

911 service approaches for Garza County

As 911 implementation dates approach, citizens of the South Plains region will hear and learn more about the emergency service. The emergency communication service is due to start in Garza County by the end of December 1991.

The 911 service will provide faster access to public safety agencies in an emergency situation. The 911 lines will be dedicated and 911 call takers will be trained to recognize, answer and handle the call as an emergency.

"Emergency response personnel from public safety agencies are aware of the service, how the 911 system operates, and are humble enough to work with other agencies to provide the necessary assistance needed in an emergency," regional services specialist Ella O'Neal says.

"Overall, 911 will bring the communities closer together," she adds. "This will result in a better working relationship and better communication among public safety agencies and the community, but most of all, 911 will help save lives and property."

"No one knows when emergency assistance may be needed," O'Neal continues. "It is important that citizens, especially children, know what 911 is and when to use it." She cited a recent event in the Dallas area where a child's call saved the girl's mother from bleeding to death.

The intent of the 911 service is for use in an emergency situation to save lives and property, not for hang-ups and pranks.

O'Neal issued the following implementation dates:
 August 1991 - Hockley, Lamb, Floyd and Motley counties.
 September 1991 - Yoakum County.
 October 1991 - Bailey and Lynn counties.
 November 1991 - Crosby County.
 December 1991 - Cochran, Dickens and Garza counties.

Questions about the service may be directed to Mike Pedigo or Ella O'Neal at 762-8721.

Commissioners approve appointment of new home economics agent

Anna Nobles begins duties March 11

by Wesley W. Burnett

Anna Nobles, a native of Colorado City and recent graduate of Texas Tech University, was appointed to fill the county agent for home economics position, following a meeting with the Garza County Commissioners' court Monday morning.

Nobles will assume her duties March 11, moving here from Plainview where she has been training with former Garza County agent Colleen Chadwick.

Dr Kathy Volanty, district extension service director, introduced Nobles and emphasized to commissioners that she was confident in Nobles' abilities, enthusiasm and interest in a long term commitment here.

Nobles is a 1962 graduate of Colorado City High School and earned her Bachelor of Science in Home Economics at Texas Tech in 1990.

In other action, commissioners voted to continue workmen's compensation coverage for elected officials.

Sheriff Freddy Cockrell explained to the court that overtime in the Sheriff's Department was largely due to the inability to recruit a part-time dispatcher. "We just haven't found anyone who can be available when we need them," he added. The sheriff also pointed out that extra help has to be called in when an out-of-town trip to pick up or deliver prisoners is required. "We have six deputies and myself," he added, "and there are times when someone has to come in on overtime, especially during illness."

"I assure you, we are not looking for ways to create overtime," Cockrell emphasized.

City water superintendent Mike Sanchez requested help from commissioners with work on West Main Street, which is expected to begin within the next two weeks. Commissioners agreed to assist with road crews and equipment on the landscaping project.

Justice of the Peace Dee Justice suggested an additional 60 days of work in his office on updating the ambulance records would give a better idea of the financial condition of the organization. Commissioners agreed to the extension and Justice's recommendation for a meeting with the ambulance committee later to review the situation.

Auditor Steve Sawyers presented a good report to the court concerning the financial condition of the county. "Overall," he said, "the county is in real good shape."

Sawyers pointed out that the ending balance for the fiscal year was approximately $50,000 less than last year, but also pointed out that taxable

Living on the edge of the cap

by Lee Howard, County Agent-Agriculture

Buckle up for Love!

This Valentine's Day, parents can show how much they love their children by taking the time to buckle them in safety seats and safety belts correctly. Buckle them up and do it right every time, on every trip. Be part of the Buckle Up for Love! week, February 10-16, 1991. Join the effort that saved the lives of 238 children in 1989 alone.

A study by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration shows that correct safety seat use would prevent about 53,000 injuries and could save about 500 lives each year. That's a lot of hugs and kisses from happy, healthy and safe children for just the moments it takes to protect them in a child safety seat or safety belt.

valuations were down also. He emphasized that the court should watch the current year's expenses carefully, and review monthly progress.

"Collections of delinquent taxes were significantly higher," he said, "which helped offset the decrease in valuations."

Commissioners approved the appointment of Sawyers to conduct an audit of the treasurer's office to provide a "clean slate" for newly elected treasurer Ruth Ann Young. The audit will cover the period from the time of former treasurer Voda Beth Gradine's resignation until the time Young began her duties in the office.

Attending the meeting were commissioners Herb Walls, John Valdez, Albert Stone and Sammy Ellis, Judge Giles Dalby, Clerk Sonny Gossett and Treasurer Young.

Middle Ear Infections In Children

Infections of the middle ear (called otitis media) affect approximately seven out of ten children at least once before their third birthday. By age eight, almost all children have had at least one infection in the middle ear. Children often become irritable and may complain of fullness and pain in the ear. There may be some hearing loss. Some children experience fever as high as 104 degrees with earache. Many of these symptoms result from the presence of bacteria that build up within fluids in the ear. Infection causes tissue swelling which prevents fluid drainage from the ear into the throat by way of the eustachian tube.

The primary treatment of middle ear infections in children involves the use of antibiotics to kill bacteria. Antibiotics commonly prescribed for ear infection include penicillin derivatives and the cephalosporins, a category of powerful and often well-tolerated antibiotics. Steroids (prescription only) may be needed on a short term basis when there is fluid discharge from the ears.

Nonprescription medicines often are useful in dealing with the symptoms of the infection. Fever and pain reducers such as acetaminophen help reduce general discomfort associated with the infection. Decongestants and antihistamines help relieve associated congestion.

Denice Jean Lowe, Benny Ward Kennedy II exchange vows

Denice Jean Lowe became the bride of Benny Ward Kennedy, II, Saturday, at 2:30 p.m., October 13, 1990 in the Bowman Chapel, First United Methodist Church, Lubbock, with the brother of the groom, Rev Jimmy Kennedy, of Decatur, officiating.

Parents of the bride are Mr and Mrs Bill Lowe, Jr of Holly, Colorado.

The groom is the son of Mrs Lois Kennedy and the late Jim Kennedy of Post.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a candle-light Illiso styled gown designed by Demetrios. The fitted bodice, styled with a high scalloped standing lace collar was elaborately beaded with pearls and sequins. The dropped full skirt of candle-light satin had a lace peplum in back to form the satin train trimmed with lace inserts and beaded with pearls and sequins. The gown featured puffed sleeves in satin accented with lace and pearls. The lace forming long fitted sleeves extended in a point to her wrists, and she wore lace wrist-length gloves. The bride chose a shoulder length, double row of pouf veil in candle-light tulle, scattered with pearls and attached to a band of tulle net adorned with pearls and baby breath.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of champagne roses, California ivy, and stephanotis. Following tradition, for "something old", the bride carried a lace handkerchief that was carried by her grandmother and mother on their wedding day. "Something borrowed" was a diamond drop belonging to her mother. A touch of blue was a garter, and she wore a six-pence in her pump. Candle-light satin pumps trimmed in lace and pearls completed her attire.

The Chapel was decorated with the pew ends having red velvet bows tied with roses and baby breath floral arrangements. Illumination at the altar came from four pair of gold candelabra draped with greenery and a Unity candle lit by the bride and groom.

Vocal music entitled the "Wedding Song" and "Annie's Song" was sung by Pam Beatty of Sapulpa, Oklahoma, friend of the bride. The traditional "Wedding March" was played by Patrice Barnett.

Matron of honor was Marcia Dreiling of Alva, Oklahoma, sister of the bride.

Bridesmaids were Karla Lowe, of Holly, Colorado, sister-in-law of the bride, Jo Ann Estes, of Lubbock, Susan Goetz of Phoenix, Ariz., and Judy Shellberg of Lamar, Colorado, all friends of the bride.

Junior bridesmaid were Stephanie Dreiling, Alva, Okla., neice of the bride.

The Matron of honor and Junior bridesmaid wore identical black velvet, two-piece dresses, and the bridesmaids were attired in red velvet, two-piece dresses, featuring floor length slim skirts. The scooped shoulder collars were circled with stitched, crushed velvet roses, matching the color of their dresses. The fitted bodices formed a peplum in front and cascaded to form a dropped peplum in the back. The dresses featured elbow-length puffed sleeves. Matching pumps completed their ensemble, and they carried bouquets of red roses and baby breath.

Flower girl was Brooke Shellberg, Lamar, Colorado. She wore a black velvet floor length dress, with a full gathered skirt, fastened in the back with black crushed velvet roses. Black patent shoes completed her attire.

Best man was the groom's brother, Randy Kennedy of Shallowater.

Groomsmen were Scott Stockton, Ronnie Bilbo, David, Foster, all of Lubbock, J.D. Jones of Slaton, all friends of the groom, and Jarred Kennedy of Shallowater, nephew of the groom.

Serving as ushers were Randy Lowe, brother of the bride, Holly, Colorado and from Decatur, Jimmy Kennedy, Jr., nephew of the groom.

Candlelighters were Ryan Dreiling, nephew of the bride, Holly, Colorado and Joery Kennedy, nephew of the groom from Shallowater. All of the groom's attendants were attired in Christian Dior Salon black tuxedos with black cummerbunds and black bow ties.

A reception followed in the church parlor elegantly decorated in country French decor.

The bride's table was draped in candle-light lace cloth, and accented with red roses floral arrangement. The tiered cake, was decorated with champagne roses and topped with a porcelain musical bride and groom. Red fruit punch, mixed nuts, red roses and champagne bell mints, made by the bride's aunt, Helen Thiesing, of Alva, Oklahoma, were served from silver appointments.

Following a wedding trip to Hawaii, the bride and groom will be at home in Holly, Colorado. The bride is a graduate of Lamar, Colorado High School in 1980 and a Texas Tech University graduate in 1984 with a B.S. degree. She is owner and manager of a restaurant in Holly.

The groom is a graduate of Post High School in 1981 and attended Texas Tech University. He farms and ranches with the bride's father, Bill Lowe, and brother, Randy Lowe, in Holly.

Ford, Cruse on honor list at SPC

Arlon Ford and Angela Cruse of Post are among a total of 555 students that have been named to the combined President and Dean's Honor Lists for the fall 1990 semester at South Plains College. Ford is on the President's List and Cruse is on the Dean's List.

Honor students represent the SPC Levelland and Lubbock campuses and extension program at Reese Air Force Base.

To be named to the President's Honor List, students must maintain a straight A 4.0 grade point average while carrying a minimum 12 semester hours. Students named to the Dean's Honor List must maintain at least a 3.25 grade point average while carrying the same minimum load. "We would like to acknowledge the hard work and academic achievements of these students named to the President and Dean's Honor Lists at SPC," said Dr Orlo Sundre, vice president for academic affairs. "They have proven themselves to be excellent students."

J.V. girls win district title

"These girls played hard all season," coach James Easterling commented, "they won a lot of close games and showed great determination."

The team whipped Seagraves 43-37 February 5 and closed out the year February 8 with a 64-19 shallacking of Tahoka.

In the Seagraves contest Cara Cash led the scoring with 13 points, followed by Becky Shumard with eight, Angela Wallace with seven, six by Angel Hammond, four by Stephanie Cox, three by Krishna Bush and two by Raeline Bagby.

Bush clicked off a sizzling 23 points in the win over Tahoka, as Hammond got 15 more.

Wallace was credited with six, Bridget Williams got five and four each were scored by Cox, Minnie Soria, Wendy Clay and Heather Dickson.

Shumard and Bagby both scored two points.

Edge of the Cap

All 50 states and the District of Columbia have child passenger protection laws. Every person who drives is responsible for protecting the lives of children who ride with them. The good news is that many people have heeded the word. A recent study shows that 83 percent of children under five years of age are buckled in safety seats. The bad news is that about a third of these safety seats are being used incorrectly.

We urge parents and other adults with child passengers to make sure you are using the safety seat correctly to give your children and others the best possible protection. Correctly used safety seats and belts are 71 percent effective in preventing fatalities and 67 percent effective in preventing serious injuries in children under the age of five.

7th grade girls honored

The 7th grade girls A&B basketball teams were treated to an ice cream party by a group of parents Thursday, February 7.

Nineteen girls were taken to the Dairy Queen where they were given their choice of select ice cream treats.

They finished their season with a win over Sundown Monday February 4.

Once children are too old for safety seats, don't forget to keep up the good habit already established. Insist that they wear their safety belts snug and low on the hips.

"This is where I want to be ... in Off-Broadway Theater. About 2000 miles off Broadway!"

"I have spent most of my adult life in the theater. This includes 25 years in New York City as well as time in California and on tour across the United States. But, this is where I want to be. This is where my roots are. I was born here. Five years ago, I came back and started a regional theater. "It has been very successful and a wonderful experience for me. In this area, I have found a refreshing approach to life. There is a great environment in which to pass on my knowledge of the theater. Thomas Wolfe, notwithstanding, you can 'go home again.'"
