SUPPORT OUR HOME TOWN

SWEET N' SOUR

By A. Dill

alls is the Easter season, and although it is the most glorious celebration of the Christian year it is also the saddest and often the most turbulent, for triumph never comes without struggle nor victory without sacrifice. Knowing the price tag attached to a thing which comes to us as a gift, and through no merit of our own, it is appalling that we often treat it so lightly. Some two thousand years ago, humanity was re-instated as heirs to Paradise with an admonition to "Ity was re-instated as heirs to Paradise with an admonition to "love one another," and with no thought at all as to what that reinstatement cost the Giver, we keep our covenant by slander, cruelty, neglect, and omission, even by violence. We may not remember Easter, but we re-in-ar Good Friday often enough, ter blossoms are raising ar Good Friday often enough.

ter blossoms are raising their lovely heads in the yards around town and the Iris at the Dub Robbins home are beautiful deep purple velvet and lavender chiffon. "The poor man's orchid," takes second place to none, either in color or contour.

Iris are coming on in Mrs. Felix Mitchell's yard too -- an abundance of that wonderful flower borders the house on all sides.

Add certain signes of Science and a sides.

Add certain signs of Spring --Smokey Edwards doing some plain 'n fancy yard work around his red bud trees and scanning the sky with that look that men get when they "figger it's fishin' weather."

For the most unusual, beautiful and completely delightful flowers in this or any town, we cast our vote with the bees and butterflies for the Mountain Laurel in Corrie Driskill's yard and the two at Mrs. Appleton's home — of all the blooms to assault eye and nostril surely these are the most exquisite. It would be well worth a trip on your part to go by these places to see those gorgeous blooms and sniff the honey-laden air that hangs like a halo around them.

Three cheers for Coach Vernon Townsend's Senior boys Hill Billy Wedding' at the Talent Show. All of us agreed it was hillarious, and more than that isn't it fantastic what Coach Townsend can do with his crew? For sparking with his corn enthusiasm, you can't beat that guy, and if he ever wants to trade in his coaching whistle for a director's chair - hang on to your laurels, Otto Premminger. The entire talent show was a roaring success and it's originator. Mrs. Clyde White, should take a deep bow for giving us the very best one in the history of that entertainment.

Baird United Fund

To Meet Monday

The Baird United Fund will meet Monday evening, April 3, in the County court room, first p. m., to elect officers and directors for the enut house, at 7:30 p. m., to elect officers and directors for the ensuing year. All members of the Baird United Fund are urged to attend, and the public is invited.

Continued support of the United Fund by the people of Baird is necessary for its success. The budget has been met the past few years, and the Fund has just completed one of its most successful years. The people of Baird are urged to attend its meetings and take an active part in the organizational work of the Fund.

Get It Ready

Monday begins Clean-Up Week.

If you have not done some trimming or other preparation for the city truck to remove, you need to get started right away. There are any number of men in Baird who can help you get ready. Last week's and also this week's paper gave the schedule for each area and the requirements necessary for the removal. Due to the fast that the truck will only come your way once during this Clean-Up Week, it is imperative that you have your trash ready. Any other special trip made by this truck for that purpose will be billed to the individual requiring service. Procrastination, in this case, is the thief of money.

What could seem more like Easter than new lambs frisking through the new green of Spring grass? Fred Foy has three of the finest little Hampshires you'll see anywhere and our Linda was delighted to know that these dusky bables bear the sterling names of Larry, Curley and Moe, which, of course, entitles them to blue ribbons at the very first lamb show.

candidate.

To save time for yourself, it would be best to study the sample ballot, printed below, and select your candidate. When you go to the polls, draw a line through the name just above and just below your choice, then draw a line through all the other names above and below your choice. This may seem elementary, but, considering that over 10% of the Texas ballots were not counted in the last election because of apparent negligence, because of apparent negligence, more education and information should be given the voters so that their voice can be heard. Below is listed the names of officer, Jon Hardwick.

The polls will be open from 8 a.m. until 7 p. m., and voters are asked to cooperate by voting early, if possible.

In this particular election, there will be no designated party affiliation, merely a list of 71 candidates. According to law, the voter is required to scratch out or mark out all other names on the ballot except the one he or mark out all other hames on the ballot except the one he wishes to vote for. Each voter should be careful to follow these instructions to insure that his vote will be counted. Several the 71 Senatorial candidates, as they will appear on the Callahan County ballots: DR. G. H. Five year old Richard O'Shields would rather you talked about something else, but on Monday of last week, he and his mother, Mrs. Herman O'Shields drove down to lend a helping hand to her sister, Mrs. Thurman Lambert. When his mother got out to shut the gate Richard was to shut the gate, Richard was supposed to hold his foot on the brake, but small boy like he dropped his chewing gum and he just had to take his foot off the brake to get his chewing gum.
The car began to roll and before you could bat an eye, splash, it rolled into a tank just below the gate. P. S. Richard had already bailed out of the car, and to quote Richard, "Let's talk about something else."

FIRST CHOICE of TEXAS VOTERS

Senator William A.

★ SENATOR BLAKLEY is the winner of the Texas Poll directed by Joe Belden and subscribed to by 21 leading Texas newspapers. H also is the first choice in many other surveys and polls conducted throughout Texas.

SENATOR BLAKLEY'S ACTION PROGRAM FOR TEXAS

$100 MILLION MORE ANNUALLY FOR SCHOOLS A home-rule aid-to-education plan that would return to each state 5 per cent of federal incom taxes for support of locally administered publi schools. In Texas this would mean over $100 million more annually for our schools — with federal interference!

INCOME TAX RELIEF FOR PRESSED PARENTS: Also, for families putting their children through school, additional income tax exemptions of $1,200 for college or university student, $400 for son or hter in high school. Parents deserve a tax

A HELPING HAND FOR OUR SENIOR CITIZENS: A bill to raise ceiling on what Social Security recipients may earn without being penalized. Se Blakley would raise ceiling from $1,200 to $1,800 a year to help many retired persons.

Reduce by one half the amount of foreign oil being brought into U. S. Texas' economy, schools, state government, all suffer when foreign oil floods market, causes Texas production to shut

INDEPENDENCE! WE MUST KEEP IT ALWAYS: Retain Connally Amendment to World Court. United States should maintain its sovereignty without question. Senator Blakley is fighting against repeal of this

Progressive and Civic-Minded Business People of ABILENE

This Department has been worked up largely as a reflection of public opinion. No person has written of themselves or their business. All articles have been compiled by a representative of The Baird Star as he saw conditions. These people are leaders in their various lines of endeavor and the cooperation of these people in Abilene who helped make this department possible is sincerely appreciated.

William G. Anderson

In paying tribute to some of the more dependable business men of Abilene, we would be remiss in our duty should we fail to include William G. Anderson of the William G.
