Ben Alley named to district engineer post

Ben A. Alley, assistant district engineer of the Austin district, has been named district engineer for the 17-county Lubbock district. Mark Goode, engineer-director, State Department of Highways and Public Transportation, Austin, announced the appointment recently. Mr. Alley assumed his new position on August 1, 1982.

Alley, a 29-year veteran with the department, will replace the late C. W. Nall, Jr., who suffered a fatal heart attack on July 9. He will be in the Lubbock office.

A native of Brady, Texas, Alley began his highway department career in 1954. He progressed through several responsible engineering positions with the Austin district and was named assistant district engineer in December 1973. He has served in that position until his appointment to the Lubbock district last week.

A veteran of U. S. Navy service during World War II, Alley attended Tarleton

State College and in 1950 graduated from the University of Texas at Austin with a B.S. degree in civil engineering. He was named Engineer of the Year by the Travis Chapter of the American Society of Professional Engineers in 1979 and 1980 was awarded the Gibb Gilchrist Award for excellence in highway engineering.

Alley and his wife, Peggy, have two children: Ben, Jr., of Houston and Jacqueline of Austin.

As district engineer, Alley will supervise activities of the department in Bailey, Castro, Cochran, Crosby, Dawson, Floyd, Gaines, Garza, Hale, Hockley, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Parmer, Swisher, Terry and Yoakum Counties.

Lotts in South Africa trip

Jack and Jeri Lott, who ranch on the U Lazy S, ten miles south of Post, recently returned from a three week tour of South Africa and Zimbabwe. The Lotts, who have hosted a young rancher from South Africa each of the last two years, made the trip with twenty ranchers from Texas, New Mexico, and Florida.

Lott, a strong advocate of the Savory Method of Grazing Management, "confirmed many of his own ideas about the value of the system." The program, named after Alan Savory, a botanist and former game ranger in South Africa, was pioneered about ten years ago, and has been used in the United States only about four years. Savory, who now lives in Albuquerque after being exiled to the Cayman Islands for his opposition to Ian Smith, has demonstrated the value of the method for grazing cattle, and sheep, especially in South Africa, where much wool and mohair is produced.

Asked about his trip, Lott said, "I went (to South Africa) to watch the grass grow, but they were in a drought." Then he added that some of the terrain he observed had been in a drought for four years, in places where as little as 6-10" of rainfall per year were "normal."

"One rancher kept his herd of goats and sheep at the same level in four years of drought, while his neighbors were going out of business," said Lott, "because he was using the Savory Method of Grazing Management on his rocky, almost barren soil."

The trip also took the couple to "beautiful" Cape Town, and Johannesburg, "an impressive city, but certainly not beautiful because of the gold mine dumps all around."

A second portion of their tour, brought them to Zimbabwe, formerly Rhodesia. Lott called the potential of this country as "phenomenal," though he characterized the present condition as "pathetic," primarily because of the inexperience of the government leaders. "Five years ago the nation was self-sustaining, but now they import tons of corn to feed the people. Farm equipment is scarce, and spare parts they have are non-existent. Every two years a farmer can spend only $300 out of the country to purchase the things needed for production."

The Zimbabwe tour included trips to beautiful Victoria Falls, and the world's largest man-made lake, 127 miles long, and 500 feet deep, Lake Kariba.

Lott made one other pertinent observation to the situation in Texas. First he compared the land size he toured to Texas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico combined, and then pointed to rainfall extremes in Texas this year, ranging from 2" at El Paso for 1981, up to over 34" in other parts of our state. Then he summarized, "Some ranchers in that part of the world are surviving under the harshest extremes of soil and rainfall, solely because they are practicing intense range grazing management. It may not be too much of an overstatement to say that ranchers in Texas may face the same challenge."

Governor has open line

For the last two months, Governor Bill Clements has been available to the media 24 hours a day, seven days a week. This open line to the media is possible through the Governor Clements Campaign Radio Actuality News Service.

But don't let the words "radio actuality" fool you. Governor Clements offers a daily quote for newspapers, too, via the service, so that he may address the most pressing issues that affect Texas, on national, state and local levels.

A direct line to the Governor gives us, and in turn you, an advantage. When a story breaks or an issue builds, we will have a comment first. And we change actualities at least once daily to stay ahead.

Our service is available any time of the day, every day of the week. The toll-free number is 1-800-252-3074. We invite you to call daily to stay on top of the latest news. For more information call Kim Daughn, 512-472-1982.

Permian Basin registration

Some 350 classes will be offered to Permian Basin residents at the fall registration for the University of Texas at the Permian Basin Aug. 25-26.

UTPB Director of Admissions Robert Warmann noted enrollment is slated 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 3-7 p.m. both days in the student lounge. Registration notices giving individual time assignments will be mailed to prospective students, Warmann said. Persons who have not received a registration card by Aug. 13 may pick one up at the admissions office beginning Aug. 16, he added.

Enrollment at UTPB is open to students who have completed 60 hours of coursework at any accredited community college, senior college or university. Warmann said prospective students should notify the registrars at their previous colleges to send official transcripts directly to the UTPB admissions office. An application should also be on file to avoid delays in the registration process.

Students who are not pursuing a degree, but who are interested in taking courses for enjoyment or for more information in a particular field, should obtain special registration form for the ENCORE (no grade) program.

"Encore students, by law, must meet regular admissions requirements, but will not be required to take exams or complete out side assignments," Warmann said.

Further information about registration is available from the admissions office at 367-2210.

Strake Talk

Education—Our Money's Worth?

In my travels over Texas, it has become clear that Texans rate crime, the economy, and the education of their children among their principal concerns.

This week I would like to discuss education. As the father of six children, this has long been one of my principal concerns also.

We currently spend over half our tax revenue on education, and many people raise the question to me: "Are we getting our money's worth?" The questions put to me indicate some think we are spending too much; others, not enough.

I too am concerned about the amount of money we spend on education, but I am more concerned about the quality of that education. I believe the quality of education our children receive can be improved by making some fundamental changes in the way we pay and treat our teachers.

I believe in merit pay for teachers. Frankly, I think good teachers ought to be paid more than poor teachers. A good, conscientious teacher cannot help but become discouraged and disillusioned when he or she ends the month with the same pay as one whom they know to be indifferent. The result is apt to be that they leave the teaching profession altogether.

I also think we ought to enter a system of competency testing not only for new teachers, but for those who are currently teaching. We test our kids, why not also test those who teach them?

In short, I think we ought to bear down on the basics, relieve our teachers of burdensome paper work now placed upon them, and recognize and reward our better teachers with better pay, for the sake of our children, and our future.

If you have thoughts on this subject, I would welcome them. Just write to me at 1213 W. 34th in Austin, 78705.

Moeller announces TFU for Foley Wheat plan

Texas Farmers Union President Mike Moeller joined with the National Farmers Union in support of legislation introduced by Congressman Tom Foley as the only feasible plan currently before Congress to aid the depressed farm economy and provide relief for hard pressed grain farmers. "The only way we will be able to reduce grain inventories and increase prices is to provide our farmers with a realistic incentive rather than the empty shell offered by the Reagan Administration," Moeller said.

The TFU was critical of the proposed 1983 wheat program announced by Agriculture Secretary John Block calling for voluntary set-asides in wheat. "For the fourth year in a row, producers are being told they will lose money and the Administration provided no feasible proposal to change that situation," Moeller noted. Latest USDA estimates show the 1982 wheat crop of 2.71 billion bushels will be nearly the same as 1982, 2.79 billion bushels, demonstrating the failure of a voluntary set-aside.

Under the Foley plan, the bill will combine an acreage set-aside with a paid diversion. Also, price support loan rates will be increased slightly for both wheat and feed grains in 1983.

Wheat provisions call for a 25 percent set-aside with a 10 percent paid diversion. The diversion payment would be $3.50 per bushel on lost production, half of which would be paid at the time the producer signed up for the program. The wheat loan rate would be increased from $3.55 to $3.80 per bushel.

For corn and other feed grains, a 20 percent acreage reduction program, including a 10 percent paid diversion, would be established in the event 1982 corn production exceeds 7.6 billion bushels. The corn loan rate would be increased to $2.71 per bushel. The TFU, and the NFU are supporting the Foley plan as the best alternative to the previously endorsed Farm Crisis Bill which failed in the House Agriculture Committee. "The longer we delay on taking action on providing a decent price for producers while reducing the surplus, the more costly it will be for both farmers and the government," Moeller stated. "Though not as comprehensive as the Farm Crisis Bill, we hope the Congress and the Reagan Administration will get behind Congressman Foley's bill which will help raise commodity prices, reduce inventories and lessen the cost to the government," the TFU President concluded.

TV station gives golden service award

LUBBOCK — In April of this year KAMC-TV awarded the first Golden Service Award to John and Porferio Deleon. These two off duty Lubbock police officers rescued several victims from a burning car crash.

The Golden Service Award is presented by KAMC-TV, Channel 28, to persons or organizations which perform outstanding service to a community, group or a person.

Bill McAlister, who is the President and owner of KAMC, said, "too often groups or individuals who perform outstanding acts towards communities or his fellow man, never receive the recognition they deserve." "Our station will seek out and publicly honor these groups and persons," McAlister said, "and that's where the general public can help."

KAMC is asking for nominations from anyone, anywhere in the South Plains area. Those selected will be publicly honored and will receive an engraved plaque. "The Golden Service Award," McAlister said, "is simply to honor those organizations or persons who perform acts of kindness without any thought of who gets the credit."

Nominations, in writing, may be sent to out station KAMC-TV, Box, 2805, Lubbock, Tx. 79408.

We at Southwestern Public Service Company are forecasting now how much electricity you'll use today, tomorrow, next week, next month, next year, even 5 and 10 and 15 years from now. We take the forecasting job seriously. It tells us how much electricity to generate for you in the next few hours or few days. It helps us decide how much fuel to buy. And forecasting helps us decide when, where, or if we should build new power plants.

Grafton Clarke, Fuel Planning Senior Engineer, Amarillo.

School is out, and youngsters are out and about. Their safety concerns us, as it does you. We recommend this important warning about power line danger: Never climb a tree which is near electric power lines. There may be power lines among the branches. If the lines were touched, tree-climbing fun would turn into tragedy.

Mike Costello, Safety and Claims Specialist, Roswell.

Everyone, including SPS, is affected by high money costs. When we borrow money at today's high interest rates, or sell stock, people are actually letting us use their savings to build new power plants and lines and to buy equipment. If we do not pay the going "wage" for their savings, people will stop letting us use their money, and our ability to deliver the electricity you need will be limited.

Bob Whipps, District Manager, Seminole.

Knowing what electricity is worth is worth knowing. For answers to your questions, call or write your SPS manager.

MRS. TRAVIS MIRES

Kay Stephens, Travis Mires wed in Plains

Miss Sheila Kay Stephens became the bride of Travis Mires Friday July 23, at 7 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Plains. Rev. Gayle Bowen, cousin of the bride from Canyon, officiated the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Bowen Stephens of Plains, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mires of O'Donnell.

Grandparents are Mrs. Darris Stephens of Post, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Smith of Tahoka, and Mr. and Mrs. James Reeves of O'Donnell, and Mrs. D. W. Mires of Plainview.

Musical selections were played preceding the ceremony by Jeffery Barron of Plains. Sister of the bride, Kim Stephens, formally began the ceremony with the song "Surround Me With Love". Barron presented a song by Ann Murray, "You Needed Me" on the piano as the grandparents were being seated. The mothers of the bride and groom, Sheila Stephens, and Frances Mires, were escorted down the aisle by the groom while "Love Is A Many Splendored Thing", a selection used by the Stephens in their wedding, was being played.

The church windows were touched by a pale pink taper surrounded by baby's breath and greenery, while every other pew bore a satin bow of deep magenta and pink. The piano and organ both held arrangements of daisies in shades of pinks and deep magenta, surrounded by baby's breath and stephanotis.

As younger sister of the bride, Kristi Stephens sang a T. G. Sheppard song, "The State of Our Union", the greenery covered, spiraling white candelabra touched with small satin bows, were being lighted by the Stephens, brother of the bride, and Holly Shaffer of Abernathy. He was outfitted in an eggshell white tux accented with a ruffled shirt and a boutonniere of miniature satin rose buds. She wore a burgundy satin, mid-calf length dress with a scooped, ruffled neckline with an offwhite border eyelet at the top of the ruffle. The large puff sleeves also had the ruffle and eyelet accents. A satin ribbon around the waist completed the outfit.

Guests and grandparents were seated by ushers, Troy Mires, brother of the groom of Hosuton, Brady Gass, O'Donnell, and cousins of the bride, Stormy Lovingsgood of Odessa, and Steve Smith of Plains.

Lisa Reeves, cousin of the groom from Dumas, served as flower girl. She carried a beige wicker basket interwoven with pink satin ribbon and decorated with pale pink pansies, and pink satin bows. She wore a burgundy satin dress identical to the candlelighter.

The flower girl was escorted by Cleve Beardon of Denver City. He wore a tux of eggshell with a ruffled shirt. The ring bearer was Yancey House of Plains. He wore a matching tux to the other gentlemen and carried a satin pillow, made by the bride's grandmother for her parents wedding, with small lace flowerettes and streamers of white satin ribbon.

Given in marriage by her parents, and escorted by her father, the bride was presented in a gown of sheer, white organza over a flowing, A-line skirt, falling softly from the waist. The moulded bodice was highlighted by a sheer yoke reaching up to a tall, mandarin collar. The yoke and collar revealed tiny satin flower designs, inlaid with seed pearls. The empire waistline boasted a Watu train on the backside. This double train came down to form a chapel length dress. The bride sang a wedding prayer after the lighting of the Unity Candle. The song was entitled "Bind Us Together."

To complete her ensemble, the bride wore a fingertip length veil, made by her mother, with a scalloped edge. The headpiece was a wreath of tiny white rosebuds and flower sprays designed by herself. The bride carried a cascading bouquet of white gladiolas accented by greenery, stephanotis, and gardenias.

Something old was a diamond lavalier borrowed from grandmother Stephens, new was gown and veil something borrowed was Barry Tyler, Mike Haas, and Lanny Fluitt doubled for Post. Skip Starkey's three run homer in the first inning started the scoring for Post.

The Post Merchants kept putting runners on base on July 19, in a game with the Expos, but couldn't score enough to win over the team, who took a 7 to 3 win. Sappington homered for Post.

July 21, Raymie Holly and Ronnie Bratcher homered, but Eblen went on to claim a 14-10 win over Post. In fact, Post scored in every inning, but eight runs for Eblen in the second was too great an advantage for Post to overcome.

July 23, Raymie Holly had three hits, including a double and a homer, but Post managed only six hits as a team in dropping a second straight game to Eblen Pharmacy, 8 to 5.

Ronnie Bratcher held the Mainliners hitless in the top of the first, on July 27, then the Post bats started booming, as the Merchants scored 12 runs in the bottom of the first. Before the game was over, Barry Tyler, Raymie Holly, and Kevin Craig had homers for Post, Raymie's coming with the bases loaded. The final score was Post 20, Mainliners 3.

Sponsors for the semi-pro Merchants include the VFW Post, First National Bank, Palmers, B&B Liquor and Pevitt & Son Welding.

Congressman
Charles W. Stenholm

Congressional Comment

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The House Agriculture Committee July 29, exceeded its goal for spending cuts called for by the First Budget Resolution and should serve as an example to other committees currently debating spending cuts, Congressman Charles W. Stenholm said.

"If every other committee acted in as conscientious a manner, great strides in reduction of federal spending would be made quickly," Stenholm, a two-term member of the Ag Committee, added.

The Ag Committee was directed by the First Budget Resolution to make savings in program spending of some $779 million. Actual savings approved by the committee totaled $1.3 billion, an additional savings of $539 million.

"Agriculture has taken more overall cuts than any other area of spending over the past few years," Stenholm said, "but there is a limit as to how far this one committee can go or how much one industry can bear. As far as I am concerned we would not cut one more penny until other committees prove that they are going to do their share. To date there has been no indication that they will do so."

Stenholm commended Ag Committee Chairman E. (Kika) de la Garza in his work on the reconciliation process, saying, "I can't give enough credit to de la Garza, because there is tremendous pressure to ignore the First Budget Resolution recommendations and continue with spending patterns of the past. That is where the budgetary process bogged down last year. Anytime a committee chairman is able not only to make recommended cuts, but to actually exceed those goals, it has to be considered something of a political miracle.

"Now we will see if other chairmen can come close to that achievement," Stenholm said.

Farmers warned of pesticide buy

AUSTIN — Farmers being solicited by telephone to buy Knock-Out pesticide are warned to be aware that the product may be grossly misrepresented, Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown said today.

"We have received several calls from scattered locations in the state from farmers who have purchased the pesticide after telephone solicitations and have found that it does not live up to the sales pitch," Brown said.

The telephone salesmen have stated that it is as good as or superior to another well-known, commonly used herbicide (Roundup). The most recent telephone solicitation have been from Alpine Farm Products in Long Island, New York.

Knock-Out is registered for sale with the Texas Department of Agriculture with a label specifying a 1.8 percent active ingredient. "There is nothing illegal about selling this product, but its performance is being misrepresented. The pesti-

This is the nationally-famous Cal Farley's Boys Ranch Rodeo with two performances scheduled in the Ranch's Rodeo Arena at that time. Ranch officials expect approximately ten thousand people to attend the afternoon performances that will begin at 2:30 each day.

REFRIGERATOR

There is nothing worse than a strong odor in the refrigerator/freezer from spoiled food resulting from a power outage of a few days. These odors are extremely difficult to remove. However, Whirlpool home economists have tested various methods and recommend using one or more of the following suggestions:

- Wash interior walls and all removable parts with warm water and mild soap or detergent, or a solution of two tablespoons of baking soda to one quart of water.

Have A Complaint? If you're a consumer with a complaint, there are a number of remedies you can try.

One, that's often very successful, is to write a letter to the public relations director of the company that manufactured the product or provided the service with which you found fault. A new book provides names and addresses of more than 6,000 individual corporate and association public relations people.

The directory, called O'Dwyer's Directory of Corporate Communications has the right name, the right titles, the right telephone numbers, and the right addresses of the biggest companies and associations of the country.

BUYING YOUR GLASSES

Buying a pair of glasses is an important expenditure. That's one reason why you should take your time in selecting the glasses you like best.

For starters, glasses won't be worth much unless the prescription is accurate. The lens has to be professionally made to your doctor's exact specifications.

You can look for bargains. That may save you money initially. But if your glasses aren't comfortable, if you have to select from only a few styles, or they aren't well-made, that's no bargain. You want glasses you can wear in comfort for a long time. Something so important, that you use every day at work or at home, deserves very careful consideration. Appearance is important too. You want them to look good on you.

So when you get a new prescription for glasses, take your time in choosing the frames. Make sure you really like the style and color. And, most importantly, make sure they fit securely and comfortably.

DON'T BELIEVE EVERYTHING YOU HEAR!

Dearly loved friends, don't always believe everything you hear just because someone says it is a message from God; test it first to see if it really is. For there are many false teachers around, and the way to find out if their message is from the Holy Spirit is to ask: Does it really agree that Jesus Christ, God's Son, actually became man with a human body? If so, then the message is from God. If not, the message is not from God but from one who is against Christ, like the "Antichrist" you have heard about who is going to come, and his attitude of enmity against Christ is already abroad in the world. (1 John 4:1-3)

Then the Lord said: The prophets are telling lies in my name. I didn't send them or tell them to speak or give them any message. They prophesy of visions and revelations they have never seen nor heard; they speak foolishness concocted out of their own lying hearts. Therefore, the Lord says, I will punish these lying prophets who have spoken in my name though I did not send them, who say no war shall come nor famine. By war and famine they themselves shall die! And the people to whom they prophesy--their bodies shall be thrown out into the streets of Jerusalem, victims of famine and war; there shall be no one of bury them. Husbands, wives, sons and daughters--all will be gone. For I will pour out terrible punishment upon them for their sins. (Jeremiah 14:14-16)

New hotline for oil field thefts

An aggressive campaign against oil field thefts in Texas has begun with the installation of a new permanent statewide hotline. The Petroleum Industry Security Council (PISC) is offering a reward of up to $5,000 for information leading to the arrest and indictment of persons suspected of stealing crude oil or oil field equipment, or for information leading to the recovery of stolen oil field equipment. The new toll free hotline number is 1-800-645-2677 or 1-800-OIL-COPS.

Chartered as a non-profit corporation in January 1982, PISC was formed by petroleum industry associations in an effort to provide organized support to law enforcement in combating oil field crimes. The hotline is just the first step in a comprehensive program to reduce the oil industry's estimated $100 million theft losses in Texas. Headed by Ed Richards, the former Investigator General of the Texas Department of Human Resources and Department of Public Safety Officer, PISC plans to develop a uniform marking system for oil field equipment, theft prevention programs for the industry, and a computer backed theft reporting and inquiry system. PISC also plans to place experienced criminal investigators across the state to cooperate with and

Michael Valdez, 5-10, junior, tackle; Daniel Gonzales, 5-6, junior, tailback; Bobby Saldivar, 5-6, junior, end; Giles Dalby, 5-8, junior, fullback; and L.D. Harper, 5-11, junior, fullback.

The Harris Poll which picks Post first in district and seventh in state says, "Look out, folks! Post is bringing out the heavy artillery this year in a final assault on the district fortress. Armed with an infantry of 10 offensive and seven defensive starters who are battle-hardened to the core, Coach David Thompson's shock troops are going to take over league rule in 1982."

So, even though temperatures are hot outside, Post folks are beginning to get the "Football fever" with all the advanced publicity and anxious to get "on the road" to that district title.

America saw its first popular newspaper when the "Penny Press" made its appearance in the 1830's. The first successful penny paper was the New York Sun.

support law enforcement efforts to reduce the theft problem.

The new hotline will replace the oil field theft hotline operated by North Texas Oil and Gas Association, and supported by other petroleum industry associations. The old number, 1-817-723-1114, will cease operation on June 6. Any citizen having information about oil field theft is requested to call the PISC hotline or write: P. O. Box 15392, Austin, Texas 78761. Citizens are not required to reveal their name, just provide the information and they will be assigned a code number for identification. Richards says citizens should call 1-800-OIL-COPS and help reduce oil production costs by stopping the oil field thefts which ultimately drive up consumer costs for oil products.

TSTA supports White for governor

AUSTIN — The 95,000 member Texas State Teachers Association today threw its support behind Mark White for Governor and vowed to help defeat Governor Bill Clements in November.

It also endorsed Lieutenant Governor Bill Hobby; Jim Mattox for Attorney General; Bob Bullock for Comptroller; and U. S. Senator Lloyd Bentsen.

Speaking at a press conference with Mark White at the TSTA building, President Barbara O'Neal said all of these candidates support a system of free and equal education for all children.

O'Neal told a crowd of 300 cheering local TSTA leaders that the organization has committed itself for two million volunteer hours to Mark White's campaign for Governor of Texas and that it would also help coordinate election efforts in every county in Texas.

"Bill Clements cannot buy two million campaign hours, nor can he buy the Governor's office again with advertising because the teachers of Texas are not going to let him," O'Neal said.

"His insults to teachers over the past four years are clear indicators of the disdain which he holds for educational personnel and we plan to replace the source of those insults with a new governor — Mark White.

"When we complained about the miserable salaries paid to Texas teachers, Bill Clements responded that teachers should stop thinking about salaries and start thinking about quality education. From now until November, everytime teachers think about their salaries they're going to be thinking, 'Mark White for Governor.'"

"When Bill Clements vetoed teachers' health insurance bill, he said we didn't need it because 'our spouses would provide insurance.' From now until November, everytime teachers pay medical bills they're going to be thinking, 'Mark White for Governor,'" O'Neal said.

White responded to five standing ovations by saying that the two million volunteer hours would represent a contribution of $8 million

Safety Tips

It's What Up Front That Counts

A study of more than 900 motorcycle accidents in southern California has shown that most accidents happen right in front of the rider. In fact, only seven percent occur from the rear. Unfortunately the biggest problem for motorcyclists is other drivers—they just aren't looking out for riders.

The best tip for motorcyclists is always be on the watch-out for potential problems. But there are ways riders can make themselves more visible to other drivers, according to the Motorcycle Safety Foundation:

- Ride with the cycle's headlight on at all times.

to his campaign. The Attorney General promised to make education his top priority "because the children of Texas deserve no less." He said there must be a comprehensive approach, not a patchwork process, to funding education and recruiting and maintaining excellent teachers in our Texas classrooms because the teacher is the heart of the educational system. O'Neal said White will be a Governor that teachers and Texas can be proud of.

Burlington reports sales and earnings lower

Burlington Industries, Inc. today reported lower sales and earnings for both its third fiscal quarter and the first nine months of the 1982 fiscal year.

Consolidated net sales for the quarter ended July 3, 1982 were $719,395,000 on which the company's consolidated net earnings were $12,834,000 or 45 cents per share. In the comparable period last year, Burlington reported net sales of $858,426,000 on which the company's net earnings were $35,078,000 or $1.25 per share.

For the nine months ended July 3, 1982 consolidated net sales were $2,199,233,000 compared to $2,386,345,000 in the prior year. Net earnings were $44,480,000 or $1.57 per share compared to $80,140,000 or $2.85 per share last year.

As a result of adopting FASB Statement No. 52 in the first quarter of 1982, the effect of foreign currency items is not comparable with those reported in 1981 as prior year results were not restated. Foreign currency items included in the earnings statement for the third quarter of fiscal 1982 were not material. The fiscal 1981 results included gains from foreign currency items of 26 cents per share in the third quarter and 68 cents per share for the nine months.

Mr. Klopman, chairman and chief executive officer, commented, "The third quarter results reflect a continuation of the economic weakness which has persisted in this fiscal year. There was virtually no segment of our business which was not adversely affected. Current order rates would indicate there will be no significant upturn prior to the end of fiscal 1982."

The Board of Directors declared a regular quarterly dividend of 38 cents per share payable September 1, 1982 to shareholders of record at the close of business August 2, 1982.

How To Be A Good Cook

Campsite Cooking

Camping is a seasonless activity and can be fun any time of the year. Here are a few tips to make that get-away-from-it-all weekend a success. Plan the menus in advance: Menus that require minimum utensils, cooking fuel and ingredients, and non-perishable foods that are easily transported.

Remember knives, can openers, matches, multiple-use lightweight cooking utensils, fuel for camp stove, plates, cups, silverware.

This single saucepan meal can be made in less than 20 minutes. The secret of its quick cooking and satisfying flavor is chunky old fashioned vegetable beef soup.

Sundown Skillet

|--|--|
| 1 can (19 ounces) chunky old fashioned vegetable beef soup | 1 pkg. (3 1/2 oz.) sliced pepperoni (about 1 cup), cut in half |
| 2 c. cooked elbow macaroni | Generous dash pepper |
| 1 c. shredded Cheddar cheese | |

In saucepan, combine ingredients. Heat; stir occasionally. Makes about 4 cups.

Governor Clements not surprised

AUSTIN—Governor Bill Clements says he is "definitely not surprised" the pro-union Texas State Teachers Association (TSTA) has endorsed his opponent. "I would certainly have expected it," Clements said, noting that the TSTA continues its pattern of 1978, when it endorsed liberal John Hill.

"Here in Texas, we view teachers as professionals, not workers in an educational factory line," Clements said. "The majority of teachers in this state support our system. Yet, the pro-union TSTA leadership has defied that majority...their priority is to unionize Texas teachers and encourage them to strike against the public interest."

Clements noted he has support from thousands of teachers throughout the state, pointing out that average teacher salaries have gone up 45 percent in Texas since he was elected governor.

Clements said unionization of public employees is one of his opponent's major goals and cited the example of Mark White's ruling in favor of a union dues checkoff for state employees. "We defeated the union dues checkoff in the 1981 legislative session and I unilaterally oppose unionization of Texas public school teachers," Clements added.

"I believe in the neighborhood school, a one on one relationship between teachers and students, and a back to basics movement in education," Clements said. "We need to give our children the tools they need to succeed and unionization of our schools is not the way to do it."

dues checkoff for state employees. "We defeated the union dues checkoff in the 1981 legislative session and I unilaterally oppose unionization of Texas public school teachers," Clements added.

NRA seeking to have law invalid

Washington, D.C.—The National Rifle Association is taking legal action against the San Francisco Board of Supervisors which voted June 28 to ban the sale and possession of handguns in the city. The ban passed by a 6-4 vote despite city polls showing heavy public opposition to the measure. The NRA is seeking to have the law declared invalid.

On July 19, in the State of Court of Appeals (First Appeals District), the NRA filed a petition for a writ of mandate to block enforcement of the ban. The petition charges that "The San Francisco Handgun Ordinance is invalid because it invades a field fully occupied by state regulation."

According to Michael K. McCabe, NRA General Counsel in Washington, D.C., California's preemption law "Prohibits local gun control ordinances except for consistent and supplementary regulation."

"It is our firm belief," McCabe said, "that the ban violates state law and should be struck down."

The city district attorney, Arlo Smith, also has said he believes the "Ordinance is preempted by state law and is invalid." Smith has said he will not prosecute under the ordinance until there has been a legal determination of its validity.

The action was filed against the city and county of San Francisco on behalf of city residents George Soracco, William Capilos, Beau Hickory and the San Francisco Gun Exchange, a local, federally licensed firearms dealership. The San Francisco firm of Pillsbury, Madison and Sutro is handling the case.

One newspaper poll taken prior to adoption of the ban showed 59 percent of the more than 39,000 people responding were opposed to it.

FACTS & FIGURES

Between 45 and 75 percent of a person's total body weight is composed of fluid. Age, sex and the amount of fat are factors that influence the amount of water in the body. Fat, for instance, is water-free; therefore, leaner people have a greater percentage of water to total weight.

'83 wheat program another loser for farmers

AUSTIN—Texas Farmer Union President, Mike Moeller said today the proposed 1983 wheat set-aside program proposed by the Reagan administration "is telling the cancer patient to take two aspirin to cure the disease."

Moeller said that while the disaster payments to producers who have been hard hit by natural disasters will be beneficial, "it is only temporary relief. It treats the symptoms of low prices but provides no actual cure for the economic depression of the farm sector."

Under the terms announced by Secretary of Agriculture John Block on July 14, wheat farmers who sign up for a voluntary 20 percent set-aside will be eligible for half their 1983 deficiency payment, estimated at $25 per bushel.

In Texas, 60 counties are currently eligible to receive disaster payments as a result of the administration's decision on July 15 to declare the Texas Panhandle and South Plains a disaster area. Hail, high winds, flooding and cold weather have resulted in a loss between 50 to 100 percent of the cotton, wheat and feed grain crops in these areas plus other counties in New Mexico and Oklahoma.

Concerning the proposed wheat set-aside program, Moeller said "the USDA is telling the nation as well as farmers that their farm programs are not working." Those estimates by the USDA translate into an average 1983 wheat price of $3.80, far below current costs of production. The most recent figures indicated the parity level for wheat was $7.30 per bushel (USDA June, 1982).

"For the fourth year in a row, farmers are being told they are going to lose money on their wheat crop as well as on other commodities," Moeller stated. "Instead of having a good farm program which provides incentives to producers, we are going to see another year of low commodity prices, continued high interest rates and escalating production costs. Disaster payments were definitely needed this year, but what is really needed is a legitimate farm program," the TFU president said.

The TFU and the bipartisan Farm Crisis Group in Congress are supporting a mandatory set-aside with paid diversions following approval in a nationwide referendum. This would reduce the existing large surpluses while helping to drive up prices on commodities. According to the Congressional Budget Office, such a plan would actually save the government over $900 million over the next four years.

Regarding the disaster payments of $400 million in Texas, Moeller said "it will be a shot in the arm for hard pressed cotton, wheat and feed grain farmers who have suffered from these natural disasters. Conditions are so bad financially for some producers that they are trying to jump out of the basement window."

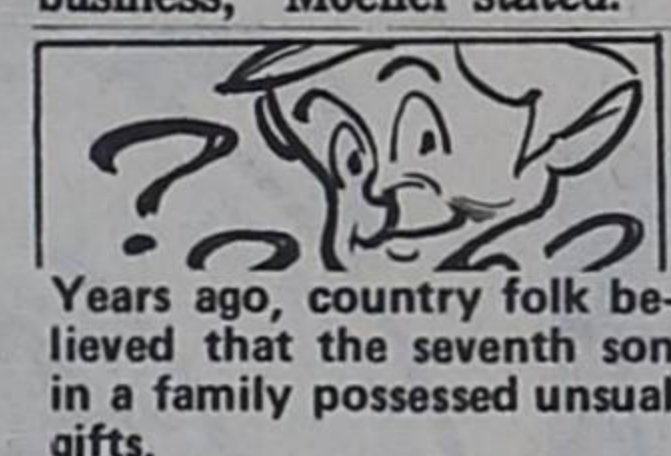

Unless major changes are made in the farm program this year to reduce surpluses and increase the prices farmers receive for their crops, "we are going to see a record number of family farmers forced into bankruptcy or simply out of business," Moeller stated.
