lead.

Will Kirkpatrick had a big night with the nets hitting for 22 points, followed by Irvin Price with 13, Bill Black and Tim Tannehill each had six, Milton Williams, four and James Lee and L.D. Harper each had two.

Far from being "silly," the goose is said to be one of the most intelligent of all birds.
