Reading Rodeo

The Post Public Library is having a reading rodeo beginning Monday June 6.

This is for those reading books, and for mothers who read to the babies and pre-schoolers. Movies will be shown each Friday, beginning June 10.

Certificates will be awarded on Friday July 29. We invite and encourage all youngsters to join us for Summer Reading Rodeo.

Food Commodities

Friday June 3rd from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. the First Assembly of God will be distributing food commodities. We will distribute 10 lbs. cornmeal to the first 200 families plus 4 pounds of rice per family. We will be receiving donations to pay the expenses for shipping and handling and storage to Floydada and for transportation from there to Post. If the Agricultural Movement doesn't receive enough contributions to meet their expenses this program will be stopped.

Summer Recreation

Summer recreation began Monday morning and is scheduled to be held until June 23.

If a child did not register last Saturday, that does not mean that they cannot attend the summer program.

A participant may still register any morning at the field house with Coach Dewayne Osborn.

Children eligible for the summer program must be going into the second grade through children going to be in the eighth grade next school year.

The program begins at 9 a. m. each day and continues til noon.

Recreations offered are tumbling, tennis, weights, track, swimming, games, softball for girls, aerobics, gymnastics, football and archery.

Memorial Day Weekend

DWIs, Speeding Top Arrests Here

By Wes Burnett

Garza County law enforcement officers and Texas Department of Public Safety patrolmen put in a lot of extra effort over the Memorial Day weekend, filing four driving while intoxicated charges and 11 public intoxication cases.

More than 200 various other complaints were filed with Justice of the Peace Precinct 4 Dee Justice, which included speeding and other highway related violations.

Only one vehicle accident was reported, that one Friday evening on the Gail highway, with no serious injuries.

There was one case of driving while license suspended and one juvenile DWI.

SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT REPORT

Criminal mischief headed the list of the sheriff's report with most damages reported when person or persons unknown opened a valve on a tank battery on a Pat Walker lease and drained 100 barrels of oil with the loss set at $2,990.

Southland School officials also reported that windows had been broken out of the science room and three fire extinguishers were sprayed all over the room.

The local Junior High school gym was also reported to have been broken into and the theft of six T shirts was taken.

Over $200 worth of tapes and a case were taken from a vehicle on West 11th on May 20th with all incidents still under investigation.

In other activity, Oliver A. McDougale was arrested for DWI on May 20 and was released on a $750 surety bond.

James Gail Boles was arrested May 23 for aggravated assault on a police officer, which is a third degree felony and was released on a $7,500 surety bond.

City Offices to Move Temporarily

City offices, City Judge and Post Chamber of Commerce offices will be moved Thursday and Friday of this week to a new location, the former Dunlap building on the corner of Main Street and Ave. I.

All offices will be closed on these two days as well as the weekend in order to move all records, vault, telephones and radios.

The City will not accept any payments on these two days and will be open for business as usual in their new location Monday morning.

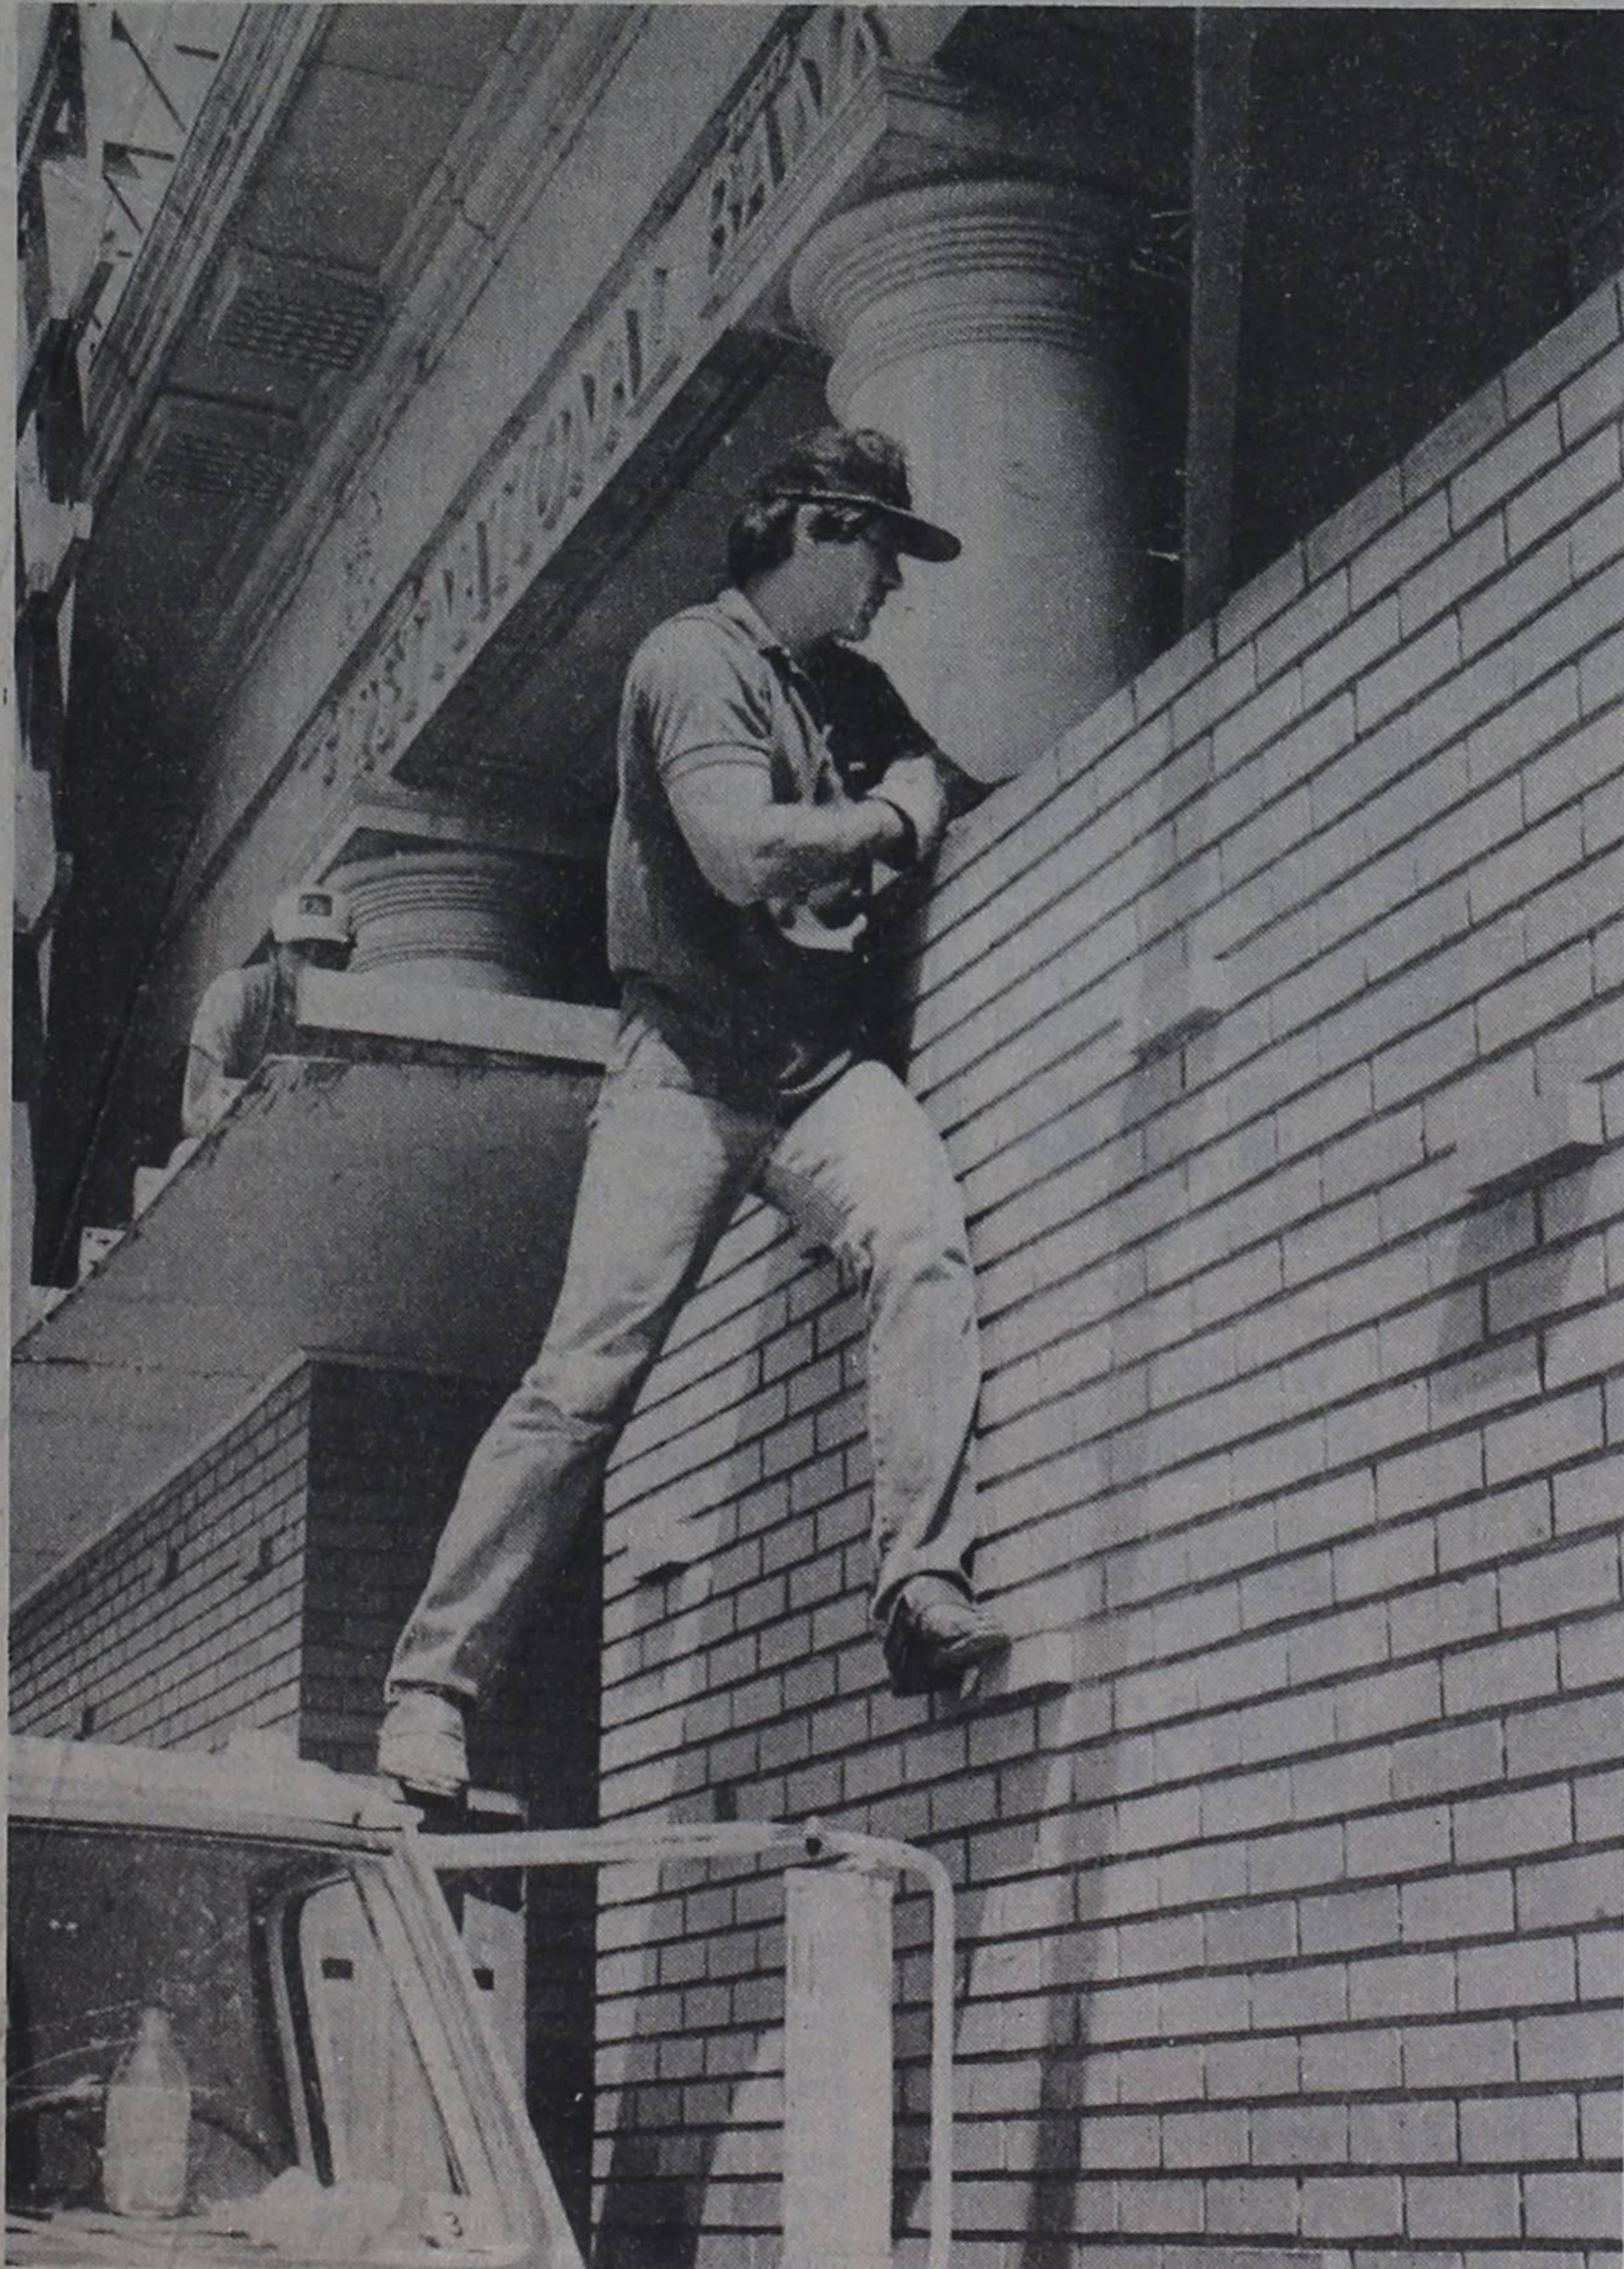

If an emergency should arise and a disconnect of connect needs to be made during this time, the city warehouse number 495-2812 may be called and the message will be delivered.

The library will not be affected during the move and the city council will be holding their monthly meetings in the library.

Renovation of the city hall is scheduled to begin this week and is expected to take somewhere between 90 and 120 days, weather permitting, to be completed.

The veteran was Mrs Callis' father-in-law and the flag was placed as part of the annual Memorial Day tradition, sponsored by the VFW Post 6797. (Photo by Tim Burnett)

Renovation work on the McCrary-Franklin building downtown began last week, as construction crew started removing the facade front. Mayor Giles McCrary, owner of the building, has announced the renovation is designed to return the outside to its original appearance and hopes the project will encourage other downtown building owners to undertake similar renovation work. (See the Sunday Dispatch for more detailed story and photos.) (Photo by Tim Burnett)

NEW FIRE TRUCK - Fire Chief, Delbert Rudd is shown with the new fire truck purchased by the City of Post and is to be used primarily on rural fires. The 1983 one ton four wheel drive Chevrolet truck has a 450 gallon aluminum tank. The bed and the grill on the front of the truck were built by Pewitt and Son Welding with all the labor building, installing and painting the bed and grill donated by Pewitt and Son.

High Blood Pressure Affected by Sodium in Diet

by Cheryl E. Walker
This month I have shared a variety of information on High Blood Pressure. I hope everyone has become aware of the presence of sodium in the diet and it's affects on our health. If you would like additional information contact me for publications and resources. Mild High Blood pressure isn't mild anymore Blood pressures at the low end of "high" blood pressure (90 to 104 mm Hg diastolic) are often called "mild". Yet pressure in this range, if untreated, can still result in the complications associated with high blood pressure: heart disease, kidney disease, and stroke. In fact the risk of many heart problems and early death for people with so-called mild high blood pressure is more than twice that for those with readings below 90 mm Hg. Fortunately, however, recent studies show that treatment can make a big difference in reducing early death and illness for people in this group. It can also prevent pressures in this range from going to even higher levels where a patient's chances of developing serious complications are even greater. One study, the National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute's Hypertension Detection and Follow-Up Program (HDFP), recently reported specifically on the effects of treatment on stroke. "Mild" high blood pressure patients treated systematically in special HDFP centers had 31.8 percent fewer fatal and nonfatal strokes than others in the program who received routine care in their communities. Other studies, such as the Australian National Blood Pressure Study and U.S. Public Health Service Study of Mild Hypertension also show major benefits for treating levels characterized as "mild".

Treatment for pressure in this category often involves dietary changes such as losing weight and cutting down on sodium. Drugs may also be prescribed, particularly if patients have a family history of heart problems, high cholesterol levels, diabetes, or other factors that increase their risks of developing complications. Until the recent studies, most of the medical community had not been treating "mild" high blood pressure, because the benefits of treatment had not been clearly established. In 1980, the Joint National Committee on Detection, Evaluation, and Treatment of High Blood Pressure revised earlier national recommendations to include treating pressures in this range. The new recommendations mean that high blood pressure patients, as well as the health professionals who treat them, need to pay careful attention to blood pressure elevations at any level.

"Color and Your wardrobe" seminar
Don't forget the seminar, "Color and Your Wardrobe", given by the Color One Consultant firm of Lubbock, May 31, 7:30 p.m., in the Post Community Center. The program is being sponsored by the Garza County Family Living Committee and the County Extension Office. If you have any questions, contact the Extension Office at 495-2050.

Come and join us May 31 to learn to use a rainbow of color in your wardrobe!

A. No, his injury was not work-related.

B. Yes, Dale's injury took place at his work site and involved another worker.

C. No, but Dale can sue Milo for damages.

When Milo turns around he sees Dale walking toward him with the bag of chips in his hand. As Dale turns away Milo thinks that Dale is going to hit him and Milo tries to grab Dale's arm, but slips and hits him in the eye. Dale goes to his doctor to receive treatment for the injury and misses six weeks of work. Should Dale

Hodges - Drake Vows Read Here

Wedding vows were exchanged between Laurie Lynn Hodges and Lenny J. Drake Saturday, May 21 in the First Baptist Church.

Performing the double ring ceremony was Steve McMeans, assistant pastor of the church. The ceremony was performed at 4 p. m.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Hodges and the groom is the son of Shirley Taylor.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white formal gown of chantilly lace. The bodice featured a Queen Anne neckline with pearl and sequin trim. The slightly raised waistline had a satin ribbon belt. The poet sleeves featured lace ruffles cuffs and a baby ruffle flounce surrounded the bottom of the gown to form a chapel length train. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of white and orchid flowers featuring an orchid in the center surrounded by small white stephanotis and greenery.

Carrying out the tradition of something old, she wore her grandmother's wedding ring, something new, her wedding gown, something blue, her garter and something borrowed, a pearl necklace and earrings.

She presented white roses to her mother upon entering the church and to her new mother in law when leaving the altar.

Serving as maid of honor was Lisa Johnson.

Bridesmaids were Cherie Drake, sister of the groom, Vicki Gray, and Terri Hodges, sister of the bride. They wore orchid dotted swiss floor length gowns off the shoulder bodices and tied with orchid satin ribbon at the waist. They wore sheer hats adorned with satin orchid ribbons, flowers and baby breath and carried a single flower peony.

Kristi Hodges served her sister as flower girl and carried a white basket of orchid flower petals and Jerry Hodges served as ring bearer.

Jackie Stelzer was best man and groomsmen were Randy Teaff, Rynn Norman and Ronnie Reed.

Acting as ushers were Shannon Adkins and Rodney Teaff. They all wore gray tuxedos with the groom attired in an all white tux with short tails.

Wedding guests were registered by Justina Caylor.

Wedding music was provided by pianist, Tammie Eckols accompanying Margie Pennell, soloist.

A reception followed the ceremony with the bride's table laid with a white lace cloth over orchid with satin orchid ribbons. A three tiered cake with orchid flowers and a bride and groom on top was served to those attending. An orchid flower arrangement was also featured on the table. Silver appointments were used.

The groom's table featured a German chocolate cake with orchid strips of icing and a silver coffee service was used. An orchid flower arrangement was also used.

Members of the house party were Mmes. Joyce Teaff, Linda Green, Judy McAlister, and Janice Drake.

Serving the guests were Carol Holleman, Vicki Green, Dodie Norman and Deann Reiter.

Out of town guests were from Fort Worth, Sulphur Springs, Snyder, Dimmitt, Jal, N. M., and Lubbock.

Karen Reagan Weds Steven Hays May 14

Vows uniting Karen Elizabeth Reagan and Steven Craig Hays were solemnized Saturday night, May 14 in the home of the bride's parents.

J. W. Hamby, elder at Garland Street Church of Christ, officiated.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Reagan and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hays of Post.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a candlelight eyelet dress fashioned with short bell shaped sleeves with a scalloped border. The square neckline was trimmed with candlelight lace. The blouson bodice was attached to a full gathered tea length skirt with a scalloped hem. The bride chose a wreath of tiny ivory and blue flowers with an elbow length veil for her headpiece and accenting the veil were ivory satin bows.

For something new, the bride wore a string of pearls and pearl earrings and she borrowed an old English sixpence which she carried in her shoe. She also carried an old linen handkerchief that belonged to her late maternal grandmother. She completed her attire with the traditional blue garter.

Maid of honor was Donna Reagan of Lubbock, sister of the bride and matron of honor was Patti Hutto also of Lubbock, sister of the bride. They wore blue ballerina length sundresses designed with double ruffle sleeves. They carried lavender silk rose nosegays with lavender and blue streamers and babys breath. Best man was Joe Baker and groomsman was Keith Wilks, both of Post.

The couple recited vows in front of the fireplace which was highlighted with a large arrangement of multi-colored spring flowers. A heart-shaped candelabra centered the area and ferns were placed inside the fireplace.

A reception followed the ceremony. The attendants bouquets were used on the bride's table. Crystal appointments were used and the groom's cake was made by the mother of the groom.

Assisting were Debbie Moore, Teresa Gaylor of Lubbock and Belinda Baker of Post.

The couple are residing in Anaheim, California.

The bride is a graduate of Lubbock Christian High School and South Plains College and Lubbock School of Vocational Nursing. She is employed as a licensed vocational nurse. Hays is a graduate of Post High School and is engaged in real estate in Anaheim.

Ticks Thriving Due to Mild Texas Winter

Ticks are already an early problem across much of Texas this Spring. A relatively mild winter probably was responsible for better than average survival of ticks in our area. More problems are expected.

Ticks are biting, blood-sucking parasites. Their feeding results in blood loss and irritation to pets and to people, and the possible spread of diseases.

The most important disease transmitted by ticks is Rocky Mountain spotted fever. "Two deaths from this disease have already been recorded this year in Texas."

The brown dog tick is the most common tick around home landscapes in this area, he said. They are reddish-brown in color.

A female tick can lay several thousand eggs, beginning a two- to four-month life cycle. Ticks require four blood meals; three to grow to adults and one to lay eggs. After each feeding, the tick drops off the host animal and hides temporarily until the next growth stage.

Tick control requires treatment at three sites simultaneously, the county agent stressed. "The pet, the yard and the interior of the home must each be treated at the same time. This is the only way to break the cycle," he said.

Heavy infestations in the home probably will require the assistance of professional pest control operators. The inside of the home can be treated with sprays containing diazinon, ronnel, or Dursban. "Particular attention must be paid to nooks and crevices where ticks hide."

Outside the home, diazinon, Sevin or Dursban can be used. Pay particular attention to areas frequented by pets, such as dog houses and trails along fences.

Pets are the third site which must be treated to succeed in tick control. Light infestations can be controlled by rubbing Sevin dust into the pet's hair. Formulations of Sevin dust greater than five percent shouldn't be applied to puppies or young kittens.

Severe tick infestations may require three applications at seven- to 10-day intervals to obtain adequate control.

If a tick becomes attached to the skin, remove it with a slow, steady pull. Be careful not to break off its mouthparts.

A drop of chloroform, isopropyl alcohol, ether, acetone or fingernail polish rubbed over the tick may help remove it. It can be removed a half-hour later with less damage to the skin because its oxygen supply is cut off.

Always apply an antiseptic to tick bites. If your hands touched the tick, wash them thoroughly with soap and water to reduce the risk of spreading disease.

On a positive note, once ticks are controlled around your home, you are unlikely to be reinfested unless tick-infested animals enter the yard, bringing new pests with them.

 One of the most familiar passages in the scriptures is John 3:16.
 It reads "God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have everlasting life."
 Certainly the giving of the Son was a wonderful expression of God's love for man. Jehovah is a caring, loving and forgiving Father. As great as the giving of Jesus was, that is not all that the Father has done for man. Let us look at a few more expressions of the Love from God.

Taking care of the needy, teaching lost souls, and keeping the saved saved is all apart of upholding the truth. God loved you so much that he gave the Son, the Bible to tell of that Son, and the church to see that the truth is taught. Truly, what love the Father has shown. But, that is not all!
 God wanted to be sure that the church did its work. He realized that for any group to work smoothly, it needs leaders. God also knew that the church would need certain leaders. So, in his concern for the church and its work, he said in I Timothy 3:1-ff the kind of men he wanted to oversee his people. Qualifications are there listed.

We see some in the religious world that have no regard for God's will in the matter. Some young to have believing children, or not even married, call themselves elders or bishops. When you read in passages like Hebrews 13:17, I Peter 5:1-4 and others, you see the work of elders or bishops. Youth cannot have the experience or wisdom needed to lead God's people, so God gave directions for His people to follow in selecting leaders. We would do well to listen to God, for he gave the information and qualifications, because of His love for you.
 Now that we have looked at some, though not all of the expressions of God's love for man, think for a moment...are you returning God's love? How do you respond to the teaching of the truth? Do you get all bent out of shape when it conflicts with what you want to do? When someone preaches the church is the body of Jesus, and that all saved persons are added to it by God (Acts 2:47), do you accept it, or reject it? When you read about the kind of men God wants to oversee His church, do you accept it, or just go on and do things like you want to?

God wants you to be saved (2 Peter 3:9) and has done so much to ensure your salvation. But, you must respond to God's love in a positive way. He will not force salvation on you. He wants you to serve Him because you love Him in return for what he has done for you. John, the apostle of love, said that if one loves God, he will obey God, or keep His commandments Jn. 14:15,23.
 God loves you and has expressed it in so many ways. WILL you love him in return?

Lost and Found

We had seven beautiful visitors present with Sister Jessie Underwood from Phoenix, Ari. Please feel free to come again anytime. You are always welcome.
 Rev. James read I Corinthians Chapter 13 verses 1 through 11.
 Altar call was very spiritually prayed by Rev. Kelly. He really poured out his soul to the Glory of God and members.
 The Senior choir sung praises to the Glory of God.
 Please continue to pray for all the sick and shutins of our community and elsewhere.
 God truly dwells with us. You all are welcome to come and bring a friend.
 Rev. Kelly delivered a wonderful sermon during the 11 a. m. service from the scripture of St. John, chapter 20 verses 1 through 18. His theme was "Joy in the Cemetery". It was food for thought and spiritual food for the soul.

 There is one chapter in all scripture that has its emphasis in that which is lost and found.
 These are the beautiful parables found in Luke 15.
 The three closely related parables of The Lost Sheep, The Lost Coin and the Lost Son form a special triangle of earthly stories with a heavenly message.
 Special topics are emphasized in this one chapter. The loss of man is mentioned eight times in the 32 verses of the three narratives.
 The idea of joy or merriment is also brought out in the text some eight times as that which was lost is returned to its proper relationship.
 Throughout the central theme shows the Father's yearning love for the lost.
 The shepherd seeks the one lost from the hundred, the woman searches the one coin of the ten, and the father's heart goes out to the one lost of his two sons.

Luke writes in such a fitting way to show the joy of the heavenly Father in responding to His love and drawing near to his protection.
 These three messages given by the Lord will be further explored in a series of three beginning Sunday morning.
 You are invited to worship and study with us as we explore this God who has such joy in our response to Him.

Exports rise
 Exports of oil and gas from the Norwegian part of the North Sea reached a value of $7.6 billion in 1982 compared with $6.9 billion in 1981.

God has given the Bible to tell us all that we need to know about Jesus. Notice a few passages that stress the importance of truth. John 8:31-32 "If ye abide in my word, then are ye truly my disciples; and ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." John 17:17 "sanctify them in truth, thy word is truth", where Jesus is praying to the Father. I Peter 1:22 "seeing you have purified your souls in obedience to the truth." John 12:48 "He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my sayings, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I spake, the same shall judge him in the last day."

Truly, the Bible is an expression of the love of God. We do not have to depend upon the religious experiences of people, who all claim to speak from and for God, but teach conflicting doctrines, thereby causing mass confusion in the religious world. Thank God continually for the Bible. It is His roadmap for you to follow to get to heaven.

The giving of Jesus and the Bible are not the only expressions of God's love, though. God did not just give the Bible that tells all about Jesus. He had Jesus purchase the church with His blood, Acts 20:28. Notice what the Bible has to say about the work of the church. In I Timothy 3:15 we read that the church is to be the pillar and ground of the TRUTH.

From reading different versions, we find that the church is to be the stay, support, bulwark, column and prop of the truth. The work of the church is to teach the truth. That means a number of different works, but the truth must be upheld. As long as the church does its work, people who have never heard of Jesus will have an opportunity to do so. We as the children of God must do our work.

Maxie Dunnam describes Jesus as, "a now-liver." He never ceased reminding his disciples that now is the acceptable time, today is the day, the kingdom of God is at hand, in your midst. God's time is not some far off tomorrow but this very day.

Someone has reminded us that Jesus never went out of his way to help anyone. He didn't have to go out of his way because he was aware of what was going on around him.

So he sensed the woman touching the hem of his garment in the press of the multitude. He heard the man's cry above the noise of the crowd at the Pool of Bethesda.

He saw Zacchaeus peeking out from the branches of that tree. On the spot, he responded to all of these.

When a Roman soldier, commander of a hundred men, sent a messenger seeking Jesus' help for a valued slave who was ill, Jesus was amazed at the faith shown by the centurion, and he responded to that faith, healing the man without ever visiting the bedside.

The Presbyterians of Post gather every Sunday morning to celebrate not just the eternal life which God has promised in Christ, but to celebrate his love and compassion for all his children, a love that is fresh every morning. We invite you to be a part of such a fellowship.

Jack King and Wesley Burnett will lead worship this Sunday morning. We invite you to worship with us.
