'Nuclear Chili' Filming Here

If all goes according to plan, a movie will be filmed in Post and spots in Garza County in September or October, producer-actor Gregory Cassel announced Monday afternoon.

During a visit here with Mayor Giles McCrary, Cassel said that "Nuclear Chili", in the making for more than three years, will include well known actors Richard Widmark and Robert Mitchum.

"They have expressed an interest and we expect them to sign on to do the film," Cassel said.

The Lubbock born and raised actor says he chose Post for the on-location filming "because the view of the Caprock and ranching areas are just perfect for the story."

He has toured area ranches and found several places for filming the outdoor scenes.

"I first became interested in Post as a filming site last summer while visiting my cousin (former Lubbock Mayor Alan Henry)," Cassel explains, "and he said I should talk to Giles McCrary."

"That first conversation led to visits and correspondence and now we're ready to get started. I really have to credit Giles for getting us down here," Cassel says.

"Nuclear Chili" is a Caprock Productions project of a Buddy Van Horn film.

The story, developed by Cassel, takes place on the "Double D", a West Texas ranch and involves a high-stakes horse race.

The proposed cast includes Cassel, Kate Capshaw, Liza Morrow, Glenn Ford, Mitchum, Jeff Corey, Widmark, David Keath, Jeff Severson, Brad Maule, James Remar, Ian Foster and Randy Quaid.

"Dyson Lovell, producer of 'The Lonesome Dove,' has expressed interest in co-producing the film," Cassel adds.

The movie will be shot entirely on location in Garza County with the exception of the track scenes.

A cast and crew of approximately 80 people will be in the area for five to six weeks.

Cassel says there will be local people hired as extras and some crew support. A production office is expected to be opened in Post in August.

Cassel also said that negotiations are underway with Paramount for distribution rights.

Birthday Party
Being in the hospital is no picnic, you'll have to admit, but in Ann Altman's case it came pretty close recently. It wasn't actually a picnic, but it was a birthday party to celebrate her 78th birthday.

Ann, who is a patient in Lubbock's St. Mary's Hospital, had all her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren together for the occasion - the first time since her 70th birthday that all her children were together at the same time.

In addition to celebrating Ann's birthday, which is April 14, also celebrated was son Bill's April 14 birthday and daughter Arleta's April 13 birthday.

On hand for the party were Ann's other children, Bonnie, Linda and Earl; grandchildren Angela, Darby, and Kristi; and great-grandchildren Rhonda and Bryon Smallwood.

The greeting may be a little late, but the intent is still the same - Happy Birthday to all.

Carter Family History
Tony Carter of Seagraves is trying to fill in some branches of his family tree for a book he's writing about the Carter family and is hoping to find someone in Post who can supply information about two Carter sisters who lived in the area.

Ada Carter Smith (Mrs. G.H. Smith) lived in Post at one time and her sister, Maude Carter Donaldson (Mrs. Charlie Donaldson) had a ranch between Snyder and Post. They were the daughters of J.F. and Anna Belle Carter.

If you have any knowledge of the sisters, contact Tony Carter at Box 1296, Seagraves, 79359 or call him at 546-3045.

The local Girl Scouts are always appreciative of the support given them by the people of Post, and, to show their appreciation, the group has asked us to pass along this message to you:

"Since Caprock Girl Scout Council is a United Way participant, it is time to say, 'Thanks To You It Works.' Our cookie sale could not be a success without your help. Letter to the Editor

I want to say that Melissa Cunningham was not hired to bring in new businesses. This is done by the Chamber of Commerce and the Post Economic Development Corporation. However, the PEDC was formed specifically to get a new industry for the mill building. The Chamber is the main arm for new businesses. The City is always supportive of legitimate new businesses.

We do have a new Pizza Hut under construction, due to the efforts of a concerned citizen.

The Main Street Project is funded in part by grants, and the director and board of directors have had fund raising projects and have collected over $100,000 in matching funds. The state highway department has worked with them to put trees in the center of Main Street. Therefore, the only money paid by the city has been for the salary and office expenses of the Project Manager. And it was not $100,000, as I was recently told had been her salary since coming here.

Main Street Projects are not funded by tax monies; the Chamber of Commerce and PEDC are still working very hard to get new businesses and industries for us.

Be sure to go vote Saturday May 6; but please be fair in making your selections. There are a lot of untrue things being said about our city officials. Check it out as I have done.

Sincerely,
Pee Wee Pierce

'The Sleeping Prince' Dazzles Audiences with Set, Acting

by Wes Burnett

The first thing that happened when the lights went up at the Garza Theatre during performances of "The Sleeping Prince" last weekend was a broad round of applause for the magnificent set and props.

And when the actors and actresses made their appearances it was obvious that a lot of effort went into costumes as well.

The ladies were dazzling and the men were stunning.

The Garza Theatre cast and crew played to full houses Friday and Saturday evenings and the largest Sunday afternoon attendance in the history of the theatre made this one of the most successful productions yet.

The only complaints I heard came Thursday night during intermission when some members of the audience pointed out "how cool it is in the theatre...can you warm it up a little?"

Actually, that was nice to hear, it means audiences this summer will be comfortable when the temperature outside reaches 100.

From Act I to the closing scene, director Will McCrary and an outstanding cast wowed the audiences with the delightfully funny and romantic comedy.

Showing her maturity and stage presence, Mandy Swafford captured the hearts of audiences in her role as 'Mary', the American show girl in a foreign country.

Rodney Marshall stepped onto the stage with another one of his strong supporting performances, deftly portraying the part of 'Northbrook', the official liaison to the 'Regent', played by McCrary.

I'm not sure what a 'Major-Domo' is, but Lino DeLeon made the part look very convincing as he directed the 'staff' for the 'Regent.'

In other supporting roles, Jerry Fogerson, 'The Butler'; Tommy Loving, 'Footman' and Ab Gutierrez, 'Footman' gave audiences a number of entertaining moments.

Cole LeBlanc burst on stage as the defiant little 'King' and made a real impression on his first time on stage.

May Belle Kern, as expected, was just perfect for the part of the 'Grand Duchess' as she gave a brilliant performance in every scene.

Supporting May Belle as her lady-in-waiting, Shelly Fogerson was right on her mark as 'The Countess'.

Becky McCullough, appearing in her second role on stage, played the part of 'The Baroness'. Garza Theatre 'trooper' Anne Leake came to the rescue Thursday night when Becky was unable to be on stage due to an illness.

Nelda Dalby, new to the stage, gave a flawless performance in her role as the 'The Archduchess', bouncing her laughter off the walls.

Amanda Holly, another newcomer to the stage, showed her stuff as 'The Princess'.

Behind the scenes performances included stage manager Mike Nedela, production manager and costume supervisor Mildred Stewart, costume assistant Easter Briggs, technical assistant Ab Gutierrez;

Lighting design Troy Timms, lighting operator Jay Green, sound operator Chris Redman and backstage assistants Jeffrey Redman and Jennifer LeBlanc.

The next performance at the Garza Theatre will be June 8-11 with "The Prime Of Miss Jean Brodie."

'Sweeping Changes' Seen for City and Downtown

The city of Post and the Central Business District need you on Tuesday, May 9 and Thursday, May 11 from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. - with your rake, hoe and broom.

In an all-out effort to beautify the community, volunteers - clubs, civic groups, students and merchants - will meet at the Algerita Park at 4 p.m. to begin cleaning up sidewalks, alleyways, vacant lots, etc. Plans have been made for heavy trash pick-up as well as brush pick-up.

The "clean sweep" effort is being sponsored by the Post Main Street Project and its Promotion Committee.

All downtown merchants and property owners are asked to participate by reviewing the following checklist:

Windows clean? Sidewalks swept? Grass and weeds pulled from cracks in sidewalk? Grass and weeds cut from alleys? Junk and freight boxes picked up and hauled away? Unsightly items screened from public view? Sidewalks clean of unsightly and unsafe items? Things neat, clean, up-to-date? Exterior woodwork need painting? Trees and shrubs trimmed? Vacant lots clear of weeds, trash, junk? Dilapidated structures repaired or removed?

The "Clean Sweep Week" will end with a Spring Sidewalk sale on Saturday, May 13 beginning at 10 a.m. sponsored by the Post Merchant's Association. Be sure to stop downtown for some terrific bargains.

Anyone interested in participating in the clean-up effort is welcome. For more information, contact the Main Street Office at 495-4157.

Candidates Respond to Requests for Information

Candidate information forms were available at The Post Dispatch for all candidates for public office in the Saturday, May 6 election. However, only two completed forms were returned to the Dispatch by the 5 p.m., Friday, April 28 deadline.

Lewis H. Earl
Candidate for Mayor
Primary reason you seek this office (please be specific).

A number of citizens of Post requested that I seek the position to work against deterioration of the city.

What specific plans do you have if elected?

To continue to seek more business and industry with jobs for Post. To listen to all the citizens at an open office in City Hall for improving jobs and the quality of life in Post. To provide leadership and lend support for better recreation facilities and health care in Post.

What specific problems do you think need to be solved?

(A.) Unemployment and low incomes. (B.) Lack of recreational facilities and opportunities. (C.) Inadequate home health care for many.

What qualifications do you feel you have for this office?

Over 30 years of public community service, including preparing budgets and managing public funds - working successfully with State and Federal offices.

Giles C. McCrary
Candidate for Mayor
Primary reason you seek this office (please be specific).

The past few years, Post has suffered a "triple whammy" in oil, agriculture and the closing of Postex Mill. These events are of such magnitude, that many towns would have given up, but not Post! I would like to remain Mayor to capitalize on the groundwork which has been laid and to see Post on top again.

What specific plans do you have if elected?

I support a major plan that involves economic development and specifically that our sewer system will be good enough to attract an industry at the Postex Mill. I will continue to work toward the realization of the Post Lake. I would like to improve and expand our water system and to continue preventive maintenance of our streets, to keep on top of the situation to assure business and employment growth opportunities. The Council continues to encourage citizen participation, including Advisory Boards to all operating departments of the City (Parks, Zoning, Community Center, etc.) This volunteer effort will be expanded to other areas concerned with the City's future direction.

What specific problems do you think need to be solved?

Some of the city-wide problems which are being solved now include: sewer adequate for a complex industry, a fair and equitable supply of water, water line replacement and expansion, bringing Justiceburg and Post Lakes into reality, continued joint cooperative funding with Garza County, support Garza Memorial Hospital in seeking and keeping medical personnel, continuous examination of system of electing city officials, and refinement of the City's Master Plan.

What qualifications do you feel you have for this office?

I have long had an interest in city government. I came by this interest naturally, as I grew to early manhood during the time when my father was Mayor of Fort Worth. I have been successful in securing grants for our low tax and water rates. I have access to high offices in Austin and Washington, and have and will continue to use my acceptance in these places to the fullest advantage for the City of Post.

RESOLUTION ISSUED - To mark the May 8, 75th anniversary of the establishment of the Cooperative Extension Service and in observance of the anniversary, Garza County Judge E.A. Howard, Jr. issued a resolution officially recognizing and commending the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Present at the signing were (left to right) County Commissioners Herbert Walls, John Valdez, Ted Aten and Sam E. Ellis, and (center) Syd Conner, County Extension Agent.

tion, Extension Program Councils and many other leader groups will join in the 75th anniversary observances, said Dr. Zerle L. Carpenter, director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Many special programs are being planned around the general theme of "A Heritage of Excellence...Building for the Future" as the program is launched May 8.

Carpenter said it is gratifying to look back on successful historical accomplishments, but added that the Extension service in Texas also looks to future challenges and opportunities.

The Cooperative Extension System's statement of mission targets helping people improve their lives through an educational process which uses scientific knowledge focused on local and national initiatives to solve problems.

Carpenter said that with the passage of the Smith-Lever Act, Extension became the dispenser of the largest continuing education program in the world. This is conducted through a network of county Extension agents.

Among special observances that will help launch the 75th anniversary festivities will be proclamations issued by mayors and resolutions from county judges and commissioners, special programs from civic and service clubs, talks by hosts of volunteer leaders working in some phase of Extension Service education, and programs keying on Extension home-maker and 4-H youth efforts and many other special programs.

To help keep the 4-H and youth program in Texas at the forefront are more than 42,617 volunteer leaders who are working with 381,481 boys and girls enrolled in some phase of the youth program, said H.T. "Tom" Davison, assistant director for 4-H and youth with the Extension Service.

Oil Production Continued at 100 Percent

The Railroad Commission has continued the Texas oil production rate for May 1989 at 100 percent of market demand.

Top production allowable was continued after review of oil companies' nominations to buy a total of 1,914,046 barrels of Texas oil per day. The May nomination total, a decrease of 31,951 barrels daily when compared to April purchaser nominations, indicates market demand. May 1988 nominations totaled 2,028,353 barrels daily.

The Commission first went to the ceiling level for oil production in April 1972. It applies to all fields in the state except those that are assigned lower legal rates of production so that reservoir pressures will not be depleted before the maximum amount of oil has been recovered.

Major purchasers filed these May nominations from the floor at the last allowable hearing: Conoco, Inc., 68,800 barrels per day, down 200; Exxon Co., USA, 173,200 barrels, down 7,000; Mobil Oil Corp., 132,000 barrels, down 2,400; and Amoco Production Co., 169,000 barrels, down 3,000.

PHS Sends Four Varsity Girls to Austin

A PRAYERFUL MOMENT - PHS relay team members Sara Alexander, Kim Wulfjen, Crystal Clay and Dana Morris take a moment for meditation just minutes before the beginning of the 1600 meter relay.

Relay Teams, Morris Qualify at Regionals

The Post High School varsity girls' 800 and 1600 meter relay teams swamped the competition at the regional meet in Odessa last Saturday, taking two first place trophies and advancing to state.

Kim Wulfjen, Crystal Clay, Sara Alexander and Dana Morris will compete in Austin May 12 and 13 on the relay teams and Dana will also represent the region in the 100 meter dash.

She placed second in that event at the regional meet, just behind Slaton's Kim Robinson. Dana finished the race with a time of 12.35 seconds.

The 800 meter relay team, running into a stiff northerly breeze

Saturday afternoon, turned in a 1:42.89 time. During the preliminaries Friday afternoon the four-some was clocked at 1:41.50.

The same four girls took first place in the 1600 meter relay with a time of 3:59.53 Saturday, and ran a 4:00.88 Friday in the preliminaries.

Crystal Clay placed third in the 400 meter run with a time of 58.31. Slaton's Robinson took first place in the event with a regional track record.

Crystal also placed fourth in the high jump with a leap of 5' 2".

Sara placed fourth in the 200 meter dash with a time of 25.67.

The team placed second overall at the meet with 62 points, just behind Perryton.

LANNIE LEE gives it all he has in the final 200 meter dash at Odessa, finishing fifth in the race.

Lannie Lee Places Fifth

Lannie Lee placed fifth in the 200 meter dash at the regional meet in Odessa last Saturday and Jamie Perez took seventh.

"Jamie had his best time in his career in the finals," coach Lane Tannehill comments, "and I am real proud of both of these young men."

Jamie ran a 15.34 time in the preliminaries and a 15.03 in the finals.

Lannie won his preliminary heat with a time of 22.5 and improved to 22.4 in the finals.

Smith-Lever Act

FIRST LEG - Sara Alexander gets the relay off to a good start and passes the baton to Crystal Clay.

FINAL HANDOFF - Kim races to the final handoff as Dana Morris takes the baton and heads for the final turn of the 1600 meter relay to put the finishing touches on a first place race.

SECOND TO THIRD LEG - Crystal finds Kim Wulfjen for the third leg of the 1600 meter relay...the team is far out front of the competition.

Salesman Confesses

Claims newspaper is best salesman

On Monday, Jules Wintner, owner of a local retail establishment, confessed his job as a salesman was obsolete due to the impact of newspaper advertising. Wintner, in an exclusive interview, said sales were made in the local paper instead of in the store.

"Sure, we get a chance for additional sales," Wintner commented, "but the newspaper has become our best salesman." Wintner reported that consumers name the local newspaper as their usual source of "Best Buy" information, 10 times more than radio or television. This conforms with a recent Consumer Data Service report that indicated 60% of the consumers seek "Best Buy" information from the newspaper versus only 6% for radio and 7% for television.

Wintner later remarked that because the newspaper is read by all Texans, regardless of income, his business was able to sell both upper end products as well as value priced items. "No matter what we're selling, we get good response in the newspaper," he said. "In fact, the better more expensive the product, the better our response seems to be." This fact is substantiated in a survey by the Texas Newspaper Advertising Bureau that documented readership of the newspaper increases as income increases. In the survey, almost 75% of Texans with incomes exceeding $50,000 a year read

Salesman admits he "never had to sell anything" because of newspaper ads

"Our customers shop the newspaper. When they walk in the door, they already know what they want, they know the price and often have the ad with them."

the newspaper. "My job has become redundant," Wintner admitted. "Used to be I had to really sell each customer, but now I'm just an order taker." Asked what he intended to do now that the newspaper was doing most of the selling, he replied, "Spend more in newspaper advertising than last year."
