

The Post Dispatch

Fifty-Sixth Year

Post, Garza County, Texas

Thursday, September 2, 1982 Number 14

Wes Burnett new Dispatch owner

Chris Koerselman and Susan Shaffer, daughters of the late Jim Cornish, have announced the sale of the Post Dispatch to Wesley and Pat Burnett.

Burnett has been publisher and part-owner of the Ballinger Ledger and assumed operational responsibilities of the Dispatch September 1.

He also has served as publisher of the Dublin Progress-Stephenville Star and the Devil's River News in Sonora.

"We are excited about this opportunity," Burnett comments, "and we look forward to serving the people of Garza county."

One of the original stockholders and organizers of West-Com Inc., Burnett has sold his interest in the newspaper group, headed by Gus Allen of Sonora.

"We had some great times as a team, building our small group from one weekly newspaper to a total of nine in less than six years," Burnett adds, "and we are grateful to our West-Com associates for their guidance and help over the past six years."

"Pat and I are at a time in our lives when we feel the need to be on our own, and the purchase of the Dispatch is the culmination of 20 years of hard work and dreams.

"The sale of our investment in West-Com gives us the financial strength to serve the Post community and we are dedicated to continuing the tradition established by Eddie Warren and Jim Cornish."

Burnett is a 1969 graduate of the University of Nebraska at Omaha, attended Texas A & M University, graduated from Brownsville High School in 1959 and was born in Bonham, Tx. in 1941.

He is married to the former Patsie R. Voyles of Tahoka and Big Spring, the daughter of Mrs. Lorene Voyles of Silvertown and the late A. T. Voyles.

Pat was born in Lubbock and attended schools in Tahoka, Big Spring and graduated from Stephen F. Austin High School in Bryan, Tx. in 1961.

They have three children: Timothy W., a sophomore at East Texas State University; James W., a freshman at Tarleton State University and Kimberly Joy, entering the sixth grade.

They are members of the First Presbyterian Church in Ballinger and plan to move their membership to the Post Church.

About the publisher

Wesley W. Burnett, the new Dispatch publisher, comes to Post with his family from Ballinger, where he has served as publisher since July 1981, following the purchase of the Ballinger Ledger by West-Com Inc.

Burnett started his newspaper career while in high school in Brownsville, Tx., where he served as sports editor his senior year.

Following graduation in 1959 he attended Texas A & M, majoring in journalism and worked part-time at the Bryan Daily Eagle in the advertising department.

In September 1961, following a June 10 marriage to the former Patsie R. Voyles, Burnett enlisted in the U.S. Air Force and was assigned to Hamilton AFB, Calif. as an information specialist.

While there he was named editor of the base newspaper and was reassigned to McCord AFB, Wash. in 1963, also serving there as editor of the base newspaper.

In the summer of 1964 he (See Publisher, Page 12)

The Post Dispatch Legacy

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following article was written for The Dispatch by Chris Koerselman and Susan Shaffer, daughters of the late Jim Cornish as they announce the sale of The Post Dispatch.)

Jim and Helen Cornish believed in Post and The Post Dispatch. They invested a lot of time, energy, and love into both this newspaper and the Post and Garza County area that it serves. Growing up in this newspaper family was a unique experience.

Because of our parents' commitment to Post, we have always felt this was a special place. Although we have "been away from home" for 13 and 15 years, we still feel great affection for this town. The Dispatch was the focal point of our father's life and he worked hard to publish an outstanding product. Due to our deep respect for his dedication to the newspaper, and its public function, we have felt a strong responsibility to see that The Post Dispatch continues to be a vital part of the community. We feel that the new owner, Wesley Burnett, will be the kind of conscientious publisher that Jim Cornish would have appreciated.

Although words seem very inadequate, at times like these, a heartfelt thank you goes to both Norma Baumann and Beth Short. They carried a huge workload this last six months. Their loyalty to Jim Cornish was apparent through the years and this dedication to Jim and The Dispatch has been readily demonstrated as they have put the paper together, with pride, week after week. We know that like us, you have appreciated the continuity that they have worked long hard hours to maintain. Other people have played a part in getting The Dispatch to press and once printed, out on the street. Recognition and thanks go to Corky and Allane Ammons, Jerri Baumann, Zula Dildway and Dr. Tom Pass. That these people have given of their time and talents to make certain The Dispatch reached its readers is most gratifying. We also want to say how pleased we are that so many community members and merchants took the initiative in volunteering contributions toward each weekly publication and we (See Legacy, Page 12)

Sexton Huntley, who has been the Executive Director of the Post Housing Authority since 1971, has retired from his position this week, following his doctors advice to slow down a little.

Sexton has been in charge of the rental property, and also has taken care of all the paper work, and keeping the facilities kept up.

In talking to Sexton, he wished to thank the Mayor, Mike Sanchez, Wanda Wilkerson, and his board members for their help and support during his eleven years associated with the housing project.

He has been replaced by Mrs. Juanita Peel, who took over her duties Monday.

Benefit Dance is Sept. 3

A Benefit Dance is being planned by friends of Davis Heaton with proceeds going toward scholarship and trust funds for his family.

The dance will be Friday night, September 3, following the Post-Roosevelt football game, at the Post Community Center.

The cost for admission will be $5 per person and $10 per couple. Weldon Reed has been kind enough to agree to furnish the music for this dance. Please show your love and support of this family and attend this worthwhile cause.

BUILDS OWN AIRCRAFT — Joel Dennis, local resident and the owner of a sheep ranch near Gail, got busy and built his own aircraft to aid hunting predators who feed on his yearly lamb crop. Dennis spent several hours working on this gasoline propelled aircraft with the help of his young son Jeffrey, who gave his moral support.

'Young man in his flying machine'—

Coyote hunting goes airborne

The flying machine sputtered to the runway, sounding more like a mower. It paused only a moment, then lifted off the ground almost effortlessly. At first glance, it looks like it might fly by flapping its wings, but power comes from a 30-horsepower engine mounted above and behind the plane's single seat. A propeller faces the rear.

Joel Dennis of Post, the pilot, built the ultra-light plane in about 26 hours, but he hastens to give credit to 13-month-old son Jeffrey, who "helped" while mommy Betty was doing her own flying as a flight attendant for American Airlines.

Thursday morning Joel flew it from the local airport to the Dennis Ranch near Gail, where Joel plans to use it to hunt coyotes that prey on his sheep. Similar planes have been used above and behind the plane's single seat. A propeller faces the rear.

Joel expects that this plane will enable a single pilot to do the job that he and his dad have been doing together in a larger plane for years.

The plane comes equipped with a basic 3-gallon fuel capacity, which the pilot can monitor simply by glancing above his head at the translucent tanks. Joel has additional gravity-fed tanks on order to increase the plane's range. He is currently using a 40-1 mixture of gas and oil, and remarks that he has "never had the throttle over one-third open. It has plenty of lift even with limited power."

The craft, which has a maximum speed of 55 knots, features rainbow-colored Dacron fabric for the wings. The kit was manufactured by the Eipper-Formance Company in San Marcos, California.

Incidentally, Joel was forced to land on the Gail Highway, two miles short of his destination. Strong winds severely taxed the limited fuel supply, and Joel wisely decided against trying to fly over the last hill.

Enrollment up for 4th straight year

First day enrollment in the Post Schools was up this week for the fourth straight year.

For the 12 grades and kindergarten this year, 1,205 students reported to classrooms on opening day of the fall term that was 123 more students than in 1981.

Checking the Dispatch files, that was the largest

"first day enrollment" in the last 6 years.

The student gain was in the elementary school, with the largest class in the school system being the kindergarten class with 132 (See Enrollment, Page 12)

Eagles night is planned

The Southland Booster Club will host its "Meet the Eagles Night" Thursday, September 2, at 7 p.m.

Southland Eagles are expected to be one of the top teams in their district and are looking forward to a wide open and exciting six man football season.

Those attending will have the opportunity to meet the coaches and players.

Homemade ice cream and cake will be served, so go out and meet the Eagles and their coaches.

Foul play not involved—

Lubbock man found dead in rugged ranch country

Funeral services for I. D. Rodgers, 73, of Lubbock were held in Post, Saturday, at 2:30 p.m. in Hudman Funeral Home Chapel.

Rodgers was found dead in his car, Thursday morning by U Lazy S Ranch hands as they were gathering cattle, 3 miles east of the Gail Highway, on the U Lazy S Ranch land.

Sheriff Pippin was notified Monday by members of the Rodgers family, that Rodgers had disappeared from the hospital room he was sharing with his wife in Lubbock. She is seriously ill. Rodgers was a native of Kent County, and family members felt he might turn up in Post.

Driving a Lincoln Continental, Rodgers had driven over a cattleguard to get onto the ranch property, and had driven over some very rough cedar breaks and rough ground, finally unable to travel further due to his car being hung on high center. Evidence showed he had walked around his vehicle and the area, but all his personal effects were in tact, and no signs of foul play were evident. Justice of the Peace Pat Kitchens ruled death due to natural causes.

A wrecker had to winch the car off the rocks where it rested to move the vehicle.

It was estimated that he had been in his car for some two days when his body was discovered.

Rodgers was born May 1, 1909 in Kent County, and was a stock farmer. He married Mary Mae Carriker in 1935, was a member of the Baptist Church and a veteran of WWII.

He was buried in Clairemont under the direction of Hudman Funeral Home of Post.

He is survived by his wife, Mae Rodgers of Lubbock.

Pallbearers were Murry Rodgers, Bob Byrd, Robert (Soapy) Stewart, Zanny Chisum, Buster Chisum, Jimmy Byrd, Pee Wee Johnson, and Tommy Rodgers.

Library Corner

Labor Day is "just around the corner." And like many things that come from "around the corner," it seems to hit us when we aren't looking. The Post Public Library offers four new books for your holiday reading.

English children play a board game called Snakes and Ladders, with rapid winners — or losers. Scotland Yard named a clandestine operation "Snakes and Ladders," played with blackmail, fraud, murder, and big winners and bigger losers. The book is "End-Game," by Michael Gilbert, and it has a chilling conclusion.

Frank Yerby has written twenty-nine novels, and sold over fifty million copies. Those facts alone should be incentive enough to check out his latest novel, "Western." The Old West lives again in this passionate saga of Ethan Lovejoy, the Massachusetts Yankee who settles in Kansas in 1866 with his new bride, Anne Jeffreys. Life is hard: Anne struggles against prairie madness, and Ethan is haunted both by the brother he was forced to kill during the Civil War, and by his love for Nora, a young Kansas schoolgirl.

In "The Skull Beneath the Skin," Cordelia goes on a dangerous mission to an island castle off the coast of Dorset. The eccentric owner of the castle collects artifacts related to death, like skulls, funeral announcements, mourning regalia, death notes, and the like. When a guest at the castle is murdered, Cordelia begins to rely on her wits to unmask the murderer.

For a change of pace, prolific Jewish author Leo Rosten offers a sequel to his "Joys of Yiddish." "Hooray for Yiddish" is a dictionary of Yiddish slang Jewish words that Americans of all theological persuasions use. To illustrate the words, he tells stories, jokes, and parables.

A Texas oil magnate was touring Israel. Driving across a long stretch of desert, he beheld an old Jew leaning on a fence in front of a bungalow. The Texas pulled to a stop. "Hiya, neighbor."

"Shalom."

"What in the world do you do, way out here in the middle of howhere?"

"I raise chickens."

The Texas surveyed the barren environs. "How much land do you own?"

"My lot is sixty by a hundred."

"Miles?"

"Oh, no. Feet."

"Well, well." The Texan grinned. "You know what, mister? Back home, I've got me a spread where I get

FmHA to reorganize county offices

The Farmers Home Administration in Texas has announced a reorganization of its District and County offices. In the reorganization there will be a realignment of the counties served by the District Office in Lubbock. Donald R. Perry, District Director, in Lubbock, said that the following FmHA County Offices will now be under his administration: Plains, Brownfield, Tahoka, Crosbyton, Lubbock, Levelland, and Morton. Spur will be served out of the Vernon District Office, and Muleshoe, Littlefield, Plainview, Floydada, Dimmitt, Farwell, and Tulia, will be served by the new District Office scheduled to open in Plainview. Perry said that the realignment of District lines will more equally distribute the workload of the employees in the State.

In announcing the reorganization, Mr. J. Lynn Futch, State Director, said that the aim of FmHA is to provide a sound credit program to rural people who are unable to obtain credit elsewhere, and to provide the servicing activities needed to insure that the loans are repaid. Mr. Futch also said that because of recent budget reductions and lower staff ceilings, the reorganization is necessary to reduce the number of FmHA offices in the State.

The reorganization will be effective September 5, 1982.

TWO TERMS IS ENOUGH

Texans have a healthy skepticism of their elected officials, a wariness of entrenched power that they have embodied in the state constitution. They have historically refused to keep top state officeholders more than a few terms.

Now my opponent comes along, having spent nearly ten years in the Lt. Governor's office, one of the top state policy-making offices. Mr. Hobby wants yet another term to make it 14 years in that crucial job. That is unprecedented. Never in Texas' history has any Lt. Governor served that long—or wanted to.

His desire, frankly, puzzles me. You would think he would have other goals, other challenges he might want to tackle. As his primary opponent this year said, "If he had anything to get done, you'd think he would have done it by now."

My opponent will tell you that experience is what counts. I think voters need to look at the experience they have had with him. After ten years, our highways are in bad shape, the quality of education has declined, we still do not have a new, statewide water plan and he has refused to tackle the growing crime problem. We can't afford more of that kind of experience.

I have a long-held belief in what I call the citizen-politician: someone who holds a job, serves his country or state for a reasonable time, then returns to that job and private life. For that reason, the first order of business after I am elected will be to have a constitutional amendment introduced in the legislature limiting the Lt. Governor to two terms—eight years. That is enough time for anyone. Too great a concentration of power for too long is bad. That is a principle of democracy.

If you have any thoughts on this subject, please write me at 1213 W. 34th, Austin, 78705.

Each year, beginning in September, more than 100,000 Texas boys and girls aged 9 to 19 join million of others throughout the country in the world's largest youth organization — 4-H. What is it and why do they do it?

A brief look into the nature of the 4-H Program

Xi Delta Rho holds meeting

Monday, August 30, members of Xi Delta Rho held their first meeting of the new year, in the home of Susan Cardinal.

Plans for all family picnic on Labor Day, were discussed, with a time of 5 p.m. being set for the festivities.

Members present for the meeting included Jenny Francis, Johnnie Francis, Susan Cardinal, LaGayluah Feagin, Betty Dennis, Peggy Ashley, Margaret Price, Martha Hart, Bernice Eubank, Voda Gradine, Lois Kennedy, Joyce Teaff, Nancy Shaw, Vicky Howell, Cheryl Walker, Karen Pennell, Denece Higgins, Kay Hays, and Cheryl Blair.

and what it has to offer youth and their families can provide the answers to these questions.

First of all, 4-H is fun. 4-H'ers take part in a wide variety of enjoyable activities — club meetings, recreation, camps, learning laboratories and project work. Meanwhile, their families have the joy of working together on projects, participating in fun days, and enjoying a host of other opportunities.

Secondly, 4-H offers educational experiences. Youngsters learn that learning can be fun. 4-H learning takes place in small group work, in individual work on projects, and in conjunction with adult volunteers and family members. They learn at fairs and project shows of various sorts and in a variety of other "non-classroom" environments. In a sense, 4-H education involves youngsters in a "learn to do by doing" atmosphere where useful and practical skills and facts are learned.

Finally, 4-H is for everyone — young or old, rural or city, male or female, regardless of race or ethnic group.

The popularity of the all-season radial tires is steadily increasing, but can they be mounted on the same car with regular "highway-rub" tires?

1. Radial and bias ply tires should never be mounted on the same axle.
2. If they have to be mixed on the same vehicle, the radials are always mounted in the rear and the bias plys on the front axle.
3. This arrangement should never be rotated front to back.
4. These same rules apply to front-wheel drive vehicles.

Larry Mahan to head Mason county benefit

Larry Mahan, 6 time all-around world champion cowboy and two time world champion bull rider will be the featured attraction at the Third Annual Mason County Roping and Barrel Race to benefit West Texas Boys Ranch.

Mahan, who travels extensively, still keeps his hand in rodeo through his TV contracts for commentary on various rodeo events such as the PRCA Finals and the Clagary Stampede. He also spends a lot of time roping in team roping around the country and will participate in the roping events at the Mason Benefit for Boys Ranch. Besides team roping, there will be calf roping, barrel racing, an Old Timers Team roping and a match calf roping between Jim Fuller and Todd Whitewood at the Mason County Fairgrounds.

At the Saturday night dance, Mahan will make a special appearance with the Last Road to Texas band and sing a few songs. Up until a couple of years ago Mahan had a regular band that toured with as the lead singer, but that became too hectic and he had to give it up. Although he is probably better known for his Larry Mahan cowboy collection of western clothing, Mahan can still sing when the notion strikes him.

Other events at the West Texas Boys Ranch Benefit weekend, include a Friday night dance, a Saturday evening barbeque with live music all afternoon, an Old Fiddlers contest and a world championship washer pitch on Sunday. For more information contact Tim Chandler at West Texas Boys Ranch.

Since 1947, West Texas Boys Ranch has been the home for more than 1,000 homeless, dependent and neglected boys. Built on the belief that it is better to build a man than brand a boy, West Texas Boys Ranch works to instill respect in the boys entrusted to their care. Located on 963 acres, 15 miles west of San Angelo, Boys Ranch provides a unique environment where young men can develop into useful, productive citizens. To learn respect for God, respect for others and respect for work are basic principles taught at the Ranch which lead to self respect and a sense of responsibility. Boys Ranch is supported entirely by the tax deductible contributions and free-will donations of a concerned public.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

What is it that motivates you in your daily living? For some it is the effort to be the best at what we do, like maintaining a number one ranking. For others it is the effort to advance or make gains in the busy world about us. These can be commendable motivations as we strive to excel. In our Christian life the Apostle Paul speaks of motives that ought to shape our conduct. These show that the old way in which we once lived is now to be replaced by qualities of a new life. And our catalyst for this transfer is fourfold in Colossians chapter 3. The before and after is as different as comparing grave clothes to those which are white and pure. The four components that bring about this God-designed change will be the topic of our Sunday morning message as the study in Colossians continues.

Assembly Lines

We are glad to have the Pastor and family back from their vacation in Fort Worth. Summers over and the kids are back in school and their parents are probably rejoicing over that.

Thanks to Ronnie Ammons for driving our bus Sunday morning. Billy Warren is up and about and his knee is doing good. Velmer Warren has been sick at home.

Happy birthday to Russell and Robert Baldrée.

Kids, don't forget our trip to Family Fun Park Sept 24. This is the place with the Giant Water Slide. You must attend all three Sundays in September to be able to go.

Antelopes ready to open season

By WES BURNETT
The Post Antelopes are ready to open the 1982 football season, and following two excellent scrimmages the team faces always tough Roosevelt tomorrow at 8 p.m., here.

Coach David Thompson says he thinks the 'Lopes looked good in the scrimmages and they are looking forward to getting into the season.

In last week's scrimmage with Lubbock Cooper, the Antelopes ground out 481 yards on 52 plays and held their opponents to a meager 163 total yards.

Leading the ground game was Milton Williams with 106 yards on 11 carries, followed by Will Kirkpatrick with 48 yards on three carries and four touchdowns.

Quarterback Tim Tannehill hit seven out of 10 passes for 167 yards and found Kirkpatrick three times for 99 yards and Irvin Price once for a 44 yard touchdown.

Against Roosevelt, the 'Lope defense will see a wishbone offense, spearheaded by junior returning starter Ira Johnson at 145 pounds and 175 pound junior fullback Daral Mann.

Roosevelt has tied in both their scrimmages with Springlake-Earth and Monterey J.V.

The Antelopes won last year's contest 13-9.

Leading the 'Lopes on offense this year will be returning starters quick end

James Lee, quick guard Derek Walls, center Wade Giddens, strong guard Toby Craft, strong tackle Curtis Clinesmith, strong end Bill Black, quarterback Tannehill, fullback Richard Cisneros, defensive end Black, defensive tackle Price, linebacker Craft, corner Melvin Wynne and safeties Kirkpatrick and Lee.

"We have the potential of being really good this year," coach Thompson comments, "and we are really excited about our players."

See you at the stadium...I'll be the fellow walking up and down the sideline trying to stay out of the way.

INSIGHT INTO EYESIGHT

DAVID R. GIBSON, O. D.

DOCTOR OF OPTOMETRY

MYOPIA: SEEING THINGS CLOSE UP

Myopia is what your eye specialist calls it when an examination shows you can see things better close up than far away. But myopia is not an advantage. It's a vision problem. Your eyes focus on an object too soon.

If you're very nearsighted, you can't even hold a book at the normal distance for reading. You have to bring it closer to your eyes. And any distant object will be seen only as a blur.

If a child is nearsighted, the condition will probably get worse before he becomes an adult. Then it will probably stay the same for awhile. There's no guarantee that it won't need further correction. That's why regular eye checkups are important.

Our eyes change as we grow older. A condition like nearsightedness may improve; or it may get worse. If your glasses or contact lenses are not giving you clear vision, you can probably benefit from a change in prescription. If you haven't had your eyes checked lately, now is a good time to make an appointment.

Although Marconi is credited with inventing radio, British inventor David Edward Hughes demonstrated in 1879 that radio signals could be received from a spark transmitter located several hundred yards away.

parked at Allsup's. A burglary of the Red Barn restaurant near the grade school, was cleared by arrests made by officers.

A burglary was reported at 312 West 11, with $20 in cash, a pair of glasses and a flashlight were taken.

About the publisher—

Following his separation from the Air Force in 1965, Burnett worked in San Antonio and Harlingen as a newspaper advertising salesman.

He reenlisted in the Air Force in the spring of 1966 and was assigned to Reese AFB, Tx., where he was a public information specialist.

In September of 1966 Burnett was transferred to Mactan AB, Republic of the Philippines, where he was editor of an award-winning semi-monthly Air Force magazine, the "Yankee Doodle."

After returning to the United States, Burnett was editor of the Civil Air Patrol Times at Maxwell AFB, Ala. and in 1968 entered the Air Force Bootstrap Program, attending the University of Nebraska at Omaha.

After graduation from the university in the spring of 1969, Burnett entered Officer Training School at Lackland AFB, Tx., as a staff sergeant.

He was commissioned in September 1969 and served as information officer at Oxnard AFB, Calif., where he assisted in the closure of that base in December 1969 and the transfer of the F-106 fighter squadron to Kingsley Field, Ore.

At Kingsley Field, Burnett was base and wing information officer until his assignment to Air Force Recruiting Service in Omaha, Neb. in 1971, and later served as assistant base information officer at Offutt AFB, Neb.

He resigned his commission as a captain in June 1973, returning to a civilian career, joining the advertising sales staff at the Bryan Eagle in Bryan, Tex.

In 1974 he was promoted to retail advertising manager at the Harte-Hanks owned Journal in Hamilton, Ohio and served there until 1975 when he moved to the retail manager's position at New Iberia, La.

In the fall of 1976 Burnett joined with Gus Allen and Ron Willyard of San Angelo, forming a newspaper corporation, West-Con Inc., with the Devil's River News as the corporation's first newspaper.

Later he served as publisher of West-Con's newly acquired weekly newspapers in Dublin and Stephenville and moved to Ballinger as publisher upon its purchase by the corporation last summer.

Legacy—

A newspaper is a reflection of its community and we feel that the strength of The Dispatch has been not only its objective reporting, but its support of advantageous community projects and the hard working people who get those jobs done. We sincerely hope that you will give the new publisher, Wesley Burnett, your cooperation and moral support. Your backing will enable him and his staff to continue offering you the type of quality newspaper in which both Eddie Warren and Jim Cornish believed, and dedicated their lives to providing.

Chris Koerselman and Susan Shaffer

HEALTH FACTS

Nearly five million Americans have an incurable disease—and don't even know it. The disease is diabetes, which affects nearly 12 million people in all in this country, and while it can't be cured, it can, in many cases, be controlled.

Some two million people are controlling it with insulin injections. This takes a lot of dedication, time and money. Diabetics dependent on insulin injections must keep a close watch on the level of sugar in their bloodstream in order to control their disease. When sugar level goes up or down the prescribed regimens of diet, exercise and insulin must be adjusted depending on the type and severity of each case.

Now, many doctors have a way to help some of their patients test their own blood for sugar. The test is highly accurate and can be done anywhere—at home, on vacation, in an emergency or operating room. Even youngsters can do the test. It is made simple by the Chemstrip bG test strips, developed and produced by Bio-Dynamics, a Boehringer Mannheim company. Many diabetics are consulting their doctors about the test.

Doctors say it may cut down on some of the complications which may develop as a result of diabetes.

For 20 years, Southwestern Public Service Company has sponsored Future Farmers of America (FFA) electricity workshops. This year, 82 FFA boys and one FFA girl participated (She was Kathy Karber of Booker, Texas, the first girl ever to attend the workshop). The students learned how to wire buildings, how to install and use electric controls, or how to build electric motors. The five top students won SPS-sponsored trips to the National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Mo., in November.

Glenn Bickel, Agricultural Engineer, Plainview.

Anytime you see a downed electric power line, report it to SPS. Don't touch it. Let professional linemen — SPS employees — handle the problem. Sometimes a downed line will appear to be safe. Someone who doesn't know what he's doing may touch it or pick it up.

Ray Juarez, Lineman Journeyman, Artesia.

There is no guaranteed profit for regulated electric utilities. Investor-owned companies like Southwestern Public Service Company are allowed to seek a fair and reasonable profit, but there are no guarantees. Last year, for instance, SPS was authorized by the Public Utility Commission of Texas to earn an average 10.76% return on equity. The actual return was 8.35%. What we were able to earn for our shareholders was retained because we work hard to keep all our expenses down.
