United Way Short of 1989 Goal

The Garza County United Way Committee has announced that the organization, after almost three months of fund-raising, is $3,383 short of the $14,000 goal set in October.

The United Way collections balance now stands at $10,617 and if donations are not received to bring the total up to $14,000, the United Way Board of Directors will have to revise the yearly budget and make cuts in the amounts allocated for participating agencies.

Local groups that benefit from United Way donations, and who will receive a cut in their "fair share" if the goal is not reached, include Red Cross, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Senior and Little League Baseball, Garza United Way, Salvation Army, Garza County Mental Health, Garza County Child Welfare, Post Satellite School and the Post Junior Girls' Basketball Program.

If you have not made a contribution to the Garza County United Way 1989, you are urged to do so now and help the United Way reach its goal.

Donations may be submitted either directly to Margie Pennell at the First National Bank, or mailed to P.O. Box 10, Post, Texas 79356 or 215 W. 10th Street, Post, Texas 79356.

Post Notes

by Wesley W. Burnett

I guess by February 8 our illustrious elected and appointed officials in Washington, D.C. will pocket their 50 percent pay raises without a whimper.

Personally I have very little faith that there are enough congressmen, congresswomen or senators to stand up for the American people and demand a return to accountability.

As you surely must know by now, the 50 percent pay raise goes into effect automatically on February 8 following President Reagan's approval of the commission's report.

The only way the pay raise can be stopped is -- get this folks -- congress votes to turn it down.

If there is no vote, the pay becomes a fact.

What a way to go!
I think it's way past time for the American tax payer to cry loud and clear, Enough Already!

I propose that a movement to amend the constitution to require that no congressman or congresswoman or senator be allowed to serve more than two consecutive terms.

Following those two consecutive terms, the constitutional amendment I propose would allow the "professional" politicians to lay out a term before being allowed to return to service.

If we had that sort of rotation in congress I think our life-time elected officials would get great value from returning full time to their districts, and the taxpayers would get the benefit of not allowing such power to accumulate in the halls of congress.

We already restrict the terms of office of the president to two, so why not put this same sort of common sense on our other elected officials?

I have observed that the longer these fellows stay in Washington, the more power they get, the further away they are from the ideas of their constituents and the less accountable they become to the taxpayer.

Of course, a constitutional amendment is not easy to get started, but it seems that the only way we taxpayers are going to get any hope of relief is through the amendment process.

Obviously our elected representatives aren't going to turn down more money as we sit back and let it happen.

Next week: fear of the IRS.

Sports Editorial

by Rodney Marshall
Losing is not fun for any team or individual.

There are no trophies, no honor, no praise...wait a minute...no praise?

Just because a team or individual does not "win" does that necessarily mean that they "lose"?

I would like to bring to your attention an article by Bob Ottewell, with the Colorado Interscholastic Activities Association, under the title given above.

Ottewell coached a team of ninth graders in a competitive basketball league in the Denver area.

His team, the Tomcats, despite a 6-16 record, had a very successful season for the following reasons:

"They showed respect for the officials and never received a technical foul.

"When things were going bad--as they often did--no player ever blamed a teammate.

"The team lost with dignity and never looked for excuses. They didn't blame losses on poor officiating, lack of height, or inadequate coaching.

"No player ever openly complained about lack of playing time; everyone cheered his teammates.

"Every player showed respect for his opponents, during and after games. There was never a situation that was even close to becoming a fight.

"The team never gave up. It approached each quarter and each game as a new challenge.

"The players must have carried their positive attitudes home. The parents supported the team through some tough losses. (The parents no doubt had a great deal to do with the players' attitudes.)

"While never becoming accustomed to losing, the players understood the basic truth that winning or losing basketball games has no correlation with someone's value as a person."

Our young people may be having a hard time in winning basketball games, but it is not because they do not want to and the coaches do not want to.

As Ottewell continued to say, "If we believe in the value of competition, we must believe that its value exists in defeat as well as in victory."

"A losing season is a test. When kids pass that test, they deserve to be praised."

Don't you agree?

Sheriff Cockrell Guest Speaker at Workshop

The Community Alcohol-Drug Abuse Council of Post held an awareness workshop on Thursday, January 12, at the Postex Mill meeting room.

Approximately 40 concerned citizens attended the meeting where Garza County Sheriff Freddy Cockrell gave an informative program on "Drugs and Law Enforcement."

The workshop was an effort to acquaint the public with the laws regarding the sale and use of drugs and alcohol and how citizens can assist the sheriff's department in its efforts to make the community drug free.

A panel of officers, including Gene Posey, Lonnie Gene Peel and Ron Jenkins, were on hand to answer questions from the audience.

"MY SPECIAL PLACE"
by Linda Davis

My mommie works, and I can't be left alone;
So she takes me to my other home.
It's not too big and it's not too small;
And there is plenty of love for one and all.
There's lots to learn and fun things to play;
I wish I could go there everyday!
Rest time is important for us little tots;
And I just love to sleep on those tiny cots.
You'll make lots of friends and learn to share;
And be with people who really care.
Before we eat we all say grace;
And I always thank God for "MY SPECIAL PLACE."

Cotton Talks....

from Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. The Board of Directors of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock January 11 manifested solid opposition to sacrificing the Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) loan program or raw cotton import restrictions on the altar of achieving competitive prices.

Looking at the declining off-take of U.S. cotton in the face of an expected 9.2 million plus carryover at the end of this marketing year, the Board evidenced support for industry efforts toward competing more aggressively for available markets. "We know we are being undersold by our competitors in world markets," said PCG President Steve Verett of Ralls, "exactly what the 1985 Farm Act was designed to prevent."

But the fault lies with an unrealistic adjusted world price (AWP), not with the operation of the loan program, the board agreed. The AWP is the price at which U.S. cotton can be redeemed from the loan or sold by producers without loss of producer income. When the world's selling price is low, as now, the AWP can be and was meant to be at a level allowing U.S. cotton to hold its fair share of the market.

Discussion of the loan program and raw cotton imports sprung from unofficial suggestion made by cotton merchants and a position adopted by the American Textile Manufacturers Institute (ATMI). Some in the merchandising sector contend that excessive producer demands for loan equities have been the major culprit in preventing U.S. cotton from being offered at competitive prices. To remedy the situation they propose eliminating the producer's right to obtain an eight month extension of initial ten month loans.

Some also advocate that all loans be changed from 'nonrecourse' to 'recourse' loans, requiring producers to repay loans before maturity date whether or not the cotton can be sold at or above the loan principal plus accumulated carrying charges.

ATMI also proposes discontinuing the provisions of "Section 22," the law that has long prohibited the import of any significant amounts of foreign grown cotton. ATMI states that discontinuance of Section 22 would be urged only if other mechanisms guaranteeing cotton at world prices to U.S. textile mills are not implemented.

In other action the PCG Board discussed and supplied suggestions on the work of a commission created by Congress to recommend improvements in federal crop insurance. The Board agreed to request that a hearing on the subject be held in Lubbock.

Ginner, producer and PCG past president Myrl Mitchell of Lenorah serves on the commission, charged with reporting to Congress on April 1 and again July 1. A third meeting of the commission is set for February 1.

Janell Jones Earns National Honor

On behalf of the Texas Section Society for Range Management and Youth Activities Committee, Janell Jones, 10 year Garza County 4-H'er has been asked to represent the Texas Section at the 1989 High School Youth Forum at Billings, Montana. The Forum is a part of an annual meeting for the Society for Range Management held February 19-23, 1989. Jones has been chosen to serve as an official delegate for Texas and receives all expenses paid for this trip.

As a Texas delegate to the Forum, Jones is asked to prepare an 8 minute presentation using slides and/or other visual aides on a form of Range Management used in Texas, particularly West Texas. The presentation will be judged by range management authorities at the meeting and the top three papers are recognized by the SRM and published in Rangelands. With the help of her parents, local Soil Conservation Service, Judge Giles Dalby, and Garza County Extension Agents, Jones is presenting her presentation on "Weighted Roller Chopper Re-establishes Root Plowed Turf", which has been implemented on the Cross-H Ranch. The Range Management Meeting and trip will be an exciting and wonderful educational experience for Janell. The Garza County 4-H Clubs and County Extension Staff all congratulate Janell and wish her luck in her presentation.

Janell was selected for this opportunity based on her outstanding work at the 1988 Youth Range Workshop held at Junction, Texas in June, where she also received the Honor Ramrod award. During her week-long Montana meeting, Jones will participate in tours of local interest sites, ranch visits, plant and ecology field trips, several socials and get-acquainted activities, the Society For Range Management Annual Meeting Banquet, a visit to meet the S.R.M. President, a country and western dance, and attend many presentations by world-wide professional rangers.

DPS Needs Experienced Cyclists for Program

The Texas Department of Public Safety Motorcycle Training Section is seeking experienced, safety conscious motorcycle riders to become DPS-approved motorcycle instructors. Motorcycle safety instructors will work on a free-lance basis for the educational organizations that sponsor rider training programs. The programs are approved and administered by DPS.

The instructors teach safety skills and defensive strategies to beginners in a 17-hour Riding and Street Skills course. The course is required for minors under the age of 18 and encouraged for all other riders. Instructors can also teach an eight-hour Experienced Rider course. The courses are scheduled in the evening and on weekends. Instructor pay varies, but averages at least $10 to $15 per hour for up to 20 hours per course. Classes are offered in 46 sites around the state. Instructors are needed in nearly all areas.

All instructor candidates must complete a 60-hour Instructor Preparation Course which is certified by the Motorcycle Safety Foundation. The course is usually given over three consecutive weekends, and will be offered in several selected locations throughout the state in 1989.

For more information or to receive an application, please contact Jim White at the DPS Motorcycle Training Office, P.O. Box 4087, Austin, Texas, 78773; or call toll-free 1-800-CYCLSTS (292-5787).

Texas Department of Health Advises Cold Weather Care

Although Texas is not among the states noted for severe winters, the Texas Department of Health (TDH) warns that extreme cold is part of the Texas climate, and residents should know its dangers.

Dr. Clift Price, TDH Associate Commissioner for Personal Health Services, said, "Each year, people die from the cold in Texas. And despite our health warnings and more accurate weather forecasting, their numbers seem to be increasing. These are people whose primary cause of death is extreme loss of body heat-hypothermia."

In 1987 alone, some 27 Texans died from excessive cold according to the TDH Vital Statistics Bureau. The previous year that total was 26.

The most frequent victims of hypothermia are very young children, the sick, and the elderly, Dr. Price explained. Children's small bodies radiate reserved heat faster than adults'. People who are chronically ill, using medications, drugs, or excessive alcohol may have lower resistance to sharp temperature changes, and may react slowly in emergencies.

The increasing number of homeless people are further at risk where temporary shelter is unavailable. Also, beyond age 65, some persons begin to lose their natural reflex to shiver, which is both an automatic warming mechanism to stimulate the circulation and a means of alerting the individual to dangerous temperature.

Hypothermia starts when the deep body temperature drops to 95 degrees, just less than four degrees below normal. The victim becomes lethargic and confused. Drowsiness, slurred speech, falling blood pressure, shallow breathing, and a bloated or pinkish tint to the skin develop, and unless the individual receives warmth, coma and death are imminent.

"Many hypothermia victims die in their own homes, quietly, before anyone realizes the danger," Dr. Price said.

Relatively few people "freeze to death," since death occurs long before the body temperature reaches the freezing point, although extremities may freeze if exposed to severe cold, Dr. Price explained.

"The general public, even those who work outside in dangerously cold weather, often underestimates the elements, particularly wind-chill," Dr. Price added. A brisk wind combined with a temperature slightly below freezing can increase the chilling effect on exposed skin by almost 50 degrees below the thermometer reading.

Anyone who must be outside in very cold weather should pay attention to weather forecasts and should heed changes, such as increases in wind. They should wear loose-fitting, layered clothing, gloves and face covering, and should have an emergency plan for staying warm if conditions worsen.

Dr. Price added that common sense and at least a rudimentary understanding of the dangers of wind-chill are essential for anyone preparing to be outdoors in severe cold. "The best advice is to stay home and stay warm. But if you must go out, know what you are up against and prepare for it," Price said.

According to the American Cancer Society, one out of ten women will develop breast cancer sometime in her lifetime. It is currently estimated that over 37,000 women die each year as a result of breast cancer.

Ninety percent of breast cancers are diagnosed by women or their physicians finding a lump in the breast. Women who are diagnosed with a lump large enough to feel have a 50 percent five year survival rate. A woman who is diagnosed as having breast cancer by mammography, before a lump can be felt, has a 97% five year survival rate and a 90% 10 year survival rate. (The cost is only $55.00)

A mammogram can detect a cancer this small, even before it can be felt.

In the Neighborhood

by Lonnie Welborn

Mildred Boren Wood, of Lamesa, mailed us an article recently about Bud Boren, from a December 1988 issue of "Livestock Weekly," and Boren's life makes for very interesting reading.

Bud Boren was a cowboy and a rancher and was in many ways typical of the small and medium-sized West Texas ranchman, but he was also an unusual, colorful character.

He was the first judge of Garza County; hauled the mail from Fluvanna to Justiceburg twice a week until the postoffice was able to pay a regular carrier to take over the job; built a fence line telephone line and later a regular line; and served in a voluntary capacity on many community projects.

James "Bud" Boren was born in Arkansas and moved to Texas with his family in 1877, taking three months to make the trip in a wagon drawn by four horses.

They wintered in Dallas, in a tent, where Boren's mother lost a baby and almost lost her life. They moved on to Williamson County and then to Coleman County in 1879 where Bud and his brother took care of the cattle, loose-herding them on grass all winter because there were no fences.

That winter - 1880 - was a cold one and the Boren cattle drifted as much as a hundred miles and most of them died. In the spring the boys' father kept just seven milk cows and two oxen.

In 1888, Bud Boren went to work for an uncle who ranched in Kent County and what would become Garza County, running 8000-10,000 cattle on the OS Ranch. He served 10 years on the ranch's Fisher County division, where part of his job was to help drive herds of up to 2000 two-year-old steers to shipping points in the Panhandle - a trip of 30 to 40 days.

The only towns within practical reach were Gail and Colorado City - where a wagon would be taken once a year for staple supplies, a five or six day trip on which some 3000 pounds of groceries would be bought and hauled back.

A typical haul included 200 pounds of coffee, 200 pounds of sugar, 300 pounds of potatoes, 12-15 boxes of dried fruit and other assorted staples.

In a letter, Boren recalled the battle against lobo wolves in Garza and Borden counties. The ranch lost an entire colt crop to them and invested in a pack of Georgia wolfdogs, which Boren took out when he wasn't busy.

He recalled that women were few - none on the OS itself - and entertainment scarce except for what the cowboys invented for themselves: card-playing, storytelling, stag dances. At one stag dance they wore through the floor of a bunkhouse room. On holidays like July 4 they might ride 35 to 40 miles to a dance.

He saved his money until he felt he was ready for marriage and a ranch of his own. In 1899 he left the OS and acquired four sections in Garza County - stocking it with Hereford cattle and using the Z brand which had been his father's. He expanded the ranch in time to 12 sections.

In 1907, when citizens petitioned to separate Garza from Borden County, he recalled that there was some problem getting enough names on the petition because of the sparse population, and several saddlehorses wound up signing the petition.

When Post became the county seat the event was celebrated with a big dance and celebration were 25 beeves were barbecued.

On the way home from the celebration, the family stopped to pick wild plums and daughter Mildred was bitten by a rattlesnake. Boren cut the wound and sucked out the poison. The daughter recovered all right, but Boren later developed an abscessed tooth which he blamed on the venom.

After Boren build a home in Post, it was often a home away from home for some of the cowboys and the courthouse was a favorite place for dances. Cowboy bedrolls would be scattered all over the courthouse square.

The community called Boren, Judge, but his wife always called him "Mr. Boren." After some of the dance incidents, however, she sometimes didn't call him anything for days.

On one occasion the sheriff handcuffed a prisoner to a bedstead in the bedroom of son Walter. The prisoner tried all night to work his way loose, bending the bedstead and keeping the family up.

Boren became a friend of C.W. Post, and when Post's funeral train came through the town, Boren got on to attend the burial in Battle Creek, Michigan.

He retired from public life in 1923 and died of pneumonia in 1937.

Boren's son retained the family home in Post and Walter and Gwen Boren still live there.

Garden Club Members Enjoy Plant Exchange

by Margaret Barley

Most of the Garden Club met at Irene Mitchell's at 7 p.m. December 12. One member did as told and met at 7:30 p.m. If that doesn't beat all! Ignoring remarks like, "Better late than never," I went straight to the food, filled my plate and did my best Garfield imitation, eating lots in a hurry.

It was an especially pleasant evening, however, because we had two delightful guests who later became members, Jewel White and Annie Laura Francis. We have a unique way of voting. Prospective members hide their eyes, but really Jewel and Annie Laura, you both peeked. Shame!

Members attending, at one time or another, were our gracious hostesses Irene, Marion Wheatley, Carlene Kyle, Gladys Hendrix, Shorty King, Margaret Barley, Alma Williams, Sybil Cockrum, Maurine Hudman, Thelma Epley and our two new members.

Our plant exchange went beautifully. We drew numbers and no one refused to take the plant they drew. This, in itself, makes it a success. Actually, there were some lovely plants exchanged - ponytail palm, shimmering ivy, aloe, dieffenbachia, fantasia, Chinese evergreen and cactus, to name a few. Tell me that's not impressive. Thanks Maurine.

The cactus plant was "having babies" and all that was necessary to root them was to lay them on top of the soil. They will root themselves.

And did'ja know that plastic pots are better than clay pots for plants because plastic does not absorb the salt and minerals like clay pots do? You do need to flush them with water occasionally though. And out-dated birth control pills really are beneficial to plants. Question: where would you get a prescription for out-dated birth control pills and where could you find a pharmacist who would fill it with a straight face?

Carlene Kyle propagated the plant she brought, a nephthytis. "Propagate" is a word for tearing a plants little leaves off, poking them in water till they root, planting them in soil and darning them to live. Good luck, Carlene. We're "rooting" for you!

Next month is Valentine party month. Hope the Canasta players behave.

Post Varsity Boys Loses to Cooper, 84-65

The Post Varsity Antelopes traveled to Cooper Tuesday, January 10, and came home with an 84-65 loss.

"We were not mentally prepared to play Cooper Tuesday night...Physical and mental competition vs. someone is something one cannot turn on and off," commented coach Mitchell Rasbury.

Rasbury commented that the Antelopes second half effort was good, "but we are not good enough to spot someone a 30-6 lead and come back to win."

He continued in saying that the Antelopes are scoring enough points to win but they need to improve on defense.

"This is where games are won," Rasbury concluded.
