Actress Finds Garza Stage Just Right...

After seven performances at the Garza Theatre, Post High School senior Cheryl Thompson believes those experiences are setting the stage for her future career.

"Performing at the Garza Theatre has given me a chance to work with an experienced director, teaching me what is expected by professionals in the theatre," Cheryl explains.

"I enjoy being on stage, so I take as many roles as I can," she adds.

She will make her eighth appearance on stage here September 1-4 as "The Girl" in "The Seven Year Itch."

Cheryl first appeared on stage at the Garza Theatre as "Elma Duckworth," the delightful waitress in "Bus Stop."

Others roles have included the fiery "Kate" in last summer's "The Taming Of The Shrew", followed by her charming portrayal of the secretary "Jean" in "Plaza Suite."

"I particularly enjoyed playing the part of 'Jill Tanner' in 'You Know I Can't Hear You When The Water's Running,'" Cheryl comments, "it was just so much fun."

She was a big hit in "Room Service" as "Hilda Manney" and gigagled her way through "Blithe Spirit" as the maid.

This summer Cheryl pleased audiences at the Summer Festival with her role as "Titania" in "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

"My favorite role so far," she adds, "was 'Kate' in 'Taming of the Shrew', it gave me a chance to try a new style of acting, and the scene where 'Petruccio' threw me down and tied me up, with all that action, was so much fun."

"I think 'Bus Stop' was my best learning experience," Cheryl continues, "it was my first time to work with Will."

Garza Theatre director Will McCrary is particularly impressed with Cheryl's development as an actress.

"After a lifetime in this business," he explains, "you learn to recognize those young people who seem destined toward theatre careers."

"It's hard to explain, all their instincts are 'just right', and Cheryl is one of those gifted young people," he observes.

"It's been to her advantage to recognize her goal so early in life and while she is young to train herself in her craft," McCrary adds.

Cheryl, winner of the 1987 Willy Award as Best Cameo Actress for her role in "You Know I Can't Hear You When The Water's Running," is also an award winning high school actress.

As a freshman at PHS, she was selected on the All-Star cast in the U.I.L. play "Jane Eyre."

As a sophomore she was also named to the All-Star cast in "I Remember Mama."

Last year as a junior Cheryl was named the Zone's Best Actress for her role in "Children Of A Lesser God."

Other U.I.L. honors last year included District and Area All-Star cast and Regional Best Actress. The play also was selected as alternate for state competition.

"I'd like to pursue acting, but I also have my eye on working toward broadcast television," Cheryl explains, "and what I'm learning here is very important for improving my communication skills."

"I think anyone who is interested in improving their ability to communicate will benefit from the training available at the Garza Theatre," she adds.

Cheryl is the daughter of Patricia Thompson, who believes the theatre is a "very positive experience for Cheryl."

"She absolutely lives and loves theatre, at school and at the Garza Theatre," Patricia adds. "Since the third grade, when Marita Jackson involved Cheryl in the program there, Cheryl has really been into stage work."

"Her experiences at school with Candace McConnell and at the Garza Theatre with Will McCrary have been just really great for her," Patricia says.

Garza Theatre audiences will have another chance to see one of the theatre's most promising "students" in "The Seven Year Itch" when it opens September 1.

Tickets may be reserved at the box office by calling 495-4005 between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday through Saturday.

Evening performances start at 7:45 p.m. and the Sunday matinee begins at 2 p.m.

Gina Basquez Places 1st in State 4-H Record Book Competition

Gina Basquez, daughter of Pru and Anna Basquez of Post, placed first in a 4-H State Recordbook Competition held at Texas A&M University August 8-10 and has been selected as an official Texas delegate to the 67th National 4-H Congress in Chicago, Illinois, December 2-9, 1988.

An active 4-H'er for eight years, Gina entered her recordbook in the Family Life category.

In order to place first in recordbook judging, Gina participated in or conducted activities where she worked with youth and older adults, implemented leadership and community service, and was involved in academic and other non-4-H activities.

She placed first in county and district recordbook judging, before being entered at State.

Gina has entered her recordbook the past two years, however, this year her book was revised with the assistance of 4-H leaders Breena Payton, Diane Graves, Diana Basquez and County Extension Agent Sandy Tomlinson.

According to Tomlinson, "Recordbooks require many hours, lots of work, and a well organized recordkeeping system. Gina has worked very hard for this honor and is very deserving."

Gina comes from a family with a strong 4-H background. Her father, Pru, is a 4-H Club Manager and an active member of the 4-H Adult Leaders Association.

Her sisters, Diana and Cindy, have both been recipients of the two highest 4-H County Awards - the Gold Star and the "I Dare You" award.

"Gina will be a representative of Texas while in Chicago," Tomlinson said, "and her Congress trip is unsponsored - so if any individual, family or business would like to make a contribution to this educational honor and opportunity, please notify the County Extension Office, second floor, Garza County Courthouse.

Extension Clubs Honor 3 Women

Each year the Garza County Extension Homemakers Clubs recognize an Extension Woman of the Year and this year a Recognition Luncheon was held on Thursday, August 18 to honor the year's choice.

Of the 62 enrolled Extension Homemakers in Garza County, this year three recipients were presented with the honor.

Why three? Because the judging committee felt that the three recipients chosen each had made such diversified, outstanding contributions to our county in the areas of Extension Homemakers, 4-H, youth and senior citizens.

The first recipient, Faye Payton, is one of the most deserving E.H. Club members in Garza County. For years she has been a 4-H leader in both food nutrition and clothing and has been most generous with her personal donations to 4-H winners.

She has held offices in her club and E.H. Council and has done a terrific job of them. She has attended most all District and State Meetings until the past year or so.

Last, but not least, when she was elected to an office or there was a job to do, she was always willing to accept instead of saying, "Let someone else."

For years she has been either Chairman or Secretary of E.H. County Council and has also helped with the Year Book Committee as well as many other committees.

The second recipient, Ruth Martin, decided about nine years ago, along with Betty Striblin, that she wanted to be a member of an Extension Homemakers Club, but they both needed to attend a night meeting.

Another Reason Why YOU SHOULD BE A CHRISTIAN

CHRISTIAN PEOPLE ENJOY THE BEST LIFE

★ Mat. 5:8 "How blest are those whose hearts are pure; they shall see God."

A person cannot work at a better job or position in life without first quitting his less desirable job. That is the way it is with the Christian life. In order to enjoy the blessings and benefits of being a Christian, a person must by necessity make changes in his personal habits, attitudes, and probably his associates. God wants all of us to live at our highest potential in life and enjoy all of the blessings He has provided for those who love Him.

Binford, Crenshaw Exchange Wedding Vows

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Binford are proud to announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Elizabeth, to Bruce Lance Crenshaw, son of Jim and Glenda Booth of Houston, Texas and the grandson of C.B. and Thelma Bilberry of Post.

The wedding was performed by Patrick Norris on Friday, August 12, 1988 at the First United Methodist Church of Post.

The altar of the church was decorated with English ivy in brass urns and brass candelabra.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a tea-length gown styled of candlelight Seville lace. It had a bateau neckline which was edged in embroidered lace.

Her dress had a long-waisted design with a wide cummerbund of candlelight satin which circled the dress and ended in a large candy-box bow in the back.

The sleeves were also of the Seville lace and were fitted, ending in a lace edged cuff.

Seed pearls adorned the bodice of the dress. The styling of the dress was enhanced by being tea-length in front, and floor length in the back.

Her small brimmed picture hat was covered in crystal pleated organza, with appliques of Chantilly lace richly embroidered in seed pearls which followed the patterns of the lace design. The back of the hat had a full pouf bow and a fingertip veil edged in pencil stitching completed the beauty of the hat.

She wore a single pearl strand and pearl earrings.

The bridal bouquet was a large cluster of silk peach and ivory carnations with peach and ivory streamers.

Teresa Landreth was maid of honor, and Joanna Binford, sister of the bride, served as bridesmaid.

They were attired in tea-length peach satin dresses with vee-shaped necklines trimmed in a double row of ruffles. The dresses also featured fitted bodices and extra large bows in the back.

The dresses for the maid of honor and bridesmaid were made by Mary Landreth and Teresa Williams.

Each of the attendants carried a single stem peach rose.

The groom wore an ivory tuxedo with peach cummerbund, bow tie and boutonniere.

Donald Crenshaw, cousin of the groom, served as best man and groomsman was Ron Graves.

Serving as ushers were Tommy Binford and Sam Binford, brothers of the bride.

Wedding music was provided by Cathy Boles who sang "I Can't Help Falling in Love With You" and by Carolyn Bryan who sang and played "Adoration."

All the silk flowers, bride's bouquet, pew bows and corsages were made by Laveta Norman.

A reception in the Methodist Fellowship Hall followed the ceremony.

The bride's table and groom's table were both done by Jane Mason.

They were covered in ivory lace cloths with brass and crystal appointments and featured ivory and peach monogrammed napkins and peach silk flower arrangements with ivory and peach candles. The groom's table was decorated with a brass antique car and ivy in brass. The bride's tiered cake was by Jimella Simpson and the groom's chocolate cake by Slaton Bakery.

Monique Binford, sister-in-law of the bride, and Cathy Boles served at the bride's table. Marsha and Tammy Booth, sisters of the groom served at the groom's table.

Guests were registered from Gainesville, Garland, Grand Prairie, Post, El Paso, Brownfield, Houston, Plano and Allen.

After a honeymoon in Tres Ritas, New Mexico, the couple are at home in Post until the groom enters the Air Force in September.

After completing basic training and technical training, they will live on base.

If you have household members for whom last month's income was higher or lower than usual, please list that person's expected average monthly income for this year. For example, self-employed people like farmers and seasonal workers should list average monthly income.

RACE: Please check the racial or ethnic identity of your child. You are not required to answer this question. We need this information to be sure that everyone receives benefits on a fair basis.

FOSTER CHILDREN: In certain cases foster children are eligible for free or reduced-price meals regardless of your household income. If you have such children living with you, please contact the school for special instructions on how to complete this application.

PRIVACY ACT INFORMATION - SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS: Federal law (P.L. 97-35) requires you to list social security numbers of all adult household members before your child may receive free or reduced-price meals. You do not have to give social security numbers, but if you use your child cannot receive free or reduced-price meals. The social security numbers may be used to identify you for verifying the information you report on this application. Verification may include audits, investigations, contacting the State employment office, food stamp or welfare office, and employers, and checking the written information provided by the household to confirm the information received. If incorrect information is discovered, a loss of benefits or legal action may occur. These facts must be told to all household members whose social security numbers are reported on this form.

The Retail Merchants Association of Post is sponsoring a "check alert system" for local stores to tell them in advance those in the Post area who are writing an estimated 6,176 in insufficient fund checks for $357,120 annually. The city council is expected to vote to discontinue Post's one percent sales tax on residential utility bill before September 10 so the reduction can go into effect October 1.

The fate of the community auditorium now appears to hinge on a city council decision whether or not to go ahead with purchase of the property, with that decision expected to be made at the council's next regular meeting Monday night, September 9.

The city council Tuesday tentatively approved a new city budget of $200,854.78 and went on record as favoring a 15-cent cut in the tax rate, as recommended by City Manager E.A. (Eddie) Warren and City Auditor Arthur (Bud) Davis.

"I just can't say enough about our defense," Post Antelope head coach Dewayne Osborne emphasizes about last Friday's scrimmage here with Floydada.

"Our players just flat got after it, and I mean they are playing very aggressive football," the coach adds. He praised the entire team for the attitude and overall effort.

"For a first scrimmage, we just couldn't be more pleased," Osborne continues.

He pointed out that tailback Lannie Lee's performance was a bright spot. Lee gained a total of 162 yards, picking up the only two touchdowns for the Lopes.

One of the scores was a 69 yard scamper.

The running backs ran behind a solid offensive line, including Keith Peel, Jimmy Holleman, Matt Pennell, Bill Rankin, Chad Davis, Tyge Payne, Jarrett Dickson, Neal Gibbs and Richard Hudman.

"We made some mistakes," Osborne observes, "but we realized that would happen, and they are the kind of mistakes that can be corrected.

Osborne also says he is impressed with both Rance Sappington and Kevin Williams at the quarterback slot.

In World War II hundreds of thousands of women, children and elderly were killed as German and Japanese cities were incinerated, first by fire bombs, then by the atomic explosion.

The Persian Gulf expedition is not a war...or at least it isn't "our war.

That is essentially the problem.

We have sent our highly trained and skilled military personnel to a war zone, taught them to defend themselves in combat situations, and then charged them to be ready...but don't go after civilian targets.

All very easy to say from the comfort of the White House.

We are not at war and we should, as I have insisted in the past, get our military people out of that area as quickly as possible.

I think that President Reagan was wrong and ill-advised in the first place to send our Navy to protect foreign ships carrying foreign oil to foreign ports.

Protecting American shipping on the open seas is definitely a job for the U.S. Navy...but sticking American flags on top of Kuwaiti, Italian or Japanese ships is just short of clever deception.

Actually, no one has really been deceived...it is no secret that the real intent was to keep American influence in that region in an effort to foil Soviet attempts to get an edge.

Those who dreamed up this scheme gave poor advice to a president who sometimes has been known to "doze off" during briefings.

The fear of Soviet influence in the Persian Gulf is no more valid a justification for our action there than the silly prattle that John Foster Dulles used on Harry Truman and Dwight Eisenhower in the late 1940s and early 1950s as we stumbled into a mess in Southeast Asia.

Both viewpoints are based on fear and misunderstanding...and we all know what happened to us when we followed Dulles' brilliant foreign policy ideas in Vietnam.

Yes, friends, we lost thousands and thousands of our young people in that fight to stop the creeping cancer of communism.

How many times do we have to repeat these mistakes to learn a lesson?

We're just real lucky we haven't lost more and killed more in the Persian Gulf.

Perhaps we'll get out before it gets worse.

Homemakers...

So, Ruth Martin and Betty Striblin talked to the Extension agent and started the Post Club.

Ruth is the wife of Barney Martin, a mother of two children, a grandmother and, we hear, a great-grandmother.

Every extension club needs a Ruth Martin. She is always there - one of those people who give 110 percent - the first to volunteer and the last to leave with the cleanup is done.

Ruth has dedicated many hours to supporting the goals of Extension Homemakers Clubs.

The third recipient for Extension Homemaker of the Year is Verna Roberts.

Verna Roberts is an active club member of the Close City Club and has served as the club's president for a few years.

She does her own homework and sewing and also takes time to visit sick folks.

Off and on for many years she has been a club member, showing others how to make things.

In addition to all these activities, Verna Roberts does church work and is a member of the Trail Blazers Senior Citizens Club - and she does all these things at age 91.

Southland Eagles Few But Quick

by Rodney Marshall

The Southland Eagles scrimmaged Lorraine last Friday night, August 19, in Southland without scoring any points but gaining a tremendous amount of knowledge according to new head coach Ron Anders.

"When you have only nine boys out, practicing against dummies is quite different from a real football player as we found out," commented Anders.

What Anders is talking about is that with only six seniors and three juniors showing up for football the Eagles have only had dummies to run against in practice.

Anders is encouraged by what he saw last Friday night.

"We showed some promise the other night by getting inside the 10 yard line three times," said Anders.

Anders was impressed with the quickness of the team which is what is needed in six man football.

Defensively the Eagles played pretty well. Of course, that was the first time they tried to hold an offense that filled every offensive position.

"This was a good experience for our kids in that they saw things they couldn't see in practice," Anders noted.

Returning from the team last year are John Beatty at quarterback and outside linebacker, David Martinez at running back and safety, Mike Langley as end and outside linebacker, Fred Mendez at running back and Kelly Edwards at middle linebacker.

Joining the Eagles as assistant coach is Steve Osborn.

Osborn grew up in Wellman and just graduated from college. This is his first coaching position.

The Eagles will travel to Patton Springs Friday night, August 26. The game is scheduled to start at 6:00 p.m.

Southland's first game will be at home against Ira Friday, September 2, with a 7:30 p.m. kickoff time.

PAG Names Quinnie Cook Artist of the Month

The Post Art Guild has named Quinnie Cook as its Artist of the Month and her paintings are currently on display at the First National Bank.

Her son, Kenneth Cook, suggested that she take up painting as a hobby when she was looking around for something to occupy her time, and she has been painting for four years now.

Quinnie has not had a lot of formal training with her painting, but she has studied with local artist and fellow Art Guild member Glenda Morrow.

The Artist of the Month prefers landscapes to any other subjects and especially likes to spend her painting time on old houses or windmills, working in her chosen medium, oil.

School Safety Urged By Texas Department of Public Safety

Major Vernon Cawthon, Regional Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety, wants to remind everyone that the summer vacation will soon be over, and thousands of youngsters will be starting back to school, many of those for the first time.

So, once again, we will be seeing those big yellow school buses back on the streets and highways. The Texas Department of Public Safety wants to remind you that Texas law prohibits the passing of a stopped school bus that is loading or unloading passengers when the lights are flashing. If you are in doubt -- stop -- those few moments you lose may mean a lifetime to some youngster. None of us want to be responsible for the death or injury of a young child, so remember to slow down in the school zones in the mornings and again in the afternoons.

Major Cawthon stated, "Just because most of the children will be in school, we must not forget the preschooler who will still be playing in the residential areas. Remember, slow down as you are driving through school zones, playgrounds, and in and around school areas."

In the Neighborhood

by Lonnie Welborn
Would you like a chance to express your opinion on the best Texas football game ever?

Well, Taylor Publishing of Dallas would like to give you that chance and also give you a chance to win a copy of their new book by Kirk Dooley, "The Book of Texas Bests."

Remember Kirk Dooley? He's the man who created the board game "Texas Trivia" and wrote the book "Hidden Dallas."

Now, Dooley has few rivals when it comes to knowing about Texas, and he states in his new book that the "Best Football Game" is the annual Texas-Oklahoma bash in Dallas.

Folks, let's get serious. If Oklahoma didn't raid the Texas schoolboy ranks each year during recruiting season to fill their roster, they couldn't beat the University of Vermont in a game of marbles.

It is felt by many that anything relating to a bunch of Okies and renegade Texans has little to do with the BEST of Texas.

Dooley has his opinion and now Taylor Publishing is interested in checking your opinions on this matter. What are your thoughts on the Best Texas Football Game ever - high school, college or pro?

If you submit a recommendation on the Best Texas Football Game to "Best of Texas," Taylor Publishing Company, 1550 W. Mockingbird, Dallas, Texas, 75235, Kirk Dooley will mail a personally autographed copy of his new book to the person with the best answer.

You may even be able to change his mind about the Texas-Oklahoma game.

Reunion
The Close City-Garlynn reunion was held Saturday, August 20 in the Post Community Center and a large crowd of past and present residents of the two communities, and friends, attended the get-together.

Donna Harmon, Laverne Aten and Anne Leake welcomed and registered the 150 guests who began arriving at 10 a.m. and were served doughnuts and coffee before a buffet luncheon was served at 12 noon.

Lunch was followed by a program of several people reminiscing about "the good old days."

Memorabilia was displayed - group pictures of both schools and also albums of former reunions.

Morning and afternoon hours were spent renewing acquaintances and everyone reported an enjoyable day.

Special recognition was given to teachers who attended - Mrs.

Minnie Williams, Mrs. Geneva Voss Davis, Mrs. Elsie Josey Wright, Mr. Jess Cearley and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Howell.

Inez Huntley presented gifts to Mrs. Irene Hawthorne Day from California, as the person traveling the greatest distance, and to Mrs. Eula B. Mason Smith, who accepted the gift for having the largest family represented.

New officers elected Saturday were W.H. Kenley, president; Chester Morris, vice president; and Laverne Furr Aten, secretary-treasurer - who will be busy planning the next reunion scheduled for August 18, 1990.

Dallas
And speaking of Dallas (which I was earlier), I have reached a conclusion - either the economy in the Dallas area is 100 percent better than it is here, or the people in the Dallas area just aren't as smart as the people in West Texas.

I reached this conclusion after I received a news item this week about a radio station in Dallas that has to have some real winners for listeners.

A disc jockey on this commercial radio station recently asked the Dallas listeners to send $25 checks to the station - without promising anything at all in return.

At last report, an estimated $240,000 had been received and the station was trying to decide how best to use the contributions.

Somehow, I just don't get a very clear picture of a scheme like this working in Post, Texas, but I would like a shot at telling that radio station what they can do with the money they collected.

"THE SEVEN YEAR ITCH"

After a successful two-weekend Summer Shakespeare Festival, which spotlighted eight dazzling performances of "A Midsummer Night's Dream," the Garza Theatre bounces back into its regular production schedule - featuring classic Broadway hits. Opening September 1-4 will be George Axelrod's romantic comedy "The Seven Year Itch."

Will McCrary will be designing and directing the production as usual, but also will recreate one of his favorite leading comic roles, that of "Richard Sherman," the happily married husband with the mischievous twinkle in his eye.

"I've done eight different productions of this comedy around the country in the past 20 years," McCrary says. "It's always good to get back to this play, audiences love it."

Theatre goers will best remember Marilyn Monroe in this, one of her most beloved roles as "the girl upstairs." The Garza Theatre production will feature our own new star, Cheryl Thompson, in a role coveted by all aspiring actresses.

Other players include Kay Smith and Jerry Ferguson of Slaton, along with Post performers Krista Kemp, Stacy Nolan, Pam Workman and Wayne Line.
