Derick Dunn, 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Dunn won the Grants' 15th annual Blue Grass Music Festival in Hugo, Ok., August 3-7 playing the banjo.

Derick was among 17 contestants playing in the banjo contest and for his first place finish was awarded a trophy and cash prize.

The festival is billed as the largest in Bluegrass Festivals and draws people from 40 states and several foreign countries including Japan.

Derick is also the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Dunn of Post and Mrs. Haywood Basinger of Slaton.

A student of Tim Sinclair of Lubbock, this was the first summer for Derick to enter such events and won first place in June at the Buffalo Gap contest. Derick enters the junior competition which is up through 16 years of age. Since Derick won the event at Oklahoma, he will be unable to enter the junior competition next year, but may compete as a senior. One of the highlights of Dericks visit to the Bluegrass Festival, other than winning first place, was being able to pick and play with big name banjo players at the event.

He hopes to be able to attend and enter the nationals to be held in Kansas in September. Derick also plays in Meadow, Ropesville and Lubbock each month. Big name entrants in the festival included the Osborne Brothers, The Lewis Family, The Johnson Mountain Boys, McLain Family Band, Bill Harrell, The Tennessee Gentlemen and Raymond Fairchild and the Crowe

Derick will be a freshman student at Post

The coins are being sold to raise money to support our Olympic teams to help add to our gold medal collection at the 1984 Olympiad in Los

Then It's Too Late

Why is it? A man wakes up in the morning after sleeping on an advertised bed, in advertised pajamas. He will bathe in an advertised tub, wash with advertised soap, shave with an advertised razor, have a breakfast of advertised juice, cereal and toast [toasted in an advertised toaster], put on advertised clothes and glance at his advertised watch.

He will ride to work in an advertised car, sit at an advertised desk, smoke advertised cigarettes and write with an advertised pen. Yet this man hesitates to advertise, saying that advertising does not pay. Finally, when his unadvertised business goes under, he will advertise it for sale.
