Traditional wedding vows read for Allison, Hite

Traditional wedding vows were pledged between Heidi Lynn Hite and Eric Kevin Allison recently in St. Paul Lutheran Church in Vernon.

Rev. Albert Loeschman, pastor, performed the double ring morning ceremony before an archway of candelabra decorated with fresh huckleberry greenery with white cathedral tapers centered the main altar flanked by two spiral candelabra holding white cathedral tapers and entwined with fresh trailing huckleberry greenery.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hite of Vernon and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Allison of Cisco, former Post residents.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white dotted organza over taffeta fashioned with a Queen Anne neckline. Venise lace appliques accented the fitted bodice. The leg of mutton sleeves were of dotted swiss and the four tiered ruffled skirt of dotted organza was trimmed in satin ribbons and extended into a chapel length train. She wore a ring of satin and stephanotis accented with flowing white streamers and carried a nosegay of blue velvet Wendish Bible belonging to her grandmother, the late Mrs. E. B. Kunkle. The Bible was the bride's "something old, while her gown was something new. Something borrowed were diamond earrings belonging to the maid of honor and for something blue, she wore a satin and lace garter and in her shoe, she placed a six pence.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Deana Jennings. Matron of honor was Robin Morrow of Baytown, sister of the bride. They wore floor length lavender gowns of dotted organza with satin ribbon shoulders and complemented by a chiffon dotted swimm cape. The skirts were trimmed at the waist with satin ribbon and a ruffle of the same material accented the hem. Each carried a nosegay of mixed spring flowers and orchid ribbon streamers.

Ring bearer was Blaine Sasser, nephew of the bridegroom.

Matt Allison of Albuquerque, N. M., served his brother as best man. Groomsman was Ken Brock.

Traditional wedding music was provided by Mrs. Clarence Graf, organist, and soloist, Lisa Payne of Amarillo, who sang "Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception followed the ceremony in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The bride's table was laid with a white dotted swiss cloth with ruffled tiers and lavender ribbon. The three tiered wedding cake was topped with a floral arrangement of white rosebuds and mixed spring flowers. Greenery and fresh flowers entwined the bottom of the cake. Centering the table was a bouquet of spring flowers and greenery.

The bridegroom's table was laid with a white dotted swiss cloth and held a chocolate chiffon cake shaped like a guitar topped with chocolate roses. The centerpiece was a bouquet of fresh spring flowers and greenery and a silver coffee service was used.

The bride is a 1983 graduate of Vernon High School and will be a student at Vernon Regional Junior College. The bridegroom is a 1982 graduate of Vernon High School and is self-employed.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the bridegroom's parents at the Canton Cafe.

The tables were covered in white and featured silver appointments. Mauve satin runners were placed down the length of each table. Also on the tables were baskets of silk flowers, alternating with rose colored candles.

The head table was decorated with mauve satin ribbon bows and streamers, and centered with a silk flower and candle grouping in crystal.

The meal was catered by Jacksons Cafeteria with approximately 30 guests attending.

Outstanding Young Men of American named

The Board of Advisors for the Outstanding Young Men of America Awards Program announced today that the men named on the attached listing have been selected for inclusion in the 1983 edition of OUTSTANDING YOUNG MEN OF AMERICA.

These men were selected from nominations received from Senators, Congressmen, Governors, Mayors, State Legislators, University and College Presidents and Deans as well as various civic groups, including the United States Jaycees which also endorses the Outstanding Young Men of America program.

In every community there are young men working diligently to make their cities, as well as their country, better places in which to live. These men, having distinguished themselves in one or more fields of endeavor, are outstanding and deserve to be recognized for their achievements. The criteria for selection include a man's voluntary service to community, professional leadership, academic achievement, business advancement, cultural accomplishments and civic and political participation. The men listed, along with fellow Outstanding Young Men throughout North America will be featured in this prestigious annual awards publication. Our Board of Advisors and Editors salute all chosen as Outstanding Young Men of America. We take great pride in bringing their accomplishments to the attention of the American public. They are John Allen McCowen of Denver City, Victor L. Ashley of Post, William Rodney Compton of Burleson, and Larry Don Mills of Post.

Bullock asks for action

State Comptroller Bob Bullock today said he has asked the Texas congressional delegation to take a close look at proposed changes in federal natural gas policy that could cost the state more than $100 million in lost natural gas production tax revenue.

The nation's largest gas producer, Texas produced more than six trillion cubic feet of gas last year and the state collected more than $1 billion in natural gas production taxes.

Bullock sent a report to Texas congressmen showing the Reagan Administration's gas decontrol proposal could cost the state $56 million in lost gas production taxes during the next two budget years and about $42 million the year after that.

Efforts to eliminate some natural gas pricing problems are to be commended, but no one wants to cut off an arm to cure a hangnail, Bullock said. Bullock said decontrol is a complex and complicated issue and its impact on Texas gas pro-

Law degrees were awarded to 162 students in the Texas Tech University School of Law during ceremonies at the end of the 1983 spring semester. Graduates included Charles Douglas Calvert of Post.

pets are wonderful™

Pet Owners Proven Healthier And Happier

Q. Is it true that dog and cat owners believe they are healthier and have a more optimistic outlook on life than non-pet owners?

A. Indeed, it is true. Rutgers University conducted Health Opinion Surveys and Purpose in Life Tests among a group of pet owners and non-pet owners. It found that people who own dogs and cats feel more healthy and have a stronger sense of purpose and direction in their lives than do a random sample of non-pet owners.

According to Dr. Rosanne Wille, this supports the notion that pets contribute to our overall health and well-being in life. She believes that health is more than just a state of body, but also a state of mind. A positive attitude and a feeling of wellness are essential to good health. People who are happy in life may be healthier, she says. And the attachment and love that a person has for a pet may, in fact, create purpose in life.

Interestingly enough, the study found that women were more likely to identify their pets as "family members" and "children," while men thought of their pets as "companions" and "protectors" whose most redeeming qualities were their extreme loyalty and dedication.

SEE YOUR DOCTOR

If you smoke, you are 1.7 times as likely to develop a duodenal ulcer as a non-smoker. A government study showed that 46 percent of black men smoke compared with 38 percent white. It's now been established that cigarette smoking affects the development, severity, healing and recurrence of ulcers. If you smoke, and have frequent stomach pain, you should see a doctor to find out if you have a duodenal ulcer.

At first, experts believed that the rising number of women ulcer patients was due to women entering the job market where they were subject to increased stress. Because day-to-day stress is no longer a major causative factor, some scientists feel that it is because women have been smoking more.

It's estimated that some four million Americans suffer from duodenal ulcers at any given time. This information comes from Smith Kline & French Laboratories, discoverers of the prescription drug Tagamet®.

Pleasant Home Baptist

By Annie Gilbert
Sunday morning, July 31, worship services at Pleasant Home in usual manner throughout duties.

Devotional by Deacon Jim H. Osby, Brother Melvin Lee and Sister Iona Smith.

Brother Lee read Psalms number 34 verses 1 and 2.

Altar call prayed with our pastor pouring out his all to the Master very highly. Rev. James read Proverbs chapter 31 verses 10 through 31.

The choir truly sang praises to the Master out of their hearts and souls.

During the 11 a. m. service at the Pleasant Home Baptist Church, our pastor, Rev. Kelly delivered a wonderful message. His text was "Guilty, but Not Convicted," from Romans chapter 5 verses 1 through 8.

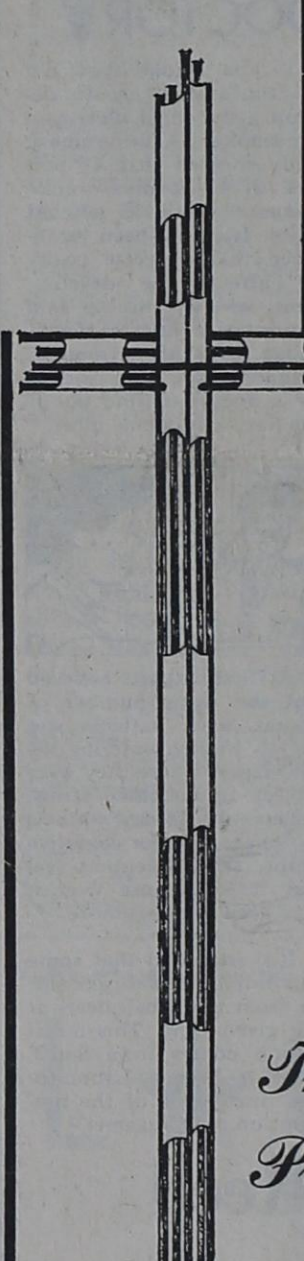

Our sympathy, prayers and love goes out to the bereaved Smith families. Mother Cora Lee Smith succumbed Thursday. She was a resident at the United Convalescent Nursing Home and was a longtime warrior of Pleasant Home.

We rendered service Sunday, July 31 at Twin Cedar Nursing Home for all the residents. God truly was there in the midst and everyone had a great blessing. Thank God for Jesus.

Rev. John James
Associate Pastor

The word radar is an acronym for RAdio Detecting And Ranging.

The Beatles sang a song called "Sunday Morning Sidewalk". "On a Sunday morning sidewalk, wishing Lord that I was stoned, cause there's something in a Sunday that makes a body feel alone. And there's nothing short of dying half as lonesome as the sound of a sleepy city sidewalk, Sunday morning coming down." Psychologist Rollo May says that our times will be remembered as "the age of anxiety."

The poet W. H. Auden complains. . . This stupid world where Gadgets are gods and we go on talking many about much, but remain alone, alive but alone, belonging - where?

Unattached as tumbleweed. Why are we alive but alone? The Presbyterians of Post gather every Lord's Day to celebrate God's presence in our world, to be part of a community of faith, to see the present in the light of God's love, and the future in the light of God's hope. We invite you to join us.
