Advertisers Plan for Farm & Ranch Journal

Garza County ranchers and farmers are busy this time of year...whether branding or plowing...their livelihood is one of the mainstays of our economy.

The Post Dispatch is preparing a special salute to our ranchers and farmers with the Garza County Farm and Ranch Journal, which will be published as a supplement to the Wednesday, March 30 issue.

Designed in a tabloid format, the special edition will feature important information for our area agricultural folks as well as messages from state and national political leaders.

Advertisers who want to reach their agricultural customers will find the 1983 Garza County Farm and Ranch Journal a wise investment.

The tabloid will give advertisers a strong measure of readership directly to people working in agriculturally related fields.

The Post Dispatch staff is available to help advertisers prepare messages for the Farm and Ranch Journal. The deadline for advertising is Wednesday, March 23.

Post Independent School District Trustees Accept Coach's Resignation

By WES BURNETT

Post girls' basketball coach Sonja Curry's resignation was accepted by the Post Independent School District board of trustees during Thursday night's regular meeting.

Superintendent Bill Shiver told the board members that he and athletic director David Thompson are interviewing a prospective teacher-coach to fill the vacancy for next school year.

Curry's letter was presented to trustee president Jack Lott by Shiver.

Before accepting Curry's resignation, board members approved the reassignment of middle school teacher-coach David Asbill, who had requested to be extended a full-time teacher contract, with middle school principal Bud Davis' strong recommendation.

Lott took the opportunity to repeat his previous position concerning the priorities of hiring... "The first thing we have to do is hire a teacher...and we mustn't lose sight of that."

Last August Asbill was hired on an emergency certificate to fill the middle school teacher-coach position, which calls for the person to teach science.

"Science teachers are difficult to come by," Shiver reminded the board members.

Asbill, who has two years to complete his teacher certification education, requested to be relieved of coaching duties and to take on a full load as a teacher.

Board members Don Payne and Dr. Charles McCook emphasized that with such a large number of students participating in sports in the middle school, that to lose a coach would seriously jeopardize the athletic program.

Lott emphasized that granting Asbill's request did not mean that a coaching position would be lost and that if a vacancy developed in the system, the athletic director could hire another coach, thereby keeping the same number on the staff.

Lott reminded board members of the problems the administration faced last summer trying to fill the science teacher position, "We fiddled around last summer until almost time for school to start...because we were looking for a coach first and hoped that he could fit in as a teacher."

McCook shot back that board members needed to be reminded that the coaching staff here are also excellent teachers.

Agreeing with McCook, Lott repeated his philosophy that educating should be the first priority for hiring.

Both viewpoints having been presented, Lott turned to Shiver and asked his recommendation.

"From an administrative position, I have to support Bud Davis' recommendation," Shiver responded in reference to the middle school principal's request to accept Asbill's reassignment.

He told board members that a middle school coach could have teaching duties in the high school, so a replacement coach could fill a vacancy in either school.

The vote to accept Davis' recommendation split four to two, with Royce Hart, Pru Basquez, and Edwin Lewis joining Lott in approval and Payne and McCook opposing.

In other action, board members voted to extend a proposed contract to the Central Appraisal District for collection of taxes, which Shiver said could save the school district $2,000 per year.

Trustees also accepted the textbook committee report, approved payment of $132,977.94 in bills and renewed the $1,600,000 certificate of deposit.

Shiver was also authorized to take action on providing a storage building for track equipment.

Will Last Year's Wind Prediction be Repeated?

Last year at sunrise on March 22...the wind told the story of a "very good year" as "Chief" Frank Runkles repeated the age-old Indian tradition Taban'a Yuan'e.

With all the uncertainty about this year, there'll be a lot of folks watching the wind and smoke Tuesday, March 22 at the Post City-County Park as "Chief" Runkles waves the peace pipe into the wind.

The event is sponsored by the Post Chamber of Commerce and will be followed by serving of coffee and donuts at the Texas Department of Human Resources Building (formerly the 4-H barn) just off the Snyder Highway.

The authentic Plains Indian ceremony is open to the public at no charge.

"Chief" Runkles will be joined this year by a group of "Indian" dancers, complete with detailed authentic Indian dress, to assist in the fascinating Indian traditional dance.

The tradition, which dates to the earliest memories of the Plains Indians, began here in 1906 when J. A. Wilborn joined some friends in repeating the ceremony as he had been told by an Indian.

Runkles is using the Comanche version of the ceremony, which fits closely to the kind of people who roamed this country before settlement began after the civil war.

W. O. Stevens picked up the traditional ceremony following Wilborn and he continued it until he moved, when Noah Stone took on the task of preserving the ceremony.

Over the years, careful watchers have kept track of the predictions on crops and have found the wind test to be 94 percent accurate.

According to the legend, the wind must be checked at sunrise on the day after the sun reaches the halfway point in its journey from south to north, which is the day after spring begins.

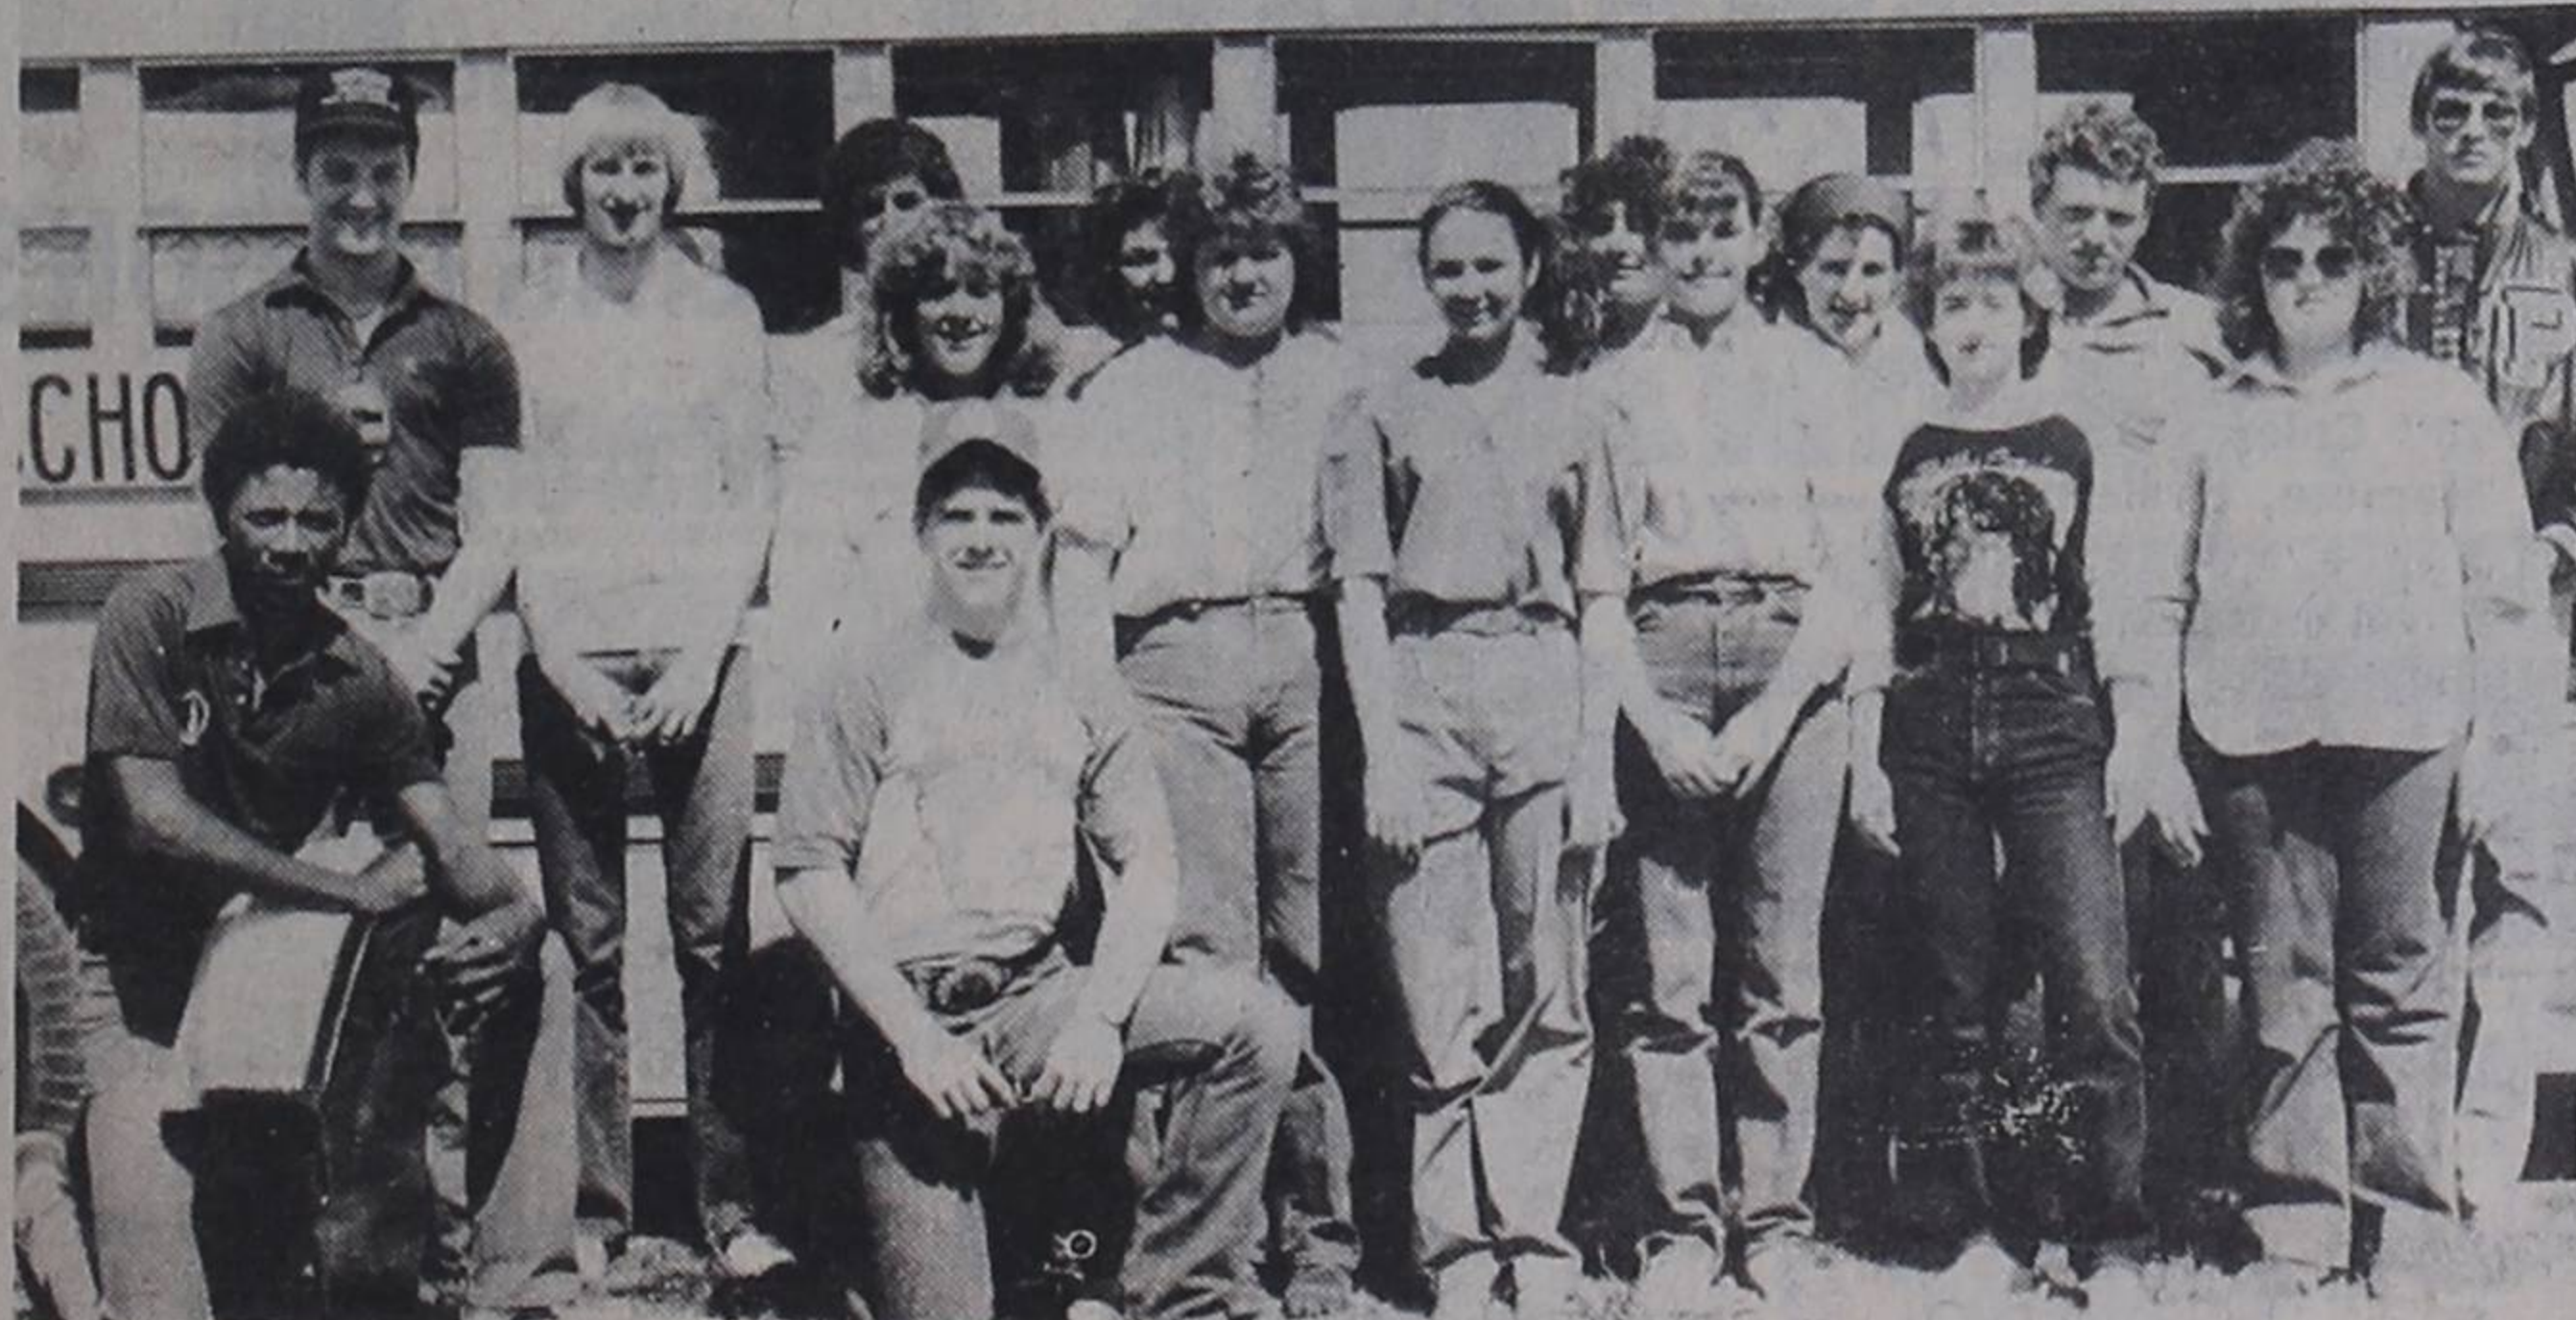

The Indians used this dance to check the wind direction to determine the crop success in the coming year.

If the wind is out of the east or northeast, a very good year is to follow.

If the wind is from the north or northwest...an average year.

A west or southwest wind means a poor year and a south or southeast wind predicts a very bad year.

"Chief" Runkles has performed the ceremony since 1973.

Pioneer Woman Dies Here Thursday

Funeral services for longtime Garza resident, Beulah K. Bird, were held Saturday, at 2 p.m. in the Justice-Mason Funeral Home Chapel, with Steve Traw, pastor of the First Christian Church of Post officiating.

Burial was in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Justice-Mason Funeral Home.

Mrs. Bird, who was 98 years old, died in United Convalescent Home, Thursday morning following a lengthy illness.

Born in Ellis County, Texas, she married James Allen Bird, Sr. May 8, 1901 in Dickens, Texas and moved to Garza County to ranch.

The couple came to Garza County in a mule drawn wagon, which contained all their belongings, and came here when the county was virtually nothing but ranch land that spread for miles and miles.

They began their married life in a half dugout, with three sections of land, but later acquired nine more sections, and leased four more, making their ranch 16 sections.

Mr. Bird died in September of 1940, and Mrs. Bird carried on the ranching duties with the help of hired hands, until she was forced

Carriker Reports on State Action

In an effort to lower taxes for low and middle-income families and to help solve school finance problems, State Representative Steve Carriker, along with 20 other representatives, unveiled what has been called "the best idea heard about in Austin"; the Residential Tax Relief Package also known as "Proposition Zero."

"Proposition Zero" is a major tax-reform proposal calling for the replacement of school taxes on homes and personal cars and pickups with a state-wide one-cent increase in the sales tax.

Taxes levied by counties and cities would not be affected.

School districts across the state are being forced to raise taxes to meet growing costs while facing roll-back elections which could devastate the school systems.

Under the present plan school districts receive about 930,000,000 from residential and auto taxes.

If the voters approve "Proposition Zero" by constitutional amendment, then school districts would have much to gain.

Preliminary estimates indicate that the sales tax would generate over 200 million dollars more than the residential and auto tax currently brings in.

This would allow local school districts the opportunity to reduce taxes on other property.

The revenue from the one-cent sales tax would be distributed to school districts in an equal amount per student based on Average Daily Attendance.

Commenting on the proposal Carriker said "landowners are suffering an unfair burden in school taxes while school districts are facing roll-back elections and it is time for us to give average taxpayers a break."

When asked if the change would hurt low and middle income families, Carriker said, "school property taxes are more costly to poor folks and middle class families than a one-cent sales tax.

In reality low and middle income families will pay hundreds of dollars less per year under this system because of sales tax exemptions for food, rent, house payments and medicine.

When asked about chances of passing the "Proposition Zero" package, Carriker said that such a major change of policy will only be adopted if the people are behind it.

"We have been getting a very positive response from all around the state and I'm very encouraged" he concluded.

Texas Ag Week Declared by Gov.

Zeroing in on the economic difficulties of Texas family farmers and ranchers, Governor Mark White and Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower have issued a joint proclamation declaring March 18-24, "Texas Agriculture Week."

The observance will coincide with National Agriculture Week and with National Agriculture Day, March 21.

Hightower said the Agriculture Department will be sponsoring a series of activities during the week.

Plans include agricultural exhibits in the State Capitol rotunda, a March 19 Agriculture Fair in conjunction with the Austin-Travis County Livestock Show and Rodeo, a House-Senate cow-milking contest and a major farm policy statement by White and Hightower.

"This is not a celebration," White cautioned.

"You don't celebrate when people are in trouble, and our farmers and ranchers are in serious trouble. This observance is to call to the public's attention the plight of our family farmers and ranchers and, hopefully, to rally public support for steps we can take to turn things around for them, whether it's here or in Washington."

"This observance is not just for rural folks," Hightower explained.

"It's for all of us. The food and fiber industry accounts for one out of every five jobs in Texas, in both urban and rural areas and our farmers and ranchers are the biggest consumers in the state.

"When the farm economy is depressed — and it's certainly depressed now — it directly affects the economy of the entire state. We've all got a stake in reviving our farm and ranch economy, and it's not enough to sit around and wring our hands.

"There's a job to be done, and I'm especially pleased that the Governor is eager to work closely with us on turning things around for our family farmers and ranchers.

"And this proclamation is our invitation to all Texans to join with us in the effort, White concluded.

RRC Approves Gas Contracts

The Railroad Commission has approved new contracts sought by three natural gas companies in the state which will lower gas costs to several electric generating plants and two other commercial customers.

Commission approval of contracts offered by Lone Star Gas Company, Adobe Gas Company, and South Cen-Tex Gas Company will mean lower costs for electric generating facilities in Dallas, Tarrant, and Mitchell Counties; a gas pipeline; and a gas processing plant.

Citing market competition and a potential loss of gas sales, Lone Star asked the Commission to approve a reduction in the service rate it charges for providing gas to four plants affiliated with Texas Utilities Fuel Co. The service rate reduction, from 58 cents per MCF (thousand cubic feet) to 39 cents per Mcf benefits Dallas Power and Light's $248,000.

Dallas Plants in Dallas County, Texas Electric Service Company's Handley and Eagle Mountain Plants in Tarrant County, and TESCO's Morgan Creek Plant in Mitchell County.

Adobe sought Commission approval of a contract reducing charges to Patoil Corporation for transporting gas for resale to Intratex Gas Company. The transportation rate will decrease from 47 cents per million Btu to 36 cents per million Btu for gas transported after February 17.

The Commission also approved a contract between South Cen-Tex and Liquid Energy Corporation decreasing rates from $4.15 per MMBtu to $3.66 per MMBtu for gas sold after January 24. Liquid Energy uses the gas in its processing plant in Fayette County. South Cen-Tex told the Commission the new contract would decrease its annual revenues by some $248,000.

Recipes mother used to make

By TONI GRIFFIN
Copley News Service

Wondering what to make for dinner? Chances are you could create a meal based on recipes printed on the backs of boxes and bags on your pantry shelves or in your refrigerator. Many of the ideas are budget-stretching as well as innovative.

"In kitchens all over the United States, leading cooks and nutritionists are working constantly to create and test new dishes and modern versions of old ones. Thousands of their recipes are perfected every year, sponsored by the nation's food packers and processors for the benefit of America's cooks," says Ruth Cavin, editor of "Famous Brands Cookbook" (Hammond Inc., New Jersey). Most recipes are written for basic cooks, thus yielding foods which are easy to prepare no matter what the cook's age or kitchen abilities.

For those seeking some old — and new — ways to prepare favorite off-the-box recipes, here is a collection, just in case you tossed the box away.

small bowl, combine flour, soda and salt; mix well. In large bowl, beat together sugar and shortening until light and fluffy; blend in egg, milk and vanilla. Add flour mixture; mix well. Stir in cereal. Drop by rounded teaspoonfuls onto prepared teaspoon sheet. Bakes for 10 to 12 minutes. Makes about 3 dozen cookies.

COCKTAIL MEATBALLS

1 pound ground beef
½ pound pork sausage
½ cup fine dry bread crumbs
1 egg, slightly beaten
½ cup chopped onion
½ cup chopped green pepper
1 medium clove garlic, minced
¼ tsp. crushed red pepper
2 tbsps. butter or margarine
1 can (10½ oz.) Campbell's condensed golden mushroom soup
¼ cup water
1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce

In bowl, combine beef, sausage, bread crumbs and egg. Shape into 50 small meatballs (½ inch). Broil about 4 inches from heat 3 minutes; turn. Broil 3 minutes more or until done. # Reagan Not Consistent on Issues

by Wes Burnett

You'll excuse me for harping on a familiar subject, but I just heard and read about President Reagan's threat to veto any congressional measure which contains a repeal of the automatic 10 percent withholding of savings.

Now...Mr President...if what I read and what I heard are correct...surely you don't really mean to put the blame on those "mean ole banks" for stirring up such a fuss over this withholding plan?

Shame on you, Mr President, for trying to shift the criticism of this misguided legislation onto "those greedy banks."

Next thing you know, we'll be hearing that you support Senator Dole in his un-American threats of increased taxes to people who dare to speak out against the government.

Someone needs to tell you, Mr President, that it's not the banking institutions who are going to lose money on this deal...it's us working stiffs who don't get a whole lot out of our savings in the first place...that is, if we have any at all.

And another thing, Mr President, isn't this whole withholding tax contrary to your often stated philosophy of less government and more free enterprise?

It falls my feeble mind to see how this automatic withholding is an example of free enterprise at work.

Seems to me, Mr President, you'd be really pleased with Wisconsin Sen. Bob Kasten for tacking on the repeal amendment to the poorly thought-out multi-billion "jobs program."

Actually, we need neither program...for one thing, Texas isn't even included in one of the states to get the extra funds.

I guess they haven't found out in Washington that there are Texans out of work too.

My hope is, that by the time you read this Sunday, the Senate will have passed the repeal that millions of Americans have demanded.

Then we can all figure out a way to get President Reagan's attention that it's not the banking institutions he should be upset with...it's us common folk.

Texans' Trash Cost $$

Texans littered their roadsides more than ever in 1981-82 and it cost more than $17 million of their tax dollars to pick the trash up, according to the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation (DHT).
DHT Engineer-Director Mark Goode said, "The dollars spent to pick up litter, 35 percent more than a year earlier, come from the same budget that must also be used to repair potholes, men guard rails and other necessary maintenance activities."
Statistics compiled by DHT's Safety and Maintenance Operations Division show that Houston far outpaced other metropolitan areas in trash pickup costs.
Compared to the $6.9 million spent by the department's Houston district, $1.9 million was spent in the Dallas district while San Antonio and Fort Worth districts used $1.2 and $1.1 millions respectively.
The 1981-82 trash pickup total is two-thirds more than was spent in 1979-80 when the statewide cost reached $10 million for the first time.
During 1980-81, DHT spent $12.2 million.
The department's entire maintenance budget for 1981-82 was $308,098,210.

Discoveries are filed

One year ago, 107 gas and 44 oil discoveries were filed with the state's energy regulatory agency. Gas discoveries in February included 48 in deep South Texas, 18 each in Southeast Texas and the Refugio area, three each in Midland Texas and the San Angelo areas. Oil discoveries included 12 in West Central Texas, nine in deep South Texas, eight each in North Texas and the Refugio area, five each in Southeast Texas and the San Angelo area, three in the Midland area, and two each in East Texas and East central Texas and the Lubbock and San Antonio areas.

In February, operators reported 577 exploratory and field tests wound up as dry holes. New applications for permits to drill oil and gas tests totaled 2,156 in February compared with 2,279 in February of 1982.

Applications to drill, deepen, plug back and for service wells in February amounted to 2,453 against 2,571 a year earlier.

Operators filed 723 amended applications to drill. A year earlier they submitted 770 amended requests.

The Railroad Commission's annual "state of the industry" oil and gas hearing will be held at the Hilton Inn, Midland, on Thursday, March 17, beginning at 9 a.m.

Texas' oil production for the month of April will also be determined at the hearing.

The "state of the industry" session will be marked by review and forecast comments of some two dozen key executives of the petroleum industry.

It should provide an excellent update on domestic petroleum operations including exploration, production, refining, and marketing.

There was a man who lived in a town and sold hot dogs.
He was hard of hearing, so he couldn't listen to the radio.
He lived out of the coverage of cable t.v., so he didn't watch television.
But he did sell good hot dogs.
And he consistently ran an ad in his town newspaper, telling people about his hot dogs.
People bought his hot dogs.
He increased his meat and roll orders. He bought a bigger stove to take care of his increased business.
He finally got his son home from the big city to help him out.
Then something happened.
Son said to father, "Dad, haven't you been hearing all the news on t.v.? There's a big depression coming on...times are really tough and getting worse...we've got to cut our expenses if we're going to make it."
Dad listened to his son's advice.
"Well, he has been to college, and he has been to the big city, maybe he knows more than me."
So, the father cancelled his newspaper advertising.
He cut down on his meat and roll orders.
He closed earlier.
People stopped coming to buy his delicious hot dogs.
Times got really tough.
"You must be right, son. We certainly are in the middle of a great depression. There just isn't any business anymore."
Need we point out the moral of this story?
We make good things happen for our Advertisers.....
