For City Hall —

Exterior Renovation Planned

By Wes Burnett

The Post City Council Monday night authorized its architect to open negotiations with the contractor to include originally planned exterior renovation to the city hall building.
Hal Schauer of Schauer and Associates, briefed council members on the problems discovered during the recent heavy rains, and recommended that the exterior renovation would save the city thousands of dollars in future repairs.
"In its present condition," he told the council, "a lot of the interior work being done will be badly damaged during heavy rains."

Schauer told council members that the new carpet would have had to be replaced if it had already been installed, because the building had as much as two inches of water standing.
The exterior renovation work, originally planned but removed during final negotiations, was bid at $121,000. A special called meeting of the council will determine the renovation work after Schauer meets with the contractor.
In other action at the regular city council meeting, community center board members Larry Mills and Ruby Williams presented a report, including an expression of appreciation to the city for its help in funding the new carpet at the center.

Williams and Mills submitted the names of Sue Chun, Jerry Osborne and Lewis Earl as new board members to serve upon the approval of the city and the county.
Williams also reported the frustration of the board concerning the lack of youth participation at the youth center.
"We've tried a lot of different activities," Mills commented, "but we just haven't come up with any program that seems to appeal to the youth."
The youth center is open on Saturday evenings, but is available on demand.
Mills and Williams also reported that the board is preparing recommendations for rental use and deposit rate increases, which will be presented at a future council meeting.

Local Folks Join in Town

Meeting to Form Task Force

Sixty-seven young people and adults attended a town meeting Wednesday evening in the Post Community Center, to view the nationally telecast program, Part II, The Chemical People.
Local co-ordinator for The Chemical People, Mrs Glenda Baker, served as moderator for an open forum following the telecast.
Mrs Baker is currently working toward TAADAC certification as a counselor in the alcohol-drug abuse field.
Mrs Diana Poe, owner of South Plains Answering Service, was co-chairman for the program.
Joe Giddens, Post High School principal, and Lane Tannehill, counselor, represented the high school at the forum.
Mrs Velma Vickers, certified alcohol-drug addiction counselor from TAADAC, was featured speaker for the evening.
Mrs Vickers has served on numerous boards in the field and has been employed as director in a halfway house for drug abusers.
She served as administrator-director of the ASK Guest House for Women in Lubbock for the past three years.
She recently resigned her position there in hopes to plan and develop an establishment and protective environment for women and their children who suffer from chemical abuse.

Also participating in the forum were two teen-age recovered drug abusers from Slaton and Lubbock.
They spoke to the group on the problems faced by drug and alcohol abusers and their recovery.
Part 1 of the Chemical People, aired Wed., Nov. 2, dealt with the problems and denial of alcohol and drug abuse.
Part 2 offered ideas and hope for the community toward finding solutions to the drug problem.
A pilot project in Pennsylvania involving parents and professional people illustrated the impact town meetings and task force groups have had in communities in that state.
Another town meeting in Post is being planned for the near future.
Mrs Baker urges everyone's involvement and participation to formulate plans which might provide workable solutions to the alcohol-drug abuse problems in the community.
For information, call 495-3788.

'Rise and Fall' of Justiceburg

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following was submitted to The Dispatch by Charles Addington II, a Frenship seventh grader.)
While trying to determine which subject I should do a project about, I decided that I could think of no better way to display "Trade and Industry in History" than to discuss the rise and fall of a town, such as how it came to be, how it grew, how it flowered and how and why it did not continue to flower and why it died, commented Charles Addington II on how this story came about.
With the help of his parents, his research was done by arranging interviews with people who had either lived in Justiceburg, had studied Justiceburg, or had first-hand knowledge of what effects, economic and or otherwise affected this small West Texas town. His parents then took him to these interviews, bought him a book on Garza County and helped him to prepare and organize his notes. Following is his paper on "Profile of a Dream", Justiceburg, Texas.

History of Justiceburg outlined by student

Justiceburg, and they probably never will, but my great-great-grandfather, Jeff D. Justice dreamed that they would and this is his story and the story of the town that bears his name.

Jeff Justice was born on December 7, 1861 somewhere in Alabama. His family moved west to East Texas during his teenage years and he met and married Mattie C. Humphreys one day after his seventeenth birthday in 1878.

In 1888, the Justice family moved to Spur County and settled near Dunn. Mr.

Justice always seemed to have the "Midas Touch" and he soon acquired eighteen sections of land by trading and dealing in real estate.

In 1899 homesteading began thirty miles away in Garza County. Jeff filed a homestead on four sections and moved the wife and eight children to a one room shack on the south bank of the Brazos River and started work on his ranch house.

In 1900, the Justice family moved into their "large ranch home." Large, that is, if eight rooms with a wide hall is large. When company came, beds were set up in the hall. In 1901 Jeff bought twenty-one more sections to make a total of twenty-five and stocked the ranch with Hereford cattle. His JEF brand was soon known throughout the area.

In 1902 the area families decided they needed a post office (the nearest one was 16 miles away.) They made application and the Post Office was created at the Tuffing Home because of its central location in the area. Mrs. Tuffing was the Post Mistress and J.

signatures. Legend has it that "even the horses" voted in order to assure the election.

In 1910, Mr. Justice gave life to his dream and hired J. E. Eubanks, a surveyor from Snyder to survey the townsite which he planned to subdivide and develop from the north-east-most section of his holdings on the north bank of the Brazos. Mr. Justice named the town "Justiceburg" for his family and formed the Justiceburg Townsite Company. He had planned to call it just plain "Justice" but the state forced him to use the "burg" because of the resemblance between "Justice" and "Justin", a town already in existence.

To entice the Santa Fe Railroad to run their Lubbock to Snyder line through Justiceburg, Jeff Justice gave a large amount of land (including a lake) to the

M. Boren made the 32 mile round trip to Light, Texas twice a week to bring in the mail.

Also feeling a need for a school, several area families got together and built a one room school, once again on the Tuffing land and named it Leforrest School, for Lee and Forrest Tuffing. The school was very small, the seats were long one-by-twelve planks and desks were made from wooden boxes on legs. Mrs. Ellen Kelly was hired as the first teacher and she had pupils from five families. In front of the school room, with crepe paper, she put up the words, "God Sees Me," as an effort to shore up discipline among the rowdy ranch children.

The Baptists of this little community met, with the help of missionaries J. E. Ellis and Lee Colton and organized the first church, the Leforrest Baptist Church, on August 9, 1903. The school house doubled as the church and had six charter members. On December 3, Dee Boren joined the church; an interesting note — the ice had to be broken on the Brazos River to baptize him.

Garza County was organized at a picnic at the OS Ranch in 1906. C. W. Post (of "Post Toasties" fame and the founder of Post City, Texas), ranchers, cowboys and settlers attended. Sixty-five names were needed to call for an election to charter the county, so folks got to work to get

Letter to the Editor

Unity for youth; many." Websters. A town meeting task force must be based on unity if it is to be effective in a community. We don't need more committees and organizations, we need the support of those already in existence if we are to solve the drug-alcohol abuse problems facing our youth today. No one person or group can do anything alone to stop the use and abuse of drugs in a community.

I would like to thank each of the parents and young people for their support and attendance at the recent Chemical People town meetings. I would especially like to thank Diana Poe, co-chairman for her help and support and Palmer Well Service for paying the cost for copies of the volunteer questionnaire distributed to high school students. A special thank you to Bill Shiver, superintendent, Lane Tannehill, counselor and Joe Giddens for their support.

A date will be announced next week for another town meeting to unite representatives of all organizations in the community.

Taking Away . . . or Giving More?

by Pastor Steve Traw
First Christian Church
One salesgirl in a candy store always had customers lined up waiting, while the other checkers stood around doing nothing. The owner asked for her secret. "It's easy," she said.

"The other girls scoop up more than a pound of candy and then start taking away pieces. I always scoop up less than a pound and then add pieces to it." Any way you look at it, a pound is a pound. But there is a real psycholocial difference between taking from it and adding to it. We have enough being taken away from us as it is. Our friends, family members and fellow citizens feel much the same way. The real bargains are hard to find. People are always asking and wanting, never giving. The Christian in his world is in a unique place to give of what he has been entrusted. That one knows of the ultimate of giving out of love in Christ's life and death. In a world that is hungry for that which gives, the Christian has great opportunities for ministry. Sharing from our God-given supply mirrors God within us. It can be helping a neighbor, writing that long overdue letter, aiding someone who is ill, even a smile. That is giving of who we are and what we have. It comes by supporting those benevolent causes in our community by giving of our time, participation, ideas and monies. Unlike the salesgirl in a candy store who only appeared to add to the sale, we can truly give that extra bonus. The Christian example of relating to other people by giving rather than asking away may draw a crowd to our way of doing things as well.

Ultralight craft flown in Paris in '07
A Brazilian, Alberto Santos-Dumont, built a light-weight flying machine in Paris in 1907 that was the forerunner of today's ultralights. Called the Dragonfly and made of silk and bamboo, it weighed only 23 pounds, had a two-cylinder, 20-horsepower engine and could fly 48 mph. The first modern ultralight was built by a Wisconsin man, John Moody, in March 1975.

Pleasant Home Church

by Annie Gilbert
The Baptist Church worship hour was held in usual manner, with all officers at their posts of duty. Youth sister Priscilla Martin did a beautiful job in teaching the lesson. Her subject was God's Steadfast Love with scriptures Psalm 103:1-12 and Ephesians 1:5-10.

During 11 a.m. worship hour devotion led by deacon Jim H. Osby. Sister Callie Harper and Sister Harper read entire Numbers 23d Psalms. Altar call very and truly spiritually prayed. Our pastor really prayed from his heart and soul to our Loving Master. Rev. James read II Timothy, Chapter 4 verses 1 through 18. During the 11 a.m. service, our pastor delivered a wonderful message from Jeremiah Chapter 20, verse 9. His text was "Wrapped Up, Tied Up and Tangled Up in the Lord." He really preached to the members and the Lovely Master. God sure was here in the midst. Thought: Listen, pray for members' friends or just talk to them one on one this thing called prayer remember - prayer, it can get you there.

In airports around the country, Federal Aviation Administration controllers guide more than 85,000 flights a day. By the year 2000, air traffic is expected to double.

To help air controllers cope with increasing air traffic a new radar system is under development at Westinghouse. The new radar, known as ASR-9, is being designed by computers, and will provide a clearer picture of weather and aircraft than was provided by older systems. It will be installed at over 100 airports starting in 1986.

Board of School Trustees
Post Independent School District

Members of the Board:

We have examined the combined financial statements of Post Independent School District, Exhibits A-1 through A-3, and its combining financial statement, Exhibit B-1, as of and for the year ended August 31, 1983. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards conforming to those of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the financial and compliance elements of auditing standards of the United States General Accounting Office and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly the financial position of the various funds and account groups of Post Independent School District as of August 31, 1983, and the results of operations of such funds and account groups for the year then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles on a basis consistently applied with that of the preceding year.

The section of this report titled "Auditors' Compliance Statements" is designed to satisfy Texas Education Agency compliance audit requirements prescribed in the Audit (AUD) section of Bulletin 679, Financial Accounting Manual. Our examination of internal controls and for compliance with laws, rules, regulations, or agreements in the course of operations of Post Independent School District during the year ended August 31, 1983, included such tests and other measures as we considered necessary in the circumstances in accordance with the Industry Audit Guide, Audits of State and Local Governments and Indian Tribal Governments Conducted Under the Audit Requirements of OMB Circular A-102, Attachment P, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, after our consideration of the Special Program Guidelines (SPG) section of the Texas Education Agency Bulletin 679, Financial Accounting Manual. Except as otherwise noted in this report, nothing came to our attention indicating that the Post Independent School District was in material noncompliance with laws, rules, regulations, or agreements in areas tested, and further, Post Independent School District was in apparent material compliance in untested areas inasmuch as nothing to the contrary came to our attention.

Our examination was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the combined financial statements taken as a whole and on the above named combining financial statement. The special schedules on the accompanying Exhibits C-1 through C-3 are presented in accordance with requirements of the Texas Education Agency, and include Special Revenue Fund programs with projects that were in operation during the year ended August 31, 1983. Financial information is inclusive of the beginning project date indicated on the schedule for each individual project through August 31, 1983, is presented for purposes of analysis by State and Federal program administrators, and is not a required part of the combined financial statements of Post Independent School District. The information on the special schedules referred to in this paragraph has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examination of the combined and combining financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects.

Our Old Timers

'Lopes Skin Tigers 25-0

by Wes Burnett

For the first time in Post High School history, the Antelope football team has captured the undisputed bi-district championship in two consecutive years.

The 1983 team brought home the bi-district trophy from Brownfield last Friday night, following a convincing 25-0 shut-out of the Frenship Tigers.

The Antelope defense not only didn't allow a score, but gave up on 63 yards total offense in the first half.

Milton Williams led the team in rushing with 216 unofficially tallied yards and quarterback Joel Kirkpatrick connected on five of eight pass attempts for 87 yards, including a touchdown toss to Charles Johnson.

Frenship coach Bobby Davis had commented earlier in the week on a Lubbock television station that he knew the Tigers had to stop Williams... "and the best way to do that is to keep the ball away from Post," Davis said.

The stiff Antelope defense killed any ideas the Tigers had of keeping the football, as the District 4AAA second place team could only muster three first downs in the first half.

Post took the kickoff and drove the ball down the field to the Tiger 17, before turning it over on a fourth down incomplete pass.

The Antelope defense got its first test as the Tigers took possession with 5:39 left in the first quarter.

They picked up a first down, then sputtered and punted on fourth down from their own 37, with the ball going out of bounds at the Post 32.

It looked like the Tigers were following other Antelope opponents this year, and kicked the ball away from Williams.

On first down, Williams went to the 37, Felix Bustos lost a yard to the 36, then Antelope head coach David Thompson holds the bi-district trophy with the team following the 25-0 win over Frenship in Brownfield last Friday.

Milton Williams led the Antelopes in rushing with 216 yards during the 25-0 bi-district win over the Frenship Tigers in Brownfield.

Kirkpatrick Guides 'Lopes to 4 TDs

Williams blasted through right guard to the Frenship 38, setting up a first down.

Kirkpatrick gave the ball to Williams over right guard, then fooling everyone, on second down, the sophomore quarterback ran a near-perfect bootleg roll-out to his left and lofted the ball into the end zone to Charles Johnson to put the 'Lopes out front 6-0.

Chuck Morris' extra point kick into a stiff southerly wind went wide to the right.

On the Tigers' next play from scrimmage, quarterback Randall Gregory's pass to Timmy Sansam was intercepted by Keith Osborn at the Post 47, and with 24 seconds remaining in the first quarter, the 'Lopes opened up their second touchdown drive.

Francis wanted to be a poet and warrior, but had to limp home in disgrace from a military campaign.

With his adolescent vision of grandeur in utter shambles, he retreated into a cave, where he stayed for two weeks, terribly depressed.

In that cave, Francis experienced "the breakthrough to the Already." He was led back to the beginning of things.

He glimpsed with the eyes of his heart the Source of Creation.

He came out of that cave "walking on his hands," meaning that he saw everything in a new light.

When we stand on our feet, houses and trees seem to sit solidly on their own. But when we stand on our head, the same things appear to be hanging, like a light on a chain.

Francis discovered that everything "hangs," or depends on God.

God is in all things, and all things are in God.

Francis found an incredible power to affirm everything he found.

He spoke affectionately to birds and trees, feeling kinship to all Creation.

When the eyes of his heart were opened, he discovered that all is miracle, because all is of God. And because of that vision, we still call him St. Francis of Assisi, citizen of God's Kingdom.

Lopes Advance

Tracy Price's run over left guard to the Frenship 47 ended the quarter and Williams opened up the second period with a blast over right tackle to the 40.

Daniel Gonzales couldn't get untracked on a screen pass, Bustos went over left tackle to the 39 and then on third down Kirkpatrick rolled right and found Gonzales for a pass and run combination to the 18.

Williams then pounded the Tiger defense on five consecutive plays, hitting left guard to the 14, right guard to the 10, again on the right side to the nine and over left tackle to the four.

Getting a face mask call on that try, the ball was spotted at the two-and-one half, from where Williams got the call over right guard and into the end zone.

The two point conversion try was stopped short, the 'Lopes led 12-0 with 7:33 left in the first half.

The Tigers picked up their two other first downs on the next drive, but were halted at the Post 36 on fourth down by a determined defense, led by Giles Dalby at middle linebacker and L.D. Harper at the defensive end spot.

After three downs, punter Curt Greer kicked the ball to the Tigers and Robert Allen called for a fair catch, then dropped the ball as Kenneth Gill and Dennis Lee pounced on the loose pigskin at the Frenship 26.

Two plays later, Williams surprised the waning Tiger defense with a 17 yard scamper through right tackle for a comfortable Antelope 18-0 lead.

It looked like Kirkpatrick had collected the two-point conversion on a pass to L.D. Harper in the end zone, but a flag nullified the points as an inelligible receiver downfield was ruled, which called for a loss of down and eliminated a second try.

The half ended with the Tigers trying to mount some sort of offense.

Second Half

The Tigers came out of the lockers and rammed the ball down the field on a sustained drive, that finally was stopped by the Antelope defense at the 12 yard line, but not before Frenship had driven inside the five before giving up the ball on downs.

Dante Quinton was the workhorse for the Tigers on the drive, but a tough goal-line stand by the 'Lopes sealed the game away for the champions.

David Shults put the finishing touches on a fourth down from the four as he sacked Gregory at the 12.

With 5:51 left in the third quarter, the 'Lopes marched on their final touchdown effort and ran the only two plays from scrimmage in the third quarter.

Williams shot through the left tackle slot, ran smack dab into a referee, stopping what would have been a touchdown run.

From the 26, Kirkpatrick handed the ball to Williams again, who hit the same hole and turned on the afterburners for a 74 yard race to the end zone.

The extra point attempt was good, capping the 25-0 victory.

Later in the fourth quarter, Dalby sacked the quarterback on three of four plays, giving the 'Lopes the ball on their own 45, and with 8:18 left in the game, they gobbled up more than five minutes, driving to the Tiger 15.

The defense held, and time ran out on Frenship, who will face the Antelopes next year in the final district contest.

'Rags to Riches', or Riches to Rags to Riches'

by Steve McMeans
First Baptist Church
Ministerial Alliance
Most of us familiar with the so-called Rags to Riches stories know the details in them vary but the basic plot is always the same. It starts with a hero who is destitute and seemingly without a chance of ever improving upon his lot in life. However, through determination and de-ligent labor, he manages to work his way out of poverty and into affluence.

He literally goes from rags to riches.
All of that reminds me of a Bible verse: II Cor. 8:9
says, "For ye know
the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that you through his poverty might be rich."

This is a bit different from the rags to riches story however, because this is a riches to rags to riches story. It starts off with Jesus Christ rich beyond comparison in heaven in the home before His incarnation.

But the Bible says that for our sake
He was willing to become poor. He veiled His glory and came to earth as a man of sorrows. He was born in an obscure little na-mon of people. There was nothing princely or rich about His existence except for its spiritual quality. Finally He died a criminal's death and was so destitute that He had to be placed in a borrowed tomb. All of this was done by Jesus for men who were absolute beggars spiritually. Unlike the financial rags to riches tales, there was no way for men to work their way up to spiritual wealth. Only Christ could give that to them through His death.

After His death, His poverty so to speak - the Bible tells us that men can become rich.
It is not a richness of gold and silver and large bank accounts but a rich-

It includes forgiveness from sin, peace with God, eternal and abundant life and other blessings too numerous to name. And the best thing about this eternal, spiritual wealth is that it is available to all men. It is there for any man, woman or child who is willing to admit their spiritual poverty and turn to Christ for help. All we have to do is come to Christ on His terms and He will shower us with spiritual wealth from heaven. Why be poor in spiritual things when God has riches for you? Come to Him today and He will make you spiritually wealthy beyond your wildest dreams.

The Thomas have recorded 15 albums and make numerous appearances each year in churches, auditoriums and on TV and Radio broadcasts across the land.

PROUD POSSESSION

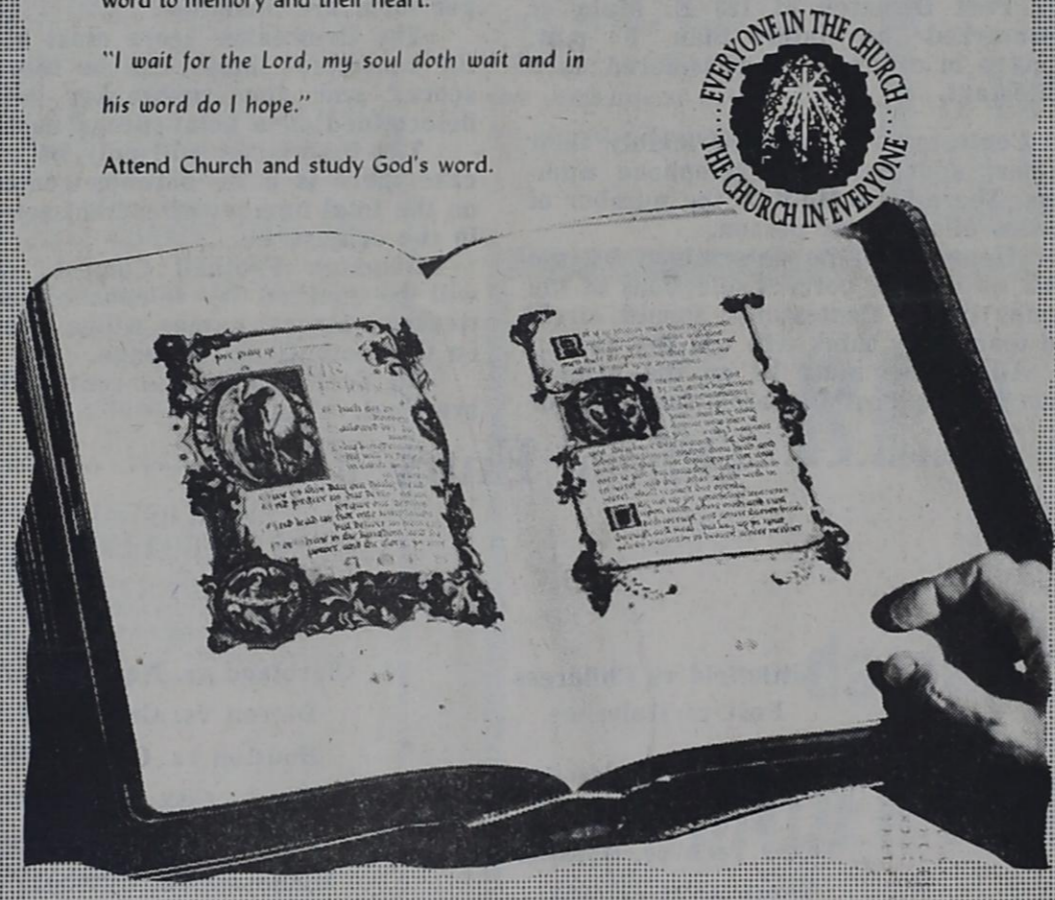

The craftsmanship and artistry that has gone into the production of many bibles does humbly honor God's word. This work is a reflection of men's appreciation and love for God. Many commit God's word to memory and their heart.

"I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait and in his word do I hope."

Attend Church and study God's word.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Coleman Adv. Serv.
